Out of this fatal assumption, however, we have been rather violently startled by the extraordinary exhibit of race hate in modern Germany. It came when science with increasing unanimity was decrying the biological evidences of distinct races and the inevitable heritage of racial characteristics. It was exhibited first against a people whose racial and cultural affinity to the Germans extended over many centuries and whose economic status was high and it reached the degree of cruelty and fury which leaves the world still gasping. That racial doctrine and other analogous doctrines includes curiously enough the Poles, the Slavs, Negroes and certainly by implications most Asiatics. This means that with the triumph of Hitlerism or even with failure entirely to subdue him and his ideas, which seems the most likely outcome, the world is in for a recrudence of race hate with all of the economic difficulties which this brings in its train. It is, therefore, necessary that in this land, where more than in any other diverse races have met, mingled and worked together, we should try with all speed to evolve a spirit of interracial tolerance.

Contrasting with these rather cynical and superficial racial explanations of the Negro's position are certain historical reasons. It is said that one must remember that the present generation of Negroes in the United States is only seventy-five years removed from legal chattell slavery. Now when one has said the best that one can concerning slavery it is a condition which if continued long enough is bound to attack and undermine all of the human virtues which go for thirift, independence, inventiveness. Slavery of necessity kept most of its victims in ignorance; it gave little incentive to excell; it could not make their meagre reward depend upon their efforts and it took away practically all of the powerful incentives to ambition. The results then of enslaving a single group of people for nearly three centuries must show long after less than a century of emancipation.

To this other psychological causes must be added. The state of slavery and the incidence of emancipation go deep down into the human consciousness and emotions and give rise to assumptions, hatred and cultural patterns which persist long after legal emancipation. Consequently the black race in America meets discrimination and bitter discrimination based upon the facts of its past history. It meets a disinclination on the part of a large number of employers to give them work or to advance them according to ability. It is under any circumstances difficult to judge the ability of human beings and if you are convinced beforehand of their limitations your judgment also is liable to change with difficulty. They too, and much more important in modern industrial competition for the better paid jobs and indeed today for any job is severe. The white worker, therefore, is not only faced with the difficulty of getting employment at a living wage but with the competition of black workers who are forced for purposes of sheer survival to accept wages which are below the standards of decent living, the white workers, therefore, finds himself not simply fighting for an adequate amount of food, clothing, shelter and education but against a competitor who, to his mind, disgraces the very vocation of work, is below the human standards which ought to be established and deserves to be driven away, starved and even killed. The white workers appeal to public opinion: hire your own folk, disown the inferior interloper; establish separate places, separate standards, separate and different conditions for black workers everywhere.

It is not necessary to pause in order to assess just the relative value and importance of these various criticisms of the American Negro as a worker. It is only necessary to remember that here you have a nation within a nation of thirteen million people, a body of folk as large as the population of Yugoslavia, and nearly twice as large as the combined population of Denmark and Norway who are not today for the most part able to earn a decent living in the United States.

A rough calculation of Negro incomes which I essayed in 1939 had to be largely guess work because of lack of data; and yet it seemed to indicate that of over 2,800, 000 Negro families in the United States, 1,200,000 were receiving less than $500 a year and 1,000,000 between $500 and $1,000; leaving 600,000 families with $1,000 a year, of whom only one-tenth reveived more than $2,500. This estimate is not accurate but I believe that it is not an unfair indication of the truth.

Our first task should be to inquire more narrowly into the historical reasons for these conditions. We may start with the three agricultural crops of the early eighteenth century: sugar, tobacco and cotton. They were sources of such great profit and accumulation of surplus wealth. There were in such general demand and came to be transported so widely a cross the earth that they ushered in a new era of capitalistic production beginning in England and extending to Europe and America. The processing of raw material through the application of machinery and covering long periods of production made the regular advance of wages to hired laborers necessary. These crops began to change the face of the industry and commerce of the world.

At the bottom of these groups were a mass of transported black laborers whose cheap remuneration and maintenance made the profit of raising these crops abnormally large. And by the beginning of the nineteenth century colonial imperialism based on slavery bagan to change except in America. It proved more profitable and a lesser affront to the protesting conscience of the world,to use cheep labor in its own home: Asia and Africa, rather than transport it with loss and cruelty half across the world. Colonial imperialism, therefore, began to be built upon the serfdom of colored labor, and that it itself makes a whole chapter of modern history.

In this paper we are concerned chiefly with the United States where slavery was already established and where there were millions of black workers forming the basis of a profitable and expanding agriculture and industry. These workers, on the other hand,were coming in indirect and direct competition with the growing mass of white laborers, artisans and farmers; with immigrants from Ireland and Germany and native born Americans. What could be done to resolve this situation?

There were at first many remedies proposed. The favorite one was the colonization of American black folk so as to complete and maintain segregation in areas and countries for colored labor. The domination of the white exploiter could be more complete and a hierarchy of nations so arranged that Europe and America would dominate. This colonization of Negroes from America failed to have any particular affect because of the continued demand for Negro labor in the United States as basis of the Cotton Kingdom. The fugitive slave took advantage of that by transfering his labor from the low wage of the South to the higher wage of the North. This, however, brought him again in nearer competition with white labor, with Irish immigrants, with German artisans, with native American farmers and led to riots and discrimination and a stiffening of opposition of slavery and slave territory.

Through Civil War the problem of emancipation forced itself to the front. Not that the war was fought for the purpose of freeing of slaves. Quite the contrary. It was fought for limitation of the slave area and adopted national Union as its slogan. But to maintain national union the political ambition of the South had to be curbed by force of arms. Armies need and must have supplies, laborers, and soldiers. The supplies could be bought by the wealth of the North but the labor force could not be furnished and it was difficult even to keep the army filled with soldiers except by the unpopular draft. There was, however, an evident alternative which forced itself upon the unwilling national administration. The Negro could be used as laborers to support the army. They not only could be used as laborers; they must be used or else sent back to reenforce the resistance of the South. Turning then from its initial policy of restoring to their former masters the slaves who flocked into the Union Army the national administration began to use them as laborers. Then lacking the necessary number of white soldiers they used them as soldiers to hold points which they had seized in Southern territory: the coast of South Carolina, New Orleans, the captured parts of the middle Mississippi and areas in Tennessee. The next step was both logical and necessary. Negro troops were used as shock troops to make possible the junction between the armies of Grant and Banks and control the Mississippi; to withstand the bloody attack of the defense around Richmond and toward the end in nearly all military movements of the Northern armies. The result, of course had to be emancipation and the gratitude of the North for the help of the freedman was great and earnest. What now should have been done and what the wisest leadership advocated, was the long and careful education of the freedmen and his children at the expense of the Federal Government; the furnishing of land and tools and some minimum capital to these people long expoited of all the results of their labor and valuable helpers in the preservation of the union of the country. But the nation at that time was tired of war and expense and was beginning to react as nations always do from the efforts of organized fighting. It was at first moved to let the whole matter drop with giving the Negro nominal and legal freedom and then leaving them at the mercy of their former masters. This deal, however, was a little too raw and affronted the conscience of the nation. A temporary Freedmen's Bureau for the protection and social uplift of the slaves was organized but it was supported on funds furnished largely by the slaves themselves. It received no adequate federal support. It was never properly organized and it existed from year to year and day to day without being made a part of permanent federal policy. Crippled and incomplete as it was, it did a marvelous job in starting the freed slave toward the status of a wage laborer and protecting him against the more outrageous forms of oppression. Before, however, the Freedmen Bureau became a permanent policy of the government, there arose another scheme for using the Negro which so resembled philanthropy and included so much of democracy, that many Americans confounded it with them. That scheme was based on the fact that the negro could as an immediate voter offset the increased political power of the reincorporated Southern states.

Singularly enough this increased power of the South rested on the very fact that the Negro had been emancipated. Each Negro now counted as one in the Southern basis of representation in Congress whereas as a slave he had counted as three-fifths of a man. This would send in time thirty new representatives to Congress ostensibly representing the Southern population but really representing only the whites. The Negro vote could keep that political power from reducing the tariff upon which the new National industry depended; from increasing the national debt by paying for the slaves and the cost of secession or from upsetting the gold standard.

Moreover, with that political power he would have a chance to protect himself against the machincations of his former masters.

This was the scheme which was put through in 1868. It was successful in curbing any attack of the South upon organized industry and it broke the political power of Southern agriculture. It gave the Negroes the beginning of education and some chance as a free laborer. But on the other hadn it greatly increased racial friction and emphasized the Negro scapegoat as a cause of economic disaster; and when Northern capital began to invade the South it found it and its interest to help organize two competiting groups of laborers white and black both striving in part for the same jobs. Immediately the whole South began a movement to deprive black labor of political power while leaving it of necessity in the hands of white laborer. The North acquiesced.

This roughly was the situation when Booker T. Washington, as the leader of the Negro group, began to be troubled about its economic situation. They were threatened by law and violence; they were losing in economic competition with the white workers much of the kinds of work where they had formerly dominated. Mr. Washington relieing on the support of Northern financial interests proposed a compromise: he advised that the Negro say nothing about his political rights, not that Mr. Washington advocated disfranchisement. He did not. But it was a fact and he advised its temporary recognition. Then he advised positive effort on the part of the Negro and his friends to educate the Negro especially for work and for skilled work; for a better grade of farming and for land ownership. He met opposition in this program from a samll but growing class of Negroes mostly the the young educated contigent. They maintaned that industrial education given at the lower levels of only inculcating present skills did not furnish the American Negro that educated leadership in economics, politics and social progress which was absolutely necessary. They pointed out that skills changed and sometimes rapidly and that the Negro must be in position to think for himself and guide his own development.

There appeared also, although less vocal at the time, determined opposition among white laborers who were now uniting into strong unions; and were determined to exclude Negroes from the better paid work. Not only that but the unions almost without exception girded themselves as a solid phalanx to exclude the Negro from any new skills, from learning the use of any new mechanical contrivances and from entering into the improved techniques of modern life.

Thus with few exceptions the Negro could not work in electricity, could not work in radio, was largely excluded in the moving picture industry and in the industries surrounding the airplane. He was not thought of in the new public utilities and continually the advance of America in efficient contrivances for catering to human wants was taking place without employing the Negro and on the other hand by confining him to decadent and low-paid skills. So far as possible the trades unions and many vocational authorities united in forbidding the state to teach industry to Negroes except in lines of domestic service and farming.

To see what the results of this movement were we must remember other happening which followed Negro economic exclusion. No sooner was the Washington philosophy dominant in the last decades of the nineteenth century than a movement took place throughout all the Southern states beginning with Mississippi in 1890 and ending with Georgia in 1909 to complete and make legal the disfranchisement of the Negro vote in the South. This was followed by a legal caste system of segregation and discrimination on common carriers, in civil rights and public service. Public opinion became habituated to a color caste system which supplemented this legal basis.

On the other hand, in general industry mass production and monopoly became widespread; skills changed, the factory system extended and agriculture found increasing difficulty in obtaining normal profits or paying reasonable wages. One can see the result of this historical development in the occupations of American Negroes. There were in 1930 five and a half million Negroes at work. They were employed in the following occupations. (The proportions have changed somewhat in the last ten years but not radically.) There were in 1930 two million Negro farmers. A small proportion of them were land holders, most of them were tenants and farm laborers. This large group of Negro workers were bound to the soil for historic reason. They were in many cases only partially free; their right to move from the plantation where they were working was hindered by law and custom; their wages were in part regularly and often paid in kind and their general condition was bad with low standards of living, little educational and cultural opportunity and caste restrictions which interferred with ambition and self-expression. The plight of these agricultural laborers has seriously worsened in the last ten years so that the number of farmers today among Negroes is less than it was ten years ago and their condition so diffecult that it is hard to say what is going to become of them unless united effort on the part of the federal and state governments and philanthropic organizations come to their rescue.

In part, of course, this plight of the Negro farmer is only one phase of the plight of the farming industry throughout the world. The raiser of raw material has been for years at a severe disadvantage over against organized industry, the power and collusion of manufacturers and the common carrier. This is recognized in the great effort which the United States has put forth under the New Deal to rescue the mass of American farmers from complete catastrophe. The benefits of these New Deal efforts have reached the Negro farmer but only here and there and with great difficulty. He is still the major economic atastrophe of the United States. Negro land holders during this period of depression decreased from two hundred twenty thousand to one hundred eighty thousand.

Next to the farmers come a million and a half Negro servants. They represent, of course, widely different conditions both of income, work and status. On the whole they are quite unorganized, quite outside the efforts at relief, security and rehabilitation the nationa, the states and the community have initiated. They represnet particularly among the mass of women servants the last resort of workers to support families where the man is unemployed and where there is not other remunerative effort in sight. Most of these servants, therefore, are as economically hopeless in their condition as the Negro farm tenants.

There were one hundred thousand miners who again faced the difficulties of a line of work suffering from our present industrial organization and one hundred thousand or more white collar workers who suffer from difficulties in obtaining admission to government service, public utilities and industry where they might be capable of work ing but almost sure to meet color discrimination.

This accounts for over three and a half million, by far the larger portion of Negro workers. To these may be added nearly one and a half million other workers. They form the workers in factories and handicrafts and the workers in transport. In their case the difficulties and different. The work which they do is important onthe whole, well-paid and this is the place if any where the results of industrial training should show. But skilled Negro workers in these lines meet two difficulties: first the change in the character of skilled work his is characteristic of this industrial effort and secondly, the efforts of organized labor to monopolize skills. The men who were trained in the days of Booker Washington's emphasis upon industrial training received for the most part industruction in carpentry, masonry, blacksmithry, forging, sewing, printing, painting, tailoring and various lines of farming. In nearly all these lines of work methods have changed: the planing mill has partly displaced the carpenter; the type-setting machine has transformed the work of the printer; machinery of various sorts has changed the vocation of the blacksmith and iron worker; the garment trades have organized sewing and tailoring; farming has its new techniques and machinery and in nearly every line of work skills have changed.

Not only this but the power of the organized craft unions has vastly increased and has been used for the most part to exclude Negroes as such. The railway unions, without exception, exclude the admission of a Negro as a member no matter what his skill or experience. The list of other unions excluding Negroes includes the boiler makers and shipbuilders, the machinists, the pilots, the railway mail associations, the wire weavers and the telegraphers while in a large number of the other strong unions obstacles are regularly put in the way of Negro members. This means that those Negroes who are working in factories and in the handicrafts are for the most part common laborers and only in a minority of cases skilled workmen. There have been changes in the last decade; there are a larger number of skilled men working in steel, automobile shops and some other lines of work. Certain unions under the CIO have facilitated Negro membership but on the whole the Negro skilled worker meets not only the difficulty of all skilled workers in getting well-paid employment in industry but the additional and almost fatal exclusion by the stronger trades unions.

In addition to that we have two hundred thousand Negroes in various kinds of business. For the most part this includes insurance and retail trade and it meets the difficulty of investing and credit facilities so far as insurance companies are concerned and additional difficulties in policy, the same kind of trouble that the white insurance companies had in other days. The Negro retail distributor is confronted with the competion of chain stores and the difficulties of wholesale methods and prices.

In professional service there were some one hundred fifty thousand Negroes. The include ministers, teachers, doctors, lawyers and dentists. They are usually except in the case of the older generation of ministers well-trained men but they face one peculiar difficulty and that is they serve for the most part their own group and consequently their success depends entirely upon the economic status of their constituents. So long, therefore, that two million Negro farmers, a million and a half servants and a million and a half factory and transport workers, nearly nine-tenths of all Negro workers are in economic difficulties with low income they cannot support adequately a professional class.

It will thus be seen by considering the history and conditions of the Negro worker that no theories of race differences or inherent peculiarities are necessary to explain the plight of the American Negro worker. That plight is due in the first place to the general public opinion of America. Just so long as an American public thinks that Negroes ought not to live on the economic plane of white people and that their admission to places of power, influence, and efficiency is in some obscure way a threat to the white race just so long the American Negro is going to work under a severe economic handicap.

In addition to that so long as the laborers persist in the attitude that their object is to make such alliance with the exploiting employers that they can sharge his profits at the expense of under-paid common labor just so long the Negro along with the mass of white laborers is going to be the victim of this union policy. Onthe other hand, if general industrial organization of common labor is carried out by the CIO, without yielding to racial and social prejudice, that movement will in the long run do something to change public opinion and to mitigate the growing friction between economic classes. A demand then for the union of the two branches of the labor movement, the A F of L and CIO, is really in essence a demand that the basic idea of one or the other of these organizations be surrendered. It would be a calamity to have broad industrial labor organization surrender to the demands of closed craft unionism.

Finally, there is a third partial remedy. While Negroes are seeking to change public opinion by logical appeal and to force their way into the closed shop they can undoubtedly do a great deal through organization of their power as consumers. They can try so far as possible to cease spending their money where they are not allowed to work. They can mass their expenditures so as to get better prices, better quality of goods and wider employment. And theycan at least begin the effort to make their demand for goods and services, which is large despite their small income, become the basis of efforts in production and service which will raise their economic level. Such movements in themselves cannot settle the economic race problem in the United States in defiance of an unfriendly public opinion and of an only partially sympathetic labor movement by consumer and producers cooperation among thirteen million people can have vast influence on public opinion on the one hand and on the labor movement on the other. It is especially the kind of movement which looks forward to the widespread economic change which is coming after the war and which is bound to include an increase inconsumers consciousness as contrasted with our present producers economy.

If the present war closes leaving the problem of the status of the colored races and colonial peoples untouched, then it is idle to believe that the couses of future wars will have been removed. Our great danger is that in considering the peace for which we all yearn, we are more or less unconsciously thinking of peace between European peoples and would be willing to buy that peace by a more equitable distribution among those peoples, of opportunity to exploit the rest of the world. The right of peoples in Asia, Africa and the island to have a decisive voice in their own destiny; to say how far their industry and their education shall serve them and not Europe and white America, would mean that the income and profits of the white peoples of the world would be decreased. It is a grave question, if after a war of phenomenal destruction, there could be found in the white world enough of the spirit of sacrifice and enough keenness of foresight, to realize that only by foregoing the extraordinary profit of colonial exploitation and yielding the beginnings of industrial and political democracy to the colored world can peace on earth become a reality.

THE FUTURE OF WILBERFORCE
by
W. E. Burghardt Du Bois

I first saw Wilberforce University in September, 1894. Only two months previously I had returned from the University of Berlin and had finished there a continuous education which lasted from my sixth to my twenty-sixth birthday. I was at the time full of ideals, quick and arrogant in judgment, with many personal idiosyncrasies. I walked onto this campus, carrying my gloves in one hand and my cane in the other, according to the best fashion of the German student of that day. Yet I was not altogether impossible; I was comparatively indifferent, for instance, to the matter of money. This was the first salaried job that I had ever held and yet I refused an offer of $1,050 at another institution for the $800 offered here, because Wilberforce meant something to my imagination. I had heard its name since I was a child. On May 24, 1856 one of the midnight endorsers who made the purchase of Wilberforce possible was John Du Bois a member of a family from which I descend. I taught at Wilberforce two years: Greek, Latin, German and English and begged in vain to add Sociology to the load; I married a Wilberforce girl; I made here life-long friends like Paul Laurence Dunbar and Charles Young; and for the forty-six years since my first coming, I have known every president of Wilberforce University and visited the campus at least once during their administrations, and in some cases many times. At one of the sessions of the older Board of Trustees I was elected an honorary alumnus.

Notwithstanding all this, I was from the moment I stepped on this campus until today, an outspoken critic of Wilberforce. This was true not because I disbelieved in Wilberforce or underrated its work, but for exactly the opposite reason. From the first, I had for Wilberforce the very highest ideals: I wanted for it nothing cheap, second hand, or inferior; I pictured growing up here a great university, not simply Negro, Not simply American, but a University in the full sense of those famous institutions of learning with which I had been connected for six years in the United States and in Europe. With all the impetuosity of youth, I had not the slightest doubt of the possibility of building up such an institution here. I can imagine the astonishment with which persons heard my first lecture here. It was a sort of inaugural address attending my advent as professor after the German fashion, in which I outlined with perfect confidence the plan of an institution, unlimited in breadth and efficiency. My dreams were not wholly built on air. I took into account the extraordinary geographical situation of Wilberforce: practically in the longitudinal center of the Negro population of the United States, and yet in latitude North of Mason and Dixon's line. I was thrilled by the natural beauty of this place and uplifted by the romantic history of its founding. Because of this very dream and high ideal, I was from the first bitter and uncompromising at every act which did not agree with, and every plan that did not lead toward the sort of institution I had in mind.

The result was that after only two years' experiment I left Wilberforce. I was not kicked out but that was only because I moved before the inevitable swing of the boot. Eventual dismissal was certain and I had sense enough to see it. But notwithstanding that my interest in this school instead of waning, if anything, increased; my criticism of its shortcomings has never ceased and equally I have never lost my belief in its possibilities.

I come, therefore, again, in my role of open and frank critic of Wilberforce University and in an attempt to guide its possible future. I would have you believe that there lurks in what I am going to say, nothing of personal pique or disappointment. There is nothing that I desire of Wilberforce University. I have no scores to settle. For the most part those with whom I was intimately associated while here are long since dead. I never saw President Walker until today. I do not know the head of the combined normal and industrial department. Some few of the teachers I do know but for the most part I have not seen or heard from them for near a decade. In a sense then I come both as an old friend and yet to most of you as a stranger; but to all as one who knows the history of Wilberforce University, who has followed this history with intense and vivid interest and who speaks with only one idea in mind: that, rising out of the muddle and dispute, failure and promise of the present situation, there should eventually arise a Wilberforce which would be recognized by any standard as one of the great institutions of learning in the United States.

As you know quite as well as I, this is not the case today. I am deeply disappointed that it is not. Even as I left here as a teacher in the summer of 1896, I firmly believed that a half century would see the institution established in accord with some of the ideals that I had and had expressed. This has not happened. I come back forty-six years after to find the institution still desperately lacking in most things that a great university demands.

The scientific output of this institution in books and articles, in literature and art, in technical efficiency and economic organization falls so far below the standard of great schools that one searches almost in vain for tangible evidence of scientific work done by Wilberforce professors and graduates. There are some to be sure but they stand out in the midst of a great desert. You have not produced great scholars or scientists, great technicians nor great thinkers, and yet there is no earthly reason why you should not have done this. Let me illustrate by the case of one of the smaller colored colleges. In two decades of work between 1919 and 1939 the teachers and graduates of West Virginia State College published thirty-three books and monographs, one hundred fifty-five articles and prepared thirty-one unpublished manuscripts, a total of two hundred nineteen pieces of scientific work which is, if I mistake not, at least ten times the output of Wilberforce. One encouraging effort in recent days, the Wilberforce University Quarterly, I hailed with new hope, but I fear now this will be a casualty of the late war. The quality of educational work done here for more than half a century has never until recently, ~~and then tentatively,~~ received recognition as being in accord with the standards of the nation. You have not so established yourself in this country as to make it unnecessary for a first class student to apologize for attending Wilberforce University rather than Ohio State or the University of Chicago. You have been content for a half century to do second-grade work and to make voluminous and frequent excuses therefore.

In addition to this, and perhaps in a sense even more significant, is the situation of this surrounding community. Forty years ago, Xenia was an important manufacturing and commercial center. Wilberforce was a prosperous farming district. One had a right to believe in 1895 that the middle of the twentieth century would see here in southern Ohio, a thriving economic center with prosperous manufactures and commercial enterprises and with a large and growing colored community here of home owners, farmers, merchants, scientists and technicians; not only comfortable and self-supporting but a respected and integral part of the economic and social organization of the Middlewest. I know the blighting effect of war and depression and difficulties of economic maladjustment race prejudice; and yet it seems to me that it apparently has not occurred to this community that any development of the sort was possible under Wilberforce leadership. In appearance and character, in occupation and ambition, the Wilberforce community looks like a center of stagnation, lack of ambition and in a certain chilling sense, lack of hope. The surrounding country and Xenia have deteriorated and when a few weeks ago I wanted to get a through-train from Chicago to Xenia the nearest I could get was Dayton. That would have been a joke in 1900. On the other hand, the physical expansion of Wilberforce has been great in the amount of land controlled, in the number of buildings, in the size of its student body. Buildings like this hall, like the library and several of the dormitories are striking evidence of growth and yet even here you who have seen the marvelous physical expansion that has taken place in other Negro institutions throughout this country know that Wilberforce is behind. In the growth of its faculty, in the caliber of its teaching and facilities for teaching Wilberforce has also grown but here it has lagged far behind similar institutions.

There is one other thing that may seem to you unimportant and aside but it looms to vast size in my thought; and that is, the way in which you have conceived and the way in which you have treated, the natural beauty of your surroundings. Here is a lovely undulating land with beautiful trees, grass and wild flowers, with roads winding naturally between the hills and with little brooks and rivers murmuring day and night through broad meadows. As it seems to me you have looked upon this beauty as a thing to be leveled, flattened and scarred. That your ideal would be something slick and square, with brooks hushed, rivers put underground and hills pressed down into the earth. Consider, for instance, the ravine, one of the loveliest natural possibilities of Greene County. It begins with the old main road of Wilberforce and stretches down, widening and deepening to the green meadows and river below. It is a God-created center of natural beauty and development, a potential amphitheatre, a focus around which a university could be ranged, set in the very midst of this community. It was this murmuring vale of healing waters that back in the early nineteenth century attracted people of leisure to Tawawa Springs to drink in its crystal clarity and loll in leisure under the great branches of its oaks and elms. Since then this community has done everything that it could to shame and obliterate the ravine. In my day already they were using it as a refuse dump. Later they made it the center of a sewage disposal area; but recently they have piled mud in its center to make an extra road. I can remember how once as young teachers protesting against the beginning of profanation of this marvelous beauty spot, we planned to give Shakespeare's "Midsummer's Night Dream" in the ravine ranging the auditors upon its sloping sides and playing in its flower covered depths. We wanted to raise money for a library. The library in 1896 occupied a room half the size of this rostrum. It was kept locked. I chased Professor Scott over this campus for a week to get the key. We determined to transfer the library to the little used double parlors and to raise funds for this by this pageant in the ravine. The way our plan was stopped was prophetic: a powerful bishop in 1896 had decided to appoint his good-for-nothing son as a professor in this school. We stopped our midsummer night's dream to stage a ~~church-wide~~ strike and protest. In the end we won temporarily; the eventual loss of our jobs became merely a matter of time.

Why now has Wilberforce failed as an institution of learning to reach the heights toward which it must eventually climb if it survives, and why as a community has it failed to become neat, prosperous, beautiful and self-supporting? You know the answer which the average white citizen of Ohio gives to this question: he simply says "Negroes!" That would not disturb me so much in itself, were it not for the fact that the average colored citizen of the nation is coming to say the same thing. Literally dozens among the best Negroes of Ohio with whom in recent years I have talked concerning Wilberforce have all come to the fatalistic conclusion that you cannot expect an ideal development in education or community life here simply because colored people are in control. If I believed that I would not be here. But I do not believe it. And I do not believe it, because I have had opportunity in the last quarter century to see at first hand the kind of development which is taking place in Negro institutions of learning where the same problems that you face here are being attacked and solved.

I have already told you that ~~at the same time~~ when I was offered work at Wilberforce University, a position at what was then Lincoln Institute in Jefferson City, Missouri was open for me. I refused the larger salary offered there because Lincoln Institute at the time was the well-known plaything of graft and petty politics. The president of the Institute could only hold his job by handing over to members of the trustee board a part of the money which the Institute was overcharged by the merchants who sold it supplies. Appointments to positions in the Institute were matters of petty political deals, personal likes and dislikes and pool-room politics. There were no standards of instruction or educational accomplishment, and there were cheap buildings with a small enrolment of students who came because they could go nowhere else. Today Lincoln University of Missouri is not yet re-born but its birth pains are distinctly audible. It has driven partisan politics out of the institution. It has killed several presidents in the process but the deed is about done. It has secured a steadily increasing income, more adequately paid professors, new buildings and better prepared

I saw last year the Florida Colored State College at Tallahassee after an interval of twenty-five years. I was astonished. From a ramshakle agglomeration of few buildings, few teachers and indifferent students it has today manificent buildings and a thousand college students; and while its salaries are still too low and its standards of scholarship not as high as they must be, it is a growing and developing college. The same can be said of Virginia State College at Petersburg; the thoughtful planning of that campus, the disappearance of the eye-sore which was long its main building, the number of well-trained men who have regularly and consistently been appointed to the faculty and given security of tenure and encouragement for graduate study and scientific work, is one of the finest pieces of academic accomplishment in the South.

The possible relation of a college to its community is illustrated at Prairie View, Texas. So astonishing has been this development that when recently a white president of a great Northwestern state wanted to know how his institution could best get into helpful touch with its community, the trustees of the General Education Board referred him to the Texas Colored State College at Prairie View. The president of that college is in close connection with every secondary school in the state; he has records of every Negro student about to be graduated from every high school in Texas; he is continuously studying the economic condition of colored folk in every part of the state; he is bringing them regularly to Prairie View for conference and discussion at the rate of over ten thousand actual visitors a year. Adjoining the campus is today being developed a settlement of a score of 140 acre farms financed by the Federal Government, and for that settlement, industry and occupations outside of farming and teaching are already being carefully planned and carried out.

Or suppose we turn to some of the older institutions: Fisk, Howard and Atlanta University. A record of the books and articles published by professors and graduates of these institutions in the last year form a contribution to American literature recognized over the whole country. These books are reviewed in the leading periodicals of the nation; the research of their laboratories is recognized even in Europe; the standards of scholarly accomplishment are being set just as high as those in white institutions. In other words, what can be done at Wilberforce is already being done by colored folk in all parts of the nation and in no case have these people had the natural and geographical advantages, the social freedom and the political power that you have here.

Not in race nor character, not in ability nor power do the failures of Wilberforce find root. What are then the main reasons of the difficulties which have beset your path? We ourselves in moments of depression are prone to blame our blood for every failure and misfortune, but to know the truth we must address ourselves first to the historical rise of this institution and see what obstacles it has encountered and how it has tried to surmount them and what the results of these efforts in our day have been.

Looking into the historical threads that were woven into the web of this institution | I can descry three sets of human beings | whose efforts have made Wilberforce | and who have been responsible in large part for its successes | and its failures. First came three extraordinary figures: Daniel Payne, John Mitchell and Benjamin Lee. If ever three saints strove without thought of self and with utter devotion to the highest ideals which they could conceive | to build here a worthy monument for your worship, | these were the men. | Two of them I knew personally and one died but the year before I came to Wilberforce, | leaving a memory singularly vivid and green. | It is not often that it is given any group of human beings | to command the services of three such men. Daniel Payne, the little bishop, short, slight, shrivelled, was a man of plodding learning, of austere personal morality, of unflinching firmness and indefatiguable energy; no thought of himself or of his own interest ever stood for a moment between him and what he thought best for Wilberforce University, | for the African Methodist Church, | and for the Negro race. | John G. Mitchell, large, calm and placid, starved for thirty-seven years to make a real theological seminary here, living always serenely above the clouds, with a firm and unshakeable belief in a higher world and in its intimate causal relations with this earth. | Benjamin Lee came later. He was a more practical man | who knew evil, looked it squarely in the face | and fought it doggedly; | he was intensely earnest, solemn in soul and action, impatient of dishonesty, greed and sensuality | and always striving desperately to do | and make others do | what seemed to him exactly the right thing. With these three men, this college started on a high and ideal plane | with little money but with great and unselfish hopes.

There came afterward, connected in various ways with this institution and with the church, three hammers: powerful, ambitious but ruthless men who represented force and driving power | unhampered by ideals; who had no inhibitions of learning or social standards | but drove a way through all sorts of obstacles; and under their leadership both the church and the school lurched now forward and now back. Contemporaneous with these men ~~were~~ later were three politicians, who represented compromise and adjustment. They were victims rather than leaders; they were the buffers between Ideals of Power, Good and Evil, Theory and Practice. They handled the Church and the State, the public and the school, the teachers and the students. Many were gifted men who had to do unpleasant things and devise devious paths in a crooked world. One man, who belonged to this class of leaders was president of this school when I came, Samuel T. Mitchell.

Samuel Mitchell faced a most difficult problem. Another sort of man, a man like Payne, Mitchell or Lee would have ~~faced~~ handled his problem differently, ~~with stern unbending ideals, with unwavering faith and unchecked energy~~. But Mitchell was more ~~modern~~ subtle and faced a more complex modern world. He was a small, handsome man with captivating manners. He influenced men; he was extraordinarily successful in conference and personal meeting; he stooped to conquer. He came to the presidency of Wilberforce in 1884 and remained until the last year of the nineteenth century. I once blamed Samuel Mitchell severely for his course of action. But time and experience have explained much, if not all. He faced the same problem that you face: how can the church of a poor working people support an increasingly costly system of education? Mitchell worked hard to increase income and in his administration it rose fifty per cent higher than ever before. But at that it was miserably inadequate. He must get more, but how?

During his day the problem of the church and education was apparently settled but in fact was beginning momentous change. It went without saying before 1900, that churches should promote education, establish colleges and conduct universities. The Union of church and education seemed in that day logical and almost inevitable. Already, however, the burden of supporting education with limited church funds and expanding church programs was beginning to be felt and, the alternative had long seemed to be the accumulation of endowments. Thus most of our greater universities like Harvard, Yale and Princeton starting as denominational schools gradually accumulated endowment funds sufficient to make them independent of the churches and the connection was gradually severed.

Wilberforce had long kept before her this ideal of endowments but there was no precedent then of rich white folk amply endowing a colored institution and there were no rich Negroes. But poor Negroes

The AME Church tried to relieve this situation by heroic efforts to increase its gifts to education. With the appointment of a Secretary of Education in 1884, the AME Church responded so that by 1900 it was raising $20,000 a year. This was a notable effort. ~~Bishop Payne in the thirteen years of his presidency had raised about $10,000 a year for Wilberforce. Lee and Mitchell had increased this to $15,000 a year but this was not nearly enough.~~ If all the money raised for education in the Church could have been concentered upon Wilberforce, which was Payne's original idea, the situation would have been well in hand. But in 1904, the church educational fund was being distributed among twenty-five institutions, including ten colleges which averaged less than $3,000 a school. But particularism was too strong: every bishop, each district, each state wanted in a Negro Needed its school. The cost of raising funds for Wilberforce both in actual money and effort became prohibitive.

Moreover, at this time throughout the nation the state was coming in and beginning to support higher education. This support was not altogether effective because it involved a great deal of petty politics and selfish bargaining and consequently low standards in teaching appointments and in scholarship. No one then could have foreseen that in the course of less than a half century, higher education would be very largely in the hands of the state with the prospect that before long the privately endowed or church-supported institution will have largely disappeared.

Samuel T. Mitchell finding increasing difficulty in raising funds and yet the educational demand expanding, conceived the shrewd bargain of 1889. With his inimitable charm and ability to fascinate and convince, he succeeded in the face of the prohibitions of the state constitution and in spite of the dust fears of church leaders, in bringing about a certain sort of union between the State of Ohio and the African Methodist Episcopal Church for the support of Wilberforce. As we can now see, it was a dangerous compromise and the time may come when we will look back upon this as the cause of the eventual collapse of this institution. But that will only be if in the face of continued friction and upheavals that have followed the bargain, we throw up our hands, refuse to look facts in the face and fail to grasp the plow that is before us and the real furrow that can yet be run.

What have been the results of this consolidation of the AME school, Wilberforce University, and the State of Ohio as owner of the combined normal and industrial department at Wilberforce? First of all there has been a serious combination of the church and politics. From 1856 to 1889, Wilberforce had become the political capital of the AME Church and its nation-wide membership. Here the little Bishop, Daniel Payne, as senior prelate of the church ruled. Power became concentrated in his hands, through his extraordinary moral purity, his unselfish ideals and his indomitable energy. All of the rulers of the Church came to Wilberforce to consult him; Bishops' Councils were held here; general officers and general policies were decided upon. The senior bishop knew the characters of everybody in the church: when this man aspired to the bishopric - No, said the little bishop, he is not an honest man! No, he is not a moral man! No, he is lazy and selfish and will not work!

When Bishop Payne died, it meant that what had been an ecclesiastical dictatorship in strong, honest, unwavering hands became a matter of wide intrigue, manipulation and political arrangement. The well-being and interests of Wilberforce became inextricably intermingled with the interests, and often the selfish personal interests, of the church leaders. The so-called board of trustees of Wilberforce University was a body of hundreds of men distributed all over the United States, only a minority of whom ever came to any meeting and c a me then, most of them, because of church politics and not because of their interest in Wilberforce.

I remember vividly the first meeting of the trustees while I was here. As they began to swarm in I took my cane and gloves and went to the woods for a long walk.

"Where have you been?" asked my colleagues.

"To the woods," I answered, innocently.

They threw up their hands. "That's not the thing to do; when trustees come to Wilberforce," they said. And they were right.

When now President Mitchell in his effort to raise funds projected this pditically-minded Wilberforce into State politics and thus more than doubled the available income of the school, it was natural for ministers, bishops and presidents of Wilberforce to dabble further in partisan politics until they have helped emphasize that very interference of politics with education which it has been the desperate effort of state universities all over America for fifty years to avoid.

This situation did not however develop immediately in the case of Wilberforce. As Mitchell conceived the consolidation there was to be one head of the combined institutions; the state institution was to be in fact a department of Wilberforce University, although the legal phrase had it "at Wilberforce University."

Italics

The policy which has developed concerning the relation of the state department and the university is interesting to review: first came the logical action, back to which the State and the University must revert if this institution is to grow and develop properly, that is, the president of the university was also superintendent of the combined normal and industrial department. This is the only way in which one institution with a single policy can be built up. President Mitchell was at the head of both departments from the beginning of State aid until 1896, — seven years.

Such a combination, however, presupposes that the interests of the State as well as the University not only be combined but carefully looked after by the single head, so that neither party to the combination would feel under-rated or cheated. The feeling arose under President Mitchell that the State was being used simply for its money and as an unimportant adjunct to the University.

The next step of the State was characteristic but not radical. It appointed a separate head for the State department, but chose for the position a man long connected with Wilberforce University, the son of one of its founders and absolutely loyal to its ideals, J. P. Shorter. Shorter was a strict administrator and careful business man and he supplemented President Mitchell's ability to handle persons and compose differences by his own accuracy and executive methods. This went on for fourteen years and the two parts of the institution worked in considerable, if not perfect harmony. The main difficulty which now began to show itself and later was emphasized was that the Normal and Industrial Department had more money than the university, and yet was the subordinate partner.

Then soon after the advent of President Scarborough, there came a momentous change: the State appointed as superintendent a well-trained young man as an educator and also experienced as executive and business man. President Scarborough, on the other hand, was a scholar and a theorist in no way designed for the details of administration and with little liking for it. The inevitable happened; the real presidency of Wilberforce was gradually transferred to the State side. The Normal department went forward by leaps and bounds. It bought lands and built buildings; It organized its curriculum; it paid its teachers good salaries; it developed far-sighted plans; while the University hung on as a sort of poor relative of the dominant owner and was really supported by State charity. When the administrations changed in 1920, and Gregg came as president, while Joyner retired, there came a third policy irregularly and less clearly developed: the head of the normal department became more and more a fiscal officer and neither a trained educator nor a conspicuous executive. This tended to separate the two institutions and friction arose and multiplied. Almost, it can be said, two separate and rival institutions appeared here ~~distinct in plan and aim~~ - one with power and no money, the other with money and no clear policy.

It was almost inevitable during the years from 1900 to 1940 that into this situation petty State politics should begin to intrude, and this was in no small part the fault of the AME Church and of Wilberforce University itself. From the time that Samuel T. Mitchell found that political manipulation could bring funds to Wilberforce, from that time on the temptation on the part of the Church to work this source was difficult to withstand. Bishops, presiding elders, ministers and presidents of the institution became politicians and worked for what they thought was either their own advantage or the advantage of Wilberforce. Other colored people in the state not connected with the AME Church saw no reason why they should not share the spoils. The caliber of the persons appointed to the board by the State gradually decreased. In earlier years some of the best known people of the state, white and black, served upon the board of the normal and industrial department. They were replaced as time went on by persons who, whatever their other qualifications were, had often never attended college, knew little about college problems and certainly had not been trained or experienced in the technical work of administering an institution of education.

Throughout the United States it has been found that in state universities, this tendency has had to be met and fought and stopped. In the University of Wisconsin, the University of Michigan, the University of Illinois, Indiana University, in all the Negro land grant colleges, and in other institutions it has taken the voters a quarter of a century to learn that appointments in an institution of learning cannot be used to reward political support or to give jobs to friends, or as matters of personal sympathy.

Education is a great and serious end. It has to do primarily not with soils and crops, not with stone and iron, but with the souls of your own children and thus with the future of the Negro race in America. It is becoming one of the greatest functions of government. If it is seduced, and cheapened, and ruined by putting in charge of it people, who however worthy they may be personally in many respects, are ignorant of the difficult technique of carrying on the training of youth, the whole program is ruined. This is the sort of thing that has happened and is happening to Wilberforce University. Perverted standards have come in. In the eyes of many quite honest people it seems to be natural that the teaching jobs at Wilberforce should be handed around to people whom they like and taken away from people they don't like. The question as to what sort of man ~~he~~ one is: whether truthful or a liar; dignified or a clown; an earnest worker or a lazy wastrel does not concern them. They do not inquire whether the candidate knows his subject and knows how to teach it. They assume without reflection that there should be appointed to the faculty and upon the trustee board anybody who is a friend to the governor; that if there is a person at Wilberforce or elsewhere who has been unfortunate, who has suffered, who has not received the consideration that he ought to, that a perfectly legitimate way to settle this difficulty is to appoint him professor ~~of psychology~~ or dean ~~of the social sciences~~ even though everybody knows he cannot perform his duties because of congenital unfitness or crass ignorance.

Nor do these perverted standards stop here. Indeed they did not begin here. In the case of the church and the university, it has become a sort of unwritten law that the bishop of this district should be a sort of super-president; that he should rule the University and at the same time dictate to the board of trustees and also enter into political understanding with the State. This puts the president in an impossible position: he must placate the bishop of Wilberforce; he must be on good terms with bishops of other districts, who are furnishing funds for Wilberforce; he must keep in touch with the officials of the State; he must try to bring into line the man whom the State for any reason, political or personal, appoints at the head of the Normal and industrial department; and then incidentally he must keep a faculty and a body of students at their proper tasks. No human being can successfully occupy such a place.

Here then is the situation that confronts us. What is to be done about it? When some years ago, the professor of history in Howard University, Charles Wesley, was considering ~~the matter of~~ accepting the presidency of Wilberforce University, I wrote him hurriedly and said: Under no circumstances accept the presidency of Wilberforce unless at the same time you are made head of the combined normal and industrial department.

The path of progress before Wilberforce is clear and inevitable: first there must be one head to this institution. Anything else, spells friction, lost effort and eventual disaster. It will be difficult to bring this about. There will have to be a re-arrangement of trustee boards and new understanding with State officials. This can only be done by a determined effort on the part of the colored people of Ohio, the AME Church and Wilberforce University to convince the world that what they want here is not jobs for their friends or religious bigotry or the settlement of personal grudges, but a great institution of learning primarily for the Negro race and eventually for the nation; that to this end they propose to subordinate every selfish interest; that they plan to work in accordance with the best advice of the most influential people of Ohio, white and black. That they will consider no political bargain on the part of either Church or State, but with high and unselfish ends unite to rebuild Wilberforce.

There must be, I repeat, as the beginning of reorganization, one head to this combined institution, appointed after thorough consultation and understanding between

State and Church and the best educational advice of Ohio. That man must undertake this work as a life-time job and not as a mere stepping-stone on his way to the bishopric. As the best guarantee for this, he would best not be a clergyman at all. But minister or layman, he must hold the scales of perfect justice between the Church on the one hand and the State on the other, handling all funds in method and intent with absolute and unswerving honesty. His controlling board of trustees should be nominated by the Church and appointed by the governor and should represent fairly the interests of the colored people of Ohio and the interests of education in the whole state. In accordance with the best and only rule of administration this board should confine itself to settling general policy and should leave the appointment and dismissal of teachers to the president and then hold him alone responsible for the good conduct and efficiency of this University.

This calls for a union of high effort, can you make it? You, the school, the community, the State?

I have noted in your president's report the insistence that Wilberforce University is a Christian institution. This is an old note. It has been sounded again and again with all kinds of variations for nearly a hundred years. It was a matter of emphasis when I was here near a half century ago and it did not impress me. It did not impress me because it was all too evident that what most people at Wilberforce called Christianity was a childish belief in Biblical fairy tales, a word-of-mouth adherence to dogma, and a certain sectarian exclusiveness. It often seemed to me when I lived here a miserable misapprehension of the teaching of Christ. I do not attempt in the slightest way to interfere with anyone's sincere and deep-seated belief. If a man believes that faith in Jonah and the whale is necessary to his soul's salvation, I shall not gainsay him. But I do believe that the generation of young folk before me and the world-at-large have some clear and definite ideas of what real religion calls for and I believe that the citizens of Ohio want tangible proof of certain matters before they will continue to support Wilberforce.

Today in plain English if Christianity means anything, it means honesty, unselfishness and hard work. It means honesty in the handling of funds whether they are the pennies of black waherwomen or the thousands of the State appropriation. It mean, the absolute wiping out of petty graft, of waste and of stupid carelessness. In addition to this Christianity means sympathy. The realization of what it costs a human being to live and support a family in decency; the realization that a man cannot do scientific research and scholarly work on a $1,000 a year; the realization that teachers and students are human beings who suffer and strive and fail. Above all Christianity means unselfishness; the willingness to forego in part one's personal advantage and give up some personal desires for the sake of a larger end which will be for the advantage of a greater number of people. And finally, Love is God and Work is His Prophet.

Frankly, I have never found at Wilberforce University any outstanding evidence of this kind of Christianity. Once upon a time it was here, and that is why I recall the role of the Three Saints who put their lives into this institution. It has since then, time and time again, been openly, crassly and impudently contradicted by dishonesty, cruelty and utter selfishness.

May I illustrate: when I was asked to come to Wilberforce in 1894, it was to teach Latin and Greek. I did not know much about them, but I knew that Scarborough was head of the department and I was glad and willing to work under his tutelage. Imagine my astonishment, when I arrived at Wilberforce, to find that I was head of the department; that one of your periodical quarrels had taken place, and the president had transferred Scarborough to the Theological department to teach nobody for nothing; while I, a student of sociology, was the whole department of Latin and Greek in the University. This illustrates better than anything I can say the utter stupidity of such action. Scarborough may have been a difficult man to get along with. I do not know. But he knew Latin and Greek better than most American teachers. Laying aside all personal likes and dislikes he should have been kept ~~in this~~ at that job. And the opposite is also true: If he had known no Greek and been a poor teacher and an unworthy man, he certainly did not belong in a theological seminary. To appoint a man to position because of sympathy is just as wrong as to dismiss him from the work he is best fitted to do.

Unless, therefore, the Christianity which you vaunt here is going to be the sort I have described you will have endless difficulty in extricating Wilberforce from its plight. On the other hand, if this institution handles its funds honestly, is sympathetic and decent in the treatment of its teachers, and unselfish in the establishment of the high aims, and if it can do real scientific work in education; then with one head to the combined institution you have begun reconstruction. But here you cannot sit still. Eventually this preliminary treaty of peace between State and Church must go forward toward a complete and definitive consolidation.

The first possible path is that next, the Church gradually withdrawing from its present dependence upon the State and the establishment of an independent, self-controlled and self-supported institution. This appeals to many of you. (It is in many respects a great and fine ideal) The difficulty with this program, and the inevitable difficulties, is its cost and the preliminary change in machinery which it involves. Such an institution must become first independent not of but in the Church. The local bishop must loose his strangle-hold upon the president. The General Conference and Board of Bishops must likewise stand aside ~~in~~ Content with general oversight and ~~not insist on~~ refraining from continual interference. The school must cease to be a mere stepping-stone to the bishopric. It must exist for itself. ~~The~~ Its own board of trustees must be in supreme control and they must in accordance with universal practice in modern education put the actual executive responsibility upon the president. At the same time that the Church thus withdraws from intermeddling with the institution and that the trustees put on its executive officer responsibility and the power at the same time the Church must furnish vastly increased funds, and here is the rub. Can the Church do it and will it?

There was once a legend that Mark Hopkins, a log and a boy could constitute a college. That legend is no longer valid. The boy needs today a library and a large and costly library with a competent and well-trained staff, not 3 girls - white slaves. Without it, he cannot get a modern education. The boy needs laboratories carefully planned, systematically conducted, with materials and tools; and laboratories cost a lot of money. The boy must have not one but a dozen instructors; they must be not merely good men who can read and write, but good men with long, thorough training in the accumulating and widening knowledge of their fields of instruction. For these and a dozen other different reasons the cost of conducting a first class college today as compared with fifty years ago has risen enormously. Ignoring for the moment the millions of dollars a year that are spent at Harvard and Columbia, let us turn our attention to colored colleges remembering that the AME Church has never been able to raise for education ~~including gifts~~ as much as $100,000 in a single year and usually much less. It has raised As compared with that let us remember that it costs $275,000 a year to run Fisk University; over $300,000 a year to run the Atlanta University system; $365,000 a year to run Virginia State College, while Prairie View College costs $420,000; Howard University costs $600,000 a year and Southern University of Louisiana $650,000 a year. It costs huge sums of money to conduct universities today and there is no reason to believe that the cost is going to be less in the future; rather if anything more.

With the demands upon them today nearly all churches are giving up their attempts to run colleges and universities. The great reunited Methodist Church is practically giving notice to all its institutions that they must prepare to stand alone. The Baptists are following. The Presbyterian Church has taken the same path. An institution like Wilberforce could hardly get from the AME Church adequate funds, if the church gave up the other smaller institutions and concentrated upon Wilberforce. Today even that looks impossible. Loyalties have been built around Morris Brown College and Edward Waters College and in most of ~~all~~ twenty-five institutions which makes their closing unthinkable. Wilberforce will start too late to get much from the distribution of funds now going on under the great foundations, and in addition to that the whole attempt to support higher education even by endowment is made today exceedingly uncertain by the industrial changes brought about partly by world war and partly by far-reaching economic revolution. Millions of dollars of former endowment funds are today worthless from these causes and the future of the endowed college, as I have said before, looks very uncertain.

The ~~other~~ second possibility is one from which Wilberforce and its constituency has always recoiled but I think you will have to look it straight in the face and that is for Wilberforce University to become a full-fledged State school. There is an example before you of a state colored college to which I beg your careful attention. In 1832, Richard Humphries, a white Quaker, who was once a West Indian slave-owner was living in Philadelphia. On his death he left $10,000 to found an institution for Negroes. Negroes were at that time excluded from the public schools and colleges of that state. His money went to found the Institute for Colored Youth and from that time until after the Civil war, that Institute was one of the ~~leading~~ first colored high schools of the United States and trained some of our most distinguished leaders. The wife of a bishop of this church was long its honored principal.

After the Civil war, however, Negroes were gradually admitted to all the schools and colleges of Pennsylvania, the endowment of the colored Institute was too small to support it and the attendance not large. The trustees finally moved the school out into the country, to Cheyney and established it on ~~a beautiful~~ an excellent site. Then came the question of support. The new principal, Leslie P. Hill struggled for years, passing the hat to colored people and white in order to support this school which was now a teacher training school. (He could not get enough money.) But the number of his students, attracted by good teaching and pleasant surroundings and refilled ~~living, steadily~~ increased. At last it was clear that either the school must close or the state must support it. Hill, therefore, asked that Cheyney become a recognized state teacher training school and college.

The colored people of Pennsylvania literally raised hell. They accused Hill ~~him~~ of deliberate encouragement of segregation; ~~of failure to do his job~~ and of an attempt to lower the standards of Negro education. I once went down to Philadelphia to argue in support of Hill's proposition. I shall not soon forget the bitterness with which I was assailed. Nevertheless, Cheyney today is a state college adequately supported from public taxes and perhaps the most beautifully housed of any of our schools with an excellent group of well-paid teachers. Colored students still attend the University of Pennsylvania, the University of Pittsburgh and the other state normal schools; but in addition to that they attend Cheyney; and the net result of making Cheyney a state school is, to my mind, thoroughly vindicated.

If Wilberforce should become a state university, it need not and indeed according to the letter of its charter it cannot ever become an exclusively colored school. The charter of Wilberforce University said from the beginning in 1863 "There shall never be any distinction among the trustees, faculty or students on account of race or color." Added to this comes the constitution of the State of Ohio which prohibits the establishment of a purely racial school.

But there is no reason why an institution of higher learning, Wilberforce University, should not be established here depending entirely upon state and federal appropriations and student fees; that these appropriations instead of being as they are today too small for the establishment of a first class educational institution ~~could~~ become larger and larger, as there is developed here the will and ability to use them in the right way.

There is no reason why a predominantly colored faculty and colored student body should not constitute Wilberforce University and yet gradually raise itself to be the equal in every respect of any institution in this state or in the United States; thus proving to a skeptical generation that color is not connected with ability or honesty. When the time comes in the future, as it may well come, that white persons would be appointed now and then to the teaching force here and white students appear in the student body, it might also happen that colored men would be appointed to the faculty of Ohio State University and colored students continue to be received there, but not as mere outsiders, not as pariahs but as integral and welcome ~~parts~~ members of the institution.

I believe that this is the logical and right way to settle the difficulties and recurring upheavals at Wilberforce University. And I believe this because recently in spite of all the difficulties which have faced the university administration it has received from an independent and not over-friendly authority ~~astonishing and~~ gratifying testimony as to what can be done at this institution, if the institution is organized and can function as a university should.

If I do not think that the AME Church and the Wilberforce constituency realize what it has meant that for eighty-four years Wilberforce University has had no recognized standing in the United States as an educational institution. It has had sympathy; it has been commended for hard effort but its standing has not been officially recognized. The bachelor degree of Wilberforce University has never been sufficient to admit its possessor to recognized standing in a single institution of the world. Now this is serious. How serious it is can only be known by those acquainted with the present standards and methods of education. In Europe such an institution would not be allowed to confer degrees at all and in the United States until 1940 the Wilberforce degree was nationally discounted. Today for the first time in its history Wilberforce has received recognition, conditional to be sure, but official recognition that its degrees are ~~up~~ reaching ~~to~~ the national standard. Educationally this is the greatest accomplishment in the history of Wilberforce University.

In 1935, the officials of the North Central Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools made a careful investigation; they noted particularly this difficulty of two institutions with double control, ~~and local~~ with clashes of personalities, political interference and lack of funds. Four years later they came back. They generously recorded the fact that greater improvement had been made; that through the efforts of the president, who had made total changes in the faculty, the clash of personalities had been abated; the teaching force had been strengthened; the library had been strikingly improved; and the general business administration was better. They said that while this pronounced progress had been accomplished that they could not at present recommend the admission of Wilberforce to the North Central Association.

Despite this, however, the Board of Review of the Commission on Higher Education, while recognizing that Wilberforce was still confronted with ~~a number of~~ the same difficult problems, decided nevertheless to accredit the institution ~~provisionally~~ subject to the ~~final decision~~ supervision of a committee which was to make annual reports in 1940, 1941 and 1942.

The University, therefore, for the first time in its history has received ~~a conditional~~ recognition as a standard institution.

Following this a special committee report for the first of the trial years, 1940, records continued improvement and "tangible evidence of an increased unity of purpose within the institution." It believes that Wilberforce is making reasonable progress in general and looks forward to the permanent accrediting of the institution after 1942; but is still apprehensive because of threatened political interference. The interference takes place. Through new legislation, a new state board comes into

The balance of power swings toward the State, while the Presidency is still in the hands of the Church power and ~~a new set of appointments is made.~~ (This throws the institution back again
The new board, over the president's recommendations, appoints and dismisses teachers) to the fundamental problem of putting a permanent end to this double control and ~~of~~ ceasing to ~~making~~ Wilberforce the football of partisan politics, whether this situation arises from dabbling in politics by Wilberforce officials ~~and by~~ or from outside politicians muscling in. In either and both cases, an aroused public opinion, with stern rebuke of this cheapening and frustration of the great objects of an old and respected institution can set the present muddle straight and start the program which I have indicated: first, one head for Wilberforce; and then, after time, thought and adjustment; ~~second~~, either an independent church school or ~~third~~, a publicly supported state university.

and its problems to understand the Church

But Wilberforce is more than a school. It is not simply a community; it is not simply the educational capital of three quarters of a million people united in a great and powerful ~~church~~ organization. It is ~~not simply~~ the educational focus of this ~~church~~. It ought to be one of the main centers out of which trained and scientific guidance for twelve million people could come. Now the chief problem of these twelve millions today, is the matter of employment at a wage which will allow them to live like civilized human beings. In the present increasing turmoil of the world, there must eventually come, on the part of leading nations, a wide and fundamental readjustment of economic organization and industrial life of work & wage. Some of you assume that when this reorganization comes you are going automatically to inherit what belongs to you; but this will not happen unless you plan for yourselves in accordance with the best thought and training of the day.

That means that around Wilberforce as a community there should begin to grow a thriving self-supporting body of citizens, well-trained in science and art, abreast with the world in thought raising their own food, building their own homes and beginning to manufacture the clothes and other articles that they use; and that this independent economy, separate from the school and yet nourishing it, should spread out through Greene County and Ohio and the ~~Negro race~~. South & Nation

There should begin here that necessary and fateful organization of consumer power which once rescued Denmark and Sweden and is the only way out for the economic independence and physical survival of the American Negro.

This program which you should organize and plan today was begun for you more than a century ago when the colored people of Cincinnati rose up against their impossible surroundings, called the first national convention of the Negroes in ~~the United States~~ 1831, and began that mass migration ~~of~~ to Canada which was the greatest movement among Negroes before the Civil War. ~~This institution~~ Wilberforce University arose on the echo of the Cincinnati effort and if it ever finally succeeds, it will be because building upon that past it goes forward into an economic future ~~beginning~~ starting here and ~~now with~~ developing into a community life high in thought, scientific in planning and unselfish in deed.

Gentlemen and ladies of the graduating classes: I have said today little directly to you, whose day of celebration this is. I have talked to your elders and to those who are set in authority over you. But every word I have uttered is indirectly for you. For yours is the kingdom and the power and the glory, forever. Your fathers will tell you that what I advise and plan is impossible. They are right. It is impossible. But the Impossible is just what you have got to do to save Wilberforce; and believe me when I say, out of the depth of years and the lore of centuries: This is a world where many times the Impossible has been triumphantly ~~accomplished~~ achieved.

THE FUTURE OF WILBERFORCE

by

I first saw Wilberforce University in September, 1894. Only two months previously I had returned from the University of Berlin and had finished there a continuous education which lasted from my sixth to my twenty-sixth birthday. I was at the time full of ideals, quick and arrogant in judgment, with many personal idiosyncrasies. I walked onto this campus, carrying my gloves in one hand and my cane in the other, according to the best fashion of the German student of that day. Yet I was not altogether impossible; I was comparatively indifferent, for instance, to the matter of money. This was the first salaried job that I had ever held and yet I refused an offer of $1,050 at another institution for the $800 offered here, because Wilberforce meant something to my imagination. I had heard its name since I was a child. On May 24, 1856 one of the midnight endorsers who made the purchase of Wilberforce possible was John Du Bois a member of a family from which I descend.

I taught at Wilberforce two years: Greek, Latin, German and English and begged in vain to add Sociology to the load; I married a Wilberforce girl; I made here life-long friends like Paul Laurence Dunbar and Charles Young; and for the forty-six years since my first coming, I have known every president of Wilberforce University and visited the campus at least once during their administrations and in some cases many times. At one of the sessions of the older Board of Trustees I was elected an honorary alumnus.

Notwithstanding all this, I was from the moment I stepped on this campus until today, an outspoken critic of Wilberforce. This was true not because I disbelieved in Wilberforce or underrated its work, but for exactly the opposite reason. From the first, I had for Wilberforce the very highest ideals: I wanted for it nothing cheap, second hand, or inferior; I pictured growing up here a great university, not simply Negro, not simply American, but a University in the full sense of those famous institutions of learning with which I had been connected for six years in the United States and in Europe. With all the impetuosity of youth, I had not the slightest doubt of the possibility of building up such an institution. I can imagine the astonishment with which persons heard my first lecture here. It was a sort of inaugural address after the German fashion attending my advent as professor in which I outlined with perfect confidence the plan of an institution, unlimited in breadth and efficiency. My dreams were not wholly built on air. I took into account the extraordinary geographical situation of Wilberforce: practically in the longitudinal center of the Negro population of the United States, and yet in latitude North of Mason and Dixon's line. I was thrilled by the natural beauty of this place and uplifted by the romantic history of its founding. Because of this very dream and high ideal, I was from the first bitter and uncompromising at every act which did not agree with, and every plan that did not lead toward the sort of institution I had in mind.

The result was that after only two years' experiment I left Wilberforce. I was not kicked out but that was only because I moved before the inevitable swing of the boot. Eventual dismissal was certain and I had sense enough to see it. But notwithstanding that my interest in this school instead of waning, if anything, increased; my criticism of its shortcomings has never ceased and equally I have never lost my belief in its possibilities.

I come, therefore, again, in my role of open and frank critic of Wilberforce University and in an attempt to guide its possible future. I would have you believe that there lurks in what I am going to say, nothing of personal pique or disappointment. There is nothing that I desire of Wilberforce University. I have no scores to settle. For the most part those with whom I was intimately associated while here are long since dead. I never saw President Walker until today. I do not know the head of the combined normal and industrial department. Some few of the teachers I do know but for the most part I have not seen or heard from them for near a decade. In a sense then I come both as an old friend and yet to most of you as a stranger; but to all as one who knows the history of Wilberforce University, who has followed this history with intense and vivid interest and who speaks with only one idea in mind: that, rising out of the muddle and dispute, failure and promise of the present situation, there should eventually arise a Wilberforce which would be recognized by any standard as one of the great institutions of learning in the United States.

As you know quite as well as I, this is not the case today. I am deeply disappointed that it is not. Even as I left here as a teacher in the summer of 1896, I firmly believed that a half century would see the institution established in accord with some of the ideals that I had and had expressed. This has not happened. I come back forty-six years after to find the institution still desperately lacking in most things that a great university demands.

The scientific output of this institution in books and articles, in literature and art, in technical efficiency and economic organization falls so far below the standard of great schools that one searches almost in vain for tangible evidence of scientific work done by Wilberforce professors and graduates. There are some to be sure but they stand out in the midst of a great desert. You have not produced great scholars or scientists, great technicians nor great thinkers, and yet there is no earthly reason why you should not have done this. Let me illustrate by the case of one of the smaller colored colleges. In two decades of work between 1919 and 1939 the teachers and graduates of West Virginia State College published thirty-three books and monographs, one hundred fifty-five articles and prepared thirty-one unpublished manuscripts, a total of two hundred nineteen pieces of scientific work which is, if I mistake not, at least ten times the output of Wilberforce. One encouraging effort in recent days, the Wilberforce University Quarterly, I hailed with new hope, but I fear now this will be a casualty of the late war. The quality of educational work done here for more than half a century has never until recently received recognition as being in accord with the standards of the nation. You have not so established yourself in this country as to make it unnecessary for a first class student to apologize for attending Wilberforce University rather than Ohio State or the University of Chicago. You have been content for a half century to do second-grade work and to make voluminous and frequent excuses therefore.

In addition to this, and perhaps in a sense even more significant, is the situation of this surrounding community. Forty years ago, Xenia was an important manufacturing and commercial center. Wilberforce was a prosperous farming district. One had a right to believe in 1895 that the middle of the twentieth century would see here in southern Ohio, a thriving economic center with prosperous manufactures and commercial enterprises and with a large and growing colored community here of home owners, farmers, merchants, scientists and technicians; not only comfortable and self-supporting but a respected and integral part of the economic and social organization of the Middlewest. I know the blighting effect of war and depression and difficulties of economic maladjustment and race prejudice; and yet it seems to me that it apparently has not occurred to this community that any development of the sort was possible under Wilberforce leadership. In appearance and character, in occupation and ambition, the Wilberforce community looks like a center of stagnation, lack of ambition and in a certain chilling sense, lack of hope. The surrounding country and Xenia have deteriorated and when a few weeks ago I wanted to get a through-train from Chicago to Xenia the nearest I could get was Dayton. That would have been a joke in 1900. On the other hand, the physical expansion of Wilberforce as a school has been great in the amount of land controlled, in the number of buildings, in the size of its student body. Buildings like this hall, like the library and several of the dormitories are striking evidence of growth and yet even here you who have seen the marvelous physical expansion that has taken place in other Negro institutions throughout this country know that Wilberforce is behind. In the growth of its faculty, in the caliber of its teaching and facilities for teaching Wilberforce has also grown but here it has lagged far behind similar institutions.

There is one other thing that may seem to you unimportant and aside but it looms to vast size in my thought; and that is, the way in which you have conceived and the way in which you have treated, the natural beauty of your surroundings. Here is a lovely undulating land with beautiful trees, grass and wild flowers, with roads winding naturally between the hills and with little brooks and rivers murmuring day and night through broad meadows. As it seems to me you have looked upon this beauty as a thing to be leveled, flattened and scarred. That your ideal would be something slick and square, with brooks hushed, rivers put underground and hills pressed down into the earth. Consider, for instance, the ravine, one of the loveliest natural possibilities of Greene County. It begins with the old main road of Wilberforce and stretches down, widening and deepening to the green meadows and river below. It is a God-created center of natural beauty and development, a potential amphitheatre, a focus around which a university could be ranged, set in the very midst of this community. It was this murmuring vale of healing waters that back in the early nineteenth century attracted people of leisure to Tawawa Springs to drink in its crystal clarity and loll in leisure under the great branches of its oaks and elms. Since then this community has done everything that it could to shame and obliterate the ravine. In my day already they were using it as a refuse dump. Later they made it the center of a sewage disposal area; but recently they have piled mud in its center to make an extra road. I can remember how once as young teachers protesting against the beginning of profanation of this marvelous beauty spot, we planned to give Shakespeare's "Midsummer's Night Dream" in the ravine ranging the auditors upon its sloping sides and playing in its flower-covered depths. We wanted to raise money for a library. The library in 1896 occupied a room half the size of this rostrum. It was kept locked. I chased Professor Scott over this campus for a week to get the key. We determined to transfer the library to the little-used double parlors and to raise funds for this by this pageant in the ravine. The way our plan was stopped was prophetic: a powerful bishop in 1896 had decided to appoint his good-for-nothing son as a professor in this school. We stopped our midsummer night's dream to stage a strike and protest. In the end we won temporarily; the eventual loss of our jobs became merely a matter of time.

Why now has Wilberforce failed as an institution of learning to reach the heights toward which it must eventually climb if it survives, and why as a community has it failed to become neat, prosperous, beautiful and self-supporting? You know the answer which the average white citizen of Ohio gives to this question: he simply says "Negroes!" That would not disturb me so much in itself, were it not for the fact that the average colored citizen of the nation is coming to say the same thing. Literally dozens among the best Negroes of Ohio with whom in recent years I have talked concerning Wilberforce have all come to the fatalistic conclusion that you cannot expect an ideal development in education or community life here simply because colored people are in control. If I believed that I would not be here. But I do not believe it. And I do not believe it, because I have had opportunity in the last quarter century to see at first hand the kind of development which is taking place in Negro institutions of learning where the same problems that you face here are being attacked and solved.

I have already told you that when I was offered work at Wilberforce University, a position at what was then Lincoln Institute in Jefferson City, Missouri was open for me. I refused the larger salary offered there because Lincoln Institute at the time was the well-known plaything of graft and petty politics. The president of the Institute could only hold his job by handing over to members of the trustee board a part of the money which the Institute was overcharged by the merchants who sold it supplies. Appointments to positions in the Institute were matters of petty poliitical deals, personal likes and dislikes and pool-room politics. There were no standards of instruction or educational accomplishment, and there were cheap buildings with a small enrolment of students who came because they could go nowhere else. Today Lincoln University of Missouri is not yet re-born but its birth pains are distinctly audible. It has driven partisan politics out of the institution. It has killed several presidents in the process but the deed is about done. It has secured a steadily increasing income, more adequately paid professors, new buildings and better prepared students.

I saw last year the Florida A and M College at Tallahassee after an interval of twenty-five years. I was astonished. From a ramshakle agglomeration of few buildings, few teachers and indifferent students it has today magnificent buildings and a thousand college students; and while its salaries are still too low and its standards of scholarship not as high as they must be, it is a growing and developing college. The same can be said of Virginia State College at Petersburg; the thoughtful planning of that campus, the disappearance of the eye-sore which was long its main building, the number of well-trained men who have regularly and consistently been appointed to the faculty and given security of tenure and encouragement for graduate study and scientific work, is one of the finest pieces of academic accomplishment in the South.

The possible relation of a college to its community is illustrated at Prairie View, Texas. So astonishing has been this development that when recently a white president of a great Northwestern state wanted to know how his institution could best get into helpful touch with its community, the trustees of the General Education Board referred him to the Texas Colored State College at Prairie View. The president of that college is in close connection with every secondary school in the state; he has records of every Negro student about to be graduated from every high school in Texas; he is continuously studying the economic condition of colored folk in every part of the state; he is bringing them regularly to Prairie View for conference and discussion at the rate of over ten thousand actual visitors a year. Adjoining the campus is today being developed a settlement of a score of one hundred forty acre farms financed by the Federal Government, and for that settlement, industry and occupations outside of farming and teaching are already being carefully planned and carried out.

Or suppose we turn to some of the older institutions: Fisk, Howard and Atlanta University. A record of the books and articles published by professors and graduates of these institutions in the last year form a contribution to American literature recognized over the whole country. These books are reviewed in the leading periodicals of the nation; the research of their laboratories is recognized even in Europe; the standards of scholarly accomplishment are being set just as high as those in white institutions. In other words, what can be done at Wilberforce is already being done by colored folk in all parts of the nation and in no case have these people had the natural and geographical advantages, the social freedom and the political power that you have here.

Not in race nor character, not in ability nor power do the failures of Wilberforce find root. What are then the main reasons of the difficulties which have beset your path? We ourselves in moments of depression are prone to blame our blood for every failure and misfortune, but to know the truth we must address ourselves first to the historical rise of this institution and see what obstacles it has encountered and how it has tried to surmount them and what the results of these efforts in our day have been.

Looking into the historical threads that were woven into the web of this institution I can descry three sets of human beings whose efforts have made Wilberforce and who have been responsible in large part for its successes and its failures. First came three extraordinary figures: Daniel Payne, John Mitchell and Benjamin Lee. If ever three saints strove without thought of self and with utter devotion to the highest ideals which they could conceive to build here a worthy monument for your worship, these were the men. Two of them I knew personally and one died but the year before I came to Wilberforce, leaving a memory singularly vivid and green. It is not often that it is given any group of human beings to command the services of three such men. Daniel Payne, the little bishop, short, slight, shrivelled, was a man of plodding learning, of austere personal morality, of unflinching firmness and indefatiguable energy; no thought of himself or of his own interest ever stood for a moment between him and what he thought best for Wilberforce University, for the African Methodist Church, and for the Negro race. John G. Mitchell, large, ~~clam~~ calm and placid, starved for thirty-seven years to make a real theological seminary here, living always serenely above the clouds, with a firm and unshakeable belief in a higher world and in its intimate causal relations with this earth. Benjamin Lee came later. He was a more practical man who knew evil, looked it squarely in the face and fought it doggedly; he was intensely earnest; solemn in soul and action, impatient of dishonesty, greed and sensuality and always striving desperately to do and make others do what seemed to him exactly the right thing. With these three men, this college started on a high and ideal plane with little money but with great and unselfish hopes.

There came afterward, connected in various ways with this institution and with the church, three hammers: powerful, ambitious but ruthless men who represented force and driving power unhampered by ideals; who had no inhibitions of learning or social standards but drove a way through all sorts of obstacles; and under their leadership both the church and the school lurched now forward and now back. Contemporaneous with these men and later were three politicians, who represented compromise and adjustment. They were victims rather than leaders; they were the buffers between Ideals of Power, Good and Evil, Theory and Practice. They handled the Church and the State, the public and the school, the teachers and the students. Many were gifted men who had to do unpleasant things and devise devious paths in a crooked world. One man, who belonged to this class of leaders was president of this school when I came, Samuel T. Mitchell.

Samuel Mitchell faced a most difficult problem. Another sort of man, a man like Payne, Mitchell or Lee would have handled his problem differently. But Mitchell was more subtle and faced a more complex modern world. He was a small, handsome man with captivating manners. He influenced men; he was extraordinarily successful in conference and personal meeting; he stooped to conquer. He came to the presidency of Wilberforce in 1884 and remained until the last year of the nineteenth century. I once blamed Samuel Mitchell severely for his course of action. But time and experience have explained much if not all. He faced the same problem that you face: how can the church of a poor working people support an increasingly costly system of education? Mitchell worked hard to increase income and in his administration it rose fifty per cent higher than ever before. But at that it was miserably inadequate. He must get more, but how?

During his day the problem of the church and education was apparently settled but in fact was beginning momentous change. It went without saying before 1900, that churches should promote education, establish colleges and conduct universities. The union of church and education seemed in that day logical and almost inevitable. Already, however, the burden of supporting education with limited church funds and expanding church programs was beginning to be felt and the alternative had long seemed to be the accumulation of endowments. Thus most of our greater universities like Harvard, Yale and Princeton starting as denominational schools gradually accumulated endowment funds sufficient to make them independent of the churches and the connection was gradually severed.

Wilberforce had long kept before her this ideal of endowments but there was no precedent then of rich white folk amply endowing a colored institution and there were no rich Negroes.

But poor Negroes tried to relieve this situation by heroic efforts to increase its gifts to education. With the appointment of a Secretary of Education in 1884, the AME Church responded so that in 1900 it was raising $20,000 a year. This was a notable effort. If all the money raised for education in the Church could have been concentered upon Wilberforce, which was Payne's original idea, the situation would have been well in hand. But in 1904, the church educational fund was being distributed among twenty-five institutions, including ten colleges which averaged less than $3,000 a school. Particularism was too strong: every bishop, each district, each state wanted and in a sense needed its school. The cost of raising funds for Wilberforce both in actual money and effort became prohibitive.

Moreover, at this time throughout the nation the State was coming in and beginning to support higher education. This support was not altogether effective because it involved a great deal of petty politics and selfish bargaining and consequently low standards in teaching appointments and in scholarship. No one then could have foreseen that in the course of less than a half century, higher education would be very largely in the hands of the state with the prospect that before long the privately endowed or church supported institution will have largely disappeared.

Samuel T. Mitchell finding increasing difficulty in raising funds and yet the educational demand expanding, conceived the shrewd bargain of 1889. With his inimitable charm and ability to fascinate and convince, he succeeded in the face of the prohibitions of the state constitution and in spire of the just fears of church leaders, in bringing about a certain sort of union between the State of Ohio and the African Methodist Episcopal Church for the support of Wilberforce. As we can now see, it was a dangerous compromise and the time may come when we will look back upon this as the cause of the eventual collapse of this institution. But that will only be if in the face of the continued friction and upheavals that have followed the bargain, we throw up our hands, refuse to look facts in the face and fail to grasp the plow that is before us and the real furrow that can yet be run.

What have been the results of this consolidation of the AME school, Wilberforce University, and the State of Ohio as owner of the combined normal and industrial department at Wilberforce? First of all there has been a serious combination of the church and politics. From 1856 to 1889, Wilberforce had become the political capital of the AME Church and its nation-wide membership. Here the little Bishop, Daniel Payne, as senior prelate of the church ruled. Power became concentrated in his hands, through his extraordinary moral purity, his unselfish ideals and his indomitable energy. All of the rulers of the Church came to Wilberforce to consult him; Bishops' Councils were held here; general officers and general policies were decided upon. The senior bishop knew the characters of everybody in the church: when this man aspired to the bishopric - No, said the little bishop, he is not an honest man! No, he is not a moral man! No, he is lazy and selfish and will not work!

When Bishop Payne died, it meant that what had been an ecclesiastical dictatorship in strong, honest, unwavering hands became a matter of wide intrigue, manipulation and political arrangement. The well-being and interests of Wilberforce became inextricably intermingled with the interests, and often the selfish personal interests, of the church leaders. The so-called board of trustees of Wilberforce University was a body of hundreds of men distributed all over the United States, only a minority of whom ever came to any meeting and came then, most of them, because of church politics and not because of their interest in Wilberforce.

I remember vividly the first meeting of the trustees while I was here. As they began to swarm in I took my cane and gloves and went to the woods for a long walk.

"Where have you been?" asked my colleagues.

"To the woods," I answered, innocently.

They threw up their hands. "That's not the thing to do when trustees come to Wilberforce", they said. And they were right.

When now President Mitchell in his effort to raise funds projected this politically-minded Wilberforce into State politics and thus more than doubled the available income of the school, it was natural for ministers, bishops and presidents of Wilberforce to dabble further in partisan politics until they have helped emphasize that very interference of politics with education which it has been the desperate effort of state universities all over America for fifty years to avoid.

This situation did not however develop immediately in the case of Wilberforce. As Mitchell conceived the consolidation there was to be one head of the combined institutions; the state institution was to be in fact a department of Wilberforce University, although the legal phrase had it "at Wilberforce University".

The policy which has developed concerning the relation of the state department and the university is interesting to review: first came the logical action, back to which the State and the University must revert if this institution is to grow and develop properly; that is, the president of the university was also superintendent of the combined normal and industrial department. This is the only way in which one institution with a single policy can be built up. President Mitchell was at the head of both departments from the beginning of State aid until 1896, - seven years.

Such a combination, however, presupposes that the interests of the State as well as the University not only be combined but carefully looked after by the single head, so that neither party to the combination would feel under-rated or cheated. The feeling arose under President Mitchell that the State was being used simply for its money and as an unimportant adjunct to the University.

The next step of the State was characteristic but not radical. It appointed a separate head for the State department, but chose for the position a man long connected with Wilberforce University, the son of one of its founders and absolutely loyal to its ideals, J. P. Shorter. Shorter was a strict administrator and careful business man and he supplemented President Mitchell's ability to handle persons and compose differences by his own accuracy and executive methods. This went on for fourteen years and the two parts of the institution worked in considerable, if not perfect harmony. The main difficulty which now began to show itself and later was emphasized was that the Normal and Industrial Department had more money than the University, and yet was the subordinate partner.

Then soon after the advent of President Scarborough, there came a momentous change: the State appointed as superintendent a young man well-trained as an educator and also experienced as executive and business man. President Scarborough, on the other hand, was a scholar and a theorist in no way designed for the details of administration and with little liking for it. The inevitable happened; the real presidency of Wilberforce was gradually transferred to the State side. The Normal Department went forward by leaps and bounds. It bought lands and built buildings; it arranged teachers homes; it introduced electricty; it organized its curriculum; it paid its teachers good salaries; it developed other far-sighted plans; while the University hung on as a sort of poor relative of the dominant owner and was really largely supported by State charity. When the administrations changed in 1920, and Gregg came as president, while Joyner retired, there came a third policy irregularly and less clearly developed: the head of the normal department became more and more a mere fiscal officer and neither a trained educator nor a conspicuous executive. This tended to separate the two institutions and friction arose and multiplied. Almost, it can be said, two separate and rival institutions appeared here - one with power and no money, the other with money and no clear policy.

It was almost inevitable during the years from 1900 to 1940 that into this situation petty State politics should begin to intrude, and this was in no small part the fault of the AME Church and of Wilberforce University itself. From the time that Samuel T. Mitchell found that political manipulation could bring funds to Wilberforce, from that time on the temptation on the part of the Church to work this source was difficult to withstand. Bishops, presiding elders, ministers and presidents of the institution became politicians and worked for what they thought was either their own advantage or the advantage of Wilberforce. Other colored people in the state not connected with the AME Church saw no reason why they should not share the spoils. The caliber of the persons appointed to the board by the State gradually decreased.

In earlier years some of the best known people of the State, white and black, served upon the board of the Normal and Industrial Department. They were replaced as time went on by persons who, whatever their other qualifications were, had often never attended college, knew little about college problems and certainly had not been trained or experienced in the technical work of administering an institution of education.

Throughout the United States it has been found that in state universities, this tendency has had to be met and fought and stopped. In the University of Wisconsin, the University of Michigan, the University of Illinois, Indiana University, in all the Negro land grant colleges, and in other institutions it has taken the voters a quarter of a century to learn that appointments in an institution of learning cannot be used to reward political support or to give jobs to friends, or as matters of personal sympathy.

Education is a great and serious end. It has to do primarily not with soils and crops, not with stone and iron, but with the souls of your own children and thus with the future of the Negro race in America. It is becoming one of the greatest functions of government. If it is seduced, and cheapened, and ruined by putting in charge of it people, who however worthy they may be personally, are ignorant of the difficult technique of carrying on the training of youth, the whole program is ruined. This is the sort of thing that has happened and is happening to Wilberforce University. Perverted standards have come in. In the eyes of many quite honest people it seems to be natural that the teaching jobs at Wilberforce should be handed around to people whom they like and taken away from people they don't like. The question as to what sort of man one is: whether truthful or a liar; dignified or a clown; an earnest worker or a lazy wastrel does not concern them. They do not inquire whether the candidate knows his subject and knows how to teach it. They assume without reflection that there should be appointed to the faculty and upon the trustee board anybody who is a friend to the governor; that if there is a person at Wilberforce or elsewhere who has been unfortunate, who has suffered, who has not received the consideration that he ought to, that a perfectly legitimate way to settle this difficulty is to appoint him professor or dean even though everybody knows he cannot perform his duties because of congenital unfitness or crass ignorance.

Nor do these perverted standards stop here. Indeed they did not begin here. In the case of the church and the university, it has become a sort of unwritten law that the bishop of this district should be a sort of super-president; that he should rule the University and at the same time dictate to the board of trustees and also enter into political understanding with the State. I remember vividly when Bishop Arnett laid down law and gospel for President Mitchell. This puts the president in an impossible position: he must placate the bishop of Wilberforce; he must be on good terms with bishops of other districts, who are furnishing funds for Wilberforce; he must keep in touch with the officials of the State; he must try to bring into line the man whom the State for any reason, political or personal, appoints at the head of the Normal and Industrial Department; and then incidentally he must keep a faculty and a body of students at their proper tasks. No human being can successfully occupy such a place.

Here then is the situation that confronts us. What is to be done about it? When some years ago a talented professor of history in Howard University, Charles Wesley, was considering accepting the presidency of Wilberforce University, I wrote him hurriedly and said: Under no circumstances accept the presidency of Wilberforce unless at the same time you are made head of the combined normal and industrial department.

The path of progress before Wilberforce is clear and inevitable: first there must be one head to this institution. Anything else, spells friction, lost effort and eventual disaster. It will be difficult to bring this about. There will have to be a re-arrangement of trustee boards and new understanding with State officials. This can only be done by a determined effort on the part of the colored people of Ohio, the AME Church and Wilberforce University to convince the world that what they want here is not jobs for their friends or religious bigotry or the settlement of personal grudges, but a great institution of learning primarily for the Negro race and eventually for the nation; that to this end they propose to subordinate every selfish interest; that they plan to work in accordance with the best advice of the most influential people of Ohio, white and black. That they will consider no political bargain on the part of either Church or State, but with high and unselfish ends unite to rebuild Wilberforce.

There must be, I repeat, as the beginning of reorganization, one head to this combined institution, appointed after thorough consultation and understanding between State and Church and the best educational advice of Ohio. That man must undertake this work as a life-time job and not as a mere stepping-stone on his way to the bishopric. As the best guarantee for this, he would best not be a clergyman at all. But minister or layman, he must hold the scales of perfect justice between the Church on the one hand and the State on the other, handling all funds in method and intent with absolute and unswerving honesty. His controlling board of trustees should be nominated by the Church and appointed by the governor and should represent fairly the interests of the colored people of Ohio and the interests of education in the whole state. In accordance with the best and only rule of administration this board should confine itself to settling general policy and should leave the appointment and dismissal of teachers to the president and then hold him alone responsible for the good conduct and efficiency of this University.

This calls for a union of high effort, can you make it? You, the school, the community, the State?

I have noted in your president's report the insistence that Wilberforce University is a Christian institution. This is an old note. It has been sounded again and again with all kinds of variations for nearly a hundred years. It was a matter of emphasis when I was here near a half century ago and it did not impress me. It did not impress me because it was all too evident that what most people at Wilberforce called Christianity was a childish belief in Biblical fairy tales, a word-of-mouth adherence to dogma, and a certain sectarian exclusiveness. It often seemed to me when I lived here a miserable misapprehension of the teaching of Christ. I do not attempt in the slightest way to interfere with anyone's sincere and deep-seated belief. If a man believes that faith in Jonah and the whale is necessary to his soul's salvation, I shall not gainsay him. But I do believe that the generation of young folk before me and the world-at-large have some clear and definite ideas of what real religion calls for and I believe that the citizens of Ohio want tangible proof of certain matters before they will continue to support Wilberforce.

Today in plain English if Christianity means anything, it means honesty, unselfishness and hard work. It means honesty in the handling of funds whether they are the pennies of black washerwomen or the thousands of the State appropriation. It means the absolute wiping out of petty graft, of waste and of stupid carelessness. In addition to this Christianity means sympathy. The realization of what it costs a human being to live and support a family in decency; the realization that a man cannot do scientific research and scholarly work on a $1,000 a year; the realization that teachers and students are human beings who suffer and strive and fail. Above all Christianity means unselfishness; the willingness to forego in part one's personal advantage and give up some personal desires for the sake of a larger end which will be for the advantage of a greater number of people. And finally, Love is God and Work is His Prophet.

Frankly, I have never found at Wilberforce University any outstanding evidence of this kind of Christianity. Once upon a time it was here, and that is why I recall the role of the Three Saints who put their lives into this institution. It has since then, time and time again, been openly, crassly and impudently contradicted by dishonesty, cruelty and utter selfishness.

May I illustrate: when I was asked to come to Wilberforce in 1894, it was to teach Latin and Greek. I did not know much about them, but I knew that Scarborough was head of the department and I was glad and willing to work under his tutelage. Imagine my astonishment, when I arrived at Wilberforce, to find that I was head of the department; that one of your periodical quarrels had taken place, and the president had transferred Scarborough to the Theological Department to teach nobody for nothing; while I, a student of sociology, was the whole department of Latin and Greek in the University. This illustrates better than anything I can say the utter stupidity of such action. Scarborough may have been a difficult man to get along with. I do not know. But he knew Latin and Greek better than most American teachers. Laying aside all personal likes and dislikes he should have been kept at that job. And the opposite is also true: if he had known no Greek and been a poor teacher and an unworthy man, he certainly did not belong in a theological seminary. To appoint a man to position because of sympathy is just as wrong as to dismiss him from the work he is best fitted to do.

Unless, therefore, the Christianity which you vaunt here is going to be the sort I have described you will have endless difficulty in extricating Wilberforce from its plight. On the other hand, if this institution handles its funds honestly, is sympathetic and decent in the treatment of its teachers, and unselfish in the establishment of high aims, and if it can do real scientific work in education; then with one head to the combined institution you have begun reconstruction. But here you cannot sit still. Eventually this preliminary treaty of peace between State and Church, must go forward toward a complete and definitive consolidation.

The first possible path is that next, the Church gradually withdraw from its present dependence upon the State and establish an independent, self-controlled and self-supported institution. This appeals to many of you. It is in many respects a great and fine ideal. The difficulty with this program and the inevitable difficulty is its cost and the preliminary change in machinery which it involves. Such an institution must become first independent not of but in the Church. The local bishop must loose his strangle-hold upon the president. The General Conference and Board of Bishops must likewise stand aside content with general oversight and refraining from continual interference. The school must cease to be a mere stepping-stone to the bishopric. It must exist for itself. Its own board of trustees must be in supreme control and they must in accordance with universal practice in modern education put the actual executive responsiblity upon the president. At the same time that the Church thus withdraws from intermeddling with the institution and that the trustees put on its executive officer responsibility and the power at the same time the Church must furnish vastly increased funds; and here is the rub. Can the Church do it and will it?

There was once a legend that Mark Hopkins, a log and a boy could constitute a college. That legend is no longer valid. The boy needs today a library and a large and costly library with a competent and well-trained staff - not three overworked slaves. Without it, he cannot get a modern education. The boy needs laboratories carefully planned, systematically conducted, with materials and tools; and laboratories cost a lot of money. The boy must have not one but a dozen instructors; they must be not merely good men who can read and write, but good men with long, thorough training in the accumulating and widening knowledge of their fields of instruction. For these and a dozen other different reasons the cost of conducting a first class college today as compared with fifty years ago has risen enormously. Ignoring for the moment the millions of dollars a year that are spent at Harvard and Columbia, let us turn our attention to colored colleges remembering that the AME Church has never been able to raise for education as much as $100,000 in a single year and usually it has raised much less.

As compared with that let us remember that it costs $275,000 a year to run Fisk University; over $300,000 a year to run the Atlanta University system; $365,000 a year to run Virginia State College, while Prairie View College costs $420,000; Howard University costs $600,000 a year and Southern University of Louisiana $650,000 a year. It costs huge sums of money to conduct universities today and there is no reason to believe that the cost is going to be less in the future; rather if anything more.

With the demands upon them today nearly all churches are giving up their attempts to run colleges and universities. The great reunited Methodist Church is practically giving notice to all its institutions that they must prepare to stand alone. The Baptists are following. The Presbyterian Church has taken the same path. An institution like Wilberforce could hardly get from the AME Church adequate funds, if the church gave up the other smaller institutions and concentrated upon Wilberforce. Today even that looks impossible. Loyalties have been built around Morris Brown College and Edward Waters College and in most of twenty-five institutions, which makes their closing unthinkable.

Wilberforce will start too late to get much from the distribution of funds now going on under the great foundations, and in addition to that the whole attempt to support higher education even by endowment is made today exceedingly uncertain by the industrial changes brought about partly by world war and partly by far-reaching economic revolution. Millions of dollars of former endowment funds are today worthless from these causes and the future of the endowed college, as I have said before, looks very uncertain.

The second possibility is one from which Wilberforce and its constituency has always recoiled but I think you will have to look it straight in the face and that is for Wilberforce University to become a full-fledged State school. There is an example before you of a state colored college to which I beg your careful attention. In 1832, Richard Humphries, a white Quaker, who was once a West Indian slave-owner was living in Philadelphia. On his death he left $10,000 to found an institution for Negroes. Negroes were at that time excluded from the public schools and colleges of that state. His money went to found the Institute for Colored Youth and from that time until after the Civil War, that Institute was one of the best colored high schools of the United States and trained some of our most distinguished leaders. The wife of a bishop of this church was long its honored principal.

After the Civil War, however, Negroes were gradually admitted to all the schools and colleges of Pennsylvania, the endowment of the colored Institute was too small to support it and the attendance not large. The trustees finally moved the school out into the country, to Cheyney and established it on an excellent site. Then came the question of support. The new principal, Leslie P. Hill, struggled for years, passing the hat to colored people and white in order to support this school which was now a teacher-training school. He could not get enough money. But the number of his students, attracted by good teaching and pleasant surroundings and repelled from other schools by social ostracism increased. At last it was clear that either the school must close or the state must support it. Hill, therefore, asked that Cheyney become a recognized state teacher-training school and college.

The colored people of Pennsylvania literally raised hell. They accused Hill of deliberate encouragment of segregation and of an attempt to lower the standards of Negro education. I once went down to Philadelphia to argue in support of Hill's proposition. I shall not soon forget the bitterness with which I was assailed. Nevertheless, Cheyney today is a state college adequately supported from public taxes and perhaps the most beautifully housed of any of our schools with an excellent group of well-paid teachers. Colored students still attend the University of Pennsylvania, the University of Pittsburgh and the other state normal schools; but in addition to that they attend Cheyney; and the net result of making Cheyney a state school is to my mind thoroughly vindicated.

If Wilberforce should become a state university, it need not and indeed according to the letter of its charter it cannot ever become an exclusively colored school. The charter of Wilberforce University said from the beginning in 1863 "There shall never be any distinction among the trustees, faculty or students on account of race or color." Added to this comes the constitution of the State of Ohio which prohibits the establishment of a purely racial school.

But there is no reason why an institution of higher learning, Wilberforce University, should not be established here depending entirely upon state and Federal appropriations and student fees; that these appropriations instead of being as they are today too small for the establishment of a first class educational institution become larger and larger, as there is developed here the will and ability to use them in the right way.

There is no reason why a predominantly colored faculty and colored student body should not constitute Wilberforce University and yet gradually raise itself to be the equal in every respect of any institution in this state or in the United States; thus proving to a skeptical generation that color is not connected with ability or honesty. When the time comes in the future, as it may well come, that white persons would be appointed now and then to the teaching force here and white students appear in the student body, it might also happen that colored men would be appointed to the faculty of Ohio State University and colored students continue to be received there, but not as mere outsiders, not as pariahs but as integral and welcome members of the institution.

I believe that this is the logical and right way to settle the difficulties and recurring upheavals at Wilberforce University. And I believe this because recently in spite of all the difficulties which have faced the university administration it has received from an independent and not over-friendly authority gratifying testimony as to what can be done at this institution, if the institution is organized and can function as a university should.

I do not think that the AME Church and the Wilberforce constituency realize what it has meant that for eighty-four years Wilberforce University has had no recognized standing in the United States as an educational institution. It has had sympathy; it has been commended for hard effort but its standing has not been officially recognized. The bachelor degree of Wilberforce University has never been sufficient to admit its possessor to recognized standing in a single institution of the world. Now this is serious. How serious it is can only be known by those acquainted with the present standards and methods of education. In Europe such an institution would not be allowed to confer degrees at all and in the United States until 1940 the Wilberforce degree was nationally discounted. Today for the first time in its history Wilberforce has received recognition, conditional to be sure, but official recognition that its degrees are reaching the national standard. Educationally this is the greatest accomplishment in the history of Wilberforce University.

In 1935, the officials of the North Central Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools made a careful investigation; they noted particularly this difficulty which I have stressed of two institutions with double control; with clashes of personalities, political interference and lack of funds. Four years later they came back. They generously recorded the fact that great improvement had been made; that through the efforts of the president who had made vital changes in the faculty, the clash of personalities had been abated; the teaching force had been strengthened; the library had been strikingly improved; and the general business administration was better. They said that while this pronounced progress had been accomplished that they could not at present recommend the admission of Wilberforce to the North Central Association.

Despite this, however, the Board of Review of the Commission on Higher Education, while recognizing that Wilberforce was still confronted with the same difficult problems, decided nevertheless to accredit the institution subject to the supervision of a committee which was to make annual reports in 1940, 1941 and 1942.

The University, therefore, for the first time in its history has received recognition as a standard institution.

Following this, a special committee report for the first of the trial years, 1940, records still continued improvement and "tangible evidence of an increased unity of purpose within the institution." It believes that Wilberforce is making reasonable progress in general and looks forward to the permanent accrediting of the institution after 1942; but the committee is still apprehensive because of threatened political interference. The interference has taken place. Through new legislation, a new state board comes into control. The balance of power swings toward the State, while the Presidency is still in the hands of the Church. The new board, over the president's recommendations, appoints and dismisses teachers. This throws the institution back again to the fundamental problem of putting a permanent end to this double control and of ceasing to make Wilberforce the football of partisan politics, whether this situation arises from dabbling in politics by Wilberforce officials or from outside politicians muscling in.

In either and both cases, an aroused public opinion, with stern rebuke of this cheapening and frustration of the great objects of an old and respected institution can set the present muddle straight and start the program which I have indicated: first, one head for Wilberforce; and then, after time, thought and adjustment; either an independent church school or a publicly supported state university.

But Wilberforce is more than a school and its problems transcend the Church. It is not simple a community; it is not simple the educational capital of three quarters of a million people united in a great and powerful organization; it is, or ought to be, one of the main centers out of which trained and scientific guidance for twelve million people could come. Now the chief present problem of these twelve millions today, is the matter of employment at a wage which will allow them to live like civilized human beings. In the present increasing turmoil of the world, there must eventually come, on the part of leading nations, a wide and fundamental readjustment of economic organization and industrial life and work and wage. Some of you assume, that when this reorganization, comes you are going automatically to inherit what belongs to you; but this will not happen unless you plan for yourselves in accordance with the best thought and training of the day.

That means that around Wilberforce as a community there should begin to grow a thriving self-supporting body of citizens, well-trained in science and art, abreast with the world in thought, raising their own food, building their own homes and beginning to manufacture the clothes and other articles that they use; and that this independent economy, separate from the school and yet nourishing it, racial and yet broadly inter-racial should spread out through Greene County and Ohio and the United States.

There should begin here that necessary and fateful organization of consumer power which once rescued Denmark and Sweden and is the only way out for the economic independence and physical survival of the American Negro.

This program which you should organize and plan today was begun for you more than a century ago when the colored people of Cincinnati rose up against their impossible surrounds called the first national convention of the Negroes in 1831 and began that mass migration to Canada which was the greatest movement among Negroes before the Civil War. Wilberforce University arose on the echo of the Cincinnati effort and if it ever finally succeeds, it will be because building upon that past it goes forward into an economic future starting here and developing into a community life high in thought, scientific in planning and unselfish in deed.

Gentlemen and ladies of the graduating classes: I have said little today directly to you, whose day of celebration this is. I have talked to your elders and to those set in authority over you. But every word I have uttered is indirectly for you. For yours is the kingdom and the power and the glory, forever. Your fathers will tell you that what I advise and plan is impossible. They are right. It is impossible. But The Impossible is just what you have got to do to save Wilberforce; and believe me when I say, out of the depth of years and the lore of centuries: This is a world where many times, the Impossible has been triumphantly achieved.

"Awake, awake, put on thy strength O, Zion, put on thy beautiful robes."

Speech while at Atlanta University. undated

THE SIGNIFICANCE OF HENRY HUNT

I want to talk to you for a short time on certain aspects of the life of Henry Hunt, stressing particularly the time in which he lived; the choice of racial identity which he had opportunity to make; and also the choice between city and country as the place where he would work; and finally, the question of income, salary, return for his efforts and for all human effort.

I knew Henry Hunt personally and with fair intimacy for more than twenty-five years; and since his day was contemporaneous with mine, I understood the major problems of his environment. The two generations between 1866 and the present had resemblances and differences: the first generation, 1866 to 1900, was a post-war generation where a nation was trying to reconstruct and adjust itself after a civil war which cost an unusual amount of blood and treasure. This was followed by a generation of accomplishment and complacency, pride and sudden catastrophe; a sort of culmination of forces loosened in the first generation, riding high on the winds of success, and smashing again to even greater disaster.

Persons living in a day like this, when a world is tottering and when all things are in question and when there is a curious uncertainty about the future, can hardly picture to themselves the years when Henry Hunt and I were boys and youths. That latter half of the nineteenth century was a time when everything seemed sweeping upward to great and splendid goals. Progress was the watchword; growth in heighth and width, in value, weight and power, were the slogans. It was even possible to look back upon the Civil War not so much as a disaster but as something which rid the country of the fatal incubus of slavery. Even in the South no matter how great the loss in wealth and how tense the fear of social revolution; this backward glance at slavery was the prevailing fashion. It was, men argued, an illogical institution, an institution which was hindering the broader possibilities of the South and thus of the whole nation. Fortunate it was that it had been swept away in theory if not in fact. That philosophy was all the easier to adopt because the country was at the edge of an economic development such as the world had never seen before. The resources of an incredibly rich continent was ready for exploitation on a colossal scale. Unhampered by political divisions; spurred on by the new capitalism in the hands of sharp, powerful, uninhibited and resourceful individuals, there began in the United States after the Civil War a career for industrial enterprise and an accumulation of private wealth such as the world never before witnessed. It seemed to Americans who lived in the eighties and nineties, that there were no reasonable limits to the accumulation of individual wealth, to the resource-ness of American invention, to the material greatness of the United States. Every worker could become a millionaire; every boy could be president; every student could be famous.

Henry Hunt grew up in this era and although the location of his birthplace in Hancock County, Georgia and the early education in its miserable schools was perhaps among the least promising start for any American, nevertheless the swirl of an onward and upward swooping of enterprise and ambition caught him and pushed him forward. To be sure, he lived to see the day when America was not quite so sure of the greatness of her accomplishment, of the wise distribution of her wealth, of the future of her citizens and of her ultimate place in the world. But before that day of doubt overwhelmed her thought, Henry Hunt had already been molded and brought to manhood.

Now in that manhood as I have intimated he had to make two choices: first of all he had a choice as to which race he should belong. Not many of us have any such choice; nor do we give adequate thought and sympathetic attention to the intricate problems which this involves. When you see an American white man who has had among his ancestors, near or far, an African, you class him without further to-do as a Negro; and thus American Negroes comprehend all sorts of people: black people with no trace of white blood; white people with no evident traces of black blood and all the gradations of color and so-called race between. Henry Hunt was in countenance and physical build and in many of his normal psychological reactions, a typical Georgia white man. In appearance and speech, he gave no hint of Negro descent. If he had chosen to join the white race in his earlier years, he could have done so without question. Thousands of men and women like him have done so.

At first thought most of you would say that it would be perfectly natural, if you could choose to be either black or white in America, you would be white; because the inhibitions, the caste laws, the prevalence of veiled or open insult, the problem of earning a living, make the life of an American of Negro descent one of unusual difficulty. Under the handicaps which we endure, other things being equal, it takes more energy, more ambition, a more determined will to accomplish a given task or to achieve a certain status, than it does in the case of white men. So that, as I have said, looking at the matter without particular thought, you would say that anyone in this world chooses naturally the path which most easily and quickly leads to happiness, accomplishment, service.

On the other hand, it may be that the choice of race in the case of one like Henry Hunt, involves certain sacrifices which one cannot easily make: first of all Henry Hunt had not only a colored mother and her relatives, but seven brothers and sisters and his choice of passing as a white man involved either similar choices on their part where that was possible or a complete breaking of family ties. And even beyond that there were ties of friendship and acquaintances which he would have to sever without any question. Here most people similarly circumstances hesitate. There have been some rather terrible tragedies in the United States especially in cities like New Orleans and Charleston and perhaps more particularly in the West Indies where gradations of color in the same family and in the same group have torn relatives and acquaintances aprt. After all life is primarily family and friends. One cannot lightly cast off this enveloping and intriguing bond of love and affection and seek to create a new place in a strange world.

But beside this there are certain questions of individual integrity and of self-respect which intervene. From a certain point of view it was idiotic to call Henry Hunt a Negro and the same thing applies to hundreds of colored Americans like John Hope and Senator Pinchback. But at the same time, from long teaching and deeply planted conviction the overwhelming opinion of white Americans is that the fact of one black ancestor in eight or sixteen makes tremendous difference of identity, of treatment and opportunity. Before such a paradox the whole natural resentment of a normal man arises in protest. It is unfair and silly and in a surprising number of cases it leads as it did in the case of Henry Hunt to deliberate choice on the part of white men to cast in their lot with Negroes and to refuse to repudiate any part of their ancestry in deference to current prejudice. They answer: Yes, I had a black grandmother and if that makes me black, I'll be black. How wise this choice is from a point of view of personal happiness it is difficult to say, but how helpful to the Negro race it has been in the case of men like Henry Hunt there can be no question. He suffered from the choice he made; he had difficulties super-imposed upon and added even to the usual difficulties of a Negro American. He was continual y facing a situation where after having been treated as a man and a fellow he suddenly was subjected to ostracism or open insult when it was found that he openly identified himself with the Negro race. He was continually facing this dilemma: shall I advertise my ancestry simply because this man thinks it of supreme importance or shall I stand on my right to be judged as a man regardless of my descent even though these people consider such self-assertion on my part as an unforgiveable deception.

There were always people who with misplaced sympathy and lack of delicate consideration were continually asking him why, why, he chose to be a Negro because after all there was involved so evidently the element of deliberate choice. Henry Hunt himself would have been quite clear upon the subject. He would have said frankly that to take a stand in America as anything but a Negro would have made him supremely unhappy, because here was an opportunity for battle and battle on the highest plane; and it may be well questioned if one gets out of the easy life and the carefully smoothed way, anywhere near as much of the thrill of living, as one may get out of choosing the hard way and the almost impossible task.

Then too Henry Hunt would have pointed out to you that your rather naive assumption that everyt ing in the world is easy for white folk just because they are white is based on astonishing ignorance. There are certain clear advantages attached to the obvious disadvantages of being a Negro. I remember once as a senior in a Northern col ege I was riding home on a street car with a classmate. I did not know him very well, but offhand I should have put him down as the most fortunate of mortals: good-looking, healthy, cultured, rich and white. But he made a confession to me that night in the little street car that bumped al ng the cobble stones between Boston and Cambridge. He said, "You know I don't know what I am going to do when I get out of college, because there is nothing in which I am particularly interested. I stared at him in open mouthed amazement. It had nev r occurred to me before that that there was any human being who did not have one great clear object in mind as his life work. And I immediately saw that I had one vast advantage over him and that was the advantage of a start of an object in life; of not only having a goal but of being able to set out toward it without hesitations and contradictions in thought and effort. That simply indicates one of the disadvantages of those people in the world who do not see or realize the world's injustice, who think of themselves as the privileged and who lose their opportunities because of the very abundance. Beyond that, however, the kind of caste restriction and prejudiced action that hems in black men today differs not absolutely in kind but simply in degree from those which hamper most of the people on earth and always has hampered them. The good things of life have always been reserved for the privileged few. The mass of men everywhere have always been in poverty and distress and whatever restriction in law and custom the American Negro suffers today, the majority of white people in other times and places have suffered exactly the same kind of discrimination. One has but to read the directions which the German conquerors have recently sent out concerning the treatment of the conquered Poles to see a worse system of caste and race hatred there outlined than could be found in Georgia. In the United States, to be sure, we have built up a country where with the exception of the Negro caste restrictions have been less than in most other lands but even here the prejudice against the Irish in New England, against Italians and Hungarians in the mid-states and against Germans and Scandinavians in the west, has approached, even though it has not by any means equaled the discrimination against Negroes. The path of a young white man or woman today in the United States is by no means broidered with roses. It is hard and difficult and while the difficulties may not lie in the same places or be of the same kind of those which you encounter, they are none the less real and appalling. While as I have indicated before to mitigate the difficulties of your position there are certain distinct advantages in clearness of ideal and sympathy for the uncalled. Whenever a nation oppresses a people it does not gather to itself simply the advantages of the privileged; it also gathers the distinct disadvantages of being always conscious of injustice and being continually compelled to act against its own conscience and against its own deeper wish.

I think that on the whole Henry Hunt was never unhappy at having chosen to identify himself with the race to which one of his sixteen great grandparents belonged.

There came a second choice where also the guiding lines of decision are not as clear as many would think. If, for instance, I asked this audience: how many of you would prefer to live in New York rather than Fort Valley, the vote in favor of New York, if it were open and honest, would be overwhelming. New York like all cities is a center of a magnificent civilization. That means that within a comparatively few square miles you can see an accumulation of beauty, of results of power and efficiency, of comfort and convenience which the whole state of Georgia could not duplicate. Then too, you would be surrounded there in small space with examples of individual ability, pleasant personalities and thousands of those who possess the individual genius which is building the world, etc. In a sense a great city like New York, London and the Paris that was, are vast and perpetual circuses where just to walk along the street is to receive a thrill and an education which could not be duplicated in years among the red hills of Georgia.

In numbers of cases the reason that most people do not go to New York is that they cannot make a living there but Henry Hunt could have made a living in New York or almost any large city. He was a man of great adaptability. He understood and got on with his fellow men. Opportunity and promotion in his case would not have encountered the difficulty of obvious color. He could have worked in New York and worked for and in the service of the Negro race. He chose rather deliberately to come to the country districts of Georgia. To explain the reasons of this choice one is tempted continually to go too far and to make assertions that border on the untruth. There is no use telling the ordinary intelligent individual that life in the country districts of Georgia has at present any distinct advantages over life on Fifth Avenue, New York. Considering life as life that is not true. On the other hand consider the great mass of living people and the destiny of the American nation and what groups composing it, if somebody does not take hold of rural life and re-make it and re-build it, city life will in the long run be entirely without support and reason for being. Now you cannot prove by any process of logic that it is your business in particular to do the more or less unpleasant job. You can, however, point out certain things. That in the first place the life in the country districts need not be as unpleasant as it is. In fact one can easily see that if the country districts of the United States and of the world were transformed as they might be there would not be the advantage of city life over country life which we now see. The point upon which we are not usually honest is this: the transformation is not easy and it cannot be swiftly done. No one of you is going to live long enough to see the poverty and squalor and primitive conditions of life in the rural South equal the comfort and efficiency of life at its best in the great cities. On the other hand, there are certain things that can be realized in the country districts

by ordinary people and can be enjoyed by ordinary people in the city which we are about to forget. Dirt, noise, crowded conditions of living, poor food; contact with careless, ugliness and crime; all this cannot be avoided by most of the people who live in cities. On the other hand there is in the country the immeasureable opportunity of silence, of fresh air and sunlight and to these things may be added with measurable effort fresh and wholesome food, the tremendous advantage of unlimited living space and acquaintance with the normal beauty of the living earth. With the growth of these advantages there can come in the country districts of the land a chance for physical health and family happiness which city life has almost ruined.

In addition to these things there are any number of modern comforts and inventions which the city has monopolized which easily could be brought to the country. When, therefore, you consider what the country might have, if its life was intelligently conducted and what the city lacks and must lack and how absolutely necessary it is that a foundation of normal rural life be put beneath our urban culture, you can easily see why a man like Henry Hunt saw his greatest usefulness in attacking this country problem. But this choice involved sacrifice and when one is called upon to sacrifice any part of his life for a great cause there is apt to be a good deal of deception and especially self-deception. The re-building and transformation of the rural districts of the United States, and of the South in particular, is one of the greatest of our needs but there is no use in trying to make normal and intelligent human beings believe that the process of accomplishing it is going to be swift and easy and furnish happy and comfortable lives for the persons who do it. There is something peculiar about sacrifice in human living, about the deliberate surrender of certain obvious advantages and happiness so that greater opportunity will come to someone else. It is not logical and there is no use pretending that it is. Some folk like to believe that this sort of thing while not rewarded in this world will be rewarded in some other world; but of this there is no proof. The man who faces the possibility of sacrifice for great ends would better make up his mind and grip his courage and say I am giving up something. It is mere pretense; it is "pie in the sky by and bye", to deny the real sacrifice. "It is worth while because I am willing to do something of this sort if it makes life broader and easier for other folk, such as I am, who are going to follow me.

Henry Hunt then chose to be a black man and chose to work in country districts, because he deliberately made a choice of this sort not only as to the race with whom he would work but also as to the place where he would work. There was one other thing which he faced and which you have to face and concerning which there is a good deal of muddy thinking in these days. And that is the matter of income. Most ordinary people have a certain fatalistic attitude toward income. The amount which a man is going to earn they seem to think is determined by forces largely outside himself. He may increase it by hard work and by saving but on the whole he receives wages, he does not make them. There is a small minority of people who make the matter of income, their chief thought: income for themselves and for their children. Usually they are people who are and have been well-to-do or rich and who have come to know that income is of such importance that they give a large part of their life toward the planning for wealth. What is uppermost in these people's mind is the fact that you can have no real and permanent civilization without adequate income. The available income of tenant farmers in the South, both white and black, has been calculated to be under $300 a year. There is no use telling a man who is receiving such a pittance to be good, happy and intelligent. This is impossible. Poverty breeds ignorance because poor people cannot adequately send their children to school. It breeds crime. The crime which arises from stealing food and clothes, from quarreling and fighting as a result of frayed nerves and locak of reasonable recreation and the crime that arises from vengeance and despair. Poverty breeds disease. I remember pointing out the high rate of death and sickness among colored people and blaming them for it. A scientist wrote me all the way from Russia and said that which you are publishing is not a Negro death rate it is a poverty death rate. Poor people are always diseased; poor people die young; the reason is simply: They do not have enough to eat, they are not protected from the weather and they cannot hire physicians. Where then you have low income you have ignorance, crime and disease and that is true the world over regardless of race or color.

Consequently a considerable group of people give a large part of their time and effort to being sure that they and their children get an income large enough so that they can live decently and in a civilized manner and educate their children and clothe and house them and give them that guidance and advice which will make them healthy and normal folk.

This does not mean that an adequate income will settle all our problems of education and crime and ill health but without doubt it will settle the major part of those problems and leave us time and opportunity to work for the eventual settlement of the rest. Unfortunately the matter of securing adequate income is hindered by the fact that the large incomes of the few are built at the expense of low incomes for the many. This need not necessarily be so. For a long time in the world we agreed that poverty was an unfortunate necessity and for many thousands of years this was true but today with the available wealth of the world and the ingenuity of the methods by which it can be made available for human consumption there is no doubt that the great majority of men could have an income adequate for health and comfort but this can only be accomplished if it is deliberately planned by governments and organizations and the abolition of poverty deliberately and continuously pursued as the major object of organized human life. The revolution of thought and effort by which this plan is to be brought about can only be pushed forward by social leaders, by thinkers, writers and teachers, by preachers who know what they are talking about and by men of vision like Henry Hunt who are willing to sacrifice something of the present comfort for the advantage of future generations. Unfortunately these very people who undertake this job of remolding the world so as to plan for the abolition of poverty are today themselves not being paid adequately for their work and cannot hope to be;so that in addition to the difficulty of identifying himself with a disadvantaged race and of working in the country rather than in the city, Henry Hunt had to face the fact that he could never hope to be rich or even secure through his work. That if he got enough to live in ordinary comfort he would be rather exceptional. The problem that he, therefore, leaves to you is a problem as to how you are going to see to it that not only the work is done for the people who need it and in the places where the need is greatest but also that that work is going to be so paid for that the persons who do it can do it well and not sacrifice health and strength and happiness in this duty.

Henry Hunt was born in a day when as I have said the distribution of wealth was looked upon as more or less accidental and providential, and whatever injustice ensued could be made up by working and saving. The problem of unemployment was not large enough in those days to be recognized as a matter of primary and national interest. Henry Hunt lived, however, to see a day when we began to realize that this matter of distributing wealth is something calling for intelligent action on the part of everybody. It is not providential; it is not a matter of chance. It is a matter of planning. Mr. Hunt and many others began to face in their efforts for social reform an embarrassing paradox. It is the peculiar paradox of this generation and is going to mean frustration in much of the work which you young people undertake. It may be illustrated in this way: a man is working as teacher in a country school. He wants a new school house; he wants children to attend more regularly and to wear better clothes and be able to buy books. He wants his own salary increased so that he can live decently and have one or two assistant teachers. If he looks to the county or the state to furnish these things he is disappointed. Partly because of customary and deliberate discrimination against colored schools and partly because the rural government has not money even for decent white schools. If the teacher now turns to his constituency the problem is no easier. The patrons of the school are not earning enough money to pay even in part for a new school house; to clothe and shelter their children and to buy them books, much less are they able to supplement the teacher's salary. What then must this teacher do? He may get some outside philanthropic agency to help but such help cannot be depended upon indefinitely. So that pretty soon once comes back to the basic problem: how can rural communities, white and black, be established upon such a firm economic foundation that they can pay adequately for their education? Here we are back again to the problem of income. This problem Henry Hunt faced repeatedly during his life. First, the support of a private school from community sources; then the support of a larger and better school by a great national religious organization; and finally the problem of turning the institution over to the state. Meantime always in his mind, in his talks with me and in his public addresses, in his writings there occurred this basic matter of how colored people were going to make a living so that they could support their institutions for social reform as well as homes and families.

It was my good fortune to be instrumental in opening a way for Henry Hunt to come in touch in some small way with a new method of planning which looked toward a solution of the economic problem of the Negro. His was only a small opportunity but the beginning of greater things and he turned to it with great energy and enthusiasm. I think without doubt it lightened perceptibly the load of his later years and made him see clearly a pathway where formerly had been increasing darkness and jungle.

I remember when the matter came up. We were sitting on the ground of a rural homestead in upper New York state. A group of twenty or thirty persons of all ages had been conferring here concerning the interests of American Negroes without great agreement. There came to call upon our host, Joel Spingarn, the man who is now a member of the president's cabinet and secretary of the United States Treasury, one of the most powerful posts in the world. Henry Morgenthau was at the time at the head of another department of government which had charge, among other things, of credit unions and he said to us that he wanted a colored man who could cooperate in that branch of the work and spread knowledge of it throughout the Negro race. I immediately said in my mind, Henry Hunt. I knew of no one in the United States who had such wide and intimate knowledge of the rural South and such devoted personal interest in its betterment. I repeated the name to my fellows and later unanimously a committee of which I was chairman sent the recommendation to Mr. Morganthau and Henry Hunt was appointed. Now it may be said that the matter of a group of persons pooling small savings and loaning them to each other, in cases of stress and necessity, is but nibbling at the edges of the great problem of better wages and normal income. That is true. But it is precisely at these ragged edges that fundamental reform is going to begin and the work of Henry Hunt's last three or four years of life had to do with the fundamental problem which faces us as citizens of the government of a great modern country.

A peculiarity of the rural South and of the poorer people in cities contrasting sharply with habits of New England and the Northwest is to borrow money for consumption, that is, to borrow money which they are going to spend for paying rent, or buying clothes, or buying furniture, or even buying food. The difficulty with thiskind of borrowing is two fold: first, it depends upon the chances of keeping a job and earning enough to pay back the loan; and secondly, under ordinary circumstances it exposes the borrower to usury, that is, to a payment of interest which varies from being merely high to being little less than outrageous theft. It happens in the South particularly that in the change from the slave plantation economy to a free wage system debt usury became customary, that is, workers were kept in debt either by deliberate planning or by accident of weather and the market and then spent their lives in trying to pay back the loans. This situation was a prime cause of the difficulty that workers in the South have even in beginning to save and accumulate. The same thing in different ways has grown up among the working population in cities all over the United States. The credit union comes in not to help directly in larger earnings but to help in saving that which the worker already owns. It proposes that a group of workers should put their small accumulations together and loan to those of their fellows whom they know who need to borrow for a real purpose and who have the honest habit of paying their debts. In this way thousands of poor people have escaped the huge interest charges which they used to pay and are making some beginning toward financial independence.

Henry Hunt during the last four or five years of his life not only kept up his interest and cooperation in the work here but made a wide and successful effort toward establishing credit unions among the Negroes of the United States. He thus made a small opening in that highway which must lead to greater independence among Negroes, to better support themselves and families, and greater ability to carry on work for social reform among themselves.

In these four matters then lie the significance of Henry Hunt: the peculiarity of the day and surge of effort in the age in which he lived; the illogical but necessary choice that he had to make as to the racial group with which he would work for the good of all; the fact that he chose the vital problem of country life not as against the city culture but for the sake of what the city must stand for if it is going to be the valuable focus of a civilization which embraces the whole land. And finally, Henry Hunt began to turn toward that planning of income and distribution of wealth which is the major social problem of our day.

These are the decisions and meanings which he has left for you. Much depends upon how you will use them and the lesson which you take from them. The necessity of being educated, healthy and normal in your activities must make you turn your attention to the matter of what you can earn; and what you earn in the light of Henry Hunt's life must bring up the question as to why you earn it and the ends toward which the life which your income supports should be turned. In other days we used to speak of the decision as to what a man was going to do with his life as involving a question of character. I should prefer today to call it a matter of logic. If, reasoning logically, a man proposes to work for himself alone and other men follow his example, we shall have a world in which there will not be much comfort and happiness because one of the difficulties today is that so many of us do not even attend to our own best interests. But on the other hand, if we have in the world an increasing number of people who are willing really and definitely to sacrifice, not all but a considerable part of their comfort and happiness in order that the number of people to whom happiness and comfort is possible may be largely increased; then not only is the sum total of happiness increased but the world is a much better place to live in. There are larger numbers of satisfied people; there is less envy and despair and less crime and disease. This does not deny the reality of the deprivation of those who work to make such a world possible. The question as to who is to make that sacrifice is, as the life of Henry Hunt teaches, a matter not of compulsion, not of threat, but of inner individual choice.

A CRITICAL ANALYSIS OF NEGRO SERVICE ORGANIZATIONS

I am going to give a history of organization among colored people in the United States with special reference to the National Urban League and the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People. I am speaking more particularly of service organizations, that is, organizations which have for their object the general social uplift of the Negro people.

The history of such organization among American Negroes goes back many years. First, organization was in the form of disucussion groups which varied from the meeting of a small number of people to discuss some incident, to the mass meeting which adopted resolutions and appointed committees for action. Sometime this development went no further. I remember when I entered Harvard College there was in Boston the Equal Rights League which met in the Charles Street Church once a month. It was a discussion group with strongly expressed opinions and many eloquent leaders. Its work, which continued for a number of years, never resulted in action. Committees now and then may have been appointed but very little was accomplished outside of a necessary and illuminating expression of opinion. This group, however, was but a specimen of a large number of recurrent discussion groups with committees and with officials. This type, ~~of~~ convention or council, which was followed by the may be divided into a half dozen groups. They began with the convention of 1830, which met in Philadelphia with about forty delegates and which arose from the discussion groups in Ohio, and had for their chief theme the treatment of Negroes in Cincinnati through sudden application of the Ohio Black Laws. A determined effort was being made to drive the Negro artisan and property holder out of Cincinnati, and as similar efforts had been manifest in Boston, New York and Philadelphia, colored leaders met in Philadelphia to see what could be done. These meetings were held annually from 1830 to about 1837 when the interest waned. They resulted in the migration movement to Canada and in other efforts especially toward education.

A second group of conventions began under the leadership of Frederick Douglass in 1847 and continued in Cleveland and Rochester until 1853. The meeting of the National Council in Rochester in that year was the most representative meeting of Negroes up until that time, and made great impression both upon colored people and upon the whites. It was followed in 1854 by a convention which grew out of the former convention, led by radicals who despaired of emancipation in the United States and were determined upon planned emigration. They sent agents to Mexico, Haiti and Africa.

The intervening war led to another series of conventions beginning with the National Convention in Syracuse in 1864, which made a strong demand for Negro enfranchisement. Various conventions were held in ~~various~~ Southern states during 1865. Then when Reconstruction showed itself as primarily an economic revolution, there came several conventions designed to take up this problem of employment. There were the National Labor Conventions of 1871 and later, and the migration conventions of 1870 under Adams and Singleton.// Between 1871 and 1895 there were sporadic efforts of no particular importance, but in 1895 the Afro-American Council, the parent body of current organizations was organized. This council was a permanent body in theory, and with permanent officials and committees. It lasted for about ten years with meetings in various parts of the country. Through its president, it became allied with the Pan-African Conference which met in London in 1900.

In 1906 came new movements after the practical death of the Afro-American Council. The first was the Niagara Movement of 1906 followed by the Negro Conference of 1909 and later by the Equal Rights League of 1914 which was practically a revival of the old Equal Rights League of 1890. Then came the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People in 1910, the Garvey conventions in 1915, the National Urban League in 1911, the Sanhedrim in 1922 and the Negro Congress in 1936.

Let us now consider these various bodies according to their type of organization. The conventions from 1830 to 1871 were alike in being without permanent organization and without permanent officials. At most they appointed standing committees and arranged for future meetings. On the other hand with the Afro-American Council and the Niagara Movement there began a type of organization with permanent officials and standing committees and with a small budget for the expenses of these officials. The difficulty, however, was that while these organizations had before them a large program of work their officials could give but incidental time and their committees had no funds to work with. A new type of organization was called for and came with the NAACP, the Urban League, the Garvey conventions. At the Negro Conference of 1909, there were numbers of members of the Niagara Movement and other organizations and interested white people. John E. Milholland said in a crowded theatre one Sunday night: 36-4-95 "If we are going to just meet once a year and pass resolutions, we might as well give up. What we want is a permanent headquarters and a salaried staff." That was accomplished in 1910, when headquarters were established first at 500 Fifth Avenue and then at 20 Vesey Street with three salaried officials, a secretary, a director of publications and research and a stenographer. A year later a committee for improving the conditions of the Negroes in New York formed itself into an Urban League and immediately a meeting was held between the NAACP and the Urban League to delimit fields and functions so there would be no unnecessary duplication of work. Both organizations proceeded to expand, organizing local bodies. In 1915 came the Garvey Movement with a dynamic leader, a large organization, numbers of salaried officials, branches all over the country and in some foreign lands and annual conventions. Since that there have been two efforts toward developing ~~the discussion group and conference,~~ the convention ~~and organizing~~ into a federated congress which should bring together on the one hand various organizations into one whole and on the other hand should at least aim at a congress of elected local representatives. None of these attempts have as yet been successful. Kelly Miller's Sanhedrim which met in the twenties was an ambitious effort but had but one meeting. The Negro Congress of 1936 attempted the same thing, and while it has met since that regularly, it has not carried out the idea of congressional representation.

Now let us turn to the question of the object of these organizations. We separate these briefly into nine categories although the division is not altogether logical: political rights, civil rights including the fight against lynching and mob violence, common school education, higher education, social equality, legal defense, employment and relief, migration, housing and residence areas. Many of these might be included under civil rights and of course there are various combinations and developments that might be used. On the whole this is a fair survey of the field. The earlier groups and conventions were especially busied with civil rights and education and to a less degree with employment and migration. The conventions of the forties and fifties added civil rights and legal defense. Employment and migration was the chief subject of the Reconstruction conventions and the conventions of our day have to do with political and civil rights, education, legal defense, employment and housing. In a field as broad as this organizations attacking it are bound first of all to limit their objectives in some respects, to raise the necessarily large amount called for by effective organization and to decide upon the methods of government within the organization. If we take this matter of concentration of control and direction of control we find considerable differences.

The earlier discussion groups employed mass meeting democracy. Anyone present could talk and vote and the results were apt to be contradictory and inconclusive. Convention democracy as illustrated by the Convention of 1830 and by the great meetings in Rochester in 1853 and in Syracuse in 1864 were meetings where there was leadership of well-known men and effective democratic control within a certain pattern and frame work. The general object of the convention and methods of obtaining the object were talked over before hand and during the convention, so that a fairly stable pattern was gradually built up. It suffered, however, from lack of continuity and the possibility of long term objectives which led naturally to the kind of clique rule which was at once the strength and the weakness of the Afro-American Council. A small group of officials and committee chairmen practically planned the meetings of the council and the action of committees. With the result that very often the Council in its short session, could neither understand the program nor change its objectives.

The Urban League was formed as a national body with permanent salaried officials and a governing board of directors. The directors met monthly and through their chairman exercised supervision over the League officials. The League officials gave their whole time to the work having offices in New York and had the work divided up under various sub-officials including persons who amount to traveling inspectors. They then proceeded to establish local leagues. The net result of this was that today the National Urban League is a federation of local leagues. The power, the money-raising, the selection of local officials including the secretary is in the hands of the local league. The annual convention is a convention of local officials together with members of the local board of control and the national officials. This form of government and operation was only made possible by two or three facts: first, the field of operation of the Urban League was from thestart limited. They were to address themselves to the matter of employment and relief. Now employment and relief had long been a problem of various charitable organizations. A pattern of action had been worked out and the job of the Urban League, national and local, was to see that the Negro was not left out of this pattern; that relief agencies should serve Negroes as well as white persons; that chances of employment should be kept open for Negroes and new opportunities opened. The mode of operation was not at all experimental. It was fairly well fixed. The local bodies affiliated with the national bodies knew the national program and applied it locally. The general body coordinated efforts as far as possible, giving advice and inspection, and publicized the whole movment. The local bodies did almost nothing toward the support of the national body and both national and local bodies depended for support upon philanthropy, mostly from white people, or from public movements like the community chest.

The NAACP on the other hand represented an organization with concentrated national control. This arose not so much by deliberate design as by the peculiarities of the field of action. The NAACP, following the Niagara Movement, was asking for the emancipation of a race on wide grounds of full political and civil rights, education both common school and higher, and legal defense. It even moved gradually to a demand for full social equality, although that was not on its original program and its attempted inclusion was long opposed. In a program of this sort, compromise and selection of objectives is absolutely essential. The demand for political rights in South Carolina and Louisiana is quite different from the demand in New York and Chicago. In the one case agitation must be aimed toward registration of voters. In the other case, to the matter of appointment to office, and the passage and execution of certain laws. In the case of civil rights while their extreme denial by lynching and mob violence could be demanded everywhere, in other cases the form of demand and the effectiveness varied greatly. The right to attend theatres, to enter public parks, to be served in places of public accomodations, and retail stores ~~and all these matters~~ presented so many complications and differences that it had to be a matter of careful consideration as to where attack could be successfully made and where discretion was the better part of valor. There were many difficult problems which the national board from the beginning had to fight out and in some cases no decision ever was made or could be. Take for instance the matter of racial segregation. The NAACP from the beginning was against segregation but that did not mean that it could or would attack all established segregation. It never for instance has attacked the organized Negro church or the Negro colleges and in only special cases the Negro common schools. In other words here it faced so deep-seated a pattern that attack was always a matter of considered compromise. Even the present effort to have Negroes admitted to the army does not in practice go beyond a demand for equal terms and equal services since for all real purposes a demand that a Negro be received in the army and navy on the same terms as white folk would fall flat. Moreover, there were certain inevitable contradictions. Take the fight, for instance, against Jim-Crow cars. My advice for many years in the NAACP was that the NAACP should fight for absolute equal accomodations in day coaches and pul lman cars with the idea that the expense of such equal accomodations in the long run would lead to a gradual diminution of the separation but others on the board argued that asking for equal accomodations would be condoning the present segregation. As, of course, it would. The result however of this difference of opinion was that the NAACP has practically made no attack upon Jim-Crow cars save in a few sporadic cases. Something similar happened in the case of segregation in schools. We were faced by this situation: here is a school system which discriminates shamefully against its Negro pupils. They are seated in the back of the room. They are not called upon to recite. They are discriminated against in marking and classification. They are advised to leave school and left out of all extra-curricula work. In reaction against this Negores and whites demand a separate school. The NAACP was ~~already~~ always ready to fight any such demand but what was the result? If whites were successful and the separate school was not established the situation of the Negro children in the regular school was if anything worse than before and what the NAACP ought to have done in a case like that was to ~~say~~ see that through a system of organized inspection and report these Negro children were given better treatment. But that absolutely necessary work was not in the program of the NAACP. They were to prevent discrimination and not to carry on constructive work to forestall results of discrimination. Moreover, they said with perfect right that they had no funds for this kind of work and that it would call for a large amount of money. On the other hand if a separate school was established it might be a poor school. no absolute rule of procedure available to all cases is possible

Or sometimes the very fight against segregation caused greater segregation and in new areas. That has been the result of the fight for rights to higher education in Southern education systems. There were various signs to show that several Southern states were willing to receive small numbers of Negro students in their graduate schools. Once the crust had been broken these numbers could easily have ~~gained~~ increased. Roughly speaking ~~that~~ in North Carolina and Missouri and later in Texas, Tennessee and Virginia negro graduate students could have been expected in the next ten or twenty years but the NAACP by forcing the issue today brought in the field of higher education increased segregation by ~~forcing~~ the beginning of graduate schools in various places throughout the South when there was ~~little~~ limited demand and few funds ~~to meet the demand~~. If adequate funds are found and a larger demand is manifest all that this fight against segregation will have done will be to increase the number of segregated institutions in a new and different field. This does not mean that the fight against ~~segregation~~ exclusion was ~~initially~~ wrong but it does bring up a very difficult question of time and tactics.

And because such questions were continually arising the NAACP from the beginning was afraid to have its local organizations assume any power either of discussion or action with regard to its general policy. Today, therefore, the NAACP is the least democratic of all of our national organizations. In fact it is entirely without democratic control. The national convention which meets annually can discuss and pass resolutions and give advice ~~to its heart content.~~ They have absolutely no legal validity. The national office does not have to pay the slightest attention beyond ordinary politeness and care not to discourage contributions to what the national convention says. There is going to be soon a young people's congress connected with the NAACP meeting in West Virginia. This is the second or third time that this has been attempted in the last fifteen years. When those young people come together they are going to speak out plainly on numbers of things that they think ought to be done and methods that ought to be adopted. They can talk to their heart's content. Nothing that they say or do has any influence, validity or compelling effect upon the national office. The national office is independent of all of the local bodies and of all of the organized meetings. It consists of a board of directors, an executive secretary, a number of assistant secretaries. Only a small part of the board of directors, naturally, are active and they are elected for three year terms so that every year one-third of them come up for reelection. This reelection, however, does not take place at the annual convention. It takes place at a small meeting of members of the Association held in the national office early in January. The matter is never widely advertised and those attending usually being a couple of dozen (not above 50) people. When that meeting is asked to elect they find ~~usually~~ there is (only) one ticket. That ticket has been nominated by a nominating committee. The nomina-

ing committee has been appointed by the chairman of the board of directors. In twenty-five years no person nominated by the nominating committee has ever been defeated by the annual meeting. The reason is that nominations are closed before the annual meeting takes place. It would, of course, not be impossible for a determined group of people to force a different set of nominees and pack the annual meeting and carry the election but even in that case it would take three years before the board of directors could be entirely changed. As I have said this was (not) deliberately arranged (but gradually adopted) so that the main objects of the NAACP could not be easily changed. The unfortunate result ~~is that~~ (seems) to be, however, that power is now so concentrated into the hands of the secretary and the chairman of the board that even necessary and advisable change is almost out of the question without a fight that would probably disrupt the organization.

This deprives the NAACP of the necessary (pendulum of) local advice. The Negro problems are not one series of problems. They vary not only from section to section but from locality to locality. What is needed in each locality is advisory bodies investigating and planning and seeking to work out a program of agitation and action which would make for the emancipation of the Negro race in that locality. If these various plans then were federated into a national organization the business of the national organization would be to sift out and coordinate these plans into something as near a national program as possible. The NAACP has always been afraid of this sort of thing with the result that its local bodies are always weak and temporary. There have been times when the NAACP organizations in Boston, Washington, in Cleveland, northern California were large, virile, powerful and effective bodies. They have had but short life. The moment that they attempted any autonomous action or independent thinking they were squelched by the national office even to the extent of law suits like the one which recently ousted the local officials in Washington.

Here too comes a complication in the problem of support. If the NAACP starts a popular agitation, its local bodies begin to revive and to raise money. At the height of its efficiency most of the money which the NAACP spent came through small gifts from colored people. They gave the organization an efficiency and independence which few similar organizations have ever had but also it increased the demand for local autonomy among the branches and when that demand was not granted the contributions fell off. Today the NAACP still receives considerable Negro support but a larger proportion of the support comes from white folk.

If we compare this situation with the Urban League other difficulties are seen. The Urban League, for instance, is working for employment and industrial opportunity for Negroes to increase their incomes, for better housing and things of that sort. Now the uplift of the laboring class to which the Negro belongs has for a century and more depended upon the organization of laborers. The labor union movement is the greatest democratic movement of modern times and its accomplishments have been marvelous. One of the first things, therefore, logically for the U.L would have been ~~done would have been~~ to build up rapproachment between the labor unions and the Negro people so as to get the power of the unions back of Negro uplift and to cease the underbidding of ~~white laborers~~ wage standards by cheap Negro labor. The Urban League made some efforts in this direction and laid out one or two elaborate plans resulting in conferences with officials of the A F of L and in the plan which T. Arnold Hill fathered. But the Urban League could not go far in this because of their independence upon white philanthropy and the community chest. The people back of relief in general in the United States are the richer folk opposed to union labor and they have often used their influence and their money to increase the rivalry between white and black labor and encourage the underbidding of union wages by colored scabs. The result is that in the midst of its field and in the very place where the greatest social reform is coming in the future, that is, in economic reconstruction, the Urban League has been compelled to be almost silent. It's national officials are elected by a board with white majority — either actual or in effect & local officials must be united to local white opinion

Where now is the outcome to be sought in these paradoxes and complications. Evidently it can best come if local organizations not only ask for power and democratic control over the national organization but also completely underwrite the expenses of the national organization. If there ~~was~~ were a national organization in the United States which did not have to pass the hat to people not interested in their main objectives but who knew that every year, regularly, $50,000 or a $100,000 was going to be put into the hands of the national body for their expenses, the local bodies thus furnishing funds would have not only the right but the duty to supervise and control the personnel of the national office and its program. But here, of course, comes additional trouble. This would call for agreement as to what that national program would be. And today one of the difficulties as illustrated by the Negro Congress is to achieve any such agreement. We can agree in general and vaguely that we wish to be full-fledged American citizens without discrimination or segregation and the answer is that no matter what we want it cannot be achieved in ~~a~~ our generation inhibited by the customs and beliefs of the present white Americans. It is unnecessary, however, to jump at the opposite conclusion that because this complete program cannot immediately be achieved that, therefore, it cannot be started and achieved in part. Just as soon, however, as some one ~~inadvertently~~ certainly in many cases suggests that a part of a loaf is ~~after all~~ better than none; that with long time planning & temporarily hosthoned objectives the increased freedom of American Negroes in the recent past shows what gradually can be accomplished in the future. No sooner than ~~is~~ this is suggested than a babel of voices arise in criticism and condemnation. With the result that a national orgranization like the NAACP is often push~~ed~~ toward a foolish ~~program~~ demand or ~~the Urban~~ inhibited from espousing a reasonable program, because of ~~the~~ fear of its divided constituency. On the other hand the Urban League in a different way is forced into demanding "light without heat" and a fight for freedom without ~~agitation~~ fighting and general compliance with things as they are. Contrasting the NAACP and the Urban League certain things are evident. In the first place the NAACP attempted to spend its entire energy in protest without any attention to constructive planning because all constructive planning demands at least temporary acquience in certain forms of race discrimination and segregation. On the other hand the Urban League attempted to avoid all appearance of protest and dissatisfaction and to confine its constructive work to relief and paliation rather than to give any thought to radical rebuilding. Both organizations resemble each other in the relatively small voice that the colored people have in their conduct and decision.

This is as I see it an over-view of Negro organization from 1830 to 1940, a period of one hundred and ten years. The growth of such organization in efficiency and in membership is despite all cultures tremendous. Its still lingering weakness ~~is~~ in lack of effective programs and united action and regular support is manifest. But certainly the young men and women starting with 1940 and looking forward to Negro organization in the future have much more to encourage them than those who were starting and looking forward in 1830.

The Negro congress have not only not organized a Congress, but cannot agree on a program & have attempted no slash in Constructive work. This also is not supported by Negroes

A CRITICAL ANALYSIS OF NEGRO SERVICE ORGANIZATIONS

W. E. B. Du Bois

I am going to give a history of organization among colored people in the United States with special reference to the National Urban League and the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People. I am speaking more particularly of service organizations, that is, organizations which have for their object the general social uplift of the Negro people.

The history of such organization among American Negroes goes back many years. First, organization was in the form of disucussion groups which varied from the meeting of a small number of people to discuss some incident, to the mass meeting which adopted resolutions and appointed committees for action. Sometime this development went no further. I remember when I entered Harvard College there was in Boston the Equal Rights League which met in the Charles Street Church once a month. It was a discussion group with strongly expressed opinions and many eloquent leaders. Its work, which continued for a number of years, never resulted in action. Committees now and then may have been appointed but very little was accomplished outside of a necessary and illuminating expression of opinion. This group, however, was but a specimen of a large number of recurrent discussion groups with committees and with officials. This type was followed by the convention or council which may be divided into a half dozen groups. They began with the convention of 1830 which met in Philadelphia with about forty delegates and which arose from the discussion groups in Ohio, and had for their chief theme the treatment of Negroes in Cincinnati through sudden application of the Ohio Black Laws. A determined effort was being made to drive the Negro artisan and property holder out of Cincinnati, and as similar effort had been manifest in Boston, New York and Philadelphia, colored leaders met in Philadelphia to see what could be done. These meetings were held annually from 1830 to about 1837 when the interest waned. They resulted in the migration movement to Canada and in other efforts especially toward education.

A second group of conventions began under the leadership of Frederick Douglass in 1847 and continued in Cleveland and Rochester until 1853. The meeting of the National Council in Rochester in that year was the most representative meeting of Negroes up until that time, and made great impression both upon colored people and upon the whites. It was followed in 1854 by a convention which grew out of the former convention led by radicals who despaired of emancipation in the United States and were determined upon planned emigration. They sent agents to Mexico, Haiti and Africa.

The intervening war led to another series of conventions beginning with the National Convention in Syracuse in 1864 which made a strong demand for Negro enfranchisement. Various conventions were held in Southern states during 1865. Then when Reconstruction showed itself as primarily an economic revolution there came several conventions designed to take up this problem of employment. There were the National Labor Conventions of 1871 and later, and the migration conventions of 1870 under Adams and Singleton. Between 1871 and 1895 there were sporadic efforts of no particular importance but in 1895 the Afro-American Council, the parent body of current organizations was organized. This council was a permanent body in theory, and with permanent officials and committees. It lasted for about ten years with meetings in various parts of the country. Through its president, it became allied with the Pan-African Conference which met in London in 1900.

In 1906 came new movements after the practical death of the Afro-American Council. The first was the Niagara Movement of 1906 followed by the Negro Conference of 1909 and later by the Equal Rights League of 1914 which was practically a revival of the old Equal Rights League of 1890. Then came the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People in 1910, the Garvey conventions in 1915, the National Urban League in 1911, the Sanhedrim in 1922 and the Negro Congress in 1936.

Let us now consider these various bodies according to their type of organization. The conventions from 1830 to 1871 were alike in being without permanent organization and without permanent officials. At most they appointed standing committees and arranged for future meetings. On the other hand with the Afro-American Council and the Niagara Movement there began a type of organization with permanent officials and standing committees and with a small budget for the expenses of these officials. The difficulty, however, was that while these organizations had before them a large program of work their officials could give but incidental time and their committees had no funds to work with. A new type of organization was called for and came with the NAACP, the Urban League, the Garvey conventions. At the Negro Conference of 1909, there were numbers of members of the Niagara Movement and other organizations and interested white people. John E. Milholland said in a crowded theatre one Sunday night, "If we are going to just meet once a year and pass resolutions, we might as well give up. What we want is a permanent headquarters and a salaried staff." That was accomplished in 1910, when headquarters were established first at 500 Fifth Avenue and then at 20 Vesey Street with three salaried officials, a secretary, a director of publications and research and a stenographer. A year later a committee for improving the conditions of the Negroes in New York formed itself into a Urban League and immediately a meeting was held between the NAACP and the Urban League to delimit fields and functions so there would be no unnecessary duplication of work. Both organizations proceeded to expand, organizing local bodies. In 1915 came the Garvey Movement with a dynamic leader, a large organization, numbers of salaried officials, branches all over the country and in some foreign lands and annual conventions. Since that there have been two efforts toward developing [illegible], the convention [illegible] into a federated congress which should bring together on the one hand various organizations into one whole and on the other hand should at least aim at a congress of elected local representatives. None of these attempts have as yet been successful. Kelly Miller's Sanhedrim which met in the twenties was an ambitious effort but had but one meeting. The Negro Congress of 1936 attempted the same thing, and while it has met since that regularly, it has not carried out the idea of congressional representation.

Now let us turn to the question of the object of these organizations. We separate these briefly into nine categories although the division is not altogether logical: political rights, civil rights including the fight against lynching and mob violence, common school education, higher education, social equality, legal defense, employment and relief, migration, housing and residence areas. Many of these might be included under civil rights and of course there are various combinations and developments that might be used. On the whole this is a fair survey of the field. The earlier groups and conventions were especially busied with civil rights and education and to a less degree with employment and migration. The conventions of the forties and fifties added civil rights and legal defense. Employment and migration was the chief subject of the Reconstruction conventions and the conventions of our day have to do with political and civil rights, education, legal defense, employment and housing. In a field as broad as this organizations attacking it are bound first of all to limit their objectives in some respects, to raise the necessarily large amount called for by effective organization and to decide upon the methods of government within the organization. If we take this matter of concentration of control and direction of control we find considerable differences.

The earlier discussion groups employed mass meeting democracy. Anyone present could talk and vote and the results were apt to be contradictory and inconclusive. Convention democracy as illustrated by the Convention of 1830 and by the great meetings in Rochester in 1853 and in Syracuse in 1864 were meetings where there was leadership of well-known men and effective democratic control within a certain pattern and frame work. The general object of the convention and methods of obtaining the object were talked over before hand and during the convention, so that a fairly stable pattern was gradually built up. It suffered, however, from lack of continuity and the possibility of long term objectives which led naturally to the kind of clique rule which was at once the strength and the weakness of the Afro-American Council. A small group of officials and committee chairmen practically planned the meetings of the council and the action of committees. With the result that very often the Council in its short session could neither understand the program nor change its objectives.

The Urban League was formed as a national body with permanent salaried

officials and a governing board of directors. The directors met monthly and through their chairman exercised supervision over the League officials. The League officials gave their whole time to the work having offices in New York and had the work divided up under various sub-officials including persons who amount to traveling inspectors. They then proceeded to establish local leagues. The net result of this was that today the National Urban League is a federation of local leagues. The power, the money raising, the selection of local officials including the secretary is in the hands of the local league. The annual convention is a convention of local officials together with members of the local board of control and the national officials. This form of government and operation was only made possible by two or three facts: first, the field of operation of the Urban League was from thestart limited. They were to address themselves to the matter of employment and relief. Now employment and relief had long been a problem of various charitable organizations. A pattern of action had been worked out and the job of the Urban League, national and local, was to see that the Negro was not left out of this pattern; that relief agencies should serve Negroes as well as white persons; that chances of employment should be kept open for Negroes and new opportunities opened. The mode of operation was not at all experimental. It was fairly well fixed. The local bodies affiliated with the national bodies knew the national program and applied it locally. The general body coordinated efforts as far as possible, giving advice and inspection, and publicized the whole movement. The local bodies did almost nothing toward the support of the national body and both national and local bodies depended for support upon philanthropy, mostly from white people or from public movements like the community chest.

The NAACP on the other hand represented an organization with concentrated national control. This arose not so much by deliberate design as by the peculiarities of the field of action. The NAACP following the Niagara Movement was asking for the emancipation of a race on wide grounds of full political and civil rights, education both common school and higher, and legal defense. It even moved gradually to a demand for full social equality although that was not on its original program and its attempted inclusion was long opposed. In a program of this sort compromise and selection of objectives is absolutely essential. The demand for political rights in South Carolina and Louisiana is quite different from the demand in New York and Chicago. In the one case agitation must be aimed toward registration of voters. In the other case to the matter of appointment to office and the passage and execution of certain laws. In the case of civil rights while their extreme denial by lynching and mob violence could be demanded everywhere in other cases the form of demand and the effectiveness varied greatly. The right to attend theatres to enter public parks, to be served in places of public accomodation, and retail stores presented so many complications and differences that it had to be a matter of careful consideration as to where attack could be successfully made and where discretion was the better part of valor. There were many difficult problems which the national board from the beginning had to fight out and in some cases no decision ever was made or could be. Take for instance the matter of racial segregation. The NAACP from the beginning was against segregation but that did not mean that it could or would attack all established segregation. It never for instance has attacked the organized Negro church or the Negro colleges and in only special cases the Negro common schools. In other words here it faced so deep-seated a pattern that attack was always a matter of considered compromise. Even the present effort to have Negroes admitted to the army does not in practice go beyond a demand for equal terms and equal services since for all real purposes a demand that a Negro be received in the army and navy on the same terms as white folk would fall flat. Moreover, there were certain inevitable contradictions. Take the fight, for instance, against Jim-Crow cars. My advice for many years in the NAACP was that the NAACP should fight for absolute equal accomodations in day coaches and pul man cars with the idea that the expense of such equal accomodations in the long run would lead to a gradual diminution of the separation but others on the board argued that asking for equal accomodations would be condoning the present segregation. As, of course, it would. The result however of this difference of opinion was that the NAACP has practically made no attack upon Jim-Crow cars save in a few sporadic cases. Something similar happened in the case of segregation in schools. We were faced by this situation: here is a school system which discriminates shamefully against its Negro pupils. They are seated in the back of the room. They are not called upon to recite. They are discriminated against in marking and classification. They are advised to leave school and left out of all extra-curricula work. In reaction against this Negores and whites demand a separate school. The NAACP was always ready to fight any such demand but what was the result? If the whites were successful and the separate school was not established the situation of the Negro children in the regular school was if anything worse than before and what the NAACP ought to have done in a case like that was to see that through a system of organized inspection and report these Negro children were given better treatment. But that absolutely necessary work was not in the program of the NAACP. They were to prevent discrimination and not to carry on constructive work to forestall results of discrimination. Moreover, they said with perfect right that they had no funds for this kind of work and that it would call for a large amount of money. On the other hand if a separate school was established it might be a poor school. No absolute rule of procedure suitable to all cases is possible.

Or sometimes the very fight against segregation caused greater segregation and in new areas. That has been the result of the fight for rights to higher education in Southern education systems. There were various signs to show that several Southern states were willing to receive small numbers of Negro students in their graduate schools. Once the crust had been broken these numbers could easily have increased Roughly speaking [illegible] in North Carolina and Missouri and later in Texas, Tennessee and Virginia, Negro graduate students could have been expected in the next ten or twenty years but the NAACP by forcing the issue today brought in the field of higher education increased segregation by [illegible] the beginning of graduate schools in various places throughout the South when there was limited demand and few funds to meet the demand. If adequate funds are found and a larger demand is manifest all that this fight against segregation will have done will be to increase the number of segregated institutions in a new and different field. This does not mean that the fight against exclusion was wrong but it does bring up a very difficult question of time and tactics.

And because such questions were continually arising the NAACP from the beginning was afraid to have its local organizations assume any power either of discussion or action with regard to its general policy. Today, therefore, the NAACP is the least democratic of all of our national organizations. In fact it is entirely without democratic control. The national convention which meets annually can discuss and pass resolutions and give advice to its heart content. They have absolutely no legal validity. The national office does not have to pay the slightest attention beyond ordinary politeness and care not to discourage contributions to what the national convention says. There is going to be soon a young people's congress connected with the NAACP meeting in West Virginia. This is the second or third time that this has been attempted in the last fifteen years. When those young people come together they are going to speak out plainly on numbers of things that they think ought to be done and methods that ought to be adopted. They can talk to their heart's content. Nothing that they say or do has any influence, validity or compelling effect upon the national office. The national office is independent of all of the local bodies and of all of the organized meetings. It consists of a board of directors, an executive secretary, a number of assistant secretaries. Only a small part of the board of directors, naturally, are active and they are elected for three year terms so that every year one-third of them come up for reelection. This reelection, however, does not take place at the annual convention. It takes place at a small meeting of members of the Association held in the national office early in January. The matter is never widely advertised and those attending usually being a couple of dozen or not above fifty people. When that meeting is asked to elect they find usually only there is one ticket. That ticket has been nominated by a nominating committee. The nomina-

ing committee has been appointed by the chairman of the board of directors. In twenty-five years no person nominated by the nominating committee has ever been defeated by the annual meeting. The reason is that nominations are closed before the annual meeting takes place. It would, of course, not be impossible for a determined group of people to force a different set of nominees and pack the annual meeting and carry the election but even in that case it would take three years before the board of directors could be entirely changed. As I have said this was not deliberately arranged but gradually adopted so that the main objects of the NAACP could not be easily changed. The unfortunate result, however, is that power is now so concentrated into the hands of the secretary and the chairman of the board that even necessary and advisable change is almost out of the question without a fight that would probably disrupt the organization.

This deprives the NAACP of the necessary pendulum of local advice. The Negro problems are not one series of problems. They vary not only from section to section but from locality to locality. What is needed in each locality is advisory bodies investigating and planning and seeking to work out a program of agitation and action which would make for the emancipation of the Negro race in that locality. If these various plans then were federated into a national organization the business of the national organization would be to sift out and coordinate these plans into something as near a national program as possible. The NAACP has always been afraid of this sort of thing with the result that its local bodies are always weak and temporary. There have been times when the NAACP organizations in Boston, Washington, in Cleveland, northern California were large, virile, powerful and effective bodies. They have had but short life. The moment that they attempted any autonomous action or independent thinking they were squelched by the national office even to the extent of law suits like the one which recently ousted the local officials in Washington.

Here too comes a complication in the problem of support. If the NAACP starts a popular agitation, its local bodies begin to revive and to raise money. At the height of its efficiency most of the money which the NAACP spent came through small gifts from colored people. This gave the organization an efficiency and independence which few similar organizations have ever had but also it increased the demand for local autonomy among the branches and when that demand was not granted the contributions fell off. Today the NAACP still receives considerable Negro support but a larger proportion of the support comes from white folk.

If we compare this situation with the Urban League other difficulties are seen. The Urban League, for instance, is working for employment and industrial opportunity for Negroes to increase their incomes, for better housing and things of that sort. Now the uplift of the laboring class to which the Negro belongs has for a century and more depended upon the organization of laborers. THE ATLANTA UNIVERSITY STUDIES OF SOCIAL CONDITIONS AMONG NEGROES 1896 - 1913

by

About 1890 Booker T. Washington established at Tuskegeee Institute a series of workers conferences. They consisted of annual meetings of teachers in the surrounding counties, farmers, and others and gradually a great many visitors, colored and white, were attracted. In 1896 inspired by the success and wide publicity of the Tuskegee conferences, President Dumstead George W. Bradford of Boston, a white trustee of Atlanta University, conceived the idea that just as Tuskegee was through its conferences attacking the problem of the Negro in rural districts so Atlanta University might institute a similar series for the study of city problems. Accordingly, May 26, 1896, there met at Atlanta University the first conference "for investigation of city problems". The meeting had been planned for November, 1895 during the Atlanta Exposition but was changed to commencement time 1896. Mr. Bradford had become a trustee in 1895 and took charge of the general direction of investigation aided by Edward Cummings, instructor in sociology at Harvard College, in whose classes I had formerly been a student. It was thought best to begin with the topic of Negro mortality. The occasion and purpose of the conference was outlined by Mr. Bradford and this was followed by excellent reports on mortality of the city of Washington collected by L. M. Hershaw. Some attempt was made to supplement these by reports of Atlanta but the records were rather scanty. Lucy Laney of Augusta contributed a short study of conditions leading to excessive mortality and a letter was received from George W. Cable. As a scientific accomplishment the first conference was not important but a permanent organization was made with Horace Bumstead as chairman and James Weldon Johnson and George Towns as recording secretaries. George W. Bradford was the corresponding secretary. Arrangements were made for a second conference in 1897 and during the interval Dr. Bumstead made contact with me, then assistant Instructor at the University of Pennsylvania, to ask me to come as a teacher and take charge of the conferences. I did not really take charge however until the third conference. The second conference was held in May, 1897 and some very excellent figures were reported by L. M. Hershaw covering a study of vital statistics in Atlanta, Baltimore, Charleston, Memphis and Richmond. Eugene Harris added figures from Nashville and there was a lively discussion out of which came eventually the colored day nurseries and kindergartens of Atlanta. The conference was especially notable because in the printed reports it published a large number of ~~excellent and~~ reliable figures.

By the time of the third conference I had come upon the ground and had taken charge of the investigations and changed the ~~whole~~ basic plan. This change was partly unconscious and partly deliberate. There had already been set-up on the advice of Robert R. Moton a conference at Hampton but the Hampton and Tuskegee conferences and others which imitated them were places of comparison of conditions, exchange of ideas, personal reminiscences. They got their great value from the various persons which they brought into close contact. In the case of the Atlanta conferences I united Hershaw's idea of careful and wide investigation on a particular subject with my own intensive study of the PHILADELPHIA NEGRO which I had just finished and which was published in 1899. My idea minimized the conference part of the program, that is, the speeches, the reminiscences, the meeting of people and put the whole stress upon the preceding year-long investigation of social conditions. Moreover, instead of trying to study the whole mass of social conditions and discuss the whole Negro problem, I deliberately put an "s" upon problem and emphasized the study of Negro problems and then took up one problem or one phase of a social problem affecting Negroes for a year's intensive study.

My idea finally ~~then~~ was to set-up a series of annual special studies repeated at decennial intervals and covering the whole condition of the American Negro. The conferences thus provided for made the following studies during the first decade:

NEGRO MORTALITY - 1896
SOCIAL AND PHYSICAL CONDITION OF NEGROES IN CITIES - 1897
EFFORTS FOR SOCIAL BETTERMENT - 1898
NEGROES IN BUSINESS - 1899
COLLEGE-BRED NEGROES - 1900
THE NEGRO COMMON SCHOOL - 1901
THE NEGRO ARTISAN - 1902
THE NEGRO CHURCH - 1903
NEGRO CRIME - 1904
METHODS AND RESULTS - 1905

During the next decade I laid down (but did not wholly carry out) the following program:

THE NEGRO PHYSIQUE - 1906
THE NEGRO FAMILY - 1907
NEGRO ORGANIZATIONS - 1908
THE ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT OF NEGROES, I - 1909
THE ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT OF NEGROES, II - 1910
THE EDUCATION OF NEGROES - 1911
THE POLITICAL PO ER OF NEGROES - 1912
THE NEGRO CHURCH - 1913
CRIME AMONG NEGROES - 1914
METHODS AND RESULTS - 1915

For twenty years Atlanta University was the only institution in the world that was making systematic and scientific study of the Negro race.

The success of the conferences and reports were phenomenal. The reports were used all over the civilized world and it is fair to say that between 1910 and 1925 no book on the American Negro was written that was not at least in part based upon our studies ~~here~~ at Atlanta University. In addition to this there were many other indirect results. For instance, when the report on the Negro in Business was published in 1899 Mr. Washington immediately wrote me and asked for a list of Negro businesses and business men. I sent them to him and on the basis of this list he finally formed the Negro Business League. The report on the College-Bred Negro was widely discussed and also that on the Negro Common School. But we could not get money to carry out the conferences. I worked thirteen years on them at $1,200 a year and the University printed them in its own printing office. But nevertheless further support was not forthcoming. For these and other reasons, therefore, I changed somewhat the program. In 1906, I made a study of the Health and Physique of American Negroes which up to the time was the best and most complete study of its kind published. Then instead of following my original plan I turned aside. We got a thousand dollars from the Carnegie Institute of Washington on condition that we publish a study on Economic Cooperation among Negroes. That was made in 1907 and was followed by a study of the Negro American Family which again came back to matters of health and physique as well as the economics of the family. In 1909, came a study of Social Betterment among Negroes followed by a second study of the Negro College, the Negro Common School, the Negro Artisan.

The final study of which I was directly connected was a study of Morals and Manners. I then left for work with the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People in New York and took up the publication of the CRISIS.

After I left Atlanta University, I tried to arrange for the continuation of the conferences and the publication of conference studies with my help. I actually got the trustees of the Slater Fund to agree to this and they joined with us in publishing Morals and Manners in 1914. But President Ware did not think it wise to continue this collaboration and I, therefore, severed all connection with the conferences. Other conferences were held (in 1920, 21, 22, 23 & 24; but only) and one study published in 1916, but this was a compilation rather than an investigation. Another investigation was started later and a large amount of material gathered, but it was never published.

I may say frankly that if there had been any reasonable prospect of the continuing support of my work with the Atlanta Conferences, I should never have left Atlanta University even though the salary offered in New York was exactly twice as large as that I was receiving here.

Three or four studies which we made are of special interest to the program which you have tonight but all of them have the deeper interest of having been a pioneer effort toward social investigation which bade fair for a while to be the most unique in the world and failed of accomplishment because funds were not available. I have always regretted that the work had to stop when it did and that a period of nearly ~~thirty~~ 20 years went by when leadership in the social study of the Negro passed from the Negro's own hands here in Atlanta to the hands of white people in North Carolina and many Northern institutions.

I am, however, glad to be able to report that I hope in 1941 to hold the Twenty-Fifth Atlanta University Conference, beginning after a lapse of seventeen years, under the title of the First PHYLON Conference, the 3rd decade of ~~the Atlanta~~ these university conferences.

THE ATLANTA UNIVERSITY STUDIES OF SOCIAL CONDITIONS AMONG NEGROES 1896 - 1913

W. E. Burghardt Du Bois

About 1890 Booker T. Washington established at Tuskegee Institute a series of workers conferences. They consisted of annual meetings of teachers in the surrounding counties, farmers, and others and gradually a great many visitors, colored and white, were attracted. In 1896 inspired by the success and wide publicity of the Tuskegee conferences, President Bumstead and George W. Bradford of Boston, a white trustee of Atlanta University, conceived the idea that just as Tuskegee was through its conferences attacking the problem of the Negro in rural districts so Atlanta University might institute a sumilar series for the study of city problems. Accordingly, May 26, 1896, there met at Atlanta University the first conference "for investigation of city problems". The meeting had been planned for November, 1895 during the Atlanta Exposition but was changed to commencement time 1896. Mr. Bradford had become a trustee in 1895 and took charge of the general direction of investigation aided by Edward Cummings, instructor in sociology at Harvard College, in whose classes I had formerly been a student. It was thought best to begin with the topic of Negro mortality. The occasion and purpose of the conference was outlined by Mr. Bradford and this was followed by excellent reports on mortality of the city of Washington collected by L. M. Hershaw. Some attempt was made to supplement these by reports of Atlanta but the records were rather scanty. Lucy Laney of Augusta contributed a short study of conditions leading to excessive mortality and a letter was received from George W. Cable. As a scientific accomplishment the first conference was not important but a permanent organization was made with Horace Bumstead as chairman and James Weldon Johnson and George Towns as recording secretaries. George W. Bradford was the corresponding secretary. Arrangements were made for a second conference in 1897 and during the interval Dr. Bumstead made contact with me, then assistant Instructor at the University of Pennsylvania, to ask me to come as a teacher and take charge of the conferences. I did not really take charge however until the third conference. The second conference was held in May, 1897 and some very excellent figures were reported by L. M. Hershaw covering a study of vital statistics in Atlanta, Baltimore, Charleston, Memphis and Richmond. Eugene Harris added figured from Nashville and there was a lively discussion out of which came eventually the colored day nurseries and kindergartens of Atlanta. The conference was especially notable because in the printed reports it published a large number of reliable figures.

By the time of the third conference I had come upon the ground and had taken charge of the investigations and changed the basic plan. This change was partly unconscious and partly deliberate. There had already been set-up on the advice of Robert R. Moton a conference at Hampton but the Hampton and Tuskegee conferences and others which imitated them were places of comparison of conditions, exchange of ideas, personal reminiscences. They got their great value from the various persons which they brought into close contact. In the case of the Atlanta conferences I subordinated the conference aspect to scientific study. I united Hershaw's idea of careful and wide investigation on a particular subject with my own intensive study of the PHILADELPHIA NEGRO which I had just finished and which was published in 1899. My idea minimized the conference part of the program, that is, the speeches, the reminiscences, the meeting of people and put the whole stress upon the preceding year-long investigation of social conditions. Moreover, instead of trying to study the whole mass of social conditions and discuss the whole Negro problem, I deliberately put an "s" upon "problem" and emphasized the study of Negro problems and then took up one problem or one phase of a social problem affecting Negroes for a year's intensive study.

My idea finally was to act-up a series of annual special studies each to be repeated at decennial intervals and covering the whole condition of the American Negro. The conferences thus provided for made the following studies during the first decade:

NEGRO MORTALITY - 1896
SOCIAL AND PHYSICAL CONDITION OF NEGROES IN CITIES - 1897
EFFORTS FOR SOCIAL BETTERMENT - 1898
NEGROES IN BUSINESS - 1899
COLLEGE-BRED NEGROES - 1900
THE NEGRO ARTISAN - 1902
THE NEGRO COMMON SCHOOL - 1901
THE NEGRO CHURCH - 1903
NEGRO CRIME - 1904
METHODS AND RESULTS - 1905

During the next decade I laid down but did not wholly carry out the following program:

THE NEGRO PHYSIQUE - 1906
THE NEGRO FAMILY - 1907
NEGRO ORGANIZATIONS - 1908
THE ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT OF NEGROES, I. - 1909
THE ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT OF NEGROES, II. - 1910

THE NEGRO CHURCH - 1913
CRIME AMONG NEGROES - 1914
METHODS AND RESULTS - 1915

The success of the conferences and reports were phenomenal. For twenty years Atlanta University was the only institution in the world that was making systematic and scientific study of the Negro race. The reports were used all over the civilized world and it is fair to say that between 1910 and 1925 no book on the American Negro was written that was not at least in part based upon our studies at Atlanta University. In addition to this there were many other indirect results. THE FUTURE OF THE NEGRO STATE UNIVERSITY

The Negro race has touched and influenced the history of the state of Missouri in many and curious ways; some of which are already half forgotten. It was full four hundred years ago that, seven hundred fifty miles southwest of Missouri a black man was the first human being born beyond the Atlantic who looked upon the uncharted empire west of the Mississippi and north of the Rio Grande. In the whirl of revolution which swept the world in the waning eighteenth century the tide of political and economic change ~~which~~ began in the English colonies of America and culminated in France was brought back to America in the fabulous island of Haiti.

It was here that the first of the modern dictators, Napoleon Bonaparte, seeking to stem the insurgent anarchy of his day ~~sought~~ tried to transmute political revolution into American empire and to annex through the gateway of Haiti the whole of what is now the United States west of the Mississippi River. His plan was frustrated by a black leader, Toussaint L'Ouverture and this leader through his dogged resistance to Napoleon, Spain and England finally succeeded in making Haiti independent; in freeing the slaves of the West Indies and South America and in handing the sovereignty of Louisiana including Missouri, Kansas, Nebraska and the whole Northwest to the United States.

In this new realm the Cotton Kingdom as it grew to its culminating power toward 1830 looked for increased territory, expanded political power and a new economic basis of society. The battle ground on which the idea of peasant proprietorship and industrial democracy as against economic caste and colonial imperialism was started in modern times, was this state of Missouri and was personified in the fight which the colossal figure of John Brown made against the border ruffians who were determined to make Kansas a fellow slave state with Missouri. Here the Civil War between two conceptions of American democracy was begun, ending as you well know, not simply with the legal destruction of slavery but with an attempt to extend practical democracy to its ultimate logical theory.

The national reconstruction of the seventies was not merely a matter of hurt and revenge after bitter civil strife, but rather an extraordinary attempt to realize in one of the greatest countries of the world a democracy unhemmed by race or class; a democracy in which any human being of requisite age and character, whether he was a laborer without property, a land holder or a capitalist, should stand equal before the law in his right to have voice in his own government.

The experiment failed and right here in Missouri for two reasons: first, because a laborer without property is not free from the compulsion which his employer can exercise; and secondly, because despite abolition and the Civil War, the majority of persons in the United States did not believe that Negroes should be included among human beings. The combination of these two facts did not simply frustrate the attempt to enfranchise Negroes, but it also changed and modified the whole democratic development of the United States; and put into the hands of land and capital a political power which nullified to an increasing extent the democratic process.

However, the surrender to the reaction of these two heresies: the refusal to recognize the Negro as an integral part of the national citizenship andthe refusal to protect the rights of labor against the assumptions of capital did not have unquestioned sway. They rose and fell, swayed and shivered in mighty ground swell. One of the first considerations that set the tide in favor of the Negro and raised him at one time to a pinnacle of popular esteem undreamed of before the war was his participation in the war. At first few men, North nor South, would admit that slavery was the cause or the object of the Civil War | or that black folk could in any real sense be considered the equal of whites; | but the course of the war was extraordinary. | Quite contrary to the plans of the Southern slave barons, the North determined actually to resist secession and called upon its hosts of population | backed by money and material | actually to invade the South. The result was a series of military disasters which seriously threatened the Northern cause and compelled the North to call in | an ally | which they had at first despised | but in whose cooperation now they saw ultimate and certain victory. | And that was the Negro.

It was not merely that the North could put two hundred thousand Negro soldiers actually, in the field; | but they could back these with more than three hundred thousand laborers who could be gathered on the spot | and who made a costly and imported service of supplies unnecessary. This, however, was but a beginning. Back of these fighters and workers | was the possibility of calling to work and arms four million black folk in the very heart of the South | upon whose allegiance the South could only count as it was willing to give up the corner-stone of its new economic organization | ~~merely~~ Negro slavery. | And in 1864 the South not only called Negro soldiers to its aid but offered them freedom as reward. | These facts, perfectly patent as they are, have never been emphasized | and only now and then recognized. | The revulsion of feeling toward the Negro in this land was for a time miraculous. General Grant said:

> "The problem is solved. The Negro is a man, a soldier, a hero. Knowing of your laudable interest in the colored troops, ~~but particularly those raised under the immediate auspices of the Supervisory Committee,~~ I have thought it proper that I should let you know how they acquitted themselves in the late actions in front of Petersburg, of which you have already received newspaper accounts. If you remember, in my conversations upon the character of these troops, I carefully avoided saying anything about their fighting qualities till I could have an opportunity of trying them."

"The following spring, April 3rd, the Federal troops entered Richmond. Weitzel was leading, with a black regiment in his command - a long blue line with gun-barrels gleaming, and bands playing: 'John Brown's body lies a-moldering in the grave but his soul goes marching on.' President Lincoln visited the city after the surrender. . . . After visiting Jefferson Davis' mansion, he proceeded to the ~~rebel~~ capitol, and from the steps delivered a short speech, ~~and spoke~~ to the colored people, as follows: 'In reference to you, colored people, let me say God has made you free. Although you have been deprived of your God-given Rights by your so-called masters, you are now as free as I am, and if those that claim to be your superiors do not know that you are free, take the sword and bayonet and teach them that you are - for God created all men free, giving to each the same rights of life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness.'"

The next step loomed. Charles Sumner said in the Senate of the United States, February 5, 1866, in the very year and almost very month of the founding of this institution:

"I begin by expressing a heart-felt aspiration that the day may soon come when the states lately in rebellion may be received again into the copartnership of political power and the full fellowship of the Union. But I see too well that it is vain to expect this day, which is so much longed for, until we have obtained that security for the future, which is found only in the Equal Rights of All, whether in the court-room or at the ballot-box. This is the Great Guarantee, without which all other guarantees will fail. This is the sole solution of our present troubles and anxieties. This is the only sufficient assurance of peace and reconciliation. . . .

"Our fathers solemnly announded the Equal Rights of all men, and that Government had no just foundation except in the consent of the governed; and to the support of the Declaration, heralding these self-evident truths, they pledged their lives, their fortunes, and their sacred honor. . . . And now the moment has come when these vows must be fulfilled to the letter. In securing the Equal Rights of the freedman, and his participation in the Government, which he is taxed to support, we shall perform those early promises of the Fathers, and at the same time the supplementary promises only recently made to the freedman as the condition of alliance and aid against the Rebellion. A failure to perform these promises is moral and political bankruptcy. . . .

"Twice already, since rebel slavery rose . . .(necessity) has spoken to us, insisting: first, that the slaves should be declared free; and secondly, that muskets should be put into their hands for the common defense. Yielding to necessity, these two things were done. Reason, humanity, justice were powerless in this behalf; but necessity was irresistible. And the result testifies how wisely the Republic acted. Without emancipation, followed by the arming of the slaves, rebel slavery would not have been overcome. With these the victory was easy.

"At last the same necessity which insisted first upon emancipation and then upon the arming of the slaves, insists with the same unanswerable force upon the admission of the freedman to complete Equality before the law, so that there shall be no ban of color in court-room or at the ballot-box, and government shall be fixed on its only rightful foundation - the consent of the governed. Reason, humanity, and justice, all of which are clear for this admission of the freedman, may fail to move you; but you must yield to necessity, which now requires that these promises shall be performed."

It was ten years later that a singular compromise was made. "We see this more clearly today than the nation of 1868, or any of its leaders, could possibly envisage it; but even then, Northern industry knew that universal suffrage in the South, in the hands of Negroes just freed from slavery, and of white people still enslaved by poverty, could not stand against organized industry. They promptly calculated that the same method of controlling the labor vote would come in vogue in the South as they were already using in the North, and that the industry which used these methods must in the meantime cooperate with Northern industry; that it could not move the foundation stones upon which Northern industry was consolidating its power; that is, the tariff, the money system, the debt, and national in place of state control of industry. This would seem to be what the masters of exploitation were counting upon and it certainly came true in the bargain of 1876.

"Thus by singular coincidence and for a moment, for the few years of an eternal second in a cycle of a thousand years, the orbits of two widely and utterly dissimilar economic systems coincided and the result was a revolution so vast and portentous that few minds ever fully conceived it; for the systems were these: first, that of a democracy which should by universal suffrage establish a dictatorship of the proletariat ending in industrial democracy; and the other, a system by which a little knot of masterful men would so organize capitalism as to bring under their control the natural resources, wealth and industry of a vast and rich country and through that, of the world. For a second, for a pulse of time, these orbits crossed and coincided, but their central suns were a thousand light-years apart, even though the blind and ignorant fury of the South and the complacent Philistinism of the North saw them as one.

"Reconstruction was an economic revolution on a mighty scale and with world-wide reverberation. Reconstruction was not simply a fight between the white and black races in the South or between master and ex-slave. It was much more subtle; it involved more than this. There have been repeated and continued attempts to paint this era as an interlude of petty politics or nightmare of race hate instead of viewing it slowly and broadly as a tremendous series of efforts to earn a living in new and untried ways, to achieve economic security and to restore fatal losses of capital and investment. It was a vast labor movement of ignorant, earnest, and bewildered black men whose faces had been ground in the mud by their three awful centuries of degradation and who now staggered forward blindly in blood and tears amid petty division, hate and hurt, and surrounded by every disaster of war and industrial upheaval. Reconstruction was a vast labor movement of ignorant, muddled and bewildered white men who had been disinherited of land and labor and fought a long battle with sheer ~~subsistence~~ Sub-sistence, hanging on the edge of poverty, eating clay and chasing slaves and now lurching up to manhood. Reconstruction was the turn of white Northern migration southward to new and sudden economic opportunity which followed the disaster and dislocation of war, and an attempt to organize capital and labor on a new pattern and build a new economy. Finally Reconstruction was a desperate effort of a dislodged, maimed, impoverished and ruined oligarchy and monopoly to restore an anachronism in economic organization by force, fraud and slander, in defiance of law and order, and in the face of a great labor movement of white and black, and in bitter strife with a new capitalism and a new political framework."

It is significant that the institution whose seventy-fifth anniversary we are celebrating today arose out of this chain of circumstances. It was among the black soldiers of Missouri fighting the last battle of the west which spelled the final crippling of the Confederacy that the idea arose of systematic education of their fellows in their home state. Nor was there anything unusual or ~~local~~ merely in this thought and movement. The public school system of the whole South is the gift of black folk. An element in the white South had struggled for a public school system, had sought to follow New England and the West in this direction long before the Civil War but it is a needless exaggeration to say that there was in the confines of the former slave states, south of Mason and Dixon's line, any real state public school system until the black votes of Reconstruction furnished one. Even in the Middlewest, Ohio, Illinois, Indiana and Missouri, the public school system did not usually include or envisage Negroes and it was only when Missouri colored troops saw with their own eyes what Negroes were doing for public education in Louisiana and Texas, that they sent back the idea to their own state.

The new democratic state which then arose/north and south/after the Civil war/was hampered and curtailed in its powers. Especially its effort to regulate industry and control wages/failed ignominously;/but the consequent demand for Light, more Light" — for wider and deeper understanding of human processes/showed itself in a new attitude toward popular education & consequently toward Negro education

~~Leaving now historical considerations let us consider two matters: first, the relation of the state to education and second, the relation of education to current social problems.~~ I was brought up in a day and state where education beyond the grammar school, beyond ~~the matter of~~ elementary reading, writing and arithmetic was considered to be a private matter. If a child was to be educated in the high school and college and for the professions, this was a matter to which the private individual and private fortunes should attend. This was the New England counterpart of the English idea of education which lasted there down almost to our day.

There grew up consequently in New England endowed high schools and private colleges which have become the best known in the nation and which long prided themselves on giving training not simply to the rich and well-to-do but even to talented children of all classes and races. I can remember that the first catalogue of Harvard University which I ever saw had in it a statement that the experience of the university warrants the statement that no student of ability need leave the institution because of lack of funds." This situation gradually changed. The demand for high school and college training on the part of the mass of youth in the United States rapidly out-ran the facilities which private institutions supported by private endowments could furnish, and there arose the public town and city high school and the state university. The voting masses of Americans demanded vastly expanded opportunities for learning. These facilities have grown so rapidly and expanded so enormously in work and attendance that it is manifest that by the twenty-first century the problem of higher education is going to be primarily a problem of the State.

This fills some folk with satisfaction and others with dismay, because it puts into the hands of the state the necessity of facing and facing squarely certain social situations and problems which the state as it is now constituted has not shown itself capable of handling. Not only is there the older problem of religion and social status but what are today the much more pressing problems of class distinctions based on income and of racial distinctions based on physical differences and appearances and on historical associations supported by prejudice and folklore.

The new state system of education, therefore, is faced first of all with this question of income, this question which the democratic experiments following the Civil War attempted to meet and failed. It is all well enough to talk about equality of human beings and their liberty to act; the real fact of the matter, as we have known for generations and as we are beginning to admit today, is that a man who does not have enough to eat or the clothing and shelter necessary for health; and who is uncertain as to how long his present meagre income is going to last, is not free and cannot be called the equal of the man with sufficient and assured income and security of status. The comfortable solution of this economic problem, which regards this situation as largely inevitable; which looks upon poverty as the permanent accompaniment of civilization, is not only being questioned today, but is the real burning problem which ~~lies~~ lay at the basis of the last World War, is the cause of this present World War and of other revolutions to come. The solution of attitudes toward this economic problem, is in the long run in the hands of our educational system and it goes without saying that the present educational system is not designed to meet it. It is a system largely determined by that very economic inequality which it seeks to solve; and the power to administer the system lies all too largely in hands interested in privilege rather than in justice, in class advantage rather than in democratic control, ~~in race discrimination rather than human unity~~

If this were all, the problem of state education would be a most difficult one but in addition to this we have here in the United States ~~of the world over~~ problems of race and culture concentrated in our vast cities, concentrated in the rural districts of the Southern South and forming a considerable and difficult problem in border regions like this. This set of problems includes minorities of various types, vestiges of religious controversies stemming from other days, remainders of extreme economic inequalities as represented by various migratory groups; differences due to physique and appearance and above all differences due to cultural history. Indeed the whole civilized world today is a mass of race controversies and contacts bound up with all mankind.

Among these you and I especially are victims of those so-called racial problems differences which estrange themselves about the history of slavery in this country, and which have left us some twelve or more millions of people more or less of African descent, of varying cultures and different degrees of education, who stand out, not simply because of visible differences in appearance, but because of historical differences due to their cultural and economic inheritance. They are, for instance, in large majority, poor people with small income. They are ignorant people having been until quite recently very largely deprived of education; and they are associated in the public mind, through the reiteration of the printed word and the pictured fact, with inferiority and lack of ability. The problem of the education of these persons must be faced by state systems of training and this problem is being faced with every conceivable difference of attitude varying from open and careless neglect to desperate and often misguided efforts at solution.

In a state like this the usual attitude long has been to resent the fact that such a problem must complicate the policies of the state system of education. It could of course easily be argued that the simpler the problems of education are, the easier it would be to solve them; that if a state school system had to deal with persons of about the same income status, the same cultural background and comparatively few physical differences, that the resultant problem of education would be easy. Perhaps so, but certainly it would not be a problem of education suited to this nation of this world. This is a world where the physical, mental and cultural differences between human beings are vast. Where the absolute segregation of human beings is increasingly impossible and undesirable; where the annihilation of space, the economic interdependence of peoples and the necessary political cooperation, are such that no problem of education in any country can long hope to escape the resultant questions of human contact. It has indeed long been thought in theory at least that one of the great advantages of the United States lay in the very combination and contacts of people which the polyglot citizenship and political organization involved. But even those who advocated this theory were apt to shy a bit (P)

and here and there (of Italians + Mexicans)

at the Irish and the Germans, at the Jews and the Slovaks, at Asiatics of all sorts and of course at Negroes.

So admitting today that the state system of education has got to regard the different elements in the state as an inescapable part of its problem, we come to the second situation: namely, that as an heritage from slavery and the Civil War we are required by state law to carry on separate institutions for persons of Negro descent. There is no doubt that this in unfortunate and even idiotic. It is needlessly costly and it is a direct contravention to that democratic equality toward which all education in the end must strive. And yet so far as these laws reflect a real state of mind; so far as they simply put into words ~~a deep~~ deeper than will feeling, and determination on the part of the dominant group that coeducation of the races is a thing more to be feared than the failure of democracy or even of life itself; so far as this remains true or even seems true such a situation has got to be faced.

There is, of course, in everyone's mind the conviction that ~~this~~ such inherited prejudice largely the result of unconscious and subconscious psychological reactions, is not and cannot be permanent. But it is a difficult matter to say just when and where the end of such prejudice can be looked for or assumed. One would think that in a state like Missouri where Negroes form but one-sixth of the population and where the actual illiteracy of ~~the~~ whites and blacks is not great, that time and a reasonable amount of tolerance time would make the waste and duplication of work necessary in two state universities uncalled for; and that a little patient waiting and thoughtful pressure might even in our day have opened the doors of the University of Missouri to colored students.

In the meantime, however, there were certain losses which could hardly be faced. The admission of a few colored students to the University of Missouri would not alter the mental complexion of the teachers and professors in that institution. They would know as little about the cultural history and group difficulties of Negro students after as before. Even in large national institutions like the University of Chicago, the University of Illinois, the University of Indiana, colored students have undergone enormous disadvantages and unconscious as well as deliberate discrimination because their white teachers were systematically ignorant of the place of the Negro in human culture. Whole sections of human history have been slurred over or misinterpreted; science has been systematically distorted to prove a prejudice; and above all most of these teachers have refused to visualize the possibility of a negro becoming a full self-respecting American citizen.

Last year in the University of Pennsylvania a Negro student of fine physique, excellent family and unusual ability elected a course under a well-known professor in the social sciences. The professor called him in and said to him ~~quite frankly~~ "Blank, I have heard of your work and I know that you are a good student but I want to tell you frankly openly that I have such prejudice against Negroes that I could not treat you fairly in my classes. If under those circumstances you want to take this course, all right." The student quietly withdrew. There are dozens of white teachers in white universities who only differ from this one in being less frank.

This may be this case with exceptional, but

Whether then it was inevitable or not Missouri has embarked upon the road of establishing a Negro university and of making that institution a center of learning and scientific advance deserving to be classed as the equal of other universities in this land. That, of course, is a difficult job. First of all, any time that a state is compelled by higher law or by lower prejudice to embark upon a program for which it has no real liking the work will be done, at first certainly, in a cheap and slipshod way. The separate institution will be by all standards a poor institution; poor in physical equipment, poor in cultural advantages, tempted to imitate where it cannot be real, and to boast of what it has not.

Any Negro institution will have natural difficulty in calling to its service persons thoroughly trained for the kind of work which they will have to do.* Having been called such persons to teach, it will ~~have to pay them~~ usually be paid at a rate with which no white man would or ought to be satisfied. ~~It will give them~~ They will be given less security of tenure, fewer surroundings of the larger life and less of honor and spiritual satisfaction. Such a situation will call for unusual sacrifice and devotion on the part of teachers and ~~of~~ rare loyalty on the part of students which ~~do not~~ none of necessarily come for the asking or the need. They must be built up by unusual strains and stresses and by loyalties which may in themselves become dangerous.

Inevitably among a poor people and inexperienced the temptation will come and recur to make an institution like this a means of earning a living or of adding to income rather than an institution of learning. The Negroes of Missouri will be tempted in the future, as in the past, to sell their votes not for the establishment of a state university but for small offices and temporary preferment; for the paying of personal debts and squaring of personal dislikes and enmities rather than the larger and more intangible object of building here a center of thought and speculation, of scientific research, of literature and art. Every state university in this nation has gone through this period of petty politics and some are still passing through it. It is only by the hardest effort and the deepest sacrifice and devotion to the greater life that a group and a state can rise to the high conception of what a university can do and what it may be, & what place it should occupy in a democracy

There is always the problem of what an institution like this should aim at. Should Lincoln University try to become another University of Missouri? After all, among the great universities of America, the University of Missouri would hardly be placed among the first. It can be considered a sort of average of those plodding miscellaneous centers of crowds, dispensing an education with varying degrees of efficiency. Lincoln University has before it certain obvious differences of method and aim: it can and should be smaller and more compact; it can be more certain of its objects and more definite and thorough in its methods. There are certain lines of work in which it can stand out not simply in Missouri but in the United States ~~and in the world,~~ as a focus of research and as a place of culture and civilization for a new and evolving world. *

But for this Lincoln will need freedom and funds. It will need to be administered by men of large vision who think of this school not as a temporary make-shift or as a place where their relatives get positions or their firms sell goods, but rather as a center where the cultural outlook of this country is to be changed and uplifted and helped in the reconstruction of the world.

Lincoln University has already come a long road in this direction. I can remember that forty-seven years ago I received a letter from what was then Lincoln Institute, asking me to be a member of its faculty and promising me a salary considerably

You have an extraordinary opportunity, not so much for social imitation and social conflict; but rather for social invention, for planning and carrying through methods by which without hatred, agitation or upheaval you can show how a minority cannot ~~only~~ simply repeat the accomplishments of a majority but can show the majority the way of life and in doing this you but reiterate an age-old custom that not from the overwhelming, rich and powerful groups which from time to time rule the world have come salvation and culture but from the still small voice of the oppressed and the ~~despised~~ determined who knew more than to die and planned more than mere survival.

larger than that for which I had promised to work at Wilberforce. I refused the invitation almost without second thought, because the Lincoln Institute of that day had an unsavory reputation. It was a center of graft, of low ideals, of inefficient work. It was well-known that no president could stay here who was not a politician of parts and teachers held their positions only by careful negotiation with the trustees and the political bosses of the State. From that time Lincoln Institute, now Lincoln University, has come a long way, but it has a long way still to go. It has not altogether been freed of its purely political relations, but that is true of many other state institutions of higher learning throughout the United States. But there has been a change and after seventy-five years of most difficult effort and self-sacrificing strife one begins to see here the chance of establishing a real university, a Negro university not in the sense that it is teaching Negro science or merely Negro history or Negro mathematics, but in the larger and broader sense that here science and education are being so followed that the place of the Negro in the world and his relation to the body of his fellow human beings is being made clear; and a fertile starting point prepared for a democracy of human cultures which will make peace in the world not only possible but profitable for all men.

This university and its dark fellows in the land are not simply American, they are inter-national and part of a new world pattern of which Negroes are thinking. For "What do Negroes themselves think of these their problems and the attitude of the world toward them? First and most significant, they are thinking. There is as yet no great single centralizing of thought or unification of opinion, but there are centers which are growing larger and touching edges. The most significant centers of this new thinking are, perhaps naturally, outside Africa and in America: in the United States and in the West Indies; this is followed by South Africa and West Africa and then, more vaguely, by South America, with faint beginnings in East Central Africa, Nigeria, and the Sudan.

"The Pan-African movement when it comes will not, however, be merely a narrow racial propaganda. Already the more far-seeing Negroes sense the coming unities: a unity of the working classes everywhere, a unity of the colored races, a new unity of thinking men. The ~~proposed~~ economic solution of the Negro problem in Africa and America has turned the thoughts of Negroes toward a realization of the fact that the modern white laborer of Europe and America has the key to the serfdom of black folk, in his support of militarism and colonial expansion. He is beginning to say to these workingmen that, so long as black laborers are slaves, white laborers cannot be free. Already there are signs in South Africa and the United States of the beginning of understanding between the two classes.

"In a conscious sense of unity among colored races there is to-day only a growing interest. There is slowly arising not only a curiously strong brotherhood of Negro blood throughout the world, but the common cause of thedarker races against the intolerable assumptions and insults of Europeans has already found expression. Most men in this world are colored. A belief in humanity means a belief in colored men.

The future world will, in all reasonable probability, be what colored men make it. In order for this colored world to come into its heritage, must the earth ~~again~~ be Continuously drenched in the blood of fighting, snarling human beasts, or will Reason and Good Will prevail? That such may be true, the character of the Negro race is the best and greatest hope; for in its normal condition it is at once the strongest and gentlest of the races of men: ~~"Semper Novi quid ex Africa!"~~ but that character can only be raised above Emotion to Planned reason by institutions such as this may become

W. E. Burghardt Du Bois

The Negro race has touched and influenced the history of the state of Missouri in many and curious ways; some of which are already half forgotten. It was full four hundred years ago that a black man seven hundred fifty miles southwest of Missouri was the first human being born beyond the Atlantic who looked upon the uncharted empire west of the Mississippi and north of the Rio Grande. In the whirl of revolution which swept the world in the waning eighteenth century the tide of political and economic change beginning in the English colonies of America and culminating in France was brought back to America in the fabulous island of Haiti. It was here that the first of the modern dictators, Napoleon Bonaparte, seeking to stem the insurgent anarchy of his day tried to transmute political revolution into American empire and to annex through the gateway of Haiti the whole of what is now the United States west of the Mississippi River. His plan was frustrated by a black leader, Toussaint L'Ouverture and this leader through his dogged resistance to Napoleon, Spain and England finally succeeded in making Haiti independent; in freeing the slaves of the West Indies and South America and in handing the sovereignty of Louisiana including Missouri, Kansas, Nebraska and the whole Northwest to the United States.

In this new realm the Cotton Kingdom as it grew to its culmination power toward 1830 looked for increased territory, expanded political power and a new economic basis of society. The battle ground on which the idea of peasant proprietorship and industrial democracy as against economic caste and colonial imperialism was started in modern times, was this state of Missouri and was personified in the fight which the colossal figure of John Brown made against the border ruffians who were determined to make Kansas a fellow slave state with Missouri. Here the Civil War between two conceptions of American democracy was begun, ending as you well know, not simply with the legal destruction of slavery but with an attempt to extend practical democracy to its ultimate logical theory.

The national reconstruction of the seventies was not merely a matter of hurt and revenge after bitter civil strife, but rather an extraordinary attempt to realize in one of the greatest countries of the world a democracy unhemmed by race or class; a democracy in which any human being of requisite age and character, whether he was a laborer without property, a land holder or a capitalist, should stand equal before the law in his right to have voice in his own government.

The experiment failed and right here in Missouri for two reasons: first, because a laborer without property is not free from the compulsion which his employer can exercise; and secondly, because despite abolition and the Civil War, the majority of persons in the United States did not believe that Negroes should be included among human beings. The combination of these two facts did not simply frustrate the attempt to enfranchise Negroes, but it also changed and modified the whole democratic development of the United States; and put into the hands of land and capital a political power which nullified to an increasing extent the democratic process.

However, the surrender to the reaction of these two heresies: the refusal to recognize the Negro as an integral part of the national citizenship and the refusal to protect the rights of labor against the assumptions of capital did not have unquestioned sway. They rose and fell, swayed and shivered in mighty ground swell.

One of the first considerations that set the tide in favor of the Negro and raised him at one time to a pinnacle of popular esteem undreamed of before the war was his participation in the war. At first few men, North nor South, would admit that slavery was the cause or the object of the Civil War or that black folk could in any real sense be considered the equal of whites; but the course of the war was extraordinary. Quite contrary to the plans of the Southern slave barons, the North determined actually to resist secession and called upon its hosts of population backed by money and material actually to invade the South. The result was a series of military disasters which seriously threatened the Northern cause and compelled the North to call in an ally which they had at first despised but in whose cooperation now they saw ultimate and certain victory. And that was the Negro.

It was not merely that the North could put two hundred thousand Negro soldiers actually, in the field; but they could back these with more than three hundred thousand laborers who could be gathered on the spot and who made a costly and imported service of supplies unnecessary. This, however, was but a beginning. Back of these fighters and workers was the possibility of calling to work and arms four million black folk in the very heart of the South upon whose allegiance the South could only count as it was willing to give up the corner-stone of its new economic organization -- Negro slavery. And in 1864 the South not only called Negro soldiers to its aid but offered them freedom as reward. These facts, perfectly patent as they are, have never been emphasized and only now and then recognized. The revulsion of feeling toward the Negro in this land was for a time miraculous. General Grant said:

> "The problem is solved. The Negro is a man, a soldier, a hero. Knowing of your laudable interest in the colored troops, . . . I have thought it proper that I should let you know how they acquitted themselves in the late actions in front of Petersburg, of which you have already received newspaper accounts. If you remember, in my conversations upon the character of these troops, I carefully avoided saying anything about their fighting qualities till I could have an opportunity of trying them."

The following spring, April 3rd, the Federal troops entered Richmond. Weitzel was leading, with a black regiment in his command - a long blue line with gunbarrels gleaming, and bands playing: "John Brown's body lies a-moldering in the grave but his soul goes marching on." President Lincoln visited the city after the surrender. . . . After visiting Jefferson Davis' mansion, he proceeded to the capitol, and from the steps delivered a short speech, to the colored people, as follows:

"In reference to you, colored people, let me say God has made you free. Although you have been deprived of your God-given Rights by your so-called masters, you are now as free as I am, and if those that claim to be your superiors do not know that you are free, take the sword and bayonet and teach them that you are - for God created all men free, giving to each the same rights of life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness."

The next step loomed. Charles Sumner said in the Senate of the United States, February 5, 1866, in the very year and almost very month of the founding of this institution:

"I begin by expressing a heart-felt aspiration that the day may soon come when the states lately in rebellion may be received again into the copartnership of political power and the full fellowship of the Union. But I see too well that it is vain to expect this day, which is so much longed for, until we have obtained that security for the future, which is found only in the Equal Rights of All, whether in the court-room or at the ballot-box. This is the Great Guarantee, without which all other guarantees will fail. This is the sole solution of our present troubles and anxieties. This is the only sufficient assurance of peace and reconciliation. . . .

"Our fathers solemnly announced the Equal Rights of all men, and that Government had no just foundation except in the consent of the governed; and to the support of the Declaration, heralding these self-evident truths, the pledged their lives, their fortunes, and their sacred honor. . . . And now the moment has come when these vows must be fulfilled to the letter. In securing the Equal Rights of the freedman, and his participation in the Government, which he is taxed to support, we shall perform those early promises of the Fathers, and at the same time the supplementary promises only recently made to the freedman as the condition of alliance and aid against the Rebellion. A failure to perform these promises is moral and political bankruptcy. . . .

"Twice already, since rebel slavery rose . . . (necessity) has spoken to us, insisting: first, that the slaves should be declared free; and secondly, that muskets should be put into their hands for the common defense. Yeilding to necessity, these two things were done. Reason, humanity, justice were powerless in this behalf; but necessity was irresistible. And the result testifies how wisely the Republic acted. Without emancipation, followed by the arming of the slaves, rebel slavery would not have been overcome. With these the victory was easy.

"At last the same necessity which insisted first upon emancipation and then upon the arming of the slaves, insists with the same unanswerable force upon the admission of the freedman to complete Equality before the law, so that there shall be no ban of color in court-room or at the ballot-box, and government shall be fixed on its only rightful foundation - the consent of the governed. Reason, humanity, and justice, all of which are clear for this admission of the freedman, may fail to move you; but you must yield ot necessity, which now requires that these promises shall be performed."

It was ten years later that a singular compromise was made. "We see this more clearly today than the nation of 1868, or any of its leaders, could possible envisage it; but even then, Northern industry knew that universal suffrage in the South, in the hands of Negroes just freed from slavery, and of white people still enslaved by poverty, could not stand against organized industry. They promptly calculated that the same method of controlling the labor vote would come in vogue in the South as they were already using in the North, and that the industry which used these methods must in the meantime cooperate with Northern industry; that it could not move the foundation stones upon with Northern industry was consolidating its power; that is, the tariff, the money system, the debt, and national in place of state control of industry. This would seem to be what the masters of exploitation were counting upon and it certainly came true in the bargain of 1876.

"Thus by singular coincidence and for a moment, for the few years of an eternal second in a cycle of a thousand years, the orbits of two widely and utterly dissimilar economic systems coincided and the result was a revolution so vast and portentous that few minds ever fully conceived it; for the systems were these: first, that of a democracy which should by universal suffrage establish a dictatorship of the proletariat ending in industrial democracy; and the other, a system by which a little knot of masterful men would so organize capitalism as to bring under their control the natural resources, wealth and industry of a vast and rich country and through that, of the world. For a second, for a pulse of time, these orbits crossed and coincided, but their central suns were a thousand light-years apart, even though the blind andignorant fury of the South and the complacent Philistinism of the North saw them as one.

"Reconstruction was an economic revolution on a mighty scale and with world-wide reverberation. Reconstruction was not simply a fight between the white and black races in the South or between master and ex-slave. It was much mor subtle; it involved more than this. There have been repeated and continued attempts to paint this era as an interlude of petty politics or nightmare of race hate instead of viewing it slowly and broadly as a tremendous series of efforts to earn a living in new and untried ways, to achieve economic security and to restore fatal losses of capital and investment. It was a vast labor movement of ignorant, earnest, and bewildered black men whose faces had been ground in the mud by their three awful centuries of degradation and who now staggered forward blindly in blood and t ars amid petty division, hate and hurt, and surrounded by every disaster of war and industrial upheaval. Reconstruction was a vast labor movement of ignorant, muddled and bewildered white men who had been disinherited of land and labor and fought a long battle with sheer subsistence, hanging on the edge of poverty, eating clay and chasing slaves and now lurching up to manhood. Reconstruction was the turn of white Northern migration southward to new and sudden economic opportunity which followed the disaster and dislocation of war, and an attempt to organize capital and labor on a new pattern and build a new economy. Finally Reconstruction was a desperate effort of a dislodged, maimed, impoverished and ruined oligarchy and monopoly to restore an anachronism in economic organization by force, fraud and slander, in defiance of law and order, and in the face of a great labor movement of white and black, and in bitter strife with a new capitalism and a new political framework."

It is significant that the institution whose seventy-fifth anniversary we are celebrating today arose out of this chain of circumstances. It was among the black soldiers of Missouri fighting the last battle of the west which spelled the final crippling of the Confederacy that the idea arose of systematic education of their fellows in their home state. Nor was there anything unusual or merely local in this thought and movement. The public school system of the whole South is the gift of black folk. An element in the white South had struggled for a public school system, had sought to follow New England and the West in this direction long before the Civil War but it is a needless exaggeration to say that there was in the confines of the former slave state , south of Mason and Dixon's line, any real state public school system until the black votes of Reconstruction furnished one. Even in the Middlewest, Ohio, Illinois, Indiana and Missouri, the public school system did not usually include or envisage Negroes and it was only when Missouri colored troops saw with their own eyes what Negroes were doing for public education in Louisiana and Texas, that they sent back the idea to their own state.

The new democratic state which thus arose North and South after the Civil war was hampered and curtailed in its powers. Especially its effort to regulate industry and control wages failed ignominiously; but the consequent demand for Light, More Light -- for wider and deeper understanding of human processes showed itself in a new attitude toward popular education and consequently toward Negro education.

I was brought up in a day and state where education beyond the grammar school, beyond elementary reading, writing and arithmetic was considered to be a private matter. If a child was to be educated in the high school and college and for the professions, this was a matter to which the private individual and private fortunes should attend. This was the New England counterpart of the English idea of education which lasted there down almost to our day.

There grew up consequently in New England endowed high schools and private colleges which have become the best known in the nation and which long prided themselves on giving training not simply to the rich and well-to-do but even to talented children of all classes and races.

I can remember that the first catalogue of Harvard University which I ever saw had in it a sentence statement that the "experience of the university warrants the statement that no student of ability need leave the institution because of lack of funds." This situation gradually changed. The demand for high school and college training on the part of the mass of youth in the United States rapidly out-ran the facilities which private institutions supported by private endowments could furnish, and there arose the public town and city high school and the state university. The voting masses of Americans demanded vastly expanded opportunities for learning. These facilities have grown so rapidly and expanded so enormously in work and attendance that it is manifest that by the twenty-first century the problem of higher education is going to be primarily a problem of the State.

This fills some folk with satisfaction and others with dismay, because it puts into the hands of the state the necessity of facing and facing squarely certain social situations and problems which the state as it is now constituted has not shown itself capable of handling. Not only is there the older problems of religion and social status but what are today the much more pressing problems of class distinction based on income and of racial distinctions based on physical differences and appearances and on historical associations supported by prejudice and folklore.

The new state system of education, therefore, is faced first of all with this question of income, this question which the democratic experiments following the Civil War attempted to meet and failed. It is all well enough to talk about equality of human beings and their liberty to act; the real fact of the matter, as we have known for generations and as we are beginning to admit today, is that a man who does not have enough to eat or the clothing and shelter necessary for health; and who is uncertain as to how long his present meagre income is going to last, is not free and cannot be called the equal of the man with sufficient and assured income and security of status. The comfortable solution of this economic problem, which regards this situation as largely inevitable; which looks upon poverty as the permanent accompaniment of civilization, is not only being questioned today, but is the real burning problem which lay at the basis of the last World War, is the cause of this present World War and of other revolutions to come. The solution of attitudes toward this economic problem, is in the long run in the hands of our educational system and it goes without saying that the present educational system is not designed to meet it. It is a system largely determined by that very economic inequality which it seeks to solve; and the power to administer the system lies all too largely in hands interested in privilege rather than in justice, in class advantage rather than in democratic control.

If this were all, the problem of state education would be a most difficult one but in addition to this we have here in the United States problems of race and culture concentrated in our vast cities, concentrated in the rural districts of the Southern South and forming a considerable and difficult problem in border regions like this. This set of problems includes minorities of various types, vestiges of religious controversies stemming from other days, remainders of extreme economic inequalities as represented by various migratory groups; differences due to physique and appearance and above all differences due to cultural history. In deed the whole civilized world today is a mass of race controversies and contacts bound up with all mankind.

Among these you and I especially are victims of those so-called racial problems which range themselves about the history of slavery in this country, and which have left us some twelve or more millions of people more or less of African descent, of varying cultures and different degrees of education, who stand out, not simply because of visible differences in appearance, but because of historical differences due to their cultural and economic inheritance. They are, for instance, in large majority, poor people with small income. They are ignorant people having been until quite recently very ~~largely~~ deprived of education; and they are associated in the public mind, through the reiteration of the printed word and the pictured fact, with inferiority and lack of ability. The problem of the education of these persons must be faced by state systems of training and this problem is being faced with every conceivable difference of attitude varying from open and careless neglect to desperate and often misguided efforts at solution.

In a state like this the usual attitude long has been to resent the fact that such a problem must complicate the policies of the state system of education. It could of course easily be argued that the simpler the problems of education are, the easier it would be to solve them; that if a state school system had to deal with persons of about the same income status, the same cultural background and comparatively few physical differences, that the resultant problem of education would be easy. Perhaps so, but certainly it would not be a problem of education suited to this nation or this world. This is a world where the physical, mental and cultural differences between human beings are vast. Where the absolute segregation of human beings is increasingly impossible and undesirable; where the annihilation of space, the economic interdependence of peoples and the necessary political cooperation, are such that no problem of education in any country can long hope to escape the resultant questions of facts of human contact. It has indeed been thought in theory at least that one of the great advantages of the United States lay in the very combination and contacts of people which ~~the~~ our poly glot citizenship and political organization involved. But even those who advocated this theory were apt to shy a bit and here and there at the Irish and the Germans, at Italians and Mexicans, at the Jews and the Slovaks, at Asiatics of all sorts and of course at Negroes.

So admitting today that the state system of education has got to regard the different elements in the state as an inescapable part of its problem, we come to the second situation: namely, that as an heritage from slavery and the Civil War we are required by state law to carry on separate institutions for persons of Negro descent. There is no doubt that this in unfortunate and even idiotic. It is needlessly costly and it is a direct contravention to that democratic equality toward which all education in the end must strive. And yet so far as these laws reflect a real state of mind; so far as they simply put into words deeper than feelings will and determination on the part of the dominant group, that coeducation of the races is a thing more to be feared than the failure of democracy or even of life itself; so far as this remains true or even seems true such a situation has got to be faced.

There is, of course, in everyone's mind the conviction that such inherited prejudice, largely the result of unconscious and subconscious psychological reactions, is not and cannot be permanent. But it is a difficult matter to say just when and where the end of such prejudice can be looked for or assumed. One would think that in a state like Missouri where Negroes form but one-sixth of the population and where the actual illiteracy of whites and blacks is not great, that time and a reasonable amount of tolerance would make the waste and duplication of work necessary in two state universities uncalled for; and that a little patient waiting and thoughtful pressure might even in our day have opened the doors of the University of Missouri to colored students.

In the meantime, however, there were certain losses which could hardly be faced. The admission of a few colored students to the University of Missouri would not alter the mental complexion of the teachers and professors in that institution. They would know as little about the cultural history and group difficulties of Negro students after as before.

Even in large national institutions like the University of Chicago, the University of Illinois, the University of Indiana, Yale, Harvard and Columbia, colored students have undergone enormous disadvantages and unconscious as well as deliberate discrimination because their white teachers were systematically ignorant of the place of the Negro in human culture. Whole sections of human history have been slurred over or misinterpreted; science has been systematically distorted to prove a prejudice; and above all most of these teachers have refused to visualize the possibility of a Negro becoming a full self-respecting American citizen.

Last year in the University of Pennsylvania a Negro student of fine physique, excellent family and unusual ability elected a course under a well-known professor in the social sciences. The professor called him in and said to him "Blank, I have heard of your work and I know that you are a good student but I want to tell you frankly and openly that I have such prejudice against Negroes that I could not treat you fairly in my classes. If under those circumstances you want to take this course, all right." The student quietly withdrew. This man and this case were exceptional, but there are dozens of white teachers in white universities who only differ from this one in being less frank.

Whether then it was inevitable or not Missouri has embarked upon the road of establishing a Negro university and of making that institution a center of learning and scientific advance deserving to be classed as the equal of other universities in this land. That, of course, is a difficult job. First of all, any time that a state is compelled by higher law or by lower prejudice to embark upon a program for which it has no real liking the work will be done, at first certainly, in a cheap and slipshod way. The separate institution will be by all standards a poor institution: poor in physical equipment, poor in cultural advantages, tempted to imitate where it cannot be real, and to boast of what it has not.

Any Negro institution will have natural difficulty in calling to its service persons thoroughly trained for the kind of work which they will have to do. Just because a man is black does not make him a scholar nor a teacher. Having been called to teach such persons will usually be paid at a rate with which no white man would or ought to be satisfied. They will be given less security of tenure, fewer surroundings of the larger life and less of honor and spiritual satisfaction. Such a situation will call for unusual sacrifice and devotion on the part of teachers and rare loyalty on the part of students, none of which necessarily come for the asking or the need. They must be built up by unusual strains and stresses and by loyalties which may in themselves become dangerous.

Inevitably among a poor people and inexperienced the temptation will come and recur to make an institution like this a means of earning a living or of adding to income rather than an institution of learning. The Negroes of Missouri will be tempted in the future, as in the past, to sell their votes not for the establishment of a state university but for small offices and temporary preferment, for the paying of personal debts and squaring of personal dislikes and enmities, rather than the larger and more intangible object of building here a center of thought and speculation, of scientific research, of literature and art. Every state university in this nation has gone through this period of petty politics and some are still passing through it. It is only by the hardest effort and the deepest sacrifice and devotion to the greater life, that a group and a state can rise to the high conception of what a university can do and what it may be, and what place it should occupy in a democracy.

There is always the problem of what an institution like this should aim at. Should Lincoln University try to become another University of Missouri? After all, among the great universities of America, the University of Missouri would hardly be placed among the first. It can be considered a sort of average of those plodding miscellaneous centers of crowds, dispensing an education with varying degrees of efficiency. Lincoln University has before it certain obvious differences of method and aim: it can and should be smaller and more compact; it can be more certain of its objects and more definite and thorough in its methods. There are certain lines of work in which it can stand out, not simply in Missouri but in the United States as a focus of research and as a place of culture and civilization for a new and evolving world. You have an extraordinary opportunity, not so much for social imitation and social conflict; but rather for social invention, for planning and carrying through methods by which without hatred, agitation or upheaval, you can show how a minority can not simply repeat the accomplishments of a majority, but can show the majority the way of life and in doing this, you but reiterate an age-old custom that not from the overwhelming, rich and powerful groups which from time to time rule the world have come salvation and culture, but from the still small voice of the oppressed and the determined who knew more than to die and plan more than mere survival.

But for this, Lincoln will need freedom and funds. It will need to be administered by men of large vision who think of this school not as a temporary make-shift or as a place where their relatives get positions or their firms sell goods, but rather as a center where the cultural outlook of this country is to be changed and uplifted and helped in the reconstruction of the world.

Lincoln University has already come a long road in this direction. I can remember that forty-seven years ago I received a letter from what was then Lincoln Institute, asking me to be a member of its faculty and promising me a salary considerably larger than that for which I had promised to work at Wilberforce . I refused the invitation almost without second thought, because the Lincoln Institute of that day had an unsavory reputation. It was a center of graft, of low ideals, of inefficient work. It was well-known that no president could stay here who was not a politician of resource and teachers held their positions only by careful negotiation with the trustees and the political bosses of the state. From that time Lincoln Institute, now Lincoln University, has come a long way, but it has a long way still to go. It has not altogether been freed of its purely political relations, but that is true of many other state institutions of higher learning through out the United States, white and black. But there has been a change and after seventy-five years of most difficult effort and self-sacrificing strife one begins to see the chance of establishing a real university here, a Negro university not in the sense that it is teaching Negro science or merely Negro history or Negro mathematics, but in the larger and broader sense that here science and education are being so followed that the place of the Negro in the world and his relation to the body of his fellow human beings is being made clear; and a fertile starting point prepared for a democracy of human culture which will make peace in the world not only possible but profitable for all men.

This university and its dark fellows in the land are not simply American, they are inter-national and part of a new world pattern of which Negroes are thinking. For "What do Negroes themselves think of these their problems and the attitude of the world toward them? First and most significant, they are thinking. There is as yet no great singly centralizing of thought or unification of opinion, but there are centers which are growing larger and touching edges. The most significant centers of this new thinking are, perhaps naturally, outside Africa and in America: in the United States and in the West Indies; this is followed by South Africa and West Africa and then, more vaguely, by South America, with faint beginnings in East Central Africa, Nigeria, and the Sudan.

"The Pan-African movement when it comes will not, however, be merely a narrow racial propaganda. Already the more far-seeing Negores sense the coming Unities: a unity of the working classes everywhere, a unity of the colored races, a new unity of thinking men. The economic solution of the Negro problem in Africa and America has turned the thoughts of Negroes toward a realization of the fact that the modern white laborer of Europe and America has the key to the serfdom of black folk, in his support of militarism and colonial expansion. He is beginning to say to these workingmen that, so long as black laborers are slaves, white laborers cannot be free. Already there are signs in South Africa and the United States of the beginning of understanding between the two classes.

"In a conscious sense of unity among colored races there is today only a growing interest. There is slowly arising not only a curiously strong brotherhood of Negro blood throughout the world, but the common cause of the darker races against the intolerable assumptions and insults of Europeans has already found expression. Most men in this world are colored. A belief in humanity means a belief in colored men. The future world will, in all reasonable probability, be what colored men make it. In order for this colored world to come into its heritage, must the earth be continously drenched in the blood of fighting, snarling human beasts, or will Reason and Good Will prevail? That such may be true, the character of the Negro race is the best and greatest hope; for in its normal condition it is at once the strongest and gentlest of the races of men, but that character can only be raised above Emotion to planned reason by institutions such as this may become.

THE FUTURE OF THE NEGRO STATE UNIVERSITY

W. E. Burghardt Du Bois

The Negro race has touched and influenced the history of the state of Missouri in many and curious ways; some of which are already half forgotten. It was full four hundred years ago that a black man seven hundred fifty miles southwest of Missouri was the first human being born beyond the Atlantic who looked upon the uncharted empire west of the Mississippi and north of the Rio Grande. In the whirl of revolution which swept the world in the waning eighteenth century the tide of political and economic change beginning in the English colonies of America and culminating in France was brought back to America in the fabulous island of Haiti. It was here that the first of the modern dictators, Napoleon Bonaparte, seeking to stem the insurgent anarchy of his day tried to transmute political revolution into American empire and to annex through the gateway of Haiti the whole of what is now the United States west of the Mississippi River. His plan was frustrated by a black leader, Toussaint L'Ouverture, and this leader through his dogged resistance to Napoleon, Spain, and England finally succeeded in making Haiti independent; in freeing the slaves of the West Indies and South America; and in handing the sovereignty of Louisiana including Missouri, Kansas, Nebraska and the whole Northwest to the United States.

In this new realm, the Cotton Kingdom, as it grew to its culmination power toward 1830, looked for increased territory, expanded political power, and a new economic basis of society. The battle ground on which the idea of peasant proprietorship and industrial democracy as against economic caste and colonial imperialism was started in modern times, was this state of Missouri and was personified in the fight which the colossal figure of John Brown made against the border ruffians who were determined to make Kansas a fellow slave state with Missouri. Here the Civil War between two conceptions of American democracy was begun, ending, as you well know, not simply with the legal destruction of slavery but with an attempt to extend practical democracy to its ultimate logical theory.

The national reconstruction of the seventies was not merely a matter of hurt and revenge after bitter civil strife, but rather an extraordinary attempt to realize in one of the greatest countries of the world a democracy unhemmed by race or class; a democracy in which any human being of requisite age and character, whether he was a laborer without property, a land holder or a capitalist, should stand equal before the law in his right to have voice in his own government.

The experiment failed and right here in Missouri for two reasons: first, because a laborer without property is not free from the compulsion which his employer can exercise; and secondly, because despite abolition and the Civil War, the majority of persons in the United States did not believe that Negroes should be included among human beings. The combination of these two facts did not simply frustrate the attempt to enfranchise Negroes, but it also changed and modified the whole democratic development of the United States; and put into the hands of land and capital a political power which nullified to an increasing extent the democratic process.

However, the surrender to the reaction of these two heresies: the refusal to recognize the Negro as an integral part of the national citizenship and the refusal to protect the rights of labor against the assumptions of capital did not have unquestioned sway. They rose and fell, swayed and shivered in mighty ground swell.

One of the first considerations that set the tide in favor of the Negro and raised him at one time to a pinnacle of popular esteem undreamed of before the War was his participation in the war. At first few men, North nor South, would admit that slavery was the cause or the object of the Civil War or that black folk could in any real sense be considered the equal of whites; but the course of the war was extraordinary. Quite contrary to the plans of the Southern slave barons, the North determined actually to resist secession and called upon its hosts of population backed by money and material actually to invade the South. The result was a series of military disasters which seriously threatened the Northern cause and compelled the North to call in an ally which they had at first despised but in whose cooperation now they saw ultimate and certain victory. And that was the Negro.

It was not merely that the North could put two hundred thousand Negro soldiers actually in the field; but they could back these with more than three hundred thousand laborers who could be gathered on the spot and who made a costly and imported service of supplies unnecessary. This, however, was but a beginning. Back of these fighters and workers was the possibility of calling to work and arms four million black folk in the very heart of the South upon whose allegiance the South could only count as it was willing to give up the corner-stone of its new economic organization — Negro slavery. And in 1864 the South not only called Negro soldiers to its aid but offered them freedom as reward. These facts, perfectly patent as they are, have never been emphasized and only now and then recognized. The revulsion of feeling toward the Negro in this land was for a time miraculous. General Grant said:

> "The problem is solved. The Negro is a man, a soldier, a hero. Knowing of your laudable interest in the colored troops, . . . I have thought it proper that I should let you know how they acquitted themselves in the late actions in front of Petersburg, of which you have already received newspaper accounts. If you remember, in my conversations upon the character of these troops, I carefully avoided saying anything about their fighting qualities till I could have an opportunity of trying them."

The following spring, April 3rd, the Federal troops entered Richmond. Weitzel was leading, with a black regiment in his command — a long blue line with gunbarrels gleaming, and bands playing: "John Brown's body lies a-moldering in the grave but his soul goes marching on." President Lincoln visited the city after the surrender. . . . After visiting Jefferson Davis' mansion, he proceeded to the capitol, and from the steps delivered a short speech, to the colored people, as follows:

"In reference to you, colored people, let me say God has made you free. Although you have been deprived of your God-given Rights by your so-called masters, you are now as free as I am, and if those that claim to be your superiors do not know that you are free, take the sword and bayonet and teach them that you are — for God created all men free, giving to each the same rights of life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness."

The next step loomed. Charles Sumner said in the Senate of the United States, February 5, 1866, in the very year and almost very month of the founding of this institution:

"I begin by expressing a heart-felt aspiration that the day may soon come when the states lately in rebellion may be received again into the copartnership of political power and the full fellowship of the Union. But I see too well that it is vain to expect this day, which is so much longed for, until we have obtained that security for the future, which is found only in the Equal Rights of All, whether in the court-room or at the ballot-box. This is the Great Guarantee, without which all other guarantees will fail. This is the sole solution of our present troubles and anxieties. This is the only sufficient assurance of peace and reconciliation. . . .

"Our fathers solemnly announced the Equal Rights of all men, and that Government had no just foundation except in the consent of the governed; and to the support of the Declaration, heralding these self-evident truths, they pledged their lives, their fortunes, and their sacred honor. . . . And now the moment has come when these vows must be fulfilled to the letter. In securing the Equal Rights of the freedman, and his participation in the Government, which he is taxed to support, we shall perform those early promises of the Fathers, and at the same time the supplementary promises only recently made to the freedman as the condition of alliance and aid against the Rebellion. A failure to perform these promises is moral and political bankruptcy. . . .

"Twice already, since rebel slavery rose . . . [necessity] has spoken to us, insisting: first, that the slaves should be declared free; and secondly, that muskets should be put into their hands for the common defense. Yielding to necessity, these two things were done. Reason, humanity, justice were powerless in this behalf; but necessity was irresistible. And the result testifies how wisely the Republic acted. Without emancipation, followed by the arming of the slaves, rebel slavery would not have been overcome. With these the victory was easy.

"At last the same necessity which insisted first upon emancipation and then upon the arming of the slaves, insists with the same unanswerable force upon the admission of the freedman to complete Equality before the law, so that there shall be no ban of color in court-room or at the ballot-box, and government shall be fixed on its only rightful foundation — the consent of the governed. Reason, humanity, and justice, all of which are clear for this admission of the freedman, may fail to move you; but you must yield of necessity, which now requires that these promises shall be performed."

It was ten years later that a singular compromise was made. We see this more clearly today than the nation of 1868, or any of its leaders, could possibly envisage it; but even then, Northern industry knew that universal suffrage in the South, in the hands of Negroes just freed from slavery, and of white people still enslaved by poverty, could not stand against organized industry. They promptly calculated that the same method of controlling the labor vote would come in vogue in the South as they were already using in the North, and that the industry which used these methods must in the meantime cooperate with Northern industry; that it could not move the foundation stones upon with Northern industry was consolidating its power; that is, the tariff, the money system, the debt, and national in place of state control of industry. This would seem to be what the masters of exploitation were counting upon and it certainly came true in the bargain of 1876.

"Thus by singular coincidence and for a moment, for the few years of an eternal second in a cycle of a thousand years, the orbits of two widely and utterly dissimilar economic systems coincided and the result was a revolution so vast and portentous that few minds ever fully conceived it; for the systems were these: first, that of a democracy which should by universal suffrage establish a dictatorship of the proletariat ending in industrial democracy; and the other, a system by which a little knot of masterful men would so organize capitalism as to bring under their control the natural resources, wealth and industry of a vast and rich country and through that, of the world. For a second, for a pulse of time, these orbits crossed and coincided, but their central suns were a thousand light-years apart, even though the blind and ignorant fury of the South and the complacent Philistinism of the North saw them as one.

"Reconstruction was an economic revolution on a mighty scale and with world-wide reverberation. Reconstruction was not simply a fight between the white and black races in the South or between master and ex-slave. It was much mor subtle; it involved more than this. There have been repeated and continued attempts to paint this era as an interlude of petty politics or nightmare of race hate instead of viewing it slowly and broadly as a tremendous series of efforts to earn a living in new and untried ways, to achieve economic security and to restore fatal losses of capital and investment. It was a vast labor movement of ignorant, earnest, and bewildered black men whose faces had been ground in the mud by their three awful centuries of degradation and who now staggered forward blindly in blood and tears amid petty division, hate and hurt, and surrounded by every disaster of war and industrial upheaval. Reconstruction was a vast labor movement of ignorant, muddled and bewildered white men who had been disinherited of land and labor and fought a long battle with sheer subsistence, hanging on the edge of poverty, eating clay and chasing slaves and now lurching up to manhood. Reconstruction was the turn of white Northern migration southward to new and sudden economic opportunity which followed the disaster and dislocation of war, and an attempt to organize capital and labor on a new pattern and build a new economy. Finally Reconstruction was a desperate effort of a dislodged, maimed, impoverished and ruined oligarchy and monopoly to restore an anachronism in economic organization by force, fraud and slander, in defiance of law and order, and in the face of a great labor movement of white and black, and in bitter strife with a new capitalism and a new political framework."

It is significant that the institution whose seventy-fifty anniversary we are celebrating today arose out of this chain of circumstances. It was among the black soldiers of Missouri fighting the last battle of the west which spelled the final crippling of the Confederacy that the idea arose of systematic education of their fellows in their home state. Nor was there anything unusual or local in this thought and movement. The public school system of the whole South is the gift of black folk. An element in the white South had struggled for a public school system, had sought to follow New England and the West in this direction long before the Civil War but it is a needless exaggeration to say that there was in the confines of the former slave states, south of Mason and Dixon's line, any real state public school system until the black votes of Reconstruction furnished one. Even in the Middlewest, Ohio, Illinois, Indiana and Missouri, the public school system did not usually include or envisage Negroes and it was only when Missouri colored troops saw with their own eyes what Negroes were doing for public education in Louisiana and Texas, that they sent back the idea to their own state.

Leaving now historical considerations let us consider two matters: first, the relation of the state to education and second, the relation of education to current social problems. I was brought up in a day and state where education beyong the grammar school, beyond the matter of an elementary reading, writing and arithmetic was considered to be a private matter. If a child was to be educated in the high school and college and for the professions, this was a matter to which the private individual and private fortune should attend. This was the New England counterpart of the English idea of education which lasted there down almost to our day.

There grew up consequently in New England endowed high schools and private colleges which have become known in the nation and which long prided themselves on giving the best training not simply to the rich and well-to-do but to talented children of all classes and races. I can remember that the first catalogue of Harvard University which I ever saw had in it a statement that the experience of the university warrants the statement that no student of ability need leave the institution because of lack of funds. This situation gradually changed. The demand for high school and college training on the part of the mass of youth in the United States rapidly out-ran the facilities which private institutions supported by private endowments could furnish, and there arose the public town and city high school and the state university. The voting masses of Americans demanded vastly expanded opportunities for learning. These facilities have grown so rapidly and expanded so enormously in work and attendance that it is manifest that by the twenty-first century the problem of higher education is going to be primarily a problem of the State.

This fills some folk with satisfaction and others with dismay, because it puts into the hands of the state the necessity of facing and facing squarely certain social situations and problems which the state as it is now constituted has not shown itself capable of handling. Not only is there the older problem of religion but what are today the much more pressing problems of class distinctions based on incomes and of racial distinctions based on physical differences and appearances and on historical associations supported by prejudice and folklore.

The new state system of education, therefore, is faced first of all with this question of income, this question which the democratic experiments following the Civil War attempted to meet and failed. It is all well enough to talk about equality of human beings and their liberty to act; the real fact of the matter, as we have known for generations and as we are beginning to admit today, is that a man who does not have enough to eat or the clothing and shelter necessary for health; and who is uncertain as to how long his present meagre income is going to last, is not free and cannot be called the equal of the man with sufficient and assured income and security of status. The comfortable solution of this economic problem, which regards this situation as largely inevitable; which looks upon poverty as the permanent accompaniment of civilization, is not only being questioned today, but is the real burning problem which lies at the basis of the last World War, of this present World War and of other revolutions to come. The solution of attitudes toward this economic problem, is in the long run in the hands of our educational system and it goes without saying that the present educational system is not designed to meet it. It is a system largely determined by that very economic inequality which it seeks to solve; and the power to administer the system lies all too largely in hands interested in privilege rather than in justice, in class advantage rather than in democratic control.

If this were all, the problem of state education would be a most difficult one but in addition to this we have here in the United States problems of race and culture concentrated in our vast cities, concentrated in the rural districts of the Southern South and forming a considerable and difficult problem in border regions like this. This set of problems includes minorities of various types, vestiges of religious controversies stemming from other days, remainders of extreme economic inequalities as represented by various migratory groups; differences due to physique and appearance and above all differences due to cultural history.

Among these you and I especially are victims of those so-called racial differences which arrange themselves about the history of slavery in this country, and which have left us some twelve or more millions of people more or less of African descent, of varying cultures and different degrees of education, who stand out, not simply because of visible differences in appearance, but because of historical differences due to their cultural and economic inheritance. They are, for instance, in large majority, poor people with small income. They are ignorant people having been until quite recently very largely deprived of education; and they are associated in the public mind, through the reiteration of the printed word and the pictured fact, with inferiority and lack of ability. The problem of the education of these persons must be faced by state systems of training and this problem is being faced with every conceivable difference of attitude varying from open and careless neglect to desperate efforts at solution.

In a state like this the usual attitude long has been to resent the fact that such a problem must complicate the policies of the state system of education. It could of course easily be argued that the simpler the problems of education are, the easier it would be to solve them; that if a state school system had to deal with persons of about the same income status, the same cultural background and comparatively few physical differences, that the resultant problem of education would be easy. Perhaps so, but certainly it would not be a problem of education suited to this world. This is a world where the physical, mental and cultural differences between human beings are vast. Where the absolute segregation of human beings is increasingly impossible and undesirable; where the annihilation of space, the economic interdependence of peoples and the political alliances, are such that no problem of education in any country can long hope to escape the resultant questions of human contact. It has long been thought in theory that one of the great advantages of the United States lay in the very combination and contacts of people which its citizenship and political organization involved. But even those who advocated this theory were apt to shy a bit at the Irish and the Germans, at the Jews and the Slovaks, at Asiatics of all sorts and of course at Negroes.

So admitting today that the state system of education has got to regard the different elements in the state as an inescapable part of its problem, we come to the second situation: namely, that as an heritage from slavery and the Civil War we are required by state law to carry on separate institutions for persons of Negro descent. There is no doubt that this in unfortunate and even idiotic. It is needlessly costly and it is a direct contravention to that democratic equality toward which all education in the end must strive. And yet so far as these laws reflext a real state of mind; so far as they simply put into words a deep feeling and determination on the part of the dominant group that coeducation of the races is a thing more to be feared than the failure of democracy; so far as this remains true such a situation has got to be faced.

There is, of course, in everyone's mind the conviction that this inherited prejudice largely the result of unconscious and subconscious reactions, is not and cannot be permanent. But it is a difficult matter to say just when and where the end of such prejudice can be looked for or assumed. One would think that in a state like Missouri where Negroes form but one-sixth of the population and where the actual illiteracy of the whites is not great, that time and a reasonable amount of time would make the duplication of work necessary in two state universities uncalled for; and that a little patient waiting and thoughtful pressure might in our day have opened the doors of the University of Missouri to colored students.

In the meantime, however, there were certain losses which could hardly be faced. The admission of a few colored students to the University of Missouri would not alter the mental complexion of the teachers and professors in that institution. They would know as little about the cultural history and group difficulties of Negro students after as before. Even in large national institutions like the University of Chicago, the University of Illinois, the University of Indiana, colored students have undergone enormous disadvantages and unconscious as well as deliberate discrimination because their white teachers were systematically ignorant of the place of the Negro in human culture. Whole sections of human history have been slurred over or misinterpreted; science has been systematically distorted to prove a prejudice; and above all most of these teachers have refused to visualize the possibility of a Negro becoming a full self-respecting American citizen.

Whether then it was inevitable or not Missouri has embarked upon the road of establishing a Negro university and of making that institution a center of learning and scientific advance deserving to be classed as the equal of other universities in this land. That, of course, is a difficult job. First of all, any time that a state is compelled by higher law or by lower prejudice to embark upon a program for which it has no real liking the work will be done, at first certainly, in a cheap and slipshod way. The separate institution will be by all standards a poor institution: poor in physical equipment, poor in cultural advantages, tempted to imitate where it cannot be real, and to boast of what it has not.

Any Negro institution will have natural difficulty in calling to its service persons thoroughly trained for the kind of work which they will have to do. Having called such persons it will have to pay them at a rate with which no white man would be satisfied. It will give them less security of tenure, fewer surroundings of the larger life and less of honor and spiritual satisfaction. Such a situation will call for sacrifice and devotion on the part of teachers and of loyalty on the part of students which do not necessarily come for the asking or the need. They must be built up by unusual strains and stresses and by loyalties which may in themselves become dangerous.

Inevitably among a poor people and inexperienced the temptation will come and recur to make an institution like this a means of earning a living or of adding to income rather than an institution of learning. The Negroes of Missouri will be tempted in the future, as in the past, to sell their votes not for the establishment of a state university but for small offices and temporary preferment, for the paying of personal debts and squaring of personal dislikes and enmities rather than the larger and more intangible object of building here a center of thought and speculation, of scientific research, of literature and art. Every state university in this nation has gone through this period of petty politics and some are still passing through it. It is only by the hardest effort and the deepest sacrifice and devotion to the greater life that a group and a state can rise to the high conception of what a university can do and what it may be.

There is always the problem of what an institution like this should aim at. Should Lincoln University try to become another University of Missouri? After all, among the great universities of America, the University of Missouri would hardly be placed among the first. It can be considered a sort of average of those plodding miscellaneous centers of crowds, dispensing an education with varying degrees of efficiency. Lincoln University has before it certain obvious differences of method and aim: it can should be smaller and more compact; it can be more certain of its objects and more definite and thorough in its methods. There are certain lines of work in which it can stand out not simply in Missouri but in the United States and in the world, as a focus of research and as a place of culture and civilization for a new and evolving world.

But for this it will need freedom and funds. It will need to be administered by men of large vision who think of this school not as a temporary make-shift or as a place where their relatives get positions or their firms sell goods, but rather as a center where the cultural outlook of this country is to be changed and uplifted and helped in the reconstruction of the world.

Lincoln University has already come a long road in this direction. I can remember that forty-seven years ago I received a letter from what was then Lincoln Institute, asking me to be a member of its faculty and promising me a salary considerably larger than that for which I had promised to work at Wilberforce. I refused the invitation almost without second thought, because the Lincoln Institute of that day had an unsavory reputation. It was a center of graft, of low ideals, of inefficient work. It was well-known that no president could stay here who was not a politician of parts and teachers held their positions only by careful negotiation with the trustees and the political bosses. From that time Lincoln Institute, now Lincoln University, has made progress. It has not altogether been freed of its purely political relations, but that is true of many other state institutions of higher learning throughout the United States. But there has been a change and after seventy-five years of most difficult effort and self-sacrificing strife one begins to see here the chance of establishing a real university, a Negro university not in the sense that it is teaching Negro science or merely Negro history or Negro mathematics, but in the larger and broader sense that here science and education are being so administered that the place of the Negro in the world and his relation to the body of his fellow human beings is being made clear; and a fertile starting point prepared for a democracy of human cultures which will make peace in the world not only possible but profitable for all men.

This university and its dark fellows in the land are not simply American, they are inter-national and part of a new world pattern of which Negroes are thinking. For "What do Negroes themselves think of these their problems and the attitude of the world toward them? First and most significant, they are thinking. There is as yet no great single centralizing of thought or unification of opinion, but there are centers which are growing larger and touching edges. The most significant centers of this new thinking are, perhaps naturally, outside Africa and in America: in the United States and in the West Indies; this is followed by South Africa and West Africa and then, more vaguely, by South America, with faint beginnings in East Central Africa, Nigeria, and the Sudan.

"The Pan-African movement when it comes will not, however, be merely a narrow racial propaganda. Already the more far-seeing Negroes sense the coming unities: a unity of the working classes everywhere, a unity of the colored races, a new unity of men. The proposed economic solution of the Negro problem in Africa and America has turned the thoughts of Negroes toward a realization of the fact that the modern white laborer of Europe and America has the key to the serfdom of black folk, in his support of militarism and colonial expansion. He is beginning to say to these workingmen that, so long as black laborers are slaves, white laborers cannot be free. Already there are signs in South Africa and the United States of the beginning of understanding between the two classes.

"In a conscious sense of unity among colored races there is to-day only a growing interest. There is slowly arising not only a curiously strong brotherhood of Negro blood throughout the world, but the common cause of thedarker races against the intolerable assumptions and insults of Europeans has already found expression. Most men in this world are colored. A belief in humanity means a belief in colored men.

The future world will, in all reasonable probability, be what colored men make it. In order for this colored world to come into its heritage, must the earth again be drenched in the blood of fighting, snarling human beasts, or will Reason and Good Will prevail? That such may be true, the character of the Negro race is the best and greatest hope; for in its normal condition it is at once the strongest and gentlest of the races of men: 'Semper novi quid ex Africa!'"

the University of Chicago, the University of Illinois, the University of Indiana, colored students have undergone enormous disadvantages and unconscious as well as deliberate discrimination because their white teachers were systematically ignorant of the place of the Negro in human culture. Whole sections of human history have been slurred over or misinterpreted; science has been systematically distorted to prove a prejudice; and above all most of these teachers have refused to visualize the possibility of a negro becoming a full self-respecting American citizen.

Last year in the University of Pennsylvania a Negro student of fine physique, excellent family and unusual ability elected a course under a well-known professor in the social sciences. The professor called him in and said to him quite frankly "Blank, I have heard of your work and I know that you are a good student but I want to tell you openly that I have such prejudice against Negroes that I could not treat you fairly in my classes. If under those circumstances you want to take this course, all right." The student quietly withdrew. There are dozens of white teachers in white universities who only differ from this one in being less frank.

Whether then it was inevitable or not Missouri has embarked upon the road of establishing a Negro university and of making that institution a center of learning and scientific advance deserving to be classed as the equal of other universities in this land. That, of course, is a difficult job. First of all, any time that a state is compelled by higher law or by lower prejudice to embark upon a program for which it has no real liking the work will be done, at first certainly, in a cheap and slipshod way. GENERAL SOCIAL BACKGROUND OF THE PRESENT SITUATION
Dr W E B DuBois

Ladies and Gentlemen:

When I finished my work at a student of college and graduate school, for several years I was exposed to agricultural talks at Hampton, that is, I used to go there nearly every year and listen to what was said in the conferences.

I was born in a small town — not a great agricultural district — but the farms were near so that I knew about farming. On the whole, I was favorably disposed toward it. But I noticed in the discussions concerning farming at Hampton, there was a peculiar division in the audience. The experts who came there and talked of farming made a most logical presentation. The time a member of the Department of Agriculture at Washington got through talking, you felt like apologizing to your neighbor that you were not a farmer. The conditions of living, the chances for development, etc. were really tremendous on the farms. On the other hand, the people who listened, listened without any particular enthusiasm. They were farmers or they had come in from the farming districts and the talk in general didn't seem to take.

Now after that, I came down to Georgia as a teacher and in the service of the Federal Government I went down to south Georgia I lived in a small town and with a carriage and buggy and my own feet, I went to all parts of Daugherty County, South Georgia. It was a county that was formerly a great cotton county and it was needless to say, a farm and plantation district. When I got through looking into the conditions there and seeing what I could concerning the past, for the next ten years, I said things about Agriculture which I would not like to repeat in this presence. In fine, I told people that so far as I was concerned, I would get out of an agricultural district if I had to crawl out on my hands and knees; that I could not conceive of a worse sort of condition, a worse way of living than those people were not only going through now — at that time — but had been going through for a generation.

Now that brought me finally to this situation which we continually face in social development in social study. The logic is on one side. It is unanswerable logic — we can prove this and that is what ought to be done.

The facts, however, are on the other side. The facts simply do not agree with logic. They do not agree. And you come to where you have a logical argument and you have a set of facts which mean that you are not going to follow that argument. Now some people let themselves stay there, but that, of course, is fatal. That is either social suicide or it is absolute contradiction to the use of your reason. When, therefore, in any situation, you can reason out a thing and prove that a certain course of action might be followed — you can on the other hand look at the facts and and see clearly that you are not going to follow the logic and that you can't advise other people to do that sort of thing; then there comes a time for you to sit down in conferences of this sort and see what, after all, is wrong because your logic and facts must get together if you are going to have real social development.

Now, in furtherance of that idea, I have been asked to talk to you about the social background of the present situation.

During the last decade or so, there has been a great change and therefore, you can begin with that. But I am going to ask your indulgence to go further back than that because it seems to me that the difficulty we have in agriculture, and in general economic organization, goes back to the beginning or the 19th century or to the end of the 18th century and to the place where you begin the great changes that make the modern world. You begin to get a background that throws light, or throws perspective on the present situation. So that I want to begin with the latter part of the 18th century which was the century of revolution.

In our minds today, partly because we are scared and have a right to be scared, we think of revolution as violence; but you must remember that the essence of revolution is not violence at all — and that all violence is not revolution. What you mean by revolution in social affairs is fundamental change. Now there came in the latter part of the 18th century, fundamental changes; changes in social life but more particularly, changes in economic life, and it is those changes that I want to talk about. Usually, when you are considering the changes that took place then, your emphasis is put in your textbooks in schools, for instance, upon the political changes or we may go further than that and speak of the social changes — that is — in the sense the relation of classes and the way in which people live and things of that sort But I want to put stress upon the way in which people work and earn their income. because I am more and more impressed by tha fact that in this age of human development that is the fundamental thing.

Now the fundamental thing that made a change in the way of life of the modern world was slavery. Now there again, when I used to have a tendency to emphasize that I think that my auditors thought that I was stressing the slave-trade because it had to do with Negro people; but it is more than that. The slave trade represented a change in the way in which the work of the world was carried on — a tremendous change. A change, for instance, in the application of labor. Now of course, all through the history of the world we have labor forced rules for certain objects but here there was in the world a sudden extension of the land of the world. I say extension — the land was there before of course — but it wasn't known, it wasn't used. You had a sudden extension then of the use of the land and you had an application of an increasing labor force. Now that meant that there came on a large scale a new agriculture into the world. The raising of certain raw materials by large application of labor. You had the plantation, nothing unknown in Europe. No such use of land had been conceived. The comparatively small parts that were used were used for the raising of material that was eaten — ribbon cane and pork. The farm was a thing that the poor people easily look across and walk across and in a short time there was a tremendous extension of the area of the farm and of the number of laborers that were used on the farm. That meant that agriculture took suddenly a new stature. It became a new way of life, and not only that, the returns from agriculture became so large. In times before that all that we were expect to get out of agriculture was a living.

In this new way of agriculture there were numbers of people who got not only what they wanted to eat and wear and what was necessary to shelter them, they got a surplus and they used that surplus for further extension of agriculture. And there was born into the modern world, the modern system of capitalism. We do not usually stress that in the textbooks because it isn't altogether pleasant to our pride to base modern capitalism on the slave trade and slavery, but that was the fact of the matter. That was the fact of the matter for in _____ England there it was the slave trade that preceded the great manufacture of cotton and it was the basis of the English Dominance of the sea. So that the era of capitalism came in as an aftermath of the slave-trade. Now that meant that suddenly, numbers of people had great interest in the extension of slavery and the slave trade and of the new agriculture.

There came to you a cry for the chance to do things which is curiously misinterpreted in this age, that is, there came the new cry for freedom. Now the cry for freedom in the latter part of the 18th century and the early part of the 19th century didn't mean what you mean by freedom at all. It meant freedom for individual enterprise for certain people who had chance for enterprise. It didn't mean freedom for surs, for workers, for laborers, for slaves. It meant that this man who had received, perhaps from the Crown, or perhaps by his own enterprise, a thousand or ten-thousand acres, would have a chance to develop it in his own way. And it meant of course (and that is the thing you have been reminded of) that the individual man could set up his own manufacturing and could go ahead and he didn't want the state interfering with that so that you had in the world a new idea of freedom.

Now that freedom developed in two ways. One of which we are quite conscious of and the other which we are rather apt to forget. It developed in the line of agriculture and that is the side we are apt to forget. It developed into great sugar plantations of Cuba and of Haiti and other places of that sort and perhaps even more than that we ought to speak of the great tobacco planations of Virginia; but the tobacco passed as a dominant thing or rather passed in various phases. But when the sugar planting came, then you had a tremendous develo ment of free enterprise. You had a chance for men of ordinary social status to get out to the Colonies; Frenchmen, for instance_____, and starting what amounted to little kingdoms, living in luxury with a new outlook upon life with masses of slaves working for them and with this sugar being gathered and to sweeten their food. Now that became a tremendous enterprise. It attracted people from all parts of the world. It was a matter of literature, in novels and poems in the peculiar seductive life upon these great plantations of the West Indies.

Now that was succeeded by the Cotton Kingdom. It took sometime. Sugar planting began about 1640 and the cotton kingdom didn't really come to its full development until 1830, nearly 200 years later. Now the cotton kingdom wasn't any great thing because by that time the surgs that had been used for carrying sugar from the West Indies across the world, had developed a new World Commerce. World Commerce in the sense that we know it, came from these crops which Negro labor was raising it; first in the West Indies and then in the United States. And for the first time in the world, we had the oceans painted with ships that were carrying goods to all sorts of people and from all sorts of people.

Not so much in the case of tobacco and sugar becuase that didn't take so very much processing and the greater part of that processing come on now a day.

The increase of cotton called for a great deal of technical manufacture and there came in answer to that demand, and at the same time pushing the demand, the peculiar set of indigents in the latter part of the 18th century and the beginning of the 19th century. The new loom, the steam engine, the application of power in all sorts of technical ways; so that suddently there arose the cotton manufacture and the cotton of the United States particularly, began to clothe the world. There you had a different line of development. On the one hand you had the agricultural freedom, the agricultural process and development. Now on this hand you had the development of manufacture and trade. And that development of manufacture and trade took tremendous steps. In the first place, it called in more people of ability. It didn't make any difference who in the factories was able to do the certain things who he was, whose father he was, or what blood he bore. If he could do the things, he was given the job. So that all sorts of new blood came into manufacture.

On the other hand, in the development of agriculture, there was even more of stagnation. There was more of thought of social position, so that the development of agriculture didn't get as much of the new brains and the new thought and technique as the development of manufacture.

Now came the Civil War and the there again, I am not interested, just now, in the Civil War from the regards to status of the slaves or the power of the salt (political power) etc., but rather in its economic implications. Now what was the Civil War? The Civil War was the organization of the technical development of agriculture as over against the organiztion of the technical development of manufacture and through the process of the Civil War the organization of manufacture went way beyond anything that was done in Agricutlrue. That explains, more than any other thing, the situation in which Agriculture is in today.

Now to go back and consider how that came about. The persons who organized the development of the salt and who looked forward into what it might be were thinking, not simply of the efficiency of agriculture, as helping the way of life, but they were thinking also of their social position. They, therefore, paid practically little attention to their laboring class as such. It wasn't a question of the development of the laboring class, It was the question of developing those people who were guiding and organizing society now (in another age) when, for instance, there was not the technical development of labor and manufactures, so that labor became self-conscious. In another age, the agricultural organization might have had a tremendous success. They were looking for new land. This whole state of Texas was a part of that development of a new agriculture. They were thinking of the extension of that organized agriculture, down through Mexico, down to the Isthmus; they were thinking of adding the West Indies; a great organization of agriculture, a great organization of war material that they could send throughout the world themselves as the master. They were thinking of the new ways in which they could do this, or the labor which could be saved and of the efficiency with which they could get these goods to the people who wanted them and who would pay for them.

Now during the whole of the fighting of the Civil War, the organization of that manufacturing went on; went on by leaps and bounds until the North came to be dotted with manufacturing plants and until the United State changed from an Agricultural country preeminently to a manufacturing country.

Now as a part of that, they had to have laborers and they had to have intelligent laborers far as they could get through with it; and before the Civil War and especially afterward, they were attracting some of the best labor of the world.

Now that meant that in their organization of freedom and efficiency of work they had brought in a class of people who were beginning to be self-conscious by their part as a part of this whole processing situation. They wanted their rights, they wanted a voice, etc, so that they were faced with a democratic labor movement, while on the other hand — southern agriculture was not faced with even the beginning of that.

Now the result of the Civil War was putting a quietus upon the development of agriculture as a great unified development. It meant that the manufacturers got way ahead. They got control of the market. They not only got control of the market but they also began to get control of the land. All of that agricultural development that went on after the Civil War, particularly in the west, was not so much what we see now - a development of agriculture,- as it was a manipulation of land values, of speculation in land and it was that thing that made the West prosperous because out of the money that they were getting from increased land values, they could pay agricultural laborers, the laborers could buy farms; but it wasn't primarily an agricultural prosperity. It was a speculation prosperity.

Now there came with the World War-another economic revoluation. Now that economic revolution of the World War was a different kind of thing. Agriculture had stepped back, but it had greatly increased its importance because it was furnishing war materials for the manufacturers; but the manufacturers were in control. They were the people who set wages and they pushed agriculture behond the field so far as the farmers had anything to do with the determination of prices, with the determination of the condition of the market.

On the other hand they did another thing which was in certain ways, almost fatal for agriculture in the United States. They reached out because they already had this World empire for raw material in all parts of the world so that while we didn't, for a long time, realize it in the United States, the working farmers, the farm laborers were in competition with the worst paid laborers of the world — with the peons of the West Indies and the South Sea Islands, with the surfs of China, with the surfs on the Russian Steps. That labor was the labor that pulled down the wages in every civilized country so far as wages have to do with farm life. The result was that there was a calling back of the status of those people that were interested in agriculture and your first World War was a fight for the domination of cheap war materials all over the world with the same kind of misinterpretation as to what it is. The revolution that you are seeing today (and the revolution is on now) is the revolution of those laboring classes who were a part of the manufacturing organizations and a determination on their part that they are going to have a law to part of the income. In every single country of the World that is openly recognized except in the United States. In the United States we are talking as though the economic organization was just the same as it was before the beginning of this war and it was going to keep on this same sort of way - we are going to have the same profit system, we are going to have the same division of income, we are going to have the same worship of capital. Now, in no other country in the world is there any such attempt to deceive themselves — the people of the country. Everygody knows that the organization and control of capital is passing through a crucial phase. It is never going back to the old phase. Those workers in the organization of life, particularly in manufactures, are going to have a voice and they are going to have a decisive voice. It doesn't make any difference whether that voice is shown by actual votes or whether it is shown by their power to keep in control the state. A man in whose hands all the power is momentarily concentrated. No matter how it comes about the mass of the working people of Germany are the people for whom the state is being carried on. The same thing stopped the war in Franch and is the crucial question in France. On the other hand, at first it wasn't at all clear as to where the agricultural workers and the farmers were coming in this new revolution but they are being taken in. They have been taken in in Germany, particularly; they have been taken in in Italy; to a less extent in England because they were a small part. England got farm labor outside of England so that you have now, a developing organization based on the investment of capital, based on a voice in the control of capital on the part of the mass of the working people. But you have one thing that is going to bring trouble in the future; and that is there isn't a single thing said, usually, about the status of the laborers outside of Europe; outside the leading countries like Europe and America; that is, where are the great working masses of India coming in in the future organization of work in Denmark. Where are the Chinese? We are very sensitive about the Chinese today, not because of any peculiar condition of the Chinese, but because we are afraid we and England will not have a chance to exploit the Chinese that we used to have and that that monopoly of exploitation is going to the Japanese. The reali question is, of course, what is going to be the condition of those Chinese workers? What part are they going to have in the future organization of the world? And there again you have that extraordinary difference between the facts and the logic.

We are taling about democracy. We can't open our mouths today without saying something about democracy, but we never say anything about democracy in Africa; and we don't say much about democracy in the South. We're taught democracy among those people who have the power, who have had the power and who propose to keep the power. Now that is worse to believe that in the future you are going to have trouble in that wise

Now this whole thing as you look back over it, comes back to this fact — the difficulty with the farmers in the United States — just as the difficulty with the farmers in China is not working hours, or working in a factory or anything of that sort. No — that isn't the question. The question is the question of income. How much are the farmers going to get. If a man, a young man graduating from this institution would vote to go out and by going into farming get, in the course of ten or twenty years an income of $5,000 a year, he would go out and do it. But with the prospect of getting $500 a year he is not going to do it and nobody can tell him that he ought to do it.

Unless in the division of income, the farmers are going to have a larger share than they have in the past, you are not going to resuscitate farm life or make it the central life of the organization of the country as it ought to be.

Now for the first time in this generation, under the New Deal, we have a discussion of that. It is a discussion which still makes certain people exceedingly warm under the collar; the idea of handing out doles to the farmers when we have been handing out doles to the manufacturers for several generations. The idea of doing that for the farmers is against economics. It is against the reason of the thing and yet we are doing it because you can't do anything else; because either you placate the farmers or the country really is going to get into trouble.

So that the real Christian future is this question of the income of the farmer. When, in the organization of the world and of life you can so arrange things that the farmers is going to get an income which is comparable to the income of the city laborar, and the manufacturer and the capitalist. Then you are going to put farming on the basis where it ought to be.

I remember in those old discussions at Hampton that the chemists used to come forward and say very impolite things to the farmers as to his neglect of chemistry of what he could do if he would put "such and such" things on his land, etc. and then left the farmer sitting perfectly cold. He didn't have any money to buy that kind of thing and if he did and he increased his crop, what would he get out of it? He was just about as poorly off as before and perhaps even worse off than before.

On the other hand, if the farmer was getting an income and could look forward to an income, pure common sense would lead him to look into the chemistry of the soils and to the rotation of crops and to plan the things that he ought to raise, and how he could make his farm prosperous. This then, is in light and rapid touch the great background out of which the present situation has come, you will be told he will be persuaded, from time to time, that this is much too radical as a cure, but after all, you can't do anything about people's incomes if incomes are settled by the lords or stockholders or somebody out of your reach.

But, as a matter of fact, we are coming to a time when we know perfectly well that that isn't true, that if you are going to have democracy in the world, that democracy is going to be applied to the matter of income. Somebody decides how much income each one of you is going to get; now it is the business of the people who are going to take part in democracy to have a voice in that decision.

EDUCATION

THE NEGRO COLLEGE AND MINORITY TECHNIQUE

W. E. Burghardt Du Bois

My object in this address is to fix the place of a college for Negroes, in the general effort of a partially suppressed minority to achieve a place in the general culture of the nation; and simultaneously so to modify that culture that it will integrate certain culture patterns of the minority group itself and enable this group not only to advance but to add to the general welfare of the nation.

In order to make this program clear I want first to go back to certain fundamental ideas: What is it that practically all men want? It is not easy to answer so vast a generalization; but perhaps if we attempt it we might say this: men want Knowledge - to know the facts of the world, the things that really exist, the fundamental Truth about the universe. In addition to this, they want Happiness - the experience of pleasant reactions and emotions which they may correlate under the general even if vague term of Beauty. And finally, they want the satisfaction of effort -- the opportunity of trying to create greater and more enduring forms to transmute Truth into Beauty.

These more or less vague ideals, float in the upper air of the imaginings and wishes of all men. From dream and ideal they must be translated into actuality - into real experience and this mysterious process has drawn the attention of the world's greatest philosophers since the beginning of thought. Always practical life is then the endeavor of men to bring ideal down to earth and realize it in actual experience; to translate wish and desire into fact. The result of such efforts is what we call today a culture pattern, a rough approximation in real life of the effort to know truth, to realize beauty and to create a satisfactory world. The culture pattern will always in any group or at any time be imperfect; a distorted approach to what men want. Yet because of the very elusiveness of their desires they will cling desperately and even blindly to every step achieved, so as to lose no knowledge, forget no pleasant experience, lose no effort at creative work. The culture pattern will in earliest times consist of unreasoned repetition frozen into dogmas and tabooes; then will come reasoned science, not as we love to say, absolute knowledge of truth, but working hypotheses continually re-examined and tested by new facts; conventional art and manners, loosed continually into personal respect and courtesy and more or less clearly conceived art forms.

Finally creative work and skill starting of necessity with those things needed for survival such as food, shelter and defense; will rise afterward to gracious and comfortable living and to free human effort, for literature and art in color and form.

Such human effort is faced first of all by the problem of death; by the difficulty of insuring the continuity of human culture through successive generations. This is met through the education of children; through their direct instruction, through the example of the conduct of their elders, through precept and adage, admonition, threat and punishment. In this way one generation hands to the next a body of beliefs expressed in habits, cutoms and religion which becomes the visible and tangible expression of the group culture.

But this is not enough. Not only are such efforts limited by the pressing work of earning a living but also by a growing accumulation of knowledge and by the increased use of thought and reason in dealing with the hard actual world. It is here that the invention of the school comes as one of the earliest tools for accomplishing the broad ends of life.

What we call the school, the college, the university, all involve the essential idea of the endeavor to use reason in order to understand and mold this complicated and contradictory universe; the effort by exploration and experiment to collect facts as the raw material which reason may fashion into new cultural patterns; to increase and rationalize individual experience by conference between minds, which inevitably leads to listening to words of wisdom from experienced people, from elders, from men of unusual ability and knowledge.

In all these steps, the higher animals follow man, although mostly from afar: they rise through blind habit and repetition to some use of reason; they explore, they experiment, they confer with each other. The hen scratching with her chicks is clearly transferring information. In one further step however the animals scarcely follow: and that is in mass transfer of information from the dead to the living; in the preservation of the tremendous accumulation of wisdom and experience in the dead past not simply by unconscious habit and inherited thought pattern but by conscious giving of the past to the living present through the carved stone, the remembered folklore and poetry and the written word.

All these steps may take place long before anything like a school or college is set apart as a deliberate institution designed as a short-cut between past and present. But soon the School appears. First, in the lonely individual thinker, so poignantly illustrated by Rodin's celebrated statue. Then by the groves of Academe, where older and younger men walked together and argued, in the African Gri-gri bush schools for adolescents. In the conferences of the cloister of the medieval church, the lecture platforms of the universities and always by individual reading in collected private and public libraries. It early became customary for men, so far as they could find leisure from earning a living, to turn aside and devote several years of certain lives to an intensive gathering of knowledge, especially of the past, so as to make a short-cut from the ignorance of youth to the knowledge which grown men must have in order to live more completely.

Such a short-cut which the school and college provide, was always and had to be, more or less artificial. It was not living real life; it was talking and thinking about life. It had to be superficial dealing with selected and typical incidents and laboratory experiment rather than with beings of flesh and blood and actual deed and events. Especially the course of study had to be hurried - a trying in four years or less to understand what it had taken the world ten thousand years to realize. It had to be an unfinished matter leaving the graduate poignantly aware of what he did not know rather than of the really great mass which he had learned. But all this, which critics of education periodically re-discover as something new and astonishing is necessarily part and parcel of the educational process, always has been and always must be, by the very nature of the problem. All that is indispensable is that this should be clearly recognized; that men should know that in a four years college course they are attempting the essentially impossible and yet are compelled to attempt it; that they are trying to get a grasp not simply of the ideals of living but of the practical answers to the eternal questions of existence which the culture patterns of modern civilization indicate.

There are then two ways of preserving the accumulated wisdom of past human life: one, the freezing of that past into habit and custom, into partly unconscious and always unreasoned cultural mores; the other is through the conscious process of reasoned and planned education.

The Essential College whether it is represented by the Bush schools of Africa, the Clan training of China, the groves of the Greek academy, the Roman schools of rhetoric, the cloisters of the medieval church, the vast universities of the Middle Ages, or the colleges of Europe and America, - all are seeking, through temporary withdrawal of a more or less select group of young people from the world, to get that group to understand what the world is, so far as men have learned through the experience of the past. The college process, the college course, can never be a fixed and absolute thing by the very nature of its problem. It must always be in flux. The method of its teaching and learning must change with changing time, the contact of its teachers and students with each other and the outside world must change as human beings themselves change. Above all the reasoned college curriculum must strike against and be modified by the more or less unyielding habits and customs of its day and time.

Above all the college curriculum and its methods of teaching, the character of its teachers and the characteristics of its students, must be all modified by the income of the community, that is, by the ability of the community to subsist with enough food, shelter and defense and yet beyond this basic necessity spare time for study, thought and creative work on the part of the Select Few at least, the Talented Tenth if possible and for all men in Utopia.

This matter of income therefore calls for careful analysis. Income is fundamentally psychological; it is satisfaction of the wants and needs of men, so far as this can be accomplished by their activities. Such satisfactions first of all in human history, must be those which come from the support of life: food, shelter, defense; and then various gradations of culture up to matters of indulgence and luxury.

It must be remembered that the school came into being as an institution, after the tribe and group had gotten to a place where the primary matter of earning a living had been settled; so that earning a living depended for the most part upon habits and customs fixed and imparted before the institution of the school was established. The school was based upon the antecedent certainty of self-support for the mass in the community. It was only then that a part of the community could be set aside for schooling, for higher training. The school, therefore, in itself was not a place where youths were taught to earn a living. They had already been taught that in the home or would be taught later by the community. As students their living was earned for them before they were put in school and was furnished by the community while they were in school.

However, as the intricacy of economic organization increased and its objects broadened, there was need for the application of thought and reason to the organization of industry. In this way training in skill and technique became a part of the institutionalized educational process and remains today an integral and increasing part. Nevertheless, this does not present a new or different educational ideal. The educational ideal still is the transmuting of truth, beauty and creative effort into a body of culture by the spread of that culture; the increase of the number of persons who can share it and contribute to its depends upon the increasing perfection of the underlying industrial organization; so that today the college faces a problem of realizing the ideals of life through such betterment of the methods of earning a living which will give larger and larger opportunity and leisure for study to the masses of men.

This brings up the whole question as to the relation of the college and the technical school and it has been the subject of such loose thinking that pause a moment to make distinctions clear. We may suppose that over dark waters of some rock-bound coast, there rises a vast tower which is the Light of the World - a lighthouse of no ordinary power but one whose gleams with ever increasing clarity reveal larger and larger parts of the world. The higher the tower and the more powerful the light, the greater and more secure must be the founding stones.

By an understandable inversion of reasoning, we might argue that the object of this lighthouse and its increasingly penetrant gleam was the building, strengthening and permanence of its foundation. Certainly it is true that without this foundation there could be little light and possibly no light at all. On the other hand, the object of the light is not the foundation; it is the world. It might be truly said that this light should always be ready for use in searching out faults in the foundation; for guiding workers who might strengthen, heighten, broaden, and even move and rebuild the foundation stones. All this is true; and yet the founding stones are subordinate and subsidiary to the lighting, and only incidental to the central idea of the lighthouse. It could be said, and must be said, that one of the first duties of lighting would be to strengthen the foundations; but it would be silly to say that this was the last and final and only duty of the Great Light.

Now in the same way I have recently taken occasion to emphasize the fact that the Negro colle e and the Negro college graduate, and more especially the state supported land-grant college must make it their first duty to guide the American Negro to a new cultural change in industrial organization; a new foundation of his economic basis, of his capacity to earn a living, and get sufficient food, shelter and comfort in order to be a modern civilized man and to support modern cultural institutions. There is no gainsaying this truth. But on the other hand it would be worse than foolish to say that this is the only object of the college; it is rather an object incidental to the rebuilding of modern culture; to the reorientation of education; to the reestablishment of the Negro college and the shifting of its support in order that it may be about its main business of building a new culture; and through that culture aim to approximate the great ideals of human living: truth, beauty and creative effort.

Having settled now the preliminary problem: the wants of men and the cultural complex which roughly translate these wants into actual life; having noted the role which folkways, mores and morals play in preserving past experience and especially in earning a living; we have then studied the school as the conscious, rational effort of the group, the tribe and the nation to attain knowledge, art and purposive effort.

Let us now turn to the nation which has its body of culture and its system of education, and analize its composition. It consists invariably of a number of groups, - families, neighborhoods, races and organizations. Some of these groups, coalescing more or less completely, form the Majority Group which represents the nation: sometimes in a conscious and tangible way; sometimes almost unconsciously; and yet always with real power. The prevailing cultural patterns of the nation correspond to the will and belief of this Majority Group.

This body of ideals and its cultural form is never in any case the sole creation of the group which uses them. It depends, and depends for the most part on widely gathered knowledge and experience; so that culture of the present dominant European group in the world is built not simply upon the historical development of Europe, but upon the cultural past of Egypt and Africa and the vast experience of the continent of Asia; upon the contributions of the aboriginal America and islands of the sea like Melanesia. It is a conglomerate of information, experience and custom and into a fairly complete cultural unity.

Of course this majority group itself consists always of a union of minorities. There are always within the majority certain kernels, which at any given time best express and have the power to express the cultural pattern of the whole nation. They are more or less privileged coteries and wield their influence by actual physical power which compells conformity or by customary prestige or by the passive acquiescence of the majority. In the Greek city, for instance, it was a little group of free citizens of Greek birth and of wealth and education who formed and developed and extended the culture which we call Greecian. Outside of them, the mass of slaves and foreigners had but passive influence and acquiesced in the cultural domination of this minority. In the Roman state the citizens of one forceful city extended their domination over most of the known world, and themselves shared power but to a small degree with parts of Italy and with some immigrant foreigners. The Medieval Catholic Church with its powerful priesthood dominated the culture of Europe for a thousand years, set its cultural patterns by theological dogma, modified again and again by reason and science, but left the mass of middle class people, laborers and peasants, largely out of consideration. Later the British Empire was arranged and extended by the organized work and planning of a minority of privileged aristocrats whose numbers were added to from time to time by men of ability in all walks of life. But again British civilization in the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries was a matter of the cultural leadership of a privileged group and not of the masses of middle class and laboring people. In the United States cultural leadership fell into the hands of a larger mass of what we loosely call the Business men; the United States became a vast industrial organization with the laboring classes including former serfs and slaves having larger part to be sure than in most former cultural organizations, but no decisive part, in spite of the spread of the democratic ideal. Indeed even today this democratic ideal is sharply challenged even in so-called democracies, by a deep-seated conviction that the cultural leadership of all men always must be a matter of the Few and never of the Many.

This means that always there is in any majority group a number of minorities some of which, and usually one of which, is leading with others acquiescing. But also it means that there are certain non-conformist minority groups outside the closely-welded majority; groups whom the present cultural patterns hurt and hinder in various ways, and who are in more or less conscious rebellion against these patterns. If, of course, the friction is great, this means eventual civil war, either declared or undeclared in revolt, riot and lawlessness. On the other hand, it may be that the non-conformity is partial, as in the case of the Negro in the United States, who is on the whole in agreement, and making effort at further agreement with the general cultural patterns of the white nation but suffering at many points friction and hindrance in his efforts.

In that case there arises what one may call a social torque, a social twist, different from our older conception of the social lage, where a part of the community has not reached the cultural standards of another part, but is allowed and urged to reach them; and is more or less consciously trying to reach them. In the case which I have in mind there is such a twist or dislocation between the patterns of majority group and the more or less dimly conceived patterns of the minority group that direct accomodation is difficult if not impossible.

To illustrate: there is in the cultural pattern of the vast majority of Americans a tradition, rising to folkway and mores, that civilization is the invention and property of the white race and that while its extension to colored people is to a degree possible and desirable, that this can only be allowed in so far as it does not threaten the cultural standards and survival of whites; that these standards are threatened by higher education, race-mixture, mastery of economic technique and political power; and that, therefore, distinct limits upon the cultural development of blacks must be set up and maintained.

On the other hand, the black minority distinctly and passionately believes in itself; in its legal and moral right to equality with white folk and its inherent ability to share and advance modern culture; it desires increased wealth and income, advanced training and technical efficiency to attain these goals; and it rationalizes a conviction that culture is international and interracial and cannot in the long run be denied to black folk; that it is distinctly to the advantage even of the dominant majority, that black folk should contribute to the cultural whole.

Here is a distinct twist, dislocation and antipathy in cultural pattern; and under such circumstances it would easily have happened in the past, and is a possibility even today, for two absolutely antagonistic cultures to arise from these premises. To eliminate the possibility of this I am discussing the question as to how far the college, and especially the college which represents the black minority, can accomodate and bring into agreement the cultural dislocation and social torque which I have indicated.

First of all it must be clear that the black minority has got to bring itself into cultural unity and understanding with its own elements; that is, it is not simply a problem of cultural disagreement with whites; it is the clear understanding of that disagreement and a building up and sharpening into unity of form and detail of distinct cultural patterns for the blacks.

This is difficult. It is a problem of dynamic rather than static sociology; that is, it is a problem of the accommodation and guidance of organized forces while they are in rapid change and not when they are still. This first of all brings to the front, the fact that this minority culture, in order to express itself and understand itself must certainly to a degree solve the primary problem of self support; it has got to earn its living; it has got to provide for the support of its masses, its Talented Tenth, and of its withdrawn college group, which is trying to understand the past, interpret the present and plan the future. And it has got especially to understand this social torque between its own cultural ideals and those of the white world.

It is often argued that such arrangement and planning are easy because after all, democratic freedom and broad opportunity for men is the theoretical ideal of white civilization and should be logically extended to all human beings who wish this way of life and are able to take advantage of it. But it must be remembered, as Pareto has pointed out and emphasized, that most human conduct is non-logical and though this may eventually lead to reasoned action, such development does not necessarily follow and may in any case involve long and devious courses of conduct.

The plain fact is that in the opinion of most leading thinkers today among white folk, and particularly in the more or less exaggerated opinion of the great white masses, democracy, economic opportunity and freedom are designed for white Europeans; not for Negroes, Indians, Asiatics or South Sea Islanders. Possibilities of including some such folk are of course always expressed and discussed and yet it is characteristic of our day that the Atlantic Charter of Roosevelt and Churchill should be designed to establish peace among white people and not take into consideration hundreds of millions of yellow, black and brown peoples. As Mr. Churchill himself frankly admitted it did not apply to Africa or India.

Not only this, but in the great and fundamental change that is taking place in our economic ideas, - the extension of democratic control of industry and a more just distribution of wealth and income, - again the servitor peoples of the earth, - the serfs and workers, who are largely dark folk and who raise the most precious of the world's raw material, these are not envisaged as partners in the plan.

When people speak of "freedom" and "our way of life" they are thinking primarily of the extraordinary degree of freedom of movement, action and expression which has been achieved and insisted upon for well-to-do white folk, especially titled Englishmen and rich Americans the world over, but which has been and still is usually and brazenly denied to colored peoples the world over.

Realizing this, there is on the part of some American Negroes, most Indian leaders and all the Japanese a conviction that the civilization of white folk is founded on hypocrisy and so steeped in injustice and cruelty that we should seek no part in it.

Between these extreme attitudes, assumption of our easy admittance to modern culture and our total exclusion, comes the effort to apply to this impasse reason and planning under the leadership of the Negro college and university. While no exact difference in function between the college and university can be laid down,

I seem to see a possible difference in function which may in future, grow. It is the primary function of the college to interpret the cultural concepts of present European civilization to the American Negro; to make the young student and graduate understand his cultural day and age, with the conviction that this belongs to him by inheritance, just as much as it belongs to any other race; that while one can never determine with mathematical niceties just how much the different races and nations of men have contributed to civilization, yet it is certain that the ancestors of Negroes had part in its building and contributed more or less to its development. It is impossible to say how far present civilization is the product of Europe and how far it is the product of Asia and Africa. Certain elements there are which each continent has contributed to with especial success and while in the unusual technical and economic development of the nineteenth and twentieth centuries the preeminence of Europe is clearn, it is also clear that this contribution is not the only contribution nor even the greatest contribution made by man to men.

The content of this European culture pattern begins with a broad knowledge of modern science and a symthesis of this knowledge in the mind of teachers and students. It is not sufficient for an understanding of today's culture that we should have specialists in history, in chemistry, in biology, in the social sciences. It is much more important that these men, with their emphasis on and knowledge of particular fields, should have such general knowledge of all science as will make possible the transmission and teaching of a complete and rounded cultural pattern to their students as a unified and mutually understandable thing. If we were differently circumstanced and could think merely of the development of individuals as such, who later could be integrated into a group we might be satisfied with a college split from top to bottom into departments; but that idea is difficult of realization among any people or any race and impossible for us. Completeness of understanding, encyclopaedic knowledge of present culture is more and more demanded for the training of men who must live in a social world and not in ivory towers.

A lack of this synthesis is a just criticism of practically all Negro colleges. There is evident and patent effort not to pool knowledge and learn each from the other's department, and subject oneself to inter-departmental criticism and inspiration. The college which ought to be, therefore, a cultural unity becomes a discreet unrelated congeries of separated and isolated persons or groups of scholars; and while they may come together weekly to play cards they cannot apparently meet monthly to allow one to teach the other. We have, therefore, the extraordinary spectacle of persons teaching history who know nothing of economics; of persons teaching biology who know nothing of history; of persons teaching chemistry who are innocent of sociology; and in general of the attempt to make isolated ignorance build automatically unified knowledge.

The burden on the Negro college is larger and more intricate than that which rests on the white college because outside science, much if not most of the effort to realize Beauty, of studying and testing pleasurable reaction to stimulus, durable ideals of effort and manners to guide the intercourse of human beings, is taught to the white group in family life and by organized social intercourse. The interference with family life which is characteristic of the history of the Negro in America, together with its general change and breakdown in the country at large; the failure of Negroes to take the organization of general social intercourse seriously and let it stagger along as it will while awaiting admission to white society on basis of merit, puts into our Negro colleges as raw material men and women who to a large degree are in no sense of the word gentlemen and ladies.

When one remembers that in university circles in England and Germany in particular, in France and in New England, manners were once counted as the most important part of education; when Englishmen could say "manners maketh man", and declare that Latin was a study which "a gentlemen should have forgotten", we can realize how curiously twisted our present emphasis is. The manners of the students in a college like this are largely set by the alleys. It is impossible to tell by the conduct and speech of one of our college students whether he is a man of education or a loafer from Auburn Avenue. The treatment of women by college-bred men, once a criterion of good breeding, today is not simply a rebound from the perhaps exaggerated and hypocritical courtesy of other days, but is so distinctly casual as to be insulting. We used to invite visitors to eat with students and teachers together in the university dining rooms. We are ashamed to do so today. Here is a neglected phase of cultural training which Negro colleges have to attack in some way. Perhaps the students could do it themselves. Perhaps we might have fraternities who refused to initiate as members persons who did not have the manners of gentlemen; who will not dress appropriately, talk grammatically and show to each other the deference due to human beings.

All this is the cultural content of the white world. It has been shaken and disturbed in our day and our reaction is in part an echo of that debacle in manners and courtesy which followed the first World War and perhaps anticipated it. Nevertheless it is a body of cultural concepts which must be restored; and in the case of the Negro race more than restored since it was never restored after the tragedy of the African slave trade.

Beyond science and the experience of pleasant reactions and emotions which we loosely call beauty, comes the creative effort which transmutes fact into beauty. We need for instance to objectify and dramatize the facts of our daily existence, the deep content of our spiritual life, not simply by giving entertaining plays but in a real folk theatre, with true portrayal of contemporary life and social problems, and deliberately encouraged creative effort in writing and acting color and form. We need to raise the artisan up to the artist; and the drudgery of work to the divine madness of creation. There is scant difference in the total effort involved, but the difference of result is that between Hell or Heaven.

This creative effort, I imagine falls more in the realm of the University which brings us to a consideration of the way in which college and university, at least in theory, might contrast with and complement each other. So far in our development, we have nothing among American Negroes which really deserves the term university; that is, which sets as its opportunity and duty not so much the understanding of surrounding culture, as the dynamic problem of adapting a new and loosely conceived culture pattern of American Negroes to the larger and more embracing culture of the surrounding white European and American world and at the same time of modifying and extending that white culture. In other days and places the function of the university has been similar but with a different body of facts and stresses to deal with. For instance, the university of the Middle Ages had to reconcile the severe cultural divergence of religion and science; the great German universities of the nineteenth century worked to reconcile political autocracy with intellectual freedom; the older American universities had the task of establishing something of unity between European culture and the rough pioneer production venture of America. In all these cases the basic duty was clear: to apply reason to social problems and particularly to social torques, to twists in cultural concepts and movements so as to allow progress in the ways and methods of civilization.

Unless the university attempts this leadership, the necessary result will be gotten at by rough and anti-social methods; by War which is always destructive of civilization and nearly always costs far more than it gains for either victor or vanguished; by segregation which seeks the impossible task of dividing a world which naturally seeks human union, diversified contacts and experiences, and which today more than ever before is crowded into ever nearer neighborhoods by recent technological advance; and which is hindered in this natural unity by prejudice and ignorance. Or the same ends may be sought by submission to force and power, by bowing to the pressure of prejudice and committing racial suicide, or giving up intellectual integrity in the face of overwhelming tyranny to the eternal and fatal loss of human gifts which we dare not spare. To oppose these methods, calls for independence and daring, and both these virtues must be pinned to action based on science and guided by reason.

For the most part the Negro university hitherto has been simply an extension of the college; an extension usually in the direction of preparation for professional careers in medicine, law and teaching; or to some extent in the encouragement of individual specialization along certain scientific avenues. Beyond this, the great and insistent problem of integrating a new group of people into the culture of the present civilization and of giving this new group its own cultural patterns designed to be incorporated in the larger culture; for adding to current culture not only quantitatively and qualitatively, new dimensions and i eas suited for a wider world, - of this vision and duty, the Negro university is scarcely aware.

Here on the seven hills of Atlanta there has been given us peculiar opportunity. It is evidenced physically by this astonishing array of fifty buildings on one hundred acres of land with two hundred teachers and two thousand students; but more especially by the character of conceived affiliation among these institutions. A series of colleges are here for men and women and both; a series of homes, halls, recitation rooms, laboratoes and related institutions; and then imposed upon this, not so much by legal compulsion as by the rational completeness of the scheme and to eliminate profiteers, rivalry and senseless repetition, an higher institution designed for graduate study; designed as I have aid for integrating two systems of culure, one larger and one smaller, one older and one younger, one white and one black, - but both essential for the development of a really civilized world.

This was the conception of the New Atlanta University but it has never gotten far beyond the conception stage. We can say frankly that in the last five years we have advanced but slowly in the development of this great idea; we are little more than the older Negro universities were, - a more or less uncertain extension of college courses. Yet the vision and the duty still lie before us and the need is evidenced and emphasized by this horrible war. Today on even a larger scale than ever there is in America the distressing need to integrate into one human culture the separate and partially antagonistic cultures of Europe, Asia and Africa, not to mention the antagonisms in Europe itself. The universities of the world are the media and the only adequate media to put by teaching, thought and effort, plans and reason into this situation. It is for the Negro university in America to lead the way.

It has often been argued with considerable plausibility that such an arrangement and planning is not only difficult but impossible. Agreeing that it is difficult we find the Negro college bearing a double if not a triple burden. First of all, as I have said, with all colleges it has to support the effort toward realizing the great ideals of living: truth, beauty and the creative effort to make them one. Then beyond that it has got to transmit the new cultural pattern which the world today can use in this vast process and that cultural pattern must be overwhelmingly the inherited cultural pattern of the majority group. It is not a question of starting a black civilization or overthrowing white civilization. White civilization is a part of our heritage and is not "white". It consists overwhelmingly of things in which we have as great an interest as anyone; but this white civilization has got to be modified if the world and the majority of peoples in the world are going to have a chance for cultural civilization.

It is to the delicate task of this modification that the universities of the minority group must be addressed. First of all then the Negro college even more than most colleges must involve a synthesis of present knowledge and culture. It must not and cannot consist of discreet, unrelated fields of study, of men learned in chemistry who know nothing of economics; of men trained in sociology who are ignorant of biology; the faculties of these Negro colleges must represent in themselves and in their presentation to the student body a mass of unified and tested knowledge and this knowledge must go beyond the written record into ability to reason, explore and experiement; and above all into that personal relationship which we cal l manners the knowledge of which has apparently been almost lost in the present student body.

Then in addition to this there must be the integration of minority and majority culture. A clear understanding as to just where the social torque comes and indication as to the way in which this can be resolved and settled. This is the task of the university. The greatest hindrance to this is not a matter of reason and conference. The whole tendency of the reasoned consideration in race relations today moves overwhelmingly and inevitably toward the justifiction of the Negro attitude but one must remember that the amjority cultural pattern is not a matter simple of reason and conference. It is largely a psychological inheritance. It will change. It must change. But that change will be slow; it will involve not years simply but generations. In the meantime the majority group with its synthesized cultural patterns and with its insistence upon its new cultural contribution must subsist, must be supported, must support its own education and its own leisure which brings us down to the economic hurdle which stands before cultural understanding and integration in this land.

A large part of the culture pattern of the world and an especially large part of American culture has to do with the technical processes of earning a living and amassing wealth. An institution then like the Negro college endeavoring to induct the young into a conception of American culture cannot neglect this aspect. In white colleges the home and social clique of the boy prepares him for earning a living; and the technical school, the industry itself and the office, finish this training; leaving the college to attend to his general training in intelligence, scientific knowledge and art appreciation. Of course the poor and dull and the socially disadvantaged even among whites have many difficulties; while women, certain races, and recent foreign immigrants, meet often prohibitive obstacles.

But the American Negro suffers the greatest disadvantages of all elements of our nation, so much so that his main institution for social uplift, the college, cannot neglect this aspect of his training. The weak family organization of the American Negro has limited possibilities for preparing him for work. The white employer, union and shop usually hire Negroes only in exceptional case and then deny him training, promotion and authority. What then can the college do to counteract this? It is the wisest course to make him an intelligent, cultured man and then depend on different social institutions to give him skill and technique and work. These other institutions must be not only carefully conceived technical and professional schools, but especially shops and occupations which will take and train apprentices.

This calls for economic organization on the part of Negroes and such organization and intelligent planning itself calls for another sort of training based on the university. One of the most difficult of these university tasks is that which affects this economic situation of the American Negro. We might at first thought lay on the college the duty of training the student for a proper place in American industry so that his income would be such as would support normal family life on a plane of civilized existence. The Negro college has long seen this problem and tried to settle it by the industrial school either as part of the college or associated with the college. But the difficulty there is that the skills which must be taught the modern worker have changed in the past and are changing so rapidly today that training for them cannot be undertaken for them successfully by the schools for the most part. The success of the German industrial organization is that industry itself has taken over from the school and the college the training of apprentices and does it much more rapidly and effectively, securing for industry trained, permanent and skilled helpers.

In the case of the American Negro that has been almost impossible because of the attitude of industry and until recently the attitude of union labor. This apparently to many minds simplifies the task of the college in training for work, but in truth it makes the problem much more complicated. The re-organization of work which is facing the world today involves the overthrow of many of our basic concepts of income and business. A thorough understanding of the new economic culture which has already overtaken the world and which will be clearer and more dominant after the present series of world war, is something which American Negroes do not to any extent understand and which is the business of the university as a cultural center to explain and spread. Toward this duty the Negro university is doing comparatively little. In fact one finds on a whole more economic reaction and failure to see the way in which work is going to be re-organized in university circles than among many organizations who have not university status or ideals.

It is for this reason that I have in the last year tried to emphasize the fact that the college graduate must guide the economic development of the American Negro. But what I have in mind is that first this economic development must follow patterns laid down by wise university planning in accord with the new economic thought and change of the day; and again economic progress is never an end, always a means. It is not an end in our case. It ought never to be in any case. It is for the sake of the resultant efforts at education and the building of new cultural patterns which aim toward truth, beauty and creative work.

Here then is the function of the Negro college and the technique which it must use in integrating its own new cultural pattern into the older cultural pattern of European civilization.

In theory the college group is happily circumstanced to an unusual degree. Here partially sequestered and protected from the outer world, live a company of men and women of education and some cultural background united in a quest and crusade not only of personal interest but of world value. A splendid duty has been laid upon them involving the untiring patience, the unyielding pertinacity and incorruptible honesty of the true student of science. Beyond this comes the chance to guide and inspire youth in high ideals and creative effort.

And yet despite this schools are often, too often, seats of petty envy, low schaden freude and eagerness to believe and spread the worst interpretation of the efforts of men. This situation is not, as many within these walls firmly believe, a monopoly or peculiarity of any race or color. To be sure the lower the average of culture is in any particular group, the more the schools of that group are liable to this kind of dry rot and yet the prevalence of it is curiously widespread.

I have in the years of my life been a student in two of the greatest universities of the world; I have held official place in three colleges; for longer or shorter periods I have visited all the leading universities of America, many of those of Europe and some of those of Asia and Africa and the West Indies. From repeated visits, I know practically every considerable Negro institution in the United States. In all these seats of learning one finds more or less evidence of the festering week of lethargy and distrust choking fine faith in the highest and noblest.

becomes obscured and neglected; and when it comes to be considered as a method of earning a living, a factory for supplying technicians, a secure and easy place for earning a living. From this dry rot we here have not escaped. There is strangely, perhaps fatally, missing on this hill of the dreams of the founders, that fine and generous fellowship of scholars and gentlemen; of artists and laborers, which should characterize Atlanta University and its affiliated and associated institutions. And it is only by conscious and determined effort that we can re-capture from the old Atlanta University and from the old Morehouse, that high spirit of intellectual adventure, of divine curiosity, of the crusade to storm the bastions and look full on the fair face of beauty "all too fair to see!" In fine: to do and feel that which is the essence of the true university.

RECONSTRUCTION: 75 YEARS AFTER

W. E. B. DU BOIS

IT IS NOW THREE-QUARTERS OF A CENTURY SINCE THE END OF THAT EPISODE IN AMERICAN HISTORY KNOWN AS RECONSTRUCTION. IT BEGAN WITH THE CLOSE OF THE CIVIL WAR IN 1864 AND LASTED 12 YEARS. IT IS NOTABLE FOR HISTORIANS BECAUSE IT IS ALMOST THE ONE MAJOR PERIOD OF OUR HISTORY WHICH HAS NOT UNDERGONE REVISION, RECTIFICATION OR MODIFICATION OF HISTORICAL JUDGMENT. IT WOULD BE DIFFICULT TO FIND A SIMILAR STRETCH OF HUMAN HISTORY WHICH IN THE SAME TIME HAS NOT UNDERGONE REPEATED AND DRASTIC RE-EXAMINATION AND REASSESMENT.

THIS IS A SERIOUS INDICTMENT OF OUR SCIENCE AND ESPECIALLY OF THE SOCIAL SCIENCES. THE ATTEMPT TO REDUCE THE ACTIONS OF HUMAN BEINGS TO EXACT MEASURMENT AND SCIENTIFIC LAW HAS EVER HAD TWO SERIOUS HANDICAPS: FIRST THE IRRE-
concilable

36-8-96

AND WERE HUMILIATED/ BY THE EFFORTS TO RESTORE NORMAL LIFE/ AFTER FOUR YEARS OF MURDER AND DESTRUCTION,/ NONE- THE-LESS THIS GENERATION/ AND THIS CIVILIZATION/ HAS A RIGHT TO ASK/ WHETHER THIS IS EXCUSE/ FOR CHANGING HISTORY FROM SCIENTIFIC FACT/ TO PERSISTENT PROPAGANDA/ AND RENDERING A REAL SCIENCE OF HUMAN ACTION/ DIFFICULT/ IF NOT IMPOSSIBLE.

36-8-97

TO ILLUSTRATE MY MEANING,/ LET ME LAY BEFORE YOU ~~TEN~~ certain STATEMENTS,/ WIDELY MADE TODAY:/ DEFENDED AS UNDOUBTED TRUTH/ AND MADE THROUGHOUT THE SOUTH/ AND IN MANY NORTHERN CIRCLES AND UNIVERSITIES/ A TEST OF SCIENTIFIC ORTHODOXY/ AND EVEN SOCIAL DECENCY.

1. THAT NEGRO SLAVERY/ IN THE UNITED STATES/ WAS A SYSTEM OF LABOR/ NOT UNLIKE CURRENT SYSTEMS OF WORK/ AND INVOLVING NO INDEFENSIBLE/ INVASION OF HUMAN RIGHTS.

2. THAT WAR AND CONTROVERSY/ COULD HAVE BEEN AVOIDED/ IF THE NATION HAD HAD THE PATIENCE/ TO WAIT FOR THE SOUTH TO EMANCIPATE ITS SLAVES,/ WHICH IT WOULD HAVE DONE/ WITHIN A REASONABLE TIME.

3. THAT THE CIVIL WAR/ WAS NOT FOUGHT/ OVER THE ISSUE OF SLAVERY.

4. THAT THE NEGRO SLAVE/ TOOK NO ESSENTIAL PART/ IN THE CIVIL WAR/ EXCEPT TO WORK PEACEFULLY/ AND QUIETLY FOR HIS MASTERS.

36-8-98

5. THAT THE ATTEMPT TO MAKE NEGROES/ CITIZENS AND VOTERS/ AFTER THE WAR/ WAS A MONSTROUS EFFORT/ TO REVERSE NATURE/ AND PUT A CONGENITALLY INFERIOR RACE/ IN CONTROL OF A HIGH CIVILIZATION.

6. THAT NEGRO SUFFRAGE/ WAS THE EFFORT OF AN UNGRACIOUS FOE/ TO PUNISH A HELPLESS AND DEFEATED ENEMY/ AND NOT A MEASURE/ OF JUSTICE FOR THE NEGRO.

7. THAT NO EFFORT/ WAS MADE TO PREPARE/ THE FREEDMEN/ FOR THE RESPONSIBILITIES OF CITIZENSHIP/ BEFORE GIVEING HIM THE VOTE.

8. THAT THE RESULT/ OF THE ATTEMPT/ TO ENFRANCHISE THE NEGRO/ WAS THE COLLAPSE OF DECENT GOVERNMENT,/ UNEXAMPLED STEALING AND DEBAUCHERY/ BY NEGROES

AND SUCH FAILURE/OF THE NECESSARY METHODS OF GOVERNMENT/THAT THE WHITE FOLK IN SELF DEFENCE/WERE COMPELLED/TO DISFRANCHISE THE NEGROES/ BY FORCE AND FRAUD/AND FINALLY BY LAW.

9. THAT THE TOTAL RESULT/ OF RECONSTRUCTION/WAS TO EMBITTER THE SOUTH, SEPERATE IT FROM THE MAIN CURRENT/OF NATIONAL DEVELOPMENT/ AND TO RETARD THE PROGRESS OF THE NEGRO.

36-8-99

I SUBMIT TO YOU,/ WHO HAVE ATTENDED SCHOOL SINCE I HAVE/IF THIS NOT A FAIR STATEMENT/OF WHAT IS TAUGHT TODAY/IN THE UNITED STATES/CONCERNING RECONSTRUCTION,/WITH SOME SLIGHT/AND ALMOST CLANDESTINE MODIFICATION/HERE AND THERE.// AND I AM MERELY SUGGESTING/IN THIS BRIEF TALK,/ THAT THE MAIN THESIS OF THESE PROPOSITIONS/ARE FLASE AND KNOWN TO BE FALSE:/ AND THAT THIS FACT/IS THE MEASURE OF THE STATURE/OF HISTORICAL SCIENCE/IN THE UNITED STATES TODAY.

LET ME NOW TAKE THESE PROPOSITIONS/IN ORDER AND EXAMINE THEM BRIEFLY.

1. THAT NEGRO SLAVERY IN THE UNITED/STATES WAS A SYSTEM OF LABOR/ NOT UNLIKE CURRENT SYSTEMS/AND INVLOLVING NO INDEFENSIBLE INVASIONS/OF HUMAN RIGHTS.// LET ME DIGEST THE SLAVE CODES:/ SLAVES WERE NOT CONSIDERED MEN./ THEY HAD NO RIGHT OF PETITION./ THEY WERE "DEVISABLE LIKE ANY OTHER CHATTEL."/ THEY COULD OWN NOTHING:/ THEY COULD MAKE NO CONTRACTS:/ THEY COULD HOLD NO PROPERTY,/ NOR TRAFFIC IN PROPERTY:/ THEY COULD NOT HIRE OUT:/ THEY COULD NOT LEGALLY MARRY/NOR CONSTITUTE FAMILIES:/ THEY COULD NOT CONTROL THEIR CHILDREN: THEY COULD NOT APPEAL/FROM THEIR MASTER:/THEY COULD BE PUNISHED AT WILL./ THEY COULD NOT TESTIFY IN COURT:/ THEY COULD BE IMPRISONED/BY THEIR OWNERS,/ AND THE CRIMINAL OFFENSE/OF ASSULT AND BATTERY/COULD NOT BE COMMITTED ON THE PERSON OF A SLAVE.// THE "WILLFUL, MALICIOUS AND DELIBERATE MURDER"/ OF A SLAVE WAS PUNISHABLE BY DEATH,/ BUT SUCH A CRIME/WAS PRACTICALLY IMPOSSIBLE OF PROOF.

THE SLAVE OWED TO HIS MASTER/AND ALL HIS FAMILY/A RESPECT "WITHOUT BOUNDS, AND AN ABSOLUTE OBEDIENCE."// THIS AUTHORITY/COULD BE TRANSMITTED TO OTHERS. A SLAVE COULD NOT SUE/ HIS MASTER;/ HAD NO RIGHT OF REDEMPTION;/ NO RIGHT TO EDUCATION OR RELIGION;/ A PROMISE MADE TO A SLAVE/BY HIS MASTER/HAD NO FORCE NOR VALIDITY./ CHILDREN FOLLOWED/THE CONDITION OF THE SLAVE MOTHER./ THE SLAVE COULD HAVE/NO ACCESS TO THE JUDICIARY./ A SLAVE MIGHT BE CONDEMNED TO DEATH/FOR STRIKING ANY WHITE PERSON.

LOOKING AT THESE ACCOUNTS, "IT IS SAFE TO SAY THAT THE LAW REGARDS A NEGRO SLAVE,/ SOF FAR AS HIS CIVIL STATUS IS CONCERNED,/ PURELY AND ABSOLUTELY PROPERTY,/ TO BE BOUGHT AND SOLD/AND PASS AND DESCEND/AS A TRACT OF LAND, A HORSE, OR AN OX."

THE WHOLE LEGAL STATUS OF SLAVERY/WAS ENUNCIATED IN THE EXTRAORDINARY STATEMENT/OF A CHIEF JUSTICE OF THE UNITED STATES/THAT NEGROES HAD ALWAYS BEEN REGARDED IN AMERICA/ "AS HAVING NO RIGHTS WHICH A WHITE MAN WAS BOUND TO RESPECT."

IT IS TRUE/THAT THE WHITE LABOR OF THE 18th CENTURY /OCCUPIED LOW STATUS,/ LIVING IN SLUMS,/ IGNORANT AND POVERTY-STRICKEN;//IT IS TRUE THAT SOUTHERN SLAVERY/WAS OFTEN MILDER/THAN THE LAW BENEATH IT;// NEVERTHELESS IT IS ALSO TRUE/THAT THE NEGRO SLAVE IN AMERICA/REPRESENTED THE LOWEST POINT/ TO WHICH A HUMAN WORK MAN COULD DESCEND;/ THAT WE KNEW THIS/AND WERE ASHAMED OF IT/AND WE TRIED NOT TO MENTION IT IN THE CONSTITUTION ARE STILL SO ASHAMED/THAT THE LAND OF LIBERTY SUSTAINED SUCH AN INSTITUTION FOR 250 YEARS/ THAT WE HARDLY LET THE TRUTH APPEAR IN OUR TEXT BOOKS.

(2.) THAT THE SOUTH/IN 1860/IF LET ALONE AND NOT VILIFIED/AND ATTACKED WOULD HAVE ABOLISHED SLAVERY/OF ITS OWN ACCORD/IN A REASONABLE TIME. WHAT DID THE SOUTH SAY BOUT THIS?/ I QUOTE THE "RICHMOND, VIRGINIA EXAMINER" IN 1854:// "LET US NOT BOTHER OUR BRAINS/ABOUT WHAT "PROVIDENCE" INTENDS TO DO WITH OUR NEGROES/IN THE DISTANT FUTURE,/ BUT GLORY IN AND PROFIT/TO THE UTMOST/ BY WHAT HE HAS DONE FOR THEM/IN TRANSPLANTING THEM HERE,/AND SETTING THEM TO WORK ON OUR PLANTATIONS./. TRUE PHILANTHROPY

~~TO THE NEGRO, BEGINS, LIKE CHARITY, AT HOME: AND~~ IF SOUTHERN MEN WOULD ACT AS IF THE CANOPY OF HEAVEN WERE INSCRIBED WITH A COVENANT, IN LETTERS OF FIRE, THAT THE NEGRO IS HERE, AND HERE FOREVER: IS OUR PROPERTY, AND OURS FOREVER: ...THEY WOULD ACCOMPLISH MORE GOOD FOR THE RACE IN FIVE YEARS THAN THEY BOAST THE INSTITUTION ITSELF TO HAVE ACCOMPLISHED IN TWO CENTURIES..."

JUDGES ON THE BENCH SAID THAT NEGRO SERVITUDE WAS TO LAST, "IF THE APOCALYPSE BE NOT IN ERROR, UNTIL THE END OF TIME." THE ATLANTA DAILY INTELLIGENCER OF JANUARY9, 1860, SAID, "WE CAN'T SEE FOR THE LIFE OF US HOW ANYONE UNDERSTANDING FULLY THE GREAT PRINCIPLE THAT UNDERLIES OUR SYSTEM OF INVOLUNTARY SERVITUDE, CAN DISCOVER ANY MONSTROSITY IN SUBJECTING A NEGRO TO SLAVERY OF A WHITE MAN. WE CONTEND ON THE CONTRARY THAT THE MONSTROSITY, OR AT LEAST, THE UNNATURALNESS IN THIS MATTER, CONSISTS IN FINDING NEGROES ANYWHERE IN WHITE COMMUNITIES NOT UNDER THE CONTROL OF THE WHITES. WHENEVER WE SEE A NEGRO, WE PRESUPPOSE A MASTER, AND IF WE SEE HIM IN WHAT IS

COMMONLY CALLED A 'FREE STATE' WE CONSIDER HIM OUT OF HIS PLACE. GOVERNOR MCDUFFIE OF SOUTH CAROLINA SAID; "GOD FORBID THAT MY DESCENDANTS, IN THE REMOTEST GENERATIONS, SHOULD LIVE IN ANY OTHER THAN A COMMUNITY HAVING THE INSTITUTION OF DOMESTIC SLAVERY."

THE MAN WHO MURDERED ABRAHAM LINCOLN SAID: "LOOKING UPON AFRICAN SLAVERY FROM THE SAME STANDPOINT HELD BY THE NOBLE FRAMERS OF OUR CONSTITUTION, I, FOR ONE, HAVE EVER CONSIDERED IT OF THE GREATEST BLESSINGS (BOTH FOR THEMSELVES AND US) THAT GOD EVER BESTOWED UPON A FAVORED NATION.

FREDERICK DOUGLASS, WHO KNEW THE WHITE PLANTER AND THE SYSTEM OF SLAVERY SUMMED UP THE PLANS OF THE PLANTERS AS HE INTERPRETED THEM JUST BEFORE THE CIVIL WAR: "I UNDERSTAND THIS POLICY TO COMPREHEND FIVE CARDINAL OBJECTS, THEY ARE THESE: 1st, THE COMPLETE SUPPRESSION OF ALL ANTI-SLAVERY DISCUSSION. 2nd, THE EXPATRIATION OF THE ENTIRE FREE PEOPLE OF COLOR FROM THE UNITED STATES. 3rd. THE UNENDING PERPETUATION OF SLAVERY IN THIS REPUBLIC.

4th, THE NATIONALIZATION OF SLAVERY/TO THE EXTENT OF MAKING SLAVERY RESPECTed/in every STATE OF THE UNION. 5th, THE EXTENSION OF SLAVERY OVER MEXICO/ AND THE ENTIRE SOUTH AMERICAN STATES."

3. THAT THE CIVIL WAR/WAS NOT FOUGHT/OVER THE ISSUE OF SLAVERY./ THE TESTIMONY OF SOUTHERNERS IN 1860,/ AFTER THE ELECTION OF LINCOLN/SHOULD HELP ANSWER THIS STATEMENT./ JEFFERSON DAVIS SAID/THAT THE NORTH WAS "IMPAIRING THE SECURITY OF PROPERTY/AND SLAVES/AND REDUCING THOSE STATES WHICH HELD SLAVES/TO A CONDITION OF INFERIORITY."// SENATOR TOOMBS/SAID THAT PROPERTY IN AND SLAVES/MUST BE ENTITLED/TO THE SAME PROTECTION/FROM THE GOVERNMENT AS ANY OTHER PROPERTY.// THE SOUTH CAROLINA CONVENTION/ARRAIGNED THE NORTH/FOR INCREASING HOSTILITY/"TO THE INSTITUTION OF SLAVERY,"/AND DECLARED FOR SECESSION/BECAUSE THE NORTH HAD ASSUMED THE RIGHT OF DECIDING/UPON THE PROPRIETY OF SOUTHERN DOMESTIC INSTITUTIONS./ GOVERNOR R. C. WICKLIFFE IN

HIS MESSAGE/AT THE EXTRA SESSION OF THE LEGISLATURE OF LOUISIANA/EXPRESSED HIS BELIEF/THAT THE ELECTION/WAS "A DELIBERATE DESIGN/TO PERVERT THE POWERS OF THE GOVERNMENT/TO THE IMMEDIATE INJURY/AND ULTIMATE DESTRUCTION OF THE PECULIAR INSTITUTION OF THE SOUTH."

SLIDEL'S FAREWELL SPEECH/IN THE CONGRESSIONAL GLOBE/OF FEBRUARY 5, 1861: "WE SEPARATE",/ HE SAID,/"BECAUSE OF THE HOSTILITY OF LINCOLN/TO OUR INSTITUTIONS.../. IF HE WERE INAUGURATED WITHOUT OUR CONSENT/THERE WOULD BE SLAVE INSURRECTIONS IN THE SOUTH."

THE ALABAMA COMMISSIONER TO MARYLAND/ARRAIGNED THE LINCOLN GOVERNMENT AS PROPOSING/NOT "TO RECOGNIZE THE RIGHT/OF THE SOUTHERN CITIZENS TO PROPERTY IN THE LABOR OF AFRICAN SLAVES." /THE GOVERNOR OF ALABAMA ARRAIGNED THE REPUBLICANS/FOR DESIRING "THE DESTRUCTION OF THE INSTITUTION OF SLAVERY." IN THE SOUTHERN CONGRESS,/ AT MONTGOMERY ON THE 2nd OF FEBRUARY, 1861, SENATOR WIGFALL, FROM TEXAS,/ SAID THAT HE WAS FIGHTING FOR SLAVERY,/ AND FOR NOTHING ELSE.

BUT THE CLASSIC STATEMENT ON THE MATTER WAS MADE BY THE VICE*PRESIDENT OF THE CONFEDERACY, ALEXANDER H. STEPHENS: " THE NEW CONSTITUTION HAS PUT AT REST FOREVER ALL THE AGITATION OF QUESTIONS RELATING TO OUR PECULIAR INSTITUTIONS--AFRICAN SLAVERY AS IT EXISTS AMONG US--THE PROPER STATUS OF THE NEGRO IN OUR FORM OF CIVILIZATION. THIS WAS THE IMMEDIATE CAUSE OF THE LATE RUPTURE AND PRESENT REVOLUTION. OUR GOVERNMENT IS FOUNDED UPON EXACTLY THE OPPOSITE IDEA. ITS FOUNDATIONS ARE LAID, ITS CORNER-STONE RESTS UPON THE GREAT TRUTH THAT THE NEGRO IS NOT EQUAL TO THE WHITE MAN. THAT SLAVERY--SUBORDINATION TO THE SUPERIOR RACE--IS HIS NATURAL AND NORMAL CONDITION. THIS, OUR NEW GOVERNMENT IS THE FIRST IN THE HISTORY OF THE WORLD, BASED UPON THIS GREAT PHYSICAL AND MORAL TRUTH."

4. THAT THE NEGRO SLAVE TOOK NO PART IN THE CIVIL WAR EXCEPT TO WORK PEACEFULLY AND QUIETLY FOR HIS MASTERS.

A RECENT BIOGRAPHY OF GRANT REPEATS THIS FABLE THAT THE NEGROES ARE THE ONLY RACE IN HISTORY WHO SAT ABOUT PLAYING THE BANJO WHILE OTHERS FOUGHT TO MAKE THEM FREE. WHILE SOUTHERNERS HAVE OFTEN BEEN TEARFUL IN LAUDING THE SLAVES WHO PROTECTED THE WHITE MENS HOMES WHILE THESE MEN FOUGHT TO KEEP THEM IN SLAVERY.

HISTORICAL FACT DOES NOT SUPPORT THIS FABLE. FIRST CONSIDER THE MERE MATHEMATICS OF THIS SITUATION. THERE WERE 9 MILLION AND A QUARTER PEOPLE IN THE SOUTH IN 1860: OF THESE 5 MILLION WERE WHITES AND 4¼ MILLION WERE NEGROES. OF THE WHITES, 50,000 OWNED 4 MILLION OF THE SLAVES AND ALL THE BEST LAND. THE REST OF THE WHITES AND A QUARTER MILLION NEGROES WERE AS FREE AS POVERTY IGNORANCE AND DISEASE LET THEM BE. WHAT DID THEY THINK OF THE WAR? THEY LEFT LITTLE LITERATURE. BUT ~~WHAT HAPPENED?~~ BEFORE THE WAR WAS HALF OVER THERE

WERE 20,000 NEGROES IN WASHINGTON, D. C. WHO HAD LEFT THE PLANTATIONS/ 50,000 IN NORTH CAROLINA;/ 100,000 IN VIRGINIA,/ 50,000 IN SOUTH CAROLINA,/ 50,000 EACH IN GEORGIA AND LOUISIANA// THE VALLEY OF THE MISSISSIPPI WAS FULL OF RUNAWAY NEGROES/ WHO AMOUNTED TO AT LEAST 500,000 ACCORDING TO OFFICIAL FIGURES// AND THERE WERE 3 MORE MILLION/ READY TO MOVE WHEN THEY KNEW WHETHER THE NORTH/ WAS FIGHTING FOR OR AGAINST SLAVERY.// FOR AT FIRST THE NORTHERN ARMIES DISCLAIMED ALL INTENTION OF INTERFERING WITH SLAVERY. ON THE 4th OF JULY, 1861 COLONEL PRYOR OF OHIO/ DELIVERED AN ADDRESS/ TO THE PEOPLE OF VIRGINIA/ IN WHICH HE REPUDIATED/ THE ACCUSATION/ THAT THE NORTHERN ARMY WERE ABOLITIONISTS: "I DESIRE TO ASSURE YOU/ THAT THE RELATION OF MASTER AND SERVANT/ AS RECOGNIZED IN YOU STATE/ SHALL BE RESPECTED./ YOUR AUTHORITY OVER THAT SPECIES OF PROPERTY/ SHALL NOT IN THE LEAST/ BE INTERFERED WITH./ TO THIS END, I ASSURE YOU/ THAT THOSE UNDER MY COMMAND/ HAVE PEREMPTORY ORDERS/ TO TAKE UP AND HOLD

THEN THEY NORTH CHANGED ~~THEIR~~ ITS MINDS./ WHEN THE SOUTH REFUSED TO BE LICKED WITH PROMISES,// AND WHEN THEY HAD SENT THE NORTHERN ARMIES/ RUNNING LIKE RABBITS AT BULL RUN,/ THE NORTH DISCOVERED THAT ARMIES NEED LABOR/ ~~ALMOST~~ AS MUCH AS SOLDIERS,/ AND SPIES MORE THAN GUNS.// THEY FOUND THAT NEGROES WERE "CONTRABAND OF WAR"/ THAT IS,/ VALUABLE WAR MATERIAL/ AND THEY USED IT.// "NEGROES BUILT MOST OF THE FORTIFICATIONS/ AND EARTH-WORKS,/ FOR GENERAL GRANT IN FRONT OF VICKSBURG./ THE WORKS IN AND ABOUT NASHVILLE/ WERE CAST UP BY THE STRONG ARM AND WILLING HAND OF THE LOYAL BLACKS./ DUTCH GAP WAS DUG BY NEGROES, AND MILES OF EARTH-WORKS,/ FORTIFICATIONS, AND CORDUROY ROADS/ WERE MADE BY NEGROES./ THEY DID FATIGUE DUTY IN EVERY DEPARTMENT/ OF THE UNION ARMY./ WHEREEVER A NEGRO APPEARED WITH A SHOVEL IN HIS HAND,/ A WHITE SOLDIER TOOK HIS GUN AND RETURNED TO THE RANKS./ THERE WERE 200,000 NEGROES IN THE CAMPS AND EMPLOY OF THE UNION ARMIES,/ AS SERVANTS, TEAMSTERS, COOKS, AND LABORERS."

CONGRESS LAUGHED SO LOUD/AT THE ANSWER/ THAT THE USE OF SLAVES AS SOLDIERS WAS NEVER AGAIN QUESTIONED.// BUT COULD NEGROES FIGHT? LINCOLN DOUBTED IT IN 1862,/ AND SAID THAT IF HE GAVE ARMS TO NEGROES:/"I FEAR THAT IN A FEW WEEKS

WHEN A REQUEST WAS MADE LATER FOR COLONEL SHAW'S BODY, A CONFEDERATE MAJOR COURTEOUSLY SAID: "WE HAVE BURIED HIM WITH HIS NIGGERS."

SMALL WONDER THAT WHEN RICHMOND WAS CAPTURED, THE UNION ARMY MARCHED IN LED BY NEGRO TROOPS SINGING "JOHN BROWN'S BODY LIES A-MOULDERING IN THE GRAVE BUT HIS SOUL GOES MARCHING ON." AND CAPTURED IN NO SMALL MEASURE BY THE BRAVERY OF NEGRO TROOPS

That the attempt to make Negroes citizens was a monstrous effort to reverse nature & put an inferior race in control of a high civilization

L11-8-918

5. THE WHITE SOUTH IN 1860 DID NOT POSSESS A HIGH CIVILIZATION. THE GREAT MAJORITY OF WHITES WERE POOR, DISEASED AND ILLITERATE. A MINORITY OF WHITE PLANTERS 50,000 OR MORE IN NUMBERS AND PERHAPS AN EQUAL NUMBER OF THE ONHANGERS OF THE SLAVE SYSTEM HAD A PLEASANT AND GRACIOUS CULTURE: BUT IT PRODUCED NEITHER SCIENCE LITERATURE NOR ART, BUT IT BUILT some BEAUTIFUL HOMES, WITH HORDES OF BLACK SERVANTS, it DRANK much GOOD LIQUER AND CHASED WOMEN, WHITE, BLACK, AND YELLOW WITH RARE PERSISTENCE.

IT WAS thus A TYPICAL 18th CENTURY ARISTOCRACY BUILT ON SLAVERY AND EXPLOITATION. BUT TO CALL IT A HIGH CIVILIZATION IS A MISNOMER. IT WAS ARGUED THAT TO SUBJECT THIS CULTURE TO THE CONTROL OF NEGROES WAS AN ATTEMPT TO INVERT NATURE AND NATURES LAWS: THAT NEGROES WERE CONGENITALITALLY INFERIOR AND ALWAYS WOULD BE. THAT THEY COULD NOT BE EDUCATED AND THAT THEIR ENFRANCHISEMENT WAS MONSTROUS. THIS ARGUMENT HAD DEEP EFFECT IN THE NORTH AND IN EUROPE. NO ANSWER TO THIS THESIS IS NECESSARY TODAY. THE IGNORANCE, INEXPERIENCE AND POVERTY OF NEGROES IN 1865 WAS THE SAME SORT OF DISABILITY THAT HAS ALWAYS HANDICAPPED DISADVANTAGED PEOPLES AND CLASSES AND JUST AS CAPABLE OF CURE BY EDUCATION AND A DECENT INCOME AS IN THE CASE OF ENGLISH, IRISH AND POOR SOUTHERN WHITES.

6. BUT COMPLAINS THE SOUTH | Negro suffrage was the effort of an ungracious foe to punish a helpless enemy and not a measure of justice for the Negro

THE ANSWER IS CLEAR. THE NORTH IN 1865, HAD NO IDEA OF GIVING NEGROES VOTES. BUT THE UNRECONSTRUCTED SOUTH FACED THEN WITH AN INESCAPABLE DILEMMA: THEY INSISTED ON REINSTATEMENT IN THE GOVERNMENT NOT ONLY WITH THEIR FORMER POLITICAL POWER, BUT WITH 29 ADDITIONAL REPRESENTATIVES BASED ON THE DISFRANCHISED NEGRO POPULATION. WITH THIS POWER, ADDED TO THE INSURGENT WEST, THE SOUTH MIGHT HAVE ~~BEEN ABLE TO~~ REDUCED THE TARIFF ON WHICH A VAST POST-WAR INDUSTRY HAD BEEN BASED; REPUDIATED AT LEAST Part OF THE WAR DEBT OR MADE THE NATION PAY THE SOUTHERN WAR DEBT AND REMUNERATE THE SOUTH FOR EMANCIPATED SLAVES. FACED WITH SUCH AN INDUSTRIAL CATASTROPHE THE NORTH OF ALL OPINIONS SAID: IF YOU ARE GOING TO USE ~~THE NEGRO VOTE~~ the political power based on the negro population, WE WILL LET THE NEGRO CAST HIS OWN VOTE. WHAT WOULD HAPPEN TO THE SOUTH OR THE NEGRO, THE COMMERCIAL NORTH DID NOT CARE. THEY DID CARE AS TO WHAT WOULD HAPPEN TO THE GREATEST INDUSTRIAL EMPIRE IN THE WORLD WHICH WAS then BUILDING. IF THE SOUTH DOES NOT LIKE ~~IT~~, this said the commercial North.

PERHAPS IT WILL LATER SEE REASON. IT DID.

I AM NOT DEFENDING the North. IAM SIMPLY SAYING THAT TO BLAME THIS SITUATION ON THE NEGRO IS AN OUTRAGEOUS INJUSTICE. NOR WAS IT THE FAULT OF ALL THE NORTH. ABOLITIONISTS LIKE SUMNER AND THADDEUS STEVENS KNEW THE DANGER OF IGNORANCE AND INEXPERIENCE AND STROVE TO GUARD AGAINST IT. THEY STROVE FOR NEGRO SUFFRAGE AND EDUCATION.

7. ~~IT IS NOT TRUE~~ THE ABOLITIONISTS ~~STROVE~~ tried DESPERATELY AND IN VAIN AGAINST THE OPPOSITION OF BOTH NORTH AND SOUTH TO GIVE THE FREEDMEN, PROTECTION, EDUCATION, LAND AND HEALTH SERVICES BEFORE THEY ASKED FOR HIS ENFRANCHISEMENT. EVEN AFTER THEY URGED VOTES FOR NEGROES IT WAS WITH CONVICTION AS EXPRESSED BY SUMNER THAT ENFRANCHISEMENT WOULD BRING EDUCATION AND JUSTICE IN SHEER SELF-DEFENCE. THADDEUS STEVENS STATES THE CASE FOR THE NEGRO IN BLISTERING LOGIC, WHICH IS THE REASON THE WHITE SOUTH STILL HATES HIS NAME:

"WE HAVE TURNED, OR ARE ABOUT TO TURN, LOOSE FOUR MILLION SLAVES WITHOUT A HUT TO SHELTER THEM OR A CENT IN THEIR POCKETS. THE INFERNAL LAWS OF SLAVERY HAVE PREVENTED THEM FROM ACQUIRING AN EDUCATION, UNDERSTANDING THE COMMONEST LAWS OF CONTRACT, OR OF MANAGING THE ORDINARY BUSINESS OF LIFE. THIS CONGRESS IS BOUND TO PROVIDE FOR THEM UNTIL THEY CAN TAKE CARE OF THEMSELVES. IF WE DO NOT FURNISH THEM WITH HOMESTEADS, AND HEDGE THEM AROUND WITH PROTECTIVE LAWS: IF WE LEAVE THEM TO THE LEGISLATION OF THEIR LATE MASTERS, WE HAD BETTER HAVE LEFT THEM IN BONDAGE."

THE DIFFICULTY WAS THAT THE SOUTH DID WANT THEM LEFT IN SLAVERY AND DID EVERYTHING IT COULD TO ACCOMPLISH THIS UNDER ANDREW JOHNSON. AS BURGESS OF COLUMBIA, PROBABLY THE MOST DISTINGUISHED OF THE PROFESSIONAL "NIGGER-HATERS" WHO HAVE GRACED CHAIRS IN OUR LEADING UNIVERSITIES, SAID OF THE POST WAR BLACK CODES: "ALMOST EVERY ACT, WORD OR GESTURE OF THE NEGRO, NOT CONSONANT WITH GOOD TASTE AND GOOD MANNERS AS WELL AS GOOD MORALS, WAS MADE A CRIME OR MISDEMEANOR, FOR WHICH HE COULD FIRST BE FINED BY THE MAGISTRATES AND THEN CONSIGNED TO A CONDITION OF ALMOST SLAVERY FOR AN INDEFINITE TIME, IF HE COULD NOT PAY THE BILL."

TWO OF THE YOUNGER WHITE STUDENTS OF RECONSTRUCTION SAY: "BUT IT IS MONOTONOUS ITERATION TO REVIEW THE EARLY LEGISLATION OF THE RECONSTRUCTED GOVERNMENTS ESTABLISHED UNDER THE PROCLAMATION OF THE PRESIDENT. IN MOST OF THE STATES THE LAWS ESTABLISHED A CONDITION BUT LITTLE BETTER THAN THAT OF SLAVERY, AND IN ONE IMPORTANT RESPECT FAR WORSE. FOR IN PLACE OF THE PROPERTY INTEREST WHICH WOULD INDUCE THE OWNER TO PRESERVE AND CARE FOR HIS SLAVE, THERE WAS SUBSTITUTED THE GUARDIANSHIP OF PENAL STATUES: AND THE IGNORANT BLACK MAN, INNOCENT OF ANY INTENTION TO COMMIT A WRONG, COULD BE BANDIED ABOUT FROM ONE TEMPORARY OWNER TO ANOTHER WHO WOULD HAVE NO OTHER

INTEREST/THAN TO WRING OUT OF HIM,/WITHOUT REGARD TO HIS ULTIMATE CONDITION, ALL THAT WAS POSSIBLE/DURING THE LIMITED TERM OF HIS THRALDOM."

THERE IS NO DOUBT THAT POOR MEN TAKE BRIBES AND STEAL WHEN THEY HAVE THE CHANCE AND EMANCIPATED NEGROES WERE POOR. BUT FOR SOUTHERN CHIVALRY AND NORTHERN WEALTH TO CHARGE FOR 75 YEARS THAT NEGREOS INVENTED STEALING IN THE UNITED STATES IS A BIT THICK, AND HARDLY WORTH CONTINUED TEACHING IN CHICAGO UNIVERSITY.

INDIVIDUALISM, DEMOCRACY AND SOCIAL CONTROL

Ladies and Gentlemen:

It is always a good thing to reconsider a general idea in times of distress and difficulty because words continually lead us astray. We get hold of a word that expresses an idea and then we hold on to that word after that idea has changed. Now, that is the case in the matter of democracy. When we discuss it today we think we are familiar with it, but in many cases we do not know what it means.

I presume I have told some of you in my Introduction to Democracy about the little town of about 5,000 inhabitants where I was born. We had a very excellent example of democracy. The small number of people living in the town and the farmers surrounding it came together and had the town meeting. The town meeting was a place where the government of the town was settled and for some reason I was asiduous in attending the town meeting every year in March in a little building. Three select men presided and the whole business of the town was discussed. Everybody knew everybody else. I knew everybody there by sight. A great many of the people took part in the discussion. We knew all the candidates to be elected. They discussed things that were clear to us, matters of bridges, roads, appropriations for the schools and high school. I was very interested in this because I was a high school student. There were two teachers in this school and there were many things that needed to be done. There was always opposition. There was a ragged, dirty old man who came down from the hills and paid his respects to high school education and expressed his opinion about what he did not like. All the people in the town meeting voted for the appropriation for the high school. It was a splendid example of democracy.

Since then things have changed. They no longer have town meetings and everybody knowing each other as they did when I was in high school. Irish and German men have come into the town to work and they had to be considered. They did not believe that the Irish were the same as other people. They did not allow them to be represented on the school board. The Irish were outside of democracy. Their children went to the high school but they were not altogether inside of democracy. The chief thing in that town that was noticeable was the respect that was paid to individualism. That, after all, is the object of democracy though we forget it. We think of democracy as having to do with the group, but the group is composed of individuals and they are the ones who give the information and are the object of all group action. In that town and in the towns represented in the United States, the great thing was the development of this extraordinary thing which we call individualism. We had great respect for the individual. We had some particular people in the town. Mr. Culvert, who was a pretty well-to-do but dressed out of date. He spoke his mind to anybody at any time. We had a respect for him. We find the find the endless gains of people through this respect for individualism. All of us sooner or later come to know that there are certain times in the history of the world and in individual life when they are in distress. You are living in a time now when the group rather than the individual is stressed. We should try to see that the group is based on the individual it is trying to put the individual in its place. The object of the group is the individual. We begin to realize it when we become members of a group. Sooner or later it occurs to us when a child come into the family that it develops in its own way and the parents realize that it is not an exact replica of either of them. It does not do what the father or mother wants it to but develops in its own way.

Then to you who have to do with farmers and know the peculiarities of farm life, for a long time the farmer was a sort of an ideal on his own farm. He was a king. He owned his land, he owned his house, he owned his wife, and he owned his children and he owned his stock. His word was law. There was a lot of him in literature. He was the man who was king of the full development of the individual.

When I was a boy we read many legends about heroes and even today we read about the exploits of Jesse James. Bert Tomes was a great big man who ruled his land and slaves and friends. When someone made him angry all the country heard about it. One of the first graduates of Atlanta University went to Bert Tomes and asked him for a donation for the school. Mr. Tomes was drunk and gave him a dollar and said, "Give it to the nigger and tell him to go and get drunk". When we think of that example of individualism in its extreme form we begin to see a paradox. You cannot have all these individuals develop in their own way and have a society to act as a group. What are you going to do about it? You cannot lean on anarchy. The early primitive people avoided anarchy by leaving the power with the grandfather.

Then we gradually came to a measure of control by putting the power into the hands of a few outstanding individuals the power over all individuals. This came to be called kingship. At times there was a family of kings, other times they went through an election. Some seized the power. There grew up in the world this idea of kingship. In the United States we have a great contempt for kings.

I wonder if any of you have ever seen a king by the grace of God. It is a tremendous experience. I remember as a young man on the streets of Berlin I found myself taking off my hat. There was the opening of a gate, the prancing of horses and sitting in a coach was Kaiser Wilhelm, by the grace of God, German Emperor, and King of Prussia. We had seen it many times but it impressed us. We were living with a German widow. One evening we were discussing Wilhelm and suddenly she struck the table and said, "He is your Emperor, stop!

The difficulty of the kingship based on divine power was the difficulty of the succession. You may have a man who could really rule the group in the way that the group ought to be ruled so that the stream of divinity goes on. But the big difficulty was that the sons were not like their father. We like to believe that this is not true. Sometimes it is not but, on a whole, nature is curiously democratic so that the sons of great kings may be poor individuals. There naturally grew up some way of curbing the power of the king and making him think of someone besides himself. There grew up out of this the idea of the king and council. They had the right to advise the king and in time became very powerful. The king and council and not the king was the real ruler. Then they declared their rights and said that they would have some voice in the government. The idea of democracy gradually emerged.

There were several comings of democracy. As in the Greek states there was the Aristocratic Democracy. It was a natural and logical thing. There were in the state certain persons who had power and wealth. These people thought that they ought to have a voice in the government and they usually took it. When we refer back to the Magna Carta, it was declared by the aristocracy of England that they were going to have some voice in King John's government. It may be the aristocracy of Plato or Aristotle, but it composed a small part of the people of the land. They could interrupt the king, they could stand in the presence of the king with their hats on to show that they were equal to him. If they were dukes of England they could call the king cousin.

It was that equality in the small mass of the people but the great mass was not represented. It caused the earlier philosophers some difficulty in explaining this. Most of the slaves being born slaves were happy as slaves and the great mass of people were slaves. And gradually after that development of democracy among the aristocracy, a few people began to rule the government. That was the true nature of the French Revolution. There were other people who were coming up on account of the Industrial Revolution. Gradually they began to demand some voice in the French Government. At first, this was not a demand for democracy in a sense as we think we understand it today. It was a demand for admission into the places of power on the part of a rich enterprise. It is a subtle difficulty that comes back time and time again. When you have a certain few to form the center of power in a country whether large or small there comes a question, "What is the object of their ruling"?

Theoretically, the object of the ruling of aristocracy is to benefit the whole group. You have picked out by some process the better people of the community and they are ruling for the benefit of the community. Then what is the community? It is composed of many people, then the aristorcacy begins to rule for the benefit of the aristocracy and not for the benefit of the community. What is the community? It is the great mass of ignorant people or people who cannot be educated. The aristocracy wants to carry on the traditions of culture and usually over a long space of time the object of the ruling of the state is that ruling for the aristocracy and no one else. These other people naturally are not satisfied and sooner or later they begin to push forward and ask for a place.

The French Revolution was an attempt of the mass of people with very little education to have a part in the government. The French state belonged to them because of their very numbers. The disgust of these people who were in the revolution was something that you can only realize as you read about it. There came after that part of the French Revolution the idea of the equalitarian democracy. It was that idea that determined the democracy of that little town where I came from. One man was as good as the other. In the church, grocery store and other places one brought forth the idea that one man was the equal of the other.

We have another idea or production of the idea of democracy. Democracy was organized of equal people or people potentially equal.

The government is composed of a large part if not the majority of the state and they were to have equal voice and equal responsibility and there came the idea that the less government you have the more you will have the chance for the individual to develop. This is the idea of free individual development, the idea that the state ought to do just as little as possible has become the idea of democracy. It worked in the United States because of our great possibilities in the line of land and chances for work because of our great frontier. So that we had here that equalitarian democracy which reached its highest point under the reign of Andrew Jackson.

The world has changed from the more primitive forms of organization. In the case of my own little town the process of life, the process of work and the matter was pretty well known to everybody. We went to the store and looked over potatoes and if the price was too high you said, "I will not pay that for the potatoes. If you don't come down on your price, I will not buy them". You knew how clothes were made. Practically the whole of the processes were known to people. Now you are gradually transformed into another situation. Suppose you had an assembly of two hundred people like this and you suddenly got the news that the rest of the world had disappeared. No one else was living, you were the world. How far could you reproduce the world? You could do better here at Prairie View than we could do at Atlanta. You would probably be able to have electric lights until your materials were out and you probably would be able to reproduce the gas engine, that would carry you for a time. But there are other things that you could not reproduce. You would say, "How did people do these things"? Now you can get up and reach over to the telephone and if there does not appear on the table spice that has been grown in Arabia you ask, "What is the matter with the grocery system in this town"?

When as a boy we used to sing "Music in the Air" we fancy that you might hear far off chants that might have been sung. Today you can hear it but you are not mystified. I sat in my car and heard Mr. Roosevelt give his inaugural address. I was near Maridian Mississippi. We have the magic carpet. I went to see the movie where the magic carpet was shown. Mr. Patterson said he went out on one the other day with perfect safety and took very little time. The complication of life today is so tremendous that nobody knows the totality or the technique we use. In the matter of human knowledge it develops that we have got to have specialists. Who is it today that can stand up and tell us what he has learned in psychology in the last few years. Most people have learned nothing at all. We leave it to the psychologist. You cannot put anybody in a place and have him do a job that he does not know how to do. In your city if you want water works you have got to get someone who knows how water is purified. You cannot go down and build your own water system. That may be theoretically democratic but it is not common sense. We are beginning again to change this matter of democracy in an infinite world and beginning to see in some way we have got to organize much more the manner of social control of people. In some way we have got to make the state do the intricate work that it has to do. We try to think that we have got to do this by democratic methods. In the present world they do not see how the thing can possibly work. There is one answer. We are going to do it through education. You ought to go back and read the great speech of Charles Sumner. It was a magnificant statement of the theory of democracy. He said that men who have been in slavery allthe time are not ready to go into a democracy but they must be educated and after that they will be able to take part in the government. But we come to the time when education was palatial. As to what education is going to do depends on what it is used for. For a long time it was used to keep the aristocracy in control. There is a story, I do not know how authentic it is, that one of the great difficulties of the life of the great Nevile Chamberlain was the fact that he was not an English public school man. Unless you understand the educational system in England you would not know how that is. In England a gentlemen goes to a tutor first and then to public school which is not public but private and there he was trained in mathematics and some classics and very specifically in the manner of a gentleman. After eight years he is in a position to take a particular career. He goes to Oxford and Cambridge, acquires an English accent and way of doing things. That type of education prepared the aristocracy but it did not have any thing to do with the masses of the people and today the results of that can be seen. You have the University of London but the graduate of this university is not quite the equal to the graduate of Oxford. So that when we begin to see that education is going to be a palatium, we have the necessary education for that. We have changed in the United states. At first we said education was for general knowledge so the person who comes out of school and begins life is going to have a general idea of what the world is. Then comes the difficulty that general knowledge does not benefit people and we then made the discovery that it was not general knowledge but it was to show man how he could earn a living. What are you in the world for except to earn a living and to know how to earn it well.

When I went out to my fiftieth anniversary at Harvard a few years ago, we had our meeting in the School of Business Administration. Years ago people would as what business has that in Harvard. It is a very important part of the school now. Every institution who does not have a School of Agriculture, Business, Journalism etc. is not a center of education. But if the objective of education is to learn the technique of work, where does democracy come in? If a man knows how to make a wagon does he know how to make a state? If you are not going to educate a man for democracy how are you going to have it? You have lost an idea that after all you can have effetive democracy. The fact is that if you are going to have education you have got to have ideals. That is the object of the state to educate people. There you have all kinds of differences of ideals. For a long time in that little town where I was born the object of education was to train the people of English descent to rule that town. They did not include Irish, Germans and very few Negroes were there. It was a matter of training certain classes.

I have noticed with great interest the proposals that have been put forth for peace. That peace is for the white people. The things we are thinking about was in Mr. Winston Churchill's speech a few weeks ago when he forgot Ethiopia. All the plans of the white people are to dominate the world. Just as sure as you do this you cannot have a democracy, you are going to have a paradox of democracy when 50 or 60 millions of people in England are ruling 460 millions of people in India and they do not have voice in the government at all. England is a typically democratic country. If you are going to fight for democracy what are you going to include in it? The churches have tried to solve this problem but it has not been tried in politics. If you consider people who are capable of development then you come back to that belief in individualism where you have as much development as those people who are going to rule.

We go into a new idea of technology. Some people say that engineers are going to rule this country but you cannot say this because the question comes, for whom are they going to rule? You will have to get hold of experts who are ruling for the mass for they are going to see that this is done. To do this you have got to have democratic control. I can remember in old Atlanta University we had in control a small number of six or eight professors. They ruled the university. The president sat in with them. They talked things over. They gave each other a chance to talk. The discussions were always unanimous. Any important decision was unanimous and all came to the same conclusion. You see the idea of what we could have in the world. When by unselfishness experts are put into control then you have a government for the people.

To sum up what I have said. You have got to have fullness of individualism. You have got to have individual development carried on by all men. You have got to have expert guidance to carry on the work of the government. You get it by democratic voting. The object of all this is full freedom. Compatible with this is social control. You only get this by sacrifices you will have to make for the advantages of the whole group.

COLONIAL PEOPLES AND TWO WORLD WARS

There are certain easily recognized characteristics of colonial peoples. All colonies or quasi colonies do not exhbit these characteristics in the same degree. But colonial peoples are, in the first place, poor; they exibit a degree of poverty almost unknown in civilized lands except in small depressed classes. These people are ignorant; this does not say by any means that they are stupid or incapable of learning. It means that they do not know of the scientific advances in knowledge of the last two or three centuries. They have their own cultures with some valuable survivals and some residues broken down by contact with the West. They have wide-spread use of fiction and misinterpretation of the natural phenomena and for the most part they are unable to read and write so that the accumulated wisdom in the past is largely shut out from their pen save by work of mouth and other imperfect methods of communication. These people are diseased; in some respects their health is as good as that of the leading nations, but many of the great scurges of man like smallpox, malaria and tuberculosis which have been partially conquered in the centers of modern civilization, still take terrific hold of the colonial people. Especially diseases and neglect of children are widespread.

These people are subject more or less directly to the political control of Europe and America. Such control is considered necessary and is the base upon which the civilization of the West has been built. This contact is popularized and strengthened by caste systems based on color and race as well as poverty. It is this proposition and the wide and deep seated belief in it, that makes colonies today a great and central problem. Because it is certainly clear that if civilization depends upon colonial status for its basic support; and if this colonial status must involve poverty, ignorance and disease for the majority of men, then we fact one kind of a world. But if in this general and wide spread conclusion there is something fundamentally wrong, then the sooner we realize it, the better.

We may perhaps more carefully approach this problem, if we consider certain colonies, or so-called colonies as they exist today. We may begin with India, characterized by a vast population, intrically differenciated by race and color, with over 90 percent of illiteracy; ignorance of modern science and technique is wide spread; divided among diverse religions and languages, and with varying degrees of cultural status. Disease is widespread, there is a vast death rate among children and unrest and dissatisfaction concerning the social condition and the political relation both to the British Empire and to the Indian Princes whom the Empire supports. There is no vaster nor more poignant problem which faced the First World War;which developed between the two world wars and which is going to be a major world problem after this war. Does the civilization of Great Britain depend upon the continuance with only slow and gradual change of present conditions in India.

We may turn to a second country: China, which from some points of view might be called an independent country, but which as a matter of fact because of the influence which the West have had for centuries upon the Chinese economy is practically in the colonial status. Here again we have poverty coupled with incessant toil. There are no harder workers in the world than Chinese coolies and yet the wages from their hard labor gives them scarcely enought to eat and to wear; their whole life is hard and unlimited toil. Despite an ancient and valuable culture, their ignorance of the advance of science in the last three centuries is so dismal that their industrial organizations is almost entirely dependent upon Western exploitation; their wide-spread victims of disease. What is said of China and India may be repeated of Indonesia. There to be sure, as in other parts of the Eastern World, Western exploitation is coupled with the exploitation of the Chinese merchant. Here is a vast change of islands with ancient culture, ignorance of modern science, illiterarcy and hard work. The toil of the people is chiefly concentered upon things which they themselves do not use but which are transported abroad, and the kind and aim of their industry is determined by the investments of the Dutch, the British and the Americans. There is some effort at education but among the 80,000,000 Indonesians there are not as many children in school as among the 13 million American Negroes. The revenue from these countries, just as the revenue to Great Britain from India is immense, but the wage paid are so low that poverty is the lot of the average native. Africa tells a similar tale within a difference only in the degree to which the native workers have been pitched into European machine. The African worker has been only partially absorbed into modern industry. He mines gold, diamonds, cooper and tin. He raises vegetable oil and fibers, but still to a degree he lives under his ancient tribal conditions and his broken culture is dominated by the interest of present and future industrial development in the West. The African laborer is consequently poor, illiterate and diseased. He is part of that mass of labor upon whose bent back the civilization of Europe largely rests. The Caribbean area approximates more or less the colonial status. The political domination varies; it is apparently absent in independent countries like the Domenican Republic and Haiti; it is modified in British colonies like Jamaica and Bermuda . Nevertheless the economic organization in Europe, the civilization of the Western World depend upon the work and personal service of West Indians, and the West Indians again are poor with low wage, with inadequate clothing and housing and with wide spread illiteracy. In Central and South America the pattern varies by the fact that home-born elements exploits and rule natives of the land and are the ones who carry on the government and who share in the spoils of exploitation based on European and American investment. The results however upon the Indian, Negro and Latin workers and the mixture of the three, is the same. There is the great mass of desperately poor illiterate and diseased workers whose conditions are the corner stone upon which prosperity and civilization both for South America and Western Europe is built. In the Middle East and the Balkans is something of the same situation. Which means that the majority of mankind are today in poverty, ignorance and disease because the domination of their work and their wage is in the hands of the Europeans or of those who are their own countryman, but share home with foreign spoilers. The interest of those dominated empires, nations and classes are regarded as necessarily involving the degradation of the colonial mass. There is no counteract to this two points of view.

Colonies in the Post-War World

W. E. Burghardt Du Bois

On October 16, 1944, I attended a meeting in the State Department in Washington, D. C., where ninety-six national organizations were represented by one hundred and twelve delegates. The meeting was presided over by Mr. Stetinius, the under-Secretary of State, who had present the staff which had worked with him on the Dumbarton Oaks proposals. At that conference, as representative of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, I brought up briefly the statements in the Dumbarton Oaks declaration which touched the matter of colonies. I said

"As I have gone through the published proposals at Dumbarton Oaks, I am depressed to realize with what consistency the matter of colonies has been passed over. In chapter one, paragraph three, the emphasis is on the fact that this is a union of nations, not of races, groups, or organizations of men, not recognized as nations; in chapter two, paragraph one, peace-loving "States" alone may join the Union; in chapter six, apparently an aggrieved party must be a state in order to complain or appear before the Council; similarly in chapter seven, no colonies as such can appeal for hearing before the International Court of Justice. Elaborate effort is made to protect states from aggression, but I find no provisions in chapter seven even to consider aggression of a nation on its own colonial peoples while apparently international military force can be called in to suppress colonial revolt. Indeed in paragraph seven of that chapter it seems definitely to say that colonial disputes lie entirely beyond the jurisdiction of this proposed government of men. The Economic and Social Council set up in this chapter offers some ray of hope: it can recommend and consider complaints and situations; but there is no direct power to investigate conditions. The Council is appointed by eighteen states with no colonial participation indicated. In other words this proposal, as I read it, virtually says to six hundred million human beings, if not to a majority of mankind, that the only way to human equality is the philanthropy of masters who have historic and strong interest in preserving their present power and income."

This was part of a much longer statement which if I had had time I should have made. The longer statement was as follows: In the proposals made at the Dumbarton Oaks conference, apparently one-third of the peoples of the earth, and possibly a majority of mankind, are to have no direct representation in the general international organization. I refer primarily to the population living in colonies. Classifying autonomus colonies like Canada and Australia as Free Nations in the meaning of the proposals, there remain not less than six hundred million persons disfranchised in the General Assembly, and represented only by the master nations. In addition there are on earth, a number of other nations, nominally independent, who by reason of accumulated debt owed creditor nations and current control of their labor and industry, by absentee capital, will be in no position to act independently or speak freely, even if admitted to seats in the Assembly. Thus perhaps a thousand millions of human beings, will have no direct voice, nor exercise any real degree of democratic control in the proposed United Nations.

There is no need here to discuss the advantages or disadvantage of modern imperialism, nor to attempt to assess the gain or loss to peoples arising from their subordination to the great nations. That the colonial system has involved in the past much that was horrible and inhuman will be admitted. That vast numbers of backward peoples have made notable cultural advance under the colonial regime is equally true. Despite this, if the world believes in democracy; and is fighting a war of incredible cost to establish democracy as a way of life, it is both intolerable in ethics and dangerous in statecraft to allow, for instance, eight million Belgians to represent ten million Congolese in the new internation, without giving these black folk any voice even to complain. It is equally unfair that nine million Dutchmen should be the sole arbiters and spokesmen for sixty-seven million brown men of the South Seas. It cannot be reconciled with any philosophy of democracy, that fifty million white folk of the British Empire should be able to make the destiny of four hundred and fifty million yellow, brown and black people a matter solely of their own internal decision. Or again, inside that same empire, it is astonishing to see among the leading "Free Nations" battling for democracy, the Union of South Africa, where two million white folk, not only in international affairs but openly in their established government, hold eight million black natives in a subordination unequalled elsewhere in the world.

This is not for a moment to deny the technique and elementary schools which Belgium has given black Congo; or the fact that the Netherlands has perhaps the most liberal colonial program of any modern empire; or that Great Britain gave the African freedom and education after slavetrade and slavery. But it is equally true that the advance of colonial peoples has been hesitant and slow, and retarded unnecessarily because of the denial of democratic method to the natives, and because their treatment and government have had and still have, objects and methods incompatible with their best interests and highest progress. The substantial and permanent advance of a group cannot be allowed to depend on the philanthropy of a master, if the desires and initiative of its members are given no freedom, no democratic expression; and if on the other hand, the will of the master is swayed by strong motives of selfish aggrandizement and gain. How often this selfish interest has prevailed in the past is too well-known to require reminder. But today the temptation is stronger rather than less: with Holland reeling under murder, theft and destruction, can the world expect unselfish surrender by the present generation of the profit of rich colonies capable of helping restore her losses? Is it likely that Belgium after her crucifixion will be satisfied with less profit from Congo and greater expenditure for education, health and social service? With Great Britain straining every nerve to satisfy the demands of her own laboring classes, is it likely that she will of her own initiative extend these reforms to India coupled with the autonomy necessary for Indian initiative and self government?

No. The united effort of world opinion should now be brought earnestly to bear on the nations owning colonies to make them realize, that great as the immediate sacrifice may be, it is the only way to PEACE. To set up now an internation with near half mankind disfranchised and socially enslaved is to court disaster. In the past and the recent past we know how the lure of profit from rich, unlettered and helpless countries has tempted great and civilized nations and plunged them into bloody rivalry. We know what part colonial aggression has played in this present world disaster. We know that capital investment can earn more in Africa, contribution to imperial government was in itself small and often an actual loss; but to the individual investors in these countries, cheap labor and cheap raw material was the basis of tremendous and increasing wealth which made the luxury and power of the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries remarkable. To enter into rivalry with these countries it was necessary for Germany, Italy and Japan to seek the control of colonies and in that way to gain a vast number of men, wide stretches of land and abundance of raw material.

The temptation in this situation was that colonial proprietorship gave the leading countries of the world certain tremendous advantages. The colonial

The first world wa-

Asia and the South Seas, because there it suffers few of the restrictions of civilized life; that the foreign investor in these lands is himself the prime ruler and seat of power and without local democratic control, he has but to appease public opinion at home, which is not only ignorant of the local facts, but perhaps all too willing to remain ignorant as long as dividends continue.

If this situation is not frankly faced and steps toward remedy attempted, we shall seek in vain to find peace and security; we shall leave the door wide open for renewed international ~~strife~~ rivalry to secure colonies and eventually and inevitably for colonial revolt.

Nor is it seeking the impossible to attempt this change. The centuries when we envisaged a world of peoples capable of civilization, but engulfed by hordes of folk whose progress was unthinkable, have disappeared along with witches and alchemy. The phenomenal rise of the Russian peasant, the advance of Negroes in America; indeed the position today of the great mass of the peoples of Europe, is proof, to those who want it, that in the backward peoples of the world, civilization has a rich reservoir for its restoration from disaster, and not merely a burden of relief. The method of realizing this is not ~~more~~ solely philanthropic uplift, but a breaking of the bonds of suppression so as to encourage self-expression, self-help and initiative.

The General Assembly of the United Nations should begin by insisting that there sit in the assembly, not simply representatives of the Free Nations, but with them representatives of all colonial peoples over whom they claim control. The matter of the number of such colonial delegates can well wait on time and experience. The method of their choice and the fair representation of all angles of opinion can be gradually adjusted as the Economic and Social Council gains power to investigate. But it is absolutely essential that at the beginning, the voices of all peoples that on earth do well be raised fearlessly and openly in the parliament of man to seek justice, complain of oppression and demand equality.

Difficult as this program will doubtless prove it will not be nearly as difficult, horrible and utterly devastating as two world wars in a single generation.

This places the matter of colonies in the post-war world squarely before us and perhaps I might here emphasis this proposed situation:

One, the government of the proposed United Nations will consist of five great powers comprising perhaps five hundred million white and yellow people who will rule the world through a Security Council and have military power to enforce their decision. However, the three hundred and fifty million yellow people represented by China may not for historic reasons be recognized as racial equals and because of present economic disruption may be largely in the power of white nations.

Two, an indeterminate number of free nations, most white folk and comprising about one thousand million people, will function in an assembly in which each nation is represented; the Assembly will have the right of petition, discussion, advice and action insofar as the Security Council allows. Some of these nations, however, are so under the economic domination of great powers that they will hadly be able to take an independent stand. The assembly will choose representatives of six nations who will be associated with the great powers in the Security Council; but their ability to influence those powers will depend largely upon the method of voting in the Security Council which has not yet been decided.

Three, there will be six hundred million colored and black folk inhabiting colonies owned by white nations, who will have no rights that the white people are bound to respect. Any revolt on their part can be put down by military force at the disposal of the Security Council. This mass of people will have no right of appeal to the Security Council or to the Assembly. They will have no standing before the International Court of Justice. Any dispute concerning their status lies beyond the jurisdiction of the Security Council or the Assembly.

The Economic and Social Council of the Assembly may make recommendations and consider complaints but they will apparently have no direct power of investigation; and on this Economic and Social Council no colony will have representation. It may be said that the interests of these colonial peoples will be represented in the world government by the master nations. In the same way it was said in 1787 in the United States that slaves would be represented by their masters. Courts Property Family

Four, there is no designated function for the enemy states which have been guilty of imperial aggression in this war. They will comprise perhaps one hundred fifty million people. Presumably they will eventually take their places among the friendly nations and possibly at some day among the great powers.

Evidently the one weak point in this outline for a government of men is the fact that at least one-fourth of the inhabitants of the world have no power part in it; no democratic power, not even a recognized right of petition. This puts all effort at reform and uplift on the shoulders of imperial countries and does this at a time when the countries because of loss and disruption in this war are least able to undertake philanthropic enterprise.

insert A

Evidently there is indicated here the necessity of earnest effort to avoid the non-democratic and race inferiority philosophy here involved. There should be consultation among colonial peoples and their friends as to just what measures ought to be taken. This consultation should look toward asking for the following successive steps:

One, representation of the colonial peoples along side the master peoples in the assembly. Whether such representatives should at first have a right to vote or only the right to complain and petition, should be determined by the assembly.

Two, the organization of a Mandate Commission under the Economic and Social Council with distinct power to investigate complaints and conditions in colonies and make public their findings.

Three, a clear statement of the intentions of each imperial power gradually but definitely to take all measures designed eventually to raise the peoples of colonies to a condition of complete political and economic equality with the peoples of the master nations and eventually either to incorporate them into the polity of the master nations or to allow them to become independent free peoples.

* The reply of Secretary Stetinius to my statement was off the record so far as exact words were concerned but amounted to saying that the proposals were trying to leave the door open at least for a consideration of colonial problems but he did not go further than that.

This, of course, is rather serious; we are in this war even more than in the last war facing the problem of democracy: how far are we going to have a world where the people who are ruled are going to have effective voice in their government. We have stated and reiterated that this democratic method of government is going to be applied just as widely as possible. But of course in this program we recognize that beyond the logic of democracy looms the inevitable logic of facts; and the fact is that most of the people of the world have not been ruled in the past by democratic methods; and that the progress toward democracy has been disappointingly slow.

A century ago the explanation of this was clear. You had in the world a minority of people who were capable of civilization; who by their inherent gifts and long and difficult trial and experience were the natural rulers of the world. They composed most of the white people of the world, although even among those people there was a certain proportion of the lower classes who were incapable because of deficiency in natural gifts to take effective part in democracy.

On the other hand, the majority of the people of the world, composing mainly the colored and black races were naturally so inferior that it was not to be hoped that in any reasonable time, if ever, they would be capable of self-government. This was supposed to be proven by their history, and current scientific investigation seemed to back up historical judgment.

Since the beginning of the twentieth century there has come great change in these judgments. In the first place we have practically given up the idea that there is any considerable portion of the civilized peoples who cannot by education and by the training of experience be made into effective voters and administrators in democratic governments. Further than this we are not nearly so sure today as we used to be of the inherent inferiority of the majority of the people of the earth who happen to be colored. We know, of course, that skin color itself has no particular significance and the other physical characteristics whatever their significance are not certain indications of inferiority. The testimony of history we, of course, realize is not decisive. History has been written deliberately to emphasize the accomplishments of certain people and decry or omit the work of other people. It is always astonishing for Americans to contrast the history of the Revolutionary War as set down in English and American textbooks. In addition to that the testimony of biology and anthropology and of various social studies convince us more and more that absolute and essential differences between races as self-perpetuating groups are difficult to fix if not non-existent. That consequently we have no way of being certain that education and experience will not do for the backward races of man what it has already begun to do for the depressed classes in civilized states.

But these facts do not affect our actions today, because government and economic organization has already built a tremendous structure upon the nineteenth century conception of race inferiority. This is what the imperialism of our day means. In order, therefore, to judge our present attitude and proposed action toward colonies we must note the growth of the colonial idea.

Roman imperialism did not involve national inferiority. It was simply a matter of political control and centralized taxation with a large degree of autonomy left to the individual states which submitted to Rome. The taxation, to be sure, was often oppressive and amounted to considerable subjection but the Roman Empire was not ~~any~~ by any means the counterpart of modern empires. When during the Middle Ages Rome fell to pieces the world established itself on the basis of separate states who were brought into correspondence with each other through trade and conference. A Marco Polo interpreted an independent Asia to an unknown Europe; and Othello, real or ficticious, was a respected stranger from Africa who offered aid to an European king. There arose in Asia and in the Sudan independent kingdoms equal in many respects and certainly distinguished from each other by no evident superiority or inferiority. It was the discovery of America and the sudden demand of labor supplied by the African slave trade that changed this; that based the new European capitalism upon extreme subjection of labor to an organized plantation system; and that rationalized slavery by a new doctrine of inevitable and unchangeable inferiority especially so far as the blacks were concerned.

Negro slavery in America was the passing phase of a great world labor problem but on it was built a new imperialism. Great Britain, from an empire supported by slavery, came to be an empire ruling a wide stretch of countries where cheap labor more or less compulsory exported valuable raw material in large quantity to manufacturing centers in the United Kingdom. Other countries followed suit especially Holland and France. Spain sought to reorganize her empire of conquest and extortion but became in the long run subject to the British organization of industry. Finally, Germany and Italy seeing the tremendous advantage which imperial capital gave to Great Britain, Holland and France tried to enter into effective competition.

The temptation in this situation was that colonial proprietorship gave the leading countries of the world certain tremendous advantages. The colonial contribution to imperial government was in itself small and often an actual loss; but to the individual investors in these countries, cheap labor and cheap raw material was the basis of tremendous and increasing wealth which made the luxury and power of the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries remarkable. To enter into rivalry with these countries it was necessary for Germany, Italy and Japan to seek the control of colonies and in that way to gain a vast number of men, wide stretches of land and abundance of raw material.

The first world war was a war of rivalry between imperial powers, with the exploitation of Asia and Africa as the prize to be won. Germany felt that her share in Africa was too small to be commensurate with her manufacturing, commercial and technical possibilities. Japan felt that European imperialism was monopolizing the exploitation of Asia in which she was by situation and race the natural leader.

Let us now pause to see what the imperial setup between the first and second world war actually was. We note in that perior 7 imperial powers. Naming them in the order of the number of people which they dominated they were: first, Great Britain, who has in her colonies (not counting the autonomous regions like Canada, Australia and New Zealand) 495 million people ruled by the 50 million in the United Kingdom and including two million whites in the Union of South Africa. Second, comes Japan where, before the present war, 73 million in Japan proper ruled 68 million including the disputed Chinese territory of Manchucuo. Next France where 38 million ruled 71 million folk. Then comes the Netherlands where 9 million rule 67 million. Then the United States of North America where 130 million ruled 19 million of people including the inhabitants of Alaska and the Phillipines. Findally comes Belgium where $8\frac{1}{2}$ million rule $10\frac{1}{2}$ million in the Belgian Congo & Portugal where $7\frac{1}{2}$ million rule 11 million

Another way of listing these colonies would be to take into account the disproportion between the numbers in the ruling class and those ruled. This would put the British Empire again first with each British subject ruling ten colonials. Next would come the Netherlands where each Dutch citizen rules between 8 and 9 colonials. In France a citizen rules something less than two colonials. While in Japan, Portugal and Belgium he rules a little more than one. The United States is the only imperial power where the number of colonials ruled is very much smaller than the number of citizens amounting to over six rulers to one ruled.

Of course mere numbers do not give the whole picture. A much more revealing study would give the extent and kind of land and the sort and value of the materials. Beyond this we need, and have never had, a very careful study of the industrial and financial arrangement of colonial organization:

at least half the world area a Colonial

just what has been actually invested and by whom; how has the invested wealth been used in the colony; what has been the rate of profit and wages and how far the investment has helped the colony by taxation. It has been pretty easy in the past by manipulation of investment figures to argue that the rate of return for colonial investment has been low and the profit to the colonial people high. But such factual studies are absolutely disproven: first, by the astonishing way in which capital investment has poured into the colonies; and second, by the fact that the colonial people almost without exception have the lowest standard of living on earth with the fewest social services for education, health and other means of social uplift and almost no chance to participate in government or even to voice their complaints in an orderly manner.

These broad facts, although difficult to substantiate by actual figures, are an indictment against colonial government to which the world must listen. This fact was felt and felt strongly at the time of the Treaty of Versailles; and in the organization of the League of Nations, advantage was taken of the situation of the German colonies to attempt a solution to the whole colonial problem. The German colonies were distributed among France, Great Britain and Japan under the control of a Mandates Commission. The Mandates Commission was supposed to see that the people of these colonies were fairly treated; and that something was done for their social uplift and their economic betterment. The statute that governed the Mandate Commission was, however, deliberately limited in such a way that the commission really had very little power. It could not of its own initiative inquire into or investigate facts in the various colonies; the colonial peoples themselves had no vested right of appeal to the Commission and as a matter of fact the mandated colony soon became indistinguishable from the other colonies of the countries holding the mandates. It had been hoped that the opposite would happen and that the authority of the Mandate Commission would eventually extend, not only to the former German colonies, but to all colonies of all nations. This never took place and the only organ of the League of Nations that helped the colonial situation was the International Labor Office which succeeded in setting-up certain minimum standards of labor usage.

Meantime, between the two world wars there was at first an intensified effort, particularly in the British Empire and to some extent in France, to increase colonial exploitation in order to repay cost of war. This led to bitter complaints especially in British West Africa and finally to a colonial movement there which secured for five of the colonies the right of elected representation in the Governor's Councils; but these councils continued to have a majority of appointed officials representing the home government and also representing large investment interests in England. Elsewhere on the continent, in Kenya and in the Union of South Africa the deprivation of colonial people of their lands continued; while in Asia the new Japanese imperial expansion gained headway and purpose. Among the Dutch colonies some effort was made to increase the participation of colonial peoples in government and to systematize education. In the Belgian Congo elementary education under the Catholic Church was broadened in extent and recognition of local government throughout tribal organizations; but no secondary or higher education and no participation in the colonial government was encouraged.

The second World War, therefore, found the colonial question really unsettled and was precipitated by the determination of Italy to enter upon an imperial career in Africa. On the part of Germany there was distinct and increasing pressure for the return of her colonies and for even larger colonial expansion. Thus the problem of colonies has been certainly a main cause of two world wars and unless it is frankly faced and its settlement begun, it may easily cause a third.

This funds us today facing an unsettled problem and a problem far greater than the number of people apparently involved might lead us to think. The colonial organization today is primarily economic. It is a method of carrying on industry and commerce and of distributing wealth. As such it not only confines colonial people to a low standard of living and encourages by reason of its high profit to investors a determined and interested belief in the inferiority of certain races but it also affects the situation of the working classes and minorities in civilized countries.

When, for instance, during and after this war the working people of Great Britain, the Netherlands, France and Belgium in particular are going to demand certain costly social improvements from the government: the prevention of unemployment, a rising standard of living, health insurance, increased education of children; the large cost of these improvements must be met by increased public taxation falling with greater weight than ever heretofore upon the rich. This means that the temptation to recoup and balance the financial burden of increased taxation by investment in colonies where social services are at their lowest and standards of living below the requirements of civilization, are going to definitely increase; and the disposition of parties on the left, liberal parties and philanthropy to press for colonial improvement will be silenced by the bribe of vastly increased help of government to better their condition. The working people of the civilized world will thus largely be induced to put their political power behind Imperialism and democracy in Europe will continue to impede and nullify democracy in Asia and Africa.

In this way the modern world after this war may easily be lulled to sleep and to forget that the exclusion of something between one-fourth and one-half of the whole population of the world from participation in democratic government and socialized wealth is a direct threat to the spread of democracy and a certain promise of future war; and of war not simply as justifiable revolt on the part of colonial peoples who are increasing in intelligence and efficiency, but also of recurring wars of envy and greed because of the present inequitable distribution of colonial gain among civilized nations.

Moreover, the continuation of vested interest in the theory of racial inferiority and the dislike of minorities of any sort will be encouraged but failure to face the problem of the future of colonies.

I appeal to you as representatives of a minority which in this war has suffered more gravely than any other, not only to sympathize with this vaster minoirty but that you consider the colonial problem as an integral part of your own problem of emancipation and justice. The problem of those hundreds of millions of people on whom the world has walked with careless and insolent feet.

That vast numbers of backward people have made notable cultural advance under the colonial regime is equally true. Despite this, if the world believes in democracy; and is fighting a war of incredible cost to establish democracy as a way of life, it is both intolerable in ethics and dangerous in statecraft to allow, for instance, eight million Belgians to represent ten million Congolese in the new internation, without giving these black folk any voice even to complain. It is equally unfair that nine million Dutchmen should be the sole arbiters and spokesmen for sixty-seven million brown men of the South Seas. It cannot be reconciled with any philosophy of democracy, that fifty million white folk of the British Empire should be able to make the destiny of four hundred and fifty million yellow, brown and black people a matter solely of their own internal decision. Or again inside that same empire, it is astonishing to see among the leading "Free Nations" battling for democracy, the Union of South Africa, where two million white folk, not only in international affairs but openly in their established government, hold eight million black natives in a subordination unequalled elsewhere in the world.

This is not for a moment to deny the technique and elementary schools which Belgium has given black Congo; or the fact that the Netherlands has perhaps the most liberal colonial program of any modern empire; or that Great Britain gave the African freedom and education after slavetrade and slavery. But it is equally true that the advance of colonial peoples has been hesitant and slow, and retarded unnecessarily because of the denial of democratic method to the natives, and because their treatment and government have had and still have, objects and methods incompatible with their best interests and highest progress. The substantial and permanent advance of a group cannot be allowed to depend on the philanthropy of a master, if the desires and initiative of its members are given no freedom, no democratic expression; and if on the other hand, the will of the master is swayed by strong motives of selfish aggrandizement and gain. How often this selfish interest has prevailed in the past is too well-known to require reminder. But today the temptation is stronger rather than less: with Holland reeling under murder, theft and destruction, can the world expect unselfish surrender by the present generation of the profit of rich colonies capable of helping restore her losses? Is it likely that Belgium after her crucifixion will be satisfied with less profit from Congo and greater expenditure for education, health and social service? With Great Britain straining every nerve to satisfy the demands of her own laboring classes, is it likely that she will of her own initiative extend these reforms to India coupled with the autonomy necessary for Indian initiative and self government?

No. The united effort of world opinion should now be brought earnestly to bear on the nations owning colonies to make them realize, that great as the immediate sacrifice may be, it is the only way. To set up now an internation with near half mankind disfranchised and socially enslaved is to court disaster. In the past and the recent past we know how the lure of profit from rich, unlettered and helpless countries has tempted great and civilized nations and plunged them into bloody rivalry. We know what part colonial aggression has played in this present world disaster. We know that capital investment can earn more in Africa,

Asia and the South Seas, because there it suffers few of the restrictions of civilized life; that the foreign investor in these lands is himself the prime ruler and seat of power and without local democratic control, he has but to appease public opinion at home, which is not only ignorant of the local facts, but perhaps all too willing to remain ignorant as long as dividends continue.

If this situation is not frankly faced and steps toward remeby attempted, we shall seek in vain to find peace and security; we shall leave the door wide open for renewed international strife to secure colonies and eventually and inevitably for colonial revolt.

Nor is it seeking the impossible to attempt this change. The centuries when we envisaged a world of peoples capable of civilization, but engulfed by hordes of folk whose progress was unthinkable, have disappeared along with witches and alchemy. The phenomenal rise of the Russian peasant, the advance of Negroes in America; indeed the position today of the great mass of the peoples of Europe, is proof, to those who want it, that in the backward peoples of the world, civilization has a rich reservoir for its restoration from disaster, and not merely a burden of relief. The method of realizing this is not mere philanthropic uplift, but a breaking of the bonds of suppression so as to encourage self-expression, self-help and initiative.

The General Assembly of the United Nations should begin by insisting that there sit in the assembly, not simply representatives of the Free Nations, but with them representatives of all colonial peoples over whom they daim control. The matter of the number of such colonial delegates can well wait on time and experience. The method of their choice and the fair representation of all angles of opinion can be gradually adjusted as the Economic and Social Council gains power to investigate. But it is absolutely essential that at the beginning, the voices of all peoples that on earth do well be raised fearlessly and openly in the parliament of man to seek justice, complain of oppression and demand equality.

Difficult as this program will doubtless prove, it will not be nearly as difficult, horrible and utterly devastating as two world wars in a single generation.

This places the matter of colonies in the post-war world squarely before us and perhaps I might here emphasis this proposed situation:

One, the government of the proposed United Nations will consist of five great powers comprising perhaps five hundred million white and yellow people who will rule the world through a Security Council and have military power to enforce their decision. However, the three hundred and fifty million yellow people represented by China may not for historic reasons be recognized as racial equals and because present economic disruption may be largely in the power of white nations.

Two, an indeterminate number of free nations, most white folk and comprising about one thousand million people, will function in an assembly in which each nation is represented; the Assembly will have the right of petition, discussion, advice and action insofar as the Security Council allows. Some of these nations, however, are so under the economic domination of great powers that they will hadly be able to take an independent stand. The assembly will choose representatives of six nations who will be associated with the great powers in the Security Council; but their ability to influence those powers will depend largely upon the method of voting in the Security Council which has not yet been decided.

Three, there will be six hundred million colored and black folk inhabiting colonies owned by white nations, who will have no rights that the white people are bound to respect. Any revolt on their part can be put down by military force at the disposal of the Security Council. This mass of people will have no right of appeal to the Security Council or to the Assembly. They will have no standing before the International Court of Justice. Any dispute concerning their status lies beyond the jurisdiction of the Security Council or the Assembly.

The Economic and Social Council of the Assembly may make recommendations and consider complaints but they will apparently have no direct power of investigation; and on this Economic and Social Council no colony will have representation. It may be said that the interests of these colonial peoples will be represented in the world government by the master nations. In the same way it was said in 1787 in the United States that slaves would be represented by their masters.

Four, there is no designated function for the enemy states which have been guilty of imperial aggression in this war. They will comprise perhaps one hundred fifty million people. Presumably they will eventually take their places among the friendly nations and possibly at some day among the great powers.

Evidently the one weak point in this outline for a government of men is the fact that at least one-fourth of the inhabitants of the world have no power part in it; no democratic power, not even a recognized right of petition. This puts all effort at reform and uplift on the shoulders of imperial countries and does this at a time when the countries because of loss and disruption in this war are least able to undertake philanthropic enterprise.

Evidently there is indicated here the necessity of earnest effort to avoid the non-democratic and race inferiority philosophy here involved. There should be consultation among colonial peoples and their friends as to just what measures ought to be taken. This consultation should look toward asking for the following successive steps:

One, representation of the colonial peoples along side the master peoples in the assembly. Whether such representatives should at first have a right to vote or only the right to complain and petition, should be determined by the assembly.

Two, the organization of a Mandate Commission under the Economic and Social Council with distinct power to investigate complaints and conditions in colonies and make public their findings.

Three, a clear statement of the intentions of each imperial power gradually but definitely to take all measures designed eventually to raise the peoples of colonies to a condition of complete political and economic equality with the peoples of the master nations and eventually either to incorporate them into the polity of the master nations or to allow them to become independent free peoples.

The reply of Secretary Stetinius to my statement was off the record so far as exact words were concerned but amounted to saying that the proposals were trying to leave the door open at least for a consideration of colonial problems but he did not go further than that.

This, of course, is rather serious; we are in this war even more than in the last war facing the problem of democracy: how far are we going to have a world where the people who are ruled are going to have effective voice in their government. We have stated and reiterated that this democratic method of government is going to be applied just as widely as possible. But of course in this program we recognize that beyond the logic of democracy looms the inevitable logic of facts; and the fact is that most of the people of the world have not been ruled in the past by democratic methods; and that the progress toward democracy has been disappointingly slow.

A century ago the explanation of this was clear. You had in the world a minority of people who were capable of civilization; who by their inherent gifts and long and difficult trial and experience were the natural rulers of the world. They composed most of the white people of the world, although even among those people there was a certain proportion of the lower classes who were incapable because of deficiency in natural gifts to take effective part in democracy.

On the other hand, the majority of the people of the world, composing mainly the colored and black races were naturally so inferior that it was not to be hoped that in any reasonable time, if ever, they would be capable of self-government. This was supposed to be proven by their history, and current scientific investigation seemed to back up historical judgment.

Since the beginning of the twentieth century there has come great change in these judgments. In the first place we have practically given up the idea that there is any considerable portion of the civilized peoples who cannot by education and by the training of experience be made into effective voters and administrators in democratic governments. Further than this we are not nearly so sure today as we used to be of the inherent inferiority of the majority of the people of the earth who happen to be colored. We know, of course, that skin color itself has no particular significance and the other physical characteristics whatever their significance are not certain indications of inferiority. The testimony of history we, of course, realize is not decisive. History has been written deliberately to emphasize the accomplishments of certain people and decry or omit the work of other people. It is always astonishing for Americans to contrast the history of the Revolutionary War as set down in English and American textbooks. In addition to that the testimony of biology and anthropology and of various social studies convince us more and more that absolute and essential differences between races as self-perpetuating groups are difficult to fix if not non-existent. That consequently we have no way of being certain that education and experience will not do for the backward races of man what it has already begun to do for the depressed classes in civilized states.

But these facts do not affect our actions today, because government and economic organization has already built a tremendous structure upon the nineteenth century conception of race inferiority. This is what the imperialism of our day means. In order, therefore, to judge our present attitude and proposed action toward colonies we must note the growth of the colonial idea.

Roman imperialism did not involve national inferiority. It was simply a matter of political control and centralized taxation with a large degree of autonomy left to the individual states which submitted to Rome. The taxation, to be sure, was often oppressive and amounted to considerable subjection but the Roman Empre was not any any means the counterpart of modern empires. When during the Middle Ages Rome fell to pieces the world established itself on the basis of separate states who were brought into correspondence with each other through trade and conference. A Marco Polo interpreted an independent Asia to an unknown Europe; and Othello, real or ficticious, was a respected stranger from Africa who offered aid to an European king. There arose in Asia and in the Sudan independent kingdoms equal in many respects and certainly distinguished from each other by no evident superiority or inferiority. It was the discovery of America and the sudden demand of labor supplied by the African slave trade that changed this; that based the new European capitalism upon extreme subjection of labor to an organized plantation system; and that rationalized slavery by a new doctrine of inevitable and unchangeable inferiority especially so far as the blacks were concerned.

Negro slavery in America was the passing phase of a great world labor problem but on it was built a new imperialism. Great Britain, from an empire supported by slavery, came to be an empire ruling a wide stretch of countries where cheap labor more or less compulsory exported valuable raw material in large quantity to manufacturing centers in the United Kingdom. Other countries followed suit especially Holland and France. Spain sought to reorganize her empire of conquest and extortion but became in the long run subject to the British organization of industry. Finally, Germany and Italy seeing the tremendous advantage which imperial capital gave to Great Britain, Holland and France tried to enter into effective competition.

The temptation in this situation was that colonial proprietorship gave the leading countries of the world certain tremendous advantages. The colonial

contribution to imperial government was in itself small and often an actual loss; but to the individual investors in these countries, cheap labor and cheap raw material was the basis of tremendous and increasing wealth which made the luxury and power of the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries remarkable. To enter into rivalry with these countries it was necessary for Germany, Italy and Japan to seek the control of colonies and in that way to gain a vast number of men, wide stretches of land and abundance of raw material.

The first world war was a war of rivalry between imperial powers, with the exploitation of Asia and Africa as the prize to be won. Germany felt that her share in Africa was too small to be commensurate with her manufacturing, commercial and technical possibilities. Japan felt that European imperialism was monopolizing the exploitation of Asia in which she was by situation and race the natural leader.

Let us now pause to see what the imperial setup between the first and second world war actually was. We note in that perior six imperial powers. Naming them in the order of the number of people which they dominated they were: first, Great Britain, who has in her colonies (not counting the autonomous regions like Canada, Australia and New Zealand) 495 million people ruled by the 50 million in the United Kingdom and including two million whites in the Union of South Africa. Second, comes Japan where, before the present war, 73 million in Japan proper ruled 68 million including the disputed Chinese territory of Manchucuo. Next France where 38 million ruled 71 million folk. Then comes the Netherlands where 9 million rule 67 million. Then the United States of North America where 130 million ruled 19 million of people including the inhabitants of Alaska and the Phillipines. Findally comes Belgium where 8½ million rule 10½ million in the Belgian Congo.

Another way of listing these colonies would be to take into account the disproportion between the numbers in the ruling class and those ruled. This would put the British Empire again first with each British subject ruling ten colonials. Next would come the Netherlands where each Dutch citizen rules between 8 and 9 colonials. In France a citizen rules something less than two colonials. While in Japan and Belgium he rules a little more than one. The United States is the only imperial power where the number of colonials ruled is very much smaller than the number of citizens amounting to over six rulers to one ruled.

Of course mere numbers do not give the whole picture. A much more revealing study would give the extent and kind of land and the sort and value of the materials. Beyond this we need, and have never had, a very careful study of the industrial and financial arrangement of colonial organization:

just what has been actually invested and by whom; how has the invested wealth been used in the colony; what has been the rate of profit and wages and how far the investment has helped the colony by taxation. It has been pretty easy in the past by manipulation of investment figures to argue that the rate of return for colonial investment has been low and the profit to the colonial people high. But such factual studies are absolutely disproven: first, by the astonishing way in which capital investment has poured into the colonies; and second, by the fact that the colonial people almost without exception have the lowest standard of living on earth with the fewest social services for education, health and other means of social uplift and almost no chance to participate in government or even to voice their complaints in an orderly manner.

These broad facts, although difficult to substantiate by actual figures, are an indictment against colonial government to which the world must listen. This fact was felt and felt strongly at the time of the Treaty of

Versailles; and in the organization of the League of Nations, advantage was taken of the situation of the German colonies to attempt a solution to the whole colonial problem. The German colonies were distributed among France, Great Britain and Japan under the control of a Mandates Commission. The Mandates Commission was supposed to see that the people of these colonies were fairly treated; and that something was done for their social uplift and their economic betterment. The statute that governed the Mandate Commission was, however, deliberately limited in such a way that the commission really had very little power. It could not of its own initiative inquire into or investigate facts in the various colonies; the colonial peoples themselves had no vested right of appeal to the Commission and as a matter of fact the mandated colony soon became indistinguishable from the other colonies of the countries holding the mandates. It had been hoped that the opposite would happen and that the authority of the Mandate Commission would eventually extend, not only to the former German colonies, but to all colonies of all nations. This never took place and the only organ of the League of Nations that helped the colonial situation was the International Labor Office which succeeded in setting-up certain minimum standards of labor usage.

Meantime, between the two world wars there was at first an intensified effort, particularly in the British Empire and to some extent in France, to increase colonial exploitation in order to repay cost of war. This led to bitter complaints especially in British West Africa and finally to a colonial movement there which secured for five of the colonies the right of elected representation in the Governor's Councils; but these councils continued to have a majority of appointed officials representing the home government and also representing large investment interests in England. Elsewhere on the continent, in Kenya and in the Union of South Africa the deprivation of colonial people of their lands continued; while in Asia the new Japanese imperial expansion gained headway and purpose. Among the Dutch colonies some effort was made to increase the participation of colonial peoples in government and to systematize education. In the Belgian Congo elementary education under the Catholic Church was broadened in extent and recognition of local government thrughout tribal organizations; but no secondary or higher education and no participation in the colonial government was encouraged.

The second World War, therefore, found the colonial question really unsettled and was precipitated by the determination of Italy to enter upon an imperial career in Africa. On the part of Germany there was distinct and increasing pressure for the return of her colonies and for even larger colonial expansion. Thus the problem of colonies has been certainly a main cause of two world war and unless it is frnkly faced and its settlement begun, it may easily cause a third.

This funds us today facing an unsettled problem and a problem far greater than the number of people apparently involved might lead us to think. The colonial organization today is primarily economic. It is a method of carrying on industry and commerce and of distributing wealth. As such it not only confines colonial people to a low standard of living and encourages by reason of its high profit to investors a determined and interested belief in the inferiority of certain races but it also affects the situation of the working classes and minorities in civilized countries.

Who, for instance, during and after this war the working people of Great Britain, the Netherlands, France and Belgium in particular are going to demand certain costly social improvements from the government: the prevention of unemployment, a rising standard of living, health insurance, increased education of children; the large cost of these improvements must be met by increased public taxation falling with greater weight than ever heretofore upon the rich. This means that the temptation to recoup and balance the financial burden of increased taxation by investment in colonies where social services are at their lowest and standards of living below the requirements of civilization, are going to definitely increase; and the disposition of parties on the left, liberal parties and philanthropy to press for colonial improvement will be silenced by the bribe of vastly increased help of government to better their condition. The working people of the civilized world will thus largely be induced to put their political power behind Imperialism and democracy in Europe will continue to impede and nullify democracy in Asia and Africa.

In this way the modern world after this war may easily be lulled to sleep and to forget that the exclusion of something between one-fourth and one-half of the whole population of the world from participation in democratic government and socialized wealth is a direct threat to the spread of democracy and a certain promise of future war; and of war not simply as justifiable revolt on the part of colonial peoples who are increasing in intelligence and efficiency, but also of recurring wars of envy and greed because of the present inequitable distribution of colonial gain among civilised nations.

Moreover, the continuation of vested interest in the theory of racial inferiority and the dislike of minorities of any sort will be encouraged but failure to face the problem of the future of colonies.

I appeal to you as representatives of a minority which in this war has suffered more gravely than any other, not only to sympathize with this vaster minoirty but that you consider the colonial problem as an integral part of your own problem of emancipation and justice. The problem of those hundreds of millions of people on whom the world has walked with careless and insolent feet.

THE AMERICAN NEGRO AND THE LABOR MOVEMENT

W. E. B. DU BOIS

IT IS TO BE REMEMBERED THAT THE FIRST GROUP OF PERSONS WHO CAME TO AMERICA SPECIFICALLY AS WORKERS WERE NEGROES. || THE EARLIEST NEGROES ~~LIKE THE WHITES~~ WERE ADVENTURERS, SOLDIERS AND SERVANTS. || BUT ABOUT THE MIDDLE OF THE SIXTEENTH CENTURY THERE BEGAN TO BE ORGANIZED TRADE TO TRANSPORT LABOR FROM AFRICA TO AMERICA, SO AS TO UNDERTAKE THE HARD MANUAL TOIL OF PREPARING A NEW LAND FOR AGRICULTURE AND LIVING.

BRITISH MERCHANTS ORGANIZED THIS TRADE AND IMPORTED SOME 25,000 SLAVES A YEAR BETWEEN ~~1698~~ 1700 and 1770. || THEN THE IMPORTATION DWINDLED BUT AFTERWARDS AROSE TO 30,000 A YEAR. || MOST OF THESE SLAVES WENT TO THE WEST INDIES, BUT IN THE 18th CENTURY THE PROPORTION COMING TO THE CONTINENT AND THE COLONIES WHICH AFTERWARD BECAME THE UNITED STATES INCREASED, SO THAT 20,000 A YEAR WERE IMPORTED DURING THE EARLY PART OF THE 18th CENTURY AND AFTER THAT UP UNTIL THE

Some negroes are sorry to remember this; they would be freedmen if they had come as Lords, or Killers or Princes. But the truth is they came as Workers

REVOLUTION BETWEEN 40,000 to 100,000 A YEAR. || IN 1714 THERE WERE 60,000 NEGROES IN THE CONFINES OF THE PRESENT UNITED STATES, AND NEARLY 300,000 IN 1750. || THE FIRST CENSUS SHOWED 700,000 NEGROES IN THE UNITED STATES. which led us to hold it self-evident that all men are equal

THE HARD LABOR NECESSARY FOR CLEARING THE AMERICAN WILDERNESS AND MAKING THIS CONTINENT AVAILABLE FOR SETTLERS AND DEVELOPMENT OF CIVILIZATION ~~WAS FURNISHED~~ FORCED EQUALITY for we imported NOT SIMPLY BLACK SLAVES, BUT ALSO WHITE. || THE WHITE SLAVES WERE SEIZED IN THE SLUMS OF EUROPEAN CITIES LIKE LONDON, OR TAKEN FROM JAILS AND WORKHOUSES: IN MANY CASES IRISH AND GERMAN PEASANTS WERE FORCIBALY TRANSPORTED. || MOST OF THESE WERE NOMINALLY UNDER CONTRACT TO WORK FOR A TERM OF YEARS, ~~AFTER WHICH THEY WERE TO BE FREED~~: || BUT THERE WERE MANY CASES IN WHICH FREEDOM DID NOT COME AND ~~THESE~~ MANY INDENTURED SERVANTS AS THEY WERE CALLED SERVED FOR LIFE. || THERE ~~WAS~~ WERE HOWEVER NATURAL LIMITATIONS ON THE NUMBER OF WHITE LABORERS WHO THUS COULD BE SEIZED DUE TO THE DEMAND FOR LABOR IN EUROPE. Feudal lords fought to keep serfs home; and trade guilds protected apprentices ||

GRADUALLY THE METHODS OF RECRUITING LABOR CHANGED. // A ~~THE~~ MASS OF UNSKILLED AGRICULTURAL LABOR WAS NEEDED TO RAISE SUGAR, TOBACCO AND COTTON WHICH BECAME MONEY CROPS IN WIDE DEMAND. // FOR THIS LONG-TERM LABOR AT THE LOWEST COST WAS IN DEMAND AND NEGRO LABOR WAS THE BEST INVESTMENT. // THE AFRICAN SLAVE TRADE WAS THEN SYSTEMATIZED. // THE NEGROES SEIZED AT FIRST WERE PRISONERS OF WAR, TAKEN BY CERTAIN POWERFUL TRIBES AND SOLD TO WHITE TRADERS. // THE TRADERS WERE GRANTED LANDS OR FACTORYS AS THEY WERE CALLED ON THE AFRICAN COAST AND TRADED THROUGH THESE WAR-LIKE TRIBES WITH THE INTERIOR. // FINALLY ~~HOWEVER~~ AS THE ~~SIZE OF THE~~ TRADE GREW ON ACCOUNT OF THE DEMAND IN AMERICA SLAVE-RAIDS TOOK THE PLACE OF TRIBAL WARS AND A SLAVE TRADE BEGAN WHICH IT IS ESTIMATED COST THE AFRICAN CONTINENT IN THE 18th and 19th CENTURIES, PERHAPS A HUNDRED MILLION PERSONS. THIS EXPLAINS AFRICAN HISTORY, SINCE 1800

THE LEGISLATION COVERING THIS LABOR IN THE UNITED STATES MADE AT FIRST NO DISTINCTION BETWEEN WHITES AND BLACKS. // BOTH WERE CALLED SERVANTS AND NOT SLAVES AND SOME BLACKS, ~~AS WELL AS MANY WHITES~~, BECAME FREE, VOTERS AND LANDHOLDERS. // BUT NATURALLY DISTINCTION DID EVENTURALLY ARISE, BECAUSE THE BLACKS ~~SERVED~~ WERE HELD FOR LIFE

~~AND THE WHITES INCREASINGLY FOR A LIMITED TERM OF YEARS~~, WHICH MADE THE BLACK SERVANTS A BETTER INVESTMENT.

THERE WAS ANOTHER REASON, BECAUSE OF THE BACKGROUND OF THESE TWO SETS OF LABORERS, THE BLACKS WERE BETTER ADAPTED TO THE PLANTATION SYSTEM WHILE THE WHITES IN EARLIER DAYS ~~WAS~~ WERE FOR THE MOST PART CASUAL WORKERS, VAGABONDS, NOT USED TO REGULAR ~~WEEK~~ TOIL. // LATER THE CHARACTER OF WHITE IMMIGRANTS ~~CONSISTED OF MOSTLY~~ CHANGED TO FARMERS AND ARTISANS SEEKING THE OPPORTUNITIES OF FREE LAND. // THE BLACKS ON THE OTHER HAND CAME OUT OF THE CLAN SYSTEM OF AFRICA, WHICH MEANT THAT THEY WERE PART OF AN ORGANIZATION, AN ORGANIZATION WHICH THROUGH THE FAMILY DISTRIBUTED THE WORK OF ITS DIFFERENT MEMBERS ~~SO THAT THEY BECAME~~ AS IF THEY WERE MEN, HUNTERS, WARRIORS OR SKILLED WORKERS // ~~AND~~ OR IF THEY WERE WOMEN, AGRICULTURAL WORKERS AND HOUSEKEEPERS. // IN THIS WAY THEY WERE USED TO BEING ASSIGNED TO WORK AND TO WORKING IN GROUPS. // ON THE OTHER HAND, THEY HAD OF COURSE IN AFRICA WIDE SOCIAL PROTECTION. THERE COULD BE NO POVERTY IN THE AFRICAN TRIBE, NO UNEMPLOYMENT: THERE COULD BE

NO LACK OF SUPPORT DURING OLD AGE, AND MARRIAGE COULD TAKE PLACE EARLY BECAUSE THE CARRYING ON OF A FAMILY WAS NO ~~EXTRA RESPONSIBILITY~~ additional burden. IN ADDITION TO THAT THERE COULD BE NO PROSTITUTION, BECAUSE ALWAYS THE WOMAN WAS A WIFE. IF HER HUSBAND DIED SHE BECAME ONE OF THE WIVES OF THE ELDER BROTHER, AND WAS STILL PROTECTED AND supported ~~RECEIVED ENOUGH TO LIVE ON~~.

WHEN NOW THESE AFRICANS WERE TRANSPORTED TO THE PLANTATIONS OF THE WEST INDIES, THERE ~~SOON~~ AROSE A PLANTATION SYSTEM WHICH RESEMBLED IN SOME RESPECTS THE WORKING ORGANIZATION OF THE AFRICAN TRIBES. THE MEN BECAME THE PLANTATION WORKERS WITH ASSIGNED TASKS AND WHILE THE TASKS WERE LONGER AND HARDER THAN AT HOME THEY WERE USUALLY UNDER THEIR NEGRO BOSSES. THEY HAD A CERTAIN AMOUNT OF LEISURE, WITH GROUND FOR GARDENS ASSIGNED TO THEM. OF COURSE, AS THE SLAVERY SYSTEM DEVELOPED THE TASKS BECAME HARDER AND HARDER AND THE RESEMBLANCE TO THE ANCESTRAL CUSTOM FURTHER AND FURTHER AFIELD. But those customs made the start easy

36-10-89

ALSO TRADE FROM THE EARLIEST DAYS. THE AFRICANS WERE BORN TRADERS. THE CAPITAL WAS FURNISHED BY THE CHIEF, THE TRADING DONE BY INDIVIDUALS AND THE RETURNS WENT ENTIRELY TO THE FAMILY AND CLAN. AS GRADUALLY IN THE WEST INDIES AND IN THE UNITED STATES THE SLAVE SYSTEM BECAME COMMERCIALIZED AND THE BASIS OF A NEW CAPITALISM AND WORLD TRADE. CONDITIONS OF WORK ON THE PLANTATIONS BECAME UNBEARABLE AND THE SLAVES REVOLTED. FROM 1500 to 1900 THE SLAVE REVOLTS INCREASED IN FREQUENCY AND SEVERITY UNTIL IN 1790 THE SLAVES OF HAITI, UNDER TOUSSAINT DROVE OUT ENGLISH, FRENCH AND SPANISH, TROOPS, FORCED NAPOLEON TO SELL LOUISIANA AND THE MIDDLE WEST TO THE UNITED STATES AND FOUNDED AN INDEPENDENT STATE.

IN THE UNITED STATES ON THE OTHER HAND, THE REVOLTS ~~THROUGH FREQUENT~~, WERE REPLACED BY A NEW TECHNIQUE, THE RUN-A-WAY.

IN THE NORTH THE NUMBER OF BLACK SLAVES WAS NEVER LARGE, CHIEFLY BECAUSE THERE WAS NO ~~PLANTATION SYSTEM TO MAKE THEIR LABOR PROFITABLE~~. WHEN THEREFORE MONEY CROP

THE SLAVES/ HELPED FIGHT FOR Colonial FREEDOM/ AGAINST GREAT BRITAIN,/ IN RETURN THEY WERE FREED/ AND BECAME SLOWLY RECOGNIZED AS CITIZENS.// BUT THEY, ~~WERE INTERESTED IN~~ SUFFERED FROM THE CONTINUED SLAVERY/ OF THEIR SOUTHERN FELLOWS/ ~~IN SLAVERY~~/ AND HELPED THEM IN EVERY WAY/ TO ESCAPE NORTH.// THIS LOSS OF CAPITAL INVESTMENT/ IN SLAVES/ BECAME SO GREAT/ THAT IT WAS ONE OF THE MAIN CAUSES/ OF THE CIVIL WAR IN 1861.

THE FREE NEGROES OF THE NORTH/ AND THEIR RUNAWAY FELLOWS/ FROM THE SOUTH BECAME LEADERS/ IN THE FIGHT AGAINST SLAVERY.// THE FUGITIVE SLAVES WENT TO THE SWAMPS/ AND ~~INTERMARRIED~~ WITH THE INDIANS.// THEY CAME NORTH ALONG THE APPALACHIAN MOUNTAINS/ AND THROUGH THE MISSISSIPPI VALLEY// AND THE FREE NEGROES/ IN THE NORTH/ TOGETHER WITH WHITE FRIENDS/ ORGANIZED underground WAYS/ IN WHICH THEY WENT FURTHER NORTH/ EVEN TO CANADA.// DURING THE ABOLITION AGITATION/ IT WAS THESE NEGROES,/ EITHER THOSE BORN FREE/ OR THOSE WHO HAD RUN AWAY/ FROM SLAVERY/ WHO BECAME AMONG THE CHIEF ~~ADVOCATES/ AND~~ LEADERS/ EXAMPLES AND SPEAKERS/ AGAINST SLAVERY.// SUCH A ONE WAS FREDERICK DOUGLAS,/ WHO BECAME/ NOT ONLY A GREAT NEGRO LEADER/ BUT A GREAT AMERICAN/ who in his travels abroad ~~AND DID A GREAT DEAL~~ JOINED O'Connell FOR THE UPLIFT OF THE IRISH/ IN IRELAND/ AND made THE WORKING

IN ADDITION TO THAT/ CAME CONTROVERSY OF THE WHITE WORKERS,/ WHO WERE UNABLE TO ENDURE/ THE COMPETITION OF SLAVES/ AND THE ENCROACHMENT OF SLAVEHOLDERS/ UPON THE FREE LAND OUTWEST.// WHEN IN THE EARLY 19th CENTURY,/ THERE CAME INCREASING IMMIGRATION/ OF WHITE WORKERS TO IN THE UNITED STATES/ THEY FOUND THEMSELVES/ IN COMPETITION WITH NEGROES.// WITH FREE NEGROES IN THE NORTH/ AND WITH SLAVES/ ~~SKILLED/ AND AGRICULTURAL WORKERS/~~ IN THE SOUTH,/ ~~IF THEY WENT SOUTH, WHICH FEW OF THE IMMIGRANTS/ DID.~~

BY THE MIDDLE OF THE 19th CENTURY,/ THE FREE NEGROES,/ IRISH, GERMANS AND OTHERS/ WERE FIGHTING EACH OTHER/ ALL OVER THE NORTH FOR JOBS.// PERHAPS THE SITUATION IN PHILADELPHIA WOULD BEST ILLUSTRATE THIS, ALTHOUGH THERE WERE SIMILAR CLASHES IN NEW YORK, CINCINATTI AND OTHER PLACES. THERE WERE ABOUT 15,000 NEGROES IN PHILADELPHIA IN 1830, AND SOME 27,000 FOREIGN IMMIGRANTS. JUST AS TODAY THE MASS OF THE POPULATION IS FIGHTING COMMUNISM, JUST SO IN 1830 IN PHILADELPHIA THEY WERE FIGHTING ABOLITIONISTS. of their slaves IN AUGUST 1834, SEVERAL HUNDRED BOYS AND MEN ARMED WITH CLUBS, MARCHED DOWN SEVENTH STREET AND AT EIGHTH ~~STREET~~ MET A CROWD OF NEGROES ~~AND~~ RIOTING BEGAN BETWEEN FOUR AND FIVE HUNDRED PEOPLE. BUILDINGS WERE TORN DOWN AND PERSONS ASSULTED. THE NEXT NIGHT THE MOB ~~WRECKED~~ WRECKED A NEGRO CHURCH AND ~~ATTACKED~~ SOME TWENTY NEGRO DWELLINGS. BY PRE-ARRANGED PLANS ~~AND~~ LIGHTS DISTINGUISHED THE HOUSES OF THE WHITES FROM THE NEGROES THE THIRD NIGHT THE MOB TORE DOWN ANOTHER NEGRO CHURCH ~~IN ANOTHER PART OF THE CITY~~ AND THE MAYOR FINALLY INTERVENED and sharply blamed the Negroes THESE RIOTS KEPT UP ~~UNTIL~~ FROM 1840-1850 THE NUMBER OF NEGROES IN THE CITY DECREASED, AND THE FOREIGN WHITE ELEMENT GAINED ALL OF THE NEW EMPLOYMENT IN THE RAPIDLY GROWING INDUSTRIES IN THE STATE.

IN 1837, out of 10,000 NEGROES IN THE CITY, ONLY 350 WERE IN THE TRADES.

A FEW OF THE BETTER CLASS NEGROES ESCAPED INTO THE CATERING BUSINESS WHICH THEY DOMINATED FOR MANY YEARS. BUT THE MASS OF NEGROES FOR THE NEXT 20 YEARS HAD A DIFFICULT TIME IN EARNING A LIVING AND A GREAT DEAL OF THEIR ENERGY WAS PUT INTO HELPING NEGRO MIGRATION TO CANADA FIGHTING FOR THE FREEDOM OF THE SLAVES AND TRYING TO PROTECT THEMSELVES FROM KIDNAPPING AND SALE TO THE SOUTH AS SLAVES UNDER THE FUGITIVE SLAVE ACT OF 1850.

IN THE NORTH THE UNION MOVEMENT AMONG WHITES HAD BEGUN EVEN IN COLONIAL TIMES AND SLOWLY SPREAD DURING THE 30'S and 40's. AT FIRST THEY WERE INCLINED TO OPPOSE SLAVERY. BUT LATER egged on by employers + slave owners THEY LET THE QUESTION ALONE OR EVEN ASSENTED TO THE SLAVERY OF BLACKS BECAUSE THE ABOLITIONISTS WERE SO HATED BY CAPITALISTS WHO PERSUADED WHITE WORKERS THAT THE BLACKS WERE A DIFFERENT KIND OF HUMAN BEING AND ANYWAY AS THEY SAID, THE ~~SLAVERY~~ problems OF WHITE LABOR WAS A MUCH MORE PRESSING PROBLEM. and had nothing to do with Negro problems. Then war came and they learned better.

CIVIL WAR ~~ENSUED~~ WHICH BEGAN NOT TO ABOLISH SLAVERY BUT TO CONTAIN THE SLAVE SYSTEM WITHIN CERTAIN BOUNDS, SO THAT THE SOIL OF THE WEST WOULD BE LEFT FREE, AND THE WHITE WORKERS OF THE NORTH WOULD NOT ~~HAVE TO~~ COME IN COMPETITION WITH SLAVE LABOR. // It was called ~~ALSO IT WAS~~ A WAR TO PRESERVE THE UNION ~~OF THE~~ MARKET FOR NORTHERN MANUFACTURE AND TRADE. // THE PART THAT THE SLAVES PLAYED IN THIS WAR HAS BEEN WIDELY MISUNDERSTOOD. // THEY DID NOT CONTINUE AS DOCILE WORKERS WHILE THEIR MASTERS WERE IN THE FIELD FIGHTING FOR THEIR CONTINUED SLAVERY. // ON THE CONTRARY THEY STAGED ~~WHAT~~ A GENERAL STRIKE, BY DESERTING TO THE NORTHERN ARMIES. // THAT IS AS THE NORTHERN ARMIES PENETRATED THE SOUTH, THE WORKERS LEFT THE PLANTATIONS AND ~~WENT~~ TO THE NORTHERN CAMPS. // THE NUMBER REACHED EVEN THE FIRST YEAR OF THE WAR INTO THE HUNDREDS OF THOUSANDS, // ~~AND FINALLY THE INCREASE OF THESE FUGITIVES AND THEIR EMPLOYMENT AS LABORERS FOR THE ARMY~~, INFORMERS AND AT LAST AS SOLDIERS MADE THE OUTCOME OF THE WAR INEVITABLE. // IF IT WAS POSSIBLE TO HAVE 200,000 BLACK SOLDIERS ARMED AND EFFECTIVE THERE WAS NO REASON WHY THERE SHOULD NOT BE A MILLION BLACK SOLDIERS ~~IN THE WAR~~. // AND IT WAS ~~FOR~~ THAT REASON MORE THAN ANY OTHER THAT LED TO THE SURRENDER OF THE SOUTH. // THEN HOWEVER CAME THE QUESTION AS TO WHAT WAS TO BE DONE WITH THE EMANCIPATED SLAVES?

THE SOUTHERN WHITES, AFTER EMANCIPATION, WANTED TO IMPROVE THEIR SITUATION BY TAKING THE PLACE OF SLAVES IN SKILLED WORK AND RETURNING THE SLAVES AS SERFS TO THE FORMER MASTERS. // THIS HOWEVER WAS FRUSTRATED BY THE ATTEMPT TO ENFRANCHISE THE NEGROES. // THEN FOR A TIME THE POOR WHITES AND THE EMANCIPATED NEGROES BEGAN TO WORK TOGETHER. // BUT TO PREVENT THIS THE NEGROES WERE DISFRANCHISED BY A COMBINATION OF NORTHERN INDUSTRY AND SOUTHERN LANDHOLDERS, SO THAT THEY BECAME WORKERS WITHOUT A VOTE AND CONSEQUENTLY COULD NOT COMETE WITH THE WHITE WORKERS WHO HAD THE VOTE.

THIS UNION OF BLACK AND WHITE LABOR NEVER GOT A REAL START. FIRST, BECAUSE BLACK LEADERSHIP STILL TENDED TOWARD THE IDEALS OF THE PETTY BOURGEOIS

THE South/wanted them/returned to slavery/under another name/ and with some few civic rights/ but no vote.// The North wanted/to get the Negro back to work/quickly/ so as to raise cotton/for the Mills/ While Southern labor/ wanted the best jobs/which Negroes had dominated/ as slaves; they hoped the Negroes would die out/or emigrate// White Northern labor resisted/ They did not want/to work beside Negroes, but they were building a labor movement.

Then the unexpected happened/ as it usually does/ The Southern planters/ over played their hand/ with increased political power/ due to enfranchisement/ they demanded/ 1. Lower tariffs/2 Scaling of public debt/3 no votes for Negroes.// The western farmers agreed!! The Northern manufacturers and merchants/killed this program by enfranchising the freedmen//

12B The Negro + his friends/ wanted to supplement this/ by Federal education/and free Land// This the North denied// The Negro voter/ ~~the~~ tried to socialize the South/by ~~federal~~ state/political effort/for free education/ and ~~division~~ of Land/. The planters retorted/with mobs + lynching// The poor white workers/ were induced to join them/by a campaign of race hate// The planters offered compromise// no lowering of the tariff;// no scaling of National debt;// disfranchisement of the Negro/ This was the Bargain of 1876.

~~AND WHITE LEADERSHIP TENDED DISTINCTLY TOWARD STRENGTHENING CAPITALISM. THE FINAL~~ MOVE WHICH REARRANGED ALL THESE COMBINATIONS AND LED TO THE CATASTROPHE OF 1876, WAS A COMBINATION OF PLANTERS AND POOR WHITES IN DEFIANCE OF THEIR ECONOMIC INTERESTS AND WITH THE USE OF LAWLESS MURDER AND OPEN INTIMIDATION. IT WAS A COMBINATION THAT COULD ONLY HAVE BEEN STOPPED BY GOVERNMENT FORCE. AND THE ARMY WHICH WAS THE AGENT OF THE FEDERAL GOVERNMENT WAS SUSTAINED IN THE SOUTH BY THE ORGANIZED CAPITAL OF THE NORTH. ALL THAT WAS NECESSARY THEN WAS TO SATISFY NORTHERN INDUSTRY THAT THE NEW COMBINATION IN THE SOUTH WAS ESSENTIALLY A COMBINATION WHICH AIMED AT CAPITALISTIC EXPLOITATION ON CONVENTIONAL TERMS. THE RESULT WAS THE WITHDRAWAL OF MILITARY SUPPORT AND THE REVOLUTIONARY SUPPRESSION NOT ONLY OF NEGRO SUFFRAGE BUT OF THE ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT OF NEGRO AND WHITE LABOR.

IT WAS NOT UNTIL AFTER ~~THE PERIOD~~ WARD ~~WHICH THIS BOOK TREATS~~ THAT WHITE LABOR IN THE SOUTH BEGAN TO REALIZE THAT THEY HAD LOST A GREAT OPPORTUNITY. THAT WHEN THEY UNITED TO DISFRANCHISE THE BLACK LABORER THEY HAD CUT THE VOTING POWER OF

THE LABORING CLASS IN TWO. WHITE LABOR Later IN THE POPULIST MOVEMENT OF THE EIGHTIES TRIED TO REALIGN THE ECONOMIC WAR-FARE IN THE SOUTH AND BRING WORKERS OF ALL COLORS INTO UNITED OPPOSITION TO THE EMPLOYER. BUT THEY FOUND THAT THE POWER WHICH THEY HAD PUT IN THE HANDS OF THE EMPLOYERS IN 1876 SO DOMINATED POLITICAL LIFE THAT FREE AND HONEST EXPRESSION OF PUBLIC WILL AT THE BALLOT-BOX WAS IMPOSSIBLE IN THE SOUTH, EVEN FOR WHITE MEN. THEY REALIZED THAT IT WAS NOT SIMPLY THE NEGRO WHO HAD BEEN DISFRANCHISED IN 1876, IT WAS THE WHITE LABORER AS WELL. THE SOUTH HAS SINCE BECOME ONE OF THE GREATEST CENTERS FOR EXPLOITATION OF LABOR IN THE WORLD, WITH NO EFFECTIVE LABOR MOVEMENT AND LABOR SUFFERED NOT ONLY IN THE SOUTH BUT THROUGHOUT THE COUNTRY AND THE WORLD OVER.

THE SOUTH, AFTER THE WAR PRESENTED THE GREATEST OPPORTUNITY FOR A REAL NATIONAL LABOR MOVEMENT WHICH THE NATION EVER SAW OR IS LIKELY TO SEE FOR MANY DECADES. YET THE LABOR MOVEMENT, WITH BUT FEW EXCEPTIONS, NEVER REALIZED

THE SITUATION. // IT NEVER HAD THE INTELLIGENCE OR KNOWLEDGE, AS A WHOLE TO SEE IN BLACK SLAVERY AND RECONSTRUCTION, THE KERNEL AND MEANING OF THE LABOR MOVEMENT IN THE UNITED STATES.

THE NATIONAL LABOR UNION OF WORKERS WAS ORGANIZED IN BALTIMORE AUGUST 20, 1866. THERE WERE 60 DELEGATES AND ON THEIR BANNER WAS INSCRIBED "WELCOME TO THE SONS OF TOIL FROM THE NORTH, EAST, SOUTH AND WEST." // HOWEVER THIS UNION TOOK NO ACTION AS TO NEGROES. // IT ADMITTED THAT THE NEGRO WORKER HAD BEEN NEGLECTED AND THAT HIS COOPERAATION MUST BE SECURED ~~OTHERWISE, NEGROES WOULD ACT AS SCABS~~. THERE SHOULD BE NO DISTINCTION AS TO RACE OR NATIONALITY.

IN THE SECOND MEETING IN CHICAGO IN 1867, THE NEGRO PROBLEM HAD TO BE DEBATED BUT THEY FOUND, AS THEY COMPLAINED "SO MUCH MYSTERY AND DIVERSITY OF OPINION" AMONG THEIR MEMBERS THAT IT WAS INEXPEDITNT TO TAKE ACTION, BUT THEIR CONSTITUTION INVITED ALL LABOR TO JOIN. // IN 1868, A MEETING IN NEW YORK, THERE WAS NO MENTION OF NEGROES // BUT IN 1869 AT PHILADELPHIA, NINE NEGROES APPEARED REPRESENTING SEPARATE NEGRO UNIONS AND ORGANIZATIONS. // THIS POINTED A WAY OUT THROUGH SEPARATE UNIONS, AND THE NATIONAL LABOR UNION DECLARING THAT IT RECOGNIZED NEITHER COLOR NOR SEX ASKED THE COLORED LABORERS TO FORM THEIR OWN ORGANIZATIONS AND SEND DELEGATES TO THE NEXT CONFERENCE.

THIS SEPARATION OF WHITES AND BLACKS IN UNION LABOR WAS HELPED BY THE FACT THAT FOR A LONG TIME FREE NEGROES AND IMMIGRANTS FROM EUROPE ~~ESPECIALLY FROM IRELAND~~ HAD BEEN CLASHING IN THEIR COMPETITION FOR JOBS IN NORTHERN CITIES ~~LIKE PHILADELPHIA CINCINNATI AND NEW YORK~~.

IN NEW YOUR THESE RIOTS CULMINATED IN THE CELEBRATED DRAFT RIOT OF 1863 HERE THE ANGER OF THE WORKING CLASS AT THE DRAFT IN WAR SPENT ITSELF UPON THE NEGRO POPULATION. // ~~SO THAT~~ THUS AFTER EMANCIPATION AND DURING RECONSTRUCTION THERE WERE TWO LABOR MOVEMENTS IN AMERICA. // THE MAIN MOVEMENT OF THE WHITE WORKERS AND THE abortive ATTEMPT OF THE COLORED WORKERS ~~TO ORGANIZE~~. // PRACTICALLY ALL OF THE SKILLED WORK IN THE SOUTH BEFORE THE WAR HAD BEEN DONE BY NEGROES AND EVEN TO THIS DAY

SOME OF THE EXTRAORDINARILY FINE CRAFTSMAN SHIP IN BUILDING, IRON WORK CAN BE SEEN IN CHARLESTON AND NEW ORLEANS.

BUT AS INDUSTRY BECAME ORGANIZED AND NEW METHODS CAME INTO USE, THE NEGRO FOUND HIMSELF PUSHED OUT BECAUSE HE DID NOT KNOW THE NEW TECHNIQUE AND BECAUSE HE WAS NOT A MEMBER OF THE UNION. // ON THE OTHER HAND, HE ~~BECAME~~ STUCK TO HIS POLITICAL ~~ORGANIZATION~~ PROGRAM SO THAT THE NEGRO LABOR MOVEMENT BECAME A POLITICAL MOVEMENT IN THE SOUTH BY WHICH THE NEGROES ~~TRIED TO ARRANGE FOR THE CUTTING UP OF THE LARGE PLANTATIONS INTO SMALL HOLDINGS AND~~ 1866-1876 PUT THROUGH A CONSIDERABLE SOCIAL LEGISLATION FOR UPLIFT. // THIS HOWEVER, ALIENATED THEM FROM THE NORTHERN LABOR MOVEMENT WHICH BECAME INCREASINGLY A MOVEMENT FOR THE ORGANIZATION OF SKILLED WORKERS SO AS TO RAISE WAGES AND TO MAKE ~~THEM~~ LABOR A PART OF THE BOURGEOIS OR IN PARTNERSHIP WITH THE MANAGERS OF THE INDUSTRY. // AFTER THE NEGRO HAD BEEN DISFRANCHISED IN 1876, THERE WAS NO REASON WHY THE NORTHERN LABOR MOVEMENT SHOULD MAKE GREAT EFFORT FOR ~~HIS~~ NEGRO ORGANIZATION OR HELP. // THEY DID NOT SEE IN HIM A COMPETITIOR IN SKILL, including schools + universal male suffrage

AND DID NOT REALIZE THE PART HE ~~MIGHT~~ MUST PLAY AS SCAB. IN MASS INDUSTRY

THE WHITE LABOR MOVEMENT FROM 1868 to 1873 BECAME INCREASINGLY PETTY BOURGEOIS AND TURNED ~~THEIR~~ ITS BACKS ON BLACK LABOR. // FARMERS ORGANIZED THE GRANGE, BUT NOT FOR BLACK FOLK, NOR FOR THE STRUGGLING ~~PET SOCIETIES~~ AMONG THE FREEDMEN, // ~~AND THE KNIGHTS OF LABOR DID NOT TURN THEIR ATTENTIONS TO NEGROES UNTIL AFTER 1878.~~ TO REGAIN THE VOTE

THE LABOR LEADERS THEREFORE WENT INTO THE LABOR WAR ABOUT 1877, HAVING ALMOST DISARMED THEMSELVES OF THE POWER WHICH UNIVERSAL SUFFRAGE OUGHT TO HAVE GIVEN THEM. // WHEN THEREFORE NORTHERN INDUSTRIES WITHDREW MILITARY SUPPORT IN THE SOUTH AND REFUSED TO STAND BEHIND THE DICTATORSHIP OF LABOR, BLACK AND WHITE, THERE WAS NO OPPOSITION FROM THE NORTHERN WHITE WORKER. // BLACK LABOR THEREFORE BEGAN TO ALINE ITSELF WITH THE REPUBLICAN PARTY WHICH HAD GIVEN THE BLACK FOLK THE RIGHT TO VOTE. // WHILE THE WHITE LABOR PARTY ALIGNED WITH THE DEMOCRATS BECAUSE OF THEIR OPPOSITION TO THE ANTI-FOREIGN "KNOW NOGHING MOVEMENT" AND BECAUSE OF ITS OPPOSITOION TO THE ENFRANCHISEMENT OF BLACK LABOR. // THUS WHITE AND BLACK

LABOR/ LANDED IN OPPOSITE CAMPS.

CONSEQUENTLY/ WHILE THE KNIGHTS OF LABOR/ ADMITTED A FEW NEGROES,/ THEY NEVER FACED REALLY/ THE GREAT PROBLEM OF RACE.// THE AMERICAN FEDERATION OF LABOR, ~~AT FIRST~~/ WHILE MAKING PROFESSIONS/ OF ADMITTING ALL WORKERS/ AS A MATTER OF FACT ALLOWED THEIR DIFFERENT TRADES/ TO DISCRIMINATE AGAINST THE NEGRO/ AT WILL.// IT WAS ONLY/ WHEN THE CONGRESS OF INDUSTRIAL ORGANIZATIONS/ WAS FORMED THAT THE NEGRO BE - GAN TO BE SOLICITED/ AND TO GO INTO THE LABOR MOVEMENT.// PARTICULARLY DURING THE FIRST WORLD WAR/ A CONCERTED MIGRATION/ OF NEGRO LABOR FROM THE SOUTH,/ BROUGHT THE NEGRO/ FOR THE FIRST TIME/ INTO MASS PRODUCTION/ AND NORTHERN LABOR/ HAD TO LOSE A GOOD MANY FIGHTS LIKE THE ~~STRIKES~~ STEEL STRIKES of 1922 BEFORE THEY REALIZED/ THAT HERE was IS A COMPETITOR/ WHO HAD TO BE IN THE UNION/ OR ~~BECOME SCABS~~. the union could not win

DURING THE DEPRESSION/ NEGROES SUFFERED A GREAT DEAL/ FROM UNEMPLOYMENT/ THERE BEING 22% UNEMPLOYED/ IN 1940/ AS CONTRASTED WITH 18%/ AMONG THE WHITES.// DURING THE NEW DEAL/ NEGROES BECAME GRADUALLY/ INTEGRATED INTO INDUSTRY,/ AND

30-10-104

BETWEEN 1940-1944,/ A MILLION NEGROES ENTERED CIVILIAN JOBS/ MOVING FROM THE FARMS TO THE FACTORY.// COLORED WOMEN ESPECIALLY/ BEGAN TO LEAVE DOMESTIC SERVICE/ AND TO TAKE PART IN INDUSTRY.// SO THAT/ AT THE CLOSE OF THE FIRST WORLD WAR/ THE NEGROES EMERGED/ WITH A FOOT-HOLD IN UNSKILLED JOBS/ ~~AND INDUSTRY~~ AND DURING THE SECOND WORLD WAR/ HE NEGROES ACQUIRED A FOOT-hold IN ~~SINGLE~~ SKILLED ~~AND~~ SEMI SKILLED and some JOBS/ IN MANY INDUSTRIES/ AND A PLACE AS A common WORKER IN WIDE VARIETY OF INDUSTRIES. ~~A~~ MORE ESPECIALLY/ HE ENTERED THE LABOR UNIONS/ UNTIL HIS UNION MEMBERSHIP TODAY ~~MAY BE ESTIMATED AS~~ is in the hundred thousands

30-10-105

TURNING NOW/ FROM THE GENERAL LABOR MOVEMENT,/ LET US THINK MORE ESPECIALLY OF THE WHITE COLLAR WORKERS.// THAT IS/ OF THOSE PERSONS/ WORKING IN NATIONAL INDUSTRY/ NOT AS MANUAL LABORERS/ BUT AS HELPERS/ ALL THE WAY FROM clerks and STENOGRAPHERS TO SECRETARYS/ AND ASSISTANTS/ IN VARIOUS TYPES OF MANAGEMENT.// FROM THE BEGINNING OF COURSE,/ THE DIFFICULTY OF THE LABOR MOVEMENT/ AMONG THIS CLASS OF PEOPLE/ WAS THE QUESTION/ AS TO HOW FAR/ THEY WERE/ OR WANTED TO BE CONSIDERED/ AS PART OF

36-10-106

The Land of Labor has never honored Toil. It breeds Kings, Gamblers & Thieves

THE LABORING CLASS. // I REMEMBER AN INCIDENT IN MY OWN LIFE WHICH ILLUSTRATES THIS SUTIATION. // AS A BOY OF SIXTEEN, AFTER I HAD GRADUATED FROM HIGH SCHOOL, AND ~~WAS WAITING FOR A CHANCE TO GO~~ wanted a job before I could TO COLLEGE, I ~~BECAME TIME-KEEPER~~ was employed ON AN INDUSTRIAL ENTERPRISE IN MY NATIVE TOWN OF WESTERN MASSACHUSETTS. // A LOCAL GIRL, WIDOW OF ONE OF THE MEN WHO BY VARIOUS WAYS HAD HELPED TO BUILD THE UNION PACIFIC RAILROAD AND MAKE A FEW MILLIONS IN THE PROJECT, CAME HOME AND DETERMINED TO ERECT A MANSION ON ONE OF OUR green MEDOWS OUT OF THE BEAUTIFUL BLUE STONE OF OUR VALLEY.

I had A GREAT UNCLE WHO HAD BEEN A SERVANT IN THAT FAMILY TWO OR THREE GENERATIONS BEFORE my time ~~ME~~ AND SO I was given a temporary job because of forgotten wages AS TIMEKEEPER TO ACCUMULATE A LITTLE MONEY BEFORE I WENT TO COLLEGE. // I SAW THE STONE CUTTING, MASONERY, CARPENTRY AND BUILDING FROM A LITTLE DESK IN THE MANAGERS OFFICE AND FELT MYSELF DISTINCTLY A PART OF THE CAPITALIST MANAGEMENT. // I RECEIVED WHAT WAS TO ME AT THE TIME THE FABULOUS WAGE OF A DOLLAR A DAY, AND THE TASK OF KEEPING THE WORKERS TIME AND GIVING THEM NOTICE OF DISMISSAL.

IT WAS A JOB IN WHICH I TOOK A GREAT DEAL OF PRIDE. // ~~THERE WAS~~ I saw NOTHING UNUSUAL ABOUT IT OR UNNATURAL. // THE WORKERS, ALTHOUGH SOME OF THEM HAD GREAT SKILL EVEN ARTISTIC ABILITY, HAD ~~APPARENTLY~~ NO TRADE UNION // ~~AT ANY RATE I NEVER SAW ANY ORGANIZATION AMONG THEM~~. THEY WERE DISCHARGED SUMMARILY WITHOUT NOTICE AND ~~WHILE THEIR CONDITIONS WERE NOT TOO BAD, NEVERTHELESS~~ THEY WORKED TEN HOURS A DAY ~~AND~~ THERE WAS NO METHOD BY WHICH THEY COULD COMPLAIN OR SUGGEST.

AS I LOOK BACK UPON THE SITUATION, I NOT ONLY SEE UNORGANIZED LABORERS BUT I REMEMBER THAT IN OUR TOWN OR SCHOOLS ANY ORGANIZATION IN THE OFFICE WAS regarded in school AS NOTHING LESS THAN HERESEY // ORGANIZATION even OF COMMON LABOR WAS TAUGHT AS FUTILE SINCE WAGES DEPENDED ON SOCIAL CONDITIONS AND SOCIAL CONDITIONS DEPENDED ON THE RICH. // STRIKES WERE PERMISSABLE SO LONG AS PICKETS AND AGITATION WERE ABSENT. // BUT OFFICE WORKERS WERE A HIGHER ORDER OF HUMANITY, CLOSELY ALLIED WITH OWNERS AND INVESTORS AND DESTINED IN THE COURSE OF NATURE TO BECOME ONE OR BOTH.

~~SO~~ IN THE OUTER WORLD AS I SAW IT LATER THERE WAS THE SAME SITUATION: THAT IS THE WHITE COLLAR WORKERS CONSIDERED THEMSELVES A PART OF OWNERSHIP AND MANAGEMENT and were not for a moment willing to enter anything like a trade UNION.

THE FACT THAT THEY DID NOT GET ADQUATE WAGE, THAT THEY WERE NOT ORGANIZED TO MAKE ANY DEMANDS WAS OFFSET BY THEIR FEELING OF HIGHER STATUS TO THE HAND-WORKER. // THIS WAS CLEAR AMONG WHITE WORKERS, BUT IT became EVEN CLEARER AMONG COLORED WORKERS.

THE BOOKER WASHINGTON DOCTRINE OF NEGRO CAPITALISM as a panacea WAS INTRODUCED in 1896 AND BECAME very POPULAR ~~IN THE UNITED STATES AND THERE WAS A CHANGE~~ and indeed a shrewd opportunities UNDER white aid ~~AMONG THE~~ NEW NEGRO MERCHANTS AND EMPLOYERS FOR JOBS HITHERTO NOT OPEN TO COLORED GIRLS OF GOOD TRANING AND TO YOUNG Colored MEN WHO WERE NOT ARTISANS !! IN FACT HAMPTON AND TUSKEGEE WHICH WERE RICHLY ENDOWED TO TRAIN NEGRO ARTISANS servants TURNED OUT IN FACT, MORE TEACHERS, CLERKS Secretaries and agents ~~AND SMALL MERCHANTS~~ THEN ANYTHING ELSE. // ~~A LARGE NUMBER OF CLERKS~~ were employed then ~~STENOGRAPHERS AND MANAGER ASSISTANTS WERE EMPLOYED AMONG NEGROES, BUT THEY WERE~~ THEY DID NOT TURN OUT MANY ARTISANS BECAUSE WHITE UNONS WOULD NOT LET THEM WORK

YOUNG EDUCATED NEGROES THERE (24) - FORCE POURED INTO WHITE COLLAR WORK ~~but EMPLOYED~~ AT LOW WAGES, WITH LONG HOURS, AND BAD CONDITIONS OF WORK: AND IF THEY COMPLAINED IT WAS POINTED OUT THAT THEY COULD GET NO other work except as artisans & servants ~~JOB~~ EXCEPT WITH ~~COLORED EMPLOYERS~~ ~~MEN AND NOT~~ AS ~~THIS~~ Clerical EMPL Y ENT WAS OF HIGHER STATUS THAN THAT OF THE HAND WORKERS / IT might ~~WOULD~~ BE REWARDED ACCORDING TO THE AMERICAN IDEA, WHICH WAS THAT THE OBJECT OF A WORKER ALWAYS WAS EVENTUALLY TO BECOME AN EMPLOYER. a RICHMAN

As artisans they became objects of contempt & hatred of all unions

THIS DISTINCTION AMONG COLORED WORKERS WAS BUT ECHO OF THE SAME SITUATION AMONG WHITES. EVEN IF A NEGRO COULD GET A JOB AS CARPENTER OR STEEL WORKER ~~ALONGSIDE WHITE,~~ // IT WAS MORE DIFFICULT FOR HIM TO GET EMPLOYED AS CLERK OR STENOGRAPHER BECAUSE OF THE SOCIAL STATUS INVOLVED. // THE WHITE WORKERS WERE PROFESSIONALLY JEALOUS OF ANY INTRUSION OF COLORED WORKERS, AND IF THEY DID NOT PROTEST ON THEIR OWN ACCORD, PROTEST WAS SUGGESTED BY THE MANAGEMENT (who used the new comer as an excuse to reduce wages)

Among whites

IT THUS HAPPENED ~~THAT AS~~ NEGRO ORGANIZATIONS ~~BECAME LARGER AND MORE~~ of protest, against race discrimination ~~INFLUENTIAL, MOST OF THE BEST OF THEM~~ (THAT EVEN) REFUSED TO JOIN OR RECOGNIZE ANY UNION MOVEMENT AMONG THEIR WHITE COLLAR EMPLOYEES, and that LONG AFTER ORGANIZATION OF LABORERS of all sorts was RECOGNIZED.// THE NAACP DID NOT RECOGNIZE A UNION/ AMONG ITS STAFF WORKERS DURING THE FIRST TWENTY YEARS/ OF ITS ORGANIZATION/ AND IT WAS NOT UNTIL ABOUT 1940 THAT EFFORTS WERE MADE/ TO ORGANIZE THE STENOGRAPHERS,/ CLERKS AND LEGAL EMPLOYEES and CARRIED THROUGH FINALLY/ AFTER ~~SEVERAL~~ bitter STRUGGLES.// THERE WAS THE SAME DIFFICULTY IN THE URBAN LEAGUE. [CRISIS]

36-10-110 Was

NOW OF COURSE/ THE QUESTION FACES US TODAY/ WHAT IS THE STATUS/ SO FAR AS THE WHITE-COLLAR WORKER/ IS CONCERNED/ AND WHAT IS HIS FUTURE/ IN INDUSTRY/ AND IN LIFE/ GOING TO BE?// THIS ORGANIZATION HAS FACED/ FRONT-FORWARD/ THE PRIMARY PROBLEM OF DISCRIMINATION./ REALIZING THAT RACE DISCRIMINATION/ IS A WEAPON THAT HAS BEEN USED/ AND WILL BE USED/ TO PUT WHITE-COLLAR WORKERS/ IN RIVAL RACE GROUPS/ AND KEEP DOWN THEIR WAGES/ and/or organization FOR WHAT ARE REALLY TRIVIAL REASONS.

BUT BEYOND THIS/ AND LOOKING/ AT AN ORGANIZATION LIKE THIS/ AS A PART OF THE WORKING FORCE OF A NATION,/ WHAT IS ITS FUNCTION AND FUTURE?// FIRST OF ALL, THE ORGANIZATION MUST REALIZE/ THAT IT IS AN INTEGRAL PART OF INDUSTRY/ NOT MERELY

AN OFF-SHOOT,/ A SUBISIDIARY// BUT/ PART OF THE GENERAL ORGANIZATION a necessary of the Worlds Work/ THERE IS TODAY LITTLE TOIL/ WHICH IS MERELY MANUAL,/ and SUCH AS THERE IS/ MUST DISAPPEAR GRADUALLY INTO THE MACHINE/ AND TEST TUBE.// ALL WORK,/ AND WHITE-COLLAR WORK ESPECIALLY/ IS A COMBINATION OF MUSCLE AND BRAINS/ AND NO REAL LINE/ CAN BE DRAWN BETWEEN THE TWO.// I KNOW FOR I HAVE JUST FINISHED TYPING/ A MANUSCRIPT OF 75,000 WORDS.

WITH INDUSTRY/ ORGANIZED AS IT IS TODAY,/ THE WORK OF CLERKS/ AND ASSISTANTS/; OF STENOGRAPHERS AND SECRETARYS/ of the white collar force IS OF INTEGRAL IMPORTANCE.// WITHOUT IT/ THE ORGANIZATION/ AND USE OF the MACHINE ~~WORK~~/ WOULD BE IMPOSSIBLE.// CONSEQUENTLY WHITE COLLAR WORKERS/ MUST BE RECOGNIZED MORE AND MORE/ AS OF FUNDAMENTAL IMPORTANCE TO INDUSTRY. and to Human Life

ON THE OTHER HAND,/ IT GOES WITHOUT SAYING/ THAT THE OLD IDEA OF WHITE COLLAR WORKERS/ AS SIMPLY OCCUPYING A TEMPORARY PAUSING PLACE/ BETWEEN HAND LABOR

There are today many great men who could never survive the loss of their secretaries. What would Truman do for shrewd—

AND MANAGEMENT, BETWEEN WAGE EARNER AND ~~PROFITMAKER~~ Employer IS BOUND TO GO BY THE BOARD. THE JOB OF THE WHITE COLLAR WORKER HAS GOT TO BE RECOGNIZED AS A PERMANENT INSTITUTION IN WHICH NORMAL PERSONS CAN MAKE A LIFEWORK. IF THIS IS TRUE, The work MUST THEREFORE BE PAID ACCORDINGLY AND CONDITIONS OF WORK MUST MAKE THE GOOD LIFE POSSIBLE. A MAN SHOULD BE ABLE TO ENTER THIS CALLING as a permanent one WITH THE ASSURANCE OF ENOUGH INCOME TO LIVE WELL ~~WITH~~ on a DECENT STANDARD of life: TO BE able to marry and TO REAR A FAMILY AND TO BE SAFE IN HIS OLD AGE. and THIS OF COURSE MEANS A ~~GREAT DEAL~~ far BETTER INCOME THAN WHITE COLLAR WORKERS ARE GETTING TODAY.

IN ADDITION TO THAT IT MUST BE UNDERSTOOD THAT THE OBJECT OF WORK IS NOT NECESSARILY TO BECOME AN EMPLOYER, AS ABRAHAM LINCOLN ONCE INTIMATED, THAT THE OBJECT OF WORK OF ANYKIND IS DO WHAT MEN NEED DONE, TO HELP THE TOTAL OUTCOME OF INDUSTRY WHICH CALLS FOR ALL SORTS AND KINDS OF LABOR integrated IN ~~TO~~ COOPERATION, LABOR OF ~~THE HAND~~ muscle LABOR OF ~~THE~~ SKILL, LABOR OF THOUGHT, AND THAT THIS MUST BE RECOGNIZED.

IT IS PROBABLE IN THE FUTURE, NO MATTER WHAT YOUR GENERAL IDEAS OF INDUSTRY MAY BE, THAT THE INCOME OF THE PROFITMAKER IS GOING TO BE INCREASINGLY SMALLER AND THAT OF THE WAGE WORKER INCREASINGLY LARGER. AND WITH THAT THERE IS COMING A GREATER RECOGNITION OF THE PLACE OF DIFFERENT TYPES OF WORK AND THE INDISPENSABLE PART OF EACH IN THE WHOLE RESULT OF INDUSTRY. THIS NEW ATTITUDE HAS GOT TO BE RECOGNIZED BY ALL CLASSES IN THE COMMUNITY, NOT ONLY BY THE WHITES, BUT ALSO BY THE BLACK: NOT ONLY BY THE EMPLOYERS BUT BY THE EMPLOYEES: AND ESPECIALLY BY THOSE WHO STAND IN BETWEEN, management and toil AS THE INTERPRETERS OF THE MUSCULAR EFFORT OF THE MASS OF LABORERS TO THE THOUGHT-DIRECTION OF THE MANAGERIAL ORGANIZATION. HERE LIES THE HOPE OF WORK IN THIS WORLD, AND THE PLANNING OF INDUSTRY for the WELFARE STATE.

A F R I C A

THE FUTURE OF AFRICA IS ONE OF THE MOST IMPORTANT QUESTIONS TO BE ANSWERED AFTER THIS WAR. THE VERY SILENCE TODAY CONCERNING THAT FUTURE ON BOTH SIDES OF THE FORCES AT WAR EMPHASIZES ITS IMPORTANCE. WE MUST REMEMBER THAT IN AFRICA WE HAVE TODAY NOT ONLY THE GREATEST WORLD MINE OF UNDEVELOPED HUMAN LABOR BUT ALSO THAT MUCH OF THE RAW MATERIAL WHICH THE MODERN WORLD PARTICULARLY WANTS IS TO BE FOUND IN AFRICA MORE ABUNDANTLY THAN ANYWHERE ELSE. LET US NOTE THE LIST: PALM-OIL, COCOA, MOHOGANY, EBONY, CORK, COTTON? RUBBER, IVORY, OSTRICH FEATHERS, GOLD, COPPER, IRON, ZINK, TIN, LEAD, AND DIAMONDS, - THESE ARE THE PRESENT GIFTS OF AFRICA TO THE WORLD. OTHERS IN ABUNDANCE HIDE IN HER BOSOM. THE FIGHT FOR THE OWNERSHIP OF THESE MATERIALS AND THE DOMINATION OF THIS LABOR WAS A PRIME CAUSE OF THE PRESENT WAR.

IF THIS QUESTION IS TO BE LEFT UNSETTLED AFTER THIS WAR IT IS GOING TO BE A PRIME CAUSE OF FUTURE WARS.

WHY, THEN, ARE WE SO SILENT CONCERNING THE FATE OF SOMETHING BETWEEN 150,000,000 AND 200,000,000 HUMAN BEINGS? I PRESUME THAT THE CAUSE OF OUR INDIFFERENCE IS LARGELY PSYCOLOGICAL. IT IS THE PENALTY OF HUMAN DEGRADATION WHICH ALWAYS EXACTS PAYMENT FROM OPPRESSOR AND OPPRESSED. TODAY IT IS POSSIBLE TO IGNORE THE NEGRO BECAUSE OF A HISTORY OF DEGRADATION THE PARALLEL OF WHICH THE MODERN WORLD DOES NOT FURNISH. IN ANCIENT MEDITERRANEAN CIVILIZATION NEGRO BLOOD WAS PREDOMINANT IN MANY GREAT NATIONS AND PRESENT IN NEARLY ALL. NEGRO GENIUS AND NEGRO CIVILIZATION GAVE HERE THEIR GREAT GIFTS TO THE WORLD. IN THE EUROPEAN MIDDLE AGE WHEN AFRICA BECAME MORE OR LESS SEPARATED FROM DIRECT CONTACT WITH EUROPE NEVERTHELESS AFRICAN CULTURE FILTERED INTO EUROPE AND LEGEND AND STORY AND SONG CAME OUT OF THE DARK CONTINENT.

THERE WAS THEN NO QUESTION OF RACIAL INFERIORITY BESED UPON COLOR. BUT WHEN, BEGINNING LATE IN THE FIFTEENTH CENTURY, THE WORLD FOR FOUR HUNDRED YEARS RAPED THIS CONTINENT ON A SCALE NEVER BEFORE EQUALLED THE RESULT WAS NOT ONLY THE DEGRADATION OF AFRICA, IT WAS A MORAL DEGRADATION OF THOSE WHO WERE GUILTY AND WE ARE STILL LIVING IN THE SHADOW OF THE DEBAUCH OF THE AFRICAN SLAVE TRADE. IT COMES NATURAL FOR US TO HAVE GREAT MASSES OF UNTHOUGHT-OF MEN; TO CONCEIVE OF SOCIETY AS BUILT UPON AN UNSOCIAL MUDSILL. IT IS POSSIBLE FOR GREAT LABOR ORGANIZATIONS LIKE THE AMERICAN FEDERATION OF LABOR TO ORGANIZE THEMSELVES UPON DISTINCTLY ARISTOCRATIC LINES LEAVING OUT OF ACCOUNT AND OUT OF THOUGHT CERTAIN SO-CALLED LOWER ELEMENTS OF LABOR; IT IS EVEN POSSIBLE FOR AN ORGANIZATION LIKE THIS TO BRING IN AFRICA ONLY AS AN ACCIDENT AND AFTER-THOUGHT. THIS MENTAL ATTITUDE TOWARD AFRICA AND ITS

PROBLEMS BUILDS ITSELF UPON UNCLEAR THINKING BASED ON THE TYRANNY OF CONVENTIONAL WORDS. WHEN WE SPEAK OF MODERN AFRICAN SLAVERY WE THINK OF MODERN SLAVERY AS A SURVIVAL OF ANCIENT SLAVERY. BUT IT WAS NOT. THE CLEFT BETWEEN THE TWO WAS ABSOLUTE. MODERN AFRICAN SLAVERY WAS THE BEGINNING OF THE MODERN LABOR PROBLEM AND MUST BE LOOKED AT AND INTERPRETED FROM THAT POINT OF VIEW UNLESS WE WOULD LOSE OURSELVES IN AN ALTOGETHER FALSE ANALYSIS. MODERN WORLD COMMERCE, MODERN IMPERIALISM, THE MODERN FACTORY SYSTEM AND THE MODERN LABOR PROBLEM BEGAN WITH THE AFRICAN SLAVE TRADE. THE FIRST MODERN METHOD OF SECURING LABOR ON A WIDE COMMERCIAL SCALE AND PRIMARILY FOR PROFIT WAS INAUGURATED IN THE MIDDLE OF THE FIFTEENTH CENTURY AND IN THE COMMERCE BETWEEN AFRICA AND AMERICA. THROUGH THE SLAVE TRADE AFRICA LOST AT LEAST 100,000,000 HUMAN BEINGS WITH ALL THE ATTENDANT MISERY AND ECONOMIC AND SOCIAL DISORGANIZATION. THE SURVIVORS OF THIS WHOLESALE RAPE BECAME A GREAT

INTERNATIONAL LABORING FORCE IN AMERICA ON WHICH THE MODERN CAPITALISTIC MOVEMENT HAS BEEN BUILT AND OUT OF WHICH MODERN LABOR PROBLEMS HAVE ARISEN AND WE HAVE TRIED EVER SINCE TO KEEP THESE BLACK MEN AND THEIR DESCENDANTS AT THE BOTTOM OF THE SCALE ON THE THEORY THAT THEY WERE NOT THOROUGHLY MEN, THAT THEY CANNOT BE SELF-RESPECTING MEMBERS OF AND CONTRIBUTORS TO MODERN CULTURE - AN ASSUMPTION PURELY MODERN AND UNDREAMED OF IN ANCIENT OR MEDIEVAL DAYS.

IF, NOW, THIS SAME PSYCHOLOGY AND THIS SAME DETERMINATION TO EXPLOIT AND ENSLAVE THESE PEOPLE PASSES OVER INTO THE NEW WORLD AFTER THE WAR, WHAT CAN WE EXPECT BUT LIKEWISE PERSISTENCE OF THE IDEA THAT THERE MUST BE AN EXPLOITED CLASS AT THE BOTTOM OF CIVILIZATION AND, ON THE OTHER HAND, AN ENDEAVOR, BY ENDLESS WAR AND RAPINE, FUTILE AT FIRST, BUT IN THE END BOUND TO BE TRIUMPHANT BY WHICH THESE MILLIONS

OF PEOPLE WILL GAIN THEIR RIGHTS TO THINK AND ACT. NO MODERN WORLD CAN DREAM OF HOLDING 200,000,000 OF PEOPLE IN PERMANENT SLAVERY EVEN THOUGH THEY BE BLACK. IF IT TRIES THE COST WILL BE TERRIBLE. IF WE WOULD AVOID THIS COST THEN WE MUST BEGIN THE FREEING OF AFRICA THROUGH THIS WAR.

THERE IS AN UNSUAL OPPORTUNITY TO DO THIS. AFRICA IS TODAY HELD BY NEGRO TROOPS TRAINED UNDER EUROPEAN WHITE OFFICERS. THESE NEGRO TROOPS HAVE SAVED FRANCE. THEY HAVE CONQUERED GERMAN AFRICA. THEY AND THEIR AMERICAN NEGRO BROTHERS ARE HELPING TO SAVE BELGIUM. IT WOULD BE THE LEAST THAT EUROPE COULD DO IN RETURN AND SOME FAINT REPARATION FOR THE TERRIBLE WORLD HISTORY BETWEEN 1441 and 1861 TO SEE THAT A GREAT FREE CENTRAL AFRICAN STATE IS ERECTED OUT OF GERMAN EAST AFRICA AND THE BELGIAN CONGO. SURELY AFTER BELGIUM HAS SUFFERED

ALMOST AS MUCH FROM GERMANY AS AFRICA HAS SUFFERED FROM HER SHE OUGHT TO BE WILLING TO GIVE UP THE CONGO TO THIS END; AND IT WOULD BE RIGHT THAT ENGLAND SHOULD REFRAIN FROM TAKING GERMAN EAST AFRICA AS WELL AS REFRAIN FROM HANDING IT BACK. OUT OF THIS STATE WE COULD MAKE A GREAT MODERN EFFORT TO RESTORE THE ANCIENT EFFICIENCY AND OF THE LAND THAT GAVE THE IRON AGE TO ALL THE WORLD, AND WHO FOR AGES LED IN AGRICULTURE, WEAVING, METAL WORKING, AND THE TRAFFIC OF THE MARKET PLACE. HERE IS A CHANCE SUCH AS THE WORLD HAS NOT SEEN SINCE THE FIFTEENTH CENTURY. LIBERIA AND HAITI WERE NEVER GIVEN A SINCERE CHANCE AND WERE FROM FIRST TO LAST HARASSED AS ONLY MODERN CAPITALISM CAN HARASS LITTLE AND HATED NATIONS. THE EFFORT OF SUCH A NEW AND SINCERE START IN AFRICA WOULD BE TREMENDOUS. ITS FIRST EFFECT WOULD BE UPON THE MILLIONS OF AFRICA AND THEN UPON THEIR DESCENDANTS THROUGHOUT THE WORLD. IN THE WEST INDIES AND IN SOUTH AMERICA ARE SOME 30,000,000 OF MEN OF NEGRO DESCENT. THEY HAVE GIVEN LITERATURE AND FREEDOM TO BRAZIL, THEY HAVE GIVEN INDUSTRY AND ROMANCE TO THE WEST INDIES AND THEY HAVE GIVEN TO NORTH AMERICA ART AND MUSIC AND HUMAN SENSIBILITY. IN SOUTH AMERICA THEY MAY LOSE THEMSELVES IN THE BLOOD OF OTHER PEOPLE BUT IN THE WEST INDIES AND NORTH AMERICA THEY ARE STRIVING FOR SELF-EXPRESSION AND THEY NEED ONLY SUCH ENCOURAGEMENT AS JUST TREATMENT OF THEIR FATHERLAND AND ITS SPIRITUAL EFFECT ON THE WHOLE WORLD WOULD GIVE. I TRUST, THEREFORE, THAT AMONG THE NEW NATIONS THAT ARE TO START FORTH AFTER THIS WAR WILL BE A NEW AFRICA AND A NEW BEGINNING OF CULTURE FOR THE NEGRO RACE.

Many friends of American Negroes would say that we tend to emphasize our problem of race above that of the more basic problems of labor, poverty and ignorance. But to this we would reply that our problems are so fundamentally human that they often underlay the broader but more abstract social problems. Nothing illustrates this better than the history of America where development of work, income and education have had the greatest field for expansion the world has ever known; and yet continually have been hindered from the progress they might have made by problems of race and color which have been and still form the central thread of our history.

Despite desperate efforts to rewrite and distort this history, a few of us must recall that in 1776, when three million white Americans proclaimed the equality of all men, they were at that very moment holding five hundred thousand black folk in slavery and classifying them not even as animals but as real estate. Their prosperity had been built on two centuries of this slavery and the independence which they demanded was mainly freedom to pursue this exploitation of men in raw material and in trade.

When in the War for Independence these slaves threatened to revolt to the English, the American army not only used five thousand of them to win the war but welcomed volunteers from that Haiti which for a half century afterwards they refused to recognize as a nation. The emancipation which was implicit in this use of the slave was thereupon begun in the United States but halted in 1820, when the Cotton Kingdom based on slave labor, together with plans for vaster empires centered in the Caribbean and South America, became backbone and vision of American Economy.

For the next half century the meaning of America was not the winning of the West, nor the development of democracy, as history insists, but a bitter fight as to whether American labor was to be slave or free. It flamed into bloody Civil War: a war caused by Negro slavery and in singular paradox stopped, as Abraham Lincoln himself testified, when two hundred thousand black soldiers reenforced the North and brought emancipation of both white labor and black to a nation that had never wanted it.

Thereupon the nation was faced by the logical contradiction that unless they used slaves as voters they could not control the former slaveholders or hold the United States in permanent Union. Black votes and black labor, as well as white, reconstructed the Union and attempted to reconstruct democracy, but Northern capital and Southern land monopoly bound Southern labor to the chariot wheels of new free enterprise, which became powerful enough to disfranchise labor. This disfranchized labor was immediately thrown into two antagonistic competing groups by a legal caste of black folk reminiscent of the Middle Age established by consent of the nation in the center of the Twentieth Century.

How in such case could real democracy develop in this land. Remember that tonight in nine states of the Union, a meeting like this would be illegal; and in at least eight other states, would be inadvisable because of the danger of mob law. Remember that today you cannot in the United States either attack this basic caste or carry out social reform by legal methods, because in your way there stands a bloc of one hundred and thirty-four electoral votes based on color caste which makes a third party movement impossible and prevents any clear-cut voting on Education, economic security or health. It takes 126,000 of your votes to send a representative to Congress but it needs only 44,000 to send such a representative from the South. In Bilbo's Mississippi, 150,000 votes have the same power in the Senate as six million votes in New York. These figures are so fantastic that most people do not know them and cannot believe them when they are stated. Yet it remains true that New York's 6,024,597 votes in 1944 elected the same number of senators that Mississippi elected with 152,712. President Truman backed by a majority of the voters of the nation can implement no program of reform as long as the South with political power based on disfranchisement and caste can out-count the majority in the presidential election and in Congress.

Thus we Negroes insist that there can be no attack upon social problems by free democratic methods because we have neither freedom nor democracy. We have bound our own hands by the color line entrenched in the rotten boroughs of the South. By the same token the significance of America in the world is not freedom, democracy, education and economic security but rather alliance with colonial imperialism and class dictatorship in order to enforce the denial of freedom to the colored peoples of the world. Whatever may be the sentiment in this room and in this state or even in this section, we cannot tonight for a moment forget that there are millions of Americans of wealth, education and power who believe that the necessity of keeping black men from ever becoming free citizens is more important than the triumph of democracy in the world. Under such circumstances you cannot blame us if we stress, sometimes perhaps unduly, the importance of the Negro problem, not simply for ourselves but for you.

COLONIAL PEOPLES

W. E. Burghardt Du Bois

I think the usual attitude of intelligent Americans toward the peoples of colonies is that these folk are inferior and rather stupid people, who naturally are envious of civilized folk and therefore, unhappy, impatient and demanding change; that this change may come in the course of a long time but at present is either impossible or inadvisable.

I want to try and impress it upon you that this is not a fair assumption and perhaps I can illustrate best by referring to the analogy of the attitude toward our own slums, remembering that today the colonies are the slums of the world.

In the nineteenth century we regarded slums as being the places where the poor, and therefore the lazy, lived (if not by actual choice, at least by logic of the facts); that these people were ignorant chiefly because they were careless and unenterprizing;

and that they were diseased because they were dirty with bad heredity; that almost any boy with ambition and work could rise from the East Side to Fifth Avenue. Then came a change due to investigation and thought when we began to realize that the main difficulty of the slum people were that their income was too small to provide for education or medical care; that they did not have adequate school facilities, and that their unsanitary living was not so much the result of their disease as the result of the fact that slum areas paid large profits to the owners of slum property. We, therefore, began to attack the problem of the slums through social services, better schools, city supported sanitation and especially through labor unions and increased and more intelligent use of political rights.

Now let us turn from this attitude toward domestic slums to the slums of the world which are colonies. We must remember that something like seven hundred and fifty million people, (the exact number we do not know because we do not count colonials carefully and colonial status is a matter of definition, so that we may consider colonials as either five hundred million or a thousand million).

With regard to these colonials, they are the poorest people on earch; they are ninety to ninety-five per cent illiterate; they are decimated by preventable diseases; and they have little or no voice in their own government; or even the right to complain. We know that in the United States people are very poor who receive less than a thousand dollars a year; at the same time we ought to know that the average income of a family in India is something like twenty-five dollars a year and less than that in Central Africa. Making all possible allowance for climate and custom this is a degree of poverty which makes any decent standard of living unthinkable.

We have got into the habit of boasting in the United States that any person who is illiterate is illiterate by choice. This, of course, is not so. The average Negro child in Mississippi does not have a chance today to learn to read and write and the average white child in the country district of the north has small chance to get through the elementary school.

In the colonies the great majority of children have no facilities for education at all. Nine-tenths of the people cannot read and write in any language and the remaining tenth has in most cases but the beginnings of what can be called education. This means that the waste of human ability is almost fatal for cultural advance and that leadership in the modern sense and toward modern culture is almost impossible. It is the exceptional man who gets any education; and that this chance person should also happen to be a man of ability, self-sacrifice and high ideals is hardly thinkable.

In addition to this we have deliberately and for centuries intefered with the ancient and cultural self-education of these people; we have destroyed their family ideals, mocked at their gods; broken down all internal authority and substituted the authority of the owning governments. We keep knowledge of modern languages and modern technique out of their reach and then accuse them of being ignorant and inferior. We s end half-trained and narrow-minded people to govern these colonials and teach them civilization and religion and we give such emissaries opportunity and right to pose as experts on colonial subjects. We regard many colonial areas as places where the rich and powerful may enjoy themselves and laugh at the appearance and condition of these people.

Most of the colonies are in tropical or semi-tropical regions which means that the natural fight which they must put up against disease is a difficult one. The history of West Africa and southern India is the history of malaria. The history of East Africa is the history of the tsetse fly. Tuberculosis, yellow fever, sleeping sickness, typhus, leprosy, verneral disease, bubonic plague and other enemies of humanity rage almost unchecked in such areas. The result is an enormous death rate and especially infant mortality which decimates the people in addition to recurrent famines.

Why is it? It is not necessary to assume that the reason is the inherent ill will and perversity of civilized powers. On the contrary the average inhabitant of these countries professes, and really has, a large degree of good-will toward all people. But it must be remembered that the reason for colonies, the basic logic on which the colonial system persists, is the profit which is made from the labor and materials of colonial peoples. First, therefore, this demand for profit must be satisfied. There are all sorts of disputes about the rate of profit but it has been said lately in the Hailey Survey of Africa, to take one example, that probably never before in the world has so great profit been made upon so small investment as in the gold and diamond mines of South Africa while natives starve and have no decent school system. In the copper industry of Northern Rhodesia, forty-eight million dollars worth of copper was exported in 1937. Out of this total nearly half was paid directly in dividends to non-resident stockholders; three million dollars went as salaries to less than two thousand Europeans while seventeen thousand African laborers received less than a million dollars in wages. Endless other examples could be named with smaller but still large profit. This means that work as hard as colonial people may, and they do work hard, the great mass of their income goes to support the people of the colonial powers and that consequently in no colony are there sufficient funds left for higher wages, education and the fight against.

Moreover, in order to keep these profits uninterfered with there is a pattern of treatment toward these people: they are subjected to tyrannical government and personal insult leading even to flogging in our day; they are not allow free speech or a free press; their migration is not only stopped by poverty but by law and it goes without saying that they have hardly the beginnings of democratic government or right of petition. Moreover, the press and published literature make these conditions so little known or understood to the average investor and voter in leading countries, that these people who are responsible for colonial conditions, usually have not the faintest idea as to what colonies are or what they mean today.

No wonder that the colonial peoples regard the great powers with deep and abiding bitterness. This fact is usually concealed from us. How many people, for instance, before this world war imagined what the Indonesians felt toward the Dutch? How many Americans understand the real reason for the bitterness of Indians toward the English, just as in the past they could not appraise Irish hatred of English.

This is not all: in the minds of colonial peoples and also in the minds of the people of England, France and America there is a realization of the logical contradiction of the whole situation. Here are great nations boasting of their accomplishments in civilization, of their powers over the forces of nature, of their high ethical standards and the purity of their religion; their belief in democracy; of their vast production of wealth and accomplishment in art; and at the same time holding at least one-third of the world's population by means of lying, stealing, insult and what amounts to slavery.

They do this with open eyes and with only vague gestures toward anything like a real face-forward meeting of the problem. To the colonial people this attitude looks like hypocrisy and it is hypocrisy.

It seems to me that this preliminary explanation is fundamental to any study of colonies. I have myself tried to develop it at length in a book published in 1945 by Harcourt, Brace and Company called Color and Democracy: Colonies and Peace, which I should be glad to have you read. In addition, one of the great books of our day has been the autobiography of Jaharwahal Nehru. It is the life of a man born in a colony and it details the striving which he has had against this fatal handicap. To this the casual reader might add Briffault, The Deline and Fall of the British Empire, and a recent book by a native African, Orizu, Without Bitterness.

COLONIAL PEOPLES

By
W.E.B. Du Bois

I THINK THE USUAL ATTITUDE OF INTELLIGENT AMERICANS TOWARD THE PEOPLES OF COLONIES IS THAT THESE FOLK ARE INFERIOR AND RATHER STUPID PEOPLE, WHO NATURALLY ARE ENVIOUS OF CIVILIZED FOLK AND, THEREFORE, UNHAPPY, IMPATIENT AND DEMANDING CHANGE: THAT THIS CHANGE MAY COME IN THE COURSE OF A LONG TIME BUT AT PRESENT IS EITHER IMPOSSIBLE, OR INADVISABLE.

I WANT TO TRY AND IMPRESS IT UPON YOU THAT THIS IS NOT A FAIR ASSUMPTION AND PERHAPS I CAN ILLUSTRATE BEST BY REFERRING TO THE ANALOGY OF THE ATTITUDE TOWARD OUR OWN SLUMS, REMEMBERING THAT TODAY THE COLONIES ARE THE SLUMS OF THE WORLD.

IN THE NINETEENTH CENTURY WE REGARDED SLUMS AS BEING THE PLACES WHERE THE POOR, AND THEREFORE THE LAZY, LIVED (IF NOT BY ACTUAL CHOICE, AT LEAST BY LOGIC OF THE FACTS). THAT THESE PEOPLE WERE IGNORANT CHIEFLY BECAUSE THEY WERE CARELESS AND UNENTERPRISING, AND THAT THEY WERE DISEASED BECAUSE THEY WERE DIRTY, WITH BAD HEREDITY, THAT ALMOST ANY BOY WITH AMBITION AND WORK COULD RISE FROM THE EAST SIDE TO FIFTH AVENUE. THEN CAME A CHANGE DUE TO INVESTIGATION AND THOUGHT WHEN WE BEGAN TO REALIZE THAT THE MAIN DIFFICULTIES OF THE SLUM PEOPLE WERE THAT THEIR INCOME WAS TOO SMALL TO PROVIDE FOR EDUCATION OR MEDICAL CARE, THAT THEY DID NOT HAVE ADEQUATE SCHOOL FACILITIES, AND THAT THEIR UNSANITARY LIVING WAS NOT SO MUCH THE RESULT OF THEIR DISEASE AS THE RESULT OF THE FACT THAT SLUM AREAS PAID LARGE PROFITS TO THE OWNERS OF SLUM PROPERTY. WE, THEREFORE, BEGAN TO ATTACK THE PROBLEM OF THE SLUMS THROUGH SOCIAL SERVICES, BETTER SCHOOLS, CITY SUPPORTED SANITATION AND ESPECIALLY THROUGH LABOR UNIONS AND INCREASED AND MORE INTELLIGENT USE OF POLITICAL RIGHTS.

NOW LET US TURN FROM THIS ATTITUDE TOWARD DOMESTIC SLUMS TO THE SLUMS OF THE WORLD WHICH ARE COLONIES. WE MUST REMEMBER THAT SOMETHING LIKE SEVEN HUNDRED AND FIFTY MILLION PEOPLE ARE IN COLONIES (THE EXACT NUMBER WE DO NOT KNOW BECAUSE WE DO NOT COUNT COLONIALS CAREFULLY AND COLONIAL STATUS IS A MATTER OF DEFINITION, SO THAT WE MAY CONSIDER COLONIALS AS EITHER FIVE HUNDRED MILLION OR A THOUSAND MILLION.

WITH REGARD TO THESE COLONIALS, THEY ARE THE POOREST PEOPLE ON EARTH, THEY ARE NINETY TO NINETY-FIVE PER CENT ILLITERATE, THEY ARE DECIMATED BY PREVENTABLE DISEASE, AND THEY HAVE LITTLE OR NO VOICE IN THEIR OWN GOVERNMENT, NOR EVEN THE RIGHT TO COMPLAIN. WE KNOW THAT IN THE UNITED STATES PEOPLE ARE VERY POOR WHO RECEIVE LESS THAN A THOUSAND DOLLARS A YEAR, AT THE SAME TIME WE OUGHT TO KNOW THAT THE AVERAGE INCOME OF A FAMILY IN INDIA IS SOMETHING LIKE TWENTY-FIVE DOLLARS A YEAR, AND LESS THAN THAT IN CENTRAL AFRICA. MAKING ALL POSSIBLE ALLOWANCE FOR CLIMATE AND CUSTOM THIS IS A DEGREE OF POVERTY WHICH MAKES ANY DECENT STANDARD OF LIVING UNTHINKABLE.

WE HAVE GOT INTO THE HABIT OF BOASTING IN THE UNITED STATES THAT ANY PERSON WHO IS ILLITERATE IS ILLITERATE BY CHOICE. THIS, OF COURSE, IS NOT SO. THE AVERAGE NEGRO CHILD IN MISSISSIPPI DOES NOT HAVE A CHANCE TODAY TO LEARN TO READ AND WRITE AND THE AVERAGE WHITE CHILD IN THE COUNTRY DISTRICTS OF THE NORTH HAS SMALL CHANCE TO GET FURTHER THAN THE ELEMENTARY SCHOOL.

IN THE COLONIES THE GREAT MAJORITY OF CHILDREN HAVE NO FACILITIES FOR EDUCATION AT ALL. NINE-TENTHS OF THE PEOPLE CANNOT READ AND WRITE IN ANY LANGUAGE AND THE REMAINING TENTH HAS IN MOST CASES BUT THE BEGINNINGS OF WHAT CAN BE CALLED EDUCATION. THIS MEANS THAT THE WASTE OF HUMAN ABILITY IS ALMOST FATAL FOR CULTURAL ADVANCE AND THAT THE LEADERSHIP IN THE MODERN SENSE AND TOWARD MODERN CULTURE IS ALMOST IMPOSSIBLE. IT IS THE EXCEPTIONAL MAN WHO GETS ANY EDUCATION, AND THAT THIS CHANCE PERSON SHOULD ALSO HAPPEN TO BE A MAN OF ABILITY, SELF-SACRIFICE AND HIGH IDEALS IS HARDLY THINKABLE.

IN ADDITION TO THIS, WE HAVE DELIBERATELY AND FOR CENTURIES INTERFERED WITH THE ANCIENT AND CULTURAL SELF-EDUCATION OF THESE PEOPLE, WE HAVE DESTROYED THEIR FAMILY IDEALS, MOCKED AT THEIR GODS, BROKEN DOWN ALL INTERNAL AUTHORITY AND SUBSITUTED THE AUTHORITY OF THE OWNING GOVERNMENTS. WE KEEP KNOWLEDGE OF MODERN LANGUAGES AND MODERN TECHNIQUE OUT

OF THEIR REACH AND THEN ACCUSE THEM OF BEING IGNORANT AND INFERIOR. WE SEND HALF-TRAINED AND NARROW-MINDED PEOPLE TO GOVERN THESE COLONIALS AND TEACH THEM CIVILIZATION AND RELIGION AND WE GIVE SUCH EMISSARIES OPPORTUNITY AND RIGHT TO POSE AS EXPERTS ON COLONIAL SUBJECTS. WE REGARD MANY COLONIAL AREAS AS PLACES WHERE THE RICH AND POWERFUL MAY ENJOY THEMSELVES AND LAUGH AT THE APPEARANCE AND CONDITION OF THESE PEOPLE.

MOST OF THE COLONIES ARE IN TROPICAL OR SEMI-TROPICAL REGIONS WHICH MEANS THAT THE NATURAL FIGHT WHICH THEY MUST PUT UP AGAINST DISEASE IS A DIFFICULT ONE. THE HISTORY OF WEST AFRICA AND SOUTHERN INDIA IS THE HISTORY OF MALARIA. THE HISTORY OF EAST AFRICA IS THE HISTORY OF THE TSETSE FLY. TUBERCULOSIS, YELLOW FEVER, SLEEPING SICKNESS, TYPHUS, LEPROSY, VENEREAL DISEASE, BUBONIC PLAGUE AND OTHER ENEMIES OF HUMANITY RAGE ALMOST UNCHECKED IN SUCH AREAS. THE RESULT IS AN ENORMOUS DEATH RATE AND ESPECIALLY INFANT MORTALITY WHICH DECIMATES THE PEOPLE IN ADDITION TO RECURRENT FAMINES.

WHY IS THIS? IT IS NOT NECESSARY TO ASSUME THAT THE REASON IS THE INHERENT ILL-WILL AND PERVERSITY OF CIVILIZED POWERS. ON THE CONTRARY THE AVERAGE INHABITANT OF THESE COUNTRIES PROFESSES, AND REALLY HAS, A LARGE DEGREE OF GOOD-WILL TOWARD ALL PEOPLE. BUT IT MUST BE REMEMBERED THAT THE REASON FOR COLONIES, THE BASIC LOGIC ON WHICH THE COLONIAL SYSTEM PERSISTS, IS THE PROFIT WHICH IS MADE FROM THE LABOR AND MATERIALS OF COLONIAL PEOPLES, AND THE WELL-PAID JOBS THEY PROVIDE. FIRST, THEREFORE, THIS DEMAND FOR PROFIT MUST BE SATISFIED. IT COMES BEFORE EDUCATION OR LIFE. THERE ARE ALL SORTS OF DISPUTES ABOUT THE RATE OF PROFIT IN COLONIES BUT IT HAS BEEN SAID LATELY IN THE HAILEY SURVEY OF AFRICA, THAT PROBABLY NEVER BEFORE IN THE WORLD HAS SO GREAT PROFIT BEEN MADE UPON SO SMALL INVESTMENT AS IN THE GOLD AND DIAMOND MINES OF SOUTH AFRICA, WHILE NATIVES STARVE AND HAVE NO DECENT SCHOOL SYSTEM. IN THE COPPER INDUSTRY OF NORTHERN RHODESIA, FORTY-EIGHT MILLION DOLLARS WORTH OF COPPER WAS EXPORTED IN 1937. OUT OF THIS TOTAL NEARLY HALF WAS PAID DIRECTLY IN DIVIDENDS TO NON-RESIDENT STOCKHOLDERS, THREE MILLION DOLLARS WENT AS SALARIES TO LESS THAN TWO THOUSAND EUROPEANS, WHILE SEVENTEEN THOUSANT AFRICAN LABORERS RECEIVED LESS THAN A MILLION DOLLARS IN WAGES, OR $58 EACH A YEAR. ENDLESS OTHER EXAMPLES COULD BE NAMED WITH SMALLER BUT STILL LARGE PROFIT. THIS MEANS THAT WORK AS HARD AS COLONIAL PEOPLE MAY, AND THEY DO WORK HARD, THE GREAT MASS OF THEIR INCOME GOES TO SUPPORT THE PEOPLE OF THE COLONIAL POWERS AND THAT CONSEQUENTLY IN NO COLONY ARE THERE SUFFICIENT FUNDS LEFT FOR HIGHER WAGES, EDUCATION, AND THE FIGHT AGAINST DISEASE.

MOREOVER, IN ORDER TO KEEP THESE PROFITS UNINTERFERED WITH, THERE IS A PATTERN OF TREATMENT TOWARD THESE PEOPLE: THEY ARE SUBJECTED TO TYRANNICAL GOVERNMENT AND PERSONAL INSULT LEADING EVEN TO FLOGGING IN OUR DAY, THEY ARE NOT ALLOWED FREE SPEECH OR A FREE PRESS, THEIR MIGRATION IS NOT ONLY STOPPED BY POVERTY BUT BY LAW, AND IT GOES WITHOUT SAYING THAT THEY HAVE HARLDY THE BEGINNINGS OF DEMOCRATIC GOVERNMENT OR RIGHT OF PETITION. MOREOVER, OUR PRESS AND PUBLISHED LITERATURE MAKE THESE CONDITIONS SO LITTLE KNOWN OR UNDERSTOOD TO THE AVERAGE INVESTOR AND VOTER IN LEADING COUNTRIES, THAT THE PEOPLE WHO ARE RESPONSIBLE FOR COLONIAL CONDITIONS, USUALLY HAVE NO CLEAR IDEA AS TO WHAT COLONIES ARE OR WHAT THEY MEAN TODAY.

NO WONDER THAT THE COLONIAL PEOPLES REGARD THE GREAT POWERS WITH DEEP AND ABIDING BITTERNESS. THIS FACT IS USUALLY CONCEALED FROM US. HOW MANY PEOPLE, FOR INSTANCE, BEFORE THIS WORLD WAR IMAGINED WHAT THE INDONESIANS FELT TOWARD THE DUTCH? HOW MANY AMERICANS UNDERSTAND THE REAL REASON FOR THE BITTERNESS OF INDIANS TOWARD THE ENGLISH, JUST AS IN THE PAST THEY COULD NOT APPRAISE IRISH HATRED OF ENGLAND.

THIS IS NOT ALL. IN THE MINDS OF COLONIAL PEOPLES, AND ALSO IN THE MINDS OF THE PEOPLE OF ENGLAND, FRANCE AND AMERICA, THERE IS A REALIZATION OF THE LOGICAL CONTRADICTION OF THE TOTAL SITUATION, EVEN IF DETAILS ARE VAGUE. HERE ARE GREAT NATIONS BOASTING OF THEIR ACCOMPLISHMENTS IN CIVILIZATION, OF THEIR POWERS OVER THE FORCES OF NATURE, OF THEIR HIGH ETHICAL STANDARDS, AND THE PURITY OF THEIR RELIGION, OF THEIR BELIEF IN DEMOCRACY, OF THEIR VAST PRODUCTION OF WEALTH AND ACCOMPLISHMENT IN ART, AND AT THE SAME TIME HOLDING AT LEAST ONE-THIRD OF THE WORLD'S POPULATION BY MEANS OF LYING, STEALING, AND INSULT IN WHAT AMOUNTS TO SLAVERY.

THEY DO THIS WITH OPEN EYES AND WITH ONLY VAGUE GESTURES TOWARD ANYTHING LIKE A REAL FACE-FORWARD MEETING OF THE PROBLEM. TO THE COLONIAL PEOPLE THIS ATTITUDE LOOKS LIKE HYPOCRISY AND IS HYPOCRISY.

IT SEEMS TO ME THAT THIS PRELIMINARY EXPLANATION IS FUNDAMENTAL TO ANY STUDY OF COLONIES. I HAVE MYSELF TRIED TO DEVELOP IT AT LENGTH IN A BOOK PUBLISHED IN 1945 BY HARCOURT, BRACE AND COMPANY, CALLED COLOR AND DEMOCRACY: COLONIES AND PEACE, WHICH I SHOULD BE GLAD TO HAVE YOU READ. IN ADDITION, ONE OF THE GREAT BOOKS OF OUR DAY HAS BEEN THE AUTOBIOGRAPHY OF JAHARWARLAL NEHRU. THIS IS THE LIFE OF A MAN BORN IN A COLONY AND IT DETAILS THE STRIVING WHICH HE HAS HAD AGAINST THIS FATAL HANDICAP. TO THIS THE CASUAL READER MIGHT ADD BRIFFAULT, THE DECLINE AND FALL OF THE BRITISH EMPIRE, AND A RECENT BOOK BY A NATIVE AFRICAN, ORIZU, WITHOUT BITTERNESS. ALSO, MR. OJIKE, WHO SPEAKS THIS AFTERNOON, IS PUBLISHING A BOOK THROUGH JOHN DAY. FRIENDS WHO HAVE SEEN THE PROOF SHEETS TELL ME IT IS WORTH READING. SEVERAL BOOKS BY GEARGE PADMORE SHOULD BE IN LIBRARIES.

1946---------- TAHARKA, EMPEROR OF THE WORLD ---

For your entertainment at this commencement season, I am temporarily turning my back upon the modern world upon the memory of that United Nations Conference at San Francisco from which I have just returned, and from this world of widespre d war, suffering and upheaval, which makes it so easy to forget how many thousands of years of history have gone before. And I am seeking to lead you back over 3,000 years of human history to the story of one of the world's great black men, whom the world has forgotten.

I do this especially because in my recent experience it has repeatedly been emphasized in my m nd how seriously a lack of accurate historical knowledge handicaps our understanding of the present.

While I was at San Francisco 60,000 persons were clamoring for the 3,000 seats in the Opera House where representatives of the world met. The vast majority of these 60,000 had no conception of the implications of this conference. They thought of it as a gre t spectacle, or as a meeting for social reform; but as a historical development they could not ~~xxxpx~~ grasp it because they did not know history; because history is so haltingly taught and interpreted in our day.

Some who were there, to be sure, thought of San Francisco in terms of Yalta and Teheran, of Moscoe and Casablanca. Still fewer compared intelligently the United Nations with the League of Nations born at Versailles in 1919. And only a handful thought of the great wars of the 20th century; world wide and world shaking in their significance as they loomed against the background of the 19th , 18th and the 17th centuries. The centuries of capitalistic exploitation, of freedom and discovery, of science and nationhood. Even here I am not pausing. I am going back over the Great Divide that yawns between modern and ancient history.

In the 1700 years that intervene between the birth of Christ and the full integration of the great European nations, the world saw the fall of the Roman ~~xxxxxx~~ Empire, the Dark Age, the Rebirth of Culture, the Blossoming of the Catholic hierarchy and its Protestant rev lt. I am travelling on backwards in that dimly apprehended and partly myt ical history of the world before Christ to a time , a thousand years before His birth. It was a day difficult for us to conceive because its ef ective center was not the Atlantic nor the Mediterranean, not Europe nor even Asia. It was Africa that strange valley of the Nile River where a nation had existed so long that no ne could conceive of a world without Egypt or of a world worth knowing outside of Africa.

The great Ramessu had ranged the known world outside of half-known Asia, and forgetting a Europe that then meant absolutely nothing in culture or development, Ramessu with his yellow, brown and black soldiers had conqureed the known world. He had driven a little group of Hebrew slaves far out of his territory and the very exuberance and weight of his power had, as is so often the case, left his own land exhausted. It was then that from the yellow East and black South and eventually from the white North, foes began to press in upon Egypt just as they had pressed a thousand years earlier, and under the shepherd kings, conquered Egypt. Even then, 1800 years B.C. under a black Queen, Nefertari help for Egypt had come out of the darker hordes of the South. And now again Egypt in her distress turned toward the land of burned faces, Ethiopia.

The era to which I am calling your attention lasted practically from 750 years before Christ on until 300 years before the first Christmas.

It paralleled the rise and the beginning of the fall of the great culture of Greece; and the beginning of the vaster Roman Empire, destinedto encompass the world. When this era of Ethiopian history began, 750, B.C. Greece was but sta ting her development and Rome was nothing.

As I have said, Egypt was then the one gre t world state, threatened by the new imperial powers developing in the valley of the ~~xixrx~~ Tigress-Euphrates. Because of the pressure from the East, princes of Libya, of that same desert which Italy conqurered in the 19th century, but which in the 8th century before Christ was a well-watered and important land , arose out of their letharthy and as Egypt retreated before the rising might of Assyria it was a Prince of Libya th t took advantage of the turmoil and made h mself Pharoah of Egypt. He marched South toward Ethiopia.

It was then that the first king of a newly organized Ethiopia whose name was Piankhy organized an army and navy and marched and sailed North to meet the intruders. Four hundred miles South of the Mediterranean at Hermopolis the armies met. Piankhy was victorious. He swept up through Egypt and received the submission of 16 princes. The Libyan leader wrote: "So now, through fear of thee, I have fled to the uttermost swamps, down by the gre t grean sea!"

Egypt was thus transformed and Ethiopia instead of being a tribute-paying dependency became the leading country of the world of which Egypt made a province. This turns our attention to Ethiopia which meant in Greek "the land of the burned faces." Here for 3000 years and more an ~~x~~ African culture had been developing separate from that of Egypt but always interconnected by trade and migration, by changes in climate and fertility, by conquest and turmoil by cultural interchange. The cultural likeness between Ethiopia and Egypt was great. We mean by culture today the habits and methods by which great groups of people meet and solve the problems of everyday living; their religion and concept of God; their political organizations; their family life and ceremonies; the way in which they work and distribute rewards of labor; the ways in which they play and enjoy physical recreation and spiritual contentment through art, in song, story and building. In all these matters the likness between Egypt and Et iopia was so great as to point to common origin or borrowing one from another.

Modern scholarship has usually assumed that the borrowing was by Ethiopia from Egypt. The reverse is probably the fact because Ethiopian customs go back towards the Great Lakes in central Africa or perhaps west even to the African West Coast. There is the pattern of family organization with its political andsocial life and descent of power and property through the mother rather than than the father. There is the wors ip of the ~~xxx~~ serpent, the met ods of manufacture of textiles and pottery. All these things throughout Africa, in the valley, of the Nile, Congo and Niger show general likeness and similarity which points to a culture that is African, rather than to something borrowed from Asia, or least of all from Europe. For a century and a half after 750 B.C. Ethiopia ruled Egypt. Its power was centered at two capitals: at Napata where the king-priests for centuries were crowned on its golden throne, and the island of Meroe, between Atbara and the Blue Nile; a younger city than Napata lying between the Fifth and Sixth cataracts, and the natural outlet to the Nile from the desert to the West. Meroe was founded only a lettle earlier than Ethiopia's triumph over Egypt and had a standing army of 200,000 soldiers and 4,000 organized artisans. It was a center of trade with palaces and baths, temples and pyramids. Here it was in later years that the Candaces ruled. And this was the Ethiopia which the Romans later knew. When Piankhy died, the Coulcil at Napata chose Shabaka as his successor, Shabaka, as the Roman historian tells us: "went beyond all his predecessors in his worship of the gods and his kindness to his subjects. He is said by Herodotus to have abolished capital punishment in Egypt. Shabaka sought to encourage art; he began the building at the Temple at Karnak. He preserved historical documents.

But Assyria gaining power in Asia to the East in the same land where today, France is fighting; t is Assyrian began to attack his forces and finally triumphed at the battle of Altekeh. Shabaka abdicated and another king succeeded him. Finally there came to the throne and ruled for a period of 25 years the greatest king of this dynasty, who with justification called himself, "Emperor of the world."

Indeed, as I have said, from 750 years before Christ. The Negro race as represented by Ethiopia and its kings, was the gre test power in the civilized world. They ruled the valley of the Nile; they came to dominate Western Asia: they even looked at the Mediterranean islands and the stirrings of culture in Southern Europe. It was as Weigall said: "That astonishing eopch of Negro domination."

Taharka whose pictures show him with a face of pure Negro type, was 42 years old when he came to the throne. He halted the Assyrian attack upon Egypt and all of you have read of this in the 36th and 37th chapters of Isaiah:

36: 1 "Now it came to pass in the fourteenth year of King Hezekiah, that Sennacherib, king of Assyria, came up against all the defenced cities of Judah, and took them.

2- And the King of Assyria sent Rab-Sha-keh from La-chish to Jerusalem unto king Hezekiah with a great army. And he stood by the conduit of the upper pool in the highway of the fuller's field.

1- And it came to pass, when King Hezekiah heard it, that he rent his clothes, and covered himself with sackcloth, and went into the house of the Lord.

6- But Isaiah said unto them, Thus shall ye say unto your master, Thus saith the Lord, Be not afraid of the words that thou hast heard, wherewith the servants of the king of Assyria have blasphemed me.

7- Behold, I will send a blast upon him, and he shall hear a rumor, and return to his own land; and I will cause him to fall by the sword of his own land.

8- So Rab-sha-keh returned, and found the king of Assyria warring against Libnah;

9- And he heard say concerning Tirhakah king of Ethiopia, He is come forth to make war with thee. And when he heard it he sent messages to Hezekiah, saying,

10- Thus shall ye speak to Hezekiah king of Judah, saying, Let not thy God, in whom thou trustest, deceive thee, saying, Jerusalem shall not be given into the hand of the king of Assyria.

14- And Hezekiah received the letter from the hand of the messengers, and read it; and Hezekiah went up unto the house of the Lord, and spread it before the Lord."

37:15- "And Hezekiah prayed unto the Lord, saying,

16- O Lord of Hosts, God of Isreal, that dwellest between the cherubims, thou art the God, even thou alone, of all the kingdoms of the earth; thou hast made heaven and earth.

17- Incline thine ear, O Lord, and hear; open thine eyes, O Lord, and see; and hear all the words of Sennacherib, which he hath sent to reproach the living God.

33- Therefore thus saith the Lord concerning the king of Assyria, He shall not come into t is city, nor shoot an arrow there, nor come before it with shields, not cast a bank against it.

38- And it came to pass, as he was worship ing in the house of Nisroch his god, that his sons smote him with the sword; and they escaped into the land of Armenia: And Esarhaddon his son reigned in his stead." Thus Jewish legend interpreted the victory of Ethiopia over the Assyrians as the hand of God---which perhaps it was.

Taharka eventually established friendly alliances with western Asia. He continued to build the temple at Karnak, one of the most striking monuments in the Ancient World. He bult a temple at Thebes with a relief representing the four courts of the four quarters of the Nilotic world: Dedun the great God of Ethiopia, represents the South; Sopd, the Eastern Desert; Sedek, the West Desert; while Horus represents Egypt to the North. Taharka travelled byond the confines of Ethiopia and Strabo says that he led expeditions as far s the Strait of Gibraltar.

But he was facing a rapidly changing world, a world where there was upheaval in Asia among Assyrians and Persians,.... eventually the rise of the Greeks in Europe and finally the Romans were going to change the face of history. First and agains came the new onslaughts of the Assyrians:

"The Assyrian came down like a wolf on the fold and his cohorts were leamin d with silver and gold and the sheen of his spears were like stars on the sea,
As the blue wave rolled mi ghtly o'er deep Galilee."

Taharka, resisting in vain was driven out of Egypt and into the "night of Death," as the simple chronicle tells us. Thus passed a mighty ruler, perhaps the greatest of black men ever to wear a crown. But his legacy was powerful. Under his successor, Tanutamen, the Assyrians were agained turned back, and the struggle wavered back and forth as the prohpet Nahum in Hebrew bible sings:

"The noise of a whip, and the noise of the rattling of the wheels, and of the prancing horses, and of the jumping chariots. The horseman lifteth up both the bri ht sword and the glittering spear; and there is a multitude of slain, and a great number of carcases; and there is no end of their corpses; they stu ble upon their corpses.

Behold , I am against thee, saith the Lord of hosts; and I will discover thy skirts upon thy face, and I will shew the nations thy nakedness, and the kindoms thy shame. And it shall come to pass, that all they that look upon thee shall flee from thee and say, Ineveh is laid w ste; who will bemoan her? Whence shall I seek comfo ters for thee?

Art t ou better than populous ? No, that was situate among the rivers, that had the waters round about it, whose rampart was the sea and her wall from the sea?

Ethiopia and Egypt were her strength, and it was infinite; Put and Lubim were thy helpers.

Yet was she carried away, she went into captivity; her young children also were dashed in pieces at the top of all the streets; and they cast lots for her honorable men, and all her great men were bound in chains."

Thus eventually again Ethiopian and Egyptian strength were dashed to pieces and ashurbanipal, the Assyrian conqueror boasted: "I captured Thebes like a flood." But his triumph was ephemeral for the new power of Persia rose in the East.

Ethiopian kings still held their power even though invaded twice by Persia and finally by Greece. Aspeluta and Nastasen occupied its powerful throne and defeated Cambyses, the persian, in the fifth century before Christ. The black dynasty continued to rule down until the birth of Christ, and for nearly 400 years after. But it was not the world-wonquerering Ethiopia of other days; it did not hold Egypt in thrall. It was but one of many nations but still powerful and renowned.

The Ptolemies representing the rule of the Greeks pressed down upon Ethiopia but the black queens called Candace still ruling 80 tribes, stood ready to repel the invader. On the death of Cleopatra, Egypt became a province of the Roman Empire and Ethiopia was attacked, not simply by Augustus Caesar but by black invaders from the West called Nubians with whom the Romans made alliance.

It was then that the Candace mentioned in Acts 8:26,27 was ruling; "And the angel of the Lord spake unto Philip, saying Arise, and go toward the south unto the way that goeth down from Jerusalem unto Gaza, which is desert.

And he arose and went: and behold, a man of Ethiopia, an eunuch of great authority under Candace queen of the Ethiopians who had the charge of all her treasure had come to Jerusalem for to worship."

Although the Roman General captured Napata and sent a thousand prisoners as slaves to Caesar, nevertheless Ethiopia successfully revolted and we find the Emperor Nero, 64 years after Christ, still trying to invade the country. For 200 years more they struggled on until at last the Nubians and Abbysinians from the highlands overwhelmed Ethiopia and were converted to Christianity by St. Athanasius in 330. Then 500 years after "encompassed," as Gibbon said, "by the enemies of their religion, the Ethiopians, and slept for nearly a thousand years, forgetful of the world by whom they were forgotten."

Throughout the Middle Ages, however, the legend of a great Christian kingdom hidden away in African persisted, and the search for Prester John became one of the world quests.

Here is the half-known story which I have given merely in bare outline. There is much about Taharka and Ethiopia which is unknown and inconceivable. It remains for students such as may come out of this class to bring authentic history of this most interesting period of the world to wider knowledge. Meantime, we can see in many ways the influence of this triumph of Ethiopia over the world, all down the ages of history, even unto San Francisco.

It may well be asked what is the use of talking today about men and matters that belong to a world 3000 years in the past? The use is obvious; to emphasize in your minds the continuity of history, the eternal interdependence of human experience. Your first reaction to this story of Taharka and is times will be to recognize his likeness to you. He was of the same color and cast of countenance of many of you and therefore you feel a certain unity with him, and you assume that his experience makes him one with you.

But ~~wx~~ may I emphasize that this is not really the stronger tie. Physical likeness and differences have always played a great part in the world, as they do today. But they are of less importance than cultural matters. And by cultural matters, as I have siad , we mean the way in which people solve the problems of living; the organization of the family, of property, of work and ownership, of worship and recreation. The physical likeness of the peoples in Ethiopia to the Negroes of Norfolk is of less importance than the cultural influence . The cultural influence of Ethiopia was felt in the ancient ~~x~~ world. It touched and modified the civilization of Greece, of Western Asia, of Southern Europe. It was a part of that great organization of men known as the Roman Empire and it is today a part of the history of America.

It is for this reason that we should be interested in it; that we should think of Ethiopia and Africa as helping to build that intricate web of civilization on which is today so often ~~sx~~ called European. But as a matter of fact, it came only particlly from Europe and only partly of the thought and action of European men. This heritage of culture which makes our life today and will make it eternally , came first our of Africa and is the great prize of all those people who share it, who share it unconsciously throu h imitating the ways and habits of others; and who share it consciously through education and thought and reflection. It is a priceless heritage. It is threatened today by world war, and indeed by a succession of world wars which loom in the future. Against the destruction, physical and spiritual which these wars encourage, the interests of all people, black and white are opposed. We seek to know them, Taharka, King of Ethiopia and Emperor of the World, in order to protect that hixh he bequathed to the Roman Empire, the Englishe Commonwealth and to American democracy.

MADISON SQUARE GARDENS

FROM W.E.B. DU BOIS

MAY I BRING TO THIS MEETING PERSONALLY AND IN BEHALF OF THE PAN AFRICAN CONGRESS WHICH I REPRESENT, MY GREETING AND CONGRATULATION ON YOUR INTEREST IN AFRICA AND ITS CRYING NEEDS. I HAVE GIVEN LONG THOUGHT AND STUDY TO AFRICA AND ITS PROBLEMS. I AM CONVINCED THE WHOLE COLONIAL SYSTEM BUILT ON THE SLAVETRADE AND AMERICAN SLAVERY HAS BEEN THE MAIN CAUSE OF THE EXPLOITATION OF THE WORKING CLASSES IN EUROPE, ASIA AND AMERICA. THIS EXPLOITATION HAS BEEN THE RECURRENT AND PERSISTENT CAUSE OF WAR AND WAR HAS CAUSED THE PRESENT CRITICAL COLLAPSE OF CIVILIZATION. IF THE WORLD WANTS PEACE, IT MUST ABOLISH THE COLONIAL SYSTEM, AND THIS ABOLITION MUST START IN AFRICA. AFRICAN COLONIALISM, EVEN MORE THAN ASIATIC, AND much ~~EVEN~~ MORE THAN AMERICAN, LIES AT THE BOTTOM OF THE MODERN WOES OF LABOR THE WORLD OVER. I AM GLAD, THEREFORE, THAT YOU HAVE TAKEN NOTE OF THE PHYSICAL HUNGER IN AFRICA TODAY. I TRUST YOU WILL CONTINUE YOUR EFFORTS AND INCLUDE HELP FOR THE SOCIAL AND POLITICAL DEGRADATION OF THE LAND WHERE HUMAN CIVILIZATION WAS BORN.

Commencement at Knoxville

Du Bois, Negro College, The Future and Function [1946]

THE FUTURE AND FUNCTION OF THE PRIVATE NEGRO COLLEGE

W. E. Burghardt Du Bois

We all know the main lines of the rise of Negro education in the United States: after a desperate and sporadic struggle to finance and maintain Negro schools, resulting in several schools among free Negroes north and south and in two schools of higher training before the Civil War, there came after emancipation, a mass demand for popular education unequalled by any other group in world history. Of how that demand was met I wrote forty years ago in the "Souls of Black Folk"

"Through the shining trees that whisper before me as I write, I catch glimpses of a boulder of New England granite, covering a grave, which graduates of Atlanta University have placed there, with this inscription:

> "In grateful memory of their former teacher and friend and of the unselfish life he lived, and the noble work he wrought; that they, their children, and their children's children might be blessed."

"This was the gift of New England to the freed Negro: not alms, but a friend; not cash, but character. It was not and is not money these seething millions want, but love and sympathy, the pulse of hearts beating with red blood; - a gift which to-day only their own kindred and race can bring to the masses, but which once saintly souls brought to their favored children in the crusade of the sixties, that finest thing in American history, and one of the few things untainted by sordid greed and cheap vainglory. The teachers in these institutions came not to keep the Negroes in their place, but to raise them out of the defilement of the places where slavery had wallowed them. The colleges they founded were social settlements; homes where the best of the sons of the freedmen came in close and sympathetic touch with the best traditions of New England. They lived and ate together, studied and worked, hoped and harkened in the dawning light. In actual formal content their curriculum was doubtless old-fashioned, but in educational power it was supreme, for it was the contact of living souls." (+)

Since those days these colleges have gone through various transitions. For a while they had to support themselves by contributions chiefly from the missionary funds of Northern churches and from federal funds which Negroes provided. Then for twenty-five years they tried to raise larger sums from philanthropists often from prosperous sons of the original teachers and founders. Later the colored colleges turned toward the state for aid. Today the private institutions are facing the fact that unless they receive increased contributions, not now in sight, and these funds reach large figures, they must either close or become fully state schools.

I have in many cases urged that the state must in the future support and control higher education because of its large and increasing cost. The church today carries or should carry too heavy a burden of social duties to permit it to continue to support large and increasingly expensive colleges. With almost unanimous action, ~~they are~~ it is shifting this burden to public appropriation or private philanthropy. This means of course less religious influence in colleges, which has both its good and bad side. I said at Wilberforce only a few years ago that the only visible future for that first of Negro colleges was to become a state school. Private philanthropy as a support of higher education is undesirable, as I shall point out later.

In recent years, however, I have been reconsidering the plight of certain other private schools and for reasons which I shall take up with you today, I have some suggestions which may save schools like Knoxville College from closing or coming under the control of Tennessee.

There are in the United States today one hundred and eighteen Negro colleges giving from one to four years of college work. Thirty-six of these are supported by government funds chiefly from the United States and states. Eighty-two are supported by private organizations. In 1940 these colleges were attended by about 45,000 students and 28,000 of these were in schools of A or B grading meaning that they were doing fairly efficient college work.

These colleges receive considerably more than $15 million a year in income of which $9 million goes at least to the private colleges. But the source of this income has been varying in instructive ways during the generation from 1910 to 1940. In 1910, for instance, private institutions received less than a fifth of their income from student fees while today they receive nearly a third from fees; indicating the marked economic progress of Negroes which enables them ~~today~~ to pay a considerable share of the expense of educating their children. When I was at Fisk in the years from 1884 to 1888, there was not a single college student who was able to pay ten per cent of ~~his fees~~ the cost of his training

The contribution from endowment funds furnished chiefly by philanthropists has not varied much, ranging from 38 to 46 per cent. There are indications that this source may dwindle in the near future because endowments are not eternal and can only be depended upon for relatively short periods. This is a reversal of our economic beliefs in the nineteenth century. Led on by British capitalism, founded on Negro slavery, we assumed that income from a given batch of invested capital would if rightly administered continue forever. This we now realize is false and evil. Wealth for consumption ~~or future use~~ is no more eternal than the muscle or brain which created it and can only last forever by continuing to take from wages and giving to profit an absolutely unjustifiable share. It is on this fact that the whole argument for more equitable distribution of production rests. Consequently we see endowments of all sorts dwindling, and richly endowed institutions continually appealing for more funds. Three-fourths of my communications from Harvard since my graduation in 1890 have been appeals for contributions.

But the most serious fact is that while the private institutions got nearly one-half their support from gifts in 1910, they got only a fifth of that support from gifts in 1940. What now are these institutions going to do? Some of them have begun to turn and are turning increasingly to state aid. Of the sixteen leading private Negro colleges Tuskegee, Wilberforce and ~~probably~~ Lincoln (Pennsylvania) are doubtless going to get their income increasingly from the state. Certain of the smaller church schools such as Clark, Paine, Morris Brown and Shaw, cannot hope for larger contributions from the church and must, therefore, explore other methods of support.

Atlanta University, as a graduate school, has adequate funds from endowment just now to meet its present needs but it will not have twenty years from now for an expanding future. There are certain other schools such as Talladega, Morehouse, Dillard, Fisk, Knoxville and

Virginia Union which were formerly church schools, but have already outgrown that support and the problem of their future is serious. Xavier will, of course, continue to be supported by the Catholic Church for reasons not entirely educational. Howard is a federal University.

Two questions, therefore, present themselves: are these institutions worth saving? Especially is this last group of six private institutions without adequate or any church support worth saving or is their fate either to become state schools or disappear?

First it is clear that they cannot hope for support from miscellaneous and philanthropic gifts and this would be undesirable even if it were possible. Education is not and should not be a private philanthropy; it is a public service and whenever it becomes merely a gift of the rich it is in danger. Probably the greatest threat to American education today is the fact that its great and justly celebrated private institutions are supported mainly by their rich graduates: Harvard, Yale, Columbia, Princeton together with smaller institutions like Amherst and Williams are increasingly looked upon as belonging to a certain class in American society: the class of the rich, well-to-do employers, whose interests are more or less openly opposed to those of the laboring millions. It is because of this unfortunate situation that the clear unhampered study of the industrial process and of economic science has made so little progress in the United States at a time when the critical situation of the modern world calls desperately for such knowledge and teaching.

In the same way and for something of the same reasons the state institutions/are often inhibited from development/of the economic and social sciences/ because of political influence/and because of wealth and class/working through politics.// But here is the hope/ of the democratic process;/ as democracy replaces oligarchy in industry,/ concurrently, the social and educational work/of the state/will improve in object/and method.//We can see evidence of this/in state universities/like Wisconsin and Michigan./ On the other hand in Southern states/like Texas/ the State University/has been the football/ of the oil interests.// Negro state colleges/were/a generation ago/ hot-beds of graft for white politicians;/ only in the last ten years/have they been able/ to begin to develop/ a decent educational program.

In the long interim,/while the state/is gathering strength/and democratic authority/for its educational duties/ and perhaps long after that/~~there~~ may there not be a field/in the private college/for a certain educational leadership/and individuality? //And particularly/in a distinct social group,/ like that of the American Negro,/ may there not be/a peculiar function for the Negro private college/which no other social organ/could fill?/ There would certainly seem to be/a distinct place/in the educational world/for some private institutions/whose support is such/that they would be free/to teach what they thought/ ought to be taught,/ particularly in the critical/and developing field/of social investigation.

If this is true/of colleges in general,/ it is equally true/for the same and additional reasons/in the Negro college.// We American Negroes/are not simply Americans,/ nor simply Negroes./ We form a minority group in a ~~great~~ vast conglomerate/ land/and a minority group/which by reason of its efforts/during the last two generations/has made extraordinary/and gratifying progress.// But in the making/of this progress,// in the working together of peoples belonging to this group, in the patterns of thinking which they ~~had~~ have had to follow and the memories which they shared, they have built up a distinct and unique culture, a body of habit, thought and adjustment which they cannot escape because it is in the marrow of their bones and which they ought not to ignore because it is the only path to a successful future.

What is a culture? It is a careful Knowledge of the Past but of which the group as such has emerged: in our case a knowledge of African history and social development - one of the richest and most intriguing which the world has known. I have hurried here today from a new investigation and evaluation of "The World and Africa" which I hope to publish this year and which I ~~hope~~ trust will effectively stress this point.

Our history in America, north, south and Caribbean, has been an extraordinary one which we must know to understand ourselves and our world. The experience through which our ancestors have gone for four hundred years is part of our bone and sinew whether we know it or not. The methods which we evolved for opposing slavery and fighting prejudice are not to be forgotten, but learned for our own and others' instruction.

We must understand the differences in social problems between Africa, the West Indies, South and Central America, not only among Negroes but affecting Indians and other minority groups. Plans for the future of our group must be built on a base of our problems, our dreams and frustrations; they cannot stem from empty air or successfully be based on the experiences of others alone. The problem of our children is distinctive: when shall a colored child learn of the color line? At home,/ at school/ or suddenly on the street?// What shall we do/ in art and literature?/ Shall we seek/ to ignore our background/ and graft ourselves/ on a culture/ which does not wholly admit us,/ or build anew/ on that marvellous African art heritage,/ one of the world's greatest/ as all critics now admit./ Whence shall our drama come, from ourselves, here, today/ or from Shakespeare/ in the English seventeenth century?

Many Negroes/ do not realize this./ In their haste/ to become Americans,/ their desire not to be peculiar/ or segregated/ in mind or body,/ they try to escape their cultural heritage/ and the body of experience/ which they themselves have built-up./ This is the reason/ that there is always/ a certain risk/ in taking a colored student/ from his native environment/ and transplanting him suddenly/ to a northern school./ He may adjust himself,/ he may/ through the help of his own social group/ in the neighborhood of this school/ successfully achieve an education/ through the facilities offered// On the other hand/ he may meet peculiar frustration/ and in the end/ be unable to achieve success/ in the new enviorment/ or fit again into the old.

For these/ and analogous reasons/ I am convinced/ that there is a place/ and a continuing function/ for the small Negro college.// This is additional reason/ that this college/ should have a certain kind of independent support./ If a number/ of small colleges/ with ~~one~~ 100/ or less than two hundred students/ with a carefully selected faculty/ and clearly conceived methods and ideals/ could survive in America/ they might have unusual opportunity/ to fill a great need/ and to do a work/ which no other agency/ could do so well./ They would not be subservient/ to the dominant wealth/ of the country; they would not be under the control of politics in a state now directed for the most part ~~at present~~ by prejudiced persons guided by a definite ideal of racial discrimination.

The question then comes: how can such schools be supported and what would their program be? It was estimated in that very excellent National Survey of Higher Education of Negroes made by the United States Office of Education in 1940 that the cost of educating a student in a small private college was about $450 a year in addition to housing and board. If we put this total cost at $900, it would probably be true that Negro students could pay from one-fourth to a third of this cost. At $600 a student a small college then would cost $120,000 a year to which must be added something for buildings, grounds a broad program of free scholarships and other items of administration which might bring the total cost to $150,000. Extra gifts for buildings, emergencies, and scholarships might still come from church, liberal donors or even the state; the main source of current maintenance must be the organized alumni of the college itself.

How now could a small college raise $150,000 outside of what the students pay? There is, of course, but one method and that is for the alumni and the local constitutency of the college to tax themselves for this amount. A college with two thousand graduates could raise this sum rather easily if each graduate gave $100 a year not as a pledge but as an actual payment. This amounts to $2 a week. If the college had only one thousand graduates it would amount to $4 a week. I say "tax" and I mean tax: a payment as regular and recognized as just as compulsory as any tax.

The question comes, therefore, could the graduates of such colleges be made to see vividly enough the necessity of their continued existence so that they would be willing to tax themselves to this considerable amount. I believe it would be possible but only possible if this kind of contribution was lifted out of the class of ordinary miscellenous giving to which we are so used and stressed ~~that~~ throughout the college course an an absolute necessity for the maintenance of independent methods of education. This would be an innovation. I am not sure that we have in our student body today and our body of graduates the guts for any such real sacrifice. We are used to being educated for nothing and expecting praise for giving our valuable time. We pay on the nail for spring clothes, automobiles and golf clubs, but for a college training? I do not know.

What now should such a college be and what should it do? It should in the first place be small. We should get rid of the idea of bigness which permeates American ideals. A college of two thousand students is an entirely different kind of institution from a college of one hundred students. The success and the marked success of Fisk and Talladega and Atlanta and similar institutions in earlier years was the fact that their college department consisted of a small number of students brought into direct contact for long periods with able teachers. When I first went to Atlanta University to teach there were only ~~twenty-five~~ 100 students in college and the whole college department at Fisk during my under-graduate days consisted of less than ~~twenty~~ 25 persons. What is needed for efficient education of youth is individual attention, close acquaintanceship with their fellows and that skilled guidance that only can be gotten in the small college.

Secondly, this college must have a carefully selected faculty; its president must be not a financeer ~~and collector of funds~~ or professional beggar but an educational administrator broadly trained capable of laying down an educational program and selecting the people who can carry it out. // The teachers in such a college must be scholars and gentlemen; scholars in the sense of having direct and careful and complete acquaintanceship with human life & modern science and gentlemen in the sense of knowing and practicing the highest canons of good taste and well-bred conduct. // The curriculum of a college of this sort would be comparatively simple: the idea of acquainting growing youth with what the world has known in science and art and what it is doing today; and in making that acquaintanceship as complete and thorough as time allows; the idea of knowing thoroughly the lives of people today, comparing them with the people of the past and evolving through science a guide and prophet for the future.

For this reason the college should be equipped with library, laboratories, a museum and an art gallery a theatre. The library should contain the written body of human life and experience in such quantity and number as to be easily and quickly accessible to all; it should be conducted by persons who know the inside of books better than their backs and catalogue numbers. The college should have a theatre for the drama and facilties for hearing and studying music. // But above and beyond this it should have a distinct department of adult education calculated to teach its students from the first the art of reading and writing and counting. Most of the students who come to college, white and black all over the United States, do not read and write and count well. And many who come to our colleges cannot read and write at all. // The reason for this does not necessarily involve any individual blame. It is because of the wretched system of public schools where these students have been trained. The system of elementary education in the United States has got to be improved and in the end will be; but in the meantime one or more generations of students will grow-up and will have to know how to read and write and cipher in order to pursue a college course. // Each college, therefore, should have provision for the scientific teaching of reading, writing and arithmetic to adult persons. The experience of the army in this war has shown that this is a perfectly feasible program.

Finally a main object of such a college should be vocational guidance. So much nonsense has been taught on this subject that we often fail to realize its real function. It goes back to the old Socratic "know thyself". When a man goes through college he ought to go through a general process of becoming acquainted with his own ability and desires so that by the time he graduates he will have a fairly clear idea of what place he can and ought to occupy in the world.

This means that the small college which I have in mind would not be a professional school, would not be an industrial school, would not attempt to teach anybody how to earn a living. Its object would be to teach youth what the world is and what it means; and then after the college course we should learn the technique of earning a living in any way one can or wishes. The main job of such a college course is the unified cultural message. It takes the boy and shows him the world as it is with its customs and habits, it memories and ideals and works from that toward a vision of real life. Above all in our case it shows him our world - the one in which we live and must work.

For this reason the college should be closely integrated with its surrounding social setting. One of the great limitations of the older Negro college was that ~~they~~ it came up with the idea of detachment from the town, city and state where ~~they were~~ it was. In part this was forced upon ~~them~~ it by slavery and its consequences but it afterward became a habit; so that an intellectual class was trained which had no organic connection with the community around. In the small college which I have in mind this should no longer be true. The college should be an integral part of the community, of the colored community, of course, first; but also and just as needfully of the white community, so that in all its work and thinking, its government and art expression the community and college should be one and inseparable and at the same time the college could retain its leading function because of its independence and its clear ideals.

S Such a college should be under the absolute control of its own ~~the~~ alumni: they should elect the trustees and hold them to strict account. Of course for such work the alumni themselves would need training: they would have to adopt a selfy-denying ordinance not to use their power to make jobs for themselves or their children and to hold their power as a sacred trust for the education of a new and redeeming generation of men.

This may be a dream but it is worth considering.

Ladies and gentlemen of the graduating class: there are many approved ways of greeting graduates on the assumption of their duties at the Commencement of their lives. On the whole I prefer an idea rather than an emotional appeal. I give you then the query: How can we save Knoxville, by the way I have suggested or by ways that you yourselves may think out?

THE FUTURE AND FUNCTION OF THE PRIVATE NEGRO COLLEGE

by

W. E. Burghardt Du Bois

Uncorrected carbon

We all know the main lines of the rise of Negro education in the United States: after a desperate and sporadic struggle to finance and maintain Negro schools, resulting in several schools among free Negroes north and south and in two schools of higher training before the Civil War, there came after emancipation, a mass demand for popular education unequalled by any other group in world history. Of how that demand was met I wrote forty years ago in the Souls of Black Folk

"Through the shining trees that whisper before me as I write, I catch glimpses of a boulder of New England granite, covering a grave, which graduates of Atlanta University have placed there, with this inscription:

> "In grateful memory of their former teacher and friend and of the unselfish life he lived, and the noble work he wrought; that they, their children, and their children's children might be blessed."

"This was the gift of New England to the freed Negro: not alms, but a friend; not cash, but character. It was not and is not money these seething millions want, but love and sympathy, the pulse of hearts beating with red blood; - a gift which to-day only their own kindred and race can bring to the masses, but which once saintly souls brought to their favored children in the crusade of the sixties, that finest thing in American history, and one of the few things untainted by sordid greed and cheap vainglory. The teachers in these institutions came not to keep the Negroes in their place, but to raise them out of the defilement of the places where slavery had wallowed them. The colleges they founded were social settlements; homes where the best of the sons of the freedmen came in close and sympathetic touch with the best traditions of New England. They lived and ate together, studied and worked, hoped and harkened in the dawning light. In actual formal content their curriculum was doubtless old-fashioned, but in educational power it was supreme, for it was the contact of living souls."

Since those days these colleges have gone through various transitions. For a while they had to support themselves by contributions chiefly from the missionary funds of Northern churches and from federal funds which Negroes provided. Then for twenty-five years they tried to raise larger sums from philanthropists often from prosperous sons of the original teachers and founders. Later the colored colleges turned toward the state for aid. Today the private institutions are facing the fact that unless they receive increased contributions, not now in sight, and these funds reach large figures, they must either close or become fully state schools.

I have in many cases urged that the state must in the future support and control higher education because of its large and increasing cost. The church today carries or should carry too heavy a burden of social duties to permit it to continue to support large and increasingly expensive college. With almost unanimous action, they are shifting this burden to public appropriation or private philanthropy. This means of course less religious influence in colleges, which has both its good and bad side. I said at Wilberforce only a few years ago that the only visible future for that first of Negro colleges was to become a state school. Private philanthropy as a support of higher education is undesirable, as I shall point out later.

In recent years, however, I have been reconsidering the plight of certain other private schools and for reasons which I shall take up with you today, I have some suggestions which may save schools like Knoxville College from closing or coming under the control of Tennessee.

There are in the United States today one hundred and eighteen Negro colleges giving from one to four years of college work. Thirty-six of these are supported by government funds chiefly from the United States and states. Eighty-two are supported by private organizations. In 1940 these colleges were attended by about 45,000 students and 28,000 of these were in schools of A or B grading meaning that they were doing fairly efficient college work.

These colleges receive considerably more than $15 million a year in income of which $9 million goes at least to the private colleges. But the source of this income has been varying in instructive ways during the generation from 1910 to 1940. In 1910, for instance, private institution received less than a fifth of their income from student fees while today they receive nearly a third from fees; indicating the marked economic progress of Negroes which enables them today to pay a considerable share of the expense of educating their children. When I was at Fisk in the years from 1884 to 1888, there was not a single college student who was able to pay ten per cent of his fees.

The contribution from endowment funds furnished chiefly by philanthropists has not varied much, ranging from 38 to 46 per cent. There are indications that this source may dwindle in the near future because endowments are not eternal and can only be depended upon for relatively short periods. This is a reversal of our economic beleifs in the nineteenth century. Led on by British capitalism, founded on Negro slavery, we assumed that income from a given batch of invested capital would if rightly administered continue forever. This we now realize is false and evil. Wealth for consumption or future use is no more eternal than the muscle or brain which created it and can only last forever by continuing to take from wages and giving to profit an absolutely unjustifiable share. It is on this fact that the whole argument for more equitable distribution of production rests. Consequently we see endowments of all sorts dwindling, and richly endowed institution continually appealing for more funds. Three-fourths of my communications from Harvard since my graduation in 1890, have been appeals for contributions.

But the most serious fact is that while the private institutions

got nearly one-half their support from gifts in 1910, they got only a fifth of that support from gifts in 1940. What now are these institutions going to do? Some of them have begun to turn and are turning increasingly to state aid. Of the sixteen leading private Negro colleges Tuskegee, Wilberforce and probably Lincoln (Pennsylvania) are doubtless going to get their income increasingly from the state. Certain of the smaller church schools such as Clark, Paine, Morris Brown and Shaw, cannot hope for larger contributions from the church and must, therefore, explore other methods of support.

Atlanta University, as a graduate school, has adequate funds from endowment just now to meet its present needs but it will not have twenty years from now for an expanding future. There are certain other schools such as Talladega, Morehouse, Dillard, Fisk, Knoxville and

Virginia Union which were formerly church schools, but have already outgrown that support and the problem of their future is serious. Xavier will, of course, continue to be supported by the Catholic Church for reasons not entirely educational.

Two questions, therefore, present themselves: are these institutions worth saving? Especially is this last group of six private institutions without adequate or any church support worth saving or is their fate either to become state schools or disappear?

First it is clear that they cannot hope for support from miscellaneous and philanthropic gifts and this would be undesirable even if it were possible. Education is not and should not be a private philanthropy; it is a public service and whenever it becomes merely a gift of the rich it is in danger. Probably the greatest threat to

American education today is the fact that its great and justly celebrated private institutions are supported mainly by their rich graduates: Harvard, Yale, Columbia, Princeton together with smaller institutions like Amherst and Williams are increasingly looked upon as belonging to a certain class in American society: the class of the rich, well-to-do employers, whose interests are more or less openly opposed to those of the laboring millions. It is because of this unfortunate situation that the clear unhampered study of the industrial process and of economic science has made so little progress in the United States at a time when the critical situation of the modern world calls desperately for such knowledge and teaching.

In the same way and for something of the same reasons the state institutions are often inhibited from development of the economic and social sciences because of political influence and because of wealth and class working through politics. But here is the hope of the democratic process; as democracy replaces oligarchy in industry, concurrently, the social and educational work of the state will improve in object and method. We can see evidence of this in state universities like Wisconsin and Michigan. On the other hand in Southern states like Texas, the State University has been the football of the oil interests. Negro state colleges were a generation ago hot-beds of graft for white politicians; only in the last ten years have they been able to begin to develop a decent educational program.

In the long interim, while the state is gathering strength and democratic authority for its educational duties, and perhaps long after that there may not be a field in the private college for a certain educational leadership and individuality? And particularly in a distinct social group, like that of the American Negro, may there not be a peculiar function for the Negro private college which no other social organ could fill? There would certainly seem to be a distinct place in the educational world for some private institutions whose support is such that they would be free to teach what they thought ought to be taught, partisularly in the critical and developing field of social investigation.

If this is true of colleges in general, it is equally true for the same and additional reasons in the Negro college. We American Negroes are not simply Americans, or simply Negroes. We form a minority group in a great vast conglomerated land and a minority group which by reason of its efforts during the last two generations has made extraordinary and gratifying progress. But in the making of this progress, in the working together of peoples belonging to this group, in the patterns of thinking which they ~~had~~ have had to follow and the memories which they shared, they have built-up a distinct and unique culture, a body of habit, thought and adjustment which they cannot escape because it is in the marrow of their bones and which they ought not to ignore because it is only path to a successful future.

What is a culture? It is a careful Knowledge of the Past out of which the group as such has emerged: in our case a knowledge of African history and social development - one of the richest and most intriguing which the world has known. I have hurried here today from a new investigation and evaluation of "The World and Africa" which I hope to publish this year and which I hope will effectively stress this point.

Our history in America, north, south and Caribbean, has been an extraordinary one which we must know to understand ourselves and our world. The experience through which our ancestors have gone for four hundred years is part of our bone and sinew whether we know it or not. The methods which we evolved for opposing slavery and fighting prejudice are not to be forgotten, but learned for our own and others' instruction. We must understand the differences in social problems between Africa, the West Indies, South and Central America, not only among Negroes but affecting Indians and other minority groups. Plans for the future of our group must be built on a base of our problems, our dreams and frustrations; they cannot stem from empty air or successfully be based on the experiences of others alone. The problem of our children is distinctive: when shall a colored child learn of the color line? At home, at school or suddenly on the street? What shall we do in art and literature? Shall we seek to ignore our background and graft ourselves on a culture which does not wholly admit us, or build anew on that marvellous African art heritage, one of the world's greatest as all critics now admit. Whence shall our drama come, from ourselves today or from Shakespeare in the English seventeenth century.

Many Negroes do not realize this. In their haste to become Americans their desire not to be peculiar or segregated in mind or body, they try to escape their cultural heritage and the body of experience which they themselves have built-up. This is the reason that there is always a certain risk in taking a colored student from his native environment and transplanting him suddenly to a northern school. He may adjust himself, he may through the help of his own social group in the neighborhood of this school successfully achieve an education through the facilities offered. On the other hand he may meet peculiar frustration and in the end be unable to achieve success in the new enviorment or fit into the old.

For these and analgous reasons I am convinced that there is a place and a continuing function for the small Negro college. This is additional reason that this college should have a certain kind of independent support. If a number of small colleges with one or less than two hundred students with a carefully selected faculty and clearly conceived methods and ideals could survive in America they might have unusual opportunity to fill a great need and to do a work which no other agency could do so well. They would not be subservient to the dominant wealth of the country; they would not be under the control of politics in a [illegible] state now directed for the most part at present by prejudiced persons guided by a definite ideal of racial discrimination.

The question then comes: how can such schools be supported and what would their program be? It was estimated in that very excellent National Survey of Higher Education of Negroes made by the United States Office of Education in 1940 that the cost of educating a student in a small private college was about $452 a year in addition to housing and board. If we put this total cost at $900, it would probably be true that Negro students could pay from one-fourth to a third of this cost. At $600 a student a small college then would cost $120,000 a year to which must be added something for buildings, grounds a broad program of free scholarships and other items of administration which might bring the total cost to $150,000. Extra gifts for buildings, emergencies, and scholarships might still come from church, liberal doners or even the state; the main source of current maintenance must be the organized alumni.

How now could a small college raise $150,000 outside of what the students pay. There is, of course, but one method and that is for the alumni and the local constitutency of the college to tax themselves for this amount. A college with two thousand graduates could raise this sum rather easily if each graduate gave $100 a year not as a pledge but as an actual payment. This amounts to $2 a week. If the colledge had only one thousand graduates it would amount to $4 a week. I say "tax" and I mean tax: a payment as regular and recognized as just as compulsory as any tax.

The question comes, therefore, could the graduates of such colleges be made to see vividly enough the necessity of their continued existence so that they would be willing to tax themselves to this considerable amount. I believe it would be possible but only possible if this kind of contribution was lifted out of the class of ordinary miscellenous giving to which we are so used and stressed ~~thus~~ throughout the college course an an absolute necessity for the maintenance of independent methods of education. This would be an innovation. I am not sure that we have in our student body today and our body of graduates the guts for any such real sacrifice. We are used to being educated for nothing and expecting praise for giving our valuable time. We pay on the nail for spring clothes, automobiles, and golf clubs, but for a college training? I do not know.

What now should such a college be and what should it do? It should in the first place be small. We should get rid of the idea of bigness which permeates American ideals. A college of two thousand students is an entirely different kind of institution from a college of one hundred students. The success and the marked success of Fisk and Talladega and Atlanta and similar institutions in earlier years was the fact that their college department consisted of a small number of students brought into direct contact for long periods with able teachers When I first went to Atlanta University to teach there were only twenty-five students in college and the whole college department at Fisk during my under-graduate days consisted of less than twenty persons. What is needed for efficient education of youth is individual attention , close acquaintanceship with their fellows and that skilled guidance that

Secondly, this college must have a carefully selected faculty; its president must be not a financeer and collector of funds but an educational administrator capable of laying down an educational program and selecting the people who can carry it out. The teachers in such a college must be scholars and gentlemen; scholars in the sense of having direct and careful acquaintanceship with modern science and gentlemen in the sense of knowing and practicing the highest canons of good taste and conduct. The curriculum of a college of this sort would be comparatively simple: the idea of acquainting growing youth with what the world has known in science and art and what it is doing today; and in making that acquaintanceship as complete and thorough as time allows; the idea of knowing thoroughly the lives of people today, comparing them with the people of the past and evolving through science a guide and prophet for the future.

For this reason the college should be equipped with library, laboratories, a museum and an art gallery. The library should contain the body of human life and experience in such quantity and number as to be easily and quickly accessible to all; it should be conducted by persons who know the inside of books better than their backs and catalogue numbers. The college should have a theatre for the drama and facilities for hearing and studying music. But above and beyond this it should have a distinct department of adult education calculated to teach its students from the first the art of reading and writing. Most of the students who come to college, white and black all over the United States, do not read and write well. And many who come to our colleges cannot read and write at all. The reason for this does not necessarily involve any individual blame. It is because of the wretched system of public schools where these students have been trained. The system of elementary education in the United States has got to be improved and in the end will be; but in the meantime one or two generations of students will grow-up and will have to know how to read and write and cipher in order to pursue a college course. Each college, therefore, should have provivision for the scientific teaching of reading, writing and arithmetic to adult persons. The experience of the army in this war has shown that this is a perfectly feasible program.

Finally a main object of such a college should be vocational guidance. So much nonsense has been taught on this subject that we often fail to realize its real function. It goes back to the old Socratic "know thyself". When a man goes through college he ought to go through a general process of becoming acquainted with his own ability and desires so that by the time he graduates he will have a fairly clear idea of what place he can and ought to occupy in the world.

This means that the small college which I have in mind would not be a professional school, would not be an industrial school, would not attempt to teach anybody how to earn a living. Its object would be to teach youth what the world is and what it means; and then after the college course we should learn the technique of earning a living in any way one can or wishes. The main job of such a college course is the unified cultural message. It takes the boy and shows him the world as it is with its customs and habits, it memories and ideals and works from that toward a vision of real life. Above all in our case it shows him our world - the one in which we live and must work.

For this reason the college should be closely integrated with its surrounding social setting. One of the great limitations of the older Negro college was that they came up with the idea of detachment from the town, city and state where they were. In part this was forced upon them by slavery and its consequences but it afterward became a habit; so that an intellectual class was trained which had no organic connection with the community around. In the small college which I have in mind this should no longer be true. The college should be an integral part of the community, of the colored community, of course, first; but also and just as needfully of the white community, so that in all its work and thinking, its government and art expression the community and college should be one and inseparable and at the same time the college could retain its leading function because of its independence and its clear ideals.

S Such a college should be under the absolute control of the alumni: they should elect the trustees and hold them to strict account. Of course for such work the alumni themselves would need training: they would have to adopt a selfy-denying ordinance not to use their power to make jobs for themselves or children and to hold their power as a sacred trust for the education of a new and redeeming generation of men.

This may be a dream but it is worth considering.

COLONIAL PEOPLES AND THE AMERICAN NEGRO IN THE UNITED NATIONS

W. E. B. DU BOIS

It is an excellent sign of progress to find Libraries becoming interested in social problems and able to guide their readers. They face to be sure, a danger of influencing some readers in lines of knowledge which prevalent public opinion does not approve. but this is a part of the democracy of freedom. Certainly no library today can afford to be unintelligent with regard to the new parliament of man and federation of the world. The mass of people ought to be led to read about it and to become intelligent concerning its possibilities.

In any coming together of the peoples of earth we of course have first the free peoples; that is those nations which are independent and who form the nucleus of the new world body. But in addition to the people who are actually more or less free or independent, we have too a mass of human beings who are unfree.

Some of these may be called "Free" but as a matter of fact, the unfree peoples of the world are the majority of mankind. They consist of nations dominated by other countries because of their small size and because of foreign investments in their produce and labor.

Such countries are illustrated by states like Liberia and Haiti; Persia and Egypt, by the great land of China; by the situation in many countries of central and South America.

In addition to this there are the people whose countries are owned: that is colonies over which imperial countries exercise more or less absolute domination. With these may be bracketted the suppressed groups in certain large nations, as in the case of Negroes in the United States.

It is of the colonial peoples and of American Negroes that I am especially speaking tonight. The ownership of colonies is historically and logically the result of capitalistic investment which has been the main form of economic enterprise since the early eighteenth century.

It may be truly said that there are other reasons for holding and dominating colonies, beside the profits which come from the raw materials which they raise and the labor,missions, science, and philanthropy which they furnish. Nevertheless, it is true that the chief reason for possession of colonies is the profits which come from them; and this profit is part basis of most of th e income of the imperial nations.

This profit is made larger because of the low wage which the colonial laborers receive as compared with home labor and because of the low price which the other country can place upon colonial produce through monopoly.

It is for this reason that it is so difficult to speak freely and openly concerning colonies, or to get exact data on colonial conditions.

Whenever you interfere with a person's income you are interfering with his basic and primary interests. Consequently when there arises the question of having colonial peoples represented in the deliberation of the United Nations, difficulties immediately arise: first, of course, there is the question as to how far these colonieal peoples can express themselves and make their wants known; how far are the matters concerinig which they complain, of real importance or simply seemingly important because inexperienced and uneducated people think so.

Manifestly there has got to be some interpretation and investigation in order that the real reasons for complaint can be understood. But who are the folk to furnish these facts and voice these difficulties ? It has been usual that the master countries holding the colonies should emphasize their rights as spokesmen for the colonial peoples. But surely the nations whose prosperity and power depends or is thought to depend upon present conditions in the colonies are by no means unprejudiced judges as to what the colonial peoples really need.

Manifestly it is just here that a world organization should step in for at least a first and fundamental duty of ascertaining what the facts are. Moreover, there is no colonial people which is entirely without ability to express its needs. In practically all cases there is a group, smaller or larger, of educated and thoughtful people among them. In addition to that there is a heritage of ancient wisdom coming down through cultural patterns from the past which cannot and ouhgt not to be ignored. More and more in our day we are coming to respect these early and even primitive patterns of human culture.

Two things are therefore needed in the case of colonial peoples; first, an international body which shall ascertain without prejudice the exact condition of these people and their real needs. We know in broad outline what the findings of such investigation would have to be: it would be bound to say that the fundamental difficulty with colonies is the extreme poverty of the working classes; and the consequent poor health of the people, their ignorance and the natural anti-social tendencies which arise under such circumstances. We know how poverty, disease and ignorance act, because we have the same problems in lesser degree in regard to the suppressed classes in our own country and in all civilized lands. But the advantage which our suppressed classes have is that they can make their wants known and to some extent they thave political power to implement their protest against distress.

There was a time when we thought we could show that the difference between colonial peoples and the poor, sick and ignorant in culture lands rested upon the different kind of humanity involved; the colonial peoples seemed by heredity inferior and could not be raised to the status of civilized men. It has been the contribution of the 20th century to human knowledge that these assumptions have been shown to be exaggerated and we are fairly certain today that among modern groups of men of all races and colors there is prectical equality of possibilities; and that it seems possible to have a world where the mass of people are intelligent and healthy normal in their reactions and that such people can and ought to earn enough to live decently.

We are sure that if the immense treasure in gold and jewels, metals and grains, food and oil, fibers and fruit were distributed with any justice between the native worker and the foreign owner of machines, tools, and technique, the colonial peoples could earn quite enough to be educated and healthy.

First then the United Nations should ascertain the facts about colonial conditions. Next the organization should do something to change and better these conditions. There cannot be one wolrd, there cannot be peace and progress as long as most human beings or any considerable minority are not treated with justice or Allowed to progress toward freedom and manhood.

The United Nations exists not simply for the benefit of the peoples already free, but even more for the enslaved and partially enslaved peoples Just what can be done and when and how fast may require time, experiment and thought, but for these very reasons the sooner work to this end is started the better. The United Nations cannot exist half-slave and half-free.

My paper might here continue with a more detailed statement of colonial conditions so far as we know them now: we might call attention to the greatest emancipation of colonial peoples in history now beginning in India; or to the fierce pressure upon imperial policies in Indonesia; or especially to the colonial unrest in Africa. But I am calling your attention tonight particularly to the relations of colonies to the new United Nations. Therefore instead of inquiring into colonial conditions, I am going to turn to a situation which is not actually colonial but which has such analogies that it may be considered in the same category.

I refer to certain minorities in the midst of great nations, which despite legal right and justice occupy a status in many respects akin to colonies. The most obvious case is that of the Jews, formerlly in Germany, and still today in Poland and other lands. But this is so obviously a matter of international action, and is being now so thoroughly discussed, that I turn instead to the case of persons of Negro descent in the United States.

When we turn to the case of American Negroes we meet a quasi-colonial situation and at the same time an additional difficulty. There is still present among many people of intelligence and good-will, the idea that American Negroes are to a degree if not substantially so inferior to white people that they cannot expect a decent wage or reach average intelligence, or be healthy or escape crime. Naturally most of this audience and all the colored people themselves; and an increasing number of white people deny this. They say if American Negroes in the army or in industry or in schools and colleges show any mark of inferiority, most of that inferiority can be traced directly to the poor training which they have previously had. to the homes and neighborhoods in which they have been compelled to live; and especially to the low income which they receive.

In this way a suppressed group like American Negroes resembles in many respects the situation in the colonies. However in this case if we ask for any action by the United Nations, we would be faced by the objection that this in an internal affair and that the United Nations has no business to interfere with the internal policies of nations.

It will be a great mistake for the United Nations and the friends of universla orgnization for peace and prosperity, to take a stand like this Any organization means by its very nature the curtailment of ndividual freedom and initiative. It is of course desirable that initiative be curtailed only in so far as is absolutely necessary for universal progress. But if we are going to have a United Nations, which is anything more than a word and expression of hope, it means that the action of even the great nations which compose this org nization must be amenable to the public will to universal public opinion; that they cannot c ntinue to feel themselves free to carry on a national program or any treatment even of their own citizens and affairs, which is, in the judgment of the world, a theret to world peace and to world progress.

It is for this reason that the American Negroes have a right to put their case before the United Nations and to say that here in America where we profess democracy we have built up a legal fascist caste system which interferes with family life; which cuts doen the wages of Negroes th ough discriminatipn; and denies them medical service and hospital facilities; and which especially makes it impossible for a vast number of Negroes to learn to read and write. And that for this reason the United "ations should take cognizance of this situation and at least make it known to the world in order that the world should publicly oppose this treatment of Negroes in the United States; and such international action should especially point out that this situation is a contradiction and direct nullification of the laws which this country itself has made for its own guidance. I trust therefore that you as Librarians and persons interested in libraries are going to see to it that this aspect of colonies and suppressed groups will be brought to the attention of the United Nations which is making its capital and center in our land.

Colonial Peoples and the American Negro in the United Nations.

IT IS AN EXCELLENT SIGN OF PROGRESS TO FIND LIBRARIES BECOMING INTERESTED IN SOCIAL PROBLEMS AND ABLE TO GUIDE THEIR READERS. THEY FACE TO BE SURE A DANGER OF INFLUENCING SOME READERS IN LINES OF KNOWLEDGE WHICH PREVALENT PUBLIC OPINION DOES NOT APPROVE. BUT THIS IS A PART OF THE DEMOCRACY OF FREEDOM. CERTAINLY NO LIBRARY TODAY CAN AFFORD TO BE UNINTELLIGENT WITH REGARD TO THE NEW PARLIAMENT OF MAN AND FEDERATION OF THE WORLD. THE MASS OF PEOPLE OUGHT TO LED TO READ ABOUT IT AND TO BECOME INTELLIGENT CONCERNING ITS POSSIBILITIES.

IN ANY COMING TO GETHER OF THE PEOPLES OF EARTH WE OF COURSE HAVE FIRST THE FREE PEOPLES; THAT IS THOSE NATIONS WHICH ARE INDEPENDENT AND WHO FORM THE NUCLEUS OF THE NEW WORLD BODY. BUT IN ADDITION TO THE PEOPLE WHO ARE ACTUALLY MORE OR LESS FREE OR INDEPENDENT, WE HAVE TOO A MASS OF HUMAN BEINGS WHO ARE UNFREE.

SOME OF THESE MAY BE CALLED "FREE" BUT AS A MATTER OF FACT, THE UNFREE PEOPLES OF THE WORLD ARE THE MAJORITY OF MANKIND. THEY CONSIST OF PERSONS DOMINATED BY OTHER COUNTRIES BECAUSE OF THEIR SMALL SIZE AND BECAUSE OF FOREIGN INVESTMENTS IN THEIR PRODUCE AND LABOR.

SUCH COUNTRIES ARE ILLUSTRATED BY STATES LIKE LIBERIA AND HAITI; BY THE GREAT LAND OF CHINA; BY THE SITUATION IN MANY COUNTRIES OF CENTRAL AND SOUTH AMERICA.

IT IS OF THE COLONIAL PEOPLES AND OF AMERICAN NEGROES THAT I AM SPEAKING TONIGHT. THE OWNERSHIP OF COLONIES IS HISTORICALLY AND LOGICALLY THE RESULT OF CAPITALISTIC INVESTMENT WHICH HAS BEEN THE MAIN FORM OF ECONOMIC ENTERPRISE SINCE THE EARLY EIGHTEENTH CENTURY.

IT MAY BE TRULY SAID THAT THERE ARE OTHER REASONS FOR HOLDING AND DOMINATING COLONIES, BESIDE THE PROFITS WHICH COME FROM THE RAW MATERIALS WHICH THEY RAISE AND THE LABOR WHICH THEY FURNISH. NEVERTHELESS, IT IS TRUE THAT THE CHIEF REASON FOR POSSESSION OF COLONIES IS THE PROFITS WHICH COME FROM THEM; AND THIS PROFIT IS PART BASIS OF MUCH OF THE INCOME OF THE IMPERIAL NATIONS.

THIS PROFIT IS MADE LARGER BECAUSE OF THE LOW WAGE WHICH THE COLONIAL LABORERS RECEIVE AS COMPARED WITH HOME LABOR AND BECAUSE OF THE LOW PRICE WHICH THE MOTHER COUNTRY PLACES UPON COLONIAL PRODUCE.

WHENEVER YOU INTERFERE WITH A PERSONS' INCOME YOU ARE INTERFERING WITH HIS BASIC AND PRIMARY INTERESTS. CONSEQUENTLY WHEN THERE ARISE THE QUESTION AS OF HAVING COLONIAL PEOPLES REPRESENTED IN THE DELIBERATION OF THE UNITED NATIONS, DIFFICULTIES IMMEDIATELY ARISE: FIRST, OF COURSE, THERE IS THE QUESTION AS TO HOW FAR THESE COLONIAL PEOPLES CAN EXPRESS THEMSELVES AND MAKE THEIR WANTS KNOWN; HOW FAR ARE THE MATTERS CONCERNING WHICH THEY COMPLAIN? OF REAL IMPORTANCE OR SIMPLY SEEM IMPORTANT BECAUSE INEXPERIENCED AND UNEDUATED PEOPLE THINK SO.

MANIFESTLY THERE HAS GOT TO BE SOME INTERPRETATION AND INVESTIGATION AND UNDERSTANDING IN ORDER THAT THE REAL REASONS FOR COMPLAINT CAN BE UNDERSTOOD. BUT WHO ARE THE FOLK TO FURNISH THESE FACTS AND VOICE THESE DIFFICULTIES? IT HAS BBEN USUAL THAT THE MASTER COUNTRIES HOLDING THE COLONIES SHOULD EMPHASIZE THEIR RIGHTS AS SPOKESMEN FOR THE COLONIAL PEOPLES. BUT SURELY THE PEOPLE WHOSE PROSPERITY AND POWER DEPEND

OR IS THOUGHT TO DEPEND UPON THE PRESENT CONDITIONS IN THE COLONIES ARE BY NO MEANS UNPREJUDICED JUDGES AS TO WHAT THE COLONIAL PEOPLES REALLY NEED.

MANIFESTLY IT IS JUST HERE THAT A WORLD ORGANIZATION SHOULD STEP IN FOR AT LEAST A FIRST AND FUNDAMENTAL DUTY OF ASCERTAINING WHAT THE FACTS ARE. MOREOVER, THERE ARE NO COLONIAL PEOPLE WHO ARE ENTIRELY WITHOUT ABILITY TO EXPRESS THEIR NEEDS. IN PRACTICALLY ALL CASES THERE IS A GROUP, SMALLER OR LARGER, OF EDUCATED AND THOUGHTFUL PEOPLE AMONG THEM. IN ADDITION TO THAT THERE IS A HERITAGE OF ANCIENT WISDOME COMING DOWN THROUGH CULTURAL PATTERNS FROM THE PAST WHICH CANNOT AND OUGHT NOT TO BE IGNORED. MORE AND MORE IN OUR DAY WE ARE COMING TO RESPECT THESE EARLY AND EVEN PRIMITIVE PATTERNS OF HUMAN CULTURE.

TWO THINGS ARE THEREFORE NEEDED IN THE CASE OF COLONIAL PEOPLES; FIRST, AN INTERNATIONAL BODY WHICH SHALL ASCERTAIN WITHOUT PRE-

JUDICE THE EXACT CONDITION OF THESE PEOPLE AND THEIR REAL NEED. WE KNOW IN BROAD OUTLINE WHAT THE FINDINGS OF SUCH INVESTIGATION WOULD HAVE TO BE: IT WOULD BE BOUND TO SAY THAT THE FUNDAMENTAL DIFFICUTLY WITH COLONIES IS THE EXTREME PROVERTY OF THE WORKING CLASSES; AND THE CONSEQUENT POOR HEALTH OF THE PEOPLE THEIR IGNORANCE AND THE NATURAL CRIMINAL TENDENCIES WHICH ARISE UNDER SUCH CIRCUMSTANCES. WE KNOW HOW POVERTY, DISEASE AND IGNORANCE ACT, BECAUSE WE HAVE THE SAME PROBLEM IN LESSER DEGREE IN REGARD TO THE SUPPRESSED CLASSES IN OUR OWN COUNTRY. BUT THE ADVANTAGE WHICH OUR SUPPRESSED CLASSES HAVE IS THAT THEY CAN MAKE THEIR WANTS KNOWN AND TO SOME EXTENT THEY HAVE POLITICAL POWER TO IMPLEMENT THEIR PROTEST AGAINST DISTRESS.

RESTED UPON THE DIFFERENT KIND OF HUMANITY INVOLVED; THE COLONIAL PEOPLES WERE MOSTLY BY HEREDITY INFERIOR AND COULD NOT BE RAISED TO THE STATUS OF CIVILIZED MEN. IT HAS BEEN THE CONTRIBUTION OF THE TWENTIETH CENTURY TO HUMAN KNOWLEDGE THAT THESE ASSUMPTIONS HAVE BEEN EXAGGERATED AND WE ARE FAIRLY CERTAIN TODAY THAT AMONG MODERN GROUPS OF MEN, OF ALL RACES AND COLOR THERE IS PRACTICAL EQUALITY OF POSSIBILITIES; AND THAT IT IS POSSIBLE TO HAVE A WORLD WHERE MOST PEOPLE ARE INTELLIGENT AND HEALTHY AND NORMAL IN THEIR REACTION ; AND THAT SUCH PEOPLE CAN AND OUGHT TO EARN ENOUGH TO LIVE DECENTLY;THAT IF THE IMMENSE TREASURE IN GOLD AND JEWELS, METALS AND GRAINS, FOOD AND OIL, FIBRES AND FRUIT WERE DISTRIBUTED WITH ANY JUSTICE BETWEEN THE NATIVE WORKER AND THE FOREIGN OWNER OF TOOLS AND TECHNIQUE, THE COLONIAL PEOPLES COULD EARN ENOUGH TO BE EDUCATED AND HEALTHY.

WHEN WE TURN NOW TO ONE CASE OF AMERICAN NEGROES WE MEET A QUASI-COLONIAL SITUATION AND AT THE SAME TIME AN ADDITIONAL DIFFICULTY.

THERE IS STILL PRESENT AMONG MANY PEOPLE OF INTELLIGENCE AND GOOD WILL, THE IDEA THAT AMERICAN NEGROES ARE TO A DEGREE IF NOT SUBSTANTIALLY SO INFERIOR TO WHITE PEOPLE THAT THEY CANNOT RECEIVE A DECENT WAGE OR REACH AVERAGE INTELLIGENCE, OR BE HEALTHY OR ESCAPE CRIME. THIS MOST OF THIS AUDIENCE AND ALL THE COLORED PEOPLE THEMSELVES; AND INCREASING NUMBER OF WHITE PEOPLE DENY. IF AMERICAN NEGROES IN THE ARMY OR IN INDUSTRY OR IN SCHOOLS AND COLLEGES SHOW ANY MARK OF INFERIORITY, MOST OF THAT INFERIORITY CAN BE TRACED DIRECTLY TO THE POOR TRAINING WHICH THEY HAVE PREVIOUSLY HAD; TO THE PLACES, HOMES AND NEIGHBORHOODS IN WHICH THEY HAVE BEEN COMPELLED TO LIVE; AND ESPECIALLY TO THE LOW INCOME WHICH THEY RECEIVE.

IN THIS WAY A SUPPRESSED GROUP LIKE AMERICAN NEGROES RESEMBLES IN MANY RESPECTS THE SITUATION IN THE COLONIES. HOWEVER IN THIS CASE IF WE ASK FOR ANY ACTION BY THE UNITED NATIONS, WE WOULD BE FACED BY THE

OBJECTION THAT THIS IS AN INTERNAL AFFAIR AND THAT THE UNITED NATIONS HAS NO BUSINESS TO INTERFERE WITH THE INTERNAL POLICIES OF NATIONS.

IT WILL BE A GREAT MISTAKE FOR THE UNITED NATIONS AND THE FRIENDS OF UNIVERSAL ORGANIZATION FOR PEACE AND PROSPERITY, TO TAKE A STAND LIKE THIS. ANY ORGANIZATION MEANS BY ITS VERY NATURE THE CURTAILMENT OF INDIVIDUAL NATIONAL FREEDOM AND INITIATIVE. IT IS OF COURSE DESIRABLE THAT INITIATIVE BE CURTAILED ONLY IN SO FAR AS THAT IS ABSOLUTELY NECESSARY FOR UNIVERSAL PROGRESS. BUT IF WE ARE GOING TO HAVE A UNITED NATIONS, WHICH IS ANYTHING MORE THAN A WORD AND EXPRESSION OF HOPE, IT MEANS THAT THE ACTION OF THE GREAT NATIONS WHICH COMPOSE THIS ORGANIZATION ARE GOING TO BE AMENABLE TO THE PUBLIC WILL, TO UNIVERSAL PUBLIC OPINION; THAT THEY CANNOT CONTINUE TO FEEL THEMSELVES FREE TO CARRY ON A NATIONAL PROGRAM OR ANY TREATMENT EVEN OF THEIR OWN CITIZENS AND AFFAIRS, WHICH IS, IN THE JUDGMENT OF THE WORLD, A THREAT TO WORLD

PEACE AND TO WORLD PROGRESS.

IT IS FOR THIS REASON THAT THE AMERICAN NEGROES HAVE A RIGHT TO PUT THEIR CASE BEFORE THE UNITED NATIONS AND TO SAY THAT HERE IN AMERICA WHERE WE PROFESS DEMOCRACY WE HAVE BUILT UP A LEGAL CASTE SYSTEM WHICH INTEFERES WITH FAMILY LIFE;WHICH COUTS DOWN THE WAGES OF NEGROES THROUGH DISCRIMINAT ON; AND DENIES THEM MEDICAL SERVICE AND HOSPITAL FACILITIES; AND WHICH ESPECIALLY MAKES IT IMPOSSIBLE FOR THE MAJORITY OF NEGROES TO LEARN TO READ AND WRITE WELL. AND THAT FOR THIS REASON THE UNITED NATIONS SHOULD TAKE COGNIZANCE OF THIS SITUATI ON AND AT LEAST MAKE IT KNOW TO THE WORLD IN ORDER THAT WORLD SHOULD OPPOSE THIS TREATMENT OF NEGROES IN THE UNITED STATES; AND SUCH INTERNATIONAL ACTION SHOULD ESPECIALLY POINT OUT THAT THIS SITUATION IS A CONTRADICITION AND DIRECT NULLIFACATION OF THE LAWS WHICH THIS COUNTRY HAS MADE FOR ITS OWN GUIDANCE. I TRUST THEREFORE THAT YOU AS LIBRIANS AND PERSONS INTERESTED IN LIBRARIES ARE GOING TO SEE

TO IT THAT THIS ASPECT OF COLONIES AND SUPPRESSED AMERICAN NEGROES WILL BE BROUGHT TO THE ATTENTION OF THE UNITED NATIONS. WHICH IS MAKING ITS CAPITOL AND CENTER IN OUR LAND.

To the Southern Negro Youth Congress, October 20, 1946

The future of American Negroes is in the South. Here three hundred and twenty-seven years ago, they began to enter what is now the United States of America; here they have made their greatest contribution to American culture; and here they have suffered the damnation of slavery, the frustration of reconstruction and the lynching of emancipation. I trust then that an organization like yours is going to regard the South as the battle-ground of a great crusade. Here is the magnificent climate; here is the fruitful earth under the beauty of the Southern sun; and here if anywhere on earth, is the need of the thinker, the worker and the dreamer. This is the firing line not simply for the emancipation of the American Negro but for the emancipation of the African Negro and the Negroes of the West Indies; for the emancipation of the colored races; and for the emancipation of the white slaves of modern capitalistic monopoly.

Remember here, too, that you do not stand alone. It may seem like a failing fight when the newspapers ignore you; when every effort is made by white people in the South to count you out of citizenship and to act as though you did not exist as human beings while all the time they are profiting by your labor; gleaning wealth from your sacrifices and trying to build a nation and a civilization upon your degradation. You must remember that despite all this, you have allies and allies even in the white South. First and greatest of these possible allies are the white working classes about you. The poort whites whom you have been taught to despise and who in turn have learned to fear and hate you. This must not deter you from efforts to make them understand, because in the past in their ignoranae and suffering they have been led foolishly to look upon you as the cause of most of their distress. You must remember that this attitude is hereditary from slavery and that it has been deliberately cultivated ever since emancipation.

Slowly but surely the working people of the South, white and black, must come to remember that their emancipation depends upon their mutual cooperation; upon their acquaintanceship with each other; upon their friendship; upon their social intermingling. Unless this happens each is going to be made the football to break the heads and hearts of the other.

White youth in the South is peculiarly frustrated. There is not a single great ideal which they can express or aspire to, that does not bring them into flat contradiction with the Negro problem. The more they try to escape it, the more they land into hypocrisy, lying and double-dealing; the more they become, what they least wish to become, the oppressors and despisers of human beings. Some of them, in larger and larger numbers, are bound to turn toward the truth and to recognize you as brothers and sisters, as fellow travellers toward the dawn.

There has always been in the South that intellectual elite who saw the Negro problem clearly. They have always lacked and some still lack the courage to stand up for what they know is right. Nevertheless they can be depended on in the long run to follow their own clear thinking and their own decent choice. Finally even the politicans must eventually recongize the trend in the world, in this country, and in the South. James Byrnes, that favorite son of this commonwealth, and Secretary of State of the United States, is today occupying an indefensible and impossible position; and if he survives in the memory of men,he must begin to help establish in his own South Carolina something of that democracy which he has been recently so loudly preaching to Russia. He is the end of a long series of men whose eternal damnation is the fact that they looked TRUTH in the face and did not see it; John C. Calhoun, Wade Hampton, Ben Tillman are men whose names must ever be besmirched by the fact that they fought against freedom and democracy in a land which was founded upon Democracy and Freedom.

Eventually this class of men must yield to the writing in the stars. That great hypocrite, Jan Smuts, who today is talking of humanity and standing beside Byrnes for a United Nations, is at the same time, oppressing the black people of Africa to an extent which makes their two countries, South Africa and the Southern South, the most reactionary peoples on earth. Peoples whose exploitation of the poor and helpless, reahes the last degree of shame. They must in the long run yield to the forward march of civilization or die.

If now you young people instead of runn ng away from the battle here in Carolina, Georgia, Alabama, Louisiana and Mississippi, instead of seeking freedom and opportunity in Chicago and New York which do spell opportunity - nevertheless grit your teeth and make up your minds to fight it out right here if it takes every day of your lives and the lives of your childrens' children. If you do this, you must in meetings like this ask yourselves what does the fight mean? How can it be carried on? What are the best tools, arms, and methods? And where does it lead?

I should be the last to insist that the uplift of mankind never calls for force and death. There are times, as both you and I know, when

"Tho' love repine and reason chafe,
There came a voice without reply,
'Tis man's perdition to be safe
When for the truth he ought to die.'

At the same time and even more clearly in a day like this, after the millions of mass murders that have been done in the world since 1914, we ought to be the last to believe that force is ever the final word. We cannot escape the clear fact that what is going to win in this world is reason if this ever becomes a reasonable world. The careful reasoning of the human mind backed by the facts of science is the one salvation of man. The world, if it resumes its march toward civilization, cannot ignore reason. This has been the tragedy of the South in the past; it is still its awful and unforgivable sin that it has set its face against reason and against the fact. It tried to build slavery upon freedom; it tried to build tyranny upon democracy; it tried to build mob violence on law and law on lynching and in all that despicable endeavor, the state of South Carolina has led the South for a century. It began not the Civil War - not the War between the States but the War to Preserve Slavery; it began mob violence and lynching and today it stands in the front rank of those defying the Supreme Court on disfranchisement.

Nevertheless reason can and will prevail; but of course it can only prevail with publicity - pitiless, blatant publicity. You have got to make the people of the United States and of the world know what is going on in the South. You have got to use every field of publicity to force the truth into their ears, and before their eyes. You have got to make it impossible for any human being to live in the South and not realize the barbarities that prevail here. You may be condemned for flamboyant methods; for calling a congress like this; for waving your grievances under the noses and in the faces of men. That makes no difference; it is your duty to do it. It is your duty to do more of this sort of thing than you have done in the past. As a result of this you are going to be called upon for sacrifice. It is no easy thing for a young black man or a young black woman to live in the South today and to plan to continue to live here; to marry and raise childfen; to establish a home. They are in the midst of legal caste and customary insults; they are in continuous danger of mob violence; they are mistreated by the officers of the law and they have no hearing before the courts and the churches and public opinion commensurate with the attention which they ought to receive. But that sacrifice is only the Beginning of Battle, you must re-build this South.

There are enormous opportunities here for a new nation, a new Economy, a new culture in a South really new and not a mere renewal of an old South of slavery, monopoly and race hate. There is a chance for a new cooperative agriculture on renewed land owned by the State with capital furnished by the State, mechanized zand coordinated with city life. There is chance for strong, virile Trade Unions without race discrimination, with high wage, closed shop and decent conditions of work to beat back and hold in check the swarm of landlords, monopolists and profiteers who are today sucking the blood out of this land. There is chance for cooperative industry, built on the cheap power of T.V.A. and its future extensions. There is opportunity to organize and mechanize domestic service with decent hours, and high wage and dignified training. There is a vast field for consumers cooperation, building business on public service and not on private profit as the main-spring of industry. There is chance for a broad, sunny, healthy home life, shorn of the fear of mobs and liquor, and rescued from lying, stealing polititions, who build their deviltry on race prejudice. Here in this South is the gateway to the colored millions of the West Indies, Central and South America. Here is the straight path to Africa, the Indies, China and the South Seas. Here is the Path to the Greater, Freer truer World. It would be shame and cowardice to surrender this glorious land and its opportunities for civilization and humanity to the thugs and lynchers, the mobs and profiteers, the monopolists and gamblers who today choke its soil and steal its resources. The oil and sulpher: the coal and iron; the cotton and corn; the lumber and cattle belong to you the workers, black and white, and not to the thieves who hold them and use them to enslave you. They can be rescued and restored to the people if you have the guts to strive for the real right to vote, the right to real education, the right to happiness and health and the total abolition of the father of these scourges of mankind, POVERTY.

"Behold the beautiful land which the Lord thy God hath given thee." Behold the land, the rich and resourceful land, from which for a hundred years its best elements have been running away, its youth and hope black and white, scurrying North because they are afraid of each other, and dare not face a future of equal, independent, upstanding human beings, in a real and not a sham democracy.

To rescue this land, in this way, calls for the Great Sacrifice; This is the thing that you are called upon to do because it is the right thing to do. Because you are embarked upon a great and holy crusade, the emancipation of mankind black and white; the upbuilding of democracy; the breaking down, particularly here in the South, of forces of evil represented by race prejudice in South Carolina; by Lynching in Georgia; by disfranchisement in Mississippi; by ignorance in Louisiana and by all these and monopoly of wealth in the whole South.

There could be no more splendid vacation beckoning to the youth of the twentieth century, after the flat failures of white civilization, after the flamboyant establishment of an industrial system which creates poverty and the children of poverty which are ignorance and disease and c crime; after the crazy boasting of a white culture that finally ended in wars which ruined civilization in the whole world; in the midst of allied peoples who have yelled about democracy and never practised it either in the British Empire or in the American Commonwealth or in South Carolina.

Here is the chance for young women and young men of devotion to lift again the banner of humanity and to walk toward a civilization which will be free and intelligent; which will be healthy and unafraid; and build in the world a culture led by black folk and joined by peoples of all colors and all races - without poverty, ignorance and disease!

Once a great German poet cried: "Selig der Er in Sieges Glänze findet"

"Happy man whom Death shall find in Victory's splendor"

But I know a happier one: he who fights in despair and in defeat still fights. Singing with Arna Bontemps the quiet, determined philosophy of undefeatable men:

36-7-25

"I thought I saw an angel flying low,
I thought I saw the flicker of a wing
Above the mulberry trees; but not again,
Bethesda sleeps. This ancient pool that healed
A Host of bearded Jews does not awake.
This pool that once the angels troubled does not move.
No angel stirs it now, no Saviour comes
With healing in His hands to raise the sick and bid the lame man leap upon the ground.

The golden days are gone. Why do we wait
So long upon the marble steps, blood
Falling from our open wounds? and why
Do our black faces search the empty sky?
Is there something we have forgotten? Some precious thing
We have lost, wandering in strange lands?

There was a day, I remember now,
I beat my breast and cried, "Wash me God,"
Wash me with a wave of wind upon
The barley; O quiet one, draw near, draw near!
Walk upon the hills with lovely feet
And in the waterfall stand and speak!

W. E. B. Du Bois

Southern Negro Conference / 1 "Behold the Lord"

20 October 1944

THE FUTURE OF THE AMERICAN NEGRO IS IN THE SOUTH. HERE THREE HUNDRED AND TWENTY-SIX YEARS AGO, THEY BEGAN TO ENTER WHAT IS NOW THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA; HERE THEY HAVE MADE THEIR GREATEST CONTRIBUTION TO AMERICAN CULTURE; AND HERE THEY HAVE SUFFERED THE DAMNATION OF SLAVERY AND THE FRUSTRATION OF RECONSTRUCTION AND THE LYNCHING OF EMANCIPATION. I TRUST THEN THAT AN ORGANIZATION LIKE YOURS IS GOING TO REGARD THE SOUTH AS THE FIRING LINE OF A GREAT CRUSADE. HERE IS THE MAGNIFICENT CLIMATE; HERE IS THE FRUITFUL EARTH UNDER THE BEAUTY OF THE SOUTHERN SUN; AND HERE IF ANYWHERE ON EARTH, IS THE NEED OF THE THINKER, THE WORKER AND THE DREAMER. THIS IS THE FIRING LINE NOT SIMPLY FOR THE EMANCIPATION OF THE AMERICAN NEGRO BUT FOR THE EMANCIPATION OF THE AFRICAN NEGRO AND THE NEGROES OF THE WEST INDIES; FOR THE EMANCIPATION OF THE COLORED RACES; AND FOR THE EMANCIPATION OF THE WHITE SLAVES OF MODERN CAPITALISTIC MONOPOLY.

36-7-160

REMEMBER HERE THAT, TOO, YOU DO NOT STAND ALONE. IT MAY SEEM

2

LIKE A FAILING FIGHT WHEN THE NEWSPAPERS IGNORE YOU; WHEN EVERY EFFORT IS MADE BY THE WHITE PEOPLE OF THE SOUTH TO COUNT YOU OUT OF CITIZENSHIP AND TO ACT AS THOUGH YOU DID NOT EXIST AS HUMAN BEINGS WHILE ALL THE TIME THEY WERE PROFITING BY YOUR LABOR; GLEANING WEALTH FROM YOUR SACRIFICES AND TRYING TO BUILD A NATION AND A CIVILIZATION UPON YOUR DEGRADATION. YOU MUST REMEMBER THAT DESPITE ALL THIS, YOU HAVE ALLIES AND ALLIES EVEN IN THE WHITE SOUTH. FIRST AND GREATEST OF THESE POSSIBLE ALLIES ARE THE WHITE WORKING CLASSES ABOUT YOU. THE POOR WHITES WHOM YOU HAVE BEEN TAUGHT TO DESPISE AND WHO IN TURN HAVE LEARNED TO FEAR AND HATE YOU. THIS MUST NOT DETER YOU FROM EFFORTS TO MAKE THEM UNDERSTAND, BECAUSE IN THE PAST IN THEIR IGNORANCE AND SUFFERING THEY HAVE BEEN LED FOOLISHLY TO LOOK UPON YOU AS THE CAUSE OF MOST OF THEIR DISTRESS. YOU MUST REMEMBER THAT THIS ATTITUDE IS HEREDITY FROM SLAVERY AND THAT IT HAS BEEN DELIBERATELY CULTIVATED BY

SINCE EMANCIPATION.

SLOWLY BUT SURELY THE WORKING PEOPLE OF THE SOUTH, WHITE AND BLACK, MUST COME TO REMEMBER THAT THEIR EMANCIPATION DEPENDS UPON THEIR MUTUAL COOPERATION; UPON THEIR ACQUAINTANCESHIP WITH EACH OTHER; UPON THEIR FRIENDSHIP; UPON THEIR SOCIAL INTERMINGLING. UNLESS THIS HAPPENED EACH IS GOING TO BE MADE THE FOOTBALL TO BREAK THE HEADS AND HEARTS OF THE OTHER.

WHITE YOUTH IN THE SOUTH IS PECULIARLY FRUSTRATED. THERE IS NOT A SINGLE GREAT IDEAL TO WHICH THEY CAN EXPRESS OR ASPIRE TO, THAT DOES NOT BRING THEM INTO FLAT CONTRADICTION WITH THE NEGRO PROBLEM. THE MORE THEY TRY TO ESCAPE IT, THE MORE THEY LAND INTO HYPOCRISY, LYING AND DOUBLE-DEALING; THE MORE THEY BECOME, WHAT THEY LEAST WISH TO BECOME, THE OPPRESSORS AND DESPISERS OF HUMAN BEINGS. SOME OF THEM, IN LARGER AND LARGER NUMBERS, ARE BOUND TO TURN TOWARD THE TRUTH AND TO RECOGNIZE YOU AS BROTHERS AND SISTERS. AS FELLOW TRAVELLER TOWARD THE DAWN.

THERE HAS ALWAYS BEEN IN THE SOUTH THAT INTELLECTUAL ELITE WHO SAW THE NEGRO PROBLEM CLEARLY. THEY HAVE ALWAYS LACKED AND STILL LACK THE COURAGE TO STAND UP FOR WHAT THEY KNOW IS RIGHT. NEVERTHELESS THEY CAN BE DEPENDED ON IN THE LONG RUN TO FOLLOW THEIR OWN CLEAR THINKING AND THEIR OWN DECENT CHOICE. FINALLY EVEN THE POLITICANS MUST EVENTUALLY RECOGNIZE THE TREND IN THE WORLD, IN THIS COUNTRY, AND IN THE SOUTH. JAMES BYRNES, THAT FAVORITE SON OF THIS COMMONWEALTH, AND SECRETARY OF STATE OF THE UNITED STATES, IS TODAY OCCUPYING AN INDEFENSIBLE AND IMPOSSIBLE POSITION; AND IF HE SURVIVES IN THE MEMORY OF MEN, HE MUST BEGIN TO ESTABLISH IN HIS OWN SOUTH CAROLINA SOMETHING OF THAT DEMOCRACY WHICH HE HAS BEEN RECENTLY SO LOUDLY PREACHING TO RUSSIA. HE IS THE END OF A LONG SERIES OF MEN WHOSE ETERNAL DAMNATION IS THE FACT THAT THEY LOOKED TRUTH IN THE FACE AND DID NOT SEE IT: JOHN C. CALHOUN, WADE HAMPTON, BEN TILLMAN ARE MEN WHOSE NAMES MUST EVER BE BESMIRCHED BY THE FACT THEY THEY FOUGHT AGAINST FREEDOM AND DEMOCRACY IN A LAND WHICH

WAS FOUNDED UPON DEMOCRACY AND FREEDOM.

IF NOW YOU YOUNG PEOPLE INSTEAD OF RUNNING AWAY FROM THE BATTLE HERE IN CAROLINA, GEORGIA, ALABAMA, LOUISIANA AND MISSISSIPPI, INSTEAD OF SEEKING THE FREEDOM AND OPPORTUNITY IN CHICAGO AND NEW YORK, WHICH DO SPELL OPPORTUNITY - NEVERTHELESS GRIT YOUR TEETH AND MAKE UP YOUR MINDS TO FIGHT IT OUT RIGHT HERE IF IT TAKE EVERY DAY OF YOUR LIVES AND THE LIVES OF YOUR CHILDRENS' CHILDREN MUST IN MEETINGS LIKE THIS ASK YOURSELVES WHAT DOES THE FIGHT MEAN? HOW CAN IT BE CARRIED ON? WHAT ARE THE BEST TOOLS, ARMS, AND METHODS?

I SHOULD BE THE LAST TO INSIST THAT THE UPLIFT OF MANKIND NEVER CALLS FOR FORCE AND DEATH. THERE ARE TIMES, AS BOTH YOU AND I KNOW, WHEN "THO' LOVE REPINE AND REASON CHAFE,

THERE CAME A VOICE WITHOUT REPLY,
'TIS MAN'S PERDITION TO BE SAFE
WHEN FOR THE TRUTH HE OUGHT TO DIE.'

AT THE SAME TIME AND JUST EVEN MORE CLEARLY IN A DAY LIKE THIS, AFTER THE MILLIONS OF MASS MURDERS THAT HAVE BEEN DONE IN THE WORLD SINCE 1914, WE OUGHT TO BE THE LAST TO BELIEVE THAT FORCE IS EVER THE FINAL WORD. WE CANNOT ESCAPE THE CLEAR FACT THAT WHAT IS GOING TO WIN IN THIS WORLD IS REASON IF THIS EVER BECOMES A REASONABLE WORLD. THE CAREFUL REASONING OF THE HUMAN MIND BACKED BY THE FACTS OF SCIENCE IS THE ONE SALVATION OF MAN.

THE WORLD, IF IT CONTINUES ITS MARCH TOWARD CIVILIZATION, CANNOT IGNORE REASON. THIS HAS BEEN THE TRAGEDY OF THE SOUTH IN THE PAST; IT IS STILL ITS AWFUL AND UNFORGIVABLE SIN HAS SET ITS FACE AGAINST REASON AND AGAINST THE FACT. IT TRIED TO BUILD SLAVERY UPON FREEDOM; IT TRIED TO BUILD TYRANNY UPON DEMOCRACY; IT TRIED TO BUILD MOB VIOLENCE ON LAW AND LAW ON LYNCHING AND IN ALL THAT DESPICALBE ENDEAVOR, THE STATE OF SOUTH CAROLINA HAS LED THE SOUTH FOR A CENTURY. IT BEGAN THE WAR TO PRESERVE SLAVERY; IT LED IN MOB VIOLENCE AND LYNCHING AND TODAY IT STANDS IN THE FRONT RANKS IN DEFYING THE SUPREME COURT ON DISFRANCHISEMENT.

NEVER THELESS REASON CAN AND WILL PREVAIL; BUT OF COURSE IT CAN ONLY PREVAIL WITH PUBLICITY - PITILESS, BLATANT PUBLICITY. YOU HAVE GOT TO MAKE THE PEOPLE OF THE UNITED STATES AND OF THE WORLD KNOW WHAT IS GOING ON IN THE SOUTH. YOU HAVE GOT TO USE EVERY FIELD OF PUBLICITY TO FORCE THE

TRUTH INTO THEIR EARS, AND BEFORE THEIR EYES. YOU HAVE GOT TO MAKE IT IMPOSSIBLE FOR ANY HUMAN BEING TO LIVE IN THE SOUTH AND NOT REALIZE THE BARBARITIES THAT PREVAIL HERE. YOU MAY BE CONDEMNED FOR FLAMBOYANT METHODS; FOR CALLING A CONGRESS LIKE THIS; FOR WAVING YOUR GRIEVANCES UNDER THE NOSES AND IN THE FACES OF MEN. THAT MAKES NO DIFFERENCE; IT IS YOUR DUTY TO DO IT. IT IS YOUR DUTY TO DO MORE of THIS SORT OF THING THAN YOU HAVE DONE IN THE PAST. AS A RESULT OF THIS YOU ARE GOING TO BE CALLED UPON FOR SACRIFICE. IT IS NO EASY THING FOR A YOUNG BLACK MAN OR A YOUNG BLACK WOMAN TO LIVE IN THE SOUTH TODAY AND TO PLAN TO CONTINUE TO LIVE HERE; TO MARRY AND RAISE CHILDREN; TO ESTABLISH A HOME. THEY ARE IN THE MIDST OF LEGAL CASTE AND CUSTOMARY INSULTS; THEY ARE IN CONTINOUS DANGER OF MOB VIOLENCE; THEY ARE MISTREATED BY THE OFFICERS OF THE LAW AND THEY HAVE NO HEARING BEFORE THE COURTS AND THE CHURCHES AND PUBLIC OPINION COMMENSURATE WITH THE ATTENTION WHICH THEY OUGHT TO RECEIVE.

THIS IS THE GREAT SACRIFICE; THIS IS THE THING THAT YOU ARE CALLED UPON TO DO BECAUSE IT IS THE RIGHT THING TO DO. BECAUSE YOU ARE EMBARKED UPON A GREAT AND HOLY CRUSADE, THE EMANCIPATION OF MANKIND BLACK AND WHITE; THE UPBUILDING OF DEMOCRACY; THE BREAKING DOWN, PARTICULARLY HERE IN THE SOUTH, OF FORCES OF EVIL REPRESENTED BY RACE PREJUDICE IN SOUTH CAROLINA; BY LYNCHING IN GEORGIA; BY DISFRANCHISEMENT IN MISSISSIPPI; BY IGNORANCE IN LOUISIANA AND BY ALL THESE IN THE WHOLE SOUTH.

THERE COULD BE NO MORE SPLENDID VOCATION BECKONING TO THE YOUTH OF THE TWENTIETH CENTURY, AFTER THE FLAT FAILURES OF WHITE CIVILIZATION, AFTER THE FLAMBOYANT ESTABLISHMENT OF AN INDUSTRIAL SYSTEM WHICH CREATES POVERTY AND THE CHILDREN OF POVERTY WHICH ARE IGNORANCE AND DISEASE AND CRIME; AFTER THE CRAZY BOASTING OF A WHITE CULTURE WHICH FINALLY ENDED IN WAR WHICH RUINED THE CIVILIZATION OF THE WORLD; IN THE MIDST OF THE ALLIED PEOPLE WHO HAVE YELLED ABOUT DEMOCRACY AND NEVER PRACTISED IT EITHER IN

THE BRITISH EMPIRE OR IN THE AMERICAN COMMONWEALTH.

HERE IS THE CHANCE FOR YOUNG WOMEN AND YOUNG MEN OF DEVOTION TO LIFT AGAIN THE BANNER OF HUMANITY AND TO WALK TOWARD A CIVILIZATION WHICH WILL BE FREE AND INTELLIGENT; WHICH WILL BE HEALTHY AND UNAFRAID; AND BUILD IN THE WORLD A CULTURE LED BY BLACK FOLK AND JOINED BY PEOPLES OF ALL COLORS AND ALL RACES.

ONCE A GREAT GERMAN POET CRIED:

HAPPY THE MAN WHO DIES IN VICTORY'S SPLENDOR

BUT I KNOW A HAPPIER ONE: HE WHO FIGHTS IN DESPAIR AND IN DEFEAT STILL FIGHTS.

"I THOUGHT I SAW AN ANGEL FLYING LOW,
I THOUGHT I SAW THE FLICKER OF A WING

BETHESDA SLEEPS. THIS ANCIENT POOL THAT HEALED

A HOST OF BEARDED JEWS DOES NOT AWAKE.
THIS POOL THAT ONCE THE ANGELS TROUBLED DOES NOT MOVE.
NO ANGEL STIRS IT NOW, NO SAVIOUR COMES
WITH HEALING IN HIS HANDS TO RAISE THE SICK
AND BID THE LAME MAN LEAP UPON THE GROUND.

THE GOLDEN DAYS ARE GONE. WHY DO WE WAIT
SO LONG UPON THE MARBLE STEPS, BLOOD
FALLING FROM OUR OPEN WOUNDS? AND WHY
DO OUR BLACK FACES SEARCH THE EMPTY SKY?
IS THERE SOMETHING WE HAVE FORGOTTEN? SOME PRECIOUS THING
WE HAVE LOST, WANDERING IN STRANGE LANDS?

THERE WAS A DAY, I REMEMBER NOW,
I BEAT MY BREAST AND CRIED, "WASH ME GOD,

36-7-165

WASH ME WITH A WAVE OF WIND UPON
THE BARLEY; O QUIET ONE, DRAW NEAR, DRAW NEAR!
WALK UPON THE HILLS WITH LOVELY FEET
AND IN THE WATERFALL STAND AND SPEAK.

W.E.B. Du Bois "Stage for action" October 1946

TWO THINGS I MAY SAY: THE ONE IS BY WAY OF APOLOGY IN APPEARING UPON A PROGRAM DEVOTED TO THE DRAMA. MY OWN PERSONAL INTEREST IN THE DRAMA AS TOUCHING AMERICAN NEGROES AND RACE RELATIONS DATES BACK TO THE CELEBRATION OF THE FIFTIETH ANNIVERSARY OF EMANCIAPATION HELD IN NEW YORK CITY IN 1913. WE STAGED THERE A PAGEANT OF NEGRO HISTORY CALLED "THE STAR OF ETHIOPIA" WHICH WAS SO SUCCESSFUL THAT I WAS INDUCED TO TAKE IT TO WASHINGTON IN 1914 WHERE WE PLAYED IT UPON A BALLFIELD WITH A THOUSAND ACTORS. IT WAS STRIKING SPECTACLE; IT WAS REPEATED AFTERWARDS IN PHILADELPHIA ON THE ONE HUNDREDTH ANNIVERSARY OF THE A.M.E. CHURCH AND LATER IN LOS ANGELES, IN THE HOLLYWOOD BOWL.

I WAS ON THESE OCCASIONS TRYING FOR SOMETHING MORE THAN A MERE SPECTACLE; I WAS SEEKING FOR SELF-EXPRESSION ON THE PART OF A GROUP OF PEOPLE WHO, QUITE BEYOND THE FACT OF THEIR PHYSICAL LIKENESS AND BIOLOGICAL DESCENT, HAVE A CULTURAL AND SPIRITUAL UNITY, WHICH COMES FROM A LONG HISTORY OF OPPRESSION AND REPRESSION; AND WHICH CALLED FOR EXPRESSION TO BENEFIT OF HUMAN PROGRESS.

LATER IN 1926 A GIFT OF PRIZES FOR WRITING AND PLAYS LED TO THE ESTABLISHMENT OF THE CRISIS GUILD OF WRITERS, AND ACTORS; KRIGWA AS WE CALLED IT. FROM THIS WE MOVED IN A FEW YEARS TO THE ESTABLISHMENT OF A LITTLE THEATRE IN THE BASEMENT OF 135thSTREET BRANCH OF THE NEW YORK PUBLIC LIBRARY. WE GAVE PLAYS FROM TIME TO TIME AND AT ONE TIME GAINED THE SECOND PRIZE IN THE NATION-WIDE LITTLE THEATRE CONTEST. BUT OUR ACTORS WERE HIRED AWAY BY BROADWAY AND THE AUDIENCE DID NOT GRASP THE IDEA OF SELF-EXPRESSION IN FOR THEIR OWN LIFE IN HARLEM AND IN UNITED STATES. SO WHILE WE MADE SOME SORT OF BEGINNING WE DID NOT GO FAR.

THIS THEN IS MY PERSONAL INTEREST IN THE NEGRO STAGE. I WANT

TO EMPHASIZE THE STATEMENT WHICH I MADE BEFORE: A GROUP OF PEOPLE NO MATTER WHAT THEIR BIOLOGICAL BACKGROUND MAY BE; NO MATTER WHAT THEIR COLOR AND RACE, IF THEY HAVE LIVED, worked AND STRIVEN TOGETHER AS A GROUP; IF THEY SHARE THE SAME MEMORIES AND EXPERIENCES, THEY HAVE SOMETHING WHICH THEY OUGHT TO EXPRESS FOR THE BENEFIT OF MANKIND AND THE DRAMA IS ONE GREAT AND FINE MODE OF EXPRESSION. THIS THEN IS THE WIDE AND FRUITFUL FIELD FOR THE NEGRO DRAMA IN THE UNITED STATES.

RECENT AFRICAN MOVEMENTS FOR FREEDOM

THERE HAS BEEN ALMOST NO EFFORT IN MODERN TIMES TO COLLECT AND STUDY THE VARIOUS MOVEMENTS AMONG AFRICAN PEOPLES LOOKING TOWARD EMANCIPATION AND AUTONOMY. THIS IS SO TRUE THAT THERE IS A PREVALENT OPINION, AMONG EVEN INTELLIGENT MEN, THAT OF ALL THE COUNTRIES OF THE WORLD, AFRICA ALONE IS SILENT CONCERNING HER OWN EMANCIPATION. THIS OF COURSE IS ASTONISHINGLY UNTRUE.

REPEATEDLY THESE DEMANDS HAVE TAKEN THE FORM OF DESPERATE WAR AND REVOLT, AS SHOWN BY THE SIX ASHANTI WARS AGAINST THE BRITISH, THE INNUMERABLE WARS OF THE KAFFIRS AND ZULUS AGAINST THE BOERS AND ENGLISH IN SOUTH AFRICA; THE STRUGGLE IN THE SUDAN AND EAST AFRICA AGAINST EUROPE AND ASIA FROM TWO THOUSAND YEARS BEFORE CHRIST TO THE REVOLT OF THE MAHDI IN 1881; THE FIGHTING IN ABBYSSINIA AGAINST PORTUGUESE, ENGLISH AND ITALIANS FROM THE FIFTEENTH CENTURY TO THE TWENTIETH CENTURY, AND THE BLOODY INDUSTRIAL STRIKES OF OUR DAY.

BUT I PASS OVER THESE WARS AND PHYSICAL STRUGGLES TO STRESS THE MORAL AND INTELLECTUAL BATTLES OF AFRICA IN THE TWENTIETH CENTURY. I HAVE OFTEN SAID THAT THE REPORT OF THE NATIONAL CONGRESS OF BRITISH WEST AFRICA HELD IN ACCRA, GOLD COAST, BRITISH WEST AFRICA, MARCH 15-23, 1920, SHOULD BE STUDIED IN UNIVERSITIES AS A DOCUMENT ON THE DEVELOPMENT OF DEMOCRACY IN THE WORLD. I QUOTE ONE PARAGRAPH: "...THE PEOPLE HAVING THEIR OWN NATURAL REPRESENTATIVE SYSTEM AND THE GOVERNMENT ASSUMING THE POWER OF PASSING MEASURES AGAINST THE SOLID VOTE OF THE MEMBERS OF THE LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL, NOMINATED BY GOVERNMENT AND PUT FORWARD BY GOVERNMENT AS REPRESENTING THE PEOPLE, IS A STANDING GRIEVANCE AND IN THE INTEREST OF THE PEOPLE THE TIME HAS COME WHEN THIS PARTICULAR DISABILITY SHOULD BE REMOVED. IT HAS BECOME IMPERATIVE THEREFORE, NOW FOR THE PEOPLE BY CONSTITUTIONAL AGITATION TO BRING HOME TO THE BRITISH GOVERNMENT THE ABSOLUTE NECESSITY OF REMOVING SUCH DISABILITY AND GRANTING THE FRANCHISE TO THE

TO THE PEOPLE OF BRITISH WEST AFRICA."

EVERY PART OF AFRICA HAS HELPED TOWARD FREEDOM AND EACH HAS TAKEN DIFFERENT WAYS OF REACHING THEIR ASPIRATIONS AND DEMANDS. THERE IS NOT TIME TO RECOUNT ALL THESE MOVEMENTS HERE; I CAN ONLY REFER BRIEFLY TO A FEW. THE STRUGGLE OF THE NEGROES OF SOUTH AFRICA TO OBTAIN EDUCATION AND POLITICAL RECOGNITION, IS ONE WHICH GOES BACK TO THE SEVENTEENTH CENTURY, BUT NEVERTHELESS IS STILL ALIVE AS THE RECENT APPEAL OF SOUTH AFRICANS TO THE UNITED NATIONS SHOWS: "...WE HAVE DEMANDS. BUT OUR DEMANDS ARE NOT AT THE EXPENSE OF OTHER PEOPLES. OUR DEMANDS CAN ONLY ADVANCE THE CAUSE OF BUILDING A PEACEFUL WORLD ON NEW BEGINNINGS. WE ARE A PEACE-LOVING PEOPLE. WE HAVE NO ENMITY OR MALICE TOWARDS THE EUROPEANS, FOR WE WISH TO LIVE SIDE BY SIDE WITH THEM IN PEACE AND HARMONY. YET WE CAN ONLY LIVE SIDE BY SIDE WITH THEM IN PEACE AND HARMONY AS EQUALS AND NOT AS INFERIORS. WE ARE ALSO A CONSTITUTIONAL PEOPLE. AND IF WE MAKE

THIS DECLARATION DIRECTLY TO THE NATIONS OF THE WORLD AND NOT THROUGH THE GOVERNMENT OF THE UNION OF SOUTH AFRICA, IT IS BECAUSE IT MUST BE CLEAR FROM ALL THE FOREGOING, THAT IT WOULD BE BOTH LUDICROUS AND FUTILE TO APPEAL AGAINST THE TYRANTS THROUGH THE TYRANTS..."

THE BUNGA OF THE TRANSKEI IN CAPE COLONY SOUTH AFRICA IS PERHAPS THE MOST ADVANCED LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL AMONG NEGROES THE WORLD OVER, AND IS WELL-KNOWN FOR ITS PROFICIENCY. PROTECTORATES LIKE BASUTOLAND, FOUNDED BY THE GREAT MOSESH WHO IN THE MOMENT OF VICTORY DELIBERATELY OFFERED ENGLAND PEACE INSTEAD OF WAR AND ESPECIALLY TODAY BECHUANALAND UNDER THE EDUCATED YOUNG CHIEF, TSHEKEDI KHAMA, ARE EXAMPLES OF DETERMINATION AND ABILITY FIGHTING AGAINST TREMENDOUS POLITICAL AND ECONOMIC ODDS. THERE IS THE STRUGGLE OF UGANDA STARTING BACK WITH THE MISSIONARIES OF NINETEENTH CENTURY BUT CONTINUING IN OUR DAY IN AN ECONOMIC AND POLITICAL STRUGGLE IN A COUNTRY WHOSE AUTONOMY HAS BEEN MAINTAINED FOR A THOUSAND YEARS.

IN WEST AFRICA ON THE GOLD COAST AND IN NIGERIA THERE IS NOT ONLY A CONTINUOUS HISTORY OF REVOLT, BUT A MODERN EFFORT AT LOGICAL APPEAL AND ASSERTION WHICH WE SEE CULMINATING IN OUR DAY. EVEN BACK IN THE NINETEENTH CENTURY THE FANTI CONFEDERATION WAS A STRIKING EXAMPLE OF AN ATTEMPT AT STATE BUILDING AND ORGANIZATION, IN ONE WEST AFRICAN TRIBE. THE MOVEMENT WAS CONTINUED BY THE ABORIGINES PROTECTION SOCIETY, THE CONGRESS OF BRITISH WEST AFRICA, AND TODAY BY THE NIGERIAN NATIONAL COUNCIL AND THE YOUTH MOVEMENT. IN FRENCH WEST AFRICA THE DEVELOPMENT OF THE SENEGAL IN POLITICAL POWER AND EDUCATION WITHOUT WAR SEES ITS CULMINATION TODAY IN THE RECOGNITION OF ALL BLACK COLONIAL AFRICA AS PART OF THE NEW FRENCH UNION AS THE EMPIRE WILL HEREAFTER BE CALLED.

IT IS ESPECIALLY APPROPRIATE TONIGHT TO REMIND YOU OF THE STRUGGLE WHICH ETHIOPIA HAS MADE SINCE THE SIXTEENTH CENTURY TO ESTABLISH AND MAINTAIN AN INDEPENDENT BLACK EMPIRE ON THE HEIGHTS OF THE CITADEL OF AFRICA HAS BEEN A TRIUMPH OF LOGICAL ARGUMENT AND MORAL RIGHT AS WELL

AS ARMS. THAT FIGHT IS BY NO MEANS FINISHED; IT IS STILL GOING ON AND IT SHOULD BE ONE OF THE DUTIES OF THE AMERICAN NEGROES TO BRING EVERY OUNCE OF THEIR GREAT POLITICAL POWER TO BEAR ON THE UNITED STATES IN ORDER THAT ETHIOPIA MAY RETAIN ERITREA, HER ANCIENT COLONY AND SEAPORT TO THE WORLD; THAT SHE BE FREED OF THE FOREIGN SOLDIERS WHICH STILL REMAIN UPON HER SOIL; AND ESPECIALLY THAT IN THE COMING TREATY OF PEACE, ITALY IS RESTRAINED FROM ANY MAINTAINING CLAIMS, UPON THE INDEPENDENT EMPIRE OF ETHIOPIA.

FINALLY MAY I POINT OUT THAT THE GREATEST MASS MOVEMENT IN AFRICA TODAY IS THE FORMATION OF TRADE UNIONS THROUGHOUT THE WHOLE LAND TO PROTECT LABOR. THE WAY IN WHICH THE VOICE OF COLORED LABOR WAS HEARD AROUND THE WORLD IN THE RECENT WORLD TRADE UNION CONFERENCE MARKED AN EPOCH. THE TWENTY-FIFTH PARAGRAPH OF THE FINAL DECISION OF THIS CONFERENCE WAS

"IN THE VIEW OF THIS WORLD CONFERENCE, IT IS LIKEWISE NECESSARY TO BRING TO AN END THE SYSTEM OF COLONIES, DEPENDENCIES AND SUBJECT COUNTRIES AS SPHERES OF ECONOMIC EXPLOITATION, AND TO FACILITATE IMMEDIATELY THE DEVELOPMENT OF FREE TRADE UNIONS IN THOSE COUNTRIES. IN THE COMING PEACE, THE FOUNDATIONS MUST BE LAID WITH ALL POSSIBLE SPEED, AND IN ACCORDANCE WITH ARTICLE 3 OF THE ATLANTIC CHARTER, OF A WORLD ORDER IN WHICH NON-SELF-GOVERNING COMMUNITIES AND NATIONS CAN ATTAIN THE STATUS OF FREE NATIONS THAT WILL ENABLE THEM TO GOVERN THEMSELVES AND TO DEVELOP THEIR OWN INSTITUTIONS OF FREE CITIZENSHIP."

NOBEL PRIZE AWARD SPEECH December 10, 1946

We have heard tonight an interesting summary of the vital interest in world peace which is shared by radio and cinema, science and the press, statesmen and teacher, woman and soldier, and students of society. Will you for one minute let me add a last word: The black folk of the world have small recognized place in any of these nine categories. Yet at the triumphant end of this program may I remind you that these two hundred millions of men and other millions of their fathers, through slavery and degradation from 1441 to 1865 and decades thereafter, gave the modern world the foundation of its wealth and power.

Victims of war in the midst of a century's crusade for peace, they still stand as the greatest single temptation to further war. There can be no certain peace in this world so long as cheap labor in Africa can furnish diamonds and gold, oil and cocoa, copper and a hundred other materials over which Europe and America stand ever willing to fight. The emancipation of the black masses of the world is the one guarantee of a firm foundation for world peace.

File Thomas Bell

THOMAS BELL WAS A SIMPLE, GOOD MAN. AFTER LONG HARD STRUGGLE, HE BECAME AN EXCELLENT PHYSICIAN. HE COUCILLED THE WELL, HEALED THE SICK , AND BROUGHT THE DYING UP FROM DEATH. AS A MAN HE BECAME CENTER OF A FAMILY WHO LOVED AND OBEYED HIM. HE LIVED IN A CITY WHICH FOLLOWED HIS LEADERSHIP, AND IN A STATE WHICH HONORED HIM; AND FOR A RACE WHICH DID NOT KNOW HIM, YET HEARD HIS STEPS. HE DIED AWAITING REST IN THE WEST, AND FOUND LONG REST IN THAT WEST WHICH IS FAR AWAY. HE DIED AS ALL MEN WANT TO DIE, PLYING HIS TRADE, STANDING IN A HOT CLINIC, SERVING THE SICK.

CIVIL RIGHTS LEGISLATION BEFORE AND AFTER THE PASSAGE OF THE 14TH AMENDMENT.

ONE MAY DIFFERENTIATE SOMETHING LIKE EIGHT DIFFERENT PERIODS IN THE RECOGNITION OF THE CIVIL RIGHTS OF CITIZENS OF NEGRO DESCENT IN THE UNITED STATES.

BEFORE THE NINETEENTH CENTURY, THE DENIAL OF CIVIL RIGHTS WAS NOT BASED WHOLLY UPON RACE. AT THAT TIME, MOST OF THE NEGROES IN THE UNITED STATES WERE SLAVES BUT NOT ALL; THERE WERE OVER A HUNDRED THOUSAND NEGROES, A TENTH OF THE NEGRO POPULATION, WHO WERE FREE AND WHO WERE NOT ONLY FREE BUT WERE RECOGNIZED AS HAVING SOME OF THE RIGHTS OF FREEMEN. BUT OF COURSE IN THOSE DAYS EVEN A FREE WHITE PERSON WAS LIMITED IN HIS CIVIL RIGHTS BY BIRTH AND BY HIS POSSESSION OF PROPERTY. NEVERTHELESS IT CAN BE SAID: IN THE EARLIER HISTORY EVEN OF THE SOUTH, FREE NEGROES HAD SOME CIVIL RIGHTS. INDEED? SO FAR AS THE LETTER OF THE LAW WAS CONCERNED, THERE WAS NOT A SINGLE SOUTHERN COLONY IN WHICH A BLACK MAN, WHO OWNED THE REQUISITE AMOUNT OF PROPERTY, AND COMPLIED WITH OTHER CONDITIONS, DID NOT

AT SOME PERIOD HAVE THE LEGAL RIGHT TO VOTE. IN OTHER MATTERS BESIDES VOTING THE CIVIL RIGHTS OF FREE NEGROES WERE RECOGNIZED IN SOME DEGREE AT THAT TIME AND FOR SOME TIME AFTER. EVEN SLAVES IN THIS PERIOD HAD SOME RECOGNIZED RIGHTS.

IN THE SECOND PERIOD, BETWEEN 1800 and 1850, THERE WAS WIDE* SPREAD AND DETERMINED EFFORT TO MAKE SLAVERY AND RACE SYNONYMOUS. THIS WAS BECAUSE OF THE RISE AND IMPORTANCE OF THE NEW COTTON KINGDOM AND THE NECESSITY OF BLACK LABOR AS THE FOUNDATION OF ITS PROSPERITY. AS A RE* SULT OF THIS, DISFRANCHISING LAWS AIMED AGAINST NEGROES, WERE PASSED IN STATES LIKE SOUTH CAROLINA AND VIRGINIA; AND IN MANY NORTHERN STATES, LIKE PENNSYLVANIA, WHERE THERE HAD BEEN A MOVEMENT TOWARD EMANCIPATION AND THE RECOGNITION OF THE NEGRO AS A CITIZEN. WITHOUT SPECIFIC LAW, CUSTOM NARROWED THE RIGHTS OF FREE NEGROES AS TO DOMICILE, STATUS IN COURT AND ADD

AND ADMITTANCE TO PUBLIC PLACES AND FACILITIES. THE MOVEMENT AGAINST THE NEGRO AS FREEMEN INCREASED TOWARD 1850 IN THE SOUTH AND APPROACHED A CASTE SYSTEM BASED ON RACE. THERE WERE SOME EXCEPTIONS AS AMONG THE FREE NEGRO LAND AND SLAVE-HOLDERS IN LOUISIANA AND ARTISANS IN CITIES LIKE CHARLESTON AND RICHMOND.

BETWEEN 1850 AND THE CIVIL WAR THE CASTE STATUS OF NEGROES WAS FIRMLY AND ALMOST UNIVERSALLY ESTABLISHED IN THE SOUTH AND WAS INCREASING IN THE NORTH. IT COULD BE SAID, AS ONE WRITER PUT IT "IT IS SAFE TO SAY THAT THE LAW REGARDS A NEGRO SLAVE, SO FAR AS HIS CIVIL STATUS IS CONCERNED, PURELY AND ABSOLUTELY AS PROPERTY, TO BE BOUGHT AND SOLD AND TO PASS AND DESCEND AS A TRACT OF LAND, A HORSE, OR AN OX." THE FREE NEGRO BECAME IN THE SOUTH A PERSON OFTEN WITH FEWER RIGHTS THAN A SLAVE.

IT APPROACHED A FAIR ESTIMATE OF CONDITIONS AT THE TIME.

SO FAR AS THE LAW OF SLAVERY WAS CONCERNED, IT MAY BE SAID THAT THE LAW WAS OFTEN HARSHER THAN THE PRACTICE. NEVERTHELESS THE LAWS AND DECISIONS REPRESENTED THE LEGALLY PERMISSIBLE POSSIBILITIES, AND THE ONLY CURB UPON THE POWER OF THE MASTER WAS HIS SENSE OF HUMANITY AND DECENCY, ON THE ONE HAND, AND THE CONSERVING OF HIS INVESTMENT ON THE OTHER. OF THE HUMANITY OF LARGE NUMBERS OF SOUTHERN MASTERS THERE CAN BE NO DOUBT. IN SOME CASES, THEY GAVE THEIR SLAVES A FATHERLY CARE. AND YET EVEN IN SUCH CASES THE STRAIN UPON THEIR ABILITY TO CARE FOR LARGE NUMBERS OF PEOPLES AND THE NECESSITY OF ENTRUSTING THE CARE OF THE SLAVES TO TOHER HANDS THAN THEIR OWN? LED TO MUCH SUFFERING AND CRUELTY.

DURING THE CIVIL WAR AND RECONSTRUCTION THE WHOLE RELATION OF FEDERAL AND STATE LEGISLATION BEGAN TO CHANGE. EVEN DURING THE WAR

3/29 Ed and Ed

THE CASTE SYSTEM WAS PARTIALLY OVERTHROWN CHIEFLY BY THE FACT THAT THE NORTH BEGAN TO USE NEGROES AS LABORERS AND SOLDIERS, AND IN THE SOUTH COULD NOT PREVENT SLAVES FROM RUNNING AWAY AND COMING UNDER FEDERAL CONTROL. THE PERIOD OF RECONSTRUCTION MAY BE DIVIDED INTO TWO PARTS: A FIRST PART, WHEN THE SOUTH STARTED TO REASSERT ~~ITS~~ THEIR SOVEREIGNTY AND STRESS STATE RIGHTS. THEY PASSED THE BLACK CODES WHICH CURTAILED THE FREED NEGRO POPULATION IN ALL BUT THE BAREST PROVISION FOR CIVIL RIGHTS: MARRIAGE, OWNERSHIP OF PROPERTY AND THE RIGHT TO APPEAR IN COURT.

THEN CAME THE REVOLUTION INSTITUTED BY THE RECONSTRUCTION ACTS AND THE 14TH AMENDMENT AND A NEW RELATION OF CITIZENS TO THE FEDERAL GOVERNMENT. SOME SOUTHERN STATES PASSED CIVIL RIGHTS LEGISLATION AND THERE CAME THE FEDERAL CIVIL RIGHTS ACT OF 1866. IN 1868 CAME THE 14THE AMENDMENT. LOUISIANA PASSED A CIVIL RIGHTS LAW IN 1869 AND IN 1873 AND ARKANSAS IN 1873. CIVIL RIGHTS ACTS WERE PASSED BY MASSACHUSETTS IN 1865 AND BY KANSAS AND NEW YORK IN 1874.

THE COUNTER REVOLUTION CAME IN 1876, AND FROM 1875 TO 1883 WE HAVE A NEW ERA. DELAWARE IN 1873 AND TENNESSEE IN 1875 TRIED TO TAKE AWAY MOST CIVIL RIGHTS, AND ALL SOUTHERN STATES PRACTICALLY NULLIFIED ENFRANCHISEMENT BY LAWLESSNESS AND INTIMIDATION. HERE AROSE THE NEW PROBLEM OF LYNCHING. MOB MURDERS REACHED THEIR CLIMAX IN 1892 AND THE HELPLESSNESS OF THE FEDERAL GOVERNMENT UNDER LAW AND DECISION WAS CLEAR. BETWEEN 1883 AND THE EARLY PART OF THE TWENTIETH CENTURY, THE CIVIL RIGHTS BILLS PASSED BY THE RECONSTRUCTION ADMINISTRATIONS IN THE SOUTH BECAME INOPERATIVE OR WERE REPEALED. THE 14THE AMENDMENT WAS EMASCULATED IN 1872. THE FEDERAL CIVIL RIGHTS BILL OF 1875 WAS DECLARED UNCONSTITUTIONAL IN 1883.

THEN FOLLOWED THE BULK OF STATE CIVIL RIGHTS LEGISLATION IN THE NORTH.

THIS LEGISLATION FOR THE MOST PART FORBADE DISCRIMINATION IN RESTAURANTS, PUBLIC CONVEYANCES AND IN PLACES OF PUBLIC AMUSEMENT AND

ACCOMMODATION, INCLUDING BARBER SHOPS AND THEATRES. LESS OFTEN IT MENTIONED HOTELS, SODA FOUNTAINS AND SALOONS. DURING THIS PERIOD THERE WERE NO CIVIL RIGHTS BILLS IN DELAWARE, IDAHO, MAINE, MARYLAND, MISSOURI, MONTANA, NEVADA, NEW HAMPSHIRE, NORTH DAKOTA, OREGON, SOUTH DAKOTA, UTAH, VERMONT, WEST VIRGINIA, AND WYOMING.

FOR THE MOST PART VIOLATION OF THESE LAWS WAS PUNISHED BY A FINE AND REGARDED AS MISDEMEANOR. USUALLY COURTS ENFORCED THESE LAWS RELUCTANTLY AND DEMANDED SPECIFIC STATEMENT AS JUST WHAT THE LEGISLATION MEANT AND TO WHAT IT APPLIED TO. IN FACT THE LEGISLATION OF THIS PERIOD WAS FAR IN ADVANCE OF PUBLIC OPINION AND HAD NO FEDERAL SANCTION BACK OF IT.

DURING THE TWENTIETH CENTURY THE STATE CIVIL RIGHTS LAWS HAVE BEEN AMENDED IN VARIOUS WAYS AND NOW EXIST IN SIXTEEN DIFFERENT STATES. THERE ARE NONE IN MAINE, NEW HAMPSHIRE OR VERMONT AND GENERALLY THEY ARE MISSING IN THE FAR WEST. THE MOST RADICAL FORWARD STEP IN THIS ERA HAS BEEN THE FAIR EMPLOYMENT PRACTICE LEGISLATION ORIGINATING IN ROOSEVELT'S

WAR ORDER AND THEN IMPLEMENTED BY STATE ACTION IN NEW YORK AND ELSEWHERE. WHEREAS CIVIL RIGHTS PREVIOUSLY HAD TOUCHED LARGELY MATTERS OF COMFORT AND RECREATION, IT NOW ENTERED THE VASTLY MORE IMPORTANT AND FUNDAMENTAL FIELD OF EARNING A LIVING. IT'S PROGRESS HERE ESPECIALLY BY FEDERAL LEGISLATION WILL BE CRUCIAL.

IN THE SOUTH, SINCE THE BOOKER WASHINGTON SPEECH AT ATLANTA IN 1895, THERE HAS BEEN AN ATTEMPT TO SET UP "SEPARATE BUT EQUAL" CIVIL RIGHTS, ESPECIALLY IN TRANSPORTATION, EDUCATION, AND PUBLIC FACILITIES, AND TO SOME EXTENT IN WORK AND HOUSING. EVERY EFFORT WAS MADE TO AVOID FEDERAL INTERFERENCE. THE FIGHT AGAINST THIS HAS BEEN LONG AND BITTER AND WAS FIRST SUCCESSFUL IN THE MATTER OF NEGRO REPRESENTATION ON JURIES AND FINALLY IN THE MISSOURI UNIVERSITY CASE ON EDUCATION.

WHAT WE REALLY SEE IN THIC CIVIL RIGHTS LEGISLATION IS A CONFLICT BETWEEN IDEALS AND PREJUDICE; BETWEEN THE ATTEMPT TO ESTABLISH DEMOCRACY

UPON EQUAL TREATMENT UNDER THE LAW,,AND AT THE SAME TIME THE REFUSAL OF A LARGE NUMBER OF PERSONS TO TREAT PERSONS OF NEGRO DESCENT ON ANY REAL BASIS OF EQUALITY. THE RESULT OF THIS DICHOTOMY IS A TENDENCY TO LET THE LAWS FALL INTO DISUSE; OR TO ENFORCE THEM LIGHTLY; AND ON THE PART OF THE NEGROES, DISINCLINATION TO CALL THEM INTO EFFECTIVE ACTION. THEY REPRESENT THEREFORE ON THE WHOLE NOT THE EXPRESSION OF A CLEAR PUBLIC OPINION BUT AN ATTEMPT TO FORCE PUBLIC OPINION TO TAKE A STAND, WHICH, HOWEVER, THIS SAME OPINION RECOGNIZES AS ETHICALLY RIGHT.

CONSIDERING THIS WHOLE MATTER, WE ARE FACED BY SEVERAL CONSIDERATIONS: HOW FAR CAN A NATION MAINTAIN A HIGH IDEAL OF POLITICAL AND SOCIAL ACTION, WHEN THE MAJORITY OF PERSONS IN THAT NATION ARE DISINCLINED TO ITS APPLICATION IN PARTICULAR CASES? THIS IS PRIMARILY A MATTER OF EDUCATION AND OF ADVANCE IN ETHICAL STANDARDS. IT CALLS FOR CAREFUL CONSIDERATION ON THE PART OF THE NATION AS TO JUST HOW FAR ITS IDEALS ARE WORTH WHILE. DO WE WANT DEMOCRACY IN THE UNITED STATES, AND IF SO WHAT ARE WE WILLING TO PAY FOR IT?

FOR A LONG TIME THE IDEA WAS PREVALENT THAT WHILE WE WANTED AND WERE DETERMINED TO HAVE DEMOCRACY, IT WAS IMPOSSIBLE THAT NEGROES SHOULD BE A PART OF IT, BECAUSE OF THEIR LOW LEVEL OF EDUCATION AND, AS MOST PEOPLE THEM THOUGHT, OF ABILITY AND CHARACTER. THEREFORE WE COULD ONLY HAVE DEMOCRACY WHEN WE GOT RID OF THE NEGRO POPULATION.

IT MAY BE SAID THAT DURING THE FIRST THREE QUARTERS OF THE NINETEENTH CENTURY, THIS WAS A DOMINANT THOUGH AMONG AMERICANS WHO REALIZED THE CONTRADICTION IN OUR BASIC PHILOSOPHY. ONE OF THE GREATEST ADVOCATES IF THE MIGRATION OF THE NEGREES WAS ABRAHAM LINCOLN AND HE WAS PRECEDED BY GREAT MANY AMERICANS BACK TO THE TIME WHEN THE BROTHER OF GEORGE WASHINGTON BECAME FIRST PRESIDENT OF THE AMERICAN COLONIZATION SOCIETY.

BY THE BEGINNING OF THE TWENTIETH CENTURY TWO THINGS WERE CLEAR: FIRST THAT IT WAS IMPOSSIBLE TO SEPARATE NEGROES FROM THE POPULATION OF THE UNITED STATES BECAUSE OF THEIR NUMBER; BECAUSE OF THE LACK OF LANDS WHERE THEY COULD BE DECENTLY TRANSPORTED, BECAUSE OF THE ENORMOUS COST; AND ABOVE ALL, BECAUSE THEIR ECONOMIC VALUE TO THE NATION. TO THIS WAS ADDED THE FACT THAT THE EDUCATIONAL AND SOCIAL LEVEL OF THE NEGRO PEOPLE WAS BEING RAISED SO FAR AND TO SUCH AN EXTRAORDINARY DEGREE; THAT IT WAS FAIR TO SAY, THEY WERE REACHING THE AVERAGE OF THE NATION; AND THAT A LARGE ELEMENT WAS ABOVE THE AVERAGE.

THE OTHER CONSIDERATION WHICH RUNS PARALLEL TO THIS WAS THE FACT THAT NEGROES THEMSELVES RECOGNIZED THAT THEIR CHIEF AND STRONGEST DEMAND FOR EQUALITY LAY IN THE RAISING OF THEIR OWN STATUS THROUGH EFFORT TO ACHIEVE EDUCATION AND SOCIAL EFFICIENCY; AND THEIR CONCEPTION OF THEIR DUTY TO TEACH THE NATION THE VALUE OF ITS OWN IDEALS. IF THERE HAD BEEN DURING THE TWENTIETH CENTURY THE MONEY AND COOPERATION WHICH THESE NEGRO EFFORTS DESERVED, WE COULD HAVE MADE IN THE UNITED STATES A FIGHT AGAINST ILLITERACY MUCH MORE STARTLING AND ENCOURAGING THAN THAT MADE FOR THE RUSSIAN PEASANTS.

TODAY THE FIGHT FOR CIVIL RIGHTS LIES FIRST, IN THE FIELD OF APPEALING TO PUBLIC OPINION; THIS HAS BEEN MOST EFFECTIVELY CARRIED OUT IN SUCH INSTANCES AS THE MARION ANDERSON CONCERT, THE CASE OF THE WASHINGTON THEATRES, THE ACTION OF THE MOVIE HOUSES IN CHIO AND NUMBERS OF SIMILAR CASES. ON THE OTHER HAND THE MOST DISCOURAGING SITUATION THAT FACES US ARE THE COVENANTS BASED ON THE ORGANIZED ACTION OF REAL ESTATE INTERESTS TO URTAIL THE HOUSING RIGHTS OF NEGROES AND TO INSURE THE PERPETUATION OF SLUMS. BEYOND THIS IS A CLEAR CALL FOR POSITIVE FEDERAL LAW AGAINST LYNCHING, AGAINST DISCRIMINATION IN WORK AND EDUCATION AND AGAINST DISENFRANCHISEMENT. THE RESTORATION OF THE 14THE AMENDMENT AND FURTHER LAWS BASED ON ITS ORIGINAL MEANING ARE DEMANDED.

AID TO GREECE
By W.E.B. DuBois

I REMEMBER VIVIDLY MY ONE GLIMPSE OF THE LAND CALLED GREECE. I HAD COME FROM THE VOLGA RIVER BY WAY OF LENINGRAD AND MOSCOW. I HAD SEEN THE FLATTENED DOMES OF KIEV AND THE HUNDRED STEPS AT ODESSA THAT LED DOWN TO THE BLACK SEA. I SAILED THAT SEA, SLIPPED THROUGH THE BOSPHORUS, BY THE MIGHTY BASTIONS OF CONSTANTINOPLE, AND THROUGH THE SEA OF MARMORA, I CAME TO THE TORTUOUS DARDANELLES WITH THE HORROR OF GALLIPOLI ON THE RIGHT AND THE ASIA OF TURKEY AND ANCIENT PERSIA ON THE LEFT. I FLEW OVER THAT WATER WHERE TWENTY-FIVE CENTURIES AGO THE WEARY GREEK SOLDIERS, ESCAPING FROM AN EMPEROR OF IRAN, HAD SHRIEKED, "THE SEA! THE SEA!"

AND THEN IT WAS THAT I CAME TO A LAND WHERE IT SEEMS ALWAYS AFTERNOON, AND WHERE RAISING ITS GREAT COLUMNS ABOVE A HOT, AND TORTURED EARTH, I SAW IN THE PALE IVORY BEAUTY OF THE PARTHENON, THE GLORY THAT WAS GREECE. IT LAY ON A LONG TONGUE OF SAND, SCORCHED BY A THOUSAND WARS, AND YET ETERNAL. ITS MONUMENTS HAD BEEN RAPED BY ENGLAND TO ADORN THE BRITISH MUSEUM, ITS HISTORY HAD BEEN IGNORED AND IN ITS STRICKEN WEAKNESS SNEERED AT BY A CRIPPLED POET: "HEREDITARY BONDSMEN, KNOW YE NOT, WHO WOULD BE FREE, THEMSELVES MUST STRIKE THE BLOW!"

FOR FIVE CENTURIES SORROW, HUNGER AND DEATH, HAVE FALLEN ON THESE PEOPLE AND TODAY THE APPEAL TO HELP THIS NATION ASSAILS THE EAGER EARS OF EVERY AMERICAN WHO KNOWS WHAT GREECE ONCE GAVE CIVILIZATION AND WHO CAME TO COLLEGE, AS MY GENERATION WAS COMPELLED TO COME BY THOSE SONOROUS PERIODS OF HOMER'S ILIAD: "MENIN AEIDE, THEA, PALEIADO ACHILLAOS!"

OUT OF THE POVERTY OF THE POOR IN THIS RICH LAND, WE ARE WILLING TO SHARE OUR BREAD WITH THE HUNGRY--NOT ONLY GREECE, BUT IN SPAIN, IN AFRICA, IN POLAND AND ESPECIALLY IN THE RUSSIAN UKRAINE, WHERE AS NEVER BEFORE IN HISTORY A PEOPLE HAS POURED OUT ITS LIFE BLOOD, WITHOUT STINT, TO CHECK AND SUBDUE THE MOST POWERFUL ARMY THAT EVER THREATENED ENGLAND, FRANCE, AMERICA, AND THE CIVILIZED WORLD.

BUT PRESIDENT TRUMAN'S APPEAL SEEMS ONLY INCIDENTALLY A MATTER OF FOOD FOR THE HUNDRY, PRIMARILY IT IS ANNOUNCED AS ARMED THREAT AGAINST AGGRESSION. THE SCARCELY VEILED IMPLICATION IS THAT RUSSIA IS THREATENING THE CONQUEST OF GREECE, TURKEY AND THE WORLD. THAT IS A GRAVE AND DANGEROUS ASSERTION, AN ASSERTION OF FEARFUL IMPORT. IT IS A DISTINCT STEP TOWARD A THIRD WORLD WAR. (FOR ANY ARMED GESTURE TOWARD GREECE AND TURKEY WOULD BE INTERPRETED AS A CHALLENGE TO RUSSIA AND EVENTUALLY TO OPEN WAR). SUCH A TERRIBLE UNDERTAKING CAN NOT BE ENTERED UPON WITHOUT THE MOST CAREFUL KNOWLEDGE OF THE FACTS AND WITHOUT EXHAUSTING EVERY AVENUE IN OUR RECENT EFFORT TOWARD WORLD ORGANIZATION TO PRESERVE THE PEACE.

WE HAVE NOT APPEALED TO THE FACTS NOR TO THE MACHINERY OF THE UNITED NATIONS BECAUSE WE KNOW WELL THAT THE ALLEGATION OF RUSSIAN MILITARY THREAT TO GREECE, TURKEY, CHINA, THE UNITED STATES OR ANY OTHER COUNTRY IS A FALSIFICATION OF THE FACTS (IF NOT A DELIBERATE LIE). THERE IS EVIDENCE THAT RUSSIA IS BENDING EVERY THOUGH AND ALL HER ENERGY TO HEALING THE FRIGHTFUL WOUNDS OF WAR AND HAS NEITHER WILL NOR STRENGTH TO CONQUER THE WORLD. BECAUSE OF THE ETHICS OF OUR JOURNALISM, NOW PREVALENT, A WELL-PAID, GIFTED MAN STARTS OUT WITH ORDERS TO BRING IN FACTS TO SUPPORT A CERTAIN PRE-ADOPTED OPINION. HE DOES THAT. HIS SUBSEQUENT REPORT MAY PRESENT THE TRUTH OR A HALF-TRUTH, OR IT MAY BE A BARE-FACED LIE. IN ANY CASE, HE TAKES HIS ORDERS AND EXECUTES THEM. YET, WE ARE CONTINUALLY SWAYED BY THIS KIND OF DELIBERATE PROPAGANDA.

MOREOVER, IF THERE IS IN THE WORLD TODAY A NATION PREPARED FOR WAR AND APPARENTLY INCREASINGLY EAGER TO FIGHT IT IS THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, IT IS WE THAT OWN A NAVY LARGER THAN THE COMBINED NAVIES OF THE WORLD; WE HAVE THE OVERWHELMING NUMBER OF AIRCRAFT AND ENDLESS FACILITIES FOR MAKING MORE; WE HAVE A STANDING ARMY LARGE, AND URGED BY EVERY DEVICE OF PROPAGANDA TO GROW PERMANENTLY LARGER BY FORCED DRAFT. WE HAVE SEIZED FOR EVENTUAL FORTIFICATION EVERY STRONGHOLD IN THE PACIFIC, AND WE HAVE BEEN WORKING IN CLOSE COOPERATION WITH THE BRITISH MILITARY AND NAVAL MACHINE. FINALLY AND ABOVE ALL, WE HAVE THE ONLY KNOWN STOCKPILE OF ATOMIC BOMBS WHICH WE ARE PRESUMABLY

DAILY AUGMENTING. FOR US THEN TO CALL ATTENTION TO ANY OTHER COUNTRY ON EARTH AS THREATENING PEACE, WHILE THESE FACTS ARE KNOWN TO EVERY CHILD, IS NOTHING LESS THAN RIDICULOUS. IF THERE IS THE SLIGHTEST CHANCE OF ANY NATION OUTSIDE OURSELVES THREATENING ARMED AGGRESSION TODAY, WE HAVE AT HAND THE ORGANS CREATED AND DESIGNED TO MEET JUST SUCH AN EMERGENCY IN THE UNITED NATIONS. WHY DID NOT PRESIDENT TRUMAN READ THE CHARTER OF THAT ORGANIZATION BEFORE MAKING HIS EXTRAORDINARY DECLARATION, CALCULATED MORE THAN ANY OTHER POSSIBLE MOVE TO STRANGLE THIS INFANT TO WHICH WE HAVE GIVEN BIRTH AND NURTURED FOR FIVE YEARS? THAT PREAMBLE BEGINS:

> WE THE PEOPLES OF THE UNITED NATIONS DETERMINED TO SAVE SUCCEEDING GENERATIONS FROM THE SCOURGE OF WAR, WHICH TWICE IN OUR LIFE -TIME HAS BROUGHT UNTOLD SORROW TO MANKIND, TO REAFFIRM FAITH IN FUNDAMENTAL HUMAN RIGHTS, IN THE DIGNITY AND WORTH OF THE HUMAN PERSON, AND THE EQUAL RIGHTS OF MEN AND WOMEN, AND OF NATIONS LARGE AND SMALL, AND TO ESTABLISH CONDITIONS UNDER WHICH JUSTICE AND RESPECT FOR THE OBLIGATIONS ARISING FROM TREATIES AND OTHER SOURCES OF INTERNATIONAL LAW CAN BE MAINTAINED, AND TO PROMOTE SOCIAL PROGRESS AND BETTER STANDARDS OF LIFE IN LARGER FREEDOM,
> AND FOR THESE ENDS:
>
> TO PRACTICE TOLERANCE AND LIVE TOGETHER IN PEACE WITH ONE ANOTHER AS GOOD NEIGHBORS, AND TO UNITE OUR STRENGTH TO MAINTAIN INTERNATIONAL PEACE AND SECURITY, AND TO ENSURE, BY THE ACCEPTANCE OF PRINCIPLES AND THE INSTITUTION OF METHODS, THAT ARMED FORCE SHALL NOT BE USED, SAVE IN THE COMMON INTEREST, AND TO EMPLOY INTERNATIONAL MACHINERY FOR THE PROMOTION OF THE ECONOMIC AND SOCIAL ADVANCEMENT OF ALL PEOPLES, HAVE RESOLVED TO COMBINE OUR EFFORTS TO ACCOMPLISH THESE AIMS.
> ACCORDINGLY, OUR RESPECTIVE GOVERNMENTS, THROUGH REPRESENTATIVES ASSEMBLED IN THE CITY OF SAN FRANCISCO, WHO HAVE EXHIBITED THEIR FULL POWERS FOUND TO BE IN GOOD AND DUE FORM, HAVE AGREED TO THE PRESENT CHARTER OF THE UNITED NATIONS AND DO HEREBY ESTABLISH AN INTERNATIONAL ORGANIZATION TO BE KNOWN AS THE UNITED NATIONS.

THIS IS THE ORGANIZATION WHICH PRESIDENT TRUMAN IGNORES. BY-PASSING THE WORLD INTERNATION, WE PROPOSE TO ACT ALONE AND TELL THE REST OF THE WORLD THAT WE WILL LET IT AGREE WITH US IF IT WANTS TO. IS THIS THE WAY TO RAISE AMERICA IN THE RESPECT OF HUMANITY, OR IS IT THE WAY TO CONFIRM OUR REPUTATION AS A BOASTFUL, RUTHLESS TYRANT?

THE MATTER DOES NOT REST HERE. NO SOONER THAN THIS ASPECT OF OUR PROPOSED VENTURE IS MENTIONED, NO SOONER DO WE ASK FOR FACTS, FOR EVIDENCE THAT RUSSIAN TROOPS ARE ON GREEK SOIL OR THREATENING TURKEY, FOR EXPLANATION AS TO WHY WE CANNOT AWAIT THE REPORT OF THE UNITED NATIONS COMMITTEE ALREADY INVESTIGATING CIVIL WAR IN GREECE, THAN WE ARE TOLD WITH DARK SECRECY THAT IT IS NOT TROOPS BUT IDEAS THAT WE ARE PROPOSING TO FIGHT, THAT CERTAIN DANGEROUS IDEAS ARE BATTLING FOR SUPREMACY IN GREECE AND THE BALKANS TODAY AND THAT WE PROPOSE TO HELP THAT SIDE WIN WHOSE IDEAS WE BELIEVE TO BE RIGHT. TO THIS EVERY HONEST AMERICAN SHOULD REPLY: IDEAS CANNOT BE CLUBBED INTO OR SHOT OUT OF MEN'S HEADS.

WE KNOW AND KNOW WELL JUST WHAT THESE CLASHING IDEAS ARE. THERE IS NOTHING SECRET NOR NECESSARILY SINISTER ABOUT THEM. FUNDAMENTALLY THEY REST ON HISTORIC FACT. THROUGHOUT THE NINETEENTH CENTURY ALMOST UNCONTROLLED ECONOMIC GROWTH HAS BEEN THE RULE IN WESTERN EUROPE. THE AUTOMATIC, SELF-REGULATING WORLD MARKET HAS BEEN THE IDEAL OF INDSUTRY, BUILT ON THE TREATMENT OF LABOR AS A COMMODITY, LAND AND ITS PRODUCTS AS BEST DEVELOPED BY PRIVATE OWNERSHIP, AND GOLD AS THE ONLY REAL MONEY. THE RESULTS IN TECHNIQUE, PRODUCTION, AND COMMERCE HAVE BEEN MIRACULOUS.

BUT FROM THE BEGINNING OF THE NINETEENTH CENTURY AND EVEN EARLIER, A COUNTER-CRY HAS DECLARED THAT FREEDOM AND PRIVATE INITIATIVE IN INDUSTRY MUST BE SUCJECT TO SOCIAL CONtrol and planning, IF HUMAN BEINGS AND NATURAL RESOURCES ARE TO SERVE THE ENDS OF THE BEST CIVILIZATION. THIS IDEA OF SOCIAL CONTROL GREW IN THE NINETEENTH AND TWENTIETH CENTURIES UNDER VARIOUS NAMES AND PLANS. IT DID NOT ORIGINATE IN RUSSIA, ALTHOUGH RUSSIA IN OUR DAY HAS MADE THE BOLDEST ATTEMPT TO CARRY IT OUT. THIS IDEA,WHETHER CALLED COMMUNISM OR SOCIALISM, OR THE NEW DEAL, HAS BEEN DEFENDED BY SOME OF THE WORLD'S GREATEST MINDS. IT HAS SPREAD WIDELY SINCE TWO TERRIBLE WORLD WARS, BECAUSE MANY HONEST PEOPLE ARE CONVINCED THAT THE EXTREME ATTEMPT TO CARRY ON FREE AND UNCONTROLLED INDUSTRY WAS A MAIN CAUSE OF THESE TWO DEVASTATING CATASTROPHES WHICH HAVE NEARLY OVERTHROWN CIVILIZATION.

THE TRUTH OR FALSEHOOD OF THIS THESIS IS A MATTER FOR SCIENTIFIC INVESTIGATION AND NOT FOR MERE EMOTION. IT MAY BE TRUE THAT SOCIALISM HAS BEEN ACCOMPANIED BY SINISTER DEEDS AND THAT COMMUNISM IS RED WITH BLOOD. IT MAY BE THAT THE RUSSIAN EXPERIMENT WILL FAIL, BUT IT REMAINS UNDENIABLE THAT UNDER TWO CENTURIES OF FREE ENTERPRISE, WHEN PRIVATE INITIATIVE ALMOST UNCONTROLLED RULED THE WORLD, WE HAVE HAD SLAVERY, POVERTY, CRIME, RECURRENT COMMERCIAL CRISES, AND WAR, WAR, WAR. THESE FACTS DO NOT SETTLE THE QUESTION AS TO HOW FAR GOVERNMENT SHOULD CONTROL INDUSTRY, PROTECT LABOR, PREVENT MONOPOLY AND DISTRIBUTE INCOME RATIONALLY, BUT THEY CALL FOR MORE FACTS, NOT MORE GUNS.

CERTAINLY TODAY GOVERNMENT, ALL OVER THE WORLD, IS PLAYING THIS ROLE INCREASINGLY. ENGLAND HAS A SOCIALIST GOVERNMENT. FRANCE HAS A SOCIALIST GOVERNMENT. CZECHOSLOVAKIA HAS A SOCIALIST GOVERNMENT. RUSSIA HAS A SOCIALIST GOVERNMENT IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE COMMUNIST FORMULA OF KARL MARX. ITALY WILL HAVE A SOCIALIST GOVERNMENT. EVEN IN THE UNITED STATES, AND FIRST AT THE WILD AND INSISTENT DEMAND OF INDUSTRY AND FINANCE, THE NEW DEAL ADOPTED A DISTINCTLY SOCIALIST PROGRAM OF OWNERSHIP OF CAPITAL, CONTROL OF INDUSTRY, PUBLIC RELIEF, PUBLIC HOUSING, PUBLIC WORKS AND LONG-TERM PLANNING.

IN SUCH WORLD-WIDE CLASH OF IDEAS AND POLICIES, HOW CAN WE ACHIEVE THE GREATEST MEASURE OF TRUTH AND WELL-BEING? CAN WE MAKE PEOPLE THINK AS WE DO, BY BASHING THEM IN THE HEAD OR SHOOTING THEM? BY DELIBERATELY PROMOTING CIVIL WAR? BY WITCH-HUNTING AND YELLING "COMMUNIST" EVERY TIME AN HONEST MAN QUESTIONS THE POLICIES OF STANDARD OIL OR A HALF-STARVED WORKER STRIKES? IS IT GUNS OR BREAD THAT WE ARE ANXIOUS TO EXPORT TO GREECE? DO WE WANT THE TURKS TO THINK OR FIGHT?

WE ASSUME THAT OUR SYSTEM OF GOVERNMENT AND INDUSTRY IS SO COMPLETELY RIGHT THAT ANYONE WHO CAN DISAGREE WITH IT IS A SCOUNDREL. WE BOAST OF OUR AMERICAN DEMOCRACY AS SOMETHING WHICH INSURES THE TRIUMPH OF JUSTICE THROUGH THE RIGHT TO VOTE AND VOICE OUR OPINIONS. BUT CAN WE BE SO SURE OF THIS? CAN WE EXPORT DEMOCRACY TO GREECE AND NOT PRACTICE IT IN MISSISSIPPI? SO LONG AS THE SOUTH CAN SEND A LOUD-MOUTHED RANKIN TO CONGRESS BY FOUR THOUSAND VOTES,WHEN IT TAKES ONE HUNDRED THOUSAND VOTERS TO SEND A NORTHERN CONGRESSMAN FROM ILLINOIS, SO LONG AS SOUTH CAROLINA CAN DISFRANCHISE EIGHTY-FIVE PER CENT OF ITS VOTING POPULATION WHITE AND BLACK, AND YET ON THE VOTE OF THE REMAINING FIFTEEN PER CENT SEND TWO SENATORS TO CONGRESS TO BACK ANTI-LABOR LEGISLATION AND BLATANT, "RED-BAITING," CAN WE BE SO SURE THAT WE HAVE ACHIEVED ENOUGH DEMOCRACY IN AMERICA TO TEACH TURKEY OR POLAND?

WHAT THE WORLD NEEDS TODAY IS NOT ARMED PREVENTION OF OPINION SO MUCH AS TRUTH ABOUT ECONOMIC CONDITIONS. SUCH TRUTH AS OUR SCHOOLS AND COLLEGES IN TOO MANY CASES DARE NOT TEACH AND OUR INCREASINGLY MONOPOLIZED PRESS WILL NOT PRINT. AS SOON AS WE VOICE HONEST OPINION, WE HEAR LOW WHISPERS OF CONSPIRACY, OF CRIME, OF LURKING DANGER, OF ALL MANNER OF HIDDEN EVIL. THIS IS NOTHING NEW. IT WAS CONSPICUOUSLY TRUE IN THE SLAVERY CONTROVERSY. FOR YEARS AMERICANS DEPLORED SLAVERY IN THIS LAND OF THE FREE. BUT WHEN THE ABOLITIONISTS BEGAN AT LAST TO AGITATE AGAINST THE SYSTEM, IT HAD ALREADY BECOME TOO PROFITABLE TO TOLERATE CRITICISM. WHEN,THEN, SOME GOOD-HEARTED NEW ENGLAND SPINSTER QUESTIONED HALTINGLY THE SLAVERY OF HUMAN BEINGS, STERN-FACED PATRIOTS TOOK HER IN HAND: DO YOU WANT SOUTHERN LADIES RAPED AND THEIR DAUGHTERS MARRIED TO NEGROES? DO YOU NOT KNOW THAT ABOLITIONISTS ARE ATHEISTS AND FREE-LOVERS, SOCIALISTS, AND ANARCHISTS? DO YOU NOT KNOW THAT DARKIES ARE HAPPIEST AS SLAVES? MADAME I HAVE BEEN SOUTH. I HAVE SEEN NIGGERS DANCING AND SINGING. TO FREE THEM WOULD MEAN THEIR EXTERMINATION. THEY WOULD STARVE OR EAT EACH OTHER UP.

THIS IS NOT JUST MY IMAGINATION. EVERY ONE OF THESE ACCUSATIONS AND STATEMENTS WERE BROUGHT UP AGAIN AND AGAIN AGAINST ABOLITIONISTS, SO THAT MOST CITIZENS REFUSED TO LISTEN TO THEM; WERE SCARED EVEN TO KNOW THEM AND SWORE BEFORE GOD THEY HAD NO SYMPATHY WITH THE DIRTY AGITATORS. MOST MINITERS OF RELIGION WOULD NOT EVEN MENTION SLAVERY, AND GARRISON, PHILLIPS, AND DOUGLASS WERE THE REPEATED VICTIMS OF MOBS. THIS DID NOT SAVE SLAVERY. IT ONLY BROUGHT A CRUEL AND USELESS CIVIL WAR, WHOSE EFFECTS WE STILL FEEL. SO OUR INTERVENTION IN GRE CE IS NOT GOING TO CHANGE PEOPLES' MINDS. IT IS SIMPLY GOING TO MAKE UNDERSTANDING AND SETTLEMENT MORE DIFFICULT AND LONGER DELAYED.

HUMAN RIGHTS FOR ALL MINORITIES

W. E. B. Du BOIS

You who have followed the discussion in this peoples congress have heard of problems of minorities as effecting catholics, Moslems and Jews; peoples in the Pacific and Peoples of Africa; the Indians and other folk in South America, the minorities in Europe, especially the Balkans; and minorities in India, Negroes and Indians in the United States and various minorities in China and Eastern Asia.

This covers a large number of people. Indeed so large that it is fair to say that minorities together form a majority, and the majority is a minority with power to enforce its will,. But as one looks at this list of peoples, it is not at first clear that there is any inter-minority unity; there seems no logical nor functional unity among these minorities. In certain sections and at certain times, one o these minorities might have majority power; and between them there often is friction, such as between Moslems and Jews; Africans and Indians, in the Caribbean; and native groups in China and India.

What have these groups in common save that repeatedly and in various ways their rights have been denied? We have seen in our own day a presidential campaign in this land turn on the fact that one candidate was a Catholic; we have seen the Jews of Germany murdered and crucified as seldom human beings have suffered in history; we see a great and ancient land torn in sunder with blood because of suspicion between Hindu and Moslem; and the wail of tortured Africa mocks Christianity today as it has for five hundred ye rs; in America Negro slavery has not been entirley aboilshed; the American Indians, the peoples of the Balkans, the Denizens of the South Seas, the Japanese and Chinese, all form today parts of a vast human congeries of groups subject again and again to inhuman treatment.

Beyond these facts can we see some common denominator? I believe we can and that it is the poverty with the resultant ignorance and disease of the mass of mankind; and the desperate fear of the few, lest they too fall into this disaster. This has led to theprolongation of the ancient belief th t there never has been, is not and never will be enough of goods and services to satisfy the needs of more than a small minority of men; that the selection of the rich must be an act of God or the deserved reward of human effort; that any attempt to distribute wealth more widely is not only sacrilege but a flying into the face of unchangeable scientific fact; that the defense of religion and civilization unfortuantely but inevitably involves the continued and persistent existence of poverty, ignorance and disease, which may be alleviated but never eradicated.

Out of this basic myth, has arisen and persists in our day, the denial to faiths, nations, groups and races of any rights or privileges which infringe or threaten the status of the priviledged. Whenever at any time a wave of sentiment, or surge of conviction or even scientific hypothesis starts to challenge this basic and wide-spread be if of mankind immediately violence, hate and intolerance break forthand we have increased denial to men of basic human rights.

Especially is this so when as in the reformation and the renaissance, a new vision of the possibilities and power of mankind burst forth. This was not only met by fear, intolerance and disbelif, but by an astonishing new theory of human effort based on the discovery of a new world, a vast migration of labor and a revolution in industrial processes more fundamental than any the world had ever seen. Not only a new prosperity, a new attack on poverty was evident, but it was accompanied by a new attack on humanity. The freeing of human energy and ingenuity in the fifteenth, sixteenth, seventeenth and eighteenth centuries was accompanied by a new degradation of labor through African slavery. The first impulsive recoil of religion and humanity to this horror of the slave trade to America was in the face of the new wealth in crops, manufacture and commerce, quickly rationalized into a new defense of poverty. The rich were envisaged as the white nations of earth, armed with a new and miraculous tenhnique; the congenital poor were the peoples of the tropics born to be slaves and fulfill their destiny and the glory of God by working for the comfort and luxury of the whites. But the methods of exploitat on of human toil could not be confined by barriers of race.

New patterns of curelty and contempt for human beings were based ona doctrine of the inferiority of most men, which was announced as a scientific law and spread by the education of youth and the techings of religion. This new economics regarded all labor black, brown, yellow and white s a commodity. Ittrafficked the bodies of men in the slums of London as well as t e plantations of Virginia. Thus men built a new culture pattern in the nineteenth century which was used even after chattel slavery of Negroes disappeared, to suppress any group different in body, thought and wish from the dominant group; and then came to be a weapon to exterminate rival groups who like the German Jews were accused of taking economic opportunity from German youth; and finally the Church came repeatedly to be the center of propaganda against groups of different faith which did not represent the dominant majority.

These excuses we are beginning to see clearly, come after the fact. They rationalize something that the world, or the dominant majority which calls itself the world, wants to believe to justify its acts. It is clear to those who think, that what is needed in all these cases is understanding and sharing of knowledge and experience, and it is precisely this which comprehens the fundamental meaning of democracy.

Democracy is not merely a distribution of power among a vast number of individuals. It is not merely majority rule, based on the fact that the majority has the physical force tp prevail. It is something far more fundamental than this: it rests upon the fact , that when we have proven knowled e, interpreted through the experience of a large number of individuals, it is possible through this po led knowledge and experience, to come to decisions much more fundamental and much more f r-reaching than can be had in any other way. This is so clear and logical, that it needs no proof, but rests on certain fundamental assum tions. The people participating effectively in this poll of democracy must be alive and well, they must know the world which they are interpreting and they must know themsleves.

It is here that frustration of democracy comes particularly in the case of minorities. Manifestly, there can be no hope of effective functioning of democracy among people who have not enough to eat or to live decentl ; among people who are sick and ignorant. Nor can we assume that poverty; ignorance and disease are always the fault of those who suffer from them. If a minority does suffer because of these disadvantages, we know immediately where the remedy lies, and what we are compelled to do if we want decency and justice in the world.

We know that colonies as centers of this frustration of democracy are the sta ting point of injustice and cruelty toward all groups of people who form m nority groups; and at the same time in a sense, who are the majority of the peoples of the world. And they are part of this majority even though unjustly treated minorities do not actually occupy colonial status, often they occupy qusi-colonial status, segregated in the slums of a large and prosperous nation chiwh is leading civilization.

It is then this colonial status that forms an integral, and fundamental part of modern civilization. We must not let words mislead us and think of the modern colony as the pioneer group of Grecian days or of European exploration, when people of one country went out in search of adventure or to earn a living in another trade. This kind of colony in modern days changed: either it became a part of the economic organization of the mother country. In this latter case in our era it was that part of our economy which illustrated and carried out logically, the conception of labor as a commodity.

We know the growth of classical economics in England in the nineteenth century: of its conception of the self-regulating world-market; of labor and land as purchasable commodities and of gold as the only real money,. But we do not remember nor try to learn that back of the industrial revolution, out of the experiences of which classical economics arose, lay African slavery and that it was through the purchase of slaves in open market where there were no floor to the price of labor, that the conception of labor as a commodity and not as the effort of human beings, arose and became an axium in modern industry.

Without this African slave trade it is doubtful if European labor or even the larger part of the labor of Asia or Africa which came under its sway could have been reduced to the commodity status. But once labor, paid at the lowest conceivable price, became the baisis of prosperity in America and England under the capitalists system, than a pattern was laid which gripped the world.

It led to land seizure and land monopoly in colonial and twentieth centuries, as not something far away from the centers of civilization; not as comprehending problems which are not our problems, the local problems of London, Paris, San Francisco and New York,. They are not somthing which we can consider at our leisure but rather a part of our own present local economic organization. Moreover while the center of the colonial system and its form and pattern is set in the localities which are clalled definitely colo ies; and are owned politically and industrially by imperial countries; we must r member that also in the organized and dominant states there are groups of people who occupy the quasi-colonial status; laborers who are settled in the slums of large cities; groups like Negroes in the United States who are segregated physically and discriminated against spiritually in law and custom; groups like the South Seas who are legally part of imperial countries and as a matter of fact, have their labor treated as a commodity at the lowest wage, and the land monopolized. All these people occupy what is really a colonial status and make the kernel and substance of the problem of minorities.

The connection of these colonial and quasi-colonial conditions within our economy is so strong and intricate that we seldom realize or study it. Rember today that we depend upon colonial and quasi-colonial workers for coffee, tea and cocoa; for sugar, rubber and the increasingly valuable vegetable oils; for minerals like gold, dismonads, uranium, copper and tin; for fibers like cotton, hemp and silk; for rice, spices, quinine and gum arabic. Indeed for a mass of material which are so inextricably part of our modern ~~xxk~~ life that it would practically be impossible for us to get on without them. Yet all of these materials are raised by labor which does not receive in return enough income to keep it healthy, trained or effective, or even physically to reproduce itself. In order to force this labor to work it is ~~xx~~ systematically deprived of ownership or land and of a share in the free bounty of nature. It is kept in ignorance, first because intelligence would bring active or passive revolt against these conditions; and secondly because the cost of education would reduce the profits which are pouring into the coffers of the investors and into our mouths and on our backs.

This means that every civilized man is part and parcel of the colonial system and is depending for his welfare and convenience, not to mention his luxury, upon the degradation of the majority of man.

Not only this but policies of suppression and repression, common in colonies and in slums, easily transport themselves to treatment of other minorities, whose oppression is not due directly to economic causes.

We have all seen how racial antiphathy evolves policies of religious intolerance; how economic exploitation is transmuted into color prejudice; how any refusal to submit to dominant cultural patterns, current at the particular time, tends to bring into use the whole machinery of suppression, which is born of economic explcitation. This is the basic reason for coupling religious, geographic, racial and other problems w ich find their essential unity in the oppression of the poor and ignorant in segregated parts of the world known as colonies and slums; and result in wide-spread denial of human rights.

For this reason a more detailed study of colonial injustice may be here inserted. An excellent example is the cocoa crop, it will repay us to glance briefly at this tale as illustrating the methods of modern colonial exploitation and its results, Even under a liberal administration. The world consumption of cocoa has increased from 77,000 tons in 1895 to 700,000 tons at present. Formerly three-fourths of the cocoa was raised in South America. Now two-thirds is raised in West Africa.

This development of a new industry has an interesting history. A black laborer, Tetteh Quarsie, in 1879 brought cocoa beans from Spanish Africa and distributed them among his friends on the old Coast, British West Africa. In 1891, eighty pounds of cocoa were raised by West African farmers. By 1936 this crop on the Gold Coast alone had been increased to 250,000 tons. It was purely an indigenous enterprise of black peasant farmers. The deeply-laid plans to transfer the raising of cocoa from Spanish Africa to plantations in British West Africa, developed by the Cadbury-Instituted "Boycott", went stray, and the black peasants took over the job. On their own little farms, averaging about two and one-half acres, they increased crops and made cocoa and chocolate in wide demand throughout the civilized world. Their fathers in Ashanti and Benin had fought Britain for centuries to retain ownership of this land.

For cocoa and chocolate today consumers pay annually at least five hundred million dollars. Out of each dollar of this, less than three cents goes to the cocoa farmer; this is another instance of the manufacture of poverty out of progress.

Since the cocoa in West Africa is not raised on plantations, as it is in the West Indies and South America, the problem of the traders and manufacturers is to make profit by beating down the sale price and by manipulation of the world market. For this reason the price to cocoa farmers varied from $44 per ton during the depression, to $188 per ton, during the time of scarcity in 1927; and about $60 a ton in 1945.

Ostensibly for correcting this price fluctuation, but really for controlling the price, the British buyers on the Gold Coast have for many years tried to come into agreement so as to make one price and one bid for all the cocoa offered. There are thirteen main buyers: the British Unilevers, Cadbury and Fry, buying for themselves and the Lyon's Teahouses and others.

Finally in 1937 these firms came to a buying agreement. The cocoa farmers desperately resisted. They staged a boycott for eight months, reducing the sale of cocoa from 250,000 tons to 50,000 tons. The buyers resisted. They applied pressure on the colonial office in London, and without showing the text of that "Buying Agreemment", induced it to advise the natives that the proposal was for their benefit and to accept it. The colonial Governor also without sight of the agreement, immediately followed this directive from London and strongly "advised" acquiescence by the natives. The natives still refused. Mr. Cadbury then went to the Gold Coast and talked to the chiefs and farmers. They demanded to see a copy of the agreement. He "Regretted" that he had not brought a copy with him. Finally the British Government capitulated and sent a Royal Commission to the Coast. This commission secured a copy of the Agreement , and after careful investigation, recommended that the buying agreement be terminated and that co-operative enterprise be instituted with representation of the African farmers.

Before this plan could be implemented however, the war broke out and the government proposed to take charge of the cocoa crop, set prices and sell it for the farmers. They promised to bear any losses and to distribute any profit among the farmers. This was satisfactory to the farmers; although they protested at the low price per ton which the government set in order to guard itself against loss.

The African colonial governments are virtually ruled by investors in England. Investors not only dictate the choice of governors, but these governors have broad rights of legislation under the colonial office in London. They are "advised" by councils, on which business interests are directly represented. Recently local natives have been elected to such councils; but even so most of the real power still rests in the hands of the governor.

Government conduct of industry in West Africa, is therefore conducted by London investors. The whole economy of the colony is rigged by outside business interests. Instead of a tax on imports to encourage local effort, the Gold Coast, for instance, claps an export duty on cocoa of $3.75 a ton; and during the war it added a surtax of $4.58 making a total of $8.43 on a ton of cocoa, for which the cocoa farmer has at times during this war received as little as $37 a ton; and on the average not more than $52 from 1939 to 1943. At the same time, English exporters of goods to Africa need pay no import tax. As a result the cost of imported goods skyrocketed during the war, so that cotton print which sold before the war for $2.50 rose to $18 --Khaki from $.80 to $3.20, and sheet iron from $1.00 to $20. "The result of this situation is that today many of the farmers have been completely impoverished and paralyzed economically."

However, the whole picture changed in the minds of the Negro farmers when the labour party came to power and took over the colonial office. Perhaps they were over optimistic, but they were certainly justified in some degree by the results of Government operations during World War II. Instead of the anticipated losses, the Government in five years of operation, netted the neat profit of $25,000,000. Indeed, if they had previously built proper storage facilities on the Gold Coast , instead of compelling farmers to sell and rush the crop immediately to Europe, regardless of prices or conditions of the market; and if they had ever encouraged simple progressing operations, which would have saved freight and increased local employment; if such policies had been followed, much cocoa could have been saved from spoiling, and some 150,00 tons need not have been burned. The net profit might have been doubled.

But the Labour Party, to the indignation of the Black cocoa farmers now proposed to put all West African produce, under control of a board sitting in England with representat on of the manufacturers of cocoa and other materials and with no representation of the farmers! In addition, instead of returning the profits of the cocoa pool to the farmers as promised, the Government now proposed to use it "For their benefit," including the hiring of a number of English "experts" at high salaries to protect the cocoa trees from disease. The farmers protested bitterly. They wanted the profits turned over to them and their own sons trained as experts.

Finally after long argument and delay the details of a new government control of West African cocoa has been announced. Two organizations are to be set-up: one on the Gold Coast and one in Nigeria. These bodies are to fix the prices paid cocoa farmers, determine arrangements for purchasing and issue licenses to buyers, and to set-up and maintain executive machinery for purchasing, shipping and selling all the cocoa purchased.

On the Gold Coast this marketing board will consist of ten members; Six of these are nominated by the governor; two are nominated by local councils where the farmers have some representation; three are nominated by the merchants; which means that the power is overwhelmingly in the hands of the investors. The Nigerian cocoa marketing board consists of members appointed solely by the governor but assisted by an advisory committee on which there will be representatives of producers and the commercial interests. In other words the whole industry is strongly weighted in favor of the merchants.

The results of these beliefs and practices, has been unrest and revolt in colonies, strikes in imperial countries and war and suspicion in the world. What effect did all this have upon the dark natives of Africa? In the past we have dwelt upon physical suffering, the loss of lives, and the devastation of the land, but we have not thought of the larger and deeper social disintegration. First of all, not only was the way opened from the Sahara to the Cape of Good Hope for marauding masses of Bantu warriors, but this great and long-continued movement became organized for aggression and conquest. We hear of the fierce onslaughts of wild tribes like the Yaggas, but we must also remember that there came a new sort of organization. Negro life could not settle down for political organization and empire building. It could not wait for the development of herdsmen and agriculture. It must hurry on to safer places and sheltered land and loot.

"It was sorrowfully recognized that the degradation of the Negro peoples of the nearer African interior was the direct result of European slave-dealing. The savagery of Dahomey and Benin was the survival of the ferocity by which native chiefs, a century earlier, had supplied the demands of English and Dutch traders for victims for the plantation."

This movement culminated in the magnificent and utterly ruthless army of a Chaka in the nineteenth century, which almost successfully battled machine guns with Assagais. Then too on the West Coast came transformation: The city-states with their intricate social organization and carefully planned industry and beautiful art were pushed back and overwhelmed by newer, stronger military states, like that of Dahomey in theseventeenth century; and the Ashanti earlier had never gained in the line of peaceful industry and art as much as the new gains which they made as intermediaries of the slave traders.

The mild domestic slavery of the African tribes and of the Arabs and Persians, which did not preclude the son of a slave becomming a king, a statesman, or a poet, was changed into chattel slavery with hard labor and cruel tasks. The continued development of African civilization, forecast in the fourteenth and fifteenth centuries by that in the Sudan, was prevented and turned backward into ~~the~~ chaos, flight, and death.

Decadence could be seen on the West Coast, in the shadow of Fabled Atlantis, where there emerged in curious juxtaposition the blood sacrifice of the Benin Juju together with the beautiful bronzes of the Benin Sculptors. The great kingdoms and empires of the Sudan which fell at the battle of Tenkadibou not only suffered the incubus of a horde of Berber invaders as they moved east and became the Sudanese kingdoms ~~and~~ Kanem and Bornu and the realm of the Fung; they approached the valley of the Nile and came into fierce combat with some of the worst manifest tions of Mohammedanism.

With all this went the fall and disruption of the family, the deliberate attack upon the ancient African clan by missionaries. The invading investors who wanted cheap labor at the gold mines, the diamond mines, the copper and tin mines, the oil forests and cocoa fields, followed the missionaries. The authority of the family was broken up; the authority and tradition of the clan disappeared; the power of the chief was transmuted into the rule of the white district commissioner.

The old religion was held up to ridicule, the old culture and ethical standards were degraded or disappeared, and gradually all over Africa spread the inferiority complex the fear of color, the worship of white skin, the imitation of white ways of doing and thinking, whether good, bad, or indifferent. By the end of the nineteenth century the degradation of Africa was as complete as organized human means could make it. Chieftains representing a thousand years of striving human culture, were decked out in second-hand London top-hats, while Europe snickered.

HUMAN RIGHTS FOR ALL MINORITIES.

By W. E. Burghardt DuBois

You who have followed the discussion in this Peoples Congress have heard of problems of minorities as effecting Catholics, Moslems and Jews; peoples in the Pacific and peoples of Africa; the Indians and other folk in South America have been mentioned, and the minorities in Europe, especially in the Balkans; and minorities in India. Beyond these facts can we see some common denominator? I believe we can and that it is the poverty with the resultant ignorance and disease of the mass of mankind; and the desperate fear of the few, lest they too fall into this disaster. This has led to the prolongation of the ancient belief that there never has been, is not and never will be enough of goods and services to satisfy the needs of more than a small minority of men; that the selection of the rich must be an act of God or the deserved reward of human effort; that any attempt to distribute wealth more widely is not only sacrilege but a flying into the face of unchangeable scientific fact; that the defense of religion and civilization unfortunately but inevitably involves the continued and persistent existence of poverty, ignorance and disease, which may be alleviated but never eradicated.

Whenever at any time, a wave of sentiment, or surge of conviction or even scientific hypothesis starts to challenge this basic and wide spread belief of mankind, immediately violence, hate and intolerance breaks forth and we have increased denial to men of basic human rights.

These excuses, we are beginning to see clearly come after the fact. It is clear to those who think, that what is needed in a ll these cases is understanding and sharing of knowledge and experience and it is precisely this which comprehends the fundamental meaning of democracy.

the quasi-colonial status: laborers who are settled in the slums of large cities; groups like Negroes in the United States who are segregated physically and discriminated against spiritually in law and custom; groups like the South American Indians who are the laboring peons of large countries without rights or privileges; and whole laboring classes in Asia and the South Seas who are legally part of imperial countries and, as a matter of fact, have their labor treated as a commodity at the lowest wage, and the land monopolized. All these people occupy what is really a colonial status and make the kernel and substance of the problem of minorities.

The connection of these colonial and quasi-colonial conditions within our economy is so strong and intricate that we seldom realize or study it. Remember today that we depend upon colonial and quasi-colonial workers for coffee, tea and cocoa; for sugar, rubber and the increasingly valuable vegetable oils; for minerals like gold, diamonds, copper and tin; for fibres, like cotton, hemp and silk; for rice, spices, quinine and gum arabic. Indeed for a mass of material which are so inextricably part of our modern life that it would practically be impossible for us to get on without them. Yet all of these materials are raised by labor which does not receive in return enough income to keep it healthy trained or effective, or even physically to reproduce itself. In order to force this labor to work it is systematically deprived of ownership of land and of a share in the free bounty of nature. It is kept in ignorance, first because intelligence would bring active or passive revolt against these conditions; and secondly because the cost of education would reduce the profits which are pouring into the coffers of the investors and into our mouths and on our backs.

This means that every civilized man is part and parcel of the colonial system and is depending for his welfare and convenience, not to mention his luxury, upon the degradation of the majority of men.

Not only this but policies of suppression and repression, common in colonies and in slums, easily transport themselves to treatment of other minorities, whose oppression is not due directly to economic causes. We have all seen how racial antiphathy evolves policies of religious intolerance; how economic exploitation is transmuted into color prejudice; how any refusal to submit to dominant cultural patterns, current at the particular time, tends to bring into use the whole machinery of suppression, which is born of economic exploitation. This is the basic reason for coupling in this series of lectures, religious, geographic, racial and other problems, which find their essential unity in the oppression of the poor and ignorant in segregated parts of the world known as colonies and slums; and result in widespread denial of human rights.

For this reason a more detailed study of colonial injustice may be here inserted. An excellent example is the cocoa crop. It would repay us to glance briefly at this tale of the cocoa crop as illustrating the methods of modern colonial exploitation and its results even under a liberal administration. The world consumption of cocoa has increased from 77,000 tons in 1895 to 700,000 tons at present. Formerly three-fourths of the cocoa was raised in South America. Now two-thirds is raised in West Africa.

This development of a new industry has an interesting history. A black laborer, Tetteh Quarsie, in 1879 brought cocoa beans from Spanish Africa and distributed them among his friends on the Gold Coast, British West Africa. In 1891, eighty pounds of cocoa were raised by West African farmers. By 1936 this crop on the Gold Coast alone had been increased to 250,000 tons. It was purely an indigenous enterprise of black peasant farmers. The deeply laid plans to transfer the raising of cocoa from Spanish Africa to plantation in British West Africa, developed by the Cadbury-Instituted "Boycott," went astray, and the black peasants took over the job. On their own little farms, averaging about two and one-half acres, they increased crops and made the cocoa and chocolate in wide demand throughout the civilized world. Their fathers in Ashanti and Benin had fought Britain for centuries to retain ownership of this land.

For cocoa and chocolate today consumers pay annually at least five hundred million dollars. Out of each dollar of this, less than three cents goes to the cocoa farmer; this is another instance of the manufacture of poverty out of progress.

Since the cocoa in West Africa is not raised on plantations, as it is in the West Indies and South America, the problem of the traders and manufacturers is to make profit by beating down the sale price and by manipulation of the world market. For this reason the price to cocoa farmers varied from $44. per ton during the depression, to $188. per ton during the time of scarcity in 1927, and about $60. a ton today.

Ostensibly for correcting this price fluctuation, but really for controlling the price, the British buyers on the Gold Coast have for many years tried to come into agreement so as to make one price and one bid for all the cocoa offered. There are thirteen main buyers; the British Unilevers, Cadbury and Fry, buying for themselves and the Lyons' Teahouses; and others.

Finally in 1937 these firms came to a buying agreement. The cocoa farmers desperately resisted. They staged a boycott for eight months, reducing the sale of cocoa from 250,000 tons to 50,000 tons. The buyers resisted. They applied pressure on the colonial office in London, and without showing it the text of the "buying agreement," induced it to advise the natives that the proposal was for their benefit and to accept it. The colonial governor also without sight of the agreement, immediately followed this directive from London and strongly "advised" acquiescence by the natives. The natives still refused. Mr. Cadbury then went to the Gold Coast and talked to the chiefs and farmers. They demanded to see a copy of the agreement. He "regretted" that he had not brought a copy with him. Finally the British Government capitulated and sent a royal commission to the Coast. This commission secured a copy of the agreement, but made public only a part. After careful investigation, they recommended that the buying agreement be terminated and that co-operative enterprise be instituted with representation of the African farmers.

Before this plan could be implemented however, the war broke out and the government proposed to take charge of the cocoa crop, set prices, and sell it for the farmers. They promised to bear any losses and to distribute any profit among the farmers. This was satisfactory to the farmers, although they protested at the low price per ton which the government set in order to guard itself against loss.

The African colonial governments are virtually ruled by investors in England. Investors not only dictate the choice of governors, but these governors have broad rights of legislation under the colonial office in London. They are "advised" by councils, on which business interests are directly represented. Recently local natives have been elected to such councils; but even so, most of the real power still rests in the hands of the governor.

Government conduct of industry in West Africa, is therefore conducted by London investors. The whole economy of the colony is rigged by outside business interests. Instead of a tax on imports to encourage local effort, the Gold Coast, for instance, claps an export duty on cocoa of $3.75 a ton; and during the war it added a surtax of ₱4.58, making a total of ₱8.43 on a ton of cocoa, for which the cocoa farmer has at times during this war received as little as $37. a ton; and on the average not more than $52. from 1939 to 1943. At the same time, English exporters of goods to Africa need pay no import tax. As a result the cost of imported goods skyrocketed during the war, so that cotton print which sold before the war for $2.50 rose to $18., khaki from $.60 to $3.20, and sheet iron from $1.00 to $20. "The result of this situation is that today many of the farmers have been completely impoverished and paralyzed economically."

However, the whole picture changed in the minds of the Negro farmers when the labour party came to power and took over the colonial office. Perhaps they were overoptimistic, but they were certainly justified in some degree by the results of government operations during World War II. Instead of the anticipated losses, the government in five years of operation, netted the neat profit of $25,000,000. Indeed, if they had previously built proper storage facilities on the Gold Coast, instead of compelling farmers to sell and rush the crop immediately to Europe, regardless of prices or conditions of the market; and if they had ever encouraged simple processing operations, which would have saved freight and increased local employment; if such policies had been followed, much cocoa could have been saved from spoiling, and some 150,000 tons need not have been burned. The net profit might have been doubled.

But the labour party to the indignation of the black cocoa farmers, now proposed to put all West African produce, under control of a board sitting in England, with representation of the manufacturers of cocoa and other materials, and with no representation of the farmers! In addition, instead of returning the profits of the cocoa pool to the farmers as promised, the government now proposed to use it "for their benefit," including the hiring of a number of English "experts" at high salaries to protect the cocoa trees from disease. The farmers protested bitterly. They wanted the profits turned over to them and their own sons trained as experts.

Finally after long argument and delay the details of a new government control of West African cocoa has been announced. Two organizations are to be set-up: one on the Gold Coast and one in Nigeria. These bodies are to fix the prices paid cocoa farmers, determine arrangements for purchasing and issue licenses to buyers, and to set-up and maintain executive machinery for purchasing, shipping and selling all the cocoa purchased. On the Gold Coast this marketing board will consist of ten members: Six of these are nominated by the governor; two are nominated by local councils where the farmers have some representation; three are nominated by the merchants; which means that the power is overwhelmingly in the hands of the investors. The Nigerian cocoa marketing board consists of members appointed solely by the governor but assisted by an advisory committee on which there will be representatives of producers and the commercial interests. In other words the whole industry is strongly weighted in favor of the merchants. Among the most powerful of these mercantile companies is the United Africa Company.

A member of parliament recently declared: "I can give the House two quotations in regard to the United Africa Company. The foreign secretary said at Blackpool that he was not prepared to leave the whole of Africa to the tender mercies of the United Africa Company, and the ... gentleman who was formerly Secretary of State for the colonies, once indicated in this House that he was really frightened at the extent of the power which these monopolistic companies had; that they had even more power than certain governments."

The results of these beliefs and practices, has been unrest and revolt in colonies, strikes in imperial countries and war and suspicion among the exploiting peoples.

This turmoil has reached today a tense and frightful foreboding of increasing horror, so that we have efforts, not toward democracy and freedom, but rather toward hysterical curtailing of thought or expression on the part of those who strive for the welfare of mankind, but do not agree with the dominant majority in this nation.

There is no question as to the path that ought to be followed and in the long run, will be followed. This path is a path of economic reorganization and reform. It means the definite refusal further to follow longer the dictates of classical economics; the definite rejection of the myth of a self-regulating world market; the refusal longer to regard labor as a commodity or land as a private monopoly. It means a definite rejection of the idea of any one commodity like gold must be the inevitable measure of exchange.

What then is the clear path of reform before us? It is not merely pity and philanthropy so much as the determination of men of good will who are cognizant of what social science has learned in the Twentieth Century to insist on four truths:

1. Poverty is unnecessary
2. Production of goods should be planned according to need and not for private profit.
3. Distribution of goods and services should be made according to reason and right and not by chance, birth or privilege.
4. Education and health should be free and compulsory.

I mean by this a denial of the old argument which I learned in high school, that you could not have rational distribution of wealth because there was simply not enough of the things that human beings need, to go around.

Under that belief, the world tried to distribute its bounty to certain preferred peoples; to certain persons who were superior or thought to be superior, or who called themselves superior. That myth has been definitely put on the shelf by science; and science today knows that there can be plenty in this world for the wants of its people; not enough of course for everybody to wear a mink coat, or to have two automobiles; not enough for everybody to have a town house and a country villa; but enough for everybody to have sufficient to eat and to wear, and comfortable sanitary housing. If there is any lack of these things for anybody at any time, we know perfectly well that it is because some people have more than they need or some are not contributing to the world's work as they should. It is difficult today to get people to admit that before anybody has cake, all human beings should have bread. Nevertheless that is the inevitable ideal to which we have got to come.

Secondly, production can be planned. Production must not depend upon the individual profit which any producer may get out of the production of anything that he makes or anything he does. Production must be carefully and scientifically planned, according to the rational needs of human beings. We are beginning to do this, but we are doing it with hesitation, and with a feeling that the whole program of planned industry is merely an emergency. It is not. It is a perpetual imperative. Third, the goods and services of the world should be distributed in accordance with a rational plan. It should not be a matter of birth, chance or of good luck. We have recently been regaled by the story of a bright young man who borrowed twenty-six thousand dollars made five million dollars and finally enjoyed himself circling the world. What we do not realize that this sort of thing makes it the legal right of anybody to take advantage of chance and monopoly, and secure for himself the services and produce of vast numbers of workers while they starve. This should be not only illegal but immoral. The moral ideal of distribution of goods and services according to need and desert must eventually prevail if civilization endures.

Next health should be compulsory; not something which has to be bought of private individuals or doled out by charity. Governments should establish regimes to which every individual has to submit in order to avoid so far as possible, sickness and death.

Finally education must not be a luxury for the few or propaganda for the privileged but a compulsory discipline for every human being at public cost. Illiteracy must become a crime.

It is perfectly clear that if we have people who live decently with a healthy and agreeable amount of work; and who know the world, past and present with the accumulated results of scientific research that then we can begin to have a real democracy.

One of the first results of such democracy will be greater areas of freedom and less compulsion. In basic natural law - the law of gravity, of atomic weights, of the movement of the stars and the rotation of seasons there can be no freedom, no argument only law. If a man will eat, he must work - that is law and this law cannot be transgressed because a man is white-skinned, or because his father worked, or because he bet on the winner of the derby. The attempt to flout this social law is disaster. On color and form, here is the freedom which is the true and inevitable child of democracy.

This is what real freedom means and with the doing away of poverty, needless sickness, premature death and investment in human degradation, we can have such freedom of expression as will let nobody tell any man whether he must believe in communism or capitalism, Christianity or Mohammedism, but only the right freely to choose and follow his own beliefs.

This is the democracy which is the solution and the only solution to the problems of minorities and to the question of human rights for all men.

[illegible] BETWEEN THE UNITED STATES AND THE SOVIET REPUBLIC IN THE UNITED NATIONS

By, W. E. B. Du Bois

AS DELIVERED

Hotel Commodore, New York City, N.Y., June 17, 1947

We have been STUNNED BY TWO WARS OF SUCH BREADTH AND LENGTH THAT THEY LITERALLY THREATEN THE MODERN ORGANIZATION OF CIVILIZED LIFE. IN ORDER TO PREVENT ANY RECURRENCE OF THESE AWFUL WARS WE HAVE ORGANIZED THE UNITED NATIONS. THE BASIC IDEA OF THE UNITED NATIONS IS AGREEMENT WITHOUT FORCE. IT IS ACKNOWLEDGED THAT ANY ATTEMPT TO RESORT TO FORCE ON THE PART OF THE SMALLER NATIONS MAY BE CURBED BY THE FIVE GREAT POWERS. ON THE OTHER HAND, IT IS CLEAR THAT UNLESS THERE IS AGREEMENT AMONG THESE POWERS THERE CAN BE NO CERTAIN ERA OF PEACE. AGREEMENT THEN IS THE BASIS OF THE UNITED NATIONS: AND WHEN THERE IS NOT AGREEMENT, ANY ONE OF THE FIVE NATIONS MAY INTERPOSE A VETO. THE POWER OF VETO DOES NOT SAY THAT THE STATE USING THE VETO IS RIGHT. IT MERELY SAYS THAT THERE IS NO AGREEMENT. FAILURE OF THE LEADING NATIONS TO AGREE MEANS LONG, PATIENT EFFORT TO UNDERSTAND AND CONVINCE, WITHOUT THOUGHT OF RECOURSE TO ARMS. SUCH PATIENCE AND WILLINGNESS TO LABOR AND WAIT MUST BE BASED FIRST ON MUTUAL FAITH. IF AT THE OUTSET THE NATIONS DO NOT BELIEVE IN THE ESSENTIAL HONESTY AND GOOD WILL OF EACH OTHER THE CASE IS LOST BEFORE IT IS ARGUED AND THE UNITED NATIONS HAS ALREADY FAILED.

THE GREATEST PRESENT DANGER, THEREFORE, IS THE FACT THAT THE UNITED STATES AND THE SOVIET REPUBLIC ARE BOTH EXPRESSING FUNDAMENTAL DISTRUST OF EACH OTHER. IN THIS COUNTRY I HAVE FOUND IN THE TWENTY-FOUR STATES WHICH I HAVE VISITED IN THE LAST FIVE MONTHS AN INCREASING TENDENCY, VIGOROUSLY SUPPORTED BY THE PRESS, TO REGARD COMMUNISTS AS CRIMINALS AND CONSPIRATORS SEEKING TO OVERTHROW THE UNITED STATES AND CONQUER THE WORLD BY UNDERGROUND METHODS. ON THE OTHER HAND, WHEN I WAS IN RUSSIA IN 1928 and 1936, I FOUND, ALONG WITH BOUNDLESS ADMIRATION OF OUR MASTERY OF INDUSTRIAL TECHNIQUE, A FIRM BELIEF THAT OUR WHOLE ECONOMY WAS GEARED TO EXPLOIT LABOR NOT ONLY IN AMERICA, BUT ALL OVER THE WORLD AND AT ANY COST TO MANKIND.

IF THESE ARE THE FIRM BELIEFS OF THESE TWO NATIONS, AGREEMENT, COLLABORATION, UNDERSTANDING IS IMPOSSIBLE AND WORLD UNITY IS DOOMED UNTIL A CHANGE OF ATTITUDE COMES. THE REAL PROMISE OF THE POSSIBILITY OF SUCH A CHANGE WAS EVIDENT DURING THE LAST WORLD WAR. AT VARIOUS TIMES DURING THAT STRUGGLE THERE CAME STRONG EVIDENCE OF MUTUAL FAITH: OF GRATITUDE AND DEEP RESPECT OF AMERICANS FOR THE COLOSSAL SACRIFICES OF RUSSIA TO WIN THE WAR: OF ASTONISHMENT AND PRAISE IN RUSSIA FOR THE GIGANTIC EFFORT OF THE UNITED STATES TO FURNISH THE MACHINES AND MATERIALS WHICH MADE VICTORY POSSIBLE. WHAT NOW HAS LED TO DETERIORATION IN THIS SITUATION SINCE THE PEACE? IT IS UNDOUBTEDLY FAILURE TO UNDERSTAND OR TO TRY TO UNDERSTAND THE REASONS BACK OF DISAGREEMENT IN THE EFFORT TO COOPERATE.

I CAN LIST ROUGHLY AND IN NO ATTEMPT AT LOGICAL ORDER SIX POINTS OF FRICTION WHICH MAKE COOPERATION BETWEEN THESE TWO COUNTRIES IN THE UNITED NATIONS NATURALLY DIFFICULT:

THESE ARE THE SIX MAIN POINTS OF DISAGREEMENT BETWEEN THE UNITED STATES AND THE SOVIET UNION: THE FIRST HAS TO DO WITH THE PRESS. WE HAVE BUILT UP IN THE UNITED STATES AN EXTRAORDINARY INSTITUTION CALLED THE PRESS. IT IS AN INSTITUTION WITH WHICH WE OURSELVES ARE NOT SATISFIED: IN FACT, WE ARE OFTEN AFRAID OF IT. IF A REPORTER SHOULD COME TO THE HOME OF ANY ONE OF US TOMORROW, THE CHANCES ARE THAT OUR FIRST IMPULSE WOULD BE TO EXCLUDE HIM BY SAYING THAT THERE ARE PERSONAL MATTERS WHICH WE DO NOT WANT TO PUBLICIZE. BUT NO MATTER WHAT OUR FIRST IMPULSE WOULD BE, OUR NEXT WOULD BE TO WELCOME HIM AND TO TALK TO HIM AS FRANKLY AS WE DARE BECAUSE WE KNOW THAT UNLESS WE GIVE THAT REPORTER OUR VERSION HE WILL PUBLISH SOMETHING WHICH MAY BE ANYTHING FROM A MISINTERPRETATION TO A LIE. WE SUBMIT THEN TO INQUISITION, AND TO A DEGREE OF SELF-REVELATION FROM WHICH MOST NORMAL PEOPLE

naturally recoil. Not only that, but a new phase of journalism has come today. Formerly WHEN THE FACTS WERE PROVIDED THE OPINIONS EXPRESSED WERE BUILT UPON THESE FACTS AND REPRESENTED THE HONEST OR AT LEAST LOGICAL CONCLUSIONS FROM THE FACTS. BUT IN OUR DAY OPINIONS ARE DELIBERATELY BOUGHT AND SOLD; A MAN IS HIRED TO EXPRESS, NOT WHAT HE BELIEVES, BUT WHAT THE OWNER OF THE PERIODICAL TELLS HIM TO DEFEND.

I HAVE IN MY FILES A SIGNED LETTER FROM THE EDITOR OF ONE OF THE [redacted] WIDELY CIRCULATED MAGAZINES SAYING THAT THE ARTICLE WHICH I SENT ON PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT AND THE NRA WOULD BE USED IF I TURNED IT INTO AN ATTACK UPON ROOSEVELT. UNDER [redacted] SUCH CIRCUMSTANCES AND KNOWING THE PRACTICES OF AMERICAN JOURNALISM, MOST COUNTRIES OF EUROPE AND PARTICULARLY THE PEOPLES OF THE BALKANS AND RUSSIA, NOT TO MENTION ASIA AND AFRICA, ARE AFRAID OF AMERICAN JOURNALISTS. RUSSIA IN PARTICULAR HAS HAD IN OUR DAY A TERRIBLE EXPERIENCE WITH YELLOW JOURNALISM. THERE IS NOT A CRIME ON THE CALENDAR OF WHICH AMERICAN NEWSPAPERS OF REPUTATION HAVE NOT OPENLY ACCUSED RUSSIA: OF RECURRENT FAMINE AND CONTINUOUS STARVATION; OF PROSTITUTION OF WOMEN; OF DELIBERATE AND PLANNED MURDER; OF DEGRADATION OF CHILDREN; AND REGULAR DECEPTION

AS TO PRESENT CONDITIONS AND FUTURE PLANS.

WE IN AMERICA BELIEVE THAT IN THE LONG RUN WITH FREE FACILITIES TO REPORTERS THE REAL FACTS [redacted] WILL EMERGE; BUT CAN WE [redacted] WONDER THAT RUSSIA DOES NOT TRUST THIS [redacted] POSSIBILITY? AND THAT WHILE SHE HAS GIVEN IN MANY CASES WIDE FREEDOM FOR INVESTIGATION OF RUSSIAN CONDITIONS, SHE REFUSES TO LET AMERICAN REPORTERS RUN WILD IN RUSSIA.

SECONDLY, THERE IS THE PROBLEM OF THE REPATRIATION OF REFUGEES. RUSSIA IS IN A PECULIAR POSITION: BY VOLUNTARY MIGRATION AND BY FORCE [redacted] MORE THAN A MILLION OF RUSSIANS REPRESENTING THE OLD REGIME AND RESENTFUL OF THE NEW ORGANIZATION OF THE COUNTRY, [redacted] ESTABLISHED THEMSELVES IN FOREIGN LANDS AND BECOME CENTERS OF PERSISTENT PROPAGANDA AGAINST RUSSIA; AND EVEN OF MILITARY AGGRESSION. RUSSIA [redacted] SEEMS TO HAVE CHOSEN BETWEEN CONSPIRACY ABROAD AND CONSPIRACY UNDER HER OWN LAWS. IF FOREIGN COUNTRIES HAD ALWAYS [redacted] DISCOURAGED ATTACKS UPON RUSSIA, WITHIN THEIR OWN BORDERS, THE RUSSIAN FAITH WOULD BE STRONGER. AS IT IS, DESPITE OUR SYMPATHY, [redacted] UNDERSTANDING OF THOSE RUSSIANS WHO DISLIKE PRESENT RUSSIA CAN WE ASK RUSSIA TO HELP THEM SETTLE ABROAD AND ATTACK HER?

WE THINK OF REFUGEES AS WANDERING BEREFT OF HOME AND FORTUNE

REFUGEES AS ACTIVE IN WORLD-WIDE SLANDER AGAINST THE SOVIETS AND AS CENTERS OF [redacted] MILITARY PLOTS AND AGGRESSION. NEITHER ATTITUDE IS WHOLLY TRUE, BUT BOTH CALL FOR HONEST INVESTIGATION. THREE, THE DARDANELLES: RUSSIA SHOULD HAVE ACCESS TO THE SEVEN SEAS AND THIS THE WORLD ACKNOWLEDGES: WHY THEN ARE WE DEFENDING THEIR MONOPOLY BY TURKEY, ONE OF THE MOST REACTIONARY NATIONS WHICH FOUGHT AGAINST US IN THE FIRST WORLD WAR? MANIFESTLY FOR UNDERSTANDING HERE THE UNITED STATES IS CALLED UPON TO BE FRANK AND OPEN; IF SHE WANTS TO SHUT OUT RUSSIA FROM NORMAL WORLD COMMERCE, WHY IS THIS TRUE? THERE IS A MILITARY REASON, IN THE OIL OF THE MIDDLE EAST; BUT IF NEITHER COUNTRY WANTS WAR, CANNOT THE OIL RESOURCES BE EQUITABLY DIVIDED? CERTAINLY; BUT BOTH COUNTRIES SUSPECTS THE OTHER OF REALLY WANTING WAR.

FOUR, THERE ARE CERTAIN GREAT BASIC [redacted] MATERIALS, AND TODAY PARTICULARLY OIL, WHICH OUGHT TO HAVE FOR PURPOSES OF PEACE AND FRIENDSHIP, FREE EXCHANGE THROUGHOUT THE WORLD. ENGLAND AND AMERICA HAVE MORE THAN THEIR SHARE OF THE GREAT OIL RESERVES OF THE MIDDLE EAST. THERE IS NO REASON WHY UNDERSTANDING SHOULD NOT BE EASY CONCERNING THE ALLOTTING OF SOME OF THESE STORES OF OIL TO RUSSIA. OPPOSITION TO THIS CAN ONLY COME FROM THOSE WHO WOULD USE THE OIL [redacted] FOR WAR.

FIVE, ABOVE ALL THESE MATTERS, COMES THE TERROR-INSPIRING CASE OF THE ATOM BOMB: HERE THE FACTS ARE ALL TOO CLEAR. WE MADE THE FIRST BOMB. WE HAVE THE ONLY KNOWN STOCKPILE OF BOMBS. WE DEMAND FOR INTERNATIONALIZATION OF THIS KNOWLEDGE AND ARMAMENT, A JOINT [redacted] CONTROL TO [redacted] WHICH NO [redacted] COUNTRY CAN ENTER ANY OBJECTION. WHY DOES THE SOVIET UNION HESITATE HERE? LOOKING BACK ON THE ALL TOO RECENT PAST, SHE FEARS THAT THIS POWER OF INSPECTING AND CONTROL OVER A NEW FORCE WHICH MAY BECOME OF VAST INDUSTRIAL IMPORTANCE MIGHT BE USED TO OVERTHROW [redacted] NOT BY ARGUMENT BUT BY FORCE. IF RUSSIA WERE THE PRESESN RUSSIAN ECONOMY CONVINCED THAT INTERNATIONAL CONTROL OF ATOMIC ENERGY WOULD BE USED ONLY TO STOP WAR AND RELEASE ENERGY FOR INDUSTRY, SHE WOULD NOT HESITATE A MOMENT. WE AMERICANS WHO WANT THIS AND THIS ALONE AND HAVE BEEN FIGHTING DESPERATELY TO ACHIEVE IT, CANNOT UNDERSTAND RUSSIAN DISTRUST UNLESS WE RECALL THE SHAMEFUL DAYS OF 1918 TO [redacted] 1928, WHEN FOURTEEN WESTERN NATIONS, INCLUDING THE UNITED STATES AND GREAT BRITAIN, WITHOUT DECLARATION OF WAR, INVADED RUSSIA AGAIN AND AGAIN TO OVERTHROW THE SOVIETS AND FOR THIS END MADE ALLIANCE WITH EVERY SCOUNDREL IN EUROPE WILLING TO LEAD THE REVOLT AGAINST THE PEOPLE OF RUSSIA.

THIS WITHOUT SHADOW OF DOUBT IS BACK OF RUSSIAN EXPANSION OF INFLUENCE IN EASTERN EUROPE. WE ONCE TRIED TO USE THESE STATES AS A JUMPING OFF PLACE TO CONQUER RUSSIA AND MAKE HER SATELITES TO THE WEST. WE HAVE GOT TO PROVE TO RUSSIA THAT THIS IS NO LONGER THE OBJECT OF AMERICA, FRANCE, NOR BRITAIN.

THIS OF COURSE BRINGS US TO THE SIXTH AND THE FUNDAMENTAL DIFFERENCE BETWEEN RUSSIA AND THE UNITED STATES, AND THAT IS COMMUNISM. IT IS NOT AS THOUGH THE UNITED STATES DID NOT KNOW, WHEN THE UNITED NATIONS WAS ESTABLISHED THAT RUSSIA WAS A COMMUNISTIC COUNTRY. IT IS NO NEW SITUATION THAT FACES US. WE WENT INTO THE UNITED NATIONS WITH THE FIRM IDEA THAT IT WAS POSSIBLE FOR A COMMUNISTIC NATION AND A CAPITALISTIC NATION TO LIVE TOGETHER IN THIS WORLD IN PEACE. THIS WAS NOT ONLY OUR BELIEF, BUT OUR PROPAGANDA UNTIL AFTER THE WAR WAS FINISHED. LATELY WE HAVE HAD A DELIBERATE INCREASE IN PROPAGANDA TO PERSUADE US THAT COMMUNISM AND CAPITALISM ARE MUTUALLY EXCLUSIVE WAYS OF LIFE. IF THIS IS TRUE THEN THE ENDEAVOR TO COMPOSE DIFFERENCES IN THE UNITED NATIONS IS VAIN, AND A THIRD WORLD WAR OF FRIGHTENING PROPORTIONS FACES CIVILIZATION. THERE IS NO NEED FOR US TO ARGUE AS TO THE FACTS CONCERNING THESE TWO SYSTEMS OF ECONOMIC LIFE. WE MUST REMEMBER THAT IF IN THE UNITED STATES WE HAVE A COUNTRY WHICH IS PASSIONATELY RESISTING NOT SIMPLY COMMUNISM BUT EVERY STEP TOWARDS CURTAILING THE POWER OF UNRESTRAINED CAPITALISTIC ECONOMY, THEN IN THIS RESPECT WE STAND ALONE. GREAT BRITAIN IS SOCIALISTIC. THE WHOLE OF EASTERN EUROPE IS SOCIALISTIC: ITALY AND FRANCE HAVE SOCIALIST GOVERNMENTS. SOCIALISM IS INVADING ASIA AND WAS ALWAYS THE BASIC IDEA OF AFRICAN LIFE. IN FACT, SOCIALISM IS INVADING THE UNITED STATES.

IN AMERICA WE HAVE GOT TO FACE FRANKLY THIS QUESTION OF COMMUNISM AND CAPITALISM. WE MUST DENY THAT THIS COUNTRY IS WEDDED TO THE OLD REACTIONARY CAPITALISM: WE HAVE GOT TO REMIND RUSSIA AND THE WORLD THAT UNDER THE FAR-SEEING LEADERSHIP OF FRANKLIN ROOSEVELT WE TOOK LONG STRIDES ON THE PATH OF SOCIALISM WHICH THE WHOLE CIVILIZED WORLD IS TREADING. WE HAVE GOT TO REPUDIATE THE FICTION THAT COMMUNISM AND CAPITALISM ARE DEAD OPPOSITES IN THOUGHT AND ACTION. BOTH TO SURVIVE MUST SEEK THE ABOLITION OF POVERTY: THE EDUCATION OF THE MASSES, THE CONTROL OF INDUSTRY BY GOVERNMENT, THE ENTRANCE OF GOVERNMENT INTO INDUSTRY, AND THE TRIUMPH OF THE WILL OF THE PEOPLE. THIS IS WHAT BOTH RUSSIA AND THE UNITED STATES WANT, ALONG WITH BRITAIN, FRANCE, ITALY, POLAND AND HUNGARY. ONCE FAITH IS ESTABLISHED ON THIS ROCK, AND THE UNITED NATIONS IS SAFE.

WHAT THE UNION OF SOVIET REPUBLICS MUST DO INCREASINGLY IS TO MAKE CLEAR TO AMERICANS WHAT IT IS ACCOMPLISHING, ITS SPLENDID WORK IN EDUCATION AND SOCIAL SERVICES AND ITS PRACTICAL APPLICATION OF DEMOCRATIC METHODS IN PUBLIC ADMINISTRATION.

THE FUNDAMENTAL QUESTION IS WHAT IS THE FUNCTION OF GOVERNMENT? WE IN AMERICA CRY FOR FREEDOM. IT IS A CRY THAT ONE CAN UNDERSTAND. OUR ANCESTORS HAVE TASTED SLAVERY: THE CHATTEL SLAVERY WHICH OVERWHELMED AFRICA IN THE VERY DAYS OF THE RENAISSANCE AND ON WHICH AMERICA WAS FOUNDED. THE SLAVERY OF EXPLOITATION WHICH REDUCED ASIA TO ABJECT POVERTY: THE POLITICAL AND MASS SLAVERY WHICH MADE THE MAJORITY OF EUROPEANS UNDERPAID WORKERS IN THEIR OWN HOMELAND. HERE IN AMERICA BECAUSE OF AN EXTRAORDINARY GIFT OF NATURE AND LAND, AND RESOURCES BEYOND THOSE WHICH MOST COUNTRIES COULD COMMAND, AND A FREE INTERCHANGE OF COMMODITIES AND OF PERSONS BETWEEN DIFFERENT PARTS OF A LARGE COUNTRY, WE HAVE BEEN ABLE, THROUGH FREEDOM OF MOVEMENT, POLITICAL FREEDOM AND ECONOMIC FREEDOM TO ACHIEVE A HIGH AVERAGE STANDARD OF LIVING. BUT WE HAVE COME TO A PLACE TODAY, WHERE WE HAVE GOT TO STOP AND REMEMBER THAT WITH THE EXHAUSTION OF OUR NATURAL RESOURCES, THE LOSS OF LAND FERTILITY AND THE INCREASE OF POPULATION, THE NECESSITY TO RESTRAIN ~~XXXXX~~ GREED AND ECONOMIC ANARCHY HAS COME. GOVERNMENT IN AMERICA HAS GOT TO PLAY A LARGER ROLE. WE MAY NOT BELIEVE THAT THIS IS GOING TO PUT THE GOVERNMENT IN COMPLETE CONTROL OF INDUSTRY, BUT WE CANNOT DOUBT BUT THAT THE FUNCTION OF GOVERNMENT IS GOING TO BE INCREASINGLY LARGER UNLESS THE ANARCHY OF FREE ENTERPRISE IS TO DESTROY OUR LIBERTIES.

THERE IS ~~I FIRMLY BELIEVE, NO~~ NECESSARY NOR ETERNAL ANTAGONISM BETWEEN WIDE FREEDOM IN AMERICAN ENTERPRISE AND THE COMMUNISTIC CONTROL OF RUSSIAN ECONOMY. I CAN WELL ~~[illegible] ENTERPRISE MOVE TOWARD SOCIALISM THAT RUSSIA IN WIDE AREAS MAY MOVE BACK~~ THAT NEITHER WAY CALLS FOR THAT ORA E WHAT WE HAVE GOT TO CONVINCE OURSELVES OF IS

HOTEL COMMODORE, NEW YORK CITY, JUNE 17, 1947

THERE IS, I FIRMLY BELIEVE, NO NECESSARY NOR ETERNAL ANTAGONISM BETWEEN WIDE FREEDOM IN AMERICAN ENTERPRISE AND THE COMMUNISTIC CONTROL OF RUSSIAN ECONOMY. I CAN WELL FORESEE THAT WHILE WE MOVE TOWA D SOCIALISM THAT RUSSIA IN WIDE AREAS MAY MOVE BAEK TOWARD FREE ENTERPRISE BUT IN ANY CASE WHAT WE HAVE GOT TO CONVINCE OURSELVES OF IS THAT NEITHER WAY CALLS FOR THAT ORGANIZED MURDER WHICH IS WORLD WAR.

MOREOVER, IN THE FACE OF THE APPARENT BELIEF THAT DISAGREEMENT IN THE UNITED NATIONS HAS BEEN ALREADY XXXXXXXXXXXX WIDE AND FATAL, A REVIEW OF THE FACTS, DOES NOT SUPPOR THIS THESIS. THE MAIN POINTS OF DISAGREEMENT SO FAR HAVE BEEN BUT FOUR: IRAN, SPAIN, THE ATOM, AND TRIESTE. THERE HAVE BEEN OTHER DIFFERENCES BUT NONE HAS REACHED AN IMPASSE THESE FOUR. IS THIS DISCOURAGING? HAS ANY NATION GOT A GLIB AND SURE ANSWER FOR ANY ONE OF THESE FOUR? COULD ANYONE POSSIBLY HOPE THAT THESE DIFFICULT PROBLEMS COULD BE SETTLED SOONER?

IN SUCH CONSIDERATION LIES THE HOPE OF THE UNITED NATIONS AND OF THE UNITED STATES AND THE UNION OF SOVIET REPUBLICS.

Address of Dr. W. E. B. DuBois at 38th Annual Conference, National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, afternoon of June 26, 1947, at John Wesley AME Zion Church, 14th & Corcoran Sts., N. W., Washington, D. C.

THE UNITED NATIONS AND COLONIES

I wish to lay down and defend, three propositions:

1. Poverty is unnecessary.
2. Colonies and quasi-colonial regions are the most poverty-stricken portions of the earth and most human beings live in them.
3. Socialism is an attack on poverty.
4. The United Nations is the greatest hope of abolishing colonialism and thus abolishing poverty in all the world.

Poverty is unnecessary. Most intelligent people today, even in civilized parts of the earth believe that it is normal and necessary that most human beings should not have enough to eat and wear and insufficient shelter; and that because of this inevitable poverty most human beings must be ignorant, diseased and to a large extent criminal. The persons who believe this mythical witchcraft are ignorant of the plain teaching of science and industrial technique especially in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries. They still think and act in accord with the beliefs of primitive ages, when scarcity of food, difficulties of technique, ignorance of natural forces, made the world a desperate fight between human beings for survival, in which murder, war, cheating and stealing were the only paths to survival for most of the human species. Despite the fact that we have moved far beyond such a situation, we still talk and think and act as though war was inevitable, early death by disease natural, crime congenital, and lack of food and housing normal.

Yet we know better or could know better if we would use the brains with which even the most stupid are endowed. To be specific, we know that the present floods in the Missouri and Mississippi Valleys are due simply to carelessness and greed; we could dam these waters, store them in reservoirs, and use them for cheap irrigation and power production for a cost not one-tenth as great as the toll of dead farmers, lost crops and property; and ruined, rich soil which is annually taken from corn and wheat fields and deposited in the Gulf of Mexico to obstruct shipping.

We know that annually many times as many persons die of tuberculosis, cancer and heart disease, as need to if we would apply our present medical knowledge; and that the lost value of their work would pay to society much more than our present medical care costs us. We know that the money which we refuse for schools and teachers, does not amount to a tenth of what we are compelled to pay for police, jails, courts and insane asylums, to take wretched care of the crime of ignorant young people whom we neglect as children, l eave in ignorance during youth and imprison and hang before they are thirty.

If we were really trying to relieve the wants of men, we would not have to destroy potatoes, burn corn, let food rot in warehouses or prevent men from buying wool where wool can be raised cheapest and best, in a land like this where most of our surface is empty unused space, and where wood, iron and coal are more plentiful than anywhere else on earth, it is simply a monument to our stupidity that we should have and continue to have a housing shortage.

To turn from the specific to the general; we tax the poor much more heavily than the rich; we can make endless masses of goods but we refuse to pay workers enough to buy them; we have unlimited natural power in water, electricity, steam and gas, and yet by monopoly and legal restrictions, we make the cost of these free gifts of nature so high that most men cannot reap the advantage of their use. Today on the threshold of the vastest gift of natural power production of which man ever dreamed, we refuse to develop atomic energy and talk wildly of bombs for murder in order to save the invested capital of corporations who fear competition.

In fine, while it was true a thousand years ago, that human toil and energy was unable to feed, clothe and shelter all mankind, this has not been the case since the beginning of the Nineteenth Century; and today, with what we know of natural forces; with the land and labor at our disposal, with the known technique of processing materials and transport of goods, there is no adequate reason why a single human being on earth should not have sufficient food, clothing and shelter for healthy life.

Colonies and Quasi-Colonial Regions are the most Poverty-Stricken Portions of the Earth and Most Human Beings Live in Them.

We have grown into the habit of regarding colonial questions as comparatively unimportant and far removed from our immediate domestic interests. We can easily correct this tragic error, if we remember that we have spent thousands of million dollars and killed millions of human beings, and maimed and crazed tens of million more mainly, because of jealousy and greed arising primarily over the control of labor, land and materials of colonial peoples.

The basic reason for this is the fact that most of the goods and materials which we need for living in civilized lands, comes from the land and labor of colonial people. Colonial peoples are not simply those who live and work in lands called colonies, but all those who live under colonial conditions. This comprehends nearly all Asia and Africa, most of South America and vast areas in the islands of the sea.

Most human beings live in such lands, and here poverty reaches a level which men in Europe and North America simply cannot conceive. Four hundred million people in India live on an average income of twenty-five dollars a year per family; the millions of china average no more than 30 perhaps; the peoples of Africa probably do not average twenty dollars a year, while South America and the Carribean area hardly average fifty. This spells poverty at its harshest and crudest; and I repeat it is unnecessary and largely deliberate on the part of the master nations of the world.

How can this happen? There is still in the minds of many men the explanation of laziness and congenital stupidity as the cause of the poverty of so-called backward peoples. In fact such people work harder than the people in culture lands. They furnish an astounding proportion of the necessary goods and materials of the world, although this is largely concealed by the price system, through which we measure value by the market price. These prices are set by those who manipulate markets for their own advantage. Consider, on the basis of human need, and not at the prices paid, what we get from colonies: sugar, rice, spices, rubber, fruit, coffee, tea, cocoa, vegetable oils, cotton, wool, flax, quinine, diamonds, gold, copper, tin, hides. Does it make these materials less basically valuable, because after the application to them of special techniques of manufacture, the manufacturers and financiers can put so high a price on the finished product, that no colonial can buy it? Of the dollar which you pay for a box of chocolates, the cocoa farmer in West Africa gets three cents; yet chocolate is cocoa boiled with sugar and sold with fancy forms and wrappings. We are part of colonial exploitation, whenever we buy a pound of coffee and pay the machine which grinds it three times as much as the man who raises it.

Socialism is an Attack on Poverty.

We can by our knowledge, by the use of our democratic power, prevent the concentration of political and economic power in the hands of the monopolists who rule colonies and make them the cesspools that they are. These exploiters live in civilized lands and get their power by consent of the people living there. Many of these people are poor workers, but are deprived of their rightful democratic control by social forces and groups whose power comes from colonial exploitation.

Groups, nations of human beings, work together in vast cooperation to make goods for mankind: China raises tea and silk; Brazil raises coffee; Cuba raises sugar; Hawaii, pineapples; South Africa mines gold and diamonds; Russia and Canada raise wheat; the former slave states in our land and Egypt and Uganda in Africa raise cotton; England, France and America process, transport, manufacture and distribute these goods. Yet when this world cooperation is finished and the consumer goods distributed, most of the workers are starving, while the beautiful shops of Fifth Avenue, Bond Street, and the Rue de la Paix are filled with luxuries that only the rich and idle of New York, Paris and London can afford to buy.

Something is wrong in the world. What is it? It is primarily, because even intelligent people have no idea of economic processes; of what work and income really mean; of what can and ought to be done. They assume that the distribution of goods between groups of workers and between individuals is a matter of law - natural physical law as well as social laws - just as inevitable and unchangeable as the law of gravitation. It is silly then they say to interfere with these laws or to permit government interference. This attitude of mind is the result of the economics taught in the 19th Century. The situation seemed simple: a man made a chair; the chair was his - to use, to give away - even to burn, his property right in that chair was absolute and sacred and not to be interfered with. If he sold the chair for money, the money was his to horde, to spend for bread or liquor or to throw away.

Probably most people today, most people in this audience, even educated persons everywhere agree in the main with this thesis; yet no more mischievous relic of ancient folklore exists and its results are false and criminal. Even in the ancient world this picture was but partially true: nobody made things alone by individual effort unsupported: the clan gave the worker home and security; the family furnished tools; the chief allotted land. Today social cooperation in furnishing of goods is the overwhelming pattern. Take a pair of shoes: their delivery to you involves the use of land in the Argentine; the labor of gauchos to herd cattle, labor to prepare the hides, ships and seamen to transport them; more skilled labor to tan the leather; inventors and mechanics to make machines to manufacture the shoes; miners and steelworkers to furnish material for the machine; skilled work to finish the shoes in factories built by carpenters and masons with money furnished by financiers; railroads to transport the finished shoes; commercial travelers to secure retail stores to take them; stores to be ready to receive the stock and clerks to wait on you in answer to advertisements to lure you. How now shall the $10.00 which you pay for the shoes be distributed among those who first and last helped to make them? As a matter of fact no one knows. The final price is determined by an organization of industry so intricate and concealed that we are not at all surprised when of the ten thousand persons engaged first and last in the making of shoes, there result four millionaires, ten well-paid managers, a thousand fairly paid mechanics and nine thousand paupers. Some persons regard this result as natural and in the main unchangeable. But not so the great thinkers and social leaders of the nineteenth and twentieth centuries, not to mention the thinkers among the Grooks, the mediaeval churchmen, and the utopian writers. Among those who have criticized modern production and distribution bitterly and fought against poverty were Housseau, Babeuf, Tom Paine, William Godwin, Robert Owen; Saint-Simon, Fourier and Louis Blanc; Proudhon, Karl Marx, Henry George, Horace Greeley and Wendel Phillips, Indeed scarcely any of the great social leaders since 1800 have failed to protest against the current methods of production and distribution of wealth since/industrial the revolution which followed American slavery. Why then has it not been completely changed? In fact much has been done. The great labor movement has been founded and spread over the world. Democracy in political life has been established, but bitter opposition has arisen and is increasing today, against introduction of democracy in industry and also against allowing democratic political methods to interfere in industry in any way. Keep the government out of industry, cry those industrial kings who are determined to preserve their undisputed rule of work and income. The power of the state therefore is today still restricted in any attempt to right the great wrongs prevalent in the distribution of wealth. But advance has been made. In the United States the government carries mail and parcels; it conducts banking and restricts all banking; it irrigates land, preserves forest, controls railroads, inspects airplanes, regulates commerce between the states and abroad, supports education, inspects mines, distributes relief, protects agriculture, supports scientific research, encourages and controls labor unions, and protects health, in addition to all this, the government attempts to correct the unfair distribution of wealth by regulating wages by taxing the rich for the benefit of the poor and restricting gifts and heritages. All of this is socialism, in clear and avowed form. Its character has not changed when we call it the "New Deal" or social service. It remains the effort of society to curb injustice to the individual by unrestrained individual initiative and unlimited private enterprise. Much of this government work for social reform is ineffective because of the entrenched opposition of private interests. Our income tax law is designed to make the rich bear the wright of taxation and thuse to effect a redistribution of wealth. But bitter opposition has kept the main burden of taxation on the poor by means of sales taxes and other consumer taxes, while big business escapes taxation by dodges of the law and legal exemptions. Private business can hire the best men, while government is restricted in competition by low wage and insecurity. Nevertheless, the most important consideration in every country in the world is this matter of poverty and social control and the undue influence of wealth accumulated and monopolized by unfair methods. Every leading land on earth is moving toward some form of socialism, so as to restrict the power of wealth, introduce democratic methods in industry, and stop the persistence of poverty and its children, ignorance, disease and crime.

The United Nations is the greatest hope of abolishing colonialism and thus abolishing poverty in all the world. In this situation what now is the meaning of the organization of the United Nations? The United Nations was established to stop war. We wish to stop war because otherwise civilization will end. Wars are so destructive and costly today that social reform is impossible. If world wars are to continue. But the main and basic object of the United Nations is, of course, as everybody recognizes only preliminary. If and when we succeed in outlawing war then the question is what can the united wisdom and effort of the peoples of the world do to uplift civilization? The most distinct affirmation of what the world desires in this respect is the statement in the charter of the United Nations which touches upon colonies and non-self governing peoples. It says: "Members of the United Nations which have or assume responsibilities for the administration of territories whose peoples have not yet attained a full measure of self-government recognized the principle that the interests of the inhabitants of these territories are paramount, and accept as a sacred trust the obligation to promote to the utmost, within the system of international peace and security established by the present charter, the well-being of the inhabitants of these territories, and, to this end: A. To insure, with due respect for the culture of the peoples concerned, their political, economic, social, and educational advancement, their just treatment, and their protectiom against abuses; B. To develop self-government, to take due account of the political aspirations of the peoples, and to assist them in the progressive development of their free political institutions," according to the particular circumstances of each territory and its peoples and their varying stages of advancement; bitter and protracted opposition from the reactionary element at San Francisco developed over the acceptance of this paragraph. Why was this? Because the United Nations in its basic charter promised to devote time and energy to the uplift politically, socially and educationally of the most poverty-striken portion of mankind. Whatever the United Nations does to implement this promise can and will be a precedent for attack on problems of poverty in the individual nations. It makes no difference how strong and stubborn a stand the various nations may take to prevent world knowledge of their internal conditions or criticisms and interference with these conditions, this kind of reform is bound to come and is illustrated by the formation of the Commission On Human Rights. It is here that the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People is making effort to do something toward the spread of justice and democracy in the world. We have written a book which will, when printed, extend to two hundred pages on the denial of human rights in the United States to persons of Negro descent. We have examined in that statemont tho curtailment of our rights in law, in social progress and in educations and we have asked the United Nations to move toward correction of these abuses in the interest of democracy and justice. This statement under my editorship has been written by Earl B. Dickerson, Milton R. Konvitz, William R. Ming, Jr., Leslie S. Perry and Rayford W. Logan. It has already been presented to the Commission on Human Rights and there so far suppressed. It is going to be presented again to this Commission and also to the economic and social council and finally to the General Assembly of the United Nations. We hope to have the whole world eventually able to read the grievances of American Negroes in printed and widely disseminated form: This is a beginning of methods by which we can help this parliament of man and federation of the world. But in the long run and fundamentally, we can only back this up by doing away with the economic illiteracy so prevelent among us. We must understand industrial profit; we must know what wealth is and what it means, we must stand back of democracy in industry and better methods of production and a more just distribution of wealth. We must not let ourselves be scared and intimidated by the fear of being called communist, by the smearing of Henry Wallace, by lies printed about Russia for the last thirty years or by the widespread attempt of a monopolized and privately owned press to keep the peoples of the world from knowing the truth about work and income. In order to support the United Nations and its wider objects and duties we must know the truth and the truth will make us free.

Most people are not willing to re-examine or re-arrange the facts which they have learned about history and especially history long past. Of course this reluctance is also true of other knowledge which we have laid aside and labeled. Indeed unless we do this with the mass of our knowledge we should go insane trying to learn and unlearn ordinary knowledge. Our fund of assumptions concerning what is true becomes the basis of our knowledge and even of our prejudices. We are nevertheless becoming used to examining our ideas concerning social organization and are beginning to look back into economic structure. But so far as history is concerned and especially the history of centuries or millenniums ago, we are rather more than willing to let that rest as we have learned it. Nevertheless it is undoubtedly true that we must today especially become increasingly aware of the past; it must become more common in our examination of present and future problems, for us to refer to the experience of mankind in the past.

Our reluctance to do this is undoubtedly the fact that the past has always been vaguely and inaccurately known. This however must not excuse us. There can be, for instance, no doubt but what the economic events of the marvelous eighteenth century are having their repercussions upon the twentieth century and conditioning everything that we do. Now the eighteenth century was the century of the African slave trade, when that extraordinary commerce was the most important trade in the world, both for the wealth it produced, and for the economic changes which it began, for the social reorganization, of which it was the cause.

For the clear reason that the slave trade was disgraceful and something of which we are ashamed of today, we try to forget it. I have attempted to restate the economic background of the twentieth century as based upon the African Slave Trade in the eighteenth century and because of this, I have had to call the attention of historians and readers to the fact that the whole history of Africa has been distorted and forgotten in order that we should not think of so unpleasant a thing as man-stealing.

THE AFRICAN SLAVE TRADE

W. E. B. Du Bois

The transfer of laborers within Africa and from Africa to Asia and America began on its modern scale in the 14th century and lasted through the 19th century, a period of five hundred years; which covers the expansion of Europe and the triumph of European culture throughout the world. During this time at least ten million laborers changed their dwelling places, with the result that the whole economy and culture of Africa itself was changed.

A new economy was built in America, strong influence was brought to bear upon Asia, and industrial and economic revolution took place in Europe. The mere mention of these facts shows what a tremendous phenomenon of series of phenomena the African Slave Trade was. Yet I have no doubt but that no university in New York City and few in the United States give a single semester course of study to the subject of the African slave trade.

It is not usually mentioned to any ext nt in text books or emphasized by lecturers in the minds of students. This is not an ususual thing in the study of history. The keeping of records and drawing of judgments as to human action has to be a matter of comparison and emphasis: and when certain actions and occurences are emphasized they become current history which few people question. When too there are certain omissions, they also contribute to a theory of history. There are other great movements and occurences in the history of mankind which have been forgotten, or not emphasized and which everyone regards accordingly.

The renaissance which was a matter of the fifteenth century or if we want to stretch the meaning of the name from the twlefth to the sixteenth; lasted a shorter period of time than the African slave trade and on the whole had no greater influence upon human beings. Yet the resaissance is widely studied: You could find no text book on modern history that did not devote a chapter or several chapters to the Renaissance. Insimilar way we study the protestant reformation, covering two or three centuries. No student is allowed to forget it, not text book omits it. That brings us of course to the question: is there any particular reason why the African slave trade should be, if not forgotten, at any rate played down to such an extent, that it means comparatively little even to intelligent people today?

I think there is. The African slave trade is an unpleasant subject; it is a period in the history of modern man, which runs counter to his professed moral precepts and his unduly advertised religion. In addition to that, it involves a question of race; not simply of the black race, but of the whole question of races and of race-contact in the world; and of the meaning of race in modern development; and be ond that it is part of the history of the rise and developemtn of capitalism, since modern democracy was developed through a new method of work and income, a new organization of industry, at the bottom of which the slave trade lay, it is surely time today, that we get rid of this false reticence and question this case of emphasis.

A great deal is always said in history about the sale of goods, but no so much about the sale of labor; or at least we do not put it ~~xxxx~~ quite that way. In truth, laborers have been bought and sold over the world to an astonishing degree. It is an ancient and well-known method of getting the work of the world done. In ancient Greece not only Asiatics and Thracians became slaves in this way, but in the many wars between Greecian states, continental or colonial, Greeks were reduced to slavery by men of their own Race. Philip sold his Olythian captives, and, after ~~xx~~ Thebes was taken by Alexander, 30,000 women and children are said to have been sold.

All the different republics of Greece were at home almost always distracted by the most furious factions, and abroad involved in the most sanguinary war, in which each sought, not merely superiority or dominion, but either completely to ~~xxxx~~ extirpate all its enemies, or, what was not less cruel, to reduce them into the vilest of all states, that of domestic slavery, and to sell them, man, woman, and child, like so many herds of cattle, to the highest bidder in the market.

There was a systematic slave trade. Syria, Pontus, Phrygia, Lydia, Galatie, Paphlagonia, and above all Thrace, were sources of supply. Egypt and Ethiopia also furnished a certain number, and Italy a few. Of foreigners, The Asiatica bore the greatest value, as most amenable to command, and most versed in the arts of lucurious refinement. But Greeks were highest of all in esteem, and they were much sought for foreign sale. Greece proper and Ionia supplied the petty eastern princes with courtesans and female musicians and dancer. Athens was an important slave-market, and the state profited by a tax on the slaes ; but the principal marts were those of Cyprus, Samos, Ephesus, And especially Chios. In later times Delos became a gret cntes of the trade; aw are to d that sometimes as many as ten thoudand slaves were sold ther in a single day.

In Rome the slave trade flousished . In Epirus, after the victories of Aemilius Paullus, 150,000 captives were sold. The prisoners at Aquae Sextiae and Vercellae were 90,000 Tieutons and 60,000 Cimbri. Caesar sold on a single occasion in Gaul 63,000 Captives; Augustus made 44,000 prisoners in the country of Salassi. After immense numbers had perished by famine and hardship and in the combats of the arena, 97,000 slaves were acquired by the Jewish war.

The entire number of slaves in Italy would thus have been, in the reign of Claudius, 20,832,000; that of the free population being 6,944,000.

In Ancient Days, the transfer of slave labor was not as great in Africa as in Asia and Europe. The traffic was wide-spread and Through that traffic the fields of southern Europe, the work of Eastern and Western Southern Asia was carried on. The slaves were not usually transported for long distances but the aggregate numbers transferred was large.

The buying and selling of labor and soldiers on a large scale took place in Western Asia and the Nile Valley during the Middle Agew and explains much of the history of that peroid. But it was not until the 14th century that the trade with West Africa and Europe expanced and then Gradually began to include slave labor as a considerable part of that trade.

During the 15 and 16th centuries the African trade included gold and pep per and slaves and was carried on mainly between West Africa and Southern Europe and only occas ionally with America. This trade brought laborers to Portugal, Sapin Italy, and further east and accounts for much of the dark complexions of those parts of the world even today.

The slaves became a part of Iberian znd Sicillian economy and were graduaily abosrbed into the masses of the people. Meantime came the disvovery of America dn not simply its discovery, but the idea of its place in a new economic world, a place not simply for the export of Godl and silver but for the raising of certain importnat roaw materials , in increasing demand, on a large scale. It was not however, until the 17th and 18th centuries that Great Britain began to have a vision of what the African slave trade might mean z a new mehtod of building up an empire.

In the 18th century the backbone of the British Empire was the African slave trade. We have conveniently forgotten that today, but a few quotations will show what the trade in labor meant to British America and the new and extraordinary economy which it built in Europe. There were, of course, difficulties and one of the reatest was the matter of religious beliff. We had begun through the Renaissance and the Reformation to have a new respect for human beings as such, and to think of them not simply as commodities for the making of materials and the convenience of masters but also as individuals who were to some extent to to nto the making of a new modern stte byond that they were regarded by both protestants and catholica as a part of a larger scheme of things, in whichtheiri undying souls were going to be citizen of an everlasting world.

Now straight in the face of this came the dichotomy of the new need of ~~x~~ labor and the extraordinary value of that labor for Europe. The result was that religion had a pretty hard time for a while. it was first learnedly explained that the heathen of Africa could look forward to no better than fate than to be transported to the Christianity of Europe and America where they would become citizens of the Christian commonwealth. When this transporting of labor became more than the incoropration of a new laboring class in an ood country; becme the bssid of a world-wide economy, iciuding the raising of tobacco, sugar and cotton the trnsport of a new lucury, a cheap sweetining and desprertely needed cheap ciothing to the peoples of the world, when t is became clear there had to be new explanations of wh:t blck lavor menat.

Investment called for labor, and cheap lavor if the profit was to be high; but already labor was beginning to be cnscious and to revolt. This was the meaning of the peasant war in Germany in the 16th century, but there was revolt and revolutionary thoght hot only in Europe; indeed it may be insisted that the revolt of labor against its modern degradation began in America rather than in Europe. This was the meaning of five slave revolts before 1600 among the blacks in America and the be inning of the fateful dynasty of Maroons, or free Negroes, hiding in orgaized bebellion in the mountians of Cuba, Jamaica, and Haiti, in Mexico and Brazil. In the 17th century, with the increased importation of slaves, there were nine revolts leading to pitched war in Jamaica and Barbados and Haitia dnd to the independent state of Palmares in Brazil.

In the 18th century came 15 slave rebellions. Nevertheless, England had the bit in her teeth. "Royal adventurers trading to Afrida" in 1667 had among them members of the Royal family three dukes, eight earls, seven Lords, and twenty-seven kinghts. Wtith the end of the Civi War in England, British merchants crowede upon the landholding aristocracy for an increased share in the profits of the slave-trade industry while the british were fighting ostensibly for synastic disputes in Europe, they were really, in the war of Spanish succession and in the Seven Years War, fighting for profit through world trade and especially the slave trade. in 1713 they gained, by the coveted treaty of the Asiento, the right to monopolize the slave trade from Africa to the Spanish colonies. In that century thay beat Holland to ~~knex~~ her knees and started her economic decline. They overthrew the Portuguese in India, and finally by the middle of the century, overca e their last rival in India, the French. In the 18th century they raised the slave trade to the greateds single body of trade on earth.

The Royal African company transported an average of five thousand slaves a year between 1680 and 1686; but the newly rich Middle-Class merchants were clamoring for free trade in human flesh. Eventually the royal African compa y was powerless agains the comptetition of free merhcant traders, and a new organization was established in 1750 called The Company of Merchantstrading to Africa." In the first nine years of this "Free Trade", Bristol alone shipped 160,950 Negroes to the Sugar paintations. In 1760, 146 ships sailed from British ports to Africa with a capacity of 36,000 slaves. In 1771 there were 190 ships and 47,000 slaves. The British colonies between 1680 and 1786 imported over two million slaves.

The total number of slaves imported to America is not known. Dunbar estimates that nearly 900,000 came in the 16th cent ry, 2,750,00 in the 17th and 7,000000 in the eighteenth and over 4,000,000 in the nineteenth perhaps 15, 000,000 in all. Certainly it seems that at least 10,000,000 Negroes were expatriated. The Mohammedan slave trade meant the forcible migration in Africa and to Asia of millions more. Many other millions were left dead in the wake of the raiders. It would be conservative, then, to say that the slave trade cost Negro Africa from a fourth to a t ird of its population. And yet people ask today the cause of the stagnation of culture in that land since 1600!

It was Karl Marx who made the great and unanswerable charge of the sources of capitalism in African slavery: "The discovery of gold and silver in America, the extirpation, enslavement, and entombment in mines of the aboriginal population, the beginning of the conquest and looting of the East Indies, the the East Indies, the turning of Africa into a warren for the commericial hunting of black-skins, signalized the rosy dawn of the era of capitalist production. These idyllic proceedings are the chief momenta of primitive accumulation. On their heels treads the commerical woar of the European nations, with the globe for a theatre. It begins with the revolt of the Netherlands from Spain, assumes giant dimensions in England's anti-jacobin war, and is still going on in the opium wars against China..."

"With the development of ca italist production during the manufacturing period, the public opinion of Europe had lost the last remnant of shame and conscience. The nations bragged cynically of every infamy that served them as a means of capitalistic accumulation. Read, e.g., The Naive Annals of Commerce of the Worthy A. Anderson. Here it is trumpeted forth as a triumph of English Statecraft that at the peace of Utrecht, England extorted from the Spaniards by the Asiento Treaty the pribilege of being allowed to ply the Negro trade,(until then only carried on between Africa and the English West Indies.)

Between Africa and Spanish America as well. England thereby acquired the right of supplying Spanish America until 1743 with four thousand eight hundred Negroes yearly. This threw, at the same time an official cloak over British smuggling.

Liverpool waxed fat on the slave trade. This was its method of primitive accumulation. And, even to the present day, Liverpool 'respectability' is the pindar of the slave trade which...'has coincided with that Spirit of bold adventure which has characterised the trade of Liverpool and rapidly carried it to its present state of prosperity; has occasioned vast employment for shipping and sailors and greatly ~~xxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxx~~ augumented the demand for the manufactures of the country.' Liverpool employed in the slave trade, in 1730, fifteen ships; in 1751, fifty-three; in 1760, seventy four; in 1770 ninety-six; and in 1792, one hundred and thirty two."

"Tantae Molis Erat, to establish the 'eternal laws of nature' of the capitalist mode of production, to complete the process of separation between labourers and conditions of labour, to transform at one pole the social means of production and subsistence into capital, at the opposite pole, the mass of the population into wage-laborers, into "Free Labouring poor', that artificial prodict of modern society. If money, according to Augier, 'comes into the world with congenital blood-stain on one cheek,' capital comes dripping from head to foot, from every pore with blood and dirt."

By 1750 there was hardly a manufacturing town in England which was not connected with the colonial trade. The profits provided one of the main streams of that capital which financed the industrial revolution. The West Indian Islands became the center of the British Empire and of immense importance to the grandeur of England. It was the Negro slaves who made these sugar colonies the most precious colonies ever recorded in the annals of imperialism. Experts called them "The fundamental prop and support" of the empire. The British Empire was regarded as a "Magnificent super-structure of American commerce and naval power on an African foundation."

William Wood said that the slave trade was the "Spring and Parent whence the others flow." Postlethwayt describe the slave trade as "The first principle and foundation of all the rest, the ~~xxx~~ mainspring of the machine which sets every wheel in motion. "

The triangular trade made an enormous contribution to Britain's industrial development. The profits fertilized the productive system of the country. The slate industry in Wales was revolutionized by a plantation owner. The British West Indies interest was back of the vast railway development. Cotton responded to new inventions. Between 1709 and ~~xxxx~~ 1787 the tonnage of British shipping in Foreign trade increased fourfold. The British nobility benefited largely from the West Indian trade.

The Lascelles were from Barbados, and one to their descendants is now brother-in-law of the King of England. The Earl of Chatham considered the sugar colonies as "The landed interest of this kingdom."

West Indian investors bought seats in parliament. The poetry of both Browning and Barret with all its depth and beauty grew straight out of West Indian Slavery. Sir Dalby Thomas declared that every person employed on the sugar plantation was a hundred and thirty times more valuabele to ngland than one at home. Professor Pitman has estimated that in 1775 British West Indies plantations represented a valuation of fifty million pounds sterling and the sugar planters themselves put the figure at seventy millions in 1788. In 1798 Pitt assessed the annual income from West Indian Plantations at four million pounds as compared with one million from the rest of the world. As Adam Smith wrote in WEALTH AND NATIONS: "The profits of a sugar plantation in any of our West Indian colonies are generally much greater than those of any other cultivation that is known either in Europe or merica."

Justification for this extraordinary founding of democracy and industry on African slavery was frantically sought. It was easily found in a line of thought already begun and disseminated by Gobinuau who had attempted to explain why it was that disaster was continually overcoming the efforts of civilized man to permanently to establish himself; and emphasis was placed upon the fact that there were different kinds of men, some of whom could carry on civilization, and some of whom could not.

Gobineau, himself had no thought of putting the African as a man in a catagory where his contribution to civilization would be impossibe or his place in the cultural scheme, a completely subordinate one. But addition to Gobinism was furnished by ngland and merica, and resulted in one of the greatest efforts in modern thought to rationalize a line of conduct so as to justify upon grounds of religion, a conduct which in morals and decency was unjustifiable.

The theory of the perfect adaptation of the African Negro to the role of slave in America was developed to an extraordinary degree, until it became an axiom of social philosophy; but early in the nineteenth century it ran into disaster, not by the rise of abolitionism, but with the revolt of the Haitians under Toussaint. This again has been too often represented as a matter of personal leadership, a little insurrection in a tiny island in the Sea. It was much more than that. Haiti at the end of the eighteenth century had represented the culmination of the African slave labor idea.

It was rich and prosperous and the foundation stone of the nation of France. The attempt of French people to free themselves from the hereditary privilege of the nobility brought France immediately fact to face with the question of slave labor; practically France was asked to cut from under her economy one of its strongest supports in order to justify liberty, equality, and fraternity.

This aplit French thought and when a new rationalization was tryign to prove that after all these blacks of Haiti and the West Indies had no heritage in new French freedom. Toussaint L'Ouverture proved that they did by taking the island away from the French despite the strong effort of Napoleaon.

Immediately the English tried to fall heir to this center of Agriculture which they had long desired and Spain too tried to add Haiti to its Empire; but both were unsuccessful and Haiti became independent. It was this that became the foundation of the new colonial imperialism. The transport of slaves from Africa or elsewhere for long distances across the world was becomming impracticable; it not only was facing the kind of revolt which became its disaster in Haiti, but it was also facing a new rise of conscientious revolt among thinkers and dreamers of the modern world, whose minds Toussaint freed.

They were not only impressed by what the Haitian slaves had done, they were depressed by what the [redacted] new industry had brought to Europe because of the results of slave labor and with the help which science had prepared in a new technique for processing sl ve goods. The slave idea of labor, the idea of labor as a commodity had transferred itself to France and England and was spreading to Germany and elsewhere. It was building up a new wage slavery in Europe.

The revolt then against this by labor and philanthropy was an attempt to renew the failing philosophy of the early French revolution and to say that labor is not a commodity, but that laborers are men and are the object of that industry built on the African Slave Trade.

COLONIAL IMPERIALISM

W.E.B. DuBois

THE REVOLT OF MAROONS IN JAMAICA AND CUBA AND THE BUSH NEGROES IN SOUTH AMERICA AND THE REPEATED ATTEMPTS IN HAITI FRIGHTENED THE SLAVEHOLDERS AND THREATENED THE STABILITY OF THE WHOLE SYSTEM. IN JAMAICA THE MAROONS "CONTINUED TO DISTRESS THE ISLAND FOR UPWARDS OF FORTY YEARS, DURING WHICH TIME FORTY-FOUR ACTS OF ASSEMBLY WERE PASSED, AND AT LEAST £240,000 pounds EXPENDED FOR THEIR SUPPRESSION." THE GOVERNOR OF BARBADOS WROTE: "THE PUBLIC MIND IS EVER TREMBLINGLY AWARE TO THE DANGERS OF INSURRECTION," AND THE STATUTE BOOKS ALL OVER THE SLAVE TERRITORY TESTIFIED TO THIS FACT.

35-1-26

THE NEXT EVENT THAT OPPOSED THE SLAVE TRADE AND SLAVERY WAS THE AMERICAN REVOLUTION. NOT ONLY DID THE COLONISTS ACHIEVE THEIR INDEPENDENCE THROUGH THE HELP OF SLAVES AND THE PROMISE OF THEIR FREEDOM, AND WITH THE CO-OPERATION IN MONEY AND MEN FROM HAITI, BUT THEY REPRESENTED ACTUAL WORKING CLASSES RATHER THAN EXPLOITERS OF LABOR. FINALLY, THE FRENCH REVOLUTION BURST FORTHA AS A ROAR AGAINST PRIVILEGE BASED ON BIRTH AND DEMANDED FREEDOM, ESPECIALLY ECONOMIC FREEDOM TO TRADE AND TO ENTER INDUSTRY WITHOUT COERCION.

THE RESULT WAS THAT THE SLAVE TRADE MET DISTINCT OPPOSITION BASED ON HUMANITARIAN GROUNDS; BUT THIS OPPOSITION WOULD HAVE BEEN POWERLESS TO STOP THE TRADE IF IT HAD NOT BEEN EVIDENT THAT THE TRADE ITSELF AS A SOURCE OF PROFIT WAS THREATENED. THE REVOLT OF AMERICA CONFIRMED THE SUPERIORITY OF THE FRENCH SUGAR COLONIES. BETWEEN 1783 AND1789 THE PROGRESS OF SAN DOMINGO HAD BEEN AMAZING. AT THE END OF THE EIGHTEENTH CENTURY THE BRITISH SUGAR PLANTERS LOST THEIR SUPREMACY TO THE FRENCH COLONIES. FRENCH COLONIAL EXPORTS AMOUNTED TO EIGHT MILLIONS POUNDS WHILE BRITISH COLONIAL EXPORTS AMOUNTED TO FIVE MILLION POUNDS.

WHEN THE AMERICAN COLONIES WON THEIR INDEPENDENCE? THE CARIBBEAN CEASED TO BE A BRITISH SEA AND INVESTMENTS BEGAN TO BE TRANSFERRED FROM

THE WEST TO THE EAST INDIES. IN 1783 PRIME MINISTER WILLIAM PITT SHOWED INCREASED INTEREST IN INDIA AND ENCOURAGED WILBERFORCE TO PROPOSE THE ABOLITION OF THE SLAVE TRADE.

THEN CAME THE FRENCH REVOLUTION AND EVENTUALLY THE REVOLT OF HAITI. THE BRITISH MADE EVERY EFFORT TO SEIZE CONTROL OF THIS FAMOUS FRENCH SUGAR COLONY. THEY TRIED BOTH FORCE OF ARMS AND BRIBERY, BUT AT LAST WERE COMPELLED TO RECOGNIZE THE INDEPENDENCE OF TOUSSAINT L'OUVERTURE, WHOM THEY TRIED TO DIVORCE FROM ALLEGIANCE TO THE FRENCH.

NEVERTHELESS, WITH HAITI OUT OF THE WORLD MARKER, THE BRITISH COULD HAVE RETAINED THEIR HOLD UPON THE SUGAR INDUSTRY HAD IT NOT BEEN FOR THE CONTINUED CULTIVATION OF SUGAR IN SPANISH AND PORTUGUESE COLONIES. SO LONG AS THESE COLONIES COULD OBTAIN CHEAP SLAVES, THEY THREATENED AND EVEN DESTROYED THE INVESTMENT IN SLAVE LABOR ALREADY MADE BY BRITISH CAPITAL. LOOKED UPON AS MACHINES OR " REAL ESTATE," AS SLAVES LEGALLY WERE, THE

INVESTMENT IN NEGRO LABOR WAS BEING UNDERMINED SO LONG AS CHEAPER NEGRO LABOR VOULD BE HAD FROM AFRICA.

TO KEEP THE PRICES OF SLAVES FROM FALLING, THE SLAVE TRADE HAD TO BE LIMITED OR STOPPED. OTHERWISE THE WHOLE SLAVERY INVESTMENT WOULD TOTTER AND THAT IS WHAT ENGLAND FACED AFTER THE REVOLUTION OF TOUSSAINT. EARLY IN THE NINETEENTH CENTURY THEREFORE, SHE BEGAN TO CHANGE, AND BACK OF PHILANTHROPISTS LIKE SHARPE AND WILBERFORCE CAME THE UNEXPECTED SUPPORT OF OPPORTUNIST POLITICIANS LIKE PITT.

MOREOVER, CAPITALISM WAS FAR ENOUGH DEVELOPED TO PRODUCE SUFFICIENT FREE FINANCE CAPITAL TO EFFECT A TRANSFER OF INVESTMENT FROM ONE FIELD TO ANOTHER WITHOUT SUCH LOSSES AS WOULD CRIPPLE THE SYSTEM. LOSSES THERE HAD TO BE, BUT THEY WERE PART OF THE ANARCHY OF BUSINESS METHODS, WHICH BY LARGE-SCALE GAMBLING AND PERIODIC CRISIS RUSHED BLINDLY TO NEWER AND LARGER FIELDS OF PROFIT. EVENTUALLY NEGRO SLAVERY AND THE SLAVE TRADE

WERE ALL

WERE ABANDONED IN FAVOR OF COLONIAL IMPERIALISM, AND THE ENGLAND WHICH IN THE EIGHTEENTH CENTURY ESTABLISHED MODERN SLAVERY IN AMERICA ON A VAST SCALE, APPEARED IN THE NINETEENTH CENTURY AS THE OFFICIAL EMANCIPATOR OF SLAVES AND FOUNDER OF A METHOD OF CONTROL OF HUMAN LABOR AND MATERIAL WHICH PROVED MORE PROFITABLE THAN SLAVERY.

THE SLAVE TRADE WAS ABOLISHED BY ENGLAND IN 1807, AND ENGLAND UNDERTOOK TO MAKE THE REST OF THE WORLD OUTLAW IT TOO. THE UNITED STATES, PORTUGAL, AND SPAIN GAVE ONLY LIP SERVICE TO THIS PROGRAM, AND THE SLAVE TRADE CONTINUED UP TO THE MIDDLE OF THE NINETEENTH CENTURY ALTHOUGH TO A LESSENING EXTENT.

WITH THE STOPPING OF THE SLAVE TRADE IT WAS EVIDENT THAT INVESTMENT IN LABOR WAS DIFFERENT FROM INVESTMENT IN LAND, MATERIAL, AND MACHINES; THAT LABOR, NO MATTER HOW MUCH IT WAS DEGRADED, HAD INITIATIVE AND MADE DEMANDS. REVOLT OF THE WORKING CLASSES, FOLLOWING THE INCENTIVE OF HAITI, SPREAD. THE SPECTACULAR AND ASTONISHING RRIUMPH OF REVOLUTION IN HAITI THREATENED THE WHOLE SLAVE SYSTEM OF THE WEST INDIES AND EVEN OF

CONTINENTAL AMERICA. IT WAS THIS REVOLT MORE THAN ANY OTHER SINGLE THING THAT SPELLED DOOM NOT ONLY OF THE AFRICAN SLAVE TRADE BUT OF SLAVERY IN AMERICA AS A BASIS OF AN INDUSTRIAL SYSTEM. THE REVOLT ENCOURAGED THE ABOLITION MOVEMENT IN THE UNITED STATES AND IN BRAZIL; IT FLAMED IN PRACTICALLY EVERY ISLAND OF THE WEST INDIES. UNLESS THE SLAVE WORKER COULD BE PACIFIED, INCOME BASED ON SLAVE LABOR WOULD BE DESTROYED. THE RESULT WAS THAT IN 1833 ENGLAND ABOLISHED SLAVERY. SIMILAR ABOLITION FOLLOWED IN THE UNITED STATES AFTER CIVIL WAR.

THE NAPOLEONIC WARS DID NOT RUIN ENGLAND; TOGETHER WITH THE AFRICAN SLAVE TRADE, NEGRO SLAVERY, AND THE LOOT OF INDIA, THEY MADE THE BRITISH GOVERNMENT THE MOST POWERFUL IN THE WORLD; THEY RUINED ENGLAND'S INDUSTRIAL RIVALS; THEY LEFT HER IN CONTROL OF THE CHIEF SOURCES OF RAW MATERIALS BY COLONIAL OWNERSHIP AND WITH THE READY CASH TO OUTBID RIVALS;

HER VAST STORE OF FINANCE CAPITAL ENAVLED HER TO MANUFACTURE MACHINERY AND WAIT A GENERATION FOR REPAYMENT; BRITISH KNOWLEDGE OF SCIENCE AND TECHNIQUE ENABLED THE COUNTRY TO MAKE THE BEST MACHINES AND TOOLS AND RENDER THE WHOLE WORLD CREDITOR FOR THEIR PURCHASE ; BRITAIN RULED THE SEAS AND THUS MONOPOLIZED TRANSPORT. EVEN WHEN IN THE EARLIER MAD RUSH FOR PROFIT ON THE NEW CAPITALISM, SHE REDUCED HER OWN LAVOR TO SLAVERY IN THE FACTORY SYSTEM AND FACED REVOLUTION, SHE PROVED THE ONLY LAND TO BE ABLE TO RAISE WAGES AND YET MAINTAIN HIGH PROFIT BY SHIFTING THE BURDEN OF PAUPERIZED TOIL TO THE COLONIES AND DOMINATED PEOPLES; AND AT THE SAME TIME, ALTHOUGH AUTHOR AND CHIEF SUPPORTER OF MODERN SLAVERY, GREAT BRITAIN COULD HOLD UP HER HEAD AND, BY SUPPRESSING A SLAVERY NOW BECOMING UNPROFITABLE, LEAD WORLD PHILANTHROPY AS THE GREAT EMANCIPATOR OF THE SLAVE.

BUT EVEN AS THIS ROLE REJOICED HER GREATER SOULS, THE BRITISH EMPIRE BECAME THE VICTIM OF THE WORST LEGACY OF NEGRO SLAVERY: THE DOCTRINE OF

RACE SUPERIORITY AND THE COLOR LINE, WHICH IN A LATER CENTURY MADE CIVILIZED MAN COMMIT SUICIDE IN A MAD ATTEMPT TO HOLD THE VAST MAJORITY OF THE EARTH'S PEOPLES IN THRALL TO THE WHITE RACE--A GOAL TO WHICH THEY STILL CLING TODAY, HIDDEN AWAY BEHIND NATIONALISM AND POWER POLITICS.

THIS WAS NOT A RAKE'S PROGRESS OF MALEVOLENCE; IT WAS A BITTER STRUGGLE BETWEEN GOOD AND EVIL---BETWEEN FINE AND NOBLE SOULS AND CONSCIENCELESS DESIRE FOR LUXURY, POWER, AND INDULGENCE. THE FORCES OF EVIL WERE CONTINUALLY REINFORCED BY THE VAST POWER WHICH SLAVERY AND THE EXPOLITATION OF MEN PUT INTO THE HANDS OF THE BETRAYERS OF LABOR, MAKING THEM THE ENVIED OF THE EARTH, UNTIL NATIONS BECAME WILLING TO DESTROY THE EARTH IN ORDER TO GAIN IT. SUPPOSE THAT AT ANY POINT IN THIS DESCENT TO HELL, RIGHT HAD RECEIVED HELP AND REINFORCEMENT? SUPPOSE THAT A FREE AMERICA HAD WELCOMED A FREE HAITI INTO A WORLD THAT INSISTED ON FREEDOM FOR AFRICA AND ASIA? BUT NO; SLAVERY DOMINATED THE "FREE" REPUBLIC OF THE WEST FOR

HALF A CENTURY, WITH THE SLAVE COTTON KINGDOM AS FOUNDATION STONE FOR BRITISH MANUFACTURES, WHILE GREAT BRITAIN SEIZED LAND AND LABOR IN ALL THE DARK WORLD. SUPPOSE THAT ENGLAND HAD FREED AND EDUCATED AFRICA, EMANCIPATED INDIA, AND JOINED HANDS WITH JAPAN TO UPLIFT CHINA, INSTEAD OF MAKING IGNORANCE COMPULSORY FOR THE MAJORITY OF MEN EVEN IN ENGLAND, IN ORDER TO BUILD UP THE MOST "COMFORTABLE" AND ENVIED ARISTOCRACY ON EARTH? SUPPOSE THE TECHNIQUE AND SCIENCE OF THE NINETEENTH CENTURY HAD BEEN USED TO RAISE THE MANY INSTEAD OF TO ENRICH THE FEW?

THE NEW ERA OF CAPITALISM DAWNED, SPRINGING FROM CALVINISM: THRIFT, INDUSTRY, HONESTY AS THE BEST POLICY, ALONG WITH INTEREST AND PROFIT. CAPITALISM PASSED INTO HIGH CAPITALISM AT DIFFERENT PERIODS IN DIFFERENT NATIONS: IN ENGLAND IN 1846, WHEN ENGLISH CAPITALISM NEEDED NO PROTECTED TARIFF, IT SMASHED THE AGRICULTURISTS IN PARLIAMENT AND FORCED THE ADOPTION OF FREE TRADE; IN THE UNITED STATES INVESTED CAPITAL PASSED THE

VALUE OF THE LAND ABOUT 1850. THE REVOLUTION OF 1848 IN FRANCE REVEALED THE POWER OF ORGANIZED LABOR AS WELL AS THE POWER OF CAPITALISM, WHICH LATER TRIUMPHED. IN GERMANY CAPITALISM BEGAN ITS FULL SWAY AFTER WORLD WAR I.

IN THE BRITISH PARLIAMENT, AFTER THE PASSAGE OF THE REFORM BILL IN 1832, CAPITALISM WAS PARAMOUNT. THE PLANTATION TRADE HAD FORMERLY MEANT EVERYTHING; BUT IN THE NEW CAPITALIST SYSTEM, PLANTATION SLAVERY HAD LITTLE PLACE. BRITAIN'S MECHANIZED MIGHT WAS STILL, HOWEVER, MAKING THE WHOLE WORLD HER FOOTSTOOL. SHE WAS CLOTHING THE WORLD, EXPORTING MEN AND MACHINES, AND HAD BECOME THE WORLD'S BANKER. BRITISH CAPITAL, LIKE BRITISH PRODUCTION, WAS THINKING IN WORLD TERMS. "BETWEEN 1815 AND 1830 AT LEAST FIFTY MILLION POUNDS HAD BEEN INVESTED MORE OR LESS PERMANENTLY IN THE SECURITIES OF THE MOST STABLE EUROPEAN GOVERNMENTS, MORE THAN TWENTY MILLION HAD BEEN INVESTED IN ONE FORM OR ANOTHER IN LATIN AMERIC

AND FIVE OR SIX MILLIONS HAD VERY QUIETLY FOUND THEIR WAY TO THE UNITED STATES." BUT NO NEW CAPITAL WENT TO THE WEST INDIES.

IN AFRICA A NEW AND SUPPLEMENTARY MEANS OF CONTROL, DEVELOPED BY MEANS OF THE ARAB TRADE IN IVORY, LED TO EXPLORATION AND EVENTUAL ANNEXATION UNDER THE PRETENSE OF ATTACKING SLAVERY. IN THIS WHOLE STORY OF THE SO-CALLED "ARAB SLAVE TRADE" THE TRUTH HAS BEEN STRANGELY TWISTED. ARAB SLAVE RAIDING WAS IN THE BEGINNING, AND LARGELY TO THE END, A SECONDARY RESULT OF THE BRITISH AND AMERICAN SLAVERY AND SLAVE TRADE AND SPECIFICALLY WAS BASED ON AMERICAN DEMAND FOR IVORY. THE ARABS HAD BY THE NINETEENTH CENTURY DRIVEN BACK THE PORTUGUESE OPPOSITE ZANZIBAR AND HAD DEVELOPED TWO PROFITABLE PRODUCTS OF TRADE: IVORY AND SLAVES.

IVORY FROM ABOUT 1840 BECAME INCREASINGLY VALUABLE. ITS GATHERING CALLED FOR FIRE-ARMS AND TRANSPORT. EUROPE AND AMERICA FURNISHED THE ARMS IN VAST QUANTITY. NEGRO PORTERS BORE THE WHITE GOLD OVER VAST DISTANCES

ON THEIR HEADS, AND THE TRADERS DOUBLED THEIR PROFIT BY SELLING THESE NEGROES INTO SLAVERY IN THE MIDDLE EAST AND AMERICA. THE RESULT WAS AN INDUSTRY WITH HUGE PROFITS, WHICH CALLED TO SERVICE THE MOST VICIOUS ELEMENTS OF THE NILE VALLEY WITH ITS SOCIAL DISINTEGRATION OF CENTURIES, AIDED BY THE EFFORTS OF MOHAMMED ALI, THE ALLY OF WHITE COLONIAL AGGRESSION.

IT ALSO CALLED WHITE SOLDIERS OF FORTUNE LIKE SELOUS AND LUGARD, WHO SLAUGHTERED THE HERDS OF HALF-HUMAN ELEPHANTS IN COLD BLOOD. IT CALLED THE EXPLORERS WHO FOLLOWED THE HUNTERS AND SLAVE TRADERS. AFTER THE EXPLORERS CAME THE MISSIONARIES. BOTH POINTED OUT THAT THE IVORY-SLAVE BUSINESS WAS KILLING THE GOOSE T AT MIGHT LAY EVEN MORE GOLDEN EGGS, IF INSTEAD OF KILLING VALUABLE LABOR, THIS LABOR AND MATERIALS WERE SUBJECT TO POLITICAL CONTROL OF EUROPE AND THE ABUNDANT CAPIT L SEEKING INVEST-MENT. THE MISSIONARIES LIKE LIVINGSTONE SAW IN THIS NOT ONLY A MEANS OF

SAVING BODIES AND SOULD OF HUMAN BEINGS, BUT ALSO THRIFT AND GOOD BUSINESS, WHICH IN THE FOLKLORE OF EARLY CAPITALISM WERE THE INEVITABLE ELEMENTS DIVINELY CONJOINED FOR MODERN CIVILIZATION.

THE RISING DEMAND IN ENGLAND AND AMERICA FOR THE SUPPRESSION OF THE SLAVE TRADE IN EAST AFRICA WAS NOT PURE PHILANTHROPY. IT WAS THAT "PHILANTHROPY AND 5 PER CENT" WHICH WAS THE TRANSITION FROM THE CENTURY OF HUMAN SLAVERY IN AMERICA TO THE CENTURY OF THE TRANSFER OF CAPITAL FROM SUGAR PLANTATIONS TO COLONIAL IMPERIALISM IN AFRICA AND ASIA. THE MAIN END OF BOTH ENTERPRISED WAS PROFIT TO THE OWNER AND EXPLOITER MAINLY AT THE EXPENSE OF POVERTY, IGNORANCE , AND PAIN FOR THE SLAVE AND NATIVE SUBJECT.

ABOUT THE MIDDLE THIRD OF THE NINETEENTH CENTURY THE SITUATION CHANGED ABRUPTLY. THE DEMAND FOR IVORY INCREASED. IN AMERICA, IVORY WORKING WAS AN EARLY INDUSTRY, ESPECIALLY IN NEW ENGLAND ON THE BANKS OF THE CONNECTICUT, WHERE IVORY HAS BEEN CUT SINCE 1820. IT WAS PROCESSED FOR CARVING, FOR CUTLERY, BILLARD BALLS, AND MINIATURES, AND FOR PIANO

KEYS. AT DEEP RIVER AND IVORYTOWN AND BUFFALO THE KEYBOARDS FOR ALL THE PIANOS IN AMERICA, CANADA, AND AUSTRALIA WERE MADE. BECAUSE OF INCREASED DEMAND? EUROPEAN AND AMERICAN TRADERS SET UP ESTABLISHMENTS FOR BUYING IVORY IN ZANZIBAR; IN THE THIRTIES AND FORTIES PRICES INCREASED. ARABS BEGAN TO ASK FOR ARMS IN ORDER TO SHOOT ELEPHANTS AND COERCE THE NATIVE. INCREASED EXPORTS OF IVORY TO EUROPE AND AMERICA AND OF SLAVES TO ARABIA AND THE PERSAIN GULF, CALLED FOR INCREASED IMPORTS OF WEAPONS AND AMMUNITION. THE GERMANS SENT THIRTEEN THOUSAND MUSKETS IN ONE YEAR. THE BRITISH AND PORTUGUESE SENT THOUSANDS OF THE OLD SEPOY GUNS FROM INDIA. THE FRENCH SUPPLIED A SINGLE-BARREL LIGHT WEAPON. AMERICAN BLASTING POWDER CAME IN TEN AND TWENTY-FIVE POUND KEGS. GERMAN CAVALRY SAVERS CAME AND CASES OF PERCUSSION CAPS. ARABS BORROWED FROM INDIAN USURERS AT 60 TO 80 PER CENT, AND SET OUT FOR THE HAUNTS OF ELEPHANTS.

CURIOUSLY ENOUGH IT WAS THIS IVORY TRADE THAT STIMULATED AND GUIDED TRAVEL AND DISCOVERY IN CENTRAL AFRICA. EXPLORERS FOLLOWED THE IVORY TRADERS, WHO WERE THE TRUE DISCOVERERS. BURTON, SPEKE, LIVINGSTONE, STANLEY, AND CAMERON STARTED FROM THE ARAB CAPITAL OF ZANZIBAR. THEY FOLLOWED THE LINES OF TRAFFIC SET BY THE ARAB IVORY TRADERS. PETHERICK, THE BRITISH IVORY TRADER, PRECEDED SCHWEINFURTH, AND THE COUNTRIES HE EXPLORED WERE OPENED UP BY THE IVORY TRADE. LIVINGSTONE FOUND THE IVORY TRADERS ON THE UPPER CONGO. CAMERON LEFT ZANZIBAR IN 1873 AND WAS THE FIRST EUROPEAN TO CROSS AFRICA FROM EAST TO WEST ALONG THE IVORY TRADERS' ROUTES. STANLEY MADE HIS SECOND EXPEDITION, 1874--1877, AND WAS HELPED BY TIPPOO-TIB, THE GREAT NEGRO SLAVE TRADER WHO HAD ALSO HELPED LIVINGSTONE. THE LAST OF THE GREAT EXPEDITIONS WAS STANLEY'S, IN 1887-1889, WHEN HE RESCUED EMIN PASHA AND HIS NEGRO WIFE.

IT WAS IN THIS WAY THAT KNOWLEDGE OF THE TECHNIQUE OF THE SLAVE TRADE AND ITS MEANING CAME TO EUROPE AT A TIME WHEN THE SLAVE TRADE FROM AFRICA

TO AMERICA HADBEEN LARGELY SUPPRESSED. WE HAD A SERIES OF FIRST-HAND DESCRIPTIONS OF THIS TRADE.

IVORY BECAME IN THE LAST HALF OF THE NINETEENTH CENTURY THE SCOURGE OF CENTRAL AFRICA. THE COMPLETE STORY OF BLOODSHED AND CRUELTY WILL NEVER BE KNOWN. THOUSANDS OF MILES OF FERTILE COUNTRY WERE TURNED INTO WILDERNESS AND RUIN. HUNDREDS OF THOUSANDS OF ELEPHANTS WERE SLAIN AND THOUSANDS OF HUMAN BEINGS. IT HAS BEEN ESTIMATED THAT NOT MORE THAN ONE IN FIVE OF THE CAPTIVES BEARING THE IVORY EVER REACHED THE OCEAN. STARVED AND WEAKENED BY DISEASE AND THE STRAIN OF MARCHING, THEY LINED THE LONG PATHS WITH THEIR DEAD.

"PICTURE, IF YOU CAN, A TERRITORY NEARLY AS LARGE AS THE WHOLE OF OUR UNITED STATES EAST OF THE MISSISSIPPI RIVER AND ILLINOIS, TERRORIZED AND OVERRUN IN ALL DIRECTIONS WITH HUNDREDS OF ROVING BANDS OF PLUNDERING MURDERERS ARMED WITH INVINCIBLE WEAPONS OF OPPRESSION, A LAND OF BLOOD AND MIGHT, THE MIGHTS FILLED WITH FLAME AND DESTRUCTION, THE DAYS WEARY WITH THE MARCHING OF THE COFFLES AND THE BLOOD OF THE DESPAIRING, HOPELESS SLAVES. AND THIS FOR YEARS, FOR DECADES."

HENRY M. STANLEY WROTE: "EVERY TUSK, PIECE, AND SCRAP IN THE POSSESSION OF AN ARAB TRADER HAS BEEN STEEPED AND DYED IN BLOOD. EVERY POUND WEIGHT HAS COST THE LIFE OF A MAN, WOMAN, OR CHILD, FOR EVERY FIVE POUNDS A HUT HAS BEEN BURNED, FOR EVERY TWO TUSKS A WHOLE VILLAGE HAS BEEN DESTROYED, EVERY TWENTY TUSKS HAVE BEEN OBTAINED AT THE PRICE OF A DISTRICT WITH ALL ITS PEOPLE, VILLAGES, AND PLANTATIONS. IT IS SIMPLY INCREDIBLE THAT, BECAUSE IVORY IS REQUIRED...POPULATIONS, TRIBES, AND NATIONS SHOULD BE UTTERLY DESTROYED."

HAMED bin MUHAMMED, A NEGRO, BETTER KNOWN AS TIPPOO-TIB, WAS ONE OF THE GREATEST OF SLAVE TRADERS. HE EVENTUALLY BECAME SULTAN AND OVERLORD OF THE COUNTRY OF KASSONGO IN THE VERY MIDDLE OF CENTRAL AFRICA,

WHICH HE MADE A CENTER OF IVORY COLLECTING AND SLAVE HUNTING. HE HAD A THOUSAND MUZZLE-LOADING GUNS. AND IT WAS NOT UNTIL 1905 THAT HE DIED.

THE CREDIT FOR SUPPRESSING THE SLAVE-IVORY TRADE MUST GO TO LIVINGSTONE WHO INSPIRED IT, TO KIRK OF EAST AFRICA WHO HELPED CARRY IT THROUGH, AND TO BARGARSH, THE NEGROID ARAB, WHO ACTUALLY SUPPRESSED THE ZANZIBAR TRADE. BUT THESE THREE MEN REPRESENT THE CURIOUS INTERESTS INVOLVED: LIVINGSTONE WAS A HUMANITARIAN WHO THOUGHT THAT TRADE AND COMMERCE WAS THE BEST AND NATURAL WAY TO IMPROVE THE CONDITION OF MAN. HE WOULD BE HORRIFIED TO SEE SOUTH AFRICA AND RHODESIA TODAY AND REALIZE THE PLIGHT INTO WHICH THE NATIVES HAVE BEEN FORCED BY EUROPEAN TRADE AND INDUSTRIALISM. KIRK WAS A BRITISH IMPERIALIST WHO FORSAW THE COLONIAL ERA. HE WAS NO PHILANTHROPIST DESIROUS OF THE DEVELOPMENT AND RISE OF OF THE BLACKS. WHAT HE WANTED WAS TO EXPAND THE POWER OF ENGLAND, AND

HE BELIEVED THAT COULD BE DONE BEST BY SUPPRESSING THE SLAVE TRADE AND SLAVE LABOR UNDER THE ARABS AND INCREASING COLONIAL OWNERSHIP AND SERF LABOR UNDER GREAT BRITAIN. THE ARAB SULTAN BARGARSH WAS PERSUADED THAT COLONIAL ALLIANCE WITH GREAT BRITAIN WOULD PROTECT HIS FUTURE POWER AND INCOME.

THE EFFECT UPON EUROPE WAS CURIOUS. EUROPEAN AND AMERICAN COMMERCE WAS STIMULATED. THE MISSIONARIES, STILL BELIEVING IN THE EXPANDING TRADE OF THE EIGHTEENTH CENTURY, COUPLED COMMERCE WITH MISSIONARY EFFORT AND DID NOT SEE THE INHERENT CONTRADICTION BETWEEN THEM. THE RESULT WAS THAT THE MISSIONARY AND THE MERCHANT WORKED SIDE BY SIDE AND HAND IN HAND. IT WAS LIVINGSTONE WHO DECLARED THAT HE WAS BRINGING COMMERCE AND MISSIONARY EFFORT TO THE NATIVES.

COMMERCIAL COMPANIES, LIKE THE AFRICAN LAKES COMPANY, EXPLOITED AND ADMINISTERED TERRITORIES AND EQUIPPED THE ELEPHANT HUNTERS. THEY SUPPLIED THE RIFLES AND SENT THE HUNTERS, RESERVING THE RIGHT TO BUY THE IVORY AT

A SET PRICE. IT WAS THUS THAT SIR ALFRED SHARP AND LORD LUGARD BEGAN LIFE AS PROFESSIONAL IVORY HUNTERS. THE COMING OF AMERICAN, BRITISH, FRENCH, GERMAN AND PORTUGUESE TRADERS IN THE MIDDLE OF THE NINETEENTH CENTURY FURNISHED THE ARTILLERY FOR THE WORST PERIOD IN THIS IVORY-SLAVE TRADE UNDER THE ARABS. AT ITS HEIGHT THIRTY THOUSAND SLAVES WERE EXPORTED ANNUALLY THROUGH ZANZIBAR, LEAVING MORE THAN A HUNDRED THOUSAND WHO HAD DIED ON THE WAY TO THE SEA.

THEN THAT EXTRAORDINARY TRANSFORMATION TOOK PLACE IN BRITISH PUBLIC POLICY. THE STOPPING OF THE EXPANSION OF THE ARAB SLAVE TRADE IN EAST AND CENTRAL AFRICA BECAME A MEANS OF BUILDING UP THE BRITISH EMPIRE. ALL THAT BRITAIN HAD DONE IN ESTABLISHING THE NEW MODERN SLAVERY IN AMERICA WAS FORGOTTEN IN HER EFFORT TO SUPPRESS THE IVORY-SLAVE TRADE IN AFRICA, AND THAT EFFORT WAS ONLY THE OTHER SIDE OF HER BUILDING UP OF A GREAT AFRICAN COLONIAL TERRITORY WHICH SHE PROPOSED TO EXPLOIT BY THE USE OF

IT ALL BECAME A CHARACTERISTIC DRAMA OF CAPITALISTIC EXPLOITATION, WHERE THE RIGHT HAND KNEW NOTHING OF WHAT THE LEFT HAND DID, YET RHYMED ITS GRIP WITH UNCANNY TIMELINESS; WHERE THE INVESTOR NEITHER KNEW, NOR REQUIRED, NOR GREATLY CARED ABOUT THE SOURCES OF HIS PROFITS; WHERE THE INSLAVED OR DEAD OR HALF-PAID WORKER NEVER SAW NOR DREAMED OF THE VALUE OF HIS WORK (NOW OWNED BY OTHERS); WHERE NEITHER THE SOCIETY DARLING NOR THE GREAT ARTIST SAW BLOOD ON THE PIANO KEYS; WHERE THE CLUBMAN, BOASTING OF GREAT GAME HUNTING, HEARD ABOVE THE CLICK OF HIS SMOOTH, LOVELY, RESILIENT BILLIARD BALLS NO ECHO OF THE WILD SHRIEKS OF PAIN FROM KINDLY HALF-HUMAN BEASTS AS FIFTY TO SEVENTY-FIVE THOUSAND EACH YEAR WERE SLAUGHTERED IN COLD, CRUEL, LINGERING HORROR OF LIVING DEATH; SENDING THEIR TEETH TO ADORN CIVILIZATION ON THE BOWED HEADS AND CHAINED FEET OF THIRTY THOUSAND BLACK SLAVES, LEAVING BEHIND MORE THAN A HUNDRED THOUSAND CORPSES IN BROKEN, FLAMING HOMES.

GRADUALLY THE PICTURE CHANGED; THE CAPTAINS OF INDUSTRY SAW THAT THEY COULD REPLACE WASTEFUL SLAVERY WITH LOCAL BLACK LABOR PAID AT WAGES FROM ONE-HALF TO NINE-TENTHS CHEAPER THAN WHITE LABOR IN EUROPE AND AMERICA AND MAKE WHITE LABOR LIKE IT BECAUSE ALL THIS COULD BE DONE TO THE GLORY OF GOD AND THE SUPERIORITY OF THE WHITE RACE. AND IT WAS DONE.

SO COLONIAL IMPERIALISM WAS BORN. AND SO SOME OF ITS LEADERS ILLUSTRATED IN THEIR OWN INDIVIDUAL LIVES ITS DEVELOPMENT; THERE WAS FREDERICK C. SELOUS, WHO BEGAN AS AN ELEPHANT HUNTER AND THEN ANNEXED THE PEOPLES AND MINERALS OF MASHONALAND TO THE BRITISH EMPIRE; THERE WAS FREDERICK D. LUGARD, WHO FIRST FOUGHT IN INDIA, BURMA, AND THE SUDAN; THEN AS A BIG GAME HUNTER IN EAST AFRICA, WHERE, ARMED BY THE AFRICAN LAKES

COMPANY, HE MURDERED ELEPHANTS IN GREAT NUMBERS AND BECAME A PART OF THE IVORY-SLAVE TRADE COMPLEX. NEXT HE APPEARED IN EAST AFRICA AS A FREE-LANCE FIGHTER AGAINST ARABS AND MOHAMMEDANS AND IN DEFENSE OF CHRISTIAN MISSIONS; HE REAPPEARED AS AGENT OF THE BRITISH EAST AFRICA COMPANY AND ANNEXED UGANDA TO BRITAIN.

THEREUPON HE WAS RECOGNIZED AS A GREAT CHAMPION OF IMPERIAL ENGLAND AND WENT TO WEST AFRICA TO HELP SUBDUE THE FALLING REMNANTS OF SUDANESE CULTURE. HERE HE SHREWDLY REALIZED TH T CONQUEST OF THESE PEOPLES COULD MOST EASILY BE ACCOMPLISHED IF THEIR TRIBAL GOVERNMENT WERE LEFT UNDISTURBED, WHILE BRITAIN CONTROLLED TRADE AND FOREIGN RELATIONS. HAVING THUS INVENTED "INDIRECT RULE", HE BECAME A BRITISH GOVERNOR IN WEST AFRICA.

WHAT EFFECT DID ALL THIS HAVE UPON THE DARK NATIVES OF AFRICA? IN THE PAST WE HAVE DWELT UPON PHYSICAL SUFFERING, THE LOSS OF LIVES, AN D THE DEVASTATION OF THE LAND, BUT WE HAVE NOT THOUGHT OF THE LARGER AND DEEPER SOCIAL DISINTEGRATION. FIRST OF ALL, NOT ONLY WAS THE WAY OPENED FROM THE SAHARA TO THE CAPE OF GOOD HOPE FOR MARAUDING MASSES OF BANTU WARRIORS, BUT T IS GREAT AND LONG-CONTINUED MOVEMENT BECAME ORGANIZED FOR AGGRESSION AND CONQUEST. WE HEAR OF THE FIERCE ONSLAUGHTS OF WILD TRIBES LIKE THE YAGGAS, BUT WE MUST ALSO REMEMBER THAT THERE CAME A NEW SORT OF ORGANIZATION. NEGRO LIFE COULD NOT SETTLE DOWN FOR POLITICAL ORGANIZATION AND EMPIRE BUILDING. IT COULD NOT WAIT FOR THE DEVELOPMENT OF HERDSMEN AND AGRICULTURE. IT MUST HURRY ON TO SAFER PLACES AND SHELTERED LAND AND LOOT.

"IT WAS SORROWFULLY RECOGNIZED THAT THE DEGRADATION OF THE NEGRO PEOPLES OF THE NEARER AFRICAN INTERIOR WAS THE DIRECT RESULT OF EUROPEAN

SLAVE-DEALING. THE SAVAGERY OF DAHOMEY AND BENIN WAS THE SURVIVAL OF THE FEROCITY BY WHICH NATIVE CHIEFS, A CENTURY EARLIER, HAD SUPPLIED THE DEMANDS OF ENGLISH AND DUTCH TRADERS FOR VICTIMS FOR THE PLANTATIONS."

THIS MOVEMENT CULMINATED IN THE MAGNIFICENT AND UTTERLY RUTHLESS ARMY OF A CHAKA IN THE NINETEENTH CENTURY, WHICH ALMOST SUCCESSFULLY BATTLED MACHINE GUNS WITH ASSAGAIS. THEN TOO ON THE WEST COAST CAME TRANSFORMATION: THE CITY-STATES WITH THEIR INTRICATE SOCIAL ORGANIZATION AND CAREFULLY PLANNED INDUSTRY AND BEAUTIFUL ART WERE PUSHED BACK AND OVERWHELMED BY NEWER, STRONGER MILITARY STATES, LIKE THAT OF DAHOMEY IN THE SEVENTEENTH CENTURY; AND THE ASHANTI EARLIER HAD NEVER GAINED IN THE LINE OF PEACEFUL INDUSTRY AND ART AS MUCH AS THE NEW GAINS WHICH THEY MADE AS INTERMEDIARIES OF THE SLAVE TRADERS.

THE EAST AFRICAN SLAVE TRADE UNDER NEGROES LIKE TIPPOO-TIB BECAME ORGANIZED. THE COMMERCIAL ENDS AND PROFITS SOUGHT BY EUROPE WERE SUBTLY INTRODUCED INTO AND SHARED BY AN AFRICA THAT HAD BEEN FOREIGN TO THIS

KIND OF LIFE. THE MILD DOMESTIC SLAVERY OF THE AFRICAN TRIBES AND OF THE ARABS AND PERSIANS, WHICH DID NOT PRECLUDE THE SON OF A SLAVE BECOMING A KING, A STATESMAN, OR A POET, WAS CHANGED INTO CHATTEL SLAVERY WITH HARD LABOR AND CRUEL TASKS. THE CONTINUED DEVELOPMENT OF AFRICAN CIVILIZATION, FORECAST IN THE FOURTEENTH AND FIFTEENTH CENTURIES BY THAT IN THE SUDAN, WAS PREVENTED AND TURNED BACKWARD INTO CHAOS, FLIGHT, AND DEATH.

DECADENCE COULD BE SEEN ON THE WEST COAST, IN THE SHADOW OF FABLED ATLANTIS, WHER THERE EMERGED IN CURIOUS JUXTAPOSITION THE BLOOD SACRIFICE OF THE BENIN JUJU TOGETHER WITH THE BEAUTIFUL BRONZES OF THE BENIN SCULPTORS. THE GREAT KINGDOMS AND EMPIRES OF THE SUDAN WHICH FELL AT THE BATTLE OF TENKADIBOU NOT ONLY SUFFERED THE INCUBUS OF A HORDE OF BERBER INVADERS AS THEY MOVED EAST AND BECAME THE SUDANESE KINGDOMS OF KANEM AND BORNU AND THE REALM OF THE FUNG; THEY APPROACHED THE VALLEY OF THE NILE AND CAME INTO FIERCE COMBAT WITH SOME OF THE WORST MANIFESTATIONS OF MOHAMMEDANISM.

PUSHING FARTHER SOUTH, THE BANTU HERDSMEN THREW THEMSELVES UPON THE CONGO AND ZIMBADWE. THERE CAME TO AFRICA AN END OF INDUSTRY, ESPECIALLY ENDUSTRY GUIDED BY TASTE AND ART. CHEAP EUROPEAN GOODS PUSHED IN AND THREW THE NATIVE PRODUCTS OUT OF COMPETITION. RUM AND GIN DISPLACED THE MILDER NATIVE DRINKS. THE BEAUTIFUL PATTERNED CLOTH, BROCADES, AND VELVETS DISAPPEARED FOR THEIR CHEAP IMITATIONS IN MANCHESTER CALICOS. METHODS OF WORK WERE LOST AND FORGOTTEN.

WITH ALL THIS WENT THE FALL AND DISRUPTION OF THE F MILY, THE DELIBERATE ATTACK UPON THE ANCIENT AFRICAN CLAN BY MISSIONARIES. THE INVADING INVESTORS WHO WANTED CHEAP LABOR AT THE GOLD MINES, THE DIAMOND MINES, THE COPPER AND TIN MINES, THE OIL FORESTS AND COCOA FIELDS, FOLLOWED THE MISSIONARIES. THE AUTHORITY OF THE FAMILY WAS BROKEN UP; THE AUTHORITY AND TRADITION OF THE CLAN DISAPPEARED; THE POWER OF THE CHIEF WAS TRANSMUTED INTO THE RULE OF THE WHITE DISTRICT COMMISSIONER. THE OLD RELIGION WAS HELD UP TO RIDICULE, THE OLD CULTURE AND ETHICAL STANDARDS WERE DEGRADED OR

DISAPPEARED, AND GRADUALLY ALL OVER AFRICA SPREAD THE INFERIORITY COMPLEX THE FEAR OF COLOR, THE WORSHIP OF WHITE SKIN, THE IMITATION OF WHITE WAYS OF DOING AND THINKING, WHETHER GOOD, BAD, OR INDIFFERENT. BY THE END OF THE NINETEENTH CENTURY THE DEGRADATION OF AFRICA WAS AS COMPLETE AS ORGANIZED HUMAN MEANS COULD MAKE IT. CHIEFTAINS, REPRESENTING A THOUSAND YEARS OF STRIVING HUMAN CULTURE, WERE DECKED OUT IN SECOND-HAND LONDON TOP-HATS, WHILE EUROPE SNICKERED.

I HAVE DWELT ON AFRICA PARTICULARLY IN THIS EFFORT TO TRACE COLONIAL IMPERIALISM. WE MUST REMEMBER HOWEVER, THAT THIS METHOD OF RULE CHANGED IN THE NINETEENTH CENTURY TO BELT THE WORLD. IT WAS AN AXIOUM THAT THE FUTURE DEVELOPMENT OF MANKIND MEANT THE RULE OF WHITE EUROPE AND NORTH AMERICA OVER THE REST OF THE WORLD.

THIS WAS TO BE DONE FOR THE BEST INTERESTS OF THE OTHER PEOPLES IN THE WORLD AND BECAUSE THEY HAD SHOWN NO APPITUDE FOR GOVERNMENT AND PARTICULARLY NONE FOR DEMOCRATIC DEVELOPMENT; THAT THEREFORE, THE CONTROL OF ASIA AND AFRICA, THE ISLANDS OF THE SEAS, AND TO SOME EXTENT OF SOUTH AMERICA WAS IN THE FUTURE TO BE PUT in THE HANDS OF THE IMPERIAL COUNTRIES OF EUROPE AND THAT THEY WERE TO DEVELOP THESE COUNTRIES THROUGH INDUSTRIAL ENTERPRISE AND MISSIONARY EFFORT, UNTIL THE TIME CAME WHEN THEY MIGHT BE GRANTED SOME RIGHTS OF SELF RULE BECAUSE OF THIS LONG TUTELAGE. IN THIS WAY IN 1945 THE COLONIAL WORLD COULD BE DESCRIBED AS FOLLOWS:

GREAT BRITAIN CONTROLLED SOUTHERN RHODESIA, AFRICA , NORTHERN RHODESIA, WEST AFRICA AND A NUMBER OF ISLANDS IN THE CARIBBEAN, TWO COLONIES IN SOUTH AMERICA AND TWO IN EUROPE. IN ASIA SHE CONTROLLED INDIA, BRITISH MALAYA, NORTH BORNEO, BURMA, AUSTRALIA AND HER POSSESSIONS MAKING IN THE BRITISH SPHERE FOUR HUNDRED AND EIGHTY-FIVE BILLIONS OF PEOPLE. FRANCE HAS IN HER COLONIES SEVENTY-TWO MILLION, THE DUTCH SIXTY-ONE, PORTUGAL ELEVEN MILLION, BELGIUM FOURTEEN MILLION, SPAIN ONE AND A THIRD MILLION, AND THE UNITED STATES THREE MILLION NOT COUNTING THE PHILIPPINES.

SINCE 1945 INDIA HAS BEEN FREED OF HER BRITISH OWNERSHIP, BUT WE HAVE STILL TO ACCOUNT IN THE WORLD FOR THE QUASI-COLONIALISM WHICH HAS LONG DOMINATED CHINA AND LARGE PARTS OF SOUTH AMERICA.

IN OTHER WORDS THE WORLD HAS BEEN RE-CAST ON THE IMPERIALISTS-COLONIAL IDEA. THIS CRISIS OF THIS ORGANIZATION CAME WITH THE TWO WORLD WARS. WARS PRIMARILY OF JEALOUSY BETWEEN IMPERIAL NATIONS AND EFFORTS TO REALLOCATE THE MASTERSHIP OF THE WORLD. WE ARE NOW FACED WITH THE PROBLEM OF LIQUIDATION AND REBUILDING. WE HAVE THE BEGINNING OF COLONIAL EMANCIPATION IN INDIA, DESPARATE EFFORTS IN BURMA AND INDONESIA AND NATIONALISTIC MOVEMENTS IN WEST AFRICA AND THE CARIBBEAN. ON THE OTHER HAND, WE HAVE THE DETERMINATION ON THE PART OF AMERICAN CAPITALISTS TO MAINTAIN AND TO STRENGTHEN THE HOLD WHICH INVESTING CAPITAL HAS LONG HAD OVER THE WORLD UNTIL IT HAS BECOME THE REAL IMPLEMENT OF IMPERIALISTS. THIS IS THE GRAVEST QUESTION WHICH NOW FACES THE WORLD.

COLONIAL IMPERIALISM

W. E. B. Du Bois

The collapse of the American slave system was foreshadowed in the early 18th century. The revolt of Maroons in Jamaica and Cuba and the Bush Negroes in South America and the repeated attempts in Haiti frightened the slave-holders and threatened the stability of the whole system. In Jamaica the Maroons "continued to distress the island for upwards of forty years, during which time forty-four acts of assembly were passed, and at least 240,000 pounds expended for thier suppression." The governor of Barbados wrote: "The public mind is ever tremblingly aware to the dangers of insurrection," and the statute books all over the slave territory testified to this fact.

The next event that opposed the slave trade and slavery was the American Revolution. Not only did the colonists achieve their independence through the help of slaves and the pro ise of their freedom, and with the cooperation in money and men from Haiti, but they represented actual working classes rather than exploiters of labor. Finally, the French Revolution burst forth as a war against privilege based on birth and a demand for freedom, especially economic freedom to trade and to enter industry without coercion.

In addition that slave-trade met distinct opposition based on humanitarian grounds; but this op osition would have been powerless to stop the trade if it had not been evident that the trade itself as a source of profit was threat-ened. The revolt of America confirmed the superiority of the French sugar colo ies. Between 1783 and 1789 the progress of San Domingo had been amazing. At the end of the 18th century the British sugar planters lost their supremacy to the French colonies. French colonial exports amounted to eight millions pounds while British colonial exports amounted to five million pounds.

When the American colonies won their independence, the Caribbean ceased to be a British Sea and investments began so be transferred from the West to the East Indies. In 1783 Prime Minister William Pitt showed increased interest in India and encouraged Wilberforce to propose the abolition of the slave trade.

Then came the final revolt of Haiti. The British made every effort to seize control of this famous French sugar colony. They tried both force of arms and bribery, but at last were compelled to recognize the independence of Toussaint L'Ouverture, whom they tried to divorce from allegiance to the French.

Nevertheless, with Haiti out of the world market, the British could have retained their hold upon the sugar industry had it not been for the continued cultivation of sugar in Spanish and Portuguese colonies. So long as these colonies could obtain cheap slaves, they threatened and even destroyed the investment in slave labor already made by British capital. Looked upon as machines or "real estate," as slaves legally were, the investment in Negro labor was being underminded so long as cheaper Negro labor could be had from Africa.

To keep the prices of slaves from falling, the slave trade had to be limited or stopped. Otherwise the whole slavery investment would totter, and that is what England faced after the revolution of Toussaint. Early in the 19th century, therefore, She began to change, and back of philanthropists like Sharpe and Wilberforce came the unexpected suport of opportunist politicians like Pitt.

Moreover, capitalism was far enough developed to produce sufficient free finance capital to effect a transfer of investment from one field to another without such losses as would cripple the system. Losses there had to be, but they were part of the Anarchy of business methods, which by large-scale gambling and periodic crises rushed blindly to newer and larger fields of profit. Eventually Negro slavery and the slave trade were abondoned in favor of colonial imperialism, and the England which in the 18th century established modern slavery in America on a vast scale, appeared in the 19th century as the official emancipator of slaves and founder of a met od of control of human labor and metherial which proved more profitable than slavery.

The slave trade was abolished by England in 1807, and England undertook to make the rest of the world outlaw it too. The United States, Portugal, and Spain gave only lip service to this program, and the slave trade continued to the middle of the 19th century althought to a lessening extant.

With the stopping of the slave trade it was evident that investment in labor was different from investment in land, material, and machines; that labor, no matter how much it was degraded, had initiative and made demands, . Revolt of the working classes, following the incentive of Haiti, spread. The spectacular and astonishing triumph of revolution in Haiti threatened the whole slave system of the West Indies and even of continental America. It was this revolt more than any other single thing that spelled doom not only of the African slave trade but of slavery in America as a basis of an industrial system. The revolt encouraged the abolition movement in the United State s and Brazil; it flamed in practically very island of the West Indies. Unless the slave worker could be pacified, income based on slave labor would be destroyed. The result was that in 1833 England abolished slavery. Similar abolit on followed in 1863 in the United States after Civil War.

The Napoleonic Wars did not ruin England; together with the African slave trade, Negro slavery, and the loot of India, they made the British Government the most powerful in the world; they ruined England's industrial rivals; they left her in control of the c ief suources of raw materials by colonial ownership and with the ready cash to outbid rivals; her vast store of finance capital enabled her to manufacture machinery and wait a generation for repayment; British knowledge of science and Technique enabled the country to make the best machines and tools and render the whole world creditor for their purchase; Britain ruled the seas and thus monopolized transport. Even when in the earilier mad ruch for profit on the new capitalism, she reduced her own labor to slavery in the factory system and faced revoltuion, she proved the only land to be able to raise wages and yet maintain high profit by shifting the burden of pauperized toil to the colonies and dominated peoples; and at the same time, although author and chief supporter of modern slavery, Great Britain could hold up her head and, by suppressing a slavery now becoming unprofitable, lead world philanthropy as the great emancipator of the slave.

But even as this role rejoiced her greater souls, the British Empire became the victim of the worst legacy of Negro slavery: the Doctrine of race superiority and the color line, which in a later century made civilized man commit suicide in a mad attempt to hold the vast majority of the earth's peoples in thrall to the white race--a goal to which they still cling today, hidden away behind nationalism and power politics.

This was not a rake's progress of malevolence; it was a bitter struggle between good and evil--between fine and noble souls and conscienceless desire for luxury and power and indulgence. The forces of evil were continually reinforced by the vast power which slavery and the exploitation of men put into the hands of the betrayers of labor, making them the envied of the earth, until nations became willing to destroy the earth in order to gain it. Suppose that at any point in this descent to hell, right had received help and reinforcement, suppose that a free America had welcomed a free Haiti into a world that insisted on freedom for Africa and Asia? But no; slavery dominated the "Free" Republic of the West for half a century, with the slave cotton kingdom as foundation stone for British manufacturers, while Great Britain seized land and labor in all the Dark World. Suppose that England had freed and educated Africa, emancipated India, and joined hands with Japan to uplift China, instead of making ignorance compulsory for the majority of men even in England, in order to build up the most "comfortable" and envied aristocracy on earth? Suppose the technique and science of the 19th century had been used to raise the many instead of to enrich the few?

The new era of capitalism dawned, springing from calvinism: thrift, industry, honesty as the best-policy, along with interest and profit. Capitalism passed into high capitalism at different periods in different nations: In England in 1846, when English capitalism needed no protective tariff, it smashed the agriculturists in Parliament and forced the adoption of free trade; in the United States invested capital passed the value of alnd about 1850. The Revolution of 1848 in France revealed the power of organized labor as well as the power of capitalism, which later triumphed. In Germany capitalism began its full sway after World War I.

In the British Parliament, after the passage of the Reform Bill in 1832, capitalism was paramount. The plantation trade had formerly meant everything; but in the new capitalist system, plantation slavery had little place. Britain's mechanized might was making the whole world her footstool. She was clothing the world, exporting men and machines, and had become the world's banker. British capital, like British production, was thinking in world terms. "Between 1815 and 1830 at least 50 million pounds had been invested more or less permanently in the secruities of the most stable European governments, more than twenty million had been invested in one form or another in Latin America, and five or six millions had very quietly found their way to the United States." But no new capital went to the West Indies.

In Africa a new and supplementary means of control, developed by means of the Arab trade in ivory, led to exploration and eventual annexation under the pretense of attacking slavery. In this whole story of the so-called "Arab slave trade" the truch has been strangely twisted. Arab slave raiding was in the beginning, and largely to the end, a secondary result of the British and American slavery and slave trade and specifically was based on American demand for ivory. Arabs had traded in slaves from 1000 A.D. to 1800 but the trade was incidental until Mehemel Ali in 1820. The Arabs had by the 19th century driven back the Portuguese opposite Zanzibar and had developed two profitable products of trade: Ivory and Slaves.

Ivory from about 1840 became increasingly valuable. It gathering called for fire-arms and transport. Europe and America furnished the arms in large quantity. Negro porters bore the white gold over vast distances on their heads, and the traders doubled their profit by selling these Negroes into slavery in the Middle East and America. The result was an industry with huge profits, whcih called to service the most vicious elements of the Nile valley with its social disintegration of centuries, aided by the efforts of Mohammed Ali, the ally of ~~xhixix~~ white colonial aggression.

It also called white soldiers of fortune like Selous and Lugard, who slaughtered the herds of elephants in cold blood. It called the explorers who followed the hunters and slave traders. After the explorers came the missionaries. Both pointed out that the ivory-slave business was killing the goose that might lay even more golden eggs, if instead of killing valuable labor, this labor and materials were subject to political control of Europe and the abundant capital seeking investment. The missionaries like Livingstone saw in this not only a means of saving bodies and souls of human beings, but also thrift and good business, which in the folklore of early capitalism were the inevitable elements divinely conjoined for modern civilization.

The rising demand in England and America for the suppression of the slave trade in East Africa was not pure philanthropy. It was that "Philanthropy and 5 per cent" which was the transition from the century of human slavery in America to the century of the transfer of capital from sugar plantations to colonial imperialism in Africa and Asia. The main end of both enterprises was profit to the owner and exploiter, mainly at the expense of poverty, ignorance, and pain for the slave and native subject.

About the middle third of the 19th century the situation changed abruptly The demand for ivory increased. In America, ivory wacking was an early industry, especially in New England, on the banks of the Connecticut where Ivory has been cut sinse 1820. It was processed for carving, for cutlery, billard balls, and miniatures, and for piano keys. At Deep River and Ivorytown and Buffalo the keyboards for all the pianos in America, Canada, and Australia were made. Because of increased demand, European and American traders set up establishments for buying ivory in Zanzibar; in the thirties and forties prices increased. Arabs began to ask for arms in order to shoot elephants and coerce the natives. Increased exports of ivory to Europe and America and of slaves to Arabia and the Persain Gulf, called for increased imports of weapons and ammunition. The Germans sent thirteen thousand muskets in one year. The British and portuguese sent thousands of the old sepoy guns from India. The French supplied a single-barrel light weapon. American blasting powder came in ten and twenty-five pound kegs. German cavalry sabers came and cases of percussion caps. Arabs borrowed from Indian usurers at 60 to 80 per cent, and set out for the haunts of elephants.

Curiously enough it was this ivory trade that stimulated and guided travel and discovery in Central Africa. Explorers followed the ivory traders, ho were the true discoverers. Burton, Speke, Livingstone, Stanley, and Cameron started from the Arab capital of Zanzibar. They followed the lines of traffic set by the Arab ivory traders. Petherick, the British ivory trader, preceded Schwienfurth, the scientist and the countries he explored were open up by the ivory trade. Livingstone found the ivory traders on the upper congo Cameron left Zanzibar in 1873 and was the first European to cross Africa from East to West along the ivory traders routes. Stanley made his second expedition, 1874--1877, and was helped by Tippoo-Tib, the great Negro slave trader who had also helped Livingstone. The last of the great expeditions was Stanley's, in 1887-1889, when he rescued Emin Pasha and his Negro wife.

It was in this way that knowledge of the techinque of the slave trade and it meaning came to Europe at a time when the slave trade from Africa to Ameirica had been largely suppressed. We had a series of first-hand descriptions of this trade in Africa.

Ivory became in the last half of the 19th century the scourge of Central Africa. The complete story of bloodshed and curelty will never be known. Thousands of miles of fertile country were turned into wilderness and ruin. Hundreds of thousands of elephants were slain and thousands of human beings. It has been estimated that not more than one in five of the captives bearing the ivory ever reached the ocean. Starved and weakened by disease and the strain of marching, they lined the long paths with their dead.

"Picture, if you can, a territyry nearly as large as the whole of our United States east of the Mississippi River and Illinois, terrorized and over-run in all directions with hundreds of roving bands of plundering murders armed with invincible weapons of oppression, a land of blood and might, the nights filled with flame and destruction, the days weary with the marching of the coffles and the blood of the despairing, hopeless slaves. And this for years, for decaded."

Henry M. Stanley wrote: "Every tusk, piece, and scrap in the possession of an Arab trader has been steeped and dyed in blood. Every pound weight has cost the life of a man, woman, or child, for every five pounds a hut has been burned, for every two tusks a whole village has been destroyed, every twenty tusks have been obtained at the price of a district with all its people, villages and plantations. It is simply incredible that, because ivory is required, tribes and nations should be utterly destroyed."

The credit for suppressing the slave-ivory trade must go to Livingstone who inspired it, to Kirk of East Africa who helped carry it through, and to Bargarsh, the Negroid Arab, who actually suppressed the Zanzibar trade. But these three men represent the curious interests involved: Livingstone was a humanitarian who thought that trade and commerce was the best and natural way to improve the condition of man. He would be horrified to see South Africa and Rhodesia toda and realize the plight into which the natives have been forced by European trade and industrialism. Kirk was a British imperialist who foresaw the colonial era. He was no philanthropist desirous of the development and rise of the blacks. What he wanted was to expand the power of England, and he believed that could be done best by suppressing the slave trade and slave labor under the Arabs and increasing colonial ownership and serf labor under Great Britain. The Arabl Sultan Bargarsh was persuaded that colonial alliance with Great Britain would protect his future power and income.

The effect upon Europe was curious. European and American commerce was stimulated. The missionaries, still believing in the expanding trade of the eighteenth century, coupled commerce with missionary effort and did not see the inherent contradiction between them. The result was that the missionary and the merchant worked side by side and hand in hand. It was Livingstone who declared that he was bringing commerce and missionary effort to the natives.

Then that extraordinary transformation took place in British public policy. The stop ing of the expansion of the Arab slave trade in East and central Africa became a means of building up the British empire. All that Britain had done in establishing the new modern slavery in America was forgotten in her effort to suppress the ivory-slave trade in Africa, and that effort was only the other side of her building up of a great African colonial trerritory which she proposed to exploit by the use of cheap native labor, the sale of African raw materials, and the opening of markets for her merchandise Slavery and the ~~xx~~ slave trade became transformed into anti-slavery and colonialism, and all with the same determination and demand to increase the profit of investment.

It all became a characteristic drama of capitalistic exploitation, where the right hand knew nothing of what the left hand did, yet rhymed its grip with uncanny timeliness; where the investor neither knew, nor inquired, nor greatly cared about the sources of his profits; where the inslaved or dead or half-paid worker never saw nor dreamed of the value of his work (now owned by others); where neither the society darling nor the great artist saw blood on the piane keys; where the clubman, heard above the click of his smooth resilient billiard balls no echo of the wild shrieks of pain from kindly half-human beasts as fifty to seventy-five thousand each year where slaughtered in cold, cruel, lingering horror of living death; sending their teeth to adorn civilization on the bowed heads and chained feet of thirty thousand black slaves, leaving behind more than a hundred thousand corpses in broken, flaming homes.

Gradually the picture changed; the capta ns of industry saw that they could replace wasteful slavery with local Black labor paid at wages from on-half to nine-tenths cheaper than white labor in Europe and America and make white labor like it because all this could be done to the Glory of God and superiority of the white race. And it was done. ~~Sxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxx~~ So Colonial Imperialism was born.

I have dwelt on Africa particularly in this effort to trace colonial imperialism. We must remember however, that this method of rule changed in the 19th century to belt the world. It was an axiom that the future development of mankind meant the rule of white Europe and North America over the rest of the world.

This was to be done for the best interests of the other peoples in the world and because they had shown no appitudefor government and particularly none for democratic development; that therefore, the control of Asia and Africa, the islands of the Seas, and to some extent of South America was in the future to be put in the hands of imperial countries of Europe and that they were to develop these countries through industrial enterprise and missionary effort, until the time came when they m ght be granted some rights of self rule because of this long tutelage. In this way in 1945 the colonial world could be described as follows: Great Britain controlled four hundred and eighty-five billions of people. France has in hercolonies seventy-two million, the Dutch sixty-one Portugal eleven million, Belgium Fourteen million, Spain one and a third million, and the United St tes 18 million counting the Philippines.

Since 1945 India has been freed of her British polit cal ownership, but we have still to account in the world for the quasi-colonialism which has long dominated China and large parts of South America.

In other words the world has been re-cast on the imperialist colonial idea. This crisis of this organization came with the two world wars. Wars primarily of jealousy between imperial nations and efforts to reallocate the mastership of the world , followed by a partial collapse of the capitalistic system, because of the failure of three of its main postulates: The self-Regulating world market, the treatment of labor as a commodity; and the Postulate of gold as the only real measure of value.

Now comes the day of rebuilding: First some colonies attain political freedom. Like India, Burma and the Phillippines. Others like Indonesia and French Indo China are struggling toward Autonomy. Nationalistic ovements have appeared and grown in West Africa, the West Indies and the Middle East. But continued control or planned control of vast regions of the earth not only remain in the emancipated and struggling colonies but in quasi-colonial nations like China, Japan, South America, The Near East, and even in Europe. //There is evident determination on the part of American capital to continue colonial imperialism in the post war world and even to expand it. Can this be accomplished without political control and military domination?

ECONOMIC ILLITERACY

THIS IS A DAY WHEN AS NEVER BEFORE OUR OPINIONS TO BE OF ANY VALUE MUST BE BASED ON CLEAR KNOWLEDGE OF THE FACTS. AND AT THE SAME TIME THE NUMBER OF FACTS, THE BREADTH OF THE WORLD WHICH WE ARE ASKED TO AID IN GUIDING, IS SO VAST TODAY, THAT FEW PEOPLE HAVE ANY EDUCATION OR EXPERIENCE WHICH ENABLES THEM TOACT WITH REASON AND AUTHORITY. I REMEMBER DISTINCTLY THE LITTLE TOWN MEETING WHICH REPRESENTED THE DEMOCRACY UNDER WHICH I WAS BORN AND GREW UP IN THE ~~FIFTIES OF~~ last THIRD OF THE NINETEENTH CENTURY.

THERE ASSEMBLED ANNUALLY IN THE TOWN HALL, A GROUP OF PERHAPS 200 MEN. THEY COULD ALL READ AND WRITE. SOME OF THEM HAD ATTENDED HIGH SCHOOL, BUT I DOUBT IF ANY HAD BEEN TO COLLEGE, YET THEY WERE MEN OF EXPERIENCE, OF ESSENTIAL HONESTY AND THEY KENW THE TOWN AND THE PEOPLE IN THE TOWN. AND THEREFORE WHEN THEY WERE ASKED TO LEGISLATE FOR THE TOWN AND ELECT PERSONS TO CARRY OUT THEIR DIRECTIONS, THEY COULD ACT AND VOTE WITH KNOWLEDGE AND EXPERIENCE.

HOW DIFFERENT IT IS FOR US TODAY, WHEN WE ARE ASKED TO TAKE INTELLIGENT ACTION WITH REGARD TO THE RESTORATION OF EUROPE, THE FUTURE OF INDONESIA AND KOREA AND OUR ATTITUDE TOWARD RUSSIA. WE ARE ALMOST ENTIRELY DEPENDENT FOR GUIDANCE NOT UPON THE FACTS, BUT UPON OPINIONS WHICH OTHERS HAVE COME TO ON THE BASIS OF WHAT THEY THINK ARE FACTS.

THIS IS A SITUATION CALCULATED TO DRIVE MEN CRAZY, OR AT BEST TO MAKE ALL OF US DEEPLY UNEASY AND RESENTFUL OF THE SITUATION IN WHICH WE FIND OURSELVES. BUT IF THAT IS TRUE WITH REGARD TO THE WHOLE FIELD OF KNOWLEDGE? IT IS EVEN MORE TRUE WITH REGARD TO ECONOMICS; THAT IS WITH REGARD TO EVERYDAY MATTERS OF WORK AND WAGES, OF EARNING A LIVING, OF MONEY AND WEALTH, OF PRODUCTION AND CONSUMPTION, OF CAPITAL, OF IMPORTS AND EXPORTS, OF FREE INIATIVE, AND OF WHAT SOME PEOPLE CALL "THE AMERICAN WAY OF LIFE."

MY LIFE HAS BEEN DIVIDED ALMOST EXACTLY INTO TWO PERIODS OF

ACTIVITY. EACH OF WHICH DIFFERED DISTINCTLY FROM THE OTHER. THE FIRST, AND PROBABLY THE MORE FUNDAMENTAL PART, OF MY LIFE WAS SPENT IN TEACHING AND TEACHING IN THE FIELD WHICH IS LOOSELY CALLED SOCIOLOGY, BUT WHICH HAD TO DO WITH QUESTIONS OF WORK AND WAGES OF INDUSTRY AND CAPITAL OF MONEY AND WEALTH AND THEN THE HISTORY OF THE WAY IN WHICH HUMAN BEINGS REACTED TO THESE IDEAS AND HOW THEY UNDERSTOOD THEM.

I WAS IN THIS CASE TALKING TO YOUNG AND INEXPERIENCED PEOPLE FOR THE MOST PART. THE OTHER PART OF MY LIFE HAS BEEN SPENT IN WHAT WOULD BE CALLED LOOSELY " ROPAGANDA," THAT IS IN TRYING TO CONVINCE PEOPLE THAT THE CONCLUSIONS WHICH I HAD REACHED IN STUDYING AND TEACHING WERE THE RIGHT CONCLUSIONS AND THAT THEY OUGHT TO FOLLOW THEM AND ACT ACCORDINGLY.

IN THIS WAY I HAVE BROUGHT TO EMPHASIZE THE NEED ON THE PART OF THE PUBLIC, BOTH FOR CAREFUL UNDERSTANDING AND PURPOSEFUL ACTION. AND WHENEVER I SEE ACTION ON A LARGE SCALE, I AM ALWAYS CURIOUS TO SEE IF

ITS LOGICAL UNDERSTANDING OF SOME OF THE SIMPLE PRINCIPLES WHICH IT IS FOLLOWING, IS SUCH THAT IT HAS A FAIR CHANCE TO REACH THE RIGHT CONCLUSIONS AND WORK TOWARD THE PROPER IDEALS; AND DURING MY CONSIDERABLE SPAN OF LIFE I HAVE KNOWN NO TIME WHEN I WAS MORE ALARMED AT THE MISUNDERSTANDING OF COMPARATIVELY SIMPLE THINGS THAT HAD TO DO WITH OUR ECONOMIC LIFE.

I MEAN THAT HAVE TO DO WITH THE THINGS WHICH AFTER ALL ARE NEAREST TO MOST MEN, FOR MOST OF THE TIME. WE ARE CITIZENS OF THE GREATEST INDUSTRIAL ORGANIZATION THAT THE WORLD HAS EVER SEEN OR DREAMED OF -- THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA. THIS COUNTRY GRADUALLY HAS BEEN PUT IN STRATEGIC POSITION WHERE IT IS THE MOST INFLUENCIAL ECONOMIC ORGANIZATION IN THE WORLD; AND IF THERE IS ONE THING ON WHICH ITS CITIZENS MUST BE INTELLIGENT, IT IS IN UNDERSTANDING THE A. B. C. OF INDUSTRY. YET I SUPPOSE THERE IS TODAY NO SUBJECT UPON WHICH THERE IS GREATER ILLITERACY, THAN THIS. AND WHAT I MEAN BY ECONOMIC ILLITERACY IS THE AMOUNT OF IGNORANCE AMONG INTELLIGENT PEOPLE CONCERNING CERTAIN BASIC FACTS IN THE WORK AND INDUSTRIAL ORGANIZATION OF HUMAN BEINGS, ESPECIALLY IN AMERICA, WITHOUT WHICH IT IS IMPOSSIBLE TO ACT INTELLIGNETLY.

THIS ECONOMIC ILLITERACY IS ALL THE MORE DANGEROUS BECAUSE IT IS NOT USUALLY RECOGNIZED, IT IS ASSUMED THAT PEOPLE KNOW THE MEANING OF BASIC TERMS AND UNDERSTAND THE BASIC ACTION WHICH UNDERLIES THE WORK OF THE WORLD. NOT ONLY IS THERE THIS ASSUMPTION CONCERNING THE ORDINARY CITIZEN, BUT BECAUSE OF THE WAY IN WHICH ANY CHANGE IN OUR ECONOMIC LIFE WOULD AFFECT EVERYONE, WE HAVE ALMOST STOPPED CAREFUL STUDY OF ECONOMICS.

ECONOMICS IS NOT TAUGHT IN THE PUBLIC SCHOOLS TODAY AS PHYSIOLOGY IS TAUGHT. THE SO-CALLED NATURAL SCIENCES RECEIVES A GREAT DEAL MORE ATTENTION THAN THE SOCIAL SCIENCES, WITH THE RESULT THAT WHILE LIFE IS BECOMING INCREASINGLY A MATTER OF ECONOMIC ORGANIZATION, EDUCATION IS DECREASING ITS ATTENTION TO THE ESSENTIAL ELEMENTS OF ECONOMIC LIFE.

IT WOULD THEREFORE SEEM TO ME THAT I MIGHT UNDERTAKE IN LECTURES WHICH I AM GIVING THIS SEASON SOME TALKS ON ECONOMIC ILLITERACY. I SHALL NOT PRETEND TO BE EXPERT ON ECONOMICS IN GENERAL, BUT I DO KNOW SOMETHING OF THE WAY IN WHICH WORK IS CARRIED ON AND ORGANIZED. I AM NOT SO MUCH INTERESTED IN THIS CONTEMPLATION, AND INDEED IN THIS LECTURE AS TO JUST WHAT CONCLUSIONS PEOPLE ARE COMING TO, AS OF THEIR UNDERSTANDING OF THE FUNDAMENTAL FACTS ON WHICH THESE CONCLUSIONS ARE BASED, BECAUSE I SEE IN SIMPLE AND ELEMENTARY IDEAS OF ECONOMICS A CERTAIN CURIOUS AND DANGEROUS ILLITERACY.

FIRST THERE IS FOLKLORE: I MEAN THE IDEAS WHICH WE HAVE OF THINGS HANDED DOWN, WITHOUT ANY PARTICULAR INVESTIGATION ON OUR PART, WITHOUT ANY CAREFUL LINE OF LOGIC. IT IS WHAT WE HAVE BEEN TOLD CONCERNING CERTAIN FACTS AND IDEAS, AND WE HAVE THUS RECEIVED CONCEPTIONS WHICH WE HAVE USED IN OUR LIVES.

BUT THE DIFFICULTY SO OFTEN IS, THAT WITH MOST OF THESE SIMPLE IDEAS, WHERE WE EXAMINE THEM WE ARE AWARE OF FUNDAMENTAL CONTRADICTIONS. TOO OFTEN AND TOO DANGEROUSLY, WE DO NOT TRY TO RESOLVE THESE CONTRADICTIONS. FOR INSTANCE: WE HAVE LEARNED AND BELIEVED WITHOUT ANY QUESTION THE APHORISM THAT WE WORK TO LIVE. OF COURSE! AND THEB IMMEDIATELY THERE COMES, WHAT IS AFTER ALL A CONTRADICTION, WE LIVE TO WORK. NOW WE CANNOT EASILY AND WITHOUT THOUGHT SIMPLY SAY THAT HERE ARE TWO WAYS OF SAYING THE SAME THING. IT IS NOT: IT IS SAYING TWO DIFFERENT THINGS.

IT IS SAYING, IN THE FIRST PLACE, THAT THERE IS EFFORT WHICH HUMAN BEINGS MUST GO THROUGH, EFFORT AND SACRIFICE AND EVEN PAIN IN ORDER THAT THEY MAY LIVE; AND THEN WE CONTRADICE THAT BY SAYING THAT THE OBJECT OF LIVING IS WORK. NO! BY THE FIRST STATEMENT THE OBJECT OF LIVING EVIDENTLY IS TO REDUCE WORK TO A MINIMUN OR GET RID OF IT ALTOGETHER. BY THE SECOND

STATEMENT, THE WORK IS REGARDED AS IN SOME WAY THE OBJECT OF LIFE, THE REASON AND END OF LIVING. NOW SOMETIME AND SOMEHOW WE HAVE GOT TO MAKE RECONCILIATION OF THESE ELEMENTAL AND YET FUNDAMENTAL IDEAS ABOUT OUR ECONOMIC AND INDUSTRIAL ORGANIZATION.

I AM GOING TO TRY TO TAKE TWELVE DIFFERENT STATEMENTS OF THIS SORT AND EXAMINE THEM AND PUT THEM BEFORE YOU, WITH THE IDEA OF EMPHASIZING THE FACT THAT THE GREAT AND DISTURBING PROBLEMS WHICH ARE BEFORE YOU AND THE NATION AND THE WORLD TODAY, ARE GOING TO BE SETTLED, IN THE FIRST INSTANCE, BY A CAREFUL AND THOUGHTFUL UNDERSTANDING OF THESE FUNDAMENTAL IDEAS.

THE IDEAS WHICH I HAVE CHOSEN ARE: WORK, WAGES, PROFIT, MONEY, WEALTH, POVERTY, PRODUCTION, CONSUMPTION, CAPITAL, IMPORTS AND EXPORTS, FREE INIATIVE AND RACE. I HAVE REFERRED TO WORK AND TURN NEXT TO WAGES.

WAGES IN CURRENT FOLKLORE, IS THE REWARD FOR LABOR; IT IS WHAT A MAN GETS FOR HIS WORK. ON THE OTHER HAND, IF YOU FOLLOW THE DISCUSSION OF WAGES, YOU FIND THAT WHAT MEN ARE TALKING ABOUT IS NOT THE REWARD FOR WORK, BUT THE AMOUNT WHICH THE EMPLOYER CAN AFFORD TO GIVE HIM FOR HIS WORK. HERE AGAIN THESE TWO CONSIDERATIONS MAY AMOUNT TO VERY DIFFERENT T INGS. WHAT A MAN CAN AFFORD TO PAY ME MAY NOT BE AT ALL WHAT I OUGHT TO HAVE FOR MY EFFORT.

SUPPOSE IT WERE TRUE, IN A PARTICULAR CASE, THAT NO MATTER HOW MUCH A MAN WORKED HE COULD NOT EARN ENOUGH TO SUPPORT HIM. YOU CANNOT ASSUME THAT WHEN HE MAKES COMPLAINT, HE IS SIMPLY A TROUBLE-MAKER. OR SUPPOSE THAT HERE IS A BUSINESS MAN WHO SAYS, " THE GOODS WHICH I PRODUCE WILL NOT BRING ME SUFFICIENT INCOME TO PAY EXPENSES AND LIVING WAGES TO MY EMPLOYEES." IF THIS IS TRUE, THEN HE IS NOT NECESSARILY A TYRANT. HE ALSO IS FACED BY A FACT. HERE NOW BY THOUGHT, WE REACH A CLEAR PROSPECTIVE: FIRST JUST WHAT ARE THE FACTS? THEY MUST BE TRULY ASCERTAINED BEFORE ANOTHER STEP IS TAKEN. ONCE KNOWN, SUPPOSE IT IS CLEAR THAT THIS INDUSTRY DOES

YIELD ENOUGHT TO ENABLE ITS WORKERS TO LIVE DECENTLY. IN THAT CASE EITHER THE BUSINESS OUGHT TO BE CLOSED, OR ITS METHODS IMPROVED. IF NEITHER IS POSSIBLE AND THE WORK MUST CONTINUE FOR THE COMMON GOOD, THEN THE STATE, THE PUBLIC, YOU AND I, MUST DEVISE SOME EQUITABLE WAY TO SEE THAT THE WORKERS LIVE DECENTLY ON THEIR PAY. THIS IS CLEAR THINKING AND THE BASIS FOR REASONABLE ACTION. YET HOW SELDOM IT IS FOLLOWED.

I WAS ONCE A STUDENT IN THE CLASS OF FRANK TAUSSIG, A TEACHER OF ECONOMICS AT HARVARD IN THE NINETEENTH CENTURY; ONE OF THAT GALAXY OF DISTINGUISHED MEN, INCLUDING WILLIAM JAMES, GEORGE SANTAYANA, JOSIAH ROYCE AND NATHANIEL SHALER, UNDER WHOSE VOICES IT WAS A SINGULAR PRIVILEGE TO SIT.

THE COURSE WHICH MR. TAUSSIG GAVE WAS CALLED "THE WAGES-FUND", AND IT WAS DESIGNED TO PROVE A THEORY OF WAGES CURRENT IN ENGLAND DURNIG THE NINETEENTH CENTURY, AND STILL A POWERFUL, ALTHOUGH NOT SO CLEARLY RECOGNIZED IDEAL OF TODAY.

THE THEORY OF THE WAGES-FUND WAS THAT THE AMOUNT OF PRODUCTION WHICH COULD BE DISTRIBUTED AS WAGES WAS LIMITED. IT WAS LIMITED BY THE DEMAND OF THE INVESTOR FOR PROFITS, BY THE COST OF MATERIALS, AND BY THE GENERAL CONDITIONS OF THE MARKET. THEREFORE A FIXED FUND WAS LEFT TO BE DIVIDED AMONG THE LABORERS. IF THERE WERE FEW LABORERS THEY WOULD GET HIGHER WAGE; BUT IF THE LABORERS WERE THOUGHTLESS, MARRIED EARLY, HAD A LARGE NUMBER OF CHILDREN, THEY WOULD GET INCREASINGLY LESS BECAUSE THERE WERE MORE MOUTHS TO FEED.

THIS WAS THE CELEBRATED "IRON LAW OF WAGES" THE WAGES -FUND THEORY WENT ON TO SAY, STRIKES ARE SILLY, EDUCATION USELESS, THE WAGES FUND IS FIXED: THAT IS WHAT THE LABORER CAN GET AND HE WILL GET NO MORE.

I REMEMBER BEING PUZZLED AND NOT AT ALL SATISFIED BY THIS COURSE. TODAY WE HEAR LITTLE ABOUT THE WAGES FUND BECAUSE WE HAVE OTHER IDEAS AS TO WHAT CAN INFLUENCE THE AMOUNT OF WAGES.

THE AMOUNT OF INCOME AND PROFIT WHICH THE EMPLOYER TAKES OUT OF THE PRODUCT IS NOT SET AND INVARIABLE, NOR DOES IT DEPEND SOLELY ON HIS DECISION. THE WELFARE OF THE WAGE-WORKER; THE INTERESTS OF THE PUBLIC AND THE IDEALS OF SOCIETY MUST BE TAKEN INTO ACCOUNT BEFORE THE RATES OF WAGES AND PROFIT CAN BE FINALLY DECIDED. BUT A SUBTLE METHOD OF SETTLING THIS CONTROVERSY WITHOUT REDUCING PROFIT AND AT THE SAME TIME RAISING WAGES HAS BEEN WIDELY PRACTISED. USUALLY IN DISCUSSING RACE AND RACE PROBLEMS WE ARE NOT PRIMARILY THINKING OF WAGES, PROFITS AND INCOME. YET MOST RACE PROBLEMS ARE REALLY AT BOTTOM, PROBLEMS OF INCOME. SUPPOSE THAT HERE IS A GREAT INDUSTRY WHOSE INCOME GOES TO PROFITS, SALARIES, WAGES AND MATERIALS. IT CAN PAY HIGH PROFITS, AND HIGH WAGES IF IT CAN BUY ITS MATERIALS CHEAP. LOW WAGES AND LAND MONOPOLY IN COLONIES CAN FURNISH MATERIALS AT VERY LOW COST IN COLONIES INHABITED BY COLORED PEOPLE; THERE WILL BE NO UNIONS , STRIKES NOR PROTESTS THERE.

BECAUSE THE COLONIALS HAVE NO VOTE AND BECAUSE THEIR MASTERS LIVE IN LANDS FAR AWAY WHERE THE WHITE VOTERS BELIEVE THAT COLONIAL PEOPLES WHO ARE WRETCHEDLY POOR, IGNORANT AND DISEASED ARE DESERVING OF SUCH CONDITIONS AND WORTH NOTHING BETTER. THUS HIGH WAGES IN EUROPE AND AMERICA DEPEND IN PART ON STARVATION WAGE IN ASIA AND AFRICA.

BUT THE MATTER COMES NEARER: FOR MANY YEARS THE MANUFACTURE OF COTTON WAS CONCENTRATED IN NEW ENGLAND: THE EMPLOYEES ROSE FROM THE CONDITION OF POOR DIRTY SLUM-DWELLERS SUCH AS I SAW IN MY HOME IN MY YOUTH, TO EDUCATED WELL-PAID, SELF-RESPECTING MEN AND WOMEN UNITED IN STRONG, INTELLIGENT TRADE UNIONS. TODAY, MANUFACTURERS ARE SLOWLY BUT SURELY REMOVING THEIR FACTORIES TO THE SOUTH. THE WAGES ARE MUCH LOWER THERE AND THEY WILL PROBABLY STAY LOW A LONG WHILE, BECAUSE THE POOR MOUNTAIN WHITE WORKERS ARE DESPERATELY AFRAID OF BEING REPLACED BY EVEN MORE POORLY PAID NEGROES.

35-1-177

THE WORKERS HESITATE TO JOIN UNIONS, THEIR SCHOOLS REMAIN FEW AND

BAD, THERE IS MUCH CHILD LABOR AND DISEASE. HERE CURIOUSLY ENOUGH IS RACE PREJUDICE AT THE BOTTOM OF WHAT PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT CALLED OUR "NUMBER ONE" ECONOMIC PROBLEM.

SUCH ARE THE CONTRADICTIONS WHICH FACE THE MODERN VOTER AND THINKER: IS WAGE TO BE A REWARD FOR WORK OR IS IT TO BE THE RESULT OF CERTAIN FORCES WHICH MAY LEAD TO STARVATION OR UNDERNOURISHMENT ON THE PART OF THE WORKER? THIS IS SO FUNDAMENTAL A THING THAT UNLESS IT IS CLEARLY THOUGHT OUT, NO VALID CONCLUSIONS CAN BE REACHED.

NOW CONSIDER THE ANALOGUS MATTER OF PROFIT. IT MAY BE SAID AND OFTEN IS, THAT THE OBJECT OF BUSINESS IS PROFIT; IF A BUSINESS IS PROFITABLE IT IS A GOOD BUSINESS; IF IT IS NOT PROFITABLE, IT'S BAD. THIS SEEMS LIKE AN OBVIOUS STATEMENT UNTIL YOU BEGIN TO EXAMINE IT. IS THE OBJECT OF BUSINESS PROFIT? NO, THE OBJECT OF BUSINESS IS TO C

NOW WE CAN VERY EASILY SEE TH T A MAN MIGHT MAKE A PROFIT OUT OF RETAILING AND DO A VERY BAD SERVICE TO HIS CUSTOMERS; HE COULD SELL GOODS FOR PRICES MUCH HIGHER THAN HE NEED; HE MIGHT SELL GOODS WHICH ARE SPOILED OR ADULTERATED. HE MIGHT IN VARIOUS WAYS SERVE HIS PUBLIC BADLY, AND AT THE SAME TIME IT MIGHT ALSO HAPPEN TH T THE WORSE THE SERVICE HE GIVES

WOULD BE MOST PROFITABLE TO HIM. NO MATTER THEN WHAT THE PARTICULAR BUSINESS MAY BE, WE CANNOT FORGET THAT THE OBJECT OF TH T BUSINESS IS SERVICE AND NOT PROFIT.

IF IT IS SAID ON THE OTHER HAND, THAT WITHOUT PROFIT, THE BUSINESS CANNOT AND OUGHT NOT TO GO ON, THERE AGAIN COMES A QUERY. THERE ARE CERTAIN ESSENTIAL SERVICES CARRIED ON IN THE HOME AND IN THE NATION, WHICH WE RECOGNIZE CLEARLY AS NOT PROFITABLE AND YET THEY MUST BE CARRIED ON. T ERE IS THE SERVICE WHICH THE MOTHER RENDERS THE CHILDR N; THERE IS THE SERVICE WHICH THE G VERNMENT DOES TO PREVENT EPIDEMICS; THERE IS THE SERVICE OF THE RED CROSS AND OF THE HOSPITALS. MANIFESTLY A CONSIDERABLE SECTION OF WORK, BUSINESS AND EVEN INDUSTRY IS CARRIED OUT WITHOUT PROFIT. THER COMES THEREFORE THE U STION, WHICH REQUIRES STUDY, AS TO JUST WHAT PART PROFIT OUGHT TO PLAY IN GENERAL INDUSTRY.

MUST THE VALUE OF AN INDUSTRY TO A CITY OR A COUNTRY BE MEASURED BY THE PROFIT IT BRINGS TO ITS OWNERS OR ITS VALUE TO THE MASS OF PEOPLE? OF TWO GREAT INDUSTRIES, IS THAT SOCIALLY MOST VALUABLE WHICH IS MOST PROFITABLE? IN THE LONG RUN, MUST NOT THE VOTERS OF A NATION DECIDE ON THE BASIS OF NATIONAL NEED AND IDEAL, WHAT WORK ITS CITIZENS ENGAGE IN, RATHER THAN LETTING THE DECISION REST ON THE PROFIT THAT CAN BE MADE FROM ANY BUSINESS?

THIS OF COURSE BRINGS US FACE TO FACE WITH THE FUNDAMENTAL CONCEPTS OF MONEY WEALTH AND POVERTY. NOWHERE IS FOLKLORE, OLD UNQUESTIONED ASSUMPTIONS AND PROVERBS, MORE PREVALENT AND THE CAUSE OF MORE WRONG THINKING AND MUSSY THINKING. I REMEMBER ONCE SPEAKING AT A CELEBRATION OF A BANKERS' BIRTHDAY. HE WAS A WORTHY MAN WITH A SMALL BANK. ONE YOUNG AND ENTHUSIASTIC SPEAKER CRIED "OUR FRIEND HAS A MILLION DOLLARS OF YOUR MONEY IN HIS BANK." I COULD NOT HELP REMARKING "IF HE HAD, HE'D DROP DEAD". AND THE YOUNG MAN SCOWLED. YET I WAS SIMPLY SAYING THAT BECAUSE THE

BANKER OWED HIS DEPOSITORS A MILLION, IT DID NOT MEAN THAT HE HAD THIS MONEY IN CASH. ON THE CONTRARY, UNLESS MOST OF IT WAS CIRCULATION IN THE FORM OF GOODS AND SERVICES, BANKRUPTCY STARED HIM IN THE FACE. BUT THAT BRINGS US TO THE WHOLE QUESTION OF MONEY, RICHES AND POVERTY. TAKE FOR INSTANCE THE MATTER OF MONEY, THE FOLKLORE OF THAT IS STILL ANCIENT AND MISLEADING MONEY IS WEALTH, WE CALL MONEY WEALTH AND WEALTH, MONEY.

MY NEIGHBOR ON THE STREET CAR ASKED, "WHO IN THE FAMILY BROUGHT THE MONEY, THE HUSBAND, OR THE WIFE?" "HOW MUCH MONEY HAVE THEY?" SUCH AND SUCH A MAN HAS "A GREAT DEAL OF MONEY". IN FACT THERE ISN'T VERY MUCH MONEY IN THE WORLD, AS COMPARED WITH THE WEALTH OF THE WORLD. THE WEALTH CONSISTS ONLY IN SMALL PART OF MONEY. THIS RAISES CONTINUAL CONTRADICTIONS WHICH ARE CLEAR IN THE WORLD TODAY: THERE IS A GREAT DEAL OF WEALTH IN EUROPE, BUT PEOPLE ARE STARVING BECAUSE MOST OF THIS WEALTH IS NOT FOOD. A DISTINCT NEED IS ALWAYS FOR EXCHANGE OF ONE SORT OF WEALTH FOR ANOTHER.

MONEY IS THE CHIEF MEDIUM OF THAT EXCHANGE. BUT ON THE OTHER HAND, MONEY ITSELF IS UNUSUALLY NOT A THING WHICH SATISFIES WANT, OR IN OTHER WORDS IS NOT WEALTH. NEVERTHELESS IT IS OF EXTRAORDINARY VALUE AS COMPARED WITH ALL KINDS OF WEALTH. SO THAT NEARLY EVERYBODY WANTS HIS WEALTH SO FAR AS POSSIBLE EASILY CONVERTIBLE INTO MONEY, WHICH MEANS THAT MONEY HAS CERTAIN POWER OVER THE EXCHANGE OF GOODS. BUT JUST WHAT IS THAT POWER AND WHO CONTROLS IT, AND WHO SHOULD CONTROL IT? THAT IS A MATTER FOR VERY CAREFUL AND TECHNICAL STUDY. IN GENERAL WE FIND OURSELVES TALKING OF MONEY WHEN WE MEAN FOOD AND CLOTHING AND SHELTER: AND TALKING OF GOODS AND MATERIALS WHEN WE MEAN THE POWER TO EXCHANGE SUCH MATERIALS.

THIS BRINGS US TO TWO CONCEPTIONS RICHES AND POVERTY. I SUPPOSE NO TWO WORDS AND THEIR CORRESPONDING IDEAS ARE MORE DOMINANT IN THE MINDS OF MEN. IN GENERAL WE MEAN BY RICHES, AN INCOME NOT ONLY SUFFICIENT FOR ONES NEEDS, BUT AN INCOME MORE THAN SUFFICIENT. IN ADDITION WE USUALLY MEAN

AN INCOME WHOSE SIZE DOES NOT DEPEND UPON WORK AND, THEREFORE, HERE OF COURSE OUR IDEA STANDS IN CONTRADICTION TO OUR FIRST AND MORE FUNDAMENTAL IDEA, THAT IN ORDER TO LIVE WE MUST WORK.

IT IS IMMEDIATELY REJOINED THAT RICHES IS THE RESULT OF WORK ACCUMULATED AND SAVED, AND THEREFORE CAN BE USED NOW WITHOUT WORK. BUT THERE THEN FOLLOWS THE OTHER QUESTION, WHO ACCUMULATED IT? WHO WORKED FOR IT? WHO SAVED AND SACRIFICED? IS IT THE PERSON NOW ENJOYING THE RICHES, OR IS IT SOMEONE ELSE? AND HOW FAR IS IT FAIR TO TRANSFER THE RESULT OF ONE PERSONS WORK TO ANOTHER PERSONS' ENJOYMENT? WE CANNOT SAY, OF COURSE, THAT IT IS ALWAYS UNFAIR BUT THE QUESTION OF ITS FAIRNESS IN EVERY CASE IS A QUESTION FOR DECISION. INEVITABLY THE ACCUMULATION OF RICHES TENDS TO BECOME MORE OR LESS A PUBLIC FUNCTION; AND IN EVERY MODERN STATE, THE STATE ITSELF HAS SOME VOICE IN THIS MATTER OF ACCUMULATED RICHES, NOT ONLY

BECAUSE OF THE LOGIC OF ITS SPENDING, BUT ALSO BECAUSE OF THE FACT, THAT THE STATE ITSELF HELPED IN THE ACCUMULATION.

NOW WITH THE OTHER, A CORRESPONDING IDEA OF POVERTY, THERE IS EVEN GREATER DIFFICULTY OF UNDERSTANDING. POVERTY IS A CONDITION WHERE A PERSONS INCOME IS NOT ENOUGH FOR HIS NECESSARY NEEDS. MOST OF US HAVE LEARNED IN CHILDHOOD THAT POVERTY IS THE LOT OF MOST PEOPLE ON EARTH. THAT MOST PEOPLE CAN NEVER HOPE FOR AN INCOME WHICH WILL COVER EVEN THEIR ESSENTIAL NEEDS.

IS THAT NECESSARY? IS WEALTH THE REWARD OF VIRTUE AND POVERTY THE PUNISHMENT OF SIN? WE CANNOT QUITE BELIEVE THIS AND YET OUR WHOLE THEORY OF RACE INFERIORITY HAS LONG BEEN UPON SOME SUCH ASSUMPTIONS. IN ENGLAND AND AMERICA, WE LONG PUNISHED THE "SHIFTLESS POOR" AND IGNORED MISFORTUNE, CHEATING, EXPLOITATION AND DISEASE AS EVIDENT CAUSES OF POVERTY. MOREOVER TODAY WE HAVE A NEW VISION: WE CAN PRODUCE ENOUGH FOR ALL, SAY THE SCIENTISTS SO THE WATCHWORD OF OUR DAY IS PRODUCTION.

CERTAIN FACTS WHICH ARE NOT SO MUCH MATTERS OF LONG AND INTENSE STUDY AS OF CLEAR AND FRANK RECOGNITION OF THE ARGUMENT THAT THE OBJECT OF INDUSTRIAL LIFE IS PRODUCTION. THE MAKING OF GOODS AND FURNISHING OF SERVICES THE PROSPERITY OF A NATION CAN BE MEASURED BY THE NUMBER AND AMOUNT OF GOODS WHICH IT RAISES , PROCESSES AND MANUFACTURS. WE DWELL WITH GREAT PRIDE UPON THE VOLUME OF PRODUCTION. YET ON THE OTHER HAND IT NEEDS BUT LITTLE ATTENTION ON OUR PART TO MAKE IT CLEAR THAT THE REALLY IMPORTANT AND PRIMARY THING IN THE INDUSTRIAL PROCESS IS NOT PRODUCTION BUT CONSUMPTION: THAT IS THE NEEDS OF PEOPLE AND THE WAY IN WHICH THEY CAN BE SATISFIED.

THAT, OF COURSE, THE OBJECT OF THE WHOLE PRODUCTIVE PROCESS, THAT IS WHAT DETERMINES WHAT SHALL BE PRODUCED AND IN WHAT QUANITIES. IF WE WERE TO TURN OUR WHOLE ATTENTION TO PRODUCTION AND IF PRODUCTION IS GUIDED BY THE AMOUNT OF PROFIT, THE WHOLE THEORY AND OBJECT OF CONSUMPTION MAY BE ENTIRELY MISDIRECTED AND SPOILED. THERE CAN BE NO DOUBT BUT WHAT A LARGE PART OF OUR INDUSTRIAL DIFFICULTIES, OUR RECURRENT CRISES STEM FROM THE FACT THAT PRODUCTION IS NOT GEARED TO CONSUMPTION: IS NOT GUIDED BY WHAT WE WANT OR NEED, BUT RATHER BY WHAT PROFIT C N BE MADE. MOREOVER BY THIS CONFUSION IN THINKING, THE EFFORTS OF MANKIND ARE VERY OFTEN DIRECTED IN THE WRONG WAY.

WE GIVE GREAT THOUGHT AND CAREFUL TRAINING TO WAYS IN WHICH PEOPLE MAY BE INDUCED TO BUY THINGS. WE DO NOT GIVE NEAR AS MUCH THOUGHT AND EFFORT TO UNDERSTANDING THE WANTS WHICH OUGHT TO BE SATISFIED: TO THE NEEDS THAT MUST BE CATERED TO IF YOU ARE GOING TO HAVE A HEALTHY PHYSICAL AND SOCIAL BODY.

IF THEREFORE WE ARE GOING TO TALK INTELLIGENTLY ABOUT THE INDUSTRIAL MACHINE IN THE UNITED STATES WE HAVE GOT TO GIVE MORE ATTENTION TO THE CONSUMER, TO HIS EDUCATION, TO HIS ORGANIZATION. IT IS THE ESSENTIAL LACK OF COORDINATION BET EEN CONSUMPTION AND PRODUCTION WHICH IS THE BASIC CAUSE OF THOSE INDUSTRIAL CRISES WHICH HAS SHAKEN THE UNITED STATES PRACTICALLY EVERY

TEN YEARS SINCE ITS FOUNDING.

FOR CONSUMPTION AND PRODUCTION CAPITAL IS NEEDED. THE BASIC IDEA OF CAPITAL AS IT WAS BORN IN ITS MODERN FORM IN THE NINETEENTH CENTURY, WAS GOODS AND MATERIALS SAVED AND DEVOTED TO MAKING OTHER GOODS INSTEAD OF BEING CONSUMED. AND THE ARGUMENT WAS AND IT WAS A JUST ARGUMENT: THAT FOR SACRIFICE THE OWNER SHOULD BE PAID FOR THE USE OF HIS CAPITAL. SOMETHING OF THAT OLD IDEA STILL PERSISTS. BUT OF COURSE THIS IS NOT A PICTURE OF CAPITAL WHICH THE WORLD SEES TODAY.

TODAY THERE ARE SO MANY GOODS MADE THAT THEY COULD NOT BE CONSUMED BY THE PERSON WHO OWNS THEM. IT IS NOT SACRIFICE ON HIS PART TO USE THEM FOR THE MAKING OF OTHER GOODS, THERE'S NOTHING ELSE THAT HE CAN DO WITH THEM. HIS SERVICE THEN IS NOT ALL A MATTER OF SACRIFICE AND HIS INCOME RESTS LOGICALLY AND MORALLY ON ENTIRELY OTHER BASES THAN THE CAPITALISTS OF THE EARLY NINEENTH CENTURY.

IF THE INDUSTRIAL MACHINE IS PROPERLY GEARED, THIS CONSUMPTION GUIDES IT, AND ORGANIZED CONSUMERS MAKE CONSUMPTION A REASONABLE THING FOR THE REAL BENEFIT FOR THE MASS OF MEN. THEN CAPITAL PRACTICALLY FURNISHES ITSELF AND REQUIRES VERY LITTLE INDUCEMENT. IT IS THERE AND THERE IN ABUNDANCE. THIS IS THE SITUATION WHICH WE SEE TODAY., THE REAL PROBLEM OF BANKING AND FINANCE IS WHAT TO DO WITH EXISTENT CAPITAL AND NOT HOW TO GET HOLD OF MORE. THE PROBLEM OF THE OWNERS OF CAPITAL IS NOT ONE OF SACRIFICE, IT IS ONE OF THE MOST EFFICIENT USE, AND THE RETURNS OF INDUSTRY ARE LOGICALLY TODAY TO BE DIVIDED BETWEEN DIFFERENT CLASSES OF WORKERS AND NOT BETWEEN A CLASS OF WORKERS AND THE CLASS OF PEOPLE WHO SIMPLY FURNISH CAPITAL. THE WORK GIVEN IS OF ALL SORTS, THE WORK OF PLANNING AND FORCASTING, THE WORK OF MANAGING THE WORK OF ENGINEERING AS WELL AS THE MANUAL LABOR. THIS IS OF COURSE, AS IT SHOULD BE, IT IS THE TYPE OF COOPERATION IN HUMAN EFFORT WHICH THE WHOLE INDUSTRIAL ORGANIZATION FORESHADOWS AND PRESUMES.

THEN AG IN WE HAVE CURIOUS DICHOTOMY AND CONTRADICTION IN THE MATTER OF IMPORTS AND EXPORTS AS PART OF CONSUMPTION AND PRODUCTION. THERE IS A GENERAL IMPRESSION THAT OUR INTEREST IS IN THE GOODS THAT WE SELL FOREIGNERS AND NOT IN THE GOODS WHICH WE IMPORT: THAT IF WE COULD SO ARRANGE IT AS TO IMPORT VERY LITTLE AND SELL A GREAT DEAL WE WOULD BECOME RICH AND PROSPEROUS.

THIS OF COURSE IS A FANTASTIC ERROR. IF WE DO NOT IMPORT THINGS WE CANNOT EXPORT OTHERS BECAUSE THERE IS NO INTERNATIONAL MONEY AND EXPORTS AND IMPORTS IN THE LONG RUN MUST PAY FOR EACH OTHER, MOREOVER, IF WE IMPORT GOODS AND IF OUR CONSUMPTION IS RATIONALLY ORGANIZED THEN WE ARE IMPORTING SOMETHING THAT WE NEED AND CANNOT EASILY FURNISH OURSELVES: AND ON THE OTHER HAND THE THINGS WHICH WE EXPORT ARE THE THINGS WHICH WE DO NOT NEED OURSELVES BUT WHICH WE CAN EASILY MAKE AND WHICH ARE DEMANDED ELSEWHERE.

FINALLY LET US COME TO A SET OF PHRASES VERY MUCH IN USE IN OUR DAY RATHER VAGUE IN THEIR IMPLICATIONS AND FOR THAT REASON PERHAPS, THE MOST DANGEROUS SET OF PHRASES IN USE FOR COMMON UNDERSTANDING. THEY MAY BE SUMMED UP IN THESE THREE STATEMENTS: THE AMERICAN WAY OF LIFE, FREE INITIATIVE, AND INDIVIDUAL ENTERPRISE. THERE IS A SENSE IN WHICH ALL OF THESE THINGS MAKE LOGICAL MEANING. IN THE EARLY DAYS OF THE UNITED STATES A MAN WAS FREE TO WORK AT ALMOST ANYTHING HE WANTED TO WORK AT, ONCE HE COULD MAKE A LIVING AND IN SOME IF NOT IN ALL CASES HE COULD SAVE ENOUGH FOR HIS OLD AGE. OF COURSE AT NO TIME WAS THERE ANYTHING LIKE PERFECT FREEDOM AND INEVITABLE SUCCESS HERE BUT THE FIELD OF CHOICE WAS WIDE. THE AVERAGE AMERICAN HAD A CHANCE FOR INDIVIDUAL ENTERPRISE FOR DOING SOMETHING DIFFERENT FROM WHAT OTHER PEOPLE HAD DONE AND DOING IT A NEW WAY.

WE CALLED THIS YANKEE THRIFT AND WROTE HORATIO ALGER STORIES ON THE SUCCESS THAT CAME TO MANY PEOPLE IN THIS WAY. THIS SPELLED WHAT FOR A LONG TIME WE CONCEIVED AS THE AMERICAN WAY OF LIFE. A BOY STARTING WITH LITTLE GETTING HIS OWN EDUCATION, CHOOSING HIS WORK FOR A LIVIHOOD, GAINING SUFFICIENT FOR LIVIHOOD AND EVEN WEALTH AND DISTINCTION.

THE AMERICAN WAY OF LIFE HAS CHANGED. ITS CHANGED BECAUSE THE PIONEER HAS CAUGHT UP WITH THE FRONTIER. IT IS NOT POSSIBLE TODAY FOR EVERYBODY TO OWN GOOD FARMING LAND. IT IS NOT POSSIBLE FOR EVERYBODY TO ENTER THE KIND OF WORK WHICH HE MAY CHOOSE. LET ME ILLUSTRATE THIS BY ONE EXAMPLE: RECENTLY THERE HAS BEEN A SCARCITY OF LOW PRICED WOMENS' HOSIERY. ONE WOULD THINK UNDER ORDINARY CIRCUMSTANCES THAT THIS GAP WOULD BE IMMEDIATELY FILLED BY ENTERPRISING YOUNG PERSONS WHO WOULD START INTO THE BUSINESS OF MAKING HOSIERY: BUT NO THE UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT IN A SUIT WHICH IT HAS RECENTLY BROUGHT SAYS; THAT THE REASON THAT THIS HOSIERY IS NOT BEING MADE IS NOT BECAUSE THERE ARE NOT PEOPLE WILLING TO MAKE IT AND EVEN TO FURNISH CAPITAL BUT BECAUSE TWO LARGE ORGANIZATIONS DOMINATE THE FIELD AND SINCE 1940 HAVE GOTTEN POSSESSION OF THE MACHINERY FOR MAKING HOSIERY AND DELIBERATELY DESTROYED IT IN ORDER TO KEEP DOWN COMPETITION. THE EFFECT OF THIS

NOW THIS IS SIMPLY ONE EXAMPLY OF MONOPOLY AND CONCENTRATION IN LARGE AREAS OF BUSINESS. I AM NOT DISCUSSING NOW THE QUESTION AS TO WHETHER THIS IS RIGHT OR WRONG: AS TO WHETHER OR NOT IS IS A GOOD THING FOR INDUSTRY AND CIVILIZATION: I AM SIMPLY SAYING THAT THIS HAS OCCURRED AND FOR US TO KEEP ON TALKING AS THOUGH THE FIELD WERE STILL FREE FOR INFIVIDUAL ENTERPRISE IS NOT TO TALK ACCORDING TO THE FACTS. THE WAY IS NOT FREE, SO THAT WE MUST FACE HTHE FACT TODAY THAT THE WORK WHICH IS OPEN TO THE HYOUNG MAN, THAT THE WORK IN WHICH NEW CAPITAL CAN BE ENGAGED, THAT THE GENERAL FIELD OF INDUSTRY WHILE NOT ENTIRELY CLOSED, IS A MUCH NARROWER FIELD THAN THE AMERICAN WORLD HAS EVER SEEN BEFORE. AND WE MUST ARRANGE OUR THINKING AND

OUR PLANNING IN ACCORDANCE WITH THIS FACT.

NEVER BEFORE IN THE HISTORY OF INDUSTRY HAS THERE BEEN SUCH CONCENTRATION OF WIDSPREAD CONTROL OVER ALL SORTS OF ENTERPRISE, ALL SORTS OF WORK, ALL SORTS OF INDUSTRIAL ORGANIZATION. IT LEAVES THE FIELD BEFORE THE INDIVIDUAL PIONEER AND THE INDIVIDAUL YOUNG MAN EXTREMELY NARROW TODAY AND HE SHOULD BE TAUGHT THIS: THIS SHOULD BE UNDERSTOOD BY THE MASS OF PEOPLE WHO ARE TALKING ABOUT INDUSTRIAL ORGANIZATION.

WHAT NOW IS THE END AND MORALE OF WHAT I HAVE SAID? IT IS THIS! THAT THE SIMPLE IDEAS OF WORK AND INCOME, OF CAPITAL, OF RICHES AND POVERTY OF PRODUCTION AND CONSUMPTION, OF IMPORTS AND EXPORTS, OF FREE INIATIVE AND THE AMERICAN WAY OF LIFE MUST BE MODIFIED TODAY BY BASIC CHANGE IN THE FACTS AND CONDITIONS WITH WHICH THEY HAVE TO DO: AND THAT UNLESS WE REALIZE THIS CHANGE AND MASTER ITS BASIC TRUTHS WE CAN NEITHER TALK OR VOTE INTELLIGENTly.

THAT MEANS TH T IF WE GO INTO A METHOD OF ACTION OR PUT MEN INTO OFFICE WHO REPRESENT CERTAIN POINTS OF VIEW: AND IF THE REASONS FOR OUR DOING THIS ARE BASED UPON AN ASSUMPTION OF FACT WHICH IS NOT TRUE, AND INDEED WHICH SOMETIMES WE KNOW IS NOT TRUE BUT NEVERTHELESS IGNORE, THAT THIS PATH IS BOUND TO LEAD TO DISASTER. ON THE OTHER HAND, IF WE ARE AWARE OF THE FACTS AND OF THE IDEAS BACK OF THE WORDS WHICH WE ARE DAILY USING ESPECIALLY THE COMMON EVERYDAY WORDS THAT HAVE TO DO WITH OUR ECONOMIC LIFE. THEN WE CAN BASE OUR ARGUMENTS UPON KNOWLEDGE AND NOT UPON ASSUMPTION, OR ON DETERMINED IGNORING OF WHAT IS THE TRUTH. IN THE LONG RUN ANY DECISION BASED UPON FACT AND FOLLOWED THROUGH WITH SEVERE LOGIC IS GOING TO BE LISTENED TO AND IS GOING TO HAVE ITS WEIGHT.

ON THE OTHER HAND, A WAY OF LIFE BAS D UPON DELIBERATE MISUNDERSTANDING OF THE BASIC FACTS OR UPON A DETERMINATION TO IGNORE THEM, OR UPON DECISIONS TAKEN BECAUSE OF OUR BIAS OR WISH AND IN DEFIANCE OF WHAT WE KNOW

IS THE TRUTH, THAT SORT OF THING IS GOING TO RUIN ANY OUNTRY AND ANY CIVILIZATION.

COLOR AND DEMOCRACY

IT HAS BEEN THE USAGE IN SCHOOLS THROUGHOUT THE WORLD DURING THE LAST HUNDRED YEARS TO LOOK UPON DEMOCRACY AS SOMETHING WHICH COULD BE PRACTISED BY THE WHITE PEOPLES OF THE WORLD BUT WAS UNSUITABLE FOR THE COLORED PEOPLES.

IT THEREFORE BECAME AXIOMATIC DURING THE LAST HALF OF THE NINETEENTH CENTURY THAT THE WHITE RACE WAS GOING TO RULE THE WORLD, AND THAT THE COLORED PEOPLES, ESPECIALLY THE BROWN AND BLACK WERE TO BE UNDER THE CONTROL OF EUROPE AND NORTH AMERICA; NOT BECAUSE OF STUDIED INHUMANITY BUT BECAUSE OF THE SCIENTIFIC FACT THAT COLORED PEOPLES DID NOT HAVE THE ABILITY TO SHARE IN MODERN CIVILIZATION AND PARTICULARLY IN MODERN POLITICAL DEMOCRACY.

THIS WAS A GREAT CHANGE IN THE ATTITUDE OF THE CIVILIZED WORLD

351-254-128

"OF ALL THE CLASSICAL COUNTRIES ETHIOPIA WAS THE MOST ROMANTIC AND THE MOST REMOTE. IT WAS SITUATED, ACCORDING TO THE GREEKS, ON THE EXTREME LIMITS OF THE WORLD; ITS INHABITANTS WERE THE MOST JUST OF MEN, AND JUPITER DINED WITH THEM TWICE A YEAR. THEY BATHED IN THE WATERS OF A VIOLET-SCENTED SPRING, WHICH ENDOWED THEM WITH LONG LIFE, NOBLE BODIES, AND GLOSSY SKINS. THEY CHAINED THEIR PRISONERS WITH GOLDEN FETTERS; THEY HAD BOWS WHICH NONE BUT THEMSELVES COULD BEND. IT IS CERTAIN THAT ETHIOPIA TOOK ITS PLACE AMONG THE POWERS OF THE ANCIENT WORLD. IT IS MENTIONED IN THE JEWISH RECORDS AND IN THE ASSYRIAN CUNEIFORM INSCRIPTIONS."

EVEN IN THE MEDIEVAL WORLD THERE WAS NO COLOR BAR. "THROUGH THIS

DEVELOPMENT IN EGYPT AND IN THE SUDAN THERE HAD GONE ON IN THE THIRTEENTH, FOURTEENTH, AND FIFTEENTH CENTURIES A SIGNIFICANT INTERCHANGE OF CULTURE BETWEEN THE EAST AND WEST THROUGH AFRICA. GREEK SCIENTISTS MADE PILGRIMAGES TO EGYPT AND ASSYRIA AND CARRIED HOME THE LORE OF YELLOW AND BLACK SAGES. AS THE GREEK-ROMAN CULTURE DECLINED, THE ARABS SEIZED INTELLECTUAL LEADERSHIP AND DEVELOPED IT IN AFRICA, MARCHING TO WESTERN ASIA AND SOUTHERN EUROPE. WITH THE CRUSADES CAME A NEW PERIOD OF INTERCOURSE BETWEEN NEGROID AFRICA AND OTHER AREAS OF CIVILIZATION.

BECAUSE OF THIS, BY THE THIRTEENTH CENTURY THE EUROPEAN WORLD LOOKED UPON THE BLACK WORLD WITH ROMANTIC RESPECT. AS EARLY AS THE FIFTH CENTURY THE LEGEND OF SAINT MOOR OCCURS: THE LEGEND OF A SAINT OF THE ROMAN CATHOLIC CHURCH WHO WAS A BLACK MAN AND WAS REPUTED TO HAVE BEEN A PRINCE IN EGYPT. IN THE TENTH CENTURY OTTO OF THE HOLY ROMAN EMPIRE CHOSE SAINT MAURITIUS AS THE PATRON SAINT OF GERMANY, AND FROM 1000 to 1500 HIS STATUES AND HIS WORSHIP WERE DOMINANT IN CENTRAL EUROPE.

A EUROPEAN KNIGHT MARRIES A BLACK QUEEN IN AFRICA AND LATER A WHITE QUEEN IN EUROPE. HE HAS SONS BY BOTH, THE COLORED, FEIREFIZ AND THE WHITE, PARSIFAL. THIS STORY OF THE CROSSING OF THE PATHS OF PARSIFAL AND FEIREFIZ IS MORE THAN A SIDE ISSUE TO THE MAIN STORY OF THE HOLY GRAIL. IT POINTS TOWARD THE BRIDGING OF THE GAPS BETWEEN CREEDS AND RACES AND IS OF GREAT SIGNIFICANCE IN REVEALING THE THOUGHT OF ENLIGHTENED AND CIVILIZED SOCIETY OF EUROPE IN THE THIRTEENTH CENTURY. THROUGHOUT THE MIDDLE AGES, IN GERMAN AND IN LATIN EUROPE, STATUES OF THE "BLACK VIRGIN MARY" AND PORTRAITS OF NEGRO SAINTS OF THE CHURCH WERE WIDLY EXHIBITED. THE STAINED GLASS OF THE CATHEDRAL AT CHARTRES ESPECIALLY ILLUSTRATES THIS.

SHAKESPEARE, WRITING TO ENTERTAIN ENGLAND IN THE LATE SIXTEENTH AND EARLY SEVENTEENTH CENTURIES PORTRAYED A BLACK MAN NOT ONLY AS A COURAGEOUS SOLDIER BUT ALSO A GREAT GENTLEMAN WHO SUED SUCCESSFULLY FOR THE HAND OF THE DAUGHTER OF A SENATOR OF THE RICHEST ITALIAN STATE: AND IN

THE MERCHANT OF VENICE, TOO, A BLACK SUITOR FOR A WHITE PRINCESS IS PORTRAYED AS NATURAL AND EQUAL.

IN THE SAME FOURTEENTH CENTURY WE SEE GROWING IN THE SUDAN THE EXPANSION OF IMPERIALISM IN BLACK AFRICA. THE MOVEMENT OF ISLAM UP THE NILE CONTINUED FROM THE MIDDLE OF THE THIRTEENTH TO THE BEGINNING OF THE NINETEENTH CENTURIES. AS A RESULT, THE BANTU TRIBES , WHICH PROBABLY HAD ORIGINALLY MOVED NORTH FROM THE GREAT LAKES TOWARD THE MEDITERRANEAN, BEGAN A COUNTERMOVEMENT PERHAPS LONG BEFORE THE ELEVENTH CENTURY.

THEY MOVED TOWARD THE WEST COAST AND THE KINGDOM OF THE CONGO, WHICH DOMINATED THE VALLEY AND FORESTS OF THE GREAT CONGO SYSTEM: THEY PRESSED UPON THE GREAT LAKES, THREATENING THE NEGROIDS AND MULATTOES ON THE EAST COAST: AND THEY FELL UPON THE CIVILIZATION OF THE MONOMOTAPA CENTERING AT ZIMBABWE. THEY OVERTHREW AND CHANGED THE CULTURE WHILE AT THE SAME TIME CONTINUING IT. THEY MARCHED ON IN A SERIES OF STOPS AND FORAYS UNTIL THEY REACHED SOUTH AFRICA AT THE BEGINNING OF THE NINETEENTH CENTURY. WHY NOW HAD THERE COME IN THE MODERN WORLD THIS MONENTEOUS CHANGE OF ATTITUDE BASED ON COLOR AND RACE. ONE OF THE CHIEF CAUSES WHICH THUS DISTORTED THE DEVELOPMENT OF EUROPE WAS THE AFRICAN SLAVE TRADE, AND WE HAVE TRIED TO REWRITE ITS HISTORY AND MEANING AND TO MAKE IT OCCUPY A MUSH LESS IMPORTANT PLACE IN THE WORLD'S HISTORY THAN IT DESERVES.

THE RESULT OF THE AFRICAN SLAVE TRADE AND SLAVERY ON THE EUROPEAN MIND AND CULTURE WAS TO DEGRADE THE POSITION OF LABOR AND THE RESPECT FOR HUMANITY AS SUCH. NOT, GOD KNOWS THAT THE ANCIENT WORLD HONORED LABOR. WITH EXCEPTIONS HERE AND THERE, IT DESPISED , ENSLAVED, AND CRUCIFIED HUMAN TOIL.

BUT THERE WERE COUNTER CURRENTS, AND WITH THE RENAISSANCE IN EUROPE--THAT NEW LIGHT WITH WHICH ASIA AND AFRICA ILLUMED THE DARK AGES OF EUROPE--CAME NEW HOPE FOR MANKIND. A NEW RELIGION OF PERSONAL

SACRIFICE HAD BEEN BUILDING ON FIVE HUNDRED YEARS OF THE SELF-EFFACEMENT OF BUDDA BEFORE THE BIRTH OF CHRIST, AND THE EQUALITARIANISM OF MOHAMMED WHICH FOLLOWED SIX HUNDRED YEARS AFTER CHRIST'S BIRTH. A NEW WORLD, SEEKING BIRTH IN EUROPE, WAS ALSO BEING DISCOVERED BEYOND THE SUNSET.

WITH THIS NEW WORLD CAME F TALLY THE AFRICAN SLAVE TRADE AND NEGRO SLAVERY IN THE AMERICAS. THERE WERE NEW CRUELTIES, NEW HATREDS OF HUMAN BEINGS, AND NEW DEGRADATIONS OF HUMAN LABOR. THE TEMPTATION TO DEGRADE HUMAN LABOR WAS MADE VASTER AND DEEPER BY THE INCREDIBLE ACCUMULATION OF WEALTH BASED ON SLAVE LABOR, BY THE BOUNDLESS GROWTH OF GREED, AND BY WORLD-WIDE ORGANIZATION FOR NEW AGRICULTURAL CROPS, NEW TECHNIQUES IN INDUSTRY, AND WORLD -WIDE TRADE.

JUST AS EUROPE LURCHED FORWARD TOA NEW REALIZATION OF BEAUTY, A NEW FREEDOM OF THOUGHT AND RELIGIOUS BELIEF, A NEW DEMAND BY LABORERS TO CHOOSE THEIR WORK AND ENJOY ITS FRUIT, UNCURBED GREED ROSE TO SEIZE AND MONOPOLIZE THE UNCOUNTED TREASURE OF THE FRUIT OF LABOR.

LABOR WAS DEGRADED, HUMANITY WAS DESPISED, THE THEORY OF "RACE" AROSE. THERE CAME A NEW DOCTRINE OF UNIVERSAL LABOR: MANKIND WERE OF TWO SORTS--THE SUPERIOR AND THE INFERIOR: THE INFERIOR TOILED FOR THE SUPERIOR: AND THE SUPERIOR WERE THE REAL MEN, THE INFERIOR HALF MEN OR LESS. AMONG THE WHITE LORDS OF CREATION THERE WERE "LOWER CALSSES" RESEMBLING THE INFERIOR DARKER FOLK. WHERE POSSIBLE THEY WERE TO BE RAISED TO EQUALITY WITH THE MASTER CLASS. BUT NO EQUALITY WAS POSSIBLE OR DESIRABLE FOR "DARKIES." IN LINE WITH THIS CONVICTION, THE CHRISTIAN CHURCH, CATHOLIC AND PROTESTANT, AT FIRST DAMNED THE HEATHEN BLACKS WITH THE "CURSE OF CANAAN" THEN HELD OUT HOPE OF FREEDOM THROUGH "CONVERSION" AND FINALLY ACQUIESCED IN A PERMANENT STATUS OF HUMAN SLAVERY.

DESPITE THE FACT TH T THE NINETEENTH CENTURY SAW AN UPSURGE IN THE POWER OF LABORING CLASSES AND A FIGHT TOWARD ECONOMIC EQUALITY AND POLITICAL DEMOCRACY, THIS MOVEMENT AND BATTLE WAS MADE FIERCER AND LESS SUCCESSFUL AND LAGGED FAR BEHIND THE ACCUMULATION OF WEALTH, BECAUSE IN POPULAR OPINION LABOR WAS FUNDAMENTALLY DEGRADING AND THE JUST BURDEN OF INFERIOR PEOPLES. LUXURY AND PLENTY FOR THE FEW AND POVERTY FOR THE MANY WAS LOOKED UPON AS INEVITABLE IN THE COURSE OF NATURE. IN ADDITION TO THIS, IT WENT WITHOUT SAYING THAT THE WHITE PEOPLE OF EUROPE HAD A RIGHT TO LIVE UPON THE LABOR AND PROPERTY OF THE COLORED PEOPLES OF THE WORLD.

IN ORDER TO ESTABLISH THE RIGHTEOUSNESS OF THIS POINT OF VIEW, science and religion, GOVERNMENT AND INDUSTRY, WERE WHE LED INTO LINE. THE WORD "NEGRO" WAS USED FOR THE FIRST TIME IN THE WORLD'S HISTORY TO TIE COLOR TO RACE AND BLACKNESS TO SLAVERY AND DEGRADATION. THE WHITE RACE WAS PICTURED AS "PURE" AND SUPERIOR: THE BLACK RACE AS DIRTY, STUPID, AND INEVITABLY INFERIOR: THE YELLOW RACE AS SHARING IN DECEPTION AND COWARDICE, MUCH OF THIS COLOR INFERIORITY: WHILE MIXTURE OF RACES WAS CONSIDERED THE

PRIME CAUSE OF DEGRADATION AND FAILURE IN CIVILIZATION. EVERYTHING GREAT, EVERYTHING FINE, EVERYTHING REALLY SUCCESSFUL IN HUMAN CULTURE? WAS WHITE.

IN ORDER TO PROVE THIS, EVEN BLACK PEOPLE IN INDIA AND AFRICA WERE LABELED AS "WHITE" IF THEY SHOWED ANY TRACE OF PROGRESS: AND ON THE OTHER HAND, ANY PROGRESS BY COLORED PEOPLE WAS ATTRIBUTED TO SOME INTER-MIXTURE ANCIENT OR MODERN, OF WHITE BLOOD OR SOME INFLUENCE OF WHITE CIVILIZATION.

THIS LOGICAL CONTRADICTION INFLUENCED AND MISLED SCIENCE. THE SAME PERSON DECLARED THAT MULATTOES WERE INFERIOR AND WARNED AGAINST MISCEGENATION AND YET ATTRIBUTED THE PRE-EMINENCE OF A DUMAS, A FREDERICK DOUGLAS, A BOOKER WASHINGTON TO THEIR WHITE BLOOD.

A SYSTEM AT FIRST CONSCIOUS AND THEN UNCONSCIOUS OF LYING ABOUT HISTORY AND DISTORTING IT TO THE DISADVANTAGE OF THE NEGROIDS BECAME SO WIDESPREAD THAT THE HISTORY OF AFRICA CEASED TO BE TAUGHT, THE COLOR OF

MEMNON WAS FORGOTTEN, AND EVERY EFFORT WAS MADE IN ARCHEOLOGY, HISTORY AND BIOGRAPHY, IN BIOLOGY, PSYCHOLOGY, AND SOCIOLOGY, TO PROVE THE ALL BUT UNIVERSAL ASSUMPTION THAT THE COLOR LINE HAD A SCIENTIFIC BASIS.

WITHOUT THE WINKING OF AN EYE, PRINTING, GUNPOWDER, THE SMELTING OF IRON, THE BEGINNING OF SOCIAL ORGANIZATION, NOT TO MENTION POLITICAL LIFE AND DEMOCRACY, WERE ATTRUBUTED EXCLUSIVELY TO THE WHITE RACE AND TO NORDIC EUROPE. RELIGION SIGNED WITH RELIEF WHEN IT COULD BASE ITS DENIAL OF THE ETHICS OF CHRIST AND THE BROTHERHOOD OF MEN UPON THE SCIENCE OF DARWIN, GOBINEAU, AND REISNER.

IT WAS BAD ENOUGH IN ALL CONSCIENCE TO HAVE THE CONSEQUENCES OF THIS THOUGHT, THESE SCIENTIFIC CONCLUSIONS AND ETHICAL SANCTIONS, FALL UPON COLORED PEOPLE THE WORLD OVER: BUT IN THE END IT WAS EVEN WORSE WHEN ONE CONSIDERS WHAT THIS ATTITUDE DID TO THE EUROPEAN WORKER. HIS AIM AND IDEAL WAS DISTORTED. HE DID NOT WISH TO BECOME EFFICIENT BUT RICH. HE BEGAN TO WANT NOT COMFORT FOR ALL MEN, BUT POWER OVER OTHER MEN FOR HIMSELF. HE

DID NOT LOVE HUMANITY AND HE HATED "NIGGERS". WHEN OUR HIGH COMMISSIONER AFTER THE SPANISH WAR APPEALED TO AMERICA ON BEHALF OF "OUR LITTLE BROWN BROTHER," THE WHITE WORKERS REPLIED,

"HE MAY BE A BROTHER OF WILLIAM H. TAFT,
BUT HE AIN'T NO BROTHER OF MINE."

FOLLOWING THE EARLY CHRISTIAN COMMUNISM AND SENSE OF HUMAN BROTHERHOOD WHICH BEGAN TO GROW IN THE DARK AGES AND TO BLOSSOM IN THE RENAISSANCE THERE CAME TO WHITE WORKERS IN ENGLAND, FRANCE , AND GERMANY THE IRON LAW OF WAGES, THE POPULATION DOCTRINES OF MALTHUS, AND THE BITTER FIGHT AGAINST THE EARLY TRADE UNIONS. THE FIRST EFFORTS AT EDUCATION, AND PARTICULARLY THE TREND TOWARD POLITICAL DEMOCRACY, AROUSED AN ANTAGONISM OF WHICH THE FRENCH REVOLUTION DID NOT DREAM.

IT WAS THIS BITTER FIGHT THAT EXACERBATED THE CLASS STRUGGLE AND

RESULTED IN THE FIRST FURIOUS EXPRESSION OF COMMUNISM AND THE ATTEMPT AT REVOLUTION. THE UNITY OF APPRENTICE AND MASTER, THE CHRISTIAN SYMPATHY BETWEEN RICH AND POOR, THE COMMUNISM OF MEDIEVAL CHARITY, ALL WERE THRUST INTO THE NEW STRAIT JACKET OF THOUGHT: POVERTY WAS THE RESULT OF SLOTH AND C CRIME: WEALTH WAS THE REWARD OF VIRTUE AND WORK. THE DEGRADED YELLOW AND BLACK PEOPLES WERE IN THE PLACES WHICH THE WORLD OF NECESSITY ASSIGNED TO THE INFERIOR: AND TOWARD THESE LOWER RANKS THE WORKING CLASSES OF ALL COUNTRIES TENDED TO SINK SAVE AS THEY WERE RAISED AND SUPPORTED BY THE RICH, THE INVESTORS, THE CAPTAINS OF INDUSTRY.

THERE CAME ONE CURIOUS INTERRUPTION IN THIS GROWING UNIVERSAL ATTITUDE TOWARD THE COLORED RACES AND THAT WAS THE CIVIL WAR IN THE UNITED STATES WHICH ABOLISHED SLAVERY. THIS WAS A BLOW TO THE SOUTHERN CONCEPT OF A SLAVE EMPIRE AND OF THE REDUCTION OF THE EFFECTIVE WORKING FORCES TO A SLAVE STATUS. NOT ONLY WERE THE SLAVES FREE BUT THEY WERE MADE CITIZENS OF THE UNITED STATES AND GIVEN THE RIGHT TO VOTE.

BEGINNING IN 1876 THIS RIGHT TO VOTE WAS NULLIFIED BY MOB VIOLENCE AND ILLEGAL MEANS AND THEN BY MORE LEGAL METHODS. BUT IT MUST BE REMEMBERED THAT THIS DISFRANCHISEMENT OF THE NEGRO VOTER RESTED UPON TWO FACTS: FIRST UPON THE FACT THAT COLORED PEOPLE THROUGHOUT THE WORLD WERE BEGINNING TO BE SUBJECTED TO COLONIAL IMPERIALISM AND THAT THEREFORE WE WERE TRYING IN THE UNITED STATES TO GO AGAINST THE MODERN INDUSTRIAL IMPERIALISM.

IN THE SECOND PLACE THE AMERICAN NEGRO IN THE SOUTH DESPITE HIS POVERTY AND IGNORANCE WAS THINKING IN EXTRAORDINARY STRIDES, THE GOVERNMENT DID NOT COLLAPSE , ON THE CONTRARY THE GOVERNMENT IN THE SOUTH TODAY IS STILL LARGELY BASED UPON THE WORK THAT LEGISLATURERS, IN THE RECONSTRUCTION DAYS WITH A LARGE PORPORTION OF BLACK MEMBERSHIP DID. THESE RECONSTRUCTION LEGISLATURES ESTABLISHED A PUBLIC SCHOOL SYSTEM WHICH HAD NEVER EXISTED IN THE SOUTH BEFORE. THEY BEGAN A SOCIAL LEGISLATION

THEY TRIED TO DISTRIBUTE LAND AND BREAK UP THE SLAVE HOLDERS MONOPOLY AND THEY WERE FORCED OUT OF GOVERNMENT BY REACTION WHICH WAS AFRAID, NOT ONLY OF THE RISE AND POLITICAL POWER OF BLACK LABOR IN THE SOUTH, BUT THE NEW LABOR UNIONS OF WHITE LABORERS IN THE NORTH: THUS FROM 1875 TO 1918 WE COME TO THE RULE IN THE WORLD OF COLONIAL IMPERIALISM, BASED UPON FOUR PRINCIPLES: FIRST, RULERSHIP IN THE HANDS OF WHITE PEOPLES, SECONDLY NO POLITICAL POWER FOR COLORED PEOPLE, THIRD, LAND MONOPOLY AND LABOR SERFDOM FOR COLORED LABORERS AND FOURTH, LIMITED EDUCATION FOR COLORED PEOPLE DESIGNED TO MAKE THEM MORE EFFICIENT WORKERS AND NOT TO TAKE PART IN MODREN CIVILIZATION.

THERE WAS NOT A SINGLE YEAR DURING THE NINETEENTH CENTURY WHEN THE WORLD WAS NOT AT WAR. CHIEFLY, BUT NOT ENTIRELY, THESE WARS WERE WAGED TO SUBJUGATE COLONIAL PEOPLES. THEY WERE CARRIED ON BY EUROPEANS AND AT LEAST ONE HUNDRED AND FIFTY SEPARATE WARS CAN BE COUNTED DURING THE HEYDAY OF THE PEACE MOVEMENT. WHAT THE PEACE MOVEMENTS REALLY MEANT WAS PEACE IN EUROPE AND BETWEEN EUROPEANS, WHILE FOR THE CONQUEST OF THE WORLD AND BECAUSE OF THE SUSPICION WHICH THEY HELD TOWARD EACH OTHER, EVERY NATION MAINTAINED A STANDING ARMY WHICH STEADILY GREW IN COST AND MENACE.

AS ONE OF DE GAULLES CLOSEST ADVISERS SAY: "THE COLONIAL PHASE OF WORLD HISTORY IS OVER. THIS IS NOT ONLY A RESULT OF THE CHANGE IN RELATIVE MILITARY STRENGTH OF IMPERIALIST COUNTRIES AND COLONIES.

"IN THE EIGHTEENTH CENTURY THE ARMS OF CLIVE OF INDIA WERE NOT SO INCREDIBLY SUPERIOR TO THOSE OF THE INDIAN NATIVES. HOWEVER, AT

THAT TIME THE IMPERIAL NATIONS HAD A GREAT MORAL ADVANTAGE. THEY WERE CONVINCED THAT THEY WERE SPREADING CIVILIZATION. AND THEY WERE ALSO CONVINCED OF THE RIGHTEOUSNESS OF THEIR CONQUESTS.

35-1-136

"BUT THE SATISFACTION OF CERTAINTY HAS VANISHED IN THE GREAT EMPIRES: HOW CAN A GOVERNMENT IN LONDON, WHICH CANNOT PREVENT A STRIKE, EXPECT TO HOLD ON TO INDIA? OR HOW CAN A GOVERNMENT IN PARIS, WHICH CANNOT EVEN AVOID INTERNAL CHAOS, EXPECT TO HOLD ON TO INDO-CHINA? WHAT NOW CAN BE DONE FOR THE COLORED PEOPLES OF THE WORLD AND FOR ALL COLONIAL PEOPLE?

THOSE PEOPLE WHO, IN ONE WAY OR ANOTHER, HAVE COME UNDER THE OWNERSHIP AND CONTROL OF EUROPE HAVE FOR 550 YEARS BEEN USED TO BOLSTER AND ADVANCE THE PROGRESS OF EUROPE REGARDLESS OF THE COST TO COLONIAL PEOPLES IN BLOOD, SUFFERING, POVERTY, IGNORANCE AND DISEASE. IN FACT THE VERY POLICIES THAT BROUGHT ABOUT THE COLLAPSE OF EUROPE IN THE THIRTIES AND FORTIES OF THIS CENTURY WERE ALREADY THE CAUSE OF COLONIAL DISTRESS AND MADE COLONIAL PEOPLES DOUBLE VICTIMS OF THE MODERN AGE OF CAPITALISM.

THESE POLICIES AND BELIEFS WERE THE SELF-REGULATING WORLD MARKET DEPENDING ON LABOR AS A COMMODITY, LAND AS PRIVATE PROPERTY, AND MONEY AS GOLD. THROUGH COLONIES, LABOR WAS FIRST REDUCED TO CHATTEL SLAVERY THEN TO SERFDOM. WHILE SERF COMPETITION REDUCED WHITE EUROPEAN LABOR TO WAGE SLAVERY IN SLUMS, SEIZURE OF LAND AND NATURAL RESOURCES IN COLONIES, REENFORCED MONOPOLY OF LAND AND NATURAL RESOURCES AND MONOPOLY OF CAPITAL AND TECHNIQUE IN EUROPE AND AMERICA: BUT THE MASSES OF EUROPE AND AMERICA ACQUIRED ENOUGH POLITICAL POWER TO FIGHT FOR SOME RIGHTS WHILE THE COLONIALS BEREFT OF NEARLY ALL POWER OF RESISTANCE SANK INTO MODERN POVERTY, DISEASE AND IGNORANCE AND SERVED TO REINFORCE THE RULE OF CORPORATE WEALTH IN THE MODERN CIVILIZED WORLD.

RELIGION AND PHILANTHROPY MITIGATED SOME OF THE WORST RESULTS OF THIS SYSTEM, BUT DID NOT CURE IT AND INDEED HELPED THE EVENTUAL DISASTER IN THE WHOLE WORLD BY DISTRACTING ATTENTION FROM THE KERNEL OF THE EVIL.

JUST AS WE NOW BEGIN TO REALIZE, THAT WE CAN NO LONGER CARRY ON INDUSTRY MAINLY FOR PRIVATE PROFIT IN THE CIVILIZED WORLD BUT MUST MAKE PRODUCTION FOR USE OUR AIM AND DISTRIBUTION ACCORDING TO NEED OUR IDEAL, JUST SO, FOR THE REHABILITATION OF THE VAST NUMBERS OF MEN WHO LIVE IN COLONIAL REGIONS THE FIRST STEP IN REFORM MUST BE THE REMOVAL OF FOREIGN PROFIT AS THE MAIN OBJECT OF COLONIAL ADMINISTRATION. ATTEMPTS HAVE RECENTLY BEEN MADE IN HIGH PLACES TO DENY THAT COLONIES HAVE BEEN PROFITABLE OR THAT THE MAIN OBJECT OF MODERN IMPERIALISM HAS BEEN WEALTH FROM THE COLONIES FOR THE SUPPORT AND LUXURY OF COUNTRIES LIKE ENGLAND, FRANCE AND SPAIN. THIS ARGUMENT IS , AT BEST , SELF-DECEPTION AND AT WORST, DELIBERATE LYING. GREAT BRITAIN, FRANCE, BELGIUM AND PORTUGAL WERE NOT AND ARE NOT IN AFRICA AND ASIA FOR THEIR HEALTH OR FOR THE GREATER GLORY OF GOD. BUT PRIMARILY FOR THE PROFIT DERIVED FROM SLAVES, IVORY, GOLD, DIAMONDS, COPPER, COCOA, PALM OIL AND A HUNDRED OTHER MATERIALS, HUMAN, VEGETABLE AND MINERAL, UPON WHICH MODERN WEALTH AND POWER ARE BUILT. TO DENY THIS IS

35-1-137

TO TALK NONSENSE.

HERE THEN IS INDICATED THE FIRST STEP TOWARD REFORM. IT MUST BE MADE IMMORAL AND ILLEGAL FOR ANY NATION TO BE ABLE TO CONTROL THE LAND, RESOURCES AND LABOR OF ANOTHER PEOPLE FOR THE MAIN OBJECT OF THE WELL-BEING OF THE DOMINANT COUNTRY.

IT IS TRUE THAT PROFIT ANF PROGRESS MAY OFTEN GO HAND IN HAND, BUT WE ALL KNOW THAT WHEN THE PROFIT OF INVESTORS IN ENGLISH, BELGIUM, FRENCH OR AMERICAN COLONIES IS THREATENED BY EDUCATION OF THE MASSES SELF-GOVERNMENT OR HIGH WAGES, PROFIT NOT WELFARE REMAINS THE PARAMOUNT CONCERN AND NOT THE INTERESTS OF COLONIAL PEOPLES. THUS IT IS CLEAR THAT THE FIRST AND FUNDAMENTAL STEP TO COLONIAL REFORM MUST BE THE REMOVAL OF THE DOMINANT PROFIT MOTIFS IN COLONIAL ADMINISTRATION.

ONCE THE PRIMARY AND DOMINANT PROFIT MOTIF IS SUBORDINATED TO THE INTERESTS OF THE NATIVE POPULATION, ONCE THE WORLD COMES TO REALIZE THAT THE SO-CALLED "BACKWARD PEOPLES" CAN WITH EDUCATION EASILY BE RAISED TO THE AVERAGE OF THE CIVILIZED, HALF THE BATTLE IS WON. AS IT IS, WE LOOK ON THE EDUCATED NATIVE AS AN UNUSUAL PHENOMENON RATHER THAN AN AVERAGE MAN WHO HAS BEEN GIVEN OPPORTUNITY DENIED TO MILLIONS OF HIS FELLOWS WHO COULD EASILY HAVE PARRELLELLED HIS ACCOMPLISHMENT. HE BY CHANCE HAS ESCAPED 99% OF HIS EQUALLY GIFTED FELLOWS ARE STILL IN CHAINS. WHAT IS THUS TRUE IN COLONIES, DIFFERS ONLY IN DEGREE WITH WHAT IS HAPPENING TO THE WORKING CLASS IN EUROPE AND AMERICA. THERE IS NO REASON IN SCIENCE OR ETHICS WHY TODAY THE VAST MAJORITY OF MEN SHOULD NOT BE INTELLIGENT AND HEALTHY SAVE ALONE THE SELFISHNESS AND GREED OF A HANDFUL OF THEIR FELLOWS.

BUT IT IS CONTINUALLY OBJECTED WHENCE WILL COME THE LARGE FUNDS NECESSARY TO EDUCATE THESE MILLIONS? THE ANSWER IS CLEAR: THE DIAMONDS

GOLD AND COPPER OF AFRICA COULD EASILY PAY THE REASONABLE COST OF PRODUCTION AND LEAVE ENOUGH TO EDUCATE AFRICANS PROVIDED THE COST OF CAPITAL SALARIES AND PROFIT WERE NOT HELD SO HIGH. THE NATIVE STATE, SHOULD AIM TO OWN THIS CAPITAL AND NO PROFIT SHOULD GO TO THE IMPERIAL COUNTRY.

CAPITAL, ACCORDING TO THE CLASSICAL THEORY, COMPRISES THE MACHINES AND MATERIALS USED IN PRODUCTION BUT WHILE LABOR AS A COMMODITY IS PAID ACCORDING TO ITS MARKET PRICE WITH NO FLOOR TO THAT PRICE SAVE THE COST OF REPRODUCTION OF THE SPECIES THE PRICE OF CAPITAL IS FIXED BY THE CAPITALISTS POWER AND DEMANDS WHICH ARE PRACTICALLY UNLIMITED IN REGIONS WHERE WAGES AND CONDITIONS OF WORK CAN BE PUSHED DOWN TO THE LOWEST DEPTHS.

CLEARLY HERE GOVERNMENT MUST STEP IN TO PROTECT THE COLONIAL WORKER FROM THE HIGH COST OF CAPITAL MADE HIGHER BY SERFDOM OF LABOR MONOPOLY OF MATERIALS AND PATENTED TECHNIQUE. THE CHARGE FOR CAPITAL IN COLONIES SHOULD BE DRASTICALLY SCALED DOWN AND IN SOME CASES CAPITAL SHOULD BE COMPLETELY CONFISCATED WHERE IT HAS REPAID ITSELF MANY TIMES OVER. T IS ACTION IN THE PRESENT ABUNDANCE OF CAPITAL SEEKING USE WOULD LEAVE AMPLE REVENUE FOR CIVILIZED WAGES AND SOCIAL REVENUE FOR EDUCATION, HEALTH AND RECREATION.

IT IS EXACTLY THIS PROCEDURE WHICH IS PROVIDING INCOME FOR HIGH WAGE AND SOCIAL UPLIFT IN CIVILIZED LANDS. ALSO FOR THESE VERY REASONS CAPITSL SEEKS TO FORSAKE ITS TAXATION AND REGULATION IN CULTURE LANDS FOR THE EXCESSIVE PROFIT POSSIBLE IN COLONIES---COMPLETING A VICIOUS CIRCLE. ONCE THE WAY OPENS AND INFLATED RETURNS TO CAPITAL ARE CUT DOWN THERE REMAINS NO OBJECTION TO INTERNATIONAL CONTROL. WE MAY THEN PROCEED TO THE ORGANIZATION OF WORK AND WAGE IN COLONIES. WE CAN SCIENTIFICALLY RESTORE ANCIENT CULTURAL ECONOMY WITH ITS FAMILY CONTROL OF WORK AND WEALTH MODIFIED, AS IT MUST BE, BY MODERN KNOWLEDGE. EDUCATION WILL BE PLANNED NOT FOR ITS VALUE IN INCREASING THE PROFIT OF INVESTORS NOR FOR SUPPRESSING COMPLAINT

AND FREE SPEECH BUT FOR LETTING IGNORANT PEOPLE KNOW WHAT SCIENCE HAS LEARNED IN THE LAST TWO CENTURIES WHILE THE COLONIAL PEOPLES HAVE BEEN SUPPRESSED.

THIS PROGRAM WILL BE DIFFICULT. ALL EDUCATION IS DIFFICULT AND DANGEROUS. BUT IGNORANCE IS EVEN MORE DANGEROUS. NEXT THE FIGHT AGAINST DISEASE MUST BE WAGED NOT SIMPLY TO SAFEGUARD THE HEALTH OF WHITE RESIDENT RULERS BUT TO RESTORE THE HEALTH AND VITALITY OF THE FORMER MAGNIFICENT PHYSIQUE OF PRIMITIVE PEOPLES WHICH SLAVERY, STARVATION AND FOREIGN DISEASES HAVE IMPARED. WITH ALL THIS MUST GO SELF-RULE. FOR A HUNDRED YEARS THE WORLD HAS BEEN ASSURED THAT ONLY CERTAIN RACES AND CERTAIN NATIONS ARE CAPABLE OF SELF-RULE.

SCIENCE, HISTORY, TRAVELS AND ANECDOTE HAVE ASSURED US OF THE FAILURE OF SELF-GOVERNMENT IN ALL THE WORLD EXCEPT AMONG ENGLISH-SPEAKING PEOPLES AND A FEW OTHERS.

WE AMERICANS HAVE LAUGHED ENDLESSLY AT THE BIZARR ATTEMPTS OF LATINS, INDIANS AND NEGROES TO RULE THEMSELVES. IF I WERE SPEAKING IN 1847 INSTEAD OF 1947, I WOULD BE COMPELLED TO DEVOTEE MOST OF MY TIME TO ATTEMPTING TO REFUTE THIS CURIOUS ASSUMPTION.

BUT TONIGHT THAT IS QUITE UNNECESSARY. IT IS CRYSTAL CLEAR THAT NO NATION TODAY CAN BOAST OF INNATE ABILITY TO RULE ITSELF DECENTLY OR EFFICIENTLY, MUCH LESS OF ANY SUCCESSFUL ATTEMPT TO RULE OTHER PEOPLES.

DEMOCRACY HAS COLLAPSED IN THE CIVILIZED WORLD AND GOVERNMENT EVERYWHERE IS A WORLD DISASTER. THE NATION TODAY WHICH BOASTS OF ITS SUCCESS IN GOVERNMENT IS A LAUGHING STOCK. GOVERNMENT HAS FAILED BECAUSE NOT CONTENT WITH RULING ITSELF EACH NATION, WHERE POSSIBLE, HAS ATTEMPTED TO RULE OTHERS.

THE EFFORT HAS FAILED IN TWO WORLD WARS. WE HAVE NOW TO RETREAT TO HOME RULE TO AN EFFORT TO SEE IF WE CAN REALIZE DEMOCRACY HERE IN THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, IN ENGLAND, IN FRANCE. WE HAVE GOT TO LET THE

"LESSER BREEDS WITHOUT THE LAW" RULE THEMSELVES A WHILE, INSTEAD OF BEING RULED FROM LONDON , WASHINGTON OR PARIS.

35-1-141

NOR IS THERE ANY VALID PROOF THAT THE DARKER PEOPLE IN THEIR ATTEMPTS TO RULE HAVE BEEN LESS SUCCESSFUL THAN WHITE. BRYCE, WHO STUDIED DEMOCRACY IN EUROPE AND AMERICA, FOUND EQUALLY SUCCESSFUL DEMOCRATIC ASSEMBLIES IN SOUTH AFRICA. IT IS DE LA FOSSE WHO AFFIRMS, AFTER LONG STUDY OF THE SUDAN, THAT THE CULTURES OF EUROPE AND AFRICA ARE DIFFERENT BUT THAT THE DIFFERENCE IS NOT OF SUPERIOR OR INFERIOR ABILITY. IT MAY YET BE PROVEN TRUE THAT AFRICAN LAND CONTROL WAS AND IS SUPERIOR TO AMERICAN. AFRICAN FAMILY LIFE MAY UNDULY RESTRAIN YOUTH BUT IT RAISES NEITHER BEGGARS NOR PROSTITUTES.

MANY WILL POINT TO INDIA TODAY AS ILLUSTRATING WHAT COLONIAL EMANCIPATION WILL MEAN. THERE CAN BE NO DOUBT THAT THE PATH TO FREEDOM FOR THE COLORED PEOPLES WILL BE AS THORNY AS THAT OF THE WHITES IN THE PAST. BUT WE MUST LET NOT SENSATIONAL NEWSPAPER DISPATCHES WHOLLY MISLEAD US.

A FORMER MAYOR OF BOMBAY SAID RECENTLY: "IT WOULD TAKE A GENERATION TO ACHIEVE A UNITED INDIA. HE POINTED OUT, HOWEVER, THAT EXCEPT FOR KASHMIR AND THE PUNJAB, THE REMAINDER OF INDIA IS AT PEACE, ALTHOUGH UNDER SOME TENSION.

"THERE, HE SAID, SOME 40,000,000 MOSLEMS DWELL WITHOUT VIOLENCE AMID A PREPONDERANTLY HINDU POPULATION. ALL ELEMENTS SEEK TO COPE WITH DIRE FOOD SHORTAGES, HE ADDED, WHILE VIOLENCE IS GIVING A BAD NAME TO INDIA, HE SAID, IT IS IMPORTANT TO REALIZE THAT SIDE BY SIDE MANY SIGNIFICANT DEVELOPMENTS ARE TAKING PLACE. UNTOUCHABILITY HAS BEEN OUTLAWED AND ABOLISHED, NEW SCHOOLS HAVE BEEN OPENED AND WOMEN ARE BEING LIBERATED. ILLITERACY IS BEING ATTACKED ENERGETICALLY AND CLASSES IN ADULT EDUCATION HAVE BEEN STARTED."

"INDIA'S NATIONAL PLANNING COMMISSION HAS PUSHED AHEAD FOR INDUSTRY, HE SAID, IRRIGATION PROJECTS ON A GIGANTIC SCALE HABE BEEN UNDERTAKEN.

"THE NEW LIFE IN INDIA," HE CONTINUED, "FINDS A UNIQUE EXPRESSION IN THE FIELD OF LITERATURE AND ART. THERE HAS BEEN A GREAT AWAKENING."

HERE IN THE UNITED STATES TWO DOCUMENTS HAVE RECENTLY EMPHASIZED THIS SITUATION: THE UNITED NATIONS PROPOSED IN ITS CHARTER MENTIONING THE MATTER SIX DIFFERENT TIMES: THE GUARDING OF HUMAN RIGHTS REGARDLESS OF RACE, SEX, OR CREED. LAST SPRING THEY SET UP THE HUMAN RIGHTS COMMISSION AND THIS FALL THEY PROPOSE ADDING TO THAT A SUB-COMMISSION ON DISCRIMINATION.

IN ORDER TO MAKE IT CLEAR THAT FOURTEEN MILLION AMERICANS OF NEGRO DESCENT WERE NOT SATISFIED WITH THE RIGHTS WHICH THEY WERE ENJOYING THE NAACP PREPARED A DOCUMENT, SETTING FORTH CAREFULLY BY HISTORICAL REFERENCE AND FIGURES THE CASTE SYSTEM UNDER WHICH NEGROES LIVE IN THE UNITED STATES.

THIS HAD HARDLY BEEN PRESENTED TO THE UNITED NATIONS THAN A CIVIL RIGHTS COMMITTEE APPOINTED BY THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES BROUGHT IN A REPORT WHICH SUPPORTED IN PRACTICALLY EVERY STATEMENT THE

COMPLAINT WHICH THE NAACP HAD MADE TO THE UNITED NATIONS.

THIS BRINGS THE PROBLEM OF DEMOCRACY BEFORE THE NATION, MORE CLEARLY THAN IT HAS EVER BEEN BROUGHT BEFORE. THE QUESTION WHICH YOU AND I HAVE TO SETTLE IS THIS: CAN WE ENVISION AND DO WE WANT A DEMOCRACY WHERE THE RIGHTS OF ALL CITIZENS ARE EQUAL? IT IS NOT NECESSARY TO IMPEDE THIS CLEAR STATEMENT BY THE TRITE REMARK THAT ALL PEOPLE ARE NOT AND PROBABLY NEVER WILL BE EQUAL AND SIMILIAR IN THEIR ABILITIES, THEIR GIFTS AND THEIR ACCOMPLISHMENTS. THE PROBLEM WHICH IS NOW PROPOSED IS A PROBLEM OF LEGAL RIGHTS TO RECOGNIZED POLITICAL, CIVIL AND SOCIAL RIGHTS FOR EVERY CITIZEN.

IT MUST BE ADMITTED THAT MOST PEOPLE DO NOT BELIEVE IN ANYTHING OF THE SORT: EVEN THOSE WHO HAVE BEEN LOOSELY TALKING OF THEIR BELIEF IN DEMOCRACY ALL THEIR LIVES. THEY CANNOT CONCEIVE A SITUATION WHERE THERE IS NOT SECOND CLASS CITIZENSHIP: SOME PEOPLE ARE COMPELLED TO DO THE UNPLEASANT AND MOST TIRESOME WORK OF THE WORLD BECAUSE THEY ARE POOR.

THE GREATEST COMPLAINT THAT HAS BEEN MADE OF THE UNUSUAL DEMAND FOR LABOR AND HIGH WAGES DURING THE LAST WAR, WAS THAT VOICED BY WOMEN AT THE HEAD OF THE BETTER CLASS HOUSEHOLDS WHO COULD NOT GET DOMESTIC SERVICE AT THE PRICE WHICH THEY WISHED, AND WERE HIGHLY IN FAVOR OF A SITUATION WHERE A LARGER NUMBER OF PEOPLE WOULD BE SO POOR THAT THEY WOULD HAVE TO BECOME AND REMAIN DEOMESTIC SERVANTS.

TO THESE PEOPLE AND TO OTHERS THINKING OF THE HIRING OF CHEAP LABOR SO AS TO HAVE HIGH PROFITS, A DEMOCRACY WHICH DID NOT CONTAIN A LARGE NUMBER IF NOT A MAJORITY OF PEOPLE WHOSE INCOME WAS TOO SMALL FOR DECENT LIVING WOULD NOT BE WELCOME. THEY WOULD SAY FRANKLY THAT IT WOULD NOT WORK, AND THAT IT OUGHT NOT TO BE ALLOWED TO WORK IF IT COULD. OUR WHOLE CONCEPTION OF DEMOCRACY IS CONTRADICTED BY OUR CLEAR RELIANCE UPON SELECT GROUPS WITH SPECIAL PRIVILEGES: SELCET NEIGHBORHOODS WHERE THE SO-CALLED BETTER PEOPLE LIVE: SELECT SCHOOLS WHERE THE UPPER CLASS GET THEIR EDUCATION: A SELECTION OF INCOMES WHICH GIVES TO CERTAIN PEOPLE MORE THAN

THEY CAN POSSIBLY SPEND AND TO MOST PEOPLE LESS THAN THEY OUGHT TO SPEND.

AS I HAVE SAID, PEOPLE WHO HAVE BEEN VOLUBLE AND EMPHATIC IN THEIR DEFENSE OF DEMOCRACY, MEAN BY THAT DEMOCRACY A GOVERNMENT BASED UPON PERMANENT DISTINCTIONS BETWEEN THE RICH AND THE POOR, BETWEEN THE BLACK AND WHITE: BETWEEN THE NATIVES AND FOREIGNERS. THE TIME HAS NOW COME WHEN THESE PEOPLE MUST COME OUT IN THE OPEN AND DEFEND THEIR STAND. ARE THEY IN FAVOR OF DEMOCRACY OR ARE THEY IN FAVOR OF OLIGARCHY BASED UPON WEALTH AND DESCENT, AND TO A LARGE DEGREE UPON SEX AND RELIGION? THESE PEOPLE HAVE GOT TO FACE THE REAL ARGUMENT FOR DEMOCRACY WHICH IS SELDOM STRESSED. THE ARGUMENT FOR DEMOCRACY BASES ITSELF UPON MUCH OF THAT VERY THEORY OF EVOLUTION WHICH WAS MISCONCEIVED AND MISINTERPRETED TO UPHOLD THE COLOR LINE.

WE OUGHT TO HAVE LEARNED THAT DIVERSITY IN ITSELF IS A SOURCE OF WISDOM: THAT DIFFERENCE IS A CLEAR WAY TO KNOWLEDGE: THAT ABSOLUTE UNIFORMITY IS RETROGRESSION. THAT COMPROMISE IS NATURAL SELECTION AND THAT

SURRENDER IS DEATH. IN OTHER WORDS WHAT DEMOCRACY SAYS TO THE WORLD IF IT SPEAKS HONESTLY IS, THAT WHEN YOU OPEN OPPORTUNITY FOR DECENT LIFE AND EQUAL RIGHTS TO THE MASS OF MEN, YOU GET THEN, OR ARE IN POSITION TO GET A CONTRIBUTION TO THE TOTALITY OF LIFE WHICH YOU CANNOT GET BY THE SUPPRESSION OF ABILITY AMONG NEGROES , OR AMONG THE CHILDREN OF IMMIGRANTS, OR AMONG WOMEN, OR BY SUPPRESSING THE POOR OR BY HAVING POOR IN YOUR COMMUNITY. THAT SELECTION IS THE WAY BY WHICH YOU CHOOSE THE PEOPLE FOR CERTAIN ABILITIES AND GIFTS BUT THAT IT DOES NOT MEAN THAT THE SAME PERSON IS CHOSEN FOR EVERY PRIVILEGE BY THE MERE CHANCE OF HIS BIRTH, HIS COLOR, OR HIS INCOME.

35-1-144

THE MAN WHO IS TO BE SELECTED FOR HIS KNOWLEDGE OF CHEMISTRY IS NOT NECESSAIRLY THE MAN WHO MUST ALSO BE SELECTED FOR HIS KNOWLEDGE OF SOCIOLOGY. THAT THOSE PEOPLE WHO WISH COMPANIONSHIP, SHOULD BE FREE TO CHOOSE IT, BUT NOT FREE TO DENY THE SAME CHOICE TO OTHER PEOPLE: THAT DEMOCRACY IS A GREAT CONCEPTION OF UNIVERSAL RIGHTS AND NOT A METHOD

BY WHICH A FEW MILLIONAIRES IN THE UNITED STATES PROPOSE TO RULE NOT ONLY THIS COUNTRY, BUT WESTERN EUROPE AND IF POSSIBLE THE WORLD.

THIS IS THE CLEAR DELEMMA BEFORE US AND IT HAS GOT TO BE ANSWERED. NO ANSWER WHICH INVOLVES SECOND CLASS CITIZENSHIP FOR ANY GROUP OF PEOPLE BECAUSE OF SEX, COLOR OR BELIEF CAN IN ANY WAY BE INTERPRETED AS ADVOCATING THE DEMOCRATIC WAY OF LIFE.

Chicago Address November 23, 1947

RUSSIA: HER DEVELOPMENT

BY

W. E. B. DU BOIS

In December 1918, I was in France. I visited the battlefields at the camp at Le Mans where they were cleaning the lice off soldiers about to return home. I saw the mud, dirt and filth, of the Argonne; the destruction and rubble at Verdun: the ruins of homes and Cathedrals near Metz; and in the black gowned figures of women passing over all France I saw the dead, the orphaned and the maimed. But I had one increasing sense of hope as I said to myself--Bad as this is--with all this death, suffering and destruction, there cannot be another war during the generation that endured this one or even among the generations that remembered that. No one who has seen this war will ever consent to another. This is the last of the great wars.

Yet before I left Paris in March 1919, there was war talk in the air: and when I reached America there was still the idea that war was inevitable. When war came again a generation after, I was certain, that the worst result of war, a result more stunning than 15 million corpses; than twice as many wounded; than broken homes and the wanton destruction of hard-earned prpperty; that worse than all these results of war, was the feeling that was was inevitable: that it must and would come again: and that the only thing to do was to prepare for war and keep prepared.

it is of course in some respects inconceivable that such a state of mind should follow upon disaster brought by war and a whole age of wars Normall we would think that a world calamity like the two last world wars, would satisfy every thinking human being that war as a method of human progress is utterly stupid: that the great ends of civilization cannot be settled by brute force or atomic fission; that the widespread belief that war always accomplishes something; and that it is the ultimate recourse to which we ever must turn, is terribly untrue. It is I am convinced a falsification of history to make it even seem true. And it certainly cannot be true for the future if the present civilization is to endure.

That there should be at all times, and particularly after such world upheaval as we have recently lived through, different ideals and proposals and paneaceas, for the good of the world, is not only inevitable it is healthy and to be expected.

If we had come out of this war, all of us agreed on just what should be done. What program should be followed, we would have a right to suspect dangerous poverty of human imagination and lack of thorough-going logic. After what has happened since 1900, there is and can be today no such absolute knowledge of facts and understanding of trends as to allow any honest human being to be dogmatic as to what is best for every nation everywhere and at all times.

If there are different ideas, different ways of examining and attacking our distracting problems certainly the way to settle them is not to fight or to plan organized murder nor to dissipate the major part of our thought, wealth, our work to planning war, it is rather through the well known met od of patient conference, and thorough thought and constant study:

It is through friendly meeting and particularly through avoiding the ~~partisanxparxenxtexwxenxyenxarexspeakingxxdeexxedxxg~~ miscellaneous calling of names and misinterpretation of motives, just because the particular person to whom you are speaking, does not agree with you immediately.

The conquest of the mind can only be complete, when there is honest effort to understand and to reveal. It is for that reason that the greatest need conceivable today in the world is friendship and conference between the Soviet Republic and the United States of America.

We cannot blame Russia for hesitating. "Russia's fear is aggravated by her memory of the past. She remembers the summer of 1919, when the armies of 14 nations, including Britain, France, China, the United States, Germany and Japan were waging war against the new Soviet union upon Soviet Soil-...

"Russia remembers the red-baiting, the articulate and open conspiracy against her among the major powers of the world which went on after Foreign Military Forces were withdrawn or driven from the Soviet Union, and the long period when she was feared and hated by all and recognized by none"..Nevertheless, the United States and Russia are both lands to which modern civilization owes much. The United States has shown what it is possible for people to accomplish when land is free and wages are above starvation level. It has shown what the human mind can do even among the so-called lower classes of society, if their possibilities are opened by education and opportunity.

On the other hand, the Soviet Republic, alone of all great modern nations has faced resolutely and determinedly the problem of poverty, that arch-cause of our two greatest disasters, disease and ignorance. It has tried and is still trying a method by which it hopes to build a land free from poverty and its sequences.

It may well be that we in America, with the success that we have had in raising the standards of labor and of living for all men and in our marvelous technical accomplishment, will not easily be induced to believe that these great visions of Russia can ever come true. And it is just as conceivable, that the Russians looking upon the rule of wealth in the United States, the treatment of 13 million citizens of Negro descent and the majority of Americans still below the line of decent living, will honestly doubt whether this program of ours is the Best possible. They may see in the American way of Life, only economic ~~xx~~ anarchy, brilliantly successful in some respects but destined to crash in ultimate disaster unless we plan our future and curb individual freedom for social welfare.

Under such circumstances, to think that war is necessary for the settlement of these two ideologies is plain insanity. It is not ~~xxxy~~ only not necessary, it is the one unthinkable thing. What each nation needs is Freedom to carry out its own ideas and to prove to the other and to the world that it is right in whole or in part. For this end there should be first: confidence, friendship and comradeship in all areas of life and activity. It is for this that we meet here today and strive with all men of good will to make recourse to war not only illegal but so repugnant to the moral sense of honest people, that men of decency and freedom may not mention it in public, nor whisper it in private.

Nor is that all: Our freindship should be not only an effort to avoid the sum of all evils--War, but to learn from each other. And we can learn. Russia has much to teach the United States and the United States has much to teach Russia as Russia has so often said. How much of frustration , loss of money, time and energy, could have been saved, and how much gained for civilization, if all of the effort put into considering differences between the United States and Russia, had been given to learning the things which these two great nations have to teach? To collaberation in methods of education: to working together for scientific research for knowledge of ways in which the distribution of wealth could be made more just, and the production of goods more efficient? No two nations in the world have so much to learn from each other as these two great leaders of modern civilization.

It is a tragedy, almost beyond words that instead of facing and urging such collaboration, we envisage only further frustration if not actual annihilation.

I have visited Russia twice,in 1928 and in 1936, at neither visit did I see all of Russia or everything that was happening. I was never in position to act as an authority on what the Russian government is or what it has accomplished. But on the other hand, I am a traveller of some experience. I have seen much of the world in two hemispheres, in many latitudes, in many countries. I have been a student of social conditions all of my life. I have known what poverty and degradation can be. I have seen people struggling upward under all conditions and with every impediment and I came out of Russia on both visits not convinced that Russia was the only country on Earth: not convinced that it was always right; not convinced that everything was well: but on the other hand, I came out believeing that Russia and its people formed in my mind and with my experience the most hopeful country upon earth.

The one country which although not without distress and where without trying to misread the facts, and in the face of hardship and even destitution was determined at any sacrifice to have a land worth living in. And if there was one thing that despite everyting else which convinecd me of the h nesty of the Russian Effort, it was the fact that they were doing a job of education such as the United States of America had never attempted, if we in America had done for the freed slaves what Russia has been doing for the freed peasants, we would have not Negro problem today. But because we deliberately messed up the effort to vive the Negroes education in order to get cheap labor, we have reached a time today when two generations after emancipation, Negro recruits in or army were at least 30% illiterate.

The Russian mass attack upon illiteracy, coupled with the work being done to abolish poverty and disease means that no matter what others think, the Russians are building a great future. Intelligence, without poverty cannot fail. Having spent an active life time, on the other hand , in w ich I have visited every state in the Union and many of them many times: in which I have studied our history and tried to interpret it, I am certain first of the tremendous possibilities still facing this country of ours, in which we have raised millions of unlikely persons of all classes and races and shown them possibilities and ideals: and I am not willing to concede that there is any reason why the United States of America should not yet become the democracy of which its greater souls have dreamed and should not be able to use our wealth and knowledge for the advance of the peoples of the world, and not for mass destruction.

Here then are two nations with marvelous possibilities and all that is needed is cooperation, understanding and good will.

CHICAGO ANNRESS NOVEMBER 23, 1947

And it is just as conceivable that the Russians looking upon the rule of wealth in the United States, the treatment of 13 million citizens of Negro descent and the millions of Americans still below the line of decent living, will honestly doubt whether this program of ours is the best possible or not. They may see in the American Way of life, only economic anarchy, brilliantly successful in some respects but destined to crash in ultimate disaster unless we plan our future and curb indinidual freedom for social welfare.

Under such circumstances, to think that war is necessary for the settleme of these two ideologies is plain insanity. It is not only not necessary, it is the one unthinkable thing. What each nation needs is the freedom to carry out its ideas and to prove to the other and to the world that it is right or partically right: and for this reason there should be first confidence, friendship and comradeship in all areas of life and activity. It is to this end that we meet here today and that we strive with all men of good will to make recourse to war not only illegal but so repugnant to the moral sense of decent people, that men of decency and freedom may not mention it in public, nor whisper it in private.

Nor is that all: Our friendship should be not only an effort to avoid the sum of all evils--war, but to learn from each other. And we can learn. Russia has much to teach the United States and the United States has much to teach Russia as Russia has so often said. How much of frustration and loss of money, time and energy, could have been saved, and how much gained for civilization, if all of the effort put into considering relations between the United States and Russia, had been given to learning the things which these two great nations have to teach? To collaberation in methods of education: To working together for scientific advance: for knowledge of ways in which the distribution of wealth could be made more just, and the production of goods more efficient? No two nations in the world have so much to learn from each other as these two great leaders of modern civilization.

It is a tragedy, almost beyond worlds that instead of facing and urging such collaberation, we envisage only further frustration if not actual annihilation.

I have visited Russia twice in 1928 and in 1936, at neither visit did

I see all of Russia or everything that was happening. I was never in a position to act as an authority on what the Russian Government is or what it has accomplished. But on the other hand, I have seen much of the world in two hemispheres, in many latitudes, in many countries. I have been a student of social conditions all of my life. I have known what poverty and degradation can be . I have seen people struggling upward under all conditions and with every impediment and I came out of Russia on both visits not convinced that Russia was the only country on earth: not convinced that it was always right: not convinced that everything was well: but on the other hand, believing that Russia and its people formed in my mind and with my experience the most hopeful country upon Earth.

The one country which was not without distress but whether wit out trying to misread the facts, and in the face of distitution, was determined at any sacrifice to have a country worth living in. And if there was one thing that despite everything else which convinced me of the honesty of the Russian effort, it was the fact that they were doing a job of education such as the United States of America never attempted. If we in America had done for the freed slaves what Russia has been doing for the freed peasants, we would have no Negro Problem today. But because we deliberately messed up the effort to give the Negroes education, Wehave reached a time today when two generations after emancipation, Negro recruits in our army were at least 30 if not 40% illiterate.

The Russian effort at mass attack upon illiteracy, coupled with the work being done to abolish poverty and disease means that no matter what others think, the Russians are facing a great future. Having spent an active life time in which I have visited every state in the United States and many of them many times: in which I have studied history and tried to interpret it, I am certain, first of the tremendous possibilities still facing this land for which we have raised millions of unlikely classes and races and shown them possibilities and ideals: and I am not willing to concede that there is any reason why the United States of America should not yet become the Democracy of which its greater souls have dreamed. And should be able to use our wealth and knowledge for the advance of peoples of the world.

Here then are two nations with marvelous possibilities and all that is needed is cooperation, understanding and good will.

AMERICAN-SOVIET FRIENDSHIP.

CHICAGO ADDRESS NOVEMBER 23, 1947

W.E.B. DuBois

IN DECEMBER 1918, I WAS IN FRANCE. IVISITED THE BATTLEFIELD IN THE ARGONNE AND THE CAMP AT LE MANS WHERE THEY WERE CLEANING THE LICE OFF OF SOLDIERS ABOUT TO RETURN HOME. I SAW THE MUD, DIRT AND FILTH: THE DESTRUCTION AND RUBBLE AT VERDUN: THE RUINS OF HOMES AND CATHEDERALS: AND IN THE BLACK GOWNED FIGURES OF WOMEN PASSING ON THE STREET I SAW THE DEAD, THE ORPHANED AND THE MAIMED. BUT I HAD ONE INCREASING SENSE OF HOPE AS I SAID TO MYSELF BAD AS THIS IS ---WITH ALL THIS DEATH, SUFFERING AND DESTRUCTION, THERE CANNOT BE ANOTHER WAR DURING THE GENERATION THAT ENDURED THIS ONE OR EVEN AMONG THE GENERATIONS THAT REMEMBER IT. NO ONE WHO HAS SEEN THIS WAR WIL EVER CONSENT TO ANOTHER. THIS IS THE LAST OF THE GREAT WARS.

YET BEFORE I LEFT PARIS THERE WAS WAR TALK IN THE AIR: AND WHEN

REACHED AMERICA THERE WAS STILL THE IDEA THAT WAR WAS INEVITABLE. WHEN WAR CAME AGAIN A GENERATION AFTER, I BECAME CERTAIN, THAT THE WORSE RESULT OF WAR, A RESULT MORE STUNNING THAN 15 MILLION CORPSES: THAN TWICE AS MANY WOUNDED: THAN BROKEN HOMES AND THE WANTON DESTRUCTION OF HARD EARNED PROPERTY: THAT WORSE THAN ALL THESE RESULTS OF WAR , WAS THE FEELING THAT WAR WAS INEVITABLE: THAT IT MUST AND WOULD COME AGAIN: AND THAT THE ONLY THING TO DO WAS TO PREPARE FOR WAR AND KEEP PREPARED.

IT IS OF COURSE IN SOME RESPECTS INCONCEIVABLE THAT SUCH A STATE OF MIND SHOULD FOLLOW UPON DISASTER BROUGHT BY WAR AND A WHOLE AGE OF WARS. NORMALLY WE WOULD THINK THAT A WORLD CALAMITY LIKE THE TWO LAST WORLD WARS, WOUDL SATISFY EVERY THINKING HUMAN BEING THAT WAR AS A METHOD OF HUMAN PROGRESS IS UTTERLY STUPID: THAT THE GREAT ENDS OF CIVILIZATION CANNOT BE SETTLED BY BRUTE FORCE OR ATOMIC FISSION: THAT IT MAY WELL BE AT SOME

STAGES OF WORLD PROGRESS AND IN SOME CONDITIONS OF OUR OWN DAY, THAT FORCE IS UNAVOIDABLE AND JUSTIFIABLE: BUT THE WIDESPREAD BELIEF THAT WAR ALWAYS ACCOMPLISHES SOMETHING: AND THAT IT IS THE ULTIMATE RECOURSE TO WHICH WE ALWAYS AND EVER MUST TURN, IS TERRIBLY UNTRUE. IT IS I AM CONVINCED A FALSIFICATION OF HISTORY TO MAKE IT EVEN SEEM TRUE. AND IT CERTAINLY CANNOT BE TRUE FOR THE FUTURE IF THE PRESENT CIVILIZATION IS TO ENDURE.

THAT THERE SHOULD BE AT ALL TIMES, AND PARTICULARLY AFTER SUCH WORLD UPHEAVAL AS WE HAVE RECENTLY LIVED THROUGH, DIFFERENT IDEALS AND PROPOSALS AND PANEACEAS, FOR THE GOOD OF THE WORLD, IS NOT ONLY INEVITABLE IT IS HEALTHY AND TO BE EXPECTED.

IF WE HAD COME OUT OF THIS WAR, ALL OF US AGREED ON JUST WHAT SHOULD BE DONE. WHAT PROGRAM SHOULD BE FOLLOWED, WE WOULD HAVE A RIGHT TO SUSPECT DANGEROUS POVERTY OF HUMAN IMAGINATION AND LACK OF THOROUGH LOGIC. AFTER WHAT HAS HAPPENED SINCE 1900, THERE IS AND CAN BE TODAY NO

SUCH ABSOLUTE KNOWLEDGE OF FACTS AND UNDERSTANDING OF TRENDS AS TO ALLOW ANY HONEST HUMAN BEING TO BE DOGMATIC AS TO WHAT IS BEST FOR EVERY NATION EVERYWHERE AND AT ALL TIMES.

AND IF THERE ARE DIFFERENT IDEAS, DIFFERENT WAYS OF EXAMINING AND ATTACKING OUR DISTRACTING PROBLEMS CERTAINLY THE WAY TO SETTLE THEM IS NOT TO FIGHT OR TO PLAN ORGANIZED MURDER OR TO DISSIPATE THE MAJOR PART OF OUR THOUGHT, WEALTH, OUR WORK TO PLANNING FOR WAR. IT IS RATHER THROUGH THE WELL KNOWN METHOD OF PATIENT CONFERENCE, AND THOROUGH THOUGHT AND CONSTANT STUDY: IT IS THROUGH FRIENDLY MEETING AND PARTICULARLY THROUGH AVOIDING MISCELLANEOUS CALLING OF NAMES AND MISINTERPRETATION OF MOTIVES, BECAUSE THE PARTICULAR PERSON TO WHOM YOU ARE SPEAKING, DOES NOT AGREE WITH YOU IMMEDIATELY.

THE CONQUEST OF THE MIND CAN ONLY BE COMPLETE, WHEN THERE IS HONEST EFFORT TO UNDERSTAND AND TO REVEAL. IT IS FOR THAT REASON THAT THE GREATEST NEED CONCEIVABLE TODAY IN THE WORLD IS FRIENDSHIP AND CONFERENCE BETWEEN THE SOVIET REPUBLIC AND THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA.

THEY ARE BOTH LANDS TO WHICH MODERN CIVILIZATION OWES MUCH. THE UNITED STATES HAS SHOWN WHAT IT IS POSSIBLE FOR PEOPLE TO DO, WHEN LAND IS FREE AND WAGES ABOVE STARVATION LEVEL: IT HAS SHOWN WHAT THE HUMAN MIND CAN DO EVEN AMONG THE SO-CALLED LOWER CLASSES OF SOCIETY, IF THEIR POSSIBILITIES ARE OPENED BY EDUCATION AND POOORTUNITY.

ON THE OTHER HAND, THE SOVIET REPUBLIC, ALONE OF ALL GREAT MODERN NATIONS HAS FACED RESOLUTELY AND DETERMINEDLY THE PROBLEM OF POVERTY, THAT ARCH-CAUSE OF OUR TWO GREATEST DISASTERS, DISEASE AND IGNORANCE. IT HAS TRIED AND IS STILL TRYING A METHOD BY WHICH IT HOPES TO BUILD A LAND FREE FROM POVERTY AND ITS SEQUENCES.

IT MAY WELL BE PROVEN THAT WE IN AMERICA, WITH THE SUCCESS THAT WE HAVE HAD IN RAISING THE STANDARDS OF LABOR AND OF LIVING FOR ALL MEN,

AND IN OUR MARVELOUS TECHNICAL ACCOMPLISHMENT, WILL NOT EASY BE INDUCED TO BELIEVE THAT THESE GREAT VISIONS OF RUSSIA CAN EVER COME TRUE. AND IT IS JUST AS CONCEIVABLE, THAT THE RUSSIANS LOOKING UPON THE RULE OF WEALTH IN THE UNITED STATES, THE TREATMENT OF 13 MILLION CITIZENS OF NEGRO DESCENT AND THE MILLIONS OF AMERICANS STILL BELOW THE LINE OF DECENT LIVING, WILL HONESTLY DOUBT WHETHER THIS PROGRAM OF OURS IS THE BEST POSSIBLE OR NOT. THEY MAY SEE IN THE AMERICAN WAY OF LIFE, ONLY ECONOMIC ANARCHY, BRILLIANTLY SUCCESSFUL IN SOME RESPECTS BUT DESTINED TO CRASH IN ULTIMATE DISASTER UNLESS WE PLAN OUR FUTURE AND CURB INDIVIDUAL FREEDOM FOR SOCIAL WELFARE.

UNDER SUCH CIRCUMSTANCES, TO THINK THAT WAR IS NECESSARY FOR THE SETTLEMENT OF THESE TWO IDEOLOGIES IS PLAIN INSANITY. IT IS NOT ONLY NOT NECESSARY, IT IS THE ONE UNTHINKABLE THING. WHAT EACH NATION NEEDS IS THE FREEDOM TO CARRY OUT ITS IDEAS AND TO PROVE TO THE OTHER AND TO THE WORLD

THAT IT IS RIGHT OR PARTICALLY RIGHT: AND FOR THIS REASON THERE SHOULD BE FIRST CONFIDENCE, FRIENDSHIP AND COMRADESHIP IN ALL AREAS OF LIFE AND ACTIVITY. IT IS TO THIS END THAT WE MEET HERE TODAY AND THAT WE STRIVE WITH ALL MEN OF GOOD WILL TO MAKE RECOURSE TO WAR NOT ONLY ILLEGAL BUT SO REPUGNANT TO THE MORAL SENSE OF DECENT PEOPLE, THAT MEN OF DECENCY AND FREEDOM MAY NOT MENTION IT IN PUBLIC, NOR WHISPER IT IN PRIVATE.

NOR IS THAT ALL: OUR FRIENDSHIP SHOULD BE NOT ONLY AN EFFORT TO AVOID THE SUM OF ALL EVILS --WAR, BUT TO LEARN FROM EACH OTHER. AND WE CAN LEARN. RUSSIA HAS MUCH TO TEACH THE UNITED STATES AND THE UNITED STATES HAS MUCH TO TEACH RUSSIA AS RUSSIA HAS SO OFTEN SAID. HOW MUCH OF FRUSTRATION AND LOSS OF MONEY, TIME AND ENERGY, COULD HAVE BEEN SAVED, AND HOW MUCH GAINED FOR CIVILIZATION, IF ALL OF THE EFFORT PUT INTO CONSIDERING RELATIONS BETWEEN THE UNITED STATES AND RUSSIA, HAD BEEN GIVEN TO LEARNING THE THINGS WHICH THESE TWO GREAT NATIONS HAVE TO TEACH? TO COLLABERATION IN METHODS OF EDUCATION: TO WORKING TOGETHER FOR SCIENTIFIC ADVANCE: FOR KNOWLEDGE OF WAYS IN WHICH THE DISTRIBUTION OF WEALTH COULD BE MADE MORE JUST, AND THE PRODUCTION OF GOODS MORE EFFICIENT? NO TWO NATIONS IN THE WORLD HAVE SO MUCH TO LEARN FROM EACH OTHER AS THESE TWO GREAT LEADERS OF MODERN CIVILIZATION.

IT IS A TRAGEDY, ALMOST BEYOND WORDS THAT INSTEAD OF FACING AND URGING SUCH COLLABERATION, WE ENVISAGE ONLY FURTHER FRUSTRATION IF NOT ACTUAL ANNIHILATION.

I HAVE VISITED RUSSIA TWICE IN 1928 AND IN 1936, AT NEITHER VISIT DID I SEE ALL OF RUSSIA OR EVERYTHING THAT WAS HAPPENING. I WAS NEVER IN POSITION TO ACT AS AN AUTHORITY ON WHAT THE RUSSIAN GOVERNMENT IS OR WHAT IT HAS ACCOMPLISHED. BUT ON THE OTHER HAND, I HAVE SEEN MUCH OF THE WORLD IN TWO HEMISPHERES, IN MANY LATITUDES, IN MANY COUNTRIES. I HAVE

EN A STUDENT OF SOCIAL CONDITIONS ALL OF MY LIFE. I HAVE KNOWN WHAT POVERTY AND DEGRADATION CAN BE. I HAVE SEEN PEOPLE STRUG LING UPWARD UNDER ALL CONDITIONS AND WITH EVERY IMPEDIMENT AND I CAME OUT OF RUSSIA ON BOTH VISITS NOT CONVINCED THAT RUSSIA WAS THE ONLY COUNTRY ON EARTH: NOT CONVINCED THAT IT WAS ALWAYS RIGHT: NOT CONVINCED THAT EVERYTHING WAS WELL: BUT ON THE OTHER HAND, BELIEVING THAT RUSSIA AND ITS PEOPLE FORMED IN MY MIND AND WITH MY EXPERIENCE THE MOST HOPEFUL COUNTRY UPON EARTH.

THE ONE COUNTRY WHICH WAS NOT WITHOUT DISTRESS BUT WHETHER WITHOUT TRYING TO MISREAD THE FACTS, AND IN THE FACE OF DISTITUTION , WAS DETERMINED AT ANY SACRIFICE TO HAVE A COUNTRY WORTH LIVING IN. AND IF THERE WAS ONE THING THAT DESPITE OF EVERYTHING ELSE WHICH CONVINCED ME OF THE HONESTY OF THE RUSSIAN EFFORT , IT WAS THE FACT THAT THEY WERE DOING A JOB OF EDUCATION SUCH AS THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA NEVER ATTEMPTED. IF WE IN AMERICA HAD DONE FOR THE FREED SLAVES WHAT RUSSIA HAS BEEN DOING FOR THE FREED PEASANTS, WE WOULD HAVE NO NEGRO PROBLEM TODAY. BUT BECAUSE WE DELIBERATELY MESSED UP THE EFFORT TO GIVE THE NEGROES EDUCATION. WE HAVE REACHED A TIME TODAY WHEN TWO GENERATIONS AFTER EMANCIPATION, NEGRO RECRUITS IN OUR ARMY WERE AT LEAST 30 IF NOT 40% ILLITERATE.

THE RUSSIAN EFFORT AT MASS ATTACK UPON ILLITERACY, COUPLED WITH THE WORK BEING DONE TO ABOLISH POVERTY AND DISEASE MEANS THAT NO MATTER WHAT OTHERS THINK, THE RUSSIANS ARE FACING A GREAT FUTURE. HAVING SPENT AN ACTIVE LIFE TIME IN WHICH I HAVE VISITED EVERY STATE IN THE UNITED STATES AND MANY OF THEM MANY TIMES: IN WHICH I HAVE STUDIED HISTORY AND TRIED TO INTERPRET IT, I AM CERTAIN, FIRST OF THE TREMENDOUS POSSIBILITIES STILL FACING THIS LAND FOR WHICH WE HAVE RAISED MILLIONS OF UNLIKELY CLASSES AND RACES AND SHOWN THEM POSSIBILITIES AND IDEALS: AND I AM NOT WILLING TO CONCEDE THAT THERE IS ANY REASON WHY THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA SHOULD NOT YET BECOME THE DOMOCRACY OF WHICH ITS GREATER SOULS HAVE DREAMED.

AND SHOULD NOT BE ABLE TO USE OUR WEALTH AND KNOWLEDGE FOR THE ADVANCE OF THE PEOPLES OF THE WORLD.

HERE THEN ARE TWO NATIONS WITH MARVELOUS POSSIBILITIES AND ALL THAT IS NEEDED IS COOPERATION, UNDERSTANDING AND GOOD WILL.

NO SECOND CLASS CITIZENS

By W.E.B. DuBois

IT MUST NOT BE ASSUMED THAT THE STATUS OF SECOND-CLASS CITIZENSHIP IS SOMETHING PECULIAR TO THE UNITED STATES OR TO MODERN TIMES. PROBABLY IN PRIMITIVE HUMAN LIFE THERE WAS SOMETHING LIKE EQUALITY AMONG THE VARIOUS MEMBERS OF THE FAMILY AND CLAN, EXCEPT IN THE CASE OF THE CHIEF. THIS WAS DISTURBED FIRST BY THE INFLUX OF WAR CAPTIVES WHO BECAME HUMBLE SLAVES: AND BY CONTACT WITH FOREIGNERS. SO THAT WHEN WE COME TO THE DAYS OF CIVILIZATION, AS FOR INSTANCE IN ATHENS, WE FIND FIRST, SECOND, AND THIRD CLASS CITIZENS. FIRST CLASS CITIZENS,WHO WERE MEMBERS OF THE ATHENICN DEMOCRACY AND COMPARATIVELY SMALL IN NUMBERS. A MUCH LARGER CLASS OF FOREIGNERS WHO WERE CITIZENS AND TRADERS WITH LIMITED RIGHTS;AND FINALLY, A LARGE CLASS OF SLAVES WHO DID THE WORK AND PERSONAL SERVICE. THE CENSUS OF DEMETRIUS PHALEREUS, IN 309 B.C., GAVE FOR ATHENS 21,000 CITIZENS, 10,000 METICS (RESIDENTS FOREIGNERS), AND 400,000 SLAVES. LATER COMPILATIONS SAY THAT THE SERVILE POPULATION OF ATTICA WAS COMPRISED BETWEEN THE LIMITS OF 188,000 AND 203,000 SOULS; THE FREE POPULATION BEING ABOUT 67,000 AND

85-1-94

THE METICS AMOUNTING TO 40,000. THE SLAVES THUS BORE TO THE FREE NATIVE POPULATION THE RATIO OF 3 TO 1. IN A STATE LIKE THIS, A DISCUSSION OF DEMOCRACY WAS A DIFFERENT THING THAN DISCUSSION TODAY IN CHICAGO AND IN AMERICA: SO, TOO, IN ROME, IT IS SAID THAT AT THE TIME OF CLAUDIUS THERE WERE IN THE ROMAN EMPIRE 21,000,000 SLAVES AND 7,000,000 CITIZENS: TO THESE AGAIN WOULD BE ADDED A LARGE NUMBER OF NON-CITIZENS. SO THAT THERE AGAIN THE MEMBERS OF THE ROMAN REPUBLIC WERE BUT A SMALL MINORITY.

WHEN WE COME TO THE MIDDLE AGES, ST. AUGUSTINE'S CITY OF GOD ENVISAGES CERTAIN FUNDAMENTAL INEQUALITIES,"DENYING POETS ALL A PLACE IN A WELL ORDERED COMMONWEALTH," AND OF COURSE DISFRANCHISING ALL NON-CHRISTIANS. WE HAVE EVENTUALLY THE EFFORT OF THE GUILDS, WITH THEIR MASTERS AND ARTISANS FIGHTING FOR RIGHTS AS AGAINST THE PRIVILEGED NOBILITY: AND BELOW THEM, THE THIRD CLASS CITIZENS WERE THE SERFS AND ORDINARY LABORERS, THE RUNAWAYS AND SLUM-DWELLERS FESTERING IN THE DEPTHS, WHENCE THEIR VOICES ROSE PITFULLY TO AND FELL USUALLY ON DEAF EARS.

WITH THE DISCOVERY AND DEVELOPMENT OF THE NEW WORLD, THERE CAME AN INCREASED

DEMAND FOR LABOR WHICH COULD NOT BE SATISFIED BY EUROPE BUT COULD BE FILLED IF THE DISLOCATIONS AND TURMOIL IN AFRICA WERE TAKEN ADVANTAGE OF. THE RESULT WAS THE TRANSFER OF SOME TEN MILLION EFFECTIVE LABORERS TO THE AMERICAN CONTINENT, DEPRIVING AFRICA, WITH THE ADDITIONAL DEAD, OF A FOURTH TO A THIRD OF ITS POPULATION. IN ADDITION TO THESE, A LARGE NUMBER OF WHITE LABORERS WERE SHANGHAIED IN THE SLUMS OF VARIOUS EUROPEAN CITIES OR INDUCED TO COME VOLUNTARILY TO AMERICA WITH PROMISE OF LAND AND REMUNERATIVE WORK.

OUT OF THIS SITUATION, DEMOCRACY BEGAN IN AMERICA: BUT FIRST DISTINCTLY LIMITED AND ENVISAGING SECOND AND THIRD CLASS CITIZENSHIP: FREEDOM AND THE RIGHT TO VOTE FOR MEMBERS OF THE CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH IN NEW ENGLAND: FOR LAND AND SLAVE OWNERS IN THE SOUTH, AND FOR PROPERTY HOLDERS IN OTHER PARTS OF THE UNITED STATES, DOWN UNTIL THE EARLY NINETEENTH CENTURY.

BEGINNING WITH THE AGE OF JACKSON CAME THE LIFTING GRADUALLY OF THE LABORING CLASS TO POLITICAL AND CIVIL FREEDOM, WITH STILL THE SECOND CLASS CITIZENSHIP OF NEGROES WHETHER SLAVE OR FREE, AND ALSO CERTAIN FOREIGNERS. TO DEFEND THIS DEGRADATION OF MAN THERE AROSE THE DOCTRINE OF RACE DIFFERENCES IN AMERICA, ESPECIALLY AS APPLIED TO BLACK FOLK WHO WERE INCREASINGLY REGARDED AS CONGENITAL SLAVES, BUT THIS ATTITUDE TOWARD MANKIND WAS NOT NATIVE TO AMERICA; INDEED, IT WAS WORLD-WIDE, BUT EMPHASIZED IN AMERICA AND HELPED BY THE CHANGE FROM THE SLAVE SYSTEM BASED ON THE AFRICAN SLAVE TRADE BETWEEN WEST AFRICA AND AMERICA, AND THE IVORY-SLAVE TRADE IN EAST AFRICA CARRIED ON BY THE ARABS WITH THE HELP AND SUBVENTION OF ENGLAND AND AMERICA.

THE GREAT CONTRIBUTION OF THE UNITED STATES TO DEMOCRACY WAS PROOF THAT THE MOST UNLIKELY CLASSES AND RACES OF PEOPLE COULD BE MADE FIT FOR SELF-GOVERNMENT, IF THEY WERE GIVEN OPPORTUNITY FOR EDUCATION AND FOR REMUNERATIVE WORK. IT MUST BE REMEMBERED THAT BEFORE THE AMERICAN EXPERIMENT, IT WAS COMMON BELIEF AMONG EUROPEANS, THAT DEMOCRATIC GOVERNMENT WAS ONLY POSSIBLE FOR A SELECTED CLASS OF CITIZENS: THAT THE MASS OF CITIZENS COULD NEVER BE RAISED TO THE POINT WHERE THEY WOULD HAVE SUFFICIENT INTELLIGENCE TO GOVERN. NOW CAME A COUNTRY WHERE THERE POURED IN, VOLUNTARILY AND INVOLUNTARILY, A LARGE NUMBER OF THE MOST DEPRESSED PEOPLES OF THE WORLD. THEY WERE ARRESTED IN THE SLUMS OF CITIES AND SENT OVER AS INDENTURED SERFS FROM ENGLAND, IRELAND, GERMANY,

AND OTHER COUNTRIES. SLAVES WERE BROUGHT IN FROM AFRICA AND THIS INDISCRIMINANT MASS OF PEOPLES WERE THE BASIS UPON WHICH DEMOCRACY IN AMERICA WAS GRADUALLY BUILT. IT WAS A COMMON SAYING IN GERMANY, EVEN AS LATE AS THE END OF THE NINETEENTH CENTURY, THAT THE ONLY GERMANS WHO MIGRATED TO AMERICA WERE THOSE WHO WERE NOT WORTH ANYTHING IN GERMANY. SIMILAR THINGS WERE SAID OF THE IRISH, AND LATER OF THE ITALIANS AND SLAVS. NEVERTHELESS, GRADUALLY WITH EDUCATION AND WITH ECONOMIC OPPORTUNITY, THERE WAS BUILT A DEMOCRACY IN AMERICA, UNTIL IT BECAME CLEAR BY THE LATER NINETEENTH CENTURY THAT IT WAS POSSIBLE FOR PERSONS OF PRACTICALLY ANY CLASS OR RACE TO BE ABLE TO TAKE PART IN GOVERNMENT, IF THEY HAD EDUCATION AND ECONOMIC OPPORTUNITY.

THIS WAS CONCEDED SO FAR AS NEGROES WERE CONCERNED IN THOSE PLACES WHERE THEY HAD BEEN FREED FROM SLAVERY AND WERE RECOGNIZED AS CITIZENS. THEY VOTED EVEN IN SUCH STATES AS NORTH CAROLINA AND VIRGINIA, AND IN SEVERAL OF THE NORTHERN STATES. THE GREAT FEAR IN RECONSTRUCTION WAS NOT THAT NEGROES WOULD NOT MAKE GOOD CITIZENS, BUT THAT THEY WOULD. ON THE OTHER HAND, IT WAS CLEAR THAT THE TENDENCY OF THE WORLD WAS AGAINST THE ADMISSION OF THE COLORED RACES INTO GOVERNMENT OR FREE ENTERPRISE.

SO THAT THIS DICHOTOMY AND CONTRADICTION GREW IN THE NINETEENTH CENTURY. DEMOCRACY FOR AN INCREASING NUMBER OF THE LOWER CLASSES IN WHITE EUROPE AND AMERICA, BUT UNIVERSAL SERFDOM FOR THE COLORED PEOPLES.

IT WAS CLEAR UNDER THE GROWING CAPITALIST SYSTEM THAT IT WAS NOT ONLY MORE PROFITABLE TO ABOLISH THE SLAVE TRADE AND PUT THE NATIVES TO WORK IN THEIR OWN LANDS WITH SUFFICIENT POLITICAL AND SOCIAL CONTROL, BUT THIS METHOD ALSO ANSWERED THE GROWING MORAL AND RELIGIOUS PROTEST, AGAINST SLAVERY AS AN INSTITUTION.

THERE GREW UP, THEREFORE, IN THE NINETEENTH CENTURY A THEORY OF HUMAN BEINGS BASED UPON THE HEGEMONY AND CONTROL OF WHITE EUROPE OVER THE REST OF THE WORLD. NOT AS A TYRANNY BUT AS A NECESSITY BECAUSE OF THE CHARACTER OF PEOPLES OUTSIDE OF EUROPE AND NORTH AMERICA. THIS BECAME NOT ONLY A THEORY OF INFERIOR RACES BASED ON SLAVERY, BUT ALSO A THEORY WHICH EAGERLY SERVED THE THEORY OF EVOLUTION AS ENUNCIATED IN THE SIXTIES BY DARWIN AND WALLACE. IT WAS SINGULAR COINCIDENCE THAT WITH THE EMANCIPATION OF SLAVES IN 1863 THERE CAME TO THE SCIENTIFIC AND RELIGIOUS WORLD AN INCREASINGLY DEVELOPED THEORY OF THE INFERIORITY OF THE MAJORITY OF MEN, NOT BECAUSE THEY WERE ENTIRELY DIFFERENT IN KIND, BUT BECAUSE THEY REPRESENTED WIDE DEGREES OF EVOLUTION: THE LOWEST GROUP OF THEM BEING QUITE UNFIT BECAUSE OF THEIR LAG IN DEVELOPMENT TO TAKE PART IN MODERN CULTURAL ORGANIZATION.

THIS MEANT TO MOST MEN THAT THE RULE OF EUROPE AND NORTH AMERICA OVER ASIA, AFRICA, AND THE ISLANDS OF THE SEA WAS NOT A MATTER OF OPINION BUT A PRE-ORDAINED SCIENTIFIC FACT: THAT THE WORLD WAS COMPOSED OF FIRST CLASS AND SECOND CLASS CITIZENS, AND EVEN CITIZENS OF LOWER CLASSES, NOT BY CHOICE BUT BY A DEMONSTRABLE SCIENTIFIC TRUTH: IF NOT BY GOD'S COVENANT.

THIS GAVE GREAT RELIEF TO VARIOUS RELIGIOUS CREEDS, ESPECIALLY TO THOSE WHO, ON THE BASIS OF THE INFERIORITY OF MOST MEN, HAD BUILT UP THE NEW CAPITALISTIC SYSTEM AND WERE DERIVING INCREASING INCOME FROM SEMI-SLAVE LABOR AND MONOPOLY OF LAND AND MATERIALS. COLONIAL IMPERIALISM BASED ITSELF UPON THIS SITUATION AND SPREAD RAPIDLY DURING THE LATTER NINETEENTH CENTURY, UNTIL THE QUESTION WAS NOT WHETHER EUROPE WAS GOING TO RULE THE WORLD, BUT RATHER JUST WHEN SHE WAS GOING TO ASSERT FINAL CONTROL OVER ALL ASIA

AND AFRICA, MUCH OF SOUTH AMERICA, AND THE SEA ISLANDS.

THE DOCTRINE OF RACE AS SOMETHING AT THE BOTTOM OF THIS WHOLE INFERIORITY SITUATION OF THE MAJORITY OF MEN, NOW BECAME WORLD-WIDE AND UNIVERSALLY ACCEPTED AND ON THE WHOLE, WAS MADE ONE WITH THE PROBLEM OF COLOR AND THE COLOR-BAR: SO THAT THE WORLD APPEARED WITH FIRST-CLASS WHITE CITIZENSHIP AND INFERIOR CITIZENSHIP FOR PRACTICALLY ALL COLORED PEOPLES. EVEN THE ATTEMPT OF JAPAN TO BREAK THROUGH THIS COLOR LINE, AT LEAST THEORETICALLY, WAS PROMPTLY SQUELCHED IN THE BREAKING UP OF THE BRITISH-JAPANESE ALLIANCE AT THE DEMAND OF THE UNITED STATES AND AUSTRALIA, AND THE REFUSAL OF THE LEAGUE OF NATIONS TO ENTERTAIN A RACE EQUALITY RESOLUTION, WHICH STARTED ITS DECLINE. MEANTIME, DEMOCRACY DEVELOPED THROUGHOUT THE WHITE WORLD AND EVEN FURTHER: BUT IT WAS A DEVELOPMENT MAINLY LIMITED TO FIRST-CLASS CITIZENS AND IT INCLUDED, AS PART OF ITS THEORY AND UNDERSTANDING, THE ADMITTED FACT THAT DEMOCRACY WAS FIT ONLY FOR CERTAIN PEOPLES AND CLASSES. IT HAD, SO THE FOLKLORE RAN, DEVELOPED IN ENGLAND AND GERMANIC COUNTRIES. SOMETHING COULD BE FOUND IN ANCIENT LATIN COUNTRIES, BUT NOT SO MUCH AND NOT SO SUCCESSFUL. OUTSIDE OF THAT, ATTEMPTS AT DEMOCRACY WERE MERELY CARICATURE OR

IMITATION, AND EVIDENTLY BOUND TO FAILURE.

HOWEVER, EVEN IN THE SO-CALLED DEMOCRATIC COUNTRIES, IN GREAT BRITAIN, IN THE UNITED STATES, IN FRANCE AND IN GERMANY, THE CITIZENSHIP ALSO DIVIDED ITSELF ALMOST INEVITABLY INTO FIRST-CLASS AND SECOND-CLASS CITIZENSHIP CATEGORIES. THIS WAS BASED PRIMARILY UPON INCOME AND BECAUSE OF THAT, SECONDARILY, UPON EDUCATION AND HEALTH. IN OTHER WORDS, LOOKING AT EVERY ONE OF THE COUNTRIES, CALLED DEMOCRATIC AND LEADING CIVILIZATION AT THE BEGINNING OF THE 20TH CENTURY, YOU FOUND AT THE TOP WITH GREAT POWER, EITHER ADMITTED OR SECRETLY EXERCISED, A SMALL GROUP OF RICH, WELL-TRAINED PEOPLE: AND BENEATH THEM POORER PEOPLE: SOME WITH MODERATE INCOMES, BUT THE MASS FORMING A GREAT MAJORITY OF THE NATION WITH INCOMES TOO SMALL TO SUPPORT LIFE DECENTLY OR ACCORDING TO THE CURRENT STANDARDS OF DECENCY IN THE COUNTRY.

THESE CLASSES, CALLED THE "LABORING CLASSES" OR THE "LOWER CLASSES" WERE EXPLAINED FIRST, ON THE THEORY THAT THEY WERE THE LAZY, IGNORANT, THRIFTLESS AND CRIMINAL, AND THAT UNDER ANY CIRCUMSTANCES THEY WERE NATURALLY BOUND TO BE THE INEFFICIENT PART OF THE PEOPLE.

THE DIFFICULTY, OF COURSE, WITH THIS EXPLANATION WAS THAT IT BROUGHT A NEW RACIAL CLEFT WITHIN THE RACE, BY WHICH IT SEEMED THAT LARGE NUMBERS OF HUMAN BEINGS, EVEN WITHIN THE WHITE RACE, WERE INCAPABLE OF RULE AND OF EFFECTIVE CITIZENSHIP. THERE EXISTED, THEREFORE, IN ALL THESE COUNTRIES, A SECOND-CLASS CITIZENSHIP BASED ON POVERTY, AND THEN A THIRD-CLASS CITIZENSHIP OF LARGE NUMBERS OR SMALLER OF ALIEN PEOPLES LIKE THE IMMIGRANTS: THE NUMBER IN THE UNITED STATES BEING PROPORTIONATELY LARGE BECAUSE OF FREE NEGROES AND EMANCIPATED SLAVES.

AGAINST THIS SITUATION THE LABOR MOVEMENT AROSE AMONG WHITE WORKERS IN THE LEADING COUNTRIES. THEY FOUGHT FOR THE RIGHT TO VOTE AND GRADUALLY BEGAN TO WIN IT; THEY FOUGHT FOR HIGHER INCOME AND MORE DECENT CONDITIONS OF WORK: BUT THEY WERE FACED BY TWO HANDICAPS: ONE, THE HANDICAP OF COMPETITION WITH FOREIGN LABOR IN COUNTRIES RECOGNIZED AS INFERIOR LIKE CHINA AND INDIA, AND ESPECIALLY IN AFRICA; AND SECONDLY, IN COUNTRIES LIKE THE UNITED STATES, THEY WERE FACED BY THE FACT THAT A PART OF THE LEGAL CITIZENSHIP BELONGED TO A RACE WHOME THEY HAD BEEN TAUGHT TO REGARD AS INFERIOR AND

FOR WHOM THEY WERE IN MOST CASES RELUCTANT TO ASK EQUAL INCOMES OR EQUAL CONDITIONS OF WORK, AND IN SOME CASES PREFERRED STARVATION TO NEGRO EQUALITY.

CASTE CONDITIONS, THEREFORE, AROSE AND ENVELOPED THE WORLD. IN A COUNTRY LIKE ENGLAND, IT WAS A MOBILE CASTE CONDITION WHICH RECOGNIZED THE RISING PUSH OF THE LABORING CLASSES TOWARD EQUALITY, TOWARD INCREASED EDUCATION, MORE WAGES, AND BETTER CONDITIONS OF LIFE. SUCCESSFUL INDIVIDUALS WERE LIFTED INTO THE ARISTOCRACY. THESE QUALIFICATIONS, HOWEVER, WERE NOT EASILY GAINED, SO THAT MOST OF THE LABORERS IN THE 20TH CENTURY COULD IN THESE COUNTRIES STILL BE REGARDED AS SECOND-CLASS CITIZENS, BECAUSE OF THEIR POVERTY, IGNORANCE, AND DISEASE.

ON THE OTHER HAND, THERE WERE OVERWHELMING CLASSES OF LABORERS BELONGING TO THE BRITISH EMPIRE, SUBJECTS IN FACT, IF NOT IN LAW OF THE BRITISH SOVEREIGN, WHO WERE WORKING IN COLONIES AND AMONG SUPPRESSED PEOPLES WITH THE LOWEST WAGE NECESSARY TO KEEP THE CLASS ALIVE AND INVOLVING A POVERTY ALMOST INDESCRIBABLE, WITH WIDESPREAD DISEASE WHICH OFTEN THREATENED TO ENGULF THE WORLD; AND WITH ALMOST TOTAL IGNORANCE AS TO WHAT THE WORLD HAD LEARNED SINCE THE DAYS OF THE RENAISSANCE.

THIS WAS A PART OF THE BRITISH EMPIRE AND THE INCOME FROM THEM NOT ONLY WENT TO THE INVESTORS AND OWNERS BUT ALSO A PART WENT TO THE WHITE LABORERS AS LARGESS FROM THIS EXPLOITATION OF THIRD CLASS CITIZENS WHO FORMED SOME FOUR HUNDRED MILLION OF THE FIVE HUNDRED MILLION INHABITANTS OF THE EMPIRE.

IN THE UNITED STATES THIS SAME PROBLEM WAS COMPLICATED BY THE FACT THAT THERE HAD ARISEN HERE AN ATTEMPT AFTER THE CIVIL WAR TO ESTABLISH A MORE HONEST AND FRANK CONCEPTION OF DEMOCRACY THAN HAD EVER BEEN ENVISAGED BEFORE. THE FOURTEENTH AMENDMENT PROPOSED TO MAKE THE MASS OF EMANCIPATED SLAVES CITIZENS OF THE UNITED STATES WITH A RIGHT TO VOTE AND WITH EQUAL SOCIAL AND CIVIL RIGHTS. IT WAS WITH NO DOUBT THE ATTEMPT AT DEMOCRACY EVER ENVISAGED IN THE MODERN WORLD. IT IS CHARACTERISTIC OF AMERICA THAT THIS FOURTEENTH AMENDMENT, FAR FROM BEING USED TO MAKE NEGROES CITIZENS WAS USED TO DEFEND THE MONOPOLY AND EXPLOITATION OF CORPORATIONS AND THAT IS ITS CHIEF FUNCTION TODAY.

IN THE MEANTIME WHAT WE WOULD HAVE EXPECTED LOGICALLY WOULD HAVE BEEN A REVOLT BY THE LESSER PEOPLES AGAINST THIS DOMINATION OF THE STRONGEST. BUT SUCH REVOLT WAS DIFFICULT IN EUROPE. THE PEOPLE WERE UNDER STRICT CONTROL THEY HAD NO ARMS, THEY WERE DEPRIVED LARGELY OF LEADERSHIP. SO THAT THE REVOLT WAS LONG DRAWN OUT AND BECAME WHAT WE CALL THE LABOR MOVEMENT, BEGINNING WITH STRIKES AND REPRESSION, EXTENDING TO LABOR UNIONS AND GRADUALLY TO ENFRANCHISEMENT AND TO POLITICAL POWER.

ON THE OTHER HAND, THE REVOLT WHICH REPRESENTED THE MASS REVOLT OF THE WORKERS BEGAN IN ITS MORE VIOLENT FORM IN THE COLONIES WHERE SLAVES AND INDENTURED SERVANTS HAD BEEN IMPORTED BY THE HUNDREDS OF THOUSANDS. IN AMERICA 32 REVOLTS AND GROUPS OF REVOLTS ON THE PART OF THE SLAVES AND WORKERS MAY BE FOUND BETWEEN 1522 AND 1895. FIVE HAPPENED IN THE WEST INDIES, MEXICO, PERU AND CENTRAL AMERICA BEFORE THE SEVENTEENTH CENTURY. DURING THE SEVENTEENTH CENTURY THERE WERE NINE REVOLTS IN THE WEST INDIES AND SOUTH AMERICA AND THE MASS ORGANIZATION CALLED THE MAROONS BEGAN TO APPEAR ALL OVER THIS TERRITORY.

IN THE EIGHTEENTH CENTURY THERE WERE 14 REVOLTS IN THE WEST INDIES AND SOUTH

AND SOUTH AMERICA CULMINATING IN THE HAITIAN REVOLUTION. IN THE NINETEENTH CENTURY THERE WERE SEVEN REVOLTS IN THE WEST INDIES THROUGHOUT SOUTH AMERICA WITH WEST INDIAN HELP, IN CUBA AND JAMAICA. ALL THIS MEANS THAT THE MODERN LABOR MOVEMENT BEGAN AND RECEIVED ITS MORAL SUPPORT AND JUSTIFICATION IN THE WEST INDIES AND AMONG NEGRO SLAVERY RATHER THAN IN EUROPE ITSELF.

IN EUROPE IT THUS HAD A CHANCE TO BE CARRIED ON BY MORE INTELLIGENT LEADERSHIP AND WITH INCREASING POLITICAL POWER. THE FRENCH REVOLUTION COUPLED WITH THE LABOR FIGHT IN ENGLAND AND THE RISE AND DEVELOPMENT OF TRADE UNIONS MEANT THE ATTEMPT OF SECOND CLASS AND THIRD CLASS CITIZENS OF EUROPE TO BE A PART OF DEMOCRACY. BUT THESE ATTEMPTS WERE SMALL AND WERE DWARFED BY AN ENTIRELY UNEXPECTED DEVELOPMENT AND THAT WAS THE ANARCHY, ENVY AND JEALOUSY AMONG THE EXPLOITING CLASSES AND THE EXPLOITING RACES AND EMPIRES OF THE WORLD. THERE CAME THE SERIES OF INCREASINGLY VIOLENT INDUSTRIAL CRISIS WHICH UPSET THE WHOLE CAPITALISTIC SYSTEM AND THREATENED THE WAY

OF LIFE WHICH HAD BEEN ADOPTED BY LEADING COUNTRIES AFTER THE INDUSTRIAL REVOLUTION.

TO THAT WAS ADDED A SERIES OF WARS, THAT IS THE ORGANIZED MURDER OF LARGE NUMBERS OF PEOPLES BELONGING TO VARIOUS NATIONS BECAUSE OF VARIOUS JEALOUSYS AND DISPUTES. BUT AT THE BOTTOM IN PRACTICALLY EVERY CASE FROM THE SEVEN YEARS WAR UNTIL THE LAST WORLD WAR AN ATTEMPT OF SOME NATION OR THE CLASSES EXPLOITING IN ALL NATIONS TO INCREASE THEIR SHARE OF THE VAST INCOME MADE BY THE EXPLOITATION OF LABOR PARTICULARLY IN COLONIES AND AMONG SUBJECTED PEOPLES. DESPITE THE FACT THAT THESE WARS INCREASED IN VIRULENCE AND PROPERTY LOSS UNTIL THE CULMINATION IN THE SECOND WORLD WAR STAGGERED HUMANITY, THERE IS DETERMINED ATTEMPT TO CARRY ON EXPLOITATION IN COLONIES AND OVER LABORING CLASSES TODAY IN THE SAME WAY EVEN AT THE COST OF A THIRD WORLD WAR.

WITH THE PLANNING AND ORGANIZATION OF A WORLD GOVERNMENT IN THE UNITED NATIONS WE FIND POWERS FALLING APART INTO TWO GREAT GROUPS. THE ONE GROUP GIVES PREFERENCE TO A PLANNING OF INDUSTRY IN CONTRADICTION AND WITH CURTAILMENT OF INDIVIDUAL INITIATIVE; WHILE THE OTHER STRESSES THE AMERICAN WAY OF LIFE BY WHICH EACH INDIVIDUAL IS TO CARRY ON INDUSTRY FOR PRIVATE PROFIT INTERFERED WITH AS LITTLE AS POSSIBLE BY GOVERNMENT. EFFORT IS MADE TO STRESS THE FACT THAT BOTH OF THESE GROUPS OF NATIONS ARE DEMOCRACIES AND ARE FIGHTING FOR THE RIGHT OF THE PEOPLE TO HAVE VOICE AND EFFECTIVE VOICE IN THE GOVERNMENT AND IN INDUSTRY TO PREVENT ANY DEVIATION FROM THE THEORY OF GOVERNMENT AND INDUSTRY WHICH EACH SIDE ADVOCATED.

HERE IN THE UNITED STATES TWO DOCUMENTS HAVE RECENTLY EMPHASIZED THIS SITUATION; THE UNITED NATIONS PROPOSED IN ITS CHARTER MENTIONING THE MATTER SIX DIFFERENT TIMES: THE GUARDING OF HUMAN RIGHTS REGARDLESS OF RACE, SEX, OR CREED. LAST SPRING THEY SET UP THE HUMAN RIGHTS COMMISSION AND THIS FALL THEY PROPOSE ADDING TO THAT A SUB-COMMISSION ON DISCRIMINATION.

IN ORDER TO MAKE IT CLEAR THAT FOURTEEN MILLION AMERICANS OF NEGRO DESCENT WERE NOT SATISFIED WITH THE RIGHTS WHICH THEY WERE ENJOYING THE NAACP PREPARED A DOCUMENT SETTING FORTH CAREFULLY BY HISTORICAL REFERENCE AND FIGURES THE CASTE SYSTEM UNDER WHICH NEGROES LIVE IN THE UNITED STATES. THIS HAD HARDLY BEEN PRESENTED TO THE

UNITED NATIONS THAN A CIVIL RIGHTS COMMITTEE APPOINTED BY THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES BROUGHT IN A REPORT WHICH SUPPORTED IN PRACTICALLY EVERY STATEMENT THE COMPLAINT WHICH THE NAACP HAD MADE TO THE UNITED NATIONS.

THIS BRINGS THE PROBLEM OF DEMOCRACY BEFORE THE NATION, MORE CLEARLY THAN IT HAS EVER BEEN BROUGHT BEFORE. THE QUESTION WHICH YOU AND I HAVE TO SETTLE IS THIS: CAN WE ENVISION AND DO WE WANT A DEMOCRACY WHERE THE RIGHTS OF ALL CITIZENS ARE EQUAL? IT IS NOT NECESSARY TO IMPEDE THIS CLEAR STATEMENT BY THE TRITE REMARK THAT ALL PEOPLE ARE NOT AND PROBABLY NEVER WILL BE EQUAL AND SIMILAR IN THEIR ABILITIES, THEIR GIFTS AND THEIR ACCOMPLISHMENTS. THE PROBLEM WHICH IS NOW PROPOSED IS A PROBLEM OF LEGAL RIGHTS TO RECOGNIZED POLITICAL, CIVIL AND SOCIAL RIGHTS FOR EVERY CITIZEN.

IT MUST BE ADMITTED THAT MOST PEOPLE DO NOT BELIEVE IN ANYTHING OF THE SORT: EVEN THOSE WHO HAD BEEN LOOSELY TALKING OF THEIR BELIEF IN DEMOCRACY ALL THEIR LIVES. THEY CANNOT CONCEIVE A SITUATION WHERE THERE IS NOT SECOND CLASS CITIZENSHIP: SOME PEOPLE COMPELLED TO DO THE UNPLEASANT AND MOST TIRESOME WORK OF THE WORLD BECAUSE THEY ARE POOR.

THE GREATEST COMPLAINT THAT HAS BEEN MADE OF THE UNUSUAL DEMAND FOR LABOR AND HIGH WAGES DURING THE LAST WAR, WAS THAT VOICED BY WOMEN AT THE HEAD OF THE BETTER CLASS HOUSEHOLDS WHO COULD NOT GET DOMESTIC SERVICE AT THE PRICE WHICH THEY WISHED, AND WERE HIGHLY IN FAVOR OF A SITUATION WHERE A LARGER NUMBER OF PEOPLE WOULD BE SO POOR THAT THEY WOULD HAVE TO BECOME AND REMAIN DOMESTIC SERVANTS.

TO THESE PEOPLE AND TO OTHERS THINKING OF THE HIRING OF CHEAP LABOR SO AS TO HAVE HIGH PROFITS, A DEMOCRACY WHICH DID NOT CONTAIN A LARGE NUMBER IF NOT A MAJORITY OF PEOPLE WHOSE INCOME WAS TOO SMALL FOR DECENT LIVING WOULD NOT BE WELCOME. THEY WOULD SAY FRANKLY THAT IT WOULD NOT WORK, AND THAT IT OUGHT NOT TO BE ALLOWED TO WORK IF IT COULD. OUR WHOLE CONCEPTION OF DEMOCRACY IS CONTRADICTED BY OUR CLEAR RELIANCE UPON SELECT GROUPS WITH SPECIAL PRIVILEGES: THE SO-CALLED BETTER PEOPLE LIVE IN SELECT NEIGHBORHOODS: SELECT SCHOOLS WHERE THE UPPER CLASS GET THEIR EDUCATION: A SELECTION OF INCOMES WHICH GIVES TO CERTAIN PEOPLE MORE THAN THEY CAN POSSIBLY SPEND AND TO MOST PEOPLE LESS THAN THEY OUGHT TO SPEND.

AS I HAVE SAID, PEOPLE WHO HAVE BEEN VOLUBLE AND EMPHATIC IN THEIR DEFENSE OF DEMOCRACY, MEAN BY THAT DEMOCRACY A GOVERNMENT BASED UPON PERMANENT DISTINCTION BETWEEN THE RICH AND THE POOR, BETWEEN THE BLACK AND WHITE, BETWEEN THE NATIVE AND FOREIGNERS. THE TIME HAS NOW COME WHEN THESE PEOPLE MUST COME OUT IN THE OPEN AND DEFEND THEIR STAND. ARE THEY IN FAVOR OF DEMOCRACY OR ARE THEY IN FAVOR OF OLIGARCHY BASED UPON WEALTH AND DESCENT AND TO A LARGE DEGREE UPON SEX AND RELIGION? THESE PEOPLE HAVE GOT TO FACE THE REAL ARGUMENT FOR DEMOCRACY WHICH IS SELDOM STRESSED. THE ARGUMENT FOR DEMOCRACY BASES ITSELF UPON MUCH OF THAT VERY THEORY OF EVOLUTION WHICH WAS MISCONCEIVED AND MISINTERPRETED TO UPHOLD THE COLOR LINE.

WE OUGHT TO HAVE LEARNED THAT DIVERSITY IN ITSELF IS A SOURCE OF WISDOM: THAT DIFFERENCE IS A CLEAR WAY TO KNOWLEDGE: THAT ABSOLUTE UNIFORMITY IS RETROGRESSION: THAT COMPROMISE IS NATURAL SELECTION AND THAT SURRENDER IS DEATH. IN OTHER WORDS WHAT DEMOCRACY SAYS TO THE WORLD IF IT SPEAKS HONESTLY IS, THAT WHEN YOU OPEN OPPORTUNITY FOR DECENT LIFE AND EQUAL RIGHTS TO THE MASS OF MEN, YOU GET THEM, OR ANY

IN POSITION TO GET A CONTRIBUTION TO THE TOTALITY OF LIFE WHICH YOU CANNOT GET BY THE SUPPRESSION OF ABILITY AMONG NEGROES, OR AMONG THE CHILDREN OF IMMIGRANTS, OR AMONG WOMEN, OR BY SUPPRESSING THE POOR OR BY HAVING POOR IN YOUR COMMUNITY. THAT SELECTION IS THE WAY BY WHICH YOU CHOOSE THE PEOPLE FOR CERTAIN ABILITIES AND GIFTS BUT THAT IT DOES NOT MEAN THAT THE SAME PERSON IS CHOSEN FOR EV BY PRIVILEGE BY THE MERE CHANCE OF HIS BIRTH, HIS COLOR OR HIS INCOME.

THE MAN WHO IS TO BE SELECTED FOR HIS KNOWLEDGE OF CHEMISTRY IS NOT NECESSARILY THE MAN WHO MUST ALSO BE SELECTED FOR HIS KNOWLEDGE OF SOCIOLOGY. THAT THOSE PEOPLE WHO WISH COMPANIONSHIP, SHOULD BE FREE TO CHOOSE IT, BUT NOT FREE TO DENY THE SAME CHOICE TO OTHER PEOPLE, THAT DEMOCRACY IS A GREAT CONCEPTION OF U IVERSAL RIGHTS AND NOT A METHOD BY WHICH A FEW MILLIONAIRES IN THE UNITED STATES PROPOSE TO RULE NOT ONLY THIS COUNTRY, BUT WESTERN EUROPE AND IF POSSIBLE THE WORLD.

A HISTORY OF AFRICA

WHEN I WAS A BOY IN SCHOOL THERE WAS NO REFERENCE IN MY CLASSES OR TEXTBOOKS, TO THE HISTORY OF AFRICA, THE ONE PARTIAL EXCEPTION WAS THAT EGYPT WAS USUALLY MENTIONED BUT APPARENTLY WAS NOT REGARDED AS PART OF AFRICA.

SINCE THAT THERE HAS BEEN A GOOD DEAL OF CHANGE SO THAT MOST NEGRO COLLEGES AND A CONSIDERABLE NUMBER OF WHITE COLLEGES TODAY HAVE IN THEIR CURRICULLA SOME REFERENCE TO AFRICA; BUT THE CONTINENT IS NOT TREATED AS A WHOLE AND ITS HISTORY AS COMPARED WITH THAT OF EUROPE AND ASIA IS VERY INADEQUATELY TREATED.

I WANT TO TALK TO YOU THEREFORE ABOUT THE HISTORY OF AFRICA, NOT SIMPLY BECAUSE FOR THE MOST PART WE ARE PERSONS OF AFRICAN DESCENT BUT ALSO FOR THE REASON THAT THE HISTORY OF AFRICA IS AN INTEGRAL PART OF THE HISTORY OF THE WORLD, AND MUST NOT BE OMITTED IF WE ARE TO UNDER-STAND WORLD HISTORY.

THE FIRST QUESTION NATURALLY IS, WHY HAS THE HISTORY OF AFRICA BEEN OMITTED. THIS OMISSION IT MUST BE REMEMBERED IS A COMPARATIVELY MODERN MATTER: THAT IS, THE GREAT UNIVERSITIES OF THE MIDDLE AGES ALWAYS CONSIDERED THE HISTORY OF AFRICA; IN THE EARLY PART OF THE NINETEENTH CENTURY, AFRICA WAS A SUBJECT OF STUDY IN MOST INSTITUTIONS OF LEARNING. BUT TOWARD THE CLOSE OF THE FIRST QUARTER OF THE NINETEENTH CENTURY AFRICAN HISTORY BEGAN TO BE OMITTED; AND THE REASON WAS THAT IN 1820, THE COTTON KINGDOM, THAT IS THE RAISING AND SELLING AND WEAVING OF COTTON INTO CLOTH, HAD BECOME A WORLD INDUSTRY OF GREAT AND INCREASING IMPORTANCE. THE RAISING OF COTTON CENTERED CHIEFLY IN THE UNITED STATES AND CONSEQUENTLY LANDHOLDERS, INVESTORS, AND MERCHANTS HAD INTEREST AND DEEP INTEREST IN COTTON. THE COTTON CROP DEPENDED UPON SLAVE LABOR JUST AS FOR A CENTURY

BEFORE, THE RAISING OF SUGAR HAD DEPENDED UPON SLAVES. THIS NEW SLAVERY AFFRONTED THE CIVILIZATION OF THE DAY. THERE WERE PEOPLE WHO HAD BEEN BROUGHT UP TO THINK THAT SLAVERY WAS WRONG AND THAT IT WAS DISAPPEARING AND INDEED IT BEGAN TO DISAPPEAR IN ERUOPE IN THE FIFTEENTH AND SIXTEENTH CENTURY. BUT IN THE SEVENTEENTH AND EIGHTEENTH CENTURY, A NEW SLAVERY OF BLACK LABOR AROSE. NOT BECAUSE THE LABORERS WERE BLACK BUT BECAUSE SLAVERY WAS PROFITABLE, AND WHITE SLAVES HARD TO GET. THE IMPORTATION OF WORKERS TO THE UNITED STATES, FIRST FOR THE TOBACCO CROP, BUT EVENTUALLY CHIEFLY FOR RAISING COTTON BEGAN TO INCREASE AND ROSE FROM 4,000 TO 100,000 A YEAR IN THE EIGHTEENTH CENTURY. CHURCHES AND OTHER ORGANIZATIONS PROTESTED AGAINST THE SLAVERY BUT PRETTY SOON THEIR VOICES WERE HUSHED.

USUALLY IN THE WORLD, WHERE THE INCOME OF A CONSIDERABLE NUMBER OF IMPORTANT PEOPLE, DEPENDS UPON A CERTAIN COURSE OF ACTION, THAT COURSE OF ACTION HAS TO BE DEFENDED. THIS IS WHAT KARL MARX MEANS WHEN HE TALKS ABOUT THE ECONOMIC FOUNDATION OF HISTORY, ART, AND MORALS. IF YOU WILL LOOK UPON THE WORLD IN THE EARLY NINETEENTH CENTURY, YOU WILL FIND THAT SLAVERY INSTEAD OF BEING CONDEMNED, IS BEING DEFENDED AND THAT THE BASIS OF DEFENSE IS THAT THESE BLACK WORKERS WHO RAISE COTTON, ARE REALLY NOT FITTED FOR ANYTHING ELSE; THAT THEY ARE AN INFERIOR PEOPLE. IF NOW THEY ARE INFERIOR, THEN OUGHT TO BE PROVEN BY THEIR HISTORY, AND THE WHOLE HISTORY OF AFRICA, THEREFORE, CAME MORE OR LESS, CONSCIOUSLY TO BE FORGOTTEN, AND A NEW THEORY OF AFRICAN HISTORY AROSE WHICH ASSUMED THAT AFRICA REALLY HAD NO HISTORY, EXCEPT IN THOSE PARTS WHERE FOREIGNERS HAD INTRUDED AND BUILT A CIVILIZATION.

THOSE PARTS WERE EGYPT, NORTH AFRICA, AND SOUTH AFRICA. IN THE CENTRAL PART OF THE CONTINENT AND THE EAST AND WEST COAST, IT WAS

GENERALLY CONCLUDED THAT NO HISTORY HAD TAKEN PLACE WORTHY OF STUDY. ALL THIS OF COURSE WAS A MISTAKE; THE KIND OF HISTORICAL FALSEHOOD WHICH WE FIND TIME AND TIME AGAIN, BECAUSE PEOPLE ARE MORE INTERESTED IN WHAT THEY WANT PEOPLE TO BELIEVE THAN IN THE ACTUAL TRUTH.

TODAY THE HISTORY OF AFRICA IS BEING REVIVED AND I WANT TO BRING CERTAIN PARTS OF IT TO YOUR ATTENTION. FIRST OF ALL, AFRICA, IS AS YOU KNOW, A VERY OLD CONTINENT. IT PROBABLY ROSE PERMANENTLY ABOVE THE SEA AT LEAST A THOUSAND MILLION YEARS AGO, AND BECAME A MASS OF RIGID ROCK WHICH STRETCHED FROM THE RAMPARTS OF ETHIOPIA TO WHERE THE COPPER, DIAMONDS, AND GOLD OF SOUTH AFRICA EVENTUALLY WERE FOUND. MORE LAND AROSE BESIDE THIS FIRST MASS, AND PERHAPS THREE HUNDRED MILLION YEARS AGO, AFRICA WAS CONNECTED WITH SOUTH AMERICA, INDIA, AND AUSTRALIA.

ONE CAN SEE FROM THE OUTLINE OF THE CONTINENT HOW AFRICA BROKE AWAY FROM SOUTH AMERICA AND HOW EUROPE BROKE AWAY FROM NORTH AMERICA AS THE OCEAN FLOOR DROPPED, THE EASTERN HALF OF AFRICA WAS SLOWLY RAISED INTO A BROAD FLAT ARCH. THE GREAT RIFT WAS FORMED BY THE FALLING OF THAT ARCH. THE RIFT EXTENDS FROM PALESTINE DOWN TO THE REGION OF THE GREAT LAKES.

IN ITS MODERN FORM, THE CONTINENT OF AFRICA HAS OFTEN BEEN DESCRIBED AS QUESTION MARK, OR AS AN INVERTED SAUCER, AS THE CENTER OF THE WORLD'S CONTINENTS. INCLUDING MADIGASCAR, IT IS THREE TIMES THE SIZE OF EUROPE, FOUR TIMES THE SIZE OF THE UNITED STATES; AND THE WHOLE OF EUROPE, INDIA, AND CHINA, AND THE UNITED STATES COULD BE HELD WITHIN ITS BORDERS. ONE OF ITS MOST IMPORTANT ASPECTS IS ITS RELATIVELY UNBROKEN COASTLINE, WHICH CONTRASTS WITH EUROPE. THE COASTLINE OF EUROPE IS FOUR THOUSAND MILES LONGER THAN THAT OF AFRICA, WHICH MEANS THAT AFRICA HAS ALMOST NO PENINSULAS, DEEP BAYS, OR NATURAL HARBORS. THE GREAT RIVERS COME TO THE EDGE OF THE CENTRAL PLATEAU AND FALL

SUDDENLY AND VIOLENTLY TO THE OCEAN WHICH MAKES NAVIGATION FROM THE OCEAN DIFFICULT.

THERE IS IN AFRICA, A GREAT CENTRAL PLATEAU; A GREAT DEPRESSION WHERE THE CONGO RIVER DRAINS A MILLION AND A HALF SQUARE MILES; THEN THE GREAT DESERT AREA, IN THE NORTH CALLED THE SAHARA AND CERTAIN DESERT AREAS IN THE SOUTH.

THE CLIMATE FOR THE MOST PART IS TROPICAL EXCEPT IN THE EXTREME NORTH AND SOUTH, WITH CONSTANT HEAT, MUCH RAINFALL, AND MUCH HUMIDITY. IN THE HIGHER CENTRAL REGIONS, THERE IS LUXURIOUS GROWTH OF PLANT LIFE AND DENSE FORESTS. SIXTY MILLION YEARS AGO, REPTILES WANDERED OVER THIS CONTINENT FOLLOWED BY WILD ANIMALS OF ALL SORTS, AND FINALLY, CATTLE, SHEEP, AND GOATS, AND A TREMENDOUS DEVELOPMENT OF INSECTS.

REMEMBER THAT AFRICA IS A BEAUTIFUL LAND, NOT MERELY COMELY AND PLEASANT, BUT HAUNTED WITH SWAMP AND JUNGLE; STERNLY BEAUTIFUL IN ITS

LOVELINESS OF TERROR, ITS DEPTH OF GLOOM, AND FULLNESS OF COLOR; ITS HEAVEN-TEARING PEAKS, ITS SILVER OF ENDLESS SAND, THE MIGHT, WIDTH, AND BREADTH OF ITS RIVERS, DEPTH OF ITS LAKES AND HEIGHT OF ITS HOT, BLUE HEAVEN. THERE ARE MYRIADS OF LIVING THINGS, THE VOICE OF STORM, THE KISS OF PESTILENCE AND PAIN, OLD AND EVER NEW, NEW AND INCREDIBLY ANCIENT.

IT IS PROBABLE THAT THE ANTHROPOID APE WITH GREAT BRAIN, WHO WALKED ERECT, AND USED HIS HANDS AS TOOLS, DEVELOPED ABOUT FIVE HUNDRED THOUSAND YEARS AGO AND PROBABLY FIRST IN AFRICA; ALTHOUGH PERHAPS IN ASIA. ONE SPECIES SURVIVED WHICH BECAME A HUMAN BEING. DESCENDANTS OF THIS SPECIES DEVELOPED OVER TENS OF THOUSANDS OF YEARS, AND SUB-SPECIES HAVE GROWN UP. USUALLY WE DISTINGUISH THREE, BUT SOME HAVE THOUGHT OF EVEN AS MANY AS TWENTY. THE THREE SUB-SPECIES WE USUALLY THINK OF ARE THE LONG-HEADED DARK PEOPLE WITH MORE OR LESS CRINKLY HAIR, WHICH WE KNOW AS NEGROID; THEN THE BROAD-HEADED YELLOW PEOPLE WITH STRAIGHT AND

WIRY HAIR, WHICHE WE CALL MONGOLOID; AND FINALLY THE TYPE BETWEEN THESE, POSSIBLY FORMED BY THEIR UNION, WITH PALE SKIN AND INTERMEDIATE HAIR, KNOWN AS CAUCASOIDS. MOST OF THE PEOPLE OF THE WORLD DO NOT FALL STRICTLY WITHIN ANY OF THESE CATEGORIES SO THAT YOU CANNOT DIVIDE THE WORLD SCIENTIFICALLY INTO THESE THREE RACES; BUT THIS CHARACTERIZATION WILL DO FOR GENERAL PURPOSES.

AFRICA, OF COURSE, IS THE HOME OF THE NEGROIDS AND THEY HAVE WANDERED FROM AFRICA INTO EUROPE AND ASIA; OR POSSIBLY FROM ASIA INTO EUROPE AND AFRICA. TRACES OF THESE BLACK PEOPLE CAN BE FOUND WIDELY DISTRIBUTED OVER THE WORLD. PHYSICALLY THE NEGROIDS ARE DIVIDED INTO ALL SORTS OF PEOPLE, SO THAT THE PHYSICAL DIVERSITY OF AFRICANS IS AS GREAT OF EVEN GREATER THAN THAT OF EUROPEANS OR ASIATICS. SOME WHITE BLOOD HAS ENTERED INTO THE NORTH OF AFRICA WITH THE INVASION OF THE VISIGOTHS; AND MUCH YELLOW MONGOLOID BLOOD CAME FROM THE EAST, FORMING WIDE MIXTURES.

THE AFRICAN THEMSELVES HAVE MIGRATED IN GREAT MASSES SO THAT NORTH OF THE CENTRAL EAST-WEST LINE, YOU FIND A LARGE NUMBER OF DIFFERING PEOPLES AND THEN SOUTH OF THAT LINE TOWARD SOUTH AFRICA, YOU FIND BANTU PEOPLE, WHO ARE NOT HOMOGENEOUS BUT ARE UNITED BY THE FACT THAT THEY SPEAK THE BANTU LANGUAGES.

BEGINNING ABOUT FIVE THOUSAND YEARS BEFORE CHRIST, THERE AROSE A CIVILIZATION IN THE NILE VALLEY, WHICH IS PROBABLY THE OLDEST CIVILIZATION IN THE WORLD. IT CAME WITHOUT DOUBT FROM CENTRAL AFRICA WITH PEOPLE WANDERING INTO THIS NILE VALLEY WHICH OFFERED THEM PROTECTION AND FERTILE LAND. AS A CONSEQUENCE, THERE DEVELOPED THERE, THE EMPIRE OF EGYPT, WHICH GAVE THE WORLD ITS FIRST STABLE CIVILIZATION. THE EARLY PEOPLES OF EGYPT WERE NEGROIDS. AFTERWARD, THERE CAME IN A GREAT MANY MONGOLOID PEOPLE, THAT IS PEOPLE FROM ASIA, SO THAT THE EGYPTIANS OF THE PERIOD OF GREATNESS WERE A MIXED FOLK, CORRESPONDING PHYSICALLY TO THE MULATTOR/

OF AMERICA. ON THEIR PAINTINGS, THEY APPEAR AS BROWN, AND YELLOW, AND SOME AS BLACK AND WHITE. THEIR HAIR IS THE SAME WAY WAS CRINKLED, CURLY AND STRAIGHT.

THE NILE VALLEY WAS MARVELOUS, WHERE A GREAT RIVER FLOWED OUT OF THE HIGHLANDS OF CENTRAL AFRICA AND THE MOUNTAINS OF THE HORN, CUT ITS WAY DOWN THROUGH CLIFFS ON EITHER SIDE CROWNED BY DESERTS. THE VALLEY THUS MADE WAS "BURNING AND FERTILE, WARM, AND SMILING". WINDS FROM THE NORTH TEMPERED THE HEAT OF THE SUN SO THAT THE LAND WAS "GREEN WITH MEADOWS, GOLDEN WITH HARVEST, RED WITH THE BLOOD OF VINES, A PARADISE OF WATER, FRUIT, AND FLOWERS BETWEEN TWO TORRID DESERTS." THE WATERS OF THE RIVERS ROSE AND FELL WITH THE CUMULATIVE EFFECT OF SPRINGTIME FLOODS AND SUMMER HEAT. THE SPECTACLE OF THE INUNDATION; THE MYSTERY OF THE SOURCE OF THE WATERS WHICH W S NOT SOLVED UNTIL THE NINETEENTH CENTURY, HAD VAST EFFECT UPON MANKIND, EGYPTIANS AND ALL WHO CAME AFTER THEM.

THE HISTORY OF CIVILIZATION WHICH BEGAN IN EGYPT WAS NOT SO

MUCH A MATTER OF DYNASTIES AND DATES, AS AN ATTEMPT TO SETTLE CERTAIN PROBLEMS OF LIVING TOGETHER, Of GOVERNMENT, DEFENSE, RELIGION, FAMILY, PROPERTY, SCIENCE, AND ART. WHAT WE MUST REMEMBER IS THAT IN THESE SEVEN LINES OF HUMAN ENDEAVOR, IT WAS AFRICAN EGYPT THAT MADE THE BEGINNING AND SET THE PACE. AS EGYPT DEVELOPED INTO A STRONG, SELF CONTAINING KINGDOM, IT CUT ITSELF OFF FROM THE SOURCE OF ITS POPULATION AND CULTURE OF THE UPPER NILE, THE LAND WHICH THE GREEKS CALLED ETHIOPIA OR THE "LAND OF THE BURNT FACES".

THE GREEKS HAD MANY L GENDS OF ETHIOPIA. "OF ALL THE CLASSICAL COUNTRIES, ETHIOPIA WAS THE MOST ROMANTIC AND THE MOST REMOTE. IT WAS SITUATED, ACCORDING TO THE GREEKS, ON THE EXTREME LIMITS OF THE WORLD; ITS INHABITANTS WERE THE MOST JUST OF MEN, AND JUPITER DINED WITH THEM TWICE A YEAR. THEY BATHED IN THE WATERS OF A VIOLET-SCENTED SPRING, WHICH ENDOWED THEM WITH LONG LIFE, NOBLE BODIES, AND GLOSSY SKINS. THEY CHAINED THEIR PRISONERS WITH GOLDEN FETTERS, THEY HAD BOWS WHICH NONE BUT THEMSELVES COULD BEND." IT IS CERTAIN THAT ETHIOPIA HAD ITS PLACE AMONG THE GREAT POWERS OF THE ANCIENT WORLD. IT IS MENTIONED IN THE JEWISH RECORDS AND IN THE ASSYRIAN CUNEIFORM INSCRIPTIONS. AS THE CULTURE OF ETHIOPIA HAD TERMINATED IN EGYPT SO THE CULTURE OF EGYPT WENT OUT ACROSS THE MEDITERRANEAN, LIGHTING FIRES IN CRETE, INSPIRING ASIA FROM SOUTHERN ARABIA TO SYRIA AND WESTERN ASIA MINOR. IN CRETAN, ART NEGRO HEADS APPEARED, AND IN THE LATE MINOAN AGE, AT THE TIME OF THE EXPANSION OVERSEAS, A BLACK MINOAN CAPTAIN LED NEGRO TROOPS. DOUBTLESS MINOANS MADE USE OF BLACK REGIMENTS IN THEIR FINAL CONQUEST OF GREECE, AND FROM VASES DATED THE LATTER PART OF THE SIXTH CENTURY B.C. IT SEEMS CLEAR THAT ETHIOPIANS ENTERED GREECE EVEN BEFORE THE TIME OF XERXES. HERODOTUS TELLS THAT IN THE ARMY OF XERXES THERE WERE ETHIOPIANS CLOTHED IN LEOPARD AND LION SKINS, AND ARMED WITH BOWS AND ARROWS.

HE DISTINGUISHES BETWEEN ORIENTAL ETHIOPIANS AND WESTERN ETHIOPIANS; BOTH WERE BLACK BUT THE HAIR OF THE FORMER WAS STRAIGHTER, THAN THE CLOSE CURLED-HAIR OF THE LATTER AND THEY SPOKE DIFFERENT LANGUAGES.

AS EGYPT EXPANDED THE ETHIOPIANS WERE PUSHED BACK FROM THE FIRST TO THE SECOND, THIRD, AND FOURTH CATARACTS. WITH THE EIGHTEENTH DYNASTY, THERE CAME A NEW EMPIRE IN EGYPT. IT CAME TO POWER IN 1580 B.C., AND LASTED UNTIL 1345. ITS CENTER OF POWER WAS THEBES, THREE HUNDRED MILES FROM MEMPHIS AND FOUR HUNDRED MILES SOUTH OF THE MEDITERRANEAN. IT WAS LESS THAN ONE HUNDRED MILES FROM THE FIRST CATARACT, THE LEGENDARY SOUTHERN BOUNDARY OF EGYPT. THE POWER OF AAHMES ITS FOUNDER WAS PROBABLY REINFORCED BY HIS MARRIAGE WITH AN ETHIOPIAN PRINCESS. NEFERTARI, OR NOFRITARI, WHO WAS INVARIABLY PAINTED BLACK IN EGYPTIAN ART AND YET WHO WAS, AS PETRIE SAYS, "THE MOST VENERATED FIGURE OF EGYPTIAN HISTORY."

IN THE EIGHTEENTH DYNASTY ALL WORKERS WERE ORGANIZED IN GUILDS UNDER THE STATE. THERE WERE SCRIBES TO GUIDE THEM AND VOICE THE LAW. THERE WERE LOCAL ASSEMBLIES TO STOP OPPRESSION "OF THE FREE MAN". LEGALLY THE PHAROAH OWNED ALL THE LAND, BUT IT WAS ASSIGNED TO INDIVIDUALS AND DESCENDED THROUGH THE ELDEST SON. THE PHAROAH ALWAYS KEPT THE RIGHT OF EMINENT DOMAIN. SOLDIERS WERE ESTABLISHED UPON FREEHOLDS AND THE PRIESTS HAD LARGE HOLDINGS; THEN CAME LANDS ASSIGNED TO THE PEASANTS AND TO TENANTS.

ONE OF THE SUCCESSORS OF AAHMES MARRIED A BLACK WOMAN MUTEMUA AND THEIR SON BUILT THE TEMPLE OF LUZOR AT KARNAK. HIS SON AMENOPHIS IV WHO LATER WAS CALLED AKHEN, WAS ONE OF THE MOST INTERESTING OF THE PHAROAHS. HE BROUGHT REVOLUTION IN THE RELIGION OF EGYPT AND UNDER HIM ROSE UNIVERSAL HUMANITARIANISM.

LATER THE JEWS CAME INTO CLOSE CONTACT WITH ETHIOPIA AND THE BIBLE IS FULL OF ALLUSIONS THE ETHIOPIANS, ESPECIALLY THAT REFERENCE OF THE PROPHET ISIAH.

AH! LAND OF THE BUZZING WINGS, WHICH LIES BEYOND THE RIVERS OF ETHIOPIA, THAT SENDS AMBASSADORS BY SEA,
IN PAPYRUS VESSELS ON THE FACE OF THE WATERS:
TO A NATION TALL AND SLEEK,
TO A NATION DREADED NEAR AND FAR,
TO A NATION STRONG AND TRIUMPHANT,

THE POWER OF EGYPT WAS STRONGEST UNDER THE GREAT RAMESES AND THEN BEGAN TO DECLINE, WHILE THAT OF ETHIOPIA ROSE HIGHER SO THAT BETWEEN SEVEN AND HUNDRED AND FIFTY B.C., A PERIOD OF TWO HUNDRED AND FIFTY YEARS MUCH LONGER THAN THE TIME WHICH THE BRITISH EMPIRE HAS RULED THE WORLD THE GREATEST POWER IN THE WORLD WAS ETHIOPIA UNDER TAHARQA, WHO RULED FROM 658 TO 663. EVENTUALLY HIS POWER WAS OVERTHROWN BY THE RISING

ASIATICS KINGDOMS IN BABYLONIA AND ASYRIA. THEN CAME THE POWER OF PERSIA, GREECE, AND ROME IN SUCCESSION WHICH BRINGS US DOWN TO THE TIME OF THE BIRTH OF CHRIST.

ROME TRIED TO CONQUER THE VALLEY OF THE NILE BUT WAS ONLY SUCCESSFUL ALONG THE LOWER NILE. IN ETHIOPIA AND THE INNER REGIONS OF AFRICA, SHE SUCCEEDED ONLY IN KEEPING TRUCE BY THE HELP OF NEGRO TRIBES. THUS THE HISTORY OF ETHIOPIA MEANS THAT OUT OF THE SOUTH FOR MANY THOUSANDS OF YEARS, MIGRATIONS STREAMED NORTHWARD FOR SETTLEMENT AND FOR TRADE, TO FURNISH SOLDIERS FOR THE ARMIES OF THE PHAROAHS, AND TO REACH A BETTER CLIMATE AND OPPORTUNITIES FOR DEFENSE.

DOWN TOWARD THE HOT CENTER OF AFRICA, HUMAN CULTURE HAD TO FIGHT INSECTS AND DISEASE, AND FOUND NO NATURAL BARRIERS TO PROTECT THEM AGAINST AGGRESSORS. THERE WERE PROBABLY MOVEMENTS SOUTH AND WEST FROM THE GREAT LAKES, BUT THE LURE OF EGYPT ATTRACTED THE LARGER STREAMS; AND AS CHAMBERLAIN HAS SAID, "THIS MIGRATION WAS AT ONCE ADVANTAGEOUS AND DETRIMENTAL TO CENTRAL AFRICA". IT CONTINUALLY SIPHONED OFF THE ABLE AND THE ADVENTUROUS INTO THE GREAT OPPORTUNITIES OF EGYPT. EGYPT PROFITED AND GREW ON THESE NEW RESOURCES OF INSPIRATION. INDIVIDUAL NEGROES BECAME EGYPTIANS AND OCCUPIED HIGH PLACES, BUT LEFT THEIR OWN SOUTHERN BRETHREN THE POORER FROM THIS CONTINUOUS LOSS OF ABILITY AND STRENGTH.

THE DUEL BETWEEN EUROPE AND AFRICA FOR DOMINATION OF THE WORLD CAME WITH THE PUNIC WARS, BEGINNING IN THE THIRD CENTURY B.C. AND ENDING IN ONE HUNDRED FORTY-SIX B.C. THESE WARS STARTED BY ROME AND ATTEMPTED TO DEFEND ITALY AGAINST MIGRATION AND CONQUEST FROM AFRICA, WHERE MONGOLOIDS AND NEGROIDS, WITH SOME INFILTRATION OF GERMANS HAD BUILT THE CITY OF CARTHAGE. HANNIBAL, AND HIS AFRICAN TROOPS BROUGHT A STRONG NEGRO STRAIN INTO THE ITALIAN PENINSULA AND IF WE MAY BELIEVE HIS COINS, HE HIMSELF WAS A NEGRO WITH WOOLLY HAIR.

EVENTUALLY NORTH AFRICA AND THE VALLEY OF THE NILE BECAME THE BIRTHPLACE OF THE CHRISTIAN CHURCH. AS MOMMSEN SAID, "IT WAS THROUGH AFRICA THAT CHRISTIANITY BECAME THE RELIGION OF THE WORLD." TERTULLIAN AND CYPRIAN WERE FROM CARTHAGE, ARNOBIUS FROM SICCA VENERIA; LACTANTIUS, AND PROBABLY IN LIKE MANNER MINUCIUS FELIX, IN SPITE OF THEIR LATIN NAMES, WERE NATIVES OF AFRICA AND NOT LESS SO, AUGUSTINE.

IN AFRICA THE CHURCH FOUND ITS MOST ZEALOUS CONFESSORS OF THE FAITH AND ITS MOST GIFTED DEFENDERS. "ON THE OTHER HAND, THE NEW RELIGION OF MOHAMMEDANISM PRESSED IN FROM THE EAST AND MET CHRISTIANITY AS IT STRETCHE FROM ABYSSINIA UP THE NILE VALLEY. THE ABYSSINIANS HAD ONCE HELD BOTH ARABIA AND THE HIGHLANDS OF AFRICA BUT EVENTUALLY THEY WERE EXPELLED FROM ARABIA AND KEPT THEMSELVES ON THE HIGHLANDS, WHERE, AS GIBBON SAID, "EM-COMPASSED BY THE ENEMIES OF THEIR RELIGION, THE ETHIPIANS SLEPT FOR NEARLY A THOUSAND YEARS FORGETFUL OF THE WORLD BY WHOM THEY WERE FORGOTTEN."

THROUGHOUT THE MIDDLE AGES, THE LEGEND OF THIS CHRISTIAN KINGDOM UNDER PRESTER JOHN PERSISTED. AT ONE TIME, THE ABYSSINIANS ESTABLISHED THEMSELVES AT MEROE, BUT WERE DRIVEN BACK BY THE NUBIANS WHO HAD MADE LEAGUE WITH ROME. SO MUCH FOR THE NILE VALLEY.

NOW WE MAY TURN TO THE WEST COAST WHERE FOR FIVE HUNDRED YEARS B.C. TO THE SIXTEENTH CENTURY, THERE DEVELOPED AMONG A PURE NEGROID PEOPLE, ONE OF THE WORLDS MOST IMPORTANT CULTURES. ITS RECORD WAS NOT WRITTEN IN STONE LIKE THAT OF THE NILE VALLEY, BECAUSE THERE WAS LITTLE STONE IN WEST AFRICA AND MANUSCRIPTS COULD WITHSTAND THE HUMIDITY. THERE DEVELOPED, INSTEAD, AN ASTONISHING SYSTEM OF ORAL RECORDS, OF LEGENDS AND LITERATURE, PASSED ON BY WORDS OF MOUTH AND HELD IN THE MEMORY OF MEN. THESE COULD BE CHECKED BY THE CUSTOMS AND WAYS OF LIVING, AND WHILE THIS HISTORICAL RECORD IS NOT AS ACCURATE AS WRITTEN RECORDS, IT HAS A LARGE AND RELIABLE DEGREE OF TRUTH.

ONE OF THE EXTRAORDINARY DEVELOPMENTS OF CIVILIZATION IN AFRICA WAS ON THE WEST COAST AROUND THE GREAT GULF OF GUINEA. FROBENIUS HAS FANCIFULLY CALLED THIS "ATLANTIS" AND REGARDS IT AS POSSIBLY A DEVELOPMENT OF THE CULTURE OF THAT FABLED ISLAND IN THE ATLANTIC. WHATEVER ITS ORIGIN, THERE GREW UP ON THE WEST COAST OF AFRICA A PECULIARLY AFRICAN STATE. HOW FAR BACK ITS DEVELOPMENT EXTENDS, NO MAN KNOWS. WE HAVE A FAIRLY AUTHENTIC HISTORY FROM THE SEVENTEENTH CENTURY ON, CREDITABLE BUT DISCONTINUOUS REPORTS IN THE SIXTEENTH AND FIFTEENTH, AND BEFORE THAT ONLY CUSTOMS, TRADITIONS AND LEGEND. ON A COAST PROTECTED FROM INLAND BY MOUNTAIN, FOREST, AND DESERT, AND ON THE WEST BY THE OCEAN, THERE GREW UP AN AGRICULTURAL CULTURE, CENTERING IN THE VILLAGE. ON THIS WAS DEVELOPED IN TIME, INDUSTRY AND ART. INDUSTRY DISCOVERED DIVISION OF LABOR BETWEEN CITIES; EACH TOWN HAD ITS OWN PECULIAR INDUSTRY AND THEN TRADED ITS SURPLUS WITH THE OTHER TOWNS. THE TOWNS WERE UNITED IN A LOOSE CONFEDERACY WITH COUNCILS AND CHIEFS.

PHOENICIANS TRADED ON THE WEST COAST AND CARTHAGINIANS. CLOTH AND TOOLS WERE MADE. WEAVING AND WOOD CARVING; IN FACT THE ART DEVELOPED ON THIS WEST COAST IS ONE OF THE FEW GREAT PRIMITIVE ARTS OF THE WORLD. BRONZE WAS MADE AND CAST. POTTERY WAS FASHIONED. IT MAY WELL BE THAT THE WEST COAST NEGROES FIRST GAVE TO CIVILIZATION, THE ART OF WELDING IRON, WHICH SPREAD OVER ALL AFRICA AND THEN EVENTUALLY INTO EUROPE AND ASIA. IT IS OF COURSE POSSIBLE THAT IRON WELDING WAS DISCOVERED ON OTHER CONTINENTS INDEPENDENTLY OF AFRICA, BUT NO CONTINENT HAD SO WIDE A USE OF IRON IN EARLIEST TIMES.

CONCERNING WEST AFRICAN ART IN GENERAL, SIR MICHAEL SADLER SAID, "WEST AFRICA HAD MADE ITS OWN CHARACTERISTIC CONTRIBUTION TO THE ARTISTIC TREASURES OF THE WORLD." SIR WILLIAM ROTHENSTEIN ADDED: "I KNOW NOTHING OF THE CULTURE WHICH PRODUCED THESE NOBLE PIECES, NOR WHAT INFLUENCES, NATIVE OR ALIEN, INSPIRED THEM; I KNOW ONLY THAT THEY ARE SUPERB WORKS OF ART, WORTHY TO BE SET BESIDE THE BEST EXAMPLES OF SCULPTURE OF ANY PERIOD." ACCORDING TO J.J. SWEENEY, THE AMERICAN CRITIC, "AS A SCULPTURAL TRADITION, AFRICAN ART HAD HAD NO RIVAL."

IN DRUM AND STRINGS, AFRICAN MUSIC REACHED A HIGH DEGREE OF ORIGINALITY AND PERFECTION. THE DEVELOPMENT OF THE DRUM LANGUAGE BY INTRICATE RHYTHMS ENABLED THE NATIVES NOT ONLY TO LEAD IN DANCE AND CEREMONY, BUT TO TELEGRAPH ALL OVER THE CONTINENT WITH A SWIFTNESS AND PRECISION HARDLY RIVALED BY THE ELECTRIC TELEGRAPH

35-1-78

THE AFRICAN NEGROES ARE UNCOMMONLY GIFTED FOR MUSIC, PROBABLY, ON AN AVERAGE, MORE SO THAN THE WHITE RACE. THIS IS CLEAR NOT ONLY FROM THE HIGH DEVELOPMENT OF AFRICAN MUSIC, ESPECIALLY AS REGARDS POLYPHONY AND RHYTHM, BUT A VERY CURIOUS FACT UNPARALLELED, PERHAPS, IN HISTORY, MAKES IT EVEN MORE EVIDENT; NAMELY, THE FACT THAT NEGRO SLAVES IN AMERICA

AND THEIR DESCENDANTS, ABANDONING THEIR ORIGINAL MUSIC STYLE, HAVE ADAPTED THEMSELVES TO THAT OF THEIR WHITE MASTERS AND PRODUCED A NEW KIND OF FOLK MUSIC IN THAT STYLE. PRESUMABLY NO OTHER PEOPLE WOULD HAVE ACCOMPLISHED THIS. IN FACT, THE PLANTATION SONGS AND SPIRITUALS AND ALSO THE BLUES AND RAGTIMES WHICH HAVE LAUNCHED OR HELPED TO LAUNCH OUR MODERN DANCE MUSIC, ARE THE ONLY REMARKABLE KINDS OF MUSIC BROUGHT FORTH IN AMERICA BY IMMIGRANTS.

PROFESSOR VON LUSCHAN CONSIDERED THE CRAFTMANSHIP OF BENIN WORKERS EQUAL TO THE BEST THAT WAS EVER PRODUCED BY CELLINI. YET AT THE TIME THEY WERE CREATING,,"IN 1550, NOT A SINGLE PEASANT'S HOUSE IN SCANDINAVIA HAD A WINDOW; AND AS LATE AS 1773 DR. JOHNSON AND BOSWELL ENTERED DURING THEIR TOUR OF THE HEBRIDES, A HOVEL WHICH 'FOR A WINDOW HAD ONLY A SMALL HOLE, WHICH WAS STOPPED WITH A PIECE OF TURF, THAT WAS TAKEN OUT OCCASIONALLY TO LET IN LIGHT.' IN BERLIN AT THE TIME OF THE GREAT ELECTOR (1681), MANY HOUSES IN THE CAPITAL HAD PIGSTIES IMMEDIATELY BELOW THE FRONT WINDOWS."

FROBENIUS WROTE OF WEST AFRICAN CULTURES: "WHAT THESE OLD CAPTAINS RECOUNTED, THESE CHIEFS OF EXPEDITIONS-DELBES, MARCHAIS, PIGAFETTA, AND ALL THE OTHERS, WHAT THEY RECOUNTED IS TRUE. IT CAN BE VERIFIED. IN THE OLD ROYAL KUNSTKAMMER OF DRESDEN, IN THE WEYDEMANN COLLECTION OF ULM, IN MANY ANOTHER 'CABINET OF CURIOSITIES' OF EUROPE, WE STILL FIND WEST AFRICAN COLLECTIONS DATING FROM THIS EPOCH. MARVELLOUS PLUSH VELVETS OF AN EXTREME SOFTNESS, MADE OF THE TENDEREST LEAVES OF A CERTAIN KIND OF BANANA PLANT; STUFFS SOFT AND SUPPLE, BRILLIANT AND DELICATE, LIKE SILKS, WOVEN WITH THE FIBRE OF A RAFFIA, WELL PREPARED; POWERFUL JAVELINS WITH POINTS ENCRUSTED WITH COPPER IN THE MOST ELEGANT FASHION; BOWS SO GRACEFUL IN FORM AND BEAUTIFULLY ORNAMENTED THAT THEY WOULD DO HONOR TO ANY MUSEUM OF ARM WHATSOEVER; CALABASHES DECORATED WITH THE GREATEST TASTE; SCULPTURE IN IVORY AND WOOD OF WHICH THE WORK SHOWS A VERY GREAT DEAL OF APPLICATION AND STYLE."

THE POLITICAL DEVELOPMENT OF THE WEST COAST WAS NOTABLE AND THE ECONOMIC ORGANIZATION APPROACHED THE MODERN WORLD. THE WHOLE CULTURE COMPLEX OF THE AFRICAN WEST COAST IS NATIVE AND ORIGINAL. IT IS A PICTURE OF THE DEVELOPMENT OF HUMAN INSTITUTIONS UNIQUE IN THE HISTORY OF MANKIND, AND WE CAN ONLY LAMENT THAT WE KNOW SO LITTLE OF IT AND HAVE STUDIED IT SO IMPERFECTLY. THIS BODY OF CULTURE GREW UP STRONG AND SELF CONTAINED UPON THE WEST COAST, AND MET IN TIME THE SUDDEN IMPACT OF TWO OUTER FORCES: ISLAM FROM THE NORTH AND CHRISTIANITY FROM THE WEST.

CENTRAL AFRICA BEFORE THE YEAR ONE THOUSAND B.C. WAS A REGION OF LARGE STATES, LIKE THAT OF THE KITWARA, THE BUSHONGO, AND ESPECIALLY OF THE MONOMOTAPA. CERTAIN IT IS THAT THE GREATEST KINGDOM OF CENTRAL AFRICA WAS THAT OF THE MONOMOTAPA, AND THE GREATEST CULTURAL REMAINS OF THE MONOMOTAPA ARE THE CELEBRATED RUINS OF ZIMBABWE. ANY EARLY NEGRO MIGRATION HAD OVERTHROWN AND REORGANIZED IT, ESTABLISHING AMONG THE MAKA-LANGA, MATABELE, AND MASHONA, A LINE OF RULERS CALLED THE MONOMOTAPA. INTO THIS REALM OF MONOMOTAPA AND OTHER KINGDOMS, CAME ABOUT A THOUSAND YEARS B.C., THE MARCH OF THE BANTUS. THEY WERE DRIVEN OUT OF THE SUDAN BY A DEVELOPMENT OF KINGDOMS, TO WHICH I WILL REFER LATER, AND CAME DOWN AND CONQUERED AND OVERWHELMED CENTRAL AFRICA. SO MUCH SO TODAY, THAT ALL THE LANGUAGES OF CENTRAL AFRICA ARE BANTU.

35-1-80

IN THE MEANTIME, OTHER DEVELOPMENTS WERE TAKING PLACE. ASIA, AFTER HER CONQUEST OF EGYPT, OCCUPIED THE NILE VALLEY AND BEGAN TO SPREAD INTO NORTHERN AFRICA. BUT THIS WAS NOT A CONQUEST, IT WAS AN INFILTRATION.

THE ARABS BROUGHT THE NEW RELICION OF MOHAMMED INTO NORTH AFRICA. DURING THE SEVENTH CENTURY THEY DID NOT MIGRATE IN GREAT NUMBERS;

SPAIN WAS CONQUERED NOT BY ARABS, BUT BY ARMIES OF BERBERS AND NEGROIDS LED BY ARABS. LATER, IN THE ELEVENTH CENTURY, ANOTHER WAVE OF ARABS CAME, BUT THE NUMBER WAS NEVER LARGE AND THEIR PRESTIGE CAME FROM THEIR RELIGION AND THEIR LANGUAGE, WHICH BECAME A LINGUA FRANCA FOR THE PEOPLES NORTH AND SOUTH OF THE SAHARA. THE TOTAL SUBSTITUTION OF ARABIAN FOR BERBER OR NEGRO BLOOD WAS SMALL.

ANYONE WHO HAS TRAVELED IN THE SUDAN KNOWS THAT MOST OF THE "ARABS" HE HAS MET ARE DARK-SKINNED, SOMETIMES PRACTICALLY BLACK, OFTEN HAVE NEGROID FEATURES, AND HAIR THAT MAY BE ALMOST NEGRO IN QUALITY. IT IS THEN OBVIOUS THAT IN AFRICA THE TERM "ARAB" IS APPLIED TO ANY PEOPLE PROFESSING ISLAM, HOWEVER MUCH RACE MIXTURE HAS OCCURRED, SO THAT WHILE THE TERM HAS A CULTURAL VALUE, IT IS OF LITTLE ETHNIC SIGNIFICANCE AND IS OFTEN MISLEADING.

IN THE ELEVENTH CENTURY THERE WAS QUITE A LARGE ARAB IMMIGRATION. THE BERBERS AND SOME NEGROES BY THAT TIME HAD ADOPTED THE ARAB TONGUE AND THE MOHAMMEDAN RELIGION, AND MOHAMMEDANISM HAD SPREAD SLOWLY SOUTHWARD ACROSS THE SAHARA. IN THE NILE VALLEY, ASIATIC AND NEGRO RULERS REIGNED.

MEANTIME THE DEVELOPMENT IN THE GREAT SUDAN WAS ASTONISHING. FROBENIUS SAYS, "THE REVELATIONS OF FIFTEENTH AND SEVENTEENTH CENTURY NAVIGATORS FURNISH US WITH CERTAIN PROOF THAT NEGRO AFRICA, WHICH EXTENDED SOUTH OF THE SAHARA DESERT ZONE, WAS STILL IN FULL BRILLIANCE OF HARMONIOUS AND WELL-FORMED CIVILIZATIONS. IN THE LAST CENTURY THE SUPERSTITION RULED THAT ALL HIGH CULTURE OF AFRICA CAME FROM ISLAM. SINCE THEN WE HAVE LEARNED MUCH, AND WE KNOW TODAY THAT THE BEAUTIFUL TURBANS AND CLOTHES OF THE SUDANESE FOLK WERE ALREADY USED IN AFRICA BEFORE MOHAMMED WAS EVEN BORN OR BEFORE ETHIOPIAN CULTURE REACHED INNER AFRICA. SINCE THEN WE HAVE LEARNED THAT THE PECULIAR ORGANIZATION OF THE SUDANESE STATES EXISTED

THUS IN THE SUDAN, OLD REAL AFRICAN WARM-BLOODED CULTURE EXISTED AND COULD BE FOUND IN EQUATORIAL AFRICA, WHERE NEITHER ETHIOPIAN THOUGHT, HAMITIC BLOOD, OR EUROPEAN CIVILIZATION HAD DRAWN THE PATTERN. EVERYWHERE WHEN WE EXAMINE THIS ANCIENT CULTURE IT BEARS THE SAME IMPRESSION. IN THE GREAT MUSEUMS-TROCADERO, BRITISH MUSEUM, IN BELGIUM, ITALY, HOLLAND, AND GERMANY - EVERYWHERE WE SEE THE SAME SPIRIT , THE SAME CHARACTER, THE SAME NATURE. ALL OF THESE SEPARATE PIECES EQUALLY IMPRESSIVE AS THAT OF A COLLECTION OF THE ART OF ASIA. THE STRIKING BEAUTY OF THE CLOTH, THE FANTASTIC BEAUTY OF THE DRAWING AND THE SCULPTURE? THE GLORY OF IVORY WEAPONS; THE COLLECTION OF FAIRY TALES EQUAL TO THE THOUSAND AND ONE NIGHTS, THE CHINESE NOVELS AND THE INDIAN PHILOSOPHY."

IT WAS ASIA AND AFRICA WHICH IN THE THIRTEENTH CENTURY PREPARED EUROPE FOR THE RENAISSANCE THROUGH GENGHIS KHAN AND THE CRUSADES. NEGROES WERE BUILDING THEN IN THE SUDAN THE BEGINNINGS OF THE GREAT STATES WHICH FLOURISHED IN THE FOURTEENTH CENTURY AND WHICH BECAME AN INTEGRAL PART OF THE CULTURAL COMPLEX OF THE MIDDLE AGES.

IN THE WEST THE MOSLEMS FIRST CAME INTO TOUCH WITH THE NEGRO KINGDOM OF GHANA. HERE LARGE QUANTITIES OF GOLD WERE GATHERED IN EARLY DAYS, AND WE HAVE THE NAMES OF SEVENTY-FOUR RULERS BEFORE A.D. 300, RUNNING THROUGH TWENTY-ONE GENERATIONS. THIS WOULD TAKE US BACK APPROXIMATELY A THOUSAND YEARS, TO 700B.C., OR ABOUT THE TIME THAT PHARAOH NECHO OF EGYPT SENT OUT THE PHOENICIAN EXPEDITION WHICH CIRCUMNAVIGATED AFRICA; AND POSSIBLY BEFORE THE TIME WHEN HANNO, THE CARTHAGINIAN, EXPLORED THE WEST COAST OF AFRICA.

BY THE MIDDLE OF THE ELEVENTH CENTURY GHANA WAS THE PRINCIPAL

KINGDOM IN THE WESTERN SUDAN. IN THE NINTH AND TENTH CENTURIES GHANA FLOURISHED, BUT TOWARD THE MIDDLE OF THE ELEVENTH CENTURY BEGAN TO DECLINE, PROBABLY BECAUSE OF THE ENCROACHMENT OF THE DESERT AND THE ATTACK OF THE ALMORAVIDES. GHANA CEASED TO EXIST ABOUT THE MIDDLE OF THE THIRTEENTH CENTURY. (ITS SITE WAS EXCAVATED IN 1914 AND VESTIGES OF A GREAT CITY WERE FOUND, WITH RUINS OF KNOWN STONE CONSTRUCTION.)

THE GREAT SONGHAY STATE, FOUNDED ABOUT 600, BEGAN TO DEVELOP BUT WAS OVERSHADOWED BY THE KINGDOM OF MELLE. MELLE WAS THE KINGDOM OF THE MANDINGOS WHERE THERE RULED AND STILL RULES WHAT DELAFOSSE CALLED "PROBABLY THE MOST ANCIENT DYNASTY OF THE WORLD." FOR SEVEN HUNDRED YEARS THE VILLAGE ON THE UPPER NIGER WAS THE PRINCIPAL CAPITAL OF ONE OF THE LARGEST KINGDOMS IN AFRICA, THE EMPIRE OF THE MANDINGOS, OR MELLE. FOR SEVERAL CENTURIES THE MANSAS, OR KINGS OF THE MANDINGOS, RULED THEIR LITTLE VILLAGE. WHEN IN 1050 THE KING WAS CONVERTED TO ISLAMISM BY THE ALMORAVIDES, HE MADE A PILGRIMAGE TO MECCA AND ESTABLISHED RELATIONS WITH NEIGHBORING STATES.

EUROPE WAS AT THE TIME JUST EMERGING FROM THE DARK AGES AND WAS FULL OF "ROBBERS, FETISHMENT, AND SLAVES". THE MANDINGAN EMPIRE OF MELLE OCCUPIED NEARLY THE WHOLE OF WHAT IS NOW FRENCH AFRICA AND PART OF BRITISH WEST AFRICA. ITS RULERS WERE IN CLOSE COMMUNICATION WITH THE RULERS OF THE SHORES SOUTH AND NORTH OF THE MEDITERRANEAN. IBAN BATUTA WROTE IN 1352, "THE NEGROES POSSESS SOME ADMIRABLE QUALITIES. THEY ARE SELDOM UNJUST, AND HAVE A GREATER ABHORRENCE OF INJUSTICE THAN ANY OTHER PEOPLE. THEIR SULTAN SHOWS NO MERCY TO ANYONE WHO IS GUILTY OF THE LEAST ACT OF IT. THERE IS COMPLETE SECURITY IN THE COUNTRY. NEITHER TRAVELLER NOR INHABITANT IN IT HAS ANYTHING TO FEAR FROM ROBBERS OR MEN OF VIOLENCE. THEY DO NOT CONFISCATE THE PROPERTY OF ANY WHITE MAN WHO DIES IN THEIR COUNTRY, IF IT BE UNCOUNTED WEALTH. ON THE CONTRARY,

THEY GIVE IT INTO THE CHARGE OF SOME TRUSTWORTHY PERSON AMONG THE WHITES, UNTIL THE RIGHTFUL HEIR TAKES POSSESSION OF IT.

ONE "HAS THE IMPRESSION THAT MANDINGO WAS A REAL STATES WHOSE ORGANIZATION AND CIVILIZATION COULD BE COMPARED WITH THOSE OF THE MUSSELMAN KINGDOMS OR INDEED THE CHRISTIAN KINGDOMS OF THE SAME EPOCH".

THE GREATEST DEVELOPMENT OF CIVILIZATION IN AFRICA, AFTER EGYPT, AROSE LATE IN THE FIFTEENTH CENTURY IN THE EMPIRE OF THE SONGHAY, EAST OF THE MELLESTINE. THE STORY IS THAT A KING OF MELLE, RETURNING FROM A PILGRIMAGE TO MECCA, STOPPED AT TIMBUKTU, WHERE A BLACK AND ANCIENT DYNASTY WAS RULING. HE SEIZED TWO YOUNG PRINCES AND CARRIED THEM HOME TO EDUCATE THEM AND BRING THEM UP SUBSERVIENT TO HIS POWER. EVENTUALLY THEY ESCAPED, RETURNED HOME, AND FOUNDED THE SONGHAY STATE. IT EXPANDED RAPIDLY; FIRST WESTWARD, WHERE IT ABSORBED THE MELLESTINE AND THE [illegible]NI

OF ANCIENT GHANA. THEN IT TURNED SOUTH AND DROVE THE PEOPLES OF THE MOSSI AND THE CITY-STATES OF THE COAST SOUTH, BEYOND THE KONG MOUNTAINS. UNDER THE VICTORIOUS SONNI ALI, THE SONGHAY BEGAN TO EXPAND EAST TOWARD THE NILE VALLEY, STARTING EVER-WIDENING CENTERS OF CULTURE AMONG THE HAUSSA, THE PEOPLES OF BORNU; AND CENTURIES LATER AMONG THE FUNG AND THE FOLK OF KANUM UNTIL IN THE NINETEENTH CENTURY THIS WESTERN CULTURE CAME IN CONTACT WITH MEHEMET ALI IN EGYPT AND THE NUBIANS OF THE SUDAN.

THE ORGANIZED SONGHAY STATE AT THE HEIGHT OF ITS POWER UNDER THE BLACK MOHAMMEDAN ASKIA THE GREAT WAS A REMARKABLE STATE FROM ANY POINT OF VIEW. ITS ORGANIZED ADMINISTRATION, ITS ROADS AND METHODS OF COMMUNICATION, ITS SYSTEM OF PUBLIC SECURITY, PUT IT ABREAST OF ANY CONTEMPORARY EUROPEAN OR ASIATIC STATE. IT WAS A LARGE AS EUROPE. THE EMPEROR "WAS OBEYED WITH AS MUCH DOCILITY ON THE FARTHEST LIMITS OF HIS EMPIRE AS IN HIS OWN PALACE". GAO, TIMBUKTU, AND JENNE GATHERED THOUSANDS

OF STUDENTS OF LAW, LITERATURE, GRAMMAR, GEOGRAPHY, AND SURGERY. A LITERATURE BEGAN TO DEVELOP IN THE SIXTEENTH AND SEVENTEENTH CENTURIES. THE UNIVERSITY WAS IN CORRESPONDENCE WITH THE BEST INSTITUTIONS ON THE MEDITERRANEAN COAST.

THESE SUDANESE KINGDOMS WERE KNOWN IN EUROPE. THE GREAT EPIC OF PARSIFAL WRITTEN IN GERMANY, HAS ONE OF ITS HEROS, A BLACK HALF-BROTHER OF PARSIFAL. SHAKESPEARE'S OTHELLO WAS BASED ON THIS HISTORY AND THE BLACK KING AMONG THE THREE KINGS WHO VISITED THE BLACK VIRGIN, ALL COME FROM THE TIME WHEN EUROPE HAD THE GREATEST RESPECT FOR AFRICA DEVELOPMENT.

THUS WE MAY EASILY SEE THAT BY OMITTING OR FORGETTING THE HISTORY OF AFRICA, THE MODERN WORLD HAS MADE IT EASY TO FALL INTO THE ERRONEOUS ASSUMPTIONS OF RACE INFERIORITY AND THE ATTEMPT TO RULE THE WORLD FROM EUROPE. THE MEANING OF THE FIRST AND SECOND WORLD WARS AND OF

THE PRESENT ERA IS THAT AFRICA MUST BE REMEMBERED AND IN THE FUTURE PROGRESSIVELY GIVEN ITS PLACE AS ONE OF THE GREAT CONTINENTS OF THE WORLD.

THE COLONIAL PEOPLES

W.E.B. DuBois

When I was graduated from college in the nineties our attitude towards the colonial peoples was clear and apparently well-based. They were looked upon as backward peoples; as people who had made some degree of advance in civilization, and then, for unexplained reasons, had stood still, or even turned backwards. We believed their future depended upon the leadership of Europe and North America. Basing our thought upon the new doctrine of evolution, we believed that these people could make some advance, although very slowly and never an advance as great as that accomplished by Nordic people. It was our duty, therefore, to take up "the white man's burden;" to convert Asia and Africa to Christianity, and especially to put them to work for the industry and commerce of the world.

A half century of revolution in thought, work, and government has definitely changed our ideas. In the first place, we are not today convinced that our past attitude towards Asia and Africa was solely for the advance of these people; but rather, because having huge profits and established the new capitalism out of the slave trade, slavery, and colonialism, we had rationalized the situation, and tried to make ourselves believe that this was done not for our advantage, but in philanthropy towards backwards peoples.

We have begun to realize today that the differences among peoples are not necessarily matters of inferiority or superiority; but rather different ways in which cultural groups have tried to solve the problems of social living; and the success of Europe and America is not necessarily an unique triumph of brain, but rather a matter of unusual opportunity to work out certain ideas, which the peoples of Asia and Africa were trying to solve in different ways and failed, not because their cultural patterns were inferior but because they did not have a chance to develop them.

Particularly, we have begun to realize that Asia has been one of the great centers of human culture; that there have germinated all of the great religions and a spiritual life far deeper and more beautiful than anything born elsewhere in the world. We have begun to see that social progress even in Europe and America might have been helped by the attitude of Africa towards the land, and by its development of the concept of the family.

But even more than that, we have been realising that the progress of democracy in Europe and America has been definitely hindered by our attitude towards colonial peoples; that the degradation of labor in Asia and Africa has put in competition to the rising laboring classes in the Western world a poorly paid, ignorant, and diseased laboring mass in the rest of the world; and also placed in the hands of the rulers of industry in Europe and America the power to oppose and negative democracy at home---a power such as they could not have gained in their own land. When therefore today we look towards a new freedom and a real growth of democratic effort in the world, we know that the first real step has got to be taken in the colonies.

There can be no freedom and political power for labor in the Western world so long as the labor of Asia and Africa is enslaved. There can be no exercise of democratic power in Europe or in North America so long as the opponents of democratic power are armed with the indispensable raw materials raised by cheap labor in Asia, Africa, and islands of the seas. Thus, the problem today is what attitude America is going to take towards the colonial system. Some of us are quite willing to stand aside and to preen ourselves upon the assumed fact that we Americans are not imperialists, because we have few colonies. That is not true. We are imperialists, not only because of our ownership of Puerto Rico, and Alaska, and Hawaii, and our partial ownership of the Philippines, but even more because the invested capital of America is a decisive element in South Africa, in the Congo, in East Africa, and in the West Indies, not to mention South America. The attitude of the United States of America, therefore, is going to be decisive for colonialism.

More than that, low wages in Africa and Asia depress wages in Europe and America. Monopoly of wealth, accumulated in colonies, gives wealth tremendous power over government and society in Europe and America, as gold diamonds, copper, ivory, cocoa, coffee, rubber, and spices show. How far is it possible that our efforts to help the East, past and present, have not only hindered Asia but even been to the disadvantage of America?

The British Foreign Office and the American Department of State for a long time have been regarded as the domain of expert opinion, into which the public was not supposed to penetrate or to give competent advice. But it has gradually dawned upon the American and British people that the peoples of the rest of the world are not foreign in the sense of having no connection with home affairs. On the contrary, in this world medley of nations who are, despite the difficulties, become one world, the relations between the groups of this world are of great and pressing importance.

Especially in America we are beginning to realize that what is happening in China and in India, in Indonesia and the Far East generally, is of importance, not simply because we sympathize with those people, but because their action and our action towards them are of great weight in the development of our own country. In the Conference on American Policy in China and the Far East, to be held in New York this week, January 23-25, you are going to hear from the various delegates concerning the attempts that have been made recently in America to aid China and what the results are. You know the long history of the past of missionary effort and industrial penetration on the part of America. The question is now: How far was this really of advantage to the Chinese; what effect do our efforts to help have upon them and upon us; and what ought we to do? Is the present policy of the Department of State calculated to help Asia and to help the United States of America? It is for this reason that this conference has been called and you are going to hear persons talk who know about the situation, and you are going to have the opportunity to talk yourselves.

CIVIL RIGHTS AND DEMOCRACY

IT IS CLEAR TO ALL OF US, THAT AT PRESENT WE ARE SUFFERING FROM A VERY REAL ATTACK UPON CIVIL RIGHTS IN THE UNITED STATES. I HAVE TRIED TO SET DOWN SOME FIFTEEN ITEMS AND GROUPS, IN WHICH THIS FACT IS CLEARLY INDICATED. THERE CAN BE NO DOUBT BUT WHAT THE FREEDOM TO THINK TODAY HAS BECOME, IN MANY LINES OF THOUGHT, DANGEROUS; ESPECIALLY IS IT DIFFICULT TO SPEAK FREELY OR TO USE OTHER FORMS OF EXPRESSION, LIKE WRITING, PAINTING, THE RADIO, THE CINEMA AND THE THEATER. THERE IS STILL DIFFICULTY ABOUT THE FREEDOM OF BELIEF, NOT ONLY IN RELIGIOUS MATTERS, BUT IN MATTERS OF WORK AND INCOME.

ORGANIZATION AND PETITION, PARTICULARLY IF IT HAS TO DO WITH SOCIAL CHANGE OF ANY SORT IS UNDER SUSPICION. PERHAPS IN NO CATEGORY IS THERE MORE OPEN INJUSTICE THAN IN ARREST, CONFINEMENT AND ILL-TREATMENT BY THE POLICE; DELAYED TRIALS, UNCLEAR CHARGES AND ABSENCE OF CONFRONTING WITNESSES. THERE IS A GREAT DEAL OF SPYING UPON THE PEOPLE'S THOUGHTS AND ACTIONS. THERE IS DIFFICULTY FOR MANY IN SELECTING HOMES AND PLACES OF RESIDENCE; IN THE BUYING AND SELLING OF LAND AND H USES. THERE ARE LIMITATIONS UPON TRANSPORT AND TRAVEL; NOT ONLY WITHIN THIS COUNTRY, BUT TO OTHER COUNTRIES. THERE IS DISCRIMINATION IN THE ARMY AND NAVY, BASED NOT ONLY UPON COLOR BUT ON OTHER LESS DEFINABLE MATTERS. THERE IS DISCRIMINATION IN EDUCTTION: IN THE KIND OF EDUCATION ALLOWED AND IN THE KIND OF INFORMATION WHICH PEOPLE CAN RECEIVE CONCERNING THE FACTS AND OCCURENCES IN THIS COUNTRY AND ELSEWHERE.

THERE IS DIFFICULTY IN MAINTAINING HEALTH IN THIS COUNTRY GETTING SERVICE OF PHYSICIANS AND BEING ADMITTED TO HOSPITALS. THERE IS WIDE DISCRIMINATION IN VOTING: PROHIBITIONS? SUCH AS THE POLL TAX, DIFFICULTIES OF GETTING PERSONS ON THE TICKETS

AND TECHNICAL HINDRANCES TO VOTE EXPRESSION. THERE IS STILL FORCED LABOR, NOT ONLY IN JAILS AND PLACES OF DETENTION BUT IN CERTAIN KINDS OF WORK, LIKE PLANTATIONS AND INDUSTRIAL ENTERPRISES. THERE IS DIFFICULTY ABOUT WORK; NOT ONLY THE KIND OF WORK THAT A PERSON MAY WANT TO DO, BUT WHETHER ANY WORK AT ALL IS AVAILABLE: WHETHER THE PAY IS ADEQUATE OR THE CONDITIONS OF WORK, DECENT; PARTICULARLY THE MATTER OF WORK IS HITCHED UP WITH THE FEAR OF OLD AGE, SECURITY; OF ACCIDENTS AND SICKNESS. THERE IS THE THREAT OF THE MOB AND VIOLENCE, AND PARTICULARLY IN OUR DAY THERE IS HINDRANCE IN SCIENTIFIC RESEARCH.

HOW DOES THIS COME TO HAPPEN? WHAT IS WRONG WITH THE WORLD THAT AFTER SO LONG AND VIGOROUS A FIGHT TO MAINTAIN THESE RIGHTS, FROM THE DAY OF THE MAGNA CHARTA DOWN TO OUR OWN LAST CONGRESS? WHY HAS THERE BEEN IN THE UNITED STATES AND ELSEWHERE A DISTINCT RETROGRESSION IN THE RECOGNITION OF CIVIL RIGHTS? UNDOUBTEDLY THE CAUSE IS CLEAR AND THAT IS

TWO WARS OF SUCH DIMENSIONS, AND WITH SUCH RESULTS, THAT THE WHOLE PHYSICAL WORLD HAS BEEN CHANGED, AND THE MENTAL AND SPIRITUAL WORLD TRANSFORMED ALMOST BEYOND RECOGNITION. NOT ONLY HAS THERE BEEN THESE TWO WORLD WARS, BUT THERE HAS BEEN A HISTORY OF ALMOST CONTINUOUS MINOR WARS DURING THE NINETEENTH AND TWENTIETH CENTURIES WHICH HAVE GIVEN US A WAR PSYCHOSIS.

NOTE, AS RESULT AND CAUSE OF WAR, HAS COME WIDESPREAD FEAR: THE FEAR OF NATIONS FOR THEIR FUTURE: OF GROUPS FOR THEIR INTEGRITY; OF CULTURES FOR THEIR SURVIVAL. WE LIVE IN A WORLD OF DESPERATE FEAR. PERHAPS PRACTICALLY AN EVEN GREATER DIFFICULTY HAS BEEN THE VARIATION OF INCOME AMONG PEOPLES. THE AMOUNT WHICH THEY COULD EARN AND WHICH THEY HAD A RIGHT TO SPEND HAS VARIED, AND VARIED TO SUCH AN EXTENT THAT FEW PEOPLE EVEN IN CIVILIZED COUNTRIES ARE SURE THAT THEY WILL ESCAPE WANT AND POVERTY

NO MATTER HOW HARD AND CONTINUOUSLY THEY WORK; AND FINALLY, WITH THIS AND OF COURSE BOUND UP WITH IT, AS CAUSE AND EFFECT, ARE THE HATREDS AND REPULSIONS BETWEEN PEOPLES AND GROUPS, BRED OF WAR, OF ECONOMIC COMPETITION, OF HEREDITARY CULTURAL TRAINING. SO THAT ALL THESE THINGS TOGETHER AND BY INTERACTION, WAR, FEAR, INCOME AND HATE, HAVE BEGUN TO WORK UPON OUR CIVIL RIGHTS AND OTHER FUNCTIONS OF OUR INSTITUTIONAL LIFE; UNTIL WE ARE IN GRAVE DANGER.

THIS CALLS FOR CAREFUL THOUGHT AND EXAMINATION; FIRST OF HOW WE CAME TO THE IDEA OF CIVIL RIGHTS. USUALLY WE THINK OF RIGHTS AS A POSITIVE THING ACHIEVED BY INDIVIDUALS. BUT I SUPPOSE HISTORICALLY IT WOULD BE MORE CORRECT, IF WE THINK OF THE WAY IN WHICH THE NECESSITY OF EXERCISING CERTAIN SOCIAL FUNCTIONS WAS PROVIDED FOR AMONG THE PEOPLE OF A GROUP. THERE CAME NATURALLY FIRST THE QUESTION, WHO SHALL GOVERN? WHO SHALL MAKE VITAL DECISIONS IN THE TRIBE , IN THE GROUP, IN THE TOWN? WHO HAS THE RIGHT OF POLITICAL CONTROL?

THAT WAS ANSWERED IN PRIMITIVE TIMES NATURALLY: IT WAS THE RIGHT OF THE FATHER; OR OF THE MOTHER; AND THEN, AS THE TRIBE GREW LARGER, OF THE ELDEST SON, OR THE PERSON WHO MORE OR LESS MIGHT BE THE CHOICE OF THE ELDERS WHO REPRESENTED THE DEAD ANCESTOR. SO THAT THE POLITICAL RIGHTS INHERENT IN ONE RULER BECAME SHARED BY HIS RELATIVES, BY THE MEMBERS OF HIS COUNCIL, BY PERSONS CALLED IN TO REPRESENT THE MASS OF THE PEOPLE; AND FINALLY BY THE SHEER NECESSITY OF KNOWING WHAT THE PEOPLE WANTED AND NEEDED, BY A DEMOCRACY OF POLITICAL CONTROL.

THERE FOLLOWED A DIFFERENCIATION BETWEEN RIGHTS THAT WERE MAINLY POLITICAL, AND HAD TO DO WITH THE CONDUCT OF PERSONS IN MATTERS OF GOVERNMENT, AND THE EVEN MORE IMPORTANT PROBLEM OF HOW WORK SHOULD GO ON, AND HOW IT SHOULD BE DIVIDED, AND HOW THE WEALTH AND SERVICES WHICH WERE THE RESULT OF WORK, SHOULD BE ENJOYED BY THE WORKERS AND BY OTHERS. THESE ECONOMIC RIGHTS WERE FROM THE FIRST OF THE UTMOST IMPORTANCE AND

WERE HARDLY DIFFERENCIATED IN THOUGHT OR ACTION FROM POLITICAL RIGHTS. AND WHEN THE TRIBE BEGAN TO THINK ABOUT ITS SITUATION, BEGAN TO LEARN OF THE PAST AND PLAN FOR THE FUTURE, THERE CAME THE QUESTION AS TO WHO COULD BE TRUSTED WITH THE LEARNING AND WHO COULD DO THE PLANNING?

IT WAS NATURAL THAT IN THE GROWTH AND DIVISION OF POWER FOR GOVERNMENT, FOR WORK, FOR THINKING, THERE SHOULD COME CONTRADICTIONS AND FRICTION. THE DECISIONS OF THOSE WHO HELD THE RIGHT TO RULE, MUST FROM TIME TO TIME COME INTO DISPUTE WITH THOSE WHO DID NOT AGREE WITH THEIR DECISIONS. IN THE MATTER OF WORK AND WEALTH THERE MUST BE CONTINUOUS CONTRADICTION; AND PLANNING AND LEARNING LED OFTEN TO AS MANY DECISIONS AS THERE WERE MINDS SEEKING THE TRUTH. SO THAT AN ELEMENT OF COMPULSION HAD TO ENTER; AFTER THE POLITICAL DECISION WAS MADE IT MUST BE ENFORCED AND THERE MUST BE POWER TO ENFORCE IT. THE WORK MUST BE DONE; THE CONSUMPTION OF GOODS AND SERVICES MUST BE CARRIED THROUGH; SO THAT THERE MUST ARISE A CERTAIN OPPOSITION WHICH THREATENS THE ORGANIZATION OF LIFE

IN THE COMMUNITY.

IT REDUCED ITSELF OFTEN TO CONTRADICTION AND DICHOTOMY: POLITICAL FREEDOM AND TYRANNY. THE FREEDOM TO ENJOY, THE FREEDOM OF THOUGHT AND HERESY. IT WAS IMPOSSIBLE TO AVOID OPPOSITION OF THIS SORT, AND ON THE OTHER HAND CONTRADICTIONS MUST BE SETTLED; THE SETTLEMENT WHICH HAS RECEIVED THE ASSENT OF THE WORLD IS THE SYNTHESIS OF DEMOCRACY.

IN POLITICAL LIFE THIS AMOUNTS TO SAYING THAT THE IRRESPONSIBLE ACT OF ONE PERSON OR OF A SMALL GROUP CANNOT BE FINAL, NOT SIMPLY BECAUSE OF THE RIGHTS OF OTHER PERSONS, BUT BECAUSE OF THE RIGHTS AND SAFETY OF THE WHOLE GROUP. IF THROUGH IGNORANCE OR STUBBORNESS, A WRONG POLITICAL CONCLUSION IS MADE, IT IS NOT SIMPLY THE REST OF THE COMMUNITY THAT SUFFERS, IT IS THE WHOLE COMMUNITY INCLUDING THE RULER. SO THAT THE FIRST THING THAT MUST BE KNOWN, IS HOW FAR WILL ANY POLITICAL ACTION HELP OR HURT EVERYONE IN THE COMMUNITY? AND TO DECIDE THIS, EVERYONE

IN THE COMMUNITY OF FULLY DEVELOPED MIND AND RESPONSIBILITY, SHOULD HAVE VOICE TO TELL HIS OWN ATTITUDE AND EXPERIENCE, IN ORDER THAT OUT OF THAT ACCUMULATION AND FUND OF EXPERIENCES, AN ACTION EVIDENTLY BEST FOR THE WHOLE COMMUNITY CAN BE REACHED.

THERE ARE ALL SORTS OF DIFFICULTIES IN THIS ROUGH DEMOCRATIC PROCESS; BUT IT IS OF INTEREST TO REMEMBER THAT THE KNOWLEDGE OF THE WILL AND EXPERIENCE OF THE MASS OF THE GROUP, HAS ALWAYS BEEN FOUND ABSOLUTELY NECESSARY TO THE WELL BEING OF THE GROUP.

THE MATTER OF CIVIL RIGHTS OF THE MASS OF THE COMMUNITY AROSE LATER AND MORE SLOWLY. IT CAME PARTICULARLY TO THE FOREFRONT WHEN THERE CHANGES IN THE KIND OF WORK TO BE DONE AND THE PLACES WHERE THE WORK WAS TO BE CARRIED OUT; IN THE UNKNOWN SCARCITIES AND CALAMITIES THAT AROSE. THE CRY FOR ECONOMIC RIGHTS IN OPPOSITION TO AND AS DISTINGUISHED FROM POLITICAL RIGHTS AROSE FOR EUROPE ESPECIALLY IN THE EIGHTEENTH CENTURY,

WHEN THE ECONOMIC MEANING OF THE NEW WORLD BECAME CLEAR. MEN WANTED THE RIGHT TO ADVENTURE, TO FIND TREASURE, TO DIVIDE SPOILS. FREEDOM BECAME THE CRY OF THE CENTURY: BUT IT MEANT FREEDOM TO GAMBLE, TO RISK. ONE FOUND WITH THE NINETEENTH CENTURY HOWEVER, THERE CAME QUESTIONS OF OTHER RIGHTS, ARISING FROM POVERTY, FROM INQUIRING THOUGHT, FROM PLANNING OF LIFE AND WORK. IT WAS HERE THAT OUR SO CALLED CIVIL RIGHTS BEGAN TO TAKE NEW ASPECT AND BODY. THE LONG FIGHT FOR THE FREEDOM TO THINK AND LEARN WAS BROUGHT FROM RELIGIOUS DOGMA CONCERNING ANOTHER WORLD OR WILD SCIENTIFIC SPECULATION DOWN TO THE RIGHT TO TALK ABOUT PRESENT CONDITIONS AND PRESENT WAYS OF DOING THINGS.

THERE CAME THE INSISTENCE UPON THE RIGHT TO CONSIDER SOCIAL CHANGE; IMPATIENCE WITH INTERFERENCE WITH A MANS' PERSON AND PROPERTY; THE DESIRE TO LIVE AND BUILD WHERE ONE WANTED TO: TO TRAVEL: AND THEN LATER THE DEMAND FOR SCHOOLS AND THE FREE PRESS: AN UNDERSTANDING THAT HEALTH WAS

A MATTER OF NATIONAL SECURITY; THAT LABOR MUST HAVE A RIGHT TO BARGAIN AND COMBINE, AND THAT OLD-AGE SHOULD BE PROVIDED FOR BY THE STATE. ABOVE ALL UNIVERSAL SUFFRAGE CAME TO BE A SLOGAN, AND WHILE AT FIRST IT MEANT SIMPLY LIMITATIONS ON THE POLITICAL POWER OF RULERS, IT CAME EVENTUALLY AND MUCH MORE LARGELY TO HAVE TO DO WITH CIVIL RIGHTS.

FINALLY CAME THE DEMAND THAT SCIENCE BE FREE EVEN OF THE SHACKLES OF DOGMA AND RELIGION. AFTER THAT CAME THE ERA OF WORLD WAR, OF COLONIAL IMPERIALISM, AND OF RACIAL ANTAGONISM. OF THESE THREE THE ECONOMIC FACTORS UNDOUBTEDLY WERE AND ARE MOST COMPELLING. THE QUESTION AS TO THE KIND OF WORK, OF THE OBJECTS OF WORK, AND OF THE RETURN TO THE WORKERS AND OTHER PARTICIPANTS. THIS HAS BECOME THE INCREASINGLY CENTRAL PROBLEM OF A WORLD, WHICH IS A WORLD OF ORGANIZED INDUSTRY BEFORE IT IS A WORLD OF THOUGHT, OF ART, OR OF BELIEFE.

IF THIS WERE A WORLD OF ART FOR INSTANCE OUR ATTITUDE TOWARD

CIVIL RIGHTS WOULD BE MUCH DIFFERENT. WE WOULD DISCUSS TO BE SURE, MATTERS OF FORM AND TASTE, BUT WE WOULD BE EAGER FOR INNOVATION AND WOULD CONCEIVE A FREEDOM OF EXPRESSION WHICH IS FAR FROM US TODAY. BUT SINCE THERE IS THIS PRIORITY OF INTEREST: THIS MATTER OF A MANS' DAILY TOIL AND OF WHAT HE GETS FROM IT AND ENJOYS BECAUSE OF IT, THESE ECONOMIC CONDITIONS BECOME CENTRAL AND FOREMOST, AND WITHOUT DOUBT THEY CONDITION OUR LIFE AND THOUGHT; SO THAT TODAY IF WE REDUCE THIS MATTER OF CIVIL RIGHTS AND THEIR CURTAILMENT TO THEIR LOWEST TERMS, WHAT WE FIND IS THAT AN INCREASING NUMBER OF PEOPLE IN THE COUNTRIES OF THE WORLD WHICH ARE MOST COMPLETELY ORGANIZED INDUSTRIALLY, ARE AFRAID THAT THEIR PRESENT ECONOMIC CONDITION IS GOING TO BE CHANGED FOR THE WORST.

BUT THE EXERCISE OF CIVIL RIGHTS IS FORBIDDEN TO THE MASS OF MEN: THIS IS OF COURSE A SUBTLE ATTACK UPON DEMOCRACY. MOST MEN TODAY IN WESTERN EUROPE AND AMERICA ARE AFRAID TO HAVE INDUSTRY CARRIED ON BY

DEMOCRATIC METHODS AND THEIR FEAR RESTS UPON THE LACK OF KNOWLEDGE AMONG WORKERS, THE LACK OF EXPERIENCE, OF GENERAL EDUCATION AND THE WIDE SPREAD AND BITTER SELFISHNESS AMONG THE WORKERS OF THE WORLD AND THEIR EMPLOYERS. THEY REFUSE TO SEE THAT THE DEMOCRATIC METHOD CAN DO ANYTHING TO BETTER THIS CONDITION, AND YET, I SUPPOSE THAT JUST THERE, THEY ARE MAKING THEIR GREATEST MISTAKE.

THIS IS PROVEN BY THE FACT THAT WHEN CALAMITY DOES HAPPEN AND IS KNOWN, THE RESPONSE OF THE GREAT MASS OF PEOPLE IN THE WORLD, BOTH RICH AND POOR IS GENEROUS AND WIDE SPREAD. IT IS THE KIND OF SUFFERIN THAT PEOPLE DO NOT GENERALLY KNOW AND DO NOT BELIEVE THAT IS NEGLECTED. WE HAVE MOST OF US, NO CLEAR IDEA OF THE INJUSTICE THAT GOES ON IN THE COURTS WHERE ORDINARY PEOPLE ARE TRIED: WE DO NOT REALIZE WHY TO THE MAJORITY OF PEOPLE LIVING IN AMERICA THE POLICE ARE ENEMIES. WE DO NOT REALIZE HOW DIFFICULT IT IS IN A COUNTRY LIKE AMERICA FOR THE MASS OF PEOPLE TO MAKE UP THERI MINDS ON SUBJECTS OF IMPORTANCE WHEN THE MONOPOLIZED PRESS KEEPS THEM DELIBERATELY FROM KNOWING THE WHOLE OF THE FACTS, WHEN THE REPORTING OF CONDITIONS IS DOCTORED IN ORDER TO FAVOR A CERTAIN POINT OF VIEW.

ALL THIS ENGENDERS A CRITICAL AND DANGEROUS FEAR OF THE DEMOCRATIC PROCESS: BUT THAT IS NOT ONLY TRUE IN ECONOMIC MATTERS? IT IS NOT ONLY THE REASON WHY ECONOMICS IS NOT TAUGHT FRANKLY AND OPENLY IN SCHOOLS: IT ALSO HAS DANGEROUS EFFECT

ON OUR ATTITUDES TOWARD EACH OTHER IN EVERYTHING THAT HAS TO DO WITH LIFE AND ITS CONDUCT AND ITS ENJOYMENT. UNTIL WE ARRIVE AT THE STAGE WHERE CIVIL RIGHTS AS WELL POLITICAL AS ECONOMIC MUST SURVIVE OR OUR CIVILIZATION CANNOT SURVIVE. WHY SHOUDL A COUNTRY LIKE AMERICA BE AFRAID OF OPEN DISCUSSION AND EXPRESSION OF IDEAS? IF FOR INSTANCE WE ARE INTENSLY INTERESTED IN COMMUNISM AND THE COMMUNISTS AND WHAT RUSSIA IS DOING AND PROPOSING TO DO? WHY SHOULD WE NOT DISCUSS IT AT TOWN HALL AND ASK AND INSIST THAT THE COMMUNISTS BE PRESENT? WHY SHOULD WE BE AFRIAD IN GEORGIA TO DISCUSS THE NEGRO PROBLEM OR TO THROW THE FORUMS OF THE SCHOOLS OPEN FOR SUCH DISCUSSION? ONE WOULD THINK THAT MISSISSIPPI WOULDD BE JUST THE PLACE WHERE WHITE AND COLORED STUDENTS WOULD APPEAR ON THE SAME PLATFORM AND TELL THE PEOPLE EXACTLY WHAT THEY THOUGHT OF MISSISSIPPI LAW. BUT INSTEAD OF THAT, WHAT WE ARE TRYING TO DO IN THE UNITED STATES? IS TO DEPRIVE PEOPLE OF INFORMATION

TO FORCE THEM TO COME TO CERTAIN CONCLUSIONS AND TO CURTAIL THEIR CIVIL RIGHTS IN ORDER THAT THIS CAN BE DONE.

IT IS THE MOST DANGEROUS KIND OF ATTACK UPON DEMOCRACY THAT COULD BE CONCEIVED. OF COURSE, WE MAY BE AFRAID AND WE HAVE A RIGHT TO BE AFRAID THAT WITH FREE DISCUSSION YOU WILL HAVE DECISION BY A BARE PREPONDERANCE OF VOTES: THAT THE PEOPLE VOTING WILL BE VOTING THEIR PREJUDICES AND PREDILECTIONS RATHER THAN BASING THEIR DECISIONS UPON KNOWLEDGE.

IN ANSWER TO THAT, WE HAVE TO ADMIT THAT MERE MAJORITY RULE IS NOT SATISFACTORY. THAT WHAT WE OUGHT TO HAVE AND WHAT WE DO HAVE IN ALL GREAT AND PERMANENT DECISIONS, IS PRACTICAL UNANIMITY. THAT WHAT WE ARE SEEKING FOR ALWAYS IN THE DEMOCRATIC PROCESS, IS NOT MERELY MAJORITY, BUT IF WE WANT THIS, THEN THE BASIS MUST BE KNOWLEDGE, EXPERIENCE, A WIDE AND INTENSE TEACHING OF THE PEOPLE; AND WHEN WE SEE

IN THE PRESIDENTS' BUDGET 2% FOR EDUCATION AND 75% FOR WAR AND THE RESULTS OF WAR, WE KNOW HOW FAR WE HAVE GONE ASTRAY FROM THE FUNDAMENTALS DECISIONS UPON WHICH DEMOCRACY CAN BE BUILT.

MAY WE TURN NOW IN CLOSING FROM THE MORE THEORETICAL ASPECT OF THE PRESENT ATTACK UPON CIVIL RIGHTS AND ASK HOW IN PRACTICE EACH ONE OF US MAY ACT SO AS TO BRING A MORE NORMAN STATE OF MIND AND PROTECT THE LIBERTIES OF THE PEOPLE OF THE UNITED STATES. MAY I STRESS A FEW THINGS WHICH EACH OF US MUST DO? FIRST, WE MUST INSIST IN ANY CONTROVERSY IN GIVING THE OTHER SIDE, THAT IS THE SIDE WITH WHICH WE DO NOT AGREE, A CHANCE TO EXPRESS ITSELF FREELY AND FAIRLY: A DEVATE ON COMMUNISM AT TOWN HALL WHERE NO COMMUNIST IS ALLOWED TO SPEAK FOR HIS PARTY, IS A TRAVESTY ON JUSTICE AND IT HURTS THE COMMUNIST. SECONDLY, WE SHOULD INSIST THAT IN ANY CONTROVERSY THE AVAILABLE FACTS BEARING ON THE MATTER BE EXPRESSED: WE SHOULD INSIST THAT THERE IS DANGER IN THE SUPPRESSION OF FACTS, SIMPLY BECAUSE THE FACTS DO NOT AGREE WITH OUR IDEAS.

FOR THAT REASON WE MUST RECOGNIZE THAT CAREFUL INVESTIGATION HAS MADE IT CLEAR THAT WE DO NOT HAVE A FREE PRESS IN THE UNITED STATES IN THE SENSE OF BEING ABLE TO SECURE THE WHOLE OF THE TRUTH ON ANY PARTICULAR SITUATION. THIRDLY, WE SHOULD INSIST UPON THE RIGHT TO DISAGREE. IF THERE IS ONE THING THAT DEMOCRACY SHOULD PLACE FORMOST IN ITS PROGRAM, IT IS THAT THE PERSON WHO DOES NOT AGREE WITH A POLICY OR A LINE OF THOUGHT, HAS THE RIGHT TO DISAGREE: THAT AGREEMENT IS NOT THE WAY TO COME TO TRUTH: THAT FREEDOM OF THOUGHT IS THE ONLY WAY IN WHICH WE ARE GOING TO OPEN THE WAY TO THE ACCOMPLISHMENT OF PROGRESS.

FOURTH, THIS RIGHT TO DISAGREE MUST GO EVEN TO THE EXTENT OF ADVOCATING CHANGE IN GOVERNMENT: ADVOCATING CHANGE WHICH CAN BE CALLED REVOLUTION. THINK OF WHAT WE WOULD HAVE LOST IN THE WORLD IF WE HAD NOT HAD THE FRENCH R VOLUTION AND THE AMERICAN REVOLUTION? IF OF COURSE A PERSON IN HIS THOUGHT OR IN HIS ACTION TRANGRESSES THE LAW, HE MUST BE WILLING TO TAKE THE PUNISHMENT: BUT HE HAS A RIGHT TO SAY THAT GOVERNMENT IS DOING WRONG AND OUGHT TO BE CHANGED. FIFTH, WE SHOULD BE READY AND EAGER TODAY TO EXAMINE METHODS OF PROPAGANDA: WE KNOW THAT PROPAGANDA HAS ARISEN TO AN ART, BUT WE UNTHINKINGLY FALL VICTIM TO IT. WE KNOW FOR INSTANCE THAT A LIE IS REITERATED LONG ENOUGH, WE OURSELVES SUCCOMB TO THE STATEMENT. WE KNOW THAT SLOGANS LIKE THE "RED SCARE" OR "RACE MIXTURE" OR THINGS OF THAT SORT HAVE AN INFLUENCE UPON OUR THINKING BEYOND ANYTHING TH T WE REALLY KNOW, SIMPLY BECAUSE THEY ARE USED AS CAREFULLY PREPARED PROPAGANDA.

NEXT WE SHOULD TAKE OUR STAND ON THE RIGHT OF A PERSON TO WORK AND TO MAKE THE CONDITIONS OF WORK AS BENEFICIAL TO HIMSELF AS POSSIBLE. WE HAVE NO RIGHT WITH UT INVESTIGATION TO ASSUME THAT THE PERSON WHO JOINS A STRIKE IS WRONG BECAUSE HE JOINS. OR THAT A PERSON WHO

INSISTS UPON A CERTAIN STANDARD OF WORK IN HIS STORE OR FACTORY IS WRONG BECAUSE HE INSISTS. THERE IS A RIGHT OF PEOPLE TO WORK FOR DECENT WAGES AND TO GIVE DECENT WORK FOR THOSE WAGES AND THAT RIGHT SHOULD BE SUPPORTED WHERE IT DESERVES. NEXT WE SHOULD BE WILLING TO PAY FOR THE INFORMATION WHICH WE GET THROUGH NEWSPAPERS, PERIODICALS AND BOOKS. WE USUALLY PAY THE COSTS OF BOOKS, BUT WE DO NOT PAY FOR MAGAZINES AND NEWSPAPERS. WE LET ADVERTISERS PAY FOR THAT INFORMATION AND ENTERTAINMENT, AND NATURALLY THE ADVERTISERS GET WHAT THEY PAY FOR. THEY GET THE KIND OF INFORMATION WHICH THEY WANT TO BE DISTRIBUTED. THEY ARE ENABLED TO CARRY ON A TREMENDOUS CAMPAIGN THROUGH POWERFUL PAPERS AND MAGAZINES JUST BECAUSE THE PEOPLE WHO READ THE PAPERS ARE NOT THEMSELVES WILLING TO PAY FOR THE INFORMATION. WE SHOULD BE WILLING AND EAGER TO STAND UP FOR PACIFICISM: TO SAY THAT WAR IS INHERENTLY WRONG, THAT THE RULE IS PEACE AND NOT WAR! THAT HISTORY

TEACHES THAT PREPERATION FOR WAR DOES NOT LEAD TO PEACE.

NEXT WE SHOULDBE CLEAR IN OUR MINDS THAT THE INCOME TO CAPITAL AND TO EMPLOYERS IS JUST AS MUCH A PART OF THE COST OF ARTICLES TO CONSUMERS AS THE DISTRIBUTION IN WAGES: THAT OUR REFUSAL TO ALLOW FREE AND FRANK TEACHING OF ECONOMICS IN OUR SCHOOLS AND COLLEGES IS MAKING IT IMPOSSIBLE FOR THE ORDINARY INTELLIGENT PERSON TO THINK STRAIGHT IN MATTERS OF INCOME AND WEALTH. AND FINALLY TO TAKE SO CONCRETE A CASE AS THE MARSHALL PLAN, IT IS OF THE UTMOST IMPORTANCE TH T WE HAVE NOT ONLY A RIGHT BUT THE ABILITY TO REASON STRAIGHT IN SUCH A COMPLICATED MATTER. THE MARSHALL PLAN HAS THREE ASPECTS: FURNISHING FOOD AND CLOTHES FOR THE HUNGRY AND NAKED: SECOND, RESTORING THE ECONOMY OF WESTERN EUROPE: AND THIRD, PROFITING BY THE NEW ORGANIZATION OF WORK IN WESTERN EUROPE. NOW THE THREE THINGS ARE NOT THE SAME AND THEY CANNOT NECESSARILY BE ACCOMPLISHED BY THE SAME METHODS. WE CAN GIVE TO THE NEEDY: WE OUGHT TO AND WE DID THROUGH UNRRA. AND UNRRA

OUGHT TO HAVE BEEN CONTINUED INSTEAD OF BEING STOPPED.

WE CANNOT RESTORE THE PRE WAR ECONOMY OF EUROPE BECAUSE THAT DEPENDED ON COLONIES WITH CHEAP GOODS AND CHEAP LABOR: MANUFACTURERS SOLD TO COLONIES AND OTHERS AT A HIGH PRICE. EUROPE CAN MANUFACTURE BUT SHE IS LOSING THE COLONIES AND EVEN IF THE COLONIES ARE NOT LOST THE RATE OF WAGES THERE MUST RISE. THEREFORE IF WE UNDERTAKE ANY CONTRIBUTION OF AMERICAN WEALTH TO RESTORE PRE WAR CONDITIONS WE ARE FIGHTING THE STARS IN THEIR COURSE.

IT IS FOR THIS REASON THAT THE PEOPLE OF EUROPE ARE ORGANIZING OR TRYING TO ORGANIZE AND ECONOMY WHICH DOES NOT DEPEND ON COLONIAL IMPERIALISM. COLONIAL IMPERIALISM COULD GIVE LARGE RETURNS TO AMERICAN INVESTORS. AND IF WE ARE TRYING TO GET SUCH RETURNS FROM THE NEW ORGANIZATION OF INDUSTRY IN WESTERN EUROPE WE ARE TRYING THE

35-2-129

IMPOSSIBLE. IF WE LOOK CLEARLY THESE THREE POINTS OF VIEW IN THE FACE, WE WOULD SEE WHAT IT IS THAT WE CAN DO AND WHAT WE ARE UNABLE TO DO. IT IS BY UNDERSTANDING CONCRETE SITUATIONS OF THIS SORT THAT WE CAN BEST PROTECT ~~OUT~~ NOT ONLY OUR CIVIL BUT OUR POLITICAL RIGHTS.

I HAVE FOR A LONG TIME SEEN IN TWO ATTEMPTED INSTITUTIONS IN THE UNITED STATES THE SETTLEMENT OF OUR GREATER DIFFICULTIES AND ONE IS THE FREE PUBLIC FORUM AND THE OTHER IS FREE EDUCATION.

35-2-133

THE PUBLIC FORUM IDEA IS WIDE SPREAD BUT IT HAS NOT GROWN: IT HAS NOT BECOME ACCEPTED AS IT SHOULD BE. I CONTINUE TO SEE AS I RIDE THROUGH THE STREETS OF NEW YORK, REMINENCES OF CENTERS OF FORUM DISCUSSION WHICH HAVE BEEN PUT DOWN BY FEAR AND GREED. THE PRETENSE THAT WE HAVE AN ADEQUATE SYSTEM OF EDUCATION FOR THE YOUNG IS WRONG. THE SCHOOLS OF THE CITY ARE CROWDED AND INADEQUATE. THE SCHOOLS OF THE COUNTRY DISTRICTS THROUGHOUT THE UNITED STATES DO NOT REACH THE MASS

OF PEOPLE THAT THEY OUGHT TO REACH: AND THE SCHOOLS OF THE SOUTH ARE A DISGRACE TO CIVILIZATION.

ANY COUNTRY WHICH WITH PRETENSE OF AIMING AT DEMOCRACY, BUILDS UP IGNORANCE AS WE HAVE DONE IN THE UNITED STATES IS BOUND TO FAIL. AND THEN OF COURSE, BEYOND THAT COMES OUR PERSONAL FEARS AND HATES BASED MAINLY UPON TRADITION AND CUSTOM AND HEREDITY. IN THE UNITED STATES IT IS WELL KNOWN AMONG AMERICAN NEGROES THAT THEY HAVE SUFFERED FROM THE ACTIONS OF FOREIGN BORN AMERICANS WHO HAVE COME TO THE UNITED STATES TO SEEK FREEDOM. I SAW THAT IN MY BOYHOOD: WHEN IN THE LITTLE TOWN WHERE I LIVED THERE CAME A MASS OF IRISH AND SOUTH GERMANS AS WORKERS. THEY WERE THE DECLARED ENEMIES OF THE FEW COLORED PEOPLE WHO LIVED THERE. THEY WERE THE OPEN AND FIGHTING ENEMIES OF NEGROES IN NEW YORK AND PHILADELPHIA WITH WHOM THEY CAME IN CONTACT AND COMPETITION IN ORDER TO EARN A LIVING. WHAT THEY NEEDED THEN AND WHAT THEY NEED NOW IS INFORMATION TO SHOW HOW THE STRUGGLE OF NEGROE'S FOR POLITICAL AND CIVIL RIGHTS IN AMERICA IS PART OF THEIR OWN STRUGGLE IN EUROPE AND AMERICA.

The stature of Franklin Roosevelt will increase as time goes on. There was first, the severe physical handicap, the extent and influence of which few of us realize. Here was a handsome young athlete, condemned at the beginning of his active life to invalidism and pain. He could have retired and given his life to his own physical recovery: he could have withdrawn from the world and sought many things which would have given him wide pleasure together with needed rest. But on the other hand, he took up a life more active than that of almost any of his public contemporaries and worked himself to death twenty years before death was necessary.

But that was the minor part of his handicap. The greater handicap was spiritual: the fact that he was born into an upper class with large income, with friends who were persons of wealth and power and was called to a position in the crisis of his country, where he was compelled to face frankly the position of wealth in this country and the problem of its distribution among people.

Our system of ca ital and investment reached its highest point in the early years of the twentieth century. It was confident and boastful and it could point to extraordinary accomplishment. There was on earth, not excepting even the Great British and French Empires no country of anywhere near equal size that had the production of wealth, the prosperity of commerce, and the high standard of living among laborers, that the United States saw. No one when Franklin Roosevelt came into public life could have predicted that this enormous and successful economic org nization would face collapse in 1929.

The First World War can be blamed in part for this collapse, but not wholly. After all we did not really get into the first world war, so far as actual fighting was concerned. What we did was to furnish abundant material and labor which helped win the war. But this, instead of warning us and deterring us, filled us with a sense of unbounded power and we undertook, after the war, to put the United States into the position of being the great economic and financial dictator of the World. We outreached ourselves. We were so confident of a brilliant future that we began to speculate and bet on eternity the collapse of 1929 did not mean the end of the United States or the end of the capitalistic system, but it was a warning on a tremendous scale. It meant that the path which we were following, was a dangerous path and that something had to be done to guide our feet in the future.

I remember coming up from Atlanta, in 1933, with a small salary check in my pocket, because I was afraid to deposit it in the South, where banks were shaky. I remember passing through Washington on the rainy day when Franklin Roosevelt was inaugurated and I remember too my astonishment when I reached New York to find the banks closed. The banking system of the United States was at that time the head of the financial control of industry and economic organziation in this country and to a large extent of the world.

Nevertheless, on that morning when I arrived in New York, the banks were on their knees. They were not talking about free enterprise or individual initiative. They were not complaining of the power of the Federal Government. They were begging the Federal Government for God's sake to give them law and money in order to keep from collapse, not only their own institutions but the economic and industrial organization of their country.

Franklin Roosevelt was therefore compelled to undertake a plan of industrial organization in this country. He did not choose the New Deal, it chose him. There was no way in which he could avoid the tremendous problem placed on his shoulders. In the midst of nationwide despair, bankruptcy, suicide, and unemployment, this man was called upon to reorganize our economic system. He did what everyone under such circumstances ought to have done. He called to his aid and counsel the best brains of the country that he could find: men in academic circuls who had studied economics; men of action and experience; men who had long thought out plans of betterment. He did not have in his own mind anyone plan or any path of progress, but he wanted from a wide circle of advisors to get the best. It was in this way that he planned the national recovery authority as a New Deal in production and distribution of wealth.

He planned employment for large numbers of people , willing to work and unable to earn a living. He planned floors to wages, government organization and furnishing of work for the unemployed and relief for the distressed. It was a tremendous system of national planning. Nothing of the sort had taken place in the world, in modern times except in Russia after the revolution of 1917.

It would have been something more than a miracle if this new planning had been entirely successful or if everybody had agreed with its methods and results. Suffice it to say that id did pull us out of the depths of bankruptcy and despair, and started us anew on a path of progress and social uplift. But as it was successful and in just so far as it was successful, it incurred bitter enmity especially among those industrial leaders who, having failed abysmally in their conduct of industry in the United States after the First World War, now that recovery was in sight, wanted to take unhindered hold of the reins agains and have all federan interference done away with. This was impossible. The planning that had begun in 1932 had to continue. You cannot walk from planning into anarchy, even as easily as you can be thrown from anarchy into planning.

The result was long and bitter controversy, in the midst of a planned economy, which was increasingly successful and which restored business, and above all, gradually did away with unemployment. Then came the interruption of the Second World War: an interruption which was simply a continuation of the national collapse of 1929 spread now to the international area. The assumption ofaself-regulating world market, which was going to guide world industry; the treatment of labor as a commodity and not as a group of human beings, and the attempt to make gold the one real medium of exchange. These three policies failed in the world: and it meant that the problem of an economy based on colonies and their materials and labor: the problems of dependent people, the problem of investment, were thrown before the world for investigation and rearrangement in the midst of the greatest of world wars precipitated by two men who tried to stop democracy by dictatorship.

As a result of this the whole world, after an orgy of murder was compelled to plan a world economy. We are in the midst of this new planning today. It is manifest in every country in the world. In no country is it more manifest than here in the United States. But unfortunately we have been deprived of the leadership of Franklin Roosevelt: of his unvarying good humor: of his clear and broad insight. And in his place we have indecision, determination to rule, bitter aversion to the carrying out of that very planning concerning industry, business and wages, which is inevitable to our world and to the present crisis. The demand of the twentieth century in America, just as in Europe is that the distribution of wealth be more logical and ethical.

Men have tried to avoid action to achieve this by arguing that the distribution of goods and services is a matter of "natural" law. We should know better than that today; we know, especially in America, that planning of work does go on --on a wide scale and that it involves personal decisions and is based today on autocratic will and not on democratic methods. Managers and groups have power to plan industry and divide its results; groups carrying on organized industry, like general motors and general electric and the British unilevers--these groups own machines, materials, and inventions which enable them to reap large profits by marvelous and striking organization. Imports and exports depend upon the decisions of capitans of industry. Monopoly of natural resources and ownership of land play a tremendous part. Economic rent that comes with time and with growth of population, city sites, the shores of the ocean, the places suitedfor business and pleasure, all are controlled and distributed by individual or group decision. We know that the control of credit, the foreseeing of need for materials and machines, and supplying capital to t ose who can use it profitably, is in itself a field of tremendous planning and prophecy. We know that if the govenment does not come in and guide andcontrol, this planning, economic anarchy results. The field of government in industry is growing and must grow.

What now are the results of uncontrolled planning and why do these results make americans dissatisfied? We still have poverty, not nearly as much as many other parts of the world, but most Americans do not receive an income large enough to allow them to live in health and decency. This leads not only to envy but to fear and crime to the kind of competitive struggles which reveal themselves in strikes and race hatred. It leads to widespread loss of belief in hard work and to increased reliance on chance, so that gambling on stock exchanges and races today/among are our greatest business.

Poverty makes for ignorance: not simply illiteracy which is still serious among us, but for inexperience, the neglect of the lessons of history, reliance on selfish prejudices and conventions. Poverty leads to disease: it lets us spend more for war than for the perfectly possible extripation of tuberculosis, the lessening of cancer, and the physical welfare of children.

Poverty, ignorance, and disease are back of most of o r crime, and to this is added a curious lack of ethical guidance. Churches tend to teach dogma rather than what is right and wrong; and the funny strips exalt craftiness and laugh at suffering.

In contrast to all this comes the reign of luxury, conspicuous expenditure, the flauting of diamonds and furs: the demand for great estates and servants, while round about is sickness, starvation, and insanity. We demand profit for investment even at the expense of the public welfare. Thus the great business organizations of the United States struck and drove a hard bargain in blood and pain to increase profits during World War II. America invests in colonies--British, Dutch, and French; and colonies are slums used to make a profit from materials and cheap labor. We continually set before us the successful rich man as more typical of what America means than the student or the philanthropist or the unselfish man of small income and simple tastes.

It is this kind of thing which makes for our continued spiritual slavery. We demand freedom: but thousands upon thousands are toiling discontentedly at work which they hate, when more careful and thoughtful planning could make work much more agreeable by a more efficient distribution according to ability and taste. We curb thought and discussion because we are afraid that those who are powerful and comfortable under present conditions may be disturbed in their present control of the world. Our news is distorted and our newspapers prostituted by those who own and use them for profit and propaganda. Our "Free Press" is a series of tight little principalities which channel public opinion with prejudiced headlines , omissions and screened news.

Our training for careers and opening of opportunity for the working masses has been ~~x~~ hailed as the greatest in history. There can be no doubt but that more individuals have had opportunity to rise from repression and obscurity in America than in ~~xxx~~ Europe, Asia or Africa.

But even here we have not done anywhere near what we might, and today in many respects are retrograding toward race and class discrimination and special privileges for the rich. Only the Jews among us, as a class, carefully select and support talent and genius among the young: the Negroes are following this example as far as their resources and knowledge allow. It is for this very reason that ~~x~~ jealously of the gifted Jew and ambitious Negro is closing doors of opportunity in their faces. This led to the massacre of Jews in Germany.

In America they only path to preferment and promotion left open and beckoning, is that which industry thinks will make profit. The opening of other paths is left to the rare chance that genius in literature or art be coupled with "push" which means the boldness and crudity for self-advertising from which delicate ~~xx~~ souls shrink.

When by chance or benevolence a boy "makes good", we grant him a profession. If he studies law he can gain a large salary when he becomes a tool by which great corporations evade those laws which try to curb monopoly and distribute wealth more equitably. Large numbers of such lawyers become lawmakers, and they enact laws which can be circumvented. Others are raised to the bench, where they are above law and hig ly honored. They in many cases protect wealth and monopoly and "make examples" of the poor. The greatest work of Franklin Roosevelt was to start cleansing the Supreme Court of the accumulated refuse of reaction to economic democracy. Living men may yet see a Supreme Court with guts and common decency to throw out the window the whole body of legal color-caste in the South and elsewhere as both unconstitutional and uncivilized. At the other end of the scale our labor unions are ~~xx~~ monopolizing skills by limited apprenticeship and secret ritual. ~~xxxx~~ Despite this we find ourselves hastening towards war and bankruptcy.

Is there any wonder that the result is widespread fear? We are afraid of unemployment and loss or work: we are suspicious of other men, other races, and other nations: not because we are the poorest and most wretched, but just becuase here in America we have tasted the possibility of comfort and happiness, and strut when we have every cause to be meek and humble. We seek happiness and escape through drunkaness and night clubs. We couple our religion with hate, saying, "God so loved the world," and boasting how much we hate our enemies: we turn the other cheek to make bombs. We want peace and make war. We want truth and curb research. We produce our own wealth and steal it from others.

We Americans have invented an apt phrase to enrich the English language--"So What!" It expresses a singular complex: a great statesman comes from Britain and tells us that he wants a world of free states and democracy---and admits in the same breath that his britain allows nine-tenths of the subjects neither freedom nor democracy. So What? We see standing before the United Nations at San Francisco a prime minister elected by two million whites asking for recognition of "humanity"--and in the same voice telling the world that anyone who regards the eight million natives of South Africa as human in the same sense as white folk is "mad, quite man,". We have a secretary of State who arraings Russia for lack of democracy while he represents South Carolina, where the majority of people have never had a chance to vote. So What?

We keep trying to convince ourselves, that our crisis is a matter of the enmity of two nations, or of two experimants in economic planning , this is not true. It is rather a question of the future of present civilization: How far the mass of the people in the world are to be raised out of poverty with its attendants, ignorance and disease, and made a part of an organization of work and distribution of income and serivces, such as will make the democratic control of civilization possible. There are many attempted answers to this problem, and it is a problem that is going to require time and study. But one thing is certain, there can be no settlement of this problem by force or by threats, or by the attempt of any one country, East or West, North or South, to control the world and to make people follow its thinking and its dictatorship.

When we try through a secretary of State like Burns to replace the conciliation and understanding of Roosevelt with threats, when we try with a secretary like Marshall to buy restoration with our welath and power: we are seeking the impossible. Europe long has been built upon the exploitation of backward people. The United States has been prosperous because of her resources and because of the increasing intelligence of her people, she is now tempted to invest in the exploitation of backward people, at the very time when Europe is loosing control over them, and when those same people demand a voice in their own work and their own government. No such purchase is possible.

The only thing that the United States can do, is frankly to acknowledge that freedom of enterprise has got to be limited by social control: that individual initiative must yield to the wish and want of the mass of people: that other countries have been just as sincere and even more sincere in trying to bring about something of this sort by various efforts as the United States: that anyone who looks upon the suffering, the writhing, the crucifiction of the Russian people through the centuries and tries to picture them as a species of anti-social devils who are seeking to devour the world is simply denying the plain truth of history. That anybody who thinks that the United States as a nation is bent upon the control of the world b the atomic bomb and by her great wealth does not understand the real spirit of this country.

It is in such a situation that we are facing the election of a president and a congress and there is but one man who s candidate for the presidency represents what Franklin Roosevelt worked and died for and who is trying by a program of peace and understanding to accomplish what practically all the other candidates are seeking to do by force and threat.

There could be no greater tribute to the memory of Franklin Roosevelt than the election of Henry Wallace. Even if that election is ~~impossible~~ improbable or impossible, there can be nothing that any honest American citizen can do which would show what he wants for the future of the world and mankind than to cast his ballot for Wallace even if he knows that today he may not be successful.

In this country for ten long years, the abolitionists voted in vain against slavery and did not triumph even though the country was cast into a bitter civil war. It was not until after the war and after the victory that the people of the United States, realized ~~xxx~~ that human freedom was the thing that they wanted and must have if we were going to have a united and progressive nation. The same problem faces the country this day and it is personified in Henry Wallace.

The objections to the candidacy of Henry Wallace throw a strange light on the present plight of democracy in the United States. The Third Party is a basic concept of practical democracy. Political parties are methods of wide compromise calculated to concentrate in a few large groups, masses of voters who agree on a policy. If they can be arranged in two main groups, the settlement of differences and ease of government is enhanced. But if two parties cannot adequately express current public opinion or if parties with two names exprss but one fundamental policy, then a third party to express the feeling of opposing groups is not only permissable but imperative if democracy prevails. Today the republican and democratic party are in substantial agreement on foreign policy and the fundamentals of a domestic program. Both are preparing for war and both oppose any planned attack on the rule of industrial monopoly. There are other groups of persons in this nation, persons just as honest and patriotic who believe that war is suicidal and that monopoly must be curbed in the interest of the common man. Of the chief presidentail candidates, Dewey, Taft, Stassen, Truman and Wallace, only Henry Wallace expresses the firm belief of these progressives.

Why then should not those who support the Wallace platform have the op ortunity to vote for him? There are two main objections voiced: First he may not be elected. So what? If the men who voted in vain for three presidential elections to curb slavery in America had followed this advice we might yet be a land where labor is sold at auction. It is an extraordinary doctrine that no one should cast his vote for a man or policy unless he is sure of immediate victory.

If his vote foretells victory in 50 years, he is justified. The next objection is even more subtle and dangerous in a day of hysteria: it is that communists, socialists, new-dealers and other elements who are regarded as subversive by many will support Mr. Wallace. Personally, I should regard this as the greatest possible source of hope. If communists are willing to support the platform of Henry Wallace, that is no more suspicious than it would be for republicans and democrats also to support him. He has announced his platform in clear firm terms. On that platform he welcomes the support of all men and regards such support as agreement with that platform and nothing more.

The rights of labor in the United States, won by long effort are threatened today as never before since the Civil War. The right to organize the right to bargain, the right to stop work, are beginning to be curbed by legislation, by court action and police force.

One reason for this is the failure of white workers to realize that the degradation of Negro workers is a labor problem.

Slavery in the United States was a labor problem and not a Negro problem. As long as the supply of cheap white labor satisfied the plantations, white labor was enslaved. When black labor became cheaper and more plentiful, Negro slavery ensued.

52-342

Emancipation and enfranchisement after the Civil War, meant freedom and votes for Labor, and not simply for Negroes. When the National Labor Union faced free Negro Labor at its first convention in 1867, it welcomed them; but later was overruled by race prejudice. Labor then tried separate unions and finally embarked on exclusion of black labor from most of the Union movement/

Thus Labor embarked on the Labor war of 1877, without the support of one-ninth of the working class and tried to keep this policy until the Steel strike. Then slowly the fight of the Negro for civil rights began to be felt. Slowly he forced his way into labor unions and slowly the unions began to recognize and welcome him; not all, even today; but the mass of the forward-looking and intelligent leaders of the working-class.

Slowly but surely the Labor movement in the United States is beginning to realize that when workers of a nation condone segregation, discrimination and disfranchisement, low wage forced on one tenth of their number, they are cutting their own throats.

The South for instance is our Number one economic problem, because there, white labor has helped disfranchise black labor and put into the hands of employers and monopoly the power to stop labor unionization and keep wages the lowest in the country. This procedure is shutting mills in the North with unions and high wage and sending them South to company unions, startation wage and no vote. False emphasis on the race problem has disfranchised the mass of the labor vote in the South, white and black and made democratic government in the whole nation impossible. How can democracy be effective when 7000 voters in Mississippi exercise the same power in Congress as 10,000 voters here in New York?

The fight of the Negro to enter the unions is but part of their fight for civil and political rights, and that fight is part of the struggle of all men for Life, Liberty and the Pursuit of Happiness.

DE SENECTUTE

I HAVE FIRST TO THANK MY KINDLY, EVEN IF MISGUIDED F IENDS, FOR THE HARD LABOR WHICH THIS DINNER REPRESENTS. I WARNED THEM, BUT THEY INSISTED. I DEEPLY APPRECIATE THEIR FAITH. IN MAKING REPLY TO WHAT HAS BEEN SAID, AND TO MORE THAT HAS BEEN THOUGHT, ON THIS OCCASION, I HAVE KEPT IN MIND SUGGESTIONS. SOME HAVE ADVISED A LIGHT AND EVEN FUNNY TOUGH. THIS, AFTER THOUGT, I HAVE REJECTED: I KNOW NOTHING MORE GHASTLY THAN ATTEMPTED HUMOR WHICH JUST FAILS. I HAVE THEREFORE STUBBORNELY DECIDED TO FACE THE REAL SUBJECT OF AN OCCASION SUCH AS THIS, THAT IS AGE, WHICH SO MANY PREFER NOT TO MENTION.

LOOKING THE PHYSICAL FACT OF EIGHTY YEARS OF LIFE STRAIGHT IN THE FACE, THERE IS IN IT NOTHING IMPORBABLE NOR STARTLING. GIVEN SOME ATTENTION TO THE CHOICE OF GR NDPARENTS: AND IN PARTNTS MORE CONSIDERATION TO BRAIN AND HIPS THAN LIPS, THERE IS NO REASON WHY A MAN SHOULD NOT LIVE AND WORK FOR THE BETTER PART OF A CENTURY WITHOUT LOOKING LIKE THE WRECK OF THE HESPERUS AND WITHOUT CONTINUING JOY OF LIFE. THIS HOWEVEN ENTAILS ADJ STMENT TO THE FACTS OF PHYSICAL EXISTENCE.

THE MAN OF FIFTY CANN T CONTINUE TO ACT AS THOUGH HE WERE STILL TWENTY. I KNOW A CAMPUS AROUND WHICH I USED TO WALK EACH MORNING. IT WAS A LOVELY VISTA OF BUILDINGS, FOLIAGE AND INTIMATE MEMORIES. BUT IN APPROACHING IT, I HAD TO TRAVERSE A CUT AND ASCEND AN ENCLOSED SET OF UGLY STONE STEPS. WHEN I CAME TO THESE I USED TO RUN UP AND LET THE VIEW BURST UPON ME. THERE CAME A TIME HOWEVER WHEN I BEGAN TO FEEL A CERTAIN SINKING OF HEART AS I REACHED THE TOP. THE VIEW DID NOT CAUSE IT, IT WAS STILL THE SAME---STILL GRIPPING: BUT I WAS 65,NOT 40. SO I STOPPED RUNNING. I DID NOT FIGHT AGE. I WALKED. BUT I KNOW PERSONS WHO WOULD HAVE FOUGHT BITTERLY RATHER THAN YIELD TO SUCH PROSAIC FACT. BUT WITH SUCH YIELDING AND ADJUSTMENT---- FOREGOING LATE SUPPERS, SLEEPING OF NIGHTS, RESTING INSTEAD OF RUSHING, LIFE CAN GO ON GRACIOUSLY, AND WITH DEEPENED INTEREST. INDEED I KNOW OF NO SICKNESS NOR DISCOMFORT OF AGE, WHICH EQUALLED THE HURT AND HORROR OF MEASLES WHEN I WAS EIGHT.

I BECAME CURIOUSLY AWARE OF THIS ONCE IN SHANGHAI IN 1936. I HAD HIRED AN INTELLIGENT CHINES GUIDE AND WE WERE SEEING THE SIGHTS PLEASANTLY CHATTING AS FRIENDS THE MATTER OF HIS FATHERS' AGE CAME UP AND QUITE CASUALLY I MENTIONED THAT I WAS 68. HE LOOKED STARTLED: SEIZED MY ARE SOLICITIOUSLY, AND HUNG ON TO IT THE REST OF THE DAY. I THINK HE WAS AFRIAD I MIGHT COLLAPSE AT ANY MINUTE. TODAY AGE SEEMS TO MOST A FEARFUL THING. THE ACCENT IS ON YOUTH, WHY DO SOME OLD FOLK INSIST ON ENCUMBERING THE EARTH? PERSONS MEET AND STARE AT ME AND ALMOST SAY ARE YOU STILL ALIVE? AND THEN ADD, AND WHY? THEY DO NOT SEEM TO REALIZE THE PARADOX OF THIER ATTITUDE: FOR IF LIFE IS SO MEANINGFUL AND MARVELOUS, WHY THIS FEAR OF IT AND IMPATI NCE WITH IT PROLONGATION?

THE WASTE OF THE MODERN WORLD, PARTICULARLY IN AMERICA, IS THE WASTE OF AGE: THE STUDIED IGNORING OF THE EXPERIENCE AND WISDOM WHICH LENGTH OF DAYS MAY BRING. NOT THAT LIFE IS AUTOMATICALLY WISDOM ANY MORE THAN YOUTH IS AUTOMATICALLY STRENGTH AND COURAGE. BUT THERE IS NO WISDOM WITHOUT EXPERIENCE THERE IS NO ACCOMPLISHMENT WITHOUT LIFE: AND WHEN A GENERATION GETS TO THINKING THAT HUSTLE AND BLIND BLUNDERING CAN REPLACE LONG EXPERIENCE AND HARD THOUGHT, THEN THE WORLD LANDS JUST WHERE WE ARE TODAY-----MUDDLED, DISTRAUGHT, INSANE.

AMERICA IS DRUNK WITH YOUTH ----THE "YOUNGEST" COLLEGE PRESIDENT---THE "YOUNGEST" SENATOR---THE "YOUNGEST" BASEBALL PLAYER----SO WHAT? WE CERTAINLY SHOULD NOT BLAME A GREAT ATHLETE FOR HIS YOUTH, NOR STRANGLE A WISE CHEMIST FOR HIS AGE: BUT OUR ACCENT SHOULD BE ON WHAT ONE KNOWS AND DOES AND NOT ON THE NUMBER OF YEARS HE HAS LIVED OR NOT LIVED. OUR NEGLECT TO DO THIS, DEPRIVES OUR AGE AND DAY OF JUST THE WISDOM WE SO SORELY NEED. EVEN SCHOLARSHIP AND RESEARCH C N NEVER ENTIRELY REPLACE THE MIRACLE OF THE UNIFIED CONTINUOUS MENTAL AND EMOTIONAL GRASP OF A BROAD EXPERIENCED HUMAN MIND WHO HAS LIVED WHAT OTHERS HAVE MERELY READ ABOUT. BUT IN OUR IMPATIENCE WE EVEN IGNORE SCHOLARSHIP IN FAVOR OF HASTE AND HUNCHES. WE ARE MAD TO GET THINGS DONE.

THOUGHTLESSLY AND IMPUDENTLY WE TURN OUR BACKS UPON THE MIGHTY AND ALL-WISE: UPON THAT VAST DEAD MAJORITY OF MANKIND WHO HAVE LIVED AND LEARNED: WHO IN THEIR DAY BOASTED JUST AS WE DO. IN FLORENCE, ~~1000x~~ 400 YEARS AGO, DISDAINFUL MODERN MEN LOOKED DOWN THEIR NOSES AT THE DEAD PAST: IN CORINTH, 2000 YEARS AGO, MODERN MEN LAUGHED AT DEAD BABYLONIANS JUST AS 3000 YEARS BEFORE, EGYPTIAN THEBES HAD STOOD IN THE FOREMOST RANKS OF TIME. IT IS NOT THAT OUR ADVANCE OVER THESE BOASTFUL MODERNS HAS NOT BEEN VAST: BUT IT IS THE BITTER THOUGHT THAT OUR STUBBORN REFUSAL TO LEARN FROM X FAILURE: OUR CRIMINAL CARELESSNESS IN STUPIDLY REPEATING MISTAKE AFTER MISTAKE, HAS MADE THE RISE OF MAN SO MUCH SLOWER THAN IT NEED BE.

8-VOL-14

IF TO THE HURRYING VOTER, ABOUT TO CHOOSE RULERS FOR 140 MILLION PEOPLE YOU TRY TO SAY "PAUSE AND CONSIDER WITH ME WHAT HAPPENED 50 YEARS AGO"---- HE SIMPLY STARES: IF WE TIMIDLY SUGGEST THAT 5 YEARS AGO THERE WAS A MATTER-------- HE PLUNGES INTO THE SUBWAY, GRABS THE LATEST EDITION AND READS AVIDLY THAT THE MILLIONAIRE MARRIES THE MIAD DRESSED IN RED, WHILE ALL THE WORLD GOES GREEN. YET THAT PAST IS IMPORTANT TODAY: THE WORLD HAS TRIED BEFORE TO SCARE PEOPLE INTO CONFORMITY BY THREAT OF STARVATION, JUST AS WE ARE DOING TODAY: A THOUSAND TIMES WE HAVE CLOAKED EVIL AND WRONG WITH RESPECTABILITY AND MOBBED THE RIGHTOUS: BUT DOES THAT JUSTIFY OUR REPEATING THIS HOARY MISTAKE IN 1948?

TRUE IT IS THAT OUR REVOLT AGAINST AGE AND EXPERIENCE IS RECOIL FROM THE LONG DAYS, WHEN ELDERS RULED AND YOUTH WAS IN BONDAGE: WHEN WISDOM MEANT IMMOBILITY AND CHANGE WAS ERROR. BUT IT IS SILLY TO FALL INTO THE EQUALLY FATAL MISTAKE OF SURRENDERING THE WORLD TO DELIBERATE IGNORING OF THE PAST. NOT THE RULE OF AGE ALONE NOR THE BLIND RUSH OF YOUTH IS SUFFICIENT: BUT THAT VALANCE OF COURAGE AND EXPERIENCE OF KNOWLEDGE AND EXPERIMENT, OF DARING AND WISDOM, WHICH WILL NOT ALLOW A GREAT CIVILIZATION DELIBERATELY TO COMMIT SUICIDE BY TURNING ITS BACK ON THE HISTORY OF TWO HORRIBLE WORLD WARS AND LIVE RAVING MANIACS THROW THEMSELVES AND ALL THEIR DREAMS INTO A THIRD AND LAST.

I REMEMBER VIVIDLY IN THE WET SPRING OF 1918, STANDING ON THE BATTLE FIELD OF THE ARGONNE, AMID ITS MUD AND DIRT, ITS ROTTING DEATH AND DESTRUCTION: AND SAYING, WELL AT ANY RATE, THIS IS THE END OF WAR: NO CIVILIZATION WHICH HAS SEEN THAT WITH ITS OWN EYES, WITH ITS MAIMED AND INSANE, ITS ORPHANS AND WIDOWS, NO SUCH PEOPLE WILL, ON ANY PRETENSE SUFFER ANOTHER WORLD WAR. I WAS WRONG. I WAS TERRIBLY, INCONCEIVABLY WRONG. WHAT A HUMAN BEING WILL LET HIMSELF FORGET, IS THE MOST MADDENING OF HUMAN EXPERIENCES.

WE NEED AND NEED DESPERATELY THE TESTIMONY OF AGE AND DEATH. WE FACE TODAY NOT A GREAT TRIUMPH OF HUMANITY, BUT AN AGE OF DECADENCE, OF MORAL DEATH, ETHICAL

IRRESPONSIBILITY, AND DECAY. WE MUST TURN TO THE PAST AND LEARN. WE MUST SEEK THE LIVING PAST AND USE HIS KNOWLEDGE.

INSTEAD OF DISMISSING THE EXPERIENCED ARTISAN OF 65: IGNORING THE TEACHER OF 70; REFUSING EVEN A DECENT LIVING TO THE MAN OF 75 EVENTFUL YEARS WHOSE THOUGHT IS INFINITELY MORE VALUABLE THAN THE TIRELESSNESS OF A CHILD OF 15 OR THE STRENGTH OF A MAN OF 25, CAN WE NOT BUILD A CULTURE WHICH WILL THINK AS WELL AS ADVENTURE: GET WISE AS WELL AS RICH: AND DISTRUBUTE CONTRUCTIVELY AS WELL AS PRODUCE ABUNDANTLY?

WE NOT ONLY IGNORE AGE TODAY, BUT PUNISH WITH INSECURITY WITH THREAT OF STARVATION. I REMEMBER BUT FIVE YEARS AGO, WHEN THE HORROR OF SUCH A FATE STRUCK ME SUDDENLY. AFTER A QUARTER OF A CENTURY OF PROPAGANDA I HAD VOLUNTARILY GONE BACK TO THE IVORY TOWER OF TEACHING AND THINKING, UNTIL THE END OF TIME. MY FRIEND AND I ESSAYED HIGH ADVENTURE IN A NEW UNIVERSITY. BUT HE LET MEN KILL HIM WITH WORRY AND NEEDLESS STRAIN, LEAVING ME ALONE. THEN SUDDENLY, WITHOUT WARNING I FOUND MYSELF AT 75 RETIRED WITHOUT WORK OR WAGE. IT WAS A FRIGHTENING MOMENT, NOT SIMPLY FOR ME, BUT IN MY REALIZATION OF THE FATE OF MOST WORKERS IN THIS WORLD. I SAW THE SHAPE OF FEAR AS MOST MEN SEE IT. IN MY CASE IT HAPPENED THAT FOUR DOORS OF REFUGE OPENED GRACIOUSLY AND I CHOOSE ONE. BUT I SHALL NOT FORGET THAT MOMENT OF UTTER DISMAY THAT REALIZATION OF THE BLIGHT OF THOSE TO WHOM ALL DOORS CLOSE. NO DECENT CIVILIZATION CAN TREAT MEN THIS WAY. BUT THIS DAY AND TIME IS NOT DECENT. IT IS SUCH TREATMENT OF AGE THAT FRIGHTENS EVEN YOUTH: WHAT IS TRUTH IT ASKS AND WHERE IS VIRTUE? ALL IS VANITY.

SUCH IS THE PHILOSOPHY THAT FORCES ITS LIE ON ONE LIKE ME, BORN IN THE VICTORIAN AGE, BEGINNING SCHOOL IN THE SECOND DECADE OF DARWINS' EVOLUTION: LIVING TO SEE THE RISE AND FALL OF GERMANY, THE FALL AND RISE OF RUSSIA, THE CRUCIFICTION OF FRANCE THE RE-INCARNATION OF INDIA AND CHINA, THE WRITHING OF BLACK FOLK IN AFRICA AND AMERICA AND THE PANDEMONIUM WHICH IS AMERICA.

YET I AM CALM, I MUST BE, FOR I SIT ABOVE TIME AND TIME CONCURS. IN THE WIDE LEISURE WHICH IS INCREASINGLY MINE, DESPITE THE HURRY OF THE WORLD, I HAVE VENTURED, IN PREPARATION FOR THIS DAY, TO READ AGAIN CICERO "ON OLD AGE" AND HEAR THE WISDOM OF CATO WHO HAD REACHED THE AGE OF 84. CICERO MAKES CATO SAY:

"OLD AGE IS HONORED IF IT MAINTAINS ITSELF, IF IT KEEPS UP ITS OWN RIGHT, IF IT IS SUBSERVIENT TO NONE: IF EVEN TO ITS LAST BREATH IT EXERCISES CONTROL. FOR I LIKE A YOUNG MAN IN WHOM THERE IS SOMETHING OF THE OBL: AND AN OLD MAN IN WHOM THERE IS SOMETHING YOUNG."

"FOR THOSE WHO HAVE NO RESOURCE IN THEMSELVES FOR LIVING WELL AND HAPPILY, EVERY AGE IS BURDENSOME: BUT TO THOSE WHO SEEK ALL GOOD THINGS, NOTHING CAN APPEAR EVIL WHICH THE NECESSITY OF NATURE ENTAILS. IN WHICH CLASS PARTICULARLY IS OLD AGE, WHICH ALL MEN WISH TO ATTAIN AND YET COMPLAIN WHEN THEY HAVE ATTAINED IT. SO GREAT IS THE INCONSISTENCY AND WAYWARDNESS OF FOLLY"

AND FINALLY CATO SAYS: "THOSE WHO SAY OLD AGE HAS NO ACTIVE DUTIES, TALK AS IF THE PILOT OF A SHIP IS UNEMPLOYED, BECAUSE WHILE SOME CLIMB THE MAST, RUN UP AND DOWN THE DECK AND EMPTY BILGE WATER, THE PILOT SITS AT EASE HOLDING THE HELM AND MERELY STEERING."

TO THIS WALT WHITMAN ADDS: "THE DELICIOUS, NEARBY ASSURANCE OF DEATH." AND NOW I PERCEIVE FROM ALL TOO EVIDENT SIGNS, THAT I AM TRESPASSING ON THE LIMITS OF DECENCY FOR WHILE DEATH COMES TO ALL NONE DISCUSS IT IN POLITE SOCIETY.

OR IF THEY DO, IT IS GAILY TO ASSURE ALL THAT THERE IS NOT DEATH. PERHAPS THAT IS TRUE: YET SO FAR AS SCIENCE CAN SAY ALL MEN DIE AND DEATH IS NOT SLEEP NOR DREAM IT IS THE END. THAT IS INCONCEIVABLE TO MANY: BUT INCONCEIVABLE THINGS MAYBE TRUE. SCIENCE SURELY DOES NOT KNO ALL AND NEVER PRETENEDD TO, IT IS QUITE POSSIBLE THAT INDIVIDUAL LIFE DOES PERSIST. IF IT DOES, I AM NOT ENTHUSIASTIC ABOUT IT. I SHALL LIVE IT OF COURSE, IF I MUST BUT NOT BY CHOICE FOR WHYC HAVING DONE ONE LIFE, SOME FOLK SHOULD BE SO EAGER FOR ANOTHER AND WORK THEMSELVES INTO SUCH A LATHER OF EXCITEMENT ABOUT IT, IX IS A LITTLE BEYOND ME. I MUCH PREFER TO DO ONE LIFE REASONABLY WELL AND STOP.

AND NOW TO CLOSE, MAY I ADD TO MY ALREADY EXPRESSED APPRECIATION OF YOUR PRESENC A WORD FOR MY WIFE, WHOSE ILLNESS PREVENTS HER BEING HERE AND FROM MY DAUGHTER AND GRANDDAUGHTER WHO ARE HERE WITH ME.

DE SENECTUTE

I have first to thank my kindly, even if misguided friends, for the hard labor which this dinner represents. I warned them but they insisted. I deeply appreciate their faith. In making reply to what has been said, and to more that has been thought on this occasion, I have kept in mind many suggestions. Some have advised a light and even funny touch. This, after thought, I have rejected. I know nothing more ghastly than attempted humor which just fails. I have, therefore, stubbornly decided to face the real subject of an occasion such as this, which is Age, which so many prefer not to mention.

L oking the physical fact of eighty years of life straight in the face, there is in it nothing improbably nor startling. Given some attention to the choice of grandparents, and in parents more consideration to brains and hips than lips, there is no reason why a man should not live and work for the better part of a century without looking like the wreck of the Hesperus and without continuing joy of life. This, however, entails adjustment to the facts of physical existence. The man of fifty cannot continue to act as though he were still twenty. I know a campus around which I used to walk each morning. It was a lovely vista of buildings, foliage and intimate memories. But in approaching it, I had to traverse a cut and ascend an enclosed set of ugly stone steps. When I came to these I used to run up and let the view burst upon me. There came a ti e, however, when I began to feel a certain sinking of heart as I reached the top. The view did not cause it. It was still the same---still gripping; but I was 65, not 40. So I xxxx stopped running. I did not fight Age. I walked. But I know persons who would have fought bitterly rather than yield to such prosaic fact. But with such yielding and adjustment---resisting with foregoing late suppers, with sleeping of night, resting instead of rushing, Life can go on graciously, and with deepened interest. Indeed, I know no sickness nor discomfort of age, which equalled the hurt and horror of measles when I was eight.

But the fear and antipathy of physically growing old is as nothing to the psychological recoil, with which this day greets increase of years. I became curiously aware of this once in Shanghai in 1936. I had hired an intelligent Chinese guide and we were seeing the sights pleasantly, chatting as friends. The matter of his father's age came up and quite casually I mentioned that I was 68. He looked startled; seized my solicitously, and hung on to it the rest of the day. I think he was afraid I might collapse at any minute. Today Age Age seems to most a fearful thing. The accent is on Youth. Why do some old folk insist on encumbering the earth? Persons meet and stare at me and almost say; "Are you still alive? And then, add, And why?" They do not seem to realize the paradox of their attitude: for if Life is so meaningful and marvelous, why this fear of it and impatience with its prolongation?

The waste of the modern world, particularly in America, is the waste of Age; the studied ignoring of the experience and wisdom which length of days may bring. Not that long life is automatically wisdom, any more than Youth is automatically strength and courage. But there is no wisdom without experience; there is no accomplishment without life; and when a generation gets to thinking that hustle and blind blundering can replace long experience and hard thought, then the world lands just where we are today---muddled, distraught, insane.

America is drunk with Youth---the "Youngest" College President, the "Youngest"

Senator, the "Youngest" baseball player. So what? We certainly should not blame a great athlete for his youth, nor strangle a wise chemist for his age; but our accent should be on what one knows and does and not on the number of years he has lived or not lived. Our neglect to do this, deprives our age and day of just the wisdom we sorely need. Even scholarship and research can never entirely replace the miracle of the unified continuous mental and emotional grasp of a broad experienced human mind, who has lived what others have merely read about. But in our stupid impatience, we even ignore scholarship in favor of haste and hunches. We are mad to get things done.

Thoughtlessly and impudently we turn our backs upon the Mighty and All-wise; upon that vast majority of mankind who have lived and learned; who in their day boasted just as we do. In Florence, 400 years ago, disdainful modern men looked down their noses at the dead past; in Cornith, 2000 years ago, modern men laughed at dead Babylonians, just as 3000 years before, Egyptian Thebes had stood in the foremost ranks of time. It is not that our advance over these boastful moderns has not been vast; but it is the bitter thought that our stubborn refusal to learn from failure; our criminal carelessness in stupidly repeating mistake after mistake, has made the rise of man so much slower than it need be.

If to the hurrying voter about to choose rulers for 140,000,000 people you try to say, "Pause and consider with me what happened fifty years ago," he simply stares. If we timidly suggest that five years ago there was a matter---he plunges into the subway, grabs the last edition and reads avidly that the millionaire marries the maid dressed in red, while all the world goes green. Yet that past is important today: the world has tried before to scare people into conformity by threat of starvation, just as we are doing today; a thousand times we have cloaked evil and wrong with respectability and mobbed the righteous, but does that justify our repeating this hoary mistake in 1948?

True it is that our revolt against age and experience is recoil from the long days when Elders ruled and Youth was in bondage; when wisdom meant immobility and change was error. But it is silly to fall into the equally fatal mistake of surrendering the world to deliberate ignoring of the past. Not the rule of age alone, nor the blind rush of youth is sufficient alone; but that balance of courage and experience, of knowledge and experiment, of daring and wisdom, which will not allow a great civilization deliberately to commit suicide by turning its back on the history of two horrible world wars and like raving maniacs throw themselves and all their dreams into a third and last.

I remember vividly in the wet spring of 1918 standing on the battle field of the Argonne, amid its mud and dirt, its rotting death and destruction; and saying, "Well, at any rate, this is the end of war; no civilization which has seen this with its own eyes, with its maimed and insane, its orphans and widows, no such people will on any pretense suffer another World War." I was wrong. I was terribly, inconceivably wrong. What a human being will let himself forget is the most maddening of human experiences.

We need and need desperately the testimony of age and death. We face today not a great triumph of humanity, but an age of decadence, of moral death, ethical insensibility, and decay. We must turn to the past and learn. We must seek the living past and use his knowledge.

Instead of dismissing the experienced artisan of 65, ignoring the teacher of 70, refusing even a decent living to the man of 75 eventful years whose thought is infinitely more valuable than the tirelessness of a child of fifteen, or the strength of a man of twenty-five, can we not build a culture which will think, as well as adventure; get wise as well as rich; and distribute constructively, as well as produce abundantly?

We not only ignore it today, but punish it with insecurity, with threat of starvation. I remember but five years ago, when the horror of such a fate struck me suddenly. After a quarter century of propaganda, I had voluntarily gone back to the ivory tower of teaching and thinking, until the end of time. My friend and I essayed high adventure in a new university. But he let men kill him with needless worry and strain, leaving me alone. Then suddenly, without warning, I found myself at seventy-five, retired without work or wage. It was a frightening moment, not simply for me, but in my realization of the fate of most workers in this world. I saw the Shape of Fear as most men see it. In my case it happened that four doors of refuge opened graciously and I chose one. But I shall not forget that moment of utter dismay, that realization of the plight of those to whom all doors close. No decent civilization can treat men this way. But this day and time is not decent. It is such treatment of age that frightens even youth: what is truth, it asks, and where is virtue? All is vanity.

Such is the philosophy that forces itself on one like me, born in the Victorian age, beginning school in the second decade of Darwinian evolution, and living to see the rise and fall of Germany, the fall and rise of Russia, the crucifixion of France, the reincarnation of India and China, the writhing of black folk in Africa and America, and the pandemonium which is America.

Yet I am calm. I must be. For I sit above Time and Time conquers. In the wide leisure which is increasingly mine, despite the hurry of my world, I have ventured in preparation for this day to read again Cicero "On Old Age" and hear the wisdom of Cato who had reached the age of 84. Cicero makes Cato say:

> "Old age is honored if it maintains itself, if it keeps up its own right, if it is subservient to no one; if even to its last breath it exercises control. For I like a young man in whom there is something of the old, and an old man in whom there is something young."

And again:

> "For those who have no resource in themselves for living well and happily, every age is burdensome; but to those who seek all good things, nothing can appear evil which the necessity of nature entails. In which class particularly is old age, which all men wish to attain and yet complain when they have attained it. So great is the inconsistency and waywardness of folly."

And finally Cato says:

> "Those who say old age has no active duties, talk as if the pilot of a ship is unemployed, because while some climb the mast, run up down the deck, and empty the bilge water, the pilot sits at ease, holding the helm and merely steering."

> "Violence takes life from youth; maturity from the old; a state to me so delightful that the nearer I approach death, I seem to be getting sight of land after a long voyage."

To this Walt Whitman adds: a reminder of:

> "The delicious, nearby assurance of death."

And now I perceive from all too evident signs, that I am trespassing on the limits of decency; for while death comes to all, none discuss it in polite society.

Of if they do, it is gaily to assure all that there is no death. Perhaps that is true. Yet so far as science can say, all men die and death is not sleep nor dream; it is the End. That is inconceivable to many; but inconceivable things may be true. Science surely does not know all, and never pretended to; it is quite possible that individual life does persist. If it does, I am not enthusiastic about it. I shall live it, of course, if I must, but not by choice. For why having done one life, some folk should be so eager for another and work themselves into such a lather of excitement about it,, is a little beyond me. I much prefer to do this one life reasonably well and stop.

And now to close, may I add to my already expressed appreciation of your presence, a word for my wife, whose illness prevents her ~~presence~~ being here; and from my daughter and granddaughter who are here with me.

That is inconceivable to many; but inconceivable things may be true. Science surely does not know all, and never pretended to; it is quite possible that individual life does persist. If it does. I am not enthusiastic about it. I shall live it, of course, if I must, but not by choice. For why having lived a life, some folk should be so eager for another and work themselves into such a lather of excitement about it, is a little beyond me. I much prefer to do this one life reasonably well and stop.

And now to close, may I add to my already expressed appreciation of your presence, a word for my wife, whose illness prevents her being here; and from my daughter and granddaughter who are here with me.

THE TALENTED TENTH

W.E.B. DuBois

SOME YEARS AGO I USED THE PHRASE "THE TALENTED TENTH," MEANING LEADERSHIP OF THE NEGRO RACE IN AMERICA BY A TRAINED FEW. SINCE THEN THIS IDEA HAS BEEN CRITICIZED. IT WAS SAID THAT I HAD IN MIND THE BUILDING OF AN ARISTOCRACY WITH NEGLECT OF THE MASSES. THIS CRITICISM HAS BECOME EVEN MORE VALID, BECAUSE OF EMPHASIS ON THE MEANING AND POWER OF THE MASS OF PEOPLE, TO WHICH KARL MARX GAVE VOICE IN THE MIDDLE OF THE NINETEENTH CENTURY, AND WHICH HAS BEEN GROWING IN POWER AND INFLUENCE EVER SINCE. THERE HAVE COME OTHER CHANGES IN THESE DAYS WHICH A GREAT MANY OF US DO NOT REALIZE AS REVOLUTION, THROUGH WHICH WE ARE PASSING. BECAUSE OF THIS GREAT CHANGE IT IS NECESSARY TO EXAMINE THE WORLD ABOUT US AND OUR THOUGHTS AND ATTITUDES TOWARD IT. FOR THESE REASONS, I WANT TO RE-EXAMINE AND RESTATE THE THESIS OF THE TALENTED TENTH WHICH I LAID DOWN MANY YEARS AGO.

IN A DAY WHEN CULTURE IS COMPARATIVELY STATIC, A MAN ONCE GROUNDED IN THE FUNDAMENTALS OF KNOWLEDGE, RECEIVED THROUGH CURRENT EDUCATION, CAN DEPEND FOR THE FUTURE ON

THE MORE OR LESS CHANCE ABSORPTION OF FURTHER KNOWLEDGE FOR KEEPING UP WITH THE WORLD. THIS WAS TRUE FOR SEVERAL DECADES DURING THE NINETEENTH CENTURY, AND USUALLY HAS BEEN TRUE IN THE SLOW DRIFT OF OTHER CENTURIES. BUT TODAY, THE TIDE RUNS SWIFTLY AND ALMOST EVERY FUNDAMENTAL CONCEPT WHICH MOST OF US LEARNED IN COLLEGE HAS UNDERGONE RADICAL CHANGE. SO THAT A MAN WHO WAS BROADLY EDUCATED IN 1900 MAY BE IGNORANT IN 1948, UNLESS HE HAS MADE CONSCIOUS, CONTINUOUS, AND DETERMINED EFFORT TO KEEP ABREAST WITH THE DEVELOPMENT OF KNOWLEDGE AND OF THOUGHT IN THE LAST HALF CENTURY.

FOR INSTANCE, SINCE 1900, PHYSICS AND CHEMISTRY HAVE BEEN REVOLUTIONIZED IN MANY OF THEIR BASIC CONCEPTS. ASTRONOMY IS TODAY ALMOST A NEW SCIENCE, AS COMPARED WITH THE TIME OF COPERNICUS. BIOLOGY AND ANTHROPOLOGY HAVE CHANGED AND EXPANDED WIDELY: AND HISTORY AND SOCIOLOGY HAVE BEGUN IN THE MIDDLE OF THE TWENTIETH CENTURY FIRST, TO TAKE ON THE SHAPE OF REAL SCIENCES, RATHER THAN BEING SIMPLY THEORY AND OPINION.

IF NOW A COLLEGE MAN OF 1900, OR EVEN OF 1925, HAS SPENT HIS TIME SINCE GRADUATION MAINLY IN MAKING A LIVING, HE IS IN FAIR WAY NOT TO BE ABLE TO UNDERSTAND THE WORLD

OF 1950. IT IS NECESSARY THEN, FOR MEN OF EDUCATION CONTINUALLY TO READJUST THEIR KNOWLEDGE, AND THIS IS DOUBLY NECESSARY IN THIS DAY OF SWIFT REVOLUTION IN IDEAS, IN IDEALS, IN INDUSTRIAL TECHNIQUES, IN SWIFT TRAVEL, AND IN VARIETIES AND KINDS OF HUMAN CONTACTS.

TURN NOW TO THAT COMPLEX OF SOCIAL PROBLEMS WHICH SURROUNDS AND CONDITIONS OUR LIFE, AND WHICH WE CALL MORE OR LESS VAGUELY, THE NEGRO PROBLEM. IT IS CLEAR THAT IN 1900, AMERICAN NEGROES WERE AN INFERIOR CASTE, WERE LYNCHED AND MOBBED, WIDELY DISFRANCHISED, AND USUALLY SEGREGATED IN THE MAIN AREAS OF LIFE. AS STUDENT AND WORKER AT THAT TIME, I LOOKED UPON THEM AND SAW SALVATION THROUGH INTELLIGENT LEADERSHIP, AS I SAID, THROUGH A TALENTED TENTH. AND FOR THIS INTELLIGENCE I ARGUED WE NEEDED COLLEGE-TRAINED MEN. THEREFORE, I STRESSED COLLEGE AND HIGHER TRAINING. FOR THESE MEN WITH THEIR COLLEGE TRAINING THERE WOULD BE NEEDED THOROUGH UNDERSTANDING OF THE MASS OF NEGROES AND THEIR PROBLEMS, AND, THEREFORE, I EMPHASIZED SCIENTIFIC STUDY. WILLINGNESS TO WORK AND MAKE PERSONAL SACRIFICE FOR SOLVING

THESE PROBLEMS, OF COURSE, WAS THE FIRST PREREQUISITE AND SINA QUA NON. I DID NOT STRESS THIS, I ASSUMED IT.

I ASSUMED THAT WITH KNOWLEDGE SACRIFICE WOULD AUTOMATICALLY FOLLOW. IN MY YOUTH AND IDEALISM I DID NOT REALIZE THAT SELFISHNESS IS EVEN MORE NATURAL THAN SACRIFICE. I MADE THIS ASSUMPTION OF ITS WIDE AVAILABILITY BECAUSE OF THE SPIRIT OF SACRIFICE LEARNED IN MY MISSION SCHOOL TRAINING.

I WENT SOUTH TO FISK UNIVERSITY AT THE AGE OF 17, WHEN MY MIND WAS PECULIARLY OPEN TO IMPRESSION, FROM A REGION WHICH HAD OPENED IT BUT DID NOT FILL THE VOID. AT FISK I MET A GROUP OF TEACHERS WHO WOULD BE UNUSUAL IN ANY TIME OR PLACE. THEY WERE NOT ONLY MEN OF GREAT LEARNING AND EXPERIENCE, BUT MEN AND WOMEN OF CHARACTER AND FANATIC DEVOTION. IT WAS A GREAT EXPERIENCE TO SIT UNDER THEIR VOICE AND INFLUENCE. IT WAS FROM THAT EXPERIENCE THAT I ASSUMED EASILY THAT EDUCATED PEOPLE, IN MOST CASES, WERE GOING OUT INTO LIFE TO SEE HOW FAR THEY COULD BETTER THE WORLD. OF COURSE, AS

I LOOKED ABOUT ME, I MIGHT HAVE UNDERSTOOD EASILY THAT ALL STUDENTS OF FISK UNIVERSITY WERE NOT PERSONS OF THIS SORT. THERE WAS NO LACK OF SMALL AND SELFISH SOULS. THERE WERE AMONG THE STUDENT BODY CARELESS AND LSZY FELLOWS. AND THERE WERE ESPECIALLY SHARP YOUNG PERSONS WHO RECEIVED THE EDUCATION GIVEN VERY CHIEFLY AT FISK UNIVERSITY WITH THE DISTINCT AND SINGLE-MINDED IDEA OF SEEING HOW MUCH THEY COULD MAKE OUT OF IT FOR THEMSELVES, AND NOBODY ELSE.

WHEN I CAME OUT OF COLLEGE INTO THE WORLD OF WORK, I REALIZED THAT IT WAS QUITE POSSIBLE THAT MY PLAN OF TRAINING A TALENTED TENTH MIGHT PUT IN CONTROL AND POWER A GROUP OF SELFISH, SELF-INDULGENT, WELL-TO-DO MEN WHOSE BASIC INTEREST IN SOLVING THE NEGRO PROBLEM WAS PERSONAL; PERSONAL FREEDOM AND UNHAMPERED ENJOYMENT AND USE OF THE WORLD, WITHOUT ANY REAL CARE AS TO WHAT BECAME OF THE MASS OF AMERICAN NEGROES, OR OF THE MASS OF ANY PEOPLE. MY TALENTED TENTH, I COULD SEE, MIGHT RESULT IN A SORT OF INTERRACIAL FREE-FOR-ALL, WITH THE DEVIL TAKING THE HINDMOST AND THE FOREMOST TAKING ANYTHING THEY COULD GET HANDS ON. THIS, HISTORICALLY, HAS BEEN ALWAYS THE DANGER OF

ARISTOCRACY. IT WAS FOR A LONG TIME REGARDED AS ALMOST INEVITABLE, BECAUSE OF THE SCARCITY OF ABILITY AMONG MEN, AND BECAUSE, NATURALLY, THE ARISTOCRAT CAME TO REGARD HIMSELF AND HIS WHIMS AS NECESSARILY THE END AND ONLY END OF CIVILIZATION AND CULTURE. AS LONG AS THE MASSES SUPPORTED THIS DOCTRINE, ARISTOCRACY AND MASS MISERY LIVED AMIABLY TOGETHER.

INTO THIS SITUATION CAME THE REVOLUTIONARY THOUGHT, FIRST VOICED IN FORMER AGES BY GREAT MORAL LEADERS WHICH ASKED CHARITY FOR THE POOR AND SYMPATHY FOR THE IGNORANT AND RICH. BUT IN THE SUDDENLY EXPANDING ECONOMY AND MARVELOUS TECHNIQUE OF THE EIGHTEENTH AND NINETEENTH CENTURIES, THERE CAME THE VOICE OF KARL MARX, TO SAY THAT THE POOR NEED NOT ALWAYS BE WITH US, AND THAT ALL MEN COULD AND SHOULD LEARN.

KARL MARX STRESSED THE FACT THAT NOT MERELY THE UPPER CLASS, BUT THE MASS OF MEN WERE THE REAL PEOPLE OF THE WORLD. HE INSISTED THAT THE MASSES WERE POOR, IGNORANT, AND SICK NOT BY NATURE BUT BY OPPRESSION. HE PREACHED THAT PLANNED PRODUCTION OF GOODS, AND ETHICAL DISTRIBUTION OF INCOME WOULD ABOLISH POVERTY, IGNORANCE, AND

DISEASE, AND MAKE THE SO-CALLED UPPER-CLASSES NOT THE EXCEPTION BUT THE RULE AMONG MANKIND. HE DECLARED THAT THE WORLD WAS NOT FOR THE FEW BUT FOR THE MANY; THAT OUT OF THE MASSES OF MEN COULD COME OVERWHELMING FLOODS OF ABILITY AND GENIUS, IF WE FREED MEN BY PLAN AND NOT BY RARE CHANCE. CIVILIZATION NOT ONLY COULD BE SHARED BY THE VAST MAJORITY OF MEN, BUT SUCH CIVILIZATION, FOUNDED ON A WIDE HUMAN BASE, WOULD BE BETTER AND MORE ENDURING THAN ANYTHING THAT THE WORLD HAD SEEN. THE WORLD WOULD THUS ESCAPE THE ENDURING DANGER OF BEING RUN BY A SELFISH MINORITY FOR ITS OWN ADVANTAGE.

VERY GRADUALLY AS THE PHILOSOPHY OF KARL MARX AND MANY OF HIS SUCCESSORS SEEPED INTO MY UNDERSTANDING, I TRIED TO CHANGE MY OWN DOCTRINE WITH REGARD TO NEGROES. MY TALENTED TENTH NEED NOT BE A FEW PERSONS; IT COULD BE MANY, VERY MANY. ITS PASSPORT TO LEADERSHIP WAS NOT SIMPLY LEARNING. LEARNING, KNOWLEDGE, SCIENCE CAREFULLY INCULCATED AND DEEPLY STUDIED IT MUST HAVE; BUT FUNDAMENTAL WOULD BE ITS WILLINGNESS TO SACRIFICE AND PLAN FOR SUCH ECONOMIC REVOLUTION IN INDUSTRY AND JUST DISTRIBUTION OF WEALTH AS WOULD MAKE THE RISE OF THE GROUP POSSIBLE.

MOREOVER, BIOLOGY AND SOCIOLOGY WERE RECONSTRUCTING MY IDEA OF THE GROUP. THIS GROUP WAS NOT SIMPLY A PHYSICAL ENTITY, A BLACK PEOPLE, OR A PEOPLE DESCENDED FROM BLACK FOLK. IT WAS, WHAT ALL RACES REALLY ARE, A CULTURAL GROUP. IT IS TOO BAD THAT WE HAVE TO USE THE WORD "CULTURAL" FOR SO MANY MEANINGS. BUT WHAT IT MEANS IN MODERN SCIENTIFIC THOUGHT IS THAT 15,000,000 MEN AND WOMEN, WHO FOR THREE CENTURIES HAVE SHARED COMMON EXPERIENCES AND COMMON SUFFERING, AND HAVE WORKED ALL THOSE DAYS AND NIGHTS TOGETHER FOR THEIR OWN SURVIVAL AND PROGRESS ; THAT THIS COMPLEX OF HABITS AND MANNERS COULD NOT AND MUST NOT BE LOST. IT MUST BE CONSERVED FOR THE BENEFIT OF THE NEGRO PEOPLE THEMSELVES, AND FOR MANKIND. I CAME THEN TO ADVOCATE, NOT MERELY A PRIDE OF PHYSICAL RACE, BUT A CULTURAL DEVELOPMENT BY A SERIES OF IDEALS, INTEGRATED AND EXPANDED SO AS TO FORM THE OBJECT OF AMERICAN NEGRO PROGRESS.

IMMEDIATELY THIS PROPOSED A PARADOX. THOSE NEGROES WHO HAD LONG TRAINED THEMSELVES FOR PERSONAL SUCCESS AND INDIVIDUAL FREEDOM WERE COMING TO REGARD THE END OF SEGREGATION AS AN IDEAL AND NOT AS A MEANS. THEY WANTED TO BE AMERICANS, AND THEY DID NOT CARE SO MUCH AS TO WHAT KIND OF FOLK AMERICANS WERE, AS TO THE RIGHT TO BE RECOGNIZED AS ONE OF THEM. THEY NOT ONLY DID NOT WANT TO FIGHT FOR A NEGRO CULTURE, THEY TENDED TO REPUDIATE THAT OBJECT; THEY EVEN DENIED THE POSSIBILITY OF ANY SUCH ANIMAL, CERTAINLY ITS DESIRABILITY, EVEN IF IT COULD BE MADE TO EXIST. THE LEADERSHIP, THEN, OF MY TALENTED TENTH OVER THE MASS OF YOUNG MEN AND WOMEN WHO WERE COLLEGE-TRAINED AND ENTERING UPON THEIR CAREERS, FACED OBLIVION AND DISAPPEARANCE OF THE NEGRO, BOTH AS A RACE AND AS A CULTURE WAS THE UNSPOKEN GOAL.

BUT THIS, AS I HAVE SAID, WAS PARADOXICAL. THE UNITED STATES HAS A LARGE NUMBER OF NEGROES. WE NUMBER AS MANY AS THE INHABITANTS OF THE ARGENTINE OR CZECHOSLOVAKIA, OR THE WHOLE OF SCANDINAVIA, INCLUDING SWEDEN, NORWAY, AND DENMARK. WE ARE VERY NEARLY THE SIZE OF EGYPT, RUMANIA AND YUGOSLAVIA. WE ARE LARGER THAN CANADA, SAUDI ARABIA, ETHIOPIA, HUNGARY, OR THE NETHERLANDS. WE HAVE TWICE AS MANY PERSONS AS AUSTRALIA OR SWITZERLAND, AND MORE THAN THE WHOLE UNION OF SOUTH AFRICA. WE HAVE MORE PEOPLE THAN PORTUGAL OR PERU; TWICE AS MANY AS GREECE AND NEARLY AS MANY AS TURKEY. WE HAVE MORE PEOPLE BY FAR THAN BELGIUM, AND HALF AS MANY AS SPAIN. A NATION

OF SUCH SIZE, SUCH HISTORY, SUCH ACCOMPLISHMENT, SHOULD BE ABLE TO LOOK FORWARD TO SOMETHING MORE THAN COMPLETE EFFACEMENT AND UTTER NIRVANA IN ANOTHER AND FOREIGN ENTITY. IT SHOULD HAVE OTHER AND FUTURE DREAMS OF CONTINUITY, UNITY, AND IMMORTALITY. IT SHOULD PLAN A LIFE AND FUTURE, NOT IN WORLD ANTAGONISM AND ENMITY, BUT IN HIGHER AND BROADER HELPFULNESS TO ALL THROUGH SELF-KNOWLEDGE, SELF-REALIZATION, AND SELF-CONTROL. NOT ONLY THAT, BUT THE WORLD HAS 250,000,000 NEGROES AND NEGROIDS. THEY CANNOT DISAPPEAR PHYSICALLY, MUCH LESS CULTURALLY, WITHOUT DEEP LOSS TO THEMSELVES AND HUMANITY. MOREOVER, IT WOULD BE AN ESPECIAL CALAMITY TO HAVE AMERICAN NEGRO HISTORY AND CULTURE FORGOTTEN OR UNUSED OR UNDEVELOPED. IT MUST AND WILL BE PRESERVED. BUT THE QUESTION IS: HOW AND BY WHOM?

THE METHOD MUST BE IN CLOSE ALLIANCE WITH THE BEST SOCIAL MOVEMENTS OF THE WORLD; NOT SIMPLY THE SOCIAL MOVEMENTS OF AMERICA, BUT OF THE GREATER WORLD OF HUMAN CULTURE. IN OUR CONCENTRATION OF THOUGHT ON THE UNITED STATES AS THE LOCUS OF OUR FIGHT WE HAVE COME TO THINK OF THIS LAND AS THE CENTER OF THE UNIVERSE AND LATELY AS THE

PREDESTINED LEADER OF CIVILIZATION. THIS IS BECAUSE OF OUR RECENT GROWTH IN WORLD POWER.

BASED ON UNUSUAL NATURAL RESOURCES; A DEMOCRACY ON GOVERNMENT WHICH ALLOWED LOWER CLASSES, EVEN SLAVES TO WORK AND RECEIVE HIGH WAGES; AND, FINALLY, BECAUSE THE LEADING NATIONS OF EUROPE LOST THEIR POWER THROUGH RIVALRY, EXPLOITATION, AND WAR. IT WAS NOT AMERICA'S VIRTUES, BUT EUROPE'S MISTAKES THAT GAVE US PRESENT PRIMACY. WE NEGROES HAVE THOUGHTLESSLY FAILED TO RECOGNIZE THIS AND HAVE TRIED TO BECOME MORE AMERICAN THAN THE AMERICANS; LOUD IN OUR CONVERSATION, UNCRITICAL IN OUR BOASTFULNESS AND ARROGANCE, SHOWY AND OSTENTATIOUS IN DRESS, CARELESS IN MANNERS, AND WASTEFUL IN COMSPICUOUS EXPENDITURE. LIKE ALL AMERICA WE READ COMPARATIVELY FEW BOOKS; WE GET SUPERFICIAL "NEWS" FROM RADIO GOSSIP AND OPINION FROM A PRESS KNOWN TO BE PREJUDICED AND MONOPOLIZED. WE DO NOT REALIZE THAT TODAY THE UNITED STATES IS PROBABLY THE MOST THOROUGHLY HATED AND DESPISED NATION ON EARTH, ESPECIALLY AMONG THE CULTURED AND CIVILIZED. ITS NATURAL RESOURCES, INDUSTRIAL TECHNIQUES, AND

CONTROL OF CREDIT MAKE IT POWERFUL AND FEARED; BUT IT IS NOT RECOGNIZED AS LEADING IN SCIENCE, IN MORALS, OR TOWARDS HUMAN HAPPINESS.

THE REMAKING OF HUMAN CULTURE SO AS TO FASHION A DECENT WORLD IS NOT THE RECOGNIZED TASK OF AMERICA, BUT IS BEING PURSUED TODAY MAINLY IN EUROPE AND ASIA. COOPERATION THEN WITH THE FORWARD-LOOKING FORCES OF CIVILIZATION IN THE WORLD, CAN BE CARRIED OUT IN THIS LAND BY NEGROES EVEN BETTER THAN BY ANY OTHER LARGE COHERENT AMERICAN GROUP. THIS IS RECOGNIZED WIDELY TODAY IN FOREIGN THOUGHT. IT IS BECOMING A MATTER OF OPEN EXPRESSION AMONG HUNDREDS OF MILLIONS OF PEOPLE IN AFRICA AND IN ASIA. THESE PEOPLE OF AFRICA AND ASIA ARE NOT, AS WE USUALLY ASSUME WHEN WE UNCONSCIOUSLY TAKE OVER AMERICAN PREJUDICES, PEOPLE WHO DESERVED TO BE IGNORED IN OUR ESTIMATE OF THE WORLD AND IN OUR DREAMS OF WHAT THE WORLD MAY BE. NOT ONLY HAVE THEY BEEN POWERFUL AND INFLUENTIAL IN THEIR CONTRIBUTIONS TO THE PAST, BUT TODAY THERE IS A LEADERSHIP FROM THE COLORED WORLD WHICH IS BEGINNING TO BE POWERFUL ON EARTH.

NOW THE CENTRAL THOUGHT OF ANY CULTURAL EFFORT TO RESTORE THE CIVILIZATION WHICH HAS COLLAPSED IN TWO WORLD WARS, AND BUILD SOMETHING BETTER, IS ECONOMIC RECONSTRUCTION. IGNORANCE OF THIS CENTRAL FACT IS WIDESPREAD. ECONOMICS IS NOT BEING TAUGHT AS IT SHOULD BE IN THE SCHOOLS AND COLLEGES TODAY; AND I MEAN, OF COURSE, BY ECONOMICS, KNOWLEDGE OF HOW TO DO THE WORLD'S WORK AND TO PRODUCE GOODS AND SHARE THEM. OF ALL THE GREAT CENTERS OF CIVILIZATION THE UNITED STATES ALMOST ALONE -- WITH SPAIN, THE ARGENTINE, AND GREECE, BUT THE UNITED STATES PREEMINENTLY -- IS STUBBORNLY TRYING TO BLOCK THE CLEAR ECONOMIC PROGRESS OF THE WORLD. IT IS MISLEADING KNOWLEDGE OF THIS AMONG AMERICANS, BY A MONOPOLIZED AND COMMERCIALIZED PRESS, AND BY A RADIO USED FOR ALL SORTS OF PURPOSES EXCEPT THE BEST. IT IS TRYING TODAY ESPECIALLY TO KEEP PERSONS FROM THINKING BY A DISGRACEFUL SERIES OF WITCH-HUNTS.

THE NEW ECONOMICS, STARTING ALMOST EXACTLY A HUNDRED YEARS AGO, IS CLEAR AND UNANSWERABLE IN ITS FACTS AND KNOWLEDGE. IT SAYS THAT NATURE IS THE SOURCE OF ALL WEALTH; THAT HUMAN EFFORT TRANSFORMS NATURAL RESOURCES FOR HUMAN USE; THAT THE RESULTS OF THIS WORK SHOULD BE DIVIDED AMONG MEN ACCORDING TO NEED AND NOT BY CHANCE

OR BY INDIVIDUAL POWER. IT SAYS THAT INDUSTRY SHOULD BE CONTROLLED BY THE STATE, PLANNED BY SCIENCE, AND THAT ALL GOODS SHOULD BE OWNED AND DISTRIBUTED IN SUCH WAYS AS RESULT IN THE GREATEST GOOD TO ALL. ALL PERSONS SHOULD BE EDUCATED ACCORDING TO ABILITY AND SHOULD LABOR ACCORDING TO EFFICIENCY AND ACCOMPLISHMENT. HEALTH AND HOUSING, SOCIAL SECURITY, FACILITIES FOR RECREATION AND FOR UNHAMPERED HUMAN INTERCOURSE SHOULD BE PUBLIC RESPONSIBILITIES. WITHIN THIS FRAMEWORK OF NECESSARY WORK FOR GENERAL WELFARE, THERE SHOULD BE THE WIDEST POSSIBLE AREA FOR LIBERTY OF THOUGHT, AND OF ACTION, AND OF CREATIVE IDEAL.

THIS PROGRAM OF PROGRESS IS THE CONSENSUS OF THE CIVILIZED WORLD TODAY. IT IS CALLED BY MANY NAMES: SOCIALISM, COMMUNISM, LIBERALISM, CONSUMERS COOPERATION, OR PROGRESSIVISM, TAKING ITS NAME ACCORDING TO PLACE AND TIME, AND EMPHASIS. IN THE UNITED STATES ALONE, IT IS BEING BITTERLY FOUGHT BY MISREPRESENTATION, BRIBERY, FEAR, AND IMPRISONMENT. THIS NATION IS SEEKING DESPERATELY TO FORCE MEN STILL TO BELIEVE

WHAT THEY TRIED TO BELIEVE IN THE EIGHTEENTH AND NINETEENTH CENTURIES -- THAT INDIVIDUAL ENTERPRISE WITH THE LEAST POSSIBLE SOCIAL CONTROL, AND SPURRED MAINLY BY THE INCENTIVE OF PRIVATE PROFIT, IS THE ONLY METHOD WHICH CAN BRING AND PRESERVE PROSPERITY AND FREEDOM. IT IS PREACHING THIS IN SPITE OF TWO WORLD WARS DUE CHIEFLY TO THIS VERY PROGRAM, AND WITH THE MEMORY OF SIX INDUSTRIAL CRISES AND A GREAT DEPRESSION WHICH THREW WORLD INDUSTRY INTO DISASTER; AND WITH THE SHADOW OF ANOTHER DEPRESSION HOVERING OVER US. IT IS SUICIDE FOR US, AS NEGROES AND AS AMERICANS, TO ASSENT TO THIS PROGRAM. WHATEVER WE CAN DO TO CHANGE IT, IS OUR BOUNDEN DUTY.

THE QUESTION THEN IS: WHO CAN LEAD THE WAY IN THIS EFFORT? HERE COMES A NEW IDEA OF A TALENTED TENTH: THE CONCEPT OF A GROUP LEADERSHIP, NOT SIMPLY EDUCATED AND SELF-SACRIFICING BUT WITH CLEAR VISION OF WORLD CONDITIONS AND DANGERS, AND CONDUCTING AN INTEGRATED GROUP OF AMERICAN NEGROES, EDUCATED AND ABREAST WITH THE WORLD, TO ALLIANCE WITH CULTURE GROUPS IN EUROPE, AMERICA, ASIA, AND AFRICA, AND LOOKING TOWARD A NEW WORLD CULTURE. WE CAN DO IT. WE HAVE THE ABILITY. THE ONLY QUESTION IS, HAVE WE THE WILL?

THIS BRINGS ME TO THINK ABOUT AND CONSIDER THIS FRATERNITY, THE SIGMA PI PHI. HOW FAR IS IT ADAPTED OR COULD IT BE ADAPTED TO LEAD IN SUCH A ROLE? WE CONSIST OF 425 FAMILIES, (OMITTING THE BOULES OF BALTIMORE AND BUFFALO, FROM WHOM REPEATED LETTERS AND CARDS, AIRMAILED AND SPECIAL DELIVERED, HAVE ELICITED NO RESPONSE. I ASSUME THAT THEY CAN BE LEFT OUT OF ACCOUNT). OF 3,000,000 NEGRO FAMILIES, WE REPRESENT SOMETHING OVER 400; NOT A TENTH, BUT A TEN THOUSANDTH OF THE GROUP.

FIRST OF ALL, WE ARE OLD MEN. ONLY ONE IS UNDER THIRTY; MOST OF THE ARCHONS ARE BETWEEN 30 AND 60, AND PROBABLY NEARER 60. MORE THAN A FOURTH ARE OVER 60. THIS MEANS, THAT BY AND LARGE, WE RECEIVED OUR COLLEGE EDUCATION IN THE LAST CENTURY OR THE FIRST DECADE OF THIS, WHEN THE ATOM WAS INDIVISIBLE; WHEN LIGHT ALWAYS SPEAD IN STRAIGHT LINES; WHEN EVOLUTION WAS THE SURVIVAL OF THE FITTEST: AND WHEN MANKIND CONSISTED OF FIVE SEPARATE, INDESTRUCTABLE RACES, AND SOCIALISM WAS A FOOL'S DREAM.

IN OCCUPATION, OUR MEMBERSHIP IS NOT WELL-BALANCED. NEARLY HALF, 193 ARE

PHYSICIANS, DENTISTS, AND PHARMACISTS. THEY ARE THUS MEMBERS OF A CLOSED TRADE UNION WITH RULES COMING DOWN FROM ANOTHER CENTURY; WITH HIGHLY INDIVIDUALIZED ACTIVITIES, AND RESTRICTED PUBLIC CONTACT AND SOCIAL INTERCOURSE. ON THE OTHER HAND, WITH DEEP PERSONAL KNOWLEDGE OF INDIVIDUAL HUMAN NATURE.

THE NEXT GROUP, 137 IN NUMBER, ARE TEACHERS AND ADMINISTRATORS OF SCHOOLS, MINISTERS AND SOCIAL WORKERS. THESE MEN ARE MORE IN TOUCH WITH THE NEW SCIENCE AND SOCIAL MOVEMENTS, BUT HAVE LITTLE PRACTICAL FIRST-HAND EXPERIENCE IN MODERN INDUSTRY; THAT IS, IN THE VERY ACTIVITY WHICH IS RULING AND CONDITIONING THE MODERN WORLD.

A FURTHER GROUP OF 65 PERSONS CONSISTS OF LAWYERS AND BUSINESS MEN. THEY NOT ONLY THEMSELVES HAVE LIMITED CONTACT WITH THE LABORING CLASSES AND THEIR PROBLEMS, BUT ARE OVER-EXPOSED TO AMERICAN BUSINESS PHILOSOPHY -- TO THE IDEA OF INDUSTRY PRIMARILY FOR PROFIT, OF TRADE UNIONS AS NUISANCES, AND OF HIGH WAGES AS INFLATIONARY. THIS COMES NOT ONLY FROM THEIR WORK, BUT FROM THEIR CONTACT WITH WHITE FELLOW MEN IN THEIR PROFESSIONS, WHO ARE NEARLY ALL OF THE REACTIONARY GROUP. IN THE CASE OF OUR MEN THIS IS MITIGATED SOMEWHAT BY OUR CONTACT WITH THE CRIMINAL CLASSES AND WITH THE POOR. THE REMAINING 30 MEMBERS ARE VARIED IN OCCUPATION, BUT DO NOT FILL A CLEAR VACANCY WHICH WE HAVE, SO FAR AS AUTHORS AND ARTISTS ARE CONCERNED. WE HAVE 9 TECHNICIANS BUT THAT IS VERY SMALL NUMBER.

WE DO NOT REPRESENT THEN TYPICAL AMERICA, NOR DO WE REPRESENT AT ALL THE SCIENTIFIC SOCIAL LEADERSHIP OF THE MODERN WORLD, BECAUSE WE ARE OVERLOADED WITH MEMBERS OF THE PROFESSIONS; WEIGHTED TOWARDS AMERICAN BUSINESS WHILE SCIENCE AND ART, DESPITE OUR TEACHERS, FALL FAR BEHIND. WE ARE, THEN, IN THE MASS AN OLD, CONSERVATIVE GROUP.

WE ARE NOT, ACCORDING TO AMERICAN STANDARDS RICH, BUT ACCORDING TO WORLD STANDARDS, WE ARE DISTINCTLY WELL-TO-DO AND IN THE UPPER ECONOMIC CLASSES. ANOTHER 1/11 OF OUR MEMBERSHIP RECEIVE OVER $10,000 A YEAR, AND ALMOST A SCORE, 16, GET OVER $25,000. THERE ARE 193 FAMILIES WHO RECEIVE FROM $5,000 TO $10,000 A YEAR, AND ONLY 77 WHO CONFESS TO LESS THAN $5,000, WHICH MAY BE MODESTY. OUR INTERESTS THEN ARE NOT NORMALLY WITH THE POOR AND HUNGRY, OR EVEN WITH THE UNHOUSED AND THE ORDINARY LABORER.

IT IS A MATTER OF SORROW OR CONGRATULATION, ACCORDING TO ONE'S POINT OF VIEW, WHEN WE REMEMBER THAT THIS GROUP IS PROBABLY BOUND FOR EVENTUAL EXTINCTION. OF THE FAMILIES, 153 HAVE NO CHILDREN, AND 84 ONLY ONE CHILD; 317 FAMILIES HAVE NO GRAND-CHILDREN, AND 38 ONLY ONE GRANDCHILD. OUR OTHER 185 MEMBERS MAY, BARRING ACCIDENTS, REPRODUCE OUR NUMBER, BUT AT PRESENT THEY HAVE ONLY 190 GRANDCHILDREN, WHEN SURVIVAL WOULD CALL FOR APPROXIMATELY 760.

THEORETICALLY, THEN, THIS IS NOT AN IDEAL GROUP FOR THE KIND OF LEADERSHIP WHICH I HAVE IN MIND. MOREOVER, IT FACES PECULIAR TRENDS AND DIFFICULTIES. MAY I NAME SIX OF THESE: FIRST, A DISTINCT INDISPOSITION TO REEXAMINE TRENDS AND KNOWLEDGE, OR TO QUESTION CONCLUSIONS OF THE PAST.

SECOND, A DISPOSITION TO ACCEPT THE VALUES AND DECISIONS OF PRESENT DAY AMERICA.

THIRD, A DEEP-SEATED DISBELIEF IN ASIA AND AFRICA, AND EVEN THE WEST INDIES, PARTIALLY SPRINGING FROM THE PREJUDICE OF SURROUNDING AMERICANS; PARTIALLY FROM THE IDEA THAT WE ARE UNUSUAL AND EXCEPTIONAL COLORED FOLK.

FOURTH, A FEELING OF HELPLESSNESS AGAINST TOO GREAT ODDS AND TENDENCIES: IF THE WHITE WORLD IS GOING ALONG AN ACCEPTED PATH, EVEN IF THAT IS SUICIDE, AFTER ALL, WHAT CAN WE DO ABOUT IT AND WHAT DO WE WANT TO DO ABOUT IT?

FIFTH, A CURRENT PHILOSOPHY AMONG US AS OLD AS HUMANITY, "EAT, DRINK, AND BE MERRY"---- A REACTION TOWARDS THROWING OFF THE EXTREME DEPRESSION OF THE DAYS WHEN WE WERE FIGHTING FOR SHEER EXISTENCE, DETERMINATION TO ENJOY SOME OF THE POSSIBILITIES WHICH OUR INCOME AND NEW FREEDOM OPEN TO US TODAY.

THIS EXPLAINS OUR INDULGENCE IN LUXURY, HOMES, OUR POKER PLAYING, FREE SPENDING AND NEGLECT OF THRIFT. AND FINALLY, IN SPITE OF SOME OF THE EXTRAORDINARY THINGS, WHICH WE HAVE SEEN NEGROES DO IN THE LAST GENERATION IN AMERICA, THERE STILL LINGERS AMONG US THE DEEP-SEATED DOUBT OF NEGRO ABILITY TO COPE WITH THE WHITE WORLD.

WE ARE PAINFULLY AWARE OF THE DEGRADATION OF MILLIONS OF OUR MASSES, OF THE CRIME AND LECHERY THAT LURK IN NEW YORK, CHICAGO, AND NEW ORLEANS; OF THE LYING, DISHONESTY, AND DOUBLE-DEALING THAT MARK SO MANY, EVEN OF OUR INTELLIGENT AND RICH, THAT WE ASSOCIATE COLOR AND DEGRADATION, AND CANNOT MAKE OURSELVES BELIEVE IN ANY REAL TRIUMPH OF BLACK FOLK. FEW OF US KNOW, OR TRY TO KNOW WHAT HUMAN DEGRADATION ON THIS EARTH CAN BE, AND HAS BEEN, AND IS AMONG OTHER AND FAIRER PEOPLES.

BASICALLY, OF COURSE, ALL OF THIS HAS TO DO WITH THAT QUESTION OF CHARACTER WHICH I LEFT OUT OF ACCOUNT, OR RATHER ASSUMED WHEN I FIRST LOOKED TO A TALENTED TENTH TO LEAD THIS ISREAL OUT OF EGYPT. IN MY REORIENTATION OF IDEAS, MY POINTING OUT THE NEW KNOWLEDGE NECESSARY FOR LEADERSHIP, AND NEW IDEAS OF RACE AND CULTURE, THERE STILL STANDS THAT FUNDAMENTAL AND BASIC REQUIREMENT OF ANY SUCCESSFUL LEADERSHIP TOWARD GREAT IDEALS, EVEN IF THE IDEALS ARE GREAT AND CLEARLY PERCEIVED. AND THAT IS HONESTY OF CHARACTER AND PURITY OF MOTIVE, WITHOUT WHICH NO EFFORT SUCCEEDS, OR DESERVES TO SUCCEED. WE USED TO TALK MUCH OF CHARACTER -- PERHAPS TOO MUCH. AT

FISK, WE HAD IT DINNED INTO OUR EARS. AT HARVARD, WE NEVER MENTIONED IT. AT BERLIN, WE QUITE FORGOT IT. BUT THAT WAS REACTION. WE CANNOT HAVE PERFECTION. WE HAVE FEW SAINTS. BUT WE MUST HAVE HONEST MEN, OR WE DIE. WE MUST HAVE UNSELFISH, FAR-SEEING LEADERSHIP, OR WE FAIL.

WHAT CAN SIGMA PI PHI DO TO SEE THAT WE GET IT FOR THE AMERICAN NEGRO? SO FAR AS THE GROUP BEFORE ME IS CONCERNED LITTLE CAN BE DONE, FOR THE SIMPLE REASON THAT MOST OF OUR PRESENT MEMBERSHIP WILL SOON BE DEAD. UNLESS WE BEGIN TO RECRUIT THIS FRATERNITY MEMBERSHIP WITH YOUNG MEN, AND LARGE NUMBERS OF THEM, OUR BIENNIAL CONCLAVES WILL BE INCREASINGLY DEVOTED TO OBITUARIES. WE SHOULD HAVE A LARGE INCREASE OF MEMBERSHIP DRAWN FROM MEN WHO HAVE RECEIVED THEIR COLLEGE EDUCATION SINCE THE FIRST WORLD WAR. THIS NEW NEW MEMBERSHIP MUST NOT SIMPLY BE SUCCESSFUL IN THE AMERICAN SENSE OF BEING RICH; THEY MUST NOT ALL BE PHYSICIANS, AND LAWYERS. ON THE OTHER HAND, THE TECHNICIANS, BUSINESS MEN, TEACHERS AND SOCIAL WORKERS ADMITTED MUST BE THOSE WHO REALIZE THE ECONOMIC REVOLUTION NOW SWEEPING THE WORLD AND DO NOT THINK THAT PRIVATE PROFIT IS THE MEASURE OF PUBLIC WELFARE. AND, TOO, WE MUST DELIBERATELY SEEK HONEST MEN.

THIS SCREENED YOUNG MEMBERSHIP MUST BE FAR GREATER IN NUMBER THAN IT IS NOW. BALTIMORE, FOR INSTANCE, HAS MORE THAN 166,000 NEGROES AND 23 IN ITS BOULE, REPRESENTING LESS THAN 100 PERSONS. SURELY THERE MUST BE AT LEAST 23 OTHER PERSONS IN BALTIMORE WORTHY OF FELLOWSHIP. IT IS INCONCEIVABLE THAT WE SHOULD EVEN FOR A MOMENT DREAM THAT WITH A MEMBERSHIP OF 400 WE HAVE EVEN SCRATCHED THE TOP OF THE SURFACE OF A GROUP REPRESENTATIVE OF NEGRO LEADERSHIP IN AMERICA. NOTHING BUT CONGENITAL LAZINESS SHOULD KEEP US FROM A MEMBERSHIP OF 4,000 BY THE NEXT BIENNIUM, WITHOUT ANY LOWERING OF QUALITY; AND A MEMBERSHIP OF 40,000 BY 1960. THIS WOULD BE AN ACTUAL NUMERICAL TENTH OF OUR RACE; A BODY LARGE ENOUGH TO REALLY REPRESENT ALL, YET SMALL ENOUGH TO INSURE EXCEPTIONAL QUALITY, AND SCREENED FOR INTELLIGENT AND DISINTERESTED PLANNING FOR THE AMERICAN NEGRO. WITH A LARGE, VIRILE MEMBERSHIP, TEN TIMES OUR PRESENT NUMBER AND NOT SIMPLY EDUCATED BUT TRAINED IN MODERN ECONOMIC OUTLOOK AND DEPENDABLE IN CHARACTER, WHAT CAN BE OUR PROGRAM?

FIRST, WE MUST PREPARE FOR FUTURE MANHOOD AND WOMANHOOD; WE MUST DELIBERATELY PLAN MARRIAGES; WE MUST GUIDE SELECTION OF MATES BY NEW EMPHASIS ON PHYSIQUE, HEREDITY, AND BRAINS, WITH LESS STRESS ON COLOR AND BEAUTY. OUR GRANDCHILDREN MUST MARRY YOUNG AND HAVE LIMITED NUMBERS OF HEALTHY OFFSPRING. NOTHING HAS SUPPLANTED IN HUMAN CULTURE THE PLACE OF THE INTEGRATED FAMILY GROUP. THIS GROUP MUST SHARE IN EDUCATING THE CHILD AND PREPARING IT FOR WORK. THE SCHOOLS, WHERE THESE CHILDREN ARE SENT, MUST NOT BE CHOSEN BECAUSE THEY ARE ATTENDED AND TAUGHT BY WHITE PEOPLE, NOR BECAUSE THEY ARE NEGRO SCHOOLS, BUT SOLELY BECAUSE THEY CAN AND WILL EDUCATE ANY PARTICULAR CHILD INTO ITS BEST POSSIBILITIES.

CAREERS FOR THESE GRANDCHILDREN MUST NOT BE LEFT TO CHANCE AND OPPORTUNITY. THEY MUST BE PLANNED IN ACCORD WITH ABILITY, NATIONAL AND WORLD CONDITIONS AND

HAVING NOW GOTTEN A GROUP OF PREDOMINANTLY ACTIVE, VIRILE MEN OF MIDDLE AGE AND SETTLED OPINIONS, WHO HAVE FINISHED THEIR EDUCATION AND BEGUN THEIR LIFE WORK, WHAT CAN THEY DO? THEY MUST FIRST OF ALL RECOGNIZE THE FACT THAT THEIR PLACE IN LIFE IS PRIMARILY A MATTER OF OPPORTUNITY, RATHER THAN SIMPLY ABILITY; THAT IF SUCH OPPORTUNITY WERE EXTENDED AND BROADENED, A THOUSAND TIMES AS MANY NEGROES COULD JOIN THE RANKS OF THE EDUCATED AND ABLE, INSTEAD OF SINKING INTO POVERTY, DISEASE, AND CRIME: THAT THE PRIMARY DUTY OF THIS ORGANIZATION WOULD BE TO FIND DESERT, ABILITY, AND CHARACTER AMONG YOUNG NEGROES AND GIVE THEM EDUCATION AND OPPORTUNITY; THAT THE MAJOR OPPORTUNITY SHOULD BE SEEN AS WORK ACCORDING TO GIFT AND TRAINING, WITH PAY SUFFICIENT TO FURNISH A DECENT STANDARD OF LIVING; EARLY MARRIAGE AND SUPPORT AND TRAINING OF TWO OR THREE CHILDREN; THAT THEY MUST DELIBERATELY PLAN MARRIAGES; THEY MUST GUIDE SELECTION OF MATES BY NEW EMPHASIS ON PHYSIQUE, HEREDITY, AND BRAINS, WITH LESS STRESS ON COLOR AND BEAUTY. THE CHILDREN MUST MARRY YOUNG AND HAVE LIMITED NUMBERS OF HEALTHY OFFSPRING. NOTHING HAS SUPPLANTED IN HUMAN CULTURE THE PLACE OF THE INTEGRATED FAMILY GROUP. THIS GROUP MUST SHARE IN EDUCATING THE CHILD AND PREPARING IT FOR WORK. THE SCHOOLS, WHERE THESE CHILDREN ARE SENT, MUST NOT BE CHOSEN BECAUSE THEY ARE ATTENDED AND TAUGHT BY WHITE PEOPLE, NOR BECAUSE THEY ARE NEGRO SCHOOLS, BUT SOLELY BECAUSE THEY CAN AND WILL EDUCATE ANY PARTICULAR CHILD INTO ITS BEST POSSIBILITIES.

OCCUPATION SHOULD NOT AND NEED NOT BE LEFT TO CHANCE; OR CONFINED TO WHAT WHITES ARE DOING, OR ARE WILLING TO LET US DO. IT MUST INVOLVE INNOVATION AND EXPERIMENT AND PIONEERING; IT MUST BE A CAREFULLY PLANNED, THOROUGHLY THOUGHT OUT, WIDE STUDY OF HUMAN WANTS, TECHNICAL POWER, TRAINED EFFORT, AND CONSECRATED DEVOTION, WITH THE USE OF EVERY SCIENTIFIC PROCEDURE IN PHYSICS, CHEMISTRY, BIOLOGY, PSYCHOLOGY, SOCIOLOGY AND HISTORY.

TO THIS EMERGING GENERATION SHOULD BE FURNISHED THE BEST ADVICE OF EXPERIENCE: PLAIN LIVING AND HIGH THINKING; APPRAISAL OF MEN BY DESERT AND DEED, AND NOT SIMPLY BY MONEY AND PUBLIC APPLAUSE; THE REHABILITATION OF THE INDISPENSABLE FAMILY GROUP AS A CENTER OF EDUCATION, WITH HEALTHY CONVENIENT HOMES, WITH DIRTY, BACK-BREAKING DRUDGERY ELIMINATED AND TIME TO READ AND DISCUSS BOOKS AND LITERATURE, HEAR AND APPRECIATE MUSIC, AND ENTERTAIN FRIENDS.

FOR THIS CENTRAL OBJECT OF PLANNED WORK, THIS ORGANIZATION SHOULD ASSEMBLE THE BEST KNOWLEDGE, SCIENCE AND EXPERIENCE. IT SHOULD ENCOURAGE PIONEERING AND ADVENTURE, ATTACKING

DESERT PLACES WITH MODERN TECHNIQUE; PRODUCING NEW GOODS BY NEW PROCESSES; AVOIDING THE FACTORY SYSTEM AND MASS PRODUCTION AS THE LAST WORD IN WORK, AND RETURNING TO THE IDEAL OF PERSONAL CONSUMPTION, ARTISTIC TASTE AND HUMAN DESIRE; THINKING OF CONSUMPTION AND THE CONSUMER AS COMING BEFORE AND GUIDING PRODUCTION AND NOT OF PRODUCTION AS THE END OF INDUSTRY AND PROFIT AS ITS MOTIVE.

THE NEW GENERATION MUST LEARN THAT THE OBJECT OF WORK IS NOT PROFIT, BUT SERVICE AND HAPPINESS. THEY MUST, THEREFORE, BE DIRECTED AWAY FROM CAREERS WHICH ARE ANTI-SOCIAL AND DISHONEST BUT IMMENSELY PROFITABLE. INSURANCE CAN BE A SOCIAL HELP, BUT MOST OF IT TODAY IS ORGANIZED THEFT. WE MUST HAVE DRUG STORES, BUT THE PATENT NOSTRUMS IN WHICH SO MANY OF THEM DEAL DESERVE THE PENITENTIARY. GAMBLING, NOT ONLY AS TEMPTING DIVERSION, BUT AS A PROFITABLE CAREER, IS SEEPING THROUGH ALL KINDS OF AMERICAN BUSINESS, FROM THE STOCK MARKET, FACTORY, AND WHOLESALE STORE, TO THE NUMBERS RACKET, HORSE RACING, AND RADIO GIFTS. EVERY EFFORT SHOULD BE MADE TO WARN THE NEXT GENERATION AWAY FROM THIS DRY ROT OF DEATH AND CRIME.

BOOKS CAN BE GOOD WITHOUT BEING BEST SELLERS. WE HAVE A MARVELOUS ART HERITAGE WHICH SHRIEKS FOR NEW AND UNIQUE DEVELOPMENT BY THE GIFTED YOUNG.

OUR RELIGION, WITH ALL OF ITS DOGMA, DEMAGOGUERY, AND SHOWMANSHIP, CAN AND MUST BE A CENTER TO TEACH CHARACTER, RIGHT CONDUCT, AND SACRIFICE. THERE LIES HERE A CAREER FOR A NEGRO GANDHI AND A HOST OF EARNEST FOLLOWERS.

THE DARK HOSTS OF LIBERIA, AND ETHIOPIA, AND OTHER PARTS OF AFRICA, TOGETHER WITH ASIA, THE PACIFIC LANDS, SOUTH AND CENTRAL AMERICA, AND THE CARIBBEAN AREA, HAVE NEED FOR THAT BROAD KNOWLEDGE OF THE WORLD AND SPECIAL TRAINING IN TECHNIQUE WHICH WE MIGHT LEARN AND TAKE TO THEM. THEY DO NOT NEED US FOR EXPLOITATION AND GET-RICH-QUICK SCHEMES. THERE IS NO REASON WHY THE SORT OF THOUGHT AND TEACHING, WHICH 2,000 YEARS AGO MADE THE GROVES OF ATHENS THE CENTER OF THE WORLD'S SALVATION, COULD NOT LIVE AGAIN IN TEN THOUSAND NEGRO HOMES IN AMERICA TODAY.

THIS WILL INVOLVE THE EXPENDITURE OF LARGE FUNDS. THE SACRIFICE NECESSARY TO PROVIDE SUCH FUNDS SHOULD BE REGARDED NOT AS SENTIMENTAL CHARITY, OR MUSHY RELIGIOUS FERVOR, BUT AS FORESIGHT AND INVESTMENT IN THE FUTURE OF THE NEGRO RACE IN AMERICA; AND CANNY

INSURANCE AGAINST LOSS ON OUR PART, AND THE PART OF OUR CHILDREN, BY WHOLESALE NEGLECT OF VALUABLE HUMAN RESOURCES. WE MAY REACH THE HIGH IDEAL WHEN AGAIN THE TITHE, THE TENTH OF OUR INCOME WILL GO TO THE PERFECTLY FEASIBLE EFFORT OF SO CIVILIZING THE AMERICAN NEGRO THAT HE WILL BE ABLE TO LEAD THE WORLD, AND WILL WANT TO DO SO.

THIS, THEN, IS MY RE-EXAMINED AND RESTATED THEORY OF THE "TALENTED TENTH."

THE TALENTED TENTH

Some years ago I used the phrase "The Talented Tenth," meaning leadership of the Negro race in America by a trained few. Since then this idea has been criticized. It has been said that I had in mind the building of an aristocracy with neglect of the masses. This criticism has seemed even more valid because of emphasis on the meaning and power of the mass of people to which Karl Marx gave voice in the middle of the nineteenth century, and which has been growing in influence ever since. There have come other changes in these days, which a great many of us do not realize as Revolution through which we are passing. Because of this, it is necessary to examine the world about us and our thoughts and attitudes toward it. I want then to re-examine and restate the thesis of the Talented Tenth which I laid down many years ago.

In a day when culture is comparatively static, a man once grounded in the fundamentals of knowledge, received through current education, can depend on the more or less routine absorption of knowledge for keeping up with the world. This was true for decades during the nineteenth century, and usually has been true in the slow drift of many other centuries. But today, the tide runs swiftly, and almost every fundamental concept which most of us learned in college has undergone radical change; so that a man who was broadly educated in 1900 may be widely ignorant in 1948, unless he has made conscious, continuous, and determined effort to keep abreast with the development of knowledge and of thought in the last half century.

For instance, since 1900 physics and chemistry have been revolutionized in many of their basic concepts. Astronomy is today almost a new science as compared with the time of Cpernicus. Psychology has risen from guess-work and introspection to an exact science. Biology and anthropology have changed and expanded widely and history and sociology have begun in the middle of the twentieth century, first, to take on the shape of real sciences rather than being largely theory and opinion.

If, now, a college man of 1900, or even of 1925, has spent his time since graduation mainly in making a living, he is in fair way not to be able to understand the world of 1950. It is necessary then for men of education continually to readjust their knowledge, and this is doubly necessary in this day of swift revolution in ideas, in ideals, in industrial techniques, in rapid travel, and in varieties and kinds of human contacts.

Turn now to that complex of social problems, which surrounds and conditions our life, and which we call more or less vaguely, The Negro Problem. It is clear that in 1900, American Negroes were an inferior caste, were frequently lynched and mobbed, widely disfranchised, and usually segregated in the main areas of life. As student and worker at that time, I looked upon them and saw salvation through intelligent leadership; as I said, through a Talented Tenth. And for this intelligence I argued we needed college-trained men. Therefore, I stressed college and higher training. For these men with their college training there would be needed through understanding of the mass of Negroes and their problems, and, therefore, I emphasized scientific study. Willingness to work and make personal sacrifice for solving these problems was of course, the first prerequisite and Sine Qua Non. I did not stress this, I assumed it.

I assumed that with knowledge, sacrifice would automatically follow. In my youth and idealism, I did not realize that selfishness is even more natural than sacrifice. I made the assumption of its wide availability because of the spirit of sacrifice learned in my mission school training.

I went South to Fisk University at the age of 17, when I was peculiarly impressionable, from a region which had opened my mind but had not filled the void. At Fisk I met a group of teachers who would be unusual in any time or place. They were not only men of learning and experience, but men and women of character and almost fanatic devotion. It was a great experience to sit under their voice and influence. It was from that experience that I assumed easily that educated people, in most cases were going out into life to see how far they could better the world. Of course, as I looked about me, I might have understood, that all students of Fisk University were not persons of this sort. There was no lack of small and selfish souls; there were among the student body, careless and lazy p fellows; and there were especially sharp young persons, who received the education given very cheaply at Fisk University, with the distinct and single-minded idea, of seeing how much they could make out of it for themselfves, and nobody else.

When I came out of college Into the world of work I realized that it was quite possible that my plan of training a talented tenth might put in control and power a group of selfish self-indulgent, well-to-do men, whose basic interest insolving the Negro problem was personal; personal freedom and unhampered enjoyment and use of the world, without any real care or certainly no arousing care as to what became of the mass of American Negroes, or of the mass of any people. My Talented Tenth, I could see, might result in a sort of interracial free-for-all, with the devil taking the hindmost and the foremost taking anything they could lay hands on. This, historically, has always been the danger of aristocracy. It was for a long time regarded as almost inevitable because of the scarcity of ability among men and because, naturally the aristocrat came to regard himself and his whims as necessarily the end and only end of civilization and culture. As long as the masses supported this doctrine, aristocracy and mass misery lived amiably together.

Into this situation, came the revolutionary thought first voiced in former ages by great moral leaders which asked charity for the poor and sympathy for the ignorant and sick. And even intimated eventual justice in heaven. But in the suddenly expanding economy and marvelour technique of the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries t ere came prophets and reformers, but especially the voice of Karl Marx, to say that the poor need not always be with us, and that all men could and should be free from poverty.

Karl Marx stressed the fact that not merely the upper class but the mass of men were the real people of the world. He insisted that the masses were poor, ignorant, and sick, not by sin or by nature but by oppression. He preached that planned production of goods and just distribution of income would abolish poverty, ignorance and disease, and make the so-called upper-class, not the exception, but the rule among mankind. He declared that the world was not for the few, but for the many; that out of the masses of men could come overwhelming floods of ability and genius, if we freed men by plan and not by rare chance. Civilization not only could be shared by the vast majority of men, but such civilization founded on a wide human base would be better and more enduring than anything that the world has seen. The world would thus escape the enduring danger of bieng run by a selfish few for their own advantage.

Very gradually as the philosophy of Karl Marx and many of his successors seeped into my understanding, I tried to apply this doctrine with regard to Negroes. My Talented Tenth must be more than talented and work not simply as individuals. Itspassport to leadership was not alone learning but expert knowledge of modern economics as it affected American Negroes; and in addition to this and fundamental would be its willingness to sacrifice and plan for such economic revolution in industry and just distribution of wealth as would make the rise of our group possible.

Moreover, biology and sociology were reconstructing my idea of race. This group was not simply a physical entity. A black people, or a people descended from black folk. It was, what all races really are, a cultural group. It is too bad that we have to use the word "cultural" for so many meanings. But what it means in modern scientific thought is that 15,000,000 men and women who for three centuries have shared common experiences and common suffering and have worked all those days and nights together for their own survival and progress; that this complex of habits and manners could not and must not be lost. That persons sharing this experience formed a race no matter what their blood might be. That this race must be conserved for the benefit of the Negro people themselves and for mankind. I came then to advocate, not pride of biological race, but pride in a cultural group integrated and expanded by developed ideals soa as to form a method of progress.

Immediately this posed a paradox. Those Negroes who had long trained themselves for personal success and individual freedom were coming to regard the disappearance of segregation as an end and not a means. They wanted to be Americans, and they did not care so much what kind of Folk Americans were, as for the right to be one of them. They, not only, did not want to fight for a Negro culture, they even denied the possibility of any such animal, certainly its desirability even if it could be made to exist. The leadership, then, of my Talented Tenth over the mass of young colored men and women, college-trained and entering their careers, faced rejection and disappearance of the Negro, both as a race and as a culture.

But this, as I have said, was paradoxical. The United States has a large number of Negroes. We number as many as the inhabitants of the Argentine or of Czecholovakia; on the whole of Scandinavia, including Sweden, Norway, and Denmark. We are very nearly the size of Egypt, Rumana and Yugoslavia. And we are larger than Candda, Saudie Arabia, Ethiopia, Hungary, or the netherlands. We have twice as many persons as Australia or Switzerland, and more than the whole Union of South Africa. We have more people than Portugal or Peru; twice as many as Greece and nearly as many as Turkey. We have more people by far than Belgium, and half as many as Spain. A nation of such size, such history, such accomplishment, should be able to look forward to something more than complete effacement and utter absorption in another and foreign entity. It should have legitimate dreams of continuity, unity, and immortality.

It should plan a life and future, not in world antagonism and enmity or narrow provincialism, but in higher and broader helpfulness to all, through self-knowledge, self-realization, and self-control, not only that, but the world has at least 250,000,000 Negroes and Negroids. They cannot disappear physically, much less culturally, without deep loss to themselves and humanity.

The question is: how and by whom can Negro culture be preserved? Not simply the social movements of America, but of the greater world of human culture.

In our concentration of thought on the United States, as the locus of our fight, we have come to think of this land as the center of the universe and lately as the predestined leader of civilization. This is because of our recent growth in world power, based on unusual natural resources; a democracy in government which emancipated former lower classes, and gave them work and high wages; and finally, because the leading nations of Europe lost their power through rivalry, exploitation, and war.

It was not America's virtues, but Europe's mistakes, that gave us persent primacy. We Negroes have thoughtlessly failed to recognize this and have tried to become more American than the Americans; loud in our conversation, uncritical in our boasting and arrogance, showy and ostentatious in dress, careless in manners, wasteful in conspicuous expenditure, and smug and uncritical in judgement. Like all America we read few books; we get superficial "news" from radio gossip and doctored opinion from a press known to be prejudiced and monopolized. We do not realize, that today the United States is probably the most thoroughly hated and despised nation on earth, especially among the really cultured and civilized. Its natural resources, industrial techniques, and control of credit make it powerful and feared; but it is not recognized as leading in science, in morals, or toward human happiness. The remaking of human culture, so as to fashion a decent world, is being pursued today mainly in Europe and Asia.

Cooperation then, with the forward-looking forces of civilization in the world, can be carried out in this land by Negroes, as well as by any other large coherent American group. This is recognized in foreign thought. It is becoming a matter of open expression among hundreds of millions of people in Africa and in Asia. These people are not, as we usually assume when we unconsciously take over American prejudices, people who deserve to be ignored, in our estimate of the world and in our dreams of what the world may be. Not only have they been influential in their contributions to the past, but today, there is a leadership from the colored world which is beginning to be powerful on earth.

Now the central thought of any cultural effort to restore the civilization which has collapsed in two world wars and to build something better is economic reconstruction. Ignorance of this central fact is widespread. Economics is not being taught as it should be in the schools and colleges today: and I mean of course by economics--knowledge of the meaning of work, of how it may best be done; of the significance and ownership of machines of the role of credit and money; of the distribution of goods and services of the possibilities of human effort today.

The new economics starting almost exactly a hundred years ago is clear and unanswerable in its facts and knowledge. It says that nature is the source of all wealth: that human effort transforms natural resources for human use: that the results of t is ork should be divided among men according to need and not by chance, or priviledge or by individual power. It says th t industry should be controlled by the state, and planned by science and that all goods should be owned and distributed in such ways as result in the greatest good to all. ll persons should be educated accordin to ability and should labor according to efficiency.

Health and housin , social security, facilities for recreation and for human intercourse should be public responsibilities.

25-2-141

Within this framework of necessary work for general welfare there should be the widest possible area reserved for liberty of thought and of action and for creative ideal.

This program of progress is the consensus of the civilized world today. It is called by many names: Socialism, Communism, Liberalism, Consumers-Cooperation, The New Deal, or Progressivism takings its name according to place and time and emphasis.

In the United States, this idea has made wide-progress beginning with the populist movement, progressing with Bryan and La-Follette and culminating with the New Deal under Franklin Roosevelt.

But it has been steadily and often successfully opposed by industrial interests which have tried desperately to make Americans turn back to the belief of the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries that free individual enterprise with the least possible social control and spurred mainly by the incentive of private profit is the only method which can bring and preserve prosperity. This doctrine is contradicted by Two World Wars and the imminence of a third. It is denied in our own history by six industrial crises, a great depression which threw world industry into scaos, and threat of another tomorrow.

Yet triumphant reaction spurred by fantastic war profit is forcing the United States against the consensus of the best opinion of the world to block real economic progress by misdirecting knowledge through a monopolized and commercialized press and by a series of witch-hunts to scare and silence thought.

This is a day of critical danger to us and to the world. Whatever we can do to avert disaster, is our bounden duty to attempt.

The question is then: Who can lead the way in this effort? Here comes a new idea of a Talented Tenth: The concept of a group-leadership not simply educated and self-sacrificing but with clear vision of present world conditions and dangers and conducting American Negroes to alliance with culture groups in Europe, America, Asia, and Africa, and looking toward a new world culture. We can do it. We have the ability. The only question is, have we the will?

This calls for leadership through special organization. Such organization calls for more than a tenth of our number. One one-hundredth, or thirty thousand persons is indicated with a directing council composed of educated and specially trained experts in the main branches of science and the main categories of human work, and a paid executive committee of five or six persons to carry out the program.

To launch so large a scheme as a new organization would call for so much time, money and effort, that it would be more practical if an already existing body could be adapted to this work. Some of the secret orders might do it. The college fraternities would occur to all as best placed by education to inaugurate this work if they could be persuaded of its necessity and feasibility. The under-graduate fraternities, even with their graduate chapters have probably a constituency too young and too busy trying to make a living. Then too, they are dominated by rather youthful ideals of the mis-called college spirit. I turn then to this fraternity but with some misgiving. What the guiding idea of Sigma Pi Phi was, I have never been able to learn. I believe it was rooted in a certain exclusiveness and snobbery for which we all have a yearning even if unconfessed. But such an object belongs to days of peace and security. Today is a time of crisis. Could then, this organization be adapted to the role of organized scientific leadership of the American Negro?

We consist of 440 families, (omitting the Boule of Baltimore from whom repeated letters and cards, airmailed and special delivered have elicited no response.)

Of 3,000,000 Negro families, we represent not a tenth, but a ten-thousandth of the group;

First of all, we are old men. Only one is under thirty: three-fourths of the Archons are between 30 and 60, and most probably nearer 60. More than a fourth are over 60. This means that by and large we received our college education in the last century or the first decade of this, when the atom was indivisible: when light always spread in straight lines: when evolution was the survival of the fittest: when mankind consisted of five separate, indestructable races and when socialism was a fool's dream.

In occupation our membership is not well-balanced. Nearly half (201) are physicians, dentists, and pharmacists. They are thus members of closed trade unions with rules coming down from another century: with highly individualized activities and restricted public contracts.

The next group, (144 in number) are teachers and administrators of schools, ministers and social workers. These men are more in touch with the new science and social movements but have little first-hand experience in modern industry: that is, in the very activity which is ruling and conditioning the modern world.

A further group of 65 persons consists of lawyers and business men. They not only themselves have limited contact with the laboring classes and their problems, but are over-exposed to American business philosophy--to the idea of industry primarily for profit of trade unions as nuisances and of high wages as inflationary. This comes from their contact with white fellow men in their professions who are nearly all of the reactionary group.

The remaining 30 members are varied in occupation but do not fill the clear vacancy which we have so far as authors and artists are concerned. We have 9 technicians but that is a very small number.

We do not represent then typical America. Nor do we represent at all the scientific and social leadership of the modern world because we are overloaded with members of the professions, weighted towards American business, while science and art despite our teachers fall far behind. We are then in the mass, an old, timid, conservative group.

We are not according to American tandards rich, but according to world standards we are distinctly well-to-do and in the upper economic brackets. Of our ~~membership~~ 440 families, 127 receive over $10,000 a year and almost a score of these get over $25,000. There are 199 families who receive from $5,000 to $10,000 a year and only 86 who confess to less than $5,000, which may be modesty. Our interests then are not normally with the poor and hungry, yet we are not aware of this: we assume on the one hand our identity with the poor and yet we act and sympathize with the rich, an unconscious and danger-our dichotomy.

It is a matter of sorrow or congratulation according to one's point of view, when we remember that this group is probably bound for extinction. Of the families, 159 have no children, and 88 only one child: three-fourths of the families have no grandchildren, and 39 only one grandchild. Our other 72 members may, barring accidents, partly reproduce our number, but at present there are only 243 grandchildren; when survival would call for 880!

Theoretically then this is not an ideal group for the kind of leadership which I have in mind. Moreover it faces peculiar trends and difficulties. May I name six of these: first, a distinct indisposition to re-examine trends and knowledge or to question conclusions of the past.

Second, a disposition to accept the values and decisions of present day America. Third, a deep seated disbelief in Asia and Africa and even of the West Indies, springing partially from the prejudice of surrounding Americans: partially from the idea that we, ourselves, are unusual and exceptional colored folk.

Fourth, a feeling of helplessness against too great odds and tendencies: if the white world is going along an accepted path even if that is suicide after all, what can we do about it, and what do we want to do about it?

Fifth, a current philosophy among us as old as humanity, "eat drink, and be merry"---a reaction towards throwing off of the extreme depression of the days when we were fighting for sheer existence and determination to enjoy some of the possibilities which our income and new freedom open to us today.

And finally in spite of some of the extraordinary things which we have seen Negroes do in the last generation in America, there still lingers among us the deep-seated doubt of Negro ability to cope with the white world.

We are so painfully aware of the degradation of millions of our masses of the crime and lechery that lurk in New York, Chicago and New Orleans; of the lying, dishonesty, and double dealing that mark so many even of our intelligent and rich, that we associate color and degradation and cannot make ourselves believe in any real triumph of black folk. Few of us know or try to know what human degradation on this earth can be and has been and is among other and fairer peoples.

Basically this confronts us with two problems: the leadership of the masses and the sacrifice necessary to leadership. The uplift of the mass cannot be left to chance. Marx and Lenin firmly believed it could only be accomplished by a dictatorship. I think in the case of Russia they were right but in our plight, I think we can feww our mass by organization and group influence exercised through a self-sacrificing leadership. This is primaril a question of character which I failed to emphasize in my first proposal of a Talented Tenth.

In this reorientation of my ideas, my pointing our the new knowledge necessary for leadership and new ideas of race and culture there still remains that fundamental and basic requirement of character for any successful leadership toward great ideals. Even if the ideals are clearly perceived, honesty of character and purity of motive is needed without which no effort succeeds or deserves to succeed. We used to talk much of character--perhaps too much. At Fisk, we had it dinned into our ears. At Harvard we never mentioned it. We thought of it: but it was not good taste to talk of it: At Berlin we quite forgot it. But that was reaction. We cannot have perfection. We have few saints. But we must have honest men or we die. We must have unselfish far seeing leadership or we fail.

What can Sigma Pi Phi do to see that we get it for the American Negro? So far as the group before me is concerned little can be done for the simple reason that most of our present membership will soon be dead. Unless we begin to recruit this fraternity membership with young men and large numbers of them our biennial conclaves will be increasingly devoted to obituaries. We should have a large increase of membership drawn from men who have received their college education since the First World War. This new membership must not simply be successful in the American Sense of being of being rich: they must not all be physicians and lawyers. The technicians, business men, teachers and social workers admitted must be those who realize the economic revolution now sweeping the world and do not think that private profit is the measure of public welfare. And too: we must deliberately seek honest men.

This screened young membership must be far greater in number than it is now. Baltimore for instance has more than 166,000 Negroes and only 23 in its Boule, representing less than 100 persons. Surely there must be at least 23 other persons in Baltimore worthy of fellowship. It is inconceivable that we should even for a moment dream that with a membership of 440 we have scratched even the tip of the top of the surface of a group representative of potential Negro leadership in America. Nothing but congenital laziness should keep us from a membership of 3,000 by the next biennium without any lowering of quality and a membership of 30,000 by 1960. This would be an actual numerical one hundredth of our race: a body large enough really to represent all. Yet small enough to insure exceptional quality; if screened for intelligent and disinterested planning.

Having gotten a group of predominantly active virile men of middle age and settled opinions who have finished their education and begun their life work what can they do? They must first of all recognize the fact that their own place in life is primarily a matter of opportunity rather than simply desert or ability. That if such opportunity were extended and broadened a thousand times as many Negroes could join the ranks of the educated and able: instead of sinking into poverty, disease and crime: that the primary duty of this organization would be to find desert, ability, and character among young Negroes and get for them education and opportunity. That the major opportunity should be seen as work according to gift and training with pay sufficient to furnish a decent standard of living.

A national organization of this sort must be prepared to use propaganda, make investigation, plan procedures and even finance projects. This will call for an initial body of belief which even now can be forecast in outline.

We would want to impress on the emerging generations of Negroes in America the ideal of plain living and high thinking: in defiance of American noise, waste and display; the rehabilitation of the indispensable family group by deliberate planning of marriages with mates selected for heredity, physique, health and brains, with less insistence on color, comeliness or romantic sex lure, mis-called love: youth should marry young and have a limited number of healthy children. The home must be a place of education, rather than cleaning and cooking, with books, discussion and entertainment.

The schools where these children are sent must not be chosen for the color of their teachers or students but for their efficiency in educating a particular child. In home and out children should learn not to neglect our art heritage: music is not designed soley for night clubs, drama is not aimed at Broadway, dancing is not the handmaid of prostitution, and writing is not mainly for income.

Our religion with all of its dogma, demagoguery, and showmanship can be a center to teach character, right conduct and sacrifice. There lies here a career for a Negro Gandhi and a host of earnest followers.

The dark hosts of Liberia and Ethiopia and other parts of Africa together with Asia, the Pacific lands, South and Central America, and the Caribbean area have need for that broad knowledge of the world and special training in technique which we might learn and take to them. They do not need us for explcitation and get-rich-quick schemes. There is no reason why the sort of thought and teaching which 2,000 years ago made the groves of Athens the center of the world's salvation could not live again in ten thousand Negro homes in America today.

Occupation should not and need not be left to chance or confined to what whites are doing or are willing to let us do. It must involve innovation and experiment. It must be a carefully planned throughly thought out with wide study of human wants of every scientific procedure in physics, chemistry, biology, psychology, sociology and history.

For this central object of planned work, this organization should assemble the best knowledge and experience. It should encourage pioneering and adventure, attacking desert places with modern technique: producing new goods by new processes: avoiding the factory system and mass production as the last word in work and returning to the ideal of personal consumption, personal taste and human desire: thinking of consumption and the consumers as coming before production and not of production as the end of industry and profit as its motive.

The new generation must learn that the object of the world is not profit but service and happiness. They must therefore be directed away from careers which are anti-social and dishonest but immensly profitable. Insurance can be a social help but much of it today is organized theft. We must have drug stores but the patent nostrums in which so many of them deal deserve the penitentiary. Gambling not only as poker-playing but as a profitable career, is seeping through all kinds of American business from the stock market, factory and wholesale store, to the numbers racket, horse racing, and ridio gifts. Every effort should be made to warn the next generation away from this dry rot of death and crime.

An organization adapted to such a program of propaganda and work of guidance and able to search for and select ability and character and finance efforts to give it opportunity will need large funds at its disposal. The sacrifice necessary to provide such funds should be regarded not as sentimental charity or mushy religious ferver but as foresight and investment in the future of the Negro in America, and canny insurance against loss by wholesale neglect of invaluable human resources.

We may reach the high ideal when again the tithe, the tenth of our income will go to the perfectly feasible effort of so civilizing the American Negro that he will be able to lead the world and will want to do so.

This, then, is my re-examined and restated theory of the "Talented Tenth," which has thus become the doctrine of the "Guiding Hundredth."

Naturally, I do not dream, that a word of mine will transform to any essential degree, the form and trends of this fraternity, but I am certain the idea called for expression and that the seed must be dropped whether in this or other soil today or tomorrow.

THE TALENTED TENTH

THE RE-EXAMINATION OF A CONCEPT

By

Forty-five years ago in my book, THE SOULS OF BLACK FOLK, I wrote a chapter which I called The Talented Tenth. In that chapter I tried to develop the thesis that the leadership of American Negroes should be in the hands of a talented and educated minority, who should become their leaders in order to guide and conduct them out of their condition of semi-slavery. Since that time on several occasions this thesis has been attacked. Some have said for instance, that I was laying down the world old theory of aristocracy that I conceived that those Negroes who were advantaged in gift and property, should be educated and should become the group which spoke for the Negro and assumed that they represented the Negro; just as in practically all civilization we have had a small number which became a ruling aristocracy and which assumed to be and was regarded as the real representatives of the people. Then again, and from another point of view, my idea of the Talented Tenth was critized because as men said I was thinking of the exceptional persons and the persons who had and could get advantages and losing sight entirely of the great mass of people in the race, and that my program therefore contemplated the uplift of the few, rather than the development of the many.

Neither of these criticisms were really fair to my meaning, although I can easily see today that it was perfectly natural for critics to draw these conclusions. In order to understand, however, just what I had in mind, one must remember certain aspects of my education and what I regarded as the talented tenth. In the surroundings of my family in a little New England town, I felt myself always as a more or less isolated evangelist, who's going to teach the world what my people meant and what they could do. The problem in my mind was not so much as to whether my people could accomplish such things, but as to how their accomplishment could be brought to the attention of the outer world. Now this attitude was tremendously emphasized and made vivid. When I went to Fisk University in the fall of 1885, I do not think that most northern Negroes, and certainly few white people who have not come in ~~xx~~ close contact with the older type of Southern Negro college, realize just what an extraordinary institution it was. Of course, therehave been very many varieties, and that this which I attended was by no means typical of all the schools. This Fisk University in 1885 was an excellent shool. I mean by that, that it had good trained teachers, it had sound and thoughtful discipline, it had adequate buildings and while the library and the laboratories were poor; nevertheless, they were places where people could learn. In the second place, the number of students in the college grades of those schoold was very small. They were a selected group. At Fisk University when I went there the whole college department was not more than 25 persons. Teaching these persons, there were a number of unusual white people. There was Adam Spence, who was a gret teacher of Greek and of Music by any standard. There was Chase, who knew his chemistry and physics and also knew human beings and made excellent interpretation. There was Chase who taught German and taught it effectively. There was Morris, a young colored man, younger brother of the great lawyer Edward Morris, who had one of the keenest minds that I have ever come across. Now these teachers devoted themselves wholeheartedly to their work and their ideals were broad and high. They were of course, to some extent, straightlaced in their ethics and narrow in their religion; but in none of these cases were they fanatics.

Now it was this group of teachers who developed in me, and I am sure in the majority of my fellow students, the idea of the Negro problem as being an evangel, a gospel where chosen men were trained and armed , and went out to take the leadership of the mass. That idea of leadership was continually dinned in our ears and was all the more fruitful, because certainly in my case, and I think in most others we were ready for that concept. We did not regard ourselves as separate and superior to the masses, but rather as a part of the mass which was being equipted and armed for leadership and that leadership was of course for the benefit of the mass. I can realize now, looking back, that there were some of my fellow students to whom this high ideal was a matter of words and not of ddep and fanatic belief. They listened ~~xx~~ casually and were determined to go out and do the best they could for themselves . They had no deep idea of any sacrifice for the colored people. On the other hand, as I have said there was a considerable number, and I believe majority to whom the idea of the talented tenth was the idea of sacrifice for the mass of people who were worth the sacrifice and who were going to show the world what could be done by pwople who were released from slavery. Now, of course, as I came out into the world and began to work with others for objects which I and they had conceived; I began to realize naturally that there were a great many people who had had the advantage of training, who did not propose to use that training for anything else but their own advancement; and that therefore it did not logically and necessarily follow that because a tenth of the people were talented, that all that talent was going to be used for the people. Moreover, another variation of that idea soon came to me; although that came later, and that was , that the talented tenth did not exist by divine right , that you did not have a group of people of ability coming forward naturally and inevitably so that when you saw the educated and successful man, you saw most of the people who by native ability who should be educated and successful. No! I began to realize that near all this there was a tremendous element of pure accident and chance that we could translate what the great Puritan ~~Englishman~~ said when he saw fellon going to the ~~hangman's noose~~ gallows, "There but ~~by~~ for the grace of God ~~go I~~ John Bradford," that the Negroes who were in school and getting an education were not by any means necessarily and inevitably the Negroes who ought to have had the chance. That large numbers of Negroes of great ability and talent never had the chance to learn, even to read and ~~xxx~~ write. And that therefore the Talented Tenth had no right to preen itself upon the natural way in which it had risen to leadership; but rather should be extremely ~~xxxxx~~ humble to think that by good fate they had the chance to be educated when others who deserved even more than they did, had no such opportunity.

When my self criticism began to go further than that, when the socialists, the communists, and other radicals began to say concerning the NAACP and the Urban League and other orgnizations, here you have an example of people who by accident have gotten education, have gotten hold of money and position and are becoming a typical bourgeoisie. You realize, of course, the meaning of that term---the bourgeoisie were the people living in the cities composed a large part of slaves who had run away from the feudalized country and these city dwellers becoming traders and merchants had begun to make money and then insisted upon their right to make money and finally raised the cry of freedom in the 18th century when freedom meant not what we are trying to say today ---the right to think and do as one will, no, it meant freedom of trade and accumulation of wealth . And when there came the revolt--100 years ago this year against the bourgeoisie it was a revolt against the wealth-makers who were trying to be rulers of the world.

Today wealth does rule, to an extent that even those who see and understand it hardly realize. The road to wealth is not as we use to conceive, a free-for-all race with talent and dessert at the head. It is, on the contrary a battle repression with every kind of force in use, slavery, conquest, cheating, war and financial crisis. I need not point out that this is not only true in international relations, it is true in business carried on within the country, where everything from lying, cheating to theft and murder has put people in possession of property and large income . Now the question comes, are we parterners in this kind of oppression and monopoly of income and opportunity, if we are this is a very serious thing. For a long time, I denied this, I answered socialists and communists and radicals of various sort and said , when it comes to the American Negro, you are mistaken in thinking that a well-to-do and satisfied minority is living either by exploitation of their poorer and weaker brothers or by condoning their exploitation through the hands of other people. We as Negroes, I said, have developed very little differences in wealth and income and consequently those class distinctions due to differences of income which have risen in other groups have not arisen in our group. We are all so near the working class and so bound to them by blood relationship and fellowship that there can be among Negroes no important class distinctions or oppression. I find however, that as time has gone on either I see more clearly and know more, or else things have changed. That as a matter of fact, differences of income within the Negro race have become large and important . Larger and larger number of Negroes are living on the use and exploitation of the labor of other Negroes and that we are building up within the American Negro group, the same kind of economic hierachy which you can see in larger and more developed forms in England, France, the former Germany, Italy and Spain. Now the question is , what shall we do about it? Is it something concerning which we are satisfied nothing can be done, that this is a normal and irrestible development, or is it a situation which can be attacked and changed? No sooner do we state such possibility and the Negro group shares the fear of all other groups that men who advocate economic and social reform are mainly fools and crackpots. Or as we say today are communists and socialists and that it is not only dangerous but unwise to listen to any talk of that sort .

Our first duty however here is to understand, to understand just what a world wave of reform is trending toward. We are in a situation today, where in every civilized land the problem of the distribution of income is of foremost importance and where thinking men are unwilling to continue to pursue the development which has been paramount in western Europe for two or three centuries. They are asking if it is inevitable that a few people should gain from org nized industry great wealth and power while the mass of people are poor ignorant and diseased and I think it is fair to say that with increasing and almost overwhelming voice they are saying that his situation can be changed and that if it is not changed, war and financial crisis are goingto ruin present civilization. What we American Negroes must therefore do specifically is to recognize, select and train talent, we must do it naturally among our own children, and if we have no children, we should much more largely adopt children than we do .

There is no excuse today among colored people particularly x for well-to-do single couples to use their ample income simply for their own enjoyment and not to share the burden of the race and the world by adopting and training children and sharing in the burden and vicissitudes of such training . Beyond this we should turn our attention to the organization of the mass of American Negroes. First of all and perhaps formost because we have so many prosperous and successful physicans we should look to the socialization of medicine so as to prevent disease among the mass of people, treat it in modern ways with adequate numbers of practioners and at a price which the mass of people can meet. We in America do not realize how far this is being done in European countries and how far the opposition to it in this country is selfish and unreal for absence of physicans and hospitals, we are the ones that suffer even though we can accomplish income and comfort while the mass of Negroes die. Beyond that we have got to take a stand which will enable Negroes to earn better incomes. The greatest single ? as I have tried to point out for 25 years is Consumers Cooperation. Consumers Cooperation is sweeping the world. It is growing by leaps and bounds in the United States and simply because it is not advertised on the front page of our monopolized press or talked about over the radio, we must not get the impression that it is impractical and inadvisable. It is the greatest organized defense that common people have. Practically the whole population of England is organized in Consumers Cooperatives. Scandinavia bases its prosperity upon them. The Russian Revolution adopted Consumers Cooperation as one of its basic instruments. It was wide-spread in Germany and plays its part in France. There should be a concerted movement to bring the facts of Consumers Corporation before the people. I need say but one thing to show its importance, here in the United States we talk and stress production, we advocate selling, we fill the papers with pictures and the radio with advertisements to push the products of the producers, on the other hand, for the most part the consumers stands helpless, unorganized not knowing what he should buy or what he should pay. Consumers Corporation is the organization of the consumers; beyond that our attitude toward the distribution of power, the knowledge of technique and the monopoly of natural resources has got radically to be changed. We have got to realize that wealth is not simply gratification; wealth is power, the power to say what shall be produced, under what conditions producers shall work, what wages they shall get and how much of the income of the state shall be spent for education and the fighting of disease. This power, today and its application through our technical knowledge is monopolized to a degree that is simply unbelievable until one studies it. It has been said recently that a thousand persons practically own and direct power in the United States. Sixty great family fortunes rule the country and in cooperation with similar groups rule the world.

This kind of monopoly of power has got to be opposed by political and social action and we are the ones joined with other groups and peoples of the world to oppose this monopoly. As a step toward this we need inner organization For a long time the trend has been to oppose or give little t ought to the inner orgnization to the American Negro; with the assumption that any organization which we begin or carry on is a sort of self-imposed segregation which keeps us from admission to world organization or to national cooperation. This is untrue, the world works by means of families, and groups and nations. Nothing has done more to help the Negro into understanding and cooperation with the world than the inner organizations which he has carried on like the Negro church, the Negro college, the Negro fraternity. There is no doubt but what this inner organization may go too far, it may lead to silly and selfish introversion but on the other hand it is a school of action which trains people for life. You cannot train a citizen of the world by giving up the training which he receives or ought to receive in the family circle. For this reason we should stress the cultural development of American Negroes. And I mean by that not simply those culture patterns which we have inherited from Africa; which probably are not many, but nevertheless in a wide number of cases very valuable. One must remember that cultural patterns are being built up all of the time; that in the three hundred years of our working as a group in America we have organized and carried out varieties of ways in which human beings meet the problems of living and these together make a body of cultural knowledge of infinite value, not only for ourselves, but for others. They should be reserved and guided .

Above all, the family among the well-to-do American Negroes as represented by an organization like this should be carefully established and nurtured. In the first place, our children should be enabled to marry early and have children early, it would be better for the children and better for the parents in the long run. The family could be limited according to common sense by careful and scientific methods. As it is we have followed a European and American pattern of letting the marriages of our children being merely questions of chance, of meetings here and there with persons by no means fitted for married life.

The French method, which was once strong was a great deal better where the parents deliberately planned and arranged marriages of children. Meetings like this for instance ought to be places where marriages are arranged among the children of Archons and where effort was made to see that those children had the economic chance of marriage and could marry early. This means of course especial interest in the careers of young men. There is wide-spread feeling among the younger generation of colored men and women that the older successful people not only care little about the careers of the young, but actually form a kind of bulwark to keep out and exclude the young from sharing their prosperity. Perhaps this feeling is exa gerated, but there is some bases in it. I have seen professional men and men in business who gave little thought or care as to how their work could be shared and handed on, and the income and position which they had achieved be shared by another generation. This of course is a serious matter, now beyond all this and b ack to this matter of Negro culture. We used to talk of race pride and race loyalty which of course put the stress upon the physical bases of race defictions. We know now that was a wrong emphasis and what we have in the United States bxxxx is a group of people, bound together not so much by their physical characteristics as by their cultural unity, by the fact that they remember the same things, have gone through the same history are suffering the same disadvantages today; so that we still have the beauty and necessity of stressin this cultural unity of asking ourselves and our young people to be loyal to the history of our strife and accompolishment; to know about it, to carry it out, to make it more impressive and effective than it has been in the past.

THE MORE OR LESS ROUTINE ABSORPTION OF KNOWLEDGE FOR KEEPING UP WITH THE WORLD. THIS WAS TRUE FOR DECADES DURING THE NINETEENTH CENTURY, AND USUALLY HAS BEEN TRUE IN THE SLOW DRIFT OF MANY OTHER CENTURIES. BUT TODAY, THE TIDE RUNS SWIFTLY, AND ALMOST EVERY FUNDAMENTAL CONCEPT WHICH MOST OF US LEARNED IN COLLEGE HAS UNDERGONE RADICAL CHANGE; SO THAT A MAN WHO WAS BROADLY EDUCATED IN 1900 MAY BE WIDELY IGNORANT IN 1948, UNLESS HE HAS MADE CONSCIOUS, CONTINUOUS, AND DETERMINED EFFORT TO KEEP ABREAST WITH THE DEVELOPMENT OF KNOWLEDGE AND OF THOUGHT IN THE LAST HALF CENTURY.

FOR INSTANCE, SINCE 1900, PHYSICS AND CHEMISTRY HAVE BEEN REVOLUTIONIZED IN MANY OF THEIR BASIC CONCEPTS. ASTRONOMY IS TODAY ALMOST A NEW SCIENCE, AS COMPARED WITH THE TIME OF COPERNICUS. PSYCHOLOGY HAS RISEN FROM GUESS-WORK AND INTROSPECTION TO AN EXACT SCIENCE. BIOLOGY AND ANTHROPOLOGY HAVE CHANGED AND EXPANDED WIDELY AND HISTORY AND SOCIOLOGY HAVE BEGUN IN THE MIDDLE OF THE TWENTIETH CENTURY, FIRST, TO TAKE ON THE SHAPE OF REAL SCIENCES RATHER THAN BEING LARGELY THEORY AND OPINION.

IF, NOW, A COLLEGE MAN OF 1900, OR EVEN OF 1925, HAS SPENT HIS TIME SCINCE GRADUATION MAINLY IN MAKING A LIVING, HE IS IN FAIR WAY NOT TO BE ABLE TO UNDERSTAND THE WORLD

[pp 3-5 missing]

ARISTOCRACY. IT WAS FOR A LONG TIME REGARDED AS ALMOST INEVITABLE BECAUSE OF THE SCARCITY OF ABILITY AMONG MEN AND BECAUSE, NATURALLY THE ARISTOCRAT CAME TO REGARD HIMSELF AND HIS WHIMS AS NECESSARILY THE END AND ONLY END OF CIVILIZATION AND CULTURE. AS LONG AS THE MASSES SUPPORTED THIS DOCTRINE, ARISTOCRACY AND MASS MISERY LIVED AMIABLY TOGETHER.

INTO THIS SITUATION, CAME THE REVOLUTIONARY THOUGHT FIRST VOICED IN FORMER AGES BY GREAT MORAL LEADERS WHICH ASKED CHARITY FOR THE POOR AND SYMPATHY FOR THE IGNORANT AND SICK. AND EVEN INTIMATED EVENTUAL JUSTICE IN HEAVEN. BUT IN THE SUDDENLY EXPANDING ECONOMY AND MARVELOUS TECHNIQUE OF THE EIGHTEENTH AND NINTEENTH CENTURIES THERE CAME THE VOICE OF KARL MARX, TO SAY THAT THE POOR NEED NOT ALWAYS BE WITH US, AND THAT ALL MEN COULD AND SHOULD BE FREE FROM POVERTY.

41-149-18

KARL MARX STRESSED THE FACE THAT NOT MERELY THE UPPER CLASS BUT THE MASS OF MEN WERE THE REAL PEOPLE OF THE WORLD. HE INSISTED THAT THE MASSES WERE POOR, IGNORANT, AND SICK, NOT BY SIN OR BY NATURE BUT BY OPPRESSION. HE PREACHED THAT PLANNED PRODUCTION OF GOODS AND JUST DISTRIBUTION OF INCOME WOULD ABOLISH POVERTY, IGNORANCE AND DISEASE, AND MAKE THE SO-CALLED UPPER-CLASSES, NOT THE EXCEPTION, BUT THE RULE AMONG MANKIND. HE DECLARED THAT THE WORLD WAS NOT FOR THE FEW, BUT FOR THE MANY; THAT OUT OF THE MASSES OF MEN COULD COME OVERWHELMING FLOODS OF ABILITY AND GENIUS, IF WE FREED MEN BY PLAN AND NOT BY RARE CHANCE. CIVILIZATION NOT ONLY COULD BE SHARED BY THE VAST MAJORITY OF MEN, BUT SUCH CIVILIZATION FOUNDED ON A WIDE HUMAN BASE WOULD BE BETTER AND MORE ENDURING THAN ANYTHING THAT THE WORLD HAS SEEN. THE WORLD WOULD THUS ESCAPE THE ENDURING DANGER OF BEING RUN BY A SELFISH FEW FOR ITS OWN ADVANTAGE

ADVANTAGE

VERY GRADUALLY AS THE PHILOSOPHY OF KARL MARX AND MANY OF HIS SUCCESSORS SEEPED INTO MY UNDERSTANDING, I TRIED TO APPLY THIS DOCTRINE WITH REGARD TO NEGROES. MY TALENTED TENTH MUST BE MORE THAN SIMPLY TALENTED AND WORK NOT SIMPLY AS INDIVIDUALS. ITS PASSPORT TO LEADERSHIP WAS NOT SIMPLY LEARNING BUT EXPERT KNOWLEDGE OF MODERN ECONOMICS AS IT AFFECTED AMERICAN NEGROES; AND IN ADDITION TO THIS AND FUNDAMENTAL WOULD BE ITS WILLINGNESS TO SACRIFICE AND PLAN FOR SUCH ECONOMIC REVOLUTION IN INDUSTRY AND JUST DISTRIBUTION OF WEALTH AS WOULD MAKE THE RISE OF OUR GROUP POSSIBLE.

5/A

THOUGHT IS THAT 15,000

ARED CO

MODERN SCIENTIFIC THOUGHT IS THAT 15,000,000 MEN AND WOMEN WHO FOR THREE CENTURIES HAVE SHARED COMMON EXPERIENCES AND COMMON SUFFERING AND HAVE WORKED ALL THOSE DAYS AND NIGHTS TOGETHER FOR THEIR OWN SURVIVAL AND PROGRESS; THAT THIS COMPLEX OF HABITS AND MANNERS COULD NOT AND MUST NOT BE LOST. THAT PERSONS SHARING THIS EXPERIENCE FORMED A RACE NO MATTER WHAT THEIR BLOOD MIGHT BE. THAT THIS RACE MUST BE CONSERVED FOR THE BENEFIT OF THE NEGRO PEOPLE THEMSELVES AND FOR MANKIND. I CAME THEN TO ADVOCATE, NOT MERELY PRIDE OF BIOLOGICAL RACE, BUT A CULTURAL GROUP INTEGRATED AND EXPANDED BY DEVELOPED IDEALS SO AS TO FORM A METHOD OF AMERICAN NEGRO PROGRESS.

IMMEDIATELY THIS POSED A PARADOX. THOSE NEGROES WHO HAD LONG TRA NED THEMSELVES FOR PERSONAL SUCCESS AND INDIVIDUAL FREEDOM WERE COMING TO REGARD THE DISAPPEARANCE OF SEGREGATION AS AN END AND NOT AS A MEANS. THEY WANTED TO BE AMERICANS, AND THEY DID NOT

[41 9-12 MISSING]

NOW THE CENTRAL THOUGHT OF ANY CULTURAL EFFORT TO RESTORE THE CIVILIZATION WHICH HAS COLLAPSED IN TOW WORLD WARS AND TO BUILD SOMETHING BETTER IS ECONOMIC RECONSTRUCTION. IGNORANCE OF THIS CENTRAL FACE IS WIDESPREAD. ECONOMICS IS NOT BEING TAUGHT AS IT SHOULD BE IN THE SCHOOLS AND COLLEGES TODAY: AND I MEAN OF COURSE BY ECONOMICS--KNOWLEDGE OF THE MEANING OF WORK, OF HOW IT MAY BEST BE DONE; OF THE SIGNIFICANCE AND OWNERSHIP OF MACHINES OF M THE ROLE OF CREDIT AND MONEY; OF THE DISTRIBUTION OF GOODS AND SERVICES OF THE POSSIBILITIES OF HUMAN EFFORT TODAY.

41-149-21

THE NEW ECONOMICS STA TING ALMOST EXACTLY A HUNDRED YEARS AGO IS CLEAR AND UNANSWERABLE IN ITS FACTS AND KNOWLEDGE. IT SAYS THAT NATURE IS THE SOURCE OF ALL WEALTH: THAT HUMAN EFFORT TRANSFORMS NATURAL RESOURCES FOR HUMAN USE: THAT THE RESULTS OF THIS WORK SHOULD BE DIVIDED AMONG MEN ACCORDING TO NEED AND NOT BY CHANCE, OR PRIVILEDGE OR BY INDIVIDUAL POWER. IT SAYS THAT INDUSTRY SHOULD BE CONTROLLED BY THE STATE. PLANNED BY SCIENCE AND THAT ALL GOODS SHOULD BE OWNED AND DISTRIBUTED IN SUCH WAYS AS RESULT IN THE GREATEST GOOD TO ALL. ALL PERSONS SHOULD BE DUCATED ACCORD NG TO ABILITY AND SHOULD LABOR ACCORDING TO EFFICIENCY AND ACCOMPILSHMENT HEALTH AND HOUSING SOCIAL SECURITY FACILITIES FOR ECREATION AND FOR UNHAMPERED HUMAN INTERCOURSE SHOULD BE PUBLIC RESPONSIBILITIES. WITHIN THIS FRAMEWORK OF NECESSARY WORK FOR GENERAL WELFARE THERE ~~MMM~~ SHOULD BE THE WIDEST POSSIBLE AREA RESERVED FOR LIBERTY OF THOUGHT AND OF ACTION AND FOR CREATIVE IDEAL.

THIS PROGRAM OF PROGRESS IS THE CONSENSUS OF THE CIVILIZED WORLD TODAY. IT IS CALLED BY MANY NAMES: SOCIALISM COMMUNISM LIBERALISM CONSUMERS COOPERATION OR PROGRESSIVISM TAKING ITS NAME ACCORDING TO PLACE AND TIME AND EMPHASIS .

IN THE UNITED STATES THIS IDEA HAS MADE WIDE PROGRESS BEGINNING WITH THE POPULIST MOVEMENT, PROGRESSING WITH BRYAN AND LAFOLLETTE AND CULMINATING WITH THE NEW DEAL UNDER FRANKLIN ROOSEVELT BUT IT HAS BEEN STEADILY AND OFTEN SUCCESSFULLY OPPOSED BY INDUSTRIAL INTERESTS WHICH HAVE TRIED DESPERATELY TO MAKE AMERICANS TURN BACK TO THE BELIEF OF THE EIGHTEENTH AND NINETEENTH CENTURIES THAT FREE INDIVIDUALENTERPRISE WITH THE LEAST POSSIBLE SOCIAL CONTROL AND SPURRED MAINLY BY THE INCENTIVE OF PRIVATE PROFIT IS THE ONLY METHOD WHICH CAN BRING AND PRESERVE PROSPERITY. THIS DOCTRINE IS CONTRADICTED BY TWO WORLD WARS AND THE IMMINENCE OF A THIRD. IT IS DENIED IN OUR OWN HISTORY BY SIX INDUSTRIAL CRISES , A GREAT DEPRESSION WHICH THREW WORLD INDUSTRY INTO CHAOS, AND THREAT OF ANOTHER TOMORROW.

YET RRIUMPHANT REACTION SPURRED BY FANTASTIC WAR PROFIT IS FORCING THE UNITED STATES AGAINST THE CONSCIOUS OF THE BEST OPINION

41-149-22

OF THE WORLD TO BLOCK REAL ECONOMIC PROGRESS BY MISDIRECTING KNOWLEDGE THROUGH A MONOPOLIZED AND COMMERCIALIZED PRESS AND BY A SERIES OF WITCH-HUNTS TO SCARE AND SILENCE THOUGHT.

T IS IS A DAY OF CRITICAL DANGER TO US AND TO THE WORLD. WHATEVER WE CAN DO TO AVERT DISASTER, IS OUR BOUNDEN DUTY TO ATTEMPT.

THE QUESTION IS THEN: WHO CAN LEAD THE WAY IN THIS EFFORT? HERE COMES A NEW IDEA OF A TALENTED TENTH: THE CONCEPT OF A GROUP LEADERS IP NOT SIMPLY EDUCATED AND SELF-SACRIFICING BUT WITH CLEAR VISION ~~E~~ OF PRESENT WORLD CONDITIONS AND DANGERS AND CONDUCTING AMERICAN NEGROES TO ALLIANCE WITH CULTURE GROUPS IN EUROPE, AMERICA ASIA, AND AFRICA, AND LOOKING TOWARD A NEW WORLD CULTURE. WE CAN DO IT. WE HAVE THE ABILITY. THE ONLY QUESTION IS, HAVE WE THE WILL?

THIS CALLS FOR LEADERSHIP THROUGH SPECIAL ORGANIZATION. THIS ORGANIZATION CALLS FOR MORE THAN A TENTH OF OUR NUMBER. ONE ONE-HUNDREDTH, OR THIRTY THOUSAND PERSONS IS INDICATED WITH A DIRECTING

COUNCIL COMPOSED OF EDUCATED AND SPECIALLY TRAINED EXPERTS IN THE MAIN BRANCHES OF SCIENCE AND THE MAIN CATEGORIES OF HUMAN WORK, SHOULD PRESIDE OVER THIS AND A PAID EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE OF FIVE OR SIX PERSONS TO CARRY OUT THE PROGRAM.

TO LAUNCH SO LARGE A SCHEME WOULD CALL FOR SO MUCH TIME, MONEY, AND EFFORT, THAT IT WOULD OF COURSE BE MORE PRACTICAL IF AN ALREADY EXISTING BODY COULD BE ADAPTED TO THIS WORK. THE COLLEGE FRATERNITIES WOULD OCCUR TO ALL AS BEST PLACED TO INAUGURATE THIS WORK IF THEY COULD BE PERSUADED OF ITS NECESSITY AND FEASIBILITY. THE UNDER-GRADUATE FRATERNITIES, EVEN WITH THEIR GRADUATE CHAPTERS HAVE PROBABLY A CONSTITUENCY TOO YOUNG AND TOO BUSY TRYING TO MAKE A LIVING. THEN TOO THEY ARE DOMINATED BY RATHER YOUTHFUL IDEALS OF THE MIS-CALLED COLLEGE SPIRIT. NATURALLY I TURN FIRST TO THIS FRATERNITY BUT WITH SOME MISGIVING. WHAT THE GUIDING IDEA OF SIGMA PI PHI WAS, I HAVE NEVER BEEN ABLE TO LEARN. I BELIEVE IT WAS ROOTED IN A CERTAIN

EXCLUSIVENESS AND SNOBBERY FOR WHICH WE ALL HAVE A YEARNING EVEN IF UNCONFESSED. BUT SUCH AN OBJECT BELONGS TO DAYS OF PEACE AND SECURITY. TODAY IS A TIME OF CRISIS. COULD THEN THIS ORGANIZATION BE ADAPTED TO THE ROLE OF ORGANIZED/SCIENTIFIC LEADERSHIP OF THE AMERICAN NEGRO?

WE CONSIST OF 425 FAMILIES, (OMITTING THE BOULES OF BALTIMORE AND LITTLE ROCK FROM WHOM REPEATED LETTERS AND CARDS, AIRMAILED AND SPECIAL DELIVERED HAVE ELICITED NO RESPONSE. I ASSUME THAT THEY CAN BE LEFT OUT OF ACCOUNT). OF 3,000,000 NEGRO FAMILIES. WE REPRESENT NOT A TENTH, BUT A TEN THOUSANDTH OF THE GROUP.

FIRST OF ALL, WE ARE OLD MEN. ONLY ONE IS UNDER THIRTY: MOST OF THE ARCHONS ARE BETWEEN 30 and 60, AND PROBABLY NEARER 60. MORE THAN A FOURTH ARE OVER _) 60. THIS MEANS THAT BY AND LARGE WE RECEIVED OUR COLLEGE EDUCATION IN THE LAST CENTURY OR THE FIRST FORT DECADE OF THIS, WHEN THE ATOM WAS INDIVISIBLE: WHEN LIGHT ALWAYS SPEAD IN STRAIGHT LINES: WHEN EVOLUTION WAS THE SURVIVAL OF THE

FITTEST: AND WHEN MANKIND CONSISTED OF FIVE SEPARATE, INDESTRUCTABLE RACES AND SOCIALISM WAS A FOOL'S DREAM.

IN OCCUPATION OUR MEMBERSHIP IS NOT WELL-BALANCED. NEARLY HALF (200) ARE PHYSICIANS, DENTISTS, AND PHARMACISTS. THEY ARE THUS MEMBERS OF CLOSED TRADE UNIONS WITH RULES COMING DOWN FROM ANOTHER CENTURY: WITH HIGHLY INDIVIDUALIZED ACTIVITIES AND RESTRICTED PUBLIC CONTACTS AND SOCIAL INTERCOURSE. ON THE OTHER HAND, WITH DEEP PERSONAL KNOWLEDGE OF INDIVIDUAL HUMAN NATURE.

THE NEXT GROUP, (144 IN NUMBER) ARE TEACHERS AND ADMINISTRATORS OF SCHOOLS, MINISTERS AND SOCIAL WORKERS. THESE MEN ARE MORE IN TOUCH WITH THE NEW E SCIENCE AND SOCIAL MOVEMENTS BUT HAVE LITTLE PRACTICAL FIRST-HAND EXPERIENCE IN MODERN INDUSTRY: THAT IS, IN THE VERY ACTIVITY WHICH IS RULING AND CONDITIONING THE MODERN WORLD.

A FURTHER GROUP OF 65 PERSONS CONSISTS OF LAWYERS AND BUSINESS MEN. THEY NOT ONLY THEMSELVES HAVE LIMITED CONTACT WITH THE LABORING

CLASSES AND THEIR PROBLEMS, BUT ARE OVER-EXPOSED TO AMERICAN BUSINESS PHILOSOPHY--TO THE IDEA OF INDUSTRY PRIMARILY FOR PROFIT OF TRADE UNIONS AS NUISANCES AND OF HIGH WAGES AS INFLATIONARY. THIS COMES NOT ONLY FROM THEIR WORK BUT FROM THEIR CONTACT WITH WHITE FELLOW MEN IN THEIR PROFESSIONS WHO ARE NEARLY ALL OF THE REACTIONARY GROUP. IN THE CASE OF OUR MEN THIS IS MITIGATED SOMEWHAT BY OUR CONTACT WITH THE CRIMINAL CLASSES AND WITH THE POOR. THE REMAINING 30 MEMBERS ARE VARIED IN OCCUPATION BUT DO NOT FILL THE CLEAR VACANCY WHICH WE HAVE SO FAR AS AUTHORS AND ARTISTS ARE CONCERNED. WE HAVE 9 TECHNICIANS BUT THAT IS VERY SMALL NUMBER.

WE DO NOT REPRESENT THEN TYPICAL AMERICA. NOR DO WE REPRESENT AT ALL THE SCIENTIFIC AND SOCIAL LEADERSHIP OF THE MODERN WORLD BECAUSE WE ARE OVERLOADED WITH MEMBERS OF THE PROFESSIONS WEIGHTED TOWARDS AMERICAN BUSINESS WHILE SCIENCE AND ART DESPITE OUR TEACHERS

FALL FAR BEHIND. WE ARE THEN IN THE MASS OF AN OLD TIMID CONSER*-VATIVE GROUP.

WE ARE NOT ACCORDING TO AMERICAN STANDARDS RICH BUT ACCORDING TO WORLD STANDARDS WE ARE DISTINCTLY WELL-TO-DO AND IN THE UPPER ECONOMIC BRACKETS. OF OUR MEMBERSHIP, (126) RECEIVE OVER $10,000 A YEAR AND ALMOST A SCORE OF THESE GET OVER $25,000. THERE ARE 199 FAMILIES WHO RECEIVE FROM $5,000 TO $10,000 A YEAR AND ONLY 86 WHO C NFESS TO LESS THAN $5,000, wHICH MAY BE MODESTY. OUR INTERESTS THEN ARE NOT NORMALLY WITH THE POOR AND HUNGRY, OR EVEN WITH THE UNHOUSED AND THE ORDINARY LABORER. YET WE ARE NOT AWARE OF THIS: WE ASSUME ON THE ONE HAND OUR IDENTITY WITH THE ~~LABORER~~ POOR AND YET WE ACT AND SYMPAT IZE WITH THE RICH AND UNCONSCIOUS DICHOTOMY IT IS A MATTER OF SORROW OR CONGRATULATION ACCORDING TO ONE'S POINT OF VIEW, WHEN WE REMEMBER THAT THIS GROUP IS PROBABLY BOUND FOR EXTINCTION. OF THE FAMILIES 159 HAVE NO CHILDREN. AND 88 ONLY ONE CHILD: 329 FAMILIES HAVE NO GRANDCHILDREN, AND 39 ONLY ONE GRAND-

CHILD. OUR OTHER 188 MEMBERS MAY, BARRING ACCIDENTS, PARTLY REPRODUCE OUR NUMBER BUT AT PRESENT THEY HAVE ONLY 190 GRANDCHILDREN . WHEN SURVIVAL WOULD CALL FOR APPROXIMATELY 760.

THEORETICALLY THEN THIS IS NOT AN IDEAL GROUP FOR THE KIND OF LEADERSHIP WHICH I HAVE IN MIND. MOREOVER IT FACES PECULIAR TRENDS AND DIFFICULTIES. MAY I NAME SIX OF THESE: FIRST, A DISTINCT IN-DISPOSITION TO RE-EXAMINE TRENDS AND KNOWLEDGE OR TO QUESTION CON-CLUSIONS OF THE PAST.

SECOND, A DISPOSIT ON TO ACCEPT THE VALUES AND DECISIONS OF PRESENT DAY AMERICA. THIRD, A DEEP SEATED DISBELIEF IN ASIA AND AFRICA AND EVEN OF THE WEST INDIES, SPRINGING PARTIALLY FROM THE PREJUDICE OF SURROUNDING AMERICANS: PARTIALLY FROM THE IDEA THAT WE ARE UNUSUAL AND EXCEPTIONAL COLORED FOLK.

FOURTH, A FEELING OF HELPLESSNESS AGAINST TOO GREAT ODDS AND TENDENCIES: IF THE WHITE WORLD IS GOING ALONG AN ACCEPTED PATH

EVEN IF THAT IS SUICIDE AFTER ALL WHAT CAN WE DO ABOUT IT, AND WHAT DO WE WANT TO DO ABOUT IT?

FIFTH, A CURRENT PHILOSOPHY AMONG US AS OLD AS HUMANITY, " EAT DRINK, AND BE MERRY"----A REACTION TOWARDS THROWING OFF THE EXTREME DEPRESSION OF THE DAYS WHEN WE WERE FIGHTING FOR SHEER EXISTENCE AND DETERMINATION TO ENJOY S ME OF THE POSSIBILITIES WHICH OUR INCOME AND NEW FREEDOM OPEN TO US TODAY.

THIS EXPLAINS THE GENERAL INDULGENCE OF UPPER CLASS NEGROES IN LUXURY, IN POKER PLAYING, FREE SPENDING AND NEGLECT OF THRIFT. AND FINALLY IN SPITE OF SOME OF THE EXTRAORDINARY THINGS WHICH WE HAVE SEEN NEGROES DO IN THE LAST GENERATION IN AMERICA THERE STILL LINGERS AMONG US THE DEEP*SEATED DOUBT OF NEGRO ABILITY TO COPE WITH THE WHITE WORLD.

WE ARE SO PAI FULLY AWARE OF THE DEGRADATION OF MILLIONS OF OUR

MASSES OF THE CRIME AND LECHERY THAT LURK IN NEW YORK, CHICAGO AND NEW ORLEANS: OF THE LYING, DISHONESTY, AND DOUBLE DEALING THAT MARK SO MANY EVEN OF OUR INTELLIGENT AND RICH, THAT WE ASSOCIATE COLOR AND DEGREDATION AND CANNOT MAKE OURSELVES BELIEVE IN ANY REAL TRIUMPH OF BLACK FOLK. FEW OF US KNOW OR TRY TO KNOW WHAT HUMAN DEGRADATION ON THIS EARTH CAN BE AND HAS BEEN AND IS AMONG OTHER AND FAIRER PEOPLES.

BASICALLY THIS CONFRONTS US WITH TWO PROBLEMS: THE LEADERSHIP OF THE MASSES AND THE SACRIFICE NECESSARY TO LEADERSHIP THE UPLIFT OF THE MASS CANNOT BE LEFT TO CHANCE. MARX AND LENIN FIRMLY BELIEVED IT COULD ONLY BE ACCOMPLISHED BY A DICTATORSHIP. I THINK IN THE CASE OF RUSSIA THEY WERE RIGHT BUT IN OUR PLIGHT I THINK WE CAN FREE OUR MASS BY RACE ORGANIZATION AND GROUP INFLUENCE EXERCISED THROUGH A SELF SACRIFICING LEADERSHIP. THIS IS PRIMARILY A QUESTION XXXX OF CHARACTER WHICH I FAILED TO EMPHASIZE IN MY FIRST XXXXXXXXXX

PROPOSAL OF A TALENTED TENTH.

IN THIS REORINTATION OF MY IDEAS MY POINTING OUT THE NEW KNOWLEDGE NECESSARY FOR LEADERSHIP AND NEW IDEAS OF RACE AND CULTURE THERE STILL REMAINS THAT FUNDAMENTAL OF CHARACTER AND BASIC REQUIREMENT FOR ANY SUCCESSFUL LEADERSHIP TOWARD GREAT IDEALS. EVEN IF THE IDEALS ARE CLEARLY PERCEIVED. HONESTY OF CHARACTER AND PURITY OF MOTIVE IS NEEDED WITHOUT WHICH NO EFFORT SUCCEEDS OR DESERVES TO SUCCEED. WE USED TO TALK MUCH OF CHARACTER--PERHAPS TOO MUCH. AT FISK, WE HAD IT DINNED INTO OUR EARS. AT HARVARD WE NEVER MENTIONED IT. WE THOUGHT OF IT: BUT IT WAS NOT GOOD TASTE TO TALK OF IT: AT BERLIN WE QUITE FORGOT IT. BUT THAT WAS REACTION. WE CANNOT HAVE PERFECTION. WE HAVE FEW SAINTS. BUT WE MUST HAVE HONEST MEN OR WE DIE. WE MUST HAVE XXXXXX UNSELFISH FAR SEEING LEADERSHIP OR WE FAIL.

WHAT CAN SIGMA PI PHI DO TO SEE THAT WE GET IT FOR THE AMERICAN NEGRO? SO FAR AS THE GROUP BEFORE ME IS CONCERNED LITTLE

CAN BE DONE FOR THE SIMPLE REASON THAT MOST OF OUR PRESENT MEMBERSHIP WILL SOON BE DEAD. UNLESS WE BEGIN TO RECRUIT THIS FRATERNITY MEMBERSHIP WITH YOUNG MEN AND LARGE NUMBERS OF THEM OUR BIENNIAL CONCLAVES WILL BE INCREASINGLY DEVOTED TO OBITUARIES. WE SHOULD HAVE A LARGE INCREASE OF MEMBERSHIP DRAWN FROM MEN WHO HAVE RECEIVED THEIR COLLEGE EDUCATION SINCE THE FIRST WORLD WAR. THIS NEW MEMBERSHIP MUST NOT SIMPLY BE SUCCESSFUL IN THE AMERICAN SENSE OF BEING RICH: THEY MUST NOT ALL BE PHYSICIANS AND LAWYERS. ON THE OTHER HAND THE TECHNICIANS , BUSINESS MEN, TEACHERS AND SOCIAL WORKERS ADMITTED MUST BE THOSE WHO REALIZE THE ECONOMIC REVOLUTION NOW SWEEPING THE WORLD AND DO NOT THINK THAT PRIVATE PROFIT IS THE MEASURE OF PUBLIC WELFARE. AND TOO: WE MUST DELIBERATELY SEEK HONEST MEN.

41-1-4-27

AND 23 IN ITS BOULE, REPRESENTING LESS THAN 100 PERSONS. SURELY THERE MUST BE AT LEAST 23 OTHER PERSONS IN BALTIMORE WORTHY OF FELLOWSHIP. IT IS INCONCEIVABLE THAT WE SHOULD EVEN FOR A MOMENT DREAM THAT WITH A MEMBERSHIP OF 440 WE HAVE SCRATCHED EVEN THE TIP OF THE TOP OF THE SURFACE OF A GROUP REPRESENTATIVE OF PONTENTIAL NEGRO LEADERSHIP IN AMERICA. NOTHING BUT CONGENITAL LAZINESS SHOULD KEEP US FROM A MEMBERSHIP OF 3,000 BY THE NEXT BIENNIUM WITHOUT ANY LOWERING OF QUALITY AND A MEMBERSHIP OF 30,000 by 1960. THIS WOULD BE AN ACTUAL NUMERICAL ONE HUNDREDTH OF OUR RACE: A BODY LARGE ENOUGH REALLY TO REPRESENT ALL. YET SMALL ENOUGH TO INSURE EXCEPTIONAL QUALITY: IF SCREENED FOR INTELLIGENT AND DISINTERESTED PLANNING FOR THE AMERICAN NEGRO.

HAVING GOTTEN A GROUP OF PREDOMINANTLY ACTIVE VIRILE MEN OF MIDDLE AGE AND SETTLED OPINIONS WHO HAVE FINISHED THEIR EDUCATION AND BEGUN THEIR LIFE WORK WHAT CAN THEY DO? THEY MUST FIRST OF ALL

41-149-28

RECOGNIZE THE FACT THAT THEIR OWN PLACE IN LIFE IS RIMARILY A MATTER OF OPPORTUNITY RATHER THAN SIMPLY DESERT OR ABILITY. THAT IF SUCH OPPORTUNITY WERE EXTENDED AND BROADENED TEN THOUSAND TIMES AS MANY NEGROES COULD JOIN THE RANKS OF THE EUDCATED AND ABLE: INSTEAD OF SINKING INTO POVERTY DISEASE AND CRIME: THAT THE PRIMARY DUTY OF THIS ORGANIZATION WOULD BE TO FIND DESERT, ABILITY, AND CHARACTER AMONG YOUNG NEGROES AND GIVE THEM EDUCATION AND OPPORTUNITY THAT THE MAJOR OPPORTUNITY SHOULD BE SEEN AS WORK ACCORDING TO GIFT AND TRAINING WITH PAY SUFFICIENT TO FURNISH A DECENT STANDARD OF LIFING AND A NATIONAL ORGANIZATION OF THIS SORT MUST BE PREPARED TO USE PROPAGANDA, MAKE INVESTIGATION PLAN PROCEDURES AND FINANCE PROJECTS. THIS WILL CALL FOR AN INITIAL BODY OF BELIEF WHICH EVEN NOW CAN BE FORECASTE IN OUTLINE.

WE WOULD WANT TO IMPRESS ON THE EMERGING GENERATIONS OF NEGROES IN AMERICA THE IDEAL OF PLAIN LIVING AND HIGH THINKING: THE RE-

HABLITAT ON OF THE INDISPENSABLE FAMILY GROUP BY DELIBERATE PLANINNG OF MARRIAGES WITH MATES SELECTED FOR HEREDITY, PHYSIQUE HEALTH AND BRAINS, WITH LESS INSISTENCE ON COLOR COMELINESS OR ROMANTIC SEX LURE MISCALLED LOVE: YOUTH SHOULD MARRY YOUNG AND HAVE A LIMITED NUMBER OF HEALTHY CHILDREN. THE HOME MUST BE A PLACE OF EDUCATION BOOKS, DISCUSSION AND ENTERTAINM NT, WITH BACK-BREAKING HOUSE WORK ELIMINATED. THE SCHOOLS WHERE THESE CHILDREN ARE SENT MUST NOT BE CHOSEN FOR THE COLOR OF THEIR TEACHERS OR STUDENTS BUT FOR THEIR EFFICIENCY IN EDUCATIONG A PARTICULAR CHILD. IN HOME AND OUT CHILDREN SHOULD LEARN NOT TO NEGLECT OUR ART HERITAGE: MUSIC IS NOT DESIGN [redacted] FOR NIGHT CLUBS AND DANCING IS NOT THE HANDMAID OF PROSTITUTION.

THE DARK HOSTS OF LIBERIA, AND ETHIOPIA AND OTHER PARTS OF AFRICA TOGETHER WITH ASIA THE EX PACIFIC LANDS, SOUTH AND CENTRAL AMERICA, AND THE CARIBBEAN AREA HAVE NEED FOR THAT BROAD KNOWLEDGE OF THE WORLD AND SPECIAL TRA NING IN TECHINQUE WHICH WE MIGHT LEARN AND TAKE TO THEM. THEY DO NOT NEED US FOR EXPLOITATION AND GET RICH QUICK SCHEMES. THERE IS NO REASON WHY THE SORT OF THOUGHT AND TEACHING WHICH 2,000 YEARS AGO MADE THE GROVES OF ATHENS THE CENTER OF THE WORLD'S SALVATION COULD NOT LIVE AGAIN IN TEN THOUSAND NEGRO HOMES IN AMERICA TODAY.

OCCUPATION SHOULD NOT AND NEED NOT BE LEFT TO CHANCE OR CONFINED TO WHAT WHITES ARE DOING OR ARE WILLING TO LET US DO. IT MUST INVOLVE INNOVATION AND EXPERIMENT AND PIONEERING: IT MUST BE A CAREFULLY PLANNED THROUGHLY THOUGHT OUT WITH WIDE STUDY OF HUMAN WANTS TECHNICAL POWER, TRA NED EFFORT AND CONSECRATED DEVOTION WITH THE USE OF EVERY SCIENTIFIC PROCEDURE IN PHYSICS, CHEMISTRY, BIOLOGY, PSYCHOLOGY, SOCIOLOGY AND HISTORY.

FOR THIS CENTRAL OBJECT OF PLANNED WORK, THIS ORGANIZATION SHOULD ASSEMBLE THE BEST KNOWLEDGE SCIENCE AND EXPERIENCE. IT SHOULD ENCOURAGE PIONEERING AND ADVENTURE, ATTACKING DESERT PLACES WITH MODERN TECHNIQUE: PRODUCING NEW GOODS BY NEW PROCESSES: AVOIDING THE FACTORY SYSTEM AND MASS PRODUCTION AS THE LAST WORD IN WORK AND RETURNING TO THE IDEAL OF PERSONAL CONSUMPTION, PERSONAL ARTISTIC TASTE AND HUMAN DESIRE: THINKING OF CONSUMPTION AND THE CONSUMER AS COMING BEFORE AND GUIDING PRODUCTION AND NOT OF PRODUCTION AS THE END OF INDUSTRY AND PROFIT AS ITS MOTIVE.

THE NEW GENERATION MUST LEARN THAT THE OBJECT OF WORL IS NOT PROFIT BUT SERVICE AND HAPPINESS. THEY MUST THEREFORE BE DIRECTED AWAY FROM CAREERS WHICH ARE ANTI SOCIAL AND DISHONEST BUT IMMENSLY PROFITABLE. INSURANCE CAN BE A SOCIAL HELP BUT MUCH OF IT TODAY IS ORGANIZED THEFT. WE MUST HAVE DRUG STORES BUT THE PATENT NOSTRUMS

IN WHICH SO MANY OF THEM DEAL DESERVE THE PENITENTIARY. GAMBLING NOT ONLY AS TEMPTING DIVERSION BUT AS A PROFITABLE CAREER IS SEEPING THROUGH ALL KINDS OF AMERICA BUSINESS FROM THE STOCK MARKET, FACTORY AND WHOLESALE STORE, TO THE NUMBERS RACKET, HORSE RACING, AND RADIO GIFTS. EVERY EFFORT SHOULD BE MADE TO WARN THE NEXT GENERATION AWAY FROM THIS DRY ROT OF DEATH AND CRIME.

AN ORGANIZATION ADAPTED TO SUCH A PROGRAM OF PROPAGANDA AND WORK OF GUIDANCE AND ABLE TO SEARCH FOR AND SELECT ABILITY AND CHARACTER AND FINANCE EFFORTS TO GIVE IT OPPORTUNITY WILL NEED LARGE FUNDS AT ITS DISPOSAL. THE SACRIFICE NECESSARY TO PROVIDE SUCH FUNDS SHOULD BE REGARDED NOT AS SENTIMENTAL CHARITY? OR MUSHY RELIGIOUS FERVOR BUT AS FORESIGHT AND INVESTMENT IN THE FUTURE OF THE NEGRO IN AMERICA, AND CANNY INSURANCE AGAINST LOSS ON OUR PART AND THE PART OF OUR CHILDREN BY WHOSESALE NEGLECT OF VALUABLE HUMAN RESOURCES.

WE MAY REACH THE HIGH IDEAL WHEN AGAIN THE TITHE, THE TENTH OF OUR INCOME WILL GO TO THE PERFECTLY FEASIBLE EFFORT OF SO CIVILIZING THE AMERICAN NEGRO THAT HE WILL BE ABLE TO LEAD THE WORLD AND WILL WANT TO DO SO.

THIS, THEN, IS MY RE-EXAMINED AND RESTATED THEORY OF THE "TALENTED TENTH," WHICH HAS THUM BECOME THE DOCTRINE OF THE "GUIDING HUNDREDTH."

BEARTOWN BEEBE

By

Continually in my thought of Democracy, I find myself harking back to my boyhood and to that incredible figure of the old and dirty hermit whom we called Beartown Beebe. I was thirteen or fourteen years of age and a student in a small high school with two teachers and perhaps 25 pupils. The High School was not too popular in this rural New England and received from the town a much too small appropriation. But the thing that wxasperated me, was that every Spring at Town Meeting, which I religiously attended, a huge, ragged old man came down from the hills and for an hour or more reviled the High School and demanded its discontinuance.

I remember distinctly how furious I used to get at the stolid town folk, who sat and listened to him. He was nothing and nobody. Yet the town heard him gravely and when he was through, they calmly voted the usual funds for the High School. Gradually as I grew up, I began to see that this was the essence of democracy: listening to the other man's opinion and then voting your own honestly and intelligently.

With this experience behind me, I am increasingly alarmed today at the recession of this basic idea of the democratic process. I see people growing alarmed at freedom of speech, at expression of opinion, at individual action. And this fear goes far beyond disapprobation of libel, fear of incitement to evil and recoil from injury. On the contrary today we apparently want to stop any expression of ideas which we do not agree with, keep persons from thinking differently from what we think, or acting in any way that we dislike.

We do not seem to realize that here lies danger, if not irreparable disaster: danger of ignorance, danger of fatal mistake and the disaster of failing to do what must be done for human salvation.

All this I have felt for many years; but recently it has struck me, personally, so violent a blow that I venture for the first time publicly to make clear my experience, not in defense or attack, but simply to show how absence of free, democratic methods can jeopardize a great cause.

In my active life I have served two institutions: Atlanta University in Georgia, and the NAACP in New York, giving to one 23 years of work, and to the other 27. But my terms of service have been so divided that I have alternated between the two masters. At Atlanta University, from 1897 to 1910, I found a singularly democratic organization. Save in matters of high finance, investment, etc., the faculty of eight members ruled a school of some 200 students of all grades. The students to be sure shared but imperfectly in the democratic method and were under pretty strict discipline. But teachers, president and dean settled all matters after frank and even sharp debate and came to agreement nearly always unanimously. I left this school and was away for 23 years. When I returned in 1934 I was simply aghast at the change. Outside their own classes, the faculty had no part in administration. They met simply to hear decisions made by the President or trustees. Often they knew less than the students of current affairs and they knew that interviews with the president were not desired nor profitable. On the other hand the president was often in the dark as to affairs and thought in the different departments. My dream of helping to build a real and influential university in the lower South faded with the untimely death of President John Hope and after more than two years of groping, I was suddenly retired without notice for the unanswerable reason of age, at a limit which I had already passed when I was hired.

But the prospect was not dark, for I had four offers of employment, two of which would have enabled me to continue my overall study of social conditions in the South. Then came an unexpected and unsolicited offer to rejoin the NAACP. At first I did not reply. But friends and officials put strong pressure upon me/and reiterated their assurance/of the unanimous desire of all concerned/that I return./ I was flattered and pleased./ I returned oto the NAACP in 1944.

23-24-5

The old NAACP/which I helped found in 1910/ was at the time,/ an unpopular,/ radical organization/ without funds/and with meagre support/among either white or colored people./ A quarter of a century/of back-breaking work,/brought it up to a hundred thousand members,/ a national organ, THE CRISIS,/read throughout the country/ a series of legal triumphs/before the Supreme and state courts/and a program for fighting/lynching, mob-law and discrimination.// But to my mind, when I left in 1934,/ we had but started our work./ We had learned how to fight / but not how to build./ Our program was destructive/but not constructive./ We needed to learn/how to handle the facts of group segregation;/we needed an economic policy/to meet the profit-making ideas of the country;/and we needed a program for Africa and colonial peoples./ But the CRISIS, the open forum/in which I had begun to discuss these steps,/ now failed to be self-supporting/in the depression./ This magazine which I had founded/ without capital in 1910/and which for the last ten years had paid all expenses/ including my salary/at no cost to the NAACP,/ now began to fail to pay outlay./ If it was to survive,/ the NAACP must help support it/from its general funds./ Under such circumstances/I could not hope for that freedom of opinion which I had always exercised/ especially since a considerable part/of the administration/sharply disagreed/with my ideas on segregation, economics and Africa.

Against the desires/of the Board of Directors/ I resigned in 1934,/ and was given a flattering vote/ of regret and appreciation/for what I had tried to do in 23 years.// Up to this time/the NAACP was under the democratic control/ of a Board of Directors/ with free full and sometimes bitter discussion,/ at well-attended meetings/and decisions by majority vote./ Into sharing this democratic control/the branches and membership/had not been admitted;/but we knew their admission/was only a matter of time;/ although but the organization/of this wider democracy/ over a vast country/presented a difficult problem.

I returned to the NAACP/after an absence of ten years/during which I had not followed closely/the developments.// The results astonished me. The income had quadrupled,/the membership approached a half-million;/the staff had tripled or more.// It had become a big business,/smoothly run and extraordinarily influential./ The newspapers vied for its releases,/ courts listened to its attorneys,/ and men of prominence/accepted readily/places on its Board of Directors.

But one thing,/ almost from the beginning,/ amazed me/and filled me with foreboding;/ almost every vestige/of democratic method and control/had disappeared/from the central organization./ This change slapped me/hard in the face/within three months.// I had hesitated in accepting this work; I had conferred with officials and friends;/ I had written down my understanding/which with the Secretary assured me/was accepted by the Board "unanimously and with enthusiam."/ Yet When I came for work/the two offices/so necessary for my writing and study/were not furnished me/as promised distinctly;//and when finally in desperation/I hired an outside office/the Board of Directors/without giving me a hearing/voted that I had "exceeded my authority"/and refused to pay the rent./ I lost $476/before the NAACP gave me a small office/in the new building.

I closed my mouth and went to work./ In four years/I wrote two books on colonies and Africa,/ edited two others,/ wrote articles and pamphlets,/ attended four world conferences/and many others/and travelled 20,000 miles/to deliver 150 lectures/ on subjects connected with my department.

Meantime/I tried to grasp how the NAACP/was being directed./ For two years/I attended the meetings of the Board of Directors./ Few persons were present;/there was almost no real discussion./ The only business was to accept/the report/of the Committee on Administration/and refer to this committee/most new or unfinished business. Manifestly the Committee on Administration was running the organization. This committee consists of the Secretary, five of his staff, appointed and removed on his recommendation, and nine members of the Board of Directors, only three or four of whom usually attended meetings. Consequently the Secretary and his staff and two directors control the Committee and the whole half-million membership of the NAACP.

The result of this close dictatorship was soon apparent in my work. I tried to confine myself to my department of relations of the organization to Africa, colored folk and colonies. But try as I did I could get no action nor directive as to this work. I was appointed by the Board to represent the NAACP at the UNO at San Francisco, but when the Secretary returned from the war front, he became Consultant and I assistant. I, nevertheless, did what I could. I had been at work less than two years when the Secretary accused me ~~before the Board of Directors~~ of appearing brfore a congressional committee without his consent, interfering in a court case of the NAACP; and he demanded to open all my mail. I replied that the congressional committee which had invited me, had not mentioned the NAACP and that my first sentence was that I was speaking for myself and no organization; I added that the Secretary had also been invited and had not responded. I showed that I had not interfered in the School case but merely answered a query about a passage on segregation in my autobiography published in 1941. I refused to let the Secretary open my mail.

(10)

23-24-10

Then came the political campaign. I have never belonged to an active political organization, but I have expressed my views on candidates since the election of 1912. I early donned a Wallace button and let it be known that I was going to support him. A poll in the NAACP office showed that 70 per cent of the staff favored Wallace. I was then warned by the Secretary not to take part in "political activity." I replied that I certainly would be careful not to appear to speak for the NAACP nor to take its time for active political work; but I assumed that I had the right to vote and to tell my choice; that this was what the NAACP had stood for, for 30 years. The Secretary merely reiterated that the Board insisted that no salaried employee should take part in politics. When later at a non-political meeting in Philadelphia, I advised the audience to vote for Wallace, I was careful to preface my remarks by saying that I did not officially speak for the NAACP or any ~~official~~ of its officers. I was rebuked by the Secretary for this, while at the same time he was making a nation-wide drive for Truman, by letter, telegram, newspaper articles and public speach.

Further difficulty came in the matter of the NAACP appeal to the UN. When it was ready for the press the Secretary, without consulting me as editor, held it up for weeks because he wanted to add an introduction by himself to which I would not consent. Last year the Secretary wanted to go to Geneva for the Human Rights Commission. I maintained that such a journey would be useless. I again urged on the Board to make a clear statement of policy on Africa and colonies. I received no reply nor do I know whether the Board knew of my request as it went through the Secretary and he transmits what he pleases. I tried to get the State Department to put our petition on the agenda of the Assembly of the UN. They refused through Mrs. Roosevelt and she told me personally that if any other nation brought it up she might resign from the US delegation to the UN. This with the attitude of our delegation toward Ethiopia and Trusteeships convinced me that it would be useless to be represented at Paris.

When therefore the Secretary informed me that he was going and asked for memoranda, I sent him notes; but I refused to attend a conference on the matter, since the Board of Directors had not acted. When I realized that the Secretary was sailing before the Board could act, I sent a memorandum to each member of the Board protesting against the handling of this case which lay in my department. And protesting also against the political activity of the Secretary and his representation of his appointment as consultant as reason for supporting Truman. I pointed out that the Annual Meeting of the NAACP, to which I was not invited, was turned into a Truman rally. I sent copies of this protest to the members of the Board, and the office staff. I did not send any copy to any newspaper nor did I speak to any newspaper reporter.

The Board promptly dismissed me from my position effective December 31. They did not discuss at all the facts, but dismissed me for refusing "to cooperate" with the Secretary and for distributing my memorandum before the meeting of the Board.

I ask your pardon for this tedious detail. And hasten to say that the reason is not personal. My fate or that of any other official of the NAACP is not of great importance, but the manner in which a great, nation-wide organization is being ruled today, is important not only for 15 million Negroes but for all men who believe in democratic control of public activities.

23-24-14

The NAACP has a noble record of which all Negroes and all Americans should be proud. All the more reason that its future path be guided by wisdom and by use of that vast reservoir of human knowledge and experience which we call democracy. It is difficult to guide a mass of people. Continually we are tempted to use our own limited knowledge and experience to push through decisions and and compell action, instead of trusting the slower, muddled, and hesitating development of mass action. Yet without this mass action we land in tyranny and fatal mistake. The hundred thousands of members of the NAACP are not people of the highest education or widest expereince, but that is no excuse for turning their most effective organ of protest and progress into a fascist dictatorship virtually under to control of one man. No one person is great enough in character, ability ~~and~~ or knowledge, to be able unaided and unassisted un-advised and to decide for 500,000 Negroes and speak and act for them. The attempt to do this is fantastic. Moreover if a tenth of this nation can thus be put into the pocket of one person, this will be excuse and forecaste of further failure of democratic methods in this land. // We see too much of this attitude already current in the broad areas of business and industry; in the organized church; in social reform and uplift of every sort; // in politics and government; it is the growing custom to narrow control, concentrate power, disregard and disfranchise the public; and assume that certain persons by divine right or by sheer assumption, have the power to do as they think best without consulting the wisdom of mankind. // When disaster follows, as follow it must, it is no excuse that the dictator was busy, sincere and charming; he none the less has committed a crime whether the guilt be his or that of the Board of Directors or the general public.

It is the tragedy of the day that the democracy of which we prate so glibly is being murdered in the house of its friends, and in everyday life far more than in broad governmental decisions. The nation which cannot conduct its philanthropy in a democratic manner will not in the end convince the world that it knows more of good government abroad than it does at home.

By

W. E. B. Du Bois

The United States of America has long boasted that it is a free country; that here men were free to think what they would, say what they thought and act as they pleased so long as their acts did not interfere with the freedom of others.

In accord with this broad belief in freedom, this country has often been a haven of refuge for the persecuted from other lands, for religious non-conformists, like Huguenots and Quakers; for political radicals like Kossuth and Schurz; for Jews and Catholics. We defended the right of our own citizens to complain and accuse and seek redress of grievances. We applauded Patrick Henry when he cried, "Give me Liberty or give me death!" And we honored Washington, Jefferson and Franklin for revolution.

We were not always consistent in our defence of Liberty. We were often to oppress Women and Foreigners and Indians, even when we were proclaiming the equality and freedom of all men, we held millions of black men in slavery. When great Americans like Garrison and Douglass attacked slavery, we reviled and mobbed them. It took a costly and bloody civil war to bring us to our senses and make us realize that profit from unpaid Negro labor had blinded us to our fundamental belief in liberty for all.

Today our ideal of freedom is again in danger. We have become the richest and most powerful nation on earth. Our supremacy has gone to our heads. We have delusions of grandeur and some of us plan to rule mankind. But we forget the reasons for our power, of which the greatest is freedom to think and speak and act over a wide, fertile land. Moreover we also forget how far our resourses and power are today monopolized and concentrated in the hands of a few of our citizens, who regard an attack on their power as an attack on the country itself. This is illustrated by the recent arreat of twelve leaders of the Communist Party on accusation of seeking to overthrow the Government by violence. We have laws against violence. Not a single one of these men are accused of breaking any law; they have commited not breach of the peace; they have denied to no one the freedom of belief, speech and action which they demand for themselves. But they do ask the right to challenge in thought and speech and legal actions, the assumption of many Americans that private capitalism is the best and only way for America, and the sole cause of its wealth and power.

This assumption has long been challenged by the great thinkers and statesmen of the world and of America itself. The United States has curbed and is curbing private capital for the public good. To stop this trend, powerful interests in this land are trying not only to outlaw communism, but freedom of thought, belief and action on the part of anyonw who challenges the ruling class in the United States today. If Communists or other persons in this country, today, break the laws there are police to arrest them and courts to punich them. But we in the United States are asking, not enforcement of the laws which protect freedom, but new law, or new interpretation of old law which will deny freedom of thought and speech by making belief in Communism a crime in itself. If this indictment stands, we are facing a new era of slavery in the United States, before we are wholly rid of Negro slavery.

Cela s'est montré dans l'emprisonnement récent de douze chefs du parti communiste accusés d'avoir cherché à renverser le gouvernement par la violence. Nous avons des lois contre la violence. Pas un seul de ces hommes n'a été accusé de violer une loi; ils n'ont pas violé la paix; ils n'ont pas refusé à personne la liberté de pensée, parole et action qu'ils demandent pour eux-mêmes. Mais ils demandent le droit de contester en pensée et parole et acte légal l'opinion de beaucoup d'Américains que le capitalisme privé est le meilleur et l'unique chemin pour l'Amérique et la seule cause de sa richesse et de son pouvoir. Cette opinion a été contesté pour longtemps par de grands penseurs et hommes d'état du monde et de l'Amérique elle-même. Les Etats-Unis a restreint et est entrain de restreindre le capital privé pour le bien public. En vue d'arrêter ce mouvement des intérêts puissants dans ce pays essayent non seulement d'interdire le communisme mais aussi la liberté de pensée, opinion et action de la part de tout homme qui conteste la classe régnante dans les Etats-Unis aujourd'hui.

Si des communistes ou d'autres personnes dans ce pays violent les lois il y a la police pour les arrêter et des tribunaux pour les punir. Mais nous dans les Etats-Unis ne demandons pas de fortifier les lois qui protègent la liberté mais une nouvelle loi, ou une inter-

DEMOCRACY FOR PROFESSIONAL MEN

W. E. B. DU BOIS

For those trained IN THE PROFESSIONS, WE THINK OF FREEDOM AS A SINGULARLY APPROPRIATE IDEAL. FOR THE IGNORANT, FREEDOM MAY OFTEN BE IMPOSSIBLE; AND FOR THE HALF-TRAINED, DANGEROUS. BUT FOR MEN WITH THE BROAD BACKGROUND OF COLLEGE TRAINING, TO WHICH HAS BEEN ADDED SPECIAL TRAINING IN THE SCIENCE AND ART OF AN HISTORIC VOCATION,--HERE IF ANYWHERE, SHOULD BE SCOPE FOR THAT UNCOERCED THOUGHT AND ACTION WHICH HAS EVER BEEN THE IDEAL OF FREE SOULS. IF THIS BE TRUE, WHERE FOR THESE FOLK, COMES THE USE OR PRACTICE OF THE DEMOCRATIC METHOD OF CONTROL AND GUIDANCE?

IN A RECENT REVIEW OF THE CAREER OF THE LATE CHARLES BEARD, ONE WRITER HAS SOUGHT TO EXPLAIN SOME OF THAT GREAT HISTORIANS LATER JUDGMENTS BY SHOWING HOW IN HIS LATER YEARS, DEAFNESS AND A SECLUDED LIFE IN THE COUNTRY, HAD DEPRIVED MR. BEARD OF THAT CONTACT AND CONVERSATION WITH HIS FELLOWS? SO NECESSARY FOR BROAD JUDGMENT. HOW TRUE THIS IS, I DO NOT KNOW; BUT CERTAINLY THE WRITER WAS POINTING TO A GREAT TRUTH: NO MATTER WHAT FREEDOM OF SPIRIT, THE TRAINED MIND MAY ACHIEVE: IN TEACHING AND HEALING IN LAW AND RELIGION: IN THE PLANNING OF INDUSTRY, OR THE CREATION OF ART AND LITERATURE:---IN NO FIELD, IS THE DEMOCRATIC METHOD MORE NECESSARY TO SOUND JUDGMENT AND BROAD ACCOMPLISHMENT, THAN IN THESE FIELDS of human effort. FOR DEMOCRACY, IN ITS ESSENCE, IS NOT SO MUCH COMPULSION AND CONTROL, AS ENLIGHTENMENT AND SOURCE OF LEARNING. NO SOUL IS SO GREAT AND IS SELF-SUFFICIENT, AS NOT TO BE ABLE TO LEARN FROM THE EXPERIENCE OF OTHERS; AND DEMOCRACY IS OPENING

TO THE INDIVIDUAL, THE VAST EXPERIENCE OF OTHER LIVES, LIVED IN OTHER SURROUNDINGS AND AMID OTHER VICISSITUDES OF FATE.

TO CUT ONE'S SELF OFF FROM THIS SOURCE OF LEARNING AND INSPIRATION, IS THE BEGINNING OF FOOLISHNESS, AND THE END IS REFUSAL TO FOLLOW ITS CLEAR TEACHING. NO MEDICAL PRACTITIONER CAN NEGLECT THE IMPACT OF HIS PROFESSIONAL ENVIRONMENT: NO LAWYER CAN REMAIN IGNORANT OF CURRENT LEGAL PRACTICE: NO PAINTER NOR WRITER, TEACHER NOR SCIENTIST, CAN FORGET THAT HIS FELLOWS ARE DOING IN HIS FIELD. GRANTING THIS, HOW FAR CAN THE PROFESSIONAL MAN LEARN FROM HIS FELLOWS AND YET REFUSE TO FOLLOW THEIR TEACHING? SO FAR AS HIS ASSERTION OF INDIVIDUAL FREEDOM, HURTS NONE BUT HIMSELF, HIS FREEDOM IS AND SHOULD BE COMPLETE. BUT IF, AS IS USUALLY THE CASE, COMPLETE INDIVIDUAL FREEDOM MEANS PUBLIC HURT, THEN THE PROFESSIONS FALL UNDER THE SANCTIONS OF THE DEMOCRATIC PROCESS: THE PHYSICIAN YIELDS TO

35-2-548

SOCIAL MEDICINE IN ORDER TO SAVE MORE HUMAN LIVES: THE WRITER SHAPES HIS IDEAL TOWARD HUMAN GOOD: AND NOT SIMPLY TOWARD PERSONAL EXPRESSION AND THE LAWYER PUTS HUMAN WELFARE AHEAD OF LEGAL CASUISTRY.

BUT THERE REMAINS A MAGNIFICENT FRONTIER BETWEEN FREEDOM AND DEMOCRACY WHICH IT IS THE HIGH PRIVILEGE OF THE PROFESSIONAL MAN TO AT ONCE DELIMIT AND DEFEND. ON THIS SIDE LIES THE PUBLIC WEAL: FOOD FOR THE HUNGRY: HOMES AND CLOTHES FOR THE NAKED HEALING FOR THE SICK AND EDUCATIONAFOR ALL. OVER THIS REALMREIREIGN THE COMPULSOINS OF NATURAL LAW, THE SURVIVAL OF LIFE AND THE PROGRESS OF CULTURE BUT ON THE OTHER SIDE LIES TOO THAT LIBERTY OF THOUGHT AND SPEECH, THAT UNTRAMMELED CHALLENGE OF FAITH AND THE UNKNOWN; OUT OF WHICH SALVATION FOR MAN MUST COME, IF ANYWHERE , EVER.

IN PLAIN, EVERYDAY PRACTICE, THEREFORE, THE PROFESSIONS MUST BEFORE ALL OTHERS, WELCOME DMOCRACY AS THE GATEWAY TO SUCH FREEFOM AS IS POSSIBLE WITHOUT CULTURAL DEATH. THERE ARE ESSENTIAL FUNDAMENTALS, WHICH TEACHERS MUST TEACH: BUT THEIR OPINIONS ABOUT WHAT SHOULD BE TAUGHT AND HOW MUST HAVE DUE WEIGHT IN THE FINAL DECISION AND NOT BE LEFT SOLELY TO SUPERINTENDENTS AND BOARDS WHO KNOW NEXT TO NOTHING OF THE REAL PROBLEMS OF SHHOOL LIFE. SOCIAL WORKERS MUST NOT BE MADE THE SLAVES OF EXECUTIVE SECRETARIES, WITH THEIR FUNCTIONS REDUCTED TO AND KNOWLEDGE LIMITED TO PUBLICITY AND INCOME. MANAGERS OF INDUSTRY MUST NOT HAVE THEIR ACTIVITY GEARED TO PRIVATE PROFIT AND VOLUME OF PRODUCTION, BUT DEMOCRATICALLY AIMED AT A BROAD AND DECENT LIVVELIHOOD FOR ALL WORKERS, FROM CAPITALIST AND SHAREHOLDERS TO THE WIDOWS AND ORPHANS OF THE INDUSTRIAL DEAD "BY ACCIDENT."

3-2-549

I AM CONVINCED THAT THE THREAT OF FASCISM TODAY IN THIS LAND LIES MORE CLEARLY IN AREAS OF EVERY DAY LIFE THAN IN NATIONAL AFFAIRS. I VISITED A HIGH SCHOOL LAST SPRING WHERE THE WOMAN PRINCIPAL REIGNED OVER HER TEACHERS ALMOST AS ABSOLUTE MONARCH: HER SUBORDINATES ALMOST CRINGED. I KNOW A UNIVERSITY WHERE THE DIVINE RIGHT OF THE PRESIDENT'S RULE TAXES THE FACULTY WITHOUT ANY REAL REPRESENTATION. THERE ARE HOSPITALS WHERE THE WHIM OF THE HEAD SURGEON IS LAW. I HAVE RECENT REASON TO KNOW THAT THERE ARE GREAT AND NECESSARY ORGANIZATIONS FOR SOCIAL PROGRESS WHERE THE KNOWLEDGE AND EXPERIENCE OF THE WORKING PERSONEL ARE VOICELESS AND HELPLESS BEFORE THE MONEY POWER OF THE EXECUTIVE SECRETARY. HERE THEN IN AREAS OF OUR DAILY LIFE IS WHERE THE FIGHT FOR DEMOCRACY MUST BEGIN AND REACH OUT AND UP TO THE NATION.

BECAUSE HENRY WALLACE, BETTER THAN ANY OTHER CANDIDATE FOR PUBLIC OFFICE TODAY, AND MORE CLEARLY THAN MOST CNADIDATES UNDERSTANDS AND ADVOCATES THE FUNDAMENTAL PRINCIPLES OF FREEDOM AND DEMOCRACY, WE SUPPORT HIM AND WHETHER HE WINS OR NOT: WE KNOW WELL THAT WHAT HE STANDS FOR MUST WIN IN THE END OR WE PERISH.

New York, New York

During my life, I have had the right to vote for president fifteen times. Once I was out of the country. Five times I was disfranchised because I was living in Georgia. Once here in New York an attempt was made to disfranchise me by certain officials of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People but that did not succeed.

Of the eight presidential votes which I have actually cast, four have been for democratic candidates, three for republican and one for Farmer-Labor Party. In 1911 I was active in the Socialist Party. Since then I have not been an active member of any party, but have expressed my political views by writing and voting.

In this election, my fifteenth opportunity to help choose a Chief Executive of this nation, I am departing from my life-long custon. I am taking part in a political rally and I am appearing as an enrolled, active member of the progressive party, to introduce to this audience their candidate for president.

I am doing this for two reasons; first, because of the crisis which faces the world, this nation and all persons of Negro descent. And, second, because of the character of the candidate before us.

Two paramount issues face civilization today: War, and the just distribution of wealth. In no previous campaign, during my lifetime, have issues of equal importance and urgency faced American voters. In 1896, I voted on the use of Gold and Silver as money. In 1912, I voted against the Solid South. In 1916, I voted against war. Twice after the first World War, I voted for normalcy and oncefor La Follette and the rights of labor. At the onset of the great depression and for twelve years thereafter, I voted for Roosevelt and a New Deal. In most of these elections, before 1932, the issues before the voters were not clear-cut, and the candidates were uncertain in their stand. With Roosevelt came increasing clarity, until today, for the first time in fifty years the issues stand out with such clearness and defination, that the fool, even though a wayfaring man may read and understand:

Do we want war? Do we want to fight Russia? Do we want the resourses of this rich land and the taxes wrung from our poverty, used for the progress of the human race or squandered by trigger-happy brass-hats and drunken sailors for the murder of the innocent and the rape of the weak, the poor and the black? These are the issues before us today and they are crystal-clear.

In other previous elections, even when issues could be discerned, the baffling question was to find where the candidates stood on these questions. With most of the candidates in this election, there is the same grave and disturbing uncertainty. And in the past the situation was if possible, worse. I voted for Woodrow Wilson in 1912. Hoping but not knowing that he would stand for the decent treatment of Negroes which he had promised. I was wrong. I voted for Harding and Coolidge, hoping against hope, that each would try to be more than the time-serving politicians which they proved to be. My hope was disappointed. I voted for Franklin Roosevelt and the New Deal and my vote was justified by a new charter for labor, an attack on enemployment and low wage and the fair empolyment practices order. Deeply disappointed as I was, with you, when a cheap political deal made Harry Truman vice-president instead of the man who could have sa ved the New Deal I found myself faced with a president in a job just too large for his fatally limited capacity. President Truman wandered back and forth, to and fro, until crying Peace he landed the nation on the brink of war, crying labor he put us in the hands of a military clique and at the beck of Wall Street. He promised Zion to the Jews and gave oil to Britain. Magnificently crying

Civil Rights, he became suddenly afflicted with the worst case of Lock-Jaw, known to modern psychology.

I will not vote for Thomas Dewey, because no matter what he glibly says, I have absolutely no faith in him nor his promises. He stands for big business, monopoly and privilege: He is against organized labor, and his followers are among those tonight financing the revolt against Civil Rights in the South.

I am voting then next Tuesday for the progressive party and taking my stand within its ranks as the only party able and willing to carry out the New Deal of Franklin Roosevelt and particularly because under the leadership of a man in whose honest and unequivocal character, I have unquestioning confidence. The Progressive Party has declared War against war, that greatest threat and horror of our day; and war against women and children, in its most inexcusable form and ~~xx~~ cruelest deed.

I am voting for the candidate of the Progressive Party, not because of any glibness of phrase or multiplicity of promises but because I know that with straight-forward honesty of purpose, at cost of any sacrifice of popularity or ease, tired and crucified as he is, he will live up to what he says.

I am not deterred from this decision by the fear that after this election I may awake to find that I am not seated on a victorious band-wagon. I have never known a great and worthy cause that has not had to fight and fight again for ultimate victory as the cursade against slavery so nobly shows. No vote is thrown away that is cast for the right. No great cause dies unless it commits suicide.

I hold it truth, with him who sings
To one clear harp, in divers tones
That men may rise on stepping-stones
Of their dead selves, to higher things

Because then I know that when this candidate of the Progressive Party says Civil Rights, he means Civil Rights, I will vote for the man whom I now have the honor to present to this audience; HENRY WALLACE!

THE PROBLEMS OF NEGRO ORGANIZATION

By

W. E. B. Du Bois

From the very first it has been difficult for American Negroes to organize themselves for their own development and to resist aggression. The four great difficulties were of course Ignorance: the fact that for centuries most Negroes could not learn to read and write: Inexperience: that is lack of knowledge of what other people were doing and how they accomplish their work; third Poverty--the low income of slaves and of freedmen, and the consequent lack of funds for general purposes; and finally caste restrictions. The segregation and discrimination which colored people have always met in the United States.

Despite this and because of it, Negroes began even before the 18th century to organize and fight for greater freedom. Perhaps it would be well in this case to omit the slave revolts and organized efforts to run away and to begin with the last years of the 18th century and note that organization and revolt which began with the formation of what was ultimately The African Methodist Church.

You know the incidents that accompanied that organization. Negroes after being received for sometime in the Great St. Georges Methodist Church in Philadelphia were suddenly one Sunday asked to retire to the balcony. Led by Absalom Jones and Richard Allen they formed a sort of mutual aid organization. Eventually however, it divided into two parts; one of which became an independent church, the other an organization in the white Episcopal church. The independent organization as you know perisists to our day and there were other instances like the Zion Church where similar incidents led to Negro organizations. Later in the 19th century Negroes took a very xonsiderable and decisive part in the abolition movement as speakers and agnents and as members of organizations which carried through the underground railroad.

In the decade before the Civil War and extending until the 70's came the new era of conventions. This was significent as an attempt at democratic settelemtn of a difficult problem, the future of blak folk in the United States. When the conventions began, the mass of Negroes were in slavery and toward the 60's it looked as though that status was going to be permanent. The question therefore, was what to do? And in the conventions that met, especially that celebrated convention of 1854 in Rochester, four different ideas came out; those who wanted to xxxxxx stay and fight it out in the United States; those who w nted to migrate to Haiti: those who wanted to migrate to Mexico; and those who wished to go to Africa. Before much could be done to implement these paths, there came the Civil War and Emancipation. It looked for a while as though Negro organizations was going to be able to merge with white organizations in a great fight for democracy. That was frustrated by the disfr nchisement of the Negroes in 1876.

For a time the Negro was non-plussed; he tried xx migration to different parts of the United States; he tried some small organizations, until finally along about 1890 there came the organization of the Equal Rights Association in Boston. I remember as a student at Harvard, attending some of its meetings in the Charles Street Church. It consisted mostly of arguments and I had the natural impatience of youth as argument without action. About 10 years later, there came the Afro-American council. It was a more pretentious organization. It had centers in various cities but it had no continuing central organization and program. There was a meeting once a year and then everyth ng lapsed and had to be taken from the beginning. Little or nothing happened between meetings. This of course was unsatisfactory.

Meantime there developed distinct differences of opinion among thinking Negroes. Beginning with the celebrated speech of Booker Washington in 1895, and continuing for ten years Negroes we e devided more and more distinctly into those who saw salvation in training for trades, and work; and those who on the other hand, wanted to press demands for political rights and fora well educated le dership.

I, myself, as a young teacher, at the age of 32, was inclined to emphasize the need of educated leadership, but at the same time to recognize the importance of industrial training. I attended assiduously the conferences at Hampton Institute: I even considered the invitation to go to Tuskegee Institute as teacher and helper to Mr. Washington. But as I studied the situation and continued my efforts to make an over all survey of the Negro problem at Atlanta University, I became more and more convinced that the trade-teaching program alone would not do. I said this frankly at Hampton and finally I published a chapter on Mr. Washington in my SOULS OF BLACK FOLK, which I still think is a very fair and appreciative estimate of his work.

I said in 1903, "The Black Men of America have a duty to perform, a duty stern and delicate, a forward movement to oppose a part of the work of their greatest leader. So far as Mr. Washington preaches thrift, p patience, and industrial training for the masses, we must hold up his hands and strive with him, refjoling in his honors and glorying in the strength of this Joshua called of God and of man to lead the headless host. But so far as Mr. Washington apologizes for injustice, north or south, does not rightly value the privilege and duty of voting, belittles the emasculating effects of caste distinctions, and opposes the higher training and ambition of our brithter minds,--so far as he, the South or the nation, does this,---we must unceasingly and firmly oppose then, By every civilized and pe ceful method we must strive for the rights which the world accords to men, clinging unwaveringly to those great words which the sons of the fathers would fain forget: 'We hold these truths to be self-evident that all men are created equal; that they are endowed by their creator with certain unalienable rights; that among these are life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness.'"

This at itude, written in 1903 turned into stronger feeling and language when Monroe Trotter of Boston, a young colored man, son of a former recorder of deeds, in the district of Columbia, was arrested and charged with disorder for try ng to heckle Mr. Washington in one of his public meetings. Trotter was not only arrested he was put in the Charles street jail and kept there for several days.

I was greatly excited over this and immediately wrote to various friends throughout the country; saying that we ought to get together and make up our minds just wh t attitude to take. The result was a meeting at Niagara Falls in 1905 when we formed the Niagara movement. And that movement made a straight forward declaration for Negroes to fight for every right to which an American citizen was entitled.

The meeting and movement caused a great deal of agitation. We were called rather hard names by the white press and by most of the Negro press. But nevertheless we went ahead and in 1906 we held at Harper's Ferry, what was in many ways the greatest meeting of American Negroes: Not in size but in intensity of belief and devotion to a great ideal. Present at that meeting was Mary White Ovington, of New York, and in 1908 when a lynching took place at Springfield, Illinois, where Abraham Lincoln lies buried, Miss Ovington, William English Walling, Oswald Garrison Villard, grandson of Garrison, and others, came together in New York and said that it was time to finish the emancipation which Abraham Lincoln began; they called a conference for 1909 and I, as head of the Niagara Movement was asked to join and speak. The result of that was in 1910, we organized and incorporated The National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, which was a merger of this white group in New York and of the persons who had been following the Niagara Movement. Thus there began a new organization among American Negroes and their friends for the specific and direct object of freeing Negroes from caste restrictions in the United States.

The path that lay before us was not easy: in the first place, there was the suspicion among Negroes that the whites who were connected with this organization were not to be trusted. For that teason, Mr. Trotter and other promeninent leaders like Ida Wells Barnett would not join the new organization. Then too, on the other side, was fear that this was going to be an orgnization designed for personal attack upon Mr. Washington who was at the time, the most popular Negro in the United States and the most powerful. He was widely known and respected. He not only was the arbitrator when it came to questions of education and distribution of charitable funds, but he also had great political power North and South. If we, as a new organization, had started making him a target of our attack, we would have been severely handicapped from the first; but we were rather careful not to do that. On the other hand, our program was and had to be different from his. It was known that we put different emphasis upon what the Negro needed but we never were successfully charged with personal attack on Mr. Washington.

I was asked to come to the NAACP with the thought that eventually I would be its secretary and executive head. But during my whole career, I have tried to keep from Executive work and to emphasize my research and scientific interpretation as the best contribution which I could make. Consequently, instead of seeking or accepting the position of executive secretary, I became director of publications and research, with the idea of starting a monthly magazine and of continuing the research program which I had begun at Atlanta University.

We had difficulty in finding the proper person as executive secretary. First we had a white woman, May Childs Nermey, who did a good but conventional office job, without any real knowledge of the background of racial strife in the United States. Then after two temporary incumbents, we secured John Shillady. Shillady, a white man, was experienced in the technique of organization. He organized the NAACP in modern form. First, in the matter of salaries, giving good and sufficient pay; and then particularly in the matter of publicity; getting our work known to the press; and to the organization of meetings. But Shillady himself did not realize what we were up against in fighting race prejudice in the United States. And when he made a trip to Texas and faced mob violence, he came back and said frankly that he doubted if our program could be put through. Eventually he went to an asylum for the insane. He was succeeded by James Weldon Johnson and then we got nto our stride and began to put the Association into its present form.

In the meantime, my work had developed in the founding of the CRISIS Very few people wanted us to undertake such a magazine. Some of my best friends on the Board advised strongly against it; but I was convinced that unless we had an organ which the mass of the people would read, and which would put our case before them, we could not succeed. There was at the time little dependence to be put upon the Negro weekly press: There were a few good papers, but on the whole they were very poor, with narrow circulation and with scant news coverage.

I began my little magazine with a department called the Horizon, and afterward Along The Color Line, giving a sereies of short statements about what had been happening among colored people and of interest to them throughout the United States and thw rold. It was a very popular department. To this I added strong editorial statements and exposition of the point of view of the NAACP.

THE CRISIS, beginning with no capital and with an edition of one thousand copies in 1910, developed so that in 1920, it had a circulation of over one hundred thousand copies and was extraordinarily successful. For years it was the most prosperous and best known part of the organization and because of that I was allowed unusual freedom of expression and my editorial columns were read widely, not only by those who believed in our program but by those who did not.

However, when the depression came, beginn ng with us before 1929 and continuing with greater intensity up to 1933, it became clear to me that the CRISIS could no longer be self-sup orting. From 1915 to 1928, for a period of more than ten years the CRISIS had cost the NAACP nothing. We had paid the salaries of all of our employees including myself and the expenses of publication and distribution. Beginning however with 1930, the income did not cover the expense and I knew that, quite naturally, if the Association had to help support the magazine, my freedom of expression would be less and less. Therefore, in 1934 I gave up the editorship of the magazine and decided to go with John Hope back to Atlanta University and devote the remaining years of my life to teaching and writing.

Of course, there were difference of ideaology within the NAACP that had arisen by that time. I had my own ideas as to how they should be faced and settled, but I did not think it was my job to carry them out. I was at the time sixty five years of age, I had devoted nearly a quarter of a century to work for the NAACP and it seemed to me that younger men must now take up the necessary re-direction of its policies. Because an organization, if it is going to live and function, must from time to time reconsider its work, and readjust itself to the new development which are continually taking place in the social growth of the world.

In the case of the NAACP there had come several real problems. Basically they were the difficult problems of democracy and democratic contr l. Most people, I think do not clearly understand what is meant by democracy. I always like to tell the story of my youth and what it taught me with regard to the democratic method.

I was born in a little New England town, of some five thousand inhabitants which was governed b the New England method of the Town meeting. This meant that all men 21 years of age or more met annually in the spring and discussed the policies of the town; decided about taxes and appropriations and elected the few officials who were to carry on the work.

In this meeting, everyone had a right to speak. Of course not many actually did, because New England people are not very talkative; and yet the right was there and many availed themselves of it. There was one matter however that came very near to me. We had a high school in which I was a pupil it cnsisted of two teachers, a principal and his assistant; and one class room. The high school did not have enough money to carry on its work as it should ; nevertheless the town --while glad to support it was not disposed to appropriate any larger sum. But one incident which recurred every year exasperated me. During the town meeting there used to come down from the hills an incredibly dirty, old and ragged man-- Beartown Beebe. Regularly ~~x~~ Beartown Beebe would get up in town meeting and make a tirade against the high school and ask that its approproation be reduced or cut off entirely.

I was furious because he was allowed to speak in this way, and my favorite school should be attacked by a man of no account and nor real responsibility: But the members of the town meeting used to sit very patiently and hear every thing that Mr. Beebe had to say: and then after he was through they would go to work and vote the same approproation that they had always voted for the high school. They refused to cut off the appropriation as Beebe wanted them to: they refused also to increase it as I and many older people wanted. Now this became to me afterward an examply of what democracy means. It meant that everybody in that town had the right to express himself to twll his experience and opinion, and then having heard all sides, the people of the town decided.

To many other people since that, I have found that there is a temptation not to listen to the side of persons who disagree with them. Now that may mean that you get your way, and that what you want goes through; but it also means that you are depriving yourself of a great deal of information which you ought to have, in order to come to a full and fair conclusion. And that is the meaning of democracy. It is not simply a matter of having your own way. It is a matter of your being able to express your opinion after you have heard the opinion of others; and the opinions of ~~xx~~ others are of advantage and value to you because they are the experience of people working in the same world and under the same circumstances in which you are working.

Now this problem of democracy came before the NAACP. A small group-- perhaps six or eight people from 1910 to 1934--really ran the NAACP and decided its policies. But in addition to that we were beginning to get members throughout the country: so that we had a considerable number of branches and a growing membership. The question now was, what voice that membership should have in the conduct of the organization? And we were not certain at that time: we are not certain today. It still remains a very important problem ~~xxxx~~ before the NAACP, which has not yet been worked out.

In addition to that there were not only these branches of adults, but several times during the history of the NAACP, we have tried to organize the youth: the idea being that young people of high school and college age; not yet voters, but voters in prospect, ought to be organized so as to understand what the NAACP was and eventually to take over the control of it.

As a matter of fact, we never have been successful in the organization of youth. We would get them together in organizations and the only thing that they were expected to do by the officials in New York was to raise money. Just as soon as they became to express themselves as to policies, and especially if they wanted to take actual part, they were stopped. Several times this has meant the practical disruption of our youth movement. Today we are in the same difficulty.

There were certain matters of which we were frightened. At first it was the question of our attitude toward Mr. Washington and toward white friends who were cooperating with us and then after that there were several attempts to seize and use the machinery and membership of the NAACP for purely political propaganda.

We had to fight strongly against these dangers and for that reason we began more and more to concentrate the real power of the organization in the New York office. But even there there were difficulties: for instance, take the matter of legal defense: There are two conceptions of that: one is the matter of getting cases which will enalbe us to fix great nationsl policies. In that m tter, we are not thinking so much of the individual involved in the case, but of the possible court decisions.

This is an important work and probably the NAACP HAS done its greatest service to the Negro race and to America in the extraordinary series of court decisions which it has obtained. But this is not the whole of the problem; there is the problem of individual legal def nse, of defending the man who is arbitrarily arrested, who is falsly accused; where the matter is not a question of legal decision and interpretation of law, but of defending the weak and the lowly, under laws which are already clear and simply need honest enforcement.

Now we have done some work of this sort, but it has not been done systematically, and there is no wide program that would call for a great more effort than we are making. It should be impossible in the United States for any Negro to be arrested and not receive the proper kind of careful defense. This would involve large sums of money, and it would involve also decentralized control and supervision. We have not gone into that; we have on the other hand used a few cases for wide publicity and for raising money, while the great mass of unjustly treated Negroes go undefended.

Now beyond that comes the very important question of segregation. It was really there that the beginn ng of wide differences of opinion between myself and other persons conducting the NAACP began to develop in 1934. I believe then, and still believe, that segregation and discriminat on based solely upon race, and color is unwise, unjust and undemocratic: and that it whouls be done away with. In that attitude I have never wavered and see no reason for wavering today.

At the same time, when it comes to efforts to do away with segregation we have got to take more into consideration than we have taken. For instance in the question of the public schools. We have almost a complete system of Negro education in the South and partically in parts of the North. We have teachers, buildings, equipment and students. We have been fighting in the courts to stop the legal basis of this segregation. But we have done t is by trying to compel the whites to receive Negro students in their schools, while we have not done anything to compel them to continue employment of Negro teachers, or to compel them to see that the teaching which is done in schools would be the sort of teaching that we want our children to receive.

Or in other words we have not looked upon this problem of segregation in education as a complete whole: we have looked on and pushed only one part of it. And if we should be successful merely in that one part, the result might be disastrous. We must remember that a large number of Negroes receiving higher education in the institutions of the North and even abroad, do so because they are sure of employment in ~~white~~ Negro colleges and schools. That if they had to depend upon possible employment in white colleges, they would remember that the number so employed is very small and their chances of self support very narrow. Consequently, what might happen would be that the number of Negroes in the institutions of higher learning would become less and instead of having a trained group as the intellectual leaders of our race that group would grow progressively smaller and smaller.

What I was advocating in 1934 and have favored since is that our study of this problem should be made broad and complete; taking into account, not simply the segregation of Negro students, but the opportunities of Negro teachers and the content of the teaching: and that involves the employment not simply of lawyers, but of trained students in sociology and psychology and leaders and thinkers of all sorts, brought toegther for consultation for work in common for great and important ends.

I had even gone fu ther, and said that with all legal segregation of races abolished, ~~it~~ as it should be, nevertheless, there was a place and a necessity for voluntary organization of American Negroes on a sultureal basis, to entend and broadentheir culture and to give to the world the gifts whihh the peoples of Africa can give, if they understand and study them and work for their dissemination in the world. That civilization grows by what different cultural groups give to it by working together. THE NAACP has come ~~first~~ definitely to oppose such Negro effort.

Let me remind you of one thing: today is a time in history when there has been and is going on extraordinary development in many areas of science: In history, anthropology and sociology, so that exact methods of study and measurements are making the study of the actions of men scientific and within limits predictable. Psychology has opened up a new field of scientific study of the thoughts and f elings of human beings. Economics has come to be a scientific guide for the organization of human work and planning of industry. Any organizati n today which undertakes to guide social action must rely for advice on trained, expert knowledge in sociology, history, psychology and economics. Without this, the organization is helpless and at sea, and floundering about in outmoded nineteenth century emoti nal philanthropy. The NAACP has, outside my office, not one person in its employ, trained in a single field of these branches of science. Most of its executives have not even a first class college training , much less, the discipline of graduate and professional work. No trained sociologist, no psychologist, historian or economist of eminence has ever been offered a job with the NAACP, or ever will under its present organization. We have no library on these matters.

We who ought to head research on the sociology of the Negro, on the history and development of African peoples; on the psychology of segregation and discrimination: on the economics of Negro empolyment: Have not taken a single setp toward any of these scientific methods of studying the race problem, but have put all our energies in court cases and alms-giving.

Finally and beyond this in 1934 and later to impress it upon the NAACP, that there was an economic and industrial revolution going on in the world; that theycease to be indifferent to this revolution and stop sitting back and assuming that we have the [illegible] same kind of development in business and industry today as that which characterized the 19th century.

I had in mind the development of socialism in the world: the curb whcih must be put upon we lth and capitalism in this country and [illegible] else where: and the need of voluntary organization like consumers corporation among Negro groups. I emphasized and expounded my ideas by group meetings in my office in New York, and especially by the resolutions adopted by the ammual meetings of the NAACP which I am afraid few people understood in their implications, but if you will read those resolutions as adopted by the NAACP from 1920 to 1932 you will realize whait I was thinking of and emphasizing. But there was no response to this inside the NAACP. There is not connected with the organization today--outisde of my office, a single executive officer that has any real and careful knowledge of the reorganization of industry which is going on today throughout the world; and against this I have protested in the past and have spoken since my return to the organization.

We have, therefore, today in the NAACP a small group, consisting really of three persons, whose will is decisive for the policies and ac on of the organization. We have a membership which amounts today to some 300,000 and has once approached the half mil ion mark but no longer does so. A membership that does not have any real leadership in the broader aspects of the problem. We have a central office, deprived of the information and direction which a democratically controlled organization might bring to bear. In other words, the branches are still so subordinate and so helpless in the gneral organization of the NAACP, which is the only final guide to effective organization.

I have sent to your officials a st tement as to how the NAACP is organized at the present. It has a Board of Directors who are largely ornamental and windown dressing. I mean that dist nguished persons consent to have their name put down on the list on condition that they be not compelled to attend the meetin s or to have any particular duties. The great majority of them have never attended a meeting; a [illegible] small number of usually less than a dozen directors, resident in and near New York, attend the meetings and transact the business. The meetings are routine and on the whole un-interesting: they consist in adopting the report of the committee of administration.

I attended these meetings for a year or more, and I do not think that I ever heard a report of the committee on administration seriously questioned. For the m st part the report goes through without question; sometimes there may be a little debate, but even in that case, the final decison on the matter is referred back to the committee on administration. The committee on administration therefore is the real body which rules the quarter of a million members ip of the NAACP. That committee theorerically consists of the Secretary and his staff and nine members of the Board of Directors. As a matter of fact it consists of the Secfetary, because since he ap oints his staff, they practically never oppose a ything that he sugg st. It therefore consists of the Secretary with six votes.

These six votes with the votes of two other persons are decisive for the report of the committee. Two other persons who are the key persons are the president of the Association, Mr. Arthur Spingarn, and the chairman of the Board, Dr. Louis T. Wright. These three persons, then, the Secretary, Spingarn and Wright, run the Association. It is throretically possible for enough mambers of the committee on administration to be present to override the secretary with his six votes, but it is impossible even if the whole committee were there to override the secretary and these two officials.

It is necessary to consider these officials --Arthur Spingarn is a lawyer. His chief interest is law and the administration of estates. He does not pretend to have any broad social background; the tech nical job of winning a court case is his chief interest.

The result is that the legal department is well run. It has its own segregated funds, which are under the control of a legal committee and Mr. Spingarn has chief voice in that committtee. The court cases are won: but the whole social background is absolutely neglected. Louis Wright, on the other hand, is head of a hospital, used to making quick and abrupt decisions and with a certain contempt for the masses. He has not b en well for a long time, he acts on impulse very often, inspite of his basic goodwill.

Here now is a set-up, which gives to one man, the Secretary of the Association, greater power than any one man oughtto try to exercise. Walter White is a tireless and indefatigable worker, but egotistic to an extreme which is almost pathological, and greedy for publicity. He is about the last man that would loan himslef to any kind of democratic organization. The result is that the work of the NAACP is today concentrated on the legal department, and the department of publicity, which shown by the fact that the department has had five different persons within six years to do its work. Publicity is given to the winning of court cases, and to the speeches and accomplishments of Mr. White and to other matters which Negroes might be interested but not to a careful survey of opinion, of the wider aspects of our fight and its implications, and particularly with almost no reference to the international aspects of the color problem. There is no chance for real x dissent to this program. There is no chance for any opinion to be expressed much less publicized, which is not the opinion of the Secretary, Mr. Spingarn and Mr. Wright. It was hes that my real difficulty arose.

First of all, I have been used in the ~~lxxi~~ last fifty years of expressing my views frankly. They were not always right, but they were always sincere and not forced by self interest or the opinion of others. I had no dream of returning to the NAACP in 1934, when I was asked and urged to return to the Association there was no question but what my right of opinion would be the same as it had always been. The matter was not for a moment discussed. I was promised freedom of action and a right to work as I wished. Of course I was xx to work withing the framework of the organization with Mr. White as my superior officer. But it was not understood that I was to furnish Mr. White materials for his speeches, or that I was to say and believe only what Mr. White said and believed.

Therefore, there came the question, as it does everyfour years about the attitude of the NAACP toward the political campaign. It was perfectly right for the NAACP as an organization to say that it dod not take political sides and did not engage in political activity; and that would have best been shown if various persons connected with the NAACP, in their individual capacity, expressed their varouis idea; there areon the board and on the staff, republicans, democrats and progressives. As indifiduals they had a right to express their opinion and to ote their ideas. In no case, not even in the case of the Secretary had they a right to speak officially for the Association; but this was not sufficient for Mr. White or the other persons who stand by him. They wanted to stop me from making known my political choices in any way, and they allowed Mr. White pracitcally to go on the stump.

It was not a question as to whether he was right or not; he had a perfect right to vote for Mr. Truman. On the other hand, I also should have had the right to speak for Mr. Wallace and to take part in political meetings, so long as I made it perfectly clear that I was speaking as an individual and not representing any organization.

This was the chief matter of difference of opinion, but there followed a more important matter. I have said the NAACP has taken no attitude toward the international aspects of the color question. The people of India have gone all out to defend Negroes in Africa: the peoples of Africa have organized and strug-led in various ways and one of the chief reasons of my returning to the NAACP was to attend and support the Pan-African Congresses which I founded in 1918.

Unnecessary difficulties were put in my way by the administration, but I went to the Pan African Congress of 1945. I returned asking for some funds to support their work. For small contributions in order to issue publications which would increase the knowledge of Africa among American Negroes for some expression on the part of the Association to show their interest in Africa. I was unable to get a single action.. All of my requests went to the Secretary and whether or not they ever reached the Board I do not know. Nevertheless, I kept up my interest in the Pan African Movement and in the international developments of the color line, as a part of my special department of the NAACP. I ~~edited~~ wrote two books and edited our petition to the United Nations, notwithstanding that and as a gesture which seemed to me to be mainly political, Mr. White accepted appointment to the United Nations, which under the cirumstances could not possibly have accomplished anything. Everything that could be done and ought to have been done, could be done right here in the United States by bringing pressure upon the United States to allow our petition to be discussed in the Assembly and by taking a stand on Africa, by the Board.

I protested publicly and vigorously, not because I wanted to go to Paris instead of Mr. White, but because I insisted that there was no need of anyone going at large expense under the circumstances. What I said proved perfectly true. Mr. White returned without being able to anything under the organization of the American delegation to the United ~~States~~ Nations. Nevertheless ~~I was~~ because of the publicity which I gave to my protest I was dismissed from my position in the NAACP.

I am talking to you about these tings for no personal reason. I am not ask ng to be connected with the NAACP in any way whatsoever. What I am asking is that the NAACP be an organization where the opinion and the experience and will of the mass of the membership be consulted before final action is taken.

I know perfectly well that this is a difficult thing to accomplish; but no matter how difficult it is, it is absolutely indispensalbe, if we are going to have an organization which adapts itself to the needs of the time and to the changes of the time. There is no way of accomplishing t is ex ept by the democratic method, by consulta ion and by decision on the part of the mass of members. We are always tempted in our everyday life, in our churches, in our organizations to let a small group or even one man dominate and make all decisions. There is not doubt but what this makes for continuity of policy and celerity of decision; but in the long run it is fatal, unless these decisions at some time and in some way, come in for reiscon and judgment at the ahnds of th mass of people whor are interested.

There then is theproblem for you in the future. My own days of activity are largely past. It is only of passing interest to you what happens to me . It is or primary inter st as to whether you are goi g to have an organization which is an organization of Negroes of the United States, or which is gong to be bompelty c dminated by a small group of men. I do not care how devoted those man may be, or how efficitnt unless their judment and their po icies are reviewed and guided by public opinion they are going o fail in a world ~~x~~ which is changing as rapidly and decisively as this, our world is changing today.

AFRICA TODAY
By
W. E. B. Du Bois

AFRICA IS TODAY ONE OF THE MOST INTERESTING PARTS OF THE WORLD: AND THAT, NOT SIMPLY BECAUSE IT WAS THE HOME OF OUR FOREFATHERS, BUT BECAUSE OF ITS PRESENT RELATIONS TO THE REST OF THE WORLD AND TO THE DEVELOPMENT OF HUMAN CULTURE. // THIS IS NOTHING UNUSUAL. THE ROMANS USED TO SAY: "SEMPER NOVI QUID EX AFRICA." "ALWAYS SOMETHING NEW OUT OF AFRICA" AND THAT HAS BEEN TRUE FOR A LONG SERIES OF YEARS. FROM THE TIME WHEN HUMAN CULTURE CENTERED IN THE NILE VALLEY AND ALL THE WORLD LOOKED TOWARD EGYPT AS THE MOTHER OF CIVILIZATION: // DOWN THROUGH THE DAYS OF THE RELATIONS OF AFRICA WITH GRECIAN CIVILIZATION, THEN THE CONNECTION OF AFRICA THROUGH CARTHAGE TO ROME, THE DEVELOPMENT OF THE CATHOLIC CHURCH IN THE MIDDLE AGES DOWN TO THE CRUSADES, and ARAB explorers FINALLY ~~CAME AND~~ THE TRADE IN AFRICAN GOODS AND MEN ~~WHICH~~ CAUSED THE DEVELOPMENT OF ~~THE~~ MODERN CAPITALISM IN EUROPE AND THE TRANSPLANTATION OF THE AFRICAN PEOPLES TO VARIOUS PARTS OF THE WORLD.

IN SPEAKING OF AFRICA HOWEVER WE MUST FIRST OF ALL GET SOME OVER-ALL IDEA OF THE VAST CONTINENT, OF ITS SIZE IN RELATION TO THE UNITED STATES AND NORTH AMERICA AND EUROPE.

WE MUST REMEMBER THAT THE WORD "AFRICA" CARRIES A UNITY WHICH IS UNREAL IN FACT. THERE ARE FOR PRACTICAL PURPOSES TODAY SIX DIFFERENT AFRICAS. // LET US TAKE EACH ONE OF THESE IN SUCCESSION AND SPEAK OF THEIR CHARACTERISTICS AND MEANING. FIRST THERE IS WEST AFRICA, WHICH IS PERHAPS GENERALLY THE BEST KNOWN. IT IS THE GATEWAY TO THE CONTINENT FROM THE ATLANTIC. ITS TROPICAL CLIMATE, HOT SUNSHINE AND LUSH VEGETATION ON THE LOW COASTAL BELT, IS WELL KNOWN AND TO MANY, TYPICAL

35-2-500

OF AFRICA. THIS LOW COAST BELT RISES TO THE GREAT INLAND PLATEAU. TODAY BRITISH WEST AFRICA AND LIBERIA TOGETHER WITH A PART OF FRENCH WEST AFRICA FORMS A UNIFIED CENTER OF DEVELOPMENT. THE LEADERSHIP OF ALL BLACK AFRICA IN MANY RESPECTS CENTERS HERE AND IT IS POSSIBLE THAT THIS GROUP MAY BE THE FIRST TO LEAD THE WHOLE CONTINENT TO SELF RULE.

IN WEST AFRICA, NIGERIA, THE LARGEST BRITISH COLONY, IS ONE THIRD THE SIZE OF EUROPE AND HAS A POPULATION OF APPROXIMATELY 23,000,000 PEOPLE. IT MAY BE CALLED THE LARGEST BLACK NATION IN THE WORLD AND THE ONE WHICH IS MOST LIKELY TO LEAD THE BLACK PEOPLE. ~~IT IS A POOR COUNTRY WITH A LONG HISTORY~~. THE GOLD COAST FOLLOWS IN IMPORTANCE

A LEADING NIGERIAN WOMAN RECENTLY SAID: "THERE IS CONSTANT DRAIN OF WEALTH FROM NIGERIA INTO THE POCKETS OF BRITISH TRADING HOUSES AND MINING COMPANIES THROUGH THE YEARS, TO SAY NOTHING OF THE INCALCULABLE CONTRIBUTION TO THE CAUSE OF THE ALLIES IN TWO WORLD WARS, NOT ONLY IN MANPOWER BUT IN GOODS AND SERVICES."

35-2-501

THERE ARE ROADS AND RAILROADS, NEWSPAPERS AND A SYSTEM OF EDUCATION SMALL BUT GROWING. THERE ARE LEADERS TRAINED IN BRITISH AND AMERICAN COLLEGES. THE RESULT IS A STRONG MOVEMENT TOWARD AUTONOMY ~~IN NIGERIA~~, AND A DEMAND FOR HOME RULE BY PARTICIPATION IN GOVERNMENT FOR THE ~~NIGERIANS~~ NEGROES. THERE IS EVEN THREAT OF DIRECT ACTION UNLESS THIS IS HASTENED.

TURNING NOW TO LIBERIA, WE FIND A COUNTRY WHICH WAS SETTLED BY AMERICAN NEGROES EARLY IN THE 19thCENTURY, BUT WHICH HAS NEVER BEEN REALLY INDEPENDENT BECAUSE OF ECONOMIC DEPENDENCE UPON GREAT BRITAIN, FRANCE, GERMANY AND LATELY ON THE UNITED STATES. LIBERIA AT FIRST HAD TO FIGHT THE NATIVE TRIBES FOR A FOOT-HOLD, BECAUSE THE SETTLERS WERE TO THE AFRICANS, "FOREIGNERS." THEN FOR A HALF-CENTURY SHE HAD TO EXERCISE ALL OF HER SKILL TO ESCAPE THE IMPERIALISM OF GREAT BRITAIN

AND FRANCE AND FINALLY OF GERMANY. TODAY SHE IS IN THE HANDS OF AMERICAN CAPITAL. SHE NEEDS DESPERATELY A TRAINED GROUP OF INTELLIGENT LEADERS, TO SAFE GUARD HER FREEDOM IN THE FACE OF FIRESTONE RUBBER, THE STETTINIUS ASSOCIATES AND THE UNITED STATES NAVY AND AIRFORCE.

NOW LET ME TURN TO SOUTH AFRICA. IT IS SECOND IN IMPORTANCE OF THE SIX AFRICAS. THE PLATEAU RISES FROM THE BOWL OF CENTRAL AFRICA TO THE GREAT BASTIONS OF THE CAPE OF GOOD HOPE WHERE LIES THE UNION OF SOUTH AFRICA, NORTHERN AND SOUTHERN RHODESIA, THE NATIVE PROTECTORATES AND THE MANDATE OF SOUTH WEST AFRICA.

HERE AFTER A WILD SCRAMBLE OVER THREE CENTURIES, WHICH LOOSED SOME OF THE WORST OF HUMAN PASSIONS, WE HAVE TODAY INLAND FROM THE CAPE PERHAPS THE GREATEST CENTER OF HUMAN RACE HATE IN THE WORLD. ITS MANIFESTATIONS ARE MUCH WORSE THAN THOSE IN THE UNITED STATES. IN THE UNION OF SOUTH AFRICA TODAY THERE ARE TWO AND A THIRD MILLION WHITE

PEOPLE WHO HAVE COMPLETE POLITICAL AND ECONOMIC DOMINATION OVER 7,700,000 BLACKS AND 1,100,000 MULATTOES AND ASIATICS. THIS DOMINION OUT OF ITS TOTAL POPULATION OF ELEVEN MILLION GIVES THE RIGHT TO VOTE TO ONLY ITS TWO AND A THIRD MILLION WHITES.

35-2-503

THE AFRICAN, ALTHOUGH A TAX -PAYER, HAS NO RIGHT OF CITIZENSHIP. HE IS BARRED LARGELY FROM SKILLED INDUSTRY, HIS TRADE UNIONS CANNOT BE RECOGNIZED AND HE IS DENIED THE RIGHT TO STRIKE. HE CANNOT OWN LAND IN CITIES AND ONLY A LIMITED AMOUNT IN ~~LIMITED~~ RESERVED COUNTRY DISTRICTS. HE IS FORCED ALWAYS TO CARRY A NUMBER OF PASSES WHEN TRAVELLING. FOR VIOLATION OF PASS LAWS AND OTHER RESTRICTIONS THERE ARE TEN TIMES AS MANY ARRESTS IN THE UNION AS IN ENGLAND, ALTHOUGH ENGLAND HAS FOUR TIMES THE POPULATION. TAXATION AND ECONOMIC COMPULSION DRIVE THE AFRICAN FROM THE NATIVE RESERVES TO THE MINES, WHERE HE IS HOUSED AND SEGREGATED IN BARRACKS TO DIG GOLD AND DIAMONDS. HIS AVERAGE WAGE

35-2-504

THERE IS ABOUT TWO HUNDRED DOLLARS A YEAR: WHICH INCLUDES SIMPLE BOARD. THE BLACK POPULATION HAS DEMANDED AND STILL DEMANDS RESTORATION OF ITS LAND. IN 1938, EIGHTEEN MILLION NATIVES HAD 12 % OF THE TOTAL LAND AREA, WHILE 2,500,000 WHITES HAD 88% OR 250 MILLION ACRES.

FOR A LONG TIME ~~THE~~ GOLD MINING INDUSTRY HAS BEEN BASED ON CHEAP BLACK IMMIGRANT LABOR AND THIS HAS BEEN LOOKED UPON AS THE BACKBONE OF SOUTH AFRICAN ECONOMY AND A POWERFUL PART OF THE ECONOMY OF THE WHOLE WORLD. NOW INDUSTRY IS BEGINNING TO COME IN AND OUTSTRIP IN VALUE THE OUTPUT OF THE MINES.

IF THE NATIVE POPULATION SHOULD BECOME ORGANIZED AGAINST THE WHITE POPULATION, THERE WOULD BE FOUR NATIVES TO THREATEN EVERY EUROPEAN. THIS IS THE REASON THAT THE WHITE PEOPLE OF SOUTH AFRICA ARE SO DESPERATELY AFRAID OF THE RISE OF THE NATIVES.

35-2-505

THEY LIMIT THEIR SCHOOLING. IN 1941, THERE WERE A MILLION AND A QUARTER AFRICANS OF SCHOOL AGE, AND OF THESE ONLY 350,000 WERE IN SCHOOLS. MOST OF THESE WERE IN PRIMARY GRADES. HOSTILITY HAS GROWN IN SOUTH AFRICA NOT ONLY BETWEEN WHITES AND NEGROES BUT BETWEEN WHITES AND EAST INDIANS. ~~THERE HAS BEEN OPEN VIOLENCE AND WHEN THE AFRICAN MINE WORKERS WENT ON STRIKE IN 1946 THERE WERE ARRESTS AND RIOTING.~~ A NEGRO LEADER SAYS RECENTLY of the A NEW PARTY (UNDER MALAN, WHICH) HAS COME TO POWER, ~~AND~~ THAT HE IS CONVINCED THAT EUROPEANS WILL TRY TO PUT INTO EFFECT AGAINST NON-EUROPEANS ALL THE THINGS THAT THEY HAVE WANTED TO FOR SO LONG. NEVERTHELESS THE AFRICAN PEOPLE REMAIN UNDAUNTED AND RETROGRADE ACTION WILL ONLY SERVE TO MAKE THEM MORE DETERMINED TO ORGANIZE THEMSELVES FOR THE FIGHT WHICH LIES AHEAD.

ADJACENT TO SOUTH AFRICA LIE THE NEGRO PROTECTORATES, BASUTOLAND, BECHUANALAND AND SWAZILAND. THEY ARE ADMINISTERED BY THE BRITISH

COLONIAL OFFICE. ON ACCOUNT OF THE STUBBORN RESISTENCE OF THE NATIVES ESPECIALLY THE BASUTOS, THESE TERRITORIES WERE ~~NOT~~ NEVER CONQUERED, BUT ANNEXED BY TREATY AND GIVEN SOME DEGREE OF AUTONOMY. HOWEVER THEY ARE FENCED IN BY THE UNION OF SOUTH AFRICA AND THE RHODESIAS WITH THE RESULT THAT THEIR WHOLE INDUSTRIAL AND ECONOMIC ORGANIZATION IS DEPENDENT UPON THE WHITES AND THE WHITES ARE PRACTICALLY TRYING TO STARVE THEM INTO UNION WITH SOUTH AFRICA.

NYASALAND AND THE RHODESIAS LIE BETWEEN SOUTH AFRICA AND EAST AFRICA. THE WHITES THERE, WITH THEIR AGRICULTURE AND MINING ARE PUSHING FOR SELF RULE WITH THE WHOLE POLITICAL AND ECONOMIC POWER IN THE HANDS OF THE WHITES. THIS IS THE SEAT OF THE GREATEST COPPER DEPOSIT IN THE WORLD. THERE ARE VAST ACRES OF RICH LAND FOR FARMING AND UNTOLD MINERAL WEALTH. HERE AND IN SOUTH AFRICA CENTERS THE FIGHT TO BUILD A COLONIAL EMPIRE WITH THE SMALL WHITE POPULATION IN

COMPLETE POLITICAL AND INDUSTRIAL CONTROL. SOUTH AFRICA AND THE RHODESIAS HAVE A TEMPERATE CLIMATE WITH SCARCITY OF WATER IN CERTAIN AREAS. AS WE ASCEND THE EAST COAST WE APPROACH AGAIN THE TROPICS.

~~GOING UP THE COAST WE COME NOW TO EAST AFRICA.~~ EAST AFRICA IS

35-2-507

A PHYSICAL SPORT OF NATURE WITH SNOW-CAPPED PEAKS ON THE EQUATOR AND THAT VAST RIFT IN THE EARTH WITH THE DEEPEST LAKES KNOWN, WHICH IS THE ONLY THING MEN SAY THAT WOULD BE VISIBLE FROM THE MOON, IF THERE ARE EYES THERE TO SEE.

EAST AFRICA SLOPES DOWN TO A COAST, WHICH FOR A CENTURIES ~~HAS~~ KNIT AFRICA AND ASIA. HERE TODAY ARE THREE COUNTRIES, TANGANYIKA, UGANDA AND KENYA. TANGANYIKA HAS ONLY FIFTEEN PERSONS TO EACH OF THE 360,000 SQUARE MILES WITH FIVE MILLION NATIVES AND 70,000 WHITES. NOBODY HAS THE RIGHT TO VOTE, BUT THE WHITES OWN THE RESOURCES AND TAKE DIRECTION OF HUMAN LABOR.

DIAMONDS AND OTHER MINERALS ARE BEING EXPLOITED AND HERE HAS BEEN PLACED THE GREAT PEANUT CULTURE SCHEME OF PRESENT BRITAIN. THE LAND IS BEING SLOWLY MONOPOLIZED AND THE NATIVES HAVE ALMOST NO SYSTEM OF EDUCATION AND ARE PRACTICALLY VOICELESS IN THE CONDUCT OF PUBLIC AFFAIRS.

GOING FROM TANGANYIKA TO UGANDA ONE PASSES, AS ELSPETH HUXLEY SAYS: "FROM VASTNESS AND POVERTY TO A COMPACT, CLOSELY ADMINISTERED, RELATIVELY WEALTHY COUNTRY, FAVORED BY NATURE WITH HIGHLAND AND RAINFALL WHICH HAS BROUGHT ABUNDANCE AND COMPARATIVE PROSPERITY TO MOST OF ITS PEOPLE."

UGANDA IS THE STILL UNCONQUERED REMNANT OF A SERIES OF AFRICAN EMPIRES. IT WAS LONG THE VICTIM OF WHITE RELIGIOUS STRIFE BETWEEN PROTESTANTS, CATHOLICS, AND MOSLEMS. IT EMERGED AS A BRITISH PROTECTORATE WITH SOME AUTONOMY AND WEALTH BECAUSE OF RETENTION OF OWNERSHIP OF ITS LAND. UGANDA HAS 95,000 SQUARE MILES AND FOUR MILLION PEOPLE.

THE BLACK RULING CLASS CONSISTS OF LAND-HOLDERS AND EMPLOYERS WHO IMPORT LABOR FROM THE BELGIAN CONGO AND THE NILE VALLEY. IT HAS STARTED AN EDUCATIONAL PROGRAM, AND HERE IS MAKERERE COLLEGE WHICH MAY YET BECOME THE BLACK UNIVERSITY OF EAST AFRICA. THERE ARE SOMETHING OVER 300,000 CHILDREN IN SCHOOL AND INCREASING PROSPERITY BUT INFORMATION CONCERNING UGANDA IS DIFFICULT TO GET BECAUSE OF THE GENERAL FEAR THAT THE COUNTRY MAY FOLLOW THE MOVEMENT IN WEST AFRICA TOWARD AUTONOMY.

IN KENYA WE GO UP TOWARD THE MOUNTAINS OF THE MOON, WHERE ON 225,000 SQUARE MILES THERE IS A POPULATION OF THREE AND ONE HALF MILLION. TWENTY-FIVE THOUSAND OF THESE ARE WHITES WHO HAVE MONOPOLIZED THE MOST FERTILE 80 PER CENT OF THE LAND AND TRIED TO COMPEL THE NEGROES TO WORK FOR THEM. THE BLACKS CROWDED IN THE LOWLAND, DESERT AND SWAMP HAVE MADE A FIERCE STRUGGLE FOR OPPORTUNITY.

LESS THAN ONE FIFTH OF THE SCHOOL POPULATION IS IN MISSION AND GOVERNMENT SCHOOLS AND THE WEALTH ACCRUING TO THE WHITES FROM THE MONOPOLY OF LAND FOR WHICH THEY PAID ALMOST NOTHING AND FROM TRANSPORT AND INVESTMENT HAS GIVEN THE RULING CLIQUE A VAST POWER. // THERE IS HOWEVER A LARGE CONTINGENT OF INDIAN MERCHANTS WHO DISPUTE THE DIVISION OF PROFITS AND LATELY HAVE BEEN JOINING THE NATIVES IN THEIR OPPOSITION TO WHITE CONTROL. // WHITE RULE IN KENYA SURROUNDED AS IT IS BY THE SUDAN, ETHIOPIA AND UGANDA HAS NO EASY PATH TO COMPLETE DOMINATION.

WE NOW COME TO THE NILE VALLEY. AT THE HEAD OF THE VALLEY STANDS ETHIOPIA ON WHAT HAS BEEN CALLED THE CITADEL OF AFRICA BECAUSE OF THE HIGH PEAKS WHICH DOMINATE THIS EASTERN HORN OF THE CONTINENT. FOR 5000 YEARS ETHIOPIA NEVER LOST ITS INDEPENDENCE UNTIL IT FELL UNDER THE DOMINATION OF ITALY // WHEN THE UNITED NATIONS FAILED TO DEFEND ~~HER~~ ETHIOPIA

THE UNITED NATIONS ITSELF FAILED. // BY ITS OWN EFFORTS AND THE COOPERATION OF BRITAIN, THE COUNTRY HAS BEEN RESTORED TO INDEPENDENCE // BUT BRITAIN HAS TRIED TO KEEP A PART OF ITS TERRITORY AND TO RETAIN A CERTAIN DOMINATION. // HOWEVER, THE REAL PROBLEM OF ETHIOPIA IS TO REGAIN ACCESS TO THE SEA WHICH WILL ENABLE IT TO TRADE WITH THE WORLD.

THIS IS THE PROBLEM OF ERITREA, WHICH THE ITALIANS ARE TRYING TO HAVE GIVEN TO THEM AND WHICH THE ETHIOPIANS ARE TRYING TO RETAIN AS ONE OF THE ANCIENT COLONIES OF THE LAND. // MEANTIME ETHIOPIA IS STRIVING TO EDUCATE HER MASSES, IS SENDING SEVERAL HUNDRED STUDENTS ANNUALLY ABROAD FOR HIGHER EDUCATION AND TECHNICAL SKILL AND IS USING EUROPEANS AND AMERICAN NEGROES TO BUILD UP INDUSTRY AND SANITATION.

DOWN THE NILE VALLEY LIES THE SUDAN, THE SOURCE OF ANCIENT EGYPTIAN CIVILIZATION. IT DROVE BRITAIN OUT OF ITS BORDERS IN THE 19TH CENTURY FOR 13 YEARS (UNDER THE BLACK MAHDI) AND CAME NEAR GIVING AFRICA TO ETHIOPIA

35-2-512

AND FRANCE.// KITCHENER AND EGYPT RECAPTURED THE SUDAN/ ~~UNTIL~~ IN OUR DAY/ EGYPT SEEKING INDEPENDENCE FROM THE BRITISH EMPIRE/ FINDS ITSELF/ THREATENED WITH THE LOSS OF THE SUDAN./ THE SUDAN CONTROLS THE NILE/ WHICH IS THE LIFE LINE OF EGYPT/ AND A BROAD PATH TO BRITISH EAST AFRICA.// WHOEVER CONTROLS THE SUDAN WILL,/ WITH AN INDEPENDENT ETHIOPIA/ CONTROL EAST AND CENTRAL AFRICA./ CONSEQUENTLY BOTH EGYPT AND ENGLAND/ ARE WOOING THE SEVEN MILLION BLACK PEOPLE/ WHO INHABIT THE MILLIONS ~~ACRES~~ Sq. Mi. OF THE SUDAN.

THE FIFTH PART OF AFRICA/ IS NORTH AFRICA./ THAT IS ALGIERS, TUNIS AND MOROCCO:/ A REGION WHERE AN ARAB WORLD/ WITH A LARGE INFILTRATION OF BLACK BLOOD/ IS BEING DEVELOPED/ THEORETICALLY/ AS A PART OF FRANCE AND FORMERLY/ SO FAR AS TUNIS WAS CONCERNED/ AS A PART OF ITALY./ IN FACT THIS AREA/ IS STILL IN SEMI COLONIAL STATUS/ AND TORN BY DEMANDS FOR LARGER AUTONOMY. THE Real power/ is in the hands of the resident French.

THE SIXTH PART OF AFRICA/ WE MAY CALL LATIN AFRICA./ IT COMPOSES THE VAST AFRICAN EMPIRE OF FRANCE,/ ~~THE GREAT VALLEY OF THE CONGO~~, THE REMAINS OF THE PORTUGUESE AFRICAN EMPIRE/ AND THE SMALL ~~ENCLAVES~~ EN CLAVES OWNED BY SPAIN.

A ~~THEORETICAL PROMISE~~ LEGAL BASIS/ OF JUSTICE AND EQUALITY/ ~~WHICH~~ HUGE AMOUNTS TO THE TRAINING OF A SMALL ELITE,/ ~~BUT~~ WHO BY THAT TRAINING/ SEPARATE THEMSELVES FROM THE MASSES/ AND ~~TURNING THEM INTO~~ become FRENCHMEN AND PORTUGUESE/ WITH FULL CIVIL RIGHTS.// BUT ON THE OTHER HAND/ THEY LEAVE THE MASS OF PEOPLE/ IN THOSE TERRITORIES WITHOUT LEADERSHIP OR GUIDANCE/ AND AT THE MERCY/ OF SOME OF THE WORST KINDS OF COMMERCIAL EXPLOITATION. ~~THIS IS TRUE~~ IN ~~FRENCH & PORTUGUESE AFRICA~~

~~WE COME NEXT TO~~ THE BELGIAN CONGO./ WHICH IS THE HEART OF AFRICA./ IS DIFFERENT IT IS THE VAST TROPICAL BOWL/ WHICH LIES BETWEEN WEST AND EAST AFRICA/ AND BORDERS/ ALONG THE SUDAN IN THE NORTH/ AND RHODESIA IN THE SOUTH./ THE CONGO RIVER SYSTEM/ IS THE SECOND GREATEST IN THE WORLD/ ENCIRCLING AN

FRENCH AFRICA has a complete school system but a very small proportion of the school population enrolled

(over)

AREA OF 750 MILES WIDE AND 530 MILES LONG. IN THIS AREA BEFORE THE EUROPEANS CAME GREAT NATIVE STATES FLOURISHED WHICH WERE NOTED FOR THEIR COMPLEX AND INTERESTING CULTURE AND THEIR ART. HERE LAY THE GREAT KINGDOM OF ~~ZIMBABWE~~ MONOMOTAPA, EXTENDING DOWN INTO THE RHODESIAS, AND HERE ARE REMAINS TODAY OF GREAT AND NOTABLE CIVILIZATIONS.

35-2-514

IN 1943 THERE WERE IN THE CONGO TEN AND A HALF MILLION PEOPLE OF WHOM 35,000 WERE WHITE. THE ANNEXATION OF THE CONGO BEGAN WITH STANLEY'S SEARCH FOR LIVINGSTONE AND ENDED AT THE CONFERENCE OF BERLIN IN 1885 WHEN THE KING OF BELGIUM BACKED BY THE UNITED STATES WAS GIVEN THE CONGO, WHICH IS 77 TIMES THE SIZE OF BELGIUM AS HIS PERSONAL ESTATE. THEORETICALLY IT WAS TO BE AN INDEPENDENT STATE WHERE CIVILIZATION WAS TO WORK FOR THE UPLIFT OF THE CONGOLESE. AS A MATTER OF FACT IT BECAME A CENTER OF THE WORST EXPLOITATION OF NATIVES WHICH THE MODERN WORLD HAS KNOWN.

35-2-515

WORLD CRITICISM FINALLY COMPELLED LEOPOLD TO TURN OVER THE CONGO TO THE STATE OF BELGIUM. BELGIUM HAS NEVER PROMISED THE CONGO INDEPENDENCE OR PARTICIPATION IN GOVERNMENT. IT HAS DEVELOPED THE REGION AS A COMMERCIAL ENTERPRISE CHIEFLY CONTROLLED BY FOUR GREAT HOLDING COMPANIES? IN WHICH THE GOVERNMENT IS A PARTNER. THE TREATMENT OF THE NATIVES HAS IMPROVED AND THE OUTPUT OF THE COLONY HAS BEEN GREAT. COPPER, ZINC, PALM OIL, MANGANESE, TIN, RUBBER AND DIAMONDS AND ESPECIALLY URANIUM HAVE BEEN EXPORTED IN CONSTANTLY INCREASING QUANTITIES.

MOST OF THE SEMI-SKILLED AND SKILLED WORK IN THE COLONY IS DONE BY NATIVES BUT THE WAGES ARE LOW AND THERE ARE NO TRADE UNIONS. UNREST CROPS OUT NOW AND THEN BUT THE CONTROL IS ALMOST COMPLETE. EDUCATION IS SUPPLIED MAINLY BY THE CATHOLIC CHURCH WITH A FEW PROTESTANT MISSIONS. IT IS LIMITED TO LOW GRADE PRIMARY INSTRUCTION WITH EMPHASIS ON RELIGION HYGIENE AND RESPECT FOR AUTHORITY. THERE ARE ABOUT 800,000 PUPILS IN THESE GRADES. ONLY ONE PER CENT CONTINUE AFTER THIS LEVEL AND RECEIVE VOCATIONAL TRAINING FOR WORK AS ARTISANS OR TRAINING AS CLERKS AND TEACHERS. THERE IS PRACTICALLY NO OPPORTUNITY FOR SECONDARY, HIGHER OR PROFESSIONAL TRAINING IN THE COLONY: AND NO CONGOLESE ARE ALLOWED TO GO TO BELGIUM FOR STUDY:.

35-2-516

HERE IS A PERFECT EXAMPLE OF THE REGIMENTATION OF TEN MILLION BLACK LABORERS FOR THE INDUSTRIAL PROFIT OF A WHITE NATION WITH CARE TO MAKE THE EXPLOITATION A LONG TERM PROJECT AND NOT PLANLESS EXPLOITATION FOR A QUICK AND IMMEDIATE RETURN. NEVERTHELESS THE OBJECT IS NOT AND NEVER WAS THE UPLIFT OF THE CONGO NATIVES OR THE GIVING THEM ENOUGH EDUCATION TO TAKE ANY EFFECTIVE VOICE IN GOVERNMENT OR SELF EXPRESSION. THIS PLAN IS MAKING BELGIUM RICH AND POWERFUL, ALSO IT IS GIVING BLACK CONGO INCREASING KNOWLEDGE OF MODERN TECHNIQUE, AND THE QUESTION IS HOW LONG BOTH THESE SCHEMES CAN GO ON.

THUS ONE OF THE GREAT BY-PRODUCTS OF THE SECOND WORLD WAR IS THE GROWING IMPORTANCE OF AFRICA. HERE IS THE SECOND GREATEST LAND AREA IN THE WORLD, WITH AT LEAST ONE HUNDRED AND FIFTY MILLION PEOPLE AND VAST NATURAL RESOURCES. ENGLAND HAS LOST CONTROL OF INDIA AND BURMA: FRANCE HAS LOST INDO-CHINA, AND HOLLAND IS LOSING INDONESIA. STILL NEARER THE WEST COMES THE THREAT OF THE ARABS AND ISLAM, WITH AN INDEPENDENT EGYPT SYRIA, LEBANON, SAUDI ARABIA, TRANS-JORDAN, IRAQ AND IRAN. WESTERN EUROPEAN IMPERIALISM MUST, TO SURVIVE, CENTER IN AFRICA. AFRICA BECOMES INCREASINGLY THE VISIBLE SOURCE OF FOOD, COAL, DIAMONDS, GOLD, COPPER AND URANIUM FOR EUROPE. FRANCE, WITHOUT FOOD FROM ALGERIA, TUNIS AND MOROCCO, WOULD STARVE, AND SHE IS HOLDING FRANTICALLY TO MADAGASCAR. BELGIUM IS ACCUMULATING WEALTH AND POWER FROM THE CONGO; AND BRITAIN IS AWAKENING TO THE POSSIBILITIES OF AFRICA AS A SOURCE NOT ONLY OF FOOD BUT OF OTHER MATERIALS TO RESTORE AT LEAST IN PART HER POWER.

OUT IF THIS PROPAGANDA THERE HAVE ARISEN ~~TWO~~ 3 BRITISH GREAT DEVELOPMENTS BRITISH MIGRATION TO AFRICA ~~AND~~ THE GIGANTIC SCHEME OF PLANTING PEANUTS IN EAST AFRICA (AND FORTIFICATION). IN JANUARY, 1948, IT WAS SAID THAT NINETY-FIVE THOUSAND BRITISH SUBJECTS WERE REGISTERED FOR PASSAGE TO SOUTH AFRICA.

THIS MIGRATION WAS STARTED BY THE ATTEMPT OF SOUTH AFRICA AND THE RHODESIAS TO INCREASE THEIR WHITE POPULATIONS. SOUTH AFRICA DISCOVERED LAST SPRING THAT HER LESS THAN TWO AND A HALF MILLION WHITES ARE INCREASING AT THE RATE OF SIXTEEN AND ONE HALF PER CENT IN TEN YEARS, WHILE HER BLACK, COLORED AND ASIATIC POPULATIONS ARE INCREASING OVER EIGHTEEN PER CENT AND AMOUNT TO NINE MILLIONS. THE UNION HAS BEEN ENCOURAGING MIGRATION, AND IMMIGRATION CENTERS HAVE BEEN OPENED IN ENGLAND, HOLLAND, AND ROME, WITH A QUOTA OF FIFTEEN HUNDRED A MONTH. SOUTHERN RHODESIA HAS RECEIVED TWENTY THOUSAND WHITE IMMIGRANTS IN THE LAST TWO YEARS, WITH ONE THOUSAND ARRIVING MONTHLY NOW.

THIS PLAN TO RAISE PEANUTS IN EAST AFRICA HAS BEEN CALLED "THE

MOST IMPORTANT ACTION OF GOVERNMENT IN THE HISTORY OF BRITISH TROPICAL AFRICA." THE AREA INVOLVED INCLUDES PARTS OF TANGANYIKA, KENYA AND NORTHERN RHODESIA, AND CALLS FOR CLEARING, PLANTING, AND CULTIVATING BY MECHANIZED METHODS OVER THREE MILLION ACRES OF LAND IN ONE HUNDRED AND SEVEN FARMING UNITS OF THIRTY THOUSAND ACRES EACH.

35-2-519

THE EAST AFRICAN PEANUT PROJECT CARRIES FURTHER AND MAKES IMMEDIATE AND SPECIFIC DEVELOPMENT PLANS FOR THE COLONIES WHICH HAVE BEEN LAID DOWN FOR YEARS. ~~IN 1929~~ 3 m/1937, A TEN YEAR DEVELOPMENT PLAN FOR THE COLONIES WAS ANNOUNCED WITH A PROSPECTIVE EXPENDITURE OF NEARLY $500,000,000. ONLY A SMALL PART OF THIS--PERHAPS EIGHT MILLION DOLLARS A YEAR DURING THE LAST FEW YEARS--HAS ACTUALLY BEEN APPROPRIATED.

ON THE OTHER HAND, PARTLY PUBLIC AND PARTLY PRIVATE FURTHER PLANS ARE BEING PROPOSED. THE PALM OIL INDUSTRY IN NIGERIA IS TO BE EXPANDED. THE GOVERNMENT HAS PLANS FOR IMPROVING THE COCOA CROP IN

WEST AFRICA AND HAS TAKEN CONTROL OF ITS SALE. // PEANUT CULTURE IS TO BE EXTENDED ON MECHANIZED PLANTATIONS IN WEST AFRICA. // COTTON, RUBBER, AND HARDWOODS ARE ALSO MENTIONED FOR DEVELOPMENT. // MINING AND HYDRO-ELECTRIC POWER ARE FORECAST. // THERE IS ONE PLAN IN UGANDA WHICH IS CALLED "BREATHTAKING" AND WHICH INVOLVES THE RAISING OF THE LEVEL OF LAKE VICTORIA A YARD AND THUS EVENTUALLY REVOLUTIONALIZING THE VALLEY OF THE NILE. // THERE IS A SIMILAR PLAN IN NORTHERN RHODESIA DESIGNED TO DEVELOP RICH AND EXTENSIVE DEPOSITS OF IRON ORE; WHILE IN SOUTHERN RHODESIA THERE IS A PLAN FOR A DAM, FOUR TIMES THE SIZE OF BOULDER DAM TO MAKE SOUTHERN RHODESIA ONE OF THE FOUR CHIEF SOURCES OF HIGH GRADE STEEL IN THE WORLD

35-2-520

MOST OF THESE ARE STILL IN THE PLANNING AND BLUE-PRINT STAGE. // BUT PRIVATE CAPITAL IN AFRICA HAS HAD LONG EXPERIENCE. // IN SOUTH AFRICA IN THE LAST SIXTY (69) YEARS $2,500,000,000 WORTH OF GOLD HAS BEEN PRODUCED OUT OF WHICH NEARLY $500,000,000 WAS PAID IN DIVIDENDS. // DIAMONDS AND OTHER

MINERALS HAVE BROUGHT FURTHER RETURNS.

BUT ESPECIALLY IS AMERICAN CAPITAL INCREASING. OUR STATE DEPARTMENT HAS ANNOUNCED THAT BRITISH COLONIES WILL BE THE PRIMARY SOURCE FROM WHICH THE UNITED STATES CAN MAKE GOOD STOCK PILING FOR RAW MATERIALS AND DEFICIENCIES IN OTHER SOURCES. AMERICAN CAPITAL IN SOUTH AFRICA HAS DOUBLED SINCE 1939. WE ARE TAKING OVER THE BRITISH EMPIRE!

35-2-521

IN KENYA, ORIGINATED THE IDEA OF MAKING AFRICA A CENTER OF DEFENSE OF THE WEST AGAINST THE EAST. IT WAS FIRST BROACHED IN 1923, BY A MEMBER OF THE LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL IN HIS PAMPHLET THE THERMOPYLAE OF AFRICA. HE DEVELOPED THE THEME THAT EUROPE MUST WITHDRAW FROM ASIA AND THAT SHE SHOULD MAKE KENYA COLONY HER CENTER OF DEFENSE AND RULE IN AFRICA. // HE BELIEVED THAT CONFRONTED BY THE FAST APPROACHING CRISIS IN THE RELATIONS OF THE PRIMARY RACES OF MANKIND, THE WHITE RACE HAS NO CHOICE BUT TO ABANDON ITS NINETEENTH CENTURY ATTITUDE OF AGGRESSIVE

EXPANSION AND TO COLLECT AND REORGANIZE ITS DIMINISHED STRENGTH WITHIN DEFENSIBLE LINES THERE TO AWAIT THE SHOCK OF THE ASIATIC ONSLAUGHT.

35-2-522

// HE WAS OF THE OPINION THAT THE FIRST NECESSITY WILL BE TO DECIDE WHERE TO DRAW DEFENSIVE LINES. THEY, OF COURSE, WILL BE FIRST IN WHITE COUNTRIES AND SECOND ~~IT SHOULD BE REMEMBERED THAT~~ IN AFRICA ~~IS~~ THE MOST IMPORTANT UNIT OF THE GROUP OF TERRITORIES WHICH WHITES DOMINATE OUTSIDE OF ASIA.// AFRICA'S IMMENSE AREA, HER FERTILITY, HER NUMEROUS POPULATION, HER GEOGRAPHICAL POSITION ALL MAY PROVE TO BE THE DECISIVE FACTOR IN THE COMING CONFLICT OF THE PRIMARY RACES.

IT IS A SINGULAR CONFIRMATION OF THIS FORECAST THAT IN JANUARY, 1948 IT WAS ANNOUNCED THAT A HUGH MILITARY STORES DEPOT WAS UNDER CONSTRUCTION AT MCKENNON ROAD, KENYA SIXTY FIVE MILES FROM THE COAST.

// TODAY THERE ARE THOUSANDS OF WHITE TROOPS AND ENGINEERS AT THIS BASE: THERE ARE 2,000 ITALIAN ARTISANS FLOWN IN FROM ROME AND THERE ARE

THOUSANDS OF AFRICAN LABORERS.// THIRTY FIVE MILES OF JUNGLE ARE BEING CLEARED: WATER IS BEING PIPED SEVENTY MILES.// HERE IS BEING COLLECTED IN STONE AND IN IRON BUILDINGS, HUNDREDS OF THOUSANDS OF TONS OF WAR MATERIAL FROM NORTH AFRICA AND THE MIDDLE EAST.

35-2-523 X

WE TURN NOW TO THE REALLY CRUCIAL POINT, WHAT IS AFRICA ITSELF THINKING?// OR PERHAPS, WE SHOULD SAY, DOES AFRICA THINK?// NEGRO AFRICAN OPINION IS CERTAINLY BEGINNING TO MAKE ITSELF HEARD.// IN LONDON THE LEAGUE OF COLORED PEOPLE SAYS IN ITS CHIEF ORGAN: "MERE PROMMISES OF BENEFITS TO COME WILL NOT BE CONVINCING. TOO OFTEN IN THE PAST THE PEOPLE OF AFRICA HAVE BEEN BEGUILED BY FAIR WORDS AND FINE PROMISES.// THESE THEY COMPLAIN, HAVE DONE NOTHING TO INCREASE THEIR STANDARD OF LIVING AND WHEN THE AFRICANS THEMSELVES HAVE ATTEMPTED TO EXPRESS AN OPINION ON HOW IMPROVEMENT IN THEIR SOCIETY MIGHT BE ACHIEVED THEY HAVE BEEN PROSECUTED FOR SEDITION."

THE RESULT SINCE THE WAR HAS BEEN UNREST. // IN SOUTH AFRICA HAVE OCCURRED AT LEAST TWENTY RIOTS AND DISTURBANCES VARYING FROM THE STUDENT STRIKE AT LOVEDALE TO THE BURNING OF THEIR PASSES BY 7000 NATIVES AT CAPETOWN, AND CULMINATING IN THE STRIKE OF 50,000 NEGRO MINERS IN AUGUST 1946, TO OBTAIN A WAGE OF $2.00 A DAY INSTEAD OF THE 45 CENTS THEY ARE RECEIVING. // FIVE STRIKERS WERE KILLED BY THE POLICE, 62 ARRESTED FOR BREACH OF CONTRACT AND CONSPIRACY, 46 OF WHOM WERE HEAVILY FINED OR JAILED. // RAIDS AND ARRESTS CONTINUED FOR A MONTH, INCLUDING ARREST OF SOME LIBERAL WHITES. ~~"COMMUNISM" WAS BLAMED FOR THE OUTBREAK.~~

35-2-524

IN KENYA, IN JANUARY, 1947, 7,000 NATIVES STRUCK, AFFECTING ELEVEN BUSINESS CONCERNS. AFTER FAILURE TO SATISFY THE STRIKERS, THE STRIKE SPREAD TO UGANDA WITH DISTURBANCES AT FOUR CENTERS. IT WAS FINALLY SETTLED BY A RAISE IN WAGES OF MORE THAN TWENTY-FIVE PER CENT.

IN WEST AFRICA, THERE WERE SERIOUS DISTURBANCES IN NIGERIA AND ON THE GOLD COAST. // IN NIGERIA, in 1944, INCREASED GOVERNMENT ALLOWANCES

WERE GRANTED WHITE ~~EMPLOYEES~~ CIVIL SERVANTS BUT POSTPONED FOR NEGROES ~~IN 1944~~. IN 1945, A GENERAL STRIKE OF 150,000 NONCLERICAL WORKERS WAS DECLARED AND EVENTUALLY BROUGHT A FIFTY PER CENT INCREASE IN WAGES. // LATER THERE WERE FURTHER STRIKES OF ELECTRICAL WORKERS, METAL WORKERS, AND EMPLOYEES OF THE UNITED AFRICAN COMPANY. MINERS STRUCK IN THE ASHANTI GOLD MINES AND SECURED INCREASED WAGES.

35-2-525

ON THE GOLD COAST, STRIKES FINALLY ASSUMED THE ASPECT OF CIVIL WAR. IN 1946 A COMMISSION UNDER THE WHITE CHIEF JUSTICE FOUND THAT THE COST OF LIVING HAD GONE UP TWO HUNDRED PER CENT AND RECOMMENDED INCREASED WAGES TO GOVERNMENT EMPLOYEES. ANOTHER COMMISSION UNDER AN AFRICAN JUDGE ADVISED A MINIMUM WAGE FOR OTHER EMPLOYEES OF 32 CENTS TO 40 CENTS IN THE COUNTRY DISTRICTS, AND 60 CENTS A DAY IN THE TOWNS. // TEACHERS THEN COMPLAINED, AND A THIRD COMMISSION GAVE THEM INCREASES. RAILWAY WORKERS AND MINERS THAN ASKED FOR RAISES, STRUCK WHEN THEY WERE REFUSED, AND GAINED THEIR DEMANDS AFTER SEVERAL WEEKS.

THEN CAME A COLONY-WIDE BOYCOTT AGAINST HIGH PRICES CHARGED BY IMPORTING CONCERNS LED BY A PROGRESSIVE CHIEF. A PRICE CONTROL COMMISSION WAS SET UP TO CURB PRICES AND REDUCED THEM BY THIRTY-THREE AND ONE THIRD PER CENT. // THE DEMOBILIZED SOLDIERS THEREUPON STARTED A MARCH TO THE GOVERNOR TO PRESENT A PETITION. THERE ENSUED A SKIRMISH WITH THE POLICE, WHICH LED TO RIOTING AND LOOTING. IN THE FIGHTING 26 AFRICANS WERE KILLED AND 277 INJURED INCLUDING 15 WHITES. MANY PROMINENT BLACK MEN WERE ARRESTED. // THE BLACK SOLDIERS OF THE GOLD COAST, SIERRA LEONE AND NIGERIA REFUSED TO BEAR ARMS AGAINST THEIR FELLOW SOLDIERS, AND WHITE UNITS IN GIBRALTAR WERE ALERTED. TWO BATTLESHIPS WERE ORDERED FROM SOUTH AFRICA. // FINALLY THE GOVERNOR APPEALED TO THE CHIEFS AND TO LONDON AND A LONDON COMMISSION OF INQUIRY WAS SENT OUT.

35-2-526

IN 1947, A RAILWAY STRIKE OF 12,000 WORKERS CRIPPLED THE WHOLE TRANSPORT SYSTEM OF FRENCH WEST AFRICA. THE STRIKERS DEMANDED "EQUAL PAY FOR EQUAL WORK."

NORTHEAST AFRICA HAS HAD STRIKES. IN MARCH, 1947, FIVE HUNDRED DOCK WORKERS STRUCK AT PORT SUDAN, IN THE EGYPTIAN SUDAN; IN JULY, TEN THOUSAND RAILWAY WORKERS AT ATBARA WALKED OFF THE JOB! IN ETHIOPIA FIVE THOUSAND RAILWAY EMPLOYEES REFUSED TO WORK UNTIL THE EMPEROR OBTAINED A TWENTY*FIVE PER CENT INCREASE IN WAGES.

35-2-527

THESE STRIKES AND MANY OTHERS HAVE TAKEN PLACE ALL OVER THE CONTINENT OF AFRICA, AND SHOW THAT THERE IS AN INCREASE IN THE ACTIVITY OF TRADE UNIONS AND UNION ORGANIZATION IN AFRICA.

THE MOST SIGNIFICANT OCCURRENCE IN THE AFRICAN LABOR WORLD WAS THE REPRESENTATIVE CHARACTER OF THE AFRICANS AT THE WORLD TRADE UNION CONFERENCE IN LONDON AND PARIS IN FEBRUARY 1945. COLONIAL DELEGATES CAME FROM NIGERIA, THE GOLD COAST, SIERRE LEONE AND GAMBIA IN WEST AFRICA, BESIDES FROM MANY NEGRO COMMUNITIES IN THE AMERICAS

35-2-528

TURNING NOW FROM THE MASS OF AFRICAN WORKERS, MAY WE NOT ASK, IS THERE A MASS INTELLIGENTSIA IN AFRICA? IF SO, WHAT DOES IT WANT? THE EFFORT OF PEOPLE TO RAISE THEMSELVES FROM ONE SOCIAL POSITION TO A HIGHER ONE ALWAYS HAS SOMETHING BIZARRE ABOUT IT, AS WELL AS DEEP TRAGEDY. // WE LAUGH AT THE EFFORT. ENGLAND USED TO LAUGH AT AMERICAN LITERATURE. THE WHITE SOUTH LONG LAUGHED AT THE EFFORTS OF AMERICAN NEGROES TO GET AN EDUCATION.

ONE GETS THE IDEA THAT THE LEADERSHIP IN AFRICA IS POORLY EDUCATED NOT TOO MORAL, AND VERY SELFISH. // ON THE OTHER HAND, THERE HAS BEEN COMING TO THE WORLD, ESPECIALLY SINCE THE FIRST WORLD WAR, A SERIES OF STATEMENTS AND ARGUMENTS FROM THE LEADERS OF THE AFRICAN PEOPLE SO SIGNIFICANT THAT A FEW ARE QUOTED HERE: // AFTER THE FIRST WORLD WAR, WHEN A DELEGATION OF WEST AFRICAN LEADERS CAME TO LONDON TO MEET WITH THE LEAGUE OF NATIONS UNION, DR. BANKOLE BRIGHT OF SIERRE LEONE SAID:

"...IT IS BECAUSE WE DO NOT WANT TO ENCOURAGE...UNREST; IT IS BECAUSE WE WANT TO LIVE UNDER A PEACEFUL GOVERNMENT THAT WE WHO REPRESENT THE INTELLIGENTSIA AND THE ~~HETEROGENEOUS~~ MASS OF THE POPULACE, HAVE COME TO THIS COUNTRY WITH THE OBJECT OF EDUCATING PUBLIC OPINION TO OUR CONDITION BY PLACING OUR GRIEVANCES BEFORE YOU AND AT THE SAME TIME SEEKING FOR THE NECESSARY REFORMS. WE ~~ASK YOU~~ AS AN IMPORTANT UNIT OF THIS EMPIRE ASK TO MARCH ALONG... ON THESE PROGRESSIVE LINES: IN DOING SO YOU WILL BE ONLY TAKING THE FIRST STEP TOWARDS THE ACCOMPLISHMENT OF THE RESOLUTION OF ~~A SELECT COMMITTEE OF~~ THE HOUSE OF COMMONS ON WEST AFRICA...PASSED ...ON THE 3rd OF MARCH, 1865;

" 'THAT THE OBJECT OF OUR POLICY SHOULD BE TO ENCOURAGE IN THE NATIVES THE EXERCISE OF THOSE QUALITIES WHICH MAY RENDER IT POSSIBLE FOR US MORE AND MORE TO TRANSFER TO THEM THE ADMINISTRATION OF ALL THE GOVERNMENTS WITH A VIEW OF OUR ULTIMATE WITHDRAWAL, ETC.'"

35-2-530

ON JANUARY 6, 1947, IN EAST AFRICA A BLACK MAN, THE HON. E.W. MATHU, AFRICAN REPRESENTATIVE ON THE KENYA LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL, WHO STUDIED AT OXFORD, TOLD HIS PEOPLE: THAT "THEY COULD NOT AFFORD TO BE SLAVES IN A FREE WORLD: THAT IT WAS THEIR DUTY TO WORK HARD ALL THE YEAR ROUND TO PREPARE A BETTER WORLD FOR OUR CHILDREN. NO PEOPLE IN HISTORY HAS EVER RISEN FROM THE DUST TO THE HEIGHT OF A RESPECTED NATION WITHOUT STRUGGLE. NO PEOPLE HAS EVER ACHIEVED FREEDOM WITHOUT WORKING, FIGHTING OR DYING FOR IT." HE TOLD THEM THEY MUST NOT EXPECT TO BE AN EXCEPTION, BUT TO WORK HARD AND HOLD THEIR OWN WITHOUT SUBMITTING TO INDIGNITIES AND SUBHUMAN TREATMENT.

IN LONDON, IN THE EARLY PART OF 1947 A DELEGATION REPRESENTING THE NATIONAL COUNCIL OF NIGERIA AND THE CAMEROONS, A FEDERATION OF 183 POLITICAL PARTIES, TRADE UNIONS, PROFESSIONAL ASSOCIATIONS, FARMERS AND PEASANTS ORGANIZATIONS, TRIBAL UNIONS, AND YOUTH GROUPS LAID BEFORE

35-2-531

THE SECRETARY OF STATE FOR COLONIES A PROTEST AGAINST THE CONSTITUTION WHICH HAD BEEN FORCED UPON NIGERIA. THEIR STATEMENT SAID:

"WE ARE UNWILLING TO CONTINUE THE REACTIONARY POLICY OF MAKING OUR LEGISLATIVE CHAMBER A DEBATING SOCIETY FOR THE AMUSEMENT OF BRITISH COLONIAL ADMINISTRATORS. WE RESENT THE IDEA OF HAVING YOUR PAID CIVIL SERVANTS RUN OUR COUNTRY AS AN UNTRAMMELLED BUREAUCRY, ENABLEING THEM TO MAKE, INTERPRET, AND ADMINISTER OUR LAWS, WITHOUT OUR KNOWLEDGE AND CONSENT, AND WITHOUT OUR BEING EFFECTIVELY REPRESENTED IN SUCH CHAMBER BY COUNCILLORS OR LEGISLATORS OF OUR OWN CHOICE. WE DEMAND THE RIGHT TO ASSUME RESPONSIBILITY FOR THE GOVERNMENT OF OUR COUNTRY. WE DEMAND THE RIGHT TO BE FREE AND MAKE MISTAKES AND PROFIT FROM OUR EXPERIENCE."

THE OVERALL FACTS ARE THAT EVEN IN THE MOST ADVANCED PARTS OF AFRICA, ONLY ONE AFRICAN IN TWENTY IS ABLE TO READ AND WRITE: MOST OF

THE SCHOOLING IS PROVIDED BY THE MISSIONARIES, WITH SOME GOVERNMENT ASSISTANCE.

MEANTIME A PART OF THE PROBLEM OF NEGRO EDUCATION IS BEING ANSWERED BY THE EXTRAORDINARY INFLUX OF AFRICAN STUDENTS ~~INTO ENGLAND~~ ABROAD. THE WELFARE DEPARTMENT OF THE COLONIAL OFFICE OF ENGLAND REPORTED, IN FEBRUARY, 1948, THAT THERE WERE THIRTY-TWO HUNDRED COLONIALS STUDYING IN GREAT BRITAIN AND THE NUMBER WAS INCREASING. IN 1941, THE TOTAL WAS ONLY EIGHTY. OF THE PRESENT THREE THOUSAND, PROBABLY A THIRD ARE FROM AFRICA, AND THREE HUNDRED FROM THE GOLD COAST ALONE.

35-2-532

AN INTER-UNIVERSITY COUNCIL FOR HIGHER EDUCATION IN THE BRITISH COLONIES HAS MADE IT FIRST REPORT AFTER INVESTIGATION AND PLANS UNIVERSITIES IN EAST AND WEST AFRICA, WHEN FUNDS ARE AVAILABLE TO EXTEND PRESENT BEGINNINGS. PRINCIPALS HAVE BEEN APPOINTED FOR MAKERERE IN UGANDA ~~AND~~ IBADAN IN NIGERIA, AND JAMAICA in BWI AND GORDAN COLLEGE IN THE SUDAN WILL

BE STRENGTHENED. A HUNDRED OR MORE AFRICAN STUDENTS ARE NOW IN THE UNITED STATES.

THE ADVANCE OF THE PEOPLES OF AFRICA, ~~WHILE GREAT~~, HAS NOT BEEN REVOLUTIONARY: BUT IT HAS BEEN STARTLING AND PROPHETIC. THE CHANGE IN THE WHITE WORLD HAS BEEN THE GREATEST REVOLUTION IN THE HISTORY OF MODERN MAN. TOGETHER THESE TWO SETS OF PHENOMENA MAKE EITHER FOR PEACE OR THE END OF CIVILIZATION IN ITS PRESENT FORM.

35-2-533

THE WHITE WORLD TODAY IS FACING SUICIDE. NOT, TO BE SURE, COMPLETE PHYSICAL ANNIHILATION, BUT A CULTURAL COLLAPSE AND A MORAL BREAKDOWN WHICH MANY CENTURIES WILL BE REQUIRED TO RESTORE, IF RESTORATION WILL EVER BE POSSIBLE. IF STILL THERE CAN BE FOUND ENOUGH MORAL COURAGE TO RESIST A THIRD WORLD WAR, THEN ONE OF THE FIRST RESULTS OF THAT WILL BE THE RECOGNITION OF THE UTTER FUTILITY OF THE COLONIAL SYSTEM. WITH USE OF AND COOPERATION WITH THE EMERGING AFRICAN INTELLIGENTSIA, IN AFRICA

ITSELF, AND IN THE NEGROIDS OF ALL AMERICA: WITH THE HELP OF RENASCENT ASIA: AND PARTICULARLY WITH THE DIRECT AID OF THE SOCIALIST LABOR MOVEMENT IN ALL THE WORLD, WE MAY SLOWLY BUT FINALLY ERASE FROM THE MINDS OF MEN AND FROM POLITICAL ACTION, THE ATTEMPT TO BUILD CIVILIZATION ON THE DOMINATION OF A FEW GREAT POWERS OVER THE MASS OF THE WORLD'S WORKERS; AN IDEA STILL WIDELY SPREAD IN ASIA, BUT GRADUALLY BEING CONCENTRATED MORE AND MORE IN AFRICA.

TO THE AUTHOR OF MORE'S UTOPIA IN THE 16th CENTURY, THE OBVIOUS SOLUTION OF THE PROBLEM OF UNWANTED OR DISSATISFIED GROUPS WAS MIGRATION TO FAR PARTS OF THE WORLD TO BUILD THEIR OWN ECONOMY AND CULTURE. TO THE POTENTIALLY DANGEROUS GROUP OF 100,000 FREE NEGROES IN THE UNITED STATES IN 1800 IT SEEMED OBVIOUS PHILANTHROPY TO SEND THEM BACK TO AFRICA. BUT ALREADY THE WORLD HAD CHANGED. ISOLATION OF SMALL NATIONS WAS BECOMING INCREASINGLY DIFFICULT. THE GRIP OF COLONIAL IMPERIALISM WAS CLOSING ON AFRICA. A SMALL BAND OF LARGELY U LETTERED NEGROES, WITHOUT CAPITAL OR TOOLS, WAS DUMPED ON THE FEVER COAST OF AFRICA WHERE THEY HAD TO FIGHT EVEN FOR LAND TO LIVE ON; AND THEN FOR A CENTURY TO USE ALL THEIR ENERGY TO AVOID ABSORPTION BY ENGLAND, FRANCE AND GERMANY, FINALLY TO FALL IN SHEER EXHAUSTION INTO THE HANDS OF AMERICAN CAPITAL AND ARMED FORCE.

IN SOMETHING THE SAME WAY, WHEN ZION WAS PROPOSED AS A REMEDY FOR POGROMS AND DISCRIMINATION AGAINST JEWS, IT WAS REGARDED BY MANY AS A LOGICAL AND IDEAL SOLUTION. BUT BEFORE IT WAS CARRIED OUT, THE WORLD HAD BEEN WELDED INTO A COMMERCIAL AND INDUSTRIAL UNITY DOMINATED BY THE UNITED STATES AND THE BRITISH EMPIRE. IMMEDIATELY AN INDEPENDENT JEWRY, WITH CAPITAL, SKILLS, AND INTELLIGENCE, BECAME AN OBSTACLE TO THE GROUPS OF IMPERIALISTS WHO PLANNEDTO OWN THE WORLD.

BRITAIN, THE CHAMPION OF A FREE AND INDEPENDENT ZION IN 1917, BECAME THIRTY YEARS LATER BOTH AN OPEN AND SECRET ENEMY OF A PEOPLE AND STATE WHICH THREATENED THE REMAKING OF HER SHATTERED EMPIRE. IF THE UNITED STATES, IN THIS CRISIS OF WORLD CULTURE, HAD REMAINED THE CHAMPION OF LIBERTY AND TOLERANCE WHICH MANKIND HAD A RIGHT TO EXPECT, SHE LONG SINCE WOULD HAVE FIRMLY CHECKMATED THE PLOTS OF BRITAIN, OPENED A VISTA OF REAL PROGRESS TO THE DEGRADED PEOPLES OF THE NEAR EAST, AND MADE

ISRAEL A NATION. BUT THE NEW AND CRAZY DESIRE OF A DOMINANT GROUP OF AMERICANS TO RULE THE WORLD AS HEIR TO BRITISH IMPERIALISM, HAS DECEIVED THIS NATION INTO A DISGRACEFUL BETRAYAL OF A PEOPLE, WHOSE CULTURE HAS SURELY GIVEN AS MUCH TO THE NEW WORLD AS EVER THE ANGLO-SAXON WORLD GAVE.

WHAT PARTICULARLY TOUCHES ME AND INDUCES ME TO MAKE THIS BRIEF STATEMENT TO YOU, IS THE SINGULAR WAY IN WHICH MY OWN PEOPLE OF LATE HAVE UNWITTINGLY BEEN MADE PARTY TO THIS BETRAYAL OF DEMOCRACY. I NEED HARDLY REFER TO THE CURIOUS WAY IN WHICH AFRICAN AND JEWISH HISTORY HAVE BEEN ENTWINED FOR 3,000 YEARS; OR TO THE PECULIAR MINGLING IN AMERICA OF JEWISH AND NEGRO CULTURAL PATTERNS, ESPECIALLY IN RELIGION; OR NEED I RECALL THAT THE PHILANTHROPY OF JEWRY HAS OFTEN HELPED THE SONS OF THE AMERICAN FREEDMEN IN THEIR STILL DESPERATE FIGHT FOR MANHOOD. RATHER, I WISH TO APOLOGIZE IN THE NAME OF THE AMERICAN NEGRO FOR THE APPARENT APOSTACY OF RALPH BUNCHE, ACTING MEDIATOR OF THE UNITED NATIONS IN PALESTINE, TO THE CLEAR IDEALS OF FREEDOM AND FAIR PLAY, WHICH SHOULD HAVE GUIDED THE DESCENDANT OF AN AMERICAN SLAVE. I CAN

EXPLAIN EASILY TO MY MIND, IF NOT TO MY CONSCIENCE, THE ROLE WHICH COUNT BERNADOTTE PLAYED. AS A COMBINATION OF EUROPEAN ARISTOCRACY AND AMERICAN WEALTH, IT COULD NOT PERHAPS HAVE BEEN EXPECTED OF HIM THAT HE WOULD JUDGE ISRAEL JUSTLY AND WITHOUT BIAS. BUT BUNCHE KNOWS WHAT THIS COMBINATION IN THE PAST HAS DONE FOR THE WEAKER PEOPLES OF THE WORLD. HE HAD THE SORT OF OPPORTUNITY WHICH COMES BUT ONCE IN A GENERATION TO A GREAT MAN.

IT IS TRUE THAT HE WAS HANDICAPPED--HOW COMPLETELY WE MAY NEVER KNOW. WE DO KNOW THAT BUNCHE HAS FOR SOME FIVE YEARS BEEN A CAREER OFFICIAL IN THE STATE DEPARTMENT, WHERE THE COLOR-BAR HAS HITHERTO BEEN ALMOST INSURMOUNTABLE. HIS INTELLIGENCE AND KNOWLEDGE HAS BROUGHT HIM UNUSUAL PROMOTION. EVEN WHEN LOANED TO THE SECRETARIAT OF THE UNITED NATIONS, HE HAS CONSISTENTLY FOLLOWED THE DIRECTIVES OF THE STATE DEPARTMENT, WHOSE APPOINTEE HE CONTINUES TO BE IN FACT IF NOT IN LAW. HIS CHANCE TO TAKE A JUST STAND AND PLAY A GREAT ROLE FOR FREEDOM MIGHT EASILY HAVE COST HIM HIS CAREER. MOREOVER, IN THIS DAY, HE COULD LOOK ABOUT AND SEE THE YOUTH AND GENIUS

OF THE WORLD SELLING ITSELF EASILY FOR INCOME AND POWER WITH FAR LESS JUSTIFICATION THAN FAUST SOLD HIS SOUL TO THE DEVIL. PERHAPS, THEN, IT WAS A COUNSEL OF PERFECTION TO HAVE HIPED THAT RALPH BUNCHE WOULD HAVE STOOD FAST FOR JUSTICE, FREEDOM, AND THE GOOD FAITH OF HIS NATION AND HIS RACE---PERHAPS: BUT GOD KNOWS I WISH HE HAD. I WISH HE HAD STOOD FIRM AGAINST THE BACILLATION, COMPROMISE, AND BETRAYAL OF OUR DEPARTMENT OF STATE. SINCE HE DID NOT, WHATEVER THE PRESSURE AND MOTIVES WERE, I ASK FORGIVENESS FROM YOU FOR HIM, IN THE NAME OF FIFTEEN MILLION AMERICAN NEGROES.

To the author of More's UTOPIA in the 16th century, the obvious solution of the problem of unwanted or dissatisfied groups was migration to far parts of the world to build their own economy and culture. To the potentially dangerous group of 100,000 Free Negroes in the United States in 1800 it seemed obvious philanthropy to send them back to Africa. But already the world had changed. Isolation of small nations was becoming increasingly difficult. The grip of colonial imperialism was closing on Africa. A small band of largely unlettered Negroes, without capital or tools, was dumped on the fever coast of Africa where they had to fight even for land to live on; and then for a century to use all their energy to avoid absorption by England, France, and Germany, finally to fall in sheer exhaustion into the hands of American capital and armed force.

In something the same way, when Zion was proposed as a ~~solution to~~ remedy for pogroms and discrimination against Jews, it was regarded by many as a logical and ideal solution. But before it was carried out, the world had been welded into a commercial and industrial unity dominated by the United States and the British Empire. Immediately an independent Jewry, with capital, skills, and intelligence, became an obstacle to the groups of imperialists who planned to own the world.

Britain, the champion of a free and independent Zion in 1917, became thirty years later both an open and secret enemy of a people and State which threatened the remaking of her shattered empire. If the United States, in this crisis of world culture, had remained the champion of liberty and tolerance which mankind had a right to expect, she long since would have firmly checkmated the plots of Britain, opened a vista of real progress to the degraded peoples of the Near East, and made Israel a nation. But the new and crazy desire of a dominant group of Americans to rule the world as heir to British imperialism, has deceived this nation into a disgraceful betrayal of a people, whose culture has surely given as much to the New World as ever the Anglo-Saxon world gave.

What particularly touches me and induces me to make this brief statement to you, is the singular way in which my own people, of late, have ~~surprisingly and~~ unwittingly

~~have of late been unwillingly~~ been made party to this betrayal of democracy. I need harly refer to the curious way in which African and Jewish history have been entwined for 3,000 years, or to the peculiar mingling in America of Jewish and Negro cultural patterns, especially in religion; nor need I recall that the philanthropy of Jewry has often helped the sons of the American freedmen in their still desperate fight for manhood. Rather, I wish to apologize in the name of the American Negro for the apparent apostacy of Ralph Bunche, Acting Mediator of the United Nations in Palestine, to the clear ideals of freedom and fair play, which should have guided the descendant of an American slave. I can explain easily to my mind, if not to my conscience, the role which Count Bernadotte played. As a combination of European aristocracy and American wealth, it could not perhaps have been expected of him that he would judge Israel justly and without bias. But Bunche knows what this combination in the past has done for the weaker peoples of the world. He had the sort of opportunity which comes but once in a generation to a great man.

It is true that he was, ~~of course,~~ handicapped -- how completely we may never know. We do know that Bunche has for some five years been a career official in the State Department, where the color-bar has hitherto been almost insurmountable. His intelligence and knowledge has brought him unusual promotion. Even when loaned to the Secretariat of the United Nations, he has consistently followed the directives of the State Department, whose appointee he continues to be in fact if not in law. His chance to take a just stand and play a great role for Freedom might easily have cost him his career. Moreover, in this day, he could look about and see the youth and genius of the world selling itself easily for income and power with far less justification than Faust sold his soul to the Devil. Perhaps, then, it was a counsel of perfection to have hoped that Ralph Bunche would have stood fast for justice, freedom, and the good faith of his nation and his race -- perhaps; but God knows I wish he had. I wish he had stood firm against the vacillation, compromise, and betrayal of our Department of State. Since he did not, whatever the pressure and motives were, I ask forgiveness from you for him, in the name of fifteen million American Negroes.

HINDER AND KEEP BACK THS SOCIALISTIC DEVELOPMENT OF BOTH EUROPE AND AMERICA. THE DEVELOPMENT THEREFORE OF AFRICA CANNOT BE CONSIDERED AS LOCAL OR OUTSIDE THE MAIN DEVELOPMENT OF MODERN EUROPEAN CULTURE. IT IS NOT ONLY A PART OF IT BUT IT IS AN EXCEEDINGLY IMPORTANT PART, BECAUSE IF IT BECOMES THE CENTER OF A BELATED CAPITALISTIC EXPLOITATION IT IS GOING TO HINDER THE NATURAL DEVELOPMENT OF THE WHOLE WORLD.

DEFENCELESS

MOREOVER, THERE ARE HISTORICAL REASONS WHY SUCH EXPLOITATION CAN TAKE PLACE IN AFRICA MORE EASILY AND READILY EVEN TODAY THAN ELSEWHERE IN THE WORLD. ITS PROGRESS HAS BEEN STOPPED IN ASIA BY INDIA, CHINA AND INDONESIA. IT HAS BEEN HALTED IN SOUTH AMERICA BY THE UNSTEADY BUT GRADUAL RISE OF THE LABORING CLASSES AND THE SAME IS TRUE IN THE CARIBBEAN.

MOREOVER, TOWARD THE PEOPLE OF ASIA DESPITE LONG MISREPRESENTATION AND IGNORANCE, EUROPE AND AMERICA HAVE TODAY COME TO THE PLACE WHERE THEY HAVE

35-2-474

CONSIDERABLE RESPECT FOR THE ANCIENT CULTURES OF THE LAND, AND PARTICULARLY A FEAR OF THEIR TREMENDOUSLY LARGE POPULATIONS. BUT IN AFRICA THE LONG EXPERIENCE OF THE SLAVE TRADE AND AMERICAN SLAVERY UPON THE MINDS OF MEN HAS BY NO MEANS BEEN ELIMINATED. THAT PART OF THE AFRICAN PEOPLE WHO WERE TRANSPORTED TO AMERICA AND HAVE DEVELOPED HERE, HAVE TO BE SURE, GAINED A MODICUM OF RESPECT. NO ONE QUESTIONS TODAY BUT WHAT THE NEGRO ELEMENT IN ALL THE AMERICAS IS GOING TO DEVELOPE along with MODERN CULTURE.

ON THE OTHER HAND, NOT ONLY AMONG WHITE PEOPLE BUT ALSO AMONG THE DESCENDENTS OF NEGROES THEMSELVES IN AMERICA, THE QUESTION OF THE POSSIBILITIES OF AFRICA IS BY NO MEANS CLEAR: AND THIS OF COURSE ARISES HISTORICALLY FROM THE HISTORY OF THE CONNECTION OF EUROPEAN CULTURE WITH AFRICA BETWEEN THE RENAISSANCE 1500 AND THE INDUSTRIAL REVOLUTION 1750. BEFORE THAT, FROM THE TIME OF THE SPREAD OF THE ROMAN EMPIRE TO THE BEGINNING OF THE RENAISSANCE, AFRICA, IN THE WORLD'S OPINION HAD EQUAL RESPECT WITH OTHER PARTS OF THE

WORLD. THERE WAS NO COLOR LINE, BLACK MEN CAME AND WENT AND PLAYED THEIR PART AND WERE RECOGNIZED ALL OVER THE WORLD: LONG BEFORE IN ANCIENT HISTORY EGYPTIAN CIVILIZATION HAD BEEN AFRICAN, AND THE SO-CALLED ARABIAN CULTURE DEVELOPED ALMOST EXCLUSIVELY IN AFRICA. LATER THE GREAT CATHOLIC CHURCH WAS DEVELOPED IN North AFRICA.

THE CHANGE THAT CAME AFTER THE RENAISSANCE WAS DUE TO THE USE OF THE LABOR OF AFRICANS IN SOUTHERN EUROPE AND THEN IN AMERICA: FROM THIS LABOR AROSE THE FURNISHING OF MATERIALS LIKE GOLD AND SPICES, AND CROPS LIKE TOBACCO, SUGAR AND COTTON WHICH WHEN COMBINED WITH THE NEW SCIENTIFIC TECHNIQUE OF THE LATER EIGHTEENTH AND EARLIER NINETEENTH CENTURIES TRANSFORMED THE ECONOMIC CONDITION OF THE WORLD.

THE RESULT OF THE AFRICAN SLAVE TRADE AND SLAVERY ON THE EUROPEAN MIND AND CULTURE WAS TO DEGRADE THE POSITION OF LABOR AND THE RESPECT FOR HUMANITY AS SUCH. NOT, GOD KNOWS, THAT THE ANCIENT WORLD HONORED LABOR.

ATTEMPT AT REVOLUTION. THE UNITY OF APPRENTICE AND MASTER, THE CHRISTIAN SYMPATHY BETWEEN RICH AND POOR, THE COMMUNISM OF MEDIEVAL CHARITY, ALL WERE THRUST INTO THE NEW STRAIT JACKET OF THOUGHT: POVERTY WAS THE RESULT OF SLOTH AND CRIME: WEALTH WAS THE REWARD OF VIRTUE AND WORK. THE DEGRADED YELLOW AND BLACK PEOPLE WERE IN THE PLACES WHICH THE WORLD OF NECESITY ASSIGNED TO THE INFERIOR: AND TOWARD THESE LOWER RANKS THE WORKING CLASSES OF ALL COUNTRIES TENDED TO SINK SAVE AS THEY WERE RAISED AND SUPPORTED BY THE RICH, THE INVESTORS, THE CAPTAINS OF INDUSTRY.

THE RESULT, IN THE LATTER QUARTER OF THE NINETEENTH CENTURY WAS THE DEDICATION OF AFRICA AS A FIELD FOR EUROPEAN EXPLOITATION. EGYPT WAS LEFT UNDER THE INFLUENCE OF THE DESCENDENTS OF ARAB INVADERS WHO BECAME PUPPETS AND AGENTS OF EUROPEAN INVESTORS. ETHIOPIA, MORE OR LESS SECURE UPON HER HIGH CITADEL OF MOUNTAINS WAS ISOLATED AND LEFT FOR FUTURE CONQUESTS.

LIBERIA WAS MARKED FOR SLAUGHTER/ BUT, THE QUESTION OF OWNERSHIP/ HELD UP BECAUSE OF THE PRIOR RIGHTS OF AMERICA/ WHICH WERE NOT ASSERTED UNTIL THE 20th ~~EIGHTEENTH~~ CENTURY. // THE REST OF AFRICA/ WAS DIVIDED ~1874 AMONG THE EUROPEAN NATIONS/ WITH AT FIRST NO QUESTION/ BUT THAT THE LAND WAS TO BE CONFISCATED,/ THE LABOR CONTROLLED,/ THE PEOPLE ~~WERE~~/ TO HAVE NO VOICE IN GOVERNMENT/ AND AS LITTLE EDUCATION/ AS WAS NECESSARY FOR THEM/ TO DO THE WORK/ OF RAISING VALUABLE MATERIALS. // THIS SCHEME WAS PUT INTO FULL EFFECT/ IN SOUTH AFRICA,/ THE RHODESIAS, IN PORTUGUESE AFRICE,/ IN THE BELGIAN CONGO,/ IN FRENCH AFPICA,/ AND IN WHAT WAS GERMAN AFRICA/ AND largely in BRITISH EAST AFRICA. // IN BRITISH WEST AFRICA/ THE SCHEME DID NOT COMPLETELY TRIUMPH./ THE BRITISH ~~WAS~~ WERE UNABLE TO CONQUER, west Africa ~~BUT REMAINED ON THE STRONG POLITICAL ORGANIZATIONS OF WEST AFRICA~~ AND THEY THEREFORE, LEFT OF NECESSITY/ TO THE WEST AFRICANS/ THEIR LOCAL RULE/ INCLUDING OWNERSHIP OF THE LAND. // BUT ON THE OTHER HAND, THEY MONOPOLIZED THE MARKETS,/ REGULATED THE PRICES/ AND IN THIS WAY/ INDIRECTLY FIXED WAGES AND COERCED LABOR.

IN ~~SOME~~ PARTS OF THE CONTINENT/ THE type of EXPLOITATION ~~WAS MODIFIED.~~ varied/ IN SOUTH AFRICA/ ~~THE OVERWHELMING NUMBER OF NATIVES/ INTERFERED SOMEWHAT WITH CONTROL, BUT ON THE OTHER HAND,~~/ THE DISCOVERY OF GOLD AND DIAMONDS/ BROUGHT IN SO MUCH CAPITAL AND POWER/ THAT/ (Land & Labor were completely dominated and PORTUGUESE AFRICA/ AND THE VARIOUS BRITISH PROTECTORATES/ WERE ~~REDUCED AND~~ PRACTICALLY COMPELLED TO FURNISH LABOR. // IN THE BELGIAN CONGO,/ A HIGH SOUNDING PROMISE OF CHIRSTIANIZING/ AND EDUCATING THE NATIVES/ WAS MADE THE LYING EXCUSE/ FOR SEIZING ONE OF THE MOST FERTILE PARTS OF AFRICA/ AND SUBMITTING IT/ TO ONE OF THE WORST INSTANCES/ OF EXPLOITATION/ THAT THE MODERN WORLD HAS KNOWN. // IN FRENCH AFRICA, THE PROCEDURE DIFFERED ONLY/ IN THE FACT/ THAT THE SMALL INTELLIGENTSIA/ AMONG THE NEGROES WAS GIVEN A CHANCE/ TO ASSOCIATE ITSELF/ WITH THE EXPLOITERS/ AND BECOME AN INTEGRAL PART/ OF THE EXPLOITING NATION. // THE EXPLOITATION/ OF THE MASS OF PEOPLE/ WENT ON IN EXACTLY THE SAME MANNER/ AS THOUGH THE EXPLOITERS HAD BEEN ENTIRELY WHITE. /// THEN CAME TWO WORLD WARS,/ WHICH CHANGED THE FACE OF

COLONIAL IMPERIALISM AND NARROWED THE FIELD OF EXPLOITATION. HOW VALUABLE AFRICA IS FOR EXPLOITATION, LET US PAUSE A MOMENT AND CONSIDER.

THROUGH THE NINETEENTH CENTURY, AMERICA ON THE STRENGTH OF ITS BLACK LABOR AS WELL AS WHITE, GREW IN WEALTH AND IMPORTANCE. IT BECAME THE GREATEST EXPERIMENT IN MODERN DEMOCRACY, SEEKING TO EMBRACE EVENTUALLY NOT SIMPLY THE WHITE BUT THE BLACK WORKER. TODAY NOT ONLY IS THE NEGRO AN IMPORTANT PART OF THE WORLD OF LABOR AND ART IN ALL THE AMERICAS, BUT BEYOND THIS THE TRADE OF AMERICA IS BUILT IN LARGE DEGREE UPON THE PRODUCTS RAISED BY AFRICANS AND THEIR CHILDREN THE WORLD OVER.

BUT BEYOND AMERICA AND IN THE MAIN STATES OF THE MODERN WORLD THE COLD ECONOMIC FACT IS THAT AFRICA, ITS LABOR AND PRODUCTS, ARE OF PRIME IMPORTANCE. OF THE TYPICAL PRODUCTS OF AFRICA, COTTON, ONE OF THE OLDEST THERE, IS STILL VALUABLE, AND COTTON CLOTH WAS EXPORTED FROM AFRICA LONG

BEFORE IT WAS WOVEN IN ENGLAND. SISAL, HEMP, AND OTHER FIBER PLANTS AND FLAX ARE INDIGENOUS TO AFRICA. THE VAST DEMAND FOR VEGETABLE OIL HAS RESULTED IN THE OIL INDUSTRY, ESPECIALLY IN WEST AFRICA. PALM OIL IS USED FOR MARGARINE, SOAP (LUX, RINSO), LUBRICATION, "OLIVE OIL," AND FOR OTHER INDUSTRIAL PURPOSES. THUS THE OIL PALM OF WEST AFRICA IS A VALUABLE PRODUCT AND SUPPLIES PALM KERNELS WHICH ARE EXPORTED FROM THE WHOLE WEST COAST. THE GROUND NUT AND COCOA-NUT ALSO PRODUCE OILS. THE COCONUT PALM IS FOUND ALL OVER THE CONTINENT NORTH OF THE TROPIC OF CAPRICORN AND ALSO SOUTH OF THE DATE-PALM LINE.

THE SHEA-NUT TREE GROWS WHERE THE OIL PALM DOES NOT, AND ITS FAT IS USED FOR FOOD, SOAP-MAKING, AND BUTTER. THE COCOA INDUSTRY OF WEST AFRICA NOW SUPPLIES TWO-THIRDS OF THE COCOA OF THE WORLD. KOLA NUTS ARE ALSO EXPORTED. IN THE MEDITERRANEAN AREA PRACTICALLY ALL GRAINS CULTIVATED IN EUROPE CAN BE GROWN. COFFEE IS NATIVE TO AFRICA AND IS NAMED

AFTER THE PROVINCE OF KAFFA, ~~ABYSSINIA.~~ Ethiopia/ IT GROWS ALSO IN LIBERIA.// THE GREATER PART OF TROPICAL AFRICA/PRODUCES SOME KIND OF RUBBER.// NEARLY ALL OF THE CLOVES in the World ARE GOTTEN FROM ZANZIBAR AND PEMBA./ FRUITS ARE GROWN AND EXPORTED/ FROM NEARLY EVERY PART OF AFRICA,/ FROM THE BANANAS AND MANGOES IN THE TROPICS/ TO THE WINE GRAPES OF THE NORTH AND SOUTH./ THE DATE PALM FLOURISHED THROUGHOUT NORTH AFRICA.// LARGE AREAS OF THE CONTINENT /ARE SUITABLE FOR CATTLE AND SHEEP RAISING,/ ALTHOUGH FLIES AND DISEASES/ KEEP THEM OUT OF OTHER DISTRICTS.

THIS IS AFRICA TODAY. ~~WHAT IS ITS ANSWER TO THE NEW POST WAR EXPLOITATION?~~

WHAT IS THE REACTION OF BLACK AFRICA TO ALL THIS? ARE THE NATIVES SIMPLY STOLID AND DUMB, SUBMITTING WITHOUT PROTEST OR COMPREHENSION OF THEIR PLIGHT? // THAT IS THE COMPLACENT BELIEF OF MOST OF THE WHITE WORLD, YET THE FACTS BELIE THIS. ONLY THE FACTS EITHER ARE NOT CABLED OR IF WIRED, NOT PRINTED.

35-2-488

THE SITUATION IS CLEAR: // IN SOUTH AND EAST AFRICA, THE LAND HAS BEEN TAKEN FROM THE NATIVES AND WHEN THEY ARE TAXED TO COMPEL THEM TO WORK ON THE PLANTATIONS OR IN THE MINES. // IN WEST AFRICA, THE NATIVE HAS HIS LAND, BUT IS RULED BY A WHITE GOVERNOR. // "INDIRECT RULE" LEAVES LOCAL GOVERNMENT IN THE HANDS OF THE CHIEFS, BUT THE GOVERNOR CAN REMOVE THESE CHIEFS AND PAYS THEIR SALARIES. THUS HIS COMMISSIONERS RULE THE RULERS. // WHITE SETTLETS ALL OVER AFRICA ARE WORKING FOR WHITE SUPREMACY IN INDUSTRY AND GOVERNMENT: BIG BUSINESS IS STRIVING FOR MONOPOLY OF NATURAL RESOURCES AND CONTROL OF LABOR: ALIEN RACIAL GROUPS ARE DEMANDING THE PRIVILEGES OF WHITES. A

NATIVE INTELLIGENTSIA IS DEMANDING AFRICA FOR THE AFRICANS.

35-2-489

WHAT NOW IS THE RANK AND FILE OF THE WORKERS THINKING AND DOING? // IN SOUTH AFRICA HAVE OCCURRED (in the last 3 years) AT LEAST TWENTY RIOTS AND DISTURBANCES VARYING FROM STUDENT STRIKES AT LOVEDALE TO THE BURNING OF THEIR PASSES BY 7000 NATIVES AT CAPETOWN, AND CULMINATING IN THE STRIKE OF 50,000, NEGRO MINERS IN AUGUST, 1946, TO OBTAIN A WAGE OF $2 A DAY, INSTEAD OF THE 45 CENTS THEY ARE RECEIVING. FIVE STRIKERS WERE KILLED BY THE POLICE, 62 ARRESTED FRO BREACH OF CONTRACT AND CONSPIRACY, 46 OF WHOM WERE HEAVILY FINED OR JAILED. RAIDS AND ARRESTS CONTINUED FOR A MONTH, INCLUDING ARRESTS OF SOME LIBERAL WHITES. // "COMMUNISM" WAS BLAMED FOR THE OUTBREAK.

IN KENYA, IN JANUARY 1947, SEVEN THOUSAND NATIVES STRUCK, AFFECTING ELEVEN BUSINESS CONCERNS. // AFTER FAILURE TO SATISFY THE STRIKERS, THE STRIKE SPREAD TO UGANDA WITH DISTURBANCES AT FOUR CENTERS. IT WAS FINALLY SETTLED BY A RAISE IN WAGE OF MORE THAN TWENTY FIVE PER CENT.

IN WEST AFRICA, THERE WERE SERIOUS DISTURBANCES IN NIGERIA AND ON THE GOLD COAST. IN NIGERIA, IN 1944, INCREASED GOVERNMENT ALLOWANCES WERE GRANTED WHITE CIVIL SERVANTS BUT NOT ALLOWED FOR NEGROES. CONSEQUENTIALLY, IN 1945 A GENERAL STRIKE OF 150,000 NON-CLERICAL WORKERS WAS DECLARED AND THIS EVENTUALLY BROUGHT A FIFTY PER CENT INCREASE IN WAGES. LATER THERE WERE FURTHER STRIKES OF ELECTRICAL WORKERS, METAL WORKERS, AND EMPLOYEES OF THE UNITED AFRICA COMPANY. MINERS STRUCK IN THE ASHANTI GOLD MINES AND SECURED INCREASED WAGES.

ON THE GOLD COAST, STRIKES FINALLY ASSUMED THE ASPECT OF CIVIL WAR. IN 1946, A COMMISSION FOUND THAT THE COST OF LIVING HAD GONE UP TWO HUNDRED PER CENT AND RECOMMENDED INCREASED WAGES TO GEOVERNMENT EMPLOYEES. TEACHERS THEN COMPLAINED, AND A THIRD COMMISSION GAVE THEM INCREASES. RAILWAY WORKERS AND MINERS THEN ASKED FOR RAISES, STRUCK WHEN THEY WERE REFUSED, AND GAINED THEIR DEMANDS AFTER SEVERAL WEEKS.

THEN CAME A COLONY-WIDE BOYCOTT AGAINST HIGH PRICES CHARGED BY IMPORTING CONCERNS, LED BY A PROGRESSIVE CHIEF. A PRICE CONTROL COMMISSION WAS SET UP TO CURB PRICES AND ORDERED THEM REDUCED BY THIRTY THREE AND ONE THIRD PER CENT. THE DEMOBILIZED SOLDIERS THEREUPON STARTED A MARCH TO THE GOVERNOR TO PRESENT A PETITION. THERE ENSUED A SKIRMISH WITH THE POLICE, RIOTING AND LOOTING IN WHICH 26 AFRICANS WERE KILLED AND 277 WOUNDED INCLUDING 15 WHITES. MANY PROMINENT BLACK LEADERS WERE ARRESTED AND KEPT IN JAIL. THE BLACK SOLDIERS OF THE GOLD COAST, SIERRE LEONE AND NIGERIA REFUSED TO BEAR ARMS AGAINST THEIR FELLOW SOLDIERS AND WHITE UNITS IN GIBRALTAR WERE ALERTED. TWO BATTLESHIPS WERE ORDERED FROM SOUTH AFRICA. FINALLY THE GOVERNOR APPEALED TO THE CHIEFS AND TO LONDON. A LONDON COMMISSION OF INQUIRY WAS SENT OUT AND HAS REPORTED LAYING MUCH BLAME ON THE COLONIAL GOVERNMENT. IN 1947, A RAILWAY STRIKE OF 12,000 WORKERS CRIPPLED THE WHOLE TRANSPORT SYSTEM OF FRENCH WEST AFRICA. ~~THE STRIKERS DEMANDED "EQUAL PAY FOR EQUAL WORK."~~

35-2-492

NORTHEAST AFRICA HAS HAD STRIKES. IN MARCH, 1947, FIVE HUNDRED DOCK WORKERS STRUCK AT PORT SUDAN, IN THE EGYPTIAN SUDAN. IN JULY, 19 THOUSAND RAILWAY WORKERS AT ATBARA WALKED OFF THE JOB. IN ETHIOPIA, 5,000 RAILWAY EMPLOYEES REFUSED TO WORK UNTIL THE EMPEROR OBTAINED A TWENTY-FIVE PER CENT INCREASE IN WAGES FOR THEM.

THESE STRIKES AND MANY OTHERS THAT HAVE TAKEN PLACE ALL OVER THE CONTINENT OF AFRICA SHOW THAT THERE IS AN INCREASE IN THE ACTIVITY OF TRADE UNIONS AND UNION ORGANIZATION IN AFRICA. IN MOST OF THE TERRITORIES THERE IS LEGISLATION TO PERMIT TRADE UNIONS, BUT SOME OF IT IS ANTIQUATED AND IN MANY CASES AS IN EAST AFRICA IT IS ON PAPER RATHER THAN ACTUALLY IN FORCE. NO AFRICAN IN NORTHERN NIGERIA FOR INSTANCE IS A MEMBER OF A TRADE UNION. AND ALTHOUGH IN THE UNION OF SOUTH AFRICA THERE ARE ONE HUNDRED AND TWENTY NATIVE TRADE UNIONS CLAIMING ONE HUNDRED AND SIXTY THOUSAND MEMBERS, THESE UNIONS ARE NOT OFFICIALLY RECOGNIZED. ~~HOWEVER SOME EFFORT WAS~~ and a strike is a crime

~~BEING MADE TO THAT END BEFORE THE LAST ELECTION.~~

35-2-493

THE WEST AFRICAN LABOR MOVEMENT, ON THE OTHER HAND IS GROWING IN STATURE AND POWER. IN FRENCH WEST AFRICA THE MOVEMENT ~~HAS~~ HAS TAKEN ON STRENGTH AND FORCE. AND THERE WAS A FEDERATION OF TRADE UNIONS WHICH MET IN DAKAR, FRENCH WEST AFRICA IN APRIL 1947. EIGHTEEN DELEGATIONS OF NEGRO TRADE UNIONS ATTENDED AND RECOMMENDATIONS WERE MADE TO BE CONSIDERED AT THE WORLD LABOR MEETING AT PRAGUE IN JUNE.

THE MOST SIGNIFICANT OCCURANCE IN THE AFRICAN LABOR WORLD WAS THE REPRESENTATIVE CHARACTER OF THE AFRICANS AT THE WORLD TRADE UNION CONFEDENCE IN FEBRUARY 1945. COLONIAL DELEGATES CAME FROM NIGERIA, THE GOLD COAST, SIERRE LEONE, AND GAMBIA IN WEST AFRICA BESIDES FROM MANY NEGRO COMMUNITIES IN ~~AMERICA~~ Caribbean AMERICA.

WALLACE JOHNSON OF WEST AFRICA, WHO BUT A FEW WEEKS BEFORE HIS ARRIVAL HAD BEEN RELEASED BY THE BRITISH GOVERNMENT AFTER FIVE AND A HALF YEARS

35-2-494

IMPRISONMENT IN EXILE, FOR TRADE UNION ACTIVITY, PRESENTED A "CHARTER OF LABOR" FOR THE COLONIES. DEMANDING: THE ABOLITION OF RACIAL DISCRIMINATION IN PUBLIC AND PRIVATE EMPLOYMENT, abolition of FORCED LABOR AND CHILD LABOR, FLOGGING AND PUNISHMENT FOR BREACH OF LABOR CONTRACT, repeal of AND CASTE LAW LEGISLATION; THE RIGHT OF FREE ASSEMBLY, FREE SPEECH, FREE PRESS AND FREE MOVEMENT; AND "EQUAL PAY FOR EQUAL WORK IRRESPECTIVE OF RACE, COLOR, CREED OR SEX."

IN A TELEGRAM TO THE BIG THREE CONCERNING THE ATLANTIC CHARTER, COLORED DELEGATES INSISTED THAT IT BE MADE CLEAR THAT THEY SUPPORTED THE DEMAND OF THE COLONIAL PEOPLE FOR THE RIGHT TO CHOOSE THE FORM OF GOVERNMENT UNDER WHICH THEY WOULD LIVE. THEY ASKED THAT SPECIAL NOTE SHOULD BE TAKEN OF CONDITIONS IN COLONIES AND DEPENDENCIES SO THAT APPROPRIATE MEASURES TO SECURE FOR THESE PEOPLE OF ASIA AND AFRICA THE ELEMENTARY RIGHTS ~~TO~~ of CIVILIZED DEMOCRATIC PROCESSES.

35-2-495

THEY PUT INTO THE FINAL RESOLUTIONS A PARAGRAPH ASKING FOR THE END OF COLONIES AND DEPENDENCIES, AND THEY TRIED TO GET THE CONFERENCE TO PUT A TIME LIMIT TO THE FREEING OF COLONIES, BUT THIS ATTEMPT FAILED.

THE BLACK AFRICAN WORKER IS RAISING HIS HEAD. HE WILL BEAR WATCHING AND HEEDING. This one reason why English & American Workers have formed to wreck the World Trade Union Federation

IN 1949, THIS IS THE WATCHWORD FOR THINKING PEOPLE OF AMERICA: WATCH AFRICA: TEAR DOWN THE CURTAIN OF SILENCE AND DELIBERATE SUPPRESSION OF FACTS. REMEMBER THAT TODAY THERE ARE SIGNS OF INTERNATIONAL CONSPIRACY TO MAKE THE COUNTRIES OF AFRICA THE SLUMS OF THE WORLD: TO ENSLAVE THE LABOR OF THEIR PEOPLE, STEAL THEIR LAND AND MATERIALS. ~~A FEW~~ RUTHLESS ~~RULERS ARE~~ capital is STRIVING TO GET THE POWER OF LIFE AND DEATH OVER MILLIONS OF BLACKS. POVERTY AND DISEASE ALREADY PREVAIL AND THERE ARE DELIBERATE PLANS TO KEEP THE AFRICANS IN IGNORANCE. THERE IS NO DOUBT ABOUT ALL THIS: BUT WE NEED DETAILS AND FACTS TO LET IN THE LIGHT, ~~LET THE PEOPLE OF THE UNITED STATES AND OF THE WORLD KNOW THE TRUTH.~~

35-2-496

IT IS OF SPECIAL IMPORTANCE THAT THE COLORED PEOPLE OF THE UNITED STATES KNOW WHAT IS CURRENTLY DEVELOPING IN AFRICA. THIS IS DIFFICULT, THE NEGRO PRESS HAS NOT YET FULLY AWAKENED TO THE IMPORTANCE OF THIS NEWS. IN THE WHITE PRESS AND THE WHITE NEWS-GATHERING AGENCIES AFRICAN NEWS IS DELIBERATELY SUPPRESSED OR DISTORTED. YOU HAVE FOR INSTANCE RECEIVED ONLY BRIEF NOTICES OF THE MOST RECENT RIOTS IN SOUTH AFRICA AND THEIR REAL SIGNIFICANCE. THE DEVELOPMENTS IN WEST AFRICA HAVE BEEN VEILED AND TALKED DOWN AND IT IS ALMOST IMPOSSIBLE TO GET RELIABLE NEWS FROM EAST AFRICA AND THE SUDAN.

WE NEED, IN THE UNITED STATES A DETERMINED AND CAREFULLY FOLLOWED UP EFFORT TO KNOW THE EXACT TRUTH ABOUT AFRICA, AND TO FOLLOW THE EFFORTS OF EUROPE AS THEY CENTER IN A NEW COLONIAL IMPERIALISM. WE NEED COOPERATION WITH THE AFRICAN PEOPLES WHO ARE STRUGGLING FOR FREEDOM, AND PARTICULARLY FOR AN INTELLIGENT UNDERSTANDING OF THE FACT THAT AMERICAN CAPITAL INVESTMENT IN AFRICA TODAY IS GREATER THAN THAT OF ANY OTHER COUNTRY IN THE

WORLD, INCLUDING GREAT BRITAIN, AND FOR THAT REASON AMERICA IS THE GREATEST LEADER OF COLONIAL IMPERIALISM ON EARTH. OUR POLITICAL POWER MUST BE USED TO COUNTERACT THIS TENDENCY AND TO HELP IN THE FUTURE DEVELOPMENT OF THE AFRICAN PEOPLE.

A GROUP OF PERSONS WHICH, FOR ANY REASON, IS CUT OFF FROM THE MAIN CURRENT OF A NATION'S LIFE, LOSES NOT ONLY ITS OWN FULL COMPREHENSION OF THAT LIFE, BUT, MORE SERIOUSLY, THE NATION ITSELF FAILS TO UNDERSTAND AND INTEGRATE PART OF ITS OWN THOUGHT AND ACTION OF WHICH IT IS NOT FULLY AWARE. IF THE SEGREGATED SECTION IS LARGE, AS IN THE CASE OF THE NEGRO ELEMENT OF OUR NATION WHERE IT IS NEARLY A TENTH: AND IF ITS WORK, AND EMOTION HAS BEEN INFLUENTIAL, THEN THIS LACK OF UNDERSTANDING IS DANGEROUS. IN THE CASE OF AMERICAN NEGROES, THEIR LABOR FOUNDED THE NATION AND WAS PRIME CAUSE OF THE INDUSTRIAL REVOLUTION AND THE CAPITALIST SYSTEM OF THE MODERN WORLD: THEIR SLAVERY, REVOLT, ESCAPE, PROTEST AND EMANCIPATION IS A CENTRAL THREAD OF OUR HISTORY: AND WITHOUT THEIR MUSIC AND LAUGHTER AND ~~THE CHARACTER OF THEIR OUTSTANDING PERSONALITIES~~ AMERICAN ART AND LITERATURE WOULD NEVER HAVE ATTAINED ITS PRESENT STATURE. THIS IS THE REASON WE CELEBRATE NEGRO HISTORY WEEK. IT IS NOT MERELY A MATTER OF ENTERTAINMENT OR INFORMATION: IT IS PART OF OUR NECESSARY SPIRITUAL EQUIPMENT FOR MAKING THIS COUNTRY WORTH LIVING IN.

A group of persons which, for any reason, is cut off from the main current of of a nation's life, loses not only, full comprehension of that life, but, more seriously, the nation itself fails to ~~comprehend~~ understand and integrate a part of its own thought and action. If the segregated section is large, as in the case of the Negro element of our nation where is is nearly a tenth; and if its work, ~~thought~~ and emotion, has been influential, then this lack of understanding is dangerous. In the case of American Negroes, their labor founded the nation and was prime cause of the industrial revolution and the capitalist system of the modern world; their slavery and emancipation is a central thread of our history; and without their sorrow and joy American music, art and literature would never have attained it present stature. This is the reason we celebrate Negro History Week. It is not merely a matter of entertainment or information: it is part of our necessary spitiual equipment for making this a country worth living in.

Feb. 7, 1949

THERE LIVES IN WASHINGTON TODAY A NEGRO---75 YEARS OF AGE, TRAINED AS A HISTORIAN AT THE UNIVERSITY OF CHICAGO AND AT HARVARD, FOR 33 YEARS HE HAS PUBLISHED THE QUARTERLY, "THE JOURNAL OF NEGRO HISTORY." THIS ACCOMPLISHMENT IS ASTOINSHING, BECAUSE HE HAS DONE THIS ALMOST WITHOUT OUTSIDE AID, AND WITH NO ENCOURAGEMENT FROM THE INTELLECTUAL LEADERS OF AMERICA. YET THIS MAN STANDING ALMOST ALONE HAS VIRTUALLY COMPELLED THE PEOPLE OF THE UNITED STATES AT LEAST ONCE A YEAR TO RECOGNIZE THE FACT THAT A TENTH OF THEIR POPULATION, BECAUSE OF ITS LONG SEGREGATION FROM THE MAIN MASS OF PEOPLE, HAS DEVELOPED A HISTORY WHICH IS WORTH KNOWING.

THIS BRINGS US TO THE FACT THAT CONTINUALLY THERE ARE THINGS WHICH HAVE HAPPENED WHICH WE DO NOT WANT TO REMEMBER. ONE OF THE MOST ASTONISHING IS THAT WHICH TOOK PLACE IN THE CELEBRATED YEAR 1776, WHEN THE REPRESENTATIVES OF THE COLONIES WHICH AFTERWARDS BECAME THE UNITED STATES

OF AMERICA SAID TO THE WORLD: "WE HOLD THESE TRUTHS TO BE SELF EVIDENT, THAT ALL MEN ARE CREATED EQUAL, THAT THEY ARE ENDOWED BY THEIR CREATOR WITH CERTAIN UNALIENABLE RIGHTS: THAT AMONG THESE ARE LIFE, LIBERTY AND THE PURSUIT OF HAPPINESS."

AS A STATEMENT OF A BELIEF OR A FACT THIS IS UNTRUE AND THE PEOPLE WHO SAID IT KNEW IT WAS UNTRUE; BECAUSE AT THAT TIME, OF THE LESS THAN FOUR MILLION PEOPLE IN THE UNITED STATES, 750,000 WERE NOT REGARDED AS EQUAL AND 700,000 WERE NOT ONLY UNEQUAL BUT SLAVES OWNED BY THEIR FELLOW MEN AND BY THE LAW OF THE LAND REGARDED AS PROPERTY OR EVEN REAL ESTATE. EVERYBODY IN THE UNITED STATES THEREFORE THAT READ THIS DECLARATION KNEW THAT IT WAS NOT TRUE, BUT IN PRESENTING THEIR CASE TO THE WORLD THEY DID NOT WANT TO ADMIT THAT THE NATION WAS A NATION OF SLAVE-OWNERS AND THEY

HOPED THAT AT SOMETIME THE GUILT OF SLAVERY WOULD BE REMOVED. HISTORY THUS IS NOT ALWAYS A STATEMENT OF FACT: TOO OFTEN IT IS WHAT WE WOULD LIKE TO HAVE BEEN TRUE.

MOST OF US DO NOT REALIZE THIS: WE REGARD HISTORY AS A TRUE EVALUATION OF WHAT HAS OCCURED. WE BELIEVE THAT UPON THESE FACTS OUR FREEDOM MUST BE BASED. I REMEMBER WHEN I WAS A STUDENT IN HIGH SCHOOL AND LEARNING THE LITTLE GREEK WHICH WAS THEN NECESSARY FOR ADMITTANCE TO COLLEGE, THAT ON THE ALTAR OF THE REBUILT CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH, I READ MY FIRST PUBLIC GREEK INSCRIPTION, WHICH I HAVE EVER SINCE REMEMBERED. "E ALETHEIA ELEUTHEROS HMAS"------"YOU SHALL KNOW THE TRUTH AND THE TRUTH SHALL MAKE YOU FREE."

35-3-52

WITH THIS FIXED IDEA I BEGAN TO STUDY HISTORY, AND WROTE HISTORICAL STUDIES AND BOOKS: BUT IN MY HISTORICAL WORK, I WAS MORE AND MORE ASTONISHED AT THE WAY IN WHICH FACTS WERE OMITTED, DISTORTED OR FORGOTTEN: AND THE

INSISTENCE OF APPARENTLY HONEST MEN ON WRITING HISTORY IN THE WAY WHICH THEY WOULD LIKE TO HAVE HAD IT OCCUR, AND NOT IN THE WAY IN WHICH IT DID OCCUR. OR IN OTHER WORDS THE WIDE CUSTOM OF REMEMBERING OUT OF THE PAST THAT WHICH WE WISH TO REMEMBER AND FORGETTING THE REST.

I HAVE SEEN THIS ILLUSTRATED AND YOU HAVE TOO IN PECULIAR WAYS. I REMEMBER THAT ONE TIME A GROUP OF AMERICANS WERE GOING TO EUROPE ON A CANADIAN BOAT, AND SOMEBODY MENTIONED THE BATTLE OF BUNKER HILL. THE AMERICANS WERE ASTONISHED TO FIND THAT THE CANADIANS HAD NEVER HEARD OF THIS BATTLE BECAUSE IT WAS NOT MENTIONED IN THE ENGLISH HISTORIES WHICH THEY STUDIED: OR TODAY IT IS PERFECTLY WELL-KNOWN THAT LARGE NUMBERS OF THE BEST COLLEGES OF THE UNITED STATES, PRESIDED OVER BY SOME OF OUR GREATEST SCHOLARS AND ADMINISTRATORS DISCRIMINATE AGAINST NEGROES, JEWS AND OTHERS IN ADMISSION TO THEIR COURSES OF STUDY: AND YET WE HAVE REPEATEDLY SEEN THESE SAME MEN SIT BEFORE INVESTIGATING BODIES AND WITH GRAVE FACE ASSERT THAT THERE WAS

NO RULES OR LAWS REQUIRING SUCH DISCRIMINATION AND THAT THEY PERSONALLY DID NOT KNOW OF ANY DISCRIMINATION OF THE SORT.

THIS IS THE RESULT OF THE LONG TENDENCY IN HISTORICAL WRITING TO DENY UNPALATIBE TRUTH OR THAT WHICH WAS ASSUMED DANGEROUS FOR PEOPLE TO KNOW. FOR THIS REASON THE FRENCH REVOLUTION HAS BEEN ENORMOUSLY DISTORTED AT VARIOUS TIMES AND IN VARIOUS COUNTRIES. THE RUSSIAN REVOLUTION HAS BEEN DELIBERATELY MISREPRESENTED, AND THE REVOLTUION NOW GOING ON IN CHINA IS LOOKED UPON BY PEOPLE OF HONESTY AND SCHOLARSHIP IN THE WAY THAT THEY WANT IT TO BE LOOKED UPON AND NOT ACCORDING TO ANY REAL SEARCH FOR FACTS.

NEGRO HISTORY WEEK INSISTS UPON BRINGING BEFORE THE PEOPLE OF THE UNITED STATES A PART OF AMERICAN HISTORY WHICH MOST WHITE PEOPLE WOULD LIKE TO FORGET. THERE ARE REASONS, AND STRONG ONES, WHY MEN SHOULD NOT WISH TO REMEMBER THE HISTORY OF THE NEGRO: BUT THERE ARE EVEN MORE IMPORTANT REASONS WHY THEY MUST NOT FORGET. THE STORY IN SHORT IS THIS: THE

PEOPLE OF THE UNITED STATES EVEN BEFORE THEY BECAME A FREE NATION AND A DEMOCRACY, STOLE MILLIONS OF PERSONS FROM AFRICA AND BROUGHT THEM HERE TO WORK FOR THEM. IT DOES NOT MAKE ANY DIFFERENCE HOW LOW THE SCALE OF HUMAN CULTURE THESE PEOPLE WERE: THE FACT THAT IS PERFECTLY CLEAR, IS THAT THEIR WORK HELPED TO SUPPORT AND TO MAKE WEALTHY AND GIVE OPPORTUNITY FOR CULTURE TO MILLIONS OF WHITE AMERICANS. AND FOR THAT REASON IT WAS CARRIED ON FOR THREE HUNDRED YEARS.

WHILE THIS EVIL, WITH MURDER, RAPE AND SPIRITUAL DEGRADATION WENT ON, WE MADE EXCUSES FOR IT. THIS VERY OFTEN HAPPENS: YOU DO EVIL AND THEN ELABORATELY AND CAREFULLY YOU EXCUSE IT. SO THAT FIRST OF ALL, WE TOLD THE WORLD, THAT THE SLAVERY OF HEATHENS WAS NECESSARY AND GOOD, BECAUSE THEY OUGHT TO BE CONVERTED TO THE TRUE FAITH.

LATER WHEN MANIFESTLY WE WERE ENSLAVING CHRISTIANS JUST AS VIGOROUSLY AS HEATHEN, WE CAME TO A NEW CONCLUSION: THE REASON THAT THESE PEOPLE WERE ENSLAVED, WAS BECAUSE THAT THEY WERE NOT REALLY HUMAN: THEY WERE AN INFERIOR CASTE OF PEOPLE, FOR WHOM SLAVERY WAS THE BEST AND MOST BENEFICIENT SITUATION. WE CLUNG TO THIS TRADITION FROM 1619 TO 1863, WE JAILED, MOBBED AND EVEN KILLED PEOPLE WHO DENIED IT, OR DARED PUBLICLY TO EXPRESS THIS DENIAL. WE ASSERTED THAT THIS WAS A GREAT, FREE COUNTRY WHOSE PROSPERITY DEPENDED UPON NEGRO SLAVERY: AND THAT THE NEGRO WAS HAPPY TO BE A SLAVE.

WHEN BY A CRUEL, COSTLY AND BLOODY CIVIL WAR, SLAVERY WAS NOMINALLY ABOLISHED, WE TURNED ABOUT AND TOLD THE WORLD THAT THE OBJECT OF THIS WAR, WAS THE ABOLITION OF SLAVERY, AND THAT WE HAD FREED THE SLAVES BECAUSE SLAVERY WAS WRONG. THAT AGAIN WAS A LIE! WE DID NOT START THE CIVIL WAR TO FREE THE SLAVES: THE VAST MAJORITY OF AMERICANS, INCLUDING CHURCH MEMBERS CATHOLIC AND PROTESTAND AND JEW WERE PERFECTLY WILLING AND EVEN EAGER TO RETAIN SLAVERY IF THEY COULD KEEP THE UNION INTACT. THEY DID NOT WANT THE NATION DISRUPTED, BECAUSE THE DISRUPTION OF THE NATION WOULD HAVE INTERFERED WITH ITS INDUSTRIAL ORGANIZATION AND WITH THE INCOME OF A LARGE NUMBER OF PEOPLE. CONSEQUENTLY, THEY FOUGHT AGAINST SECESSION, BUT THAY ALSO EXECRATED AGAINST THOSE PEOPLE WHO ADVOCATED FREEDOM FOR THE SLAVES N AND TRIED TO PROMOTE ABOLITION. THEY PASSED LAWS AGAINST ABOLITIONISTS AND DROVE THEM OUT OF DECENT SOCIETY AND REFUSED THEM THE RIGHT TO SPEAK BY WORD OF MOUTH OR IN NEWSPAPERS, SO FAR AS POSSIBLE.

WHEN NOW, THE CIVIL WAR HAD BEGUN, THERE WAS ONE WAY IN WHICH THE NORTH COULD TRIUMPH, AND ONLY ONE WAY: AND THAT WAS FOR IT TO GET THE COOPERATION AND HELP OF THE WORKING CLASSES WHO WERE SUPPORTING THE SLAVEHOLDERS OF THE SOUTH. THE WORKING CLASSES CONSISTED OF NEARLY FOUR MILLION BLACK SLAVES AND A LARGER NUMBER OF POOR WHITES. WHEN THE BLACK SLAVES

EVEN PARTIALLY CEASED TO WORK FOR THE SUPPORT OF THE SOUTHERNERS: AND WHEN OVER TWO HUNDRED THOUSAND OF THEM WERE GIVEN ARMS TO FIGHT, THE END OF SECESSION WAS IN SIGHT AND THERE WAS NOTHING TO DO, BUT TO FREE THE SLAVES. AFTER THAT THE NATIONS WAS WILLING TO INTERPRET THE CIVIL WAR IN A NEW WAY: THE WAR THEY SAID WAS FOR THE EMANCIPATION OF THE SLAVES, AND SLAVES WERE EMANCIPATED BY CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENTS.

BUT NOW WE WERE FACE TO FACE WITH A NEW PROBLEM: HERE WERE PEOPLE WHO HAD HELPED US WIN THE WAR, NOT ONLY BY FIGHTING WITH ARMS IN THEIR HANDS, BUT BY DOING THE STEVEDOUS AND SERVANTS WORK AND BY ACTING AS INFORMERS AND SPYS. WHAT SHOULD BE DONE WITH THEM? SOME SAID THEY OUGHT TO BE GIVEN LAND AND EDUCATION: BUT MOST SAID THAT WOULD COST TOO MUCH. SOME WERE WILLING TO LEAVE THEM ALONE, BUT THAT MEANT THAT UNDER ANOTHER NAME THEY WOULD EVENTUALLY BE PUT BACK IN SLAVERY. MOREOVER, IF THE UNION WAS TO BE RE-STORED, WE WOULD NEED THE BLACK MEN AND THEIR VOTE TO OVERCOME THE VOTE OF THOSE WHITE MEN WHO OPPOSED THE UNION. SO WE GAVE NEGROES THE VOTE AND AFTER NEW LOYAL GOVERNMENTS HAD BEEN ERECTED, WE LEFT THE NEGROES ALONE AT THE MERCY OF THOSE WHO OWNED THE LAND AND THE CAPITAL: AND THAT EXPERIMENT, IF EXPERIMENT IT MAY BE CALLED, WAS NOT SUCCESSFUL. WHO EXPECTED IT WOULD BE?

YET NOW WHEN WE REVIEW THE HISTORY OF SO-CALLED "RECONSTRUCTION," WE SAY THAT THE NEGROES FAILED. AS A MATTER OF FACT, WE KNOW THAT IT WAS AMERICAN DEMOCRACY THAT FAILED AND THAT IF WE HAD FURNISHED LAND AND EDUCATION FOR THE NEGROES, THEY WOULD HAVE BECOME AN INTEGRAL AND VALUABLE PART OF THIS NATION MUCH SO MUCH THAN THEY ARE BECOMING. INSTEAD OF THAT WE ALLOWED THE SOUTH TO BUILD UP A SYSTEM OF COLOR CASTE, A SYSTEM EX QUITE AS BAD AS THAT IN INDIA AT ITS WORST, AND WORST THAN THAT IN EUROPE IN THE MIDDLE AGES OR IN ANY OTHER PART OF THE WORLD. WHILE THIS WAS BEING BUILT AND WHILE WE WERE LYNCHING NEGROES WITHOUT TRIAL AT THE RATE OF ONE TO THREE HUNDRED A YEAR: WHILE WE WERE DENYING THEM DECENT SCHOOLS AND PROSCRIBING THEM IN SOCIAL LIFE, WE NEVERTHELESS CONTINUED TO PROCLAIM TO THE WORLD, THAT THIS WAS A FREE DEMOCRACY IN WHICH EVERYBODY HAD A VOICE IN THE GOVERNMENT AND WAS JUDGED ACCORDING TO HIS ACCOMPLISHMENT AND ABILITY.

35-3-52

THIS WAS UNTRUE AND WE KNEW IT WAS UNTRUE, NEVERTHELESS WE NOT ONLY INSISTED UPON IT IN THE PAST AND WROTE INTO OUR TEXT BOOKS AND INTO OUR NEWSPAPERS, INTO OUR LITERATURE, BUT EVEN TODAY WE ARE POSING BEFORE THE WORLD STILL AS A DEMOCRACY AND A LAND OF EQUALITY.

NEGRO HISTORY WEEK TRIES TO BRING THESE FACTS TO THE ATTENTION OF THE AMERICAN PEOPLE: TO THE ATTENTION OF NEGROES THEMSELVES TO LET THEM KNOW THAT DESPITE THE SILENCES AND OMISSIONS AND THE DISTORTIONS OF HISTORY, NEGROES IN AMERICA HAVE DONE A REMARKABLE JOB IN THE PERSONALITIES WHICH

THEY HAVE GIVEN TO THE NATION, IN THE CONTRIBUTIONS WHICH THEY HAVE MADE TO THE NATIONS CULTURE, INTO THE EXPRESSION WHICH THEY HAVE CONTRIBUTED TO AMERICAN ART. AND WE INSIST ON BRINGING THESE FACTS TO WHITE AMERICANS IN ORDER THAT THEY MAY, IN THE FIRST PLACE, REVISE THEIR FALSE CONCEPTIONS OF HISTORICAL TRUTH AND IN THE SECOND PLACE TRY TO MAKE THIS LAND INDEED THE LAND OF FREEDOM AND OPPORTUNITY WHICH THEY ARE NOW FALSLY PROCLAIMING TO THE WORLD AS ALREADY REALIZED. THE WORLD LEADERSHIP WHICH WE ARE WITH ASTONISHING BRAGGADOCIO PROCLAIMING TO BE OURS BY RIGHT, WILL NEVER BE OURS, SO LONG AS OUR ATTITUDE TOWARDS THE TENTH OF THE NATION CONTINUES TO BE WHAT IT IS TODAY, OR UNTIL WE REVERENCE TRUTH EVEN WHEN IT IS UNPALATABLE.

THE NEGRO IN AMERICAN LIFE

W. E. B. Du Bois

VERY OFTEN/ I RIDE TO AND FROM MY WORK/ ALONG THE LENGTH OF FIFTH AVENUE/ ON THE BUS.// DURING THAT RIDE I AM ALWAYS IMPRESSED/ BY THE DISPLAYS/ IN THE WINDOWS OF GREAT RETAIL STORES.// ONE THING PARTICULARLY INTRIGUES ME---IN THE WINDER/ A LARGE PART OF THE DISPLAYS/ HAVE TO DO WITH THE KIND OF CLOTHES/ WHICH PEOPLE WHO GO TO FLORIDA/ WEAR DURING THE WINTER SEASON./ THEIR LOUNGING AND BATHING SUITS./ THEIR LIGHT SILKS AND SPORT CLOTHES.// AND THEN AGAIN/ IN THE SUMMER/ I SEE EXHIBITED/ THE KIND OF CLOTHING/ WHICH PEOPLE WEAR/ WHO GO TO SUMMER RESORTS--TO THE OCEAN, THE MOUNTAINS, AND THE LAKES.// ALL THESE DISPLAYS ARE BEAUTIFUL,/ BUT I KNOW PERFECTLY WELL/ THAT THE VAST MAJORITY/ OF THE EIGHT MILLION PEOPLE/ WHO LIVE IN AND AROUND NEW YORK,/ DO NOT SPEND THE WINTER IN FLORIDA--THEY SPEND IT HERE./ AND TOO, THEY DO NOT GO TO THE SEASHORE IN SUMMER--THEY STAY IN NEW YORK,/ WITH PERHAPS A VISIT TO CONEY ISLAND.

35-3-312

THIS REMINDS ME/ OF ANOTHER THING/ WHICH I KNOW AS A STUDENT OF HISTORY:/ I READ OF WHAT HUMAN BEINGS/ WERE DOING IN THE 13th/ 15th and 17th CENTURIES,/ OF KINGS, NOBLES/ AND KNIGHTS IN ARMOR,/ OF THE PAGEANTRY OF COURTS/ AND GREAT HOMES WITH TROUPS OF SERVANTS.// I KNOW PERFECTLY WELL/ THAT WHAT IS REFERRED TO/ IS NOT THE FACT/ SO FAR AS THE MASS OF PEOPLE/ IS CONCERNED,// BUT REFERS TO A LARGER OR SMALLER/ PPROPORTION OF THE TOTAL POPULATION/ WHO ARE REGARDED AS THE NATION./ I REALIZE VIVIDLY/ THAT THE COURT OF LOUIS XIV,/ WITH ITS MAGNIFICENT SILKS AND VELVETS,/ ITS CEREMONIAL AND PAGENTRY/ INVOLVES ONLY A VERY SMALL PROPORTION/ OF THE FRENCH PEOPLE/ AND YET ~~THIS~~ THEIR HISTORY STANDS/ AS FRENCH HISTORY //

WHEN RECENTLY I READ OF A MAN/ LAUDING THE 13th CENTURY/ AND DEPLORING

35-3-313

THE PASSING OF ITS CULTURE, I KNEW THAT HE DID NOT REFER TO NINE-TENTHS OF THE PEOPLE WHO WERE LIVING IN THE 13th CENTURY, BUT THE ONE TENTH OR ONE ONE HUNDREDTH WHO REPRESENTED THE MASS OF THE PEOPLE IN THAT CENTURY.

BUT WE HAVE GOT IN THE HABIT OF REGARDING AS THE NATION AND OF NATIONAL IMPORTANCE ONLY A SMALL PART OF THE NATION. TODAY OF COURSE, WE ARE DOING MUCH BETTER THAN WE USED TO AND A MUCH LARGER PROPORTION OF THE PEOPLE IN A NATION LIKE THE UNITED STATES IS LOOKED UPON AS TYPIFYING THIS COUNTRY. NEVERTHELESS EVEN IN OUR DAY IT IS QUITE NATURAL FOR US TO THINK OF THE HISTORY AND WORK AND WISHES OF RICH WHITE AMERICANS AS BEING TYPICALLY AMERICAN AND OF NOT REGARDING POOR PEOPLE AND CERTAINLY NOT THE TENTH OF THE NATION WHICH IS COLORED AND PREDOMINATELY POOR AS BEING AN INTEGRAL PART OF THE PEOPLE.

ON THE OTHER HAND, OF COURSE, A TRADE UNION LIKE YOURS IS LESS LIABLE TO A MISTAKE OF THIS SORT THAN OTHER PEOPLE. YOU KNOW THAT A NATION WITHOUT

35-3-314

WORKERS IS NOT A NATION; IT COULD NOT EXIST FOR A MOMENT WITHOUT THEIR HELP AND ACTIVITY OF LABORERS; AND IN ADDITION TO THAT, ANY LARGE PART OF THE WORKING CLASS IS ESSENTIAL TO THE WHOLE [redacted] OF THE WORKING CLASS AND THEREFORE TO THE WHOLE OF THE NATION. IT IS THEREFORE OF THE GREATEST IMPORTANCE THAT AMERICAN NEGROES THEMSELVES AND AMERICAN PEOPLE AS A WHOLE SHOULD REALIZE WHAT 15 MILLION PERSONS OF NEGRO DESCENT MEAN TO THIS COUNTRY: THE IMPORTANCE OF THEIR HARD MANUAL LABOR WHICH FROM THE BEGINNING OF THE NATION HAS BEEN THE BASIS UPON WHICH THE WEALTH AND PROSPERITY OF THIS COUNTRY HAS BEEN BUILT. AND IN ADDITION TO THAT, THESE PEOPLE ARE OF IMPORTANCE BECAUSE OF THE WAYS IN WHICH THEY SPEND THEIR INCOME; THEIR ROLE AS CONSUMERS. IT DOES NOT MAKE A REAL DIFFERENCE IF BECAUSE OF SMALL WAGE AND NARROW CONSUMERS POWER THEY ARE NOT SPENDING MONEY AT THE SAME RATIO PER PERSON AS THE RICH AND POWERFUL, NEVERTHELESS IN THE AGGREGATE, THE NEGROES/IN THE UNITED STATES/PROBABLY SPEND THREE THOUSAND MILLION DOLLARS/ A YEAR/AND THAT IS A CONSIDERABLE PART OF OUR ECONOMY.

BUT OF COURSE/THE IMPORTANCE OF A GROUP OF PEOPLE/TO THE NATION,/ IS NOT SIMPLY ITS WORKING POWER/OR ITS EXPENDITURE OF MONEY.// WHAT IS MORE IMPORTANT THAN THAT/IS WHAT WE MAY CALL VAGUELY/THEIR SPIRITUAL SIGNIFICANCE:/ WHAT THEY REMEMBER:/ WHAT THEY ARE THINKING OF:/ WHAT THEY ARE COMPLAINING ABOUT/AND TRYING TO DO;/ WHAT THEIR FEELINGS ARE,/ AND REACTIONS TO THE THINGS THAT ARE HAPPENING ROUND ABOUT.// ALL THIS FILLS UP A WORLD,/ NOT SIMPLY THEIR WORLD,/ BUT IT IS PART/AND AN IMPRESSIVE PART/OF THE WORLD OF OTHER PEOPLE / UPON WHOM/THIS INNER WORLD REACTS.

THE INFLUENCE/OF AMERICAN NEGRO THOUGHTS AND ACTIONS/UPON THIS COUNTRY/ FOR THREE HUNDRED YEARS/OR MORE/HAS BEEN TREMENDOUS./ IT HAS REINFORCED AND CRITIZED/ALL OF THE THOUGHTS/WHICH WE HAVE HAD/CONCERNING FREEDOM AND DEMOCRACY./ IT HAS GUIDED OUR RELIGIOUS THOUGHTS,/ OUR WORSHIP AND IDEALS/AND PARTICULARLY/IT HAS TAUGHT US SINGING AND DANCING/AS SYMBOLS OF SORROW AND JOY.// ALL OF THIS IS OF ~~TREMENDOUS~~ GREAT INFLUENCE./ IT MUST NOT ONLY BE KNOWN AND STUDIED,/ IT MUST BE GUIDED,/ IT MUST BE RESTRAINED,/ IT MUST BE ENCOURAGED ALONG CERTAIN LINES/AND TOWARDS CERTAIN IDEALS.

35-3-316

TODAY/WE ARE BEGINNING TO REALIZE/THAT LEGISLATION IS NOT SIMPLY/A MATTER OF RESTRAINT.// IN THE 18th CENTURY/WHEN THE DECLARATION OF INDEPENDENCE WAS PROCLAIMED/AND A NEW NATION ORGANIZED,/ WE WERE UNDER THE IMPRESSION THAT THE BEST COUNTRY/WAS THE ONE THAT HAD THE FEWEST LAWS./ YOU WILL STILL FIND PEOPLE WHO ARE THINKING/ALONG THOSE LINES TODAY:/ BUT THEY WERE THINKING OF LAW/IN THE SENSE OF "THOU SHALT NOT!"/ THEY WERE NOT REALIZING THAT LAW AS WE KNOW IT TODAY/IS THE SOCIAL JUDGMENT OF MEN/ BUILT ON,/ OR AT LEAST DESIGNED TO BE BUILT UPON/WHAT THEY HAVE LEARNED/AND WHAT THEY WANT TO HAPPEN:/

AND THAT UNLESS/ YOU HAVE THIS CONSTRUCTIVE LAW/ AND GUIDING LEGISLATION,/ THE NATION/ ESPECIALLY AS ITS PATH/ BECOMES MORE COMPLICATED AND DIFFICULT,/ IS FACED WITH ANARCHY AND FRUSTRATION.

WE WANT TODAY,/ LAWS WHICH WILL GIVE THE MINORITIES OF PEOPLE/ THE SUPPRESSED GROUPS/, A CHANCE TO MAKE THEIR CONTRIUBTION/ TO THE WHOLE ACCOMPLISHMENT OF THE NATION./ SUCH LAWS ARE DIFFICULT TO CONCEIVE OF,/ MORE DIFFICULT TO ENACT/ AND MOST DIFFICULT TO ENFORCE;/ BUT THAT DOES NOT MEAN/ THAT THEY MUST NOT BE ATTEMPTED./ SO LONG AS YOU HAVE POVERTY,/ PEOPLE RECIVING LESS THAN IS NECESSARY/ FOR A DECENT LIVING;// SO LONG AS YOU HAVE IGNORANCE,/ CHILDREN ALLOWED TO GROW UP/ WITHOUT KNOWLEDGE OF THE WORLD/ IN WHICH THEY ARE TO LIVE AND WORK;// SO LONG AS YOU HAVE PREVENTABLE SICKNESS,// THEN UNLESS A NATION/ MAKES ORGANIZED AND LEGISLATIVE EFFORT/ TO COMBAT THESE DIFFICULTIES,/ THE NATION IS HEADED TOWARD DISASTER.

WE WANT THE CONGRESS OF THE UNITED STATES/ IN THIS SESSION/ TO BEGIN A BROAD SOCIAL LEGISLATION./ WE WANT ARBRITRARY DISCRIMINATION IN WORK/ MADE ILLEGAL./ WE WANT TO MAKE THE MINIMUM WAGE/ PAID FOR LABOR/ ENOUGH TO SUPPORT THE WORKER IN DECENCY;/ WE WANT IGNORANCE WIPED OUT/ BY SCHOOLS FREE TO ALL;/ WE WANT LAWLESSNESS PUNISHED/ AND CASTE MADE IMPOSSIBLE.// THESE THINGS ARE DIFFICULT OF ACCOMPLISHMENT;/ FIRST OF ALL/ THEY ARE COSTLY/ BUT THEY INVOLVE NO COST SO GREAT/ THAT WILL NOT REPAY ITSELF EVENTUALLY/ A HUNDRED FOLD.// THE EXPENDITURE CALLED FOR NOW/ WOULD NOT AMOUNT TO ANYTHING/ LIKE THE 20 or 30 BILLIONS OF DOLLARS/ WHICH WE ARE WILLING TO WASTE UPON WAR.// SUCH LEGISLATION/ MADE WITH DIFFICULTY,/ FINANCED AT LARGE COST,/ WILL NATURALLY DEPEND FOR ITS ENFORCEMENT UPON PUBLIC OPINION/---AND THERE/ WE HAVE GOT TO DEPEND, not SIMPLY/ NOT UPON THE CONGRESS/ AND THE PRESIDENT/ BUT UPON OURSELVES;/ UPON OUR OWN FAITH

35-3-318

IN HUMAN BEINGS/OF ALL KINDS AND COLORS./ AND UPON THE CERTAIN KNOWLEDGE / THAT THE LEVEL OF LIFE/ AND INTELLIGENCE/AND HEALTH/ CAN BE SO RAISED /THAT DEMOCRACY WILL BE POSSIBLE.// IF WE HAVE NOT /THIS FAITH/ WHEN NO MATTER /WHAT WE SPEND/AND WHAT LAWS WE MAKE/ THEY WILL NOT REACH THE GOAL.// AND ON THE OTHER HAND/ IF AMONG THE MASS OF PEOPLE/WE HAVE THIS UNWAVERING FAITH/IN HUMAN BEINGS / THERE IS NOTHING/THAT WE CANNOT ACCOMPLISH.// THIS DEPENDS OF COURSE UPON THE SPREAD OF THE TRUTH,/ AND THE GREATEST HINDRANCE/TO THAT TODAY/IS THE EXTRA-ORDINARY CONDITION OF THE PRESS,/ FROM WHICH WE GET/OR ARE PRESUMED TO GET/ OUR KNOWLEDGE OF THE WORLD./ THE PRESS IN AMERICA IS NOT FREE,/ IT IS MONOPOLIZED./ IT EXPRESSES THE IDEAS/AND DESIRES OF CERTAIN SELFISH GROUPS/OF PEOPLE.// WE HAVE GOT/ABOVE ALL/ TO REMEMBER THAT A FREE PRESS,/ TO KEEP FREE,/ MUST BE PAID FOR/ BY THE PEOPLE/AND NOT BY THE ADVERTISERS.// IT MUST BE READ/AND NOT MERELY LOOKED AT/ AS A SERIES OF COMIC STRIPS./ THERE MUST BE OPEN/AND CONTINUED EFFORT/ ON THE PART OF ORGANIZATIONS LIKE THIS/TO SUPPORT NEWSPAPERS/ AND

AFRICA AND THE WORLD — New York City

BY

W. E. B. Du Bois

35-3-9

- I WANT TO BRING BEFORE YOU AND DISCUSS TONIGHT A THESIS SOMEWHAT DIFFERENT FROM THAT WHICH MOST PEOPLE WOULD ADMIT: AND THAT IS THAT THE CRITICAL AREA FOR THE FUTURE DEVELOPMENT OF THE WORLD TODAY IS AFRICA: AND NOT EUROPE, ASIA OR THE AMERICAS. THIS IS, I ADMIT, A STRAINING OF LOGIC IN SOME RESPECT. THE MAJORITY OF THE WORLD'S PEOPLES LIVE IN EUROPE, ASIA AND THE AMERICAS. THE CENTER OF MODERN CULTURE IS IN EUROPE AND NORTH AMERICA: AND THEREFORE LOGICALLY, WE WOULD SAY THAT WHAT HAPPENS IN THESE COUNTRIES WOULD DETERMINE THE FUTURE DEVELOPMENT OF THE WORLD. THIS OF COURSE TRUE, BUT IN ADDITION TO THIS WE MUST REMEMBER THAT WHAT IS HAPPENING AND IS GOING TO HAPPEN IN AFRICA IS AT THE INSTIGATION AND THROUGH THE LEADERSHIP AND

COMPULSION OF EUROPE AND AMERICA.

AFRICA IS THEREFORE, IN A CERTAIN WAY, A MANIFESTATION OF THOUGHT AND ACTION AND IS GOING TO BE FATAL FOR MODERN CULTURE. IF THEN AFRICA IS NOT WATCHED, THE COLLAPSE OF EUROPE MAY COME UNNOTICED. THEREFORE WHAT IS GOING TO HAPPEN TO AFRICA AS IT SEEMS TO ME IS THAT WHILE EUROPE IS PROGRESSING TOWARD ITS DEVELOPMENT TOWARD SOCIALISM: THIS TREND WILL BE COUNTERACTED IN AFRICA. SOCIALISTIC PLANNING IS GOING TO INCREASE ON A STRONG FOUNDATION OF PRIVATE CAPITALISM IN THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, WHILE THE CARIBBEAN AND SOUTH AMERICA ARE GOING TO FOLLOW THE LEAD OF NORTH AMERICA.

EASTERN EUROPE AND ASIA ARE GOING TO DEVELOP TOWARD SOCIALISM AND COMMUNISM: BUT AGAINST THIS DEVELOPMENT IN EUROPE AND NORTH AMERICA, THERE IS GOING TO BE A STRONG COUNTER INFLUENCE RISING FROM THE FACT THAT THE LAST STAND OF EXPLOITING CAPITALISM IS GOING TO TAKE PLACE IN AFRICA: AND IF IT IS SUCCESSFUL, AND IN SO FAR AS IT IS SUCCESSFUL, IT IS GOING TO HINDER AND KEEP BACK THS SOCIALISTIC DEVELOPMENT OF BOTH EUROPE AND AMERICA. THE DEVELOPMENT THEREFORE OF AFRICA CANNOT BE CONSIDERED AS LOCAL OR OUTSIDE THE MAIN DEVELOPMENT OF MODERN EUROPEAN CULTURE: IT IS NOT ONLY A PART OF IT BUT IT IS AN EXCEEDINGLY IMPORTANT PART, BECAUSE IF IT BECOMES THE CENTER OF A BELATED CAPITALISTIC EXPLOITATION IT IS GOING TO HINDER THE NATURAL DEVELOPMENT OF THE WHOLE WORLD.

MOREOVER, THERE ARE HISTORICAL REASONS WHY SUCH EXPLOITATION CAN TAKE PLACE IN AFRICA MORE EASILY AND READILY EVEN TODAY THAN ELSEWHERE IN THE WORLD. ITS PROGRESS HAS BEEN STOPPED IN ASIA BY INDIA, CHINA AND INDONESIA. IT HAS BEEN HALTED IN SOUTH AMERICA BY THE UNSTEADY BUT GRADUAL RISE OF THE LABORING CLASSES AND THE SAME IS TRUE IN THE CARIBBEAN.

MOREOVER, TOWARD THE PEOPLE OF ASIA DESPITE LONG MISREPRESENTATION AND IGNORANCE, EUROPE AND AMERICA HAVE TODAY COME TO THE PLACE WHERE THEY HAVE

CONSIDERABLE RESPECT FOR THE ANCIENT CULTURES OF THE LAND, AND PARTICULARLY A FEAR OF THEIR TREMENDOUSLY LARGE POPULATION. BUT IN AFRICA THE LONG EXPERIENCE OF THE SLAVE TRADE AND AMERICAN SLAVERY UPON THE MINDS OF MEN HAS BY NO MEANS BEEN ELIMINATED. THAT PART OF THE AFRICAN PEOPLE WHO WERE TRANSPORTED TO AMERICA AND HAVE DEVELOPED HERE, HAVE TO BE SURE, GAINED A MODICUM OF RESPECT. NO ONE QUESTIONS TODAY BUT WHAT THE NEGRO ELEMENT IN ALL THE AMERICAS IS GOING TO DEVELOPE TOWARD MODERN CULTURE.

ON THE OTHER HAND, NOT ONLY AMONG WHITE PEOPLE BUT ALSO AMONG THE DESCENDENTS OF NEGROES THEMSELVES IN AMERICA, THE QUESTION OF THE POSSIBILITIES OF AFRICA IS BY NO MEANS CLEAR: AND THIS OF COURSE ARISES HISTORICALLY FROM THE HISTORY OF THE CONNECTION OF EUROPEAN CULTURE WITH AFRICA BETWEEN THE RENAISSANCE AND THE INDUSTRIAL REVOLUTION. BEFORE THAT, FROM THE TIME OF THE SPREAD OF THE ROMAN EMPIRE TO THE BEGINNING OF THE RENAISSANCE, AFRICA, IN THE WORLD'S OPINION HAD EQUAL RESPECT WITH OTHER PARTS OF THE

WORLD. THERE WAS NO COLOR LINE, BLACK MEN CAME AND WENT AND PLAYED THEIR PART AND WERE RECOGNIZED ALL OVER THE WORLD: LONG BEFORE EGYPTIAN CIVILIZATION HAD BEEN AFRICAN, AND THE SO-CALLED ARABIAN CULTURE DEVELOPED ALMOST EXCLUSIVELY IN AFRICA. LATER THE GREAT CATHOLIC CHURCH WAS DEVELOPED IN AFRICA.

35-3-93

THE CHANGE THAT CAME AFTER THE RENAISSANCE WAS DUE TO THE USE OF THE LABOR OF AFRICANS IN SOUTHERN EUROPE AND THEN IN AMERICA: FROM THIS LABOR AROSE THE FURNISHING OF MATERIALS LIKE GOLD ANDSPICES, AND CROPS LIKE TOBACCO, SUGAR AND COTTON WHICH WHEN COMBINED WITH THE NEW SCIENTIFIC TECHNIQUE OF THE LATER EIGHTEENTH AND EARLIER NINETEENTH CENTURIES TRANSFORMED THE ECONOMIC CONDITION OF THE WORLD.

THE RESULT OF THE AFRICAN SLAVE TRADE AND SLAVERY ON THE ~~EUROPEAN~~ MIND AND CULTURE WAS TO DEGRADE THE POSITION OF LABOR AND THE RESPECT FOR HUMANITY AS SUCH. NOT, GOD KNOWS, THAT THE ANCIENT WORLD HONORED LABOR.

WITH EXCEPTIONS HERE AND THERE, IT WAS DESPISED, ENSLAVED, AND CRUCIFIED HUMAN TOIL. BUT THERE WERE COUNTER CURRENTS, AND WITH THE RENAISSANCE IN EUROPE, THAT NEW LIGHT WHICH ASIA AND AFRICA ILLUMINATED THE DARK AGES OF EUROPE, CAME NEW HOPE FOR MANKIND. A NEW RELIGION OF PERSONAL SACRIFICE HAD BEEN BUILDING ON FIVE HUNDRED YEARS OF THE SELF EFFACEMENT OF BUDDHA BEFORE THE BIRTH OF CHRIST, AND THE EQUALITARIANISM OF MOHAMMED WHICH FOLLOWED SIX HUNDRED YEARS AFTER CHRIST'S BIRTH. A NEW WORLD, SEEKING BIRTH IN EUROPE, WAS ALSO BEING DISCOVERED BEYOND THE SUNSET.

WITH THIS NEW WORLD CAME FATALLY THE AFRICAN SLAVE TRADE AND NEGRO SLAVERY IN THE AMERICAS. THERE WERE NEW CRUELTIES, NEW HATREDS OF HUMAN BEINGS, AND NEW DEGRADATIONS OF HUMAN LABOR. THE TEMPTATION TO DEGRADE HUMAN LABOR WAS MADE VASTER AND DEEPER BY THE INCREDIBLE ACCUMULATION OF WEALTH BASED ON SLAVE LABOR, BY THE BOUNDLESS GROWTH OF GREED, AND BY WORLD-WIDE ORGANIZATION FOR NEW AGRICULTURAL CROPS, NEW TECHNIQUES IN INDUSTRY, AND WORLD WIDE TRADE.

JUST AS EUROPE LURCHED FORWARD TO A NEW REALIZATION OF BEAUTY, A NEW FREEDOM OF THOUGHT AND RELIGIOUS BELIEF, A NEW DEMAND BY LABORERS TO CHOOSE THEIR WORK AND ENJOY ITS FRUIT, UNCURBED GREED ROSE TO SEIZE AND MONOPOLIZE THE UNCOUNTED TREASURE OF THE FRUIT OF LABOR. LABOR WAS DEGRADED, HUMANITY WAS DESPISED, THE THEORY OF "RACE" AROSE. THERE CAME A NEW DOCTRINE OF UNIVERSAL LABOR: MANKIND WERE OF TWO SORTS, THE SUPERIOR AND THE INFERIOR: THE INFERIOR TOILED FOR THE SUPERIOR: AND THE SUPERIOR WERE THE REAL MEN, THE INFERIOR HALF MEN OR LESS. AMONG THE WHITE LORDS OF CREATION THERE WERE "LOWER CLASSES" RESEMBLING THE INFERIOR DARKER FOLK. WHERE POSSIBLE THEY WERE TO BE RAISED TO EQUALITY WITH THE MASTER CLASS. BUT NO EQUALITY WAS POSSIBLE OR DESIRABLE FOR "DARKIES." IN LINE WITH THIS CONVICTION, THE CHRISTIAN CHURCH, CATHOLIC AND PROTESTANT, AT FIRST DAMNED THE HEATHEN BLACKS WITH THE "CURSE OF CANAAN," THEN HELD OUT HOPE OF FREEDOM THROUGH "CONVERSION," AND FINALLY ACQUIESCED IN A PERMANENT STATUS OF HUMAN SLAVERY.

DESPITE THE FACT THAT THE NINETEENTH CENTURY SAW AN UPSURGE IN THE POWER OF LABORING CLASSES AND A FIGHT TOWARD ECONOMIC EQUALITY AND POLITICAL DEMOCRACY, THIS MOVEMENT AND BATTLE WAS MADE FIERCER AND LESS SUCCESSFUL AND LAGGED FAR BEHIND THE ACCUMULATION OF WEALTH, BECAUSE IN POPULAR OPINION LABOR WAS FUNDAMENTALLY DEGRADING AND THE JUST BURDEN OF INFERIOR PEOPLES. LUXURY AND PLENTY FOR THE FEW AND POVERTY FOR THE MANY WAS LOOKED UPON AS INEVITABLE IN THE COURSE OF NATURE. IN ADDITION TO THIS, IT WENT WITHOUT SAYING THAT THE WHITE PEOPLE OF EUROPE HAD A RIGHT TO LIVE UPON THE LABOR AND PROPERTY OF THE COLORED PEOPLES OF THE WORLD.

IN ORDER TO ESTABLISH THE RIGHTEOUSNESS OF THIS POINT OF VIEW, SCIENCE AND RELIGION, GOVERNMENT AND INDUSTRY, WERE WHEELED INTO LINE. THE WORD "NEGRO" WAS USED FOR THE FIRST TIME IN THE WORLD'S HISTORY TO TIE COLOR TO RACE AND BLACKNESS TO SLAVERY AND DEGRADATION. THE WHITE RACE WAS PICTURED AS "PURE" AND SUPERIOR: THE BLACK RACE AS DIRTY, STUPID, AND INEVITABLY

INFERIOR: THE YELLOW AS SHARING, IN DECEPTION AND COWARDICE, MUCH OF THIS COLOR INFERIORITY: WHILE MIXTURE OF RACES WAS CONSIDERED THE PRIME CAUSE OF DEGRADATION AND FAILURE IN CIVILIZATION. EVERYTHING GREAT, EVERYTHING FINE, EVERYTHING REALLY SUCCESSFUL IN HUMAN CULTURE WAS WHITE.

35-3-74

IN ORDER TO PROVE THIS, EVEN BLACK PEOPLE IN INDIA AND AFRICA WERE LABELED AS "WHITE" IF THEY SHOWED ANY TRACE OF PROGRESS: AND, ON THE OTHER HAND, ANY PROGRESS BY COLORED PEOPLE WAS ATTRIBUTED TO SOME INTERMIXTURE, ANCIENT OR MODERN, OF WHITE BLOOD OR SOME INFLUENCE OF WHITE CIVILIZATION.

THIS LOGICAL CONTRADICTION INFLUENCED AND MISLED SCIENCE. THE SAME PERSON DECLARED THAT MULATTOES WERE INFERIOR AND WARNED AGAINST MISCEGNATION, AND YET ATTRIBUTED THE PREEMINENCE OF A DUMAS, A FREDERICK DOUGLASS, A BOOKER T. WASHINGTON TO THEIR WHITE BLOOD.

A SYSTEM AT FIRST CONSCIOUS AND THEN UNCONSCIOUS OF LYING ABOUT HISTORY AND DISTORTING IT TO THE DISADVANTAGE OF THE NEGROIDS BECAME SO WIDE-SPREAD THAT THE HISTORY OF AFRICA CEASED TO BE TAUGHT, THE COLOR OF MEMNON WAS FORGOTTEN, AND EVERY EFFORT WAS MADE IN ARCHAEOLOGY, HISTORY, AND BIOGRAPHY, IN BIOLOGY, PSYCHOLOGY, AND SOCIOLOGY, TO PROVE THE ALL BUT UNIVERSAL ASSUMPTION THAT THE COLOR LINE HAD A SCIENTIFIC BASIS.

WITHOUT THE WINKING OF AN EYE, PRINTING, GU POWDER, THE SMELTING OF IRON, THE BEGINNINGS OF SOCIAL ORGANIZATION, NOT TO MENTION POLITICAL LIFE AND DEMOCRACY, WERE ATTRIBUTED EXCLUSIVELY TO THE WHITE RACE AND TO NORDIC EUROPE. RELIGION SIGHED WITH RELIEF WHEN IT COULD BASE ITS DENIAL OF THE ETHICS OF CHRIST AND THE BROTHERHOOD OF MAN UPON THE SCIENCE OF DARWIN, GOBINEAU, AND REISNER.

IT WAS BAD ENOUGH IN ALL CONSCIENCE TO HAVE THE CONSEQUENCES OF THIS THOUGHT, THESE SCIENTIFIC CONCLUSIONS AND ETHICAL SANCTION, FALL UPON COLORED PEOPLE THE WORLD OVER: BUT IN THE END IT WAS EVEN WORSE WHEN ONE CONSIDERS WHAT THIS ATTITUDE DID TO THE EUROPEAN WORKER. HIS AIM AND

IDEAL WAS DISTORTED. HE DID NOT WISH TO BECOME EFFICIENT BUT RICH. HE BEGAN TO WANT NOT COMFORT FOR ALL MEN, BUT POWER FOR HIMSELF OVER OTHER MEN. HE DID NOT LOVE HUMANITY AND HE HATED "NIGGERS." WHEN OUR HIGH COMMISSIONER AFTER THE SPANISH WAR APPEALED TO AMERICA ON BEHALF OF "OUR LITTLE BROWN BROTHER," THE WHITE WORKERS REPLIED, "HE MAY BE A BROTHER TO WILLIAM H. TAFT, BUT HE AIN'T NO BROTHER OF MINE."

35-3-93

ATTEMPT AT REVOLUTION. THE UNITY OF APPRENTICE AND MASTER, THE CHRISTIAN SYMPATHY BETWEEN RICH AND POOR, THE COMMUNISM OF MEDIEVAL CHARITY, ALL WERE THRUST INTO THE NEW STRAIT JACKET OF THOUGHT: POVERTY WAS THE RESULT OF SLOTH AND CRIME: WEALTH WAS THE REWARD OF VIRTUE AND WORK. THE DEGRADED YELLOW AND BLACK PEOPLE WERE IN THE PLACES WHICH THE WORLD OF NECESITY ASSIGNED TO THE INFERIOR: AND TOWARD THESE LOWER RANKS THE WORKING CLASSES OF ALL COUNTRIES TENDED TO SINK SAVE AS THEY WERE RAISED AND SUPPORTED BY THE RICH, THE INVESTORS, THE CAPTAINS OF INDUSTRY.

THE RESULT, IN THE LATTER QUARTER OF THE NINETEENTH CENTURY WAS THE DEDICATION OF AFRICA AS A FIELD FOR EUROPEAN EXPLOITATION. EGYPT WAS LEFT UNDER THE INFLUENCE OF THE DESCENDENTS OF ARAB INVADERS WHO BECAME PUPPETS AND AGENTS OF EUROPEAN INVESTORS. ISOLATED IDEAL, BRITISH CONQUEST HER HIGH CITADEL OF MOUNTA

LIBERIA WAS MARKED FOR SLAUGHTER BUT, THE QUESTION OF OWNERSHIP HELD UP BECAUSE OF THE PRIOR RIGHTS OF AMERICA, WHICH WERE NOT ASSERTED UNTIL THE EIGHTEENTH CENTURY. THE REST OF AFRICA WAS DIVIDED AMONG THE EUROPEAN NATION WITH AT FIRST NO QUESTION BUT THAT THE LAND WAS TO BE CONFISCATED, THE LABOR CONTROLLED, THE PEOPLE WERE TO HAVE NO VOICE IN GOVERNMENT AND AS LITTLE EDUCATION AS WAS NECESSARY FOR THEM TO DO THE WORK OF RAISING VALUABLE MATERIALS. THIS SCHEME WAS PUT INTO FULL EFFECT IN SOUTH AFRICA, THE RHODESIAS, IN PORTUGUESE AFRICE, IN THE BELGIAN CONGO, IN FRENCH AFRICA, AND IN WHAT WAS GERMAN AFRICA AND BRITISH EAST AFRICA. IN BRITISH WEST AFRICA THE SCHEME DID NOT COMPLETELY TRIUMPH. THE BRITISH WAS UNABLE TO CONQUER, BUT REMAINED ON THE STRONG POLITICAL ORGANIZATIONS OF WEST AFRICA AND THEY THEREFORE, LEFT OF NECESSITY TO THE WEST AFRICANS THEIR LOCAL RULE INCLUDING OWNERSHIP OF THE LAND. BUT ON THE OTHER HAND, THEY MONOPOLIZED THE MARKETS, REGULATED THE PRICES AND IN THIS WAY INDIRECTLY FIXED WAGES AND COERCED LABOR.

IN SOME PARTS OF THE CONTINENT THE EXPLOITATION WAS MODIFIED. IN SOUTH AFRICA THE OVERWHELMING NUMBER OF NATIVES INTERFERED SOMEWHAT WITH CONTROL, BUT ON THE OTHER HAND, THE DISCOVERY OF GOLD AND DIAMONDS BROUGHT IN SO MUCH CAPITAL AND POWER THAT PORTUGUESE AFRICA AND THE VARIOUS BRITISH PROTECTORATES WERE INDUCED AND PRACTICALLY COMPELLED TO FURNISH LABOR. IN THE BELGIAN CONGO, A HIGH SOUNDING PROMISE OF CHIRSTIANIZING AND EDUCATING THE NATIVES WAS MADE THE LYING EXCUSE FOR SEIZING ONE OF THE MOST FERTILE PARTS OF AFRICA AND SUBMITTING IT TO ONE OF THE WORST INSTANCES OF EXPLOITATION THAT THE MODERN WORLD HAS KNOWN. IN FRENCH AFRICA, THE PROCEDURE DIFFERED ONLY IN THE FACT THAT THE SMALL INTELLIGENTSIA AMONG THE NEGROES WAS GIVEN A CHANCE TO ASSOCIATE ITSELF WITH THE EXPLOITERS AND BECOME AN INTEGRAL PART OF THE EXPLOITING NATION. THE EXPLOITATION OF THE MASS OF PEOPLE WENT ON IN EXACTLY THE SAME MANNER AS THOUGH THE EXPLOITERS HAD BEEN ENTIRELY WHITE. THEN CAME TWO WORLD WARS, WHICH CHANGED THE FACE OF

35-3-12

COLONIAL IMPERIALISM AND NARROWED THE FIELD OF EXPLOITATION. HOW VALUABLE AFRICA IS FOR EXPLOITATION, LET US PAUSE A MOMENT AND CONSIDER.

THROUGH THE NINETEENTH CENTURY, AMERICA ON THE STRENGTH OF ITS BLACK LABOR AS WELL AS WHITE, GREW IN WEALTH AND IMPORTANCE. IT BECAME THE GREATEST EXPERIMENT IN MODERN DEMOCRACY, SEEKING TO EMBRACE EVENTUALLY NOT SIMPLY THE WHITE BUT THE BLACK WORKER. TODAY NOT ONLY IS THE NEGRO AN IMPORTANT PART OF THE WORLD OF LABOR AND ART IN ALL THE AMERICAS, BUT BEYOND THIS THE TRADE OF AMERICA IS BUILT IN LARGE DEGREE UPON THE PRODUCTS RAISED BY AFRICANS AND THEIR CHILDREN THE WORLD OVER.

BUT BEYOND AMERICA AND IN THE MAIN STATES OF THE MODERN WORLD THE COLD ECONOMIC FACT IS THAT AFRICA, ITS LABOR AND PRODUCTS, ARE OF PRIME IMPORTANCE. OF THE TYPICAL PRODUCTS OF AFRICA, COTTON, ONE OF THE OLDEST THERE, IS STILL VALUABLE, AND COTTON CLOTH WAS EXPORTED FROM AFRICA LONG

BEFORE IT WAS WOVEN IN ENGLAND. SISSAL, HEMP, AND OTHER FIBER PLANTS AND FLAX ARE INDIGENOUS TO AFRICA. THE VAST DEMAND FOR VEGETABLE OIL HAS RESULTED IN THE OIL INDUSTRY, ESPECIALLY IN WEST AFRICA. PALM OIL IS USED FOR MARGARINE, SOAP, LUBRICATION, "OLIVE OIL," AND FOR OTHER INDUSTRIAL PURPOSES. THUS THE OIL PALM OF WEST AFRICA IS A VALUABLE PRODUCT AND SUPPLIES PALM KERNELS WHICH ARE EXPORTED FROM THE WHOLE WEST COAST. THE GROUND NUT AND COCOA*NUT ALSO PRODUCE OILS. THE COCONUT PALM IS FOUND ALL OVER THE CONTINENT NORTH OF THE TROPIC OF CAPRICORN AND ALSO SOUTH OF THE DATE-PALM LINE.

THE SHEA-NUT TREE GROWS WHERE THE OIL PALM DOES NOT, AND ITS FAT IS USED FOR FOOD, SOAP-MAKING, AND BUTTER. THE COCOA INDUSTRY OF WEST AFRICA NOW SUPPLIES TWO-THIRDS OF THE COCOA OF THE WORLD. KOLA NUTS ARE ALSO EXPORTED. IN THE MEDITERRANEAN AREA PRACTICALLY ALL GRAINS CULTIVATED IN EUROPE CAN BE GROWN. COFFEE IS NATIVE TO AFRICA AND IS NAMED

AFTER THE PROVINCE OF KAFFA, ABYSSINIA. IT GROWS ALSO IN LIBERIA. THE GREATER PART OF TROPICAL AFRICA PRODUCES SOME KIND OF RUBBER. NEARLY ALL OF THE CLOVES ARE GOTTEN FROM ZANZIBAR AND PEMBA. FRUITS ARE GROWN AND EXPORTED FROM NEARLY EVERY PART OF AFRICA, FROM THE BANANAS AND MANGOES IN THE TROPICS TO THE WINE GRAPES OF THE NORTH AND SOUTH. THE DATE PALM FLOURISHED THROUGHOUT NORTH AFRICA. LARGE AREAS OF THE CONTINENT ARE SUITABLE FOR CATTLE AND SHEEP RAISING, ALTHOUGH FLIES AND DISEASES KEEP THEM OUT OF OTHER DISTRICTS.

GOLD IS WIDELY DISTRIBUTED IN AFRICA AND HAS BEEN WORKED FROM PREHISTORIC AGES ON THE WEST COAST, THE NUBIAN DESERT, CENTRAL AND SOUTH AFRICA. A THIRD OF THE WORLD'S SUPPLY OF GOLD IN THE WORLD TODAY IS MINED ON THE WITWATERSRAND. DIAMONDS ARE FOUND IN THREE DISTRICTS OF SOUTH AFRICA AND IN THE BELGIAN CONGO. THEY ARE OF IMMENSE VALUE. THERE ARE COAL-BEARING AREAS IN SOUTH AFRICA. IRON HAS BEEN WORKED FROM AN EARLY AGE, AND ON THE GOLD COAST, MANGANESE IS BEING DEVELOPED.

THERE ARE FOUR GREAT COPPER PRODUCING AREAS, PRINCIPALLY IN RHODESIA AND THE BELGIAN CONGO, AND ALSO IN THE NORTHERN TRANSVAAL. LEAD, GRAPHITE, AND ZINC ARE WIDELY DISTRIBUTED. PHOSPHATES OCCUR IN THE NORTH. MINERAL OIL HAS BEEN DISCOVERED IN EGYPT NEAR THE RED SEA. SODA IS LARGELY AN AFRICAN PRODUCT. MAIZE IS CULTIVATED IN MANY REGIONS. TOBACCO IS A CROP OF SOUTH AFRICA. SUGAR IS GROWN IN EGYPT, MOZAMBIQUE, AND NATAL. AND THERE IS MUCH VALUABLE TIMBER ALL OVER THE CONTINENT.

BESIDES SUPPLYING THESE MATERIALS AFRICA IS ONE OF THE LARGEST RESERVOIRS OF HUMAN LABOR, NOT ONLY OF COMMON LABOR, BUT OF SEMI-SKILLED AND INCREASING NUMBERS OF SKILLED LABORERS. FOR THE MOST PART THESE LABORERS ARE UNORGANIZED AND WITHOUT POLITICAL POWER, AND CONSEQUENTLY THEY FORM THE CHEAPEST LABOR AVAILABLE, SAVE IN ASIA.

ONE GREAT BY-PRODUCT OF THE LAST WAR IS THE GROWING IMPORTANCE OF AFRICA, THE SECOND GREATEST LAND AREA OF THE EARTH, WITH 150,000,000 PEOPLE

AND LIMITLESS NATURAL RESOURCES. ASIA IS DISAPPEARING AS A COLONIAL AREA: BRITAIN HAS LOST INDIA: FRANCE CANNOT HOLD INDO-CHINE: HOLLAND IS LOSING INDONESIA: AND CHINA IS BEATING CHIANG KAI-SHEK, PUPPET OF THE WEST, TO HIS KNEES. IN THE NEAR EAST, ARABS AND ISLAM SPELL A SHARP CURB TO EUROPEAN OVERLACRSHIP. IF WESTERN IMPERIALISM IS TO SURVIVE IT MUST CENTER IN AFRICA.

35-3-99

AN ENGLISH DAILY SAID RECENTLY, "THERE ARE FEW PEOPLE WHO REALIZE THE URGENT IMPORTANCE OF PAN-AFRICAN DEVELOPMENT." ERNEST BEVIN, REVIEWING FOREIGN AFFAIRS BEFORE THE HOUSE OF COMMONS LAST JANUARY, COMMENTED, " I BELIEVE NOW THE TIME IS RIPE FOR A CONSOLIDATION OF WESTERN EUROPE, AND THIS CONSOLIDATION MUST BE SUPPORTED. AND THAT INVOLVES THE CLOSEST COLLABORATION BETWEEN THE COMMONWEALTH AND THE OVERSEAS TERRITORY OF THE FRENCH, DUTCH, BELGIANS, AND PORTUGUESE. THEIR RAW MATERIALS, FOOD AND OTHER RESOURCES COULD BE OF MUTUAL ADVANTAGE TO THESE TERRITORIES AND TO THE WORLD." ANGLO*FRENCH CONSULTATIONS HAVE BEEN UNDER WAY FOR CREATION OF AN ECONOMIC

GROUPING BY WHICH WESTERN EUROPE WOULD BE LINKED WITH THE AFRICAN CONTINENT.

OUT OF THIS AGITATION HAVE COME THREE SIGNIFICENT DEVELOPMENTS: BRITISH MIGRATION TO AFRICA: THE NEW FORTIFICATION OF EAST AFRICA: AND GIGANTIC SCHEMES OF EXPLOITATION IN AFRICA. IN JANUARY OF THIS YEAR, 95,000 BRITISH SUBJECTS WERE REGISTERED FOR PASSAGE TO AFRICA. THIS YEAR A HUGE MILITARY STORES DEPOT HAS BEEN BUILT IN KENYA, EAST AFRICA. THOUSANDS OF WHITE TROOPS AND THOUSANDS OF BLACK LABORERS WORKED ON IT AND 2,000 ITALIAN ARTISANS WERE IMPORTED TO HELP. HUNDREDS OF TONS OF WAR MATERIAL WERE TRANSFERRED FROM NORTH AFRICA AND THE MIDDLE EAST.

THE PEANUT PLAN, PART OF A GENERAL SCHEME TO DEVELOP AFRICA AS A BRITISH FOOD ESTATE, CALLS FOR CLEARING, PLANTING, AND CULTIVATING BY MECHANIZED METHODS IN EAST AFRICA MORE THAN # 3,000,000 ACRES OF LAND IN UNITS OF 30,000 ACRES EACH. IT HAS BEEN DESCRIBED AS THE "MOST IMPORTANT ACTION OF GOVERNMENT IN THE HISTORY OF BRITISH TROPICAL AFRICA."

OTHER PLANS CALL FOR THE EXPANSION OF THE PALM OIL INDUSTRY OF NIGERIA, IMPROVEMENT OF THE COCOA CROP IN WEST AFRICA, INCREASED PRODUCTION OF COTTON, RUBBER AND HARDWOODS, INTENSIFICATION OF MINING, AND THE CREATION OF HYDRO-ELECTRIC POWER. ONE PROJECT FOR THE UGANDA IS CALLED "BREATHTAKING". IT WOULD RAISE THE LEVEL OF LAKE VICTORIA BY THREE FEET AND REVOLUTIONIZE THE VALLEY OF THE NILE. ANOTHER PROJECT FOR SOUTHERN RHODESIA CALLS FOR A DAM FOUR TIMES THE SIZE OF BOULDER DAM TO MAKE THIS REGION ONE OF THE WORLD'S FOUR CHIEF SOURCES OF HIGH GRADE STEEL.

WHAT DOES AFRICA SAY TO THIS? THERE IS NO ONE UNIT WHICH WE CAN CALL "AFRICA." WE MAY DISTINGUISH SIX AFRICAS TODAY. THE WESTERN BULGE OF THE CONTINENT ABOVE THE GULF OF GUINEA. THE HOT, LOW COASTAL BELT, LUSH WITH VEGETATION, RISES TOWARD THE CENTRAL PLATEAU. HERE ONCE THE AMERICAN SLAVE TRADE CENTERED: HERE IS LIBERIA, THE ATTEMPT OF AMERICAN NEGROES TO FIND FREEDOM THROUGH REPATRIATION. AND HERE IS BRITISH WEST AFRICA, WHERE

NEGROES TODAY ARE IN MOST ACTIVE REVOLT AGAINST COLONIALISM. A DOZEN PARAMOUNT CHIEFS AND KINGS OF WEST AFRICAN TRIBES HAVE JUST BEEN ENTERTAINED IN ENGLAND AND RECEIVED BY KING GEORGE TO ALLAY THIS AGITATION.

NEXT, THERE IS THE INLAND PLATEAU OF CENTRAL AFRICA WHICH DIPS TO THE CONGO VALLEY AND RISES TO THE GREAT BASTION OF THE CAPE OF GOOD HOPE. HERE, IN THE UNION OF SOUTH AFRICA AND THE RHODESIAS, IS THE WORST CENTER OF RACE HATE IN THE WORLD. HERE THREE AND A THIRD MILLION WHITES HAVE ABSOLUTE POLITICAL AND ECONOMIC MASTERY OF 9,000,000 BLACKS, MULATTOES, AND ASIATICS. THEY HAVE SEIZED 88 PER CENT OF THE LAND, AND ENFORCED PARALYZING CASTE LEGISLATION. THEIR TERRITORIES FURNISH THE WORLD WITH GOLD, DIAMONDS, AND COPPER.

UP THE EAST COAST, PAST THE GREAT RIFT AND THE MOUNTAIN OF THE MOON, THE EFFORT OF SOUTH AFRICA TO KEEP THE CONTROL OF BLACK LABOR AND LAND IN THE HANDS OF A FEW WHITES, CONTINUES IN NYASSALAND, THE RHODESIAS, TANGANYIKA, AND IN KENYA. IN KENYA, 25,000 WHITES WITH 80 PER CENT OF

35-3-101

THE BEST LAND HAVE LONG BEEN TRYING TO ENSLAVE THE LABOR OF 3,500,000 NEGROES. BUT KENYA LIES NEXT TO A BLACK AFRICA WHICH HAS NEVER BEEN SUBDUED. THERE IS UGANDA, WITH 4,000,000 BLACKS, WHO STILL RETAIN LOCAL RULE. AND PARTICULARLY, THERE ON THE PROWINING PEAKS RISING ON THE HORN OF EAST AFRICA, PERCHES ETHIOPIA, WHICH MAINTAINED ITS FREEDOM FROM ALEXANDER THE GREAT TO MUSSOLINI, AND REGAINED IT AFTER WORLD WAR II. DOWN THE NILE VALLEY FROM ETHIOPIA LIES THE SUDAN, CRADLE OF EGYPTIAN CIVILIZATION. IT DROVE OUT BOTH EGYPT AND ENGLAND IN THE NINETEENTH CENTURY, AND THEN WAS CONQUERED BY KITCHENER. NOW ITS 7,000,000 BLACKS ARE BEING WOOED BY BOTH EGYPT AND BRITAIN.

IN ARABIAN NORTH AFRICA, WITH ITS NEGROID ELEMENTS, FRANCE IS TRYING TO INCORPORATE ALGIERS, MOROCCO, AND TU IS INTO METROPOLITAN FRANCE, WITH POLITICAL AND INDUSTRIAL POWER CENTERED IN THE HANDS OF RESIDENT FRENCH CITIZENS. EXTENDING THIS IDEA FURTHER, THERE IS WHAT WE MAY CALL LATIN AFRICA. THE VAST FRENCH AFRICAN EMPIRE FROM THE SAHARA TO THE GULF OF GUINEA, WITH THE PORTUGUESE POSSESSIONS IN THE SOUTH. HERE THEEFFORT

IS MADE TO EXPLOIT BLACK LAND AND LABOR BY TAKING A SMALL BLACK AND MULATTO ELITE INTO PARTNERSHIP: SO THAT A FEW NATIVES BECOME RICH AND EDUCATED FRENCHMENT AND PORTUGUESE, BUT LEAVE THE MASSES TO ALMOST UNCHECKED ROBBERY AND EXPLOITATION.

WE HAVE LEFT THE "HEART OF AFRICA", THE GREAT VALLEY OF THE CONGO, WHICH LEOPOLD OF BELGIUM STOLE FROM AN INTERNATIONAL ORGANIZATION TO "CHRISTIANIZE" AFRICA, TURNED INTO A BROTHEL OF THEFT AND FINALLY SURRENDERED TO BELGIUM. IT IS NOW A CENTER OF THE MOST SCIENTIFIC EXPLOITATION OF HUMAN LABOR IN THE WORLD. THE POLITICAL AND ECONOMIC RIGHTS OF THE BLACKS ARE SUBORDINATED TO THE LONG TERM PROFIT OF BELGIUM WITH A MINIMUM OF EDUCATION AND NO PROMISE OF SELF RULE OR OF MODERN LIVING STANDARDS. ALL IS QUIET IN THE CONGO, WHENCE THE UNITED STATES GETS COPPER, FOR ELECTRIC EXPANSION, AND URANIUM FOR ATOMIC BOMBS.

THIS IS AFRICA TODAY. WHAT IS ITS ANSWER TO THE NEW POST WAR EXPLOITATION?

WHAT IS THE REACTION OF BLACK AFRICA TO ALL THIS? ARE THE NATIVES SIMPLY STOLID AND DUMB, SUBMITTING WITHOUT PROTEST OR COMPREHENSION OF THEIR PLIGHT? THAT IS THE COMPLACENT BELIEF OF MOST OF THE WHITE WORLD. YET THE FACTS BELIE THIS, ONLY THE FACTS EITHER ARE NOT CABLED OR IF WIRED, NOT PRINTED.

35-3-102

THE SITUATION IS CLEAR: IN SOUTH AND EAST AFRICA, THE LAND HAS BEEN TAKEN FROM THE NATIVES AND WHEN THEY ARE TAXED TO COMPEL THEM TO WORK ON THE PLANTATIONS OR IN THE MINES. IN WEST AFRICA, THE NATIVE HAS HIS LAND, BUT IS RULED BY A WHITE GOVERNOR: "INDIRECT RULE" LEAVES LOCAL GOVERNMENT IN THE HANDS OF THE CHIEFS, BUT THE GOVERNOR CAN REMOVE THESE CHIEFS AND PAYS THEIR SALARIES. THUS HIS COMMISSIONERS RULE THE RULERS. WHITE SETTLERS ALL OVER AFRICA ARE WORKING FOR WHITE SUPREMACY IN INDUSTRY AND GOVERNMENT: BIG BUSINESS IS STRIVING FOR MONOPOLY OF NATURAL RESOURCES AND CONTROL OF LABOR: ALIEN RACIAL GROUPS ARE DEMANDING THE PRIVILEGES OF WHITES: A

NATIVE INTELLIGENTSIA IS DEMANDING AFRICA FOR THE AFRICANS.

WHAT NOW IS THE RANK AND FILE OF THE WORKERS THINKING AND DOING? IN SOUTH AFRICA HAVE OCCURRED AT LEAST TWENTY RIOTS AND DISTURBANCES VARYING FROM STUDENT STRIKES AT LOVEDALE TO THE BURNING OF THEIR PASSES BY 7000 NATIVES AT CAPETOWN, AND CULMINATING IN THE STRIKE OF 50,000,000 NEGRO MINERS IN AUGUST, 1946, TO OBTAIN A WAGE OF $2 A DAY, INSTEAD OF THE 45 CENTS THEY ARE RECEIVING. FIVE STRIKERS WERE KILLED BY THE POLICE, 62 ARRESTED FOR BREACH OF CONTRACT AND CONSPIRACY, 46 OF WHOM WERE HEAVILY FINED OR JAILED. RAIDS AND ARRESTS CONTINUED FOR A MONTH, INCLUDING ARRESTS OF SOME LIBERAL WHITES. "COMMUNISM" WAS BLAMED FOR THE OUTBREAK.

IN KENYA, IN JANUARY 1947, SEVEN THOUSAND NATIVES STRUCK, AFFECTING ELEVEN BUSINESS CONCERNS. AFTER FAILURE TO SATISFY THE STRIKERS, THE STRIKE SPREAD TO UGANDA WITH DISTURBANCES AT FOUR CENTERS. IT WAS FINALLY SETTLED BY A RAISE IN WAGES OF MORE THAN TWENTY FIVE PER CENT.

IN WEST AFRICA, THERE WERE SERIOUS DISTURBANCES IN NIGERIA AND ON THE GOLD COAST. IN NIGERIA, IN 1944, INCREASED GOVERNMENT ALLOWANCES WERE GRANTED WHITE CIVIL SERVANTS BUT NOT ALLOWED FOR NEGROES. CONSEQUENTIALLY, IN 1945, A GENERAL STRIKE OF 150,000 NON-CLERICAL WORKERS WAS DECLARED AND THIS EVENTUALLY BROUGHT A FIFTY PER CENT INCREASE IN WAGES. LATER THERE WERE FURTHER STRIKES OF ELECTRICAL WORKERS, METAL WORKERS, AND EMPLOYEES OF THE UNITED AFRICA COMPANY. MINERS STRUCK IN THE ASHANTI GOLD MINES AND SECURED INCREASED WAGES.

ON THE GOLD COAST, STRIKES FINALLY ASSUMED THE ASPECT OF CIVIL WAR. IN 1946, A COMMISSION FOUND THAT THE COST OF LIVING HAD GONE UP TWO HUNDRED PER CENT AND RECOMMENDED INCREASED WAGES TO GEOVERNMENT EMPLOYEES. TEACHERS THEN COMPLAINED, AND A THIRD COMMISSION GAVE THEM INCREASES. RAILWAY WORKERS AND MINERS THEN ASKED FOR RAISES, STRUCK WHEN THEY WERE REFUSED, AND GAINED THEIR DEMANDS AFTER SEVERAL WEEKS.

THEN CAME A COLONY-WIDE BOYCOTT AGAINST HIGH PRICES CHARGED BY IMPORTING CONCERNS, LED BY A PROGRESSIVE CHIEF. A PRICE CONTROL COMMISSION WAS SET UP TO CURB PRICES AND ORDERED THEM REDUCED BY THIRTY THREE AND ONE THIRD PER CENT. THE DEMOBILIZED SOLDIERS THEREUPON STARTED A MARCH TO THE GOVERNOR TO PRESENT A PETITION. THERE ENSUED A SKIRMISH WITH THE POLICE, RIOTING AND LOOTING IN WHICH 26 AFRICANS WERE KILLED AND 277 WOUNDED INCLUDING 15 WHITES. MANY PROMINENT BLACK LEADERS WERE ARRESTED AND KEPT IN JAIL. W THE BLACK SOLDIERS OF THE GOLD COAST, SIERRE LEONE AND NIGERIA REFUSED TO BEAR ARMS AGAINST THEIR FELLOW SOLDIERS AND WHITE UNITES IN GIBRALTAR WERE ALERTED. TWO BATTLESHIPS WERE ORDERED FROM SOUTH AFRICA. FINALLY THE GOVERNOR APPEALED TO THE CHIEFS AND TO LONDON. A LONDON COMMISSION OF INQUIRY WAS SENT OUT AND HAS REPORTED LAYING MUCH BLAME ON THE COLONIAL GOVERNMENT. IN 1947, A RAILWAY STRIKE OF 12,000 WORKERS CRIPPLED THE WHOLE TRANSPORT SYSTEM OF FRENCH WEST AFRICA. THE STRIKERS DEMANDED "EQUAL PAY FOR EQUAL WORK."

THESE STRIKES AND MANY OTHERS THAT HAVE TAKEN PLACE ALL OVER THE CONTINENT OF AFRICA SHOW THAT THERE IS AN INCREASE IN THE ACTIVITY OF TRADE UNIONS AND UNION ORGANIZATION IN AFRICA. IN MOST OF THE TERRITORIES THERE IS LEGISLATION TO PERMIT TRADE UNIONS, BUT SOME OF IT IS ANTIQUATED AND IN MANY CASES AS IN EAST AFRICA IT IS ON PAPER RATHER THAN ACTUALLY IN FORCE. NO AFRICAN IN NORTHERN NIGERIA, FOR INSTANCE IS A MEMBER OF A TRADE UNION: AND ALTHOUGH IN THE UNION OF SOUTH AFRICA THERE ARE ONE HUNDRED AND TWENTY NATIVE TRADE UNIONS CLAIMING ONE HUNDRED AND SIXTY THOUSAND MEMBERS, THESE UNIONS ARE NOT OFFICIALLY RECOGNIZED: HOWEVER SOME EFFORT WAS

BEING MADE TO THAT END BEFORE THE LAST ELECTION.

THE WEST AFRICAN LABOR MOVEMENT, ON THE OTHER HAND IS GROWING IN STATURE AND POWER. IN FRENCH WEST AFRICA THE MOVEMENT LASO HAS TAKEN ON STRENGTH AND FORCE: AND THERE WAS A FEDERATION OF TRADE UNIONS WHICH MET IN DAKAR, FRENCH WEST AFRICA , IN APRIL 1947. EIGHTEEN DELEGATIONS OF NEGRO TRADE UNIONS ATTENDED AND RECOMMENDATIONS WERE MADE TO BE CONSIDERED AT THE WORLD LABOR MEETING AT PRAGUE IN JUNE.

THE MOST SIGNIFICANT OCCURANCE IN THE AFRICAN LABOR WORLD WAS THE REPRESENTATIVE CHARACTER OF THE AFRICANS AT THE WORLD TRADE UNION CONFERENCE IN FEBRUARY 1945. COLONIAL DELEGATES CAME FROM NIGERIA, THE GOLD COAST, SIERRE LEONE AND GAMBIA IN WEST AFRICA BESIDES FROM MANY NEGRO COMMUNITIES IN AMERICA.

WALLACE JOHNSON OF WEST AFRICA, WHO BUT A FEW WEEKS BEFORE HIS ARRIVAL HAD BEEN RELEASED BY THE BRITISH GOVERNMENT AFTER FIVE AND A HALF YEARS

35-3-105

IMPRISONMENT IN EXILE, FOR TRADE UNION ACTIVITY, PRESENTED A "CHARACTER OF LABOR" FOR THE COLONIES, DEMANDING: THE ABOLITION OF RACIAL DISCRIMINATION IN PUBLIC AND PRIVATE EMPLOYMENT, FORCED LABOR AND CHILD LABOR, FLOGGING AND PUNISHMENT FOR BREACH OF LABOR CONTRACT, AND CASTE LAW LEGISLATION: THE RIGHT OF FREE ASSEMBLY, FREE SPEECH, FREE PRESS AND FREE MOVEMENT: AND "EQUAL PAY FOR EQUAL WORK IRRESPECTIVE OF RACE, COLOR , CREED OR SEX."

IN A TELEGRAM TO THE BIG THREE CONCERNING THE ATLANTIC CHARTER, COLORED DELEGATES INSISTED THAT IT BE MADE CLEAR THAT THEY SUPPORTED THE DEMAND OF THE COLONIAL PEOPLE FOR THE RIGHT TO CHOOSE THE FORM OF GOVERNMENT UNDER WHICH THEY WOULD LIVE. THEY ASKED THAT SPECIAL NOTE SHOULD BE TAKEN OF CONDITIONS IN COLONIES AND DEPENDENCIES SO THAT APPROPRIATE MEASURES TO SECURE FOR THESE PEOPLE OF ASIA AND AFRICA THE ELEMENTARY RIGHTS TO CIVILIZED DEMOCRATIC PROCESSES.

THEY PUT INTO THE FINAL RESOLUTIONS A PARAGRAPH ASKING FOR THE END OF COLONIES AND DEPENDENCIES, AND THEY TRIED TO GET THE CONFERENCE TO PUT A TIME LIMIT TO THE FREEING OF COLONIES, BUT THIS ATTEMPT FAILED.

THE BLACK AFRICAN WORKER IS RAISING HIS HEAD. HE WILL BEAR WATCHING AND HEEDING.

IN 1949, THIS IS THE WATCHWORD FOR THINKING PEOPLE OF AMERICA: WATCH AFRICA: TEAR DOWN THE CURTAIN OF SILENCE AND DELIBERATE SUPPRESSION OF FACTS. REMEMBER THAT TODAY THERE ARE SIGNS OF INTERNATIONAL CONSPIRACY TO MAKE THE COUNTRIES OF AFRICA THE SLUMS OF THE WORLD: TO ENSLAVE THE LABOR OF THEIR PEOPLE, STEAL THEIR LAND AND MATERIALS. A FEW RUTHLESS RULERS ARE STRIVING TO GET THE POWER OF LIFE AND DEATH OVER MILLIONS OF BLACKS. POVERTY AND DISEASE ALREADY PREVAIL: AND THERE ARE DELIBERATE PLANS TO KEEP THE AFRICANS IN IGNORANCE. THERE IS NO DOUBT ABOUT ALL THIS: BUT WE NEED DETAILS AND FACTS TO LET IN THE LIGHT, LET THE PEOPLE OF THE UNITED STATES AND OF THE WORLD KNOW THE TRUTH.

IT WILL BE DIFFICULT TO DO THIS. I HAVE REPEATEDLY APPEALED TO MAGAZINES TO PUBLISH FACTS ABOUT AFRICA. I HAVE ASKED NEWSPAPERS TO CARRY NEWS AND IN NEARLY ALL CASES MY PLEA HAS BEEN TURNED DOWN. NO ONE COUNTRY IS GUILTY IN THIS NEW ATTACK ON AFRICA. WE ARE ALL GUILTY! GREAT BRITAIN IS GOING TO MAKE AFRICA HER SOURCE OF CHEAP FOOD. FRANCE IS GOING TO USE AFRICANS TO FIGHT AGAINST HER OWN WORKERS AND HELP RETAIN HER HOLD ON ASIA. BELGIUM IS RUSHING TO INCREASE THE PROFIT THAT SHE MADE DURING THE WAR. PORTUGAL IS GOING TO CONTINUE TO PLAY STOOGE TO BRITISH CAPITAL. ITALY IS SEEKING TO OVERCOME THE POVERTY OF HERMASSES BY INFLICTING GREATER POVERTY UPON AFRICANS. GERMANY IS GOING TO EVENTUALLY PUSH HER MANUFACTURERS INTO AFRICA IN RETURN FOR MATERIALS.

IN AFRICA ITSELF, THE WORLD IS TRYING TO KEEP ETHIOPIA CHOKED IN HER MOUNTAINS AWAY FROM COMMERCE ON THE HIGH SEAS. EGYPT AND GREAT BRITAIN ARE RIVALS IN TRYING TO CONTROL THE BLACK LABOR OF THE SUDAN. THE UNITED STATES

IS BRIBING LIBERIA AND STRENGTHENING HER GRIP BY ARMY, NAVY AND INVESTMENT. THE AWAKENING PEOPLES OF WEST AFRICA ARE BEING CAJOLED, CALLED "COMMUNISTS" AND GIVEN HALF-LOAVES OF "SELF-RULE." WHITE MINORITIES ARE RULING RUTHLESSLY IN EAST AFRICA, SOUTH AFRICA, RHODESIA AND SOUTHWEST AFRICA.

WE ARE NOT CONTENT WITH THE RAPE OF AFRICA IN THE SLAVE TRADE OF THE EIGHTEENTH CENTURY, TODAY WE ARE TRYING TO REPEAT IN AFRICA ALL THE WRETCHED MISTAKES IN INDUSTRY, CHEAP LABOR AND THE SALE OF POLITICAL POWER WHICH ONCE PREVAILED IN EUROPE, AND WHICH STILL PREVAILS IN SOUTH AMERICA: AND INSTEAD OF CIVILIZED PEOPLE BEING WILLING TO LET LABOR EXPLOITATION DISAPPEAR FROM THE WORLD THEY ARE WILLING TO CONCENTRATE ON THE DEGRADATION OF BLACK FOLK: FORGETTING WHERE THE SYMPATHIES OF THE MAJORITY OF MANKIND INCLUDING HUNDREDS OF MILLIONS OF COLORED ASIATICS IS TENDING IN THE COMING STRUGGLE OF WORLD RACES. WHAT WE NEED NOW FOR SALVATION IS LIGHT! MORE LIGHT ON AFRICA!

RALPH BUNCHE

I HAVE KNOWN RALPH BUNCHE SINCE HIS GRADUATION FROM COLLEGE IN 1927. HE IS 41 YEARS OLD, MARRIED WITH THREE CHILDREN. WHILE I CANNOT CLAIM INTIMATE PERSONAL ACQUAINTANCESHIP, I HAVE FOLLOWED HIS CAREER CAREFULLY AND HAVE MET AND CONVERSED WITH HIM MANY TIMES. I DOUBT IF ANY MAN WAS BETTER FITTED TO ARBITRATE BETWEEN ARAB AND JEW. FIRST OF ALL, PERSONALLY HE RESEMBLES THE MOST COMELY SEMITIC GENES--DARK, WELL-BUILT, SOFT-VOICED--A COMPOSITE TYPE STEMMING FROM THAT MULATTO MIXTURE WHICH HAS ARISEN IN AMERICA AND WHICH IS DESTINED TO DO MUCH FOR CULTURE IN THIS WORLD. ADD TO THAT A BROAD EDUCATION: BORN IN THE MIDDLE WEST, TRAINED IN CALIFORNIA AND AT HARVARD, TRAVELLED IN AFRICA AND EUROPE AND LONG A TEACHER OF NEGRO YOUTH AT HOWARD UNIVERSITY. HE IS NOT A READY SPEAKER NOR A PRODUCTIVE SCHOLAR, BUT HE HAS DEEP KNOWLEDGE OF HUMAN NATURE AND ABOVE ALL AN ENGAGING PRESENCE. HE IS UNOBTRUSIVE, WITH NO NORDIC ARROGANCE NOR AMERICAN "SMARTNESS," AND NO REPELLING SELF-ASSERTION: RATHER HE IS GENIAL, EASILY INSPIRING

45-3-34

CONFIDENCE, WITH A READY SMILE, AN APHOSITE ANECDOTE AND A BIT OF INSIDE GOSSIP. BUT THIS IS NOT ALL: BACK OF THIS IS A KEEN AND RESOURCEFUL INTELLECT AND REAL KNOWLEDGE OF ANY SITUATION WHICH HE FACES. WHEN HE SITS DOWN WITH A PERSON, THAT PERSON FEELS NOT ONLY THAT HE HAS A SYMPATHIC LISTENER, BUT ONE WHO REALLY UNDERSTANDS HIS PROBLEM.

45-3-51

THIS WAS SINGULARLY TRUE IN PALESTINE. BERNADOTTE CAME TO THE PROBLEM WITH NORDIC PREDILECTIONS, AMERICAN WEALTH AND THE PRESTIGE OF AUTHORITY: BUNCHE CAME ALMOST BY ACCIDENT, KNOWING AMERICA THOROUGHLY AND AT THE SAME TIME BY HEREDITY AND EXPERIENCE KNOWING WHAT THE WHITE WORLD CAN DO TO ASIATICS AND COLORED FOLK. THIS BOTH ARAB AND JEW REALIZED. IN A SENSE THEY SEEMED TO BE CONFERRING WITH ONE OF THEIR OWN: THERE WERE MANY MATTERS THEY DID NOT HAVE TO EXPLAIN. BERNADOTTE'S DEATH THEREFORE SIMPLIFIED BUNCHE'S TASK: HE WAS TO FIND AGREEMENT NOT BETWEEN THE WEST AND THE MIDDLE EAST, BUT BETWEEN EGYPT AND ISREAL. HIS WORK WAS LARGELY A MATTER OF PERSONALITIES, OF COMPROMISE, OF SUBTLE ADJUSTMENT IN PREJUDICES AND IDEALS-----A REALM IN WHICH HE HAD UNIQUE GIFTS. THERE IS NO DOUBT BUT THAT BOTH PARTIES TODAY REGARD BUNCHE AS A PERSONAL FRIEND, A THING WHICH WAS NEVER TRUE OF BERNADOTTE.

I REMEMBER ONCE WALKING ALONG EAST 65th STREET TRYING TO CONVINCE BUNCHE THAT HIS FUTURE LAY WITH THE UNITED NATIONS RATHER THAN WITH THE STATE DEPARTMENT, WHERE HE WAS THEN A MINOR BUREAU OFFICIAL. HE WAS INCLINED TO THE STATE DEPARTMENT FOR BUNCHE IS BY NATURE A DIPLOMAT RATHER THAN AN EXECUTIVE. BUT HE HESITATED TO CAST HIS LOT WITH A DEPARTMENT WHERE NO AMERICAN OF NEGRO DESCENT HAD EVER BEEN GIVEN A REAL CHANCE FOR PROMOTION: WHILE HE REALIZED THAT IN THE UNITED NATIONS HIS COLOR WOULD BE NO INITIAL HANDICAP. PERHAPS NOW, IN THE SINGULAR TRANSFORMATIONS OF TIME, THE STATE DEPARTMENT AS WELL AS THE UNITED NATIONS WILL RECOGNIZE

THE VALUE OF THIS MAN.

He is 41 years old, married with 3 children

I have known of Ralph Bunche since his graduation from college in 1927. While I cannot claim intimate personal acquaintanceship, I have followed his career carefully and have met and conversed with him many times. I doubt if any man was better fitted to arbitrate between Arab and Jew. First of all, personally he resembles the most comely Semitic genus type -- dark, well-built, soft-voiced-- a composite type stemming from that mulatto mixture which has arisen in America and which is destined to do much for culture in this world. Add to that a broad education: born in the Middle West, trained in California and at Harvard, travelled in Africa and Europe; he is not a productive scholar, but has a deep knowledge of human nature and an engaging presence. He is unobtrusive, with no Nordic arrogance nor American "smartness", and no apparent self-assurance; yet he is genial, easily inspiring confidence, with a ready smile, an apposite anecdote and a bit of inside gossip. But this is not all: back of this is a keen and resourceful intellect and real knowledge of the situation at hand. He is no ready speaker or finished writer; but when he sits down with a person, that person feels he has not only a sympathic listener, but one who really understands his problem This was singularly true in Palestine. Bernadotte came to the problem with Nordic predilections, and American wealth and the prestige of authority; Bunhce came almost by accident, knowing America thoroughly and at the same time by heredity knowing what the white world can do to Asiatics, and this both Arab and Jew realized. In a sence they were conferring with one of their own; there were matters they did not have to explain. Bernadotte's death simplified Bunche's task: he was to find agreement not between Europe and the Middle East, but between Egypt and Isreal His work was largely a matter of personalities, of compromise of subtle adjustment of prejudices and ideals -- a realm where he had unique gifts. There is no doubt that both parties regard Bunche as a personal friend, which was never true of Bernadotte. I remember once walking along 65th street trying to convince Bunche that his future lay with the United Nations rather than with the State Department. He inclined to the State Department for Bunche is a diplomat rather than an executive. But he hesitated to cast his lot with a department where no American of Negro descent had ever been given a real chance for promotion. Perhps now in the singular transformations of time, the State Department will recognize what the value of this man is.

Not used [1947?]

I have known Ralph Bunche since he was graduated in 1927 at the University of California , Los, Angeles. He was born in Detroit in 1904 after his graduation he went to Harvard , where he took his Masters and Doctors Degree and studied then at other Universities . He was married in 1930 , and has three children, two girls and a little boy. For a while he was Assistant in Political Science at the University of California and then came to Howard University where he acted as Assistant to the President and then became Assistant Professor eventually of the Department of Political Science . Gradually he began to specialize on Africa and Colonial questions. Served as Fellow of the Social Science of the Research Council and finally was loaned by Howard University to the State Department. Here began his career in the African section , and finally again he was loaned to the United Nations , where he became connected with the Trusteeship Council.

35-1-54

Then he was transferred to the job of assisting the Mediator in the Palestine dispute and on the death of Count Bernadotte, became the acting Mediator. For a time Bunch hesitated as to whether he wanted to continue with his career of teaching or enter the State Department or become permanently connected with the United Nations. For a diplomatic career he had peculiar advantages--he ~~was~~ is a well-built, attractive man with a keen mind but careful address. He immediately became the confident of those with whom he was associated and was cut out to be a Mediator and a successful diplomatic agent. Being ~~a~~ of Negro descent he saw difficulties in the way of his promotion in the State Department and on the other hand he was not sure as to what opening there was going to be in the United Nations. It happened that his lot was cast in the very place whereprobably few men were better trained for successful action. To mediate between enemies, to balance between posing ideas , to be a genial and well met companion , to wide varieties of people ---that was the function for which Ralph Bunche was particularly cast. And it was for that reason that he eventually was successful where men of more years and wider experience failed.

~~THE THIRTEENTH, FOURTEENTH AND FIFTEENTH AMENDMENTS~~

BY

W. E. B. DU BOIS

35-3-61

THERE WERE IN THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, 1940, 12, 865, 518 citizens AND RESIDENTS, SOMETHING LESS THAN A TENTH OF THE NATION, WHO FORM LARGELY A SEGREGATED CASTE, WITH RESTRICTED LEGAL RIGHTS, AND MANY ILLEGAL DISABILITIES. THEY ARE DESCENDANTS OF THE AFRICANS BROUGHT TO AMERICA DURING THE SIXTEENTH, SEVENTEENTH, EIGHTEENTH AND NINETEENTH CENTURIES AND REDUCED TO SLAVE LABOR. THIS GROUP HAS NO COMPLETE BIOLOGICAL UNITY, BUT VARIES IN COLOR FROM WHITE TO BLACK, AND COMPRISES A GREAT VARIETY OF PHYSICAL CHARACTERISTICS, SINCE MANY ARE THE OFFSPRING OF WHITE EUROPEAN-AMERICANS AS WELL AS OF AFRICANS AND AMERICAN INDIANS. THERE ARE A LARGE UNMBER OF WHITE AMERICANS WHO ALSO DESCEND FROM NEGROES BUT WHO ARE NOT COUNTED IN THE COLORED

GROUP NOR SUBJECTED TO CASTE RESTRICTIONS BECAUSE THE PREPONDERANCE OF WHITE BLOOD CONCEALS THEIR DESCENT.

35-3-62

THE SO-CALLED AMERICAN NEGRO GROUP, THEREFORE, WHILE IT IS IN NO SENSE ABSOLUTELY SET OFF PHYSICALLY FROM ITS FELLOW AMERICANS, HAS NEVERTHELESS A STRONG, HEREDITARY CULTURAL UNITY BORN OF SLAVERY, OF COMMON SUFFERING, PROLONGED PROSCRIPTION AND CURTAILMENT OF POLITICAL AND CIVIL RIGHTS; AND ESPECIALLY BECAUSE OF ECONOMIC AND SOCIAL DISABILITIES. LARGELY FROM THIS FACT, HAVE ARISEN THEIR CULTURAL GIFTS TO AMERICA--THEIR RHYTHM, MUSIC AND FOLK-SONG; THEIR RELIGIOUS FAITH AND CUSTOMS; THEIR CONTRIBUTION TO AMERICAN ART AND LITERATURE; THEIR DEFENSE OF THEIR COUNTRY IN EVERY WAR, ON LAND, SEA AND IN THE AIR; AND ESPECIALLY THE HARD, CONTINUOUS TOIL UPON WHICH THE PROSPERITY AND WEALTH OF THIS CONTINENT HAS LARGELY BEEN BUILT.

I will not attempt tonight to cover the history of American slavery before 1830

35-3-63

SLAVERY IN AMERICA IS A STRANGE AND CONTRADICTORY STORY. IT CANNOT BE REGARDED AS MAINLY EITHER A THEORETICAL PROBLEM OF MORALS OR A SCIENTIFIC PROBLEM OF RACE. FROM EITHER OF THESE POINTS OF VIEW, THE RISE OF SLAVERY IN AMERICA IS SIMPLY INEXPLICABLE. LOOKING AT THE FACTS FRANKLY, SLAVERY EVIDENTLY WAS A MATTER OF ECONOMICS, A QUESTION OF INCOME AND LABOR, RATHER THAN A PROBLEM OF RIGHT AND WRONG, OR OF THE PHYSICAL DIFFERENCES IN MEN. ONCE SLAVERY BEGAN TO BE THE SOURCE OF VAST INCOME FOR MEN AND NATIONS, THERE FOLLOWED FRANTIC SEARCH FOR MORAL AND RACIAL JUSTIFICATIONS. SUCH EXCUSES WERE FOUND AND MEN DID NOT INQUIRE TOO CAREFULLY INTO EITHER THEIR LOGIC OR TRUTH.

THE TWENTY NEGROES BROUGHT TO VIRGINIA IN 1619, WERE NOT THE FIRST WHO HAD LANDED ON THIS CONTINENT. FOR A CENTURY before SMALL NUMBERS OF NEGROES HAD BEEN ARRIVING AS SERVANTS, AS LABORERS, AS FREE ADVENTURERS. THE

35-3-64

SOUTHWESTERN PART OF THE PRESENT UNITED STATES WAS FIRST TRAVERSED BY FOUR EXPLORERS OF WHOM ONE WAS AN AFRICAN NEGRO. NEGROES ACCOMPANIED EARLY ~~EXPLORERS~~ settlers LIKE D'AYLLON AND MENENDEZ IN THE SOUTHEASTERN UNITED STATES. BUT JUST AS THE EARLIER BLACK VISITORS TO THE WEST INDIES WERE SERVANTS AND ADVENTURERS AND THEN LATER ~~BEGAN TO APPEAR AS~~ began to appear LABORERS ON THE SUGAR PLANTATIONS, SO IN VIRGINIA, THESE IMPORTED BLACK LABORERS IN 1619 AND AFTER, CAME TO BE WANTED FOR THE RAISING OF TOBACCO WHICH WAS THE MONEY CROP.

IN THE MINDS OF THE EARLY PLANTERS, THERE WAS NO DISTINCTION AS TO LABOR WHETHER IT WAS WHITE OR BLACK. IN LAW THERE WAS AT FIRST NO DISCRIMINATION. BUT AS IMPORTED WHITE LABOR BECAME SCARCER AND MORE PROTECTED BY LAW, IT BECAME LESS PROFITABLE THAN NEGRO LABOR WHICH FLOODED THE MARKETS BECAUSE OF EUROPEAN SLAVE TRADERS and INTERNAL STRIFE IN AFRICA:

35-3-65

AND BECAUSE IN AMERICA/ THE NEGROES WERE INCREASINGLY STRIPPED/ OF LEGAL DEFENSE.// FOR THESE REASONS/ AMERICA BECAME A LAND OF BLACK SLAVERY./ AND THERE AROSE/ FIRST, THE FABULOUSLY RICH/ SUGAR EMPIRE:/ THEN THE COTTON KINGDOM,/ AND FINALLY COLONIAL IMPERIALISM.

THERE IS NO MORE INTERESTING EFFORT/ THAN THE ATTEMPT/ IN THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA/ TO APPLY THE DEMOCRATIC METHOD/ IN A GREAT SOCIAL REFORM/ LIKE THE ABOLITION OF NEGRO SLAVERY.// ON JULY 4, 1776,/ THE FOUNDERS OF THE REPUBLIC/ ANNOUNCED TO THE WORLD:// "WE HOLD THESE THRUTHS TO BE SELF EVIDENT,/ THAT ALL MEN ARE CREATED EQUAL;/ THAT THEY ARE ENDOWED BY THEIR CREATOR/ WITH CERTAIN UNALIENABLE RIGHTS;/ THAT AMONG THESE ARE LIFE,/ LIBERTY AND THE PURSUIT OF HAPPINESS."// THE MEN WHO MADE THIS DECLARATION/ WERE LOOKING STRAIGHT INTO THE FACES/ OF 700,000 SLAVES,/ FORMING ONE-FIFTH OF THE NATION/ WHICH THEY DECLARED TO BE FREE.

WHAT DID THIS EXTRAORDINARY STATEMENT MEAN?// IT MEANT THAT THE MAJORITY/

35-3-66

OF THE PERSONS/ WHO WERE FOUNDING THE NEW DEMOCRACY/ BELIEVED THAT EVENTUALLY/ NEGRO SLAVERY/ WAS DOOMED TO DISAPPEAR.// THE BASIS OF THAT BELIEF/ WAS THE EMANCIPATION/ OF THE SLAVES/ IN MOST OF THE COLONIES/ SINCE THE REVOLUTIONARY WAR.// IN THE COLONIES/ WHICH STILL RETAINED SLAVERY,/ THERE WAS A CONSIDERABLE BODY OF BELIEF/ THAT THE INSTITUTION WAS TEMPORARY/ AND THAT THE CONTINUANCE OF THE SLAVE SYSTEM/ DEPENDED UPON THE SLAVE TRADE:// THAT THEREFORE/ THE REAL PROBLEM/ WAS WHAT WAS TO BE DONE/ WITH THE SLAVE TRADE.// THE LEADERS ~~DECIDED~~ CONCLUDED THEREFORE/ THAT INACTION/ WAS THE WISEST PRESENT COURSE.

THE RESULT WAS/ THAT UNDER THE NEW CONSTITUTION,/ A PERIOD OF LAISSEZ FAIRE/ FROM 1787 to 1808 ENSUED/ DURING WHICH THE SLAVE TRADE/ COULD NOT BE TOUCHED.// IT WAS ASSUMED/ THAT BEFORE THE END OF THAT PERIOD,/ THE TRADE WOULD BE ABOLISHED,/ ONE FACT/ MODIFIED THIS ASSUMPTION:/ A GOOD MANY SLAVES HAD DISAPPEARED/ DURING THE WAR,/ MAKING A SHORTAGE OF SLAVE LABOR./ BUT

by the Federal government

by the States

35-3-67

ANOTHER FACT SUPPORTED IT, FOR BEFORE THIS PERIOD ENDED IN 1808, THERE HAD OCCURRED THE WORST SLAVE INSURRECTION IN THE HISTORY OF THE AMERICAS, UNDER TOUSSAINT IN HAITI, WHICH SPREAD HYSTERIA IN THE SOUTH.

THE RESULT WAS THAT THE UNITED STATES PROHIBITED THE SLAVE TRADE IN 1808 AND THIS, IN THE OPINION OF MOST AMERICANS, SPELLED THE DOOM OF SLAVERY WITHIN A GENERATION. // BUT THE SLAVE TRADE LAW WAS LOOSLY DRAWN AND INDIFFERENTLY ENFORCED, AND REALLY PLACED A PREMIUM UPON SLAVE SMUGGLING BY ALLOWING THE SMUGGLED SLAVES TO BE SOLD. // MOREOVER, IN THE BORDER STATES, THERE DEVELOPED SLAVE-BREEDING and A SLAVE TRADE TO SUPPLY THE COTTON STATES WITH LABOR. // AND ALSO BY AN EXTRAORDINARY SERIES OF INVENTIONS, COTTON BECAME ONE OF THE MOST VALUABLE CROP DEVELOPMENTS OF THE DAY. // SLAVERY, THEREFORE, RATHER THAN BEING ABOLISHED OR REDUCED IN SIGNIFICANCE BY THE LAW OF 1808, BECAME BY 1850 THE CORNOR STONE OF the INDUSTRIAL REVOLUTION.

35-3-68

BETWEEN 1830 and 1860 THERE GREW UP IN AMERICA AN INCREASINGLY BITTER STRUGGLE FOR THE FREE LAND WHICH HAD BEEN LARGELY SUPPLIED AS A RESULT OF THE HAITIAN REVOLUTION. // FREE LABOR AND PERSONS FROM EUROPE, IMMIGRATING AT A RATE WHICH REACHED 100,000 A YEAR BY 1860, DEMANDED FREE SOIL AND HIGH WAGES. // AGITATION FOR THE ABOLITION OF SLAVERY ENSUED AND WAS INCREASED AND INSPIRED BY A STREAM OF FUGITIVE SLAVES WHICH THREATENED SLAVE INVESTMENT. CIVIL WAR ~~ENSUED~~ resulted, BUT NOT A WAR FOR THE ABOLITION OF SLAVERY, BUT FOR THE PRESERVATION OF THE UNION. THAT IS FOR PRESERVING THE UNITY AND EFFICIENCY OF THE INDUSTRIAL AND SOCIAL ORGANIZATION WHICH FORMED THIS NATION AND WAS AT THE BOTTOM OF ITS PROSPERITY. // HOWEVER, THERE SOON APPEARED THE FATAL DICHOTOMY: THE SOUTHERN PEOPLE AND THEIR ARMIES WERE SUPPORTED BY SLAVE LABOR AND THE NORTHERN ARMIES FOUND THEMSLEVES DEPENDING INCREASINGLY ON BLACK LABORERS, SERVANTS AND SPYS AND FINALLY ON BLACK SOLDIERS, // WITHOUT WHOM, LINCOLN SAID VICTORY WOULD HAVE BEEN IMPOSSIBLE. // IT WAS THIS THAT SPELLED THE DOOM OF SECCESSION.// WHENEVER LABORERS REFUSE TO WORK FOR THEIR EMPLOYERS, NEITHER A SOCIETY NOR AN ARMY CAN BE MAINTAINED.// THIS BEGAN TO HAPPEN IN THE CIVIL WAR AND THE FEAR OF THIS BROUGHT VICTORY TO THE NORTHERN ARMY.

IN THE MIDST OF THE WAR WHEN IT WAS EVIDENT THAT THE HELP OF THE SLAVES WAS GOING TO BE OF UNQUESTIONABLE ADVANTAGE TO THE NORTH, ABRAHAM LINCOLN IN SEPTEMBER 1862, THREATENED TO FREE THE SLAVES UNLESS THE SOUTH SURRENDERED. IN 1862, LINCOLN SOUGHT IN VAIN COMPENSATED EMANCIPATION IN THE BORDER STATES BUT ACCOMPLISHED THIS ONLY IN THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA. THE SOUTH FACED DILEMMA: IF THEY SURRENDERED, ABOLITION BY THE NORTH WAS SURE TO FOLLOW EVENTUALLY;// IF THEY KEPT ON FIGHTING, INCREASING NUMBERS OF THEIR FOUR MILLION SLAVES WOULD JOIN THE ENEMY AND BE FREED.// FOR A TIME THE SOUTH TRIED TO FIGHT ON AND THE EMANCIPATION PROCLAMATION WAS ISSUED JANUARY 1, 1863.// THE SOUTHERNERS TRIED THEMSELVES TO ARM THEIR SLAVES; BUT THIS ENTAILED THAT VERY FREEDOM THEY WERE OPPOSING AND WAS NEVER CARRIED OUT.// THE SOUTH, THEREFORE SURRENDERED IN 1865 IN THE HOPE OF RETAINING

35-3-70

SOME CONTROL OVER THEIR LABOR IN THE RESTORED UNION.

IN 1865 THE CONSTITUTION WAS AMENDED SO AS TO ABOLISH SLAVERY; BUT THE SOUTH COUNTERED BY ESTABLISHING A LEGAL SERFDOM UNDER STATE LAW. THE BLACK CODES ABOLISHED SALE OF LABOR BY INDIVIDUALS, BUT LEGALIZED IT THROUGH THE COURTS, BY CONTROL OF ORPHANS, SALE OF CONVICTS AND CONTROL OF LABOR CONTRACTS.// THE NEGRO FAMILY WAS RECOGNIZED AND PROPERTY-HOLDING, BUT PERSONAL FREEDOM WAS STRICTLY LIMITED.// IN ADDITION TO THIS THE POLITICAL POWER OF THE SOUTH IN CONGRESS WAS INCREASED BY 29 VOTES, ON ACCOUNT OF EMANCIPATION// WHILE BOTH SOUTH AND WEST OPPOSED THE HIGH TARIFF AND WANTED TO REPUDIATE THE WAR DEBT.// INDUSTRY THEREFORE UNITED WITH ABOLITION TO AMEND THE CONSTITUTION AGAIN.// AN ATTEMPT WAS MADE TO PROVIDE FOR THE EDUCATION OF THE FREED MEN AND ~~PROVIDE~~ GIVE THEM LAND BY FEDERAL GRANT.// PRESIDENT JOHNSON VETOED THIS.// A 14th AMENDMENT WAS THEN PROPOSED TO MAKE NEGROES CITIZENS WITH FULL CIVIL RIGHTS AND EITHER WITH THE RIGHT TO VOTE, OR IF THAT WERE DENIED BY ~~THE STATE TO~~ REDUCE wg/ STATE REPRESENTATION IN CONGRESS/ACCORDINGLY.// THIS AMENDMENT PASSED/ AFTER MUCH CONTROVERSY/ IN 1868.// IN 1870, A FIFTEENTH AMENDMENT,/ FORBIDDING DISFRANCHISEMENT/FOR RACE AND COLOR/WAS RATIFIED.

35-3-71

THUS DEMOCRACY/ SPEAKING THROUGH ITS ELECTED REPRESENTATIVES,/ MADE THE AMERICAN NEGRO/ A FREE CITIZEN,/WITH FULL CIVIL AND POLITICAL RIGHTS.// THEREUPON THE COURTS STATE AND NATIONAL, GUIDED AND COERCED BY BUSINESS, ORGANIZED INDUSTRY AND AGRICULTURE NORTH AND SOUTH, PROCEEDED DELIBERATELY TO NULLIFY EVERYTHING ESSENTIAL WHICH CONGRESS HAD DONE: THEY DECLARED THAT THE UNITED STATES COULD NOT ENFORCE CIVIL RIGHTS FOR NEGROES: THEY UPHELD DISCRIMINATIONS WHICH DISFRANCHISED NINE TENTHS OF THE BLACK VOTERS: THEY LEGALIZED SEPARATE SCHOOLS, SEPARATE TRAVEL AND SEPARATE PUBLIC SERVICES AND HELPED ESTABLISH IN THE NATION A COLOR CASTE BASED ON RACE. THERE HAS SELDOM OCCURRED IN MODERN HISTORY A MORE DELIBERATE ASSAULT ON HUMAN RIGHTS THAN THE COURTS OF THE UNITED STATES MADE BETWEEN 1865 and 1915.

THERE ENSUED/ THE MOST SUCCESSFUL EFFORT/ TO NULLIFY DEMOCRACY/ ~~WHICH~~ THAT MODERN WORLD/HAS SEEN.// IT WAS LED BY THE FEDERAL JUDICIARY,/ WHICH IS APPOINTIVE/AND NOT ELECTIVE,/ WHOSE APPOINTMENT/IS LARGELY INFLUENCED/BY WEALTH AND ORGANIZED INDUSTRY.// IN ORDER THEREFORE/ TO BRING PEACE AND INDUSTRY/BACK TO THE SOUTH/AS QUICKLY AS POSSIBLE,// AND IN ORDER/ TO PLACE POLITICAL POWER/IN THE HANDS OF WHITE LANDHOLDERS and lawyers AND BUSINESS MEN/ WHILE DISFRANCHISING THE WORKERS// THE WHOLE POST-WAR LEGISLATION AGAINST SLAVERY/WAS EMASCULATED BY JUDICIAL DECISION.// THE 14th AMENDMENT/WAS INTERPRETED/ SO AS TO PROTECT CORPORATIONS/AND DENY FEDERAL PROTECTION TO NEGRO CITIZENS.// DISCRIMINATION BETWEEN CITIZENS/ WAS UPHELD IN VOTING,/ TRAVEL, EDUCATION AND MARRIAGE,/ AND IN ALL CIVIL RIGHTS.// A COMPLETE LEGAL/ COLOR CASTE SYSTEM/WAS SET UP,/ NOT ONLY IN THE FORMER SLAVE STATES,/ BUT IN ANY OTHER REGION/WHICH WISHED TO ADOPT THE SYSTEM,/ AS WAS THE CASE LARGELY/IN THE FAR WEST/ AND MIDDLE WEST,/ AND SOMETIMES IN THE EAST.

THUS WITH THE NATION SITTING BY,/ EITHER HELPLESS OR INDIFFERENT,/ DEMOCRACY WAS ABOLISHED/ IN THE UNITED ST TES/ AND GOVERNMENT WAS HANDED OVER/TO THE CONTROL

35-3-73

OF BIG BUSINESS/AND THE JUDICIARY/WITH THE SUPPORT OF THE ROTTEN-BOROUGH SYSTEM/ OF THE SOLID SOUTH.// THIS WENT SO FAR THAT WORKERS IN TRADES UNIONS/AND COMMON CITIZENS/IN EVERYDAY LIFE/AS CONSUMERS/BEGAN TO FIGHT THE POWER OF MONOPOLY./ BUT IN THIS FIGHT/THE AVERAGE AMERICAN/TRIED AT FIRST/SYSTEMATICALLY/TO IGNORE THE Negro — FIRST AND MAIN VICTIM/OF THIS ATTACK ON DEMOCRACY,/ LEAVING THE REAL STRUGGLE TO NEGROES THEMSELVES.// AND FROM ~~1905~~ 1900 TO THIS DAY,/ THE SYSTEMATIC ATTACK/ON THE SOCIAL AND ECONOMIC THROTTLING/OF THE DEMOCRATIC PROCESS/IN THE UNITED STATES/HAS BEEN SPEARHEADED THROUGHOUT/ BY THE AMERICAN NEGRO,/ IN HIS DESPERATE EFFORT TO OVER-THROW CASTE/ IN THIS LEADING DEMOCRACY IN THE WORLD

35-3-74

WHAT SHOULD THE NEGRO DO?/ THERE WAS BUT ONE ANSWER/ FIGHT.// BUT A FIGHT BY POOR PEOPLE/AGAINST ENTRENCHED MONOPOLY/ VAST WEALTH,/ PREJUDICED SCIENCE/AND SUBSERVIENT RELIGION/IS NOT EASY.// IT IS ESPECIALLY HARD/ IF THE VERY PERSONS SUPPRESSED/ARE NOT SURE/THAT THEY OUGHT TO FIGHT/OR IF THERE IS ANY CHANCE TO WIN.

AMERICAN NEGROES/BETWEEN 1895 and 1910/ HAD PROMINENT LEADERS/WHO TOLD THEM/THAT FIGHTING WAS IMPRACTICABLE;/ THAT SUBMISSION WAS WISE;/ THAT THE ONLY POSSIBLE SOLUTION/WAS PHILANTHROPY.// AND NEGROES GOT MUCH ~~EXCELLENT~~ PHILANTHROPY./ THERE IS A LONG RECORD OF EFFORT/ON THE PART OF WHITE AMERICANS/ TO HELP BLACK FOLK.// THE SUCCESSORS OF THE ABOLITIONISTS/WERE THE TEACHERS AND MISSIONARIES/WHO WNET TO THE SOUTH/ AFTER THE CIVIL WAR/AND STARTED THE EDUCATION OF THE FREED MEN.// LARGE NUMBERS OF NORTHERNERS/AND SOME SOUTHERNERS/ SUPPORTED NEGRO SOCIAL UPLIFT/AND EDUCATION FROM 1870 to 1900;. Gradually No SCHOOLS WERE HELPED/OR PROJECTS ENCOURAGED/WHICH WERE NOT APPROVED BY

THE LIBERAL SOUTH. // INDUSTRIAL EDUCATION WAS EMPHASIZED / AND HAMPTON AND TUSKEGEE WERE HELPED. / BUT HIGHER EDUCATION FOR NEGROES / WAS LONG DISCOURAGED. // BY 1919, HOWEVER, / A MORE LIBERAL ELEMENT OF YOUNG SOUTHERNERS / BECAME MEMBERS OF THE GENERAL EDUCATION BOARD / AND IT OPENLY BEGAN TO HELP ENDOW NEGRO COLLEGES. / ANDREW CARNEGIE GAVE MANY LIBRARIES / TO NEGRO COLLEGES AND COMMUNITIES.

IN 1919 / MANY EFFORTS AT INTERRACIAL COOPERATION / WHICH FOLLOWED THE ATLANTA RIOT OF 1906 / COALESCED / INTO THE COMMISSION ON INTERRACIAL COOPERATION. / THIS ORGANIZATION / DID OUTSTANDING WORK AGAINST LYNCHING.

THE COMMISSION ON RACE RELATIONS / OF THE FEDERAL COUNCIL OF CHURCHES OF CHRIST IN AMERICA / WAS ORGANIZED IN 1921 / AND INSTITUTED "RACE RELATIONS SUNDAY." THE SOUTHERN CONFERENCE / ON HUMAN WELFARE / WAS STARTED IN 1939 / AND TOOK A STRONG STAND FOR CIVIL AND POLITICAL RIGHTS FOR NEGROES. // BUT WITH ALL THIS, / IN THE MAIN, / EVEN THE LIBERAL SOUTH, / STOOD FIRM FOR NEGRO DISFRANCHISEMENT / AND COLOR CASTE. / // IT WAS INCREASINGLY CLEAR THAT PHILANTHROPY IN ITSELF WOULD NEVER SOLVE THE NEGRO PROPBLEM

35-3-76

~~PHILANTHROPY OF ITSELF, HOWEVER, CAN NEVER FREE A PEOPLE~~. MONEY AND GOOD-WILL CAN HELP. / THEY CAN AT CRITICAL TIMES / GIVE THE INDISPENSABLE PUSH, / THE ENCOURAGEMENT AND THE CONFIDENCE. // BUT A CAREFUL CONSIDERATION / OF THE FACTS / PROVE THAT THE CHIEF FORCE / BEHIND THE PROGRESS OF THE NEGRO / ~~SINCE 1900~~ ~~1917~~ / CAME FROM THE NEGRO HIMSELF // HIS PURPOSIVE AND ORGANIZED EFFORT / FROM 1900 UNTIL TODAY, / AND PARTICULARLY SINCE 1917, / HAS FORMED THE MAINSPRING OF NEGRO PROGRESS.

FIRST OF ALL, / WE MUST NOTE AMONG AMERICAN NEGROES / CERTAIN PERSISTENT CULTURE PATTERNS: // THE DETERMINATION TO EDUCATE THEIR CHILDREN: / THE PERSISTENT EFFORT / AT ORGANIZATION FOR UPLIFT AND PROGRESS / IN CHURCH AND FRATERNITY; / // THE REFUSAL, / DESPITE OVERWHELMING TEMPTATION, / TO ADOPT ENTIRELY WHITE AMERICAN STANDARDS / AS TO THE GOOD, THE BEAUTIFUL AND THE TRUE.

BUT THIS INDIVIDUAL PUSH UPWARD / HAD TO BE ORGANIZED. / ORGANIZATIONS CAME EARLY IN RELIGION, / FOR SOCIAL PURPOSES, / FOR SPECIFIC OBJECTS: // BUT THE FIRST

THE METHODS (in this struggle) USED CHANGED FROM THE EMOTIONAL APPEAL/ OF ABOLITION DAYS/TO CAREFUL COLLECTION/OF FACTS/ LECTURES/PAMPHLETS/ BOOKS/STUDIES AND STATISTICS.// THIS WENT ON UNTIL TODAY/THERE IS NOT A LAND (ON EARTH)/NOR A LANGUAGE/THAT DOES NOT (KNOW THAT) DEMOCRACY IN THE UNITED STATES/EXCLUDES THE NEGRO/AND DOES NOT PUNISH LYNCHING// BEYOND THIS WE MOVED INTO THE COURTS/AND COMPELLED THEM TO EVADE/ CONTRADICT/OR REVERSE FORMER DECISIONS// WHICH (Began to) THREATEN THE VERY FOUNDATIONS/OF JUSTICE FOR WHITE AMERICANS/AS WELL AS BLACK.

THE CAMPAIGN FOR HUMAN RIGHTS/LED BY AMERICANS (Negroes) IN THE TWENTIETH CENTURY/ HAS BEEN THE MOST COMPLETE/AND UNREMITTING OF ANY (such) OTHER EFFORT/IN THE CIVILIZED WORLD/AND HAS SET STANDARDS FOR ALL OPPRESSED PEOPLES

35-3-79

FROM 1915 to 1948 THE NAACP HAS we BROUGHT TWENTY SEVEN CASES INVOLVING THE RIGHTS OF NEGROES BEFORE THE UNITED STATES SUPREME COURT AND HAS WON TWENTY-FOUR OF THEM.

FOUR CASES ON the WHITE PRIMARY HAD TO BE BROUGHT ~~BEFORE THE SUPREME COURT~~ UNTIL, IN 1944, A CLEAR CUT DECISION AGAINST THIS FORM OF DISFRANCHISEMENT WAS OBTAINED. BETWEEN 1913 and 1948 SIX CASES on ~~LEGALIZING~~ NEGRO GHETTOES, FIRST BY LAW AND THEN BY PRIVATE CONTRACT, WERE FOUGHT IN THE SUPREME COURT. AS LATE AS 1947 TEN SQUARE MILES OF CHICAGO RESIDENTIAL DISTRICTS WERE BY COVENANT RESTRICTED TO WHITE PEOPLE. IN 1948 ~~THE NAACP OBTAINED~~ was obtained A DECISION DENYING THE LEGAL RIGHT TO ENFORCE THESE CONTRACTS

NATURALLY THE WORK OF THE NAACP WAS NOT DONE ALONE. NOT ONLY HAVE WHITE PEOPLE HELPED AS MEMBERS OF THE ORGANIZATION AND AS ADVISERS IN LEGAL CASES, BUT WITHOUT THE HELP OF OTHER NEGRO ORGANIZATIONS THE WORK COULD NOT

HAVE BEEN DONE. THE NEGRO CHURCHES, WITH 35,000 CONGREGATIONS, OWNING $175,000,000 IN REAL ESTATE AND SPENDING $28,000,000 A YEAR, HELPED PUBLICIZE AND SUPPORT THE ASSOCIATION. THE NEGRO PRESS, WITH NEARLY 150 WEEKLY PAPERS, READ BY EVERY LITERATE NEGRO IN THE NATION, HAS ACHIEVED A NEWS COVERAGE WHICH MAKES NEGROES INDEPENDENT OF THE DISTORTIONS AND SUPPRESSIONS OF THE WHITE PRESS AND LETS ~~NEGROES~~ them KNOW THE FACTS AND WHAT IS BEING DONE ABOUT THEM.

35-3-80

OTHER NEGRO ORGANIZATIONS LIKE THE NATIONAL URBAN LEAGUE, HAVE SUPPLEMENTED THE WORK OF THE NAACP IN AREAS WHICH IT DID NOT REACH ~~DIRECTLY~~. THE LEAGUE WAS FOUNDED THE SAME YEAR AS THE NAACP, AND THEY EARLY DELIMITED THEIR FIELDS OF OPERATION--THE NAACP TO FIGHT RACE DISCRIMINATION, THE URBAN LEAGUE TO SEEK TO OPEN OPPORTUNITIES FOR seller NEGRO EMPLOYMENT. ITS WORK AMONG EMPLOYERS ON THE ONE HAND, AND AMONG LABOR LEADERS ON THE OTHER, HAS PLACED TENS OF THOUSANDS OF NEGROES IN JOBS WHERE NEGROES HAD NEVER BEEN HIRED

BETWEEN 1900 and 1940/ THE NEGRO POPULATION OF THE UNITED STATES/ INCREASED FROM 9,000,000/ to 13,000,000.// BUT THE INCREASE IN THE SOUTH/ WAS BUT 25 PER CENT./ WHILE THE NORTH AND WEST IT WAS 200 PER CENT.// SINCE 1940 THIS INCREASE/ NORTH AND WEST/ HAS BEEN FURTHER ACCENTUATED.// THE RURAL NEGRO POPULATION/ HAS REMAINED STATIONARY SINCE 1900/ WHILE THE CITY POPULATION/ HAS INCREASED MORE THAN 350 PER CENT.// A MILLION NEGROES/ HAVE LEFT THE PLANTATIONS OF THE SOUTH,/ WHERE much LABOR/ IS IN VIRTUAL PEONAGE,/ TO ENTER DOMESTIC AND PERSONAL SERVICE,/ INDUSTRY AND TRANSPORT/ IN CITIES NORTH AND SOUTH.// LARGE NUMBERS IN INDUSTRY/ HAVE RISEN FROM UNSKILLED/ TO SKILLED LABOR.// THIS IS SHOWN/ BY THE INCREASE OF NEGRO MEMBERSHIP/ IN TRADE UNIONS/ FROM ABOUT 30,000 IN 1900/ to 100,000 in 1930,/ AND TO AN ESTIMATED TOTAL OF 1,000,000/ AT THE HEIGHT OF THE last WAR INDUSTRY.

ESTATE AND BANKING./ A STEADY INCREASE/ IN WHITE-COLLAR OCCUPATIONS/ AND IN THE ARTS AND PROFESSIONS/ HAS ATTRACTED/ A THIRD OF ALL NEGRO WORKERS.

MEANTIME,/ GENERAL CONDITIONS HAVE IMPROVED.// IN 1900, A NEGRO BOY BABY AT BIRTH/ HAD A LIFE EXPECTATION OF THIRTY-TWO YEARS./ IN 1947, THIS HAD INCREASED TO FIFTY-SEVEN YEARS.// IN 1870, NINE-TENTHS OF THE NEGROES WERE ILLITERATE./ THE CENSUS OF 1940 REPORTED THE ILLITERATES/ AT 10 PER CENT,/ PROBABLY AN ~~INACCURATE~~ exaggerated FIGURE/ DUE TO OUR METHODS OF COLLECTING STATISTICS/ READING AND WRITING./ TODAY CERTAINLY THE NEGRO ILLITERATES ARE ~~BELOW~~ perhaps

20-30 10 PER CENT.// IN 1910 THERE WERE IN SCHOOL 1,644,000/ or 45 PER CENT,/ OF ALL NEGROES 5 to 20 YEARS OF AGE;/ IN 1940, 64 PER CENT/ OF SUCH NEGRO CHILDREN WERE IN SCHOOL,/ OR 4,188,000.// IN 1900, CHARLES DUDLEY WARNER,/ SPEAKING FOR AMERICAN INTELLECTUALS,/ SAID THAT NEGROES COULD NOT ASSIMILATE AND USE/ COLLEGE TRAINING./ IN 1910 NOT MORE THAN 5,000 NEGROES WERE IN COLLEGE.

IN 1948 MORE THAN 88,000 NEGROES WERE ENROLLED IN COLLEGE.

THE YEAR AFTER THE ROSENWALD FUND WENT INTO OPERATION, 324 NEGROES RECEIVED THE BACHELOR'S DEGREE. IN 1948 SOME 5,635 RECEIVED THIS DEGREE. // THERE ARE TODAY MORE THAN 1,500 NEGRO STUDENTS ENROLLED IN NORTHERN COLLEGES AND UNIVERSITIES, WHILE FROM THESE INSTITUTIONS 279 HAVE RECEIVED THE DOCTORATE IN PHILOSOPHY. // IN THE FIRST EDITION OF "WHO'S WHO IN AMERICA" THERE WAS NOT SO FAR AS I CAN ASCERTAIN, THE NAME OF A SINGLE AMERICAN OF NEGRO DESCENT. THE FIFTIETH EDITION, IN 1948, CONTAINS THE NAMES OF NINETY-ONE NEGROES, AND IN "AMERICAN MEN OF SCIENCE" SEVENTY-SEVEN NEGROES ARE LISTED. // THERE ARE TODAY ON THE FACULTIES OF THE LEADING UNIVERSITIES OF THE NORTH SEVENTY NEGRO INSTRUCTORS, RANGING FROM A FULL PROFESSOR AT THE UNIVERSITY OF CHICAGO TO ASSOCIATE PROFESSORS AND INSTRUCTORS IN OTHER INSTITUTIONS.

ADVANCEMENT HAS BEEN MADE IN POLITICAL ACTIVITY. // FROM 1900 TO THE FIRST WORLD WAR THE MASS OF AMERICAN NEGROES, EXCEPT IN NORTHERN CITIES, HAD ALMOST STOPPED VOTING. // IN THE SOUTH, WHETHER VOLUNTARILY OR BECAUSE OF LEGAL AND ECONOMIC PRESSURE, MOST NEGROES DID NOT TRY TO VOTE. // TODAY NOT ONLY DO MORE THAN 2,500,000 NEGROES IN THE NORTH AND WEST VOTE, BUT IN 1947 MORE THAN 600,000 NEGROES WERE REGISTERED VOTERS IN TWELVE SOUTHERN STATES. // DESPERATE AND CONTINUED EFFORT IN SOUTH CAROLINA, GEORGIA AND MISSISSIPPI HAS NOT STOPPED THIS GROWTH.

IN 1947 THERE WERE SIX NEGRO MEMBERS OF CITY COUNCILS IN THE COUNTRY, AND THIRTY-THREE MEMBERS OF STATE LEGISLATURES, INCLUDING TWO SENATORS. // MORE THAN A DOZEN NEGRO JUDGES AND MAGISTRATES ARE PRESIDING OVER COURTS, AND THERE ARE TWO NEGRO CONGRESSMEN. // IN 1948, FOR THE FIRST TIME IN UNITED STATES HISTORY, ALL THREE MAJOR PARTIES IN THEIR CONVENTIONS PLEDGED THEMSELVES SPECIFICALLY TO THE UPHOLDING OF THE POLITICAL AND CIVIL RIGHTS OF AMERICAN NEGROES.

WHILE THERE IS MUCH/THAT IS POSITIVE/IN THE ABOVE RECORD,/THE CONTINUING STRUGGLE/REQUIRES A FULL COMPREHENSION/OF ALL THE MANY NEGATIVE FACTORS. EVEN AMONG THESE NEGATIONS/ HOWEVER,/ WE CAN ~~FIRST~~ NOTE SOME IMPROVEMENT.// FOR ONE THING/ THERE HAS BEEN AN ABATEMENT IN MOB VIOLENCE./ FOR ANOTHER, THE FALLACY/THAT THE NEGRO IS CONGENITALLY/UNABLE TO ASSIMILATE AMERICAN CULTURE HAS VIRTUALLY BEEN ABANDONED.

THE MOST BARBAROUS/EXPRESSION OF RACE HATE/ LYNCHING,/HAS NOTABLY DECREASED./ IN 1900 AN AVERAGE OF TWO NEGROES EACH WEEK/WERE LYNCHED BY MOBS/ WITHOUT TRIAL. /IN 1947 ONLY ONE LYNCHING WAS REPORTED/FOR THE ENTIRE YEAR.

IN 1900/AND UP TO WORLD WAR I/IT WAS A COMMON ARGUMENT/THAT THE NEGRO PROBLEM IN THE UNITED STATES/WAS INSOLUBLE BECAUSE NEGROES/WERE AN INFERIOR RACE/AND SO FAR BELOW THE CULTURE/ OF THE NATION/ THAT THEY COULD NEVER EXPECT TO LIVE/ IN THIS LAND AS EQUAL CITIZENS.

SINCE 1917/ THIS ATTITUDE HAS CHANGED GRADUALLY./ FIRST, THE DOGMA OF 35-3-86

"RACE" HAS BEEN WIDELY CHALLENGED,/ AND THE EXISTENCE OF "INFERIOR" RACES OF MANKIND DENIED.// MANY OF THE OLD CLICHÉS HAVE FALLEN INTO DISUSE;/ HUMAN NATURE CAN BE CHANGED/AND MOST PREJUDICES ARE NEITHER/INBORN NOR INERADICABLE./ // LAW CAN HELP/AND HASTEN HUMAN CHANGE,/ AND THE INTERMARRIAGE OF PERSONS/OF DIFFERENT RACES/DEPENDS ON THE INDIVIDUALS INVOLVED/AND NOT ON THEIR "RACIAL" CHARACTERISTICS.//IN SCIENCE, HISTORY, LITERATURE AND ART;/ IN ATHLETICS, PHYSIQUE AND COURAGE,/ NEGROES HAVE REPEATEDLY PROVED THEMSELVES/THE EQUAL AND ~~OFTEN~~ some times THE SUPERIOR,/ OF AVERAGE AMERICANS.// THERE IS TODAY SCARCELY A SINGLE FIELD/OF AMERICAN CULTURE/IN WHICH SOME NEGRO IS NOT OUTSTANDING.

THE SENATE VOTE YESTERDAY/IS CLEAR WARNING:// CONGRESS STILL PREFERS/TO LET A SMALL MINORITY/ OF REACTIONARIES/BLOCK ALL LEGISLATION/RATHER THAN LET A MAJORITY/STOP LYNCHING, DISFRANCHISEMENT & RACE SEGREGATION

35-3-87

THE RECORD OF PROGRESS/ IS IMPRESSIVE/ NOT SO MUCH BECAUSE OF ABSOLUTE ADVANCE/ AS BY COMPARISON/ WITH THE SEMI-SLAVERY /THAT MARKED THE CONDITION OF NEGROES IN 1900.// IF, INSTEAD OF CONSIDERING/ ABSOLUTE NEGRO PROGRESS/ WE COMPARE/ NEGRO ADVANCEMENT/ WITH THE CONDITION OF THE MASS OF AMERICANS /IN HEALTH, EDUCATION AND POLITICAL POWER,/ IT WILL BE CLEAR/ THAT THE LAG IS OMINOUS.

// TO WHAT FUTURE/ CAN THE NEGRO LOOK FORWARD?/ FIRST OF ALL, HE FACES A CHANGED PUBLIC OPINION./ THE NATION IS NO LONGER PESSIMISTIC/ ON THIS PROBLEM/ // FAR FROM BELIEVING THAT BLACK AND WHITE/ CANNOT LIVE TOEGTHER IN PEACE AND PROGRESS/ IN ONE NATION,/ IT HAS AWAKENED TO THE FACT/ THAT PEOPLES OF ALL COLORS AND RACES/ MUST LIVE TOGETHER/ IN ONE WORLD/ OR PERISH.// THIS GRADUAL REALIZATION / OF A GREAT REVOLUTION /FOLLOWING TWO WORLD WARS/ HAS MADE OUR OWN PORBLEM OF RACES/ A BURNING POLITICAL QUESTION.

WE BEGIN TO SEE /THAT THE NEGRO IS FIGHTING/ A SLOW DETERMINED BATTLE /AND IS NOT GOING TO GIVE UP./ THERE IS NO INDICATION/ THAT HE WILL SINK/ INTO LETHARGIC ACCEPTANCE/ OF PRESENT CONDITIONS /AS INEVITABLE /OR PRESENT PROGRESS

35-3-88

AS SATISFACTORY./ HE PROPOSES TO REACH COMPLETE EQUALITY /AS AN AMERICAN CITIZEN.// AND BY EQUALITY/ HE MEANS ABOLITION OF SEPARATE SCHOOLS,/ THE DISAPPEARANCE OF "JIM CROW" TRAVEL/ NO SEGREGATION IN PUBLIC ACCOMMODATIONS:/ THE RIGHT TO VOTE,/ THE RIGHT TO THINK /AND THE RIGHT TO SPEAK,/ THE RIGHT TO WORK / AND TO LIVE IN A DECENT HOME,/ AND THE RIGHT TO MARRY ANY PERSON/ WHO WISHES TO MARRY HIM.// THE NEGRO DOES NOT EXPECT/ TO REACHE THESE GOALS/ IN A MINUTE OR IN TEN YEARS./ HE IS LONG-SUFFERING AND PATIENT./ BUT WHETHER IT TAKES ~~THIRTY~~ TEN YEARS/ OR A THOUSAND/ EQUALITY IS HIS GOAL/ AND HE WILL NEVER STOP /UNTIL HE REACHES IT.

This Cultural and Scientific Conference For World Peace has been a success. In a time of hysteria, suspicion and hate, we have succeeded in bringing face to face in friendly meetings, one of the largest gatherings of creative artists and thinkers the world has seen; and it would have been quite the largest if all who wished to come were here. Meeting together for three full days, we have found wide agreement and sympathy; we have established ideals and friendships belting the globe. We have not been and are not now in complete agreement on all matters; but in one vital respect our agreement is complete: NO MORE WAR! The horrible, world-old habit of wholesale murder of those who disagree with us is, we are convinced, a relic of barbarism, bound to destroy our best culture unless it is absolutely and definitely abolished.

On the other hand, we are not childishly deceived as to the enormity of the task of organizing and conducting a peaceful world. We are of many minds and backgrounds, separated not only by space but by the terrible barriers of language and social patterns; we face deliberate crime, ignorance and misunderstanding - these three. But the greatest of these is misunderstanding. Decent wage, health and schools will one day reduce crime and ignorance to manageable proportions. It is in the vast realm of misunderstanding, misrepresentation and doubt, that war is born and flourishes. Perhaps unwittingly, the opposition which our effort has incurred proves this truth with startling clarity. We know and the saner nation knows that we are not traitors nor conspirators; and far from plotting force and violence, it is precisely force and violence that we bitterly oppose. This Conference was not called to defend Communism nor Socialism nor the American way of life. It was called to promote peace! It was called to say and say again that no matter how right or wrong differing systems of belief in religion, industry or government may be, war is not the method by which these differences can be successfully settled. To the defence of this absolutely indisputable thesis, proven by oceans of blood and worlds of human suffering, we have invited the cooperation of all men: and that cooperation to abolish war does not compel or even ask men to surrender their opinions. It simply insists that force is not reason and beliefs cannot be changed by suppression.

But there is one aspect of our Conference which has forced itself upon the attention of us all. That is the effort of the press and certain leaders of public opinion to spread the idea that some persons here are by their beliefs and actions so beyond the pale of humanity as to deserve neither sympathy nor confidence. Particularly, have the people of the Soviet Union been singled out for something bordering on insult and repeatedly accused of war-mongering and aggression. I do not pretend to be an expert on Russia but seeing what the press can do to a Conference like this in misinterpretation and distortion, I wonder if what is called aggression in the Balkans may not be liberation of landless serfs and giving their ignorant masses in twenty-five years such education as American Negro slaves have not received in seventy-five; and of sending their former masters not to the legislature but scurrying over the earth like rats distributing lies.

All this I do not know, but it can be true and I do know that if the press has lied about Russia as it has lied about American Negroes for three hundred years, I for one will condemn neither Russia nor Communism on such testimony. But beyond and above this, there arises before this Conference the plight and cause of the vast majority of mankind who are not white. These colored races, the Chinese, Japanese, Indians and Indonesians; the peoples of Africa, many of those of South America and most of those of the Caribbean, with fifteen million Negroes of the United States - these are the majority of mankind whose condition and future are the crucial test of the attitude of those peoples who today demand mastery over the world. Secluded for the most part in colonies or dominated areas, they have been enslaved and insulted, kicked in the teeth and used for the rape and exploitation of the British, French, Dutch, Belgian, Spanish and Italian empires. This great America, this vast and rich land around you is built on the slavery, toil and degradation of Africans; here until well into the second half of the nineteenth century, they were sold like cattle and New York did not stop to picket abolitionists; they tarred, feathered and killed them. Today in this land, we have risen from the dead not to full manhood and citizenship but to the place where we can at least stand and yell our own protest. We thank the America that helped us, but we know well that unless we had helped ourselves, we would still in New York City be exactly where our brothers are in Mississippi where I ride in jim-crow cars and would be kicked out of any hotel or public library. When such a nation arraigns Russia, all that I with the best will, can remember is that the Soviet Union alone of all modern nations has prohibition of race and color discrimination written into its fundamental law and that unlike similar words in our Constitution, their law is enforced.

I saw the birth of the League of Nations and I sat in San Francisco when the United Nations was born. In both instances, I worked and pled for the darker peoples, particularly those in imperialist colonies. We got mandates at Geneva which meant nothing; we got trusteeships at San Francisco and there again a determined blocking of all real meaning of colonial freedom by the effort of Great Britain and the United States and the sole opposition of Russia. Again, in the Marshall Plan the nations helped are the colonial imperialists and no colored people unless, like Chiang Kai Shek, they are puppets of world-exploiting investors.

I tell you, people of America, the dark world is on the move! It wants and will have freedom, autonomy and equality. It will not be diverted in these fundamental rights by dialectical splitting of political hairs. We know that the Atlantic Pact proposes for the protection of colonial serfs of European imperialists. We know why Italy has been promised Ethiopia's territory by the Department of State. We know why the President of the United States goes fishing when the Charter of Negro American Rights is laughed to death by Democrats and Republicans and lynching and disenfranchisement go merrily on. We know all this and so does every dark man on earth. The white race may, if it will, tax itself into poverty, and arm itself for suicide, but the vast majority of mankind will march on and over them to freedom and self-rule!

But this catastrophe is the last which we of the darker world wish or will. We have no time for revenge or for sneering at white men's tragic mistakes. What we want is a decent world, where a man does not have to have a white skin in order to be a man. Where poverty is not a means to wealth, where ignorance is not used to prove race superiority, where sickness and death are not part of our factory system. And all this depends first on world peace. Peace is not an end. It is the gateway to real civilization. With peace, all things may be added! With war, we destroy even that which the toil and sacrifice of ages have builded.

It is to the glory of our America that one man today has dared to lead this new crusade for world peace. It was no easy task. It would have been easier, more profitable and certainly more popular if he had kept his mouth shut and stuck to his labratory. We harassed social scientists used to envy the physicists who were not compelled to meddle with human affairs, who could ignore sin and look down on politics, and in cosy ivory towers sit apart with the stars for a private garden. One man has changed all this. No longer can mathematicians conceal themselves in occult formulae or economists be impartial or charity "organized"; all scientists are, and must be, men and leaders of men. On their shoulders rests the world. I have the honor to present to this audience the man who started this crusade and will guide it tonight - Harlow Shapley.

WRITING AND PUBLISHING----KNOWING, EXPRESSING AND THINKING; DREAMING AND CONTRIVING, THROUGH THE WORLD-OLD WAYS OF POETRY AND STORY, DRAMA AND ESSAY: HISTORY AND THE INTERPRETATION OF HUMAN EMOTION: EXPERIENCE AND ACTION---THESE THINGS OCCUPY THE BROADEST REALM OF FREEDOM WHICH THE MIND CAN GRASP. NO SANE PERSON EVER PICTURED FREEDOM EVERYWHERE AND AT ALL TIMES. PARTS OF HUMAN ACTION ALWAYS HAVE BEEN AND ALWAYS WILL BE, SUBJECT TO INEXORABLE LAW. WE CANNOT ABILISH GRAVITATION BECAUSE WE DO NOT LIKE IT; AND THE LAW OF ATOMIC WEIGHTS WILL EVER DEFY CONGRESS. EVEN WHERE NATURAL LAW AND HUMAN EFFORT UNITE TO WREST LIFE FROM NATURE THE FREEDOM OF HUMAN ACTION MUST YIELD IN GREATER OR LESSER DEGREE NOT SIMPLY TO PROBABILITIES OR TENDENCIES, WHICH REFUSE TO CONFORM ENTIRELY TO DESIRE: BUT TO ENACTED LAW, WHICH INSISTS THAT IF WE WOULD CONQUER IGNORANCE

MEN MUST BE MADE TO LEARN: IF WE WOULD CONQUER POVERTY, THIEVES CANNOT BE LET TO STEAL.

BUT MANY WHO SCREAM FOR FREEDOM AND DESPAIR BECAUSE STRUGGLING HUMANITY IS SO OFTEN CO-ERCED BY THOU SHALT NOT, APPEAR TO FORGET THAT COMPARED WITH THE REALM OF PHYSICAL LAW AND EVEN OF BIOLOGICAL AND PSYCHOLOGICAL COMPULSIONS, THE REGIONS WHERE THE SPIRIT OF MAN MAY RANGE FREE OF ALL DISTORTION AND RESTRAINT IS INFINITELY LARGER, DEEPER AND BROADER THAN THE NARROW MARGINS OF COMPULSION. AND BEYOND THAT, WHILE IN OUR IGNORANCE AND FEAR, AND WITH OUR UTTER LACK OF FAITH IN THE CAPACITIES OF THE HUMAN SOUL, WE STAND COMPELLED HERE AND TODAY TO REMAIN PRISONERS OF OUR BELLIES TO AN EXTENT WHICH DISGRACES OUR SCIENCE AND HISTORY, WE NEVERTHELESS KNOW THAT WE ALSO STAND THIS INSTANT, TIPTOE ON THE THRESHHOLD OF INFINITE FREEDOMS, THAT OURSTRETCH THIS DAY OF SLAVERY AS THE UNIVERSE OF SUNS OUTMEASURES OUR LITTLE EARTHLY SYSTEM. WE HAVE BUT TO THINK OF

THE UPSURGING EMOTIONS OF MEN: OF THE DREAMS AND PHANTASIES OF MIND: OF IMAGINATION AND CONTRIVANCE, PLAYING WITH THE INFINITE POSSIBILITIES OF EVER-REVEALING TRUTH--WE HAVE BUT TO LET OUR MINDS FOR A MINUTE CONTEMPLATE WHAT THE HUMAN SOUL MAY DO, ONCE IT IS FREE TO THINK AND WRITE AND SAY, BUT A MORSEL OF WHAT OUR THOUGHT IS CAPABLE. EVEN THE CHAINED AND BARRED FIELDS OF WORK AND FOOD AND DISEASE TODAY WILL YIELD TO VASTER FREEDOMS WHEN MEN ARE LET TO THINK AND TALK AND EXPLORE MORE WIDELY IN REGIONS ALREADY REALLY FREE.

THERE IS OF COURSE A GREY BORDERLAND, WHERE HUMAN EFFORT AND NATURAL LAW COMBINE TO RAISE FOOD, BUILD SHELTER AND TRAIN THE YOUNG. HERE INFLEXIBLE LAW MERGES WITH WISH AND WILL, AND FREEDOM IS AN INDETERMINATE VARIABLE. HERE MEN MAY RESTRAIN ACTION IN ORDER TO PROTECT AND GUIDE IGNORANCE AND INEXPERIENCE TOWARD USING FREEDOM RIGHT AND HERE MORE OFTEN TOO MANY MEN SEEK ARTIFICALLY TO RESTRAIN SUCH FREEDOM AS EMERGES FOR SELFISH

AND SHORTSIGHTED AIMS, CHOOSING IGNORANCE FOR FEAR TOO MANY WILL KNOW: GIVING MASSES TOO LITTLE SO THAT A FEW MAY HAVE TOO MUCH: PREFERRING HATE TO LOVE, LEST POWER CHANGE HANDS AND PRESTIGE WANE. THEY FORGET THAT IT IS THE WIDER REACHES OF MORE COMPLETE FREEDOMS THAT CAN ULTIMATELY BEST TEACH AND GUIDE OUR TWILIGHT IGNORANCE AMID THE UNESCAPABLE IRON OF LAW: AND THE BORDERLAND WHERE FREEDOM CHOKES TODAY MAY EASILY, AS FREEDOM GROWS, FADE INTO ITS MORE COMPLETE REALM.

TWO BARRIERS AND TWO ALONE HEM US IN AND HURL US BACK TODAY--ONE STINKING PERSISTENT RELIC OF ANCIENT BARBARISM---WAR: ORGANIZED MURDER, MAINIMG DESTRUCTION AND INSANITY OF OUR YOUNG MEN: AND THE OTHER, THE WORLD-OLD HABIT OF REFUSING OURSELVES TO THINK OR TO LISTEN TO THOSE WHO DO THINK. AGAINST THIS IGNORANCE AND INTOLERANCE WE PROTEST FOREVER. BUT WE DO NOT MERELY PROTEST, WE MAKE RENEWED DEMAND FOR FREEDOM IN THAT VAST KINGDOM OF THE HUMAN SPIRIT WHERE FREEDOM HAS EVER HAD THE RIGHT TO DWELL. THE EXPRESSING OF THOUGHT TO UN-STUFFED EARS: THE DREAMING OF DREAMS BY UNTWISTED SOULS.

Thinking & Writing

Writing and publishing---knowing, expressing and thinking; dreaming and contriving, through the world-old ways of poetry and story, drama and essay; history and the interpretation of human emotion; experience and action---these things occupy the broadest realm of freedom which the mind can grasp. No same person ever pictured freedom everywhere and at all times. Parts of human action always have been and always will be, subject to inexorable law. We cannot abolish gravitation because we do not like it; and the law of atomic weights will ever defy Congress. Even where natural law and human effort unite to grow food or dig coal or curb disease, the freedom of human action must yield in greater or lesser degree not simply to probabilities or tendencies, which refuse to conform entirely to desire; but to enacted law, which insists that if we would conquer ignorance, men must be made to learn; if we would conquer poverty, thieves cannot be let to steal.

But many who scream for Freedom and despair because struggling humanity is so often co-erced by Thou shalt not, appear to forget that compared with the realm of physical law and even of biological and psychological compulsions, the regions where the Spirit of Man may range free of all distortion and restraint is infinitely larger, deeper and broader than the narrow margins of compulsion. And beyond that, while in our ignorance and fear, and withour utter lack of faith in the capabilities of the Human Soul, we stand compelled hereand today to remain prisoners of our bellies to an extent which disgraces our Science and History, we nevertheless know that we also stand this instant, tiptoe on the threshhold of infinite Freedoms, that ourstretch this day of slavery as the Universe of Suns outmeasures our little Earthly system. We have but to think of the upsurging emotions of men; of the dreams and phantasies of mind; of imagination and contrivance, playing with the infinite possibilities of ever-revealing Truth--we have but to let our minds for a minute contemplate what the Human Soul may do, once it is free to think and write and say, but a morsel of what our thought is capable. Even the chained and barred fields of work and fook and Disease today will yield to vaster freedoms when men are let more to widely think and talk and explore in regions really free.

There is of course a grey borderland, where human effort and natural law combine to raise food, build shelter and train the young. Here inflexible law merges with wish and will, and freedom is an indeterminate variable. And here too many men seek artifically to restrain such freedom as emerges for selfish and shortsighted aims, choosing ignorance for fear too many will know; giving masses too little so that a few may have too much; preferring Hate to Love, lest Power change hands and presitge wane. They forget that it is the wider reaches of more complete freedoms that can ultimately best teach and guide our twilight ignorance aimd the unescapable iron of law and the borderland where freedom chokes today may easily as freedom grows, fade into its more complete realm.

Two barries and tow alone hem us in and hurl us back today--one stinking persistent relic of ancient barbarism--War; organized murder, maiming destruction and insanity of our young men; and the other, the world-old habit of refusing ourselves to think or to listen to those who do think. Against this ignorance and intolerance we protest forever. But we do not merely protest! we make renewed demand for Freedom in that vast kingdom of the human spirit where Freedom has ever had the right to dwell--the expressing of Thought to un-stuffed ears; the dreaming of dreams to untwisted souls.

Speech mailed as Dr. Was in Paris China Welfare Dinner--April 19, 1949

THE CHINA WELFARE FUND

BY
W. E. B. Du Bois

In 1936, I stood on the marble altar of Heaven in Peiping, China; that city which for a thousand years has been the capital of a country where today four hundred and sixty million human beings live. I think then I realized as never before the position of Asia as the center of this world. I realized that Europe was but a small peninsula of Asia, and America an outlying province of the world. What this world is going to be for the next thousand years depends on Asia, more than on any other part of the world. Asia has wealth, it has numbers, it has brains and the discipline of an ancient culture not yet destroyed. Once free of foreign control, Asia will lead humanity. The relation, therefore, of the people of Asia to the rest of the world, is of primary concern to us all. If it is to be a relation of friendship and cooperation the chances for human progress and happiness will be infinitely enhanced. If on the other hand, it is going to be hatred, war and struggle, then dark ages are sure to settle again upon this world, before we can again turn our faces toward the sun.

I was in Germany as a student when the Boxer troubles took place late in the 19th century. I saw the coming of the Chinese representatives, ordered at Kowtow before the Emperor of Germany in apology for Chinese attack upon European missionaries.

It was not long after that, however, that the bitter resentment of the Chinese toward white people because of long oppression and this final insult, was mitigated in the case of the United States, because the Boxer indemnity due us was given for the education of Chinese students in Western civilization. It was one of the finest gestures that the United States ever made. It is unfortunate that in our day the faith and hope of China in the great democracy of the United States has been radically changed and that because of our curious and illogical foreign policy, we are now looked upon as the enemies of the Chinese People.

In Greece, Turkey, and in China we have used our power against the interests of the mass of people and they know it and resent it. But it happens now that we have a unique opportunity of doing the right thing and showing real friendship in China. It is not a matter of different ideologies in government or industrial control; it is the flat fact that the Chinese people are hungry and oppressed and have been for ages.

At last today they are arising , by their own effort, they are helping themselves. They are organizing their everyday life. They need help. They are hungry and naked and sick. The help that the United States has already been giving China has discriminated against, the mass of people and helped the dishonest and grasping bureaucrats.

How can we really help the Chinese People? There is in China one person of such eminence and power that the world believes in her. They know that whatever is given to Madame Sun Yat Sen will be used for the benefit of the Chinese people; without distrimination as to whether they belong to this or that faction; or have one or another economic faith. We have the opportunity to take a great step toward World Peace and understanding, and to show our belief in democracy by disclaiming any intention of using our wealth and charity to compel the people of China to follow any political or economic path.

On the other hand, knowing the need, and knowing the way in which this need can honestly be met, we have the unique opportunity of helping the most populous country of the world to eat and clothe and shelter itself, to regain its health and to carry on its education, so that in the great role of leadership which China is bound eventually to assume in the world; the China will realise that in the United States they have friends and not enemies! They have people whose democratic faith is shown by their works; whose religion is shown by sacrifice rather than sermons.

COLONIES AS CAUSE OF WAR

W. E. B. DU BOIS

LET US NOT BE MISLED. THE REAL CAUSE OF THE DIFFERENCES WHICH THREATEN WORLD WAR IS NOT THE SPREAD OF SOCIALISM OR EVEN OF THE COMPLETE SOCIALISM WHICH COMMUNISM ENVISAGES. SOCIALISM IS SPREADING ALL OVER THE WORLD AND ~~IN FEW NATIONS FASTER THAN~~ even IN THE UNITED STATES. ON NO SINGLE THEORY OF HUMAN PROGRESS IS THERE SUCH WIDE UNANIMITY AS IN THE BELIEF THAT SCIENTIFIC SOCIAL PLANNING MUST GUIDE FUTURE INDUSTRY AND THAT THE INDIVIDUAL EFFORT IN WORK AND THE PRODUCTION AND DISTRIBUTION OF WEALTH MUST BE SUBJECT TO SOCIAL CONTROL FOR THE COMMON GOOD.

AGAINST THIS SPREAD OF SOCIALISM, ONE MODERN INSTITUTION IS WORKING DESPERATELY, AND THAT IS COLONIALISM AND COLONIALISM HAS BEEN

AND IS AND EVER WILL BE ONE OF THE CHIEF CAUSES OF WAR.

COLONIALISM IS THE MODERN SURVIVAL OF THE ANCIENT METHOD OF PRODUCTION THROUGH THE ENSLAVEMENT OF THE WORKING CLASSES. THROUGH HUMAN SYMPATHY AND RELIGIOUS FAITH, SLAVERY FADED INTO SERFDOM AND WAS ABOUT TO DISAPPEAR IN EUROPE DURING THE MIDDLE AGES WHEN SUDDENLY IN NEWLY DISCOVERED AMERICA AND FED BY IMPORTED BLACK FOLK FROM AFRICA IT WAS BORN AGAIN. THIS SLAVE SYSTEM APPLIED TO NEW CROPS AND TO MATERIALS PROCESSED BY A NEWLY DISCOVERED TECHNIQUE, PRECIPITATED AN INDUSTRIAL REVOLUTION AND BIRTHED THE MODERN USE OF THE SUDDENLY INCREASED WEALTH AS CAPITAL FOR MAKING MORE WEALTH RATHER THAN AS CONSUMERS GOODS. MOST OF THE NEW WEALTH AND POWER THEREFORE WENT TO THE OWNERS OF CAPITAL BUT SOME OF IT WENT TO THE WENT TO THE LABORERS AND THEY INCREASED IN INTELLIGENCE AND POLITICAL POWER. WHEN THIS EMANCIPATION OF THE EUROPEAN WORKING

35-3-265

CLASS BEGAN TO SPREAD TO YELLOW LABOR IN ASIA AND TO BLACK SLAVES IN AMERICA, COLONIALISM AROSE AS A PLAN TO CONCENTRATE AND PRESERVE SLAVE LABOR AMONG THE COLORED RACES. COLONIES WERE FOUNDED IN AFRICA AND ASIA WHERE UNDER EUROPEAN CONTROL, MILLIONS OF NATIVES WERE REGIMENTED IN FORCED LABOR WITH LITTLE EDUCATION, MONOPOLIZED LAND, NO POLITICAL POWER AND ONLY PRIMITIVE TECHNIQUES. THUS THE VIRTUAL SLAVERY OF A MAJORITY OF THE WORLD'S LABORERS WAS PROLONGED.

BUT THIS SYSTEM COULD ONLY BE MAINTAINED WITH THE CONSENT OF THE ENFRANCHISED WHITE WORKING CLASS. TO UPHOLD AND DEFEND THIS SYSTEM, SPIRITUAL AND PHYSICAL FORCE WAS NECESSARY: A RACE THEORY WHICH PURSUADED WHITE LABOR THAT IT BELONGED TO A SUPERIOR RACE WITH THE RIGHT TO ENSLAVE COLORED PEOPLE AS THE ONLY METHOD OF PRESERVING CIVILIZATION: AND UNIVERSAL MILITARISM DESIGNED TO HOLD COLONIALS IN CONTROL. THUS THE WORKING CLASS WAS SPLIT INTO TWO COMPLETE GROUPS, EACH WILLING TO HOLD THE OTHER

IN THRALL, THE ONE HALF-SLAVE, THE OTHER ONLY HALF FREE. BUT THE WHITE WORKERS WERE BRIBED WITH A SHARE OF THE VAST PROFITS OF THE COLONIAL SYSTEM AND IMBUED WITH A SENSE OF NATIONAL PRIDE AND THE GLORY OF IMPERIAL RULE.

BUT THIS INDUSTRIAL SYSTEM HAD ITS INHERENT DANGERS: IT LEFT IN WHITE COUNTRIES, VESTIGIAL REMAINS OF SLAVE LABOR, IN DEPRESSED CLASSES AND SLUMS: ESPECIALLY IN AMERICA, IT LEFT MILLIONS OF BLACK SERFS, WHO COULD NOT BE REMOVED TO COLONIES, AND YET COULD BE HELD TO FORCED LABOR ONLY BY NULLIFYING THE DEMOCRATIC CONSTITUTION ON WHICH THE UNITED STATES WAS FOUNDED. TODAY IN THE UNITED STATES, 15,000,000 SUCH CITIZENS ARE STILL IN SEMI-SLAVERY, AND FORM PART OF AN INTERNAL COLONIAL SYSTEM. INN CHINA AND THE MIDDLE EAST: IN THE BALKANS AND SOUTH AMERICA, AND EVEN IN LEADING CIVILIZED COUNTRIES THIS DEGRADATION OF DEPRESSED WORKERS CONTINUES AS PART OF THE MODERN INDUSTRIAL PROCESS.

THIS SYSTEM OF COLONIALISM, SEMI-COLONIALISM AND DEPRESSED CLASSES WITH ECONOMIC CONTROL CENTERED IN THE HANDS OF RICH, GIFTED AND POWERFUL INDIVIDUALS AND SOCIAL CLASSES, PUT THE CONTROL OF THE GOVERNMENTS OF MOST COUNTRIES IN THEIR HANDS AND NEUTRALIZED DEMOCRATIC GOVERNMENT. THIS KEPT ALIVE THE IDEA, WHICH SCIENCE AND TECHNIQUE INCREASINGLY DENIED, THAT POVERTY OF THE MASSES WAS THE INEVITABLE FOUNDATION OF MODERN CULTURE.

THIS COLONIAL SYSTEM AND ITS HALF-CONCEALED COUNTERPARTS IN THE SO-CALLED "BACKWARD" LANDS AND IN THE SLUMS OF THE MOST CIVILIZED STATES BECAME THE MAIN CAUSE OF WAR AND FEAR OF WAR. COLONIAL REVOLT, HOWEVER FUTILE, WAS A CONTINUING DANGER. INTERNAL SERVILE REVOLT, STRIKES AND LABOR UNREST, AND CRIME CALLED FOR VAST POLICE POWER AND ARBITRARY COURT PROCEDURE. BUT EVEN GREATER DANGER AROSE FROM THE GREED AND ENVY OF THE RULING NATIONS WHO RESENTED THE COLONIAL MONOPOLIES OF THE GREAT EMPIRES. THE DETERMINATION OF GERMANY AND ITALY TO SHARE THE COLONIAL WEALTH

MONOPOLIZED BY BRITAIN AND FRANCE PRECIPITATED THE FIRST WORLD WAR, WHICH BROUGHT THE WHOLE INDUSTRIAL SYSTEM TO THE BRINK OF BANKRUPTCY. THE RUSSIAN WORKING CLASS SEIZED THIS OPPORTUNITY TO REVOLT AND SOUGHT BY A SYSTEM TO ABOLISH POVERTY WITHOUT COLONIAL SLAVERY: BY PLANNED WORK AND MORE EQUITABLE DISTRIBUTION OF WEALTH. SHE WAS ATTACKED BY fourteen COUNTRIES OVER A PERIOD OF TWENTY- EIGHT YEARS AND CONSEQUENTLY HAS NOT YET HAD FAIR CHANCE TO FULLY CARRY OUT HER BOLD EXPERIMENT.

MEANTIME, THE INDUSTRIAL SYSTEM OF EUROPE AND AMERICA WAS SO WEAKENED BY WAR AND DEPRESSION, UNEMPLOYMENT AND DISEASE, THAT PLANNED DICTATORSHIP AROSE IN GERMANY AND ITALY, WITH WIDE SYMPATHY IN BRITAIN AND THE UNITED STATES TO SAVE IT. THE UNEXPECTED RESULT WAS A WIDER AND MORE TERRIBLE WORLD WAR---- A WAR NEITHER PLANNED NOR EXPECTED, WITH NO ONE CAUSE AND NO RESULT, SAVE THAT THE UNION OF SOVIET REPUBLICS NOW ROSE TO ITS FULL STATURE OF PROMISE AND BY THROWING ALL OF HER POWER TO THE DEFENSE OF

WESTERN EUROPE AND AMERICA, GAVE THIRTY MILLION LIVES TO SAVE THE WORLD FROM ADOLF HITLER. THE CLEAR RESULT OF THIS VICTORY OF SOCIALISM OVER DICTATORSHIP WAS TO HERALD THE CERTAIN BEGINNING OF THE END OF COLONIAL-ISM: INDIA WAS FREED, CHINA THREW OFF WESTERN DOMINATION, THE WEST INDIES SEIZED BEGINNINGS OF POLITICAL POWER AND EAST EUROPE SEIZED OWNER-SHIP OF ITS LAND AND NATURAL RESOURCES.

THIS RESULT WAS SO ASTOUNDING, AND SO CLEAR A THREAT TO IMPERIALISM AND SLAVE LABOR THAT INSTEAD OF WORLD RECOGNITION OF THE FACT THAT THIS END OF COLONIALISM WAS THE ONLY DEVELOPEMENT TO END WAR, WE ARE TODAY RUSHING PELL-MELL INTO A THIRD WORLD WAR, NOT AS MOST PERSONS SEEM TO THINK, BY ARMING, MARCHING AND MAKING FANTASTIC MUNITIONS TO DEVELOP THE RIVAL STRENGTH OF TWO GREAT NATIONS BUT BY TRYING BEHIND THIS FALSE FACADE DESPERATELY AND FRANTICALLY TO BUILD A NEW COLONIALISM IN AFRICA. WAR ~~IS NOT BREWING~~ preparing May be IN ~~THE SOVIET UNION NOR~~ Europe And IN THE UNITED STATES, but its seeds are being sown ~~IT IS BREW-~~ ~~ING~~ IN AFRICA,

WHERE BRITISH, AMERICAN, FRENCH AND BELGIAN WEALTH IS TRYING TO REBUILD AN OLD WORLD ECONOMY ON SLAVE LABOR. ON SLAVE LABOR WHICH WILL CONTINUE TO COMPETE WITH THE BEST PAID LABOR OF THE WORLD AND ACCUMULATE MORE WEALTH IN PRIVATE CONTROL WHICH CAN BE USED IN THE FUTURE AS IN THE PAST TO KILL DEMOCRACY IN EUROPE AND AMERICA AND TO STOP THE INEVITABLE SPREAD OF PLANNED INDUSTRY AND THE JUST DISTRIBUTION OF WEALTH RATHER THAN AN ANARCHY OF BUSINESS ENTERPRISE BASED ON FORCE AND CHANCE.

BEFORE THIS REBIRTH OF COLONIALISM, THE UNITED NATIONS STAND DUMB AND HELPLESS MUMBLING FORMULAS ON HUMAN RIGHTS AND DENYING THE WRETCHED EVAN THE RIGHT TO COMPLAIN. EVEN ORGANIZED LABOR IS TOO BLIND TO SEE THE CLOUD RISING TO DESTROY IT. BRITISH LABOR DREAMS OF SECURITY AND WEALTH BY BRIBING OIL BARONS OF THE MIDDLE EAST AND LETTING THEM FATTEN ON THE FILTH AND FLIES OF THEIR PAUPER POPULATIONS. THE AMERICAN LABOR UNIONS SMASHED THE WORLD FEDERATION NOT FOR FEAR OF RUSSIA BUT FOR FEAR OF THE BLACK DELEGATES FROM AFRICA AND THE INDIES DEMANDING THE END OF COLONIALISM AND EQUAL WAGE FOR EQUAL WORK.

FOREMOST IN THIS FIGHT TO RE-ENSLAVE HUMAN LABOR ARE TWO "DEMOCRACIES": THE UNION OF SOUTH AFRICA AND THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA-----BOTH WITH THE FATAL INITIALS-----USA. NOWHERE ON EARTH SINCE THE BIRTH OF CHRIST HAS A NATION EXPRESSED A MORE REPULSIVE PLAN TO DEGRADE HUMAN BEINGS THAN THE UNION OF SOUTH AFRICA TODAY: COMPLETE DISFRANCHISEMENT OF SIX MILLION BLACK WORKERS BY TWO MILLION WHITE PARASITES: NO TRADE UNIONS FOR BLACKS, LIMITED EDUCATION, POVERTY AND DISEASE UNEQUALLED IN ANY CIVILIZED LAND.

NORTH FROM THIS BLATANT TYRANNY AND INSPIRED BY IT, THE RHODESIAS AND KENYA DEMAND AS A RIGHT THE OWNERSHIP OF TEN MILLIONS OF BLACKS WITH ONLY SUCH RIGHTS AS LOCAL WHITES CONTROLLING GOVERNMENT, LAND AND LABOR, CHOSE TO GIVE THEM. INTO SUCH A CONTINENT, WITH ITS NINE MILLION BLACK SLAVES OF BELGIUM, ITS TWENTY-FOUR MILLION SERFS OF FRANCE, ITS SEVEN MILLION SLAVES IN DISPUTE BETWEEN EGYPT AND BRITAIN AND BRITAIN'S OWN

FIFTY MILLIONS OF WEST AFRICA, COMES THE WEALTH OF THE WORLD TODAY SEEKING INVESTMENT AT PERCENTAGES THEY WOULD NOT DARE DEMAND AT HOME AND LED BY THE MOST EXPERIENCED EXPLOITER OF HELPLESS PEOPLE, UNILEVERS, TO PLANT AND REAP: TO BUILD AND DAM: TO WHIP AND DRIVE: AND REAP SUCH RICHES OUT OF A RE-ENSLAVED AFRICA, AS TO BUILD A MONOPOLY OF WORLD INDUSTRY ABLE TO CONTROL MODERN CULTURE EVEN MORE EFFECTIVELY THAN BEFORE THE FIRST WORLD WAR.

LEADING THIS NEW COLONIAL IMPERIALISM COMES MY OWN NATIVE LAND, BUILT BY MY FATHERS' TOIL AND BLOOD, THE UNITED STATES. THE UNITED STATES IS A GREAT NATION: RICH BY GRACE OF GOD AND PROSPEROUS BY THE HARD WORK OF ITS HUMBLEST CITIZENS. AND THESE CITIZENS WERE NOT MADE UP OF THE ELECT OF THE EARTH: OF NOBLES AND ARISTOCRATS: OF THE LEARNED AND GIFTED. NO. AMERICA WAS PEOPLED BY THE LOWEST OF MEN, THE HUMBLEST OF HUMAN STRAINS: BY SLAVES AND PAUPERS, EVEN IN PART BY JAILBIRDS AND PROSTITUTES: BEGGARS

AND OUTCASTS: AS WELL AS BY HONEST, HARD-WORKING PEASANTS. OUT OF THIS MATERIAL SHE HAS BUILT A POWERFUL NATION, WHICH IS IN ITSELF THE HIGHEST PROOF OF THE POSSIBILITIES OF HUMAN KIND. HOW IS IT THAT UPON SOIL SUCH AS THIS AROSE MODERN SLAVERY WITH UNPARALLELED EXPLOITATION OF NATURAL RESOURCES AND TODAY A FRIGHTFUL MILITARISM ON THE VASTEST SCALE EVER KNOWN TO MAN AND THREATENING TO BRIBE AND COERCE AND RULE MANKIND? WHY IS IT THAT TODAY AMERICANS ARE THE GREATEST EMPLOYERS OF COLONIAL LABOR IN THE WORLD, AND ARE STRETCHING EVERY SINEW TO CONTROL ALL THE LABOR AND PROFIT OF EUROPE, ASIA AND AFRICA?

IT IS BECAUSE WE ARE TOO NEW TO BE WISE, TOO IMPATIENT TO BE INTELLIGENT: TOO RICH TO BE HUMBLE AND TOO BOASTFUL TO HAVE GOOD MANNERS. WE CRUCIFIED THE PROPHETS WHO WARNED US OF NEGRO SLAVERY UNTIL THAT SLAVERY PLUNGED US INTO BLOODY, COSTLY AND UNNECESSARY CIVIL WAR. TODAY WHEN THE GRANDCHILDREN OF THESE SLAVES, STRUGGLING AND CRAWLING TO THE LIGHT AND DEMANDING THE RIGHTS OF FREE MEN, CONGRESS LAUGHS AT OUR JUST DEMANDS AND

THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES GOES FISHING. YET THE NATION KNOWS WE ARE RIGHT. IT KNOWS WE ARE RULED BY CORPORATE WEALTH. BUT IT DOES NOT KNOW HOW OR WHAT IS THE POSSIBLE ALTERNATE. IT IS DELIBERATELY MISLED BY A PROSTITUTED PRESS, A CONTROLLED EDUCATIONAL SYSTEM, A BODY OF FRIGHTENED SCIENTISTS AND ARTISTS AND BY SUCH WASTE OF FUNDS ON WAR THAT LITTLE IS LEFT FOR SCHOOLS, HOSPITALS, FLOOD CONTROL AND RATIONALLY PLANNED ECONOMY. DRUNK WITH POWER WE ARE LEADING THE WORLD TO HELL IN A NEW COLONIALISM WITH THE SAME OLD HUMAN SLAVERY WHICH ONCE RUINED US AND TO A THIRD WORLD WAR WHICH WILL RUIN THE WORLD.

D

Colonies as cause of war

by W.E.B. Du Bois

Let us not be misled. The real cause of the differences which threaten world war is not the spread of socialism or even of the complete socialism which communism envisages. Socialism is spreading all over the world and nowhere faster than in the United States. On no single theory of human progress is there such wide unamimity as in the belief that scientific social planning must guide future industry and that individual effort in work and the production and distribution of wealth must be subject to social control for the common good.

Against this spread of socialism, one modern institution is working desperately, and that is colonialism and colonialism has been and is and ever will be one of the chief causes of ~~world~~ war.

Colonialism is the ~~chief~~ modern survival of the ancient method of production through the enslavement of the working classes. Through human sympathy and religious faith, slavery faded into serfdom and was about to disappear in Europe during the Middle Ages when suddenly it was born again in newly discovered America and fed by imported black folk from Africa. This slave system applied to new crops and materials ~~and~~ processed by a newly discovered technique, precipitated an Industrial Revolution and birthed the modern use of the ~~vastly~~ suddenly increased wealth as capital for making more wealth. ~~While~~ Most of the new wealth and power went to the owners of Capital ~~this wealth,~~ but some of it went to the laborers and they increased in intelligence and political power. When this emancipation of the European working class began to spread to Yellow labor in Asia and to black slaves in America, Colonialism arose to concentrate and preserve slave labor among the colored races. Colonies were formed in Africa and Asia, where under European control, millions of natives were regimented, with forced labor, ~~no~~ little education, monopolized land, no political power, and only primitive techniques. Thus the virtual slavery of a majority of the world's laborers was prolonged ~~and concentrated.~~ But this system could only be maintained with the consent of the ~~enfranchised~~ White working class.

To uphold and defend this system, spiritual and physical force was necessary: a race theory which pursuaded white labor that it ~~was~~ Colored a superior ~~class~~ race with the right to enslave colored people as the only method of preserving civilization; and militarism designed to hold colonials in ~~power and even to arm them so as to fight each other or even to fight white labor.~~ control. Thus the working class was split into two combating groups, each helping to hold the other in thrall, ~~This was widely accomplished by bribing~~ the one half-slave, the other only half free. But the white workers with a share of the vast profits were bribed of the colonial system and imbued them with a sense of the glory of imperial rule. But this industrial system had its dangers: it left in white countries, vestigial remains of slave labor, in depressed classes and slums; especially in America, it left millions of serfs, who could not be removed to colonies, and yet could be held to forced labor only by nullifying the democratic constitution on which the nation was founded. Today in the United States, 15,000,000 citizens are still in semi-slavery, and form part of an internal colonial system. In the Balkans and South America, this degradation of depressed workers continued as part of the modern industrial process.

This system of colonialism, semi-colonialism and oligarchic economic control centered in the hands of rich, gifted and powerful individuals and social classes, who controlled the governments of most countries and neutralized democratic government. They kept alive the idea, which science and technique increasingly denied, that Poverty of the masses was the inevitable foundation of modern culture.

This colonial system and its half-concealed counterparts in the so-called "Backward" lands and in the slums of the most civilized states, is the main cause of war and fear of war. Colonial revolt, however futile, was a continuing danger. But even greater danger arose from the greed and envy of the dominating ruling nations who resented the monopolies of the great empires. The determination of Germany and Italy to share the colonial wealth of Britain and France precipitated the First World War, which brought the whole industrial system to the brink of bankruptcy. The Russian working class revolted and sought by a new industrial system to abolish poverty without colonial slavery; by planned work and more equitable distribution of wealth. She was attacked by countries over a period of years and consequently has not yet had fair chance to carry out her theory.

Meantime the industrial system of Europe and America was so weakened by war and depression, unemployment and disease, that planned dictatorships arose in Germany and Italy, with wide sympathy in Britain and the United states to save it. The result was a wider and more terrible world war--a war neither planned nor expected, with no one cause and no clear result, except the beginning of the end of colonialism. Instead of world recognition of the fact that this end of colonialism ~~is the~~ was the only thing which will end war, developments to we are today rushing pell-mell into a third world war, NOT as most persons seem to think, by arming, marching and making fantastic munitions to derail the rival strength of two great nations but by trying behind this false facade desperately and frantically to build a new colonialism in Africa. War is not brewing in The Soviet Union nor in the United States. It is brewing in Africa where British, American, French and Belgium wealth is trying to re-build ~~a new~~ an old world economy ~~built~~ on slave labor. On slave labor which will continue to compete with the cheaply paid labor of the world and accumulate more wealth in private control ~~furnish wealth~~ which can be used in the future as in the past to kill democracy in Europe and America and stop the inevitable spread of planned industry and the just distribution of wealth rather than an anarchy of business enterprise based on force and chance. Even organized labor is too blind to see the cloud rising (own)

Foremost in this fight to re-enslave human labor are two democracies: the Union of South Africa and the United States of America -- both with the fatal initials -- USA. Nowhere on earth since the birth of Crist has a nation expressed a more repusive plan to degrade human beings than the Union of South Africa: complete disfranchisement of six million black workers (by 2 million white parasites); no trade unions, miserably limited education, and poverty and disease unequalled in any civilized land. North from this blatant tyrrany and inspired by it, the Rhodesias and Kenya demand as a right the ownership of millions of blacks with only such rights as local whites (cheaply governed land + labor) chose to give them. Into such a continent, with its nine million slaves of Belgium, its million serfs of France, its seven million slaves in dispute between Egypt and Britian and Britain's own 50 millions of West Africa, comes the wealth of the world seeking investment at fifty percent (percentages they would not dare demand at home), and led by the most experienced exploiter of helpless peoples, Unilevers, to plant and reap; to build and damn; to whip and drive; and reap such riches pursuch wealth out of a re-enslaved Africa, as to build that a monopoly of world industry able to control modern culture even more effectively than before the First World War.

Before this rebirth of Colonialism, the United Nations stands dumb and helpless (mumbling promises on human rights & denying the right to complain

The attempt of Italy to regain her African Colonies is unjust to Africa and unfair to the Italian people. After England and France had divided up Africa and later the Germans had seized a part, the Italiana concluded that their place as a great power depended on expansion in Africa. Their hearts were set on Tunis which was the ancient seat of Cartharge but France balked them. They finally seized the Libyan desert with incredible cruelty and annexed that waste of sand. But earlier then this they were set on seizing Ethiopia, when the Black Mahdi drove England out of the Sudan the English egged the Italians on to seize Ethiopia from their foot-hold in Eretria, the Italians began their attack but were thrown back. They then intrigued with Menelik who was trying to seize the Ethiopian throne. When he succeeded in becoming Emperor the Italians asked as their price, colonial control over Ethiopia. This Menelik indigently refused and decisivly over-thre the Italian army at Adua in 1896.

In the First World War, Italy refused to join the allies unless she were given Ethiopia. This the allies practically promised , but reneged on their promise at the Peace of Verailles. Mussolini used the promise of reviving the glories of the Roman Empire in order to distract attention on conditions in Italy. He started the Second World War by treacherously conquering Ethiopia from Eretria as point of attack. The overthrow of the Axis restored Ethiopia to independence but Italy, having made peace and alliance with the Allies now asked the return of Libya and Eretria as Italian colonies. Neither is of any real worth to the Italian people. Lybia is a desert and Eretria can only be self supporting by depending on Ethiopian trade. It's use to Italy is only that of a base to attack Ethiopia. It is on the other hand, by history, racial-identity an economic necessity and an integral part of Ethiopia.

35-3-310

If colonialism is going to disappear from the world--as it must, Italy has no need of Eretria and Ethiopia has every right to it. A colonial empire would only help forge chains of exploitation on the working people of Italy.

THE YOUNG PROGRESSIVES

I am very glad to know of young people in these days who are willing to take their stand for progressive and forward looking polidies. Every pressure is being put upon students today to keep them from questioning present conditions in the world or advocation forward movements. A ridiculous doctrice has become current: namely that if any person or party or nation advocates something in which you are in favor, that nevertheless you should stop advocation it if you do not like or approve of everything which this group is doing. This is sheer nonsense. Certainly, I propose to be fellow-traveler with any group of people who are advocating peace, the reform of our economic system, the abolition of poverty and the implementation of democracy. I trust that you as young students will have the guts to stand up for a program of this sort.

ADDRESS BY DR. W.E.B. DU BOIS

WELCOME HOME RALLY FOR PAUL ROBESON, NEW YORK, JUNE 19, 1949
AUSPICES OF THE COUNCIL ON AFRICAN AFFAIRS

On last Easter morning I found myself quite unexpectedly flying to France for my tenth visit. My first visits took place fifty years ago when as a student and young teacher I first saw Paris and the sweep of that greatest avenue in the world from the Triumphant Arch to the Place of Peace. It was in 1894 and 1900, the apogee of European civilization; and for 250 years France had, in many respects, led that march of culture. One sensed this in the pride of its boulevards; in the universal reign of its tastes; and in the world dominance of its exquisite language.

Fifty years passed over the world—a half century more revolutionary in cultural outlook and political ideal than any which humanity has seen. The whole world changed. The whole meaning of human culture was revolutionized. The total ideal of man was uprooted, for disaster or complete replanting.

France showed in 1949 a change and metamorphasis undreamed of in 1894. Gone was the subtle security of wealth; the confidence in the perfect setting of canons of taste to which all the world paid homage; and the gayety and light touch on life which always made Paris a thousand and one nights. But back of the change, the old and indomitable spirit of the French people still emerged, as it had at Verdun and Dunkirk; back of a vast shadow of uncounted dead, of crippled and maimed living; back of rags and poverty, still lingered and lived the old spirit of liberty, equality and brotherhood, which the work, family and country of Vichy had not transformed. The sweep of the Champs Elysees is still the noblest on earth, despite the shrinking of its fashion parade; the buildings of the grand boulevards need carpentry, masonry and paint; and the gay little restaurants with their pride of cheap living and high thinking reflect today the fall of the franc from 19 cents to three tenths of a cent.

The story of what has happened to France and Europe in the first half of the 20th century I have seen and heard in the visits I made between 1900 and 1949. I saw in 1906 and 1911, the division which placed colonial imperialism in growing opposition to interracial cooperation and world peace. French science and philanthropy ranged themselves back of the great Race Congress held in London in 1911, an event which might have changed world history but for that little German warship that slipped into Agadir and bluntly challenged the French and British grip on the cheap labor of Asia and Africa. The result was disaster to European civilization, and disaster which I only began to realize when I landed at Brest in December, 1918, a month after the Armistice closing the first World War.

France was prone. Her agony of suffering and death was written on the faces of 30 millions of people. Her very cry of military triumph was shot with tears. I remember vividly in the great hall of the Trocadero, how the magnificent figure of the leading actress of France stood before thousands and cried "C'est la victoire, c'est la victoire!" And how a marshall of France kissed the Legion of Honor on the cheeks of a black African and a yellow Annamese. But we all soon knew that it was a victory which cost too much, and from which not France nor Europe; not Britain nor Germany had courage to learn. Only Russia dared a new way and with one accord 14 nations including us, made war on her six times in twelve years and would repeat it today, if they dared.

I came to France four times between the first and second world wars, so that in each of the intervening decades I saw and judged and tried in weak and ineffectual ways to guide history. I hammered into deaf ears the continuing threat of colonialism; I tried to unite black public opinion the world over back of my demand for African freedom; I visited Belgium, England, Russia, Greece, Italy, Spain and Portugal; French and British colonies in Africa, and the republic of Liberia. But the world, oblivious to small voices like mine and even to the stronger voice of rising socialism not only in Russia but over the world, swept doggedly on to restore conditions which existed before 1914; to reestablish the domination of Europe over Asia, Africa and the sea isles, and to make the white people of western Europe and North America the effective rulers of mankind and arbitrators of its destiny.

They killed the system of human culture which they sought to restore. How completely, by death and destruction; by uprooting of old culture patterns and vast displacement of peoples, they transformed this world and its civilization, even intelligent persons today to astounding extent utterly fail to conceive. Stop and compare the world of my first visit to France with today; in 1894, even I did not question the rightful leadership of the world by European culture; everyone expected that Europe would continue to rule Asiatics and Africans; that the British Empire was the last word in democracy; that American wealth was the object and end of American freedom and that the highest ambition of black and colored folk was to become as much like white folk as possible. What we did ask was that the colored world be ruled for its own eventual good; what we did believe and insist on, was that given time and opportunity, the colored world would catch up with the white in ability to make contribution to civilization; but we never questioned the norms and methods of that white world as the one way to accomplish all this.

What has happened since 1894? The white rule of the world has stopped. It is not merely going to stop--it has stopped. When 300 million Indians walked out of the British Empire in all but name; when 400 million Chinese kicked the United States in the teeth and declared their independence of Europe; when the 100 millions of Indonesia refused longer to submit to the rule of Holland; in these events, by determination of the vast majority of human beings, an old world ended and a new world began. And those blind folk in the United States and the British Isles who still doggedly cling to the hope that by wealth, force and atomic energy they are going to restore the old world, are whistling to the winds of a dead past.

Nor was the new world inducted into being by force from without. It was decay within which made European civilization collapse. The second world war marked the failure of a system of industry which for four centuries tried to base the comfort and civilization of a few on the degradation, ignorance, disease and slave toil of the vast majority of mankind, and justified this procedure by preaching the belief that most human beings were not men in the same sense as Europeans. For a time this system had such phenomenal success that it seemed to prove its truth; Wealth poured into Europe and North America; miraculous technique made man master of nature; huge, high, wide and flamboyant cities were built; history, literature and art depicted white folk as supermen and ridiculed "niggers". Comfort and luxury spread themselves down even to white skilled workers who rejoiced in superiority to dark peoples and joined armies by tens of thousands to keep black wages down. All Europe congratulated itself that never before had mankind reached such heights of civilization. All was progress. All progress was measured in size and weight. All real men were white.

Then came signs of disaster--within the white countries, poverty, disease and crime persisted and grew. Ethics and religion gained wider areas of hypocrisy and misrepresentation. The majority of men were not being ruled for their own good or advancement. Business was to an astounding extent gambling, cheating and lying against this misrule and misconception. The French Revolution, the American Revolution, the Haitian Revolution and the Russian Revolution, from 1787 to 1917, 130 years, revolted with force and violence. But beyond revolution and superior to it came ideas in the minds of free men who had the courage to think. The ideal of the Socialistic state arose or rather was restored from more primitive times and other lands; instead of a state ruled by the anardhy of individual gain there came gradually the idea of a state organized and planned by its scientists and artists for the good of the mass of its citizens.

Instead of industry for the profit of business men, came the idea of business for the comfort and good of all men. These ideas were not the invention of a few, but the gradually developed thought of men of learning and experience in all lands from the 18th century to our day. What has been the result?

One of the first things which I noticed in this visit to France was that the railroads of France no longer belong to private companies, but to the state. I knew that France already owned her telegraphs and telephones; I knew French cities owned their underground lines, streetcars and busses; all of the main public service were in the hands of the state; the state was entering private industry and when direct ownership did not result, severe regulation was increasing. Foreign trade, steamships and airplanes had state supervision and partial ownership. In other words, France is today a socialistic state to a large extent, and this socialization is growing.

But is France in this respect, exceptional in Europe? It is not. Neither in Europe nor in the world. There is not today in the world a single civilized land in which socialism is not wide-spread and growing. Every European country owns its transportation systems and systems of communication; every European country has nationalized many of its main businesses from banking to mining; from housing to manufacturing; from foreign trade to retail distribution of goods; from private land ownership to state ownership of all public utilities. In one group of countries, including the Union of Soviet Republics, Poland, Czechoslovakia, and most of the Balkans an industrial system is being worked out under which all wealth used for capital and all land and natural resources are either owned by the state or in process of gradual absorption. This system is not an experiment nor is it the result of the plotting of thieves and scoundrels.

It is the result of the considered thought and planning of the best minds of the world for the last 300 years. In Asia, the same policy in industry is being put into practice. India is basically socialistic in aim. China is becoming completely a socialistic state after the Russian model. Socialism is strong in Southeastern Asia and the concept of business and industry for public welfare and not for private profit is growing in the West Indies and among the laboring masses of South and Central America.

Only one great nation is apparently openly fighting the advance of socialism and that is the United States of America. And the fight here is more apparent than real. The advance of socialism in this country has been steady and large and still continues. We not only run the post office and a large part of the express business; we dominate flood control and irrigation; cities own transport facilities, water works, parks and recreation; the nation and states regulate mines, railroads, rivers and forests; bridges, tunnels and harbors; we regulate wages, rents, interest, education, poor relief and old age security; banking in all its aspects and manufacturing in many respects, not to mention prices of goods for sale, are under national and state regulation.

Yet a vast propaganda is spread over the land, ascribing all our prosperity t unrestrained individual enterprise, our wealth entirely to private initiative and representing socialism as a failure and especially painting Russian communism, the most hopeful human effort in a hundred years, as a low conspiracy which can only be met by spending 83 cents of every dollar of the oppressive taxation laid on us for aggressive war in all parts of the world. Such insane propaganda and lying can only be met by sane and persistent array of facts and spread of information.

The one splendid thing about France of today, is the persistence of freedom of thought and expression. It was like a bath in clear, cold water to be six weeks in a country where people of intelligence and conviction were not afraid to talk, where a man has a right to be a communist and defend Russia, and another has equal right to praise the United States and the Marshall Plan, neither is smeared, jailed nor driven to suicide. France is today as ever a place of asylum for the oppressed of all races. At the Peace Congress were Europeans, Americans, Africans, Asiatics and West Indians, laborers, shop-keepers and capitalists. But France has no such aggregation of liars, traitors, spies, stool-pigeons and stray bitches as are today so rampant and so popular in the United States. In France today it is permissible to stand up and advocate peace without losing your right to earn a living.

I have, in my life attended many great meetings of men. I saw the Triple Alliance renewed in Berlin with pomp of three kings. I was at the University of London in 1911 with the races of the world; in Paris in 1919 to celebrate victory; in Geneva when the Assembly of the League of Nations was born; in Moscow on May Day, 1928; and in San Francisco when the United Nations was formed. I have had some experience in judging numbers and attitudes and sincerities among masses of men. I can say truthfully, that never before have I seen so great, so sincere and so tremendous an outpouring of human beings, so utterly intent on the progress of mankind, as at the World Congress for Peace in Paris, April 21 to 24, 1949. I saw over two thousand delegates from all the world and all the continents attend eleven almost continuous sessions of the Congress for five long days, to listen not to vaudeville but to long factual speeches from men and women without grace of oratory but with bitter sincerity of truth, and I saw on that memorable Sunday 8 weeks ago five hundred thousand human beings, some of whom walked half across France, file all day through the Buffalo Stadium, and before the best brains and accomplishments of Europe, to register one solemn and unforgettable determination: "No more war!"

The Nation and the Herald Tribune reported 50,000 persons present in a "communist" demonstration! and this is the kind of information you are getting and swallowing. This is the sort of lie which a monopolized press is jamming down the throat of Americans. The news of the world is deliberately distorted or omitted by our newspapers. Our schools are being bought off or silenced. Yesterday Harvard received five million dollars to teach that the "American Way" of business was the best in the world; not, mind you, to investigate business methods in order to find which is best. Few teachers today can hold their job and teach the truth about American industry. I do not know a single Negro college in the United States where any complete picture of the economic condition of the world can be studied. But more important to this audience is the fact that in the last two decades, American Negroes have lost their world leadership of the darker people. After the first World War, when I went abroad, almost invariably I was approached by white persons and black for information on how we American Negroes were conducting our fight for liberty and equality. This time no one asked. Apparently they all sensed that the Negroes of the United States no longer were aware of the international situation nor in position to lead the darker world.

Gabriel D'Arboussier, Secretary of the French African Reunion was honored by the Peace Congress and made one of its vice-presidents. He sat May Day on the Tribune beside Joliot-Curie, Aragon and Picasso. He told me with enthusiasm of the effort of his organization to raise the economic level of the 25 million blacks of the French Sudan and Equatorial Africa. He pointed out how this organized black nucleus faced on the east the seven millions of the Anglo-Egyptian Sudan; and through it, Uganda and Kenya where Britain is today straining every nerve to restore her colonial empire and control of cheap black labor and materials; on the south, nine million blacks of the Belgian Congo where America is today monopolizing material for the atomic bomb, to control the world; and in the west, British West Africa which is fighting for Negro nationhood. I was gratified to see that this movement, instead of aiming at equal right with whites to exploit natives was set to raise the natives themselves to higher income, better education and less disease. I knew that D'Arboussier sensed that American Negroes were either unaware of this socialistic advance of the mass of men or were simply determined to share with white industry the spoils of exploitation. This explains why American Negroes today are not only beginning to be cautious in what they think or say; and why they think that their value to the United States is to agree with the dominant group, no matter what it advocates; and to fight anybody it orders them to fight, even their own friends; why, for instance, Negro physicians in so large majority oppose socialized medicine. They do not read what Russia, China and India are doing for public health. They are interested in income quickly and easily made.

There are two things American Negroes must do; first, they must know what is going on in this world; the vast revolution through which all of us are passing, the fundamental changes in the organization of work and income, the spread of democracy from politics to industry, the new concept of business for service and not for profit, the public ownership of land and capital, the equalization of income and the basic axiom "to each according to need and from each according to ability". This is the new world we are entering. We now here will not live to see its complete triumph but the shadow of its unfolding is upon us and the cry of its birth pains in our ears. As with study and understanding we sense the meaning of the coming world change, we must have the courage to help its beginnings and speed its growth.

Secondly, while the change is approaching, we must prepare its path: First, by a firm stand for peace. No more war. Least of all, war with Russia, the one nation which has curbed wealth, outlawed race prejudice and refused to own colonies. Russia is not perfect; neither are we; but there is nothing wrong with either that war can cure and we will do scant service to our country if we let our greedy leaders lie us into an unjust war.

Moreover, there is positive work for peace in front of us. The colonial world, and especially Africa, is today hungry and diseased, with small chances in education. Africa needs help which we can easily spare. She does not need further teaching of religious dogma. She needs food, medicine and schools.

The Council on African Affairs has just helped in establishing an African Aid Committee as a separate body whose function it is to send aid to Africa. For this work we ask your help and the help of all who care for the most exploited part of the world today, for the continent crucified for four centuries to make white folk rich,—where the imperialists are trying now to restore slavery and colonial exploitation. We welcome to this work all men of all minds.

It is more than stupid to refuse cooperation because other men's aims are not all yours. The man who works for peace is my brother; the woman who works for Africa and against colonialism is your sister. As a free American whose fathers for five generations have served this land, I will know what I say and say what I mean and none nor nothing shall stop me. So long as he walks toward the truth as I see it, I will be fellow traveler with communist or capitalist, with white man or black and I will proclaim as a fool the man who lays down a goal and then refuses himself to follow it because somebody he does not like walks to the same great end. This is the day that sorts cowards from the men of courage, and self-seekers from the unselfish. This is the day to stand and be counted. But I will not deceive you, such a stand will cost you something. It may cost you your job. But you can still own your soul.

A SOCIAL PROBLEM MUST EVER BE ~~RECESSED AND~~ RE-STATED IN TERMS OF CURRENT ATTITUDES, ELSE IT CAN NOT PROPERLY BE UNDERSTOOD. // THIS IS NOT SO MUCH BECAUSE OF ANY CHANGE IN THE ESSENTIAL FACTS // AS BECAUSE OF CONTINUOUS CHANGE IN CURRENT BELIEFS. // SUCH RE-STATEMENT OF THE PROBLEMS SURROUNDING THE AMERICAN NEGRO I AM ATTEMPTING NOW.

WHETHER OR NOT WE CALL THIS A RACE PROBLEM, DEPENDS ON WHAT WE MEAN BY A RACE: IF WE FOLLOW THE 19th CENTURY DEFINITION AND THINK OF RACE AS A BIOLOGICAL GROUP, SET OFF FROM SIMILAR GROUPS BY DISTINCTIVE AND HERITABLE PHYSICAL AND PSYCHOLOGICAL CHARACTERISTICS, THEN EVEN IF SUCH RACES EXIST IN FACT, THE AMERICAN NEGRO IS NOT ONE BECAUSE HE IS THE OFFSPRING OF MANY DIFFERENT STRAINS OF MEN. // BUT IF WE MEAN BY RACE, A GROUP OF FOLK, WHO BY LONG JUXTAPOSITION, COMMON EXPERIENCES AND COMMON MEMORIES, CONTINUOUS INTERMARRIAGE AND WIDE COMMUNITY OF THOUGHT, FEELING AND ACTION, HAVE BECOME A SOCIAL ENTITY SUCH A CULTURAL CONCEPT OF RACE DESCRIBES FAIRLY WELL THE POSITION OF THE AMERICAN NEGRO TODAY. //

NATURALLY IN THE COURSE OF THE HALF MILLENIUM SINCE AFRICANS APPEARED IN AMERICA THIS GROUP HAS DIFFERED BOTH IN ITS OWN COMPOSITION AND IN ITS RELATION TO ITS SOCIAL ENVIRONMENT. // ITS MEMBERS APPEARED FIRST AS STRAGGLING SERVANTS AND FREE ADVENTURERS ACCOMPANYING EUROPEANS. // THEN IN LARGER NUMBERS THEY CAME AS A GROUP OF LABORERS TO FILL A DEMAND FOR THE HARD LABOR NECESSARY FOR EXPLOITING MINES AND TRANSPORTING GOODS. // ALL THIS WAS TEMPORARY AND INCIDENTAL TO AN UNUSUAL EMERGENCY. // THEN IN SUCCESSION CAME THREE CROPS CANE SUGAR, TOBACCO, AND COTTON--A DRUG AND SWEETENING: A NEW LUXURY AND A CHEAP CLOTHING. // ALL EUROPE, FROM KING TO PEASANT WANTED THESE GOODS AND THE LAND SUITED TO RAISING THEM WAS ABUNDANT IN AMERICA. // ONLY LABOR WAS WANTING // AND AFTER A PERIOD OF SPASMODIC EFFORTS (INCLUDING WHITE SLAVES) TO FURNISH SUCH LABOR, ENGLISH MERCHANTS IN THE 18th CENTURY ORGANIZED THE AFRICAN SLAVE TRADE ON A SYSTEMATIC BASIS ESPECIALLY FOR THE SUGAR PLANTATIONS. //

38-12-365

THE PROFIT FROM THIS EFFORT ATTRACTED SO MANY SHIPS THAT THE IMPORTED SLAVES OVERFLOWED THE WEST INDIAN AND SOUTH AMERICAN DEMAND AND THE SURPLUS WAS DUMPED INTO NORTH AMERICA AMID MUCH PROTEST. // BUT BEFORE THIS PROTEST BECAME EFFECTIVE, THE NORTH AMERICAN EXPERIMENTS IN COTTON RAISING IN THE NEW, RICH LAND STRETCHING FROM CAROLINA TO MEXICO, CREATED AN INCREASED DEMAND FOR LABOR. // THE NEW AMERICAN DEMOCRACY COUNTERED THIS BY FORBIDDING THE AFRICAN TRADE, WHICH THEY WERE CONFIDENT IN 1787 WOULD KILL THE SLAVE SYSTEM IN TIME. // BUT THIS DID NOT HAPPEN, BECAUSE OF SLAVE SMUGGLING, THE INCREASING DOMESTIC SLAVE TRADE FROM VIRGINIA AND THE BORDER STATES AND BECAUSE OF THE SLOW DEVELOPEMENT OF THE NEGRO GROUP INTO AN INCREASINGLY EFFECTIVE LABOR FORCE. // BY 1820, THE INCOME FROM THE SLAVE SYSTEM WAS TOO LARGE AND TOO WIDELY DISTRIBUTED TO BE EASILY CUT OFF. // THE SLAVE POWER HAD STRONG HOLD ON NORTHERN TRADE AND BRITISH MANUFACTURE AND THUS ON THE CHURCH AND ARISTOCRACY. //

THIS AROUSED OPPOSITION IN THE NORTH FROM FREE LABOR FREE NEGROES AND FROM FOLLOWERS OF THE DEMOCRATIC IDEALS OF THE FRENCH REVOLUTION. //

THUS THE CHURCH AND SOCIETY, BUSINESS AND COMMERCE CAME TO GRIPS WITH ABOLITIONISTS, FREE NEGROS, CITY LABORERS AND SMALL WESTERN FARMERS. // SUBSTANTIAL AGREEMENT WAS REACHED BY THE MID-CENTURY ON A POLICY OF CONTAINMENT FOR THE SLAVE SYSTEM SOUTH OF THE MASON AND DIXON LINE AND EAST OF THE MISSISSIPPI, SAVE TEXAS // BUT THIS UNDERSTANDING WAS BROKEN BY THE GROWING EXHAUSTION OF SOUTHERN SOIL UNDER THE WASTEFUL SLAVE CULTURE AND THE INCREASED DEMAND FOR COTTON. THE COTTON KINGDOM THEREUPON CAME TO HAVE ILLUSIONS OF GRANDEUR BASED ON EXTENDING ITS SYSTEM AND ITS PROFITS INTO MEXICO, THE CARRIBBEAN AREA AND CENTRAL AND SOUTH AMERICA. // TO REINFORCE THIS ECONOMIC URGE CAME THE NEW THEORIES OF EVOLUTION, AND THE DOCTRINE OF RACE SUPERIORITY. // PHENOMENAL INCREASE IN THE SOUTHERN COTTON CROPS IN THE FIFTIES DROVE THE SOUTHERN RADICALS INTO DETERMINATION TO FORCE SLAVERY ON THE NATION AS A LEGALLY RECOGNIZED LABOR SYSTEM. //

A Re-statement of the Negro Problems

NEW YORK UNIVERSITY
LA GUARDIA HALL
FRIDAY, July 22, 1949

A social problem must ever be recessed and re-stated in terms of current attitudes, else it cannot properly be understood. This is not so much because of any change in the essential facts, as because of continuous change in current beliefs. Such re-statement of the problems surrounding the American Negro I am attempting now.

Whether or not we call this a race problem, depends on what we mean by race: if we follow the 19th century definition and think of race as a biological group, set off from similar groups by distinctive and heritable physical and psychological characteristics, then even if such races exist in fact, the American Negro is not one because he is the offspring of many different strains of men. But if we mean by race, a group of folk, who by long juxtaposition, common experiences and common memories, continuous intermarriage and wide community of thought, feeling and action have become a social entity such a cultural concept of race describes fairly well the position of the American Negro today.

Naturally in the course of the half millenium since Africans appeared in America this group has differed both in its own composition and in its relation to its social environment. Its members appeared first as straggling servants and adventurers accompanying Europeans; then in larger numbers they came as a group of laborers to fill a demand for the hard labor necessary for exploiting mines and transporting goods. All this was temporary and incidental to an unusual emergency. Then in succession came three crops--cane sugar, tobacco, and cotton--a drug and sweetening; a new luxury and a cheap clothing All Europe, from King to Peasant wanted these goods and the land suited to raising them was abundant in America. Only labor was wanting, and after a period of spasmodic efforts to furnish such labor, English merchants in the 18th century organized the African Slave Trade on a systematic basis, especially for the sugar plantations. The profit from this effort attracted so many ships that the imported slaves overflowed the West Indian and South American demand and the surplus was dumped into North America amid much protest. But before this protest became effective, the North American experiments in cotton raising in the new, rich land stretching from Carolina to Mexico, created an increased demand for labor. The new American democracy countered this by forbidding the African trade, which they were confiednt in 1787 would kill the slave system in time. But this did not happen, becuase of slave smuggling, the increasing domestic slave trade from Virginia and the border states and because of the slow development of the Negro group into an increasingly effective labor force. By 1820, the income from the slave system was too large and too widely distributed to easily be cut off. The slave power had strong hold on Northern trade and British manufacture, and thus on the church and aristocracy.

This aroused opposition in the North from free labor, free Negroes and followers of the democratic ideals of the French Revolution. Thus the Church and society, business and commerce cameto grips with Abolitionists, Free Negroes, city laborers and small western farmers. Substantial agreement was reached by the mid-century on a policy of containment for the slave system of south of the Mason and Dixon line and east of the Mississippi, but this understanding was broken by the growing exhaustion of Southern soil under the w steful slave culture and the increased demand for cotton. The Cotton Kingdom thereupon came to have illusions of grandeur based on extending its system and its profits into Mexico, the Caribbean area, Central and South America. To re-inforce this economic urge came the new theories of Evolution, and the doctrine of race superiority. Phenomenal increase in the Southern cotton crops in the fifties drove the Southern radicals into determination to force slavery on the nation as a legally recongized labor system.

The North reacted with force, not to abolish slavery in the area where it was established, but to prevent its extention to the rest of the nation and to hold intact the whole United States as an industrial and commercial entity. Thus the war "for Union" began . Two truths soon emerged: it is impossible to conquer a large group of people and force them to do what they are unwilling to do; second , the fatal weakness of the South was its black labor force on which it depended for support in war. This labor force began to desert to the Northern armies; ifrst in driblets, then in vast crowds which taxed the campsl and finally as armed soldiers taking part in behind the line defense, then as front line shock troops. This ended the war, although few writers even now acknowledge this . But it is clear: as soon as slaves in any numbers stopped raising food for the Southern armies; as soon as 200,000 Negro troops were armed, with the possibility of arming a million more, Southern resistence was futile. Moreover as black troops lessened the necessity for Northern drafted whites, the longer those whites in well-paid war industries would be willing and able to finance the war.

The next effort on the part of the South was to return to the pre-war status. This was impossible. The war after 1862, had been fought to "free the slaves," so that the slaves could save the Union. The nation had posed before the world on this platform and thus kept England and France from aiding the South as their economic interests dictated. Slavery then had to be abolished after Appomatox. But the South offered compromise; partial emancipation with some property and civil rights, but no political rights. This the North was willing to accept, but the South made further demands: increased political powe, based on free but disfranchised Negroes; and some compensation for war costs and loss of slave property. To this the West added scaling of the inflated public debt and lower tarif duties. When the South and West threatned to unite in these demands, the North went into action: they enfranchised the freedmen to neutralise the increased Southern representation in Congress, supported thepublic debt at full value, refused to pay for Southern slaves or war costs and raised instead of lowering the tarif on which the new Northen manufacturing depended.

Immediately the two parties came to terms: the South withdrew its demands for compensation and low tarif, while the North winked at the disfranchisement of Negroes , first by force and fraud and later by law.

But the main problem still remained: how were four million workers, without capital, land, clothes, or food going to live and work as modern wage laborers? War emergencies answered this in part: the Negroes worked in army camps, they raised cotton at a dollar a pound and they got hold of some abandoned land. The interval of Reconstruction when for a brief interval the Negro was asfree as his poverty and ignorance allowed and when under courageous leaders he gave the South public schools and new social legislation in the midst of the dishonesty and corruption of the whole nation , Reconctruction gave the whole race a lift and short head start. But only a start: the bulk of the race was still in semi-slavery, still in ignorance, still sick and diseased.

Many Americans by 1870 were hopeful that the race would soon die out. But the Negroes and an increasing number of white friends were fighting back: the white friends, especially in the insurgent and democratic chruches established Negro schools in the South and the Negroes filled them. In a generation most Negroes could read and write. They continuedto hammer at the democratic ideal. The North responded by offering a program of economic advancement which Booker Washington voiced and the South agreed to. But this program was never implemented: not enough industrial training was provided either in public or private schools to teach the newer and better paid skills; unions excluded Negro artisans and the South disfranchised even Negroes od education Race hate was encouraged, lynching spread and wide-spread pessimism reigned over any solution of this race problem. This was accentuated by colonial imperialism in Europe which was built on the assumption that the white race was going to rule the World.

With international orgasinations the American Negro began a new fight in 1910. ~~Armmix~~ Amid two world wars whic crippled white nations and set them murdering each other, the American Negro began to regain the ballot, force himself into labor unions and bit by bit to receive many civil rights and some recognition of his status as a human being. The effort was costly. It made the colonial group provincial, over self-conscious, and only partly willing to recognise any white folk as even partially human. But present trends will gain if the world stops depending on organized murder for uplift and if the United States in particular ceases to mistake Profit for Progress.

TESTIMONY OF DR. W.E.B. DU BOIS

Historian and Vice Chairman of the Council on African Affairs, on behalf of that organization and the American Continental Congress for Peace to be held in Mexico in September, in opposition to the Military Assistance Bill, H.R. 5748, at hearing of the House Committee on Foreign Relations, Washington, D. C., August 8, 1949.

35-3-224

I appear here at the request of the Continental Peace Congress to be held in Mexico next month and of the Council on African Affairs to protest against the proposal for the United States to arm Europe for war. The Congress is asked to vote down payment of a billion and a half dollars together with unspecified sums in the future to implement the Atlantic Pact. This huge sum is not for education, although our schools are in desperate need of help. It is not for infantile paralysis which is sweeping the land, nor for cancer which is killing thousands. It is not for curbing and putting to work the mad waters of those great rivers which annually kill men, women and children and destroy their homes, stock and property, leaving muddy and stinking disease behind. This rich country has not enough money to spend for fighting ignorance, disease and waste, or for the old age security of its workers, but nevertheless is asked to spend a vast treasure to murder men, women and children; to blind and cripple them and drive them insane; to destroy property by fire and flood; and for a third time in a half century to jeopardize the whole edifice of civilization.

We are assured that these arms are for peace, not war--just as we were promised that the Pact was for peace not arms. None but the stupid believe this assurance. Mr. Acheson's logic is flawless for fools: "Gentlemen, this is a pact for peace." "Thank you, gentlemen; now arms for the Pact, not for war but for peace, war for peace. Russia? We do not mention Russia. We just must fight Russia. It is simple, gentlemen."

We are asked to believe that this country is in danger of attack from Russia or that Russia is ready to conquer the world. We did not believe this when we asked ten million Russians to die in order to save the world from Hitler. We did not believe it when we begged Russian help to conquer Japan. We only began to believe it when we realized that the Russian concept of a state was not going to collapse but was spreading.

Assuming that you do not like and even fear Russian communism, by what right do we assume that it can be stopped by force? One idea seems to be that we can conquer the world and make it do our bidding because we are rich and have the atom bomb. Even if this were true it begs the question of the right and justice of our rule. Why in God's name do we want to control the earth? Is it because of our success in ruling men? We want to rule Russia and we cannot rule Alabama. We tried to rule Porto Rico and gave it the highest suicide rate in the world. We sought to rule China and have just confessed our failure. We set out to rule Germany and apparently our only result is surrender to the very forces which we fought a world war to subdue.

How have we equipped ourselves to teach the world? To teach the world democracy, we chose a Secretary of State trained in the democracy of South Carolina; when we wanted to unravel the worst economic snarl of the modern world, we chose a general trained in military tactics at West Point; when we want to study race relations in our own borders we summon a baseball player. If we aim to rule the world we have got to learn to rule ourselves. We have got to free our science from the control of the Army and Navy. We have got to make our schools centers of real learning and not of propaganda and hysteria. We have got to clear our minds of unreasoning prejudices. We who hate niggers and darkies, propose to control a world full of colored people. Will they have no voice in the matter?

Without exact and careful knowledge of this world, how can we guide it? Yet we know that our knowledge of the world is today fed to us by a press whose reporters say what the owners of the press order them to say. This is not the reporters' fault. If they want to eat they will write as they are told. It is our fault, we who are unwilling to pay even five cents for our morning news. Big business which pays mil- for control of news gets what it wants printed. We naively assume that what we read in our press is the whole truth, when a little reflection would convince us that we have in America no complete picture of what is transpiring behind the "iron curtain". If we retort with the assertion that Russians are equally deceived as to conditions here, that is no excuse for us. Two wrongs never made a right and two lies do not spell the truth.

If all this was simply opinion, we could rest there and wait. But we are asked to fight. We are daily being pushed into a third world war on the assumption that we are the sole possessors of Truth and Right, and are able to pound our ideas into the world's head by brut force. This is a crazy idea and it is worse than folly to try. If we have the answer to human wealth and happiness, we do not have to force this knowledge by atom bombs.

Ideas are seldom changed by force. I will not say that war has never advanced mankind, but I will aver that in modern days it would be hard to prove that of a thousand wars, a hundred had added to human progress. Whatever is true in the past, it is certain that no world war can bring success to any nation.

Of course, we know this is true of war as usually fought. But we think that we can now fight by pushbutton and machine; that human beings will only be necessary in mopping up. We Americans will not fight. We'll let John do it--John and Jacques and possibly, Hans. While we pay the bill from such pockets as we can reach most easily.

This is crude self-deception and makes us today the most hated nation on earth. The world indulged in that dream when arrows were invented, when gunpowder was first used, when armored battleships and submarines appeared. It is a dream which never will be realized. No, the only cure for war is reason. We have got to know and study the facts and act so as to avoid force. Otherwise we are lost.

Let's face it. We fight Russia. We fight China. We win or lose or stalemate. If we win, what can we do with 150 million Russians and 450 million Chinese? What would we know in their case more than we knew in Germany or Japan? What would convert them to our way of life except their eventual belief in it? And is not belief, fact and reason--and not guns--our real recourse?

What hinders us from beginning to reason now before we fight? Why are we afraid to reason and wait and pursuade? We are afraid. For we stop logical thinking. We invent witchwords. If in 1850 an American disliked slavery, the word of exorcism was "abolitionist". He was a "nigger lover". He believed in free love and murder of kind slave masters. He ought to be lynched and mobbed. Today the word is "communist". Never mind its meaning in a man's mind. If anybody questions the power of wealth, wants to build more TVA's, advocates civil rights for Negroes, he is a communist, a revolutionist, a scoundrel, and is liable to lose his job or land in jail. And yet there is not today in this nation an honest progressive citizen who does not share in his beliefs many of the basic ideas of communism.

I am a fellow-traveler with communists in so far as they believe the great ideals of socialism as laid down by the world's great thinkers since the 17th century. I believe in the abolition of poverty. I believe in curbing the social and political power of wealth. I believe in planned industry and more just distribution of wealth. There is in this body of belief nothing revolutionary, unless human progress is revolutionary. There is nothing which has not been advocated by the best thinkers of three centuries.

But what we are being taught to believe today is that Russian communism is not socialism, but something dishonest, misled and essentially evil,--while our capitalist system alone is light and truth. Calling names does not settle this controversy. We call Russia an authoritarian state. So are we. All states are and must be slave states. They differ in degree of control over citizens and progressive states look forward to a decrease of state control and increase of individual freedom. But Russia starting with 90% of illiteracy in 1917 could not start as a free democracy. Only educated people can rule successfully. Russia showed her faith in democracy by promptly decreasing her illiteracy to less than 10 per cent in 30 years. We showed our belief in slavery by taking 86 years to reduce Negro illiteracy to 30 per cent.

We rage at planned economy. But we have planned economy. It grows and sells our crops. It sets our wages and fixes our prices. It tells us what to manufacture and when. But democracy has no part in it. Our planning is done by our plantation system; by the great trusts of steel, tin and aluminum; by General Motors and the Du Pont empire and Standard Oil; by railroads with their fraudulent bonded debt and watered stock; by Wall Street. This planning is strictly in private hands until it breaks down. Then trust and railroad, bank and big farm come to the government for relief. That is not socialism, it is patriotism.

Let us balance in a reasonable way the case of Russia and the United States. Russia has never attacked us. We not only have invaded Russia, but allowed our country to become the center of the most far-reaching verbal attacks on Russia. We are making the United States a refuge for every ousted landlord and exploiter, spy and informer who hates Russia. We blame Russia for joining Germany in 1940. But we know that she did this only after the United States and Great Britain had refused her offers of alliance and she must join Germany or stand alone. When Germany turned and treacherously attacked Russia, we awaited her annihilation with equanimity. When, to our surprise, Russia beat Hitler, we welcomed her help but took our own good time before easing her desperate struggle in the east by a western offensive. We sought her alliance against Japan and courted her at Yalta because we did not dream Japan was so near collapse. And even then we yielded no more than Russia was able to take. She kept faith with us in every promise at a greater cost than any other country paid. Yet we peremptorily ended her absolutely essential lend-lease and since 1945 have apparently sought every excuse to make war upon her.

Why do we want war with Russia and who leads this demand? We profess to want to protect western Europe against Russia. But it is western Europe which since 1917 has almost continuously attacked Russia. It was western Europe and the United States who after World War I seized countries long recognized as Russian and organized border nations like Poland for the expressed and declared purpose of using them eventually for conquering Russia. It was not imperialist expansion which led Russia to re-annex the Baltic states and to secure by every means the close alliance of Poland and the Balkans.

The real reason for war on Russia is not her natural effort to protect her own borders but her effort to establish a socialistic state. Our country is ruled by incorporated wealth, incorporated so as to form a non-human person, protected by the Fourteenth Amendment, secure in organization and ownership of property and able to escape major taxation by hiring the best legal talent of the land. This wealth is forcing us into war. The people of the country do not want war. You do not want war. But somebody does want war, sombbody with power and influence, who owns the press and controls radio, cinema and theatre. Somebody whose consequent ability to to form public opinion has forced this nation into hysteria and fear.

Who is this somebody? It is the group which control the corporate wealth of this land. They have made money out of war. They are making money out of the fear of war. They demand a third world war to ward off the depression which threatens their business and their wild waste of public taxation. The enemy of this power is the plan of Russia to found a state where this power of wealth will be curbed and destroyed. It is not a question as to whether or not Russia can do this, as to whether or not the present Russian state is or is not succeeding. It is the determination to compel citizens to believe this can never be done and that any attempt to curb the anarchy of rule by wealth is of itself a crime to be suppressed and not even discussed.

Gentlemen, make no mistake. Russia and Communism are not your enemies. Your enemy, ruthless and implacable, is the soulless and utterly selfish corporate wealth, organized for profit and willing to kill your sons in order to retain its present absolute power. It is not our sympathy for the Balkans that is leading us to war. What did we care about the Balkans so long as western capital was making 75 per cent profit out of oil and slaves? We kowtowed to czars and splendid grand dukes so long as they held power. But when Russia drove out idle nobility and foreign exploitation and tried to build a state for the consumer and not the investor, then the world which lives on low wage and monopolized land and resources began to scream that this plan was impossible and criminal and must be stopped by force. But why? If Communism cannot be made to work, it will fall of its own overweight. But it may succeed, and to stop any such chance you are asked to hurl the world into war.

The cost will be horrible. If we force Europe to a military race for arms her effort to recover will be nullified. Another war, even if victorious, will ruin Great Britain and France. And its eventual cost by increased taxation will throw the laboring classes of all the Americas into hopeless turmoil and despair. This is why we are calling next month a Continental Peace Congress in Mexico.

The hope of America, the hope of the world, is no more war. We have the cure for disagreement and mistake in the United Nations. Once we forced the League of Nations on an unwilling world. Then we refused because of petty internal politics to support our own child. It failed, and war and depression resulted. We planned a United Nations, including our own provision for unanimity without which we would not join. Now when we cannot have our way in everything, we are ready again to sabotage our own handiwork and substitute war for persuasion.

If you vote these billions, never believe that war will never start without your consent. If there had been such an appropriation two years ago, we would have been at war now by an unexplained "mistake". We began the Mexican War before Congress declared war. We fought Spain after she had yielded every point Congress demanded. We can easily be in a Third World War before you hear of it, when the military has this blank check.

Socialism, whether accomplished by communism or reformed capitalism or both, is the natural and inevitable end of the modern world and grows out of the industrial revolution as fruit out of the seed. It is spreading in every civilized land today including the United States. To try stopping it by red-baiting and hysterics is stupid. To turn back the clock by war is a crime.

BLACK AFRICANS/BROUGHT IN BY AN INTENSE EFFORT/MADE BY THE ENGLISH ESPECIALLY IN THE 18th CENTURY// WHICH SUCCEEDED IN LANDING/15 MILLION BLACK LABORERS/IN ALL THE AMERICAS FROM 1500 to 1800/ AT A COST OF 100,000,000 SOULS/ TO AFRICA, DISRUPTING ITS CULTURE/AND RUINING ITS ECONOMY.// THIS LABOR GAVE THE WORLD/TOBACCO, COTTON, SUGAR/AND NUMBERS OF OTHER CROPS/AND OPENED AMERICA TO THE WORLD.// THERE FOLLOWED/AN INCREASING MIGRATION/OF MILLIONS OF WORKERS/CHIEFLY FROM EUROPE/WHO BECAME ENERGETIC LABORERS/WITH INITIATIVE AND SKILL/ENCOURAGED BY THE LARGE AND IMMEDIATE RETURNS/FROM THEIR EFFORTS.// WITH FREE LAND,/ FAVORABLE CLIMATE AND FREEDOM OF TRADE,/ THE INDIVIDUAL LABORER/COULD MAKE A LIVING/AND OFTEN BECOME RICH/WITHOUT THE NECESSITY OF ANY WIDE SOCIAL CONTROL/FOR THE COMMON GOOD.// PLENTY FOR MOST WORKERS, WITHOUT SOCIALISM,/ MARKED AMERICA/FROM 1800 to 1900.

BUT THIS WAS POSSIBLE/ NOT ONLY BECAUSE OF VAST NATURAL RESOURCES/ BUT ALSO BECAUSE OF THE SLAVERY OF THE BLACKS./ SO LONG AS A DEPRESSED CLASS/ OF SLAVES/ WITH NO POLITICAL NOR SOCIAL RIGHTS/ SUPPLIED A RICH MASS/ OF BASIC MATERIALS/ AND A WHOLE AREA OF PERSONAL SERVICE/ THE SHARE OF WHITE CAPITAL AND WHITE LABOR/ WAS ABNORMALLY LARGE.// EVEN WHEN THE EXPANDING MASS/ OF WHITE LABOR/ TRIED TO BUILD A DEMOCRATIC FORM OF GOVERNMENT,/ INSPIRED BY THE THINKERS/ OF THE LATE 18th CENTURY,/ THEY FACED THE UNCOMFORTABLE FACT OF SLAVERY/ IN THE LAND OF LIBERTY.// SOME WANTED TO ABOLISH NEGRO SLAVERY FORTWITH:/ BUT SLAVES REPRESENTED/ TOO MUCH INVESTED PROPERTY AND INCOME/ FOR THIS TO BE EASY.// SO IN 1787,/ THE UNITED STATES DECLARED/ "ALL MEN ARE EQUAL"/ IN THE FACE OF THE FACT/ THAT AT THE TIME/ NEARLY ONE AMERICAN IN EVERY FIVE WAS A SLAVE.// THIS WAS NOT COMPLETE HYPOCRISY./ MOST PERSONS BELIEVED/ THAT NEGRO SLAVERY/ COULD NOT CONTINUE/ WITHOUT A SLAVE TRADE SO THEY ARRANGED/ TO SUPPRESS THIS AFRICAN TRADE/ IN 20 YEARS/ AND THUS

35-3-35

GRADUALLY/ THEY HOPED THE SLAVE LABOR/ WOULD DISAPPEAR.// THIS DID NOT HAPPEN, BECAUSE SLAVE LABOR/ IN THE UNITED STATES/ EVEN WITH A CURTAILED SLAVE TRADE/ BEGAN TO RAISE SO VALUABLE A COTTON CROP/ THAT THIS CROP/ BY USE OF NEWLY INVENTED MACHINERY/ BECAME ONE OF THE MOST PROFITABLE INVESTMENTS/ OF THE MODERN WORLD.// THE [redacted] SPINDLES FOR SPINNING COTTON CLOTH/ IN EUROPE/ INCREASED FROM FIVE MILLION IN 1800 TO 150 MILLION IN 1900/ and black LABOR/ FURNISHED THE RAW MATERIAL.// THIS WAS THE COTTON KINGDOM AND IT REPRESENTED VAST CAPITAL/ AND THE INCOME OF MILLIONS OF PEOPLE.// SLAVERY THEREFORE IN THE UNITED STATES/ BY 1820,/ HAD SO FIRM AN ECONOMIC FOUNDATION/ THAT EMANCIPATION/ BECAME [redacted] IMPOSSIBLE/ WITHOUT CATACLYSM.

THIS PRESSURE FOR SOCIAL UPHEAVEL/ NATURALLY DID NOT COME FROM THE ORGANIZERS OF INDUSTRY,/ NOR FROM PROPERTY OWNERS,/ NOR EVEN AT FIRST/ FROM THE WHITE WORKERS,/ WHO HAD BEEN TAUGHT/ THAT THEIR HIGH WAGES DEPENDED ON

THE SLAVERY OF NEGROES.// THE PRESSURE CAME PRIMARILY/FROM THE NEGROES/ FIRST BY THEIR SHEER PHYSICAL EXPANSION/FROM 750,000 in 1790 to 3 MILLION IN 1840,/ OF WHOM NEARLY 400,000/HAD GAINED THEIR FREEDOM/BY PURCHASE, ESCAPE OR PHILANTHROPY.// THEY ORGANIZED SYSTEMATIC ESCAPE/FROM THE TERRITORY WHERE THE SLAVE SYSTEM PREVAILED:/ THEY JOINED WITH WHITE MEN/IN AN ABOLITION MOVEMENT;/ AND THEIR KIN IN HAITI AND OTHER WEST INDIES ISLANDS/SHOOK THE WORLD WITH BLOODY REVOLT./

35-3-36

BUT THE STRUGGLE/OF THE BLACK SLAVE FOR FREEDOM/DID NOT IMMEDIATELY GAIN THE SYMPATHY OF THE MAJORITY OF CITIZENS/OF THE UNITED STATES.// THIS WAS BECAUSE A PERSISTANT PROPAGANDA CAMPAIGN/HAD BEEN SPREAD/AS SLAVE LABOR BEGAN TO INCREASE IN VALUE/ TO PROVE BY SCIENCE AND RELIGION/THAT BLACK MEN WERE NOT REAL MEN;/ THAT THEY WERE A SUB-SPECIES/FIT ONLY FOR SLAVERY.// CONSEQUENTLY THE FIGHT FOR DEMOCRACY/AND ESPECIALLY THE STRUGGLE/FOR A BROADER SOCIAL CONTROL OF WEALTH/AND OF INDIVIDUAL EFFORT/WAS HINDERED AND TURNED ASIDE BY

WIDE-SPREAD CONTEMPT/FOR THE LOWEST CLASS OF LABOR/AND THE CONSEQUENT UNDUE EMPHASIS/PUT ON UNHAMPERED FREEDOM OF INDIVIDUAL EFFORT,/ EVEN AT THE COST/OF SOCIAL LOSS AND DEGRADATION.// THEREFORE AT THE TIME/WHEN SOCIALISM AND BROAD SOCIAL CONTROL/FOR THE COMMON GOOD/SHOULD HAVE SPREAD IN THE UNITED STATES/AS IT WAS SPREADING IN EUROPE//THERE GREW/ON THE CONTRARY EXALTATION OF INDUSTRIAL ANARCHY,/ TIGHTENING OF THE SLAVE SYSTEM/AND BELIEF IN INDIVIDUAL/OR GROUP SUCCESS/EVEN AT THE EXPENSE OF NATIONAL WELFARE.

THE CATASTROPHE/WAS PRECIPITATED/AS THE WORKERS GRADUALLY DISCOVERED THAT SLAVERY/OF THEIR BLACK FELLOWS WORKERS/WAS NOT TO THEIR ADVANTAGE/IF SLAVE LABOR/SPREAD TO THE FREE SOIL OF THE WEST.// THE NATION WENT TO CIVIL WAR THEREFORE/ NOT TO ABOLISH SLAVERY,/ BUT TO LIMIT IT/TO THE COTTON STATES. THE SOUTH WAS DETERMINED/TO SPREAD SLAVERY IN THE NORTH/AND IF NOT THERE, INTO THE CARIBBEAN AND SOUTH AMERICA./ THIS WOULD CUT NORTHERN CAPITAL/OFF FROM ITS MOST VALUABLE MARKET,/ AND THE NORTH FOUGHT TO PRESERVE THIS

UNION MARKET.// BUT THE NORTH COULD NOT WIN/ WITHOUT THE COOPERATION OF THE SLAVE WORKERS/ SINCE THE SLAVES/ WERE SUPPORTING THE SOUTHERN ARMIES.// GRADUALLY/ BY A GENERAL STRIKE/ THE SLAVES BEGAN TO DESERT THE SOUTH/ AS WORKERS AND TO FIGHT WITH THE NORTH/ AS ARMED SOLDIERS// 250,000 OF THEM/ ENROLLED IN THE NORTHERN ARMY/ AND A MILLION MORE WERE READY// THUS THEY GAINED THEIR FREEDOM.//

35-3-38

NOW CAME THE PROBLEM/ AS TO WHAT TO DO WITH THEM./ THEY WERE IGNORANT POVERTY-STRICKEN/ SICK.// THE NORTHERNERS WANTED TO LET THEM DRIFT./ THE FREEDMEN DESPERATELY/ WANTED LAND AND EDUCATION./ A PLAN FOR SOCIALISTIC CONTROL/ WITH SCHOOLS AND LAND DISTRIBUTION/ WAS WORKED OUT BY PHILANTHROPISTS, CHARLES SUMNER, THADDEUS STEPHENS, BUT INDUSTRY REJECTED IT/ AS TOO COSTLY/ AND AS ALIEN TO AMERICAN INDIVIDUALISM.// THEN CAME A HITCH:/ UNLESS THE SLAVES/ WERE GIVEN THE RIGHT TO VOTE/ THEIR NUMERICAL VOTING STRENGTH/ WOULD GO TO THEIR WHITE FORMER MASTERS/ WHO WOULD VOTE TO LOWER THE TARIF/ ON WHICH WAR INDUSTRY FLOURISHED// AND TO SCALE THE WAR DEBT.// SUDDENLY/ INDUSTRY GAVE THE BLACK FREEDMEN THE VOTE,/ EXPECTING

35-3-39

THEM TO FAIL/ BUT MEANTIME/ TO BREAK THE POWER OF THE PLANTERS./ THE NEGROES DID NOT FAIL/ THEY ENFRANCHISED THEIR WHITE FELLOW WORKERS,/ ESTABLISHED PUBLIC SCHOOLS FOR ALL/ AND BEGAN A MODERN SOCIALISTIC LEGISLATION/ FOR HOSPITALS PRISONS AND LAND DISTRIBUTION.// IMMEDIATELY THE FORMER SLAVE OWNERS/ MADE A DEAL/ WITH THE NORTHERN INDUSTRIAL LEADERS/ FOR THE DISFRANCHISEMENT OF THE FREEDMEN/ IF THE SOUTH/ WOULD SUP ORT THE TARIF AND THE DEBT.// THE FREEDMEN LOST THE PIGHT TO VOTE/ BUT RETAINED THEIR SCHOOLS,/ POORLY SUPPORTED AS THEY WERE BY PUBLIC FUNDS.

THEN BEGAN THE LONG, SLOW ROAD UPWARD. CORPORATE WEALTH, REINFORCED BY THE SOUTH TOOK OVER THE DIRECTION OF THE COUNTRY AND MADE DEMOCRATIC RULE IMPOSSIBLE.

I represent millions of citizens of the United States who are just as opposed to war as you are. But it is not easy for American citizens either to know the truth about the world or to express it. This is true despite the intelligence and wealth and energy of the United States. Perhaps I can best perform my duty to my country and to the cause of world peace by taking a short time to explain the historic reasons for the part which the United States is playing in the world today. I can do this the more appropriately because I represent that large group of fourteen million Americans, one tenth of the nation, who in a sense explain America's pressing problems.

The two great advantages of the United States have been vast natural resources and effective Labor force. The first effective labor force were slaves, at first both white and black, but increasingly as time went on black Africans brought in by an intense effort made by the English especially in the 18th century which succeeded in landing 15 million black laborers in all the Americas from 1500 to 1800, at a cost of 100,000,000 souls to Africa, disrupting its culture and ruining its economy. This labor gave the world tobacco, cotton, sugar and numbers of other crops and opened America to the world. There followed an increasing migration of millions of workers chiefly from Europe who became energetic laborers with initiative and skill encouraged by the large and immediate returns from their efforts. With free land, favorable climate and freedom of trade, the individual laborer could make a living and often become rich without the necessity of any wide social control for the common good. Plenty for most workers, without socialism, marked America from 1800 to 1900.

But this was possible not only because of vast resources but also because of the slavery of the black. So long as a depressed class of slaves with no political nor social rights supplied a rich mass of basic materials and a whole area of personal service the share of white capital and white labor was abnormally large. Even when the expanding mass of white labor tried to build a democratic form of Government, inspired by the thinkers of the late 18th century, they faced the uncomfortable fact of slavery in the land of liberty. Some wanted to abolish Negro slavery forthwith: but slaves represented too much invested property and income for this to be easy. So in 1787, the United States declared "All men are equal" in the face of the fact that at the time nearly one American in every five was a slave. This was not complete hypocrisy. Most persons believed that Negro slavery could not continue without a slave trade so they arranged to suppress this African trade in 20 years and thus gradually they hoped the slave labor would disappear.

This did not happen, because slave labor in the United States even with a curtailed slave trade began to raise so valuable a cotton crop that this crop by use of newly invented machinery became one of the most profitable investments of the modern world. The spindles for spinning cotton cloth in Europe increased from five million in 1800 to 100 million in 1900 and black labor furnished the raw material. This was the Cotton Kingdom and it represented vast capital and the income of millions of people. Slavery therefore in the United States by 1820, had so firm an economic foundation that emancipation became impossible without cataclysm.

This pressure for social upheaval naturally did not come from the roganizers of industry, nor from property owners, nor even at first from the white workers, who had been taught that their high wages depended on the slavery of Negroes. The pressure came primarily from the Negroes; first by their sheer physical expansion from 750,000 in 1750 to 3 million in 1840, of whom nearly 400,000 had gained their freedom by purchase, escape or philanthropy. They organized systematic escape from the territory where the slave system prevailed: they joined with white men in an abolition movement; and their kin in Haiti and other West Indies Islands shook the world with bloody revolt.

But the struggle of the black slave fro freedom did not gain the sympathy of the majority of citizens of the United States. This was because a persistant propaganda campaign had been spread ab slave labor began to increase in value, to prove by science and religion that black men were not real men; that they were a sub-species fit only for slavery. Consequently the fight for democracy and especially the struggle for a broader social control of wealth and of individual effort was hindered and turned aside by wide-spread contempt for the lowest class of labor and the consequent undue emphasis put on unhampered freedom of individual effort, even at the cost of a social loss and degradation. Therefore at the time when socialism and broad social control for the common good should have spread in the United States as it was spreading in Europe there grew on the contrary exaltion of industrial anarchy, tightening of the slave system and belief in individual or group success even at the expense of national welfare.

The catastrophe was precipitated as the workers gradually discovered that slavery of their black fellows was not to their advantage if slave labor spread to the free soil of the West. The nation went to Civil War therefore not to abolish slavery, but to limit it to the cotton states. The south was determined to spread slavery in the North and if not there, into the Carribbean and South America. This would cut Northern capital off from its most valuable market, and the North fought to preserve this market. But the north could not win without the cooperation of the slave workers since the slaves were supporting the Southern armies. Gradually by a general strike the slaves began to desert the South and to fight with the North as armed soldiers, 250,000 of them enroled in the Northern Army and a million more were ready. Thus they gained their freedom.

Now came the problem as to what to do with them. They were in grant poverty-stricken, sick. The Northerners wanted to let them drift. The freedmen desperately wanted land and education. A plan of socialistic control with schools and land distribution was worked out by philanthropists, but industry rejected it as too costly and as alien to American individualism. Then came a hitch: unless the slaves were given the right to vote, their numerical voting strength would go to their white former masters, who would vote to lower the tarif on which war industry flourished and to scale the war debt. Suddenly industry gave the black freedmen the vote, expecting them to fail but meantime to break the power of the planters. The Negroes did not fail; they enfranchised their white fellow workers, established public schools for all and began a modern socialistic legislation for hospitals prisons and land distribution. Immediately the former slave owners made a deal with the Northern industrial leaders for the disfranchisement of the freedmen, the South would support the tarif and the debt. The freedmen lost the right to vote but retained their schools, poorly supported as they were by public funds.

The history of the United States in the last 75 years has been one of the great series of events in human history. With marvelous technique based on scientific knowledge with organized expert management, vast natural resources and world wide commerce, this country has built the greatest industrial machine in history--still capable of wide expansion. This organization is socialistic in its planning and coordination and methods but it is not under democratic control, nor are its objects those of the welfare state.

Our industry is today controlled, as George Seldes tells us, by 1000 individuals and is conducted primarily for their profit and power. This does not exclude a great deal which is for the progress of America and the world, but human progress is not its main object nor its sole result. The American philosophy brought over from poineer days was that indivudual success was necessarily social uplift, and today large numbers of Americans firmly believe that the success of monopolized industry controlled by an oligarchy is the success of this nation. It is not and the high standard of living in the United States and its productive capacity is not due to monopoly and private profit, but has come ins ite of this and indicates how much higher standards of living might have been reached not only in America but throughout the world, if the bounty of the United States and its industrial planning had been administered for the progress of the masses instead of the power and luxury of the few.

The power of private corporate wealth in the United States has throttled democracy and this was made possible by the color caste which followed reconstruction after the Civil War. When the Negro was disfranchised in the South, the white South was and is owned increasingly by the industrial North. Thus caste which deprived the mass of Negroes of political and Civil Rights and compelled him to accept the lowest wage, lay underneath the vast industrial profit of the years 1890 to 1900 when the greatest combinations of capital took place.

The fight of Negroes for democracy in these years was the main movement of the kind in the United States. They began to gain the sympathy and cooperation of those liberal whites who succeeded the abolitionists and who not realized that physical emancipation of a working class must be followed by political and economic emancipation or means nothing. For more than a half century this battle of a group of black and white Americans for the abolition of color caste has gone on and made striking progress: The American Negro is beginning to vote, to be admitted to labor unions and to be granted many Civil Rights. But the mischief and long neglect of democracy has already spread throughout the Nation. A large percentage of eligible voters do not go to the polls. Democracy has no part in industry, save through the violence or threatened violence of the strike. No great American industry admits that it could or should be controlled by those who do its work. But unless democratic methods enter industry, democracy fails to function in orther paths of life. Our political life is admittedly under the control of organized wealth and while the socialized organization of all our work proceeds its management remains under oligarchical control and its objects are what that oligarchy decide. They may be beneficial decisions, they may be detrimental, but in no case are they arrived at by democratic methods.

The claim of the United States that it represents democracy in contrast to fascism or communism is patently false. Fascism is oligarchy in control of a socialized statex which is run for the benefit of the oligarchs and their friends. Communism is a socialized state conducted by a group of workers for the benefit of the mass of the people. There may be little difference in the nature of the controls exercized in the United States, fascist Germany and the Soviet republics. There is a world of difference in the objects of that control. In the United States today the object is to center and increase the power of those who control organized wealth and they seek to prove to Americans, that no other system is so successful in human progress. But instead of leaving proff of this to the free investigation of science, the reports of a free press, and the discussion of the public platform, today in the United States, organized wealth owns the press and chief news gathering organs and is exercising increased control over the schools and making public discussion and even free thinking difficult and often impossible.

The cure for this and the way to change the socially planned United States into a welfare state is for the /American people to take over the control of the nation in industry as well as government. This is proceeding gradually. Many Americans are not aware of this, but it is true: we conduct the post office: we are in the express and banking business; we have built the great Tennessee valley river control system: we exercise control in varying degrees over railroads, radio, city planning, air and water traffic; in a thousand other ways, social control for general welfare is growing and must grow in our country. But knowledge of this: of its success and of its prevalance in other lands does not reach the mass of people.

They are today being carried away by almost hysterical propaganda that the freedoms which they have and such individual initiative as remains are being threatened and that a third world war is the only remedy.

Not all America has succumbed to this indefensible belief. The Progressiv Party under the ~~clear-sighted Henry Wallace~~ has challenged this program; the voters in 1948 declared wide agreement but were induced by fear to vote for a man who has not carried out his promises; the Council of Arts, Sciences and Professions assembled a vast protest against war last year and the Religious Sect of Quakers have just issued a fine balanced statement in the same line. There are millions of other Americans who agree with these leaders of the Peace Movement. I bring you their greeting.

WHENEVER AND WHEREEVER THE DEMOCRATIC METHOD THREATENS TO INVADE THE INNER CITIDELS OF REAL SOCIAL POWER // THEN WE MAY EXPECT PROLONGED EFFORT TO CURTAIL DEMOCRACY AND LIMIT IT TO SUCH AREAS AS WILL BE LEAST DANGEROUS TO THE CURRENT RULERS. // MEN HAVE LONG VOTED FOR ADMINISTRATORS, AND HELPED MAKE LAWS, BUT LAND, LABOR AND PROPERTY HAVE BEEN KEPT FROM THE POLLS AND PROTECTED BY THE JUDICIARY. // THE JUDGES HAVE BEEN REMOVED FROM POPULAR CONTROL BY EVERY DEVICE FROM APPOINTMENT BY THE KING TO SINGLE BI-PARTISAN NOMINATIONS WHICH GIVE THE VOTER NO CHOICE. // TYRANNY THEN, WHETHER BY FORCED LABOR, UNEQUAL TAXATION, MONOPOLY OR HEREDITARY PRIVILEGE FINDS ITS LAST BULWARK IN THE COURTS, AND DESPERATE EFFORT IS MADE TO ASSURE THE PUBLIC THAT A JUDICIAL DECISION IS THE VOICE OF GOD.

IT IS RIGHT THAT HERE THE FREE VOTER MAKE HIS PROTEST AND TAKE HIS STAND. IF VOTERS HAVE THE RIGHT TO PROTEST AGAINST AND CHANGE A LAW WHICH THEY REGARD AS UNJUST, HOW MUCH SURER IS THEIR RIGHT TO PROTEST A LABORED AND

CASUISTIC INTERPRETATION OF SUCH A LAW, WHEN THE ULTERIOR OBJECT IS CLEAR // IN THE CASE OF THE CONVICTION OF THE ELEVEN COMMUNISTS, NOT FOR ACTS, NOT EVEN FOR BELIEFS, BUT FOR POSSIBLE INTERPRETATION OF THEIR BELIEFS, THEN EVERY MAN KNOWS THAT THIS IS THOUGHT-CONTROL CARRIED TO UNBEARABLE DEGREE, AND ALL HONEST MEN REALIZE THAT HERE AN ATTEMPT IS BEING MADE TO STOP THE WORLD FROM THINKING ABOUT AND EXAMINING THE ETHICAL BASIS OF PROPERTY, INDUSTRY AND INCOME. // THESE ARE MATTERS WHICH TOUCH EVERY HUMAN BEING. IF YOU AND I CAN BE COMPELLED TO STOP THINKING OF THESE MATTERS ON PAIN OF IMPRISONMENT THEN THERE IS NO FREEDOM AND NO DEMOCRACY. /// WHAT CAN BE DONE? // WE CAN VOTE.

WE CANNOT VOTE AS DIRECTLY AND DECISIVELY AS WE OUGHT TO HAVE THE RIGHT TO, BUT WE STILL HAVE LEFT THE RIGHT TO ELECT A MAYOR OF NEW YORK AND A MEMBER OF THE CITY COUNCIL // BY ELECTING THE KIND OF MAN WHOM WE WISH TO EXERCISE

38-5-84

THE POWERS OF THESE OFFICES/ WE CAN MAKE THESE OFFICES/STAND FOR WHAT WE WANT/THIS FIRST CITY OF THE WORLD/TO REPRESENT.// THE RECORDS OF VITO MARCANTONIO/ AND BEN DAVIS/ SHOW CLEARLY/ THAT THEY BELIEVE IN FUNDAMENTAL CHANGE/ IN OUR INDUSTRIAL SYSTEM/ IN A WELFARE STATE/TO REPLACE THE ANARCHY/OF PRIVATE PROFIT//AND A JUDICIAL SYSTEM/ WHICH SERVES JUSTICE/ AND NOT MONOPOLY.// NOTHING WE CAN DO/BY AGITATION, PROTEST, OR RIGHTEOUS ANGER/AT THE JUDICIAL DICTUM/ OF JUDGE MEDINA/AND THE SYSTEM WHICH HE REPRESENTS/ CAN HAVE HALF SUCH EFFECT/ AS THE OVERWHELMING ELECTION/OF THESE TWO CHAMPIONS/OF DECENT GOVERNMENT/ TO/CONTROL/OF THE CITY OF NEW YORK./

Whenever and whereever the democratic method threatens to invade the inner citidels of real social power, then we may expect ~~and~~ prolonged effort to curtail democracy and limit it to such areas as will be least dangerous to the current rulers. Men have long voted for administrators, but land, labor and property have ~~long~~ been kept from the polls and protected by the judiciary. The judges have been removed from popular control by every device from appointment by the king to single bi-partisan nominations which give the voter no choice. Tyrranny then, whether by forced labor, unequal taxation , monopoly or hereditary privilege finds its last bulwark in the courts, and desperate effort is made to assure the public that a judicial decision is the voice of God.

It is right here that the free voter ~~must~~ make his protest and take his stand. If voters have the right to protest against and change a law which they regard as unjust, how much surer is their right to protest a labored and casuistic interpretation of such a law, when the ~~real~~ blurred object is clear. In the case of the conviction of the eleven communists , not for acts; not even for beliefs; but for possible interpretation of their beliefs, then every ~~honest~~ man knows that this is thought control carried to unbearable degree. And all honest men realize that here an attempt is being made to stop the world from thinking about and examining the ethical basis of property, industry and income. These are matters which touch every human being. If you and I can be compelled to stop thinking of these matters on pain of imprisonment then there is no freedom and no democracy. What can be done? We can vote.

We cannot vote as directly and decisively as we ought to have the right to. But we still have left the right to elect a mayor of New York and a member of the City Council. By electing the kind of man who we wish to exercise the powers of these offices, we can make these offices stand for what we want this first city of the world to represent. The records of Marcantonio and Ben Davis show clearly that they believe in fundamental change in our industrial system; in a welfare state to replace the anarchy of private profit and a judicial system which serves justice and not monopoly. Nothing we can do by agitation, protest, or righteous anger at ~~this~~ the judicial dictum of Judge Medina and the system which he represents can have half such the effect as the overwhelming election of these two champions of decent government to the control of the city of New York

RUSSIA

AN INTERPRETATION

BY

W. E. B. DU BOIS

35-3-123

I HAVE JUST RETURNED FROM MY THIRD VISIT TO RUSSIA IN A GENERATION. IN 1926, THREE RUSSIANS ENTERED MY OFFICE AT 69 FIFTH AVENUE, THERE WAS A SMALL WELL-DRESSED DARK-HAIRED MAN, WHO SPOKE RUSSIAN AND FRENCH: HIS WIFE A HANDSOME WOMAN OF BREEDING AND CULTURE, SPOKE ENGLISH, FRENCH, ITALIAN AND RUSSIAN: AND A TALL VIGOROUS NORDIC BLONDE WAS WITH THEM WHO SPOKE GERMAN. THEY HAD COME TO ENLIST MY SYMPATHY AND CO-OPERATION IN THEIR EFFORT TO SECURE American RECOGNITION OF THE UNION OF SOVIET REPUBLICS. I ASSURED THEM OF MY SYMPATHY, BUT ALSO WARNED THEM THAT THEY WERE GREATLY OVER-ESTIMATING ANY INFLUENCE I MIGHT HAVE AT WASHINGTON.

BUT BEYOND THIS MAIN ERRAND THEY WERE ALSO INTERESTED IN MY ATTITUDE AND THAT OF NEGRO-AMERICANS IN GENERAL TOWARD RUSSIA.

I TOLD THEM FRANKLY THAT MY KNOWLEDGE OF RUSSIA WAS TOO FRAGMENTARY FOR ME TO MAKE ANY JUDGMENT ~~OR GIVE ADVICE~~. THEY FINALLY ASKED, ~~AFTER SEVERAL VISITS~~ IF I WOULD NOT LIKE TO SEE RUSSIA AND JUDGE FOR MYSELF. I TOLD THEM THAT I CERTAINLY WOULD. I WENT TO RUSSIA AND THIS IS WHAT I WROTE WHILE I WAS THERE IN 1926.

35-3-124

~~I AM WRITING THIS IN RUSSIA.~~ I AM SITTING IN REVOLUTION SQUARE OPPOSITE THE SECOND HOUSE OF THE MOSCOW SOVIETS AND IN A HOTEL RUN BY THE SOVIET GOVERNMENT. YONDER THE SUN POURS INTO MY WINDOW OVER THE DOMES AND EAGLES AND POINTED TOWERS OF THE KREMLIN. HERE IS THE OLD CHINESE WALL OF THE INNER CITY; THERE IS THE GILDED GLORY OF THE CATHEDRAL OF CHRIST, THE SAVIOR. THRO' YONDER GATE, ON THE VAST RED SQUARE, LENIN SLEEPS HIS LAST SLEEP, WITH LONG LINES OF PEOPLE PEERING EACH DAY INTO HIS DEAD AND SPEAKING FACE. AROUND ME ROARS A CITY OF TWO MILLIONS---

I HAVE BEEN IN RUSSIA SOMETHING LESS THAN TWO MONTHS. I DID NOT SEE THE RUSSIA OF WAR AND BLOOD AND RAPINE. I KNOW NOTHING OF POLITICAL PRISIONERS, SECRET POLICE AND UNDERGROUND PROPAGANDA. MY KNOWLEDGE OF THE RUSSIAN LANGUAGE IS SKETCHY AND OF THIS VAST LAND, THE LARGEST SINGLE COUNTRY ON EARTH, I HAVE TRAVELED OVER ONLY A SMALL, A VERY SMALL PART. But I HAVE SEEN SOMETHING ~~OF RUSSIA.~~ I HAVE TRAVELED ~~OVER~~ TWO THOUSAND MILES AND VISITED FOUR OF ITS LARGEST CITIES, MANY OF ITS TOWNS, THE NEVA, DNEIPER, MOSCOW AND VOLGA RIVERS, AND STRETCHES OF LAND AND VILLAGE. I HAVE LOOKED INTO THE FACES OF ITS RACES - JEWS, TARTARS, GYPSIES, CAUCASIANS, ARMENIANS AND CHINESE. TO HELP MY LACK OF LANGUAGE I HAVE HAD PERSONAL FRIENDS, WHOM I KNEW BEFORE I CAME TO RUSSIA AS INTERPRETERS.

I HAVE NOT DONE MY SIGHT SEEING AND INVESTIGATION IN GROUPS AND CROWDS, BUT HAVE IN NEARLY ALL CASES GONE ALONE WITH ONE RUSSIAN-SPEAKING FRIEND. IN THIS WAY I HAVE SEEN SCHOOLS, UNIVERSITIES, FACTORIES, STORES,

35-3-126

PRINTING ESTABLISHMENTS, GOVERNMENTS OFFICES, PALACES, MUSEUMS, SUMMER COLONIES OF CHILDREN, LIBRARIES, CHURCHES, MONASTERIES, BOYAR HOUSES, THEATRES, MOVING-PICTURE HOUSES, DAY NURSERIES AND CO-OPERATIVES. I HAVE SEEN SOME CELEBRATIONS - SELF-GOVERNING CHILDREN IN A SCHOOL HOUSE OF AN EVENING; AND 200,000 ~~CHILDREN AND~~ YOUTH MARCHING ON YOUTH DAY. I HAVE TALKED WITH PEASANTS AND LABORERS, COMMISSARS OF THE REPUBLIC, TEACHERS AND CHILDREN.

X I HAVE WALKED MILES OF STREETS IN LENINGRAD, MOSKOW, NIJNI NOVGOROD AND KEIV AT MORNING, NOON AND NIGHT: I HAVE TRAFFICKED ON THE CURB AND IN THE STORES: I HAVE WATCHED CROWDS AND AUDIENCES. I HAVE GATHERED SOME DOCUMENTS AND FIGURES, PLIED OFFICIALS AND TEACHERS WITH QUESTIONS AND SAT STILL AND GAZED AT THIS RUSSIA, THAT THE SPIRIT OF ITS LIFE AND PEOPLE MIGHT ENTER MY VEINS.

~~WE HAD BEEN RIDING FIVE LONG DAYS THROUGH A LAND OF ESSENTIAL SAMENESS.~~ WE CAME TO IRKUTSK IN THE BLACK MIST OF EARLY MORNING. I STRUGGLED RELUCTANTLY UP FROM THE DRUG OF DREAM AND SAW THE SUNRISE ON LAKE BAIKAL. BAIKAL IS A JEWEL HUNG IN SPACE AT THAT FATEFUL SPOT WHERE EUROPE BECOMES ASIA AND WHERE THE WATERS PART TO MAKE PACIFIC AND ATLANTIC. BEHIND IS RUSSIA AND EUROPE; BEFORE IS RUSSIA AND CHINA. HERE MEET THE PAST, THE PRESENT AND WHAT WILL BE. OUR STEAM IN THE COLD BLAST FALLS AND LIES LOW LIKE LACE ACROSS THE WATERS. THE SUN CASTS ASIDE HER MORNING MANTLE OF MIST AND SHINES WHITE AND CLEAR. MORE AND MORE RECKLESSLY WE BORE INTO THE MOUNTAINS, AND THE MOUNTAINS AHEAD RISE IN RANKS, BLACK IN FRONT AND

IRON: SILVER AND SNOW, BEHIND. SLOWLY, PERSISTENTLY WAS THE RUSH ON, HOUR AFTER HOUR, MILE AFTER MILE THE LAKE REVEALS SOME WARNING OF ITS VAST SIZE AND GRANDEUR: ITS A SEA, A RIFT IN A CONTINENT, BORN OF SOME ANCIENT RIFT IN HEAVEN. SIX LONG HOURS WE FLY ALONG ITS SHORES AND YET WHEN WE LEAVE IT AND PLUNGE TOWARD MANCHURIA WE HAVE ONLY SKIRTED THE SMALL CURVE OF ITS LOWER BORDER. IT IS 400 MILES LONG AND TWENTY WIDE.

CONSIDER THE ENORMOUS TASKS TO WHICH RUSSIA HAS SET HERSELF. SHE PROPOSES TO MAKE A NATION WHERE THE MASSES RULE. MANY WISE MEN EARNESTLY AND HONESTLY BELIEVE THE TASK IS IMPOSSIBLE: THAT FOR ALL FORESEEABLE TIME, THE MASS OF MEN WILL SERVE SOME FORM OF ARISTOCRACY, WHILE CIVILIZATION WILL ALWAYS MEAN THE CULTURE OF THE FEW. CONSIDER THE GRANDEUR OF THE VISION WHICH MAKES THIS POSSIBLE BEST, CONSIST OF ALL MEN. FIRST OF ALL WE MUST FACE THE INEVITABLE DIFFICULTIES OF ALL BEGINNINGS. ONE

35-3-133

ONE found ~~WILL FIND~~ IN RUSSIA in 1936 ~~TODAY~~ DIRT AND BAD MANNERS. // EATING AND BATHING HABITS WERE UNPLEASANT. // EQUALITY OF STATUS, WHERE THERE IS AS YET NO REAL EQUALITY OF CULTURE AND HABIT, HAS BEEN ENDLESSLY INVEIGHED AGAINST, FROM THE FRENCH REVOLUTION TO THE EMANCIPATION OF AMERICAN NEGROES. THIS ~~TODAY~~ in 1936 GREATLY BOTHERED OBSERVERS OF RUSSIA. THEY WERE OBSESSED BY THE GLAMOUR OF CULTURE AND WEALTH IN A FEW, DESPITE THE DEGRADATION OF THE MASS ON WHICH THIS CULTURE WAS BUILT. WEALTHY EAST INDIANS, RICH CHINESE, RUSSIAN GRAND DUKES, BRING TO SUCH PEOPLE ONLY THE DEEPEST ADMIRATION AND ENVY. THEY MENTION THEM WITH HUSHED VOICES AND ACCEPT THEIR NOTICE WITH REVERENCE. WHAT AMERICAN, WHO ~~NOW~~ RAILS AT THE RULE OF RUSSIAN BOORS, WOULD NOT HAVE ACCEPTED A SUMMONS TO THE WINTER PALACE WITH TEARS OF GRATITUDE?

IT was here IN RUSSIA // WE WERE NEARING MONGOLIA, AND ALREADY IN THE PROVINCE OF THE BURIATS. // THE SLIM FIRS STOOD STURDILY, WITH STRAIGHT HEADS AND SHOULDERS SAGGING WITH THE SNOW. // THE LONELY SILENCE OF A SIBERIAN NIGHT WAS ABOUT US. // WE

CLIMBED DOWN A PASS IN THE BLACK MOUNTAINS, FOLLOWING A RIVER HALF HIDDEN IN ICE. // SUDDENLY THE TEMPO OF THE SCENE CHANGED. // A large ~~BIG~~ NEW FACTORY BLAZED UP IN THE NIGHT. GREAT PILES OF LUMBER LINED THE RIVER BANK. ~~AN ELECTRIC~~ A NEW ROAD SHOWED A BEGINNING OF MODERN ROAD MAKING. TRACKS OF RAILS STRETCHED WIDER ON EITHER SIDE, UNTIL A MODERN RAILWAY YARD WAS EVIDENT. // THEN WE SWEPT INTO VERNEUDINSK, NOW NEWLY NAMED, AND THE WORLD WAS SOLDIERS. // THEY FILLED THE DEPOT, COVERED THE PLATFORM, CROWDED A STANDING TRAIN AND MARCHED ABOUT IN OVERCOATS TO THEIR HEELS, BUTTONED CLOSELY. // SOME WITH GUNS, SOME WITH BUNDLES. // ALL WAS NOW CLEAR. THIS WAS A FRONTIER POINT OF CONCENTRATION AGAINST THE JAPANESE THREAT. // PERHAPS ~~THIS~~ there WAS AN AIRPLANE FACTORY, BACK THERE.

IP IT BROUGHT ME BACK TO THIS HORRIBLE WASTE OF WAR ~~TODAY~~ in 1936. ALL EUROPE, ALL ASIA was IN ARMS. AS IF RUSSIA DID NOT HAVE A TASK BIG ENOUGH AND WELL WORTH AT LEAST THE RESPECTFUL WAITING OF THE WORLD, WITHOUT HAVING TO ARM HERSELF AGAINST MANKIND. THE ONLY HOPE OF HUMAN UNITY TODAY LIES IN THE COMMON CAUSE, THE COMMON INTERESTS OF THE WORKING CLASSES, IN EUROPE, AFRICA AND ASIA. THIS IS WHY IN THE CUSTOM HOUSE OF OTPOR, THE LAST OUTPOST OF RUSSIA, STOOD THAT MOTTO IN ALL LANGUAGES. "WORKERS OF THE WORLD UNITE!" YET IN THE FACE OF WORLD MILITARISM AND NEW NATIONALISM, RUSSIA INTENT ON HER INTERNAL TASK, MUST PUT DOWN TROTZKYISM WITH RUTHLESS HAND, LEST THE ARMED WORLD SMASH IN BLOOD THE HOPEFUL BEGINNINGS OF A STATE SEEKING TO REPLACE PRIVATE PROFIT WITH PUBLIC WELFARE.

TO ME IN 1949, SITTING IN MY ~~26th STREET~~ OFFICE, CAME THE COUNCILLOR OF THE RUSSIAN EMBASSY AND SAID: WE HOLD A PEACE CONGRESS IN MOSCOW, AUGUST 25, WE ARE INVITING YOU AND A HALF-DOZEN OTHER AMERICANS TO ATTEND. I DID NOT HESITATE. IT SEEMED THE OPPORTUNITY OF A LIFETIME.

35-3-136

I LEFT NEW YORK AT NOON, AUGUST 20, HAD BREAKFAST IN SCOTLAND, SLEPT IN STOCKHOLM AND NEXT NIGHT, MONDAY the 22nd, LANDED IN MOSCOW, FEELING SLIGHTLY LIKE SOMETHING OF ~~OF~~ THE ARABIAN NIGHTS.

THE SUBSTANCE AND REALITY OF WHAT WE CALL THE SOVIET REPUBLICS / I saw ~~IS~~ BEGINNING TO TAKE DEFINITE FORM. I DO NOT YET KNOW THIS LAND IN ANY SCIENTIFIC SENSE OF THE WORD. BUT IN 23 YEARS I HAVE A SORT OF SPECTROSCOPIC roundness OF CONCEPTION AND SENSE OF TIME WHICH replaces ~~EXCEEDS~~ FIGURES ~~AND FACTS~~. BRIEFLY WHAT HAS THE SOVIET UNION TRIED TO DO since 1926 AND HOW FAR HAS IT SUCCEEDED?

1. IT HAS FREED RUSSIA FROM THE YOKE OF SUPERSTITION AND GREED IMPOSED BY THE ORTHODOX CHURCH. MANY CALL THIS ATHEISM, BUT THEY DO NOT REALIZE WHAT ~~CHURCH~~ RELIGION WAS DOING TO THE RUSSIANS UNDER THE CZARS.

RUSSIA IS NOT AND DOES NOT PRETEND TO BE A PURE DEMOCRACY. // SHE DOES HAVE DEMOCRATIC PROCESSES AND STEADILY AND INCREASINGLY SHE IS PREPARING 200,000,000 PEOPLE TO BE ABLE TO EXERT COMPLETE DEMOCRATIC CONTROL OF HER LAND THROUGH POPULAR EDUCATION, SELECTION OF TALENT AND ADULT PROPAGANDA. // IF THE THREAT OF FOREIGN INTERFERENCE WERE NOT SO CONSTANT, THE GOAL OF DEMOCRACY ~~WOULD~~ BE MORE QUICKLY REACHED.

THE SOVIETS STARTED A GENERATION AGO, WITH A POPULATION TOO IGNORANT AND INEXPERIENCED TO RUN A STATE, MUCH LESS A STATE CAPABLE OF CONDUCTING MODERN INDUSTRY. // IT STARTED WITH A DICTATORSHIP, BUT ONE UNDER A LENIN, NOT A HITLER. LENIN AND HIS FOLLOWERS FACED A

THEY HAVE BEGUN THE PRACTICE OF DEMOCRACY BY GIVING THE VILLAGE, THE SHOP, THE FARM AND CITY WARD, WIDE FREEDOM OF THOUGHT, CRITICISM AND ACTION, // AROUSING A VIVID POPULAR INTEREST IN PUBLIC AFFAIRS NOT SIMPLY POLITICAL BUT INDUSTRIAL AND CULTURAL THEY HAVE ERECTED A STATE GOVERNMENT RESTING ON DIRECT ELECTION FROM

RUSSIA

AN INTERPRETATION

BY

W. E. B. DU BOIS

35-3-183

I have just returned from my third visit to Russia in a generation. In 1926, Three Russians entered my office at 69 Fifth Avenue, there was a small well-dressed dark-haired man, who spoke Russian and French: His wife, a handsome woman of breeding and culture, spoke English, French, Italian and Russian: and a tall vigorous Nordic blonde was with them who spoke German. They had come to enlist my sympathy and co-operation in their effort to secure American recognition of the Union of Soviet Republics. I assured them of my sympathy, but also warned that they were greatly over-estimating any influence I might have at Washington.

But beyond this main errand they were also interested in my attitude and that of Negro-Americans in general toward Russia. I told them frankly that my knowledge of Russia was too fragmentary for me to make any judgment. They finally asked, if I would not like to see Russia and judge for myself. I told them that I certainly would. I went to Russia and this is what I wrote while I was there in 1926.

"I am sitting in Revolution square opposite the second house of the Moscow Soviets and in a hotel run by the Soviet Government. Yonder the sun pours into my window over the domes and eagles and pointed towers of the Kremlin. Here is the old Chinese wall of the Inner City; there is the gilded glory of the Cathedral of Christ, the Savior. Thro' yonder gate, on the vast Red Square, Lenin sleeps his last sleep, with long lines of people peering each day into his dead and speaking face. Around me roars a city of two millions.

I have been in Russia something less than two months. I did not see the Russia of war and blood andrapine. I know nothing of political prisioners, secret police and underground propaganda. My knowledge of the Russain language is sketchy and of this vast land, the largest single country on earth, I have traveled over only a small part. But I have seen something. I have traveled two thousand miles and visited four of its largest cities, many of its towns, the Neva, Dneiper, Moscow and Volga Rivers, and stretches of land and village. I have looked into the faces of its races-Jews, Tartars, Gypsies, Caucasians, Armeanians and Chinese.

Ihave not done my sight seeing and investigation in groups and crodws, but have in nearly all cases gone alone with one Russian-speaking friend. In this way I have seen schools, universitys, factories, stores. printing establishments, government offices, palaces, museums, summer colonies of childern, libraries, churches monasteries, Boyar houses, theatres, moving picture houses, day nurseries and co-operatives. I have seen some celebrations-self-governing children in a school house of an evening: and 200,000 you marching on Youth Day. I have talked with peasants and laborers, commissars of the Republic, teachers and children.

I have walked miles of streets in Leningrad, Moskow, Nijni Novgorod and Keiv at morning, noon and night; I have trafficked on the curb and in the stores; I have watched crowds and audiences. I have gathered some documents and figures, plied officials and teachers with questions and sat still and gazed at this Russia, that the spirit of its life and people might enter my veins.

I stood in astonishment and wonder at the revelation of Russia that has come to me. I may be partically deceived and half-informed, but if what I have seen with my eyes and heard with my ears in Russia is Bolshevism, I am a Bolshevik." This enthusiasm did not mean that in 1926, Russia was a picture of happiness and success. It was not. There was stark poverty. I remember the hordes of incredibly dirty, ragged and wild children of war and famine who were hiding in the sewers and stealing like beasts through the streets at dusk. I remember the long lines of ragged people, waiting to buy a loaf of bread; I cannot forget that printing office where with the most meager equipment, scores of eager, young folk were translating into 200 vernacular tongues some never before written, textbooks for the new schools which were rising all accross the land. I remember the bookstores, the readers on the trams, the crowds in museums--a poor land, but a land of enthusiasm and one which to my astonishment had not emerged from war in 1918, but was just in 1926 beginning to breath free from Civil War and invasion promoted and participated in by my own country.

Ten years later, in 1936, I was again in Russia. Much had happened since my last visit and I was critical. I came from five months in Germany where Hitler had just seized power and I came with the puzzling and disconcerting knowledge of Trotsky in exile and 21 leaders of New Russia convicted of conspiracy and either dead or in prison. Some of these I had met in 1926 and conversed with. I was, too, affronted by the fact that Russia would not grant my request for a week in Moscow; but she did allow me to traverse the width of the Empire in a ten days trip over the trans-Siberian railroad. I wrote in January, 1937:

"Russia is a world. From San Francisco to New York one gains four hours of time. From Moscow to Vladisvostok one gains six hours! Wide, wild and wonderful is Russia: Monotonous for hundreds of miles with its broad, level empty acres, yet varying infinitely in succession of village and town, swamp and forest, noble rivers. At Perm, the northern branch of the Volga, flowed black and mighty, By the low-lying electric lighted city. Them came the rollingsHills of the Urals, and finally the ice and snow of Siberia.

We passed forrest, swamp and lake; we went over the Yenesei on a succession of new steel arches. The soil is of every variety. South of us in the Ukraine the black loam is a foot deep: but here in mid Russia it is a yard deep, with an unplumbed fertility. What will the wheat fields of Iowa and Canada do when Russian agriculture really extends itself?

One sees little dun-colored, crouching villages; usually with homes stretched along a muddy street! It is the same sort of drab village life that exists in the West and South of the United States. Yet there was a difference; there are few stores, no saloons. Always there was a new school house, often of brick and usually the best building in town next to the Center. The Center of the Communist Party was a common meeting place, a means of adult education and propaganda; a place where the radio brought news and entertainment.

We came to Irkutsk in the Black mist of early morning. I struggled reluctantly up from the drug of dream and saw the sunrise on Lake Baikal. Baikal is a jewel hung in space at that fateful spot where Europe becomes Asia and where the waters part to make Pacific and Atlantic. Behind is Russia and Europe: Before is Russia and China. Here meet the Past, the Present and What Will be. Our steam in the cold blast falls and lies low like lace across the waters. The sun casts aside her morning mantle of mist and shines white and clear. More and more recklessly we bore into the mountains, and the mountains ahead rise in ranks, black in front and iron and silver and snow, behind. Slowly, persistently was the rush on, hour after hour, mile after mile the lake reveals some warning of its vast size and grandeur: its a sea, a rift in a continent, born of some ancient rift in Heaven. Six long hours we fly along its shores and yet when we leave it and plunge toward Manchuria we have only skirted the small curve of its lower border. It is 400 miles long and twenty wide.

Consider the enormous tasks to which Russia had set herself. She proposed to make a nation, where the masses rule. Many wise men earnestly and honestly beleved the task im impossible. That for all foreseeable time, the mass of men will serve some form of aristocracy, while civilization will always mean the culture of the few. Consider the grandeur of the vision which makes this possible best, consist of all men. First of all we must face the inevitable difficulties of all beginnings. One found in Russia in 1936, dirt, and bad manners. Eating and bathing habits were unpleasant. Equality of status, where there is as yet no real equality of culture and habit has been endlessly inveighed against, from the French Revolution to the Emancipation of American Negroes. This in 1936, greatly bothered observers of Russia. They were obsessed by the glamour of culture and wealth in a few, despite the degradation of the mass on which this culture was built. Wealthy East Indians, Rich Chinese, Russian Grand Dukes, bring to such people only the deepest admiration and envy. They mention them with hushed voices and accept their notice with reverence. What American, who rails at the rule of Russian Boors, would not have accepted a summons to the winter palace with tears of gratitude?

It was here in Russia we were nearing Mongolia, and already in the province of the Buriats. The slim firs stood sturdily, with straight heads and shoulders sagging with snow. The lonely silence of a Siberian night was about us. We climbed down a pass in the Black Mountains, following a river half hidden in ice. Suddenly the tempo of the scene changed. A Large new factory blazed up in the night. Great piles of lumber lined the river bank. A new road showed a beginning of modern road making. Tracks of rails stretched wider on either side, until a modern railway yard was evident. Then we swept into Verneudinsk, now newly named, and the world was soldiers. They filled the depot, covered the platform, crowded a standing train and marched about in overcoats to their heels, buttoned closely. Some with guns, some with bundles. All was now clear. This was a frontier point of concentration against the Japanese threat. Perhaps there was an airplane factory, back there.

It brought me back to this horrible waste of war. In 1936, all Europe, all Asia was in arms. As if Russia did not have a task big enough and well worth at least the respectful waiting of the world, without having to arm herself against mankind. The only hope of human unity today lies in the common cause, the common interests of the working classes, in Europe, Africa and Asia. This is why in the custom house of Otpor, the Last Out-Post of Russia, stood that motto in all languages. "Workers of the world Unite! " Yet in the face of world militarism and new nationalism, Russia intent on her internal task, must put down Trotzkyism with ruthless hand, lest the armed world smash in blood the hopeful beginnings of a state seeking to replace private profit with public welfare.

To me in 1949, sitting in my office, came the Councillor of the Russian Embassy and said: "We hold a Peace Congress in Moscow, August, 25, we are inviting you and a half dozen other Americans to attend. I did not hesitate. It seemed the opportunity of a lifetime. I left New York at noon, August 20, had breakfast in Scotland, slept in Stockholm and next night, Monday the 22nd, landed in Moscow, feeling slightly like something of the Arabian Nights.

The substance and reality of what we call the Soviet Republics, I saw beginning to take definite form. I do not yet know this land in any scientific sense of the word. But in 25 years I have sort of spectroscopic roundness of conception and sense of time which replaces figures. Briefly what has the Soviet Union tried to do since ~~1922~~ 1926 and how far has it succeeded?

(1) It has freed Russia from the yoke of superstition and greed imposed by the Orthodox Church. Many call this Atheism, but they do not realize what religion was doing to the Russians under the Czars.

(2) It has attacked the question of land ownership in two aspects: it has abolished private land monopoly in city areas where owners could seize the unearned increment of land which the community made valuable. This legal thef has been inveighed against since long before the crusade of Henry George. Failure to abolish this monopoly stops the rebuilding of London or modernization of New York. It is likely to make Moscow one of the greatest cities of the world. The 2 million people of 1926 are now 5 million.

In its attempt to solve the problem of the peasant farmer, Russia has made perhaps its greatest contribution to modern economy. The small farmer the world over has long been poor and ignorant and able to survive apparently only by use of serf or low-paid labor. This was because he could not take full advantage of modern machinery and industrial technique on his small land holdings. Yet he refused tenaciously to surrender control of his land. The Soviets first by demonstration and persuasion, but finally by force introduced Collective Farms with scientific guidance, expert management and the use of machinery. The change involved much injustice and cruelty, but it is transforming farming in the Soviets from poverty, ignorance and slavery to progressive industry. It sets an example which the world must follow.

(3) The Soviet Union has begun the abolition of poverty. There is still poverty in Russia, but it has decreased markedly since 1926 and it is no longer caused by vast private fortunes nor luxury spending, which characterized Russia before 1917. The Idle Rich have disappeardd. In Moscow I saw only two men begging.

(4) Desperate effort is being made to make labor respectable, to abolish the concept of "Menial" service and utterly to extinguish Race Prejudice, and caste lines based on income, birth or kind of work done. This has not yet been accomplished, but more has been done than in most lands. The object of the Russian Labor Union is not to strike! No strike would be allowed, but the Union can discuss every phase of work and wage face to face with the manager and with equal vote.

(5) Planned industry, so as to make sufficient capital goods for future development and at the same time enough consumers goods and services as to render life livable and even enjoyable has been very difficult amid war and the vast effort of the world to deprive Russia of imports and markets. Nevertheless, the Russian people have borne deprivation of luxuries and even necessities in order to furnish machines, power and protection which may one day make every Russian comfortable, healthy and educated.

(6) In the realm of the education of children, the technical and professional training of youth and adult acculturation by art, literature and popular science, the Soviet Union has made remarkable advance. It may be justly criticized on the score of propaganda, toward certain ideals: on the charge of narrowness and pedantry in many fields: but as compared with the cultural anarchy and license of America and the ignorance of Asia, Russia has a right to be proud of the work of a single generation.

(7) In the matter of democracy of government , the Union of Soviet Republics has been most widly and bitterly dritized. This criticism however must first be examined in the light of what the Western world has accomplished in this same democracy.

Democracy in the sense of the uncoerced direct rule of the masses of people exists today in few if any countries. And that is because in matters affecting the main interests of human life, democratic rule is seldom allowed. Today in the leading lands, industry conducted by incorporated wealth is the chief activity of man in industry. Democratic rule is only beginning to be acknowledged. We therefore call democracies those countries where the popular will has largest influence in the industrial state: but this we know is not complete democracy and a country like ours comes nearer being ruled by industry than industry to being ruled by the popular vote. Here now comes a new state, The Union of Soviet Republics which seeks to substitute the state for private industry. How far does democracy rule here?

Russia is not and does not pretend to be a pure democracy. She does have democratic processes and steadily and increasingly she is preparing 200,000,000 people to be able to exert complete democratic control of her land through popular education, selection of talent and adult propaganda. If the threat of foreign interference were not so constant, the goal of democracy would be more quickly reached.

The Soviets started a generation ago, with a population too ignorant and inexperienced to run a state, much less a state capable of conducting modern industry. It started with a dictatorship, but one under a Lenin, not a Hitler. Lenin and his followers faced a three -fold task: To educate near 150,000,000 millions in knowledge and modern technique: To organize meantime a government capable of conducting a state, and industry and capital and goods which would sustain and enlarge the life of all Russians To defend this state against an organized and powerful Europe determined to overthrow it by any and all means. It was a task more than herculean: That it even began accomplishment in our day is a miracle; that it succeeded so far as it has gives one renewed faith in mankind. The Soviets have begun to prepare the people for democracy by one of the best educational systems on earth. From kindergarten to adult education they have begun the practice of democracy by giving the village, the shop, the farm and city ward, wide freedom of thought, criticism and action. Arousing a vivid popular interest in public affairs not simply political but industrial and cultural. They have erected a state government resting on direct election from village to supreme court and all-Russian executive. But complete democratic control at the top does not yet exist. Over all this organization rests a restraining hand, a concept of scientific guidance under Marxism as interpreted by Lenin and by 30 years of actual experience. The interpretation and application of this concept is in the hands of the Communist party, an integrated and disciplined group which holds the state in stern control. But the power of this party rests on the consent of an increasingly intelligent electorate, which has today the constitutional power to curb it when they will. The mass of Russians stand back of this party today and are now willing as yesterday to sacrifice 15,000,000 lives to defend it. This is not democracy, but it approaches it faster then we retreat from it.

I hope from this sketch of the Soviet Republics you can understand why on the 25th, 26th and 27th, of last August, in the Hall of Nobles where Leon Trotsky sneered at Lenin as a failure, there met in Moscow 1000 representatives from all ends and every race in Russia: To say that Peace for Russia was not a theory but a grim necessity: 14 nations joined them in this demand, but only one American represented our 140 millions of war-thirsting voters. It was a distinction which neither I nor the rest of America enjoyed.

RUSSIA

AN INTERPRETATION

BY

W. E. B. DU BOIS

I have just returned from my third visit to Russia in a generation. In 1926, three Russians entered my office at 69 Fifth Avenue, there was a small well-dressed dark-haired man, who spoke Russian and French: his wife, a handsome woman of breeding and culture, spoke English, French, Italian and Russian: and a tall vigorous Nordic blonde was with them who spoke German. They had come to enlist my sympathy and co-operation in their effort to secure American recognition of the Union of Soviet Republics. I assured them of my sympathy, but also warned them that they were greatly overestimating any influence I might have at Washington.

But beyond this main errand they were also interested in my attitude and that of Negro-Americans in general toward Russia. I told them frankly that my knowledge of Russia was too fragmentary for me to make any judgment. They finally asked if I would not like to see Russia and judge for myself. I told them that I certainly would. I went to Russia and this is what I wrote while I was there in 1926:

"I am sitting in Revolution Square opposite the second house of the Moscow Soviets and in a hotel run by the Soviet government. Yonder the sun pours into my window over the domes and eagles and pointed towers of the Kremlin. Here is the old Chinese Wall of the inner city; there is the gilded glory of the Cathedral of Christ, The Savior. Thro' yonder gate, on the vast Red Square, Lenin sleeps his last sleep, with long lines peering each day into his dead and speaking face. Around me roars a city of two millions--

I have been in Russia something less than two months. I did not see the Russia of war and blood and rapine. I know nothing of political prisioners, secret police and underground propaganda. My knowledge of the Russian language is sketchy and of this vast land, the largest single country on earth. I have traveled over only a small, a very small part. But I have seen something. I have traveled over two thousand miles and visited four of its largest cities, Many of its towns, the Neva, Dneiper, Moscow and Volga Rivers, and stretches of land and village. I have looked into the faces of its races--Jews, Tartars, Gypsies, Caucasians, Armenians and Chinese. I have not done my sight seeing and investigation in groups and crowds, but have in nearly all cases gone alone with one Russian speaking friend. In this way I have seen schools, universities, factories, stores, printing establishments, government offices, palaces, museums, Summer colonies of children, libraries, churches, monasteries, Boyar houses, theatres, moving-picture houses, Day Nurseries and co-operatives. I have seen some clebrations--self-governing children in a school house of an evening: and 200,000 children and youth marching on Youth Day. I have talked with peasants and laborers, commissars of the Republic, teachers and children.

I have walked miles of streets in Leningrad, Moscow, Nijni Novgorod and Keiv at morning, no n and night: I have trafficked on the curb and in the stores: I have watched crowds and audiences. I have gathered some documents and figures, plied officials and teachers with quest ons and sat still and gazed at this Russia, that the spirit of its life and people might enter my veins.

I stand in astonishment and wonder at the revelation of Russia that has come to me. I may be partially deceived and half-informed. But if what I have seen with my eyes and heard with my ears in Russia is Bolshevism, I am a Bolshevik." This enthusiasm did not mean that in 1926, Russia was a picture of happiness and success. It was not. There was stark poverty. I remember the hordes of incredibly dirty, ragged and wild children of war and famine, who were hiding in the sewers and stealing like beasts through the streets at dusk. I remember the long lines of ragged poor people waiting to buy a loaf of bread: I cannot forget that printing office where with the most meager equipment, scores of eager folk were translating into 200 vernacular tongues, some never before written, textbooks for the new schools which were rising all accross the land. I remember the bookstores, the readers on the trams, the crowds in museums--a poor land, but a land of enthusiasm and one which to my astonishment had not emerged from war in 1918, but was just in 1926 beginning to breathe free from civil war and invasion promoted and participated in by my own country.

Ten years later, in 1936, I was again in Russia. Much had happened since my last visit and I was critical. I came from five months in Germany where Hitler had just seized power and I came with the puzzling and disconcerting knowledge of Trotsky in Exile and 21 leaders of New Russia convicted of conspiracy and dead or in prison. Some of these I had met and conversed with. I was, too, affronted by the fact that Russia would not grant my request for a week in Moscow; but she did allow me to traverse the width of the Empire in a ten day trip over the Trans-Siberian Railroad. I wrote in January, 1937:

Russia is a world. From San Francisco to New York one gains four hours of time. From Moscow to Vladisvostok one gains six hours! Wide, wild and wonderful is Russia: monotonous for hundreds of miles with its broad, level empty acres, yet varying infinitely in succession of village and town, swamp and forest, noble rivers. At Perm, the Northern branch of the Volga flowed black and mighty, by the low-lying electric-lighted city. Then came the rolling hills of the Urals, and finally the ice and snow of Siberia. We passed forest, swamp and lake: we went over the Yenesei on a succession of new steel arches. The soil is of every variety. South of us in the Ukraine the black loam is a foot deep: but here in mid Russia it is a yard deep, with an unplumbed fertility. What will the wheat fields of Iowa and Canada do when Russian agriculture really extends itself?

35-3-186

One sees little dun-colored, crouching villages: usually with homes stretched along one muddy street. It is the same sort of drab village life that exists in the West and South of the United States. Yet there is a difference: there are few stores, no saloons. Always there is a new school house, often of brick and usually the best building in town next to the Center. The Center of the Communist Party is a common meeting place, a means of adult education and propaganda: a place where the radio brings news and entertainment.

We came to Irkutsk in the black mist of early morning. I struggled reluctantly up from the drug of dream and saw the sunrise on Lake Baikal. Baikal is a jewel hung in space at that fateful spot where Europe becomes Asia and where the waters part to make Pacific and Atlantic. Behind is Russia and Europe: before is Russia and China. Here meet the Past, the Present and What Will Be. Our steam in the cold blast falls and lies low like lace across the waters. The sun casts aside her morning mantle of mist and shines white and clear. More and more recklsssly we bore into the mountains, and the mountains ahead rise in ranks, black in front and iron, silver and snow behind. Slowly, persistently was the rush on hour after hour, mile after mile the Lake reveals some warning of its vast size and grandeur: it's a sea, a rift in a continent, born of some ancient rift in Heaven. Six long hours we fly along its shores and yet when we leave it and plunge toward Manchuria we have only skirted the small curve of its lower border. It is 400 miles long and twenty wide.

Consider the enormous tasks to which Russia has set herself. She proposed to make a nation where the masses rule. Many wise men earnestly and honestly believe the task is impossible: that for all foreseeable time, the mass of men will serve some form of aristocracy, while civilization will always mean the culture of the few. Consider though the grandeur of the vision which makes this possible best, Consist of all men. First of all we must face the inevitable difficulties of all beginnings. One found in Russia in 1936 dirt and bad manners. Eating and bathing habits were unpleasant. Equality of status, where there is as yet no real equality of culture and habit, has been endlessly inveighed against, from the French Revolution to the Emancipation of American Negroes. This in 1936 greatly bothered observers of Russia. They were obsessed by the glamour of culture and wealth in a few, despite the degradation of the mass on which this culture was built. Wealthy East Indians, Rich Chinese, Russian Grand Dukes, bringto such people only the deepest admiration and envy. They mention them with hushed voices and accept their notice with reverence. What American, who rails at the rule of Russian Boors, would not have accepted a summons to the Winter Palace with tears of gratitude?

We were nearing Mongolia, and already in the Province of the Buriats. The slim firs stood sturdily, with straight heads and shoulders sagging with snow. The lonely silence of a Siberian night was about us. We climbed down a pass in the Black Mountains, following a river half hidden in ice. Suddenly the tempo of the scene changed. A large new factory blazed up in the night. Great piles of lumber lined the river bank. An electric road showed a beginning of modern road making. Tracks of rails stretched wider on either side, until a modern railway yard was evident. Then we swept into Vereudinsk, now new named, and the world was soldiers. They filled the depot, covered the platform crowded a standing train and marched about in overcoast to their heels, buttoned closely: some with guns, some with bundles. All was now clear. This was a frontier point of concentration against the Japanese threat. Perhaps there was an air-plane factory, back there.

It brought me back to this horrible waste of war. All Europe, all Asia was in Arms. As if Russia did not have a task big enough and well worth at least the respectful waiting of the world, without having to arm herself against mankind. The only hope of human unity today lies in the common cause, the common interests of the working classes, in Europe, Africa and Asia. This is why in the custom house of Otpor, the last out-post of Russia, stood that motto in all languages. "Workers of the World Unite!" Yet in the face of world militarism and new nationalism, Russia intent on her internal task, must put down Trotzkysim with ruthless hand, lest the armed world smash in blood the hopeful beginnings of a state seeking to replace private profit with public welfare.

To me in 1949, sitting in my 26th street office, came the Councillor of the Russian Embassy and said: We hold a Peace Congress in Moscow, August 25. We are inviting you and a half-dozen other Americans to attend. I did not hesitate. It seemed the opportunity of a lifetime. I left New York at noon, August 20, had breakfast in Scotland, slept in Stockholm and next night, Monday the 22nd, landed in Moscow, feeling slightly like like something out of the Arabian Nights.

The substance and reality of what we call the Soviet Republics is beginning to take definite form. I do not yet know this land in any scientfic sense of the words. But in 23 years I have a sort os spectroscopic fullness of conception and sense of time which replaces figures ~~and facts~~. Briefly what has the Soviet Union tried to do since 1926 and how far has it succeeded?

1. It has freed Russia from the yoke of superstition and greed imposed by the Orthodox Church. Many call this Atheism, but they do not realize what state religion was doing to the Russians under the Czars.
2. It has attacked the question of land ownership in two aspects: It has abolished private land monopoly in city areas where owners could seize the unearned increment of land which the community made valuable. This legal theft has been inveighed against since long before the crusade of Henry George. Failure to abolish this monopoly stops the rebuilding of London or modernization of New York. It is likely to make Moscow the greatest city of the world.

In its attempt to solve the problem of the peasant farmer, Russia has made perhaps its greatest contribution to modern economy. The small farmer the world over has long been poor and ignorant and able to survive apparently only by use of serf or low-paid labor. This was because he could not take full advantage of modern machinery and industrial technique on his small land holdings. Yet he refused tenaciously to surrender control of his land. 3. The Soviet Union has begun the abolition of poverty. There is still poverty in Russia, but it has decreased markedly since 1926 and it is no longer caused by vast private fortunes nor luxury spending. The idle rich have disappeared. In Moscow I saw two ~~beggars.~~ men-begging

This has not been yet completely accomplished, but more has been done than in ~~any other country.~~ most lands. The object of the Russian Union is not strife. No strikes would be allowed. But the Union can discuss end phase of work and wage fault to face with the manager and with equal vote

5. Planned industry, so as to make sufficient capital goods for future development and at the same time enough consumers goods and services so as to make life livable and even enjoyable has been very difficult amid war and the vast effort of the world to deprive Russia of imports and markets. In the realm of the education of children, the technical and professional training of youth and adult acculturation by art, literature and popular science, the Soviet Union has made remarkable advance. It may be critized or the score of propaganda toward certain ideals: on the charge of narrowness and pedantry in many fields: but as compared with the anarchy and license of America and the ignorance of Asia, Russia has a right to be proud of the work of a single generation.

7. In the matter of democracy in government, the Union of Soviet Republics has been most widely and bitterly critized, this criticism however must first be examined in the light of what the Western World has accomplished in this same democracy. It is nothing less than idotic for the United States to pose today as a Pattern of Democracy.

Russia is not and does not pretend to be a pure democracy. She does have democratic processes and steadily and increasingly she is preparing 200,000,000 people to be able to exert complete democratic control of her land through popular education, selection of talent and adult propaganda. If the threat of foreign interference were not so constant, the goal of democracy would be more quickly reached. As it is, and with the memory of ten years of invasion, two world wars and a third one possible, Russia controls her people sternly by a disciplined political group which has proven its efficiency during 32 years of desperate strift. There cannot be any doubt but that the overwhelming mass of Russians trust this leadership and are willing again to lay down ten millions of lives to keep the Communist Party in power.

All this may be attacked and criticized:

1. On the ground that socialism in itself is inherently wrong and should never be attempted.
2. That socialism may be possible or even desirable, but that the Soviet approach and accomplishment is not good enough to merit approval.
3. That the Soviets have accomplished much which is commendable but that the methods used for this must be condemned.

The answers are: Socialism is right, is increasing in the world and in America and ought to! That no Russian denies that much which his country has done in the last generation is unfortunate and regretable, but the Soviets have a right to say that the fault lies not alone with Russia, but with a greedy, cruel, bloodthirsty world who gave this oppressed, degraded and exploited nation, small choice for nicities of manner or demeanor but forced them to struggle by every or any means or sink to slavery and derision.

NOVEMBER 6, 1949

GOVERNMENT [redacted] AND FREEDOM

BY

W. E. B. DU BOIS

35-3-04

My task today is simple and introductory to the main objects of this meeting. I have been occupying for a month the purely ornamental position of chairman of a committee to re-elect Ben Davis to the City Council of New York. The real work of this committee has been done by others and done effectively. I finish my nominal task therefore by opening this meeting and then turning it over to the speakers whom you came to hear.

It would not however be out of place for me to preface these talks by certain general considerations which ought not to be ignored and which nevertheless might be in the excitement of the moment. You are periodically called up, ~~hastily and~~ rather suddenly to take part in a political campaign. Once that is over apparently your political duties cease for a year or two. This of course is a dangerously wrong concept of your present activities and your continuous duty. You are ~~not~~ taking part in the great task of helping to govern one of the most powerful nations of the earth. You cannot conceive a more important function, or one more fatal for yourselves now and in the future. This is not a short interlude: it is an all time job which should ~~engage~~ demand your thought and action all the year.

Certainly for more than 5000 years the necessity of government has engaged the thought of human beings. Humanity was young, very young, when it was clear that everybody could not do as he pleased if life lasted. For defense against beasts, for supplying food and shelter , for avoiding accident men must work together and must yield freedom to government. But in whose hands should the power of government lay, to bring the best results to all? First, and naturally, in the hands of the Father by reason of his strength and experience. Then logically it fell to his eldest son and afterward to the Council of Elders. As the tribe grew into the clan and nation, the power of government was taken over by the descendents of the first fathers who became privileged Nobility. Then by the rich and powerful, by the corporations, less than a century ago the conception of rule by the majority of responsible men came to be the throry of all government.

Meantime however, we are apt to forget there was a branch of human activity over which primitive government rul d with Iron Hand, and that was work--the organized effort of men to grow food, weave, cloth and build shelter, and eventually to make living safe and comfortable. All this at first was a prime function of government. But eventually although the concept of democratic rule entered into many governmental activities, it was pushed back and retarded in industry, so that freedom and democracy in the 18th century meant freedom to elect officials and make general laws; while in industry which gradually covered the chief and most important activities of the mass of men there was no democracy; restricted freedom and rule by the boss, the owner of capital goods, no matter what the origin of ownership, and finally by the corporation. Here the movement toward democracy was the labor union and the real center of the movement for democracy which you know, is the so-called labor movement, and that gradual incursion of democratic government into industry which is usually called Socialism.

But here intrudes the whole problem of work. So long as work is organized for private profit, for the power and enjoyment of the owners and directors of industry, who decide what laborers shall do and what wage they shall receive, then there grows up the singular idea that the object of life is Work, that hard and unpleasant toil for the waking life of most human beings, is what people live for. This is a fantastic distortion of fact. True it is that work, much work must be done if we eat and are clothed and are sheltered. But it is just as true that with the technique we now know, with the machines we own, with the experience in our memories, it is possible today for the basic wants of mankind to be adequately satisfied, if all able-bodied laborers toil six hours a day or less. This will not mean cadillac cars and mink coats for all, but it could mean no hunger, no unnecessary sickness, no compulsory ignorance and time for all to live and learn what life really means. ~~and~~ This is the job which you are ~~here today~~ to attend to. You are selling your right to vote in a great democracy, and you have a right to sell you votes, only for God's sake don't sell it too cheap. Don't sell votes for a few dollars, or for petty jobs, either watching polls or acting as stooges on juries to convict men like Ben Davis. No! sell your votes for Democracy in industry, for Freedom to work and time to live after your work is done. And then give time thought and study to what living really means. You may discover that life means more than poison by alcohal, that gambling is not so sinful as silly, and that hiding all night in dirty foul-aired cabarets is not near so much fun as lying on the grass in God's sunshine.

Just two months ago I was sitting in the Bolshoi theatre of Moscow, I was listening to Tschaikovsky's music ~~to~~ the ballet "Swanlake", to that soft, haunting music, fading and fading and swelling, again and again, and ~~fixxexpaxxxxxx~~ with the movement of dancing so beautiful, so light and fairy-like that one was lifted above all the sordid and selfish up to the dreams of childhood and toward the yearning of fullfilled life. There is no other place on earth where such a ballet can be seen today, and yet there are few places where it is not possible.

It is the major stupidity of our day to oppose leisure for the working classes because they will not know how to use it. Small wonder if they do not, with the example which ~~the~~ leisure class ~~of our day~~ sets before them.

But give the mass a chance to open their eyes and look: this glorious Fall weather and the long roads which lead out into the world, which your taxes pay for, but your eyes have no time to see; the music that can be heard at leisure without noise and dirt, the drama you long to see at less than six dollars a seat, and which might portray the matchless theatre of your own lives; what would it be like if you could afford to have families and children without fear of starvation and crime; how fine it would be to have friends about you and ability to make them happy without the dead fear of debt. Above all if you had time to Sleep---Sweet Sleep "that knits up the Ravelled sleeve of Care." Sometimes I think that whan Harlem needs most is Long, Quiet, Dreamless Sleep!

~~This is what you are here for.~~ This is the object of this campaign and ~~this rally and~~ your activity today should be but prelude to continuous and unceasing effort to understand government, make Democracy work not only in election but in labor and union effort, and to use such freedom as you earn for knowing what life can be and trying to live it.

GOVERNMENT AND FREEDOM

W. E. B. DU BOIS

You are periodically called up, rather suddenly to take part in a political campaign. Once that is over apparently your political duties cease for a year or two. This of course is a dangerously wrong concept of your present activities and your continuous duty. You are taking part in the great task of helping to govern one of the most powerful nations of the earth. You cannot conceive a more important function, or one more fatal for yourselves now and in the future. This is not a short interlude: it is an all time job which should demand your thought and action all the year.

Certainly for more than 5000 years the necessity of government has engaged the thought of human beings. Humanity was young, very young, when it was clear that everybody could not do as he pleased if life lasted. For defense against beasts, for supplying food and shelter, for avoiding accident men must work together and must yield freedom to government. Meantime, however, we are apt to forget there was a branch of human activity over which primitive government ruled with Iron Hand, and that was work--the organized effort of man to grow food, weave, cloth and build shelter, and eventually to make living safe and comfortable. All this at first was a prime function of government. But eventually although the concept of democratic rule entered into many governmental activities, it was pushed back and retarded in industry, so that freedom and democracy in the 18th century meant freedom to elect officials and make general laws. In industry which gradually covered the chief and most important activities of the mass of men there was no democracy; there was restricted freedom and rule by the boss, the owner of capital goods, no matter what the origin of ownership; and finally by the corporation. Here the movement toward democracy was the labor union and the real center of the movement for democracy which you know, is the so-called labor movement, and that gradual incursion of democratic government into industry which is usually called Socialism.

Just two months ago I was sitting in the Bolshoi theatre of Moscow, I was lintening to Tschaikowsky's music in the ballet "Swanlake"; to that soft, haunting music, fading and fading and swelling, again and again, and with movement of dancing so beautiful, so light and fairy-like that one was lifted above all the sordid and selfish up to the dreams of childhood and toward the yearning of fulfilled life. There is no other place on earth where such a ballet can be seen today, and yet there are few places where it is not possible.

It is the major stupidity of our day to oppose leisure for the working classes because they will not know how to use it. Small wonder if they do not, with the example which leisure classes set before them.

But give the mass a chance to open their eyes and look: this glorious Fall weather and the long roads which lead out into the world, which your taxes pay for, but your eyes have no time to see; the music that can be heard at leisure without noise and dirt, the drama you long to see at less than six dollars a seat, and which might portray the matchless theatre of your own lives; what w uld it be like if you could afford to have families and children without fear of starvation and crime; how fine it would be to have friends about y u and ability to make them happy without the dread fear of debt. Above all if you had time to Sleep--Sweet Sleep "that knits up the Ravelled sleeve of Care." Sometimes I think that what Harlem needsmost is Long, Quiet Dreamless Sleep!

This is the object of [redacted] all political campaigns. Your activity today should be but prelude to continuous and unceasing effort to understand government, to make Democracy work not only in elections, but in labor and union effort; and to use such freedom as you earn for knowing what life can be and trying to live it.

"The General Assembly at its third regular session did not reach an agreement on the disposition of the former Italian colonies. The question will come before the fourth regular session of the General Assembly this autumn.

"The debate on this question at the second part of the third session was significant in several ways. It reflected the growing influence of the nations of Asia and Africa. Those nations played a decisive part in preventing the adoption of a compromise proposal which they felt was unsatisfactory to a majority of the inhabitants of the territories concerned. The debate also brought forth considerable support for the concept of a direct United Nations trusteeship, a proposal originally suggested by the United States Government at the first London meeting of the Council of Foreign Ministers.

"I recognize the political and practical difficulties involved in a direct United Nations trusteeship for the territories during the relatively brief period that may precede their independence. Nevertheless, I believe that statesmanship on the part of the governments could lead to such a solution of the problem, and that the political difficulties could be dealt with if the practical difficulties could be overcome. The best solution, in my opinion, would be a direct United Nations trusteeship with an administrator responsible solely to the trusteeship Council. It is, of course, for the member governments to decide, but I feel sure that such a bold forward step would help the peoples of the territories concerned to follow the peaceful path toward self-government or independence, and that it would strengthen the confidence of dependent peoples all over the world in the United Nations and in the member governments who would have made such a solution possible."

THE REACTION OF THE PEOPLE OF ONE COLONY THE BLACK SOMALIS TO THE ~~ACTION~~ PUTTING THEM UNDER ITALIAN TRUSTEESHIP DECISION OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY IS WORTH READING AND SYMTOMATIC OF RISING COLONIAL THOUGHT

The Somalis would have lost complete confidence and faith in the United Nations had not some disinterested and non-colonial powers defeated the malign plan of the Bevin-Sforza agreement. We are grateful to those nations which saved our people and ourselves from being condemned to perpetual slavery and servitude. The names of those nations are today dear to the heart of every Somali at home and overseas.

We consider the United Nations as a world-wide organization where all peoples, regardless of their colour, religion, language, culture, etc., are treated the same and where all matters are solved in accordance with the wishes and welfare of those most vitally concerned and in conformity with justice and equity. But it is evident that some member states intend to use this noble organization only for the selfish interests of their own governments and that of their own group. Therefore, we urge the honourable members of the Assembly to restrain anyone who seeks to use the noble aims of the world organization for purposes other than those set forth in the United Nations Charter.

If, against the wishes and welfare of our people, the General Assembly should decide to re-impose the oppressive Italian rule in Somaliland, how can you, honourable members, expect us to trust and have faith in the United Nations since we have seen from the very beginning that our wishes and welfare have been completely ignored?

Once again we appeal to you, gentlemen, not to sacrifice our people on the altar of political expediency. We appeal to you to be guided by the principle that is not merely laid down in the peace treaty with Italy but in the very cornerstone of the United Nations Charter "that the wishes and welfare of the inhabitants of non-self-governing territories are paramount."//

TRUSTEESHIP AND COLONIALISM

BY

W. E. B. DU BOIS

(THE UNITED STATES AND THE SOVIET UNION IN THE UNITED NATIONS)

Modern colonialism was the child of slavery. Before the 18th century the areas of European trade in Asia and Africa involved usually no political control, although force or threat of force was often used. In the new world, treasure-hunt involved political domination, forced labor, kidnapping in Europe for labor supply, and finally a vast slave trade in black African labor. The democratic trend of the later 18th century and early 19th century brought criticism of slavery and particularly of the slave trade in the 19th century, which was the more readily heeded when the American market for slave labor became overstocked and slave revolts made investment uncertain. Britain therefore suppressed the African slave trade and eventually West Indian Slavery, and substituted Colonialism in the Caribbean, in Africa and Asia.

Colonialism in essence was slavery without a slave trade, but with serfdom or forced labor accomplished by direct or indirect means. It was based on cheap labor raising valuable and scarce raw materials, for consumption and processing in Europe and America. At first, Colonial control was deemed compatible with the social progress of the natives in education and political rights. But the immediate profit from ignorant, disfranchised labor proved too tempting for such progress. Missionaries strove for schools, but trade and commerce limited this, until the colonies became largely areas of serfdom where labor had no voice in industry or government, and which existed for the wealth and luxury of the colonial powers.

Civil War and emancipation in the United States, therefore, met less sympathy in France and England than we expected, especially when we tried to enfranchise the Freedmen. It had by 1876, become axiomatic that white Europe was destined to rule the world for Europe's benefit, and that the colonial people had few rights which white nations were bound to respect. This raised crucial problems of color and race in the early 20th century, which clamored for settlement after the First World War. A war caused by rivalry for colonial empire.

American Negroes suggested to President Wilson in 1918, that the former colonies of Germany be put under International control, with a government body on which colonials were represented. Many other proposals were made before and after, and the upshot was that the Mandates Commission was established by Article 22 of the League of Nations Covenant. Under the provision three sets of colonial Mandates were set up and assigned to Colonial powers as Mandatories:

A. Former Turkish possessions in the Near East were assigned to Great Britain and France, with the idea that they would soon achieve independence. This has happened in the case of Palestine, Iraq and Syria.

B. African colonies were given to Great Britain, France, Belgium and the Union of South Africa: they were to be prepared for autonomy but at no set time: and the Mandates Commission had no real power of investigation or control. These colonies became practically part of the Mandatories Colonial Empire.

C. Asiatic Islands were given to Australia, New Zealand and Japan practically without conditions. Italy was given nothing but had been promised Ethiopia in the Treaty of London.

In all these cases and in spite of little reason to anticipate success Philanthropy clung to the idea that the Colonial System with its exploitation and serf labor was due to end soon. The Mandates Commission consisted of eleven members appointed by the Council "For Personal Merit," the Majority being from non-Mandatory states. Both the United States and Soviet Russia at first regarded the Mandates system as simply a veil for annexation, although American opinion gradually became more favorable, to h the Mandatories.

The Second World War, caused by the collapse of Capitalism, left the world face to face with this colonial question. Was Colonial Imperialism and race subjection at an end? The question of colonies was placed tentatively on the agenda of the Dumbarton Oaks consultation, but it did not appear in the final proposals. It was discussed at Yalta and President Roosevelt, Prime Minister Churchhill and Premier Stalin agreed that the San Francisco Conference should discuss only the machinery and principles of Trusteeship, and that specific Territories to be placed under Trusteeship, should be a matter of subsequent negotiation and agreement.

At San Francisco a Committee was assigned the task of drafting provisions on the principles and mechanism of a system of international Trusteeship, and a working proposal was submitted May 15. It caused long delay in adjournment. The proposal of this Commission appears in the Charter in final form as follows:

"Members of the United Nations which have or assume responsibilities for the administration of territories, whose peoples have not yet attained a full measure of self-government, recognize the principle that the Interests of the inhabitants of these territories are paramount; and accept as a sacred trust the Obligation to promote to the utmost, within the system of International Peace and Security established by the present Charter, the well-being of the inhabitants of these territories; and, to this end:

A. To ensure, with due respect for the culture of the peoples concerned, their political, economic, social and educational advancement, their just treatment, and their protection against abuses:

B. To develop self-government, to take due account of the political aspirations of the peoples, and to assist them in the Progressive development of their free political institutions, accordingto the particular circumstances of each territory, and its peoples and their varying states of advancement.

35-3-21

"The United Nations shall establish under its authority an international Trusteeship system for the administration and supervision of such territories as may be placed thereunder by subsequent individual agreements."

According to the subsequent reports of the governments themselves there are in the world 8 colonial powers governing 74 different territories, with at least 200,000,000 inhabitants. The French have 16 territories in Asia, Africa and the West Indies; Britain has 44 colonies all over the world; The United States has 7, and the Soviet Republic None. This enumeration does not include at least 500 million people who are in Quasi-Colonial nations, subject through economic and industrial control, to investors.

The Trustee Council which has charge of the Trusteeships consists of three sets of members: those appointed by States adminsitering trust territories; those appointed by States which are permanent members of the Security Council, but which do not administer trust territories, and of as many other members, elected by the Assembly, as will insure that the total number of members is equally divided between those which administer trust territories and those which do not.

It is thus made certain by the Charter of the United Nations, that the imperialists cannot lose. In the Secretariat there is a "Department of Trusteeship and Information from non-self-governing territories." This department is in three divisions (An Assistant Secretary-General, a division of Trusteeship and a Division of Non-self-governing territories) The Department serves the Trusteeship council, the Committee on Trusteeship of the General Assembly and the Secretary-General, with indormation and documents.

35-3-22

The Assembly has accepted Trusteship agreements for eight mandated territories; but the Union of South Africa not only refuses further information, but has annexed the Mandate of Southwest Africa to the Union. The Soviet Union tried to make a special committee for organizing colonial information permanent, and to demand from colonial powers political information concerning the colonies. The Assembly by large majority extended this committee for three years, and gave it power to demand political information and other duties. The United States voted against making the committee permanent, and against giving it power over political data. Britain and France violently and vociferously opposed it and threatened not to obey it.

The Soviets have sought to have representatives of Trust Territories presents at the Council sessions. The United States and Britain opposed and the proposal was lost. The fate of the Italian colonies has taken much time. It has resulted in the freeing of Lybia, Italian trusteeship for 10 years over Somaliland; and postponement of the fate of Eritrea.

Trigve Lie said in his 1949 report: "The General Assembly at its third regular session did not reach an agreement on the disposition of the former Italian colonies. The debate on this question at the second part of the third session was significant in several ways. It reflected the growing influence of the nations of Asia and Africa. Those nations played a decisive part in preventing the adoption of a compromise proposal which they felt was unsatisfactory to a majority of the inhabitants of the territories concerned. The debate also brought forth considerable support for the concept of a direct United Nations trusteeship, a proposal originally suggested by the United States Government at the first London meeting of the Council of Foreign Ministers.

"I recognize the political and practical difficulties involved in a direct United Nations trusteeship for the territories during the relatively brief period that may precede their independence. Nevertheless, I believe that statesmanship on the part of the governments could lead to such a ~~position~~ solution of the problem, and that the political difficulties could be dealt with if the practical difficulties could be overcome."

The reaction of the poeple of one colony, the black Somalis, to the decision of the General Assembly putting them under Italian Trusteeship is worth reading and symtomatic of rising colonial thoughts:

"We consider the United Nations as a world-wide organization where all peoples regardless of their colour, religion, language, culture, etc, are treated the same and where all matters are solved in accordance with the wishes and welfare of those most vitally concerned and in conformity with justice and equity. But it is evident that some member states intend to use this noble organization only for the selfish interests of their own governments and that of their own group. Therefore, we urge the honourable members of the Assembly to restrain anyone who se ks to use the noble aims of the world organization for purposes other than those set forth in the United Nations Charter.

"If, against the wishes and welfare of our people the General Assembly should decide to re-impose the oppressive Italian rule in Somaliland, how can you, honourable members, expect us to trust and have faith, in the United Nations since we have seen from the bery beginning that our wishes and welfare have been completely ignored. Once again we appeal to you, gentlemen, not to sacrifice our people on the altar of political expediency."

Until fuller documentation is available, after the adjournment of the present session of the United Nations, it will not be possible clearly to discern the complete roles of the United States and the Union of Soviet Republics on the question of colonies. However, in general, certain matters stand out clearly. The United States on the whole stands with Imperial Colonialism; with Great Britain, France and Belgium regarding colonies primarily as investments for profit, and with but secondary consideration for colonial peoples, their education and political autonomy.

The Soviets on the contrary have opposed colonialism with perhaps a few cases of hesitancy and demanded greater native autonomy and especially wider investigation of efforts toward political progress. The vigorous refusal of France and Great Britain to allow deeper study of colonial methods indicates the fight against Russian insistence. Russia stands alone on the Security Council as having no colonies, seeking none, and receiving no income from colonial investment.

The United Nations Trusteeship system has not been widely successful and was not planned to be. From the first, it was packed in favor of the colonial countries, so that no overruling of the advocates of the status quo could ever succeed. Until the voices of the colonial peoples can freely be expressed on this rostrom, and until thorough investigation reveals colonial conditions, there is little hope for improvement. Such hope as exists rests with Russia and certain small nations. It is opposed by the United States and Great Britain together with France and Belgium.

FOR MANY YEARS, ~~PARTICULARLY BETWEEN 1918 and 1928,~~ MY OWN THOUGHT WAS

--2--

~~THAT ON THIS ACCOUNT~~ BLACK AFRICA MUST AT LEAST TEMPORARILY FIND LEADERSHIP OUTSIDE AFRICA ITSELF. THAT WAS THE IDEA BACK OF THE PAN-AFRICAN CONGRESSES ~~WHICH I TRIED TO ESTABLISH.~~ THE MOVEMENT HAD BUT LIMITED SUCCESS, BECAUSE OF LACK OF ENTHUSIASM HERE, ~~THE~~ BITTER OPPOSITION IN EUROPE AND ~~THE~~ LACK OF FACILITIES FOR UNDERSTANDING AMONG BLACK AFRICANS.

36-8-89

TODAY THE WHOLE PICTURE HAS CHANGED. EUROPE IS COMMITTING SUICIDE BY ~~FRATRICIDAL STRIFE.~~ THE AMERICAN NEGRO HAS LOST OR RATHER NEVER GAINED WORLD VISION, BUT IS LIKE TO BECOME MORE AMERICAN THAN THE AMERICANS AND RUSHIN FOR MONEY-MAKING AND WAR. // IT IS THIS GROWING PROVINCIALISM OF AMERICAN NEGROES WHICH HAS MADE INEVITABLE INDIGENOUS LEADERSHIP OF AFRICA BY AFRICANS.

THIS LEADERSHIP HAS ARISEN IN WEST AFRICA, BECAUSE THE NATIVES OF SOUTH AFRICA HAVE BEEN SO OVERWHELMED BY THE MOST RUTHLESS EXPLOITATION OF MINERALS

36-8-90

THE WORLD EVER KNEW, THAT THEY ARE TODAY WRITHING IN THE VERY DUST TO SECURE MERE BREAD AND SHELTER. // IN PORTUGUESE AFRICA, THE BLACK AND MULATTO LEADERSHIP HAS BEEN BRIBED INTO COMPLAISSANCE BY BEING GIVEN SHARE IN THE LOOT OF EXPLOITATION. // IN THE CONGO, ~~TRAINED~~ DETERMINED EFFORT OF BELGIUM HAS SUCCEEDED HITHERTO IN PREVENTING THE DEVELOPMENT OF A LEADING INTELLIGENTIA; // WHILE IN THE VALLEY OF THE NILE AND ITS CONTRIBUTORY LAKE REGIONS, BRITAIN IS CENTERING A LAST DESPERATE EFFORT TO FORTIFY AND RESTORE ITS EMPIRE, AND RETAIN ~~HIS~~ THAT DOMINATION OF CHEAP LABOR AND MATERIALS, ON WHICH IT WAXED FAT AND POWERFUL FOR THREE CENTURIES.

THIS LEAVES WEST AFRICA ~~---~~ NOT ONLY BRITISH, BUT FRENCH AND BERBER, AS THE AREA WHERE AFRICAN AUTONOMY AND FREEDOM CAN AT PRESENT BEST TAKE ROOT AND EXPAND. // IN THIS AREA, IT IS POSSIBLE TO FOUND A BLACK NATION OF 100 MILLIONS OF PEOPLE, WITH A CULTURAL PAST UNRIVALLED BY ANY PART OF THE WORLD, // WHO HAVE NEVER BEEN CONQUERED NOR ENSLAVED BY THE WHITE WORLD. BUT IN THE 19TH CENTURY

36-8-91

FELL VICTIM TO THE EXPLOITATION OF LABOR AND LAND BY CAPITAL AND TECHNIQUE WHICH EUROPE MONOPOLIZED.

HERE IT IS THAT A NEW YOUNG LEADERSHIP HAS ARISEN, ~~AND~~ MADE POSSIBLE BY THE COLLAPSE OF EUROPEAN ECONOMY WHICH TWO WORLD WARS HAS CAUSED. // THIS LEADERSHIP HAS THE ADVANTAGE OF A SOCIALIST BRITAIN AND A GROWING GROUP OF YOUNG NEGROES WITH MODERN EDUCATION. // BUT IT HAS ALSO, TWO DANGEROUS HANDICAPS, WHICH FORM THE REASON THAT I AM VENTURING TO SPEAK HERE TONIGHT:

(1) THERE IS A DETERMINED ATTEMPT IN BRITAIN TO KEEP SOCIALISM AND ITS BASIC PHILOSOPHY FROM PENETRATING AFRICA; AND SECONDLY, THE AFRICANS THEMSELVES ARE NOT WHOLLY AWARE OF THE AIMS OF THE NEW SOCIAL ECONOMY WHICH THEY CAN AND MUST ESTABLISH.

36-8-92

BRITAIN/ GREAT AND RUTHLESS;// AN EMPHASIS ON NATIONALITY,/ AND ON INVESTMENT AND PROFIT MAKING;/ WHICH IF UNCURBED AND UNCRITIZED,/ MAY LAND THIS PEOPLE/ IN THE SAME MORASS OF EXPLOITATION/ AND CAPITALIST SUBJUGATION,/ WHICH HAS RUINED THE WORLD.// AND, CONTRARY TO WISHFUL THINKING,/ IT WILL MAKE NO DIFFERENCE/ IN THE END,/ WHETHER THE MASTERS/ ARE BLACK OR WHITE.

WHAT YOUNG BLACK AFRICA/ MUST LEARN AND DEEPLY UNDERSTAND,/ IS THAT IF SOCIALISM/ IS GOOD FOR BRITAIN/ AND FOR MOST OF THE PRESENT WORLD,/ AS EVERY WISE MAN KNOWS IT IS,/ IT IS ALSO GOOD/ FOR AFRICA;/ AND THAT IS TRUE/ NO MATTER WHAT IS TAUGHT/ BY BRITISH TORIES,/ OR IN REACTIONARY AMERICAN SCHOOLS.// IN AFRICA,/ AS NOWHERE IN THE WORLD,/ LIES THE OPPORTUNITY/ TO BUILD AN AFRICAN SOCIALISM,/ WHICH CAN TEACH THE WORLD;// ON LAND HISTORICALLY HELD/ IN COMMON-OWNERSHIP;/ ON LABOR ORGANIZED IN THE PAST/ FOR SOCIAL ENDS,/ AND NOT FOR PRIVATE PROFIT;/ AND ON EDUCATION/ LONG CONDUCTED BY THE FAMILY AND CLAN,/ FOR THE PROGRESS OF THE STATE,/ AND NOT MAINLY/ FOR THE DEVELOPMENT OF PROFITABLE

INDUSTRY.// WHAT IS NEEDED,/ AND ALL THAT IS NEEDED,/ IS SCIENCE AND TECHNIQUE/ APPLIED TO THE GROUP ECONOMY/ BY MEN OF UNSELFISH DETERMINATION/ AND CLEAR FORESIGHT.

36-8-93

IT IS THIS UNCOMPROMISING PROGRAM/ WHICH I TRUST MR. AZIKIWE/ AND HIS CO-WORKERS WILL ADOPT.// I TRUST/ THEY WILL PEER ACROSS THE BORDERS OF NIGERIA/ AND THE GOLD COAST,/ TO FRENCH WEST AFRICA/ WHERE CONSCIOUS EFFORT/ OF THIS VERY SORT,/ IS ALREADY WORKING/ AMONG FRENCH AND BERBER NEGROES.// AND THAT THEY WILL NOT ALLOW/ THE BROW-BEATING OF BRITISH COLONIAL OFFICIALS,/ NOR THE RED-BAITING HYSTERIA OF AMERICA,/ TO SWERVE THEM/ A SINGLE INCH,/ FROM THESE GREAT ENDS. REMEMBER TOO,/ THAT RELIGION IN EUROPE/ AND AMERICAN INDUSTRY/ ARE DETERMINED ON WAR. A THIRD WORLD WAR/ WILL FINISH EUROPE/ AND MAKE ASIA/ THE CENTER OF WORLD CULTURE.// AFRICA THEN MUST KEEP HER FACE/ TURNED TOWARD ASIA.

I PRAY/ THAT MR. AZIKIWE/ WILL TELL AFRICA, THAT ALTHOUGH OUR NEGRO COLLEGES AND RACE LEADERS/ ARE MOMENTARILY/ STRICKEN BY ACUTE LOCK-JAW/ NEVERTHELESS/ WE KNOW THE TRUTH, AND DEPEND UPON IT/ FOR YOU/ TO MAKE AFRICA, FREE.

THE ROLE OF WEST AFRICA

BY

W. E. B. DU BOIS

We all unite to congratulate Mr. Azikiwe and his fellow workers on the new role they are playing in the world by planning The Emancipation and Autonomy of Africa. Perhaps most of us fail to appreciate the difficulties which have faced them. The prestige of the British Empire has been and still is such, that it balked criticism. For Black men in West Africa successfully to carry their grievances to the British people, much less to the larger world, has long been impossible. Even today it faces tremendous handicaps and lays its leaders open to calumny, unemployment and even the threat of death. We appreciate the courage behind the current fight for rights in West Africa.

For many years, particularly between 1918 and 1928, my own thought was that on this account Black Africa must at least temporarily, find leadership outside Africa itself. That was the idea back of the Pan-African congresses, which I tried to establish. The movement had limited success, because of lack of enthusiasm here, the bitter opposition in Europe and the lack of facilities for understanding among black Africans.

Today the whole picture has changed. Europe is committing suicide by fratricidal strife. The American Negro has lost--or rather never gained--world vison, but is like to become more American than the Americans and rush in for money-making and war. It is this growing provincialism of American Negroes which has made inevitable indigenous leadership of Africa by Africans.

This leadership has arisen in West Africa because the natives of South Africa have been so overwhelmed by the most ruthless exploitation of minerals the world ever knew that they are today writhing in the very dust to secure mere bread and shelter. In Portuguese Africa, the Black and Mulatto leadership has been bribed into complaissance by being given share in the loot of exploitation. In the Congo, determined effort of Belgium has succeeded hitherto in preventing the development of a leading intelligentia; while in The Valley of the Nile and its contributory lake regions, Britain is centering a last desperate effort to fortify and resotre its Empire and retain its domination of cheap labor and materials on which it waxed fat and powerful for three centuries.

This leaves West Africa--not only British, but French and Berber---as the area where African Autonomy and freedom can at present best take root and expand. In this area it is possible to found a Black Nation of 100 millions of people, with a cultural past unrivalled by any part of the world; who have never been conquered nor enslaved by the white world, but in the 19th century fell victim to the exploitation of labor and land by capital andtechnique which Europe monopolized.

Here it is that a new young leadership has arisen, made possible by the collapse of European economy which two World Wars has caused. This leadership has the advantage of a Socialist Britain and a growing group of young Negroes with modern education. But it has also two dangerous handicaps, which form the reason that I am venturing to speak here tonight. There is determined attempt in Britain to keep Socialism and its basic philosophy from penetrating Africa: and secondly, the Africans themselves are not wholly aware of the aims of The New Social Economy which they can and must establish.

In the British West African Movement for Autonomy and Freedom there is dangerous dependence upon the philosophy of the 19th century, which made Britain great and ruthless; an emphasis on Nationality, and on investment and profit making; which if uncurbed and uncritized, may land this people in the same morass of exploitation and capitalist subjugation, which has ruined the world. And, contrary to wishful thinking, it will make no difference in the end, whether the masters are Black or white.

What young Black Africa must learn and deeply understand, is that if socialism is good for Britain, and for most of the present world, as every wise man knows it is, it is also good for Africa; and that is true no matter what is taught by British Tories, or in Reactionary American schools. In Africa, as nowhere in the world, lies the opportunity to build an African Socialism which can teach the world on land historically held in common ownership; on labor organized in the past for social ends and not for private profit; and on education long conducted by the family and clan, for the progress of the State and not mainly for the development of profitable industry. What is needed, and all that is needed, is science and technique applied to the group economy by men of unselfish determination and clear foresight.

It is this uncompromising program, which I trust Mr. Azikiwe and his co-workers will adopt. I trust they will peer across the borders of Nigeria and the Gold Coast, to French West Africa where conscious effort of this very sort, is already working among French and Berber Negroes; and that they will not allow the brow-beating of British colonial officials, nor the Red-baiting hysteria of America, to swerve them a single inch from these great ends. Remember, too, that religion in Europe and American industry are determined on war. A third World War will finish Europe and make Asia the center of world culture. Africa must keep her face turned toward Asia.

I pray that Mr. Azikiwe will tell Africa, that although our Negro college and Race leaders, are momentarily stricken by acute lock-jaw, nevertheless we know the truth, and depend upon it for you to make Africa Free.

DESPITE OUR THEORETICAL BELIEF IN DEMOCRACY, IT IS DIFFICULT REALLY TO CONVINCE MOST AMERICANS THAT ELECTIONS ARE WORTH WHILE. WE HAVE HAD TOO MANY EXPERIENCES AT SEEING AN ELECTION GO IN ONE DIRECTION AND THE COUNTRY LURCHING DIRECTLY IN ANOTHER: WE HAVE HEARD CANDIDATES PROMISE ONE POLICY AND SPEND TWO OR FOUR YEARS ADVOCATING OR YIELDING TO ANOTHER. YET WHAT EVER IS WRONG WITH ELECTIONS CAN ONLY BE CURED BY GRIM DETERMINATION DESPITE DISAPPOINTMENT TO MAKE DEMOCRACY WORK. THIS MEANS THAT THE ELECTION ITSELF IS ONLY PART OF THE DEMOCRATIC PROCESS. IT MUST BE IMPLEMENTED BY CAREFUL WATCHING AND CHECKING BETWEEN ELECTIONS, BY FOLLOWING UP ELECTION PROMISES AND CHECKING THE OFFICIAL ACTS OF EVERY CANDIDATE WHO ASKS YOUR VOTE. SIDE ISSUES MUST BE IGNORED: THAT THE MAYOR IS PHOGENIC: THAT MR. MORRIS IS RESPECTABLE: THAT SENATOR DULLES IS RELIGIOUS: AND THAT MANY OTHER CANDIDATES HAVE NEVER BEEN IN JAIL, MAY BE TRUE AND MAY OR MAY NOT BE TO THEIR CREDIT, BUT IT HAS NOTHING TO DO WITH THIS ELECTION.

IN THIS ELECTION, WE WANT A MAYOR WHO WILL NOT FORCE WAGE EARNERS TO PAY FOR PUBLIC SERVICES WHICH OUGHT TO BE BORNE BY RICH PROPERTY OWNERS. WE WANT TO BREAK UP THE ALL AND CONTINUING ALLIANCE BETWEEN CRIME AND COMMERCIAL PROFIT: WE WANT MORE SCHOOLS, MORE PARKS AND HOSPITALS. WHEN WE SCAN THE RECORD OF THE CANDIDATES THERE CAN BE NO DOUBT BUT MARCANTONIO IS THE ONLY CANDIDATE WHOM WE CAN TRUST TO FOLLOW THIS PROGRAM BECAUSE HIS RECORD AS A PUBLIC OFFICIAL HAS PROVED BY HIS VOTES AND ACTS EXACTLY WHAT HE STANDS FOR IN ALL OF THESE CRUCIAL ISSUES. NEW YORK HAS LONG BEEN REGARDED AND STILL IS AS EXISTING FOR THE RICH, FOR GAMBLERS, FOR PLAYBOYS AND FOR FOOLS. IT SHOULD BE AN EXAMPLE TO THE NATION AND THE WORLD OF WHAT A FINE HONEST AMERICAN CITY COULD BE IF CONDUCTED FOR PUBLIC WELFARE AND NOT FOR FLAMBOYANT GREED.

THE ONE SUFFICIENT REASON FOR DEFEATING JOHN FOSTER DULLES IS THAT GOVERNOR DEWEY SUPPORTS HIM. ANYBODY OR ANYTHING THAT DEWEY SUPPORTS IS SUSPECT BY EVERY HONEST MAN. IF WE COULD PUT PERSONS LIKE EDWARD GUINIER AND MAUD RUSSELL IN THE SEATS OF BOROUGH PRESIDENCIES, WE COULD EXPECT THESE OFFICES TO MEAN SOMETHING.

BUT ABOVE ALL, IT IS OUR SOLEM DUTY TO RE-ELECT BEN DAVIS AS CITY COUNCILLOR: FIRST BECAUSE HE IS AN HONEST MAN, AND A HARD-WORKING PUBLIC SERVANT, AND ABOVE ALL BECAUSE HE HAS THE COURAGE OF HIS CONVICTIONS. HE HAS NO OPPOSITION WHATSOEVER EXCEPT LIFE MAGAZINE AND THE MEMBERS OF THE PEEKSKILL MOB.

SOCIAL MEDICINE

W. E. B. DU BOIS

FREEDOM, THE AMERICAN WAY OF LIFE; PRIVATE INITIATTVE, FREE ENTERPRISE AND DEMOCRACY ARE THE SLOGANS AND CATCH WORDS WHICH ARE IN FAMILIAR AND CONSTANT USE TODAY. THEY APPEAR AXIOMATIC AND SELF INTERPRETING AT FIRST SIGHT: WE WANT TO BE FREE: WE WANT TO GO WHERE WE PLEASE, WHEN WE PLEASE AND DO WHAT WE PLEASE: WE DO NOT LIKE TO HAVE POLICEMEN ORDERING US ABOUT OR CHAIRMEN STOPPING US FROM [redacted] TALKING OR GOVERNMENTS LOADING US WITH LAWS. WE WANT THE RIGHT TO MAKE OUR OWN PLANS, PLAN OUR OWN LIVES AND SET OUR OWN GOALS. WE WANT ALL AVENUES OF ADVANCEMENT AND ACCOMPLISHMENT OPEN TO US AND KEPT OPEN. WE WANT A VOICE IN OUR OWN GOVERNMENT; WE WANT TO ELECT THE

--2-- 45-4-61

THE OFFICIALS WHOM WE FAVOR AND WE WANT THE WAY KEPT OPEN TO CONGRESS AND THE PRESIDENCY. THIS IS THE AMERICAN WAY OF LIFE. THE DIFFICULTY WITH IT IS THAT IT IS NOT TRUE AND CANNOT BE TRUE AND THE SOONER WE FACE THE FACTS WE ALREADY KNOW, THE SOONER WE WILL TALK LIKE RATIONAL HUMAN BEINGS AND NOT LIKE FOOLS.

35-4-439

IT IS EASY TO SEE HOW HISTORICALLY THESE PHRASES AROSE AND BECAME IMBEDDED IN OUR CULTURAL PATTERNS. AMERICANS OF THE 19th CENTURY WERE BORN IN A VAST LAND OF UNEXAMPLED WEALTH AND VARIETY OF RESOURCE. THERE WAS RICH LAND IN ABUNDANCE FOR THE TAKING; THERE WAS REMUNERATIVE WORK FOR EVERYBODY TO DO WHO WAS NOT SICK OR LAZY; THERE WAS EVERY VARIETY OF CLIMATE AND KIND OF INDUSTRY; EVERY INDUCEMENT OF INVENTION AND TECHNIQUE; AND IF YOU DID NOT LIKE MASSACHUSETTS YOU COULD GO TO CALIFORNIA, OR MOVE WITHOUT LET OR HINDRANCE FROM CHICAGO TO NEW ORLEANS.

45-4-62

YOU KNOW THE SORT OF NATIONAL CHARACTER WE EVOLVED. WE BECAME BOLD, INVENTIVE AND LAWLESS. WE EXPLORED, ~~INVENTED~~, CONTRIVED, MURDERED, STOLE AND LYNCHED. ANY MAN FREE, WHITE AND 21 WAS A LAW UNTO HIMSELF. IT BECAME AXIOMATIC THAT AMERICANS COULD NOT AND WOULD NOT BE ~~RESTRAINED~~ HELD BY ORDINARY RESTRAINTS OF LAW AND ORDER. GREAT AMERICANS CHEATED THEIR COMPETITORS, DROVE THEM TO SUICIDE AND RUINED THEIR BUSINESSES AND SO BECAME SO GREAT AND GOOD THAT THEY COULD GIVE THE UNITED NATIONS A SITE WHICH NO NATION WAS ABLE TO AFFORD. FOR THIRTY YEARS BETWEEN THE TWO WORLD WARS I DROVE A CAR, TRAVELLING OFF AND ON IN NEARLY EVERY STATE OF THE UNION. I USED TO TELL MY FRIENDS THAT I NEVER SAW A SPACE MARKED "NO PARKING" WHERE SOME CAR WAS NOT PARKED.

OF COURSE AS A MATTER OF FACT, ALL AMERICANS WERE NOT AS FREE, NOR INITIATIVE, NOR SO DEMOCRATIC AS SOME WERE. IT WAS ONLY BY IGNORING THE SLAVES, THE POVERTY-STRICKEN AND THE FAILURES THAT WE COULD KEEP UP THE ILLUSION OF THIS FREE SUCCESSFUL LAND. AND IN THE 20th CENTURY IT BEGAN TO DAWN ON MANY AMERICANS, THAT IN THIS LAND AS IN ~~MOST~~ OTHERS, THERE WERE LIMITS OF FREEDOM. INDIVIDUAL ENTERPRISE AND UNCONTROLLED INITIATIVE WE MUST ~~MEND~~ CURB OR PERISH. OF COURSE WE KNEW THIS BEFORE BUT SOMEHOW WE HATED TO GIVE UP THE ILLUSION: MOREOVER WE HAD AN IDEA THAT WE COULD EDUCATE LUSTIER AND MORE VIRILE CHILDREN IF WE TOLD THEM THE FALSEHOOD THAT AMERICANS WERE FREE AND HAD A RIGHT TO BE FREEER THAN OTHER HUMAN BEINGS. I REMEMBER HOW AS A BOY I RESENTED BEING EXPECTED TO SING LUSTILY ABOUT THE "LAND OF THE NOBLE, FREE." I KNEW QUITE A FEW AMERICANS WHO WERE NOT ~~FREE~~ NOBLE AND I CERTAINLY WAS NOT FREE.

45-4-63

THE LEARNED PROFESSIONS IN PARTICULAR CLUNG LONGEST TO THE IDEAL OF FREE AND INDEPENDENT EXISTENCE. THE LABORERS, MEETING TIME CLOCKS AND HARD-FACED MEN WHO HIRED AND FIRED, BEGAN EARLY TO TALK LESS ABOUT FREEDOM AND MORE ABOUT JUSTICE. THE WHITE-COLLAR WORKERS AND CIVIL SERVANTS LONG SINCE REALIZED THAT THE TREADMILL INTO WHICH THEIR LOT WAS CAST WAS NOT PROPERLY

DESCRIBED AS PRIVATE INITIATIVE OR FREE ENTERPRISE. AND THEY BEGAN TO ACT ACCORDINGLY. BUT LAWYERS, PHYSICIANS, DENTISTS, AND CLERGYMEN, LONG CLUNG TO THE IDEAL OF INDEPENDENCE AND FREEDOM AS THE GREAT ATTRACTION IN THESE LINES OF OCCUPATION. I DO NOT DOUBT BUT THAT CONCEALED MORE OR LESS SUCESSFULLY IN BACK OF THE HEADS OF MOST MEDICAL STUDENTS IS AN ALLURING VISION OF A SUITE OF OFFICES ON PARK AVENUE OR MICHIGAN, WHERE SELECTED PATRONS ARE RECEIVED BY TRIM MAIDS FOR QUIET AND INTERESTING CONSULTATION: THEN AFTER AN HOUR OR SO IN ADVICE AT THE HOSPITAL WITH SUBSERVIENT INTERNES, A LONG SLEEK CAR WHISKS YOU TO YOUR BOOKS AND CONSERVATORY. IT IS AN ALLURING PROSPECT, BUT NOT QUITE CHARACTERISTIC OF MOST AMERICAN PHYSICIANS.

WHEN I WAS IN LONDON IN 1945, I STOPPED WITH A PHYSICIAN. DR. CLARKE WAS A CHARMING MAN, BORN IN THE WEST INDIES, EDUCATED AT CAMBRIDGE, ENGLAND, WITH AN EXCELLENT AND SELECT PRACTICE IN HIS OFFICE NEAR THE ELEPHANT AND CASTLE. HE DROVE FROM THERE OUT TO HIS PLEASANT NEW COTTAGE IN HIGH BARNET

WHERE HE HAD FLOWERS, A LITTLE SURGERY, A WELL-TRAINED BUTLER AND OPEN FIRES. HE ENJOYED A LEISURELY BUT FULL LIFE AND LIKED ENTERTAINING FRIENDS FROM ABROAD. THIS WINTER RATHER UNEXPECTEDLY HE APPEARED IN NEW YORK, ON HIS WAY TO BARBADOES WHICH HE HAD NOT VISITED FOR 30 YEARS. HE WAS NOT EXACTLY UNHAPPY, BUT DECIDEDLY DISCONCERTED. THE BRITISH LABOR GOVERNMENT HAD QUITE UPSET THE NORMAL COMPLACENCY OF HIS LIFE. THEY TOOK OVER HIS OFFICE AND NEAT LITTLE SURGERY: THEY FILLED HIS OFFICE WITH A SURGING CROWD OF PATIENTS OF ALL SORTS AND KINDS AND THEY PAID HIM A SALARY INSTEAD OF FEES. OF COURSE THEY DID GIVE HIM A SIX MONTHS VACATION WITH PAY WHICH HE WOULD NEVER HAVE GIVEN HIMSELF AND HE DID NOT HAVE TO WORRY ABOUT HIS FUTURE. IT WAS NOT THAT HE WAS EXACTLY WORSE OFF, BUT IT WAS THAT HE WAS CERTAINLY NOT FREE: HE WAS NOT INDEPENDENT: HE WAS A SERVANT OF THE STATE AND NO LONGER A PRIVATE PRACTICIANER. HE DID NOT EXACTLY OPPOSE THE NEW SOCIALIZED MEDICINE OF BRITAIN BUT

IT CERTAINLY COULD BE IMPROVED.// BUT HIS REAL DISMAY/LAY IN THE PLAIN FACT/THAT THIS REVOLUTION/IN THE PRACTICE OF MEDICINE/IN GREAT BRITAIN/HAD COME TO STAY. NOT EVEN THE REDOUBTABLE/AND FEARLESS CHURCHILL/ WOULD DARE ABOLISH IT/AND GO BACK TO THE DAYS OF MEDICAL FREEDOM.

WHY IS THIS?/ THE REASON IS QUITE PLAIN:/ ONE MAN CAN BE FREE: TWO MEN CANNOT.// JUST AS SOON AS SOCIETY GROWS IN NUMBERS/AND INTRICACY OF ORGANIZATION // JUST SO SOON/INDIVIDUAL FREEDOM OF ACTION/MUST BE CURTAILED// THE CURTAILMENT NEED NOT BE SLAVERY:/IT CAN AND WILL LEAD/TO MANY COMPULSIONS/. BUT IN THE END/ IT CAN AND MUST MEAN/THAT INDIVIDUAL EFFORT/WILL BE CURBED AND CONDITIONED/FOR THE COMMON GOOD./ THE INDIVIDUAL MUST BOW/TO THE INTERESTS OF SOCIETY.

IN NO AREA/OF HUMAN ACTIVITY/IS THIS NECESSITY MORE EVIDENT/THAN IN THE FIELD OF HEALTH.//THE ADVANCE OF MEDICAL AND SURGICAL SCIENCE/DURING THE 19th CENTURY/HAS BEEN PHENOMENAL/AS YOU KNOW MUCH BETTER THAN I.// I KNOW IN MY OWN CASE/THAT HAD IT NOT BEEN/FOR A CERTAIN ~~INVENTION~~ TECHNIK BECOMING COMMON/ABOUT 1918/ I SHOULD HAVE LONG BEEN DEAD// AS A RESULT OF THAT EXPERIENCE,/ I TRIED PREVENTIVE MEDICINE./ I WENT TO AN INSTITUTE/WHERE THEY PROFESSED TO LAY STRESS/UPON INVESTIGATION AND ADVICE.// BUT ~~WHEN~~ I NOTICED/THAT THEY STILL HAD THE OLDER POINT OF VIEW./ EACH YEAR I CAME,/ THEY ASKED SOLITICIOUSLY/"WHAT IS WRONG? WHAT ARE YOU SUFFERING FROM?"/ AND WHEN I SAID THAT THERE WAS NOT ANYTHING WRONG/SO FAR AS I KNEW/AND THAT I WAS NOT SUFFERING,/ THERE WAS A CERTAIN LACK OF INTEREST./ AFTER ALL, WHY SHOULD ONE COME/TO A PHYSICIAN/UNLESS SOMETHING WAS WRONG.// IF INSTEAD OF GOING TO THE INSTITUTE,/ I WENT TO ANY OF MY NUMBERLESS FRIENDS/WHO ARE PHYSICIANS,/ THEY WERE ALL TERRIBLY BUSY:/ THEY HAD TIME ONLY/FOR ACUTE CASES/AND NOT FOR GENERAL ADVICE.// MOREOVER, INCIDENTIALLY/THEY COULD NOT CHARGE ADEQUATELY FOR ADVICE,/ AND THEY COULD CHARGE FOR OPERATIONS.

THAT MEANS THAT THERE IS A TREMENDOUS DEMAND IN THIS COUNTRY FOR PREVENTING DISEASE, WHICH WOULD NOT ONLY SAVE MONEY, BUT SAVE SUFFERING. // AGAIN THE YOUNG PHYSICIANS, WHO ARE BEING TRAINED IN ALTOGETHER TOO FEW NUMBERS, NATURALLY GO TO PLACES LIKE NEW YORK AND CHICAGO, WHERE LIFE IS EASIER AND MORE INTERESTING. // AS A RESULT OF THIS, YOU HAVE OUR FEW PHYSICIANS HERDED INTO THE GREAT CENTERS, WHILE THE MASS OF PEOPLE LIVING IN COUNTRY DISTRICTS AND SPARSELY POPULATED PARTS OF THE ~~COUNTRY~~ NATION, FIND IT EXTREMELY DIFFICULT TO GET MEDICAL ATTENTION EVEN IN SERIOUS CASES, MUCH MORE TO GET REGULAR ADVICE.

I JUST HAD VISITING ME A FRIEND FROM THE WEST INDIES WHO IS YOUNGER THAN I AM. BUT HE LIVES ON A FAR OUT-LYING ISLAND. THE RESULT IS THAT HE IS COMING TO NEW YORK TO HAVE ATTENTION GIVEN TO HIS HEARING, LONG NEGLECTED, AND TO HAVE SOMETHING DONE FOR HIS DECAYING TEETH, WHICH TOGETHER WITH OTHER DIFFICULTIES, MAKE HIM IN APPEARANCE, MUCH OLDER THAN I. // IT WAS IMPOSSIBLE WHERE HE LIVES AND WHERE HE HAS BEEN DOING EXCELLENT SOCIAL WORK FOR 25 YEARS

TO GET THE PROFESSIONAL ATTENTION WHICH HE OUGHT TO HAVE.

IN THE ABSENCE OF ADVICE AS TO HEALTH HABITS AND FOR THE PREVENTION OF DISEASE, YOU HAVE THE TREMENDOUS AND STILL GROWING SALE OF PATENT MEDICINES AND NOSTRUMS, INCREASED NOW BY ADVERTISEMENTS OVER THE RADIO ~~AND IN THE NEWSPAPERS~~, SO THAT THE MAJORITY OF U.S. CITIZENS ARE NOT ONLY NOT GIVEN CORRECT MEDICAL ADVICE: BUT THEY ARE HAVING DANGEROUS ADVICE LITERALLY FORCED UPON THEM. // THERE IS THEREFORE, CLEARLY IN THE UNITED STATES A WIDE AND INCREASING DEMAND FOR HEALTH SERVICES, FOR ADVICE AS TO HEALTHFUL HABITS, FOR PREVENTION OF DISEASE, FOR HOSPITALIZATION. AND THIS DEMAND MUST BE FILLED.

WE CANNOT DEPEND UPON THE INDIVIDUAL DESIRES OF MEDICAL STUDENTS FOR THE FILLING OF THIS DEMAND. HERE IS A SOCIAL NEED AND ORGANIZATION MUST SEE THAT THE NEED IS FILLED. MEDICAL STUDENTS MUST NOT ONLY BE TRAINED FOR HEALTH WORK, BUT THEY MUST BE ASSIGNED TO DISTRICTS WHERE THIS HEALTH WORK IS TO

45-4-70

BE DONE.// THAT INTERFERES UNDOUBTEDLY WITH INDIVIDUAL INITIATIVE.// IT INTERFERES WITH SO-CALLED FREEDOM, BUT WE HAVE COME TO THE TIME IN THE SOCIAL ORGANIZATION OF THE WORLD WHEN NEED AND NOT WISH MUST PREVAIL IN LARGER AND LARGER AREAS OF LIFE.

THIS IS THE RESULT NOT SIMPLY OF ~~THE~~ A SOCIAL ORGANIZATION: IT IS BECAUSE WE MUST BOW TO NATURAL AND BIOLOGICAL LAW.// IT DOES NOT MAKE ANY DIFFERENCE HOW FREE AMERICAN CITIZENS WANT TO BE, THEY HAVE GOT TO OBEY THE LAW OF GRAVATATION.// THERE ARE PHYSICAL AND CHEMICAL LAWS WHICH MUST BE OBEYED AND THEN IN ADDITION THE ENORMOUS TECHNIQUE THAT HAS GROWN UP, AND THE INVOLVED CULTURAL PATTERNS MAKE OUR CIVILIZATION SO COMPLICATED, THAT INDIVIDUAL WISH OR WHIM MUST BE SUBORDINATED TO THE COMMON GOOD.

ONE THINKS OF COURSE OF SOCIAL WELFARE AS BEING LOGICALLY IN THE HANDS OF THE STATE;// BUT HERE IN AMERICA WE HAVE BEEN PREJUDICED AGAINST THE STATE,// BECAUSE IN THE 18th CENTURY WHEN THE UNITED STATES BEGAN AS A NATION WE WERE

45-4-71

IN THE MIDST OF DAYS WHEN CURTAILMENT OF INDIVIDUAL EFFORT WAS MOST ARBITRARY AND FREEDOM IN INDUSTRIAL LIFE WAS LOOKED UPON AS THE ONE PANACEA FOR ALL ILL. THAT FREEDOM CRY OF THE 18th CENTURY HAS GOT TO SUCCUMB TO THE TECHNIQUE OF THE 19TH CENTURY, AND TO THE SOCIAL WELFARE OF THE 20th CENTURY.

THERE ARE VOLUNTARY ORGANIZATIONS FOR THE CARE OF THE SICK, FOR INSURANCE AGAINST ILLNESS AND OPERATIONS.// SO FAR AS THEY GO, THEY ARE EXCELLENT, BUT THEY DO NOT GO FAR. THEY COVER ONLY A SMALL PART OF THE FIELD. AND WHATEVER THEY DO, SHOULD BE DONE MORE COMPLETELY BY THE STATE, IF WE HAVE THE SORT OF STATE WHICH WE OUGHT TO HAVE.// THERE IS NO REASON FOR THE PREJUDICE IN THE UNITED STATES AGAINST THE STATE AND ITS SERVANTS.// A MAN DOES NOT BECOME A SCOUNDREL SIMPLY BECAUSE HE WORKS FOR THE UNITED STATES INSTEAD OF WORKING FOR THE BLUE CROSS, OR THE STEEL TRUST.// AND THE PERSON WORKING FOR SEARS ROEBUCK COULD WORK JUST AS EFFICIENTLY AND HONESTLY FOR THE STATE OF ILLINOIS, IF HE GOT AS GOOD WAGES, WORKING CONDITIONS AND SECURITY. // THERE IS NO REASON WHY THE AVERAGE OF EFFICIENCY AND CHARACTER IN THE STATE EMPLOYEE SHOULD BE LOWER THAN THAT AMONG THE EMPLOYEES OF PRIVATE ORGANIZATIONS, EXCEPT THAT THOSE WHO WORK FOR PRIVATE ORGANIZATIONS ARE SELECTED WITH GREATER CARE, ARE PAID BETTER WAGES, AND GET MORE SECURITY.

BUT IF THE PRIVATE ORGANIZATION CAN GET THAT KIND OF SERVICE, THE STATE ORGANIZATION CAN DO THE SAME THING. // THIS MEANS THAT THE STATE HAS GOT TO BE TAKEN MUCH MORE SERIOUSLY THAN WE HAVE TAKEN IT. // IT CANNOT BE THAT DEMOCRACY IS MAINLY A WAY OF SELECTING OFFICIALS AND MAKING IT POSSIBLE FOR PRIVATE ORGANIZATIONS TO INCREASE THEIR PROFIT. // IF WE BEGIN TO LOOK UPON THE STATE AS AN ORGANIZATION FOR SOCIAL WELFARE, THEN THERE IS NO REASON IN THE WORLD WHY THE AVAILABLE ABILITY OF THE COUNTRY SHOULD NOT BE HIRED AND PAID FOR BY THE STATE MADE AS SECURE IN ITS TENURE AND AS DIGNIFIED IN ITS WORK AS IS POSSIBLE WITH THE PRIVATE ORGANIZATION.

IN OTHER WORDS, WHAT WE HAVE GOT TO ACCOMPLISH THROUGH DEMOCRACY IS A BETTER STATE AND THAT STATE HAS GOT TO ORGANIZE THE DEMAND FOR PUBLIC SERVICE, NOT ONLY IN HEALTH, BUT IN THE PROCURING OF JUSTICE, IN THE TEACHING IN OUR SCHOOLS, IN PLANNING AND CONDUCTING CERTAIN INDUSTRIAL UNDERTAKINGS, IN OUR LITERATURE AND ART. // THIS MEANS THAT WE MUST REVISE IN MANY WAYS OUR CONCEPTION OF THE DEMOCRATIC METHOD. // WE HAVE LOOKED UPON IT FOR THE CENTURY OR MORE AS A MATTER OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE, WHEN IN TRUTH IT IS A MATTER OF SERVICES AND KNOWLEDGE. // DEMOCRACY IS NOT SO MUCH A WAY OF PORTECTING OURSELVES FROM AGGRESSION AS A WAY OF GETTING THE WORLDS' WORK DONE, AND DONE IN THE BEST AND MOST SCIENTIFIC WAY.

THE EXPERIENCES OF THE MASS OF MEN FORM A RESERVOIR ~~OF EXPERIENCE~~ WHICH IS AT THE DISPOSAL OF THE STATE, IF WE KNOW HOW TO USE IT. // THE DEMOCRATIC METHOD, THROUGH DISCUSSION AND UNIVERSAL SUFFRAGE TAPS THAT RESERVOIR:

35-4-452

IT ASERTAINS THROUGH THE EXPERIENCE OF ALL WHAT THE NEEDS OF EACH ARE: AND THEN PROCEEDS WITH THE BEST METHODS KNOWN, TO SECURE FOR THE STATE THE SERVICES OF PEOPLE WHO ARE GOING TO PUT THIS KNOWLEDGE INTO PRACTICE.

IT IS UNFORTUNATE THAT JUST NOW WE IN THE UNITED STATES ARE IN A PERIOD WHEN MEN OF SCIENCE, EXPERIENCE AND KNOWLEDGE HESITATE TO ACCEPT SERVICE IN THE GOVERNMENT. // WE HAVE HAD INSULT AND PERSECUTION OF UNEXAMPLED AND INEXCUSABLE VARIETY VISITED UPON PERSONS IN GOVERNMENT EMPLOY. WE ARE SLOW IN REWARDING WORK OF THAT KIND AND CONSEQUENTLY AT JUST THE TIME IN THE HOSTORY OF THE WORLD WHEN THE WORK OF GOVERNMENT EVERYWHERE IS EXPANDING, WHEN THERE ARE AREAS OF SERVICE WHICH NO AGENCY EXCEPT GOVERNMENT CAN UNDERTAKE, WE ARE PERSUADING FAR FEWER TRAINED MEN TO UNDERTAKE THIS WORK THAN WE MUST HAVE.

WHEN THEREFORE, IN THE FUTURE WE REPEAT THESE SLOGANS OF FREEDOM AND DEMOCRACY, WE HAVE GOT TO REMEMBER, AS I HAVE SAID BEFORE, THAT FIRST OF ALL, OUR INDIVIDUAL FREEDOM MUST BE CURTAILED FOR THE COMMON WELFARE. AND SECONDLY

45-4-75

THAT DEMOCRACY IS NOT SIMPLY A MATTER OF ELECTION TO OFFICE: IT IS A WAY OF GETTING THE WORLDS' WORK DONE BY THE VERY BEST METHODS.

WE ARE ALWAYS TEMPTED TO SEEK BY-PATHS: TO SEE IF WE CANNOT BUILT UP VAST PRIVATE AGENCIES IN INSURANCE, IN BUILDING, IN THE PROCESSING OF NECESSARY MATERIALS, IN THE TRANSPORTATION OF GOODS, WHICH WILL DO THE WORK WHICH OUGHT TO BE DONE BY THE STATE MUCH BETTER AND MORE COMPLETELY THAN ANY GOVERNMENT IS AT PRESENT READY TO DO. // BUT THAT MEANS SIMPLY THAT GOVERNMENTS MUST BE MADE READY TO DO THIS WORK. THAT THEY MUST BE ORGANIZED FOR IT, THAT THE TECHNIQUE OF THE STATE MUST BE SO PERFECTED THAT MATTERS WHICH ARE OF NATIONAL APPLICATION AND UNIVERSAL IMPORTANCE, AND WHICH CAN BE ACCOMPLISHED ONLY BY AN OVER-ALL ORGANIZATION, SHALL BE DONE BY SUCH AN ORGANIZATION, AND THAT ORGANIZATION WILL BE THE STATE.

35-4-453

WE NEED SCARCELY PILE UP ARGUMENTS HERE. PRACTICALLY ALL WILL ADMIT THAT THE NECESSARY DEMAND FOR MEDICAL SERVICE IS NOT NEARLY MET BY PRESENT PROVISIONS: THAT THE TRAINING AND PLACEMENT OF PRACTICINERS CANNOT BE LEFT ENTIRELY TO INDIVIDUAL CHOICE: THAT THE SOCIAL DEMAND FOR HUMAN WELFARE IN A WORLD FULL NOT ONLY OF HARSH NATURAL FORCES, BUT WITH INCREASINGLY COMPLICATED TECHNIQUES FOR PROCESSING AND DISTRIBUTING GOODS AND IN ADDITION HUMAN THOUGHT AND ACTION SET IN INTRICATE CULTURAL PATTERNS--THAT ALL THIS CALLS FOR OVER-HEAD COORDINATING SOCIAL MECHANISM TO SUPPLY SKILLS, DISTRIBUTE FACILITIES AND APPORTION HUMAN INSTRUMENTS ON A SCALE WHICH CHANCE AND INDIVIDUAL CHOICE CAN NEVER PROVIDE.

35-4-454

THE CRUCIAL QUESTION IS WHAT ORGAN OF SOCIAL SERVICE CAN BEST DO THIS? WE CAN THINK OF THREE SORTS OF ORGANS:

1. VOLUNTARY ORGANIZATIONS

2. PHILANTHROPY

3. BUSINESS ENTERPRIZE

4. THE CITY, STATE OR NATION VOLUNTARY ORGANIZATION CAN DO MUCH AND IN THE FUTURE MIGHT DO EVEN MORE THAN NOW: BUT THE TOTAL JOB IS TOO BIG AND CALLS FOR TOO MUCH PLANNING AND EXECUTIVE ACTION TO BE LEFT TO VOLUNTEERS. IF IT IS, IT WILL TEND TO SERVE GROUPS OF SELECTED PERSONS RATHAN THAN THE MASS OF MEN. ABOVE ALL IT WILL LACK THE INCOME NECESSARY FOR A COMPLETE JOB.

35-4-455

PHILANTHROPY CAN BE DEPENDED ON FOR EMERGENCIES AND AT TIMES OF EMOTIONAL STRAIN BUT IT IS NEITHER SUFFICIENTLY SUSTAINED NOR POWERFUL ENOUGH TO CONDUCT A SOCIAL SERVICE LIKE THIS. AND IN ADDITION SO LONG AS PHILANTHROPY IS A FUNCTION OF BIG BUSINESS IT WILL SERVE INDUSTRY FIRST AND HUMANITY LAST. LARGE NUMBERS OF AMERICANS TURN NATURALLY TO BUSINESS ENTERPRISE FOR ANY

35-4-48

SERVICE OR ORGANIZATION ~~THIS~~ of MAGNITUDE. THIS IS BECAUSE WE ARE CHILDREN OF THE 19th CENTURY WITH ITS INDUSTRIAL REVOLUTION AND FREE ENTERPRISE. THE UNITED STATES WAS BORN WITH THE "WEALTH OF NATIONS", AND HAS NEVER PASSED OUT OF THE LAISSE-FAIRE ECONOMIC PHILOSOPHY. WE ASSUME BUSINESS ORGANIZATION AND BUSINESS METHODS ARE NOT ONLY THE BEST BUT THE ONLY WAY TO CARRY ON PUBLIC SERVICE OF ANY AND ALL KINDS. ON THE OTHER HAND AND COMPLEMENTARY TO THIS IDEA IS THE WIDE-SPREAD BELIEF THAT THE STATE IS INCAPABLE OF ANYTHING BUT THE SIMPLIST AND ROUGHEST AND LEAST AVOIDABLE PUBLIC SERVICE.

MOST PERSONS DO NOT SEEM TO REALIZE WHAT A CONTRADICTION THESE BELIEFS ARE TO DEMOCRACY. MOST AMERICANS ARE QUITE COMPLACENT OVER THE ADMITTED FAILURE OF DEMOCRACY IN THIS LAND AND IN MOST LANDS. UPON THIS BASIC DISBELIEEF MUSSOLINI AND HITLER BUILT THEIR TOTALITARIAN STATES: AND BECAUSE OF THIS BELIEF THE CITIZENS OF THE UNITED STATES TODAY SUBMIT WITHOUT MURMUR TO THE CONTROL

OF THIS LAND BY INDUSTRIAL ENTERPRISE NOT ONLY IN BUSINESS BUT IN GOVERNMENT NEWS GATHERING, MAGAZINE AND BOOK WIRTING, ART AND PHILANTHROPY. LET US NOT FORGET THAT UNLESS DEMOCRACY CAN COPE WITH THE BROADER SERVICES OF PUBLIC WELFARE IT IS IDLE TO BELIEVE IT CAN BE TRUSTED TO GOVERN THE POLITICAL STATE.

ON THE OTHER HAND, UNLESS BUSINESS ENTERPRISE IS ABLE TO GOVERN BETTER IN THE FUTURE THAN IT HAS IN THE PAST, THEN WE MUST UNFORTUNATELY CONCLUDE THAT HUMAN BEINGS DO NOT HAVE SENSE ENOUGH TO ENSURE THEIR ULTIMATE SURVIVAL FOR REMEMBER THAT BUSINESS RULED THE WORLD DURING THE 19th CENTURY. IT WAS BUSINESS METHODS WHICH BUILT THE POWERFUL BRITISH EMPIRE UPON WHICH THE SUN IS RAPIDLY SETTING: IT WAS BUSINESS WHICH BUILT AND SUPPORTED THE DOMINANCE OF THE FRENCH LANGUAGE AND CANONS OF TASTE OVER MOST OF THE WORLD. THE SPANISH AND PORTUGUESE, DUTCH AND BELGAIN DOMINIONS WERE BUILT ON SUCCESSFUL BUSINESS AND THESE INSUTRIAL POWERS REDUCED TWO THIRDS OF HUMANITY TO SLAVE

LABOR IN ORDER TO SUPPORT IN LUXURY A GROUP OF WHITE SUPER-MEN WHO OWNED AND RULED THE EARTH. // INDUSTRIAL ENTERPRISE, BUSINESS METHODS, WORLD COMMERCE ALL MARCHED INTO THE 20TH CENTURY "WITH COLORS GAILY FLYING, WITH TRUMPET AND WITH DRUM."

IT WAS IN 1900 THE CONSIDERED OPINION OF THE LEADERS OF WHITE MANKIND THAT EUROPEAN TECHNIQUE, ADMINISTERED BY WHITE CAPTAINS OF INDUSTRY, IN ACCORD WITH THE BASIC PRINCIPLES OF FREE ENTERPRISE AND INDIVIDUAL INITIATIVE AND RECOGNIZING THE UNALTERABLE INFERIORITY OF THE VAST MAJORITY OF MANKIND, WERE DESTINED TO RULE ASIA, AFRICA, THE ISLANDS OF THE SEA AND IN ADDITION THE ALBORING CLASSES OF WHITE NATIONS FOR BENEFIT OF BRITISH NOBILITY AND GENTRY, FRENCH ARTISTS IN LETTERS AND GOWNS AND AMERICAN MILLIONAIRES.

WHAT HAS BEEN THE RESULT OF THIS RULE OF BUSINESS? // WE STAND TODAY IN THE MIDST OF THIS CENTURY, WITH EVERY GREAT IDEAL FOR WHICH THE WORLD EVER STOOD IN UNEXAMPLED RUIN. // WITH "PEACE ON EARTH, GOOD WILL TO MEN." SO UNPOPULAR

AND IN SUCH DISREPUTE THAT WE ARE PREPARED AND EAGER TO SPEND THREE-FOURTHS OF EVERY DOLLAR OF OUR IMMENSE TREASURE TO MURDER HUMAN BEINGS, AND NOT SIMPLY KILL SOLDIERS, BUT WOMEN, CHILDREN, CRIPPLES AND THE OLD. // WE HAVE FOUGHT TWO WARS OF SUCH UNEXAMPLED CRUELTY AND DESTRUCTION THAT THEY DESTROYED THE VERY CIVILIZATION THEY WERE DECLARED TO DEFEND. // HAVE YOU EVER HEARD OF THE WAR FOR DEMOCRACY? WELL, IT KILLED THE DEMOCRACY IT DEFENDED.

THE FIRST WORLD WAR WAS A WAR OF BIG BUSINESS AGAINST BIG BUSINESS: OF INTRENCHED COLONIAL IMPERIALISM IN BRITAIN AND FRANCE AGAINST THE IMPERIALIST APPETITE OF NEW GERMANY. THIS WAR OVERTHREW BIG BUSINESS THE WORLD OVER, KILLED THE WORLD MARKET, SMASHED THE GOLD STANDARD AND LANDED THE WORLD IN UNIVERSAL BANKRUPCY. NOT SATISFIED WITH THIS TRIUMPH OF FREE ENTERPRISE BIG BUSINESS DETERMINED TO STOP SOCIALISM, COMMUNISM AND COLONIAL REVOLT AND SUCCEEDED IN A SECOND WORLD WAR IN STARTING A WORLD UPHEAVAL, WHICH MAY END ANYWHERE EXCEPT

IN THE RESTORATION OF THE WORSHIP OF PRIVATE PROFIT AS THE WAY OF SALVATION. EITHER WE PUT DOWN THE ANARCHY OF FREE FOR ALL ENTERPRISE AND MAKE ORGANIZED SOCIAL STRIVING THE END OF PROGRESS, OR WE PERISH.

BUSINESS HAS NO ALIBI. IT EXERCISED PRACTICALLY UNIVERSAL RULE FROM 1815 to 1915// IF IN THAT CENTURY, IT COULD NOT ESTABLISH PEACE AND FREEDOM: HEALTH AND PROSPERITY: EDUCATION AND FAITH, IT CANNOT DO SO TOMORROW AMID THE RUINS WHICH ITS OVERPOWERING GREED BROUGHT ON THE WORLD TO DRAG IT DOWN TO HELL.// WE HAVE TRIED THE CONTRADICTION OF UNIVERSAL SELFISHNESS: OF GAINING WEALTH BY LETTING EVERYBODY CHEAT EVERYBODY ELSE: BY TESTING ALL HUMAN VALUE THROUGH THE PROFIT WHICH CAN BE DRAGGED OUT OF MEN BY FORCE OR FRAUD.// WE HAVE TRIED THAT METHOD IN EVERY VARIATION. NOW EITHER THE PUBLIC WEAL, WORKING THROUGH ITS HIGHEST EXPRESSION, THE STATE, WILL SAVE CIVILIZATION OR IT NEVER CAN BE SAVED. AND THAT STATE WILL BE A DEMOCRATIC STATE OR IT WILL BE NO STATE.// BELIEVE ME,

GENTLEMEN AND LADIES, YOU ARE NOT ENTERING A WORLD TO CHOOSE BETWEEN SOCIALISM AND SOME OTHER WAY// THERE IS NO OTHER WAY: YOU ARE NOT GOING TO CHOOSE BETWEEN DEMOCRACY AND SOME OTHER WAY: THERE IS NO OTHER WAY.

YOU WILL WITH JUSTICE NOW TURN TO ME AND SAY: LOOK AT THE STATE: LOOK AT WASHINGTON. GLANCE AT SPRINGFIELD. AND IF YOUR EYES ARE PARTICULARLY STRONG PEER AT CITY HALL.// AND I ANSWER, YOU ARE IN NONE OF THESE CASES LOOKING AT DEMOCRACY. YOU ARE NOT EVEN LOOKING AT A GOOD IMITATION. YOU ARE LOOKING AT WHAT YOU AND YOUR FATHERS BEFORE YOU EXCHANGED FOR DEMOCRACY: YOU ARE DOING EXACTLY THE SAME KIND OF THING WHICH THE FOUNDING FATHERS OF THIS UNITED STATES DID WHEN KNOWING THAT EVERY FIFTH AMERICAN WHOM THEY LOOKED ~~IN THE FACE~~ at WAS A SLAVE NEVERTHELESS DECLARED WITH PERFECTLY STRAIGHT FACES: " WE HOLD THESE TRUTHS TO BE SELF-EVIDENT: THAT ALL MEN ARE CREATED EQUAL: THAT THEY ARE ENDOWED BY THEIR CREATOR WITH CERTAIN INALIENABLE RIGHTS: THAT AMONG THESE ARE LIFE, LIBERTY, AND THE PURSUIT OF HAPPINESS." //

35-4-481

IN THE SAME WAY WE TODAY ARE SAYING, WE HAVE IN THE UNITED STATES A DEMOCRATIC FORM OF GOVERNMENT IN WHICH THE PEOPLE RULE, EXPRESSING THEIR WILL IN OPEN HONEST ELECTIONS IN WHICH EVERY CITIZEN IS FREE TO EXPRESS HIS WILL.

35-4-463

THE RESULT OF THIS FREE DEMOCRACY IS THAT WE DARE NOT TRUST THE PLANNING AND CONDUCT OF PUBLIC HEALTH TO THIS GOVERNMENT BECAUSE IT IS NEITHER HONEST NOR INTELLIGENT ENOUGH TO CONDUCT IT. INSTEAD WE PREFER TO LEAVE THIS WORK TO THE METROPOLITAN LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY.

THE REASON WE HAVE NOT GOT A DEMOCRATIC GOVERNMENT IN THIS LAND CAPABLE OF SUCCESSFULLY DEALING WITH HEALTH, EDUCATION, TRANSPORTATION, COMMUNICATIONS, MINING, MANUFACTURING AND HEAVY INDUSTRY - THE REASON WE HAVE NO SUCH GOVERNMENT IS BECAUSE WE DO NOT WANT IT. WE HAVE FOR THREE GENERATIONS TAUGHT OURSELVES AND OUR CHILDREN THAT POLITICS ARE NASTY: THAT POLITICIANS ARE THIEVES: THAT DEMOCRACY WITHOUT CORRUPTION AND MANIPULATION IS IMPOSSIBLE AND THAT OUR GOVERNMENT, BAD AS IT IS, IS THE BEST ON EARTH. HAVING MADE TOO TRUE WHAT WE HAVE DECLARED IS TRUE, WE ARE TODAY FITTING THE CAPSTONE. WE ARE ASSERTING THE RIGHT TO ACCUSE EVERY PUBLIC SERVANT OF BEING EITHER A PROVEN OR A POTENTIAL SPY. WE ARE KEEPING OUT OR KICKING OUT OF GOVERNMENT SERVICE NEARLY EVERY HONEST MAN OF INDEPENDENT THOUGHT WHOM WE CAN SCARE. AND THEN WE ARE SAYING: CAN A SYSTEM OF PUBLIC HEALTH CONSERVATION AND TRAINING, PAYING, AND DISTRIBUTION OF PHYSICIANS BE ENTRUSTED INTO SUCH GOVERNMENT HANDS.

35-4-463

WE OF COURSE ANSWER THE QUESTION WHEN WE ASK IT AND THE ANSWER IS NO. BUT THAT DOES NOT END THE QUESTIONING. IS THARE ANY REASON ON GOD'S EARTH WHY AN INTELLIGENT NATION OF DECENT PEOPLE CANNOT HAVE A GOVERNMENT CAPABLE OF CONDUCTING SOCIALIZED MEDICINE, PUBLIC EDUCATION AND SUCH GREAT INDUSTRIES AS CAN ONLY BE RUN BY MONOPOLY AND POLICE FORCE-- IS THERE ANY DECENT REASON WHY THAT CANNOT BE DONE? THE ANSWER AGAIN IS NO.

I KNOW HOW EASY IT IS TO LAUD DEMOCRACY AND SOCIALISM BY ROUNDED PERIODS WHICH IN THEMSELVES PROVE LITTLE: BUT I INSIST THAT IF WE CAN RUN THIS WORLD WITH ITS INTRICATE MACHINERY OF MATTER, FORCE AND MIND FOR PROFIT THEN WE CAN DO IT BETTER FOR HUMAN WELFARE AND AVOID THE DISASTER OF UNIVERSAL SELFISHNESS AND THE CONTRADICTIONS OF THE PRESENT INDUSTRIAL SYSTEM.

35-44604

AND THE PROOF OF THIS IS THAT EVERY COUNTRY IN THE WORLD WITH AN OUNCE OF VISION, IS TRYING TO MAKE JUST THIS CHANGE. LET NO ONE TELL YOU THAT THE PENDING ELECTION IN BRITAIN IS BETWEEN SOCIALISM AND FREE ENTERPRISE: IT IS NOT: IT TURNS ENTIRELY ON THE QUESTION OF HOW QUICKLY AND BY WHAT STEPS INEVITABLE SOCIALISM CAN BE REALIZED. FRANCE IS A LARGELY SOCIALISTIC STATE: SCANDINAVIA IS MARKEDLY SOCIALISTIC. GERMANY HAS BEEN SOCIALISTIC SINCE BISMARK, ITALY IS SOCIALISTIC DESPITE THE BIG LANDHOLDERS. RUSSIA AND CHINA ARE SOCIALISTIC AND INDIA AND THE REST OF ASIA HAVE THEIR EYES SET TOWARD THIS ULTIMATE GOAL.

ONLY AMERICA, GORGED WITH ITS BILLIONS AND GEARED FOR WAR TO A DEGREE

UNEXAMPLED IN THE HISTORY OF THE WORLD, IS STUBBORNLY TRYING TO RESIST THIS WORLD TIDE, EVEN IN THE FACE OF THE FACTS:

35-44605

I REMEMBER THE COLLAPSE OF 1928: I REMEMBER BRINGING MY MEAGER PAY CHECK UP FROM GEORGIA TO DEPOSIT IT IN THE SAFE PRIVATE COFFERS OF THE BANKS OF NEW YORK. TO FIND TO MY AMAZEMENT THESE SAME BANKS OF NEW YORK ON THEIR KNEES BEGGING TO GOVERNMENT TO SPARE THE POOR BUSINESS MAN A DIME. I SAW THIS COUNTRY RAISED FROM POVERTY, DISTRESS AND BANKRUPTCY BY THE UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT IN A SERIES OF SOCIALIST MEASURES WHICH INCLUDED MADE WORK, STATE EMPLOYMENT, FLOOD CONTROL, WAGE FLOORS, BANK DEPOSIT INSURANCE, CONTROL OF PROFITS AND OF BIG INDUSTRY. IT WAS SOCIALISM PURE AND SIMPLE NO MATTER WHAT WE NOW CALL IT, NOR HOW EAGER WE ARE TO REPUDIATE ITS AUTHORS AND LEADERS.

THIS ARGUMENT OF COURSE IS ALL UNNECESSARY AND BESIDE THE POINT. THERE IS ONLY ONE MATTER WHICH AMERICANS AND PARTICULAR CHICAGOANS ARE WILLING TO ~~DISCUSS, & that is RUSSIA~~.

ARGUE ABOUT AND THAT IS RUSSIA. THIS NATION IS STRAINING EVERY NERVE AND GATHERING EVERY RESOURSE TO SEE THAT RUSSIA DOES NOT MAKE COMMUNISM SUCCEED. THIS IS A STRANGE CRUSADE. I REMEMBER WHEN GEORGE KENNAN FIRST REVEALED THE TYRANNY OF THE CZARS IN THE LATE 19thCENTURY: IT DID NOT CAUSE A RIPPLE IN OUR COMPLACENCY: I CAN REMEMBER WHEN THE MISERY AND SQUALOR OF THE BALKANS WERE REPEATEDLY REVEALED: BUT RICH AMERICANS WERE JUST AS EAGER AS EVER TO BE APPOINTED MINISTERS TO THE SQUALID SPLENDOR OF THESE TAWDRY COURTS. I REMEMBER WHEN RUSSIAN PEASANTS WERE COUPLED WITH AMERICAN NEGROES AS THE LAZIEST AND STUPIDEST AND MOST INEFFICIENT LABOR ON EARTH. AND I AND A HOST OF OTHER AMERICANS WERE UP LIFTED WHEN RUSSIA THREW OFF THE SHAKLES OF THE CZARS AND THE BALKANS KICKED OUT THEIR LAZY PRINCELINGS AND STAGGERED TO THEIR FEET. WHAT DID WE EXPECT? MAGNIFICENT SUCCESS? QUICK AND EASY SUCCESS? THE WIPING OUT IN YEARS OF THE OPPRESSION AND EXPLOITATION OF CENTURIES IN WHICH WE WERE JUST AS EAGER TO DABBLE AS BRITAIN, FRANCE AND GERMANY? SURELY WE DID NOT

NOT AWAIT THIS: BUT WE DID EXPECT THAT WE COULD MAKE A NEAT PROFIT OUT OF RUSSIA'S NEW POVERTY AND THAT WAS WHY A MAN WHO BECAME PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES INVESTED IN ELEVEN RUSSIAN OIL WELLS AND THREE TIMBER CONCESSIONS, WHICH THE LEADERS OF THE SOVIET REVOLUTION PROMPTLY REPUDIATED. "BOLSHEVISM" SAID HERBERT HOOVER "IS WORSE THAN WAR."

IF EVER A REVOLUTION WAS JUSITFIED THE RUSSIAN REVOLT OF 1917, CERTAINLY WAS. AND HOW DID WESTERN EUROPE MEET IT? WITHIN TWO YEARS FOURTEEN NATIONS INCLUDING THE UNITED STATES INVADED RUSSIA WITHOUT DECLARATION OF WAR AND HELPED BY MEN, ARMS AND EQUIPMENT TO SET LOOSE ON THE RUSSIAN PEOPLE SOME OF THE WORST BURCHERING BEASTS OF HISTORY. NO SOONER HAD CIVIL AND FOREIGN WAR CEASED THAN HITLER GAVE TROTSKY TWO MILLION GOLD MARKS TO BETRAY THE REVOLUTION ALL OVER THE WORLD AND AN INTERNATIONAL EUROPEAN ATTACK ON RUSSIA FINANCED BY SUCH MILLIONAIRES AS THE FOUNDER OF THE NOBEL PEACE PRIZE WAS READY TO OVERTHROW RUSSIA WHEN THE BOTTOM FELL OUT OF THE INDUSTRIAL EDIFICE OF THE EUROPEAN WORLD IN 1928 to 1931.

45-4-90

35-4-468

I AM NOT DEFENDING RUSSIA. I AM EXPLAINING HER ATTITUDE TOWARD THE UNITED STATES AND THE WORLD AND INSISTING THAT SHE HAS THE RIGHT TO WORK OUT HER DESTINY IN HER OWN WAY AND THAT THE ONE FACT IN HER CONDITION WHICH MAKES HER TO ME THE MOST HOPEFUL COUNTRY ON EARTH IS THAT TODAY AFTER SUFFERING MORE FROM ONE WAR THAN WE HAVE SUFFERED FROM SEVEN, IS THAT SHE IS SPENDING MORE MONEY ON FREE, UNIVERSAL EDUCATION OF CHILDREN TODAY THAN ANY COUNTRY ON EARTH. SHE HAS 600,000 COLLEGE STUDENTS AND LAST YEAR PUBLISHED 800,000,000 COPIES OF BOOKS. IF INTELLIGENCE DOES NOT SOLVE HER PROBLEMS AND OURS, NOTHING WILL.

OF COURSE RUSSIA LIES. SO DO WE. ONCE I LANDED IN CRONSTADT IN 1926 IT WAS A DEAD QUIET AND PEACEFUL TOWN. I WENT TO MOSCOW AND THERE WITH ASTONISHMENT READ IN THE NEW YORK TIMES THAT ON THE DAY I LANDED "REVOLUTION

HAD BROKEN OUT IN CRONSTADT AND THE STREETS WERE RUNNING WITH BLOOD."

BUT I MENTION RUSSIA NOT TO DEFEND HER OR JUSTIFY HER EVERY ACT, BUT only TO INSIST THAT THE USE OF THE BOGEY ~~OF RUSSIA~~ THAT TO HALT THE SOCIALISM IN THE WELFARE STATE IN THIS LAND--TO HOLD UP A NATIONAL HEALTH PROGRAM, A DECENT SYSTEM OF PUBLIC SCHOOLS, THE CONTROL OF INDUSTRY IN THE INTERESTS OF A WELFARE STATE INSTEAD OF FOR THE AMASSING OF COLLOSSAL FORTUNES TO BUY OUR NEWSPAPERS MAGAZINES AND BOOKS--INSTEAD OF SUCH TACTICS COUPLED WITH THE INSANE NOTION OF WORLD CONQUEST, WE SHOULD RETURN TO NORMALCY AND COMMON-SENSE. NO MATTER WHAT RUSSIA, CHINA, ASIA AND AFRICA DO, WE CANNOT STOP THEM. WE ARE A POWERFUL PEOPLE AND PERHAPS IN THE WORDS OF THAT GREAT BRAIN WHICH NOW PRESIDES OVER COLUMBIA, "WE CAN LICK THE WORLD." BUT WE WOULD BETTER REMEMBER, THAT WHAT WE ARE DOING NOW IS LICKING OURSELVES INTO POVERTY, DISEASE AND IGNORANCE BY

35-4-469

TRYING TO MIND EVERYBODY'S BUSINESS EXCEPT OUR OWN.

OUR PROBLEM IS OUR DEMOCRACY: THE EFFICIENCY OF OUR OWN GOVERNMENT; LAW AND ORDER IN OUR OWN LAND; AND PARTICULARLY THE USE OF OUR UNDOUBTED ABILITY AND KNOWLEDGE IN MAKING THIS A LAND WHERE THE AVERAGE CITIZEN CAN GET DECENT MEDICAL ATTENTION, WHETHER HE LIVES ON THE SOUTH OR NORTH SIDE OF CHICAGO, IN NEW YORK OR MISSISSIPPI, AND EARNS A MILLION A YEAR OR $1000. THERE IS NO QUESTION BUT WHAT WE CAN DO THIS, OF THE METHOD BY WHICH IT CAN BEST BE DONE, I AM NOT INSISTING, ALTHOUGH PERSONALLY I BELIEVE SOCIALISM IS THE ONLY POSSIBLE SOLUTION. BUT THE MEANS ARE LESS, FAR LESS IMPORTANT, THAN THE FACT: AND WHEN WE SIT AND LET THE PATIENT DIE WHILE WE DISCUSS THE BEST MEANS OF SAVING HIM AND DAMN OUR NEIGHBORS FOR THEIR DIAGNOSIS AND TECHNIQUE. WE HAVE MORE STUDENTS EAGER TO HEAL MEN THAN WE HAVE FACILITIES TO TRAIN THEM. WE ARE THE RICHEST NATION ON EARTH IF WE BUILD INSTEAD OF FIGHT. IF WE MISS THIS GREAT OPPORTUNITY WE ARE JUST PLAIN STUPID, IF NOT CRIMINAL.

SOCIAL MEDICINE

W. E. B. DU BOIS

Freedom, the American way of life; private initiative, free enterprise and democracy are the slogans and catch words which are in familiar and constant use today. They appear axiomatic and self interpreting at first sight: we want to be free: we want to go where we please, when we please and do what we please: we do not like to have policemen ordering us about or chairmen stopping us from talking or governments loading us with laws. We want the right to make our plans, plan our own lives and set our own goals. We want avenues of advancement and accomplishment open to us and kept open. We want a voice in our own government: we want to elect the officials whom we favor and we want the way kept open to congress and the presidency. This is the American Way of Life. The difficulty with it is that it is not true and cannot be true and the sooner we face the facts we already know, the sooner we will talk like rational human beings and not like fools.

It is easy to see how historically these phrases arose and became imbedded in our cultural patterns. Americans of the 19th century were born in a vast land of unexampled wealth and variety of resource. There was rich land in abundance for the taking: there was remunerative work for everybody to do who was not sick or lazy: there was every variety of climate and kind of industry; every inducement of invention and technique; and if you did not like Massachusetts you could go to California, or move without let or hinderance from Chicago to New Orleans.

You know the sort of national character we evolved. We became bold, inventive and lawless. We explored, contrived, murdered, stole and lynched. Any man free, white and 21, was a law unto himself. It became axiomatic that American could not and w uld not be held by ordinary restraints of law and order. Great Americans cheated their competitiors, drove them to suicide and ruined their businesses and so became great and good {that they could give the United Nations a site which not nation was able to afford.} For thirty years between the Two World Wars, I drove a car, travelling off and on in nearly every state of the union. I used to tell my friends that I never saw a space marked "No Parking" where some car was not parked.

Of course, as a matter of fact all Americans were not as Free, nor initiative, nor so democratic as some were. It was only by ignoring the slaves, the poverty-stricken and the failures that we could keep up the illusion of this free successful land. And in the 20th century it began to dawn on many Americans, that in this land as in others, there were limits of freedom, individual enterprise and uncontrolled initiative, which we must curb or perish. Of course we knew this before but somehow we hated to give up the illusion; moreover we had an idea that we could educate lustier and more virile children if we told them the falsehood that Americans were free and had a right to be freerer than other human beings. I remember how as a boy I resented being expected to sing lustily about the "Land of the Noble, Free." I knew quite a few American who were not noble and I certainly was not free.

The learned professions in particular clung longest to the ideal of free and independent existence. The laborers, meeting time clocks and hard-faced men who hired and fired, began early to talk less about freedom and more about justice. The white-collar workers and civil servants long since realized that [redacted] the treadmill into which their lot was cast was not properly described as private initiative or free enterprise: and they began to act accordingly. But lawyers, physicians, dentists, and clergymen, long clung to the ideal of independence and freedom as the great attraction in these lines of occupation. I do not doubt but that concealed more or less successfully in back of the heads of most medical students is an alluring vision of a suite of offices on Park avenue or Michigan, where selected patrons are received by trim maids for quiet and interesting consultation: then after an hour or so in advice at the hospital with subservient interns a long sleek car whisks you to your books and conservatory. It is an alluring prospect, but not quite characteristic of most American physicians.

When I was in London in 1945, I stopped with a physician. Dr. Clarke was a charming man, born in the West Indies, educated at Cambridge, England with an excellent and select practice in his office near the Elephant and Castle. He drove from there out to his pleasant new cottage in High Barnett where he had flowers, a little surgery, a well-trained butler and open fires. He enjoyed a leisurely but full life and liked entertaining friends from abroad. This winter rather unexpectedly he appeared in New York, on his way to Barbadoes which he had not visited for 30 years. He was not exactly unhappy, but decidedly disconcerted. The British Labor Government had quite upset the normal complacency of his life. They took over his office and neat little surgery: they filled his office with a surging crowd of patients of all sorts and kinds and paid him a slaary instead of fees. Of course they did give him a six months vacation with pay which he would never have given himself and he did not have to worry about his future. It was not that he was exactly worse off, but it was that he was certainly not free: he was not independent; he was a servant of the state and no longer a private practitioner. He did not exactly oppose the new socialised medicine of Britain, but it certainly could be improved: his real dismay lay in the plain fact that this revolution in the practice of medicine in Great Britain had come to stay. Not even the redoubtable and fearless Churchill would dare abolish it and go back to the days of Medical Freedom.

just so soon individual freedom of action must be curtailed. The Curtailment need not be slavery: it can and will lead to many compulsions. But in the end it can and must mean that individual effort will be curbed and conditioned for the common good. The individual must bow to the interests of society.

In no area of human activity is this necessity more evident than in the field of health. The advance of medical and surgical science during the 19th century has been phenomenal as you know much better than I. I know in my own case that had it not been for a certain technique becoming common about 1918, I should have long b en dead. As a result of that experience, I tried preventive medicine. I went to an institute where they professed to lay stress upon investigation and advice. But I noticed that they still had the older point of view. Each year as I came, they asked soliticiously "What is wrong?" "What are you suffering from?" And when I said that there was not anything wrong, so far as I knew and that I was not suffering, there was a certain lack of interest. After all, why should one come to a physician unless something was wrong. If instead of going to the institute, I went to any of my numberless friends who are physicians, they were all terribly busy: they had time only for acute cases and not for general advice. Moreover, incidentially they could not charge adequately for advice, and they could charge for operations.

That means that there is a tremendous demand in this country for preventing disease, which would not only save money, but save suffering. Again the young physicians, who are being trained in altogether too few numbers, naturally go to places like New York and Chicago, where life is easier and more interesting. As a result of this, you have our few physicians herded into the great centers while the mass of people living in country districts and sparsely populated parts of the nation, find it extremely difficult to get medical attention even in serious cases, much more to get regular advice.

I just had visiting me a friend from the West Indies who is younger then I am. But he lives on a far out-lying island. The result is that he is coming to New York to have attention given to his hearing, long neglected, and to have something done for his decaying teeth, which together with other difficulties, make him in appearance, much older than I. It was impossible where he lives and where he has been doing excellent social work for 25 years to get the professional attention which he ought to have.

In the absence of advice as to health habits and for the prevention of disease, you have the tremendous and still growing sale of patent medicines and nostrums, increased now by advertisments over the Radio, so that the majority of United States citizens are not only not given correct medical advice: but they are having dangerous advice literally forced upon them. There is therefore, clearly in the United States a wide and increasing demand for health service, for advice as to healthful habits, for prevention of disease, for hospitalization. And this demand must be filled.

We cannot depend upon the individual desires of medical students for the filling of this demand. Here is a social need and organization must see that the need is filled. Medical students must not only be trained for health work, but they must assigned to districts where this health work is to be done. That interferes undoubtedly with individual initiative, it interferes with so-called freedom, but we have come to the time in the social organization of the world when need and not wish must prevail in larger and larger areas of life.

This is the result not simply of social organization: it is because we must bow to natural and biological law. It does not make any difference how free American citizens want to be, they have got to obey the law of gravitation. There are physical and chemical laws which must be obeyed and then in addition the enormous technique that has grown up, and the involved cultural patterns make our civilization so complicated, that individual wish or whim must be subordinated to the common good.

One thinks of course of social welfare as being logically in the hands of the state: but here in America we have be n prejudiced against the state, because in the 18th century when the United States began as a nation, we were in the midst of days when curtailment of individual effort was most arbitrary and freedom in industrial life was looked upon as the one panacea for all ill. That freedom cry of the 18th century has got to succumb to the technique of the 19th century, and to the social welfare of the 20th century.

There are voluntary organizations for the care of the sick, for insurance against illness and operations. So far as they go, they are excellent, but they do not go far. They cover only a small part of the field. And whatever they do, should be done more completely by the state, if we have the sort of state which we ought to have. There is no reason for the prejudice in the United States against the state and its servants. A man does not become a scoundrel simply because he works for the United States instead of working for the Blue Cross or the Steel Trust: and the person wokking for Sears Roebuck could work just as efficiently and honestly for the state of Illinois, if he got as good wages, working conditions and security. There is no reason why the average of efficiency and character in the state empl yee should be lower than that among the employees of private organizations, except that those who work for private organizations are selected with greater care, are paid better wages and get more security.

But if the private organizat on can get that kind of service, the state organization can do the same thing. This means that the state has got to be taken much more seriously than we have taken it. It cannot be that democracy is mainly a way of selecting officials and making it possible for private organizations to increase their profit. If we begin to look upon the state as an organization for social welfare, then there is no reason in the world why the abailable ability of the country should not be hired and paid for by the state, made as secure in its tenure and as dignified in its work, as is possible with the private organization.

In other words, what we have to accomplish through democracy is a better state and that state has got to organize the demand for public service, not only in health, but in the procuring of justice, in the teaching in our schools, in plann ng and conducting certain industrial undertakings, in our literature and art. This means that we must revise in many ways our conception of the democratic method. We have looked upon it for a century or more as a matter of personal privilege, when in truth it is a matter of service and knowledge. Democracy is not so much a way of protecting ourselves from aggression as a way of getting the worlds' work done, and done in the best and most scientific way.

The experiences of the mass of men form a reservoir which is at the disposal of the state, if we know how to use it. The democratic method, through discussiona and universal suffrage taps that reservoir: it ascertains through the experience of all what the needs of each are: and then proceeds with the best methods known, to secure for the State, the services of people who are going to put this knowledge into practice.

66-4-96

It is unfortunate that just now ewe in the United States are in a period when men of science, experience and knowledge hesitate to accept service in the government. We have had insult and persecution of unsampled and inexcusable variety visited upon persons in Government employ. We are slow in rewarding work of that kind and consequently at just the time in the history of the world when the work of government everywhere is expanding, when there are areas of service which no agency except government can undertake, we are persuading far fewer trained men to undertake theis work then we must have

When therefore, in the future we repeat these slogans of freedom and democracy, we have got to remember, as I have said before, that first of all, our individual freedom must be curtailed for the common welfare. And secondly that democracy is not simply a matter of election to office: it is a way of getting the worlds' work done by the very best methods.

We are alwayy tempted to seek by-paths: to see if we cannot build up vast private agencies in insurance, in building, in the processing of necessary materials, in the transportation of goods, which will do the work which ought to be done by the State much better and more completely than any government is at present ready to do. But that means simply that governments must be made ready to do this work. That they must be organized for it, that the technique of the state must be so perfected that matters which are of national application and universal importance, and which can be accomplished only by an over-all organization, shall be done by such an organization: and that organization will be the State.

35-4-429

We need scarcely pile up arguments here. Practically all will admit that the necessary demand for medical service is not nearly met by present provisions: that the training and placement of practicioners cannot be left entirely to individual choice: that the social demand for human welfare in a world full not only of harsh natural forces, but with increasingly complicated techniques for processing and distributing goods and in addition, human thought and action set in intricate cultural patterns, that all this calls for over-head coordinating social mechanism to supply skills, distribute facilities and apportion human instruments on a scale which chance and individual choice can never profide.

The crucial question is what organ of social service can best do this? We can think of three sorts of organs:

1. Voluntary Organizations

2. Philanthropy

3. Business Enterprise

4. The city, state or nation, Voluntary organization can do much and in the future might do even more than now: but the total job is too big and calls for too much planning and executive action to be left to volunteers. If it is, it will tend to serve groups of selected persons rather than the mass of men. And above all it will lack the income necessary for a complete job. Philanthropy can be depended on for emergencies and at times of emotional strain, but it is neither sufficiently sustained nor powerful enough to conduct a social service like this. And in addition so long as philanthropy is a function of big business, it will serve industry first and humanity last. Large numbers of Americans turn naturally to business enterprise for any service or organization of magnitude. This is because we are children of the 19th century with its industrial revolution and free enterprise. The United States was born with the "Wealth of Nations," and has never passed out of the Laisse-Faire economic philosophy. We assume business organization and business methods are not only the best but the only way to carry on public service of any and all kinds. On the other hand and complementary to this idea is the wide-spread belief that the state is incapable of anything but the simplest and roughest and least avoidable public service.

35-4-430

Most persons do not seem to realize what a contradiction these beliefs are to democracy. Most Americans are quite complacent over the admitted failure of Democracy in this land and in most lands. Upon this basic disbelief Mussolini and Hitler built their totalitarian states: and because of this belief the citizens of the United States today submit without murmur to the control of this land by industrial enterpise not only in business but in government news gathering, magazine and book writing, art and philanthropy. Let us not forget that unless democracy can cope with the broader services of public welfare it is idle to believe it can be trusted to govern the political state.

On the other hand, unless business enterprise is able to govern better in the future than it has in the past, then we must unfortunately conclude that human beings do not have sense enough to ensure their ultimate survival. For remember that business ruled the world during the 19th century. It was business methods which built the powerful British Empire, upon which the sun is rapidly setting; it was business which built and supported the dominance of the French language and canons of taste over most of the world. The Spanish and Portuguese, Dutch and Belgian dominions were built on successful business and these industrial powers reduced two thirds of humanity to slave labor in order to support in luxury a group of white Super-men who owned and ruled the earth. Industrial enterprise, business methods, world commerce all marched into the 20th century "with colors gaily flying, with trumpet and with drum."

It was in 1900, the considered opinion of the leaders of white mankind that European technique, administered by white captains of industry, in accord with the basic principles of free enterprise and individual initiative and recongizing the unalterable inferiority of the vast majority of mankind, were destined to rule Asia, Africa, the islands of the Sea and in addition the laboring class of white nations for benefit of British Nobility and Gentry, French artists in letters and gowns, and American millionaires.

What has been the result of this rule of business? We stand today in the midst of this century, with every great ideal for which the world ever stood in unexampled ruin. With "Peace on Earth, Good Will to Men." so unpopular and in such disrepute that we are prepared and eager to spend three-fourths of every dollar of our immense treasure to murder human beings, and not simply kill soldiers, but women, childred, cripples and the old. We have fought two wars of such unexampled cruelty and destruction that they destroyed the very civilization they were declared to defend. Have you ever heard of the war for democracy? Well, it killed the democracy it defended.

The First World War was a war of big business against big business: of intrenched colonial imperialism in Britain and France against the imperialist appetite of New Germany. This war overthrew big business the world over, killed the world market, smashed the gold standard and landed the world in universal bankruptcy. Not satisfied with this triumph of free enterprise, big business determined to stop socialism, communism and colonial revolt and succeeded in a Second World War in starting a world upheaval, which may end anywhere, except in the restoration of the worship of private profit as the way of salvation. Either we put down the anarchy of free for all enterprise and make organized social striving the end od progress, or we perish.

Business has no alibi. It exercised practically universal rule from 1815 to 1915. If in that century, it could not establish peace and freedom; health and prosperity; education and faith, it cannot do so tomorrow amid the ruins which its overpowering greed brought on the world to drag it down to hell. We have tried the contradiction of universal selfishness: of gaining Wealth by letting everybody cheat everybody else: by testing all human value through the profit which can be dragged of men by force or fraud. We have tried that method in every variation: now either the public weal, working through its highest expression, the State, will save civilization or it never can be saved. And that state will be a democratic state or it will be no state. Believe me, gentlemen and ladies, you are not entering a world to choose between socialism and some other way; there is no other way: you are not going to choose between democracy and some other way: there is no other way.

You will with justice now turn to me and say: look at the state; look at Washington. Glance at Springfield. And if your eyes are particularly strong peer at City Hall. And I answer, you are in none of these cases looking at democracy. You are not even looking at a good imitation. You are looking at what you and your fathers before you exchanged for democracy: you are doing exactly the same kind of thing which the founding fathers of this

United States did when knowing that every fifth American whom they looked at was a slave, nevertheless declared with perfectly straight faces: We hold these truths to be self-evident: that all men are created equal: that they are endowed by their creator with certain unalienable rights: that among these are life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness."

In the same way, we today are saying; we have in the United States a democratic form of government in which the people rule, expressing their will in open honest elections in which every citizen is free to express his will.

The result of this free democracy is that we dare not trust the planning and conduct of public health to this government because it is neither honest nor intelligent enough to conduct it. Instead we prefer to leave this work to the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company.

The reason we have not got a democratic government in this land capable of successfully dealing with health, education, transportation, communications, mining, manufacturing and heavy industry--the reason we have no such government is because we do not want it: we have for three generations taught ourselves and our children that politics are nasty; that politicians are thieves: that democracy without corruption and manipulation is impossible and that our government, bad as it is, is the best on earth. Having made too true what we have declared is true, we are today fitting the capstone: we are asserting the right to accuse every public servant of being either a proven or a potential spy. We are keeping out or kicking out of government service nearly every honest man of independent thought whom we can scare. And then we are saying: can a system of public health conservation and training, paying and distribution of physicians be entrusted into such government hands.

We of course answer the question when we ask it and the answer is, no! But that does not end the questioning: is there any reason on God's earth why an intelligent nation of decent people cannot have a government capable of conducting socialized medicine, public education and such great industries as can only be run by monopoly and police force-- is there any decent reason why that cannot be done? The answer again is no.

I know how easy it is to laud democracy and socialism by rounded periods in which themselves prove little: but I insist that if we can run this world with its intricate machinery of matter, force and mind for profit, then we cando it better for human welfare and avoid the disaster of universal selfishness and the contradictions of the present industrial system.

And the proof of this is that every country in the world with an ounce of vision, is trying to make just this change. Let no one tell you that the pending election in Britain is between Socialism and Free Enterprise: it is not: it turns entirely on the question of how quickly and by what steps inevitable socialism can be realized. France is a largely socialistic state: Scandinavia is markedly socialistic. Germany has been socialistic since Bismark; Itlay is socialistic despite the big landholder. Russia and China are socialistic and India and the rest of Asia have their eyes set toward this ultimate goal.

Only America, gorged with its billions and geared for war to a degree unexampled in the history of the world, is stubbornly trying to resist this world tide, even in the face of the facts.

I remember the collapse of 1929: I remember bringing my meager pay check up from Georgia to deposit it in the safe private coffers of the banks of New York, to find to my amazement these same banks of New York on their knees begging to government to spare the poor business man a dime. I saw this country raised from poverty, distress and bankruptcy by the United States government in a series of socialist measures which included made work, state employment, flood control, wage floors, bank deposit insurance, control of profits and of big industry. It was socialism pure and simple no matter what we now call it, nor how eager we are to repudiate its authors and leaders.

This argument of course is all u/necessary and beside the point. There is only one matter which Americans and particul ar Chicagoans are willing to ~~discuss, and that is~~ Russia and that is Russia. This nation is straining every nerve and gathering every resourse to see that Russia does not make Commu ism succeed. This is a strange crusade. I remember when George Kennan first revealed the tyranny of the Czars in the late 19th century: it did not cause a ripple in our complacency; I can remember when the misery and squalor of the Balkans were repeatedly revealed: but Rich Americans were just as eager as ever to be appointed ministers to the squalid splendor of these tawdry courts. I remember when Russian peasants were coupled with American Negroes as the laziest and stupidest and most inefficient labor on earth. And I and a host of other Americans were uplifted when Russia threw off the shackles of the Czars and the Balkans kicked out their lazy princelings and staggered to their feet. What did we expect? Magnificent success? quick and easy success? The wiping out in years of the oppression and exploitation of centuries in which we were just as eager to dabble as Britain, France, and Germany? Surely we did not await this; but we did expect that we could make a neat profit out of Russia's new poverty and that was why a man who became president of the United States invested in eleven Russian oil wells and three timber concessions, which the leaders of the Soviet Revolution promptly repudiated. "Bolshevism", said Herbert Hoover "is worse than war."

If ever a revolution was justified the Russian Revolt of 1917, certainly was. And how did Western Europe meet it? Within two years fourteen nations including the United States, invaded Russia without declaration of war and helped by men, arms and equipment to set loose on the Russian people some of the worst butchering beasts of history. No sooner had Civil and Foreign war ceased than Hitler gave Trotsky two million gold marks to betray the Revolution

All over the world and international European attack on Russia financed by such millionaires as the founder of the Nobel Peace Prize was ready to overthrow Russia, when the bottom fell out of the industrial edifice of the European world in 1928 to 1931.

I am not defending Russia. I am explaining her attitude toward the United States and the world, and insisting that she has the right to work out her destiny in her own way, and that the one fact in her condition which makes her to me the most hopeful country on earth, is that today after suffering more from one war than we have suffered from seven, ~~is that~~ she is spending more money on free, universal education of children ~~today~~ than any country on Earth. She has 600,000 college students and last year published 800,000,000 copies of books. If intelligence does not solve her problems and ours, nothing will.

[redacted] So do we. Once I landed in Cronstadt in 1926, it was a dead quiet and peaceful town. I went to Moscow and there with astonishment read in the New York Times that on the day I landed "Revolution has broken out in Cronstadt and the streets were running with blood."

~~I~~ I mention Russia (Not to defent her or justify her every act) but only to insist that the use of that [redacted] Bogey to halt the social ism and the welfare state in this land, -to hold up a national health program a decent system of public schools, the control of industry in the interest of a welfare state instead of for the amassing of collossal fortunes to buy our newspapers magazines and books, -instead of such tactics coupled with the insane notion of world conquest, we should return to normalcy and common-sense No matter what Russia, China , Asia and Africa do, we cannot stop them. We are a powerful people and perhaps in the words of that Great Brain which now presides over Columbia, "We can lick the world." But we would better remember, that what we are doing now is licking ourselves into poverty, disease and ignorance by trying to mind everybody's business except our own.

Our problem is our democracy; the efficiency of our own government: Law and order in our own land and particularly the use of our undoubted ability and knowledge in making this a land where the average citizen can get decent medical attention, whether he lives on the South or North side of Chicago, in New York or Mississippi, and earns a million a year of $1000. There if no question but what we can do this. Of the method by which it can best be done, I am not insisting, although personally I believe socialism is the only possible solution. But the means are less, far less important, than the Fact: and we sit and let the patient die while we discuss the best means of saving him and damn our neighbors for their diagnosis and technique. We have more students eager to heal men than we have facilities to train them: We are the richest nation on earth, if we build instead of fight. If we miss this great opportu ity we are just plain stupid, if not criminal.

SOCIAL MEDICINE

Freedom, the American way of life; private initiative, free enterprise and democracy are the slogans and catch words wich are in familiar and constant use today. They appear axiomatic and self interpreting at first sight: We want to be free; we want to go where we please, when we please and do what we please; we do not like to have policemen ordering us about or chairmen stopping us from talking or governments loading us with laws. We want the right to make our own plans, plan our own lives and set our own goals. We want all avenues of advancement an accomplishment oepen to us and kept open. We want a voice in our own go government; we want to elect the officials whom we favor and we want the way kept open to Congress and the Presidency. This is th e American way of life. The difficulty with it is that it is not true and cannot be true and the sooner we face the facts we already know, the sooner we will talk like rational human beings and not like fools.

It is easy to see how historically these phrases arose and became imbedded in our cultural patterns. Americans of the I9th century were born in a vast land of unexampled wealth and variety of resource. There was rich land in abundance for the taking; there was remuner ative work for everybody to do who was not sick or lazy; there was every variety of climate and kind of industry; every inducement of invention and technique; and if you did not like Massachusetts you could go to California, or move without let or hindrance from Chicago to New Orleans.

You know the sort of national character we evolved. We became bold, inventive and lawless. We explored, invented, contrived, murdered, stole and lynched. Any man free, white and 2I, was a law unto himself. It became axiomatic that Americans could and would not be restrained by ordinary restraints of law and order. Great Americans stole railroads, murdered train crews and ended in the Social Register; equally great Americans cheated their competitors, drove them to suicide and ruined their businesses and became so great and good gthat they could give the United Nations a site which no nation was able to afford. For thirty years between the two world wars I drove a car, travelling off and on in nearly every state of the Union. I used to tell my friends that I never saw a space marked "no parking" where some car was not parked.

Of coures as a matter of fact, all Americans were not as free, not initiative, nor so democratic as some were. It was only by ignoring the slaves, the poverty-stricken and the failures that we could keep up the illusion of this free, succesful land. And in the 20th it began to dawn on many Americans, that in this land as in most other, there were limits to freedom

enterprise and uncontrolled initiative we ~~are~~ must heed or perish. Of course we knew this bef fore but somehow we hated to give up the illusion; moreover we had an idea that we could educ cate lustier and more virile children if we told them the falsehood that Americans were fee free and had a right to be freeer than other human beings. I remember how as a boy I resen ted being expected to sing lustily about the "Land of the Noble, Free." I knew quite a fwe Americans who were not noble and I certianly were not free.

The learned professi ns in particular clung longest to the ideal of free and inde pendent existence. The laborers, meeting time clocks and hard-faced men who hired and fired began early to talk less about freedom and more about justice. The white-collar workers and civil servants long since realized that the treadmill into which theri lot was cast was not properky described as private initiative or free enterprise; and they began to act accordingly. But Lawyers, Physicians, Dentists and Clergymen, long clung to the ideal of independence and freedom as the great attraction in these lines of occupation. I do not doubt but that concealed more or less sucessfully in the back of the heads of most medical students is an alluring vision of a suite of office s on Park Avenue or Michigan, where selected patrons are received by trim maids for quiet and interesting consultation; then after an hour or so in advice at the Hospital with subservient internes, a long sleek car whisks you to your books and conservatory. It is an alluring prospect, but not quite charactristic of most American physicians.

When I was in London in 1945, I stopped with a physician. Dr Clake was a charming man, born in the West Indies, educated at Cambridge, England, with an excellent and select practice in his office near the Elephant and Castle. He drove from there out to his pleas- new cottage at Hight Barnell where he had flowers, a little surgery, a well trained butler and open fires. He enjoyed a leisurely but full life and liked entertaining friends from abroad. This Winter rather unexpectedly he appeared in New York, on his way to Barbadoes which he had nor visited for 30 years. He was not exactly unhappy, but decidedly disconcerted. The British Labor Government had quite upset the normal complacency of his life. They took over his office and neat little surgery; they filled his office with a surging crowd of patients of all sorts and knids and they paid him a salary instead of fees. Of course they din give him a six months vacation with pay which he woudl never have given himself and he did not have to worry about his future. It was not that he was exactly worse off, but it was that he was certainly not free; he was not independent; he was a servant of the State and no longer a private practicianer. He did not exactly oppose the new Socialized medicine of Britain, but it certainly could be improved; but his real dismay lay in the plain fact that this revolution in the practice of medicine in Gfreat Britain had come to stay. Not even the redoubtable and fearless Churchill woud dare abolish it and go back to the days of medical freedom.

Why is this? The reason is quite plain: one man can be free; two men cannot. Just as soon as society grows in numbers and intricacy of organization, just so soon individual freedom of action must be curtailed. The curtailment need not be slavery; it can and will lead to many . But in the end it can and must mean that indivual effort will be curbed and conditioned for the common good. The indivual msut bow to the interests of society.

In no area of human activity is this necessity more evident than in the field of health. The advance of medical and suggical sciene

The advance of medical and surgical science during the 19th century has been phenomenal as you know much better than I. I know in my own case that had it not been for a certain invention becoming common about 1918, I should have long been dead. As a result of that experience, I tried preventive medicine , I went to an Institute where they professed to lay stress upon investigation and advice ~~for current difficulties.~~ When I noticed that ~~that~~ they still had the older point of view, ~~whenever~~ each year I came, they asked soliticiously "What is wrong? What are you suffering from?" And when I said that there was not anything wrong so far as I knew, and that I was not suffering ~~from anything,~~ there was a certain evident lack of interest. After all, why should one come to a ~~medical practicioner~~ physician unless something was wrong. ~~And~~ If instead of going to ~~an~~ the Institute, I went to any of my numberless friends who are physicians, they were all terribly busy ; they only had time for acute cases and not for general advice. Moreover, incidentally they could not charge adequately for ~~general~~ advice, and they could charge for ~~an~~ operations

That means that there is a tremendous demand in this country for preventing ~~d~~disese, which would not only save money, but save suffering. ~~On the~~ Again ~~other hand~~, the young physicians who are being trained in altogether too few numbers, naturally go to places like New York and Chicago, where life is easier and more interesting. As a result of this, you have our few physicians herded into the great centers while the mass of people living in country districts and sparsely populated parts of the country, find it extremely difficult to get medical attention even in serious cases, much more to get regular advice.

I just had visiting me a friend from the West Indies who is younger than I am. But he lives on a far out-lying island. The result is that he is coming to New York to have attention given to his hearing, to have some-thing done for his very neglected teeth, which together with other difficulties make him in appearance much older than I. It was impossible where he lives and where he has been doing excellent social work ~~for him~~ for 25 years to get professional attention which he ought to have. ¶ In the absence of advice as to health habits and for the prevention of disease, you have the tremendous and still growing sale of patent medicines and nostrums, increased now by advertisements over the radio and in the newspapers, so that the majority of U.S. citizens ~~in the United States~~ are not only not given correct medical advice; but they are having dangerous advice literally forced upon them. There is therefore, clearly in the United States a wide and increasing demand for health services, for advice as to healthful habits , for prevention of disease , for hospitalization. And this demand must be filled.

We cannot depend upon the individual desires of medical students for the filling of this demand. Here is a social need and organization must see that that need is filled. Medical students must not only be trained for health work, but they must be assigned to districts where this health work is to be done. That interferes undoubtedly with individual initiative, it interferes with so-called freedom, but we have come to the time in the social organization of the world when ~~that sort of thing has got to be done~~ need and not whim must prevail in larger and larger ~~ways~~ areas of life

This is the result of not simply social organization, it is because ~~of the fact that~~ we must bow to natural and biological law. It does not make any difference how free American citizens want to be , they have got to obey the law of gravitation. There ~~other~~ are physical and chemical laws ~~that~~ which must be obeyed and then in addition ~~to that~~, the enormous technique that has grown up, and the resultant cultural patterns makes our civilization so complicated, that the individual wish or whim must be subordinated to the common good, ~~to the social welfare~~.

One thinks of course of the social welfare as being logically in the hands of the State, but here in America we have been prejudiced against the state, ~~prejudiced~~ because, in the 18th century when the United States began as a nation, we were in the midst of ~~those~~ days when the curtailment of individual effort was ~~greatest~~ most arbitrary and freedom in industrial life was looked upon as the one panacea for all ills. That freedom cry of the 18th century has got to succumb to the technique of the 19th century, and to the social welfare of the 20th century.

There are voluntary organizations for the care of the sick, for the insurance against illness and ~~payment for~~ operations. So far as they go, they are excellent, but they do not go far. They cover only a small part of the field. And whatever they do, should can be done ~~better~~ and more completely by the state, if we have the sort of state we ought to have. There is not reason for the prejudice in the United States against the state and its servants ~~of the state~~. A man does not become a scoundrel simply because he works for the United States instead of working for the Blue Cross. There is no reason why the average of efficiency and character in the State employee should be lower than that among the employees of private organizations, except that those who work for private organizations are selected with greater care, are paid better wages and get more security. But if the private organization can get that kind of service, the State Organization can do the same thing. This means that the state has got to be taken much more seriously than we have taken it. It cannot be that democracy is ~~simply~~ merely a way of ~~paying debts and securing income~~ selecting officials and making it possible for private organizations to increase their profit. If we begin to look upon the state as an organization for social welfare, then there is no reason in the world why the ~~availability~~ available ability of the country should not be hired and paid for the state and made secure in its tenure and dignified in its work, ~~much more so than~~ as is possible with the private organization.

In other words, what we have got to accomplish through democracy is a better state and ~~then~~ that state has got to organize the demand for public service, not only in health, but in the procuring of justice, in the teaching in our schools, in planning & conducting certain industrial undertakings, in our literature and art. This means ~~of course~~ that we must revise in many ways our conception of the democratic method. We have looked upon it for the century or more as a matter of personal privilege, when in truth it is a matter of service and ~~information~~ knowledge. Democracy is ~~not~~ as much a way of protecting ourselves from aggression ~~today~~ as ~~it should be~~ a way of getting the worlds' work done, and done in the best and most scientific way.

The experiences of the mass of men form a reservoir of ~~information~~ experience which is at the disposal of the state, if ~~they~~ we know how to use it. The democratic method taps that reservoir; it ~~knows~~ ascertains through the experience of all what the needs of each are; and then it proceeds with the best methods known to secure for the state the services of people who are going to put this knowledge into practice.

It is unfortunate that just now we ~~are~~ are in the United States, in a period when ~~most men~~, men of science, experience and knowledge hesitate to accept service in the government. We have had persecution of unexampled and inexcusable variety visited upon ~~the people who have worked for this~~ persons in employ government. We are slow in rewarding work of that kind and consequently at just the time in the history of the world when the work of government is expanding everywhere, when there are areas of service which no agency except government can undertake, we are ~~getting~~ procuring far fewer trained men to undertake this work than we must ~~ought to~~ have.

When therefore, in the future we repeat these slogans of freedom and democracy, we have got to remember, as I have said before, that first of all, our individual freedom must be curtailed for the common welfare. And secondly, that democracy is not simply a matter of elections to office, it is a way of getting the worlds' work done by the very best methods. We are always tempted to seek by-paths to see if we cannot build up vast private agencies in insurance, in building, in the processes ~~making~~ of necessary materials, in the transportation of goods, ~~with~~ which will do the work which ought to be done by the state much better and more completely than any government is at present ready to do. But that means simply that governments must be made ready to do this work. That they must be organized for it, that the technique of the state must be so perfected that matters which are of universal national application and importance, and which can ~~only~~ be accomplished only by an over-all organization, shall be done by such an organization, and that organization will be the state.

Through discussion and universal suffrage

11-3-19

I am not by any means minimizing the difficulties of this program. If it is hard to organize a voluntary agency to do needed work, it is even harder to organize the state for the work. But this does not mean that the state is going to succumb to ~~the~~ allergic at voluntary effort in cases where no amount of voluntary effort can cover the need and supply the remedy. This is particularly true in medicine.

41-3-136

Health is a public matter, not a private ~~matter~~ money concern. It is a matter that no private organization can properly attend to. In a hundred different ~~ways~~ fields agencies must be used, must be brought together, must be cordinated. The water supply, communications, transportation, ~~the~~ sewerage, the harnassing of rivers, reports and measurements of ~~an~~ epidemics, hospitalization and the supply of nurses & physicians, all this cannot depend upon provate organizations and be ~~furnished~~ cannot by the profit motive.

~~We are beginning to see that in many ways,~~ We are giving up the idea that hospitals can make money. We are giving up the idea that nurses can be put upon ~~what we call~~ a paying basis. Nor can we depend upon uncertain and spasmodic philanthropy. It is neither fair to the sufferers nor efficient in action. If it is the business of the United States government to spend billions for war, it is even more imperative that the government should spend even more billions for health, and ~~that it~~ these sums should be spent by the government and through the government for the benefit of ~~individual~~ the people. ~~And too, this~~ Organization for the individual independence of ~~action on the part of~~ Nurses, Medical students and practicioners must ~~succumb. They must be~~ more and more become the officials of the state for doing the sort of work that only the state can do completely, . If this is done, there is going to come, as in the case of my English medical friend, various compensations, including greater security of tenure, ~~and fair~~ opportunities for further studies equitable income, vacations and necessary leisure, and above all, less of the horror of suffering and unnecessary death, which is so wide-spread because today we lack the facilities and the organization.

We cannot make men rich by methods which are not honest and then let them pay their way out of hell by methods which are inadequate

We need scarcely pile up arguments here. Practically all will admit that the necessary demand for medical service is not nearly met by pres ent provisions; that the training and placement of practitioners cannot be left entirely to individual choice; that the social demand for human welfare in a world full ~~furnished~~ not only ~~with~~ of harsh natural forces, but with increasingly complicated techniques for processing and distributing goods and in addition human thought and action ~~coordination~~ set in intricate cultural patterns -- that all this calls for an overhead coordinating social mechanism to supply skills, distribute facilities and apportion human instruments on a scale which chance and individual choice ~~could~~ can never provide.

The crucial question is What Organ of social service can best do this? We can think of three sorts of organs I Voluntary organizations 2. Philanthropy 3. Business enterprize 4. The City, State or Nation

Voluntary organization can do much and in the future might do ~~much~~ even more than now; but the load ~~this~~ job is too big, ~~too costly~~ and calls for too much planning and executive action to be left to volunteers. If it is, it will tend to serve ~~a select~~ groups of selected persons rather than the mass of men. Above all it will lack the ~~net~~ income necessary for a complete job. Philanthropy can be depended on for emergencies and at times of ~~under~~ emotional strain; but it is neither sufficiently sustained nor powerful enough to conduct a social service like this. On the other hand and complementary to this idea is the wide-spread belief that the state is incapable of anything but the simplist and roughest + least available public service.

Most persons do not seem to realize what a contradictory ~~blow~~ these beliefs are to democracy. Most Americans are quite complacent over the admitted failure of democracy in this land and in most lands. Upon this basic disbelief Mussolini and Hitler built their totalitarian states and because of this belief the citizens of the United States today submit with out murmur to the control of this land by industrial enterprise not only in business but but in government, art and ~~literature and~~ philanthropy. and in addition so long as philanthropy is a function of Big Business it will serve industry first and humanity last

And on the other hand, unless business enterprise is able to govern better in the future than it has in the past, then we must unfortunately conclude that human beings do not have sense enough to ensure their ultimate survival Remember that Business ruled the world during the 19th century. It was Business methods which built the powerful British Empire, upon which the sun is rapidly setting; it was business which built and supported the dominance of the French language and canons of taste over most of the world; the Dutch, Belgian, Spanish and Portuguese dominions were built on sucessful b Business and these industrial orders reduced two-thirds of the world to slave labor in order to support in luxury a group of white super-men who owned and ruled the earth. Industrial enterprise, business methods, world commerce all marched into the 20th century "with colors gaily flying, with trumpet and with drum".

What has been the result of this rule of business? We stand tonight in the midst of this century, with every great ideal for which the world ever stood in unexampled ruin. With "Peace on Earth, Good Will to Men" so unpopular and in such disrepute that we are prepared to spend ¾ of every dollar of our immense treasure to murder human beings, and not simply soldiers but women children, cripples and the old. We have fought two wars of such unexampled cruelty and destruction that they distroyed the very civilization they were declared to defend. Have you ever heard of the War for Democracy? Well, it killed the democracy it defended.

Business has no alibi. It exercised practically universal rule for from 1815 to 1915. If in that century, it could not establish Peace and Freedom; Health and prosperity; Education and Faith, it cannot do so tomorrow amid the ruins which its overpowering greed brought on the world and to drag it down to hell. We have tried the contradiction of universal selfishness; of gaining wealth by letting everybody cheat every body else; by testing all human value through the profit which can be dragged out of them by force or fraud. We have tried that method in every variation; now either the public weal, working through its highest expression, the State, will save civilization or it never can be saved. And that State will be a democratic state or it will be no state. Believe me, Gentlemen and ladies - you are not entering a world to choose between Socialism and some other way; there is no other way; you are not going to choose between democracy

It was in 1900 the considered opinion of the leaders of white mankind that European technique, administered by white captains of industry, in accord with the basic principles of free enterprise and individual and recognizing the unalterable inferiority of the vast majority of mankind, were destined to rule Asia , Africa, the islalands of the sea and in addition the laboring classes of white nations for benefit of British nobility and gentry, French artists in letters and gowns and American millionaires and some other way: there is no other way.

(2)

The First World War was a war of big Business against Big Business; of intrenched colonial Imperialism in Britain and France against the imperialist appetite of new Gremany. This war overthrew Big Busines the world over, killed the world market, smashed the gold standard and landed the world in universal bankrupcy. Not satisfied with this triumph of free enterprise Big Business determined to stop socialism and colonial revolt and succeeded in a second world war in loosening a world upheaval, which may end anywhere except in the restoration of the worship of private profit as the way of salvation. Either we put down the anarchy of free for all enterprise and make organized social striving the end of progress, or we perish.

You will with justice now turn to me and say: look at the State: look at Washington. Glance at Springfield. And if your eyes are particularly str strong, ~~look~~ peer at city Hall. And I answer you are in none of these cases, looking at democracy. You are not looking even at a good imitation. You are looking at what you and your fathers before you exchanged for democracy; You are doing exactly the same thing which the founding fathers of this United States did when ~~they looked a full third of their fellow citizens straight in the eye and declare to the 750,000 slaves "We declare that all men are equal"~~ kind of

41-3-132

The reason we have not got a democratic government in this land capable of sucessfully dealing with Health, Education, Transportation, Communications, Mining, Manufacturing and Heavy industry -- the reason we have no such goverrmment is because we do not want it; we have for three generations taught ourselves and our children that politics are nasty; that politicians are thieves; that democracy without corruption and manipulation is impossible and that our government bad as it is, is the best on earth. Having made too true what we have declared is true, we are today fitting the capstone: we are assuring the right of every public servant to be either a proven or a potential spy. We are keeping out or kicking out of govermemnt service, every honest man of independent thought we can scare. And then we are saying: can a system of Public Health Conservation and and training paying and distribution of physicians be entrusted into such government hands We of course answer this question when we ask it and the ansawer is no. But that does not end the questioning: Is there any reason on God's earth why an intelligent nation of decent people cannot have a government capable of conducting Socialized Medicine, Public education and the great industries ~~which~~ as can only be run by monopoly and police force- is there any decent ~~reason~~ reason why that cannot be done? The answer again is No.

when knowing that every fifth American whom they looked in the face was a slave they nevertheless declared with perfectly straight faces: "We hold these truths to be self-evident; that all men are created equal; that they are endowed by their creator with certain unalienable rights; that among these are Life, Liberty, and the Pursuit of happines."

In the same way we today are saying, we have in the United States a democratic form of government in which the people rule, expressing their will in open honest elections in which every citizen is free to express his will.

~~That~~ the result of this free democracy is that we dare not trust the planning and conduct of public health to this government because it neither honest nor intelligent enough to conduct it. Instead we prefer to leave this work to ~~the Blue Cross or~~ the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company

I know how easy it is to laud democracy and socialism by rounded periods ~~and eloquence~~ which, unfortunately, proves little; but I insist that if we can run this world with its intricate machinery of ~~stone~~ wealth, force and mind for profit then we can do it better for human welfare and avoid the disaster of universal selfishness and the contradictions of the present industrial system.

And the proof of this is that every country in the world with an ounce of vision, is trying to make just this change. Let noone tell you that the pending election in Britain is between Socialism and Free Enterprise; it is not; it never was. it turns entirely on the question of how quickly, by what steps, inevitable socialism can be realized. France ~~controls railroads and communications and curbs commerce and mining;~~ is a largely socialistic state. Scandinavia is socialistic. Germany has been socialistic, Italy is socialistic, Russia and China are socialistic and India and the rest of Asia ~~are only hindered~~ have their faces set toward this ultimate goal.

Only America, gorged with its billions and geared for war to a degree unexampled in the history of the world, is stubbornly trying to resist this world tide, even in the face of facts:

I remember the collapse of 1929; I remember bringing my meager pay check up from Georgia to deposit in the safe private coffers of the banks of New York, and finding to my amazement these same banks of New York on their knees begging to government to spare the poor busines nan a dime. I saw this country raised from poverty, distress and bankrucy by the United States government in a series of socialist measures which included made work, state employment, flood controll, wage ~~control~~ floors, bank deposit insurance, control of profits and of big industry. It was socialism pure and simple no matter what we now call it, nor how eager we are to repudiate it authors and leaders.

This argument of course is all unnecessary and beside the point. There is only one matter which Americans and particularly Chicagoans are willing to argue about and that is Russia. This nation is straining every nerve and gathering every resourse to see that Russia does not make communism succeed. This is a strange crusade. I remember when George Kennan first revealed the tyrrany of the czars in the late 19th century; it did not cause a ripple in our complacency; I can rember when the misery and squalor of the Balkans were repeatedly revealed; but rich Americans were just as eager as ever to be appointed ministers to the squalid splendor of these tawdry courts. I knew

I remember when Russian peasants were coupled with American Negroes as the laziest and stupidest and most inefficient labor on earth. And I and a host of other Americans were up lifted when Russia threw off the shakles of the czars and the Balkans kicked out their lazy princelings and staggered to their feet. What did we expect? Magnificent sucess? quick and easy success? the wiping out in years of the oppression and exploitation of centuries in which we were just as eager to dabble as Britain, France and Germany? Surely we did not await this; but we did expect that we could make a neat profit out of Russia's new poverty and that was why a man who became president of the United States invested in II Russian oil wells and three timber concessions , which the leaders of the Soviet Revolution promptly repudiated. "Bolshevism" said Herbert Hoover "is worse than war."

If ever a revolution was justified the Russian revolt of 1917, certainly was. And how did western Europe meet it? Within two years 14 nations, including the United States invaded Russia without declarartion of war and helped by men, arms and equipment to set lo loose on the Russian people some of the worst butchering beasts of history. No sooner had civil and foreign war ceased than Hitler gave Trotsky, 2 million gold marks to betray the revolution all over the world and an international European attack on Russia financed by such millionaires as the founder of the Nobel peace prize was ready to overthrow Russia when the bottom fell out of the Industrial edifice of the European world in 1928 to 1931.

I am not defendinding Russia. I am explaining her attitude toward the United States and the world and insisting that she has the right to work out her destiny in her own way and that the one fact in her condition which makes her to me the msot hopeful country on earth is that today after suffering more from one war than we have suffered from seven other, she is spending more money on free, universal education of children today than any country on earth. If intelligence does not solve her problems and ours, nothing will.

(she has 6 000 000 College student & Post graduates & 80,000,000 reading books)

But I mention Russia not to defend her or justify her every act, but to insis that the use of the bogey of Russia to halt the socialism in the welfare state in this land -- to hol up a national health program, a decent system of public schools; the control of indus in the interests of a welfare state instead for the amassing of collossal fortunes to control our newspapers, magazines and books -- instead of such tactics coupled with the insane notion of world conquest, we should return to normalcy and common-sense. No matter what Russia, China , Asia and Africa do, we cannot stop them. We are a powerful people and heritage and, in the world of that great brain which now presides over Columbia, "We can lick lick the world" we would better remember, that what we are doing now is licking ourseles into poverty, disease and ignora nce by trying to mind everybody's business except our own. Our problem is our democracy; the efficiency of our own government; law and order in our own land and particularly the use of our undoubted ability and knowledge in making this a land where the average citizen can get decent medical attention, wheter he lives on the South or North side of Chicago, in New York or Mississippi, and earns a million a year or $1000. There is no question but what we can do this. Of the method by which it can best be done, I am not insisting, although personally I believe socialism is the only possible solution. But the means is less, far less important, than the fact; and when we sit and let the patient die while we discuss the best means of saving him and damn our neighbors for their diagnosis and technique, I confess to impatience if not incipient profanity. We have the ability; we have the technique; we have more students eager to heal men than we have facilities to train them; we are the richest nation on earth if we build instesd of fight~~, and maneufre~~. If we ~~muff~~ miss this great opportunity, we are just plain stupid, & not criminal

THE AMERICAN NEGRO 1901 TO 1950

BY

W.E.B. DU BOIS

WE ARE JUST FINISHING THE FIRST HALF OF THE TWENTIETH CENTURY. I REMEMBER ITS BIRTH IN 1900 or 1901; BUT, OF COURSE, 1901 WAS CORRECT. WE EXPECTED GREAT THINGS... PEACE: THE SEASON OF WAR AMONG NATIONS HAD PASSED: PROGRESS WAS THE ORDER...EVERYTHING GOING FORWARD TO BIGGER AND BETTER THINGS. AND THEN, NO SO OPENLY EXPRESSED, BUT EVEN MORE FIRMLY BELIEVED, THE RULE OF WHITE EUROPE AND AMERICA OVER BLACK, BROWN AND YELLOW PEOPLES.

I WAS 32 YEARS OF AGE IN 1901, MARRIED, AND A FATHER, AND TEACHING AT ATLANTA UNIVERSITY: WITH A PROGRAM COVERNING A HUNDRED YEARS OF STUDY AND INVESTIGATION INTO THE CONDITION OF AMERICAN NEGROES. OUR SUBJECT OF STUDY AT THE TURN WAS EDUCATION: THE COLLEGE-BRED NEGRO IN 1900, THE NEGRO COMMON

SCHOOL IN 1901. MY OWN ATTITUDE TOWARD THE TWENTIETH CENTURY WAS EXPRESSED IN AN ARTICLE WHICH I WROTE IN THE ATLANTIC MONTHLY IN 1901. IT SAID:

"THE PROBLEM OF THE TWENTIETH CENTURY IS THE PROBLEM OF THE COLOR LINE... I HAVE SEEN A LAND RIGHT MERRY WITH THE SUN, WHERE CHILDREN SING, AND ROLLING HILLS LIE LIKE PASSIONED WOMEN WANTON WITH HARVEST. AND THERE IN THE KING'S HIGHWAY SAT, AND SITS, A FIGURE VEILED AND BOWED, BY WHICH THE TRAVELER'S FOOTSTEPS HASTEN AS THEY GO. ON THE TAINTED AIR BROODS FAIR. THREE CENTURIES THOUGHT HAVE BEEN THE RAISING AND UNVEILING OF THAT BOWED HUMAN SOUL: AND NOW BEHOLD, MY FELLOWS, A CENTURY NEW FOR THE DUTY AND THE DEED! THE PROBLEM OF THE TWENTIETH CENTURY IS THE PROBLEM OF THE COLOR-LINE."

THIS IS WHAT WE HOPED, TO THIS WE NEGROES LOOKED FORWARD: PEACE, PROGRESS AND THE BREAKING OF THE COLOR LINE. WHAT HAS BEEN THE RESULT? WE KNOW IT

ALL TOO WELL... WAR, HATE, THE REVOLT OF THE COLORED PEOPLES AND THE FEAR OF MORE WAR.

IN THE MEANTIME, WHERE ARE WE: THOSE 15,000,000 CITIZENS OF THE UNITED STATES WHO ARE DESCENDED FROM THE SLAVES, BROUGHT HERE BETWEEN 1600 AND1900? WE FORMED IN 1901, A SEPARATE GROUP BECAUSE OF LEGAL ENSLAVEMENT AND EMANCIPATION INTO CASTE CONDITIONS, WITH THE ATTENDANT POVERTY, IGNORANCE, DISEASE AND CRIME. WE WERE AN INNER GROUP AND NOT AN INTEGRAL PART OF THE AMERICAN NATION: BUT WE WERE EXERTING OURSELVES TO FIGHT FOR INTEGRATION.

THE BURDEN OF OUR FIGHT WAS IN SEVEN DIFFERENT LINES. WE WANTED EDUCATION: WE WANTED PARTICULARLY THE RIGHT TO VOTE AND CIVIL RIGHTS: WE WANTED WORK WITH ADEQUATE WAGE: HOUSING, WITHOUT SEGREGATION OR SLUMS: A FREE PRESS TO FIGHT OUR BATTLES, AND (ALTHOUGH IN THOSE DAYS WE DARE NOT SAY IT) SOCIAL EQUALITY.

IN 1901 OUR EDUCATION WAS IN PERILOUS CONDITION, DESPITE WHAT WE AND OUR WHITE FRIENDS HAD DONE FOR THIRTY YEARS. THE ATLANTA UNIVERSITY CONFERENCE SAID IN ITS RESOLUTIONS OF 1901: "WE CALL THE ATTENTION OF THE NATION TO THE FACT THAT LESS THAN ONE MILLION OF THE THREE MILLION NEGRO CHILDREN OF SCHOOL AGE ARE AT PRESENT REGULARLY ATTENDING SCHOOL, AND THESE ATTEND A SESSION WHICH LASTS ONLY A FEW MONTHS. WE ARE TODAY DELIBERATELY REARING MILLIONS OF OUR CITIZENS IN IGNORANCE AND AT THE SAME TIME LIMITING THE RIGHTS OF CITIZENSHIP BY EDUCATIONAL QUALIFICATIONS. THIS IS UNJUST."

MORE PARTICULARLY IN CIVIL RIGHTS, WE WERE OPPRESSED. WE NOT ONLY DID NOT GET JUSTICE IN THE COURTS, BUT WE WERE SU JECT TO PECULIAR AND GALLING SORTS OF INJUSTICE IN DAILY LIFE. IN THE LATTER PART OF THE NINETEENTH CENTURY, WHERE WE FIRST GET SOMETHING LIKE STATISTICS, NO LESS THAN 3,000 NEGROES WERE LYNCHED WITH UT TRIAL. AND IN ADDITION TO THAT WE WERE SUBJECT

CONTINUOUSLY TO MOB VIOLENCE AND JUDICIAL LYNCHING.

IN POLITICAL LIFE WE HAD, FOR TWENTY-FIVE YEARS, BEEN DISFRANCHISED BY VIOLENCE, LAW AND PUBLIC OPINION. THE 14th and 15th AMENDMENTS WERE DELIBERATELY VIOLATED AND THE LITERATURE OF THE DAY IN BOOK, PAMPHLET AND DAILY PRESS, WAS WIDELY OF OPINION THAT THE NEGRO WAS NOT READY FOR THE BALLOT, COULD NOT USE IT INTELLIGENTLY, AND THAT NO ACTION WAS CALLED FOR TO STOP HIS POLITICAL POWER FROM BEING EXERCISED BY SOUTHERN WHITES LIKE TILLMAN AND VARDAMAN.

WE DID NOT HAVE THE RIGHT OR OPPORTUNITY TO WORK AT AN INCOME WHICH WOULD SUSTAIN A DECENT AND MODERN STANDARD OF LIFE. BECAUSE OF A PAST OF CHATTEL SLAVERY, WE WERE FOR THE MOST PART COMMON LABORERS AND SERVANTS, AND A VERY CONSIDERABLE PROPORTION WERE STILL UNABLE TO LEAVE THE PLANTATIONS WHERE THEY WORKED ALL THEIR LIVES FOR NEXT TO NOTHING.

THERE WERE A FEW WHO WERE EDUCATED FOR THE PROFESSIONS AND WE HAD MANY

4-9-54

ARTISANS: THAT NUMBER WAS NOT INCREASING AS IT SHOULD HAVE BEEN, NOR WERE NEW ARTISANS BEING ADEQUATELY TRAINED. INDUSTRIAL TRAINING WAS POPULAR, BUT FUNDS TO IMPLEMENT IT WERE TOO LIMITED, AND WE WERE EXCLUDED FROM UNIONS AND THE NEW MASS INDUSTRY.

WE WERE HOUSED IN SLUMS AND SEGREGATED DISTRICTS WHERE CRIME AND DISEASE MULTIPLIED, AND WHEN WE TRIED TO MOVE TO BETTER AND HEALTHIER QUARTERS WE WERE MET BY SEGRETATION ORDINANCE IF NOT BY MOBS. WE NOT ONLY HAD NO SOCIAL EQUALITY, BUT WE DID NOT OPENLY ASK FOR IT. IT SEEMED A SHAMEFUL THING TO BEG PEOPLE TO RECEIVE US AS EQUALS AND AS HUMAN BEINGS: THAT WAS SOMETHING WE ARGUED "THAT CAME AND COULD NOT BE FETCHED." AND THAT MEANT NOT SIMPLY THAT WE COULD NOT MARRY WHITE WOMEN OR LEGITIMIZE MULATTO BASTARDS, BUT WE COULD NOT STOP IN A DECENT HOTEL, NOR EAT IN A PUBLIC RESTAURANT NOR ATTEND

THE THEATRE, NOR ACCEPT AN INVITATION TO A PRIVATE WHITE HOME, NOR TRAVEL IN A DECENT RAILWAY COACH. WHEN THE "PUBLIC" WAS INVITED, THIS DID NOT INCLUDE US AND ADMISSION TO COLLEGES OFTEN INVOLVED SPECIAL CONSIDERATION IF NOT BLUNT REFUSAL.

FINALLY WE HAD POOR PRESS...A FEW STRUGGLING PAPERS WITH LITTLE NEWS AND INADEQUATELY EXPRESSED OPINION, WITH SMALL CIRCULATION OR INFLUENCE AND ALMOST NO ADVERTISING.

THIS WAS OUR PLIGHT IN 1901. IT WAS DISCOURAGING, BUT NOT HOPELESS. THERE IS NO QUESTION BUT THAT WE HAD MADE PROGRESS, AND THERE ALSO WAS NO DOUBT BUT WHAT THAT PROGRESS WAS NOT ENOUGH TO SATISFY US OR TO SETTLE OUR PROBLEMS.

WE COULD LOOK BACK ON A QUARTER CENTURY OF STRUGGLE WHICH HAD ITS RESULTS. WE HAD SCHOOLS; WE HAD TEACHERS, A FEW HAD FORCED THEMSELVES INTO THE LEADING COLLEGES AND WERE TOLERATED IF NOT WELCOMED. WE VOTED IN NORTHERN CITIES, OWNED MANY DECENT HOMES AND WERE FIGHTING FOR FURTHER PROGRESS.

LEADERS LIKE BOOKER WASHINGTON HAD RECEIVED WIDE POPULAR APPROVAL AND A NEGRO LITERATURE HAD BEGUN TO APPEAR.

BUT WHAT WE NEEDED WAS ORGANIZED EFFORT ALONG THE WHOLE FRONT, BASED ON BROAD LINES OF COMPLETE EMANCIPATION. THIS CAME WITH THE NIAGARA MOVEMENT IN 1906 AND THE NAACP IN 1909. IN 1910 CAME THE CRISIS MAGAZINE AND THE REAL BATTLE WAS ON.

WHAT HAVE WE GAINED AND ACCOMPLISHED? THE ADVANCE HAS NOT BEEN EQUAL ON ALL FRONTS, NOR COMPLETE ON ANY. WE HAVE NOT PROGRESSED WITH CLOSED RANKS LIKE A TRAINED ARMY, BUT RATHER WITH SERRIED AND BROKEN RANKS, WITH WIDE GAPS AND EVEN TEMPORARY RETREATS. BUT WE HAVE ADVANCED. OF THAT THERE CAN BE NO ATOM OF DOUBT.

FIRST OF ALL IN EDUCATION: MOST NEGRO CHILDREN TODAY ARE IN SCHOOL AND MOST ADULTS CAN READ AND WRITE. UNFORTUNATELY THIS LITERACY IS NOT AS GREAT AS THE CENSUS SAYS. THE DRAFT SHOWED THAT AT LEAST A THIRD OF OUR YOUTH ARE ILLITERATE. BUT EDUCATION IS STEADILY RISING. SIX THOUSAND BACHELOR DEGREES ARE AWARDED TO NEGROES EACH YEAR AND DOCTORATES IN PHILOSOPHY AND MEDICINE ARE NOT UNCOMMON. NEVERTHELESS AS A GROUP, AMERICAN NEGROES ARE STILL IN THE LOWER RANKS OF LEARNING AND ADAPTABILITY TO MODERN CONDITIONS. THEY DO NOT READ WIDELY, THEIR TRAVEL IS LIMITED AND THEIR EXPERIENCE THROUGH CONTACT WITH THE MODERN WORLD IS CURTAILED BY LAW AND CUSTOM.

SECONDLY, IN CIVIL RIGHTS, THE NEGRO HAS PERHAPS MADE HIS GREATEST ADVANCE. MOB VIOLENCE AND LYNCHING HAVE MARKEDLY DECREASED. THREE THOUSAND NEGROES WERE LYNCHED IN THE LAST HALF OF THE NINETEENTH CENTURY AND FIVE HUNDRED IN THE FIRST HALF OF THE TWENTIETH. TODAY LYNCHING IS COMPARATIVELY RARE. MOB VIOLENCE ALSO HAS DECREASED, BUT IS STILL IN EVIDENCE, AND

SUMMARY AND UNJUST COURT PROCEEDINGS HAVE TAKEN THEPLACE OF OPEN AND ILLEGAL ACTS. BUT THE NEGRO HAS ESTABLISHED, IN THE COURTS, HIS LEGAL CITIZENSHIP AND HIS RIGHT TO BE INCLUDED IN THE BILL OF RIGHTS. THE QUESTION STILL REMAINS OF "EQUAL BUT SEPARATE" PUBLIC ACCOMMODATIONS, AND THAT IS BEING ATTACKED. EVEN THE INSTITUTION OF THE "JOM-CROW" IN TRAVEL IS TOTTERING. THE INFRACTION OF THE MARRIAGE SITUATION BY LAW AND CUSTOM IS YET TO BE BROUGHT BEFORE THE COURTS AND PUBLIC OPINION IN A FORCIBLE WAY.

THIRD, THE RIGHT TO VOTE ON THE PART OF THE NEGRO IS BEING GRADUALLY ESTABLIHED UNDER THE 14th and 15th AMENDMENTS. IT WAS NOT REALLY UNTIL 1915 THAT THE SUPREME COURT UPHELD THIS RIGHT OF NEGRO CITIZENS AND EVEN TODAY THE PENALTIES OF THE 14TH AMENDMENT HAVE NEVER BEEN ENFORCED. THERE ARE 7,000,000 POSSIBLE VOTERS AMONG AMERICAN NEGROES AND OF THESE IT IS A QUESTION IF MORE THAN 2,000,000 ACTUALLY CAST THEIR VOTES. THIS IS PARTLY FROM THE NATIONAL INERTIA, WHICH KEEPS HALF OF ALL AMERICAN VOTERS AWAY FROM THE POLLS: BUT EVEN MORE FROM THE QUESTION AS TO WHAT PRACTICAL ENDS THE NEGRO SHALL CAST HIS VOTE.

9-9-47

HE IS THINKING USUALLY IN TERMS OF WHAT HE CAN DO BY VOTING TO BETTER HIS CONDITION AND HE SELDOM GETS A CHANCE TO VOTE ON THIS MATTER. ON THE WIDER IMPLICATIONS OF POLITICAL DEMOCRACY HE HAS NOT YET ENTERED: PARTICULARLY HE DOES NOT SEE THE ECONOMIC FOUNDATIONS OF PRESENT CIVILIZATION AND THE NECCESSITY OF HIS ATTACKING THE RULE OF CORPORATE WEALTH IN ORDER TO FREE THE LABOR GROUP TO WHICH HE BELONGS.

FOURTH, THERE IS THE QUESTION OF OCCUPATION. THERE ARE OUR SUBMERGED CLASSES OF FARM LABOR AND TENANTS: OUR CITY LABORERS, WASHERWOMEN AND SCRUBWOMEN AND THE MASS OF LOWER-PAID SERVANTS. THESE CLASSES STILL FORM A MAJORITY OF AMERICAN NEGROES AND THEY ARE ON THE EDGE OF POVERTY, WITH THE

IGNORANCE, DISEASE AND CRIME THAT ALWAYS ACCOMPANY SUCH POVERTY.

IF WE MEASURE THE MEDIAN INCOME OF AMERICANS, IT IS $3,000 FOR WHITES AND $2,000 FOR NEGROES. IN SOUTHERN CITIES, 7 PER CENT OF THE WHITE FAMILIES AND 30 PER CENT OF THE COLORED FAMILIES RECEIVE LESS THAN $1,000 A YEAR. ON THE OTHER HAND THE CLASS DIFFERENTIATION BY INCOME AMONG NEGROES IS NOTABLE: THE NUMBER OF SEMI-SKILLED AND SKILLED ARTISANS HAS INCREASED OR WILL AS MEMBERSHIP IN LABOR UNIONS. PROFESSIONAL MEN HAVE INCREASED, ESPECIALLY TEACHERS AND LESS NOTABLY, PHYSICIANS, DENTISTS AND LAWYERS.

THE NUMBER OF NEGROES IN BUSINESS HAS INCREASED: MOSTLY IN SMALL RETAIL BUSINESSES, BUT TO A CONSIDERABLE EXTENT IN ENTERPRISES LIKE INSURANCE, REAL ESTATE AND SMALL BANKING, WHERE THE COLOR LINE GIVES NEGROES CERTAIN ADVANTAGES AND WHERE, TOO, THERE IS A CERTAIN ELEMENT OF GAMBLING. ALSO BEYOND THE LINE OF GAMBLING NUMBERS OF NEGROES HAVE MADE SMALL FORTUNES IN

ANTI-SOCIAL ENTERPRISES. ALL THIS MEANS THAT THERE HAS ARISEN IN THE NEGRO GROUP A DISTINCT STRATIFICATION FROM POOR TO RICH. RECENTLY I POLLED 450 NEGRO FAMILIES BELONGING TO A SELECT ORGANIZATION FORTY-FIVE YEARS OLD. OF THESE FAMILIES 127 RECEIVED OVER $10,000 A YEAR AND A SCORE OF THESE OVER $25,000; 200 FAMILIES RECEIVED FROM $5,000 to $10,000 A YEAR AND EIGHTY-SIX LESS THAN $5,000.

THIS IS THE START OF A TENDENCY WHICH WILL GROW: WE ARE BEGINNING TO FOLLOW THE AMERICAN PATTERN OF ACCUMULATING INDIVIDUAL WEALTH AND OF CONSIDERING THAT THIS WILL EVENTUALLY SETTLE THE RACE PROBLEM. ON THE OTHER HAND, THE WHOLE TREND OF THE THOUGHT OF OUR AGE IS TOWARD SOCIAL WELFARE: THE PREVENTION OF POVERTY BY MORE EQUITABLE DISTRIBUTION OF WEALTH, AND BUSINESS FOR GENERAL WELFARE RATHER THAN PRIVATE PROFIT. THERE ARE A FEW SIGNS THAT THESE IDEALS ARE GUIDING NEGRO DEVELOPMENT TODAY. WE SEEM TO BE ADOPTING INCREASINGLY THE IDEAL OF AMERICAN CULTURE.

HOUSING, HAS, OF COURSE, BEEN A POINT OF BITTER PRESSURE AMONG NEGROES, BECAUSE THE ATTEMPT TO SEGREGATE THE RACE IN ITS LIVING CONDITIONS HAS NOT ONLY KEPT THE MORE FORTUNATE ONES FROM PROGRESS BUT IT HAS CONFINED VAST NUMBERS OF NEGRO PEOPLE TO THE VERY PARTS OF CITIES AND COUNTRY DISTRICTS WHERE THEY HAVE FEWEST OPPORTUNITIES AND LEAST SOCIAL CONTACTS. THEY MUST LIVE LARGELY IN SLUMS, IN CONTACT WITH CRIMINALS AND WITH FEWEST OF THE SOCIAL ADVANTAGES OF GOVERNMENT AND HUMAN CONTACT. THE FIGHT AGAINST SEGREGATION HAS BEEN CARRIED ON IN THE COURTS AND SHOWS MUCH PROGRESS AGAINST CITY ORDINANCES, AGAINST COVENANTS WHICH MAKE SEGREGATION HEREDITARY.

LITERATURE AND ART HAVE MADE PROGRESS AMONG NEGROES, BUT WITH CURIOUS HANDICAPS. AN ART EXPRESSION IS NORMALLY EVOKED BY THE CONSCIOUS AND UNCONSCIOUS DEMAND OF PEOPLE FOR PORTRAYAL OF THEIR OWN EMOTION AND EXPERIENCE. BUT IN THE CASE OF THE AMERICAN NEGROES, THE AUDIENCE, WHICH EMBODIES THE

45-6-8

DEMAND AND WHICH PAYS SOMETIMES ENORMOUS PRICE FOR SATISFACTION, IS NOT THE NEGRO GROUP, BUT THE WHITE GROUP. AND THE PATTERN OF WHAT THE WHITE GROUP WANTS DOES NOT NECESSARILY AGREE WITH THE NATURAL DESIRE OF NEGROES.

THE WHOLE OF NEGRO LITERATURE IS THEREFORE CURIOUSLY DIVIDED. WE HAVE WRITERS WHO HAVE WRITTEN, NOT REALLY ABOUT NEGROES, BUT ABOUT THE THINGS WHICH WHITE PEOPLE, AND NOT THE HIGHEST CLASS OF WHITES, LIKE TO HEAR ABOUT NEGROES. AND THOSE WHO HAVE EXPRESSED WHAT THE NEGRO HIMSELF THINKS AND FEELS, ARE THOSE WHOSE BOOK SELL TO FEW, EVEN OF THEIR OWN PWOPLE: AND WHOM MOST FOLK DO NOT KNOW. THIS HAS NOT MADE FOR THE AUTHENTIC LITERATURE WHICH THE EARLY PART OF THIS CENTURY SEEMED TO PROMISE. TO BE SURE, IT CAN BE SAID THAT AMERICAN LITERATURE TODAY HAS A CONSIDERABLE AMOUNT OF NEGRO EXPRESSION AND INFLUENCE, ALTHOUGH NOT AS MUCH AS ONCE WE HOPED.

DESPITE ALL THIS WE HAVE AN INCREASING NUMBER OF EXCELLENT NEGRO WRITERS WHO MAKE THE PROMIST FOR THE FUTURE GREAT BY THEIR REAL ACCOMPLISHMENT. WE HAVE DONE SOMETHING IN SCULPTURE AND PAINTING, BUT IN DRAMA AND MUSIC WE HAVE MARKEDLY ADVANCED. ALL THE WORLD LISTENS TO OUR SINGERS, SINGS OUR MUSIC AND DANCES TO OUR RHYTHMS.

IN SCIENCE, OUR HANDICAPS ARE STILL GREAT. TURNER A GREAT ENTOMOLOGIST, WAS WORKED TO DEATH FOR LACK OF LABORATORY: JUST NEVER HAD THE RECOGNITION HE RICHLY DESERVED, AND CARVER WAS PRISONER OF HIS INFERIORITY COMPLEX. NOTWITHSTANDING THIS, OUR REAL ACCOMPLISHMENT IN BIOLOGY AND MEDICINE, IN HISTORY AND LAW: AND IN THE SOCIAL SCIENCES HAS BEEN NOTABLE AND WIDELY ACCLAIMED. TO THIS IN NO LITTLE DEGREE IS DUE OUR PHYSICAL SURVIVAL, OUR FALLING DEATH RATE AND OUR INCREASED CONFIDENCE IN OUR SELVES AND IN OUR DESTINY.

THE EXPRESSION OF NEGRO WISH AND DESIRE THROUGH A FREE PRESS HAS GREATLY IMPROVED AS COMPARED WITH 1900. WE HAVE A HALF DOZEN LARGE WEEKLY PAPERS

WITH CIRCULATION OF A HUNDRED THOUSAND OR MORE. THEIR NEWS COVERAGE IS IMMENSE, EVEN IF NOT DISCRIMINATING. BUT HERE AGAIN, THE INFLUENCE OF THE AMERICAN PRESS ON US HAS BEEN DEVASTATING. THE PREDOMINANCE OF ADVERTISING OVER OPINION, THE DESIRE FOR INCOME RATHER THAN LITERARY EXCELLENCE AND THE USE OF DELIBERATE PROPAGANDA, HAD MADE OUR PRESS LESS OF A POWER THAN IT COULD B , AND LEAVES WIDE CHANCE FOR IMPROVEMENT IN THE FUTURE.

IN COMPARISON WITH OTHER INSTITUTIONS, THE NEGRO CHURCH DURING THE TWENTIETH CENTURY HAS LOST GROUND. IT IS NO LONGER THE DOMINATING INFLUENCE THAT IT USED TO BE, THE CENTER OF SOCIAL ACTIVITY AND OF ECONOMIC EXPERIMENT. NEVERTHELESS, IT IS STILL A POWERFUL INSTITUTION IN THE LIVES OF NUMERICAL MAJORITY OF AMERICAN NEGROES IF NOT UPON THE DOMINANT INTELLECTUAL CLASSES. THERE HAS BEEN A CONSIDERABLE INCREASE IN ORGANIZED WORK FOR SOCIAL PROGRESS THROUGH THE CHURCH, BUT THERE HAS ALSO BEEN A LARGE INCREASE OF EXPENDITURE FOR BUILDING, FURNISHINGS, AND SALARIES: AND IT IS NOT EASY TO FIND ANY INCREASE IN MORAL STAMINA OR CONSCIENTIOUS DISCRIMINATION WITHIN CHURCH CIRCLES.

THE SCANDAL OF DELIBERATE BRIBERY IN ELECTION OF BISHOPS AND IN THE HOLDING OF POSITIONS IN THE CHURCHES WITHOUT A HIERACHY HAS BEEN WIDESPREAD. IT IS A CRITICAL PROBLEM NOW AS TO JUST WHAT PART IN THE FUTURE THE CHURCH AMONG NEGROES IS GOING TO HOLD.

FINALLY THERE COMES THE QUESTION OF SOCIAL EQUALITY, WHICH, DESPITE EFFORTS ON THE PART OF THINKERS, WHITE AND BLACK, IS AFTER ALL THE MAIN AND FUNDAMENTAL PROBLEM OF RACE IN THE UNITED STATES. UNLESS A HUMAN BEING IS GOING TO HAVE ALL HUMAN RIGHTS, INCLUDING NOT ONLY WORK, BUT FRIENDSHIP, AND IF MUTUALLY DESIRED, MARRIAGE AND CHILDREN, UNLESS THESE AVENUES ARE OPEN AND FREE, THERE CAN BE NO REAL EQUALITY AND NO CULTURED INTEGRATION.

IT HAS HITHERTO SEEMED UTTERLY IMPOSSIBLE THAT ANY SUCH SOLUTION OF THE NEGRO PROBLEM IN AMERICA COULD TAKE PLACE. THE SITUATION WAS QUITE SIMILAR TO THE PROBLEM OF THE LOWER CLASSES OF LABORERS, SERFS AND SERVANTS IN EUROPEAN NATIONS DURING THE SIXTEENTH, SEVENTEENTH AND EIGHTEENTH CENTURIES. ALL NATIONS HAD TO CONSIST OF TWO SEPARATE PARTS AND THE ONLY RELATIONS BETWEEN THEM WAS EMPLOYMENT AND PHILANTHROPY.

THAT PROBLEM HAS BEEN PARTLY SOLVED BY MODERN DEMOCRACY, BUT MODERN DEMOCRACY CANNOT SUCCEED UNLESS THE PEOPLES OF DIFFERENT RACES AND RELIGIONS R ARE ALSO INTEGRATED INTO THE DEMOCRATIC WHOLE. AGAINST THIS LARGE NUMBERS OF AMERICANS HAVE ALWAYS FOUGHT AND ARE STILL FIGHTING, BUT THE PROGRESS DESPITE THIS HAS BEEN NOTABLE. THERE ARE PLACES IN THE UNITED STATES, ~~EX~~ ESPECIALLY IN LARGE CITIES LIKE NEW YORK AND CHICAGO, WHERE THE SOCIAL DIFFERENCES BETWEEN RACES HAS, TO A LARGE EXTENT, BEEN NULLIFIED AND THERE IS A MEETING ON TERMS OF EQUALITY WHICH WOULD HAVE BEEN THOUGHT IMPOSSIBLE

A HALF CENTURY AGO.

ON THE OTHER HAND, IN THE SOUTH, DESPITE RELIGION, EDUCATION AND REASON, THE COLOR LINE, ALTHOUGH PERHAPS SHAKEN, STILL STANDS, STARK AND UNBENDING AND TO THE MINDS OF MOST GOOD PEOPLE, ETERNAL. HERE LIES THE AREA OF THE LAST BATTLE FOR THE COMPLETE RIGHTS OF AMERICAN NEGROES.

WITHIN THE RACE ITSELF TODAY THERE ARE DISQUIETING SIGNS. THE EFFORT OF NEGROES TO BECOME AMERICANS OF EQUAL STATUS WITH OTHER AMERICANS IS LEADING THEM TO A STATE OF MIND BY WHICH THEY NOT ONLY ACCEPT WHAT IS GOOD IN AMERICA, BUT WHAT IS BAD AND THREATENING SO LONG AS THE NEGRO CAN SHARE EQUALLY. THIS IS PECULIARLY DANGEROUS AT THIS EPOCH IN THE DEVELOPMENT OF WORLD CULTURE.

AFTER TWO WORLD WARS OF UNPRECEDENTED LOSS OF LIFE, CRUELTY AND DESTRUCTION, WE ARE FACED BY THE FACT THAT THE INDUSTRIAL ORGANIZATION OF OUR PRESENT

CIVILIZATION HAS IN IT SOMETHING FUNDAMENTALLY WRONG. IT WENT TO PIECES IN THE FIRST WORLD WAR BECAUSE OF THE DETERM NATION OF CERTAIN GREAT POWERS EXCLUDED FROM WORLD RULE TO SHARE IN THAT RULE, BY ACQUISITION OF THE LABOR AND MATERIALS OF COLONIAL PEOPLES. THE ATTEMPT TO RECOVER FROM THE CATACLYSM RESULTED IN THE COLLAPSE OF OUR INDUSTRIAL SYSTEM, AND A SECOND WORLD WAR.

IN SPITE OF THE PROPAGANDA WHICH HAS GONE ON, WHICH REPRESENTS AMERICA AS THE LEADING DEMOCRATIC STATE, WE NEGROES KNOW PERFECTLY WELL, AND OUGHT TO KNOW EVEN BETTER THAN MOST, THAT AMERICA IS NOT A SUCCESSFUL DEMOCRACY AND THAT UNTIL IT IS, IT IS GOING TO DRAG DOWN THE WORLD. THIS NATION IS RULED BY CORPORATE WEALTH TO A DEGREE WHICH IS FRIGHTENING. ONE THOUSAND PERSONS OWN THE UNITED STATES AND THEIR POWER OUTWEIGHS THE VOICE OF THE MASS OF AMERICAN CITIZENS. THIS MUST BE CURED, NOT BY REVOLUTION , NOT BY WAR AND VIOLENCE, BUT BY REASON AND KNOWLEDGE.

MOST OF THE WORLD IS TODAY TURNING TOWARD THE WELFARE STATE: TURNING AGAINST THE IDEA OF PRODUCTION FOR INDIVIDUAL PROFIT TOWARD THE IDEA OF PRODUCTION FOR USE AND FOR THE WELFARE OF THE MASS OF CITIZENS. NO MATTER HOW DIFFICULT SUCH A COURSE IS, IT IS THE ONLY COURSE THAT IS GOING TO SAVE THE WORLD AND THIS WE AMERICAN NEGROES HAVE GOT TO REALIZE.

WE MAY FIND IT EASY NOW TO GET PUBLICITY, REWARD, AND ATTENTION BY GOING ALONG WITH THE REACTIONARY PROPAGANDA AND WAR HYSTERIA WHICH IS CONVULSING THIS NATION, BUT IN THE LONG RUN AMERICA WILL NOT THANK ITS BLACK CHILDREN IF THEY HELP IT GO THE WRONG WAY, OR RETARD ITS PROGRESS.

FIFTY YEARS---THE AMERICAN NEGRO FROM 1901 to 1950

By

W. E. B. DU BOIS

We are just finishing the first half of the 20th century. I remember its birth in 1901. I was 32 years of age, married and a father, and teaching at Atlanta University, with a program covering a hundred years of study and investigation into the condition of American Negroes. Our subject of study at the turn of the century was Education. The college-bred Negro in 1900, the Negro common school in 1901. There was the usual discussion as to whether the century began in 1900 or 1901; but of course 1901 was the beginning of the 20th century. We expected great things- --peace, the season of war among nations had passed, progress--everything going forward to ~~greater~~ bigger and better things. And then not so openly expressed but even more firmly believed, the rule of white Europe and America over black, brown and yellow peoples.

My own attitude toward the 20th century was expressed in an article which I wrote in the "Atlantic Monthly" in 1901. It said: (Insert) (1)

This is what we hoped, to this we looked forward - peace, progress and the breaking of the Color Line. What was the result? We know it all too well--War, Hate, the Revolt of the colored peoples and the fear of more War. In the meantime, where are we? Those fifteen million citizens of the United States who are descended from the slaves, brought here between 1600 and 1900? We formed a separate group by legal enslavement, ~~and later~~ emancipation ~~by class~~ into conditions with their attendent poverty, ignorance, disease and crime. We were ~~then~~ an inner group ~~in~~ not integral part of the American nation, but we were exerting ourselves ~~despite~~ to fight for integration. The burden of our fight was in seven different lines. ~~First~~ We wanted education; we wanted civil rights; we wanted work with adequate wage; housing, ~~particularly the~~ right to vote and (although in those days we did not say it) dare -social equality.

To get these things we wanted a free and effective press. In 1901 our education was in powerless condition. The Atlanta University Conference said in its resolutions of that year: (Insert) (2)

More particularly in civil rights, we were wanting. We not only did not get justice in the courts but we were subject to peculiar and galling sorts of injustice. In the later half of the 19th century, where we first get something like statistics, no less than three thousand Negroes were lynched without trial. And in addition to that we were subject to continuously to mob violence and judicial lynching. We did not have the right or opportunity to work at an income which would sustain a decent and modern standard of life. For the most part, we were laborers and servants, and a very considerable porprotion were skilled in serfdom peonage and slavery. There were comparatively few who were educated for the professions and while we had a number of artisans; the number was not increasing as it should, nor were new artisans being adequately trained.

We were housed in slums and segregated districts where crime and disease multiplied. And above all, to our own minds, we were disfranchised, except the few who lived in the North, the great mass of the Negro by violence and by judicial decision were deprived of the right to vote. We not only had no social equality but we did not openly ask for it. It seemed a shameful thing to ask people to receive us as equals and as human beings. That was something we argued that came and could not be fetched. Finally we had poor press. A few struggling papers with little news and inadequately expressed opinion, with small circulation or influence and almost no advertising. Here we started in 1901. How far have we gone? There is no question but that we have made progress, and there also is no doubt but what that progress is not enough to satisfy us or to settle our problems.

In polital life we ~~were~~ disfranchised by violence, law and public opinion
The I4th amendment ~~and the I5th~~ (→ 15th) were deliberately violated and the literature of the day in book, pamphlet and daily press, were widely of opinion that the Negro was (still) not ready for the ballot, could not use it intelligently and that no action was ~~needed~~ (called for) to stop his political power from being exercis d by ~~his enemies in the~~ Southern whites like Tillman and Vardaman

And that meant not simply that we could not marry white women, or legitimize mulatto bastards, but we could not (stop in a hotel) eat in a public r staurant or attend the theatre, or accept an invitation to a private white home , or travel in a decent railway coach. When the "Public" was invited, this did not include us and admission to colleges involved special consideration if not blunt refusal

PP

This was our plight in I90I. It was discouraging but not hopeless. We could look back on a quarter century of struggle which had its results We had schools; we had teachers; a few had forced themselves into the leading colleges and were tolerated if not welcomed. We voted in northern cities, owned many decent homes and were fighting for further progress ~~Some~~ leaders like Booker Washington had received wide popular approval ~~among whites~~ and a Negro literature had begun to appear.

41-3-3

But what we needed was organized effort along the whole front, based on broad lines of complete emancipation. This came with the Niagara Movement in I906 and the NAACP in I~~xxx~~ I909. In I9I0 came the Crisis Magazine and the real battle was on.

What have we gained and accomplished? The advance has not been equal on all fronts, or complete on any. We have not progressed with closed ranks like a trained army, but rather with serried and broken ranks, with wide gaps and even temporary retreats. But we have advanced. Of that there can be no atom of doubt

First of all in education; most Negro children today are in school and most adults can read and write. Unfortunately this literacy is not as great as the census says. The draft showed that at least a third of our youth are illiterate ~~and the mass of Negroes still form the least intelligent group of the nation, because of lack of school facilities, lack of cultural contacts and poverty.~~ But education is steadily rising

~~The push forward is a matter of unequal severed ranks, instead of a definite even progress.~~ Six thousand Bachlor degrees are awarded to Negroes each year and Doctorates in philosophy and medicine are not uncommon. Nevertheless as a group, the American Negro is in the lower ranks of learning and adaptability to modern conditions. They do not read widely, their travel is limited and their experience through contact with the modern world is curtailed by law and custom.

Secondly in civil rights, the Negro, perhaps has made his greatest advance. Mob violence and lynching have markedly decreased. Three thousand Negroes were lynched in the last half of the 19th century, five hundred in the first half of the 20th, and today lynching is comparatively rare. Mob violence also has decreased but is still in evidence, and summary and unjust court proceedings have taken the place of open and illegal ~~com~~ acts ~~pulsion~~. But the Negro has established in the courts his legal citizenship and his right to ~~thus~~ be included in the Bill of Rights. The question still remains of "equal but separate" public accommodations, and that is being attacked. Even the institution of the "Jim-crow" car in travel is following

The infraction of the marriage situation by law and custom is yet to be brought before the courts and public opinion in a forcible way. IP Third, the right to vote on the part of the Negro is being gradually established under the 14 and 15th amendments. It was not really until 1915 that the Supreme Court upheld this right of Negro citizens and even today the penalties of the 14th amendment have never been enforced. There are seven million possible voters among American Negroes and of these it is a question if more than 2 million actually cast their votes. This is partly from the national inertia, which keeps half of the American voters away from the polls, but even more from the question as to what practical ends the Negro shall cast his vote. IP He is thinking usually in terms of what he can do to better his condition by voting and he seldom gets a chance to vote on this matter. On the wider implications of political democracy he has not yet entered, particularly he does not see the economic foundations of present civilization and the necessity of his attacking the rule of corporate wealth in order to free the ~~workers~~ labor group to which he belongs.

4. Fourth, there is the question of occupation. First and foremost, there are the submerged classes among Negroes. The farm laborers and tenants, the small farmers, the city laborers, the scrub-women and the servants. They form a majority of the Negro people. They are poorly paid and on the edge of poverty.

41-3-4

In the North, while white families receive ~~medium~~ median incomes up ~~to~~ three thousand ~~families~~ dollars, Negroes get two thousand, two hundred. ~~In the West the average of both is a little higher.~~ But in the South, where the white families get $2700, Negro families get $1500. In Southern cities, seven per cent of the white families have incomes less than $1000 and thirty- per cent of the colored families. But there has been an economic ~~emergence~~ differentiation among Negroes. They have entered the class of skilled and semi-skilled artisans; They have greatly increased their membership in labor unions. The number of their teachers, both South and North, has increased, and also less notibly a the number of physicians, dentists and lawyers. At the same time there ~~has been~~ have ~~forced~~ crowded forward certain classes on the edge of ~~xxxxxx~~ anti-social activities. ~~There are~~ a ~~large~~ considerable number of Negroes ~~who~~ have made money out of various aspects of gambling, ~~and other activities of similiar nature~~ which have brought them large income and influence. All this means that there has developed in the last 50 years a class stratification in the Negro group based on income. For a select Negro fraternity it was said lately (Copy 3)

There is a considerable number of Negroes receiving more than $10,000 a year and spending accordingly. There is a varied middle class receiving between five and ten thousand dollars a year and aspiring to larger ecomomic power.

All this means that the oldest philosophy of group advancement has yielded to the idea of the individual race for wealth and power, and has made the Negro group increasingly a part of the profit-making ideal of American culture.

Housing has, of course, been a point of bitter pressure among Negroes, because the attempt to segregate the race in its living conditions has not only kept the more fortunate ones from progress but it has confined vast numbers of Negro people to the very parts of cities and country districts where they have least opportunities and least contacts. They must live largely in slums, in contact with crime and criminals and with fewest of the social advantages of government aid and human contact. The fight against segregation has been carried on in the courts and shows much progress against city ordinances, against unfair zoning and against covenants which make segregation hereditary.

Literature and art have made progress among Negroes, but with curious handicaps. An art expression is normally evoked by the conscious and unconscious demand of people for portrayal of their own emotion and experience. But in the case of the American Negroes, the audience, which embodies the demand and which pays sometimes enormous price for satisfaction, is not the Negro group but the white group. And the pattern of what the white group wants does not necessarily agree with the natural desire of Negroes. The whole of Negro literature is therefore curiously divided. We have writers who have written not really about Negroes, but about the things which white people like to hear about Negroes and not the highest class of whites. And those who have expressed what the Negro himself thinks and feels are those whose books sell to few people even of their own and whom most folk black and white, do not know. This has not made for the authentic literature which the early part of this century seemed to promised. To be sure, it can be said that American literature today has a considerable amount of Negro expression and influence, although not as much as once we had hoped.

The same thing is true in sculpture and in painting. In science of ~~course,~~ the difficulty is that the Negro rarely gets the opportunity to pursue work. Turner, the great entomologist died trying to escape poverty ~~get even a small~~ earned income. Just was never given the opportunity that his unusual gifts called for. ~~Although~~ the number of scientists is not to be neglected, it is not as large as it ought to be.

The expression of Negro wish and desire through a free press has greatly ~~increased,~~ improved as compared with 1900. We have a half dozen large weekly papers with circulations of a hundred thousand or more. Their news coverage is immense even if not discriminating. But here again, the influence of the American press has been devastating. The predominance of advertising over opinion, the desire for income rather than literary excellence and the use of deliberate propaganda, has made ~~the~~ our press less of a power than it ~~ought~~ could ~~to~~ be, and leaves wide chance for inprovement in the future.

In comparison with other institutions the Negro church during the 20th century has lost ground. It is no longer the dominating influence that it used to be, the center of social activity and of economic experiment. Nevertheless ~~the Negro church~~ it is still a powerful institution ~~within influence~~ on the lives of a numerical majority of American Negroes if not upon the dominant intellectual classes. There has been a considerable increase in organized work for social progress through the church, but there has also been a large increase of expenditure for building, furnishings, and salaries; and it is not easy to find any increase in moral ~~power or conscientious~~ planning discrimination within church circles. The saandal of deliberate bribery in election of Bishops and in the holding of positions in the churches without a hierachy has been wide spread. ~~And there~~ It is a critical problem now as to just what part in the future the church among Negroes is going to hold.

Finally there comes the question of social equality, which despite effort on the part of thinkers, white and black, is after all the main and fundamental problem of race in the United States. Unless a human being is going to have all human rights, including not only work, but friendhsip, contact, love, marriage and children. Unless these avenues are ~~to be~~ open and free, there can be no real equality and no cultural integration. This everybody has felt ~~but for a long time~~ nevertheless. It seemed utterly impossible that any such solution of the Negro problem in America could take place. The situation was quite similiar to the problem of the lower classes ~~of the 18th~~ laborers serfs and servants in European nations during the 16th, 17th and 18th centuries. ~~The~~ all nations had ~~of necessity~~ to consist of two separate parts and the only relation between them was ~~at best a matter of~~ religious tolerance and philanthropy. That problem has been partly solved by modern democracy but modern democracy cannot succeed unless the peoples of different race and religion are also integrated into the democratic ~~mind~~ whole. Against this large numbers of Americans have always fought and are still fighting, but the progress despite this has been notable. There are places in the United States especially in large cities like New York and Chicago, where the social differences between the races has to a large extent been quite nullified and there is a meeting on terms of equality which would have been thought impossible a half century ago.

On the other hand, in the South, despite religion, education and reason, the Color line, although perhaps shaken, still stands stark and ~~strong~~ unbending and to the minds of ~~many~~ most good people--eternal. Here ~~of course~~ lies the area of the last battle for the complete rights of American Negroes.

What the Negro wants, and must have for his advance in the present state of the world, was put forward, perhaps most effectively, by the President's committee on Civil Rights. This committee was not a philanthrophic group of white persons advising and studying Negroes. The Negro members ~~were~~ which was decisive, in the final formulation. At the same time their thought was critisized and examined by white folk of influence. The result therefore, is of great importance as a picture of the present needs of the American Negro. The committee stresses, machinery for the protection of civil rights with increased governmental commissions and police force. It stresses the right to safety and security of the person, by an anti-lynching act and legislation against peonage. It asks for strengthening the right of citizenship and voting by ending the poll tax, entrance into primary elections, widening of the right of naturalization and laws and administrative action against discrimination in the armed forces. It asks for freedom of conscience and federal aid without discrimination, for employment in accordance with a federal Fair Employment Practice Act, and State acts of the same sort, for better educational opportunityes, for housing without discrimination, for health services to all races and free entrance into public services; for the abolition of the "Jim Crow" car laws and a long term of public education to inform the people of the civil rights to which they are entitled and which they owe to one another. This was really an astonishing document toward which very little has yet been done for implementation, but which marks an era in the progress of the Negro race.

41-3-8

On the other hand, within the race itself there are disquieting signs, the effort of Negroes to become Americans with equal status with all other Americans is leading them to a state of mind by which they not only accept what is good in America and its civilization but also whatever is bad and threatening so long as the Negro can share equally. This is peculiarly dangerous at this epoch in the development of world culture, . After two world wars of unprecedented loss of life, cruelty and destruction, we are faced by the fact that the industrial organization of our present civilization has in it something fundamentally wrong. It went to pieces in the First World War because of the determination of certain great powers excluded from world rule to share in that rule by acquisition of the labor and materials of colonial peoples . The attempt to recover from that cataclysm resulted in the collapse of our industrial system. Whether that collapse is permanent or simply the result of misuse is immeterial.

and a second World War

What we must realize as American Negroes is that the economic organization of the world has got to be rebuilt. That in place of what we call freedom--the right to do anything we please, no matter what the cost may be to others, must come a social conscience, that the state is not to be run for profit but for the welfare of its people. And that unless we as American Negroes realize this and work to that end, we are going down in common catastrophe.

Inspite of the propaganda which has gone on, which represents America as the leading democratic state, we Negroes know perfectly well and ought to know even better than must, that America is not a successful democracy and that until it is, it is going to drag down the world. This nation is ruled by corporate wealth to a degree which is frightening. One thousand persons owns the United States and their power outweighs the voice of the mass of American citizens. This must be cured, not by revolution, not by war and violence, but by reason and knowledge. Most of the world is today turning toward the welfare state, turning against the idea of production for individual profit, toward the idea of production for use and for the welfare of the mass of citizens No matter how difficult such a course is, it is the only course that is going to save the world and this we American Negroes have got to realize.

We may find it easy now to get publicity, reward, and attention by going along with the reactionary propaganda and war hysteria which is convulsing this nation, but in the long run America will not thank its black children if they help it go the wrong way, or retard its progress. Realization of our present situation on the part of Negroes is going to lead them in their own circles and in their own group to realize the dangers of the class differences that are arising. There was a time when perhaps with naive idealism, the leaders and prospective leaders among Negroes looked upon themselves as chosen persons who were going to make the progress of the mass of their people their chief object and interst. This day has been superceeded by a situation where today the majority of the young Negroes of education , good income and power think of themselves as detached individuals, who are working for their own advancement and assume that advancement automatically is going to mean the advancement , not only of the Negro people but of America and the world. This is not necessarily true, indeed, on the whole this individualistic and atomic conception of society is the thing that has made the 20th century so terrible an example of destruction and frustration. No, the individual and individual freedom has got to be ~~suppressed~~ seen before the social ideal. And that social ideal must be followed, not simply by individuals but by groups of individuals like ours, and then their fight for the things which they want and need, will not only be easier but less selfish and more in tune with the great ideals of human progress.

FIFTY YEARS

THE AMERICAN NEGRO FROM 1901 TO 1950

BY

W. E. B. DU BOIS

We are just finishing the first half of the 20th century. I remember its birth in 1901. There was the usual discussion as to whether the century began in 1900 or 1901; but of course 1901 was the beginning of the 20th century. We expected great things---peace, the season of war among nations had passed; progress was the order---everything going forward to bigger and better things. And then not so openly expressed but even more firmly believed, the rule of White Europe and America over black brown and yellow peoples. I was 32 years of age, in 1901, married and a father, and teaching at Atlanta University; with a program covering a hundred years of study and investigation into the condition of American Negroes.

Our subject of study at the turn of the century was Education: the college-bred Negro in 1900, the Negro common school in 1901. My own attitude toward the 20th century was expressed in an article which I wrote in the "Atlantic Monthly" in 1901. It said: "The Problem of the Twentieth Century is the problem of the Color-line.... I have seen a land right merry with the sun, where children sing, and rolling hills lie like passioned women wanton with harvest. And there in the King's Highway sat, and sits, a figure veiled and bowed by which the Traveller's footsteps hasten as they go. On the tainted air broods Fear. Three centuries' thought have been the raising and unveiling of that bowed human Soul; and now behold, my fellows, a century new for the duty and the deed! The problem of the Twentieth Century is the Problem of the Color-line."

This is what we hoped, to this we Negroes looked forward; Peace, Progress and the breaking of the Color Line. What has been the result? We know it all too well---War, Hate, the Revolt of the colored peoples and the fear of more War.

In the meantime, where are we; those fifteen million citizens of the United States who are descended from the slaves, brought here between 1600 and 1900? We formed in 1901, a separate group because of legal enslavement, and emancipation into caste conditions with their attendent--poverty, ignorance, disease and crime. We were an inner group and not an integral part of the American nation; but we were exerting ourselves to fight for intergration.

The burden of our fight was in seven different lines. We wanted education; we wanted particularly the right to vote and civil rights; we wanted work with adequate wage; housing, without segregation or slums; a free press to fight our battles, and (although in those days we dare not say it) social equality.

In 1901 our education was in parlous condition despite what we and our white friends had done for 30 years. The Atlanta University Conference said in its resolutions of 1901: "We call the attention of the Nation to the fact that less than one million of the three million Negro children of school age are at present regularly attending school, and these attend a session which lasts only a few months. We are today deliberately rearing millions of our citizens in ignorance and at the same time limiting the rights of citizenship by educational qualifications. This is unjust."

More particularly in civil rights, we were oppressed. We not only did not get justice in the courts but we were subject to peculiar and galling sorts of injustice in daily life. In the later half of the 19th century, where we first get something like statistics, no less than three thousand Negroes were lynched without trial. And in addition to that we were subject continuously to mob violence and judicial lynching.

In political life we had for 25 years been disfranchised by violence, law and public opinion. The 14th and 15th amendments were deliberately violated and the literature of the day in book, pamphlet and daily press, were widely of opinion that the Negro was still not ready for the ballot, could not use it intelligently and that no action was called for to stop his political power from being exercised by Southern whites like Tillman and Vardaman. We did not have the right or opportunity to work at an income which would sustain a decent and modern standard of life, because of a past of chattel slavery. We were for the most part, common laborers and servants, and a very considerable proportion were still unable to leave the plantations where they worked for next to nothing. There were a few who were educated for the professions and we had many good artisans; that number was not increasing as it should have been nor were new artisans being adequately trained. Industrial training was popular but funds to implement it were too limited. We were excluded from the new mass industry.

We were housed in slums and segregated districts where crime and disease multiplied, and when we tried to move to better and healthier quarters we were met by segregation ordinances if not by mobs. We not only had no social equality but we did not openly ask for it. It seemed a shameful thing to ask people to receive us as equals and as human beings. That was something we argued "that came and could not be fetched." And that meant not simply that we could not marry white women or legitimize mulatto bastards, but we could not stop in a hotel, nor eat in a public restaurant or attend the theatre, or accept an invitation to a private white home, or travel in a decent railway coach. When the "Public" was invited, this did not include us and admission to colleges involved special consideration if not blunt refusal.

Finally we had poor press. A few struggling papers with little news and inadequately expressed opinion, with small circulation or influence and almost no advertising. ~~Here we started in 1901; How far have we gone?~~ There is no question but that we had made progress, and there also is no doubt but what that progress is not enough to satisfy us or to settle our problems.

This was our plight in 1901. It was discouraging but not hopeless. We could look back on a quarter century of struggle which had its results. We had schools; we had teachers; a few had forced themselves into the leading colleges and were tolerated if not welcomed. We voted in Northern cities, owned many decent homes and were fighting for further progress. Leaders like Booker Washington had received wide ~~popular~~ approval and a Negro literature had begun to appear.

But what we needed was organized effort along the whole front, based on broad lines of complete emancipation. This came with the Niagara Movement in 1906 and the NAACP in 1909. In 1910, came the Crisis Magazine and the real battle was on.

What have we gained and accomplished? The advance has not been equal on all fronts, nor complete on any. We have not progressed with closed ranks like a trained army, but rather with serried and broken ranks, with wide gaps and even temporary retreats. But we have advanced. Of that there can be no atom of doubt.

First of all in education; most Negro children today are in school and most adults can read and write. Unfortunately this literacy is not as great as the census says. The draft showed that at least a third of our youth are illiterate. But education is steadily rising. Six thousand Bachlor degrees are awarded to Negroes each year and Doctorates in philosophy and medicine are not uncommon. Nevertheless as a group, the American Negro ~~is~~ are still in the lower ranks of learning and adaptability to modern conditions. They do not read widely, their travel is limited and their experience through contact with the modern world is curtailed by law and custom.

Secondly in civil rights, the Negro has perhaps made his greatest advance. Mob violence and lynching have markedly decreased. Three thousand Negroes were lynched in the last half of the 19th century and five hundred in the first half of the 20th. Today lynching is comparatively rare. Mob violence also has decreased but is still in evidence, and summary and unjust court proceedings have taken the place of open and illegal acts. But the Negro has established in the courts his legal citizenship and his right to be included in the Bill of Rights. The question still remains of "equal but separate" public accommodations, and that is being attacked. Even the institution of the "jim crow" car in travel is tottering. The infraction of the marriage situation by law and custom, is yet to be brought before the courts and public opinion in a forcible way.

Third, the right to vote on the part of the Negro is being gradually established under the 14th and 15th amendments. It was not really until 1915 that the Supreme Court upheld this right of Negro citizens and even today the penalties of the 14th amendment have never been enforced. There are seven million possible voters among American Negroes and of these it is a question if more than two million actually cast their votes. This is partly from the national inertia, which keeps half of all American voters away from the polls; but even more from the question as to what practical ends the Negro shall cast his vote.

He is thinking usually in terms of what he can do by voting to better his condition and he seldom gets a chance to vote on this matter. On the wider implications of political democracy he has not yet entered; particularly he does not see the economic foundations of present civilization and the necessity of his attacking the rule of corporate wealth in order to free the labor group to which he belongs.

Fourth, there is the question of Occupation. There are our submerged classes of farm laborers and tenatnts; our city laborers, washerwomen and scrubwomen and the mass of lower paid servants. These classes still form a majority of American Negroes and they are on the edge of poverty, with the ignorance, disease and crime tht always accompanies such poverty.

If we measure the medium income of Americans, it is $300 for whites and $2,000 for Negroes. In Southern cities, seven per cent of the wihte families recieve less than $1000 a year. On the other hand the class differentiation by income among Negroes is notable: the number of semi-skilled and skilled artisans has increased and membership in laborunions. Professional men have increased, espedially teachers and less notably, physicians, dentists and lawyers.

The number of Negroes in business has increased: mostly in small retail businesses, but to a considerable extent in enterprixes like insurance, real estate and small banking, where the color-line gives Negroes certain advantages and where too there is a certain element of gambling. Also beyond the line of gambling numbers of Negroes have made small fortunes in anti-social enterprises. All this means that there has arisen in the Negro group a distinct stratification from poor to rich Recently I polled 450 Negro families belonging to a select organization 45 years old. Of these families 127 received over $10,000 a year and a score of these over $25,000; 200 families recieved from $5000 to $10,000 a year and 86 less than $5000.

This is the start of a tendency which will grow; we are beginning to follow the American pattern of accumulating individual wealth and of considering that this will eventually settle the race problem. On the other hand, the whole trend of the thonght of our age is toward social welfare; the prevention of poverty by more equitable distribution of wealth, and business for general welfare rather than private profit. There are few signs that these ideals are guiding Negro development today. We may be adopting increasingly and has made the Negro group increasingly a part of the profit making ideal of American culture.

Housing, has, of course, been a point of bitter pressure among Negroes, because the attempt to segreagate the race in its living conditions has not only kept the more fortunate ones from progress but it has confined vast numbers of Negro peoples to the very parts of cities and country districts where they have least opportunities and least social contacts. They must live largely in slums, in contact with crime and criminals and with fewest of the social advantages of government aid and human contact. The fight against segregation has been carried on in the courts and shows much progress against city ordinances, against unfair zoning and against covenants which make segregation hereditary.

Literature and Art have made progress among Negroes, but with curious handicaps. An art expression is normally evoked by the conscious and unconscious demand of people for protrayal of their own emotion and experience. But in the case of the American Negroes, the audience, which embodies the demand and which pays sometimes enormous price for satisfaction, is not the Negro group but the white group. And the pattern of what the white group wants does not necessarily agree with the natural desire of Negroes. The whole of Negro literature is therefore curiously divided. We have writers who have written not really about Negroes, but about the things which white people, and not the highest class of whites like to hear about Negroes. And those who have expressed what the Negro himself thinks and feels are those whose books sell to few, even of their own people and whom most folk do not know. This has not made for the authentic literature which the early part of this century seemed to promise. To be sure, it can be said that American literature today has a considerable amount of Negro expression and influence, although not as much as once we hoped.

Despite all this we have an increasing number of excellent Negro writers who make the promise for the future bright. In sculpture and painting we still lag, but in drama and music we have advanced. The whole world listens to our singers, sings our music and dances to our ~~rythyms~~ ~~rhythms~~ rhythms

In science we are still handicapped by lack of opportunity. Scholarships, laboratories and instructorships are the monopoly of white colleges and seldom opened to Negroes. Turner our great entomologist was repeatedly refused university opportunity and worked himself to death in a high school; Just was never given the recognition which he deserved. Carver was prisoner of his inferiority complex. Nevertheless in biology and medicine; in history law and the social sciences, ~~the~~ American Negro of late has made notable and heartening advance. To this is due in no little degree, there ~~the~~ physical survival ~~of~~ ~~Negroes~~, the fall of their death rate and the increased confidence they exhibit in themselves, ~~and their future~~

The same thing is true in sculpture and in painting.

In science the difficulty is that the Negro rarely gets opportunity to persue work which is the perquisite of white colleges. Turner, the greatentomologist died trying to escape poverty. Ernest Just, was never given the opportunity that his unusual gifts called for. Carver was a prisoner of caste. The number of Negro scientists is not to be neglected but it is not as large as it ought to be.

The expression of Negro wish and desire through a Free Press has greatly impro ved as compared with 1900. We have a half dozen large weekly papers with circulations of a hundred thousand or more. Their news coverage is immense even if not discriminating. But here again, the influence of the American press on us has been devastating. The predominance of advertising over opinion, the desire for income rather than than literary excellence and the use of deliberate propaganda, had made our press less of a power than it could be, and leaves wide chance for improvement in the future.

In comparison with other institutions the Negro church during the 20th century has lost gruund. It isno longer he dominating influence that it used to be, the center of social activity and of economic experiment. Nevertheless, it is still a powerful institution in the lives of numerical majority of American Negroes ifnot upon the dominant intellectual classes. There has been a considerable increase in organized work for social progress through the church, but there has also been a large increase of expenditure for building, furnishings, and salaries; and it is not easy to find any increase in moral stamina and discriminations within church circles. The scandal of deliberate bribery in election of Bishops and in the holding of positions in the churches without a hierachy has been wide spread. It is a critical problem now as to just what part in the future the church among Negroes is going to hold.

Finally there comes the question of social equality, which, despite effort on the part of thinkers, white and black, is after all the main and fundamental problem of race in the United States. Unless a human being is going to have all human rights, including not only work, but friendship, ~~contact, love,~~ and of mutually desired marriage and children, unless these avenues are open and free, there canbe no real equality andno cultural integration. ~~This everybody has felt inconceible.~~ It seemed utterly impossible that any such solution of the Negro problem in America could take place. The situationwas quite similiar to the problem of the lower classes of laborers, serfs and servants in European nations during the 16th, 17th and 18th centuries. All nations had to consist of two separate parts and the only relation between them was ~~religious tolerance~~ and philanthropy. That problem has been prtly solved by modern democracy but modern democracy cannot succeed unless the peoples of different ~~race~~ and religion are also integrated into the democratic whole. Against this large numbers of Americans have always fought and are still fighting but the progress despite this has been notable. There places in the United States especially in large cities like New York and Chicago, where the social differences between the races has to a large extent been nullified and thereis a meeting on terms of equality which would have been thought impossible a half century ago.

On the other hand, in the South, despite religion, education and reason, the Color line, although perhaps shaken, still stands-stark and unbending and to the minds of most good people --eternal. Here lies the area of the last battle for the complete rights of American Negroes.

Within the race itself today there are disquieting signs. The effort of Negroes to become Americans with equal status with other Americans is leading them to a state of mind by which they not only accept what is good in America, but what is bad and threatening so long as the Negro can share equally. This is peculiarly dangerous at this epoch in the development of world culture. After two world wars of unprecedented loss of life, cruelty and destruction, we are faced by the fact that the industrial organization of our present civilization has in it something fundamentally wrong. It went to pieces in the First World War because of the determination of certain great powers excluded from world rule to share in that rule by acquisition of the labor and materials of colonial peoples. The attempt to recover from the catastrophe resulted in the collapse of our industrial system, and a second world war.

Inspite of the propaganda which has gone on, which represents America as the leading democratic state, we Negroes know perfectly well, and ought to know even better than most, that America is not a successful democracy and that until it is, it is going to drag down the world. This nation is ruled by corporate wealth to a degree which is frightening. One thousand persons own the United States and their power outweighs the voice of the mass of American citizens. This must be cured, not by revolution, not by war and violence, but by reason and knowledge. Most of the world is today turning toward the welfare state; turning against the idea of production for individual profit toward the idea of production for use and for the welfare of the mass of citizens. No matter how difficult such a course is, it is the only course that is going to save the world and this we American Negroes have got to realize.

We may find it easy now to get publicity, reward, and attention by going along with the reactionary propaganda and war hysteria which is convulsing this nation, but in the long run America will not thank its black children if they help it go the wrong way, or retard its progress.

THE PROGRESSIVE PARTY CONVENTION

BY

W. E. B. DU BOIS

FOR A SECOND ELECTION, THE PROGRESSIVE PARTY FACES THIS NATION WITH A PROGRAME AND WARNING. WE COME WITHOUT APOLOGY, BUT AS THE NATURAL INSTRUMENT THROUGH WHICH AMERICA MAY ACHIEVE THAT DEMOCRACY WHICH HAS FOR ONE HUNDRED AND FIFTY YEARS BEEN OUR HIGH IDEAL AND CONTINUED FAILURE. FOR HERE STANDS THE THESIS AND ANTITHESIS, STARING US GRIMLY IN THE FACE:

DEMOCRACY IS THE ONLY AND ULTIMATE WAY OF GOVERNING THE STATE AND CONTRADICTING THIS UNDISPUTED TRUTH, COMES THE FATAL FACT DEMOCRACY HAS NOT ACHIEVED SUCCESS IN ANY MODERN STATE.

35-4-297

MUST ALWAYS BE LED BY THE STRONG MAN, THE PROPHET, THE LEADER, WHO BY FORCE MAKES THE PEOPLE DO WHAT THEY, IN THEIR STUPIDITY AND SELFISHNESS, COULD NEVER ACCOMPLISH UNLED.

THUS SPOKE MUSSOLINI, HITLER AND FRANCE. THIS OF COURSE IS NOT A SOLUTION OF DEMOCRACY BUT ITS CYNICAL DENIAL: COUPLED WITH THE GRIM FACT THAT NO MAN IS SO GREAT AS TO ESCAPE DEATH.

THEN WE FACE THE THEORY OF THE MAJORITY: THE DOCTRINE OF DIVINE RIGHT, APPLIED TO THE TEN WHO BEAT THE NINE IN SOME CONTEST. THIS IS WE KNOW BUT A ROUGH RULE OF THUMB: SINCE RIGHT IS RIGHT EVEN IF WRONG WINS THE ELECTION: AND NO RETURNS CAN CHANGE THE FACT AND THE CONSEQUENCE. TO ELIMINATE THE ACCIDENT OF SINGLE ELECTIONS, WE RELY ON PARTY GOVERNMENT: ORGANIZED AND PERMANENT BODIES, WHICH STAND FOR PROGRAMS AND POLICIES, AND SOLICIT VOTES, WITH THE CLEAR UNDERSTANDING THAT RESPONSIBILITY FOR THE SUCCESS OF THE PROGRAM RESTS ON THE ORGANIZATION ADVOCATING IT, SO THAT THE RIGHT IS SOUGHT NOT IN ONE ELECTION BUT IN A CONTINUING POLICY.

35-4-298

THIS HAS BEEN OUR BEST APPROACH TO DEMOCRATIC GOVERNMENT AND HAS UNDOUBTEDLY CARRIED US FURTHEST TOWARD OUR IDEAL. BUT DURING ALL THE LONG DECADES OF ITS TRIAL, IT HAS DEVELOPED REPEATEDLY THE SAME DIFFICULTY: NAMELY THE DEVELOPMENT OF ONE POLICY, COUPED WITH ABSENCE OF ANY COUNTER POLICY, AND ACCOMPANIED WITH ELABORATE PRETENSE THAT THERE WERE ACTUALLY TWO PARTIES AND TWO POLICIES: WHEN IN FACT THERE WAS BUT ONE, AND THAT ONE UNCRITIZED AND UNCHALLENGED. THUS IN ENGLAND FOR YEARS TORY AND LIBERAL REPRESENTED BUT ONE IMPERIAL BRITISH POLICY: IN FRANCE SO-CALLED RADICALS WERE CONSERVATIVES AND CHRISTIAN SOCIALISTS WERE NOT SOCIALISTS: IN THE UNITED STATES FROM1830 to 1860, DEMOCRATS AND WHIGS WERE IN REALITY BUT ONE PARTY WITH DIFFERENT LEADERS, AND THAT PARTY STOOD FOR SLAVERY AND TRADE.

TODAY THE REPUBLICAN AND DEMOCRATIC PARTIES AGREE NOT ONLY IN FOREIGN POLICY BUT IN EVERYTHING ESSENTIAL TOUCHING DOMESTIC CONDITIONS: FROM FIGHTING THE TRADE UNIONS, TO RAISING RENTS AND AVOIDING SOCIAL RESPONSIBILITIES.

35-4-299

DEMOCRACY HAS LONG HAD A REMEDY FOR THIS ONE PARTY RULE AND THAT IS THE THIRD PARTY. IN THE NATURE OF THE CASE, THE THIRD PARTY IS BUT RARELY USED: SO RARELY, THAT THE IDEA IS EASILY PROMULGATED THAT IT IS IN ITS NATURE REVOLUTIONARY AND UNDEMOCRATIC. IN TRUTH, ONLY THROUGH A THIRD PARTY MOVEMENT, OR THE THREAT OF SUCH A MOVEMENT, CAN THE VERY GROUND PRINCIPLES OF DEMOCRATIC GOVERNMENT BE PRESERVED OR RESCUED FROM OLIGARCHY OR PLUTOCRACY: RULE OF BIRTH OR RULE OF WEALTH, MONOPOLY OR PRIVILEGE. UNLESS THE PEOPLE RETAIN AND ASSERT THE RIGHT TO TURN FROM TWO OLD PARTIES WHICH ARE IN ESSENTIAL AGREEMENT OR IN FALSE DISAGREEMENT: AND ESTABLISH WHEN THEY WILL A THIRD PARTY WHICH GIVES A CITIZEN THE CHANCE TO VOTE FOR WHAT HE BELIEVES AND NEEDS, UNLESS THAT RIGHT REMAINS, NOT ONLY DOES THE RIGHT HAVE NO CHANCE

35-4-309

TO WIN, BUT DEMOCRACY ITSELF FAILS.

THAT IS THE REASON WHY A THIRD PARTY MOVEMENT ALWAYS MEETS BITTER OPPOSITION FROM REACTION AND VESTED INTERESTS: AND THIS OPPOSITION IS NOT AGAINST ITS PLATFORM OR POLICY, BUT AGAINST ITS VERY RIGHT TO EXIST OR APPEAL TO THE ELECTORATE. ITS MOTIVES ARE MALIGNED, ITS OBJECTS DISTORTED AND ITS EFFORTS TO MAKE PUBLIC ITS PLATFORM OBSTRUCTED. THE PEOPLE ARE LED TO BELIEVE THAT IN THE VERY EFFORT TO ESTABLISH A THIRD PARTY, LIES TREACHERY AND ENMITY TO DEMOCRACY. IF, MOREOVER, THE ALLIED AND ASSOCIATED PARTIES IN POWER, CONTROL PRESS AND RAIDO: AND HAVE IN THEIR POCKETS UNLIMITED FUNDS FROM THE SWOLLEN PROFITS OF INTERESTS WHICH THEY FAVOR AND TO WHOM THEY GIVE LICENSE, THEN WITH HELP OF THE TERRIBLE POST WAR WEAPON OF PROPAGANDA THIS POLITICAL COMBINATION CAN LITERALLY DENY THE POLLS TO A THIRD PARTY, SMEAR IT WITH OBLOQUY AND DRIVE IT FROM THE PUBLIC PLATFORM. AND SO AGAIN DEMOCRACY ANCAN AND DOES FAIL.

REMEMBER THAT WITHOUT THIRD PARTY MOVEMENTS, WE MIGHT STILL BE BRITISH COLONIES: WE MIGHT STILL REAP FORTUNES OUT OF THE SLAVE TRADE: WE MIGHT STILL BE EVEN MORE A LAND OF SLAVERY THAN WE ARE. THIRD PARTY MOVEMENTS HAVE REPEATEDLY IN OUR HISTORY PREVENTED THE ECLIPSE OF DEMOCRACY: BEGINNING IN 1844, AND TRIUMPHING IN 1860, THEY ABOLISHED AFRICAN SLAVERY AND THE POLITICAL POWER BASED ON IT.

BEGINNING IN 1872, A THIRD PARTY MOVEMENT FOUGHT DISHONESTY IN GOVERNMENT AND FORCED THE ELECTION OF CLEVELAND IN 1884. BUT IN THAT ELECTION APPEARED A NEW FORCE, AIMING AT SOCIAL REFORM THROUGH CONTROL OF THE CURRENCY. IT APPEARED AGAIN IN THE ELECTION OF 1892, WHEN THE NEW POPULISM CAST ONE MILLION VOTES. FOR THE NEXT FOUR YEARS POPULISM GREW FAST AND WOULD HAVE SWEPT THE COUNTRY IN 1896, UNDER FAIR ELECTION LAWS: BUT THE SOUTH CHEATED THE WHITE VOTE JUST AS THEY HAD THE BLACK VOTE FOR 20 YEARS: AND MARK HANNA

BOUGHT UP THE NORTH. POPLISM DIED. BUT MANY OF ITS PRINCIPLES APPEARED AGAIN, WHEN TEDDY ROOSEVELT FELL OUT WITH THE REPUBLICAN LEADERS AND TRIED TO LEAD THE BULL MOOSE TO ARMAGEDDON. HE FAILED AND WILSON AND WAR WON.

IT WAS NOT UNTIL 1924, THAT A THIRD PARTY MOVEMENT UNDER LAFOLLETTE CAST FIVE MILLION VOTES, BUT FELL BEFORE RELIGIOUS HYSTERIS AND RACE HATE IN THE OVERWHELMING ELECTION OF HOOVER. BIG BUSINESS WAS IN THE SADDLE UNTIL THE BOTTOM FELL OUT OF THE WHOLE INDUSTRIAL SYSTEM IN 1929, AND THE REIGN OF FRANKLIN ROOSEVELT BEGAN.

WITH THE ADVENT OF TRUMAN CAME A NEW AND INSISTENT DEMAND FOR A THIRD PARTY AND A CHANCE FOR REAL PROGRESS TOWARD DEMOCRACY IN THIS LAND. WITH THE BEST WILL AND EFFORT, DEMOCRACY, THE SELF RULE OF THE PEOPLE IS DIFFICULT TO ATTAIN: WITH PARTY GOVERNMENT IT HAS CHANCE TO SUCCEED, ONLY IF THE PARTIES REPRESENT REAL ISSUES AND DO NOT SIMPLY MEAN UNDERSTANDING TO CONTROL PULBIC OPINION AND OBSTRUCT POLICIES FOR THE PROGRESS OF THE MASS OF PEOPLE. WHEN REAL ISSURES FAIL AND GREED AND CLASS COMBING TO USE

35-4-303

THE STATE FOR SELFISH ENDS, THEN AND THEN ONLY CAN DEMOCRACY BE SAVED FROM ITS ENEMIES BY A THIRD PARTY CRUSADE.

BUT THIS IS NOT ALL. BACK OF ALL PARTIES AND BACK OF ALL PROGRESS TOWARD A DEMOCRATIC STATE, MUST STAND THE INTELLIGENCE OF THE ELECTORATE AND THEIR KNOWLEDGE OF THE FACTS CONCERNING WHICH THEY ARE DECIDING. TODAY NOT ONLY IS ILLITERACY STILL TOO WIDE SPREAD IN THIS LAND, BUT DISTORTION OF THE NEWS, MONOPOLY OF THE PRESS AND CONTROL OF EDUCATION BY TEXT BOOKS AND FRIGHTENED TEACHERS, IS SO UNDISPUTED: AND FREE SPEECH SO CURTAILED, THAT INTELLIGENT DEMOCRACY IS IMPOSSIBLE.

THE FIRST TASK OF A THIRD PARTY IS TO COMBAT THESE SINISTER AND MISleading TENDENCIES. THE PROGRESSIVE PARTY THEN IS FACED BY THE INITIAL DUTY TO WORK FOR PEACE: WAR SETTLES NOTHING AND WAR AS PLANNED TODAY IS SUICIDE OF HUMANITY AND CIVILIZATION. DESPITE HIGH AUTHORITY WE CANNOT

35-4-304

"LICK THE WORLD" AND IF WE COULD, WHAT WOULD WE DO WITH IT? THIS IS THE FIRST LESSON. SECOND, THE PEOPLE OF THIS NATION MUST HAVE SECURITY AND NOT SIMPLY SECURITY IN JAIL: THEY MUST HAVE WORK: THEY MUST HAVE A LIVING WAGE AND AS CITIZENS THEY MUST SHARE IN CONTROL OF SUCH INDUSTRY AS PRIVATE ENTERPRISE CANNOT OR WILL NOT UNDERTAKE, OR WHICH CAN ONLY BE PURSUED WITH PUBLIC AID. FREEDOM IN AMERICA MUST NOT MEAN LICENSE BUT LIBERTY LIMITED BY PUBLIC WELFARE AND SOCIAL PROGRESS.

NOT BY MIGHT NOR BY POWER OF FAR FLUNG ARMIES, NAVIES AND AIRCRAFT CAN WE HELP THE WORLD, BUT BY SACRIFICE AND EXAMPLE: WE GAIN LITTLE BY BOASTING OF A DEMOCRACY WHICH WE DO NOT PRACTISE OR OF RICHES AND COMFORT WHICH AT LEAST A THIRD OF OUR OWN POPULATION DO NOT SHARE. WE ARE RULED TODAY BY CORPORATE WEALTH: AND BLESSED AS WER ARE IN NATURAL RESOURCES, NEVER BEFORE HAVE SO FEW OWNED SO MUCH AT THE EXPENSE OF SO MANY. PUBLIC WELFARE MUST REPLACE PRIVATE PROFIT AS THE END OF EFFORT AND PLANNED ECONOMY MUST BRING ORDER AND

JUSTICE OUT OF THE ANARCHY OF FREE ENTERPRISE AND PRIVATE INITIATIVE. NO PAUPER IS FREE, NO PUBLIC SERVICE CAN BE PRIVATE, AND THE SICK AND IGNORANT CANNOT OFTEN INITIATE ENTERPRISE.

35-4-305

WE NEED INCREASED GOVERNMENT CONTROL OF LAND OWNERSHIP AND USE: SOCIALIZED MEDICINE TO PROTECT THE PUBLIC HEALTH: ABO ITION OF SLUMS AND PUBLICILY SUBSIDIZED HOUSING ON A NATION WIDE SCALE: UNEMPLOYMENT RELIEF, SICKNESS AND OLD AGE SECURITY, ON LEVELS SUFFICIENT FOR DECENT LIFE: THE PROTECTION AND SUBSIDIZING OF WORKERS IN ANY ESSENTIAL INDUSTRY LIKE FARMING, WHICH HAS LONG SUFFERED FROM PRESENT ORGANIZATION OF INDUSTRY: AND ENCOURAGEMENT OF ALL FORMS OF SELF HELP, LIKE CONSUMERS COOPERATION.

THE PERSONS WHO SUPPORT THIS PLATFORM DO NOT AGREE IN ALL MATTERS AND HAVE MANY MINDS AS TO WRONGS AND REMEDIES: AS TO NATIONAL AND INDIVIDUAL RESPONSIBILITY FOR PRESENT CONDITIONS. BUT HERE ARE SET DOWN THE MATTERS ON WHICH WE DO AGREE: AND TO THE SUPPORT OF THIS PLATFORM WE SEEK THE VOTES OF ALL PERSONS AND WE DO NOT ASK OR WISH TO KNOW WHAT OTHER BELIEFS THEY HAVE SO LONG AS THEY WHOLEHEARTEDLY SUPPORT OURS.

THIS OF COURSE IS NO SOLUTION OF DEMOCRACY BUT ITS CYNICAL DENIAL: AND THE GRIM FACT THAT NO MAN IS SO GREAT AS TO ESCAPE DEATH.

35-4-624

OR WE HAVE THE THEORY OF THE MAJORITY: THE DOCTRINE OF DIVINE RIGHT, APPLIED TO THE ACCIDENTAL TEN WHO BEAT THE NINE IN SOME CONTEST. THIS IS WE KNOW BUT A ROUGH RULE OF THUMB: SINCE RIGHT IS RIGHT EVEN IF WRONG WINS THE ELECTION AND NO RETURNS CAN CHANGE THE FACE AND THE CONSEQUENCE. TO ELIMINATE THE ACCIDENT OF SINGLE ELECTIONS, WE RELY ON PARTY GOVERNMENT: ONE ORGANIZED AND PERMANENT BODY STANDS FOR A PROGRAM AND POLICY AND SOLICITS VOTES, WITH THE CLEAR UNDERSTANDING THAT RESPONSIBILITY FOR THE SUCCESS OF THE PROGRAM RESTS ON THE ORGANIZATION, SO THAT THE RIGHT DEPENDS NOT ON ONE ELECTION BUT ON A CONTINUING POLICY. ANOTHER PARTY STANDS FOR A DIFFERENT PROGRAM OF PROGRESS.

THIS HAS BEEN OUR BEST THEORY OF DEMOCRATIC GOVERNMENT AND HAS UNDOUBTEDLY CARRIED US FURTHEST TOWARD OUR IDEAL. BUT DURING ALL THE LONG DECADES OF ITS TRIAL, IT HAS DEVELOPED REPEATEDLY THE SAME DIFFICULTY: NAMELY, THE DEVELOPMENT OF ONE POLICY, COUPLED WITH ABSENCE OF ANY COUNTER POLICY,

AND ACCOMPANIED WITH ELABORATE INSISTENCE THAT THERE WERE ACTUALLY TWO PARTIES AND TWO POLICIES WHEN IN FACT THERE WAS BUT ONE, AND THAT ONE UNCRITICED AND UNCHALLENGED. THUS IN ENGLAND FOR YEARS TORY AND LIBERAL REPRESENTED IN FACT BUT ONE IMPERIAL BRITISH POLICY: SO IN THE UNITED STATES FROM 1820 to 1850, DEMOCRATS AND WHIGS WERE IN REALITY BUT ONE PARTY WITH DIFFERENT LEADERS, AND THAT PARTY STOOD FOR SLAVERY AND COMMERCE. TODAY, THE REPUBLICAN AND DEMOCRATIC PARTIES AGREE NOT ONLY IN FOREIGN POLICY B BUT IN EVERYTHING ESSENTIAL T UCHING DOMESTIC CONDITIONS, FROM FIGHTING THE TRADE UNIONS, TO RAISING RENTS AND AVOIDINT SOCIAL RESPONSIBILITIES.

BUT DEMOCRACY HAS LONG HAD A REMEDY FOR THIS AND THAT IS THE THIRD PARTY. IN THE NATURE OF THE CASE, THE THIRD PARTY IS BUT RARELY USED: SO RARELY, THAT THE IDEA IS EASILY PROMULGATED THAT IT IS REVOLUTIONARY AND UNDEMOCRATIC. IN TRUTH, ONLY THROUGH A THIRD PARTY MOVEMENT, OR THE THREAT OF SUCH A MOVEMENT, CAN THE VERY GROUND PRINCIPLES OF DEMOCRATIC GOVERNMENT

BE RESCUED FROM OLIGARCHY OR PLUTOCRACY. UNLESS THE PEOPLE RETAIN AND ASSERT THE RIGHT TO TURN FROM TWO OLD PARTIES WHICH ARE IN ESSENTIAL AGREEMENT OR IN FALSE DISAGREEMENT, AND ESTABLISH A THIRD PARTY WHICH GIVES A CITIZEN THE CHANCE TO VOTE FOR WHAT HE BELIEVES, THEN NOT ONLY DOES THE RIGHT LOSE, BUT DEMOCRACY ITSELF FAILS.

THAT IS THE REASON WHY A THIRD PARTY MOVEMENT ALWAYS MEETS BITTER OPPOSITION FROM REACTION AND VESTED INTERESTS: AND THIS OPPOSITION IS NOT AGAINST ITS PLATFORM OR POLICY, BUT AGAINST ITS VERY RIGHT TO EXIST OR ~~TO MAKXXREBLIKXXIXXRLATFORM~~ APPEAL TO THE ELECTORATE. ITS MOTIVES ARE MALIGNED, ITS OBJECTS DISTORTED AND ITS EFFORTS TO MAKE PUBLIC ITS PLATFORM ~~ONXREBLICXI~~ OBSTRUCTED. THE PEOPLE ARE LED TO BELIEVE THAT IN THE VERY EFFORT TO ESTABLISH A THIRD PARTY LIES TREACHERY AND ENMITY TO DEMOCRACY. AND IF THE ALLIED AND ASSOCIATED PARTIES IN POWER, CONTROL PRESS and radio; and have in their pockets unlimited funds from the profits of interests which they favor and give lisence, then with the post-war weapon of propaganda, this political combination can literally deny the polls to a Third Party, smear it with obliguy and drive it from the public platform. And so again democracy can fail.

Remember that without Third Party movements, we might still be British colonies, we might still reap fortunes out of the slave trade, we might still be even more a land of slavery than we are.

With the best will and effort, democracy, the self ruel of the people is difficult to attain; with party government it has chance to succeed only if the parties represent real issues and not combines understanding to control public opinion and obstruct policies for the progress of the mass of people; and when real issues fail and greed and class combine to use the state for selfish ends, then and then only can democracy be saved from its enemies by a Third Party crusade.

35-4-626

But this is not all. Back of all parties and back of all progress toward a democratic state, must stand the intelligence of the electorate and their knowledge of the facts concerning which they are deciding. Today not only is illiteracy still too wide spread in this land, but control of Press, publication of truth and issue of text books for education is so undisputed, and free speech so curtailed that intelligent democracy is impossible. The first task of a Third Party is to combat these sinister and misleading situations. The Progressive Party then is faced by the initial duty to work for Peace: war settles nothing and war as planned today is suicide of humanity and civilization. Despite high authority we cannot "lick the World" and if we could what would we do with it? This is the first lesson. Second, the people of this nation must have security and not simply security in jail; they must have Work; they must have a liging Wage and Public control of such industry as private enterprise

(1)

For a second election, the Progressive Party faces this nation with a programme and warning. We come without apology but as the natural instrument through which America may achieve that democracy which has for one hundred and fifty has been our high ideal and continued failure. For here stands the Thesis and Antithesis, staring us grimly in the face:

Democracy is the only and ultimate way of governing the State and contradicting this undisputed truth, comes the fatal fact

Democracy has not achieved success in any modern state

35-7-40

What is the Synthesis of these contradictory and discouraging statements? We have had many attempts; the most natural and most frequently repeated is the theory of the Strong Man the Prophet, the Leader, who by force makes the People do what they in their stupidity and selfishness could never accomplish unled. This of course is no solution of democracy but its cynical denial; and the grim fact that no man is so great as to escape death

Or we have the theory of the Majority; the doctrine of Divine ~~Rmax~~ Right, applied to the accidental Ten who beat the Nine in some contest. This is we know but a rough rule of thumb; since Right is Right even if Wrong wins the election and no returns can change the fact and the consequence. ~~Then~~ To eliminate ~~more chance and~~ the accident of single elections, we rely on Party government: one organized and permanent body stands for a program and policy and solicits votes, with the clear understanding that responsibility for the sucess of the program rests on the organization, so that the right depends not on one election but on a continuing policy. Another party stands for a different program of progress.

This has been our best theory of democratic government and has undoubtedly carried us furthest toward our ideal. But during all the long decades of its trial, it has developed repeatedly the same difficulty: namely, ~~failure to lay down or carry out a~~ the development of one policy, coupled with absence of any counter policy, and accompanied with elaborate insistence that there were actually two parties and two policies when in fact there was but one and that one unchallenged & unchallenged. Thus in England for years Tory and Liberal represented in fact but one imperial British policy; so in the United States from 1820 to 1850, Democrats and Whigs were in reality but one party with different leaders, and that party stood for slavery and commerce. Today, the Republican and Democratic parties not only agree in foreign policy but in everything essential touching domestic conditions, from fighting the trade unions, to raising rents and avoiding social responsibilities.

But Democracy has long had a remedy for this and that is the Third Party. ~~But~~ In the nature of the case, the Third Party is but rarely used; so rarely, that the idea is easily promulgated that it is revolutionary and undemocratic. In truth, only through a Third Par

Party movement, or the threat of such a movement, can the very ground principles of democratic government be rescued from oligarchy or plutocracy. Unless the people retain and assert the right to turn from two old parties which are in essential agreement or in false disagreement, and establish a Third Party which gives a citizen the chance to vote for what he believes, then not only does the Right lose, but democracy itself fails.

That is the reason why a Third Party movement always meets bitter opposition from reaction & vested interests; and this opposition is not against its platform or policy, but against its very right to exist or appeal to the electorate. Its motives are maligned, its objects distorted and it efforts to ~~appeal to the electorate~~ make public its platform obstructed. The people are led to believe that in the very effort to establish a Third Party lies treachery and enmity to democracy. And if the allied and associated parties in power, control press and radio; and have in their pockets unlimited funds from the profits of interests which they favor and give lisence, then with the post-war weapon of propaganda, this political combination can literally deny the polls to a Third Party, smear it with obliquy and ~~literally~~ drive it from the public platform. And so again democracy can fail.

Remember that without Third Party movements, we might still be British colonies, we might still reap fortunes out of the slave trade, we might still be even more a land of slavery than we are.

With the best will and effort, democracy, the self rule of the people, is difficult to attain; with party government it has chance to succeed only if the parties ~~xx~~ represent real issues and not combined understanding to control public opinion and obstruct policies for the progress of the mass of people; and when real issues fail and greed and class combine to use the state for selfish ends, then and then only can democracy be saved from its enemise ~~f~~ by a Third Party crusade.

But this is not all. Back of all all parties and back of all progress toward a democratic state, must stand the intelligence of the electorate and their knowledge of the facts concerning which they are deciding. Today not only is illiteracy still too wide spread in this land, but control of Press, publication of truth and issue of text-books for education is so undisputed that intelligent democracy is ~~difficult~~ impossible. And the first task of a Third Party is to combat these sinister and misleading situations. The Progressive party then is faced by the initial duty to work for Peace: War settles nothing and war as planned today is suicide of humanity and civilization. This is the first lesson. Despite high authority we cannot "lick the World" and if we could what would we do with it?

Second, the people of this nation must have security and not simply security in jail; they must have Work; they must have a living Wage and Public control of such industry as private enterprise cannot or will not undertake or which can only be pursued with public aid. And Freedom in America must not mean license but liberty limited by public welfare and social progress

THIS FREEDOM

W. E. B. DU BOIS

WHEN I WAS INVITED HERE/IT WAS SUGGESTIED/THAT I SPEAK ON THE COURAGE OF CONVICTIONS.// DOUBLTESS WITH THE IDEA/THAT THIS COMMUNITY/NEEDS ~~STIRRING~~ to consider ~~UP AS TO~~ ITS IDEALS AND ACTIONS,/ESPECIALLY IN RACIAL RELATIONS.// BUT IT SEEMED TO ME/THAT I COULD DO A BETTER CHORE/IF I TRIED TO APPROACH THIS SITUATION/FROM THE BROADER CONCEPT OF FREEDOM/SO AS TO CLEAR AWAY/A CERTAIN AMOUNT OF MENTAL UNDERBRUSH/WHICH OFTEN IMPEDES OUR ATTEMPTS/AT SOCIAL REFORM.

IN THE PATTERN OF CULTURE/WHICH WE HAVE INHERITED/FROM THE 19th CENTURY,/LIES THE ~~WELL-NIGH~~ UNIVERSAL ASSUMPTION/OF INDIVIDUAL, FREE AND CONSCIOUS CHOICE OF ACTIONS/WHICH INFLUENCE AND GUIDE/THE COURSE OF HUMAN HISTORY.// NOT ALL PERSONS PAUSE/TO CONSIDER THE TREMENDOUS IMPLICATIONS/

~~AND INHERENT PARADOX~~/OF SUCH AN ASSUMPTION.// THE CONCEPT OF A WORLD OF ETERNAL AND UNALTERABLE LAW/GREW UP AND FLOWERED IN THAT MARVELLOUS 19th CENTURY,/SIDE BY SIDE/WITH THIS ASSUMPTION/OF OUR GOD-LIKE ABILITY/TO DECIDE THE DESTINY OF MAN.// MOST PERSONS WERE UNCONSCIOUS OF THE CONTRADICTION,/AND FROM TIME/TURNED EASILY FROM THE LAW OF CONSERVATION OF FORCE/TO THE IDEA OF THE GREAT MAN/WHO MAKES HISTORY//WITHOUT ANY REALIZATION OF THE INHERENT PARADOX.

35-434

~~AWAITING ITS AUTOMATIC APPEARANCE.~~

THENCEFORTH, IT BECAME MORE AND MORE CLEAR TO ME, THAT THE CONCEPT OF FREEDOM OF HUMAN ACTION MUST BE LIMITED BY OBVIOUS ~~ELEMENTS~~ FACTS; THE LAW OF GRAVITATION HELD ALL IN THRALL; BIOLOGICAL LAWS GOVERNED INEXORABLY OUR GROWTH AND DEVELOPMENT; AND MORE THAN THAT, SOCIAL CONVENTION AND LONG CONTINUED CULTURAL PATTERNS MADE INDIVIDUAL ACTION SLOW AND UNCERTAIN. SOME FOLK HAD PRACTICALLY SURRENDERED THE CONCEPT OF THE FREEDOM OF HUMAN INITIATIVE TO BETTER THE WORLD. WHAT WITH THE DARWINIAN THEORY OF THE SURVIVAL OF THE FITTEST AND THE VOLUMINOUS WORKS OF HERBERT SPENCER AND THE FATALISM OF THE CHURCH, THE INTELLIGENT WORLD OF THE LATE NINETEENTH CENTURY AND EARLY TWENTIETH, BEGAN TO FALL BACK ON EVOLUTION AND DEVELOPMENT AND DECLARE THAT NEGRO SLAVERY WAS THE RESULT OF NATURAL LAW RATHER THAN OF HUMAN WICKEDNESS AND THAT ALL THE WHITE RULERS OF THE UNIVERSE HAD TO DO WAS TO ~~FALL BACK~~ rely ON GOD AND TIME TO HAVE THEIR WISH AND ~~GOVERNMENT~~ POWER MADE PERMANENT. RELIGION, PHILANTHROPY AND SCIENCE SOUGHT TO JOIN HANDS IN MAKING THE COLOR-LINE WORLD-WIDE AND THE INFERIORITY OF THE DARKER RACES A PART OF HOLY WRIT.

THE RESULT OF THIS TREND OF THOUGHT IS TODAY STILL EVIDENT IN CITIES LIKE ~~WILMINGTON~~ Philada, BALTIMORE AND WASHINGTON. NOWHERE IN THE WORLD IS THERE A MORE UNJUSTIFIABLE EXHIBITION OF RACIAL CASTE Class differ. THAN IN THESE CITIES. IF IT WERE NOT THAT I HAVE ~~MY~~ FRIENDS AND RELATIVES IN THESE PLACES, AND ERRANDS OF BUSINESS IN THE NATION'S CAPITAL, I WOULD NEVER ~~AGAIN~~ IN MY LIFE SET FOOT IN THESE Cities CAPITALS. THEIR RACIAL PREJUDICE HAS LESS JUSTIFICATION THAN ~~IN~~ CHARLESTON OR NEW ORLEANS. IS MORE SET AND IMPERVIOUS THAN THAT OF ATLANTA AND BIRMINGHAM, AND HAS MADE LESS CHANGE IN THE LAST 25 YEARS THAN NASHVILLE OR DALLAS.

THE REASON FOR THIS IS THAT IN THESE OLDER CITIES GROWING UP BETWEEN THE ~~EQUALITARIANISM~~ OF THE NORTH AND THE SLAVERY OF THE SOUTH, THERE REMAINS EQUALITARIAN[redacted]ISM

35-4-30

IN THE MINDS OF THINKING PEOPLE/A SINGULAR AND YET UNREALIZED/ CONTRADICTION IN THEIR RELATION TO THE WORLD//ON THE ONE HAND/ THEY CLING TO AN IDEA OF FREEDOM OF ACTION/AND INFLUENCE UPON THE WORLD/ WHICH IS NO LONGER AS TRUE/ AS THEY HAVE BEEN TAUGHT TO THINK//AND ON THE OTHER HAND/ THEY ARE ALSO UNCONSCIOUSLY/FALLING BACK UPON NATURAL FORCES/AND EVEN DIVINE GUIDANCE/IN THE UNIVERSE/ ~~WHICH~~ TO ABSOLVES THEM FROM ALL NECESSITY/ FOR ACTING AND DOING/ AND CHANGING.

How does this relate to the above 20,000?

FOR INSTANCE,/IN CITIES LIKE ~~THESE~~ Philadelphia,/THE PROBLEM OF OCCUPATION/FOR ALL PEOPLE/IS A DIFFICULT ONE.//IT IS NOT EASY TO PICK OUT/ FOR YOUR CHILDREN/ THE KIND OF LIFE WORK/WHICH YOU WOULD LIKE THEM TO DO/ OR WHICH THEY WOULD CHOOSE// YOU HAVE ONLY TO REMEMBER/THAT LAST YEAR/TWENTY FIVE THOUSAND EDUCATED YOUNG MEN AND WOMEN/APPLIED FOR MEDICAL EDUCATION IN THE U.S./AND LESS THAN SIX THOUSAND/WERE ACCEPTED:/ ~~THAT~~ ADMISSION TO ATTRACTIVE roles/ ~~PLACES~~ /IN THE INDUSTRIAL HIERACHY OF AMERICA/IS INCREASINGLY DIFFICULT.//THERE WAS A TIME WHEN YOU COULD SAY

~~NOW~~ THIS BRINGS US BACK PRACTICALLY TO WHERE WE STARTED. AND THAT IS THAT THERE IS NOT CURE FOR WRONG IN CITIES LIKE THIS, FOR INJUSTICE AND DISCRIMINATION WHICH FOUNDS ITSELF IN INACTION ON THE ONE HAND OR IN SUBMISSION ON THE OTHER. IF THE PEOPLE OF THIS CITY ARE GOING TO CONTINUE IN THE KIND OF CASTE SYSTEM WHICH THEY HAVE HERE, and ~~THEN~~ INSPITE OF THE NUMBERS OF WORTHY NEGRO CITIZENS WHO HAVE PLAYED THEIR PART IN Phil ~~WILMINGTON~~ FOR A HUNDRED YEARS OR MORE, ~~THEY~~ ARE STILL GOING TO JUDGE PEOPLE BY THEIR SKINS AND NOT BY THEIR ABILITIES, THEY ARE GOING TO MAKE IT IMPOSSIBLE FOR THE FUTURE TO UNDERSTAND WHY ON EARTH, THEY SHOULD HAVE MADE SUCH A NARROW BASIS OF JUDGMENT FOR ~~THEMSELVES~~ THEIR FELLOW BEINGS, ~~THEN THAY HAVE GOT TO DO SOMETING ABOUT IT.~~ AND ON THE OTHER HAND, IF THE NEGROES OF WILMINGTON, EXPECT TO BREAK THROUGH THE COLOR LINE AND TO BE FULL CITIZENS ~~OF THIS CITY,~~ AND TO ENJOY ITS ~~AL~~ ADVANTAGES, ~~THEY~~ ARE NOT GOING TO GET THAT ?

THEY ARE GOING TO PROVE TO THE WORLD /WHAT THE WORLD ALREADY IS SAYING/ THAT THE UNITED STATES/IS NOT A DEMOCRACY/ NEVER WAS A DEMOCRACY/AND DOES NOT PLAN TO BECOME ONE.// THAT DISCRIMINATION HERE/BEGINNING WITH RACE AND COLOR/HAS SPREAD TO CREED/NATIONALITY/ AND CLASS// AND THAT NO SUCH NATION/WILL E VER LEAD MANKIND/ OUT OF THE WILDERNESS.

~~BY SUBMISSION~~/TO WHAT THEY NOW SUFFERING. ~~THEN~~ HAVING ONCE GOTTEN A CLEAR IDEA LIKE THIS,/IT IS NEXT NECESSARY FOR THE PEOPLE/WHO WANT REFORM ~~THE WORLD~~ TO REMEMBER THAT REFORM/IS GOING TO COST SOMETING. THIS FREEDOM

When I was invited here it was suggested that I speak on the courage of convictions; doubtless with the idea that this community needs a slurry up as to its ideals and actions, especially in racial relations. But it seemed to me that I could do a better chore if I tried to approach this situation from the broader concept of Freedom so as to clear away a certain amount of mental underbrush which impedes often our attempts at social reform

In the pattern of culture which we have inherited from the 19th century, lies the well-nigh unuversal assumption of individual, free and concious choice of actions which influence and ~~often~~ guide the course of human history. Not all persons pause to consider the tremendous implications and inherent paradox of such an assumption. ~~There~~ grew up and flowered ~~side by side~~ in that marvellous 19th century, the concept of a world of eternal and unalterable law, side by side with this assumption of our god-like ability to decide the destiny of man. Most persons were unconscious of the contradiction, and from time turned easily from the law of conservation of force to the idea of the Great Man who makes history without any realization of the inherent paradox.

Particularly in America did this idea of freedom of human effort sprout and flourish. We lived on the world's frontier: there was rich land, free for the taking; there were animals and vegetables, fruit and flower; there were mines and wells, mountains and rivers, forest and plain. It was ~~almost literally~~ widely true, in the beginnig of the 19th century and well on past it midyear, that a free, white American, with health and ability to work, could choose his career, ~~make a reasonable fortune and~~ make a reasonable fortune go where he would, when he wished. An immigrant from Europe was astonished at the contrast: the freedom from restraint; the breaking of the chains of custom; the chance for expression in word and act. This was the Land of Freedom. I remember as a boy, rolling on my tongue those sonorous periods of Drake's story of the birth of our flag:

35-4-137

> When Freedom, from her mountain height,
> Unfurled her standard to the air
> She tore the azure robe of night
> And set the stars in glory there

When an American returns from abroad, he feels again the freedom of this land; but of course here comes pause; the freedom which he thinks he senses is in part simply change from unfamiliar ~~usages~~ customs to ways of action to which he has been accustomed all his life. And it only slowly and with the passing years, that Americans begin to sense that even ~~in America~~ here the old freedom of the frontier is passing and a new freezing of the cake of custom is unfolding. I remember having this thought thrust suddenly on me when a young French girl said to me: "The statuue of Liberty? O yes. That is th statue with its back toward America and its face toward France." But less symbolically, I had this thought of the change in American freedom, brought home to me. For, of course, all my life I was painfully aware of the dichotomy between American freedom for whites and the continuing slavery of Negroes. But I had by time, returning from Germany to America to begin my life work, rationalized this contradiction. I said in 1897 to an audience of the University of Pennsylvania, that the solution of the Negro Problem called for knowledge — scientific study of the facts on a broad scale, over a space of time long enough to make a perfect picture; That when the nation knew the Truth it would take action accordingly. I laid down plans of study covering a century and tried to carry them out at Atlanta University for thirteen years. Then I awoke to the bitter fact that the solution to this social problem was not so simple as I had fondly imagined. That the Truth of itself did not make Man free; that truth must first be known and then be acted on Otherwise there would be no funds for study, and the world would give scant attention to the facts. At 42, therefore, finding that Atlanta University could not find even $5000 a year for the only systematic study of the Negro Race, carried on in the world; and that despite our publications, lynchings flourished and Tillman and Vardaman continued to lie about rape and crime, I made about face in my life work, and began to spread facts instead of gathering them and urge action instead of awaiting its automatic appearance.

Thenceforth, it became more and more clear to me, that the concept of freedom of human action must be limited by obvious elements: the law of gravitatino held all in thrall; biological laws governed inexorably our growth and development; and more than that, social convention and long-continued cultural patterns, made individual action slow and uncertain. Some folk, practically surrendered the concept of the freedom of human initiative to better the world. What with the Darwinian theory of the survival of the fittest and the voluminous works of Herbert Spencer, the intelligent world of the late 19th and 20th century began to fall back on evolution and development and declare that Negro slavery was the result of natural law rather than human wickedness and that all the white rulers of the universe had to do was to fall back on God and Time to have their wish and rule made pernanent. Religion, Philanthropy and Science sought to join hands in making the color-line world-wide and the inferiority of the darker races a part of Holy Writ.

The result of this trend of thought is today evident in cities like Wilmington, Baltimore and Washington. Nowhere in the world is there a more contemptible exhibition of racial caste than in these cities. If it were not that I have old friends and relatives in these places, and errands of business in the nation's capital, I would never again in my life set foot in these capitals. Their racial prejudice has less justification than in Charleston or New Orleans, is more set and impervious than that of Atlanta and Birmingham, and has made less change in the last 25 years than Nashville or Dallas

THE YEAR AFTER GRADUATION FROM HIGH SCHOOL, I REMAINED IN TOWN AWAITING A CHANCE TO GO TO COLLEGE. I FOUND WORK THAT YEAR ON A PROJECT WHICH THREW ME INTO CLOSE CONTACT WITH INDUSTRY. A DAUGHTER OF OUR TOWN HAD GONE WEST AND MARRIED ONE OF THE BUILDERS OF THR UNION PACIFIC RAILROAD ~~AND~~ who had BECAME RICH BY METHODS NOT TO BE TOO NARROWLY INVESTIGATED. AFTER HIS DEATH SHE CAME HOME AND DETERMINED TO BUILD A MANSION ON ONE OF THE BROADEST OF OUR GREEN MEADOWS AND OUT OF OUR BLUE GRANITE NESTLING IN OUR MOUNTAINS. A NOTED FIRM OF BUILDERS AND AN ARISTOCRATIC ENGLISH ARTCHITECT CAME TO DO THE JOB. BECAUSE A GREAT UNCLE OF MINE HAD WORKED FOR THIS FAMILY YEARS BEFORE AND RECEIVED NO PAY I WAS GIVEN A PLACE AS TIMEKEEPER ON THE JOB AT A DOLLAR A DAY WHICH WAS FABULOUS WAGE FOR ME. I FELT QUITE LIKE A CAPITALIST AS I DISTRIBUTED PAY CHECKS AND KEPT TRACK OF WORKING HOURS. HERE BEGAN MY EDUCATION IN APPLIED ECONOMICS. I WAS NOT SO SURE THAT HARD WORK BROUGHT HIGH PAY. I WONDERED WHAT HAPPENED WHEN WITH NO PREVIOUS NOTICE I HANDED A MASON a card ~~NOTICE~~ OF DISMISSAL. IN HIGH SCHOOL I HAD LEARNED THAT UNIONS AMONG WORKERS WERE USELESS IN PRACTICE AND WRONG IN CONCEPT. STRIKES INTERFEERED WITH FREEDOM AND I HAD NEVER SEEN ONE IN MY LIFE. BUT I DID NOTICE THAT ON THIS JOB THE WORKER WHO COMPLAINED OR WAS FIRED HAD ABSOLUTELY NO CHANCE TO EXPLAIN THAT DID NOT SEEM QUITE FAIR. THEN TO THIS CAME A CROWNING EVENT. SUDDENLY THE ARISTOCRATIC BUT PENNILESS ARTICHECT MARRIED THE RICH WIDOW. THE STEWARD WHO HAD SERVED HER MANY YEARS

ELEMENTARY EDUCATION AND WAR

BY

W. E. B. DU BOIS

THERE CAN BE NO DOUBT, BUT OUR LACK OF EDUCATION IN ECONOMICS LIES AT THE BOTTOM OF THE CONFUSION OF OUR MINDS IN THE PRESENT CRISIS. I CAN LOOK BACK ON TEN YEARS SPENT IN ELEMENTARY SCHOOLS DURING THE LAST QUARTER OF THE 19th CENTURY: THAT CENTURY WHICH SET THE PATTERN OF OUR PRESENT INDUSTRIAL ORGANIZATION. IN OUR SCHOOLS VERY LITTLE WAS SAID OR TAUGHT CONCERNING THE UNDERLYING PRINCIPLES OF WORK AND WAGE, OF PROPERTY AND INCOME. IN THESE MATTERS WE WERE GUIDED MAINLY BY INHERITED ASSUMPTIONS: WEALTH WAS THE RESULT OF WORK: EITHER YOUR OWN WORK OR THE WORK OF YOUR FATHER WHOSE PROPERTY YOU INHERITED. THE MORE ONE WORKED AND SAVED, THE RICHER HE BECAME.

POVERTY WAS MISFORTUNE AND PERHAPS MORE. IN THE MAJORITY OF CASES IT SHOWED LAZINESS AND SHIFTLESSNESS. THERE WERE NO BEGGARS IN OUR TOWN OF 5000 AND SEVERE CASES OF WANT WERE GRUDGINGLY RELIEVED BY THE TOWN: BUT SUCH RELIEF WAS SHAMEFUL. THERE WAS A POORHOUSE, BUT I NEVER SAW IT AND IT WAS NOT MENTIONED IN SCHOOL.

THE TOWNSFOLK WERE FARMERS, SHOPKEEPERS, ARTISANS, MILLHANDS AND A FEW PROFESSIONAL MEN. THERE WERE TWO CAPITALISTS, MEN WHO OWNED THE WOOLEN MILL AND RAN IT WITH IRISH MILLHANDS. FURTHER UP THE VALLEY WERE ONE OR TWO OTHER MILLS IN NEIGHBORING TOWNS. BUT MAINLY WE LIVED BY FARMING AND TRADE. I SAW FROM THE STREETS THE WHIRRING MACHINERY OF THE MILLS BUT I NEVER WAS INSIDE, NOR WERE THEIR FUNCTIONS DISCUSSED IN SCHOOL. I CAN NOW SEE HOW IN TWO RESPECTS THESE MILLS AFFECTED OUR LIVES CLOSELY, FIRST AROUND THEM WERE SLUMS: DIRTY CROWDED HOUSES AND HUTS, FILLED WITH RAGGED PEOPLE AND SMELLING

OF PIGS AND OFFAL. WE AVOIDED THESE SLUMS IN WALK OR TALK. NOTHING WAS SAID OF SLUMS IN SCHOOL. I GOT THE IDEA THAT SLUMS WERE NATURAL PHENOMENA AND UNAVOIDABLE. I COULD NOT UNDERSTAND WHY PEOPLE LIKED TO LIVE IN SUCH PLACES IT SEEMED GENERALLY ATTRIBUTED TO THE FACT THAT THE DENIZENS WERE IRISH AND THAT IRISH WERE ADDICTED TO SLUMS AND WHISKEY BY NATURE.

THE MATTER OF WHISKEY BROUGHT UP MORE THOUGHT AND SOME MENTION IN SCHOOL. WE WERE INSTRUCTED THAT ALCHOHOL WAS DELITERIOUS AND WE KNEW THAT ITS USE WAS NOT CONFINED TO THE MILLHANDS. INDEED DRUNKENNESS WAS QUITE COMMON IN THE TOWN AMONG ALL CLASSES. WHY? IN SCHOOL AND SUNDAY SCHOOL THIS HABIT WAS ATTRIBUTED TO TOTAL DEPRAVITY. IT WAS NOT UNTIL I WAS GROWN AND AWAY FROM THIS BIRTHTOWN, THAT I REMEMBERED ONE UNNOTICED FACT: THE HOUSATONIC RIVER.

NOW THIS LONG NARROW RIVER TRAVERSED THE BERKSHIRE VALLEY AND CONNECTICUT FOR A HUNDRED MILES AMID MOST BEAUTIFUL NATURAL SCENERY OF HILL AND MOUNTAIN, ROCK AND FIELD, TREES AND WATERFALLS. BUT THE RIVER ITSELF WAS NOT BEAUTIFUL: IT WAS DIRTY, DULL, MUDDY AND NASTY. IT STANK WITH REFUSE AND THIS REFUSE WAS LARGELY SUPPLIED BY THE MILLS. THEY JUST DROPPED THEIR DIRT AND WASTE INTO IT AND THE TOWNS FOLK FOLLOWED SUIT, BUILDING THEIR BACKHOUSES ON AND THROWING GARBAGE INTO IT: SO THAT THE RIVER WAS AN OPEN SEWER AND DRAINAGE CANAL. I SAW IN AFTER YEARS WHAT THIS RIVER MIGHT HAVE BEEN IN BEAUTY AND RECREATION. AND RECREATION WAS CURIOUSLY LACKING IN THIS VALLEY. NO THEATRE OR ART, ONLY CHURCH MUSIC, NO PLAY GROUNDS. THERE WAS LITTLE ORGANIZED EFFORT TO FURNISH ENTERTAINMENT OUTSIDE THE HOME AND IN THE CHURCHES. MOST PEOPLE GOT DRUNK BECAUSE THAT WAS THE CHEAPEST AVAILABLE RECREATION. THINK WHAT THE RIVER MIGHT HAVE BEEN IN RECREATION THE YEAR ROUND: BOATING AND BATHING IN SUMMER, SKATING IN WINTER. BUT THIS WOULD HAVE COST THE TOWN MONEY AND THAT MEANT TAXES AND ALL HATED TAXES.

IN FACT THE TAXES FELL ALMOST EXCLUSIVELY ON FARMERS AND HOMEOWNERS AND THEY COULD AFFORD NO INCREASE. WE WERE TAUGHT IN SCHOOL THAT THE LEAST THAT WAS SPENT BY THE GOVERNMENT, THE BETTER IT WAS FOR THE PEOPLE. SOME BELIEVED THAT A PUBLIC HIGH SCHOOL WAS AN UNNECESSARY EXTRAGAGANCE. PURSUING THIS LINE OF THOUGHT, I CAME TO QUESTION THE CONNECTION OF THE MILLS AND SLUMS. NO WORD OF THIS CAME UP IN SCHOOL. I NEVER HEARD THERE OR ON THE STREET WHO OWNED THE PROPERTY WHERE THE SLUMS WERE SITUATED. IT MUST HAVE BELONGED TO SUBSTANTIAL TOWNS FOLK, WHO DID NOTHING TO IMPROVE IT. BUT ITS OWNERSHIP WAS SECRET. ALL MATTERS OF WEALTH AND INCOME WERE SECRET. WE MENTIONED IT NO MORE THAN WE DID OUR UNDERWEAR, AND THAT WAS ONLY DIFFIDENTLY TO ADMIT ITS EXISTANCE. BUT I BEGAN TO SEE INJUSTICE IN THE DISTRIBUTION OF GOODS. DURING ONE YEAR AFTER GRADUATION FROM HIGH SCHOOL I WAS TIMEKEEPER ON A BUILDING OPERATION. A DAUGHTER OF THE TOWN HAD MARRIED ONE OF THE MEN WHO BUILT THE UNION PACIFIC RAILROAD BY METHODS, NOT TO BE TOO NARROWLY INVESTIGATED. HE DIED AND SHE CAME HOME TO BUILD A MANSION OF OUR BEAUTIFUL BLUE GRANITE. ON THIS PROJECT I WORKEDFOR A DOLLAR A DAY, KEEPING THE WORK HOURS OF THE MASONS, HANDING OUT THEIR PAY CHECKS AND FEELING A PART OF THE CAPITALIST CLASS. BUT I NOTICED MUCH: I WAS NOT SURE THAT HARD WORK WAS RIGHTLY REWARDED: I WAS STARTLED AT THE WAY IN WHICH WORKERS WERE SUMMARILY DISCHARGED WITH UT NOTICE THEY HAD NO UNION. IN SCHOOL WE WERE TAUGHT THAT UNIONS WERE USELESS AND WRONG IN CONCEPT. I QUESTION THAT NOW. I REMEMBERED THAT IN MY CASE AND THAT OF MY FAMILY, IT WAS DIFFICULT TO GET JOBS AND DECENT PAY.

THEN CAME THE CROWNING INJUSTICE: THE RATHER ARROGANT BUT PENNILESS ENGLISH ARCHITECT WHO HEADED THE JOB, SUDDENLY MARRIED THE RICH WIDOW AND SOON WAS MASTER OF HER MILLIONS. I COULD NOT SEE THE JUSTICE OF THIS. LATER I CAME TO ASK, IF THERE IS INJUSTICE IN THE DISTRIBUTION OF GOODS, HOW CAN

IT BE INVESTIGATED AND RIGHTED UNLESS FIRST WE KNOW THE FACTS: HOW MUCH A MAN RECEIVES AND WHERE IT COMES FROM. NOW IN MY TOWN THIS WAS CONSIDERED A PRIVATE MATTER BECAUSE WE ASSUMED THAT SINCE A MAN "MADE" HIS MONEY, ITS AMOUNT AND DISPOSITION WAS HIS BUSINESS AND NO ONE ELSE.

BUT OF COURSE I CAME TO KNOW THAT NO MAN "MAKES" HIS FORTUNE "WE" MAKE IT--ALL WHO JOIN IN THE INTRICATE AND RELATED WORK THAT APPEARS IN THE FINAL PRODUCT AS CLOTHES, SHOES, HOMES AND RAILROADS. SO THAT DIVISION OF THE END RESULT COVERING YEARS OF WORK, THOUSANDS OF WORKERS AND HUNDREDS OF MIDDLEMEN, WAS A MATTER OF EQUAL INTRICACY AND MYSTERY. CERTAINLY IT WAS A MYSTERY TO US SCHOOL CHILDREN AND WAS MENTIONED LESS OFTEN THAN THE CREATION OF THE UNIVERSE, IN WHICH WE WERE WELLVERSED.

IN FACT HOW MEN MADE MONEY, WHAT WAS THE BASIS OF PROPERTY AND HOW INEQUALITIES AND INJUSTICES IN INCOME SHOULD OR COULD BE REMEDIED WAS NOT FRANKLY AND OPENLY STUDIED IN ANY OF THE TEN YEARS OF MY PRIMARY, SECONDARY AND HIGH SCHOOL LIFE. MOREOVER FROM MY CONTACT WITH GRADUATES OF OUR SCHOOLS

DURING COLLEGE TEACHING COVERING THE FIRST THIRD OF THIS CENTURY, I AM CONVINCED THAT SCHOOL CHILDREN TODAY ARE STILL DENIED TEACHING COVERING THE MAIN FACTS OF WORK AND WAGE, INCOME AND PROPERTY.

NOW IF THIS IS TRUE IN ELEMENTARY EDUCATION, WHAT DOES THE COLLEGE DO TO REMEDY THIS LACK? FIRST OF ALL, MOST CITIZENS DO NOT ATTEND COLLEGE AND THEREFORE THEIR TRAINING IN ECONOMICS ENDS BEFORE IT BEGINS. MOREOVER EVEN THE COLLEGES TOUCH THIS MATTER OF WORK AND INCOME GINGERLY. IT IS A HOT SUBJECT, IN MY DAY AND IN THESE DAYS, A DANGEROUS ONE. MANY A PROFESSOR HAS LOST HIS JOB BY TALKING TOO FRANKLY ON THESE MATTERS.

YET THIS IS THE PROBLEM BEFORE US. THIS IS WHY WE ARE TODAY A FRIGHTENED NATION, AFRAID OF OUR JOBS AND OUR REPUTATIONS, AND LOOKING OVER OUR SHOULDERS FOR SPIES. IT WOULD BE INTERESTING TO KNOW HOW MANY OF US HERE TONIGHT ARE NOTED IN THE FILES OF THE FBI AS PERSONS WHO WILL BEAR WATCHING. ABOVE ALL WE KNOW THAT THE WORLD TODAY IS IN SIGHT OF THE MOST HORRIBLE OF THREE HORRIBLE WARS, EVEN THOUGH NINE OUT OF TEN OF THE WORLD'S PEOPLES ARE PASSIONATELY AGAINST WAR.

A PARALLEL SITUATION MAY BE SEEN IN THE 'THIRTY YEARS WAR' WHICH RUINED EUROPE FOR A GENERATION AND SET BACK THE CLOCK OF CIVILIZATION FOR CENTURIES. THEN PEOPLE FOUGHT OVER RELIGION AND OVER DESPOTIC POWER BASED ON RELIGION: OVER THE ULTIMATE INTERPRETATION OF THE UNIVERSE, OF WHICH THEY NECESSARILY KNEW LITTLE, YET FOR THAT VERY REASON THEY MURDERED AND DESTROYED THE MORE VINDICTIVELY. AS CHILDREN THEY HAD IMBIBED DOGMA RATHER THAN SCIENCE, SO THAT THEY FOUGHT AND DID NOT KNOW WHAT THEY WERE FIGHTING ABOUT.

SO WITH US: FOR THREE CENTURIES WE HAVE GIVEN OUR THOUGHT, INGENUITY AND ENERGY, TO TECHNICAL CONQUEST OF THE PHYSICAL UNIVERSE. OUR SUCCESS HAS BEEN MIRACULOUS AND DRIVEN US MAD WITH PRIDE OF POWER. BUT SINCE THE BEGINNING OF OUR ERA: SINCE THE INDUSTRIAL REVOLUTION, BASED ON AMERICAN NEGRO SLAVERY,

HAS MADE WHITE EUROPE ARBITER OF THE DESTINY OF THE WORLD, WISE MEN HAVE WARNED THAT TECHNIQUE AND WEALTH WOULD CHOKE CIVILIZATION, UNLESS WE RATIONALIZED AND CONTROLLED PRODUCTION AND DISTRIBUTION. THIS WISDOM HAS BEEN DELIBERATELY IGNORED. IT HAS NOT BEEN TAUGHT IN OUR SCHOOLS SAVE BY EXCEPTION NOR MENTIONED OFTEN IN OUR PULPITS. THOSE MEN TODAY WHO ARE SWEARING BEFORE GOD THAT THEY NEVER ADVOCATED CHANGING OUR INDUSTRIAL SYSTEM FROM ITS PRESENT CONTRADICTIONS AND INJUSTICE TO SOMETHING BETTER, SHOULD REMEMBER THAT IN THAT CASE THEY ARE THE ONLY MEN OF SENSE AND INSIGHT IN THE LAST 300 YEARS WHO HAVE NOT ADVOCATED REFORM AND EVEN REVOLUTION IN OUR INDUSTRIAL SYSTEM. THE PASSIONATE CRY FOR REORM DID NOT BEGIN WITH KARL MARX, NOR WILL IT END WITH JOSEPH STALIN. IT CANNOT IN THE LONG RUN BE MURDERED BY WAR NOR SCARED TO DEATH BY WITCH HUNTS. IT WILL ENDURE AS LONG AS CIVILIZATION ENDURES BECAUSE IT IS FOUNDED ON SCIENCE AND JUSTICE.

IN THAT TOWN WHERE I WAS BORN, WE DID NOT MENTION IN THE SCHOOLS THE FUNDAMENTAL FACTS CONCERNING WEALTH AND PROPERTY, INCOME AND WAGE. WE LEFT OUR CHILDREN TO GROPE FOR WAYS OF EARNING A LIVING AND GUESS AT ECONOMIC J STICE. THE BEST OF THE GROWING GENERATION WERE FORCED TO GO AWAY TO FIND CAREERS, SO THAT THE CONTINUITY OF THE TOWNS' LIFE WAS BROKEN. WE THOUGHT OF THIS BEAUTIFUL AND RICH VALLEY AS PROVINCIAL AND OFFERING NO FUTURE AND BELIEVED THAT ONLY IN NEW YORK AND CHICAGO DID MEN REALLY LIVE, AND GET HAPPY AND RICH. WE SURRENDERED FARM AND HILL TO CITY SUMMER VISITORS AND MADE MONEY FLEECING THEM IN A VALLEY WHERE CIVILIZATION, THE SIMPLE LIFE, WITH SCIENCE AND ART MIGHT HAVE FLOURISHED: AND WHERE ABOVE ALL MEN COULD HAVE TAUGHT MEN THAT LIFE WAS MORE THAN MEAT AND THE BODY MORE THAN RAIMENT. BUT MENTION OF SUCH AN IDEAL ON MAIN STREET THEN AND TODAY WOULD SET ALL THE LOAFERS, RICH AND POOR INTO GALES OF LAUGHTER. THEY ARE DETERMINED WITH US TO PUT RUSSIA IN ITS PLACE: TO REFUTE LENIN AND KARL MARX OF WHOM THEY KNOW NOTHING, IN THEIR PLACES, TO ROOT OUR COMMUNISM, WHATEVER THAT MAY BE. THEY BELIEVE WITH GENERAL EISENHOWER THAT WE CAN "LICK THE WORLD" AND WITH BARNEY BARUCH, THE GREAT MANIPULATOR OF COPPER PRICES, THEY ARE WILLING TO RAISE AN ARMY FOR FORCED DRAFT, NOT ONLY TO RE-CONQUER CHINA, BUT TO PUT DOWN CIVIL WAR IN NEW YORK, STARTED BY ADVOCATES OF PEACE AND FOMENTED BY THE ENTIRE MONOPOLIZED PRESS OF THE NATION.

FOR THIS TOWN AND FOR THE NATION AND WORLD, THERE IS BUT ONE CURE, THE TRUTH, TAUGHT IN OUR SCHOOLS, LEARNED BY THE LOST ART OF READING AND SPREAD BY MEN WHO DARE THINK AND THINK AGAIN.

ONCE UPON A TIME, ACCORDING TO FABLE, AN OLD MAN VOLUNTERED ADVICE TO HIS SON ON THE YOUNG MAN'S FIRST JOURNEY INTO THE WORLD. // THE ~~OLD MAN~~ FATHER WAS COMFORTABLY PLACED, WITH ~~HIGH~~ DISTINGUISHED POSITION AND GOOD INCOME. HE HAD LONG EXPERIENCE AND CONSORTED WITH PERSONS OF HIGH DEGREE. // HE WAS THE FATHER OF THIS PROMISING YOUTH AND OF A DAUGHTER, BEAUTIFUL BUT PERHAPS OVER-SENSITIVE. // HE GAVE HIS SON SOUND BUT NOT ~~QUITE~~ OVER-IDEALIZED ADVICE. // HE TOLD HIM TO MIND HIS MANNERS, TO BE CONFIDENT BUT NOT AGGRESSIVE; TO WEAR CLOTHES NOT LOUD OR GAUDY BUT WELL-FITTING AND REGULARLY PRESSED; // HE WARNED HIM NOT TO BE QUARRELSOME BUT AT THE SAME TIME NO COWARD; TO AVOID DEBT; TO CHOOSE FRIENDS WARILY AND STICK BY THEM. // AND FINALLY, SUMMING ALL UP, HE SAID: "THIS ABOVE ALL, TO THINE OWN SELF BE TRUE, AND IT MUST FOLLOW AS THE NIGHT THE DAY THOU CANST NOT THEN BE FALSE TO ANY MAN." // THE SEQUEL OF THIS ADVICE ~~WAS~~ IS NOT PLEASANT TO RECALL. // THE FATHER DIED BY TRAGIC MISTAKE

35-4-26

AT THE HAND OF HIS DAUGHTER'S LOVER // AND THAT SAME DISTRAUGHT LOVER KILLED AND WAS KILLED BY THE SON HIMSELF WHILE HIS SISTER WENT MAD. //

SO ~~THAT~~ IN THIS DAY OF MADNESS AND HYSTERIA WHEN ALL MORAL VALUES SEEM AFLOAT, YOU MAY WELL LOOK ABOUT AND EXAMINE AND ASSESS ADVICE LIKE THIS AND SEE HOW AND WHERE IT APPLIES. // THE MATTER OF MANNERS, CLOTHES AND DEBT SEEM TRIVIAL COMPARED WITH THAT SELF WHICH DEMANDS FRIENDS AND TRUTH. // EVEN IF ONE GETS TRUTH AS LAERTES DID, THAT MAY MEAN DEATH AND DOWNFALL, IN PLACE OF THE WORLD-WISE CAREFULNESS WHICH THE COURT-BRED POLONIUS INTENDED. // IN SUCH CASE DOES THE ADAGE STILL HOLD? // WOULD THE FATHER HAVE THOUGHT SO? // CERTAINLY MUCH DEPENDS UPON THIS SELF AND WHAT IT IS AND HOW YOU VALUE IT.

DO YOU HOLD YOURSELF WORTH SACRIFICE OR ARE YOU OF LESS HEROIC MOLD? FOR INSTANCE, THAT HONESTY IS THE BEST POLICY FOR THE WORLD IN WHICH YOU LIVE IS UNQUESTIONABLE. BUT IS IT THE BEST POLICY PERSONALLY FOR YOU? FOR MIND YOU, BY BEING HONEST, YOU MAY LOSE YOUR JOB. YOUR SALARY MAY BE PEGGED OR LOWERED AND PROMOTION DENIED. YOUR FRIENDS, WHO ONCE WERE CLOSE TO YOU, MAY UNDER PRESSURE BE UNABLE TO RECOGNICE YOUR FEATHRES, PARTICULARLY IN A CROWD.

35-4-27

I REMEMBER A RECENT INCIDENT. PAUL ROBESON SANG IN DETROIT BEFORE THOUSANDS. HE TOOK LUNCH AT THE COLORED YMCA. THE YOUNG AND EFFICIENT SECRETARY CAME IN FULL OF SMILES AND HEARTY HANDSHAKES. HE FILLED HIS TRAY AND STARTED TO SIT DOWN WHEN RAISING HIS EYES HE SAW ROBESON OPPOSITE. HE DROPPED HIS GAZE, GRABBLED HIS TRAY CONVULSIVELY AND BOLTED TO THE FARTHEST CORNER OF THE ROOM. WHAT HE THOUGHT IS FRIENDSHIP COMPARED TO A JOB? AND TO HIM IT WAS NOTHING. THERE ARE TODAY IN THIS LAND, MEN AND WOMEN WHO IN THIS VERY WAY HAVE BEEN ASKED TO WEIGH HONESTY AGAINST INCOME: SELF-RESPECT

as for instance, the still lucrative calling of

AGAINST HIGH POSITION AS "WHITE FOLKS NIGGER," AND THEIR ANSWERS VARY AS THEIR SOULS DIFFER.

35-4-28

TO MANY, FIVE THOUSAND DOLLARS A YEAR IS FIVE THOUSAND DOLLARS INCLUDING A CHRYSTLER; AND THAT COMPARED TO AN HONEST SELF WEIGHS HIGH INTO THE TONS. BUT THERE ARE A FEW, WHOSE SOULS ALTHOUGH NOT HEAVY, ARE UNMOVED. TO THEM IT IS NO MATTER OF WEALTH HERE OR MILK AND HONEY HEREAFTER: IT IS JUST A FLAT FACT THAT THEIR OWN PRIDE AND SELF-RESPECT WILL NOT LET THEM LIE: THAT NONE OF THE MILLIONAIRES WHO HAVE BOUGHT AND OWN AND DIRECT THIS NATION AND WHO TELL YOU AND ME AND ALL WHAT TO DO AND WHAT WE DARE NOT THINK: NOT EVEN THIS VAST, ORGANIZED AND CORPORATE WEALTH HAVE ENOUGH MONEY TO BUY THEM. THAT THEIR MINDS ARE FREE AND THEIR SOULS THEIR OWN AND IF THEY WANT TO BE REPUBLICANS, COMMUNISTS OR EVEN PRESBYTERIANS, IT'S NOBODY'S DAMNED BUSINESS BUT THEIR OWN.

AND WITH SELVES WHICH PUT THIS HIGH VALUE ON THEIR OWN SOULS THEY WILL MARCH INTO LIFE, UNAFRAID AND SINGING, AND TAKE WHAT COMES // THIS ABOVE ALL, THEY CANNOT THEN BE FALSE.

We can stop a war or Wage Guest

INTERVENTION DU DR DUBOIS Prague 1950

A year ago in the great peace meeting in Moscow, I said that the vast majority of the American people did not want war and that I was speaking as the unofficial representative of these people. Today it is still true that most Americans hate war but it is also true that a significant change has taken place in public opinion.

A powerful group of Americans has come into almost undisputed power. This group representing big business is determined to have world war because they see that war is the only method of maintaining their control of cheap labor and essential raw material which are necessary for their power. Out of such control in Asia and Africa they can afford to pay high wage in America and thus keep political control at home and stop the spread of socialism among the laboring classes.

For this purpose they have attacked all progressive and liberal elements and much social legislation by an unprecedented organized propaganda. For fifty years I have been in touch with social currents in the United States. Never before has organized reaction wielded the power it does today. By ownership of press and radio, by curtailment of free speech, by imprisonment of liberal thinkers and writers. It has become almost impossible today in my country even to hold a public rally for peace. This has been accomplished by inducing Americans to believe that America is in imminent danger of aggression from communism, socialism and liberalism, and that the peace movement cloaks this threat. Thus most of our leading thinkers have been driven into silence and even our great progressive Henry Wallace has at last been led to believe that the attack of little Korea on the great United States represents the beginning of world-wide aggression.

Manifestly to meet this hysteria it is not so much a question of the concept of war under any circumstances, as the far deeper problem of getting the truth to the masses of the citizens of the United States who still in overwhelming majority hate murder, crippling destruction and insanity, as a means of progress. By personal contact, by honest appeal, by knowing the truth ourselves, we can yet win the peace in America. But it is going to take guts and the willingness to jeopardize jobs and respectability. Our peace movement which still is vast and old, has today been split into factions and differences. There are those who see in the atom bomb the end of civilisation. There are those who say this is not far enough; we must oppose general bombing of civilians such as today is decimating women and children in Korea. There are others who ask if you are against war why not oppose all armaments. And still others who like Secretary Acheson demand loudly why do not peacemakers fight all aggression.

The reply to these critics is that the Stockhom Appeal is a minimum demand from civilized people and as such, in brevity, simplicity and honest directness, forms one of the great statements of all history. The person unable or unwilling to sign it, labels himself as holding something more important than indiscriminate murder of helpless and innocent persons. But there is no earthly reason why signers of this petition should not willingly join hands and actions with all who seek to end war by universal disarmament.

But when men go beyond this and name "aggression" an excuse for war, the immediate answer is what is aggression? What aggression has Korea committed against the United States? Moreover what war in the last ten centuries has not been excused by alleging aggression? Such an excuse for war is equal to attacking sin as the reason for evil.

Courage then truth and work, the insistence that the Russians are not devils but men striving for a better world, and the insistence even in the United States that persons be given the right and the opportunity to seek and speak the truth.

When I asked for a passport to come to this meeting, the U.S. Department of State demanded that I sign a statement that I was aware of the "unsettled conditions" in this country. This I refused to do. I merely wrote "whatever the conditions are I wish to come". So the Partisans of Peace want peace no matter what some people may call aggression.

The Peace Information center which I represent here at your gracious invitation, has had great success in a short time and with little money. Our constituents prove how deepseated is the American demand for peace and to what extraordinary exertions the warmongers are being forced to counteract our appeal to truth and justice.

PRESS CONFERENCE, September 24, 1950
Hotel Theresa,
American Labor Party

THE CAMPAIGN OF 1950

THE GREAT ISSUE, OF THIS TIME, OF THIS NATION, OF THIS WORLD, IS PEACE AND THE CENTRAL THEME OF THE COMPAIGN ~~WHICH BEGINS HERE TODAY~~ IS IS PEACE, NO MORE WAR. THERE ARE IN THIS NATION TODAY POWERFUL INTERESTS WHICH ARE DETERMINED ON WAR. TO THIS END THEY ARE SUPPRESSING THE BILL OF RIGHTS SO AS TO STOP DISCUSSION, ~~DISTORT THE FACTS~~ AND STAMPEDE THE NATION THROUGH THE HYSTERIA OF GROUNDLESS FEAR. WHO IS IT AMONG US WHO WANTS WAR AND WHY DO THEY WANT IT?

THE AMERICAN LABOR PARTY KNOWS WHO AND WHY. AND THERE ARE MANY OTHERS WHO ALSO KNOW. BUT THE AMERICAN LABOR PARTY NOT ONLY KNOWS BUT IT IS GOING TO DO SOMETING ABOUT IT. THAT RIGHT OF ACTION IS THE RIGHT TO ELECT OUR LAWMAKERS AND EXECUTIVES BY UNIVERSAL AND SECRET BALLOT.

OUR PARTY THEREFORE HAS SELECTED CANDIDATES FOR GOVENOR AND LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR; FOR COMPTROLLER AND ATTORNEY-GENERAL, ~~FOR MAYOR OF THE CITY OF NEW YORK AND~~ FOR MEMBERS of the Legislature OF THE FEDERAL CONGRESS. for local offices

45-4-144

IT HAS ASKED ME TO RUN FOR THE UNITED STATES SENATE. THIS IS FOR ME A NEW ROLE. ONLY ONCE IN MY LIFE HAVE I HELD PUBLIC OFFICE, AND THAT WAS WHEN IN 1928, FOR A MONTH I WAS MADE SPECIAL MINISTER PLENIPOTENTIARY TO LIBERIA. MY POLITICAL ACTIVITY HAS BEEN ALMOST WHOLLY CONFINED TO WRITING. IN THIS WRITING, WITH SOME SPEAKING, I TRIED FIRST TO PUT THE NEGRO VOTE IN PROPER AND EFFECTIVE RELATION TO THE NATIONAL NEEDS. IN THE FIRST ELECTION OF WOODROW WILSON, I SOUGHT TO END NEGRO SUBSERVIENCY TO THE REPUBLICAN PARTY. I TRIED TO INDUCE THE BULL MOOSE MOVEMENT TO MAKE NEGRO RIGHTS A MAIN PLANK AND FOUGHT IT WHEN IT REFUSED. I OPPOSED TAFT'S "LILY-WHITE" SOUTHERN POLICY AND SUPPORTED THE THIRD PARY MOVEMENTS OF LAFOLLETTE AND HENRY WALLACE. I HAVE NEVER BEEN AN ACTIVE PARTY WORKER, BUT I HAVE BEEN AN ENROLLED MEMBER OF THE SOCIALIST PARTY, OF THE DEMOCRATIC PARTY UNDER THE NEW DEAL, AND LATELY OF THE AMERICAN LABOR PARTY.

35-4-264

THE BASIC MOTIVE OF MY POLITICAL THOUGHT AND ACTIVITY HAS BEEN THE SECURING FOR ALL AMERICANS, CIVIL AND POLITICAL RIGHTS REGARDLESS OF RACE OR COLOR. I ASSUMED AND ASSUMED TOO EASILY, THAT ONCE COLOR DISCRIMINATION WAS DONE AWAY WITH, THE NATION AND THE WORLD WOULD BE FREE TO ATTACK AND SOLVE CERTAIN BASIC PROBLEMS OF HUMAN PROGRESS WHICH I KNEW FULL WELL CRIED FOR SOLUTION. BEHIND AND BENEATH THIS DEMAND FOR RIGHTS THEREFORE LAY ALWAYS THE ASSUMPTION THAT WITH THE RIGHT TO VOTE, THE RIGHT TO THINK AND SPEAK, AND THE RIGHT TO KNOW, WOULD COME THROUGH THE VERY EXERCISE OF THESE FUNDAMENTAL PRIVILEGES, THE BASIC RIGHT OF HUMAN BEINGS TO LIVE, TO WORK: TO EAT AND BE SHELTERED, TO BE SHIELDED FROM DISEASE AND HAVE THEIR CHILDREN EDUCATED.

BUT TO MY AMAZEMENT AND FRIGHT, I HAVE LIVED TO SEE THE ERA OF PEACE To WHICH I WAS TRAINED TO LOOK FORWARD AS THE GOAL OF CIVILIZATION TRANSFORMED INTO PLANS FOR UNIVERSAL WORLD WAR; AND A THEORY OF PROGRESS BY WAR AND MORE WAR, EACH MORE SAVAGE AND DESTRUCTIVE THAN THE LAST. I NOW

REALIZE THAT I, AS WELL AS YOU, AM FACING A CRISIS IN WHICH NO CONSIDERATIONS OF EASE OR AGE, SUFFICE TO HOLD US BACK FROM a GREAT DUTY. THAT DUTY IS THE ONE OF TRYING TO BRING REASON AND EXPERIENCE TO BEAR UPON those of us who have GONE TEMPORARILY INSANE.

THE BASIC CAUSE OF THIS INSANITY IS THE EFFORT OF POWERFUL INTERESTS, ARMED BY CONTROL OF PRESS AND RADIO, SCHOOL AND PLATFORM, BACKED BY ALMOST UNLIMITED MONEY, TO TURN THE ATTENTION OF THE WORLD FROM THE FUNDAMANTAL PROBLEM OF OUR AGE. THAT PROBLEM IS "THAT IN OUR UNPRECEDENTED ORGANIZATION OF INDUSTRY, WITH ITS MARVELLOUS TECHNIQUE AND WORLD-WIDE EXTENT, THE VAST MAJORITY OF MANKIND REMAIN SICK, IGNORANT AND STARVED, WHILE A FEW HAVE MORE INCOME IN GOODS AND SERVICES THAN THEY CAN USE."

IT IS NO SUFFICIENT ANSWER TO THIS FUNDAMENTAL PROBLEM, TO POINT OUT THAT THE PRESENT DEGRADATION OF THE WORKER IS NOT SO GREAT AS IT ONCE WAS

W. E. B. DU BOIS 9 Speak for Peace --1-- PRESS CONFERENCE [1950]

~~THE CAMPAIGN OF 1950~~ AMERICAN LABOR PARTY
HOTEL THERESA, SEPTEMBER 24, 1950

12:30 p.m.

THE GREAT ISSUE, OF THIS TIME, OF THIS NATION, OF THIS WORLD, IS PEACE; AND THE CENTEAL THEME OF THE COMPAIGN WHICH BEGINS HERE TODAY IS PEACE, NO MORE WAR. THERE ARE IN THIS NATIONTODAY POWERFUL INTERESTS WHICH ARE DETERMINED ON WAR. TO THIS END THEY ARE SUPPRESSING THE BILL OF RIGHTS SO AS TO STOP DISCUSSION, DISTORT THE FACTS AND STAMPEDE THE NATION THROUGH THE HYSTERIA OF GROUNDLESS FEAR. WHO IS IT AMONG US WHO WANTS WAR, AND WHY DO THEY WANT IT?

THE AMERICAN LABOR PARTY KNOWS WHO AND WHY, AND THER ARE MANY OTHERS WHO ALSO KNOW. BUT THE AMERICAN LABOR PARTY NOT ONLY KNOWS BUT IT IS GOING TO DO SOMETING ABOUT IT. THAT RIGHT OF ACTION IS THE RIGHT TO ELECT OUR LAW-MAKERS AND EXECUTIVE BY UNIVERSAL AND SECRET BALLOT.

OUR PARTY THEREFORE HAS SELECTED CANDITATES FOR GOVENOR AND LIEUTENANT-GOVERNOR: FOR COMPTROLLER AND ATTORNEY-GENERAL, FOR MAYOR OF THE CITY OF NEW YORK AND FOR MEMBERS OF THE FEDERAL CONGRESS.

IT HAS ASKED ME TO RUN FOR THE UNITED STATES SENATE. THIS IS FOR ME A NEW ROLE. ONLY ONCE IN MY LIFE HAVE I HELD PUBLIC OFFICE, AND THAT WAS WHEN IN 1928, FOR A MONTH I WAS MADE SPECIAL MINISTER PLENIPOTENTIARY TO LIBERIA. MY POLITICAL ACTIVITY HAS BEEN ALMOST WHOLLY CONFINED TO WRITING. IN THIS WRITING, WITH SOME SPEAKING, I TRIED FIRST TO PUT THE NEGRO VOTE IN PROPER AND EFFECTIVE RELATION TO THE NATIONAL NEEDS. IN THE FIRST ELECTION OF WOODROW WILSON, I SOUGHT TO END NEGRO SUBSERVIENCY TO THE REPUBLICAN PARTY. I TRIEDTO INDUCE THE BULL MOOSE MOVEMENT TO MAKE NEGRO RIGHTS A MAIN PLANK AND FOUGHT IT WHEN IT REFUSED. I OPPOSED TAFT'S "LILY-WHITE" SOUTHERN POLICY AND SUPPORTED THE THIRD PARY MOVEMENTS OF LAFOLLETTE AND HENRY WALLACE. I HAVE NEVER BEEN AN ACTIVE PARTY WORKER, BUT I HAVE BEEN AN ENROLLED MEMBER OF THE SOCIALIST PARTY, OF THE DEMOCRATIC PARTY UNDER THE NEW DEAL, AND LATELY OF THE AMERICAN LABOR PARTY.

THE BASIC MOTIVE OF MY POLITICAL THOUGHT AND ACTIVITY HAS BEEN THE SECURING FOR ALL AMERICANS, CIVIL AND POLITICAL RIGHTS REGARDLESS OF RACE OR COLOR. I ASSUMED AND ASSUMED TOO EASILY, THAT ONCE COLOR DISCRIMINATION WAS DONE AWAY WITH, THE NATION AND THE WORLD WOULD BE FREE TO ATTACK AND SOLVE CERTAIN PROBLEMS OF HUMAN PROGRESS WHICH I KNEW FULL WELL CRIED FOR SOLUTION. BEHIND AND BENEATH THIS DEMAND FOR RIGHTS, THEREFORE, LAY ALWAYS THE ASSUMPTION THAT WITH THE RIGHT TO VOTE, THE RIGHT TO THINK AND SPEAK, AND THE RIGHT TO KNOW, WOULD COME, THROUGH THE VERY EXERCISE OF THESE FUNDAMENTAL PRIVILEGES, THE BASIC RIGHT OF HUMAN BEINGS TO LIVE, TO WORK: TO EAT AND BE SHELTERED, TO BE SHIELDED FROM DISEASE AND HAVE THEIR CHILDREN EDUCATED.

BUT TO MY AMAZEMENT AND FRIGHT, I HAVE LIVED TO SEE THE ERA OF PEACE WHICH I WAS TRAINED TO LOOK FORWARD TO AS THE GOAL OF CIVILIZATION TRANSFORMED INTO PLANS FOR UNIVERSAL WORLD WAR: AND A THEORY OF PROGRESS BY WAR AND MORE WAR, EACH MORE SAVAGE AND DESTRUCTIVE THAN THE LAST. I NOW

REALIZE THAT I, AS WELL AS YOU, AM FACING A CRISIS IN WHICH NO CONSIDERATIONS OF EASE OR AGE, SUFFICE TO HOLD ME BACK FROM a GREAT DUTY. THAT DUTY IS THE ONE OF TRYING TO BRING REASON AND EXPERIENCE TO BEAR UPON those of us who have GONE TEMPORARILY INSANE.

THE BASIC CAUSE OF THIS INSANITY IS THE EFFORT OF POWERFUL INTERESTS, ARMED BY CONTROL OF PRESS AND RADIO, SCHOOL AND PLATFORM, BACKED BY ALMOST UNLIMITED MONEY, TO TURN THE ATTENTION OF THE WORLD FROM THE FUNDAMANTAL PROBLEM OF OUR AGE. THAT PROBLEM IS: THAT IN OUR UNPRECEDENTED ORGANIZATION OF INDUSTRY, WITH ITS MARVELLOUS TECHNIQUE AND WORLD-WIDE EXTENT, THE VAST MAJORITY OF MANKIND REMAIN SICK, IGNORANT AND STARVED, WHILE A FEW HAVE MORE INCOME IN GOODS AND SERVICES THAN THEY CAN USE.

IT IS NO SUFFICIENT ANSWER TO THIS FUNDAMENTAL PROBLEM, TO POINT OUT THAT THE PRESENT DEGRADATION OF THE WORKER IS NOT SO GREAT AS IT ONCE WAS

OR IS MUCH LESS IN SOME LANDS THAN IN OTHERS. THE POINT IS THAT IT IS FAR TOO GREAT THAN IS NECESSARY OR DECENT AND CALLS FOR DRASTIC CURE NOW AND NOT A THOUSAND YEARS HENCE.

THIS IS THE BASIC PROBLEM OF OUR CULTURE, NO MATTER HOW MUCH WE TRY TO CONCEAL AND IGNORE IT; OR TRY TO DIVERT ATTENTION FROM IT TO OTHER MATTERS. THERE ARE NO OTHER MATTERS SO IMPORTANT OR SO PRESSING. WE MAY BE LED TO YELL OUR HEADS OFF TO CONVINCE OURSELVES THAT THE PROBLEM OF THIS WORLD TODAY IS THE SOVIET UNION AND COMMUNISM. THAT IS DELIBERATE DECEPTION. THE PROBLEM OF ECONOMIC JUSTICE TO WORKING MEN, EXISTED BEFORE THE RUSSIAN REVOLUTION AND WOULD REMAIN IF RUSSIA WERE SWEPT FROM THE FACE OF THE EARTH TOMORROW. PROPOSALS TO SOLVE THIS PROBLEM BY SOCIALISM AND COMMUNISM, DID NOT ORIGINATE IN RUSSIA AND WILL NOT END THERE. WHAT RUSSIA DID WAS TO ATTEMPT TO SOLVE THIS PROBLEM IN A SYSTEMATIC WAY, AT A TIME WHEN THE 19th CENTURY HAD BEQUEATHED TO THE WORLD THE DOGMA THAT THE PROBLEM OF ECONOMIC JUSTICE WAS INSOLUBLE: THAT MOST MEN MUST ALWAYS BE POOR, IGNORANT AND SICK,

49-4-210

BECAUSE MOST MEN WERE SO INFERIOR IN GIFT AND MORALS THAT THIS WAS INEVITABLE THAT CIVILIZATION DEPENDED ON MAKING THE FEW MASTERS OF THE MANY, THE RICH THE RULERS OF THE POOR; AND THUS IN THIS WAY, AND ONLY IN THIS WAY, COULD CIVILIZATION BE BUILT AND MAINTAINED.

IS THIS TRUE? WHETHER IT IS TRUE OR NOT, WE HAVE NO RIGHT TO STOP its truth — from denying PEOPLE AND NATIONS FROM DENYING THE NECESSITY OF POVERTY, DISEASE AND IGNORANCE; AND FROM EXPERIMENTING IN THEIR OWN WAY TO MAKE A BETTER WORLD. MOREOVER, OUR OWN DUTY IS CLEAR; AND THAT IS, NOT TO PULL DOWN OTHERS BUT RATHER TO BUILD OURSELVES UP: TO PROVE TO THE WORLD THAT THE ECONOMIC CONDITION OF MANKIND CAN BE BETTERED AND THAT WE KNOW HOW TO DO THIS AND THAT WE PROPOSE TO PROVE OUR BELIEF BY ACTION. INSTEAD OF THIS, WHAT ARE WE UP TO? WE ARE TRYING TO FIGHT AN IDEA. WE ARE GOING TO MAKE NATIONS AGREE WITH US AND OUR WAY OF LIFE BY USING ATOM BOMBS, AND BOMBER PLANES, BATTLESHIPS AND ARTILLERY. And while wasting time, strength and wealth in this effort, we are doing almost nothing to implement our own theory of progress

WHY? WHY DO WE PROPOSE TO MAKE THE RUSSIAN EXPERIMENT FAIL, TO THROTTLE CHINA AND TO THROW THE WORLD INTO CONTINUOUS WAR? THE REASON IS CLEAR: WE FEAR THAT ANY SUCCESS OF SOCIALISM OR COMMUNISM WILL INTERFERE WITH OUR MONEY-MAKING. WE HAVE BECOME A NATION OF MONEY-MAKERS. WE THINK THAT MONEY-MAKING IS THE GREAT END OF MAN. OUR WHOLE IDEOLOGY BOWS TO THIS FANTASTIC IDEA. RELIGION, SCIENCE, ART AND MORALS IN AMERICA TEND TO BE MEASURED BY THE PROFIT THEY BRING, AND THE TRUE VOCATION OF AMERICAN MANHOOD IS REGARDED AS PROFIT-MAKING BUSINESS ENTERPRISE, and not social service.

35-42-43

WAR IS BIG BUSINESS AND A BUSINESS IMMENSELY PROFITABLE TO A FEW, BUT OF MEASURELESS DISASTER AND DEATH OF DREAM TO THE MANY. BIG BUSINESS WANTS WAR IN ORDER TO KEEP YOUR MIND OFF SOCIAL REFORM: IT WOULD RATHER SPEND YOUR TAXES FOR ATOM BOMBS THAN FOR SCHOOLS, BECAUSE IN THIS WAY IT MAKES MORE MONEY; IT WOULD RATHER HAVE YOUR SONS DYING IN KOREA THAN STUDYING IN AMERICA AND ASKING AWKWARD QUESTIONS. THE SYSTEM WHICH IT ADVOCATES DEPENDS ON WAR AND MORE WAR.

IN ORDER TO HAVE WAR, BIG BUSINESS MUST HAVE HATE: SO ITS PRESS AND NEWSPAPERS ASK YOU TO HATE COMMUNISTS AND IF NOT COMMUNISTS, HATE ALL WHO DO NOT HATE COMMUNISTS; INDEED HATE ALL WHO DO NOT TAKE ORDERS FROM THOSE WHO NOW RULE AMERICA.

WHAT HAS HAPPENED TO THE WORLD, IS THAT THOSE WHO PROFIT FROM WAR, ESPECIALLY IN THE UNITED STATES, HAVE GAINED CONTROL OF GOVERNMENT, OF INFORMATION OR PROPAGANDA. gigantic and unprecedented THIS CAME ABOUT BECAUSE OF THE FIRST WORLD WAR,, WHICH WE ENTERED WITH RELUCTANCE AND PARTICIPATED IN MAINLY BY FURNISHING MATERIALS, AT A HUGE PROFIT TO THOSE WHO CONTROLLED THEM. THE RESULT WAS TWO FOLD: AMERICANS CONCEIVED THE IDEA OF CONTINUING TO PROFIT FROM THE WORLD'S DISASTER AND TO MOVE IN AS SUCCESSOR OF THE BRITISH EMPIRE, AS RULER OF MOST OF MANKIND. ON THE OTHER HAND, RUSSIA AND OTHER NATIONS WHO HAD BEEN THROUGH HELL BECAUSE OF WAR, BEGAN EXPERIMENTS FOR REFORMING IF NOT REPLACING THE

CURRENT METHODS OF INDUSTRIAL ORGANIZATION. WE JOINED THE CAPITALISTS OF THE WORLD TO SUPPRESS THEIR SOCIALIST EXPERIMENTS, WHICH THREATENED OUR PLAN OF WORLD INDUSTRIAL EMPIRE. HOWEVER, JUST AS PLANS WERE RIPE FOR A MASS ATTACK IN PARTICULAR, ON THE SOVIETS, THE BOTTOM FELL OUT OF MODERN CAPITALIST INDUSTRY. THIS WAS NO FAULT OF RUSSIA NOR OF SOCIALISM, BUT WAS DIRECTLY DUE TO THE OVERREACHING GREED OF PRIVATE PROFIT.

BUT NO MATTER WHAT ITS CAUSE, THE RESULT WAS THAT THE SOVIET EXPERIMENT GOT A BREATHING SPACE, WHILE IN THE UNITED STATES THE NEW DEAL WAS FORCED TO ADOPT MANY SOCIALIST REMEDIES FOR POVERTY, UNEMPLOYMENT AND DISEASE: WE CURBED THE PROFITS OF CAPITAL; WE PUT THE STATE INTO CERTAIN INDUSTRIES AND WE ADOPTED PLANNED INDUSTRY LIKE THE TVA, WE RELIEVED THE UNEMPLOYED, AND WE ESTABLISHED SOCIAL SECURITY, and began to house the homeless.

IN OTHER WORDS, THE UNITED STATES BEGAN TO FORM AND CARRY OUT ITS OWN PLANS FOR SO REORGANIZING INDUSTRY AS TO SAVE CAPITALISM WHEREVER IT DESERVED TO BE SAVED.

HERE THE AMERICAN LABOR PARTY TAKES ITS STAND AS THE SUCCESSOR OF THE NEW DEAL. IT MAINTAINS THAT THE SOVIET UNION HAS A RIGHT TO ADOPT ITS OWN ECONOMIC PHILOSOPHY AND CARRY IT OUT AS IT WILL. AND THAT ALSO THE UNITED STATES HAS A RIGHT TO ATTEMPT TO SAVE ITS OWN WAY OF LIFE, AND THAT THIS CAN BE DONE AS THE NEW DEAL STARTED TO PROVE, WHEN IT WAS SABOTAGED NOT ONLY BY ITS ENEMIES BUT MORE COMPLETELY BY ITS FRIENDS. WHAT THE AMERICAN LABOR PARTY ~~DENIES~~ asserts IS THAT THE PRESENT PLANS OF BIG BUSINESS TO COMPEL THE WORLD TO ADOPT OUR PHILOSOPHY AND OUR METHODS BY FORCE OF ARMS IS NOT ONLY UNREASONABLE IN THE LIGHT OF OUR FAILURE, BUT XX IN ITSELF CAN ONLY END IN DISASTER.

IT WOULD SEEM THAT THE FUTILE EFFORTS OF A SUCCESSION OF MASTER RACES TO IMPOSE THEIR WILL AND POWER UPON MANKIND WOULD TEACH US THAT OUR PROGRAM OF WORLD CONQUEST IS CRAZY. THERE IS NO POSSIBLE CHANCE FOR US TO ACCOMPLISH WHAT EGYPT, PERSIA, GREECE, ROME, GREAT BRITAIN AND HITLER FAILED TO DO.

To continue our program of aggression abroad,

WITH OUR LITTLE "POLICE ACTION" IN KOREA SHAKING OUR RESOURSES TO THE FOUNDATIONS, HOW LONG AND WHAT EFFORT WILL IT TAKE TO CONQUER CHINA, THE SOVIET UNION, THE BALKANS, NOT TO MENTION INDIA? OUR MILITARY PLANS ARE IDIOTIC AND STILL MORE SO IF WE DEPEND ON GERMANY, and France JAPAN, TO PULL OUR CHESTNUTS OUT OF THE FIRS. IT WILL TAKE MORE THAN ONE WILD MAN OF TOKIO TO BRING THIS FANTASY into FACT.

MOREOVER, the American Labor Party POINTS OUT THAT THE PERSONS WHO ARE FORCING US TO ADOPT THIS POLICY OF FORCE AND VIOLENCE ARE THE UPHOLDRES OF BIG BUSINESS: THAT THEY ARE PROFITING AS NEVER BEFORE BY WAR AND PREPARATION FOR WAR, AND ARE DELIBERATELY BLIND TO THE FACT THAT THEIR PROFIT IS THE DISASTER OF AMERICA AND THE WORLD. MOREOVER, WE POINT OUT THAT HERBERT LEHMAN WAS TRAINED IN BIG BUSINESS AND TODAY DELIBERATELY REPRESENTS ITS INTERESTS. LAST YEAR HERBERT LEHMAN CALLED JOHN FOSTER DULLES "A BIGOT, AN ANTI-SEMITE AND A FASCIST." FOR THAT REASON I VOTED FOR LEHMAN INSTEAD OF DULLES.

THIS YEAR, SENATOR LEHMAN WELCOMES THIS SAME DULLES INTO "BI-PARTISAN" COLLABORATION FOR WAR; HE VOTES FOR A CONCENTRATION CAMP FOR COMMUNISTS AND THOSE CALLED COMMUNISTS; HE IGNORES THE RESTORATION TO POWER IN GERMANY OF THE SAME GANG WHICH KILLED SIX MILLION JEWS; AND ACQUIESES INTO THEIR RE-ARMING. WHY? WHAT HAS CHANGED MR LEHMAN? HE HAS NOT CHANGED. HE FOLLOWS AUTOMATICALLY HIS TRAINING IN THE SAME SCHOOL, and on the same Wall Street WHICH MADE DULLES A WARMONGER AND ATTORNEY OF THE NAZIS; AND THAT IS, FOREIGN INVESTMENT OF AMERICAN CAPITAL, SO AS TO MAKE ENORMOUS PROFIT OUT OF THE POVERTY AND HELPLESSNESS OF ASIA AND AFRICA, South America. AMERICAN CAPITAL IS POURING INTO SOUTH AFRICA AND RHODESIA; WE ARE THE REAL OWNERS OF SERF-LABOR IN THE BELGIAN CONGO; WE ARE WILD TO HIRE CHINESE FACTORY HANDS AT 12 CENTS A DAY; WE HELPED SHOOT DOWN THE striking BLACK MINERS IN WEST AFRICA. AND TO BULWARK OUR INVESTMENT AND GUARANTEE HIGH PROFIT, THE POWER OF BUSINESS JOINS HANDS WITH THE MILITARY.

THUS, WE ARE TODAY RULED BY BIG BUSINESS AND BIG BRASS FOR PROFIT. A REPRESENTATIVE OF THE STEEL TRUST HAS BEEN SECRETARY OF STATE: A REPRESENTATIVE OF MORGAN AND ROCKERFELLER IS CHIEF ADVISER OF TRUMAN ON FOREIGN AFFAIRS; ANOTHER MORGAN MAN HAS BEEN UNDER-SECRETARY OF STATE AND may BE SECOND IN COMMAND UNDER MARSHALL; A SECRETARY OF THE NAVY AND DEFENSE CHIEF REPRESENTED DILLON, REID AND COMPANY, AND ANOTHER, BECAME SECRETARY OF WAR. WHERE BIG BUSINESS DOES NOT CONTROL GOVERNMENT, MEN TRAINED FOR WAR, DO. WE HAVE JUST REFORMED OUR DEFENSE DEPARTMENT BY PLACING A SOLDIER AT ITS HEAD, IN DEFIANCE OF SOUND TRADITION; HIS FIRST WORD IS UNIVERSAL TRAINING OF OUR CHILDREN — FOR ALL-OUT WAR, ALL OVER THE EARTH, AT A COST GREATER THAN WE EVER SPENT FOR EDUCATION, HEALTH, HOUSING AND SOCIAL UPLIFT ALTOGETHER. AND FOR WHAT? FOR PROFIT TO INVESTORS WHICH IS TODAY PILING UP AT THE RATE OF $23,000,000,000 A YEAR; WITH THE PROSPECT THAT THE PROFIT FOR 1950 WILL BE FOUR AND A HALF times THAT OF 1939, AND TWICE AS HIGH AS THE ENORMOUS WAR PROFIT OF 1944.

IT IS THE THEORY OF DEMOCRATIC GOVERNMENT, THAT WHEN A SITUATION LIKE THIS ARISES, TWO POLITICAL PARTIES WILL EXAMINE, DEBATE AND DISPUTE ISSUES AND ACTS, UNTIL THE PEOPLE CAN MAKE INTELLIGENT CHOICE OF THE PROBLEMS BEFORE THEM. TODAY WE HAVE ONLY ONE POLITICAL PARTY, WHICH SHARES POWER FOR THE SAME ENDS. MEN LIKE DEWEY AND HANLEY CAN ONLY TRY TO DO WHAT THE DEMOCRATS HAVE ALREADY DONE: IF THE DEMOCRATS ARE FOR WAR, THEY ARE FOR MORE WAR; IF THE DEMOCRATS REPUDIATE THE NEW DEAL, THE REPUBLICANS LOATHE AND DESPISE IT. THE ONE POINT OF AGREEMENT BETWEEN THE TWO SO-CALLED PARTIES IS WAR ON ANY NATION OR MOVEMENT WHICH STANDS IN THE WAY OF AMERICAN PROFIT; AND THE SUPPRESSION OF ALL DISCUSSION OF THE MERITS OF THE PRESENT CRISIS. I TRY TO SPREAD IN AMERICA NEWS OF THE PEACE MOVEMENT IN EUROPE AND I AM THREATENED WITH JAIL. PAUL ROBESON ADVISES NEGROES NEVER TO FIGHT AGAINST PEOPLE ~~WHO ARE~~ STRIVING FOR A BETTER WORLD FOR BLACK AND WHITE, AND HE IS DENIED THE RIGHT TO MAKE A LIVING.

45-4-214

IN THIS SITUATION THE AMERICAN LABOR PARTY TAKES ITS STAND ON THE PROPOSITION: "THERE CAN BE NO PROGRESS WITHOUT PEACE" . WE ARE THE ONLY NATION IN THE CIVILIZED WORLD ADVOCATING WAR AND COMPELLING OTHER NATIONSTO FIGHT.FOR THIS WE ARE HATED AND FEARED. WE CALL FOR THE IMMEDIATE SETTLEMENT OF THE WAR IN KOREA, WHICH AN AMERICAN SOLDIER HAS CHARACTERIZED WHEN HE SAID "I NEVER SAW SUCH A USELESS DAMNED WAR IN ALL MY LIFE!" MEDIATION,WITH BOTH NORTH AND SOUTH KOREA IN CONFERENCE, AND CHINA REPRESENTED IN THE UNITED NATIONS, IS THE ONLY SOLUTION. WE ASK RESUMPTION OF THE FREE FLOW OF TRADE BETWEEN EAST AND WEST AND THE UTTER OVERTHROW OF COLONIALISM EVEN WHEN MASKED UNDER POINT FOUR.

TO STOP THIS PROGRAM OF REASON AND PROGRESS, THE ALLIED AND ASSOCIATED POLITICAL PROFIT-MAKERS, CALLED THE REPUBLICAN AND DEMOCRATIC PARTIES, HAVE ADOPTED THE LAST TACTICS OF DISPAIR: THEY HAVE MADE NOT ONLY TRUTH BUT CIVIL RIGHTS A CASUALTY OF WAR. JUST WHAT DID MR. LEHMAN DO TO IMPLEMENT TRUMAN'S CIVIL RIGHTS PROGRAM EXCEPT BE ABSENT WHEN BARKLEY'S CLOSURE RULE WAS DEFEATED. THEY HAVE TURNED YOUR ATTENTION FROM PROGRESS AND PEACE TO HATE AND FEAR.

THEY ARE MAKING IT ILLEGAL TO THINK OF PROGRESS OR TO ADVOCATE PEACE OR PROGRESS. EVERY PATH TO REFORM LIKE TAXATION OF GREAT WEALTH: ~~LAND DIVISION:~~ SOCIAL MEDICINE RENT CONTROL: RIVER DEVELOPMENT AND FOREST PLANNING ARE ALL CALLED COMMUNISTIC OR SOCIALISTIC AND THEIR PROMOTERS THREATENED WITH DISGRACE, JAIL OR LOSS OF LIVELIHOOD.

AND NOW AS A LAST EXERCISE OF TYRANNY, WE ARE PRESENTED WITH THE McCarran act--THE FUGITIVE SLAVE LAW OF 1950. YOU KNOW WHAT THE THE FUGITIVE SLAVE LAW OF 1850 WAS: CAPITAL INVESTED IN HUMAN BEINGS BEGAN TO RUN AWAY: FOOLISH NORTHERNERS, BLACK AND WHITE, HELPTED IT HIDE. THE SLAVE POWER which RULED THE NATION AS WALL STREET RULES IT TODAY PASSED A BILL THAT MADE KIDNAPPING OF ANY NEGRO POSSIBLE WITHOUT TRIAL, THAT MADE A MAN PROVE HIS FREEDOM INSTEAD OF FORCING MASTERS TO PROVE PROPERTY; AND TRIED TO MAKE ANTI-Abolitionism SLAVERY [illegible] A CRIME.

THIS LAW WAS SO SUCCESSFUL THAT IN A DECADE IT BROUGHT CIVIL WAR AND SLAVERY abolition of
WAS ABOLISHED THREE YEARS LATER.

SO TODAY, WE ARE BIDDEN TO HATE COMMUNISM WHEN WHAT WE MUST HATE IS WAR: WE ARE CALLED SUBVERSIVE WHEN WE TRY TO THINK AND ACT AS HUMAN BEINGS AND NOT AS PUPPETS. IF WE ATTACK SEGREGATION IN THE ARMY OR CIVIL LIFE, WE ARE CALLED TRAITORS TO AMERICA. AGAINST THIS THE AMERICAN LABOR PARTY PROTESTS AND FIGHTS. AND AS ITS CANDIDATE FOR THE UNITED STATES SENATE, I ASK YOUR VOTE TO CURB BIG BUSINESS AND WAR AS REPRESENTED BY HERBERT LEHMAN; WAR AND BIG BUSINESS AS REPRESENTED BY THAT EMINENT VETERAN, JOSEPH HANLEY, AND TO UP-HOLD PEACE AND CIVIL RIGHTS, which are being SABOTAGED BY HARRY TRUMAN.

To THE SUPPORT OF THIS PROGRAM, I WELCOME THE SUPPORT OF EVERYBODY WHO AGREES WITH IT, WHITE AND BLACK, JEW AND GENTILE, DEMOCRAT, COMMUNIST, AND EVEN REPUBLICAN.

PRESS CONFERENCE, HOTEL THERESA

SEPTEMBER 24, 1950

THE CAMPAIGN OF 1950

The great issue, of this time, of this nation, of this world, is PEACE; and the central theme of the campaign which begins here today is Peace, no more War. There are in this nation today powerful interests which are determined on War. To this end they are suppressing the Bill of Rights so as to stop discussion, distort the facts and stampede the nation through the hysteria of groundless Fear. Who is it among us who wants War and why do they want it?

The American Labor Party knows who and why, and there are many others who also know. But the American Labor Party not only knows but is going to do something about it. That right of action is the right to elect our lawmakers and executives by universal and secret ballot.

Our party therefore has selected candidates for governor and lieutanant-governor; for comptroller and attorney-general, for mayor of the city of New York and for members of the federal Congress.

It has asked me to run for the United States Senate. This is for me a new role. Like most men born and bred in the 19th century, I have always thought politics as a necessary career, but not the higher sort of work which a man would voluntarily choose. Largely then I avoided politics and this is the first time in my life that I have consented to stand for public office. This is because it becomes increasingly clear to me that this very recoil from political activity is the reason for that surrender of our Government to men whose prime interest is not social but personal; and for the disaster of seeing repeatedly a people with a Government which does not represent its real interests.

My standing for office then, far from being any matter of personal ambition, is rather proof th t I am willing to forego my preference in order to discuss with the public the serious objects of public life and action. For today curiously enough, it has become suddenly impossible to express publicly what one believes and knows unless one takes advantage of the few civil rights remaining to us and runs for office in order to talk freely without going to jail. What I ask and plead therefore in this campaign is that you vote not simply for me but for me as representing the principles which I am trying to emphasize; with the deep belief that however unimportant I may be, what I am seeking to make clear and stand for is of the utmost importance to the Negro race in the United States to the whites and to the future of mankind.

35-6-114

Only once in my life have I held public office, and that was when for a month I was in 1928, made Special Minister Plenipotentiary to Liberia. My political activity has been almost wholly confined to writing. In this writing, with some speaking, I tried first to put the Negro vote in proper and effective relation to the national needs. In the first election of Woodrow Wilson, I sought to end Negro subserviency to the Republican Party. I tried to induce the Bull Moose movement to make Negro Rights a main plank and ~~xxpp~~ fought it when it refused. I opposed Taft's "lily-whtew" Southern policy and supported the third party movements of La Follette and Henry Wallace. I have never been an active party worker, but I have been an enrolled member of the Socialist Party, of the Democratic Party under the New Deal, and lately of the American Labor Party.

The basic motive of my political thought and activity has been the securing for all American, civil and political rights regardless of race or color. I assumed, and assumed too easily, that once color discrimination was done away with, the nation and the world would be free to attack and solve certain basic problems of human progress which I knew full well cried for solution. Behind and beneath this demand for rights lay always therefore the assumption that with the right to vote, the right to think and speak, and the right to know, would come through the very exercise of these fundamental privileges: the basic right of human beings to live, to work; to eat and be sheltered, to be shielded from disease and have their children educated.

But to my amazement and fright, I have lived to see the era of peace which I was trained to look forward to as the only goal of civilization transformed into plans for universal world war; a theory of progress by war and more war, each more savage and destructive than the last. I now realize that I, as well as you, am facing a crisis in which no consideration of ease or age, suffice to hold me back from a great duty. That duty is one of trying to bring reason and past experience to bear upon those of us who have gone temporarily insane.

The basic cause of this insanity is the effort to powerful interests, armed by control of press and radio, school and platform, backed by almost unlimited money, to turn the attention of the world from the fundamental problem of our age.

That problem is that in our unprecedented organization of industry, with its marvelous technique and world-wide extent, the vast majority of mankind remain sick, ignorant and starved while a few have more income in goods and services than they can use.

It is no sufficient answer to this fundamental problem, to point out that the present degradation of the worker is not near so great as it once was, or much less in some lands than in others. The point is that it is far too great than is necessary or decent and calls for drastic cure now and not a thousand years hence.

This is the basic problem of our culture, no matter how much we try to conceal and ignore it; or try to divert attention from it to other matters. There are no other matters to important or so pressing. We may be led to yell our heads off to convince ourselves that the problem of the world today is the Soviet Union and Communism. That is deliberate deception. The problem of economic justice to working men existed before the Revolution in Russia and would remain if Russia were swept from the face of the earth tomorrow. Proposals to solve this problem by socialism and communism, did not originate in Russia and will not end there. What Russia did was to attempt to solve this problem in a systematic way, at a time when the 19th century had bequathed to the world the dogma that the problem of economic justice was insoluble; that most men must always be poor, ignorant and sick, becuase most men were so inderior in gift and morals that this was inevitable; that civilization depended on making the few masters of the many, the Rich the rulers of the Poor, and thus in this way, and only in this way, could civilization be built and maintained.

Is this true? Whether it is true or not, we have no right to stop people and nations from denying its truth--from denying the necessity of poverty, disease and ignorance, and from experimenting in their own way to make a better world. Moreover, our own duty is clear; and that is, not to pull down others but rather to build ourselves up; to prove to the world that the economic condition of mank nd can be bettered and that we know how to do this and that we propose to prove our belief by action. Instead of this, what are we up to? We are trying to fight an Idea. We are going to make nations agree with us and our way of life by using atom bombs, and bomber planes, battleships and artillery. And while wasting time, strength, and wealth in this effort; we are doing almost nothing to implement our own theory of progress.

Why? Why do we propose to make the Russian experiment fail, to throttle China and to throw the world into continuous war? The reason is clear: we fear that any success of socialism or communism will interfere with our money-making. We have become a nation of money-makers. We think that money-making is the great end of man. Our whole ideology bows to this fantastic idea. Religion, science, art and morals in America tend to be measured by the profit they bring, and the true vocation of American manhood is regarded as profitmaking business enterprise, and not social service.

War is Big Business and a business immensely profitable to a few, but of measureless disaster and death of dream to the many. Big business wants war in order to keep your mind off social reform: it would rather spend your taxes for atom bombs than for schools because in this way it makes more money; it would rather have your sons dying in Korea than studying in America and asking awkward questions. The system which it advocates depends on war and more war.

35-6-117

In order to have war, Big Business must have Hate; so its press and newspapers ask you to hate communists and if not communists, hate all who do not hate communists; indeed hate all who do not take orders from those who now rule America.

What has happened to the world, is that those who profit from war, especially in the United States, have gained control of government, of information, of gigantic and unprecedented propaganda. This came about because of the First World War, which we entered with reluctance and participated in mainly by furnishing materials at a huge profit to those who controlled them. The result was two-fold; Americans conceived the idea of continuing to profit from the world's disaster and to move in as successor of the British Empire as ruler of most of mankind. On the other hand, Russia and other nations who had been through Hell because of war, began experiments for reforming if not replacing the current methods of industrial organization. We joined the capitalists of the world to suppress their socialist experiments which threatened our plan of world industrial empire. However, just as plans were ripe for a mass attack, in particular on the Soviets, the bottom fell our of modern capitalist industry. This was no fault of Russia nor of socialism, but was directly due to the overreaching greed of private profit.

But no matter what its cause, the result was that the Soviet experiment got a breathing space while in the United States the New Deal was forced to adopt many socialist remedies for poverty, unemployment and disease: we curbed the profits of capital; we put the State into certain industries and we adopted planned industry like the TVA, and we relieved the unemployed, and we established Social Security, and began to house the homeless.

In other words, the United States began to form and carry out its own plans for so reorganizing industry as to save capitalism whereever it deserved to be saved.

Here the American Labor Party takes its stand as the successor of the New Deal. It maintains that the Soviet Union has a right to adopt its own economic philosophy and carry it out as it will. And that also the United States has a right to attempt to save its own way of life and that this can be done as the New Deal started to prove, when it was sabotaged not only by its enemies but more completely by its friends. What the American Labor Party asserts is that the present plan of Big Business to compel the world to adopt our philosophy and our methods, by force of arms is not only unreasonable in the light of our failures to continue our own program of economic reform but impossible in itself and can only end in disaster.

It would seem that the futile efforts of a succession of master races to impose their will and power upon mankind would teach us that our program of world conquest is crazy. There is no possible chance for us to accomplish what Egypt, Persia, Greece, Rome, Great Britain and Hitler failed to do. With our little police action in Korea shaking our resources to the foundations, how long and what effort will it take to conquer China, the Soviet Union, the Balkans--not to mention India. Our military plans are idiotic and still more so if we depend on Germany, Japan and Franco to pull our chestnuts out of the fire. It will take more than one Wild Man of Tokyo to bring this fantasy into fact.

M Moreover the American Labor Party points out that the Persons who are forcing us to adopt this policy of force and violence are the upholders of Big Business; and they are profiting as never before by war and preparation for war, and are deliberately blind to the fact that their profit is the disaster of America and the world. Moreover, we point out that Herbert Lehman was trained in Big Business and today deliberately represents its interests. Lasy year, Herbert Lehman called John Foster Dulles "a bigot, an Anti-Semite and a Fascist." For that reason I voted for Lehman instead of Dulles. This year Senator Lehman welcomes this same Dulles into "bi-partisan" collaboration for war; he sponsors legislation for concentration camps for Communists and those called Communists; he ignores the restoration to power in Germany of the same gang which killed six million Jews, and acquiesces into their re-arming.

Why? What has changed Mr. Lehman? He has not changed. He follows automatically his training in the same school and on the same Wall Street which made Dulles a warmonger and attorney of the Nazis, and that is, foreign investment of American capital, so as to make enormous profit out of the poverty and helplessness of South America, Asia and Africa. American capital is pouring into South Africa and Rhodesia. We are the real owners of serf-labor in the Belgian Congo. We are wild to have Chinese factory hands at 12 cents a day. We helped shoot down the striking black miners in West Africa. And to bulwark our investment and guarantee high profit, the power of business joins hands with the military.

Thus, we are today ruled by Big Business and Big Brass for profit. A representative of the Steel Trust has been Secretary of State; a representative of Morgan and Rockerfeller is chief adviser of Truman on foreign affairs; another Morgan man has been under-secretary of State and may be second in command under Marshall; a Secretary of the Navy and Defense Chief represented Dillon, Reid and Company, and another m became Secretary of War.

Where Big Business does not control government, men trained for war do. We have just reformed our defense department by placing a soldier at its head in defiance of sound tradition; his first word is universal training of our children for all-out war all over the earth, at a cost greater than we ever spent for education, health, housing and social uplift altogether. And for what? For profit to investors which is today piling up at the rate of $23,000,000,000 a year; with the prospect that the profit for 1950 will be four and a half times that of 1939, and twice as high as the enormous war profit of 1944.

It is the theory of democratic government, that when a situation like this arises, two political parties will examine, debate and dispute issues and acts until the people can make intelligent choice of the problems before them. Today we have only one political party which shares power for the same ends. Men like Dewey and Hanley can only try to outdo what the Democrats have already done; if the Democrats are for war, they are for more war; if the Democrats repudiate the New Deal, the Republicans loathe and despise it. The one point of agreement between the two so-called parties is war on any nation or movement which stands in the way of American profit; and the suppression of all discussion of the merits of the present crisis. I try to spread in America news of the peace movement in Europe and I am threatened with jail. Paul Robeson advises Negroes never to fight against people striving for a better world for black and white, and he is denied the right to make a living.

My platform then, like the platform of every honest American who still dare believe in peace and freedom, takes its unalterable stand against war and slavery. It warns all thinking men that the cause of our present failure and disgrace is simple and sheer mass insanity. We have known individuals to go crazy. We have long viewed this as unfortuante disease, or illusion fostered by a man's own weakness or by the wicked plots of his enemies.

We are learning all too slowly how to cope with and cure the individually insane. But mass insanity is a newer thing. To be sure we have experienced it in the race hate of the South, which we increasingly recognize as distorted mentality rather than deliberate will to harm; and while this dawning c mprehension of one of the nastiest blots on our culture has not yet cured it, it has at least let us see our way to begin to plan the long upbuilding future. But before we are well-started on this path to goodness and truth, there comes an insanity, a wild and curel madness, and truth, there comes an insanity, a wild and cruel madness, which engulfs the world, hurls us into planned and horrible murder calls to its ends every ingenuity of science and even sets at its head followers of that Prince of Peace, who once out of degradation and poverty pled with a world far less guilty than ours; while we today give our world a distortion of his words and shriek:

"Come unto me all them that labor and are heavy-laden and I will give you war."

That the civilized world today, nearly 2000 years after the birth of Christianity not mentioning those older and younger faiths, with their high hopes of reason and love of humanity--that this world today with all its triumphs which once we greeted with shouts of joy--that this world has gone crazy, no sane man can for a moment deny.

But he can pause and resting a minute from his Atom bombs, his Hydrogen horror, his propaganda of disease of body and mind, his mad destruction and wild waste of wages of the poor--pause and ask in this election season , Why? For God's sake, why? What are we yelling about? Of what are we in such deathly fear?

35-6-12)

The present Senate of the United States is a war-making body and a body hostile to Civil liberties not only in the South but in this State. You have a right in November to help change the composition of the Senate. The present Junior Senator from New York is a respectable man. He has often as Governor and Senator voted for the right. I voted for him last year. But this year the whole picture of the world has changed and Senator Lehman has supported our war program and openly condoned in some cases the invasion of our Civil Liberties.

As representative of finance and investing interests he could hardly do otherwise. Remember what modern investment is; it is not as it once was, the loaning of your savings to help an enterprise which you knew about and watched. It is control of goods and labor over vast areas and under conditions of which you neither know nor care. It may and often does involve slavery and disease, ignorance and cruelty. It may drive wages to starvation, declimate and ruin family and group life; it may turn vast areas from happy primitive life to centers of crime and horror. But if it earns a profit; if it does not transgress the laws of the country where the investors live and where they largely make the law, then it is legal, legitimate and respectable. This has been the history of modern finance and investment all over the world. Its path is marked by blood, war, ignorance and the subjection of most of the peoples of the world to the comfort and convenience and luxury of the few.

The fight to curb uncontrolled investment and exploitation has ~~been~~ been long and difficult and has had much success. But today and in America it is failing and resulting in a program of World War. The overwhelming influence and representation of finance capital in our legislatures in the executive and especially in the Senate of the United States must be curbed and curbed immediately. It is time that Senator Lehman be replaced by a man who is opposed to war and willing to fight for Civil Liberties and not simply for the liberty of Corporations but liberty for the mass of working men and women.

It has been intimated however, that my candidacy is designed not really to replace Senator Lehman by a man willing to fight for peace and civil rights, but rather to elect as Senator a man even less qualified and less willing to represent progressive thought than Mr. Lehman. So far as I am concerned personally, I have but one object in this campaign and that is to win the election.

35-6-128

In a long life I never have and never expect to act as stool pigeon for any man or party. I shall not begin now. I know that every third party movement meets such accusations, which if heeded would make progress impossible. Everytime you suggest voting against a dominant party of a present official, you are met by the predict on that you are bound to fail. Upon this fear and risk, the old parties rely to hold their graft and power.

Today in this state and in the nation the Democratic and Republican parties stand for one and the same thing: war and the slave state. They cannot even phrase platforms that sound different. They can only promise to do what the other is doing better---or worse. The nation faced the same predicament and prophecy in the slavery controversy a century ago. You must vote Democratic or Whig, because the Free Soil Party had no chance: because if you failed to vote for a Democrat you help elect a Whig. But that was not true as the eventual triumph of Abraham Lincoln proved. Every defeat of a candidate for a free country does not mean defeat for what he stands for.

Even if I be defeated for Senator, the vote for me would still be a vote for civil rights and against war and eventually this program must win. If it wins this November so much the better, but if it wins ten years from today that victory must begin now.

It is the program and not the man for which you vote. The only assurance you have is that if I am elected to the Senate, no power in Hell, Earth nor Heaven will keep my mouth from speaking and voting what I conceive is the truth and right.

In this situation the American Labor Party takes its stand on the proposition "There can be no progress without Peace." We are the only nation in the civilized world advocating war and compelling other nations to fight. For this we are hated and feared. We call for the immediate settlement of the war in Korea, which an American soldier has characterized when he said: "I never saw such a useless damned war in all my life." Mediation with both North and South Korea in conference, and China represented in the United Nations, is the only solution. We ask resumption of the free flow of trade between East and West and the utter overthrow of colonialism even when masked under Point Four.

To stop this program of reason and progress, the allied and associated political profit-makers, called the Republican and Democratic parties, have adopted the last tactics of dispair. They have made not only truth but civil rights a casualty of war! They have turned your attention from progress and peace to hate and fear. They are making it illegal to think of progress or to advocate peace or progress. Every path to reform like taxation or great wealth; social medicine, effective rent control; river development, public housing and forest planning are all called communistic or socialistic and their promoters threatened with disgrace, jail or loss of livelihood.

And now as a last exercise of tyranny, we are presented with the McCarran Act--the Fugitive Slave Law of 1950. You know what the Fugitive Slave ~~of~~ Law of 1850 was: capital invested in human beings began to run away; foolish northerners, black and white, helped it hide. The Slave Power which rul d the nation as Wall Street rules it today; passed a bill that made kidnapping of any Negro possible without trial, that made a man prove his freedom instead of forcing masters to prove property; and tried to make Abolutionism a crime. This law was so successful that in a decade it brought Civil War and Abolution of Slavery three years later.

So today, we are bidden to hate Communism when what we must hate is war; we are called subversive when we try to think and act as human beings and not as puppets. If we attack segregation in the army or civil life, we are called traitors to America. Against this the American Labor Party protests and fights. And as its candidate for the United States Senate, I ask you to vote to curb Big Business and War as represented by Herbert Lehman, War and Big Business as represented by that eminent veteran Joe Henley, and to puhold peace and civil rights which are being sabotaged by Harry Truman. To the support of this program I welcome everybody who agrees with it, White and Black, Jew and Gentile, Democrat, Communist and even Republican.

PRESS CONFERENCE

Mass
Senate race, 1948

THE GREAT ISSUE, OF THIS TIME, OF THIS NATION, OF THIS WORLD, IS PEACE: AND THE CENTRAL THEME OF THE CAMPAIGN WHICH BEGINS HERE TODAY IS PEACE, NO MORE WAR. THERE ARE IN THIS NATION TODAY, POWERFUL INTERESTS WHICH ARE DETERMINED ON WAR. TO THIS END, THEY ARE SUPPRESSING THE BILL OF RIGHTS SO AS TO STOP DISCUSSION, DISTORT THE FACTS AND STAMPEDE THE NATION THROUGH THE HYSTERIA OF GROUNDLESS FEAR. WHO IS IT AMONG US WHO WANTS WAR, AND WHY DO THEY WANT IT?

ONLY ONCE IN MY LIFE HAVE I HELD PUBLIC OFFICE, AND THAT WAS WHEN FOR A MONTH I WAS IN 1928, MADE SPECIAL MINISTER PLENIPOTENTIARY TO LIBERIA. MY POLITICAL ACTIVITY HAS BEEN ALMOST WHOLLY CONFINED TO WRITING. IN THIS WRITING WITH SOME SPEAKING, I TRIED FIRST TO PUT THE NEGRO VOTE IN PROPER AND EFFECTIVE RELATION TO THE NATIONAL NEEDS. IN THE FIRST ELECTION OF WOODROW WILSON, I SOUGHT TO END NEGRO SUBSERVIENCY TO THE REPUBLICAN PARTY. I TRIED TO INDUCE THE "BULL MOOSE" MOVEMENT TO MAKE NEGRO RIGHTS A MAIN PLANK AND BOUGHT IT WHEN

IT REFUSED. I OPPOSED TAFT'S "LILY-WHITE" SOUTHERN POLICY, AND I SUPPORTED THE THIRD PARTY MOVEMENTS OF LA FOLLETTE AND HENRY WALLACE. I HAVE NEVER BEEN AN ACTIVE PARTY WORKER, BUT I HAVE BEEN AN ENROLLED MEMBER OF THE SOCIALIST PARTY, OF THE DEMOCRATIC PARTY UNDER THE NEW DEAL, AND LATELY OF THE AMERICAN LABOR PARTY.

THE BASIC MOTIVE OF MY POLITICAL THOUGHT AND ACTIVITY HAS BEEN THE SECURING FOR ALL AMERICANS, CIVIL AND POLITICAL RIGHTS, REGARDLESS OF RACE OR COLOR. I ASSUMED, AND ASSUMED TOO EASILY, THAT ONCE COLOR DISCRIMINATION WAS DONE AWAY WITH, THE NATION AND THE WORLD WOULD BE FREE TO ATTACK AND SOLVE CERTAIN BASIC PROBLEMS OF HUMAN PROGRESS WHICH I KNEW FULL WELL CRIED FOR SOLUTION. BEHIND AND BENEATH THIS DEMAND FOR RIGHTS, LAY ALWAYS THEREFORE THE ASSUMPTION THAT, WITH THE RIGHT TO VOTE, THE RIGHT TO THINK AND SPEAK

AND THE RIGHT TO KNOW, WOULD COME THROUGH THE VERY EXERCISE OF THESE FUNDAMENTAL PRIVILEGES: THE BASIC RIGHT OF HUMAN BEINGS TO LIVE, TO WORK, TO EAT AND BE SHELTERED, TO BE SHIELDED FROM DISEASE AND HAVE THEIR CHILDREN EDUCATED.

BUT TO MY AMAZEMENT AND FRIGHT, I HAVE LIVED TO SEE THE ERA OF PEACE WHICH I WAS TRAINED TO LOOKEDFORWARD TO AS THE ONLY GOAL OF CIVILIZATION, TRANSFORMED INTO PLANS FOR UNIVERSAL WORLD WAR WITH A THEORY OF PROGRESS BY WAR AND MORE WAR , EACH MORE SAVAGE AND DESTRUCTIVE THAN THE LAST. I NOW REALIZE THAT I, AS WELL AS YOU, AM FACING A CRISIS IN WHICH NO CONSIDERATION OR EASE OF AGE, SUFFICE TO HOLD ME BACK FROM A GREAT DUTY. THAT DUTY IS ONE OF TRYING TO BRING REASON AND LAST EXPERIENCE TO BEAR UPON THOSE OF US WHO HAVE GONE TEMPORARILY INSANE.

35-2-422

THE BASIC CAUSE OF THIS INSANITY IS THE EFFORT OF POWERFUL INTERESTS, ARMED BY CONTROL OF PRESS AND RADIO, SCHOOL AND PLATFORM, BACKED BY ALMOST UNLIMITED MONEY, TO TURN THE ATTENTION OF THE WORLD FROM THE FUNDAMENTAL

PROBLEM OF OUR AGE.

THAT PROBLEM IS THAT IN OUR UNPRECEDENTED ORGANIZATION OF INDUSTRY, WITH IT MARVELOUS TECHNIQUE AND WORLD WIDE EXTENT, THE VAST MAJORITY OF MANKIND REMAIN SICK, IGNORANT ANS STARVED WHILE A FEW HAVE MORE INCOME IN GOODS AND SERVICES THAN THEY CAN USE.

IT IS NOT SUFFICIENT ANSWER TO THIS FUNDAMENTAL PROBLEM, TO POINT OUT THAT THE PRESENT DEGRADATION OF THE WORKER IS NOT NEAR SO GREAT AS IT ONCE WAS, OR MUCH LESS IN SOME LANDS THAN IN OTHERS. THE POINT IS THAT IT IS FAR TOO GREAT THAN IS NECESSARY OR DECENT, AND CALLS FOR DRASTIC CURE NOW AND NOT A THOUSAND YEARS HENCE.

THIS IS THE BASIC PROBLEM OF OUR CULTURE, NO MATTER HOW MUCH WE TRY TO CONCEAL AND IGNORE IT: OR TRY TO DIVERT ATTENTION FROM IT TO OTHER MATTERS. THERE ARE NO OTHER MATTERS SO IMPORTANT OR SO PRESSING. WE MAY BE LED TO

YELL OUR HEADS OFF TO CONVINCE OURSELVES THAT THE PROBLEM OF THE WORLD TODAY IS THE SOVIET UNION AND COMMUNISM. THAT IS DELIBERATE DECEPTION. THE PROBLEM OF ECONOMIC JUSTICE TO WORKING MEN EXISTED BEFORE THE REVOLUTION IN RUSSIA AND WOULD REMAIN IF RUSSIA WERE SWEPT FROM THE FACE OF THE EARTH TOMORROW. PROPOSALS TO SOLVE THIS PROBLEM BY SOCIALISM AND COMMUNISM, DID NOT ORIGINATE IN RUSSIA AND WILL NOT END THERE. WHAT RUSSIA DID WAS TO ATTEMPT TO SOLVE THIS PROBLEM IN A SYSTEMATIC WAY, AT A TIME WHEN THE 19th CENTURY HAD BEQUEATHED TO THE WORLD THE DOGMA THAT THE PROBLEM OF ECONOMIC J STICE WAS INSOLUBLE: THAT MOST MEN MUST ALWAYS BE POOR, IGNORANT AND SICK, BECAUSE MOST MEN WERE SO INFERIOR IN GIFT AND MORALS THAT THIS WAS INEVITABLE: THAT CIVILIZATION DEPENDED ON MAKING THE FEW MASTERS OF THE MANY, THE RICH, THE RULERS OF THE POOR: AND THUS IN THIS WAY, AND ONLY IN THIS WAY, COULD CIVILIZATION BE BUILT AND MAINTAINED.

IS THIS TRUE? WHETHER IT BE TRUE OR NOT, WE HAVE NO RIGHT TO STOP PEOPLE AND NATIONS FROM DENYING ITS TRUTH--FROM DENYING THE NECESS TY OF POVERTY, DISEASE AND IGNORANCE, AND FROM EXPERIMENTING IN THEIR OWN WAY TO ABOLISH THEM. MOREOVER, OUR OWN DUTY IS CLEAR: AND THAT IS, NOT TO PULL DOWN OTHERS, BUT RATHER TO BUILD OURSELVES UP: TO PROVE TO THE WORLD THAT THE ECONOMIC CONDITION OF MANKIND CAN BE BETTERED AND THAT WE KNOW HOW TO DO THIS AND THAT WE PROPOSE TO PROVE OUR BELIEF BY ACTION. INSTEAD OF THIS, WHAT ARE WE UP TO? WE ARE TRYING TO FIGHT AN IDEA. WE ARE GOING TO MAKE NATIONS AGREE WITH US AND OUR WAY OF LIFE BY USING ATOM BOMBS, AND BOMBER PLANES, BATTLESHIPS AND ARTILLERY. AND WHILE WASTING TIME, STRENGTH, AND WEALTH, IN THIS EFFORT: WE ARE DOING ALMOST NOTHING TO IMPLEMENT OUR OWN THEORY OF PROGRESS.

WHY? WHY DO WE PROPOSE TO MAKE THE RUSSIAN EXPERIMENT FAIL, TO THROTTLE CHINA AND TO THROW THE WORLD INTO CONTINUOUS WAR? THE REASON IS CLEAR: WE FEAR THAT ANY SUCCESS OF SOCIALISM OR COMMUNISM WILL INTERFERE WITH OUR OWN MONEY MAKING. WE HAVE BECOME A NATION OF MANEY MAKERS. WE THINK THAT MONEY

MAKING IS THE GREAT END OF MAN. OUR WHOLE IDEOLOGY BOWS TO THIS FANTASTIC IDEA. RELIGION, SCIENCE, ART AND MORALS IN AMERICA TEND TO BE MEASURED BY THE PROFIT THEY BRING, AND THE TRUE VOCATION OF AMERICAN MANHOOD IS REGARDED AS PROFIT MAKING BUSINESS ENTERPRISE, AND NOT SOCIAL SERVICE.

WAR IS BIG BUSINESS AND A BUSINESS IMMENSELY PROFITABLE TO A FEW, BUT OF MEASURELESS DISASTER AND DEATH OF DREAM TO THE MANY. BIG BUSINESS WANTS WAR IN ORDER TO KEEP YOUR MIND OFF SOCIAL REFORM: IT WOULD RATHER SPEND YOUR TAXES FOR ATOM BOMBS THAN FOR SCHOOLS BECAUSE IN THIS WAY IT MAKES MORE MONEY: IT WOULD RATHER HAVE YOUR SONS DYING IN KOREA THAN STUDYING IN AMERICA AND ASKING AWKWARD QUESTIONS. THE SYSTEM WHICH IT ADVOCATES DEPENDS ON WAR AND MORE WAR.

35-2-424

---8---

WHAT HAS HAPPENED TO THE WORLD, IS THAT THOSE WHO PROFIT FROM WAR, ESPECIALLY IN THE UNITED STATES, HAVE GAINED CONTROL OF GOVERNMENT, OF INFORMATION, OF GIGANTIC AND UNPRECEDENTED PROPAGANDA. THIS CAME ABOUT BECAUSE OF THE FIRST WORLD WAR, WHICH WE ENTERED WITH RELUCTANCE AND IN WHICH WE PARTICIPATED MAINLY BY FURNISHING MATERIALS AT A HUGE PROFIT FOR THOSE WHO CONTROLLED THEM. THE RESULT WAS TWO FOLD: AMERICANS CONCEIVED THE IDEA OF CONTINUING TO PROFIT FROM THE WORLD'S DISASTER AND TO MOVE IN AS SUCCESSOR OF THE BRITISH EMPIRE AS RULER OF MOST OF MANKIND. ON THE OTHER HAND, RUSSIA AND OTHER NATIONS WHO HAD BEEN THROUGH HELL BECAUSE OF WAR, BEGAN EXPERIMENTS FOR REFORMING, IF NOT REPLACING THE CURRENT METHODS OF INDUSTRIAL ORGANIZATION. WE JOINED THE CAPITALISTS OF THE WORLD TO SUPPRESS THEIR SOCIALIST EXPERIMENTS WHICH THREATENED OUR PLAN OF WORLD INDUSTRIAL EMPIRE. HOWEVER, JUST AS PLANS WERE RIPE FOR A MASS ATTACK, IN PARTICULAR ON THE SOVIETS, THE BOTTOM FELL OUT OF MODERN

CAPITALIST INDUSTRY. THIS WAS NO FAULT OF RUSSIA NOR OF SOCIALISM, BUT WAS DIRECTLY DUE TO THE OVERREACHING GREED OF PRIVATE PROFIT.

BUT NO MATTER WHAT ITS CAUSE, THE RESULT WAS THAT THE SOVIET EXPERIMENT GOT A BREATHING SPACE, WHILE IN THE UNITED STATES THE NEW DEAL WAS FORCED TO ADOPT MANY SOCIALIST REMEDIES FOR POVERTY, UNEMPLOYMENT AND DISEASE: WE CURBED THE PROFITS OF CAPITAL: WE PUT THE STATE INTO CERTAIN INDUSTRIES, WE ADOPTED PLANNED INDUSTRY LIKE THE TVA, WE RELIEVED THE UNEMPLOYED, WE ESTABLISHED SOCIAL SECURITY, AND BEGAN TO HOUSE THE HOMELESS.

IN OTHER WORDS, THE UNITED STATES BEGAN TO FORM AND CARRY OUT ITS OWN PLANS FOR SO REORGANIZING INDUSTRY AS TO SAVE CAPITALISM WHEREEVER IT DESERVED TO BE SAVED.

HERE THE AMERICAN LABOR PARTY TAKES ITS STAND AS THE SUCCESSOR OF THE NEW DEAL. IT MAINTAINS THAT THE SOVIET UNION HAS A RIGHT TO ADOPT ITS OWN ECONOMIC PHILOSOPHY AND CARRY IT OUT AS IT WILL. AND THAT ALSO THE UNITED STATES HAS A RIGHT TO ATTEMPT TO SAVE ITS OWN WAY OF LIFE AND THAT THIS CAN BE DONE, AS THE NEW DEAL STARTED TO PROVE, WHEN IT WAS SABOTAGED NOT ONLY BY ITS ENEMIES BUT MORE COMPLETELY BY ITS FRIENDS. WHAT THE AMERICAN LABOR PARTY ASSERTS IS THAT THE PRESENT PLAN OF BIG BUSINESS TO COMPEL THE WORLD TO ADOPT OUR PHILOSOPHY AND OUR METHODS BY FORCE OF ARMS IS NOT ONLY UNREASONABLE IN THE LIGHT OF OUR FAILURE TO CONTINUE OUR OWN PROGRAM OF ECONOMIC REFORM BUT IMPOSSIBLE IN ITSELF AND CAN ONLY END IN DISASTER.

IT WOULD SEEM THAT THE FUTILE EFFORTS OF A SUCCESSION OF MASTER RACES TO IMPOSE THEIR WILL AND POWER UPON MANKIND WOULD TEACH US THAT OUR PROGRAM OF WORLD CONQUEST IS CRAZY. THERE IS NO POSSIBLE CHANCE FOR US TO ACCOMPLISH WHAT EGYPT, PERSIA, GREECE, ROME, GREAT BRITAIN AND GERMANY FAILED TO DO. WITH OUR LITTLE "POLICE ACTION" IN KOREA SHAKING OUR RESOURCES TO THE FOUNDATIONS, HOW LONG AND WHAT EFFORT WILL IT TAKE TO CONQUER CHINA, THE SOVIET UNION, IHA BALKANS--NOT TO MENTION INDIA? OUR MILITARY PLANS ARE IDOITIC AND STILL MORE SO, IF WE DEPEND ON GERMANY, JAPAN AND FRANCE TO PULL OUR CHESTNUTS OUT OF THE FIRE. IT WILL TAKE MORE THAN ONE WILD MAN OF TOKYO TO BRING THIS FANTASY INTO FACT.

MOREOVER THE AMERICAN LABOR PARTY POINTS OUT THAT THE PERSONS WHO ARE FORCING US TO ADOPT THIS POLICY OF FORCE AND VIOLENCE ARE THE UPHOLDERS OF BIG BUSINESS: AND THEY ARE PROFITING AS NEVER BEFORE BY WAR AND PREPARATION FOR WAR, AND ARE DELIBERATELY BLIND TO THE FACT THAT THEIR PROFIT IS THE DISASTER OF AMERICA AND THE WORLD. MOREOVER, WE POINT OUT THAT HERBERT LEHMAN WAS TRAINED IN BIG BUSINESS AND TODAY DELIBERATELY REPRESENTS ITS INTERESTS. LASTYYEAR, HERBERT LAHMAN CALLED JOHN FOSTER DULLES "A BIGOT, AN ANTI-SEMITE AND A FASCIST." FOR THAT REASON I VOTED FOR LEHMAN INSTEAD OF DULLES. THIS YEAR SENATOR LEHMAN WELCOMES THIS SAME DULLES INTO "BI-PARTISAN" COLLABORATION FOR WAR: HE SPONSORS LEGISLATION FOR CONCENTRATION CAMPS FOR COMMUNISTS AND

25-2-426

THOSE CALLED COMMUNISTS: HE IGNORES THE RESTORATION TO POWER IN GERMANY OF THE SAME GANG WHICH KILLED SIX MILLION JEWS, AND ACQUIESCES INTO THEIR RE-ARMING.

WHY? WHAT HAS CHANGED MR. LEHMAN? HE HAS NOT CHANGED. HE FOLLOWS AUTOMATICALLY HIS TRAINING IN THE SAME SCHOOL AND ON THE SAME WALL STREET WHICH MADE DULLES A WARMONGER AND ATTORNEY OF THE NAZIS: AND THAT IS: FOREIGN INVESTMENT OF AMERICAN CAPITAL, SO AS TO MAKE ENORMOUS PROFIT OUT OF THE POVERTY AND HELPLESSNESS OF SOUTH AMERICA, ASIA AND AFRICA. AMERICAN CAPITAL IS POURING INTO SOUTH AFRICA AND RHODESIA. WE ARE THE REAL OWNERS OF SERF LABOR IN THE BELGIAN CONGO. WE ARE WILD TO HAVE CHINESE FACTORY HANDS AT 12 CENTS A DAY. WE HELPED SHOOT DOWN THE STRIKING BLACK MINERS IN WEST AFRICA. AND TO BULWARK OUR INVESTMENT AND GUARANTEE HIGHT PROFIT, THE POWER OF BUSINESS JOINS HANDS WITH THE MILITARY.

THUS, WE ARE TODAY RULED BY BIG BUSINESS AND BIG BRASS FOR PROFIT. A REPRESENTATIVE OF THE STEEL TRUST HAS BEEN SECRETARY OF STATE: A REPRESENTATIVE OF MORGAN AND ROCKEFELLER IS CHIEF ADVISER OF TRUMAN ON FOREIGN AFFAIRS: ANOTHER MORGAN MAN HAS BEEN UNDER SECRETARY OF STATE AND MAY BE SECOND IN COMMAND UNDER MARSHALL: A SECRETARY OF THE NAVY AND DEFENSE CHIEF REPRESENTED DILLON, REED AND COMPANY, AND ANOTHER BECAME SECRETARY OF WAR.

35-2-428

WHERE BIG BUSINESS DOES NOT CONTROL GOVERNMENT, MEN TRAINED FOR WAR DO. WE HAVE JUST REFORMED OUR DEFENSE DEPARTMENT BY PLACING A SOLDIER AT ITS HEAD IN DEFIANCE OF SOUND TRADITION: HIS FIRST WORD IS "UNIVERSAL MILITARY TRAINING" OF OUR CHILDREN, FOR ALL OUT WAR ALL OVER THE EARTH, AT A COST GREATER THAN WE EVER SPENT FOR EDUCATION, HEALTH, HOUSING AND SOCIAL UPLIFT ALTOGETHER. AND FOR WHAT? FOR PROFIT TO INVESTORS WHICH IS TODAY PILING UP AT THE RATE OF $23,000,000,000 A YEAR: WITH THE PROSPECT THAT THE PROFIT FOR 1950 WILL BE FOUR AND A HALF TIMES THAT OF 1939, AND TWICE AS HIGH AS THE ENORMOUS WAR

PROFIT OF 1944.

IT IS THE THEORY OF DEMOCRATIC GOVERNMENT, THAT WHEN A SITUATION LIKE THIS ARISES, TWO POLITICAL PARTIES WILL EXAMINE, DEBATE AND DISPUTE ISSUES AND ACTS UNTIL THE PEOPLE CAN MAKE INTELLIGENT CHOICE OF THE PROBLEMS BEFORE THEM. TODAY WE HAVE ONLY ONE POLITICAL PARTY WHICH SHARES POWER FOR THE SAME ENDS. MEN LIKE DEWEY AND HANLEYCAN ONLY TRY TO OUTDO WHAT THE DEMOCRATS HAVE ALREADY DONE: IF THE DEMOCRATS ARE FOR WAR, THEY ARE FOR MORE WAR: IF THE DEMOCRATS REPUDIATE THE NEW DEAL , THE REPUBLICANS LOATHE AND DISPISE IT. THE ONE POINT OF AGREEMENT BETWEEN THE TWO SO CALLED PARTIES IS WAR ON ANY NATION OR MOVEMENT WHICH STANDS IN THE WAY OF AMERICAN PROFIT: AND THE SUPPRESSION OF ALL DISCUSSION OF THE MERITS OF THE PRESENT CRISIS. I TRY TO SPREAD IN AMERICA NEWS OF THE PEACE MOVEMENT IN EUROPE AND I AM THREATENED WITH JAIL. PAUL ROBESON ADVISES NEGROES NEVER TO FIGHT AGAINST PEOPLE STRIVING FOR A BETTER WORLD FOR BLACK AND WHITE, AND HE IS DENIED THE RIGHT TO MAKE A LIVING.

MY PLATFORM THEN, LIKE THE PLATFORM OF EVERY HONEST AMERICAN WHO STILL DARES BELIEVE IN PEACE AND FREEDOM, TAKES ITS UNALTERABLE STAND AGAINST WAR AND SLAVERY. IT WARNS ALL THINKING MEN THAT THE CAUSE OF OUR PRESENT FAILURE AND DISGRACE IS SIMPLE AND SHEER MASS INSANITY. WE HAVE KNOWN INDIVIDUALS TO GO CRAZY. WE HAVE LONG VIEWED THIS AS AN UNFORTUNATE DISEASE, OR ILLUSION FOSTERED BY A MAN'S OWN WEAKNESS OR BY THE WICKED PLOTS OF HIS ENEMIES.

WE ARE LEARNING ALL TOO SLOWLY HOW TO COPE WITH AND CURE THE INDIVIDUALLY INSANE. BUT MASS INSANITY IS A NEWER THING. TO BE SURE WE HAVE EXPERIENCED IT IN THE RACE HATE OF THE SOUTH, WHICH WE INCREASINGLY RECOGNIZE AS DISTORTED MENTALITY RATHER THAN DELIBERATE WILL TO HARM: AND WHILE THIS DAWNING COMPREHENSION OF ONE OF THE NASTIEST BLOTS ON OUR CULTURE HAS NOT YET CURED IT, IT HAS AT LEAST LET US SEE OUR WAY TO BEGIN TO PLAN THE LONG UPBUILDING FUTURE. BUT BEFORE WE ARE WELL STARTED ON THIS PATH TO GOODNESS AND TRUTH, THERE COMES AN INSANITY, A WILD AND CRUEL MADNESS, WHICH ENGULFS THE WORLD, HURLS US INTO

PLANNED AND HORRIBLE MURDER, CALLS TO ITS ENDS EVERY INGENUITY OF SCIENCE, AND EVEN SETS AT ITS HEAD FOLLOWERS OF THAT PRINCE OF PEACE, WHO ONCE OUT OF DEGRADATION AND POVERTY PLED WITH A WORLD FAR LESS GUILTY THAN OURS: WHILE WE TODAY GIVE OUR WORLD A DISTORTION OF HIS WORDS AND SHRIEK:

"COME UNTO ME ALL THEM THAT LABOR AND ARE HEAVY-LADEN AND I WILL GIVE YOU WAR."

THAT THE CIVILIZED WORLD TODAY, NEARLY2,000 YEARS AFTER THE BIRTH OF CHRISTIANITY, NOT MENTIONING THOSE OLDER AND YOUNGER FAITHS, WITH THEIR HIGH HOPES OF REASON AND LOVE OF HUMANITY--THAT THIS WORLD TODAY WITH ALL ITS TRIUMPHS WHICH ONCE WE GREETED WITH SHOUTS OF JOY--THAT THIS WORLD HAS GONE CRAZY, NO SANE MAN CAN FOR A MOMENT DENY.

BUT HE CAN PAUSE AND RESTING A MINUTE FROM HIS ATOM BOMBS, HIS HYDROGEN HORROR, HIS PROPAGANDA OF DISEASE OF BODY AND MIND, HIS MAD DESTRUCTION AND WILD

WASTE OF THE POOR--PAUSE AND ASK IN T IS ELECTION SEASON, WHY? FOR GOD'S SAKE, WHY? WHAT ARE WE YELLING ABOUT ? OF WAHT ARE WE IN SUCH DEATHLY FEAR?

THE PRESENT SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES IS A WAR-MAKING BODY AND A BODY HOSTILE TO CIVIL LIBERTIES NOT ONLY IN THE SOUTH BUT IN THIS STATE. YOU HAVE A RIGHT IN NOVEMBER TO HELP CHANGE THE COMPOSITION OF THE SENATE. THE PRESENT JUNIOR SENATOR, VOTED FOR THE RIGHT. I VOTED FOR HI LAST YAR. BUT THIS YEAR THE WHOLE PICTURE OF THE WORLD HAS CHANGED AND SENATOR LEHMAN HAS SUPPORTED OUR WAR PROGRAM AND OPENLY CONDONED IN SOME CASES THE INVASION OF OUR CIVIL LIBERTIES.

AS REPRESENTATIVE OF FINANCE AND INVESTING INTERESTS HE COULD HARDLY DO OTHERWISE. REMEMBER WHAT MODERN INVESTMENT IS: IT IS NOT AS IT ONCE WAS, THE LOANING OF YOUR SAVINGS TO HELP AN ENTERPRISE WHICH YOU KNEW ABOUT AND WATCHED. IT IS CONTROL OF GOODS AND LABOR OVER VAST AREAS AND UNDER CONDITIONS OF WHICH YOU NEITHER KNOW NOR CARE. IT MAY AND OFTEN DOES INVOLVE SLAVERY AND DISEASE, IGNORANCE AND CRUELTY. IT MAY DRIVE WAGES TO STARVATION, DECIMATE AND RUIN FAMILY AND GROUP LIFE; IT MAY TURN VAST AREAS FROM HAPPY PRIMITAVE LIFE TO CENTERS OF CRIME AND HORROR. BUT IF IT EARNS A PROFIT; IF IT DOES NOT TRANSGRESS THE LAWS, XXXX OF THE COUNTRY WHERE THE INVESTORS LIVE AND WHERE THEY LARGELY MAKE THE LAW, THEN IT IS LAGAL, LEGITIMATE AND RESPECTABLE. THIS HAS BEEN THE HISTORY OF MODERN FINANCE AND INVESTMENT ALL OVER THE WORLD. ITS PATH IS MARKED BY BLOOD, WAR, IGNORANCE AND THE SUBJECTION OF MOST OF THE PEOPLES OF THE WORLD TO THE COMFORT AND CONVENIENCE AND LUXURY OF THE FEW.

THE RIGHT TO CURB UNCONTROLLED INVESTMENT AND EXPLOITATION HAS BEEN LONG AND DIFFICULT AND HAS HAD MUCH SUCCESS. BUT TODAY AND IN AMERICA IT IS FAILING AND RESULTING IN A PROGRAM OF WORLD WAR. THE OVERWHELMING INFLUENCE AND REPRESENTATION of finance capital in our legislatures in the executive and especially

IN THE SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES MUST BE CURBED AND CURBED IMMEDIATELY. IT IS TIME THAT SENATOR LEHMAN BE REPLACED BY A MAN WHO IS OPPOSED TO WAR AND WILLING TO FIGHT FOR CIVIL LIBERTIES AND NOT SIMPLY FOR THE LIBERTY OF CORPORATIONS BUT LIBERTY FOR THE MASS OF WORKING MEN AND WOMEN.

IT HAS BEEN INTIMATED HOWEVER, THAT MY CANDIDACY IS DESIGNED NOT REALLY TO REPLACE SENATOR LEHMAN BY A MAN WILLING TO FIGHT FOR PEACE AND CIVIL RIGHTS BUT RATHER TO ELECT AS SENATOR A MEN EVEN LESS QUALIFIED AND LESS WILLING TO REPRESENT PROGRESSIVE THOUGHT THAN MR. LEHMAN. SO FAR AS I AM CONCERNED PERSONALLY, I HAVE BUT ONE OBJECT IN THIS CAMPAIGN AND THAT IS TO WIN THE ELECTION.

IN A LONG LIFE I HAVE NEVER AND NEVER EXPECT TO ACT AS STOOL PIGEON FOR ANY MAN OR PARTY. I SHALL NOT BEGIN NOW. I KNOW THAT EVERY THIRD PARTY MOVEMENT MEETS SUCH ACCUSATIONS, WHICH IF HEEDED WOULD MAKE PROGRESS IMPOSSIBLE. EVERYTIME YOU SUGGEST VOTING AGAINST A DOMINANT PARTY OR A PRESENT OFFICIAL,

YOU ARE MET BY THE PREDICTION THAT YOU ARE BOUND TO FAIL. UPON THIS FEAR AND RISK, THE OLD PARTIES RELY TO HOLD THEIR GRADT AND POWER.

TODAY IN THIS STATE AND IN THE NATION THE DEMOCRATIC AND REPUBLICAN PARTIES PARTIES STAND FOR ONE AND THE SAME THING: WAR AND THE SLAVE STATE. THEY CANNOT EVEN PHRASE PLATFORMS THAT SOUND DIFFERENT. THEY CAN ONLY PROMISE TO DO WHAT THE OTHER IS DONG BETTER--or WORSE. THE NATION FACED THE SAME PREDICAMENT AND PROPHECY IN THE SLAVERY CONTROVERSY A CENTURY AGO. YOU HAD TO VOTE DEMOCRATIC OR WHIG, BECAUSE THE FREE SOIL PARTY H D NOT CHANCE: BECAUSE IF YOU FAILED TO VOTE FOR A DEMOCRAT YOU HELP ELECT A WHIG. BUT THAT WAS NOT TURE, AS THE EVENTUAL TRIUMPH OF ABRAHAM LINCOLN PROVED. EVERY DEFEAT OF A CANDIDATE FOR A FREE COUNTRY, DOES NOT MEAN DEFEAT FOR WHAT HE STANDS FOR.

EVEN IF I BE DEFEATED FOR SENATOR, THE VOTE FOR ME WOULD STILL BE A VOTE FOR CIVIL RIGHTS AND AGAINST WAR, AND EVENTUALLY THIS PROGRAM MUST WIN. IF IT WINS THIS NOVEMBER SO MUCH THE BETTER: BUT IF IT WINS TEN YEARS FROM

TODAY THAT VICTORY MUST BEGIN NOW.

IT IS THE PROGRAM AND NOT THE MAN FOR WHICH YOU VOTE. THEY ONLY ASSURANCE YOU HAVE IS THAT IF I AM ELECTED TO THE SENATE, NO POWER IN HELL, EARTH NOR HEAVEN WILL KEEP MY MOUTH FROM SPEAKING AND VOTING WHILE I LIVE WHAT I CONCEIVE IS THE TURTH AND RIGHT.

IN THIS SITUATION THE AMERICAN LABOR PARTY TAKES ITS STAND ON THE PROPOSITION "THERE CAN BE NO PROGRESS WITHOUT PEACE." WE ARE THE ONLY NATION IN THE CIVILIZED WORLD TODAY ADVOCATING WAR AND COMPELLING OTHER NATIONS TO FIGHT. FOR THIS WE ARE HATED AND FEARED. WE CALL FOR THE IMMEDIATE SETTLEMENT OF THE WAR IN KOREA, WHICH AN AMERICN SOLDIER HAS CHARACTERIZED WHEN HE SAID: "I NEVER SAW SUCH A USELESS DAMNED WAR IN ALL MY LIFE.". MEDIATION WITH BOTH NORTH AND SOUTH KOREA IN CONFERENCE, AND CHINA REPRESENTED IN THE UNITED NATIONS, IS THE ONLY SOLUTION. WE ASK RESUMPTION OF THE FREE FLOW OF TRADE BETWEEN EAST AND WEST AND THE UTTER OVERTHROW OF COLONIALISM WHEN WHEN MARKED

UNDER POINT FOUR.

TO STOP THIS PROGRAM OF REASON AND PROGRESS, THE ALLIED AND ASSOCIATED POLITICAL PROFIT-MAKERS, CALLED THE REPUBLICAN AND DEMOCRATIC PARTIES, HAVE ADOPTED THE LAST TACTICS OF DESPAIR. THEY HAVE MADE NOT ONLY TURTH BUT CIVIL RIGHTS A CASUALYY OF WAR! THEY HAVE TURNED YOUR ATTENTION FROM PROGRESS AND PEACE, TO HATE AND FEAR. THEY ARE MAKING IT ILLEGAL TO THINK OF PROGRESS OR TO ADVOCATE PEACE OR PROGRESS. EVERY PATH TO REFORM LIKE TAXATION OF GREAT WEALTH: SOCIAL MEDICINE, INCITIVE RENT CONTROL, RIVER DEVELOPMENT, PUBLIC HOUSING AND FOREST PLANNING, ARE ALL CALLED COMMUNISTIC OR SOCIALISTIC AND THEIR PROMOTERS THREATENED WITH DISGRACE, JAIL OR LOSS OF LIVELIHOOD.

AND NOW AS A LAST EXERCISE OF TYRANNY, WE ARE PRESENTED WITH THE MCCARRAN ACT--THEFUGITIVE SLAVE LAW OF 1950. YOU KNOW WHAT THE FUGITIVE SLAVE LAW OF 1850 WAS: CAPITAL INVESTED IN HUMAN BEINGS BEGAN TO RUN AWAY: FOOLISH NORTHERNERS

23-2-432

BLACK AND WHITE, HELPED IT HIDE. THE SLAVE POWER WHICH RULED THE NATION AS WALL STREET RULES IT TODAY, PASSED A BILL THAT MADE KIDNAPPING OF ANY NEGRO POSSIBLE WITHOUT TRIAL, THAT MADE A MAN PROVE HIS FREEDOM INSTEAD OF FORCING MASTERS TO PROVE PROPERTY: AND TRIED TO MAKE ABOLITIONISM A CRIME. THIS LAW WAS SO SUCCESSFUL THAT IN A DECADE IT BROUGHT CIVIL WAR, AND ABULITION OF SLAVERY CAME THREE YEARS LATER.

35-2-433

SO TODAY, WE ARE BIDDEN TO HATE COMMUNISM WHEN WHAT WE MUST HATE IS WAR: WE ARE CALLED SUBVERSIVE WHEN WE TRY TO THINK AND ACT AS HUMAN BEINGS AND NOT AS PUPPETS. IF WE ATTACK SEGREGATION IN THE ARMY OR CIVIL LIFE, WE ARE CALLED TRAITORS TO AMERICA. AGAINST THIS THE AMERICAN LABOR PARTY PROTESTS AND FIGHTS. AND AS ITS CANDIDATE FOR THE UNITED STATES SENATE, I ASK YOU TO VOTE TO UPEB BIG BUSINESS AND WAR AS REPRESENTED BY HERBERT LEHMAN: WAR AND BIG BUSINESS AS REPRESENTED BY THAT EMINENT VETERAN ROE HANLEY: AND TO UPHOLD PEACE AND CIVIL RIGHTS, WHICH ARE BEING SABOTAGED BY HARRY TRUMAN. TO THE SUPPORT OF THIS PROGRAM I WELCOME EVERY ODY WHO AGREES WITH IT, WHITE AND BLACK: JEW AND GENTILE: DEMOCRAT, COMMUNIST, AND EVEN REPUBLICAN.

THE CAMPAIGN OF 1950

The great issue, of this time, of this nation, of this world, is Peace; and the central theme of the campaign which begins here today is Peace, no more War. There are in this nation today powerful interests which are determined on War. To this end they are suppressing the Bill of Rights so as to stop discussion, distort the facts and stampede the nation through the hysteria of groundless Fear. Who is it among us who wants War and why do they want it?

The American Labor Party knows who and why, and there are many others who also know. But the American Labor Party not only knows but it is going to do something about it. That right of action is the right to elect our lawmakers and executives by universal and secret ballot.

Our party therefore has selected candidates for governor and lieutenant-governor; for comptroller and attorney-general, for mayor of the city of New York and for members of the federal Congress.

It has asked me to run for the United States Senate. This is for me a new role. Only once in my life have I held public office, and that was when, for a month in 1920, I was made Special Minister Plenipotentiary to Liberia. My political activity has been almost wholly confined to writing. In this writing, with some speaking, I tried first to put the Negro vote in proper and effective relation to the national needs. In the first election of Woodrow Wilson, I sought to end Negro subserviency to the Republican Party. I tried to induce the Bull Moose movement to make Negro Rights a main plank and fought it when it refused. I opposed Taft's "lily-white" Southern policy and supported the third party movements of La Follette and Henry Wallace. I have never been an active party worker, but have been an enrolled member of the Socialist Party, of the Democratic party under the New Deal, and lately of the American Labor Party.

The basic motive of my political thought and activity has been the securing for all Americans, civil and political rights regardless of race or color. I assumed and assumed too easily, that once color discrimination was done away with, the nation and the world would be free to attack and solve certain basic problems of humam progress which I knew full well cried for solution. Behind and beneath this demand for rights lay always therefore the assumption that with the right to vote, ~~the right~~ to work, the right to think and speak, ~~the right to travel~~ and the right to know, would come through the very exercise of these fundamental privileges, the basic right of human beings to live, to work; to eat and be sheltered, to be shielded from disease and have their children educated. ¶ But to my amazement and fright, I have lived to see the era of Peace which I was trained to look forward to as the only goal of Civilization transformed into plans for universal world war; and a theory of progress by war and more war, each more savage and destructive than the last. I now realize that I, as well as you, am faced by a problem and a crisis in which no considerations of ease or age, suffice to hold me back from a great duty. That duty is the one of trying to bring reason and past experience to bear upon a people gone temporarily insane. ¶ The basic cause of this insanity is the effort of powerful interests, armed by control of press and radio, school and platform, backed by almost unlimited money, to turn the attention of the world from the fundamental problem of our age. That problem is that in our unprecedented organization of industry, with its marvellous technique and world-wide extent, the vast majority of mankind remain sick, ignorant and starved, while a few have more income in goods and services than they can use. It is no sufficient answer to this fundamental problem, to point out that the present degradation of the worker is not near so great as it once was, or much less in some lands than in

35-4-160

¶ in Copy

There are no others matters so important or so pressing others. The point is that it is far too great than is necessary or decent and calls for drastic cure now and not a thousand years hence.

This is the basic problem of ~~civilization~~ our culture, no matter how much we try to conceal and ignore it, or try to divert attention from it to other matters. We may be led to yell our heads off to convince ourselves that the problem of this world today is the Soviet Union and Communism. That is deliberate deception. The problem of economic justice to working men existed before the Russian revolution and would remain if Russia were swept from the face of the earth tomorrow. Proposals to solve this problem by socialism and communism, did not originate in Russia and will not end there. What Russia did was to attempt to solve this problem in a systematic way, at a time when the 19th century had bequeathed to the world the dogma that the problem of economic justice was insoluble; that most men must always be poor, ignorant and sick, because most men were so inferior in gift and morals that this was inevitable; that civilization depended on making the few masters of the many, the Rich the rulers of the Poor, and thus in this way, and only in this way, could civilization be built and maintained.

35-4-1101

Is this true? Whether it is true or not, we have no right to stop people and nations from denying the necessity of poverty, disease and ignorance, and from experimenting in their own way to make a better world. Moreover, our own duty is clear and ~~pressing~~ that is not to pull down others but rather to build ourselves up; to prove to the world that the economic condition of mankind can be bettered and that we know how to do this and ~~are starting~~ we propose to prove our belief by action. Instead of this, what are we up to? We are trying to fight an Idea. We are going to make nations agree with us and our way of life by using atom bombs, and jet planes, battleships and artillery.

Why? Why do we propose to ~~overthrow~~ make the Russian experiment fail, to throttle China and to throw the world into continuous war? The reason is clear: any success of socialism or communism will we fear that interfere with our money-making. We have become a nation of money-makers. We think that money-making is the great end of man. Our whole ideology bows to this fantastic idea. Religion, science, art and morals in America tend to be measured by the profit they bring, and the true ~~end~~ vocation of American man is profit-making business enterprise.

35-4-1602

War is Big Business and a business immensely profitable to a few, but of measureless disaster and death of dream to the many. What has happened to the world, is that those who profit from war, especially in the United States, have gained control of government; This came about because of the First World War, which we entered with reluctance and participated in mainly by furnishing materials at a huge profit to those who controlled them. The result was two-fold; Americans conceived the idea of continuing to profit from the world's disaster and to move in as successor of the British Empire as ruler of most of mankind. On the other hand, Russia and other nations who had been through Hell because of war, began experiments for reforming if not replacing the current methods of industrial organization. We joined the capitalists of the world to suppress their socialist experiments which threatened our plan of world industrial empire. However, just as plans were ripe for a mass attack on the Soviets, in particular, the bottom fell out of modern capitalist industry. This was no fault of Russia nor of socialism, but was directly due to the overreaching greed of private profit.

But no matter what its cause, the result was that the Soviet experiment got a breathing space while in the United States the New Deal

Big Business wants war ino order to keep your mind off social reform; it rather spend your taxes for atom bombs than for schools because in this way it makes more money; it rather have your sons dying in Korea than studying in America and asking awkward questions. The system which it advocates depends on war and more war.

In order to have war, Big busines must have Hate; so its press and newspapers ask you to hate communists and if not communists , hate all who do not hate communists indeed hate all who do not take orders from those who now rule America was forced to adopt many socialist remedies for poverty, unemployment and ~~despair~~ despair: we curbed the profits of capital; we put the State into certain industries and we adopted planned industry like the TVA, and we relieved the unemployed and we established Social Security

In other words, the United States began to form and carry out its own plans for so reorganizing industry as to save capitalism wherever it deserved to be saved.

35-4-163

Here the American Labor Party takes its stand as the successor of the New Deal. It maintains that the Soviet Union has a right to adopt its own economic philosophy and carry it out as it will. And that also the United States has a right to attempt to save its own way of life and that this can be done as the New Deal started to prove, when it was not only by its enemies but more completely sabotaged ~~by~~ its friends. ~~But~~ What the American Labor Party denies is that the present plan of Big Business to compel the world to adopt our philosophy and our methods by force of arms is not only impossible unreasonable in the light of our own failures and ~~idiotic~~ in deals and can only end in disaster.

Moreover, we point out that the persons who are forcing us to adopt this policy of force and violence are the upholders of Big Business; that they are profiting as never before by war and preparation for war, and are deliberately blind to the fact that their profit is the disaster of America and the world. Moreover, we point out that Herbert Lehman was trained in Big Business and today deliberately represents ~~the~~ its interests ~~of Big Business.~~ Last year Herbert Lehman called John Foster Dulles "a bigot, an Anti-Semite and a Fascist". For that reason I voted for Lehman instead of Dulles. This year Senator Lehman welcomes this same Dulles into "bi-partisan" collaboration for war; he votes for a concentration camp for Communists & Their Collect. Communists; he ignores the restoration to power in Germany of the same gang which killed six million Jews, and acquiesces into their re-arming.

would seem that the futile efforts of a succession of master races to impose their ll and power upon mankind would teach us that our progra m of world conquest is crazy. There is no possible chance for us to accomplish what Egypt, Persia, Greece, e, Great Britain and Hitler failed to do. With our little "police action" in Korea shaking our resourses to the foundations, how long and what effort will it take to nquer China , the Soviet Union, the Balkans, not to mention India/? Our military plans e idiotic and still more ~~idiotic~~ so if we depend on G ermany and Japan to pull our chest-uts out of the fire. It will take more than one Wild Man of Tokio to bring this fantasy fact.

Why; what has changed Mr. Lehman? He has not changed. He follows automatically his training in the same school which made Dulles a warmonger and attorney of the Nazis, and that is, foreign investment of American capital so as to make enormous profit out of the poverty and helplessness of Asia and Africa. And to bulwark our investment and guarantee high profit, the power of business joins hands with the military.

Thus, we are today ruled by Big Business and Big Brass for profit. A representative of the Steel Trust has been Secretary of State; a representative of Morgan and Rockerfeller is chief adviser of Truman on foreign affairs; another Morgan man has been under-secretary of State and will be second in command under Marshall. A secretary of the Navy and Defense chief represented Dillon, Reid and Company, and another became Secretary of War. Where Big Business does not control government, men trained for war do. We have just reformed our defense department by placing a soldier at its head, in defiance of sound tradition; his first word is universal training of our children for all-out war all over the earth, at a cost greater than we ever spent for education, health, housing and social uplift altogether. And for what? For profit to investors which is today piling up at the rate of $23,000,000,000 a year; with the prospect that the profit for 1950 will be four and a half that of 1939, and twice as high as the enormous war profit of 1944.

It is the theory of democratic government, that when a situation like this arises, two political parties will examine, debate and dispute issues and acts, until the people can make intelligent choice of the problems before them. Today we have only one political party which shares power for the same ends. Men like Dewey and Hanley can only try to outdo what the Democrats have already done; if the Democrats are for war, they are for more war; if the Democrats repudiate the New American capital is flowing into South Africa and Rhodesia. We are the real owners of Belgian Congo. We are ready to arm Chinese fascist hands at 12 cents a day. Watchful Shirt down the block workers in West Africa

Deal, the Republicans loathe and despite it; the one point of agreement between the two so-called parties is war on any nation or movement which stands in the way of American profit, and the suppression of all discussion of the merits of the present crisis. I try to spread in America the peace movement in Europe and I am threatened with jail. Paul Robeson advises Negroes never to fight against people who are striving for a better world for black and white, and he is denied the right to make a living.

In this situation the American Labor Party takes its stand on the proposition "There can be no progress without Peace." We call for the immediate settlement of the war in Korea, which an American soldier has characterized when he said "I never saw such a useless damned war in all my life". Mediation with both North and South Korea in conference, and China represented in the United Nations, is the only solution. We ask resumption of the free flow of trade between east and west and the utter overthrow of colonialism even when masked under Point Four.

To stop this program of reason and progress, the allied and associated political profit-makers, called the Republican and Democratic parties, have adopted the last tactics of despair; they have turned your attention from progress and peace to hate and fear. They are making it illegal to think of progress or to advocate peace or progress. Every path to reform, like taxation of great wealth; land division; rent control; river development and forest control are all called communistic or socialistic and their promoters threatened with disgrace, jail or loss of livelihood. And now as a last exercise of tyrranny, we are presented with the McCarren bill -- the Fugitive Slave law of 1950. You know what the Fugitive Slave Law of 1850 was: capital invested in human beings began to run away; foolish northerners, black and white, helped it hide. The Slave Power ruled the nation as Wall Street rules it today; they passed a bill that made kidnapping of any Negro possible without trial, that made a man prove his freedom instead of forcing masters to prove property, and ~~stopped all action against slavery in the North.~~ This law was so successful that in a decade slavery was abolished. Then years later

So today, we are bidden to hate Communism when what we must hate is war; we are called subversive when we try to think and act as human beings and not as puppets. If we attack segregation in the army or civil life, we are called traitors to America. Against this the American Labor Party protests and fights. And as its candidate for the United States Senate, I ask you vote to curb Big Business and war as represented by Herbert Lehman, War and Big Business as represented by that eminent veteran, Joseph Hanley, and Civil rights sabotaged by Harry Truman.

~~PEACE AND THE IRON CURTAIN~~

for Lochard

I HAVE HAD THIS YEAR AND LAST OPPORTUNITY TO COMPARE THE TWENTIETH CEN TURY AND THE NINETEENTH IN THEIR ATTITUDE TOWARD CIVILIZATION AND PROGRESS. IN THE LAST DECADE OF THE NINETEENTH CENTURY I VISITED THE LEADING NATIONS OF WESTERN EUROPE INCLUDING POLAND AND AUSTRO HUNGARY. THIS YEAR AND LAST I HAVE BEEN IN THE SOVIET UNION POLAND AND CZECHOSLOVAKIA AS WELL AS FRANCE. I SPENT A WEEK IN PRAGUE WHICH I SAW FIRST IN 1893 AND THIS TIME TRAVELLED WEST TO SLO VAKIA. I WAS THREE WEEKS IN FRANCE. in 1945, a month in England

IN 1892 TO 1894, EUROPE BELIEVED IN PEACE AND PROGRESS. BUT PEACE MEANT PEACE AND UNDERSTANDING AMONG THE GREAT EUROPEAN POWERS. AND THEIR UNITED EFFORT TO KEEP IN SUBJECTION POLITICAL OR ECONOMIC THE VAST MAJORITY OF THE PEOPLES OF THE WORLD. THIS WAS NOT REAL PEACE BUT CONTINUAL WAR AND PREPARATION FOR WAR. I REALIZED THIS WHEN IN 1893 THE GERMAN EMPEROR MET THE CROWN PRINCE OF ITALY ON THE TEMPLEHOFER FELD IN BERLIN. I SAW THAT MIGHTY EXHIBITION OF POWER AND WORLD DOMINION. I SAW THE LUXURY OF LONDON PARIS BERLIN ROME AND VIENNA. PROGRESS WAS THERE AND INEVITABLE. BUT PEACE WAS A DREAM.

Since 1945 SINCE 1945 IHAVE SEEN THIS SAME EUROPE AFTER A REVOLUTION MORE TREMEN DOUS THAN THE FALL OF ROME

45-7-223

THERE IS STILL IN THIS WORLD THE WILL TO PEACE. ENGLAND SHRINKS AT THE IDEA OF WAR. THE FRENCH SIMPLY WILL NOT FIGHT AGAIN UNDER ANY CIRCUNSTANCES. I DO NOT BELIEVE ITALY CAN BE FORCED INTO ANY WAR TODAY EXCEPT CIVIL WAR. THE DREAM OF ANOTHER GERMAN ARMY IN WEST GERMANY OR EAST IS CRAZY FOR THE SIMPLE REASON THAT THE FIGHTING MEN OF GERMANY ARE DEAD.

The Iron Curtain BEHIND THE IRON CURTAIN IN THE SOVIET UNION IN POLAND AND CZECHOSLOVAKIA IN AUSTRIA HUNGARY ROMANIA, BULGARIA AND YUGOSLAVIA THERE CAN BE NO DOUBT THAT OVERWHELMINGLY THESE NATIONS WANT PEACE. IF IT IS ANSWERED THAT THEY ARE ALL PREPARED FOR WAR THE ~~ANSWER~~ REASON IS CLEAR: DURING THE LAST ~~35~~ 35 YEARS EASTERN EU ROPE HAS BEEN INVADED BY EVERY EUROPEAN AND NORTH AMERICAN NATION AND IS TODAY OPENLY MENACED WITH FURTHER INVASION.

BUT PEACE IN 1950 HAS A DIFFERENT CONNOTATION THAN IN 1890. IT IS A QUESTI TION OF UNIVERSAL PEACE, OF PEACE IN EUROPE ASIA AFRICA AND AMERICA. AND IT IS PEACE WITH A DEFINITE OBJECT. THAT IS PEACE FOR PROGRESS. AND PROGRESS AND PEACE ~~IS~~ are NOT SIMPLY NOR MAINLY A QUESTION OF RUSSIA. IT HAS DEEPER FAR DEEPER FOUNDATIONS AND RE STS ON A TRUTH WHICH EVERY HUMAN BEING RECOGNIZES IF HE HAS ANY INTELLIGENCE. AND THAT IS THE FACT. RUMANIANS PEASANTS DANCE IN A PRAGUE THEATRE IN THE FRONT ROW OF ORCHESTRA STALLS WERE SEATED YOUNG MINING CADETS JUST TRAINED TO BRING SCIENTIFIC EDUCATION INTO MINING. AND THEN THE BEAUTIFUL UTTERLY UNSOPHISTICATED DANCING OF THESE YOUNG FOLK WAS AN UNFORGETTABLE EXPERIENCE. IN THE MIDST AND CHARACTERISTICALLY THE PROGRAM WAS INTERRUPTED AND THE RUMANIAN CONSUL TALKED A HALF HOUR ON THE FARREACHING ECONOMIC PLANNING OF HIS COUNTRY.

WHAT NOW THE NATIONS BEHIND THE IRON CURTAIN ARE ASKING AND ASKING SINCERELY IS PEACE FOR THEIR ECONOMIC EXPERIMENTS IN REBUILDING THEIR WHOLE ECONOMY. TO THEIR DEMAND MUST BE ADDED THE VOICES OF THE MASSES OF WESTERN EUROPE WHO ARE SAYING: WHETHER THE COMMUNIST PROGRAM OF REFORM IS RIGHT OR WRONG MILITARY COMPULSION TO MAKE THEM CHANGE IS FUTILE. INSTEAD OF ARMIES WE NEED OURSELVES TO SPEND OUR INCOME FOR REFORM FOR HIGHER WAGE AND EMPLOYMENT FOR SANITATION AND SOCIAL MEDICINE FOR EDUCATION.

THE ATTEMPT IN WESTERN EUROPE TO RESTORE THE PRE-WAR ECONOMY IS A DANGEROUS EFFORT. I WANDERED BY ACCIDENT INTO A PARIS RESTAURANT LOOKING OUT ON NOTRE DAME. I WANTED BUT A LIGHT LUNCH BUT HAD CHANCED ON AN EXPENSIVE RESTAURANT OF AN OLDER PARIS. THERE WERE SINGLE DISHES ON THAT MENU WHICH COST MORE THAN

THE AVERAGE PARIS WORKER GETS IN A WEEK TO RAISE A FAMILY. I WATCHED IN A CERTAIN FACINATION THE COOKING OF A FOWL BY THE CHEF FOR A GAY FAMILY PARTY AND I REMEMBERED THE THOUSANDS OF COMMUNISTS WHO ON SEPTEMBER 3, GATHERED IN THE WOODS OF VINCENNES FOR THIER ANNUAL FESTIVAL. THEY COOKED AND SANG IN THE RAIN THEY CROUCHED UNDER TREES AND IMPROVISED TENTS TO SAY WE WILL NOT FIGHT WE MUST HAVE WORK AND DECENT WAGE. I SAID THIS IS NO ATTACK ON CIVILIZATION. THAT ATTACK TOOK PLACE IN MY CHARMING RESTAURANT.

ON THE OTHER HAND THE THESIS WHICH WE SEE TRIUMPHING IN THE UNITED STATES IS THAT WHILE WE RECOGNIZE THE INEQUALITIES AND INJUSTICES OF THE PRESENT ECONOMIC SYSTEM WE ALSO KNOW THE ANSWERS AND WE KNOW THESE ANSWERS SO COMPLETELY THAT WE CONCEIVE IT OUR RIGHT AND DUTY TO COMPELL THE WORLD TO DO AS WE DO. FOR THAT END WE ARE INTRODUCING INTO AMERICA PRECISELY THSOE METHODS OF COERCION WHICH WE ACCUSE OTHER COUNTRIES OF USING. WE HAVE CURBED FREE SPEECH WE HAVE NO FREE PRESS AND WE ARE PUTTING PERSONS IN JAIL WHO ARE GUILTY OF NO CRIME. ABOVE ALL WE ARE WAGING WAR AND PREPARING FOR A THIRD WORLD WAR ON A SCALE WHICH PROMISES TO BANKRUPT OUR ECONOMY. IT IS THEREFORE THE BOUNDEN DUTY OF AMERICANS OF VISION TO WORK FOR PEACE. THIS DOES NOT INVOLVE ACCEPTANCE OF COMMUNISM

WHEN STEPHEN DECATUR SAID: " MY COUNTRY RIGHT OR WRONG", HE DID NOT MEAN, AND AS A LYOAL AMERICAN, HE COULD NOT HAVE MEANT THAT HE WAS GOING TO AGREE WITH THE WRONG WHICH HIS COUNTRY WAS DOING OR ADVOCATE IT OR DEFENT IT. IT IS MUCH MORE LOGICAL THAT DECATUR MEANT THAT JUST BECAUSE HIS COUNTRY WAS WRONG, HE DID NOT BECOME AUTOMATICALLY THE CITIZEN OF ANY OTHER COUNTRY. HE WAS STILL AN AMERICAN, HAD A RIGHT TO HIS AMERICAN CITIZENSHIP AND ALSO RETAINED THE RIGHT TO TRY BY EVERY LEGAL AND LEGITIMATE SCHEME TO MAKE HIS COUNTRY TURN TO THE RIGHT INSTEAD OF THE WRONG. YET DELIBERATE MISINTERPRETATION OF THIS PHRASE, HAS LONG LED MANY AMERICANS TO DO CONTRADICTORY AND EVEN TERRIBLE THINGS. IT IS SAID FOR INSTANCE, THAT ROBERT E. LEE, THE GREAT LEADER OF THE SOUTHERN CONFEDERACY, DID NOT BELIEVE IN SLAVERY AND DID NOT

WANT TO PERPETUATE IT. YET BECAUSE HIS COUNTRY OR THE SECTION OF THE COUNTRY WITH WHICH HE HAD THE STRONGEST TIES DECIDED TO FIGHT FOR SLAVERY AND MAKE IT THE BASIS OF A NEW GOVERNMENT, ROBERT E. LEE OBEYED THEIR SUMMONS AND FOR FOUR YEARS FOUGHT VALIANTLY FOR THE RIGHT TO BUY AND SELL HUMAN BEINGS. IT WAS NO FAULT OF LEE'S THAT WE ARE NOT STILL A SLAVE STATE. IN SOMETHING OF THE SAME WAY, ABRAHAM LINCOLN WAS PERFECTLY WILLING TO CONDONE AND ACCEPT AND PROTECT SLAVERY IN ORDER TO STOP THE CIVIL WAR. HE TURNED TO EMANCIPATION NOT AT FIRST AS A HUMANITARIAN MEASURE BUT AS A WAY TO STOP WAR. HE BECAME A FRIEND OF NEGROES WHEN HE REALIZED THAT ONLY BY USE OF NEGRO TROOPS COULD THE WAR BE ENDED. IN BOTH OF THESE CASES WHEN THE WRONG WHICH THESE MEN WERE EXCUSING SUDDENLY BECAME CLEAR TO ALL HONEST FOLK, BOTH LEE AND LINCOLN OPPOSED SLAVERY AND TRIED TO DO WHAT THEY COULD FOR A FREE COUNTRY. YET THEIR ATTITUDE AND THEIR ACTION HAD MADE IT MORE DIFFICULT TO MAKE AND KEEP THE

PEACE. SO IT IS TODAY. WE ARE FIGHTING A WAR THAT LARGE NUMBERS OF PEOPLE INCLUDING MYSELF BELIEVE TO BE FUNDAMENTALLY UNJUST. WE BELIEVE THAT THE THINGS FOR WHICH THE NORTH KOREANS ARE FIGHTING ARE EXACTLY THE THINGS FOR FOR WHICH AMERICANS FOUGHT IN 1776, THE FRENCH FOUGHT IN 1789, AND THE HAITIANS IN 1800, THAT IS AUTONOMY AND SELF RULE. THIS DOES NOT MEAN THAT BECAUSE OF THIS FIRM AND FUNDAMENTAL BELIEF WE ARE GOING TO JOIN THE NORTH KOREAN ARMY OR HELP KILL THE AMERICAN SOLDIERS, WHO LARGELY THROUGH NO CHOICE OF THEIR OWN ARE FIGHTING AGAINST THE PEOPLE WHO WANT TO BE FREE: BUT IT DOES MEAN THAT WE WILL STATE OUR POSITION AND THAT TEMPERATELY BUT CLEARLY, WE WILL DECLARE THAT THIS NATION WITHOUT THE DEMOCRATIC PROCESS HAS BEEN FORCED INTO A WAR WE DO NOT WANT AND THAT THE END OF THE WAR MAY BE THE DESTRUCTION OF CIVILI-ZATION: AN IN ANY CASE INEVITABLY THE SETTING BACK OF HUMAN CULTURE DECADES IF NOT HUNDREDS OF YEARS.

ALTHOUGH WAR THEN HAS BEEN FORCED UPON US NOT BY THE KIND OF DEMOCRACY

AND DEMOCRATIC PROCESS WHICH WE HAVE BEEN BLATENTLY DEFENDING BEFORE THE WORLD, YAT WE IN OPPOSITION TO THAT WAR PROPOSE TO APPEAL TO THIS SAME DEMOCRACY. DESPITE ALL THREATS TO OUR FREEDOM AND OUR JOBS, WE ARE GOING TO STAND UP BEFORE THE AMERICAN PEOPLE AND SAY, WE ARE DOING SOMETHING WHICH IS WR NG AND UNJUST AND EVEN IF IT WERE TRUE THAT THE NORTH KOREANS WERE WRONG IN THEIR METHODS OR FIRST IN AGGRESSION IT WOULD STILL NOT BE THE FUNCTION OR RIGHT OF THE AMERICAN PEOPLE TO TRY TO CRUSH THEM BY FORCE OF ARMS . EVEN IN THE PAST WHEN WE HAVE BEEN A GREAT AND OVERWHELMING POWER ATTACKING A SMALL PEOPLE, WE HAVE SAID VIRTUOUSLY THAT THE SMALL POWER HAS A RIGHT TO RESIST. WHATEVER LOGIC THERE WAS IN THAT KIND OF ATTITUDE, CERTAINLY WHEN A SMALL POWER IS ATTACKED BY A POWER OF OVERWHELMING RESOURCES, IT IS SILLY FOR THE GREAT POWER TO TALK OF SELF DEFENSE. WHAT IT IS PERSUING IS OFFENSE, SUBJECTION AND DESTRUCTION. WE ARE RELYING UPON THE ABSURB IDEA, VOICED BY A GREAT GENERAL AND COLLEGE PRESIDENT THAT "WE CAN LICK THE WORLD."

45-7-212

WE FIND THAT IT IS GOING TO BE NO SIMPLE MATTER EVEN TO LICK KOREA, AND IF THAT IS TRUE WE HAVE AGAINST US, NOT ONLY THE MORAL CONDEMNATION OF THE THINKERS OF THE WORLD, BUT ALSO THE COST IN BLOOD AND MONEY WHICH THIS PATH OF CONQUEST OPENS BEFORE US.

THERE IS YET TIME TO THINK, THERE IS YET TIME TO BRING PERSUASION UPON OUR NEIGHBORS, UPON OUR REPRESENTATIVES IN CONGRESS, UPON THE NATION AS A WHOLE. IT WOULD BE WRONG AND UN-AMERICAN FOR ANY PERSON WHO BELIEVES IN THE INJUSTICE OF THE KOREAN WAR TO SIT SILENT AT THIS TIME. THE PEACE INFORMATION CENTER WHICH I REPRESENT, ASKS ONLY THAT THE PEOPLE OF AMERICA KNOW WHAT THE REST OF THE WORLD IS THINKING AND DOING ABOUT PEACE: AND FURTHER WE HAVE BEEN DISTRIBUTING THE STOCKHOLM APPEAL AGAINST THE USE OF ATOMIC BOMBS. I AM GRATIFIED THAT EVEN THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES, DECLARES THAT IN THIS WAR AT LEAST HE HAS AS YET NO PLAN OF USING THE ATOMIC BOMB. IT WOULD BE A FINE GESTURE ON HIS PART IF HE SIGNED THE STOCKHOLM APPEAL AND THUS TOLD

45-7-213 THE WORLD THAT SIMPLY BECAUSE THE UNION OF SOVIET REPUBLICS HAS PUT MILLIONS

OF SIGNATURES TO THIS DOCUMENT, THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES, NEVERTHELESS IS PROUD TO JOIN THEM FOR A GREAT AND JUST END.

IT IS OUR BOUNDED DUTY TO STOP THIS FIGHTING IN KOREA, NOT BY GREATER, BROADER AND LONGER BATTLES BUT BY CONCILIATION AND COMPROMISE: BY HONEST INQUIERY INTO THE FACTS AND CONDITIONS AND BY OUR UNALTERABLE DETERMINATION TO KET KOREA HAVE THE GOVERNMENT WHICH KOREANS WANT.

HARLEM IN THE CAMPAIGN

W. E. B. DU BOIS

HARLEM/ IS ONE OF THE MOST WIDELY KNOWN/ LOCALITIES ON EARTH.// IN EUROPE, ASIA, AND AFRICA/ THE AVERAGE MAN/ HAS HEARD OF HARLEM/ AND HAS SOME IDEA OF ITS SIGNIFICANCE/ AS A CENTER,/ NOT SIMPLY OF NEGRO EXPRESSION/ BUT OF A NEW CONCEPT OF DEMOCRATIC POWER.// NATURALLY THE MEANING OF HARLEM/ HAS GREATLY CHANGED IN THE COURSE OF TIME.// AT THE CLOSE OF THE CIVIL WAR,/ THERE WERE ONLY 15,000 NEGROES/ IN THE WHOLE CITY OF NEW YORK/ AND NONE IN THE EMPTY FARMING DISTRICT/ TO THE NORTH OF 14th STREET.

BY THE BEGINNING OF THE CENTURY/ THE CENTER OF NEW YORKS' NEGRO PUPULATION/ LAY AT 53rd STREET.// IT WAS THERE/ THAT THE MUSIC AND DRAMA/ WHICH AFTERWARD MADE HARLEM FAMOUS/ BEGAN;// AND BETWEEN 1900 and 1910/ PHIL PEYTON THE NEGRO

REAL ESTATE MAN/ BEGAN THE OPENING OF HARLEM/ TO THE CROWDED NEGRO POPULATION IN THE WEST SIDE/ BELOW 53rd STREET.

35-6-211

IT WAS THEFIRST WORLD WAR/ WITH ITS STOPPAGE OF FOREIGN IMMIGRATION/ AND NEW OPPORTUNITIES FOR WORK/ THAT BROUGHT THE GREAT INFLUX OF NEGROES/ INTO THIS AREA OF NEW YORK.// THE BLACK COMMUNITY OF 60,000/ WHICH HAD GATHERED HERE BY 1910/ BECAME A HUNDRED THOUSAND BY 1920/ AND DOUBLED EACH DECADE/ TO 200,000 IN 1930/ AND 400,000 IN 1940.// PROBABLY TODAY HARLEM AND ADJACENT AREAS CONTAIN/ MORE THAN A HALF MILLION PERSONS/ OF NEGRO DESCENT.// PERHAPS THE LARGEST NEGRO CITY COMMUNITY/ IN THE WESTERN WORLD.

IN ITS EARLIER YEARS,/ FROM 1900 to 1920/ HARLEM CONNOTED NEGRO ART/ IN MUSIC AND THEATER/ WITH WILLIAMS AND WALKER,/ COLE AND JOHNSON,/ WILL MARION COOK/ SISSLE AND BLAKE/ AND FLORENCE MILLS.// HITHER CAME THE BLUES FROM MEMPHIS/ AND JAZZ WITH JIM EUROPE.// THE WORLD LOOKED ON HARLEM/ AS A PLAYGROUND AND SLUM/ WHICH THE RICH AND CURIOUS/ VISITED,/ AND WHICH SENT ITS SINGERS AND DANCERS

AROUND THE WORLD.// BUT BEYOND AND BENEATH THIS HARLEM,/ WAS A CROWDED LABYRINTH OF HOMES AND WORKERS/ WITH POVERTY, DISEASE AND CRIME.// WITH ALL THAT SWELL AND PULSE OF LIVING/ THAT MAKES LIFE IN A GREAT CITY.// OUT OF THIS CAME,/ IN THE TWENTIES,/ ATTEMPTS AT EXPRESSION,/ AT WRITING AND ACTING:// POETS, NOVELISTS AND PLAY-WRIGHTS/ BEGAN TO APPEAR/ AND A NEGRO LITERATURE/ WHICH WAS A PART/ AND AN IMPORTANT PART/ OF AMERICAN LITERATURE.// ALSO THERE CAME CRIME/ WITH GAMBLING AND PROSTITUTION,/ ASSAULT AND THEFT/ AND THIS MADE AN IDEAL STAMPING-GROUND/ FOR POLITICS/ IN THE LOWER SENSE OF THAT TERM.// HERE AMONG THE POOR AND DEPRESSED, VOTES COULD BE BOUGHT CHEAPLY/ AND BOTH TAMMANY/ AND THE REPUBLICAN MACHINES/ SOON BEGAN/ TO DISBURSE CONSIDERABLE FUNDS/ TO CONTROL THE HARLEM VOTE.// THIS WAS PAID FOR/ IN CASH/ AND FOLLOWED BY A FEW OFFICES AND JOBS/ AND SALE OF THE RIGHT TO dedim LIQUOR/ AND WOMEN/ AND THE NUMBERS.

THEN CAME THE DEPRESSION/ OF THE THIRTIES/ AND HARLEM SANK IN POVERTY,/ RELIEF, DESTITUTION AND CRIME.// THE LITERARY RENASSIANCE/ DISAPPEARED IN A GRIM FIGHT/ TO LIVE AND SURVIVE:// AND BY THE ADVENT OF THE FORTIES,/ THERE CAME TO

HARLEM/ A NEW SENSE/ OF THE POWER AND MEANING OF LIFE/ IN THIS SECTION.// BORN OF STRUGGLE/ AND OF A GROWTH OF INTELLIGENCE AND PLANNING.// POLITICS TOCK ON NEW MEANING/ AND NO LONGER MEANT SIMPLY/ PAY FOR VOTES OR FOR THE PRIVILEGE OF BREAKING THE LAW.// THE HARLEM NEGRO BEGAN TO DEMAND REPRESENTATION/ IN GOVERNMENT/ AND REPRESENTATION/ BY MEN OF HIS OWN CHOOSING/ AND NOT SIMPLY BY THOSE CHOSEN/ AND THRUST OVER HIM.// POLITICAL MACHINERY/ BEGAN TO PASS INTO HIS HANDS/ AND HE ENTERED THE CITY GOVERNMENT,/ THE POLICE FORCE,/ THE CIVIL SERVICE, THE STATE LEGISLATURE/ AND THE NATIONAL CONGRESS.// ~~BUT HE WAS CONTENT TO SHARE POWER/ AND NOT YET READY/ TO USE IT FOR ITS ENDS.~~

35-6-213

DURING THIS TIME/ HARLEM THOUGHT OF ITSELF/ AS A NEGRO COMMUNITY/ DEALING MAINLY/ WITH THE PROBLEMS OF THE AMERICAN NEGRO.// ALTHOUGH A COMMUNITY OF WORKERS,/ IT DID NOT CONCEIVE ITSELF/ AS PART OF THE LABOR PROBLEM/ OF THE CITY OR NATION.// ~~HARLEM DID NOT ASK TO GUIDE GREAT DEMOCRACY,/ ONLY TO SHARE IT~~

~~ON THE SAME TERMS AS OTHER FOLK SHARED IT.~~ HARLEM

ALTHOUGH A PART OF THE AMERICAN EXPRESSION OF DEMOCRACY, IT WANTED TO BE A PART OF THAT DEMOCRACY, FOR WHICH OTHERS DID THE THINKING AND GUIDING. THIS WAS NATURAL FOR A GROUP BROUGHT UP WITH A SLAVE PSYCHOLOGY, WHOSE HIGHEST AMBITION, QUITE NATURALLY, WAS TO SHARE AND NOT TO GUIDE: TO BE RECOGNIZED AND NOT TO DICTATE. BUT HARLEM LIVED IN A CHANGING AGE, IN AN AGE WHEN THE BURDEN OF GOVERNING WAS SHIFTING FROM THE PRIVILEGED TO THE MASS: FROM THE OWNER OF PROPERTY TO THE CREATOR OF VALUE. THIS MEANT OFTEN, AS MEN FEARED IT WOULD, TRANSFER OF POWER FROM INTELLIGENCE TO IGNORANCE, AND FROM EXPERIENCE TO UNCERTAINTY: YET AT THE SAME TIME, IT WAS BRINGING A NEW THING INTO THE WORLD: A BROAD SENSE OF UNSELFISH CARE FOR THE MASS OF HUMANITY, INSTEAD OF THE FIERCE STRUGGLE OF THE SMART TO SURVIVE AT ANY COST; AND A FEELING OF THE UNITY OF MANKIND ACROSS LINES OF RACE AS WELL AS CLASS. THUS THE HARLEM VOTER GRADUALLY BEGAN TO FEEL HIMSELF NOT SIMPLY AS SYMBOL OF

35-6-214

A RACE, BUT AS PART OF A PEOPLE; NOT SIMPLY AS A CENTER FOR ENTERTAINING THE RICH, BUT MUCH MORE AS A COMMUNITY OF CITIZENS WHOSE DUTY IT WAS TO HELP MAKE A NEW NATION AND A NEW WORLD.

TO ILLUSTRATE MY MEANING, I REMEMBER HOW A QUARTER OF A CENTURY AGO, I STARTED A LITTLE THEATER IN THE BASEMENT OF THE 135th STREET LIBRARY, TO LET HARLEM PORTRAY AND ENTERTAIN AND EXPRESS ITSELF. YOUNG AARON DOUGLAS PAINTED THE SCENERY. THE SO-CALLED KRIGWA PLAYERS WROTE THEIR OWN PLAYS AND ACTED THE PARTS AND FURNISHED THEIR OWN AUDIENCES. AFTER HESITATION WE ENTERED A NATION-WIDE CONTEST OF LITTLE THEATRES DOWNTOWN AND WON SECOND PRIZE. THAT RUINED US. BROADWAY BECKONED TO OUR ACTORS AND THEY FLED TO MONEY MAKING AND SHOW-OFF, INSTEAD OF STICKING TO THE FAR FINER TASK OF BUILDING A COMMUNITY WHICH THROUGH DRAMA COULD TAKE ITS RIGHTFUL PLACE IN THE BUILDING OF A NATION. THEN THE DEPRESSION FINISHED OUR VENTURE AND NOW A NEW WORLD LOOKS AT HARLEM IN THIS CRISIS OF MODERN CIVILIZATION!

35-6-215

35-6-216

IT SEES IT NOT ~~SIMPLY~~ AS AN ENTERTAINMENT CENTER BUT AS ONE OF THE WORLD'S GREAT TESTING GROUNDS FOR MODERN DEMOCRACY WHERE THE REPRESENTATIVES OF A GREAT PEOPLE HAVE A CHANCE TO GUIDE THE WORLD IN A DAY WHEN AS PERHAPS NEVER BEFORE THE WORLD NEEDS GUIDANCE.

AND IT IS A BATTLE, MAKE NO MISTAKE ABOUT IT - THE LAST GREAT BATTLE OF THE WEST, CENTERED ABOUT A NEW DEVELOPMENT OF THE GRAVE AND UNANSWERED QUESTION: WHERE IN THE STATE - IN THE ORGANIZED COMMUNITY - DOES THE REAL ULTIMATE POWER LIE, THE POWER OF POLICE CONTROL, OF THE ORGANIZATION OF WORK AND WAGE? OF THE CONTENT AND RANGE OF EDUCATION? OF THE OWNERSHIP AND DISTRIBUTION OF PROPERTY? IN THESE MATTERS OF UNIVERSAL POWER, WHERE AND WHOSE IS THE ULTIMATE CONTROL?

WE KNOW HOW HISTORICALLY THIS POWER AT FIRST RESTED NATURALLY IN THE FATHER OF THE FAMILY; THEN AS THE FAMILY MULTIPLIED, IT WAS SHARED BY A COUNCIL OF ELDERS AND THE ~~[illegible]~~ LEADER WHO STOOD AT THEIR HEAD BY CHOICE OR SELF-ASSERTION.

BUT AS FAMILIES AND CLANS GREW TO TRIBES AND NATIONS, THE POWERS AND IDENTITY OF RULERS VARIED BY CHANCE AND STRENGTH, UNTIL THE RIGHT TO RULE BECAME TANGLED, HIDDEN AND OFTEN INCAPABLE OF ANY CLEAR EXPLANATION OR UNDERSTANDING.

THEN MEN HAD TO CLEAR AWAY THE UNDERBRUSH AND RATIONALIZE GOVERNMENT: FIRST INTO ROYAL RULE "BY THE GRACE OF GOD" UNTIL KINGS MISTOOK THEMSELVES FOR GOD AND WERE BEHEADED; UNTIL CERTAIN CITIZENS, DISTINGUISHED BY BIRTH, ABILITY OR WEALTH MONOPOLIZED THE RIGHT TO RULE THE STATE. THIS OFTEN DEGENERATED INTO A RULE OF SELF-INTEREST AND PRIVILEGE ~~AND~~ BUT IN EUROPE IN THE 18th AND EARLY 19th CENTURIES, MEN GROWN RICH BY REASON OF NEW DISCOVERIES AND INVENTIONS, TOOK OVER THE POWERS OF GOVERNMENT, YIELDING THE WORKING CLASS SOME LIMITED RIGHTS TO SHARE THEIR POWER. IN THE LATTER PART OF THE 19th CENTURY THIS RULE OF THE RICH AND PROPERTY HOLDING CLASSES WITH INCREASED NUMBERS OF WORKERS SHARING POLITICAL POWER, BROUGHT THE WHOLE WORLD UNDER THE CONTROL OF EUROPE THROUGH A NEW SCIENCE AND TECHNIQUE AND REDUCED TO SUBSERVIENCE

W. E. B. DU BOIS

Harlem Is one of the most widely known localities on earth. In Europe, Asia, and Africa the average man has heard of Harlem and has some idea of its signigicance as a center, not simply of Negro expression but of a new concept of Democratic power. Naturally the meaning of Harlem has greatly changed in the course of time. At the close of the Civil War, there were only 15,000 Negroes in the whole city of New York and none in the empty farming district to the north of 14th Street.

By the beginning of the century the center of New Yorks' Negro population lay at 53rd Street. It was there that the music and drama which afterward made Harlem famous began; and between 1900 and 1910, Phil Peyton the Negro real estate man began the opening of Harlem to the crowded Negro population in the west side below 53rd Street.

It was the First World War with its stoppage of foreign immigration and new opportunities for work that brought the great influx of Negroes into this area of New York. The black community of 60,000 which had gathered here by 1910, became a hundred thousand by 1920 and doubled each decade to 200,000 in 1930 and 400,000 in 1940. Probably today Harlem and adjacent areas contain more than a half million persons of Negro descent; perhaps the largest Negro city community in the Western world.

In its earlier years, from 1900 to 1920, Harlem connoted Negro art in music and theater with Williams and Walker, Cole and Johnson, Will Marion Cook, Sissle and Blake and Florence Mills; hither came the blues from Memphis and Jazz with Jim Europe. The world looked on Harlem as a playground and slum which the rich and curious visited and which sent its singers and dancers around the world. But beyond and beneath this Harlem, was a crowded labyrinth of homes and workers; with poverty, disease, with all that swell and pulse of living that makes life in a great city. Out of this came, in the twenties, attempts at expression, at writing and acting: poets, novelists and playwrights began to appear and a Negro literature whichwas a part and an important p rt of American literature. Also here came crime with gambling and prostitution, assault and theft and this made an ideal stamping-ground for politics in the lower sense of that tern. Here among the poor and depressed, votes could be bought cheaply and both Tammany and the Republican machines soon began to disburse considerable funds to control the Harlem vote. This was paid for in cash and followed by a few offices and jobs and sale of the right to deal in liquor and women and the numbers.

Then came the depression of the thirties and Harlem sank in poverty, destitution and crime; the literary renassiance disappeared in a grim fight to live and survive: and by the advent of the forties there came to Harlem a new sense of the power and meaning of li e in this section; born of struggle and of a growth of intelligence and planning. Politics took on new meaning and no longer meant simply pay for votes or for the privilege of breaking the l w. The Harlem Negro began to demand repres ntation in government and representation by men of his own choosing and not simply by those chosen and thrust over him. Political machinery began to pass into his hands and he enterd the city government, the police force, the civil service, the state legislature and the national congress.

During this time Harlem thought of itself as a Negro community dealing mainly with the problems of the American Negro. Althougha community of workers, it did not conceive itself as part of the Labor problem of the city or nation.

Although a part of the American expression of democracy, Harlem w nted to be a part of that democracy, for which others did the thinking and guiding. This was natural for a group brought up with a slave psychology: whose highest ambition quite naturally was to share and not to guide: to be recognized and not to dictate. But Harlem lived in a changing age; in an age when the burden of governing was shifting fr m the privileged to the mass: from the owner of property to the creator of value. This meant often as men feared it would, transfer of power from intelligence to ignorance and from experience to uncertainity; yet at the same time, it was bringing a new thing into the world: a broad sense of unselfish care for the mass of humanity, instead of the fierce struggle of the smart to survive at any cost. And a feeling of the unity of mankind across lines of race as well as class. Thus the Harlem voter gradually began to feel himself not simpy as symbol of a race, but as part of a people: not simply as a center for entertaining the rich, but much more as a community of citizens whose duty it was to heop make a new nation and a new world.

To illustrate my meaning, I remember how a quarter of a century ago, I started a little theater in the basement of the 135th Street Library, to let Harlem portray and entertain and express itself. Young Aaron Douglas painted the scenery. The so-called Krigwa players wrote their own plays and acted the parts and furnished their own audiences. After hesitation we entered a nation-wide contest of little theatres downtown and won second prize. That ruined us. Broadway beckoned to our actors and they fled to money making and show-off, instead of sticking to the far finer task of building a community which through drama could take its rightful place in the building of a nation. Then the depression finished our venture and now a new world looks at Harlem in this cirsis of modern civilization. It sees it not as an entertainment center but one of the world's great testing grounds for modern democracy where the representatives of a great people have a chance to guide the world in a day when as perhaps never before the world needs guidance.

And it is a battle, make no mistake about it--the last great battle of the West; centered about a new development of the grave and unanswered question: where in the state-- in the organized community--does the real ultimate power lie: the power of police control; of the organization of work and wage? The content and range of education? Of the ownership and distribution of property? In these matters of universla power, where and whose is the ultimate control?

We know how historically this power at first rested anturally in the father of the family; than as the family multiplied, it was shared by a council of elders and the leader who stood at their head by choice or self assertion. But as families and clans grew to tribes and nations, the owers and identity of rulers varied by chance and strength, until the right to rule became tangled, hidden and often incapable of any clear explanation or understanding. Then men had to clear away the underbrush and rationalize government; first into royal rule "by the Grace of Gos" until kings mistook themselves for God and were beheaded: until certain citizens, distinguished by birth, ability or wealth monopolized the right to rule the state. This often degenerated into a rule of self- nterest and privilege but in Europe in the 18th century and 19th, men grown rich by reason of new discoveries and inventions, took over the powers of government, yileding the working class some li ited rights to share their power. In the latter part of the 19th century this rule of the rich and property holding classes with increased numbers of workers sharing political power, brought the whole world under the control of Europe through a new science and technique and reduced to subservience the workers of the world outside Europe and North America. This was scarce accomplished when in the 20th century the world burst into flame, in a confused and rapidly changing series of wars; first a war to redistribute the colonies of Asia and Africa among the empires of Europe: then to prevent by force the working classes from controling the property and curtailing the powers of the rich: and finally the attempt of the colonial people themselves wholly to escape the control of Europe and North America.

This is the muddled world in which we find ourselves today; its basic problem of porperty, wage, power and privilege are increasingly clear; the answer to these problems is not war: and the interests involved are not simply nor mainly the interests of the rich, nor of industry in inself. A new era of power, held and exercised by the working classes the world over, is dawning and while its eventual form is not yet clear, its progress cannot be held back by any power of man. It is facing this problem that Harlem stands today and in its light, we must act and vote. First then peace and civil rights, then study, education and public informat on in a press free from the control of Big Business is our program.

It may seem nonsense to a proverbially modern group to conceive that they who have always followed, listened and asked; should today with a certain suddenness be ordered to lead, to inform and speak out in clear, firm tones. Yet this is far more true than you think. The majority of the poeple of the world are today watching Harlem and American Negroes with fascinated interest. Today in China, India, Indonesia and the Phillipines, through the length and bredth of Africa; in the Caribbean and the South Seas, in the Near East and South America and Behind the Iron Curtain, men are asking--many have asked me personally--what is this dark group of 15 million Am ricans thinking and advising? Th group which has fought and faced Europe and America hand to hand for three awful centuries until today, while not yet free, still they stand with two million ballots in their h nds and brains in their heads to vote as modern men and not as purchased slaves: what do they think and advise in this crisis of the modern world. Where does Harlem stand in the battle for Peace and Civil Rights?

Your answer should be calm and clear: Harlem stand s for Peace and Civil Rights: for Peace among all nations, before and behind the Iron Curtain, for civil rights for all men, Chinese, and Koreans, Russians and Poles, Black Brown and Yellow peoples, as wellas for Englishmen and Americ ns.

A pretty batch of scoundrels we are supporting in order to make money for persons who already have more than they can spend. Chiang Kai-Shek and Syngman Rhee, Quirinal, Bao-Dai, the rulers of Persia and Greece, Budenz and Bently, the Anti-Semite Anders, whom Lehman now embraces and a host of allied and associated spies, thieves and liars. The people of communities like Harlem foot the bill and sacrifice their children for this precious privilege.

In order to stop you from discussing or voting on war, we have erected again in America, a slave state: just as a century ago we made the discussion of Negro slavery illegal. It is possible today than an honest American, without committing a crime or an illegal act, can be jailed and impoverished if he talks peace, higher wage or civil rights; they may be done even without trail or hearing; and any public discussion of the case can be absolutely stopped. I am a candidate for publice office today, because only in a campaign like this can I disuuss peace and civil rights on the platform, over the radio or in the public press. This is liberty, this is America. One right is left us and that is the ballot, outside of Mississippi, Georgia and their sister states, who beacuse of disfranchisement hold all positions of power in congress, with neither Lehman nor Hanley protesting.

Here in New York, you can vote for peace, provided of course your employer does not know it, and he need not know it. Legally it is none of his bussiness how you vote. Your vote is secret. It may not be tomorrow, but it is today. Only three nights ago, Governor Dewey turned the old Abraham Lincoln stop on this platform and told his audience what must have been real news to them, how he and the republican party had bought and paid for your votes. He told you how he favored the FEPC, but forgot to remind you how long he stalled on it and ducked until he had to yield. He rightly charged Truman with failing to keep his civil rights promises but did not mention that Republican leader, Vanderburg was his right-hand-man to clinch the job. He mentioned housing but not in Styvesant Town. He deplored failure to pass anti-poll tax and anti-lynching legislation by democratic congresses which acted exactly like Repbulican congresses. Indeed any attempt of Republicans or Democrats to assess guilt for anti-Negro bias is merely exercise in the pot calling the kettle black. I ask Harlem to vote overwhelmingly for peace and civil rights against Dewey, Hanley, Lynch and Lehman.

The United States Senate is probably the most powerful legislative body on earth. Senaotrs are elected by the people for six year terms and they represent in theory all the people but in fact the chief interests of certain people. These interests are not equally distributed; business and banking, law and manufacturing, commerce and the learned professions are over represented by trained and talented men: but labor and servants, farmers and women, the poor and unfortunate, have small voice or thought in the body, and 15 million Negroes have no voice at all. In November, New York will choose a Senator from three candidates: one is a respectable citizen, who speaks for property and investment and for the military forces, and who expressed this week his fear of peace. These interests are already over represented in the senate. They do not need more Lehmans. Another candidate is a hack politician who represents your public life at its lowest. He has no business in the United States Senate, where he would stand shoulder to shoulder with war-mongers and profiteers, with Dewey and Dulles.

I am a third candidate: think the matter over carefully, which of these three men would best voice the interest of the people represented here today.

BATTLE PAGE OF THE AIR

What the United States is fighting for is not freedom nor democracy but the profitable expansion of American business. We gave but little attention to the plight of the mass of the Chinese people so long as we had open door to their cheap labor and rich raw materials. We mocked the m sery of the Balkan peasantry so long as their landlords gave us 50% on our investments. When we saw the fall of the British Empire our main ambition was to replace Englishmen in exploitation of the poverty, disease and ignorance of Asia and Africa.

If we were really burning to spread freedom and democracy where could we start better than at home? We could profitably begin with the police in New York and the jails of New Jersey. Then for permanent employment we might concentrate on Georgia, Mississippi and Louisiana. Instead of this we want to send abroad what we do not possess at home. And therefore what we actually send abroad is not freedom and democracy but American capital. We send capital abroad because there our business methods are not hampered by labor laws, or taxes for schools and hospitals. When, then curbs on private profit at home increase the demand for freedom of foreign investment rises Senator Lehman represents foreign investment and st nds wholeheartedly behind its demands even if the cost is world war. Today American capital is chief owner of slave labor in South Africa, of serf-toil in the Belgian Congo and of the poverty and disease beneath the oil of the Near East.

Led by the Wild Man of Tokyo, we are fighting to regain that grip on China which our own greed lost through Chiang Kai-Shek. This program of money-making we are attempting to mask by yelling vigorously"Here come the Russians" Even when the Russians refuse to start, recently Senator Lehman has expressed his fear at the outbreak of peace. He is afraid that after this hysteria the nation may regain its normal sanity despite the most ruthless propaganda ever attempted since Hitler. Mr. Hanley's program so far as he has one is a firm promise to do more anywhere and anyhow of everything which the democrats propose.

The American people do not war war, they do not need war. They are in no danger of foreign attack. We have plenty to do at home. We still have too much poverty, ignorance and disease and too many families homeless to waste billions on war and ruin over the earth. I ask opportunity in the United States Senate to raise my voice against war and in defense of Civil Liberties.

I think that the clearest result of this discussion is that not three parties but only two are presenting programs here. Democrats and Republicans voice one program. It varies in small details but it stands for war and curtailment of civil rights. Moreover the source of this Bi-partisan Program is clear: it is organized industry. Big Business in the United States wants us to believe that our prosperity is dependent on its profitable career. But surely any intelligent man would admit that the private profit made by any particular transaction does not necessarily measure the good accruing to the mass of people. Profit is not an invariable measure of progress and private profit may often be public disaster. When then organized business dominates both major parties and candidates follow unquestioningly this Bi-partisan program, these parties become in fact one party.

A Third Party is not only logical but absolutely necessary if democracy survives. The Republican Party under Governor Dewey and his mouth-piece, Joe Hanley represents Big Business fighting for foreign markets at ruinous cost to our economy. If unrestrained, this program is bound to lead to the same sort of disaster which brought on the depression of the thirties. The Democratic Party under Franklin Roosevelt overthrew this program and began to build a party of social progress and control of private property.

War and death overthrew this new party building and Harry Truman has allowed the almost complete overthrow of the Roosevelt Program and today agrees in every important particular with the reactionary republicans. Senator Lehman follows the lead of Truman even to Truman's voicing a liberal measure and then conniving at its defeat. If then a citizen wants peace and not war, wants freedom of discussion and not a slave state, he has no choice but turning to a Third Party.

I am opposed to the re-election of Senator Lehman or the election of Joseph Hanley to the United States Senate, because they both agree with the Truman policy in foreign relations. They both advocate a policy which is daily leading us nearer a Third World War. The Truman policy was bad when it gave aid to reaction in China and Greece. Now yielding to pressure from the Republicans, it is making new alliance with Chiang Kai-Shek, helping France conquer Viet Nam and threatening to make the Korean War the beginning of war with China and the Soviet Union.

Foremost in advocacy of this policy is Governor Dewey and his ally, John Foster Dulles, whom Mr. Lehman a year ago, characterized as "a bigot, an anti-Semite and a fascist. This same man Senator Lehman now welcomes to the "bi-partisan" alliance of Republicans and Democrats, not because Mr. Dulles has changed, but because Mr. Lehman has succumbed to the present war hysteria of the nation. He has recently declared that he fears peace; that he hopes that the present war psychology of the nation will not subside but increase and spread toward [redacted] preparation for war on a world scale.

It is difficult to follow this reasoning of a man who knows the increasing horror of war and its threat to all civilization. In our own nation nearly every step toward social progress is stopped today because of the supposed necessity for spending more for murder and destruction than we ever spent for education, health, better standards of living and broad social progress. Let any man today propose aid to our collapsing school system; to begin social medicine for a people deprived to a frightful extent of medical care; for a whole system of TVA's to tame the destructive and wasting rivers of our land--and preserve the dwindling treasure of our forests, no sooner are such plans advocated than the proponent is faced by two answers: we have no money for social progress because [redacted] of all-out preparation for killing men and destroying property all over the world.

And secondly that anyone advocating such social aid and control is a Communist or Socialist and a traitor or prospective traitor to his country. Thereupon the advocate of peace, of an expanded educational system; of medical attention for the vast number of sick who are now uncared for, of the control of industry in the interest of the public welfare is faced by an almost universal barrage of insult, half-truth and whole lie to prove that we are in imminent attack from bitter enemies from without and must submit to endless taxation and loss of our civil rights in order to start world war in defense of our liberties. The advocacy of this fantastic thesis has grown to a frightful extent since Senator Lehman has been in the Senate and he has gone along with its chief advocates with small protest; until today he actually says publicly that he is afraid we will prepare for peace instead of wasting our wealth and hopes for increased welfare on war. Yet Mr. Lehman must know that of all social tools of progress, war is the least effective. That if this world is going forward to war after war, each greater and more destructive than the last, the end of civilization is in sight. Suppose we follow Mr. Lehman and Mr. Hanley. And suppose that by super-human effort we conquer China and the Soviet Union, smash southwest Asia and strengthen our hold on Africa and South America through our increasing investments there. What then?

Have we had such success in administering Germany, Japan, South Korea and the Phillipines that we are sure we can successfully rule the world? Our only hope in making our way of life acceptable to the peoples of the world is not by armies and airplanes but by ideas--by example. What have we in the line of civil liberties and rights, decent treatment of the lowly, and lack of prejudice and mob rule, disfranchisement and miscarriage of Justice to put before the dark majority of the world as proof that we are right and other nations wrong? Just because a Secretary of Defense went insane when he thought he saw the Russians invading Washington; just because a liberal leader like Henry Wallace suddenly announces that we are already fighting Russia, does that prove that the Soviets are attacking or planning to attack us? Have the Soviets ever attacked and invaded our country as we have theirs? Have they ever helped seize slices of our territory as we have of theirs? Are their armies today camped on our every border with the openly expressed and reiterated object of stopping ~~communism~~ our way of life by force? The only hope of peace in the world is not threat and boast; not insult and repeated misrepresentation, but faith and hope and cooperation. We refused the proffered help of the Soviet Union at the outbreak of the Second World War. ~~Then~~ Later we had to take it. Did the Soviets fail us? Were they unfaithful to their committments? ~~To be sure~~ We helped their effort by giving their armies materials; but they saved the World from Hitler by giving their sons and daughters ~~by the million~~ in lives 9/10 million of and none praised their effort more than the United States in 1945. The faith and praise we had then must be used again if we want to have peace among men. Moreover let no American be so simple as to think that when we conquer Russia, we conquer Socialism and Communism. Communism did not begin in the Soviet Union and it will not end there. If Russia today were swept from the face of the Earth the basic and fundamental problems which gave birth to it will remain. If we cannot answer them before war or with war, what hope is there that we can answer them after war? They will still stand, and they rest on this question: Why is it, with the earth's abundance and our mastery of natural forces, and miraculous technique: with industry belting the earth and goods and services pouring from our stores, factories, ships and warehouses: Why is it that nevertheless most human beings are still starving ~~to death~~, dying of preventable disease and too ignorant to know what is the matter; while a small majority are so rich that they cannot spend their income?

We cannot maintain that the United States has satisfactorily answered this question. Despite all we have done, we still have poverty, ignorance and preventable disease. We might go far toward remedying these faults of our industrial system and it is quite possible that the American Way of Life could teach the world much in social progress if it was geared to such continued progress and not to war. It is not by the destruction of the plans of others but rather by developing our own that our way of life can hope to succeed. But we are misled by a mirage. We want to base our economy not on our efforts in the United States but on our control of the work and industry of certain backward lands in Asia and Africa and until recently, in the east Europe and the Balkans. We want to succeed the British Empire of the 19th century in exploiting the labor and materials of the ignorant and weak. This is back of our foreign policy which is pushing profitable investment abroad under the pretense of preserving our liberties at home. This is back of our bitter determination to dominate China, for cheap Chinese labor has long been a rich source of wealth for American and British investment. Senator Lehman represent the investing interests of America. He fights their battles in the Senate and fights them so whole-heartedly that he is willing in their interests to restore to power in Germany the Nazis who murdered six million Jews. For these reasons and despite his high character and many efforts for social progress, he should not represent this state in the Senate. And so long as Joseph Hanley repeats by rote the commands of Dewey and Dulles he is much safer in Albany than in Washington.

OPENING STATEMENT ON WMCA New York City

Introduction of Dr. Dubois by Vito Marcantonio- WMCA-October 9,1950

In this election campaing of 1950 cynical political bosses are riding roughshod over the real sentiments of the people. For the first time party bosses have nominated such men as an avowed spokesman of an administration of graft and corruption, apologists for fascism, defenders of Franco, destroyers of the Bill of Rights, advocates of concentration camps, and upholders of Taft-Hartley.

35-6-53

Impelliteri is the junior partner of the double-talk, double-dealing Administration of the runwaway O'Dwyer. He shares the full blame for every act of that administration now being spread on the record. Rm Pecora is the man who stood up in Madison Square Garden on November 30, 1935 and praised Mussolini's rape of Ethiopia. Lynch is the man who voted millions for the fascist dictator Franco and supports the concentration camps.

These are the men supported by the liberals, the party of Dubinsky and Berle, the man who was booted out of the Roosevelt cabinet and is now the mouthpiece for renazifying and remilitarizing Germany.

The Republican candidates present the same old face--pro-Taft-Hartley, anti-civil rights, anti-peace, anti-people.

These are the dollar patriots who dare to point the finger at the American Labor Party -- these men who would make fascism synonymous with Americanism, who would tear up the Bill of Rights and still call themselves democrats and liberals.

We of the American Labor Party are fighting for peace --yes -- for civil rights -- yes -- for the Bill of Rights. ~~xxx xxx~~ We fight for the America of Jefferson and Paine, of Oliver Wendell Holmes and Franklin Roosevelt.

35-6-54

In this patriotic spirit we present one of America's truly great men, a leader of the Negro people who is respected by all people~~xxx~~ who believe in and love liberty, a leader of American thought, ~~xxxxxxxxxxxxxxx~~ Dr. William E. B. Du Bois, the American Labor Party Candidate for the U.S.Senate.

After hearing Dr. DuBois,I urge you to register and enroll in your party -- the party that makes the people's interest its first concern-- the American Labor Party.

Dr. Du Bois.

CIVIL RIGHTS

Friends: One of the anomalies of this present crisis in our nation is that after we have loudly accused other nations of slavery, repression, totalatarian government and lack of democracy, we then turn around and apparently seek to outdo the world in every sort of repression and tyranny. Today it is no exaggeration to say that the United States stands in grave danger of becoming a slave state. The proof of this is clear in our loss of personal liberty, our wide attempt to control thought; our systematic spy system, our jailing of citizens not for their acts, but for their beliefs; our police tyranny and third degree system: the open injustice in our courts; the frecuent refusal in government procedure to let witnesses face tha accused or let the accused know the charges against them: they systamatic discrimination practiced against racial and national minorities; our hounding of the foreign born and our deliberate taxation of the poor and exemption of the rich.

These things naturally do not happen to everybody all the time, but the fact that they can happen to anybody, any time and the growing frequency of such occurrences proves the frightening tendencies in this reputed land of the free.

For instance, nobody believes that it was wrong to raise funds for the relief of the Spanish victims of Franco. Yet men are in jail today not for giving such funds, but for refusing to tell who did give. It is not unlawful for a citizen to refuse to make public his private beliefs, the Bill of Rights was written into the Constitution to protect the right to refuse. Yet today men are in jail for such refusal. Government employees are losing their jobs without being faced by their accusers or informed of the evidence against them, and not for what they do or believe, but for what they are accused of having believed in the past. As Supreme Court Justic , Frankfurter commented the other day, the only person who has access to the evidence against these government workers is the man who has power to chop off their heads. Citizens are blacklisted not for their own beliefs, but for what their friends or associates believe.

I saw yesterday a clean cut young, white American teacher, who had gone abroad legally to read papers at a Students Congress at Prague and a History Congress at Amsterdam. At the instigation of our Dtate Department, he was arrested in Holland without accusation, jailed without trial, denied the right to see his wife or consult his lawyer, deprived of his passport, refused the right to study on a scholarship in England, the life of Newton and forcibly sent home. The treatment and threatening and harassing of the foreign-born all over the nation today is a disgrace to a civilized people. You maynot agree with communists, but even the United States Government has never accused communist leaders in the United States of any act or even threat of force or violence to accomplish their objectives. Yet today they are sentenced to long terms in jail, not for what they have done, but solely for what they are said to believe. The FBI's paid array of spies and triators and informers covers the nation. And in the face of all this, Senator Lehman blandly tells us "Our Government and our Nation are looked to by all the freedom-loving world as the hope of all mankind against tyranny and darkness!"

The open, crass and deliberate miscarriage of justice in our courts is growing in frequency: six Negro boys in New Jersey are held in prison without trial on the order of a judge who seeks to deny them representation by lawyers of their choice; A Black Man in Mississippi is in jail under the death sentence on the word of a white woman who says she was attacked while her husband was in the next room, but who made no outcry; who says she could not see her assailant in the dark and yet identified this man as the criminal.

A black woman in Georgia is in jail for life because her teen-age son shot, with the man's own gun, the white man who was beating her. The Truman administration says it can do nothing in these cases but it can raise the roof in the case of a Cardinal in Jugoslavia or confessed spies and saboteurs in Hungary, Poland and Bulgaria.

Herbert Lehman and Joe Hanley repeatedly profess their devotion to the cause of civil rights for the Negro people. But neither of them has raised his voice against the unjust death sentence passed by an all-white court martial against Leon Gilbert, a Negro Lieutenant in Korea.

We refuse to let Pablo Picasso, the greatest living painter in the world, and that venerable British Churchman, The Dean of Canterbury, step on our shores to beg for peace. But the State Department announces that fascists from Franco Spain and Perons Agrentina will continue to be welcome. Senator Lehman greets General Anders and stands beside him in public tribute although Anders is a notorious Anti-Semite, a reactionary and a Fascist, who has made trouble in England, Italy, Palestine and Iran, only to be welcomed and feted in the United States.

Parole is denied to Carl Marzani, World War II, veteran with a brilliant record of dervice in Italy, who was sent to prison by a four-to-four Supreme Court decison convicting him of denying he was a communist. But the United States High Commissioner in Germany pardons Baron Ernst Von Weizaecker, Hitler's Ambassador to the Vatican who was convicted of deporting Jews for slave labor in Poland. And neither Herbert Lehman nor Joe Hanley protests this release of a Nazi butcher, whose first act on regaining his liberty was to kneel in adoration at the graves of Goering and other Nazi war criminals.

What is the reason for the crushing of liberty, miscarriage of justice and deliberate denial of the right to think, hear and choose to American citizens? The reason is that the present elements which rule America, Big Business and Big Brass, fear the truth, which may interfere with their power and income: and secondly, this nation falls the more easily back into the grip of a slave state, because less than a century ago it actually was a state in human slavery was legal and customary. We would rather forget this shameful past, when for 250 years this land of Freedom, of religion, of democracy was the only civilized state in the world where human beings were bought and sold precisely like cattle: where slaves had no right of property, no legal marriage no control of children and no right to learn nor think. That was the actual legal status of black slaves in the United States of America until only 80 years ago, and vistiges of it are still law and custom in a third of our national territory.

We want to forget this. I want to forget it. But when Governor Dewey (and of Joe Hanley, as soon as he gets word) try to tell me that the republican party freed the slaves, that statement is a lie. The republican party never intended to free the slaves. It won the election of 1860 on a solemn pledge to protect slavery in the South and to return runaway slaves without trial. Abraham Lincoln vowed solemnly that he would not touch slavery if he could save the Union without doing so. But he could not save the Union until he used black soldiers to win the war. It was these 200,000 black soldiers and the promise of a million more which brought Lee's surrender.

We distort this truth and pt the distortion into our school books because we are ashamed of the whole sordid disgraceful mess, which still reaches down the ages to give the lie to our unctious pretense of having led civilization.

This defense in only human. What is inhuman and dangerous is the ease with which this past lets us slip back toward slavery and injustice, lets us lynch without trial 6000 black and white American citizens, since the abolition of slavery and shows the unhealed wound of lawlessness stamped on the soul of America. Yet no anti-lynching law can pass either republican or democratic congresses. This holds just as true for the democrat-controlled 81st congress as it did for the republican-controlled 80th, on the record, no voter can have the slightest confidence in the promise of either of the old parties or their candidates, Lehman or Joe Hanley.

But even worse than the hypocrisy of the democratic and republican parties and their candidates on the civil rights issue is this: that whenever powerful interests in America feel their rule is threatened, their first impulse is to resort to the same tactics which the slave power once used to stop abolitionists from discussing slavery. Today the power of organized industry is great and growing. Through its control, of both old parties, it can and does tax the nation for a vast army to protect its interests and promote its expansion over the world. The weight of these taxes is borne by the common people working men and women and farmers, while the profits of the big corporations and the personal incomes of their millionaire owners rise to new heights.

In our land, Big Business owns the press, the magazines and newsgathering agencies; it controls radio, stage and platform, gradually Big Business in the United States, to choke off criticism and conceal the facts is building a new slave state. This descent into hell, Joe Hanley and Senator Lehman defend and excuse repeatedly and with enthusiasm. For all of their ties are with the leadership of the republican and democratic parties and with the Big Business interests that run both. Our first step toward freedom is to repudiate both old parties, their candidates, and this policy that they stand for.

That can only e done by voting for the American Labor Party. The American Labor Party is the Party of Peace, Freedom and the Bill of Rights. We want Paul Robeson to travel where he will and say what he thinks so long as he breaks no law. We want an end to congressional witch-hunts, presidential loyalty orders and FBI police state methods; we want the repeal of the Taft-Hartley Act and the McCarran Act.. We want an anti-lynching law, an anti-Poll tax law and an FEPC with claws. In other words we want this to be a land of the free, not simply in song but in law and truth. We urge all of you who join us in wanting this to vote for the candidates of the American Labor Party ;

Thank you, and Good Night.

The open, crass and deliberate miscarriage of justice in our courts is growing in frequency: Six boys in New Jersey are held in prison without trial on the whim of a judge who seeks to force their choice of lawyers; a black man in Mississippi is in jail on the word of a white woman attacked in the dark, with her husband in the next room; who made no outcry, & could not see her assailant, and yet identified this man as ~~the~~ the criminal. Lehman vs Hanley --1-- BROADCAST, October 22, 1950
STATEWIDE

35-7 61

~~FRIENDS:~~ AS CANDIDATE FOR UNITED STATES SENATOR FROM THE STATE OF NEW YORK, I WANT TO REVIEW THE RECORDS OF OTHER CANDIDATES FOR THIS OFFICE. JOE HANLEY REPRESENTS ONE OF THE MOST DANGEROUS TENDENCIES IN OUR POLITICAL LIFE AND THAT IS THE USE OF MONEY.

THE PATTERN RUNS THROUGH OUR POLITICS: LARGE SUMS FROM RICH MEN OR CORPORATIONS ARE GIVEN TO POLITICIANS: AND THESE POLITICIANS SUPPORT THE POLICIES OF THE DONORS: THE DISTRIBUTION OF PUBLIC OFFICES IS MADE AS A REWARD AND NOT FOR COMPETENCE: WITH THE NET RESULT THAT OUR ELECTIONS COST HUGE SUMS AND OFFICES TEND TO GO TO THOSE BACKED BY THE LARGEST ELECTION FUNDS. THIS IS GOVERNMENT BY BRIBERY AND GRAFT AND NOT BY DEMOCRACY. BOTH HANLEY AND DEWEY ARE TOO CLOSELY CONNECTED WITH THIS CONCEPTION OF GOVERNMENT TO MAKE EITHER OF THEM FIT CANDIDATES FOR PUBLIC OFFICE.

SENATOR LEHMAN'S SUPPORT RESTS LARGELY ON THE FEELING THAT IF A CANDIDATE IS RESPECTABLE AND OF GOOD CHARACTER, THAT IS SUFFICIENT REASON FOR ELECTING

HIM TO AN OFFICE OF POWER AND INFLUENCE. THIS IS DANGEROUS MISAPPREHENSION. MEN OF CHARACTER CANNOT ASK YOUR VOTE SIMPLY FOR THAT REASON. YOU MUST BE ASSURED THAT THE POWERS OF THE OFFICE WHICH THEY SEEK ARE GOING TO BE USED FOR THE BEST INTERESTS OF THE NATION. IT IS NO EXCUSE FOR AN OFFICIAL WHO HELPS PLUNGE HIS COUNTRY INTO AN UNJUST WAR, KILLING AND MAIMING THOUSANDS OF ITS MOST PROMISING YOUTH, THAT THIS OFFICIAL WAS A MAN OF GOOD CHARACTER AND MEANT WELL.

HERBERT LEHMAN HAS HAD A LONG PUBLIC CAREER. MUCH OF THIS CAREER, MOST OF US WOULD PRAISE: BUT MANY OF US ARE DEEPLY CRITICAL OF HIS PRESENT ATTITUDES ESPECIALLY WHEN HE TELLS US THAT HIS DEFEAT IN THIS ELECTION WILL BE INTERPRETED AS A VOTE OF NO CONFIDENCE IN OUR PRESENT FOREIGN POLICY. IN OTHER WORDS THOSE OF US WHO DO NOT APPROVE OF THE PRESENT FOREIGN POLICY OF THE UNITED STATES CANNOT VOTE FOR SENATOR LEHMAN. IN 1942, HERBERT LEHMAN

SAID: "THERE ARE SOME AMONG US WHO ARE CRITICAL OF RUSSIA, BECAUSE THEY DO NOT APPROVE OF ITS FORM OF GOVERNMENT. THEY CLOSE THEIR EYES TO THE RIGHT OF EVERY NATION TO CHOOSE ITS OWN FORM OF GOVERNMENT." HE LOUDLY PRAISED "THE STOIC COURAGE OF THE RUSSIANS" IN THE WAR, WHICH "AMAZED THE WORLD AND WON THE ADMIRATION OF AMERICA." HE BECAME HEAD OF UNRRA, BUT IN 1946 HE RESIGNED BECAUSE OF THE UNFAIR AND PROVOCATIVE POLICY OF THE UNITED STATES, BRITAIN AND CANADA.

35-762

LEHMAN CRITICIZED OUR ATTITUDE TOWARD CHIANG KAI-SHEK, AS: "CLINGING TO THE DEAD HAND OF A REGIME WHICH HAS COMPLETELY LOST THE CONFIDENCE OF THE CHINESE PEOPLE." HE SAID IN 1950: "THESE ARE THE PEOPLE WHO WOULD HAVE US OCCUPY FORMOSA, OR SEND THE NAVY TO PROTECT IT...BY WHAT RIGHT COULD WE DO THAT?"

AS SENATOR HOWEVER, MR. LEHMAN CHANGED BOTH WORDS AND POLICY. HE BECAME AN ALL-OUT SUPPORTER OF TRUMAN AND THE FORCES BACK OF TRUMAN. HE SUPPORTED THE MARSHALL PLAN, THE ATLANTIC PACT: NEW MILLIONS GIVEN TO CHIANG KAI SHEK: AND ALLIANCE WITH GREECE AND TURKEY: AND FINALLY HE GIVES COMPLETE ASSENT

TO WAR IN KOREA AND PREPARATION FOR WORLD WAR.

WHAT BROUGHT THIS ABOUT-FACE ON THE PART OF LEHMAN? WHY DID HE SUDDENLY REGARD THE SPREAD OF COMMUNISM TO POLAND, CZECHOSLOVAKIA, THE BALKANS AND CHINA AS RUSSIAN IMPERIALISM? IT WAS CLEARLY BECAUSE THIS WAS THE COMPLAINT OF BIG BUSINESS AND IN THE SENATE THE INFLUENCE OF BIG BUSINESS WAS SUPREME. HERE TOO THE LONG TRAINING OF HERBERT LEHMAN IN THE FOREIGN INVESTMENT FIELD WAS FAR MORE INFLUENTIAL THAN IT HAD BEEN IN HIS ROLE OF GOVERNOR AND SOCIAL SERVANT. THE FIRM OF LEHMAN BROTHERS IN WHICH THE SENATOR WAS ONCE A PARTNER, AND WHICH GIVE HIM HIS WEALTH, HAS WIDE RAMIFICATIONS. IT INVESTS IN OIL IN SOUTH AMERICA AND ARABIA: IN COPPER AND LEAD IN AFRICA, IN RUBBER IN ASIA, SUGAR AND FRUIT IN THE CARRIBEAN: IT IS CLOSELY CONNECTED WITH WAR INDUSTRY IN THE UNITED STATES.

FOREIGN INVESTMENT IS A FORM OF IMPERIALISM. WHEN LABOR UNIONS AND LABOR VOTE BEGIN TO INCREASE IN POWER, CAPITAL, TO INCREASE PROFITS AND AVOID TAXATION, SEEKS ESCAPE TO COUNTRIES WHERE LABOR IS HALF-SLAVE: WHERE THERE ARE NO UNIONS, FEW PUBLIC SERVICES AND NO ELECTIONS. IN THIS WAY THE BRITISH AND FRENCH EMPIRES WERE BUILT UP. GERMANYS' EFFORT TO SHARE THE LOOT BROUGHT WAR.

WHEN THE BRITISH EMPIRE FELL, FRANCE REELED AND GERMANY DIED, CERTAIN AMERICANS WANTED TO FALL HEIR TO THIS IMPERIALISM. THEY HAD TO LET RUSSIA ASSUME CHIEF ROLE IN CRUSHING HITLER BUT WERE AGHAST WHEN COMMUNISM THREATENED TO KEEP WESTERN BUSINESS METHODS NOT ONLY OUT OF RUSSIA, BUT OUT OF THE BALKANS AND CHINA. THEREUPON THEY ACCUSED THE SOVIETS OF AN IMPERIALISM WHICH THREATENED THE PLANS OF AMERICAN BUSINESS IN ASIA AND AFRICA. TO ENFORCE THEIR OWN IMPERIALISM, BIG BUSINESS DROVE THE UNITED STATES INTO WAR AND LEHMAN CONSENTED. HE BACKED TRUMAN, HE BACKED ACHESON, HE EVEN BACKED DULLES.

HE FORGOT IS BRAVE WORDS OF 1942 AND 1945 AND STANDS TODAY NOT ONLY FOR WAR BUT ALSO FOR SUPPRESSION OF CIVIL LIBERTIES.

Not because he was unwilling to fight Communists but rather to help them

HE OPPOSED THE MCCARREN BILL, BECAUSE IT GAVE MORE RIGHT OF COURT DEFENSE TO ALLEGED COMMUNISTS THAN THE KILGORE BILL WHICH HE CO-SPONSORED. HE WANTED SPAIN TO HAVE AMERICAN MONEY PUT FROM BANKS INSTEAD OF THE UNITED STATES TREASURY.

HE WANTED APPROPRIATIONS TO AGRICULTURE CUT 50% SO AS TO GIVE MORE TO WAR: AND AS A RESULT OF HIS SUPPORT THE BUDGET DIRECTOR NOW PROPOSES TO CUT $500,000,000 FROM FEDERAL APPROPRIATION FOR AGRICULTURE, FEDERAL SECURITY AND HOSPITALS, WHILE CONGRESS PREPARES FOR THE UNIVERSAL DRAFT OF YOUR SONS FOR A THIRD WORLD WAR.

SENATOR LEHMANS' RETREAT FROM HIS PREVIOUS HIGH STAND HAS BEEN A CALAMITY IT CAN BE EXPLAINED ONLY BY HIS TRAINING AND THE PRESSURE WHICH BIG BUSINESS

EXERTS UPON HIM. THIS CANNOT BE OVERLOOKED OR FORGIVEN. HE STANDS TODAY FOR A PROGRAM WHICH HIS WHOLE PREVIOUS CAREER CONTRADICTS. AS CANDIDATE OF THE AMERICAN LABOR PARTY, I OFFER A PROGRAM OF PEACE AND CIVIL RIGHTS INSTEAD OF WAR AND SLAVERY.

Friends: As candidate for United States Senator from the State of New York, I want to review the records of ~~the~~ other candidates ~~of the Republican and Democratic parties~~ for this office. Joe Hanley represents one of the most dangerous tendencies in our political life and that is the use of money, ~~in political life.~~

The pattern runs through our politics: ~~the giving of~~ large sums from rich men or corporations are given to politicians; ~~the coincidence that~~ and these politicians support the policies of the donors; the distribution of public offices ~~as~~ is made as a reward and not for competence ~~gifts and not as duties~~; with the net result that our elections cost huge sums and ~~our~~ offices ~~of power~~ tend to go to those backed by the largest election funds, ~~the totals of which are but partially revealed and then often by accident.~~ This is government by bribery and graft and not by democracy. ~~The Hanley letter connects~~ Both Hanley and Dewey too closely connected with this conception of government to make either of them fit candidates for public office.

~~The case of~~ Senator Lehman ~~is different.~~ ~~His~~ support rests largely on the ~~widespread~~ feeling that if a candidate is respectable and of good character, that is sufficient reason for electing him to an office of power and influence. This is dangerous misapprehension. Men of Character ~~and good reason~~ cannot ask your vote simply for that reason. You must be assured that the powers of the office which they seek are going to be used for the best interests of the nation. It is no excuse for an official who helps plunge his country into an unjust war, killing and maiming thousands of its most promising youth, that this official was a man of good character and meant well.

Herbert Lehman has had a long public career. Much of this career, most of us would praise; but many of us are deeply critical ~~and afraid~~ of his present attitudes ~~and actions~~, especially when he tells us that his defeat in this election will be interpreted ~~in Washington and Albany~~ as a vote of no confidence in our present foreign policy. In other words those of us who do not approve of the present foreign policy of the United States cannot vote for Senator Lehman. In 1942, Herbert Lehman said: "There are some among us who are critical of Russia, because they do not approve of its form of government. They close their eyes to the right of every nation to choose its own form of government." He loudly praised ~~Russia's role~~ in the war: ~~"The stubborn heroism and~~ "the stoic courage of the Russians ~~have~~ when" amazed the world and won the admiration of America." He became head of UNRRA, but in 1946 he resigned because of the unfair and provocative policy of the United States, ~~and her satellites,~~ Britain and Canada.

Lehman criticized our attitude toward Chiang Kai-Shek, as: "clinging to the dead hand of a regime which has completely lost the confidence of the Chinese people." He said in 1950: "These are the people who would have us occupy Formosa, or send the Navy to protect it... By what right could we do that?"

As Senator however, Mr. Lahman changed ~~his~~ Gold words and ~~his~~ policy. He became an all-out supporter of Truman and the forces back of Truman. He supported the Marshall Plan, the Atlantic Pact; new millions given to Chiang Kai-Shek; and alliance with Greece and Turkey; and finally he gives complete assent to war in Korea and preparation for world war.

What brought this about-face on the part of Lehman? Why did he suddenly regard the spread of Communism to Poland, ~~and~~ Czechoslovakia, the Balkans and China ~~was~~ as Russian imperialism? It was clearly because this was the complaint of Big Business and in the Senate the influence of Big Business was supreme. Here too the long training of Herbert Lehman in the foreign investment field was far more influential than it had been in his role of governor and social servant. The firm of Lehman Brothers in which the Senator was once a partner, and which gave him his wealth, has wide ramifications. It invests in oil in South America and Arabia; in copper and lead in Africa, in rubber in Asia, sugar [redacted] and fruit in the Carribean; it is closely connected with war industry in the United States.

Foreign investment is a form of imperialism. When labor unions and labor vote begin to increase in power, capital, to increase profits and avoid taxation, seeks escape to countries where labor is half-slave; where there are no unions, few public services and no elections. In this way the British and French empires were built up. Germanys' effort to share the loot brought war.

When the British Empire fell, France reeled and Germany died, certain Americans wanted to fall heir to this imperialism. They had let Russia assume chief role in crushing Hitler but were aghast when Communism threatened to keep Western business methods not only out of Russia, but out of the Balkans and [redacted] China. Thereupon they accused the Soviets of an imperialism which threatened the plans of American business in Asia and Africa. To enforce their own imperialism, Big Business drove the United States into war and Lehman consented. He backed Truman, he backed Acheson, he even backed Dulles. He forgot his brave words of 1942 and 1945 and stands today not only for war but also for suppression of civil liberties.

He opposed the McCarren bill, because it gave more right of court defense to alleged Communists than the Kilgore bill which he co-sponsored. He wanted Spain to have American money but from banks instead of the United States treasury.

He wanted appropriations to agriculture cut 50% so as to give more to war; and as a result of his support the Budget director now proposes to cut $500,000,000 from federal appropriation for Agriculture, Federal Security and hospitals, while Congress prepares for the universal draft of your sons for a Third World War.

Senator Lehmans' retreat from his previous high stand ~~of wartime~~ has been a calamity. It can be explained only by his training and the pressure which Big Business exerts upon him. This cannot be overlooked or forgiven. He stands today for a program which his whole previous career contradicts. As candidate of the American Labor Party, I offer a program of Peace and Civil Rights instead of War and Slavery.

35-5-60

¶ IT WOULD SEEM/ THAT THE MEMORY/ OF THE GREAT DEPRESSION/ OF THE THIRTIES/ WOULD CONVINCE ALL THINKING MEN/ THAT WAR IS NOT THE PATH/ TO THE MILLENIUM,// AND THAT WHAT WE NEED/ IS REFORM OF OUR OWN SYSTEM/ OF WORK AND INDUSTRIAL ORGANIZATION,/ BEFORE WE ATTEMPT/ TO TEACH THE WORLD/ WHAT TO THINK/ OR HOW TO LIVE.

¶ BUT WHAT/ THE MEN OF BIG BUSINESS/ IGNORED/ WAS THAT THE INDUSTRIAL SYSTEM WHICH THEY/ WERE SEEKING TO REINSTALL/ HAD ALREADY MET A TERRIBLE AND COSTLY REVERSE:// THAT MODIFICATIONS OF IMPERIALISM/ AND OF MONOPOLY CAPITALISM/ HAD ALREADY

45-5-30

BEEN SUGGESTED AND TRIED.// SUCH EFFORTS/ COMPREHENDED LOOSELY BY THE NAME "SOCIALISM"/ WERE NOT INVENTED BY RUSSIA/ NOR FIRST TRIED BY RUSSIA.// ON THE CONTRARY,/ SOCIALISM/ IS AN ENGLISH, FRENCH AND GERMAN CONCEPTION/ AND WAS TRIED IN RUSSIA/ BECAUSE THAT UNHAPPY LAND/ WAS ONE OF THE LAST AND WORST VICTIMS/ OF THE CAPITALIST SYSTEM. + absolutely collapsed under it!

25-5-60

IF TOMORROW/ RUSSIA DISAPPEARED/ FROM THE FACE OF THE EARTH,/ THE BASIC PROBLEM/ FACING THE MODERN WORLD/ WOULD REMAIN:// AND THAT IS:/ WHY IS IT,/ WITH THE EARTH'S ABUNDANCE/ AND OUR MASTERY/ OF NATURAL FORCES, AND MIRACULOUS TECHNIQUE// WITH OUR COMMERCE BELTING THE EARTH,/ AND GOODS AND SERVICES/ POURING FROM OUR STORES/ FACTORIES,/ SHIPS/ AND WAREHOUSES// WHY IS IT/ THAT NEVERTHELESS, MOST HUMAN BEINGS/ ARE STARVING TO DEATH/ DYING OF PREVENTABLE DISEASE/ AND TOO IGNORANT/ TO KNOW WHAT IS THE MATTER// WHILE A SMALL MINORITY/ ARE SO RICH/ THAT THEY CANNOT SPEND THEIR INCOME?

THAT IS THE PROBLEM/ WHICH FACES THE WORLD,/ AND RUSSIA WAS NOT THE FIRST TO POSE IT,/ NOR WILL SHE BE THE LAST/ TO ASK AND DEMAND ANSWER.// THE 19th CENTURY SAID/THAT THIS SITUATION/WAS INEVITABLE/AND MUST ALWAYS REMAIN/BECAUSE/OF THE NATURAL INFERIORITY/OF MOST MEN// THE 20th CENTURY/KNOWS BETTER.// IT SAYS/THAT THERE CAN BE FOOD ENOUGH FOR ALL/ THAT CLOTHES AND SHELTER FOR ALL/CAN BE PROVIDED/ THAT MOST DISEASE IS PREVENTABLE/AND THAT THE OVERWHELMING MASS/OF HUMAN BEINGS CAN BE EDUCATED/ THAT INTELLIGENCE,/ HEALTH AND DECENT COMFORT/ ARE NOT ONLY POSSIBLE,/ BUT SHOULD BE DEMANDED, BY ALL MEN;/ PLANNED BY STATES:/AND MADE INCREASINGLY EFFECTIVE/BY ALL VOTERS IN EACH ELECTION.

BUT THE POWERFUL/WHO TODAY OWN THE EARTH/AND THE FULNESS THEREOF/ WHO MONOPOLIZE ITS INDUSTRY/~~AND OWN~~ CONTROL ITS PRESS/AND SCREEN ITS NEWS/ HAVE ANOTHER ANSWER.//THEY ORDER US TO FIGHT AN IDEA/ TO "CONTAIN" AND CRUSH/ANY DREAM OF ABOLISHING POVERTY/ DISEASE, AND IGNORANCE:/ AND TO DO THIS/BY ORGANIZING WAR, MURDER AND DESTRUCTION/ON ANY PEOPLE/WHO DARE TO TRY TO PLAN/PLENTY FOR ALL MANKIND.//FROM THE 19th CENTURY,/THEY ATTEMPT TO TAKE OVER/IMPERIALISM/TO

BRIBE THE WORKERS/AND THINKERS/OF THE MOST POWERFUL COUNTRIES/BY HIGH WAGE AND PRIVILEGE/IN ORDER TO BUILD/A FALSE AND DISHONEST PROSPERITY/ON THE SLAVSERY AND DEGRADATION/ THE LOW WAGE AND DISEASE/ OF AFRICA AND ASIA/AND THE THE ISLANDS OF THE SEA//AND TO PAY THE PRICE FOR THIS,/THEY DEMAND THAT YOU, YOUR SONS AND DAUGHTERS/ IN ENDLESS STREAM,/ BE MURDERED AND CRIPPLED IN ENDless wars.

// THIS IS WHY WE ARE FIGHTING/OR PREPARING TO FIGHT/IN EUROPE, ASIA AND AFRICA/-NOT AGAINST AN ENEMY, BUT AGAINST THE IDEA-/AGAINST THE RISING DEMAND OF THE WORKING CLASSES/OF THE WORLD/FOR BETTER WAGE/ DECENT HOUSING,/ REGULAR EMPLOYMENT/ MEDICAL SERVICE/AND SCHOOLS FOR ALL.

IT DOES NOT ANSWER/THIS WORLD-WIDE DEMAND/TO SAY THAT WE OF AMERICA/ HAVE THESE THINGS/IN GREATER ABUNDANCE/THAN THE REST OF THE WORLD//IF OUR PROSPERITY IS BASED ON/ OR SEEKS TO BASE ITSELF ON/ THE EXPLOITATION AND DEGRADATION/OF THE REST OF MANKIND.//REMEMBER, IT IS AMERICAN MONEY/THAT

OWNS MORE AND MORE OF SOUTH AFRICAN MINES WORKED BY SLAVE LABOR. IT IS AMERICAN ENTERPRISE THAT FATTENS OFF ~~RHODESIAN~~ Central African COPPER; IT IS AMERICAN INVESTORS THAT SEEK TO DOMINATE CHINA, INDIA, KOREA AND BURMA; AND WHO ARE THROTTLING THE STARVED WORKERS OF THE NEAR EAST, THE CARIBBEAN AND SOUTH AMERICA.

YET IS IT NOT CLEAR THAT SUCH A PROGRAM IS SHEER INSANITY? THAT NO NATION, HOWEVER RICH AND SMART, CAN CONQUER THIS WORLD? HAVE NOT EGYPT, ASSYRIA, GREECE, ROME, BRITAIN AND GERMANY TAUGHT US THIS? AND ALSO THAT NO IDEA BASED ON TRUTH AND RIGHTEOUSNESS CAN ULTIMATELY BE SUPPRESSED BY FORCE AND MURDER?

I NEVER THOUGHT I WOULD LIVE TO SEE THE DAY THAT FREE SPEECH AND FREEDOM OF OPINION WOULD BE SO THROTTLED IN THE UNITED STATES AS IT IS TODAY. TODAY IN THIS FREE COUNTRY, NO MAN CAN BE SURE OF EARNING A LIVING, OF ESCAPING SLANDER AND PERSONAL VIOLENCE, OR EVEN OF KEEPING OUT OF JAIL

When students in our colleges may not hear or discuss the Truth

UNLESS PUBLICLY AND REPEATEDLY HE PROCLAIMS: THAT

THAT
- HE HATES RUSSIA.
- HE OPPOSES SOCIALISM AND COMMUNISM
- HE SUPPORTS WHOLEHEARTEDLY THE WAR IN KOREA
- HE IS READY TO SPEND ANY AMOUNT FOR FURTHER WAR, ANYWHERE OR AT ANYTIME,
- HE IS READY TO FIGHT THE SOVIET UNION, CHINA AND ANY OTHER COUNTRY, OR ALL COUNTRIES TOGETHER.
- HE BELIEVES IN THE USE OF THE ATOM BOMB OR ANY OTHER WEAPON OF MASS DESTRUCTION, AND REGARDS ANYONE OPPOSED AS A TRAITOR.
- HE NOT ONLY BELIVES IN AND CONSENTS TO ALL THESE THINGS, BUT IS WILLING TO SPY ON HIS NEIGHBORS AND DENOUNCE THEM IF THEY DO NOT BELIEVE AS HE DOES.

35-5-64

THE MERE STATEMENT OF THIS CREED SHOWS ITS ABSOLUTE INSANITY. WHAT CAN BE DONE TO BRING THIS NATION TO ITS SENSES? MOST PEOPLE ANSWER: NOTHING, JUST SIT STILL, BEND TO THE STORM, IF NECESSARY LIE AND JOIN THE WITCH-HUNT, SWEAR TO GOD THAT NEVER, NEVER DID YOU EVER SYMPATHIZE WITH RUSSIAN PEASANTS' FIGHT TO BE FREE, THAT YOU NEVER IN YOUR LIFE BELONGED TO A LIBERAL ORGANIZATION OR HAD A FRIEND WHO DID: AND IF SO, YOU WERE DECEIVED, DELUDED AND A DAMNED FOOL.

BUT THERE ARE OTHERS WHO SAY: WE CAN DO SOMETHING: THAT AMERICA NEEDS

 45-5-35

NO MORE COWARDS AND LIARS. IT NEEDS HONEST MEN, AND THAT HONEST CITIZENS WHO ARE MISTAKEN, ARE INFINITELY MORE PATRIOTIC THAN SCOUNDRELS WHO FOLLOW THE HERD.

WE STILL HAVE ELECTIONS AND WE STILL HAVE A SECRET BALLOT. IF YOU DO NOT WANT WAR, VOTE FOR MEN WHO WILL STOP IT. IF YOU WANT THE BILL OF RIGHTS RESTORED TO THE CONSTITUTION, YOU HAVE THE LEGAL RIGHT TO SAY SO. IN THIS DEMOCRACY, YOU STILL RETAIN THE RIGHT TO HELP ELECT YOUR LAWMAKERS AND EXECUTIVES. IF YOU FAIL TO EXERCISE THIS RIGHT, YOU WILL SUFFER AND YOU OUGHT TO SUFFER. TODAY THE VAST MAJORITY OF THE AMERICAN PEOPLE WHO ARE NOT CRAZY, DO NOT WANT WAR. MOST AMERICANS HATE THE CURRENT WITCH-HUNT. THE ONLY WAY TO OPPOSE WAR AND THE DEATH OF CIVIL LIBERTY IS TO ELECT OFFICIALS WHO AGREE WITH YOU. WE CANNOT EXPORT A DEMOCRACY WHICH WE DO NOT POSSESS or what is left of it

WE CANNOT GIVE FREEDOM TO OTHERS WHEN WE ARE LOSING OUR OWN.

IN THE THOUGHT OF MOST PERSONS HERE TONIGHT THE NEGRO PROBLEM AND BY THAT THEY MEAN THE ONE SOCIAL PROBLEM IN WHICH THEY HAVE REAL INTEREST IS ON THE WAY TO SATISFACTORY SETTLEMENT. DISCRIMINATION AGAINST NEGROES IS LESSENING EVEN IN THE SOUTH WHILE IN A CITY LIKE THIS IT IS POSSIBLE FOR THEM TO LIVE AN ALMOST NORMAL LIFE INTERFERED WITH ONLY OCCASIONALLY BY CASTE RESTRICTIONS. IT IS POSSIBLE TODAY FOR A NEGRO AMERICAN TO LIVE WELL: TO PRACTISE A PROFESSION AND BE RECOGNIZED BY HIS FELLOWS: TO ASPIRE TO ~~HIGH~~ public OFFICE TO OBTAIN HIGH PLACE IN PUBLIC ESTEEM. To many Negroes ~~PERHAPS~~ THE ONLY FLY IN THE OINTMENT IS THE TENDENCY IN A FEW NEGROES NOT TO PLAY ALONG WITH DOMINANT AMERICAN PUBLIC OPINION AND TO BE SEDUCED BY UNIMPORTANT RADICALS. TO THOSE OF YOU WHO THINK THUS I WANT TO BE PERMITTED TO EXPRESS A GRAVE WARNING. I WANT TO SAY THAT NOT SINCE THE ABOLITION OF AFRICAN SLAVERY HAS THE WORLD BEEN IN SO CRITICAL CONDITION AS TODAY AND THAT PARTICULARLY IS THIS A CRITICAL DAY FOR AMERICAN NEGROES. WE HAVE LONG SOUGHT EQUAL RIGHTS IN THIS LAND BUT TODAY WE SEEM TO WANT ONLY A EQUAL RIGHT TO DO WRONG. WE ARE EAGER TO BE WITH THE MAJORITY WHETHER THAT MAJORITY IS JUST OR UNJUST. WE STRIVE FOR THE BANDWAGON WHETHER IT IS HEADED UP OR DOWN. WE ARE BEING INTIMIDATED AND BRI BRIBED THREATENED WITH LOSS OF JOBS AND LOSS OF PUBLICITY AND BRIBED BY FALSE PRA PRAISE AND SMALL PATS ON THE BACK. WE NEGROES OUGHT TO BE IN THE FRONT RANKS OF THOSE FIGHTING FOR A BETTER AMERICA AND NOT MERELY FOR A BIGGER AND MORE RUTHLESS LAND. FOR US TO SIT BY SILENTLY ~~ARRXAMEXNGXXNJMS~~ CONSENTING TO INJUSTICE AND WAR IS TO BETRAY THE AMERICA FOR WHICH WE HAVE WORKED 332 YEARS. BEFORE THE PILGRIMS LANDED WE WERE HERE. THE GERMANS SCANDINAVIANS POLES AND IRISH ARE OUR GUESTS IN A LAND FOR WHICH WE TOILED A HUNDRED YEARS BEFORE THEY SAW IT. BUT IF TODAY WE BETRAY THIS TRUST WE ARE TRAITORS TO THE REAL VOICE OF AMERICA WHICH IS OURS.

45-5-37

35-5-62

IF AMERICA OFFERS ~~YOU~~ US WEALTH AND PROSPERITY AT THE COST OF THE DEGRADATION OF YOUR BROTHERS WHITE AND BLACK HERE AND OVERSEAS ~~YOU~~ WE IN THE END WILL GAIN NOTHING

45-5-38

Therefor, for the whole World ---17--- A

I WANT PROGRESS:/ I WANT EDUCATION:/ I WANT SOCIAL MEDICINE:/ I WANT A LIVING WAGE/ AND OLD AGE SECURITY:/ I WANT EMPLOYMENT FOR ALL/ AND RELIEF FOR THE UNEMPLOYED AND SICK.// I WANT PUBLIC WORKS,/ PUBLIC SERVICES AND PUBLIC IMPORVEMENTS.// I WANT FREEDOM FOR MY PEOPLE.// AND BECAUSE I KNOW/ AND YOU KNOW THAT WE CANNOT HAVE THESE THINGS/ AND AT THE SAME TIME/ FIGHT, DESTROY AND KILL/ ALL AROUND THE WORLD/ IN ORDER TO MAKE HUGE PROFIT/ FOR BIG BUSINESS:/ FOR THAT REASON,/ I TAKE MY STAND BESIDE THE MILLIONS/ IN EVERY NATION AND CONTINENT AND CRY PEACE--NO MORE WAR!

PEACE AND CIVIL RIGHTS

THE WORLD IS ASTONISHED AT RECENT DEVELOPMENTS IN THE UNITED STATES. OUR ACTIONS AND ATTITUDES ARE DISCUSSED WITH PUZZLED WONDER ON THE STREETS OF EVERY CITY IN THE WORLD. RELUCTANTLY THE WORLD IS COMING TO BELIEVE THAT WE ACTUALLY WANT WAR: THAT WE MUST HAVE WAR: THAT IN NO OTHER WAY CAN WE KEEP OUR WORKERS EMPLOYED AND MAINTAIN HUGE PROFITS SAVE BY SPENDING 70 THOUSAND MILLION DOLLARS A YEAR FOR WAR PREPARATION AND ADDING TO THE VAST DEBT OF 218 THOUSAND MILLIONS WHICH WE ALREADY OWE CHIEFLY FOR WAR IN THE PAST.

35-6-298

OUR PRESENT WAR EXPENDITURE MUST BE INCREASED, YET WE CANNOT TAX THE RICH MUCH MORE SINCE THE LAWYERS WHO MAKE THE TAX LAWS CAN ALSO BREAK THEM AND LET THE BULK OF WEALTH GO UNTAXED. WE CANNOT RAISE THE TAXES ON THE POOR MUCH HIGHER BECAUSE RISING PRICES LEAVE LESS AND LESS TO TAX. CITIZENS HAVE BORROWED 200 THOUSAND MILLION DOLLARS ON HOMES, FARMS AND FURNITURE, AND THE POOR AND MIDDLE CLASS HAVE SPENT NEARLY ALL THEIR SAVINGS. YET WE CANNOT STOP: EITHER WE SPEND MORE AND MORE ON TOP OF WHAT WE ARE SPENDING ON OUR WHOLE INDUSTRIAL ORGANIZATION, WITH ITS BILLIONS OF PRIVATE PROFIT MONOPOLY, WILL FACE COLLAPSE.

--2--

ON THE OTHER HAND, THE SOVIET UNION WHOM WE ARE DETERMINED TO DESTROY DOES NOT AT PRESENT SEEM WILLING TO FIGHT. WE HAVE WARNED AND DARED IT. WE HAVE PUBLICLY AND PRIVATELY INSULTED IT. WE HAVE EAGERLY GIVEN CURRENCY TO EVERY CHARGE WHICH ANYONE AT ANYTIME MAKES AGAINST THE SOVIET UNION, ITS ECONOMY, ITS MORALS, ITS PLANS. WE THOUGHT THAT AT LAST IN KOREA WE HAD THEM WHERE THEY MUST FIGHT AND WE PREPARED JAUNTILY FOR WORLD WAR III ALMOST WITH SHOUTS OF JOY.

WE WERE SURE THE RUSSIANS HAD STARTED THE KOREAN UPRISING, WERE FURNISHING ARMS AND READY TO MARCH TO WAR. HENRY WALLACE ACTUALLY SAW THEM AND RAN BACKWARD SO FAST THAT HE TRIPPED OVER HIS OWN RESOLUTIONS, AND

STEPPED IN THE FACES OF HIS FRIENDS. STILL THE SOVIETS DID NOT FIGHT AND BEGAN INSTEAD TO CALL FOR WORLD PEACE: FOR UNION AGAINST THE ATOM BOMB: FOR PEACE CONGRESSES. BUT THE UNITED STATES WAS NOT MISLED: NOT THEY. THEY STOPPED THE PEACE APPEAL. THEY PICKED UP AND JAILED ADVOCATES OF PEACE. THEY BARRED FROM OUR SHORES FOREIGN ADVOCATES OF PEACE, EVEN MEN OF THE HIGHEST REPUTATION.

HIGHLY PLACED PUBLIC OFFICIALS AND MILITARY MEN BEGAN OPENLY TO DECLARE THAT IF THE RUSSIANS WOULD NOT ATTACK US, WE WOULD ATTACK THEM TO KEEP THEM FROM ATTACKING US. THE WILD MAN OF TOKYO, WHO REMEMBERS SHOOTING DOWN WORLD WAR I VETERANS IN WASHINGTON, AND WHO IS TURNING KOREA INTO A STINKING DESERT, HAS RECEIVED THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES IN AUDIENCE. WHATEVER THEY TALKED ABOUT, THE RESULT, IF MACARTHUR HAS HIS WAY, WAS NOT PEACE NOW OR EVER: UNTIL WE SEIZE CHINA, CONQUER SOUTHEAST ASIA AND DROP ATOM BOMBS ON MOSCOW.

MEANTIME, WAVE AFTER WAVE OF OUR YOUNG MEN ARE BEING TRAINED FOR MURDER, AND CONGRESS IS ON THE VERGE OF CALLING EVERY YOUTH IN THE LAND FOR THIS PURPOSE. WE ARE SET TO "LICK THE WORLD" WITH EISENHOWER AND STASSEN, THE EDUCATORS OF YOUTH: DEWEY AND HANLEY, THE NEW BRAND OF STATESMEN: AND HERBERT LEHMAN, SUPPORTING NOTORIOUS GENERAL ANDERS, IN ORDER TO MAKE OUR FOREIGN INVESTMENT PAY WITH OIL, PLANES, BATTLESHIPS AND ARTILLERY. WE WILL RESTORE KOREA AND WHEN WE ARE THROUGH RESTORATION WITH TAXES RAISED FROM OUR POOR, LEHMAN BROTHERS AND LIKE INVESTORS WILL OWN EVERY THING IN KOREA WORTH OWNING AND WILL DRAW FABULOUS PROFITS FROM RISKS WHICH THEY NEVER TOOK. AFTER THAT WE WILL RAIL AT KOREA FOR NOT LOVING US FOR OUR GENEROSITY UNTIL THE KOREANS PAY FOR DEMOCRACY AT FIFTY CENTS A DAY AND NOT LAND.

THIS IS WHAT EUROPE SEES US SET FOR, IN CONTRADICTION TO EVERYTHING WE ONCE PROFESSED--LIBERTY, FREE SPEECH, TRUTH AND JUSTICE. TO THIS OUR MASTERS WILL LEAD US UNLESS YOU INTERVENE: UNLESS RIGHT HERE AND NOW YOU, THE PEOPLE OF THE UNITED STATES SAY NO! ENOUGH OF THIS HYSTERIA, THIS CRAZY FOOLISHNESS!

35-6-299

OUR SLOW BUT STEADY DESCENT INTO BELIEF IN COMPLETE AND UNIVERASL WAR AND OUR DETERMINATION TO MAKE ALL MEN AGREE WITH WHAT SOME BELIEVE, RATHER THAN TO LET THEM EXERCISE THEIR FREE AMERICAN HERITAGE OF CHOOSING TRUTH-- THIS LITERAL DESCENT INTO HELL IN OUR DAY, AND IN THIS OUR OWN COUNTRY, HAS BEEN SO GRADUAL AND COMPLETE THAT MANY HONEST AMERICANS CANNOT BELIEVE WHAT THEY ACTUALLY HEAR AND SEE: AND SIT BEWILDERED, RUBBING THEIR EYES IN ORDER TO GET SOME VAGUE CONCEPTION OF WHAT CAN HAVE HAPPENED TO THE LAND WHICH ONCE DECLARED "THESE TRUTHS TO BE SELF EVIDENT THAT ALL MEN WERE CREATED EQUAL: THAT THEY WERE ENDOWED BY THEIR CREATOR WITH CERTAIN UNALIENABLE RIGHTS: THAT AMONG THESE ARE LIFE, LIBERTY AND THE PURSUIT OF HAPPINESS."

NO AMERICAN BORN BEFORE 1900 COULD POSSIBLY CONCEIVE THAT THE UNITED STATES WOULD BECOME A LAND APPROACHING UNIVERSAL MILITARY SERVICE: WITH ITS ARMED FORCES IN EVERY CONTINENT AND ON EVERY SEA: PLEDGED TO CONQUER AND CONTROL MASSES OF MANKIND, ORDER THE THOUGHT AND ACTION AND BELIEF OF THE NATIONS OF THE WORLD, AND READY TO SPEND FOR THESE OBJECTS MORE MONEY THAN IT EVER SPENT FOR RELIGION, EDUCATION OR SOCIAL UPLIFT ALTOGETHER.

WHEN MEN ARISE AND SAY THIS AND TRY TO PROVE ITS TRUTH, EVERY EFFORT IS MADE BY SECRET POLICE, ORGANIZED SPIES AND HIRED INFORMERS: BY DELIBERATE SUBVERSION OF THE FUNDAMENTAL PRINCIPLES OF OUR LAW, TO IMPRISON, SLANDER AND SILENCE SUCH PERSONS, AND DEPRIVE THEM OF EARNING AN HONEST LIVELIHOOD.

AVOIDING ALL HYSTERIA AND EXAGGERATION, ALL NATURAL INDIGNATION AND INSTINCTIVE DEFENSE OF THE RIGHT OF FREE SPEECH AND HATRED OF THOUGHT CONTROL, IT IS CLEAR TO ALL AMERICANS WHO STILL DARE THINK, THAT MY DESCRPPTION OF THIS AMERICA IS TRUE: AND IF TRUE, FRIGHTENING TO ALL MEN WHO ONCE THOUGHT OF THIS LAND AS THE LAND OF THE FREE.

MY PLATFORM THEN, LIKE THE PLATFORM OF EVEY HONEST AMERICAN WHO STILL DARES BELIEVE IN PEACE AND FREEDOM, TAKES ITS UNALTERABLE STAND AGAINST WAR

AND SLAVERY. THERE WAS A DAY WHEN MOST MEN BELIEVED THAT PROGRESS DEPENDED ON WAR: THAT BY WAR, AND MAINLY BY WAR, HAD MODERN MEN GAINED FREEDOM, RELIGION AND DEMOCRACY. WE BELIEVED THIS BECAUSE WE WERE TAUGHT THIS IN OUR LITERATURE AND SCIENCE, IN CHURCH AND SCHOOL, ON PLATFORM AND IN NEWSPAPER. IT WAS ALWAYS A LIE AND AS WAR HAS BECOME UNIVERSAL AND SO HORRIBLE AND DESTRUCTIVE THAT EVERYBODY RECOGNIZES IT AS MURDER, CRIPPLING, INSANITY AND STARK DEATH OF HUMAN CULTURE: WE REALIZE THAT THERE IS SCARE A VICTORY FORMERLY CLAIMED BY WAR WHICH MANKIND MIGHT NOT HAVE GAINED MORE CHEAPLY AND MORE DECENTLY AND EVEN MORE COMPLETELY BY METHODSY OF PEACE. IF THAT WAS TRUE IN THE PAST, IT IS SO CLEAR AND INDISPUTABLE TODAY THAT NO SANE BEING DENIES IT. AND YET OF ALL NATIONS OF EARTH TODAY, THE UNITED STATES ALONE WANTS WAR, PREPARES FOR WAR, FORCES OTHER NATIONS TO FIGHT AND ASKS YOU AND ME TO IMPOVERISH OURSELVES, GIVE UP HEALTH AND SCHOOLS, SACRIFICE OUR SONS AND DAUGHTERS TO A "JIM-CROW" ARMY, AND COMMIT SUICIDE, FOR A WORLD WAR THAT NOBODY WANTS BUT THE RICH AMERICANS WHO PROFIT BY IT.

35-6-391

IF WAR WERE A MATTER OF CAREFUL STUDY AND GRAVE DECISION: OF PRAYERFUL THOUGHT AND SOLEMN DELIBERATION: WE MIGHT TAKE ITS FEARFUL OUTBREAK AS AT LEAST NO MORE THAN HUMAN ERROR, SOON TO BE STOPPED BY DECENCY AND COMMON-SENSE. BUT WHEN DID YOU EVER VOTE FOR WAR? YOU WHO HAVE SPENT MOST OF YOUR LIVES IN A FIGHTING , MURDERING WORLD? WHEN DID YOU EVER HAV A CHANCE TO DECIDE THIS MATTER OF MAIMING AND MURDER? NEVER! AND YOU NEVER WILL AS LONG AS AN EXECUTIVE OF HIS OWN INITIATIVE CAN START A LITTLE POLICE ACTION WHICH COSTS THE LIVES AND HEALTH OF 50,000 AMERICAN BOYS, IN ORDER THAT BIG BUSINESS CAN INTERFERE WITH THE GOVERNMENTS OF ASIA.

OF WHAT ARE WE IN SUCH DEATHLY FEAR? HAVE WE BEEN INVADED? HAS ANYONE DROPPED AN ATOM BOMB ON US? HAVE WE BEEN IMPOVERISHED OR ENSLAVED BY FOREIGNERS? IS OUR BUSINESS FAILING AND ARE OUR MILLIONAIRES DISAPPEARING?

HAS THE RATE OF PROFIT GONE DOWN, IS OUR MACHINERY LESS CUNNING, OR OUR NATURAL RESOURCES DESTROYED BY STRANGERS? IS THERE ANY SIGN THAT THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA IS VICTIM, OR CAN BE VICTIM OF ANY FOREIGN COUNTRY? NO! THEN OF WHAT ARE WE AFRAID, AND WHY ARE WE TRYING TO GUARD THEEARTH FROM PACIFIC TO ATLANTIC AND FROM THE NORTH TO THE SOUTH POLE, UNLESS IT BE FROM OURSELVES?

OUR RULERS ARE AFRAID OF AN IDEA: TEMPTED BY A VISION OF POWER WHICH THIS IDEA FIGHTS. THE POWER THEY CRAVE LONG MISLED AND SLAUGHTED THE PEOPLES OF EUROPE AND ASIA, AND NOW INSIDIOUSLY CREEPS INTO OUR OWN FEVER-MAD HEADS: AND THAT IS IMPERIALISM--WORLD RULE OVER THE WORLD. ONCE THIS WAS SOUGHT THROUGH BLACK SLAVERY: THEN IT WAS MADE EASY BY YELLOW COOLIES: THEN BY ALL "LESSER BREEDS WITHOUT THE LAW," WHO COULD FURNISH A "WHITE MAN'S BURDENN AND LET HIM STRUT OVERTHE WORLD, AND LORD IT IN ASIA AND AFRICA, AND RULE AND RULE WITHOUT END, FOREVER AND FOREVER. THAT WAS THE VISION OF THE 19th CENTURY.

THE FEVER OF IMPERIALISM CAUGHT THE UNITED STATES AS THE 19th CENTURY DIED AND WE CHOKED A FEW ISLANDS OUT OF DYING SPAIN. BUT THESE WERE BUT SMALL CHANGE WHICH WHETTED OUR APPETITE. WITH THE FIRST WORLD WAR CAME THE VISION OF AN IMPERIAL UNITED STATES AS SUCCESSOR OF THE EMPIRE ON WHICH THE SUN ALREADY SETS. WE RUSHED SO MADLY AT THE SPOILS LEFT BY EUROPEAN EMPIRE, THAT WE BROUGHT DOWN OUR WHOLE INDUSTRIAL SYSTEM ABOUT OUR OWN EARS.

IT WOULD SEEM THAT THE MEMORY OF THE GREAT DEPRESSION OF THE THIRTIES WOULD CONVINCE ALL THINKING MEN THAT WAR IS NOT THE PATH TO THE MILLENIUM, AND THAT WHAT WE NEED IS REFORM OF OUR OWN SYSTEM OF WORK AND INDUSTRIAL ORGANIZATION, BEFORE WE ATTEMPT TO TEACH THE WORLD WHAT TO THIK OR HOW TO LIVE.

BUT WHAT THE MEN OF BIG BUSINESS IGNORED WAS THAT THE INDUSTRIAL SYSTEM WHICH THEY WERE SEEKING TO REINSTALL HAD ALREADY MET A TERRIBLE AND COSTLY REVERSE: THAT MODIFICATIONS OF IMPERIALISM AND MONOPOLY CAPITALISM HAD ALREADY

BEEN SUGGESTED AND TRIED. SUCH EFFORTS COMPREHENDED LOOSELY BY THE NAME "SOCIALIAM", WERE NOT INVENTED BY RUSSIA NOR FIRST TRIED BY RUSSIA. ON THE CONTRARY, SOCIALISM IS AN ENGLISH, FRENCH AND GERMAN CONCEPTION AND WAS TRIED IN RUSSIA BECAUSE THAT UNHAPPY LAND WAS ONE OF THE LAST AND WORST VICTIMS OF THE CAPITALIST SYSTEM.

IFTOMORROW RUSSIA DISAPPEARED FROM THE FACE OF THE EARTH, THE BASIC PROBLEM FACING THE MODERN WORLD WOULD REMAIN: AND THAT IS: WHY IS IT, WITH THE EARTH'S ABUNDANCE AND OUR MASTERY OF NATURAL FORCES, AND MIRACULOUS TECHNIQUE: WITH OUR COMMERCE BELTING THE EARTH, AND GOODS AND SERVICES POURING FROM OUR STORES, FACTORIES, SHIPS AND WAREHOUSES WHY IS IT THAT NEVER THELESS, MOST HUMAN BEINGS ARE STARVING TO DEATH, DYING OF PREVENTABLE DISEASE AND TOO IGNORANT TO KNOW WHAT IS THE MATTER, WHILE A SMALL MINORITY ARE SO RICH THAT THEY CANNOT SPEND THEIR INCOME?

THAT IS THE PROBLEM WHICH FACES THE WORLD, AND RUSSIA WAS NOT THE FIRST TO POSE IT, NOR WILL SHE BE THE LAST TO ASK AND DEMAND ANSWER. THE 19th

CENTURY SAID THAT THIS SITUATION WAS INEVITABLE AND MUST ALWAYS REMAIN BECAUSE OF THE NATURAL INFERIORITY OF MOST MEN. THE 20th CENTURY KNOWS BETTER. IT SAYS THAT THERE CAN BE FOOD ENOUGH FOR ALL: THAT CLOTHES AND SHELTER FOR ALL CAN BE PROVIDED: THAT MOST DISEASE IS PREVENTABLE AND THAT THE OVERWHELMING MASS OF HUMAN BEINGS CAN BE EDUCATED: THAT INTELLIGENCE, HEALTH AND DECENT COMFORT ARE NOT ONLY POSSIBLE, BUT SHOULD BE DEMANDED, BY ALL MEN: PLANNED BY STATES: AND MADE INCREASINGLY EFFECTIVE BY ALL VOTERS IN EACH ELECTION.

BUT THE POWERFUL WHO TODAY OWN THE EARTH AND THE FULNESS THEREOF: WHO MONOPOLIZE ITS INDUSTRY AND OWN ITS PRESS AND SCREEN ITS NEWS: HAVE ANOTHER ANSWER. THEY ORDER US TO FIGHT AN IDEA: TO "CONTAIN" AND CRUSH ANY DREAM OF ABOLISHING POVERTY, DISEASE, AND IGNORANCE: AND TO DO THIS BY ORGANIZING WAR, MURDER AND DESTRUCTION ON ANY PEOPLE WHO DARE TO TRY TO PLAN PLENTY FOR ALL MANKIND. FROM THE 19th CENTURY, THEY ATTEMPT TO TAKE OVER IMPERIALISM TO

BRIBE THE WORKERS AND THINKERS OF THE MOST POWERFUL COUNTRIES BY HIGH WAGE AND PRIVILEGE IN ORDER TO BUILD A FALSE AND DISHONEST PROSPERITY ON THE SLAVERY AND DEGRADATION, THE LOW WAGE AND DISEASE, OF AFRICA AND ASIA AND THE THE ISLANDS OF THE SEA: AND TO PAY THE PRICE FOR THIS, THEY DEMAND THAT YOU, YOUR SONS AND DAUGHTERS, IN ENDLESS STREAM, BE MURDERED AND CRIPPLED IN ENDless wars.

THIS IS WHY WE ARE FIGHTING OR PREPARING TO FIGHT IN EUROPE, ASIA AND AFRICA--NOT AGAINST AN ENEMY, BUT AGAINST THE IDEA--AGAINST THE RISING DEMAND OF THE WORKING CLASSES OF THE WORLD FOR BETTER WAGE, DECENT HOUSING, REGULAR EMPLOYMENT, MEDICAL SERVICE AND SCHOOLS FOR ALL.

IT DOES NOT ANSWER THIS WORLD-WIDE DEMAND TO SAY THAT WE OF AMERICA HAVE THESE THINGS IN GREATER ABUNDANCE THAN THE REST OF THE WORLD IF OUR PROSPERITY IS BASED ON, OR SEEKS TO BASE ITSELF ON, THE EXPLOITATION AND DEGRADATION OF THE REST OF MANKIND. REMEMBER, IT IS AMERICAN MONEY THAT

OWNS MORE AND MORE OF SOUTH AFRICAN MINES WORKED BY SLAVE LABOR: IT IS AMERICAN ENTERPRISE THAT FATTENS OFF RHODESIAN COPPER: IT IS AMERICAN INVESTORS THAT SEEK TO DOMINATE CHINA, INDIA, KOREA AND BURMA: WHO ARE THROTTLING THE STARVED WORKERS OF THE NEAR EAST.

YET IS IT NOT CLEAR THAT SUCH A PROGRAM IS SHEER INSANITY? THAT NO NATION, HOWEVER RICH AND SMART, CAN CONQUER THIS WORLD? HAVE NOT EGYPT, ASSYRIA, GREECE, ROME, BRITAIN AND GERMANY TAUGHT US THIS? AND ALSO THAT NO IDEA BASED ON TRUTH AND RIGHTEOUSNESS CAN ULTIMATELY BE SUPPRESSED BY FORCE AND MURDER.

I NEVER THOUGHT I WOULD LIVE TO SEE THE DAY THAT FREE SPEECH AND FREEDOM OF OPINION WOULD BE SO THROTTLED IN THE UNITED STATES AS IT IS T DAY. TODAY IN THIS FREE COUNTRY, NO MAN CAN BE SURE OF EARNING A LIVING, OF ESCAPING SLANDER AND PERSONAL VIOLENCE: OR EVEN OF KEEPING OUT OF JAIL

UNLESS PUBLICLY AND REPEATEDLY HE PROCLAIMS:

HE HATES RUSSIA.
HE OPPOSES SOCIALISM AND COMMUNISM
HE SUPPORTS WHOLEHEARTEDLY THE WAR IN KOREA
HE IS READY TO SPEND ANY AMOUNT FOR FURTHER WAR, ANYWHERE OR AT ANYTIME
HE IS READY TO FIGHT THE SOVIET UNION, CHINA AND ANY OTHER COUNTRY, OR ALL COUNTRIES TOGETHER.
HE BELIEVES IN THE USE OF THE ATOM BOMB OR ANY OTHER WEAPON OF MASS DESTRUCTION, AND REGARDS ANYONE OPPOSED AS A TRAITOR.

35-6-305

THE MERE STATEMENT OF THIS CREED SHOWS ITS ABSOLUTE INSANITY. WHAT CAN BE DONE TO BRING THIS NATION TO ITS SENSES? MOST PEOPLE ANSWER: NOTHING, JUST SIT STILL, BEND TO THE STORM, IF NECESSARY LIE AND JOIN THE WITCH-HUNT, SWEAR TO GOD THAT NEVER, NEVER DID YOU EVER SYMPATHIZE WITH RUSSIAN PEASANTS' RIGHT TO BE FREE, THAT YOU NEVER IN YOUR LIFE BELONGED TO A LIBERAL ORGANIZATION OR HAD A FRIEND WHO DID: AND IF SO, YOU WERE DECEIVED, DELUDED AND A DAMNED FOOL.

BUT THERE ARE OTHERS WHO SAY: WE CAN DO SOMETHING: THAT AMERICA NEEDS

NO MORE COWARDS AND LIARS. IT NEEDS HONEST MEN, AND THAT HONEST CITIZENS WHO ARE MISTAKEN, ARE INFINITELY MORE PATRIOTIC THAN SCOUNDRELS WHO FOLLOW THE HERD.

WE STILL HAVE ELECTIONS AND WE STILL HAVE A SECRET BALLOT. IF YOU DO NOT WANT WAR, VOTE FOR MEN WHO WILL STOP IT. IF YOU WANT THE BILL OF RIGHTS RESTORED TO THE CONSTITUTION, YOU HAVE THE LEGAL RIGHT TO SAY SO. IN THIS DEMOCRACY, YOU STILL RETAIN THE RIGHT TO HELP ELECT YOUR LAWMAKERS AND EXECUTIVES. IF YOU FAIL TO EXERCISE THIS RIGHT, YOU WILL SUFFER AND YOU OUGHT TO SUFFER. TODAY THE VAST MAJORITY OF THE AMERICAN PEOPLE WHO ARE NOT CRAZY, DO NOT WANT WAR. MOST AMERICANS HATE THE CURRENT WITCH-HUNT. THE ONLY WAY TO OPPOSE WAR AND THE DEATH OF CIVIL LIBERTY IS TO ELECT OFFICIALS WHO AGREE WITH YOU.

I WANT PROGRESS: I WANT EDUCATION: I WANT SOCIAL MEDICINE: I WANT A LIVING WAGE AND OLD AGE SECURITY: I WANT EMPLOYMENT FOR ALL AND RELIEF FOR THE UNEMPLOYED AND SICK. I WANT PUBLIC WORKS, PUBLIC SERVICES AND PUBLIC IMPORVEMENTS. I WANT FREEDOM FOR MY PEOPLE. AND BECAUSE I KNOW AND YOU KNOW THAT WE CANNOT HAVE THESE THINGS, AND AT THE SAME TIME FIGHT, DESTROY AND KILL ALL AROUND THE WORLD IN ORDER TO MAKE HUGE PROFIT FOR BIG BUSINESS: FOR THAT REASON, I TAKE MY STAND BESIDE THE MILLIONS IN EVERY NATION AND CONTINENT AND CRY PEACE--NO MORE WAR!

35-6-306

ALP MADISON SQUARE GARDEN RALLY

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 24, 1950

BEFORE 17,000 PERSONS

The world is astonished at recent developments in the United States. Our actions and attitudes are discussed with puzzled wonder on the streets of every city in the world. Reluctantly the world is coming to believe that we actually want war: that we must have war: that in no other way can we keep our workers employed and maintain huge profits save by spending 50 thousand million dollars a year for war preparation and adding to the vast debt of 218 thousand millions which we already owe chiefly for war. Our present war expenditure must be increased, yet we cannot tax the rich much more since the lawyers who make the tax laws can also break them and let the bulk of wealth go untaxed. We cannot raise the taxes on the poor much higher because rising prices leave less and less to tax. Citizens have borrowed 200 thousand million dollars on homes, farms and furniture and the poor and middle class have spent nearly all their savings. Yet we cannot stop: either we spend more and more on top of what we are spending or our whole industrial organization, with its billions of private profit monopoly, will face collapse. On the other hand, the Soviet Union whom we are determined to destroy does not seem willing to fight. We have warned and dared it. We have publicly and privately insulted it. We have eagerly given currency to every charge which anyone at anytime makes against the Soviet Union, its ecomony, its morals, its plans. We thought that at last in Korea we had them where they must fight and we prepared jauntily for World War III almost with shouts of joy.

We were sure the Russians had started the Korean uprising, were furnishing arms and ready to march to war. Henry Wallace actually saw them and ran backward so fast that he tripped over his own resolutions, and stepped in the faces of his friends. Still the Soviets did not fight and began instead to call for world peace: for union against the atom bomb: for peace congresses. But the United States was not misled: Not they. They stopped the peace appeal: They picked up and jailed advocates of peace: They barred from our shores foreign advocates of peace, even men of the highest reputation.

Highly placed public officials and military men began openly to declare that if the Russians would not attack us we would attack them to keep them from attacking us. The Wild Man of Tokyo, who remembers shooting down World War I veterans in Washington, turned Korea into a stinking desert, has received the President of the United States in audience. Whatever they talked about, the result, if MacArthur has his way, was not peace now or ever, until we seize China, conquer southeast Asia and drop atom bombs on Moscow. Meantime, wave after wave of our young men are being trained for murder and congress is on the verge of calling every youth in the land for this purpose. We are set to "lick the world" with Eisenhower and Stassen, the educators of youth: Dewey and Hanley the new brand of statesmen: and Herbert Lehman supporting notorious General Anders in order to make out foreign investment pay with oil, planes, battleships and artillery. We will restore Korea and when we are through restoration with taxes raised from out poor, Lehman Brothers and like investors will own everything in Korea worth owning and will draw fabulous profits from risks they never took, after that we will rail at Korea for not loving us for our genorisity while the Koreans pay for democracy at fifty cents a day and no land. This is what Europe sees us set for, in contradiction to everything we once professed--liberty, free speech, truth and justice. To this our masters will lead us unless you intervene: unless right here and now you, the voters of the United States say No. Enough of this hysteria, this crazy foolishness.

Our slow but steady descent into belief in complete and universal war and our determination to make all men agree with what some believe, rather than to let them exercise their free American heritage of choosing truth--this literal descent into Hell in our day and in this our own country, has been so gradual and complete than many honest Americans cannot believe what they actually hear and see: and sit bewildered, rubbing their eyes in order to get some vague conception of what can have happened to the land which once declared "These truths to be self evident that all men were created equal: that they were endowed by their creator with certain unalienable rights: that among these are life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness."

35-6-106

No American born before 1900, could 1900, could possibly conceive that the United States would become a land approaching universla military service: with its armed forces in every continent and on every sea, pledged to conquer and control masses of mankind, order the thought and act on and belief of the nations of the world and ready to spend for these objects more money than it ever spent for religion, education or social uplift altogether.

When men arise and say this and try to prove its truth, every effort is made by secret police, organized spies and hired informers; by deliberate subversion of the fundamental principles of our law, to imprison, slander and silence such persons, and deprive them of earning an honest livelihood.

Avoiding all hysteria and exaggeration, all natural indignation and instinctive defense of the right of free speech and hatred of thought control, it is clear to all Americans who still dare think, that my description of this America is true and if true frightening to all men who once thought of this land as the l nd of the free.

My platform then, like the platform of every honest American who still dares believe in peace and freedom, takes its unalterable stand against war and slavery. There was a day when most men believed that progress depended on war: that by war and mainly by war had modern men gained freedom religion and democracy. We believed this becuase we were taught this in our literature and science, in church and school, on platform and in newspaper. It was always a lie and as war has become universal and so horrible and destructive that everybody recognizes it as murder, crippling, insanity and stark death of human culture. We realize that there is scarce a victory formerly claimed by war, which mankind might not have gained more cheaply and more decently and even more completely by methods of peace. If that was true in the past, it is so clear and indisputable today that no sane being denies it. And yet of all nations of earth today the United States alone wants war, prepares for war, forces other nations to fight and asks you and me to impoverish ourselves, give up health and schools, sacrifice our sons and daughters to a "Jim-Crow" army and commit suicide for a world war that nobody wants but the rich Americans who profit by it.

If war were a matter of careful study and grave decision: of prayerful thought and solemn deliberation we might take its fearful outbreak as at least no more than human error, soon to be stopped by decency and commonsense. But when did you ever vote for war? You who have spend most of your lives in a fighting, murdering world? When did you ever have a chance to decide this matter of maiming and murder? Never! And you never will as long as an executive of his own initiative can start a "little police action" which costs the lives and health of 30,000 American boys in order that big business can interfere with the governments of Asia.

Of what are they in such deathly fear? Have we been invaded? Has anyone dropped an atom bomb on us? Have we been impoverished or enslaved by foreigners? Is our business failing and are our millionaires disappearing? Has the rate of profit gone down, is our machinery less cunning or our natural resources destroyed by stangers? Is there any sign that the United States of America is victim or can be victim of any foreign country? No! Then of what are we afraid and why are we trying to guard the earth from Pacific to Atlantic and from the North to the South Pole, unless it be from ourselves.

$

They are afraid of an idea: tempted by a vision of power which this idea fights. The power they crave long misled and slaughtered the peoples of Europe and Asia, and now insidiously creeps into our own fever-mad heads, and that is imperialism--world rule over the world. Once this was sought by black slavery: then it was made easy by yellow coolies: then all "lesser breeds without the law," who could furnish a white man's burden and let him strut over the world and lord it in Asia and Africa and rule and rule without end, forever and forever. That was the vision of the 19th century. The fever of imperialism caught the United States as the 19th century died and we choked a few islands out of dying Spain. But these were but small change which whetted our appetite. With the first World War came the vision of an Imperial United States as successor of the empire on which the sun already sets, we rushed so madly at the spoils left by European empire that we brought down our whole industrial system about our own ears.

It would seem that the memory of the great depression of the thirties would convince all thinking men that war is not the path to the millenium and that what we need is reform of our own system of work and industrial organization, before we attempt to teach the world what to think or how to live.

But what the men of Big Business ignored was that the industrial system which they were seeking to re-install had already met a terrible and costly reverse: that modifications of imperialism and monopoly capitalism had already been suggested and tried. Such efforts comprehended loosely by the name "Socialism," were not invented by Russia nor first tried by Russia. On the contrary, Socialism is an English, French and German conception and was tried in Russia because that unhappy land was one of the last and worst victims of the capitalist system.

If tomorrow Russia disappeared from the face of the earth, the basic problem facing the modern world would remain: and that is: why is it, with the earth's abundance and our mastery of natural forces, and miraculous technique, with our commerce belting the earth and goods and services pouring from our stores, factories, ships and warehouses, why is it that nevertheless most human beings are starving to death, dying of preventable disease and too ignorant to know what is the matter, while a small minority are so rich that they cannot spend their income?

That is the problem which faces the world, and Russia was not the first to pose it, nor will she be the last to ask and demand answer. The 19th century said that this situation was inevitable and must always remain because of the natural inferiority of most men, the 20th century knows better. It says that there is food enough for all: that clothes and shelter for all can be provided: that most disease is preventable and that the overwhelming mass of human beings can be educated. That intelligence, health and decent comfort are not only possible but should be demanded, by all men planned by all states and made increasingly effective by all voters in each election.

But the powerful who today own the earth and the fulness thereof: who monopolize its industry and own its press and screen its news, have another answer: they order us to fight and idea: to "contain" and crush any dream of abolishing poverty, disease and ignorance: and to do this by organizing war, murder and destruction on any people who dare to try to plan plenty for all mankind. From the 19th century they attempt to take over imperialism to bribe the workers and thinkers of the most powerful countries by high wage and privilege to build a false and dishonest prosperity on the slavery and degradation--the low wage and disease of Africa and Asia and the islands of the sea, and to pay the price for this they demand that you, your sons and daughters in endless stream be murdered and crippled in endless wars.

This is why we are fighting or preparing to fight in Europe, Asia and Africa-- not against an enemy but against the idea--against the rising demand of the working classes of the world for better wage, decent housing, regular employment, medical service and schools for all.

It does not answer this world-wide demand to say that we of America have these things in greater abundance than the rest of the world, if our prosperity is based on or seeks to base itself on the exploitation and degradation of the rest of mankind. Remember it is American money that owns more and more of South African mines worked by slave labor: it is American enterprise that fattens off Rhodesian copper. It is American investors that seek to dominate China, India, Korea and Burma: that are throttling the starved workers of the Near East.

Yet is it not clear that such a program is sheer insanity? That no nation, however rich and smart can conquer this world? Have not Egypt, Assyra, Greece, Rome, Britain and Germany taught us this? And also that no idea based on truth and righteousness can ultimately be suppressed by force and murder?

I never thought I would live to see the day that free speech and freedom of opinion would be so throttled in the United States as it is today. Today in this free country, no man can be sure of earning a living, of escaping slander and personal violence: or even of keeping out of jail unless publicly and repeatedly he proclaims:

That he hates Russia.
That he opposes Socialism and Communism.
That he supports wholeheartedly the war in Korea.
That he is ready to spend any amount for further war anywhere or at anytime.
That he is ready to fight the Soviet Union, China and any other country, or all countries together.
That he believes in the use of the atom bomb or any other weapon of mass destruction and regards anyone opposed as a traitor.
That he not only believes in and consents to all these things but is willing to spy on his neighbors and denounce themif they do not believe as he does.

The mere statement of this creed shows its absolute insanity. What can be done to bring this nation to its senses? Most people answer: nothing: Just sit still : bend to the storm: if necessary, lit and join the witch-hunt, swear to God that never, never did y u ever sympathize with the Russain peasants fight to be free: that y u never in your life belonged to a liberal organization or had a friend who did: and if so, you were decieved, deluded and a damned fool.

But there are others who say: we can do something: that America needs no more cowards and liars. It needs honest men and that honest citizens who are mistaken are infinitely more patriotic than scoundrels who follow the [redacted]

We still have elections and we still have a secret ballot. If you do not want war, vote for men who will stop it. If you want the Bill of Rights restored to the Constitution you have the legal right to say so. In this Democracy, you still retain the right to help elect your lawmakers and executives. If you fail to exercise this right, you will suffer and you ought to suffer. Today the vast majority of the American people who are not crazy, do not want war. Most Americans hate the current witch-hunt. The only way to oppose war and the death of civil liberty is to elect officials who agree with you.

When I ask for your vote, believe me it is for no personal reasons. I do not want to live in Washington. I hate the provincial, "Jim-Crow" center of political graft. But you need to be represented there and by someone who will uphold the hands of that men of integrity, intelligence and guts, Marcantonio, who taday fights in Congress almost single-handed for a decent United States. I would like to have the honor of standing behind him because like him, I want progress: I want education: I want social medicine: I want a living wage and old age security: I want employment for all and relief for the unemployed and sick: I want public works, public services and public improvements: and because I know and you know that we cannot have these things and at the same time fight, destroy and kill all around the world in order to make huge profit for big business, for that reason, I take my stand beside the millions in every nation and continent and cry Peace--No More War!

A new era of power, held and exercised by the working classes the world over , is dawning and while its eventual form is not yet clear, its progress cannot be held back by any power of man.

Our present war expenditure must be increased, yet we cannot tax the rich much more since the tax laws (the lawyers who make them) also break them and let the bulk of wealth go untaxed. We cannot raise the taxes on the poor much higher because rising prises leave less and less to tax. Citizens ~~who~~ have borrowed 200 thousand million dollars on homes, farms and furniture and have spent nearly all the savings ~~of~~ the poor and middle class. Yet we cannot stop: either we spend more and more on top of what we are spending or our whole industrial organization with its billions of private profits + monopoly will face collapse. On the other hand the Soviet Union whom we are determined to distroy does not seem unwilling to ~~will not~~ fight. We have warned and dared ~~them~~ it. We have publicly and privately insulted ~~them~~ it. We have eagerly given currency to every charge which anyone at anytime makes against the union its economy, its morale, its plans. We thought that at last in Korea we had them where they must fight and we prepared for world war III almost with shouts of joy. ~~xxxx~~

(2) We ~~knew~~ the Russians had started the Korean uprising, were furnishing arms and marching to war. ~~[redacted]~~ Henry Wallace actually saw them and ~~rushed~~ ran [illegible] backward into ~~battle against them.~~ Still the Soviets ~~wouldn't~~ did not fight and began instead to call for world peace; for union against the atom bomb; for peace congresses. But the United States was not misled; not they stopped the peace appeal; they ~~jailed~~ locked up advocates of peace; they barred from our shores foreign advocates of peace even men of the highest reputation. We began slowly to declare that if the Russians would ~~not~~ not attack us we would attack them to keep them from attacking us. The Wild Man of Tokyo, who remembers shooting down Americans soldiers in Washington and who has just turned Korea into a stinking desert has received the president of the United States in audience, and whatever they talked about, the result was not if MacArthur has his way ~~peace~~ peace now or ever, until we seize China, ~~rescue~~ conquer southeast Asia and drop atom bombs on Moscow. Meantime wave after wave of our young men are being trained for murder and Congress is on the verge of training (callow) every youth in the land for tihs purpose. ~~With~~ Eisenhower we are set to "lick the World" with and Stassen the educators of youth, Dewey and Hanley the new statesmen; and Herbert Lehman ~~with~~ behind General Anders making our foreign investment stick with oil, planes, battle ships and artilery. We will restore Korea and when we are through restoration with taxes raised from our poor, Lehman brothers and like investors will own everything in Korea worth owning and will draw fabulous profits from risks they never took, while the Koreans pay for democracy with fifty cents a day and no land

This is what Europe sees us set for, in contradiction to everything we once rpofessed -- Liberty, Free speech, Truth and Justice. And this is what our masters will do unless you intervene; unless right here and now you the voters of the United States say No. Enough of this hysteria, this crazy foolishness.

RULE OF BRASS HATS IN OUR GOVERNMENT. LET US STOP THE ANTICS OF THE WILD MAN OF TOKIO, WHO IS DETERMINED OF HIS OWN WILL TO FIGHT CHINA AND RUSSIA AND EISENHOWER WHO DECLARES OPENLY IN PUBLIC HEARING: "WE CAN LICK THE WORLD," AND SNEERS AT SOCIAL SECURITY AS BELONGING TO JAIL-BIRDS.

THIS IS THE MUDDLED WORLD IN WHICH WE FIND OURSELVES TODAY. ITS BASIC PROBLEMS OF PROPERTY, WAGE, POWER AND PRIVILEGE ARE INCREASINGLY CLEAR. THE ANSWER TO THESE PROBLEMS IS NOT WAR; AND THE INTERESTS INVOLVED ARE NOT SIMPLY ~~NOR MAINLY~~ THE INTERESTS OF THE RICH, NOR OF INDUSTRY IN ITSELF. A NEW ERA OF POWER, HELD AND EXERCISED BY THE WORKING CLASSES THE WORLD OVER, IS DAWNING AND WHILE ITS EVENTUAL FORM IS NOT YET CLEAR, ITS PROGRESS CANNOT BE HELD BACK BY ANY POWER OF MAN.

THE WORLD IS ASTONISHED AT RECENT DEVELOPMENTS IN THE UNITED STATES. OUR ACTIONS AND ATTITUDES ARE DISCUSSED WITH PUZZLED WONDER ON THE STREETS OF EVERY CITY IN THE WORLD. RELUCTANTLY THE WORLD IS COMING TO BELIEVE THAT WE ACTUALLY WANT WAR: THAT WE MUST HAVE WAR: THAT IN NO OTHER WAY CAN WE KEEP OUR WORKERS EMPLOYED AND MAINTAIN HUGE PROFITS SAVE BY SPENDING 50 THOUSAND MILLION DOLLARS A YEAR FOR WAR PREPRATION AND ADDING TO THE VAST DEBT OF 218 THOUSAND MILLIONS WHICH WE ALREADY OWE CHIEFLY FOR WAR. OUR PRESENT WAR EXPENDITURE MUST BE INCREASED, YET WE CANNOT TAX THE RICH MUCH MORE SINCE THE LAWYERS WHO MAKE THE TAX LAWS CAN ALSO BREAK THEM AND LET THE BULK OF WEALTH GO UNTAXED. WE CANNOT RAISE THE TAXES ON THE POOR MUCH HIGHER BECAUSE RISING PRICES LEAVE LESS AND LESS TO TAX. CITIZENS HAVE BORROWED 200 THOUSAND MILLION DOLLARS ON HOMES , FARMS AND FURNITURE AND THE POOR AND MIDDLE CLASS HAVE SPENT NEARLY ALL THEIR SAVINGS. YET WE CANNOT STOP: EITHER WE SPEND MORE AND MORE ON TOP OF WHAT WE ARE SPENDING OR OUR WHOLE INDUSTRIAL ORGANIZATION WITH ITS BILLIONS OF PRIVATE PROFIT AND MONOPOLY WILL FACE COLLAPSE. ON THE OTHER HAND THE SOVIET UNION WHOM WE ARE DETERMINED TO DESTROY DOES NOT SEEM WILLING TO FIGHT. WE HAVE WARNED AND DARED IT. WE HAVE PUBLICLY AND PRIVATELY INSULTED IT. WE HAVE EAGERLY GIVEN CURRENCY TO EVERY CHARGE WHICH ANYONE AT ANYTIME MAKES AGAINST THE SOVIET UNION, ITS ECONOMY, ITS MORALS, ITS PLANS. WE THOUGHT THAT AT LAST IN KOREA WE HAD THEM WHERE THEY MUST FIGHT AND WE PREPARED FOR WORLD WAR III ALMOST WITH SHOUTS OF JOY.

36-12-30

WE WERE SURE THE RUSSIANS HAD STARTED THE KOREAN UPRISING, WERE FURNISHING ARMS AND READY TO MARCH TO WAR. HENRY WALLACE ACTUALLY SAW THEM AND RAN BACKWARD SO FAST THAT HE TRIPPED OVER HIS OWN RESOLUTIONS ~~AND STEPPED ON THE FACES OF HIS FRIENDS.~~ STILL THE SOVIETS DID NOT FIGHT AND BEGAN INSTEAD TO CALL ~~THEXENXXXR~~ FOR WORLD PEACE: FOR UNION AGAINST THE ATOM BOMB: FOR PEACE CONGRESSES. BUT THE UNITED STATES WAS NOT MISLED: NOT THEY. THEY STOPPED THE PEACE APPEAL: THEY PICKED UP AND

JAILED ADVOCATES OF PEACE: THEY BARRED FROM OUR SHORES FOREIGN ADVOCATES OF PEACE EVAN MEN OF THE HIGHEST REPUTATION.

Officials & generals

BEGAN OPENLY TO DECLARE THAT IF THE RUSSIANS WOULD NOT ATTACK US WE WOULD ATTACK THEM TO KEEP THEM FROM ATTACKING US. THE WILD MAN OF TOKYO WHO REMEMBERS SHOOTING DOWN ~~AMERICAN SOLDIERS~~ (WORLD WAR VETERANS) IN WASHINGTON AND WHO HAS JUST TURNED KOREA INTO A STINKING DESERT HAS RECEIVED THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES IN AUDIENCE, AND WHATEVER THEY TALKED ABOUT, THE RESULT, IF MACARTHUR HAS HIS WAY WAS NOT PEACE NOW OR EVER, UNTIL WE SEIZE CHINA, CONQUER SOUTHEAST ASIA AND DROP ATOM BOMBS ON MOSCOW. MEANTIME WAVE AFTER WAVE OF OUR YOUNG MEN ARE BEING TRAINED FOR MURDER AND CONGRESS IS ON THE VERGE OF CALLING EVERY YOUTH IN THE LAND FOR THIS PURPOSE. WE ARE SET TO "LICK THE WORLD" WITH EISENHOWER AND STASSEN, THE EDUCATORS OF YOUTH: DEWEY AND HANLEY THE NEW STATESMEN: AND HERBERT LAHMAN BEHIND GENERAL ANDERS MAKING OUR FOREIGN INVESTMENT STICK WITH OIL, PLANES, BATTLESHIPS AND

36-12-31

36-12-32

BUT

~~BET~~ OUR SLOW/STEADY DESCENT INTO BELIEF IN COMPLETE AND UNIVERSAL WAR AND OUR DETERMINATION TO MAKE ALL MEN THINK WHAT SOME BELIEVE IS TRUE, RATHER THAN TO LET THEM EXERCISE THEIR FREE AMERICAN HERITAGE OF CHOOSING TRUCH--THIS LITERAL DESCENT INTO HELL IN OUR DAY AND IN THIS OUR OWN COUNTRY, HAS BEEN SO GRADUAL AND COMPLETE THAT MANY HONEST AMERICANS

CANNOT BELIEVE WHAT THEY ACTUALLY HEAR AND SEE: AND SIT BEWILDERED, RUBBING THEIR EYES IN ORDER TO GET SOME VAGUE CONCEPTION OF WHAT CAN HAVE HAPPENED TO THE LAND WHICH ONCE DECLARED "THESE TRUTHS TO BE SELF EVIDENT THAT ALL MEN WERE CREATED EQUAL: THAT THEY WERE ENDOWED BY THEIR CREATOR WITH CERTAIN UNALIENABLE RIGHTS: THAT AMONG THESE ARE LIFE, LIBERTY AND THE PURSUIT OF HAPPINESS."

36-12-33

NO AMERICAN BORN BEFORE 1900, COULD POSSIBLY CONCEIVE THAT THE UNITED STATES WOULD BECOME A LAND APPROACHING UNIVERSAL MILITARY SERVICE: WITH ITS ARMED FORCES IN EVERY CONTINENT AND ON EVERY SEA, PLEDGED TO CONQUER AND CONTROL MASSES OF MANKIND, ORDER THE THOUGHT AND ACTION AND BELIEF OF THE NATIONS OF THE WORLD AND READY TO SPEND FOR THESE OBJECTS MORE MONEY THAN IT EVER SPENT FOR RELIGION, EDUCATION OR SOCIAL UPLIFT ALTOGETHER.

WHEN MEN ARISE AND SAY THIS AND TRY TO PROVE ITS TRUTH, EVERY EFFORT IS MADE BY SECRET POLICE, ORGANIZED SPIES AND HIRED INFORMERS: BY DELIBERATE

SUBVERSION OF THE FUNDAMENTAL PRINCIPLES OF OUR LAW, TO IMPRISON, SLANDER AND SILENCE SUCH PERSONS, AND DEPRIVE THEM OF EARNING AN HONEST LIVELIHOOD.

36-12-34

MY PLATFORM THEN, LIKE THE PLATFORM OF EVERY HONEST AMERICAN WHO STILL DARES BELIEVE IN PEACE AND FREEDOM, TAKES ITS UNALTERABLE STAND AGAINST WAR AND SLAVERY. IT WARNS ALL THINKING MEN THAT THE CAUSE OF OUR PRESENT FAILURE AND DISGRACE IS SHEER MASS INSANITY.

THERE WAS A DAY WHEN MOST MEN BELIVED THAT PROGRESS DEPENDED ON WAR: THAT BY WAR AND MAINLY BY WAR HAD MODERN MEN GAINED FREEDOM, RELIGION AND DEMOCRACY. WE BELIEVED THIS BECAUSE WE WERE TAUGHT THIS IN OUR LITERATURE AND SCIENCE, IN CHURCH AND SCHOOL, ON PLATFORM AND IN NEWSPAPER. IT WAS ALWAYS A LIE AND AS WAR HAS BECOME UNIVERSAL AND SO HORRIBLE AND DESTRUCTIVE THAT EVERYBODY RECOGNIZES IT AS MURDER, CRIPPLING, INSANITY AND STARK DEATH OF HUMAN CULTURE, WE REALIZE THAT THERE IS SCARCE A VICTORY FORMERLY CLAIMED BY WAR, WHICH MANKIND MIGHT NOT HAVE GAINED MORE CHEAPLY AND

MORE DECENTLY AND EVEN MORE COMPLETELY BY METHODS OF PEACE. IF THAT WAS TRUE IN THE PAST, IT ~~IS SO CLEAR AND INDUSPUTABLE~~ T DAY THAT NO SANE BEING DENIES IT. AND YET OF ALL NATIONS OF EARTH TODAY THE U ITED STATES ALONE WANTS WAR, PREPARES FOR WAR, FORCES OTHER NATIONS TO FIGHT AND ASKS YOU AND ME TO IMPOVERISH OURSELVES, GIVE UP HEALTH AND SCHOOLS, SACRIFICE OUR SONS AND DAUGHTERS TO A "JIM-CROW" ARMY AND COMMIT SUICIDE FOR A WORLD WAR THAT NOBODY WANTS BUT THE RICH AMERICANS WHO PROFIT BY IT.

36-12-35

IF WAR WERE A MATTER OF CAREFUL STUDY AND GRAVE DECISION: OF PRAYERFUL THOUGHT AND SOLEMN DELIBERATION WE MIGHT TAKE ITS FEARFUL OUTBREAK AS AT LEAST NO MORE THAN HUMAN ERROR, SOON TO BE STOPPED BY DECENCY AND COMMON-SENSE. BUT WHEN DID YOU EVER VOTE FOR WAR? YOU WHO HAVE SPENT MOST OF YOUR LIVES IN A FIGHTING, MURDERING WORLD? WHEN DID YOU EVER HAVE A CHANCE TO DECIDE THIS MATTER OF MAIMING AND MURDER? NEVER! AND YOU NEVER WILL AS LONG AS AN EXECUTIVE OF HIS OWN INITIATIVE CAN START A 'LITTLE POLICE ACTION' WHICH COSTS THE LIVES AND HEALTH OF 30,000 AMERICAN BOYS IN ORDER

THAT BIG BUSINESS CAN INTERFERE WITH THE GOVERNMENTS OF ASIA.

36-12-36

THAT THE CIVILIZED WORLD TODAY, NEAR 2000 YEARS AFTER THE BIRTH OF CHRISTIANITY NOT MENTIONING THOSE OLDER AND YOUNGER FAITHS WITH THEIR HIGH HOPES OF REASON AND LOVE OF HUMANITY, THAT THIS WORLD TODAY WITH ALL ITS TRIUMPHS WHICH ONCE WE GREETED WITH SHOUTS OF JOY--THAT THIS WORLD HAS GONE CRAZY, NO SANE MAN CAN FOR A MOMENT DENY.

BUT HE CAN PAUSE AND RESTING A MINUTE FROM HIS ATOM BOMBS, HIS HYDROGEN HORROR, HIS PROPAGANDA OF DISEASE OF BODY AND MIND, HIS MAD DESTRUCTION AND WILD WASTE OF THE WAGES OF THE POOR-PAUSE AND ASK IN THIS ELECTION SEASON, WHY? FOR GODS' SAKE, ~~WHY? WHAT ARE WE YELLING ABOUT?~~ OF WHAT ARE ~~WE~~ THEY IN SUCH DEATHLY FEAR? HAVE WE BEEN INVADED? HAS ANYONE DROPPED AN ATOM BOMB ON US? HAVE WE BEEN IMPOVERISHED OR ENSLAVED BY FOREIGNERS? IS OUR BUSINESS FAILING AND ARE OUR MILLIONAIRES DISAPPEARING? HAS THE RATE OF PROFIT GONE DOWN, IS OUR MACHINERY LESS CUNNING OR OUR NATURAL RESOURSES DESTROYED BY STRANGERS? IS THERE ANY SIGN THAT THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA IS VICTIM OR CAN BE VICTIM OF ANY FOREIGN COUNTRY? NO! THEN OF WHAT ARE WE AFRAID AND WHY ARE WE TRYING TO GUARD THE EARTH FROM PACIFIC TO ATLANTIC AND FROM THE NORTH TO THE SOUTH POLE, UNLESS IT BE FROM OURSELVES.

WE ARE AFRAID OF AN IDEA: WE ARE TEMPTED BY A VISION OF POWER WHICH THIS IDEA FIGHTS. THE POWER WE CRAVE LONG MISLED AND SLAUGHTERED THE PEOPLES OF EUROPE AND ASIA, AND NOW INSIDIOULSY CREEPS INTO OUR OWN FEVER-MAD HEADS, AND THAT IS IMPERIALISM--WORLD RULE OVER THE WORLD. ONCE THIS WAS SOUGHT BY BLACK SLAVERY: THEN IT WAS MADE EASY BY YELLOW COOLIES: THEN BY ALL "LESSER BREEDS WITHOUT THE LAW", WHO COULD FURNISH A WHITE MAN'S BURDEN AND LET HIM STRUT OVER THE WORLD AND LORD IT IN ASIA AND AFRICA AND RULE AND RULE WORLD WITHOUT END, FOREVER AND FOREVER. THAT WAS THE VISION OF THE 19th CENTURY. THE FEVER OF IMPERIALISM CAUGHT THE UNITED STATES AS THE 19th CENTURY DIED AND WE CHOKED A FEW ISLANDS OUT OF DYING SPAIN.

BUT THESE WERE BUT SMALL CHANGE WHICH WHETTED OUR APPETITE. WITH THE FIRST WORLD WAR CAME THE VISION OF AM IMPERIAL UNITED STATES AS SUCCESSOR OF THE EMPIRE ON WHICH THE SUN ALREADY SETS, WE RUSHED SO MADLY AT THE SPOILS LEFT BY EUROPEAN EMPIRE THAT WE BROUGHT DOWN OUR WHOLE INDUSTRIAL SYSTEM ABOUT OUR OWN EARS.

IT WOULD SEEM THAT THE MEMORY OF THE GREAT DEPRESSION OF THE THIRTIES WOULD CONVINCE ALL THINKING MEN THAT WAR IS NOT THE PATH TO THE MILLENIUM AND THAT WHAT WE NEED IS REFORM OF OUR OWN SYSTEM OF WORK AND INDUSTRIAL ORGANIZATION, BEFORE WE ATTEMPT TO TEACH THE WORLD WHAT TO THINK OR HOW TO LIVE.

INSTEAD OF THAT, WE WERE CONVINCED THAT THE PATH FORWARD WAS BACKWARD TO THE IMPERIALISM WHICH [redacted] HAD JUST FAILED IN EUROPE AND CAUSED THE WORST MODERN CATASTROPHE WHICH WAS THE FIRST WORLD WAR. THEN MEN WHO CONTROLLED THIS NATION, THROUGH OWNERSHIP OF CAPITAL AND CONTROL OF NATURAL RESOURCES NOW ADDED THE VAST POWER OF A PRESS, AND RADIO MONOPOLIZED BY ORGANIZED WEALTH TO CONVINCE AMERICANS THAT RESTORATION OF PEACE AND PROSPERITY DEPENDED ON OUR MASTERY OF THE CHEAP LABOR AND BASIC RAW MATERIAL, OF THE WORLD AND THE DIRECTION OF INDUSTRY IN AFRICA, ASIA AND THE ISLANDS OF THE SEAS IN ACCORD WITH OUR SYSTEM OF ECONOMIC ORGANIZATION.

BUT WHAT BIG BUSINESS IGNORED IN OUR THINKING WAS THAT THE INDUSTRIAL SYSTEM WHICH WE WERE SEEKING TO RE-INSTALL HAD ALREADY MET A TERRIBLE AND COSTLY REVERSE: THAT MODIFICATIONS OF IMPERIALISM AND MONOPLOY CAPITALISM HAD ALREADY BEEN SUGGESTED AND TRIED. SUCH EFFORTS COMPREHENDED LOOSELY BY THE NAME "SOCIALISM", WERE NOT INVENTED BY RUSSIA NOR FIRST TRIED BY RUSSIA. ON THE CONTRARY, SOCIALISM IS AN ENGLISH, FRENCH AND GERMAN CONCEPTION AND WAS TRIED IN RUSSIA BECAUSE THAT UNHAPPY LAND WAS ONE OF THE LAST AND WORST VICTIMS OF THE CAPITALIST SYSTEM.

IF TOMORROW RUSSIA DISAPPEARED FROM THE FACE OF THE EARTH, THE BASIC PROBLEM FACING THE MODERN WORLD WOULD REMAIN: AND THAT IS: WHY IS IT, WITH THE EARTH'S ABUNDANCE AND OUR MASTERY OF NATURAL FORCES, AND MIRACULOUS TECHNIQUE, WITH OUR COMMERCE BELTING THE EARTH AND GOODS AND SERVICES POURING FROM OUR STORES, FACTORIES, SHIPS AND WAREHOUSES, WHY IS IT THAT NEVERTHELESS MOST HUMAN BEINGS ARE STARVING TO DEATH, DYING OF PREVENTABLE DISEASE AND TOO IGNORANT TO KNOW WHAT IS THE MATTER, WHILE A SMALL MINORITY ARE SO RICH THAT THEY CANNOT SPEND THEIR INCOME?

36-12-40

THAT IS THE PROBLEM WHICH FACES THE WORLD, AND RUSSIA WAS NOT THE FIRST TO POSE IT, NOR WILL SHE BE THE LAST TO ASK AND DEMAND ANSWER. THE 19TH CENTURY SAID THAT THIS SITUATION WAS INEVITABLE AND MUST ALWAYS REMAIN BECAUSE OF THE NATURAL INFERIORITY OF MOST MEN, THE 20TH CENTURY KNOWS BETTER. IT SAYS THAT THERE IS FOOD ENOUGH FOR ALL: THAT CLOTHES AND

SHELTER FOR ALL CAN BE PROVIDED: THAT MOST DISEASE IS PREVENTABLE AND THAT THE OVERWHELMING MASS OF HUMAN BEINGS CAN BE EDUCATED. THAT INTELLIGENCE HEALTH AND DECENT COMFORT ARE NOT ONLY POSSIBLE BUT SHOULD BE DEMANDED, BY ALL MEN PLANNED BY ALL STATES AND MADE INCREASINGLY EFFECTIVE BY ALL VOTERS IN EACH ELECTION.

BUT THE POWERFUL WHO TODAY RULE THE EARTH AND THE FULNESS THEREOF: WHO MONOPOLIZE ITS INDUSTRY AND OWN ITS PRESS AND SCREEN ITS NEWS, HAVE ANOTHER ANSWER: THEY ORDER US TO FIGHT AN IDEA: TO "CONTAIN" AND CRUSH ANY DREAM OF ABOLISHING POVERTY, DISEASE AND IGNORANCE: AND TO DO THIS BY ORGANIZING WAR, MURDER AND DESTRUCTION ON ANY PEOPLE WHO DARE TO TRY TO PLAN PLENTY FOR ALL MANKIND. FROM THE 19th CENTURY THEY ATTEMPT TO TAKE OVER IMPERIALISM TO BRIBE THE WORKERS AND THINKERS OF THE MOST POWERFUL COUNTRIES BY HIGH WAGE AND PRIVILEGE TO BUILD A FALSE AND DISHONEST PROSPERITY ON THE SLAVERY AND DEGRADATION--THE LOW WAGE AND DISEASE OF AFRICA AND

ASIA AND THE ISLANDS OF THE SEA, AND TO PAY THE PRICE FOR THIS THEY DEMAND THAT YOU, YOUR SONS AND DAUGHTERS IN ENDLESS STREAM BE MURDERED AND CRIPPLED IN ENDLESS WARS, SO THAT THE PROFITS OF EUROPEAN AND AMERICAN BUSINESS MAY MOUNT TO FABULOUS SUMS, WHILE TAXATION IS LAID ON WASHERWOMEN AND LABORERS: ON CLERKS AND STENOGRAPHERS, WHILE MILLIONAIRES AND RICH CORPORATION AVOID ALL REAL BURDERN.

36-12-42

THIS IS WHY WE ARE FIGHTING OR PREPARING TO FIGHT IN EUROPE, ASIA AND AFRICA--NOT AGAINST AN ENEMY BUT AGAINST THE IDEA--AGAINST THE RISING DEMAND OF THE WORKING CLASSES OF THE WORLD FOR BETTER WAGE, DECENT HOUSING, REGULAR EMPLOYMENT, MEDICAL SERVICE AND SCHOOLS FOR ALL.

IT DOES NOT ANSWER THIS WORLD-WIDE DEMAND TO SAY THAT WE OF AMERICA HAVE THESE THINGS IN GREATER ABUNDANCE THAN THE REST OF THE WORLD. IF OUR PROSPERITY IS BASED OR SEEKS TO BASE ITSELF ON THE EXPLOITATION AND DEGRADATION OF THE REST OF MANKIND. REMEMBER IT IS AMERICAN MONEY

THAT OWNS MORE AND MORE OF SOUTH AFRICAN MINES WORKED BY SLAVE LABOR: IT IS AMERICAN ENTERPRISE THAT FATTENS OFF OF RHODESIAN COPPER. IT IS AMERICAN INEVSTORS THAT SEEK TO DOMINATE CHINA, INDIA, KOREA AND BURMA: THAT ARE THROTTLING THE STARVED WORKERS OF THE NEAR EAST.

WE WERE AT WAR YESTERDAY: WE ARE AT WAR TODAY: WE WILL BE AT WAR TOMORROW BECAUSE BIG BUSINESS WANTS WAR AND BUILDS ITS PROFITS, DIRECT AND INDIRECT ON WAR, ON THE ATTEMPT TO MURDER ALL WHO WANT PEACE AND ABUNDANCE.

YET IS IT NOT CLEAR THAT SUCH A PROGRAM IS SHEER INSANITY? THAT NO NATION, HOWEVER RICH AND SMART CAN CONQUER THIS WORLD? HAVE NOT EGYPT, ASSYRIA, GREECE, ROME, BRITAIN AND GERMANY TAUGHT US THIS? AND ALSO THAT NO IDEA BASED ON TRUTH AND RIGHTEOUSNESS CAN ULTIMATELY BE SUPPRESSED BY FORCE AND MURDER?

THE WORLD WANTS PEACE. IT MUST HAVE PEACE OR CIVILIZATION WILL DIE. EVERYTHING THAT WAR BY ANY IMAGINATION COULD POSSIBLY GAIN FOR MANKIND HAS BEEN SOUGHT BY THREE WARS OF SUCH COLLOSAL COST IN DEATH AND DESTRUCTION

THAT EVERY SANE SOUL IS SIMPLY APPALLED BY THE RESULT. YET WE ARE NOT ONLY ARMING FOR MORE AND GREATER WAR BUT DRIVEN BY THE FURIES ARE TRYING TO SHUT THE MOUTHS AND STIFLE THE CONSCIENCES OF ALL OR ANY WHO DARE SPEAK FOR PEACE.

36-12-44

I NEVER THOUGHT I WOULD LIVE TO SEE THE DAY THAT FREE SPEECH AND FREEDOM OF OPINION WOULD BE SO THROTTLED IN THE UNITED STATES AS IT IS TODAY. TODAY IN THIS FREE COUNTRY, NO MAN CAN BE SURE OF EARNING A LIVING OF ESCAPING SLANDER AND PERSONAL VIOLENCE: OR EVEN OF KEEPING OUT OF JAIL UNLESS PUBLICLY AND REPEATEDLY HE PROCLAIMS:

THAT HE HATES RUSSIA

THAT HE OPPOSES SOCIALISM AND COMMUNISM

THAT HE SUPPORTS WHOLEHEARTEDLY THE WAR IN KOREA

THAT HE IS READY TO SPEND ANY AMOUNT FOR FURTHER WAR ANYWHERE OR AT ANYTIME.

THAT HE IS READY TO FIGHT THE SOVIET UNION, CHINA AND ANY OTHER COUNTRY.

THAT HE BELIEVES IN THE USE OF THE ATOM BOMB OR ANY OTHER WEAPON OF MASS DESTRUCTION AND REGARDS ANYONE WHO IS OPPOSED AS A TRAITOR.

THAT HE NOT ONLY BELIEVES IN AND CONSENTS TO ALL THESE THINGS, BUT IS WILLING TO SPY ON HIS NEIGHBORS AND DENOUNCE THEM IF THEY DO NOT BELIEVE AS HE DOES.

36-12-45

THE MERE STATEMENT OF THIS CREED SHOWS ITS ABSOLUTE INSANITY. WHAT CAN BE DONE TO BRING THIS NATION TO ITS SENSES? MOST PEOPLE ANSWER: NOTHING: JUST SIT STILL: BEND TO THE STORM: IF NECESSARY, LIE AND JOIN THE WITCH-HUNT SWEAR TO GOD THAT NEVER, NEVER DID YOU EVER SYMPATHIZE WITH THE RUSSIAN PEASANTS FIGHT TO BE FREE: THAT YOU NEVER IN YOUR LIFE BELONGED TO A LIBERAL ORGANIZATION OR HAD A FRIEND WHO DID: AND IF SO, YOU WERE DECEIVED, DELUDED AND A DAMNED FOOL.

BUT THERE ARE OTHERS WHO SAY: WE CAN DO SOMETHING: THAT AMERICA NEEDS NO MORE COWARDS AND LIARS. IT NEEDS HONEST MEN AND THAT HONEST

CITIZENS WHO ARE MISTAKEN ARE INFINITELY MORE PATRIOTIC THAN SCOUNDRELS WHO FOLLOW THE HERD.

36-12-46

WE STILL HAVE ELECTION AND WE STILL HAVE A SECRET BALLOT. IF YOU DO NOT WANT WAR, VOTE FOR MEN WHO WILL STOP IT. IF YOU WANT THE BILL OF RIGHTS RESTORED TO THE CONSTITUTION YOU HAVE THE LEGAL RIGHT TO SAY SO. IN THIS DEMOCRACY, YOU STILL RETAIN THE RIGHT TO HELP ELECT YOUR LAWMAKERS AND EXECUTIVES. IF YOU FAIL TO EXERCISE THIS RIGHT, YOU WILL SUFFER AND YOU OUGHT TO SUFFER. TODAY THE VAST MAJORITY OF THE AMERICAN PEOPLE WHO ARE NOT CRAZY, DO NOT WANT WAR. MOST AMERICANS HATE THE CURRENT WITCH-HUNT. THE ONLY WAY TO OPPOSE WAR AND THE DEATH OF CIVIL LIBERTY IS TO ELECT OFFICIALS WHO AGREE WITH YOU.

WHEN I ASK FOR YOUR VOTE BELIEVE ME IT IS FOR NO PERSONAL REASONS. I DO NOT WANT TO LIVE IN WASHINGTON. I HATE THAT PROVINCIAL, "JIM-CROW"

36-12-47

CENTER OF POLITICAL LOBBYING. BUT YOU NEED TO BE REPRESENTED THERE AND BY SOMEONE WHO WILL UPHOLD THE HANDS OF THAT MAN OF INTEGRITY, INTELLIGENCE AND GUTS, MARCANTONIO, WHO TODAY FIGHTS IN CONGRESS ALMOST SINGLE-HANDED FOR A DECENT UNITED STATES. I WOULD LIKE TO HAVE THE HONOR OF STANDING BEHIND HIM BECAUSE LIKE HIM, I WANT PROGRESS: I WANT EDUCATION: I WANT SOCIAL MEDICINE: I WANT A LIVING WAGE AND OLD AGE SECURITY: I WANT EM-PLOYMENT PLOYMENT FOR ALL AND RELIEF FOR THE UNEMPLOYED AND SICK: I WANT PUBLIC WORKS, PUBLIC SERVICES AND PUBLIC IMPROVEMENTS: AND BECAUSE I KNOW AND YOU KNOW THAT WE CANNOT HAVE THESE THINGS AND AT THE SAME TIME FIGHT DESTROY AND KILL ALL AROUND THE WORLD IN ORDER TO MAKE HUGE PROFIT FOR BIG BUSINESS, FOR THAT REASON, I TAKE MY STAND BESIDE THE MILLIONS IN EVERY NATION AND CONTINENT AND CRY PEACE--NO MORE WAR! NO MORE RULE OF BRASS HATS IN OUR GOVERNMENT. LET US STOP THE ANTICS OF THE WILD MAN OF TOKYO, WHO IS DETERMINED OF HIS OWN WILL TO FIGHT CHINA AND RUSSIA AND OF EISENHOWER

36-12-48

WHO DECLARES OPENLY IN PUBLIC HEARING: "WE CAN LICK THE WORLD." AND SNEERS AT SOCIAL SECURITY AS BELONGING TO JAIL-BIRDS.

THIS IS THE MUDDLED WORLD IN WHICH WE FIND OURSELVES TODAY. ITS BASIC PROBLEMS OF PROPERTY, WAGE, POWER AND PRIVILEGE ARE INCREASINGLY CLEAR: THE ANSWER TO THESE PROBLEMS IS NOT WAR: AND THE INTERESTS INVOLVED ARE NOT SIMPLY THE INTERESTS OF THE RICH, NOR OF INDUSTRY IN ITSELF. A NEW ERA OF POWER, HELD AND EXERCISED BY THE WORKING CLASSES THE WORLD OVER, IS DAWNING AND WHILE ITS EVENTUAL FORM IS NOT YET CLEAR, ITS PROGRESS CANNOT BE HELD BACK BY ANY POWER OF MAN.

alone wants war, prepares for war, forces other nations to fight and asks you and me to impoverish ourselves, give up health and schools, sacrifice our sons and daughters to a Jim-crow army and comm t suicide for a world war that nobody wants but the rich Americans who profit by it.

If war were a matter of careful study and grave decision; of prayerful thought and solem deliberation we might take its fearful outbreak as at least no more than human error, soon to be stopped by decency and commonsense. But when did you ever vote for war? You who have spent most of your lives in a fighting, murdering world? When did you ever have a chance to decide this matter of maiming and murder? Never! And you neverwill as long as an executive on his own initiative can start a little 'police action' which costs the lives and health of 20,000 American boys in order that big business can interfere into the governments of Asia and reap millions.

This is the muddled world in which we find outselves today. Its basic problems of property, wage, power and privilege are increasingly clear: the answer to these problems is not war: and the interests involved are not simply nor mainly the interests of the rich, nor of industry in itself. A new era of power, held and exercised by the working classes the world over, is dawning and while its eventual form is not yet clear, its progress cannot be held back by any power of man.

35-6-167

I want progress: I want education: I want social medicine: I want a living wage and old age security: I want employment for all and relief for the unemployed and sick: I want public works, public services and public improvements: and because I know and you know that we cannot have these things and at the same time fight, destroy and kill all around the workd in order to make huge profit for big business, for that reason, I take my stand beside the millions in every nation and continent and cry Peace--No more war! No more rule of Brass hats in our government. Let us stop the antics of the wild man of Tokio, who is determined of his own will to fight China and Russia and of Eisenhower who declares openly in public hearing "We can lick the world." and sneers at Social Security as belonging to Karl Marx

35-6-161

There was a day when most men believed that progress depended on war: that by war and mainly by war had modern men gained freedom, religion and democracy We believed this because we were taught this in our literature and science, in church and school, on platform and in newspaper. It was always a lie and as war has become universal and so horrible and destructive that everybody recognizes it as murder, crippling, insanity and stark death of human culture, we realize that there is scare a victory formerly claimed by war, which mankind might not have gained more cheaply and more decently and even more completely by methods of peace. If that was true in the past, it is so clear and indisputable today that no sane being denies it. And yet of all nations of earth today the United States

CHANGED THE WHOLE COURSE OF OUR CULTURE. // WE ARE BEGINNING TO SEE WHAT CHEMISTRY IS DOING TO OUR EVERY DAY LIFE AND OUR FUTURE PLANS. // BUT FEW PERSONS YET REALIZE WHAT THE SCIENTIFIC STUDY OF OUR THOUGHT PROCESSES AND EMOTIONS IS DOING FURTHER TO TRANSFORM THE WORLD.

WE BEGAN TO GET SOME INKLING OF THIS WHEN AT THE DAWN OF THE CENTURY THE PUBLIC RELATIONS MAN BEGAN TO APPEAR. // WE AT FIRST LAUGHED AT PSYCHOLOGY IN LABOR RELATIONS AND IN PUBLICITY. // I REMEMBER HOW I AWOKE WHEN WE WANTED TO HOLD THE ANNUAL CONVENTION OF THE NAACP IN ATLANTA. // "BUT," SAID EVERYBODY, "WE CAN GET NO PUBLICITY IN THE SOUTHERN PRESS." WE HIRED A PUBLIC RELATIONS MAN AND GOT FRONT PAGE WRITE-UPS IN THE ATLANTA CONSTITUTION.

WITH THE FIRST WORLD WAR, WE BEGAN TO USE CAMOUFLAGE AND PROPAGANDA: TO MAKE THINGS LOOK LIKE WHAT THEY WERE NOT, AND TO PERSUADE THE PUBLIC TO DO THINGS THEY WOULD NOT HAVE DONE UNDER ORDINARY CIRCUMSTANCES. ~~THE SAME OF [illegible] PUT OVER IN THIS WAY.~~ // BUT IN THESE CASES WE WERE MAINLY

CONCERNED IN REVEALING TRUTH AND MANIPULATING IT TO ENDS WHICH WE WERE CONVINCED WERE JUSTIFIABLE. // HERE LAY THE STRENGTH OF FRANKLIN ROOSEVELT. 1936, WHEN THE HITLER MACHINE HAD GAINED ITS FULL IMPETUS. IT WAS NOT THE SAME LAND. GERMANY BELIEVED THE WORLD WAS ENVIOUS OF HER BECAUSE SHE WAS THE GREATEST PEOPLE ON EARTH; THAT TRAITORS WITHIN WERE BETRAYING HER: THAT RUSSIA MUST BE CONQUERED AND THAT EVENTUALLY GERMANY WAS DESTINED TO RULE THE WORLD.

THEY BELIEVED THIS BECAUSE THEY HAD TO BELIEVE IT; IT WAS BLAZONED IN EVERY NEWSPAPER AND MAGAZINE; BLARED FROM EVERY RADIO AND PLATFORM; AND ANY-ONE WHO THOUGHT DIFFERENTLY, MUCH LESS VOICED SUCH THOUGHTS WAS IN DANGER OF JAIL OR WORSE. WHEN PEOPLE SPOKE TO EACH OTHER ON THE STREET, THEY FIRST GLANCED OVER THEIR SHOULDER: AND WHEN THEY TALKED FREELY, IT WAS BEHIND CLOSED DOORS, WITH DRAWN CURTAINS AND LOWERED VOICE. AND TO ME IT IS INTERESTING TODAY IN THE UNITED STATES TO SEE THE SAME SYMPTOMS.

YESTERDAY IN AN ELEVATOR A PROMINENT CITIZEN TOLD ME HE HOPED

45-7-66

I WOULD BE ELECTED; BUT BEFORE SAYING IT, HE GLANCED ABOUT, LOWERED HIS VOICE AND PUT HIS HAND TO MY EAR. IN THE UNITED STATES TODAY PEOPLE ARE AFRAID TO TALK, AFRAID TO LISTEN, AFRAID TO READ ANYTHING BUT ORTHODOX AND CERTIFIED PROPAGANDA. THE REASON FOR THIS IS CLEAR; ORGANIZED BUSINESS IN THE UNITED STATES LOOKS TO FOREIGN INVESTMENT AND TRADE AS SOURCE OF THE WEALTH AND POWER WHICH THEY NOW EXERCISE IN THE WORLD AND EXPECT TO INCREASE TO ALL-EMBRACING AREAS TOMORROW. TO CONVINCE THE VOTERS THAT THIS IS NCESSARY, AND ADVANTAGEOUS TO ALL, THEY HAVE ORGANIZED TO CONTROL OUR CHANCE TO KNOW THE FACTS. THEY HAVE BOUGHT UP THE MAGAZINES AND NEWSPAPERS; THEY CONTROL THE RADIO: YOU CANNOT GET A COMMENTATOR ON WORLD NEWS ON THE RADIO TODAY UNLESS HE IS SELECTED AND PAID BY A MANUFACTURER OF HAIR OIL OR CIGARETTES OR SOME PROFIT-MAKING ARTICLE AND UNLESS THIS SAME BUSINESS MAN CENSORS EVERY WORD THE COMMENTATOR UTTERS; [redacted]

TALK AND PICK A STOOGE TO REPRESENT THE OPPOSITION.

OUR WORLD NEWS GATHERERS, WITH FEW EXCEPTIONS, SCREEN OUT AND SUPPRESS NEWS OR SLANT IT ACCORDING TO EDITORIAL DIRECTION. A NEW MORALITY HAS GRIPPED OUR REPORTERS AND COLUMNISTS. THEY WRITE NOT WHAT THEY THINK BUT WHAT THEY ARE TOLD TO WRITE AND THIS IS RECOGNIZED NEWSPAPER ETHICS. JUST AS GHOST WRITING FOR ILLITERATE GOVERNMENT OFFICIALS AND CAPTAINS OF INDUSTRY IS ACCEPTED AS NORMAL PROCEDURE WITHOUT QUESTION. THE NET RESULT TODAY IS CLEAR: THE AMERICAN PUBLIC ~~BELIEVE~~ IS NOT GETTING THE TRUTH NOR IS IT ALLOWED TO GET IT. WE GET SUCH NEWS AND PICTURES, SUCH MOVIES AND TELEVISION AS THE OWNERS OF ORGANIZED INDUSTRY WANT US TO GET.

Slel

WE ~~BELIEVE~~ ARE TOLD THAT THE SOVIET UNION IS A SLAVE STATE; THAT THE BALKANS ARE IN MISERY AND INCIPIENT REBELLION; THAT COMMUNISM IS SET TO CONQUER THE WORLD BY FORCE; THAT SOCIALISM IS EVERYWHERE FAILING. WE RECEIVE AS GOSPEL THE TALES OF EVERY DISPOSSESSED LANDLORD FROM POLAND; OF EVERY OUSTED PROFITEER FROM CZECHOSLOVAKIA OR BULGARIA; OF EVERY SPY OF INFORMER ~~THAT~~ WHO WILL TAKE OUR BRIBES. PARTICULARLY HAVE WE PUT FORTH EVERY EFFORT TO MAKE THE VERY NAME COMMUNIST ODIOUS, CONNOTING EVERY VILLIANY SO THAT ~~IT~~ the world HAS ONLY TO BE ~~RAISED~~ spoken TO INSPIRE FEAR AND HATRED. EMPLOYERS USING WELL-KNOWN TECHNIQUE HAVE SUCCEEDED IN TURNING THE ENERGIES OF TRADES UNIONS TOWARD INTERNAL BICKERING INSTEAD OF UNITED EFFORT FOR LABOR UPLIFT. SO THAT TODAY WILLIAM GREEN AND PHIL MURRAY ARE WASTING THEIR STRENGTH IN DRIVING THE MOST INTELLIGENT AND COURAGEOUS OF THEIR FOLLOWERS OUT OF THEIR RANKS AND BRANDING THEM AS TRAITORS.

YEARS AGO A GREAT PHILOSOPHER SAID THAT PATRIOTISM WAS THE LAST REFUGE OF SCOUNDRELS. SO TODAY WITH HURRAH AND FREEDOM BELLS AND $5,000 A PAGE ADVERTISEMENTS, PAID PROPAGANDA HAS THE NATION IN DITHERS. THE TRUTH IS HIDDEN AND UNATTAINABLE. "EVERY LOYAL AMERICAN DESPISES A COMMUNIST," SHRIEKS THE NEW REPUBLIC WHICH WAS FOUNDED BY A CLASSMATE OF MINE WHO TODAY WOULD

FEW SCHOOLS AND COLLEGES DARE TEACH ECONOMICS, OR EVEN MENTION KARL MARX WHOSE INFLUENCE ON THE MODERN WORLD EXCEEDS THAT OF ANY OTHER STUDENT OF INDUSTRY; MANY LIBRARIES HIDE MOST OF THE BEST LITERATURE OF THE WORLD ON WORK AND WAGE LEST THEY BE ACCUSED OF SPREADING SOCIALISM. FEW COLLEGE PLATFORMS OR EVEN CAMPUSES DARE INVITED REAL DISCUSSION OF CURRENT ISSUES AND NO STUDENT WOULD BETTER PRESS INCONVENIENT QUESTIONS.

NO BOOK TODAY CAN FIND PUBLICATION THAT DOES NOT DAMN COMMUNISM. I OFFERED TO A PROMINENT FIRM A BOOK BASED ON THREE VISITS TO RUSSIA IN A QUARTER OF A CENTURY AND CAREFUL COMPARISON OF THE SOVIETS AND AMERICA. IT CAME BACK WITHIN A WEEK. ALL CHILDREN MUST LEARN THAT "GOD'S COUNTRY" WAS ALWAYS RIGHT AND NEVER

BROADCAST, OCTOBER 26, 1950

Most Americans are puzzled at the state of mind in this nation today. They try to explain it as the usual case of people coming to know the facts of the world situation and reacting accordingly with symptoms of alarm and determination to repel evil at any cost . But this understandable reaction does not seem to explain our situation adequately: there is no proof that the Soviet Union started or wanted the Korean War or furnished substantial aid to North Korea; there is no proof that the Soviets helped the Chinese drive out Chiang Kai-Shek, or are the cause of the war in Viet-Nam. However much some suspect that these occurences are at least indirectly chargeable to the Soviets, nothing that can fairly be called proof has ever been adduced.

There is of course no doubt but that the Soviet Union wants Communism to spread, just as we want private profit to dominate, but the Soviets have helped their ideology no more than we have and furnished less arms and money for this purpose. A fair conclusion is that the Korean advanture was started against Russian advice and was not to their interest, unless they planned world war which evidently they didn't.

Puzzled folk then ask why are we scared, who is about to attack us, and why should we arm ourselves to the teeth, set out to convert our economy into the vastest war machine in history? The answer to this is, that our present state of mind is not the usual development of fact into action, but a new and unusual situation in human history, requiring new education and understanding and a different set of efforts to emancipate our minds and calm our emotions.

What we face today is not Truth, but deliberate distortion of Truth and Feeling, and consequently action based on falsehood. The possibility of this arises from a relatively new development of Science, the meaning of which has not yet sifted down to public comprehension. All men today know what the Science of Physics has done to the world and how through the machine it has changed the whole course of our culture. We are beginning to see what Chemistry is doing to our every day life and our future plans. But few persons yet realize what the scientific study of our thought processes and emotions is doing further to transform the world.

We began to get some inkling of this when at the dawn of the century the Public Relations man began to appear. We at first laughed at psychology in Labor Relations and in Publicity. I remember how I awoke when we wanted to hold the annual convention of the NAACP in Atlanta. "But", said everybody, we can get no publicity in the Southern press!" We hired a public relations man and got front page write-ups in the Atlanta Constitution .

With the First World War, we began to use camouflage and propaganda: to make things look like what they were not, and to pursuade the public to do things they would not have done under ordinary circumstances. The sale of Liberty Bonds was put over in this way. But in these cases we were mainly concerned in revealing Truth and manipulating it to ends which we were convinced were justifiable. Here lay the strength of Franklin Roosevelt. Speaking straight to the people and ignoring press and platform, he told the nation what the facts were and what they ought to do about them. The people believed him and put over the Socialism of the New Deal in spite of the Screams and curses of Big Business. To this day, Big Business hates his memory.

But even while Roosevelt was putting over this appeal direct to the people with Truth and a program of action, in another part of the world, a perverted psychopath Adolf Hitler, was using propaganda with a reversal of technique and a different object. Hitler used the Lie instead of the Truth and made the people either believe it was true, or get so scared that they dare not deny it. I knew Germany in youth and then saw it for five months in 1936, when the Hitler machine had gained its full impetus. It was not the same land. Germany believed the world was envious of her because she was the greatest people on earth; that traitors within were betraying her; that Russia must be conquered and that eventually Germany was destined to rule the world.

They believed this because they had to believe it: it was blazoned in every newspaper and magazine; blared from every radio and platform; and anyone who thought differently, much less voiced such thought, was in danger of jail or worse. When people spoke to each other on the street, they first glanced over their shoulder; and when they talked freely, it was behind closed doors, with drawn curtains and lowered voice. And to me it is interesting ~~that~~ today in the United States ~~there are~~ to see the same symptoms.

Yesterday in an elevator a prominent Republican told me he hoped I would be elected; but before saying it, he glanced about, lowered his voice and put his hand to my ear. In the United States today people are afraid to talk, afraid to listen, afraid to read anything but orthodox and certified propaganda. The reason for this is clear: organized business in the United States looks to foreign investment and trade as source of the wealth and power which they now exercise in the world, and expect to increase to all-embracing areas tomorrow. To convince the voters that this is necessary, and advantageous to all, they have organized to control our chance to know the facts. They have bought up the magazines and newspapers; they control the radio: you cannot get a commentator on world news on the radio today, unless he is selected and paid by a manufacturer of hair oil or cigarettes or some profit-making article, and unless this same business-man censors every word the commentator utters; our advertised "Town Halls" permit only one side to talk and pick a stooge to represent the opposition.

Our world news gatherers with few exceptions, ~~screen~~ screen out and suppress news or slant it according to editorial direction. A new morality has gripped our reporters and columnists; they write not what they think but what they are told to write and this is recognized newspaper ethics; just as ghost writing for illiterate govvernment officials and captains of industry is accepted as normal procedure without question. The net result today is clear:

the American public today is not getting the truth nor is it allowed to get it. We get such news and picutres, such movies and television as the owners of organized industry want us to get.

We believe that the Soviet Union is a slave state; that the Balkans are in misery and incipient rebellion; that communism is set to conquer the world by force; that socialism is everywhere failing. We receive as gospel the tales of every dispossessed landlord from Poland; of every ousted profiteer from Czechoslovakia or Bulgaria; of every spy or informer that will take our bribes. Particularly have we put forth every effort to make the very name Communist odious, connoting every villiany, so that it has only to be raised to inspire fear and hatred. Employers using well-known technique have succeeded in turning the energies of trades unions toward internal bickering instead of united effort for labor uplift; so that today William Green and Phil Murray are wasting their strength in driving the most intelligent and courageous of their followers out of their ranks and branding them as traitors.

Years ago a great philosopher said that patriotism was the last refuge of scoundrels; so today with hurrah and freedom bells and $5000 a page advertisements, paid propaganda has the nation in dithers. The truth is hidden and unattainable. "Every loyal American despises a Communist" shreiks the New Republic which was founded by a classmate of mine, who today would turn in his grave if he could read the depths to which a so-called liberal journal could descend.

Our schools and colleges dare not teach economics, dare not even mention Karl Marx whose influence on the modern world exceeds that of any other student of industry; and our libraries hide most of the best literature of the world on work and wage, lest they be accused of spreading socialism. Few college platforms or even campuses dare invite real discussion of current issues and no student would better press inconvenient questions.

No book today can find publication that does not damn Communism. I offered to a prominent firm a book based on three visits to Russia in a quarter of a century and careful comparison of the Soviets and America. It came back within a week. If I had slandered and lied my work would now be in print.

All children must learn that "God's Country" was always right and never wrong; that we never enslaved human beings but only emancipated them magnanimously; and these children today by thousands spend precious time crawling under desks to train themselves to escape Russian bombs.

Our public school system is steadily deteriorating, and is inferior to the systems of leading civilized lands, so that the recruits for our world fighting are largely illiterate and incompetent. ~~Our colleges are filling with students who cannot properly read and write.~~ The glorious voice of Paul Robeson cannot be heard in America because he ~~loved~~ Russia; and ~~cannot be heard in Europe~~ because he knows America finds things to praise in

Any attempt on the part of the curious or the honest to get a more complete picture is stopped by threats, by loss of friends and social status, or loss of jobs if not by jail. We complain that we are not allowed to make investigation behind the Iron Curtain; yet last year when the Soviet Union invited 25 prominent American Liberals to attend a Peace Congress in Moscow, only ~~25~~ a few dared accept. To enforce and strengthen this compulsion comes the double-talk: General Clay of Georgia, (known favorably by Ilse Koch, who made lampshades of the skin of Jews) General Clay is now head of a "Freedom Crusade;" he has also just been elected director of Lehman Brothers, a firm which deals in foreign investment in Asia, Africa and the Caribbean and South America, and whose former partner, Senator Lehman is set to support all-out war to protect investment. Back of this freedom, lie the rich mineral resources of Korea, of which John Foster Dulles is not unaware.

has been denied a passport to be

But the greatest disaster to Truth and Peace is what we may call the Truman Run-around, a technique which engineered the Compromise of 1950 in reminisence of the Slavery Compromise of 1850 and allied to the old and new Missouri Compromise. The Truman Compromise is clever. Mr. Truman makes a statement on a policy; the statement avoids the double-talk of the older politicians and sounds like the frankness of Franklin Roosevelt. Then Truman arranges that any and all opponents of this policy shall have every facility to defeat it without fear of any enmity or reprisal on his part or his administration. After that Mr. Truman goes fishing.

The President is the only man in America who can by-pass the press and go directly to the people. His power of appointment and recognition is immense. Truman has deliberately refused to use his power to support his proposed legislation. No one suffers from opposing his program. With this technique, Mr. Truman has advocated and defeated Civil Rights, Anti-Lynching and Anti-Poll Tax, the FEPC, the Senate Closure, the Repeal of the Taft-Hartley act, our policy in China and Formosa, the differences between him and McArthur, and the McCarren Act. He comes out of each fray with justice defeated and the Truman prestige intact. There he stands today proudly for both Peace and War. His followers in the Democratic party and his Republican allies are united in deceiving the nation as to the world situation.

There is no threat of attack on America; there is no call for war nor for all-out preparation for war; we are not the envied of all people, but on the contrary are hated and feared by the majority of the decent citizens of civilized lands. The danger which does threaten us is that the world will increasingly repudiate the American methods of doing business; of exploiting cheap labor, of filching valuable raw material without fair return and attempting to use mankind for the bursting wealth of a few American millionaires. This danger , if you call it a danger, of increasing socialization of wealth and substitution of public welfare for private profit, is spreading over the world and in this nation too, despite the antics of the American Medical ~~Trade Union~~ Association. If you want to make this world tendency relizable quickly and widely, you must vote to oust from power the two old parties, who are owned and directed by the NAM and the Chambers of Commerce, and who are using the tactics of Hitler to paint a false picture of the world and the necessity of murdering and maiming another generation of our youth. Turn these advocates of war, poverty and taxation of the poor out of power and put the American Labor Party at the helm. We can prove to America that the World wants peace and that the current hysterics and witch-hunting is unworthy of a great people. And we can ward off the certain collapse of our industrial system which today depends on war and frantic preparation for war to keep us from an economic disaster worse than that of the thirties.

PROPAGANDA

Most Americans are puzzled at the state of mind in this nation today. ~~When~~ They try to explain it as the usual case of people coming to know the facts of the world situation and reacting accordingly with symptons of alarm and determination to repel evil at any cost. But this understandable reaction does not seem to explain our ~~the~~ situation adequately: there is no proof that the Soviet Union started or wanted the Korean War or furnished substantial aid to North Korea; there is no proof that the Soviets helped the Chinese drive out Chiang kai Shek; or is the cause of the war in Viet-Nam. ~~Many~~ Human much some suspect that these occurences are at least indirectly ~~if not directly~~ chargeable to the Soviets, ~~but~~ nothing that can fairly be called proof has ever been adduced. Puzzled folk then ask Why are we scared, who is about to attack us, and why should we arm ourselves to the teeth, ~~and~~ set out to convert our economy into the vastest war machine in history? ~~Will we ever?~~

The answer to this is that our present state of mind is not the usual development of fact into action, but a new and unusual situation in human history, requiring new education and understanding and a different set of efforts to emancipate our minds and calm our emotions. What we face today is not Truth, but deliberate distortion of Truth and feeling and consequent action based on a falsehood. The possibility of this arises from a relatively new development of Science , the meaning of which has not yet sifted down to public comprehension. All men today know what the Science of Physics has done to the world through the machine and how it has changed the whole course of our ~~thought and action~~ culture. We are beginning to see what Chemistry is doing to our every day ~~thought~~ life and our future plans. But few persons yet realize what the scientific study of our thought processes and emotions is doing, further to transfrom the world. We ~~get~~ began to get some inkling of this when at the dawn of the century the Public Relations man began to appear. We at first laughed at psychology in Labor relations and in publicity. I remember how I awoke when we wanted to hold the annual convention of the NAACP in Alanta. "But" said everybody, we can get no publicity in the Southern press. We hired a public relations man and got front page write-ups on the Atlanta Constitution. With the First World War, we began to use camouflage and propagnda: to make things look like what they were not, and to pursuade the public to do things they would not have done under ordinary circumstances. The sale of Liberty Bonds was put over in this way. But in these cases we were mainly concerned in revealing Truth and manipulating it to ends which we were convinced were justifiable. Here lay the strength of Franlin Roosevelt. Speaking straight to the people and ignoring press and platform he told the nation what the facts were and what they ought to do about them. The people believed him and put over the socialism of the New Deal in spite of the screams and curses of Big Business. To this day Big Business hates his memory

35-4-167

But even while Roosevelt was putting over this appael direct to the people with Truth and a program of action, in another part of the world a perverted psychopath Adolf Hitler, was usung propaganda with a reversal of technique and ~~another~~ a different object Hitler used the Lie instead of the Truth and made the people either believe it was true, or ~~be~~ got so scared that they dare not deny it. I ~~saw Germany~~ knew Germany in Youth and then saw it for five months in 1936, when the Hitler machine had gained its full impetus, ~~Germany~~ it was not the same land. believed the world was ~~her enemy; that~~ envious of her because she was the greatest people on earth; that traitors within were betraying her; that Russia must be conquered and that eventually Germany ~~would~~ was destined to rule the world. They believed this because they had to believe it: it was blazoned in every newspaper and magazine; blared from every radio and platform; and anyone who thought differently ~~even~~, much less voiced such thoughts was in danger of jail or worse. When people spoke ~~spook~~ to each other on the streets, they first glanced over their shoulder; and when they talked ~~free~~ freely, it was behind closed doors, with drwwn curtains and ~~with~~ lowered voices. And to me it is interesting that today in the United States there are the same symptoms. ~~xxxxxxxxxxxxxxxx~~ Yesterday in an elevator a prominent Republican told me he hoped I would be elected; but before saying it, he glanced about, lowered his voice and put his hand to my ear. In the United States today people are afraid to talk, afraid to listen, afraid to read anything but orthodox and certified propaganda. The reason for this is clear: organized business in the United States looks to foreign investment and trade as source of the wealth and power which they now exercise in the world ~~today~~ and expect to increase to all-embracing areas tomorrow. To convince the voters that this is necessary and advantageous to all, they have organized to control our chance to know the facts. They have bought up the magazines and newspapers; they control the radio: you cannot get a commentator on world news on the radio today unless he is selected and paid by a manufacturer of hair oil or cigarettes or some article ~~to make money~~ profit-making and unless this same business-man censors every word the commentator utters; our advertised "Town Halls" permit only one side to talk and pick a stooge to represent the opposition. Our world news gathers or with few exceptions, screen out and suppress news or slant it according to editorial direction. A new morality has griped our reporters and columnists: they write not what they think but what they are told to write and this is recognized newspaper ethics; just as ghost-writing for illiterate government officials and captains of industry is accepted as normal procedure without question. MY PLATFORM

by

W. E. B. DUBOIS

Politics

LIKE MOST MEN BORN AND BRED IN THE 19TH CENTURY, I HAVE ALWAYS THOUGHT POLITICS AS CAREER NECESSARY AND IN SOME WAY TO BE FOLLOWED, BUT NOT THE HIGHER SORT OF WORK WHICH A MAN WOULD VOLUNTARILY WANT TO DO. LARGELY THEN I AVOIDED POLITICS AND THIS IS THE FIRST TIME IN MY LIFE THAT I HAVE CONSENTED TO STAND FOR PUBLIC OFFICE. THIS IS BECAUSE IT BECOMES INCREASINGLY CLEAR TO ME THAT THE VERY RECOIL FROM PUBLIC DEFENSE AND PERSONAL ADVOCACY OF THAT WHICH ONE FEELS AND KNOWS IS RIGHT, IS THE REASON FOR THAT SURRENDER OF OUR GOVERNMENT TO MEN WHOSE PRIME INTEREST IS NOT SOCIAL BUT PERSONAL; AND THE DISASTER OF SEEING REPEATEDLY A PEOPLE WHOSE GOVERNMENT DOES NOT REPRESENT EITHER ITS THOUGHT OR DESIRE.

MY STANDING FOR OFFICE THEN, FAR FROM BEING ANY MATTER OF PERSONAL AMBITION, IS RATHER PROOF THAT I AM WILLING TO FORGO MY PREFERENCE IN ORDER TO DISCUSS WITH THE PUBLIC THE SERIOUS OBJECTS OF PUBLIC LIFE AND ACTION. FOR TODAY CURIOUSLY ENOUGH, IT HAS BECOME SUDDENLY IMPOSSIBLE TO EXPRESS PUBLICLY WHAT ONE BELIEVES AND KNOWS, UNLESS ONE TAKES ADVANTAGE OF THE FEW CIVIL RIGHTS REMAINING TO US AND RUNS FOR OFFICE IN ORDER TO TALK FREELY WITHOUT GOING TO JAIL. WHAT I ASK AND PLEAD THEREFORE IN THIS CAMPAIGN, IS THAT YOU VOTE IN THE NEXT CAMPAIGN NOT SIMPLY FOR ME BUT FOR ME AS REPRESENTING THE PRINCIPLES WHICH I AM TRYING TO EMPHASIZE; WITH THE DEEP BELIEF THAT HOWEVER UNIMPORTANT I MAY BE, WHAT I AM SEEKING TO MAKE CLEAR AND STAND FOR IS OF THE UTMOST IMPORTANCE TO THE NEGRO RACE IN THE UNITED STATES AND THE FUTURE OF MANKIND. THE TWO PLANKS IN MY PLATFORM ON WHICH I PLACE SUCH FAITH AND EMPHASIS ARE THESE: PEACE AND CIVIL RIGHTS.

THERE IS THEORETICALLY NOTHING NEW NOR STARTLING IN THESE IDEAS. IN THE DAYS WHEN THIS NATION WAS STILL SANE AND FALTERING TOWARD DEMOCRACY, THE WONDER WAS THAT ANY MAN COULD STAND FOR WORLD WAR AND THE SLAVE STATE. TODAY THIS IS WHAT WE ADVOCATE BY APPARENTLY SUCH OVERWHELMING MAJORITY THAT ANY ADVOCATE OF PEACE IS IN DANGER OF ASSAULT BY MOB AND POLICE AND OUR JAILS ARE INCRESSINGLY FILLING WITH MEN OF EDUCATION AND CONSCIENCE ACCUSED OF NO CRIMINAL ACTS BUT ONLY OF UNPOPULAR THOUGHTS AND ACTION.

Our slow BUT STEADY DESCENT INTO BELIEF IN COMPLETE AND UNIVERSAL WAR AND OUR DETERMINATION TO MAKE MEN THINK WHAT WE BELIEVE IS TRUE, RATHER THAN WHAT THEY IN THEIR FREE AMERICAN HERITAGE REGARD AS TRUTH--THIS LITERAL DESCENT INTO HELL IN OUR DAY AND IN THIS OUR OWN COUNTRY, HAS BEEN SO GRADUAL AND COMPLETE THAT MANY HONEST AMERICANS CANNOT BELIEVE WHAT THEY ACTUALLY HEAR AND SEE: AND SIT BEWILDERED, RUBBING THEIR EYES IN ORDER TO GET SOME VAGUE CONCEPTION OF WHAT CAN HAVE HAPPENED TO THE LAND WHICH ONCE DECLARED "THESE TRUTHS TO BE SELF EVIDENT: THAT ALL MEN WERE CREATED EQUAL: THAT THEY WERE ENDOWED BY THEIR CREATOR WITH CERTAIN UNALIENABLE RIGHTS: THAT AMONG THESE ARE LIFE, LIBERTY AND THE PURSUIT OF HAPPINESS." NO AMERICAN BORN BEFORE 1900, COULD POSSIBLE CONCEIVE THAT THE UNITED STATES WOULD BE A LAND APPROACHING UNIVERSAL MILITARY SERVICE: WITH ITS ARMED FORCES IN EVERY CONTINENT AND ON EVERY SEA, PLEDGED TO CONQUER AND CONTROL MASSES OF MANKIND, ORDER THE THOUGHT AND ACTION AND BELIEF OF THE NATIONS OF THE WORLD AND READY TO SPEND FOR THESE OBJECTS MORE MONEY THAN IT EVER SPENT

FOR RELIGION, EDUCATION OR SOCIAL UPLIFT ALTOGETHER.

WHEN MEN ARISE AND SAY THIS AND TRY TO PROVE ITS TRUTH, EVERY EFFORT IS MADE BY SECRET POLICE, ORGANIZED SPIES AND HIRED INFORMERS: BY DELIBERABE SUBVERSION OF THE FUNDAMANTAL PRINCIPLES OF OUR LAW, TO IMPRISON MALTREAT, SLANDER AND SILENCE SUCH PERSONS, AND DEPRIVE THEM OF EARNING AN HONEST LIVELIHOOD.

AVOIDING ALL HYSTERIA AND EXAGGERATION, ALL NATURAL INDIGNATION AND INSTINCTIVE DEFENSE OF THE RIGHT OF FREE SPEECH AND HATRED OF THOUGHT CONTROL, IT IS CLEAR TO ALL AMERICANS WHO STILL DARE THINK, THAT MY DESCRIPTION OF THIS AMERICA IS TRUE AND IF TRUE FRIGHTENING TO ALL MEN WHO ONCE THOUGHT OF THIS LAND AS THE LAND OF THE FREE.

MY PLATFORM THEN, LIKE THE PLATFORM OF EVERY HONEST AMERICAN WHO STIL BELIEVES IN PEACE AND FREEDOM, TAKES ITS UNALTERABLE STAND AGAINST WAR AND SLAVERY. IT WARNS ALL THINKING MEN THAT THE CAUSE OF OUR PRESENT

FAILURE AND DISGRACE IS SIMPLE AND SHEER INSANITY. WE HAVE KNOWN INDIVIDUALS TO GO CRAZY. WE HAVE LONG VIEWED THIS AS UNFORTUNATE DISEASE, OR ILLUSION FOSTERED BY MANS' OWN WEAKNESS OR BY THE WICKED PLOTS OF HIS ENEMIES. WE ARE LEARNING ALL TOO SLOWLY HOW TO COPE WITH AND CURE THE INDIVIDUALLY INSANE. BUT MASS INSANITY IS A NEWER THING: TO BE SURE WE HAVE EXPERIENCED IT IN THE RACE HATE OF THE SOUTH, WHICH WE INCREASINGLY RECOGNIZE AS DISTORTED MENTALITY RATHER THAN DELIBERATE WILL TO HARM: AND WHILE THIS DAWNING COMPREHENSION OF ONE OF THE NASTIEST BLOTS ON OUR CULTURE HAS NOT YET CURED IT, IT HAS AT LEAST LET US SEE OUR WAY AND BEGIN TO PLAN THE LONG UP-BUILDING FUTURE. BUT BEFORE WE ARE WELL-STARTED ON THIS PATH TO GOODNESS AND TRUTH, THERE COMES AN INSANITY, A WILD AND CRUEL MADNESS, WHICH ENGULFS THE WORLD, HURLS US INTO PLANNED AND HORRIBLE MURDER CALLS TO ITS ENDS EVERY INGENUITY OF SCIENCE AND EVEN SETS AT ITS HEAD FOLLOWERS OF THAT PRINCE OF PEACE, WHO, [illegible] OUT OF DEGRADATION AND POVERTY TO A WORLD FAR LESS GUILTY THAN OURS, TODAY CRY TO US A DISTORTION OF HIS WORDS: "COME UNTO ME ALL THEM THAT LABOR AND ARE HEAVY LADEN AND I WILL GIVE YOU [illegible]"

THE CIVILIZED WORLD TODAY, NEAR 2000 YEARS AFTER THE BIRTH OF CHRISTIANITY NOT MENTIONING THOSE OLDER AND YOUNGER FAITHS, WITH THEIR HIGH HOPES OF REASON AND LOVE OF HUMANITY--THIS WORLD TODAY WITH ALL ITS TRIUMPHS WHICH ONCE WE GREETED WITH SHRIEKS OF JOY--THIS WORLD HAS GONE CRAZY, AS NO SANE MAN CAN FOR A MOMENT DENY.

BUT WE CAN PAUSE AND RESTING A MINUTE FROM OUR ATOM BOMBS, OUR HYDROGEN HORROR, OUR PROPAGANDA OF DISEASE OF BODY AND MIND, OUR MAD DESTRUCTION AND WILD WASTE OF THE WAGES OF THE POOR--PAUSE AND ASK IN THIS ELECTION SEASON: WHY? FOR GODS' SAKE, WHY? WHAT ARE WE YELLING ABOUT? OF WHAT ARE WE IN DEATHLY FEAR? HAVE WE BEEN INVADED? HAS ANYONE DROPPED AN ATOM BOMB ON US? HAVE WE BEEN IMPOVERISHED OR ENSLAVED BY FOREIGNERS?

IS OUR BUSINESS FAILING AND OUR MIL ICNAIRES DISAPPEARING? HAS THE RATE OF PROFIT GONE DOWN, IS OUR MACHINERY LESS CUNNING OR OUR NATURAL RESOURSES DESTROYED BY STRANGERS? IS THERE ANY SIGN THAT THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA IS VICTIM OR CAN BE VICTIM OF ANY FOREIGN POWER. NO ! THEN OF WHAT ARE WE AFRAID AND WHY ARE WE TRYING TO GUARD THE EARTH FROM PACIFIC TO ATALNTIC AND FROM THE NORTH TO THE SOUTH POLE?, UNLESS IT IS FROM OURSELVES.

An Idea

WE ARE SCARED OF AN IDEA: WE ARE TEMPTED BY A VISION OF POWER WHICH LONG MISLED AND SLAUGHTERED THE PEOPLES OF EUROPE ND ASIA, AND NOW INSIDIOUSLY CREEPS INTO OUR FEVER-MAD HEADS. AND THAT IS IMPERIALISM--WORLD RULE OVER THE WORLD. ONCE IT WAS SOUGHT BY BLACK SLAVERY: THEN IT WAS MADE EASY BY YELLOW COOLIES: THEN IT WAS THE "LESSER BREEDS WITHOUT THE LAW", WHO COULD FURNISH A WHITE MAN'S BURDEN AND LET HIM STRUT OVER THE WORLD AND LORD IT IN ASIA AND AFRICA AND RULE AND RULE, WORLD WITHOUT END, FOREVER AND FOREVER. THAT WAS THE VISION OF THE 19th CENTURY. THE FEVER OF IMPERIALISM CAUGHT THE UNITED STATES AS THE 19th CENTURY DIED AND WE

35-4-573

CHOKED A FEW ISLANDS OUT OF DYING SPAIN. BUT THESE WERE BUT SMALL CHANGE WHICH WHETTED OUR APPETITE. WITH THE FIRST WORLD WAR CAME THE VISION OF AN IMPERIAL UNITED STATES AS SUCCESSOR OF THE EMPIRE ON WHICH THE SUN ALREADY SETS. WE RUSHED SO MADLY AT THE SPOILS LEFT BY EUROPEAN EMPIRES THAT WE BROUGHT DOWN OUR WHOLE INDUSTRIAL SYSTEM ABOUT OUR OWN EARS.

Depression

IT WOULD SEEM THAT THE MEMORY OF THE GREAT DEPRESSION OF THE THIRTIES WOULD CONVINCE ALL THINKING MEN THAT WAR IS NOT THE PATH TO THE MILLENIUM AND THAT WHAT WE NEED IS REFORM OF OUR OWN SYSTEM OF WORK AND INDUSTRIAL ORGANIZATION, BEFORE WE ATTEMPT TO TEACH THE WORLD WHAT TO THINK OR HOW TO LIVE. INSTEAD OF THAT, WE WERE CONVINCED THAT THE PATH FORWARD WAS BACKWARD TO THE IMPERIALISM WHICH HAD JUST FAILED IN EUROPE AND CAUSED THE WORST MODERN CATASTROPHE WHICH WAS THE FIRST WORLD WAR. THE MEN WHO CONTROLLED THIS NATION, THROUGH OWNERSHIP OF CAPITAL, CONTROL OF NATURAL RESOURSES NOW ADDED THE VAST POWER OF A PRESS, AND RADIO MONOPOLIZED BY ORGANIZED WEALTH TO CONVINCE AMERICANS THAT RESTORATION OF PEACE AND PROSPERITY DEPENDED ON OUR MASTERY OF THE CHEAP LABOR AND NECESSARY RAW MATERIAL OF THE WORLD AND THE DIRECTION OF INDUSTRY IN AFRICA, ASIA AND THE ISLANDS OF THE SEAS IN ACCORD WITH OUR SYSTEM OF ECONOMIC ORGANIZATION.

Socialism

BUT WHAT WE IGNORED IN OUR THINKING WAS NOT ONLY THAT THE INDUSTRIAL SYSTEM WHICH WE WERE SEEKING TO RE-INSTALL HAD ALREADY MET A TERRIBLE AND COSTLY REVERSE: THAT MODIFICATIONS OF IMPERIALISM AND MONOPOLY CAPITALISM HAD ALREADY BEEN SUGGESTED AND TRIED. SUCH EFFORTS OF VARYING KINDS AND COMPREHENDED LOOSELY BY THE NAME "SOCIALISM", WERE NOT INVENTED BY RUSSIA NOR FIRST TRIED BY RUSSIA. ON THE CONTRARY, SOCIALISM IS AN ENGLISH, FRENCH AND GERMAN CONCEPTION AND WAS FIRST ~~TRIED IN~~ actually established in RUSSIA BECAUSE THAT UNHAPPY LAND WAS ONE OF THE WORST VICTIMS OF THE CAPITALIST SYSTEM.

35-4-572

IF TOMORROW RUSSIA DISAPPEARED FROM THE FACE OF THE EARTH, THE BASIC PROBLEM FACING THE MODERN WORLD WOULD REMAIN: AND THAT IS: WHY IS IT, WITH THE EARTH'S ABUNDANCE AND OUR MASTERY OF NATURAL FORCES, AND MIRACULOUS

45-4-27

TECHNIQUE: WITH INDUSTRY BELTING THE EARTH AND GOODS AND SERVICES POURING FROM OUR STORES, FACTORIES, SHIPS AND WAREHOUSES: WHY IS IT THAT NEVERTHELESS MOST HUMAN BEINGS ARE STARVING TO DEATH, DYING OF PREVENTABLE DISEASE AND TOO IGNORANT TO KNOW WHAT IS THE MATTER: WHILE A SMALL MINORITY ARE SO RICH THAT THEY CANNOT SPEND THEIR INCOME.

Comfort for all

THAT IS THE PROBLEM WHICH FACES THE WORLD, AND RUSSIA WAS NOT THE FIRST TO POSE IT, NOR WILL SHE BE THE LAST TO ASK AND DEMAND ANSWER. THE 19th CENTURY SAID THAT THIS SITUATION WAS INEVITABLE AND MUST ALWAYS REMAIN BECAUSE OF THE NATURAL INFERIORITY OF MOST MEN. THE 20th CENTURY KNOWS BETTER. IT SAYS THAT THERE IS FOOD ENOUGH FOR ALL: THAT CLOTHES AND SHELTER FOR ALL CAN BE PROVIDED: THAT MOST DISEASE IS PREVENTABLE AND THAT THE OVERWHELMING MASS OF HUMAN BEINGS CAN BE EDUCATED. THAT INTELLIGENCE HEALTH AND DECENT COMFORT ARE NOT ONLY POSSIBLE BUT SHOULD BE DEMANDED

BY ALL MEN, PLANNED BY ALL STATES AND MADE INCREASINGLY EFFECTIVE BY ALL VOTERS IN EACH ELECTION.

[illegible] THE POWERFUL WHO TODAY OWN THE EARTH AND THE FULNESS THEREOF: WHO MONOPOLIZE ITS INDUSTRY AND OWN ITS PRESS AND SCREEN ITS NEWS, HAVE ANOTHER ANSWER: THEY ORDER US TO FIGHT AN IDEA: TO "CONTAIN" AND CRUSH ANY DREAM OF ABOLISHING POVERTY, DISEASE AND IGNORANCE: AND TO DO THIS BY ORGANIZING WAR, MURDER AND DESTRUCTION ON ANY PEOPLE WHO DARE TO PLAN PLENTY FOR ALL MANKIND. FROM THE 19th CENTURY THEY ATTEMPT TO TAKE OVER IMPERIALISM TO BRIBE THE WORKERS AND THINKERS OF THE MOST POWERFUL COUNTRIES BY HIGH WAGE AND PRIVILEGE TO BUILD A FALSE AND DISHONEST PROSPERITY ON THE SLAVERY AND DEGRADATION---THE LOW WAGE AND DISEASE OF AFRICA AND ASIA AND THE ISLANDS OF THE SEA, AND TO PAY FOR THIS OFFER THEIR OWN SONS AND DAUGHTERS IN ENDLESS STREAM TO BE MURDERED AND MAIMED IN ENDLESS WARS, SO THAT THE PROFITS OF EUROPEAN AND AMERICAN BUSINESS MAY MOUNT TO FABULOUS SUMS: SO THAT TAXATION MAY BE LAID ON WASHERWOMEN AND LABORERS: ON CLERKS AND STENOGRAPHERS,

WHILE MILLIONAIRES AND RICH CORPORATIONS GO FREE. THIS IS WHY WE ARE FIGHTING OR PREPARING TO FIGHT IN EUROPE, ASIA AND AFRICA---NOT AGAINST THE COUNTRY, BUT AGAINST THE IDEA--AGAINST THE RISING DEMAND OF THE WORKING CLASSES OF THE WORLD FOR BETTER WAGE, DECENT HOUSING, REGULAR EMPLOYMENT, MEDICAL SERVICE AND SCHOOLS FOR ALL.

IT DOES NOT ANSWER THIS WORLD-WIDE DEMAND TO SAY THAT WE OF AMERICA HAVE THESE THINGS IN GREATER ABUNDANCE THAN THE REST OF THE WORLD, IF OUR PROSPERITY IS BASED OR SEEKS TO BASE ITSELF ON THE EXPLOITATION AND DEGRADATION OF THE REST OF MANKIND. REMEMBER IT IS AMERICAN MONEY THAT OWNS MORE AND MORE OF SOUTH AFRICAN MINES WORKED BY SLAVE LABOR: IT IS AMERICAN ENTERPRISE THAT FATTENS OFF OF RHODESIAN COPPER AND NIGERIAN TIN: IT IS AMERICAN INVESTORS THAT SEEK TO DOMINATE CHINA, INDIA, KOREA AND BURMA: THAT ARE THROTTLING THE STARVED WORKERS OF THE NEAR EAST.

WE WERE AT WAR YESTERDAY: WE ARE AT WAR TODAY: WE WILL BE AT WAR TOMORROW BECAUSE BIG BUSINESS WANTS WAR AND BUILDS ITS PROFITS, DIRECT AND INDIRECT ON WAR, ON THE ATTEMPT TO MURDER ALL WHO WANT PEACE AND ABUNDANCE.

World Conquest

YET IS IT NOT CLEAR THAT SUCH A PROGRAMSIS SHEER INSANITY? THAT NO NATION, HOWEVER RICH AND SMART CAN CONQUER THIS WORLD. HAVE NOT EGYPT ASSYRIA, GREECE, ROME AND BRITAIN TAUGHT US THIS? AND TO THAT NO IDEA BASED ON TRUTH AND RIGHTEOUSNESS CAN ULTIMATELY BE SUPPRESSED BY FORCE AND MURDER?

36-4-569

THE WORLD WANTS PEACE. IT MUST HAVE PEACE OR CIVILIZATION WILL DIE. EVERYTHING THAT WAR BY ANY IMAGINATION COULD POSSIBLE GAIN FOR MANKIND HAS BEEN SOUGHT BY THREE WARS OF SUCH COLLOSAL DEATH, COST AND DESTRUCTION THAT EVERY SANE SOUL IS SIMPLY APPALLED BY THE RESULT. YET WE ARE NOT ONLY ARMING FOR MORE AND GREATER WAR BUT DRIVEN BY THE FURIES ARE TRYING TO SHUT THE MOUTHS AND STIFL THE CONSCIENCES OF ALL OR ANY WHO DARE SPEAK FOR PEACE.

Civil Rights

TO FIGHT THIS OVERTHROWING AND NEGATION OF THE BILL OF RIGHTS IS THE SECOND PLANK OF MY PLATFORM. I NEVER THOUGHT I WOULD LIVE TO SEE THE DAY THAT FREE SPEECH AND FREEDOM OF OPINION WOULD BE SO THROTTLED IN THE UNITED STATES AS IT IS TODAY. TODAY IN THIS FREE COUNTRY, NO MAN CAN BE SURE OF EARNING A LIVING, OF ESCAPING SLANDER AND PERSONAL VIOLENCE: OR EVEN OF KEEPING OUT OF JAIL UNLESS PUBLICLY AND REPEATEDLY HE PROCLAIMS:

> THAT HE HATES RUSSIA
> THAT HE OPPOSES SOCIALISM AND COMMUNISM
> THAT HE SUPPORTS WHOLEHEARTEDLY THE WAR IN KOREA
> THAT HE IS READY TO SPEND ANY AMOUNT OF THE NATIONS RESOURSES FOR FURTHER WAR ANYWHERE OR AT ANYTIME
> THAT HE IS READY TO FIGHT THE SOVIET UNION, CHINA AND ANY OTHER COUNTRY.
> THAT HE BELIEVES IN THE USE OF THE ATOM BOMB OR ANY OTHER WEAPON OF MASS DESTRUCTION AND REGARDS ANYONE WHO IS OPPOSED AS A TRAITOR

45-4-25

45-4-23

THAT HE IS WILLING THAT ALL SUCH PERSONS SHOULD LOSE THEIR JOBS AND BE IMPRISONED BY EXECUTIVE ACTION AND EVEN WITHOUT TRIAL BY JURY.

Regular Vote

THEREIN STATEMENT OF THIS CREED SHOWS ITS ABSOLUTE INSANITY. WHAT CANB BE DONE TO BRING THIS NATION TO ITS SENSES? MOST PEOPLE ANSWER: NOTHING: JUST SIT STILL: BEND TO THE STORM: IF NECESSARY, LIE AND JOIN THE WITCH-HUNT SWEAR TO GOD THAT NEVER, NEVER DID YOU EVEN SYMPATHIZE WITH THE RUSSIAN PESANTS RIGHT TO BE FREE: THAT YOU NEVER IN YOUR LIFE BELONGED TO A LIBERAL ORGANIZATION OR HAD A FRIEND WHO DID: AND IF SO, YOU WERE DECEIVED, DELUDED AND A DAMNED FOOL.

BUT THERE ARE OTHERS WHO SAY: WE CAN DO SOMETHING: THAT AMERICA NEEDS NO COWARDS AND LIARS. IT NEEDS HONEST MEN AND THAT HONEST CITIZENS WHO ARE MISTAKEN ARE INFINITELY MORE PATRIOTIC THAN SCOUNDRELS WHO FOLLOW THE HERD. WE STILL HAVE ELECTIONS AND WE STILL HAVE A SECRET BALLOT. IF Y U DO NOT WANT WAR. YOU HAVE THE RIGHT AND OPPORTUNITY TO SAY SO AND NO ONE NEED KNOW HOW YOU HAVE VOTED. IF YOU WANT THE BILL OF RIGHTS RESTORED

The Daily to Vote

TO THE CONSTITUTION YOU HAVE THE LEGAL RIGHTTO SAY SO AND SO SECRETLY. IN THIS DEMOCRACY, YOU STILL RETAIN THE RIGHT TO HELP ELECT YOUR LAWMAKERS AND EXECUTIVES. IF Y U FAIL TO EXERCISE THIS RIGHT, YOU WILL SUFFER AND OUGHT TO SUFFER. TODAY THE VAST MAJORITY OF THE AMERICAN PEOPLE DO NOT WANT WAR. MOST AMERICANS HATE THE CURRENT WITCHHUNT. THE ONLY WAY TO OPPOSE WAR AND THE DEATH OF CIVIL LIBERTY IS TO ELECT OFFICIALS WHO AGREE WITH YOU.

35-4-574

THE PRESENT SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES IS A WAR MAKING BODY AND A BODY HISTILE TO CIVIL LIBERTIES NOT ONLY IN THE SOUTH BUT IN THIS STATE. YOU HAVE A RIGHT IN NOVEMBER TO HELP CHANGE THE COMPOSITION OF THE SENATE. THE PRESENT SENIOR SENATOR FROM NEW YORK IS A RESPECTABLE BANKER. HE HAS OFTEN AS GOVERNOR AND SENATOR VOTED FOR THE RIGHT. I VOTED FOR HIM LAST YEAR. BUT THIS YEAR THE WHOLE PICTURE OF THE WORLD HAS CHANGED AND SENATOR LEHMAN HAS SUPPORTED OUR WAR PROGRAM AND THE INVASION OF OUR CIVIL LIBERTIES.

AS REPRESENTATIVE OF FINANCE AND INVESTING INTERESTS HE COULD HARDLY DO OTHERWISE. REMEMBER WHAT MODERN INVESTMENT IS: IT IS NOT AS IT ONCE WAS THE LOANING OF YOUR SAVING TO HELP AN ENTERPRISE WHICH YOU KNEW ABOUT AND FOLLOWED: IT IS CONTROLL OF GOODS AND LABOR OVER VAST AREAS AND UNDER CONDITIONS OF WHICH YOU NEITHER KNOW NOR CARE: IT MAY AND OFTEN DOES INVOLVE SLAVERY AND DISEASE, IGNORANCE AND CRUELTY: IT MAY DRIVE WAGES DOWN TO STARVATION, DECIMATE AND RUIN FAMILY AND GROUP LIFE: IT MAY TURN VAST AREAS FROM HAPPY PRIMITIVE LIFE TO CENTERS OF CRIME AND HORROR: BUT IF IT EARNS A PROFIT: IF IT DOES NOT TRANGRESS THE LAWS OF THE COUNTRY WHERE THE INVESTORS LIVE AND LARGELY MAKE THE LAW, THEN IT IS LEGAL, LEGITIMATE AND RESPECTABLE. THIS HAS BEEN THE HISTORY OF MODERN FINANCE AND INVESTMENT ALL OVER THE WORLD. ITS PATH IS MARKED BY BLOOD, WAR IGNORANCE AND THE SUBJECTION OF MOST OF THE PEOPLES OF THE WORLD TO THE COMFORT AND CONVENIENCE OF THE FEW.

THE FIGHT TO CURB UNCONTROLLED INVESTMENT AND EXPLOITATION HAS LONG BEEN AND DIFFICULT BUT HAS HAD MUCH SUCCESS. BUT TODAY AND IN AMERICA IT IS FAILING AND RESULTING IN A PROGRAM OF WORLD WAR. THE OVERWHELMING INFLUENCE AND REPRESENTATION OF FINANCE CAPITAL IN OUR LEGISLATURES, IN THE EXECUTIVE AND ESPECIALLY IN THE SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES MUST BE CURBED AND IMMEDIATELY. IT IS TIME THAT SENATOR LEHMAN BE REPLACED BY A MAN WHO IS OPPOSED TO WAR AND WILLING TO FIGHT FOR CIVIL LIBERTIES NOT SIMPLY FOR CORPORATIONS BUT FOR THE MASS OF WORKING MAN AND WOMEN.

IT HAS BEEN INTIMATED HOWEVER, THAT MY CANDIDACY IS DESIGNED NOT REALLY TO REPLACE SENATOR LEHMAN BY A MAN WILLING TO FIGHT FOR PEACE AND CIVIL RIGHTS, BUT RATHER TO ELECT AS SENATOR A MAN EVEN LESS QUALIFIED AND LESS WILLING TO REPRESENT PROGRESSIVE THOUGHT THAN MR. LEHMAN. SO FAR AS I AM CONCERNED PERSONALLY, I HAVE BUT ONE OBJECT IN THIS CAMPAIGN AND THAT IS TO WIN THE ELECTION. IN A LONG LIFE I NEVER HAVE AND NEVER EXPECT TO ACT AS

STOOL PIGEON FOR ANY MAN OR PARTY. I SHALL NOT BEGIN NOW. I K OW THAT EVERY THIRD PARTY MOVEMENT MEETS SUCH ACCUSATIO S, WHICH IF HEEDED WOULD MAKE PROGRESS IMPOSSIBLE. EVERY TIME YOU SUGG ST VOTING AGAINST A DOMINANT PARTY OR A PRESENT OFFICIAL, YOU ARE MET BY THE PREDICTION THAT Y U ARE BOUND TO FAIL. UPON THIS FEAR AND RISK, THE OLD PARTIES RELY TO HOLD THEIR GRAFT AND POWER. TODAY IN THIS STATE AND IN THE NATION THE D MOCRATIC AND REPUBLICAN PARTIES STAND FOR ONE AND THE SAME THING: WAR AND THE SLAVE STATE. THEY CANNOT EVEN PHRASE PLATFORMS THAT SOUND DIFFERENT. THEY CAN ONLY PROMISE TO DO WHAT THE OTHER IS DOING BETTER---OR WORSE. THE NATION FACED THE SAME PREDICAMENT AND PROPHECY IN THE SLAVERY CONTROVERSY A CENTURY AGO. YOU MUST VOTE DEMOCRATIC OR WHIG, BECAUSE THE FREE SOIL PARTY HAD NO CHANCE: BECAUSE IF YOU FAILED TO VOTE FOR A D MOCRAT YOU H LP EL CT A WHIG. BUT THAT WAS NOT TRUE AS THE EVENTUAL TRIUMPH OF ABRAHAM LINCOLN PROVED. EVERY DEFEAT OF A CANDIDATE FOR A FREE COUNTRY DID NOT MEAN DEFEAT FOR WHAT HE STANDS FOR.

EVEN IF I BE DEFEATED FOR SENATOR, THE VOTE FOR ME WOULD STILL BE A VOTE FOR CIVIL RIGHTS AND AGAINST WAR AND EVENTUALLY THIS PROGRAM MUST WIN. IF IT WINS THIS NOVEMBER SO MUCH THE BETTER, BUT IF IT WINS 10 YEARS FROM TODAY THAT VICTORY MUST BEGIN NOW.

IT IS THE PROGRAM AND NOT THE MAN FOR WHICH YOU VOTE. THE ONLY ASSURANCE Y U HAVE IS THAT IF I AM ELECTED TO THE SENATE, NO POWER IN HELL, EARTH NOR HEAVEN WILL KEEP MY MOUTH FROM SPEAKING AND VOTING WHAT I CONCEIVE IS THE TRUTH AND RIGHT.

MY PLATFORM

Like most men born and bred in the 19th century, I have always thought ~~that~~ ~~while~~ politics ~~is a~~ as career necessary ~~evil which must~~ and in some way be followed ~~through~~ voluntarily but ~~that it was~~ not the higher sort of work which a man would want to do. Largely then I ~~have~~ avoided politics and this is the first time in my life that I have consented to stand for public office. This because it ~~is~~ becomes increasingly clear to me that ~~this~~ the very recoil from public defense and personal advocacy of that which one feels and knows is right, is the ~~very cause of~~ reason for that surrender of our government to men whose prime interest is not social but personal; and the disaster of seeing repeatedly a people whose government does not represent either its thought or desire.

My standing for office then far from being any matter of personal ambition, is rather proof that I am willing to forgo my ~~wish in order~~ preference to discuss with the public the serious objects of public life and action. For today curiously enough, it has become suddenly impossible to express publicly what one believes and knows, unless one takes advantage of the few civil rights remaining to us and runs for office in order to talk freely without going to jail What I ask and plead therefor in this ~~for me bizarre and unreal~~ campaign, is that you vote in the next campaign not for me but ~~for~~ the principles which I am trying to ~~emphasize~~; with the deep belief that however ~~small and~~ unimportant I may be, what I am seeking to make clear and stand for is of the utmost importance to the United States and the future of mankind. ~~The~~ Of the two ~~plan~~ planks in my platform on which I place such faith and emphasis are these:

PEACE AND CIVIL RIGHTS

There is theoretically nothing new nor startling in these ideas. In the days when this nation was still sane and ~~reasonably striving~~ gallivanting toward democracy, the wonder ~~would be~~ was that at any man ~~who~~ could stand for world war and the slave state. ~~But~~ this is what we ~~do~~ advocate today by apparently such overwhelming majority that any advocate of peace is in danger of assault by mob and police and our jails are increasingly filling with men of education and conscience once accused of no criminal acts but only of unpopular thoughts or action

Our slow but steady descent into belief in complete and universal war and our determination to make ~~it~~ men think what we believe is true, rather than what they in their free American heritage regard as truth -- this literal descent to hell in our day and in this our own country, has been so gradual and complete that many honest Americans cannot believe what they actually hear and see; and sit bewildered, rubbing their eyes in order to get some vague conception of what can have happened to the land which once declared "these truths to be self evident; that all men were created equal; that they were endowed by their creator with certain unalienable rights; that among these are Life, Liberty and the pursuit of happiness." No ~~man born before 1900~~ American born before 1900, could possibly conceive that the United States would be a land ~~of~~ approaching universal military service; with its armed forces in every continent and on every sea, pledged to conquer and control mankind, order the thought and action and belief of the nations of the world and ~~plan~~ ready to spend for this object more money than it ever spent for religion, education or social uplift ~~or moral reform~~ all together And When men arise and say this and try to prove its ~~literal~~ truth, every effort is made by secret police, organized spies and hired informers; deliberate subversion of the fundamental principles of our ~~basic~~ law, to imperson maltreat, slander and silence such persons, and deprive them of earning an honest livehood.

Avoiding all hysteria and exaggeration, all natural indignation and ~~natural~~ instinctive defence of the right of free speech and hatred of thought control, it is clear to all Americans who still dare think, that my description of this America is true and if true frightening to all men who once thought of this land as the Land of the Free.

My platform then, like the platform of every honest American who still believes in peace and freedom, takes its unalterable stand against war and slavery It warns all thinking men that the cause of our present ~~unalterable~~ failure and disgrace is simple and sheer insanity. We have known individuals to go crazy. We have long viewed ~~it~~ this as unfortunate disease, or ~~as~~ illusion fostered by man's own weekness or by the wicked plots of his enemies. We are learning all too slowly how to cope with and cure the individually insane. But mass insanity is a newer thing; to be sure we have experienced it in the race hate of the South, which we increasingly recognize as distorted mentality rather than deliberate will to harm, and while the ~~dawning~~ dawning comprehension of one of the nastiest blots on our culture has not yet cured it, it has at least let us see our way and begin to plan the long up-building future. But before we are well-started on t this path to goodness and truth, there comes an insanity, a wild and cruel madness, which engulfs the world, hurls us into ~~insane~~, planned and horrible murder ~~which~~ calls to its ends every ingenuity of science and even sets at its head followers of that Prince of Peace, who once out of degradation and poverty ~~cried~~ today cry to us to a world far less guilty than ours, a distortion of His Words "Come unto me all them that labor and are heavy laden and I ~~will~~ will give you War."

That the civilized world today, ~~1950~~ near 2000 years after the birth of Christianity not mentioning those older and younger faiths, with their high ~~and all the battered~~ hopes of reason and love of humanity -- that this world today with all its triumphs which once we greeted with shrieks of joy-- that this world has gone ~~insane~~ crazy, no sane man can for a moment deny.

But he can pause and resting a minute from his atom bombs, his hydrogen horror, his propaganda of disease of body and mind, ~~his~~ his mad destruction and wild waste of the ~~funds~~ wages of the poor-- pause and ask in this election season, why, for Gods sake why? What are we yelling about? what are we in deathly fear of? Have we been invaded ~~by fiends~~? Has anyone dropped an atom bomb on us? Have we been impoverished or enslaved by foreigners? Is our business failing and our millionaires disappearing? Has the rate of profit gone down, is our machinery less cunning or our natural ressourses ~~being monopolized~~ destroyed by strangers? Is there any sign that the United States of America is victim or can be victim of any foreign power. No! Then what are we afraid of and why are we trying to guard the earth from Pacific to Atlantic and from the North to the South Pole? unless it is from ourselves.

We are scared of an idea; we are terrified by a vision of Power which long misled and slaughtered the peoples of Europe and Asia, and now insidiouslycreeps into our fever-mad heads. And that is Imperialism -- World Rule over the world. Once it was sought by black slavery; then it was made easy by yellow coolies; then it was the "Lesser Breeds without the law," who could furnish a White Mans's Burden and let him strut over the world and lord it in Asia and Africa and rule and rule, World without End, forever and forever. The fever of Imperialism caught the United States as the 19th century died and we choked a few islands out of dying Spain. ~~It was~~ but there were small change which whetted our appetite. ~~But~~ With the First World War came the vision of an imperial United States as sucessor of the Empire on which the Sun already sets. We rushed so madly at the spoils left by European empire that we ~~near~~ brought down our whole industrial system about our own ears

It would seem that the memory of the great depression of the thirties would convince all thinking men that War is not the path to the millenium and that what we need is reform of our own system of work and industrial organization before we attempt to teach the world what to think or how to live. Instead of that we were convinced that the path forward was backward to the imperialism which had just failed in Europe and caused the worst ~~first~~ modern catastrophe which was the First World War. The men who controlled this nation, through ownership of capital, control of natural resourses now added the vast ~~force~~ power of a press, and radio monopolized by organized wealth to convince Americans that restoration of peace and prosperity depended on our mastery of the cheap labor and necessay raw material

That was the Vision of the 19th Century of the world and the direction of industry in Africa, Asia and the islands of the seas in accord with our system of economic organization. But what we ignored in our thinking was not only that the industrial system which we were seeking to re-install had already met a terrible and costly reverse; but that modifications of imperialism and monopoly capitalism had already been suggested and tried. Such efforts of varying kinds and comprehended loosely by the name "Socialism", were not invented by Russia nor first tried by Russia On the contrary Socialism is an English, French and German conception and was first tried in Russia because that unhappy land was one of the worst victims of the capitalist system

35-4-154

If tomorrow Russia disappeared from the face of the earth, the basic problem facing the modern world would remain: and that is; Why is it, with the earth's abundance and our mastery of natural forces, and miraculous technique; with industry belting the earth and goods and services pouring from our stores, factories, ships and warehouses; with or at that nevertheless, most human beings are starving to death, dying of preventable disease and too ignorant to know what is the matter, while a small minority are so rich that they cannot spend their income That is the problem which faces the world, and Russia was not the first to pose it, nor will she be the last to ask and demand answer. The 19th century said that this situation was inevitable and must always remain because of the natural inferiority of most men. The 20th century knows better. It says that there is food enough for all; that clothes and shelter for all can be provided; that most disease is preventable and that the overwhelming mass of human beings can be educated. That intelligence, health and decent comfort are not only possible but should be demanded by all men, planned by all states and made increasingly effective by all voters in each election

But the powerful who today own the earth and the fulness thereof; who monopolyize its industry and own its press and screen its news, have another answer: they order us to fight an idea; to "contain" and crush any dream of abolishing poverty, disease and ignorance; and to do this by organizing war, murder and destruction on or for any people who dare to plan plenty for all mankind. From the 19th century they attempt to take over Imperialism to bribe the workers and thinkers of the most powerful countries by high wage and privilege to build a false and dishonest prosperity on the slavery and degradation-- the low wage and disease of Africa and Asia and the islands of the sea, and to lay for this to offer their own sons and daughters in endless stream to be murdered and maimed in endless wars, so that the profits of European and American business may mount to fabulous sums; so that stifling taxation may be laid on washerwomen and laborers; on clerks and stenographers, while millionaires and

Paris, Sept. 4, 1950

Dear Bonita:

Du Bois has been in attendance upon a student conference this Summer for four weeks. She is due here in Paris today or tomorrow. But although she has her return ticket to rich corporations go free. This is why we are fighting in Europe, Asia and Africa -- not against any country, but against an idea -- against the rising demand of the working classes of the world for better wage, decent housing, regular employment, medical service and schools for all. It does not answer this world-wide demand to say that we of America have these things in greater abundance than the rest of the world, if our prosperity is based or seeks to base itself on the exploitation and degradation of the rest of mankind. Remember it is American money that owns more and more of South African mines worked by slave labor; it is American enterprise that fattens off of Rhodesian copper and Nigerian tin; it is American investors that seek to dominate China, India , Korea and Burma; that are throttling the starved workers of the near East

We were at war yesterday; we are at war today; we will be at war tomorrow because Big Business wants war and builds its profits, direct and indirect on war, on the attempt to murder all who want Peace and Abundance. Yet is it not clear that such a program is sheer insanity? That no nation, however rich and smart can conquer this world? That no idea based on truth and righteousness can ultimately be suppressed by force and murder?

The world wants peace. It must have peace or civilization will die. Everything that war by any imagination could possibly gain for mankind has been sought by three wars of such collosal death, cost and destruction that every sane soul is simply appalled by the result. Yet we are not only arming for more and greater war but driven by the furies are trying to shut the mouths and stifle the consciences of all or any who dare speak for Peace.

This overthrowing and negation of the Bill of Rights is the second plank of my platform I never thought I would live to see the day that free speech and freedom of opinion would be so throttled in the United States as it is today. Today in this free country, no man can be sure of earning a living, of escaping slander and personal violence; or even of keeping out of jail unless publicly and repeatedly he proclaims

That he hates Russia
That he opposes socialism and communism
That he supports wholeheartedly the war in Korea
That he is ready to spend any amount of the nations resources for further war anywhere or at anytime
That he believes in the use of the Atom bomb or any other weapon of mass
That he is ready to fight the Soviet Union, China and any other country destruction and regards anyone who is opposed as a traitor

That he not only believes in and consents to all these things, but is willing to spy on his neighbors and denounce them if they do not believe and do as he does

That he is willing that all such persons should lose their jobs and be imprisoned by executive action and without trial by jury

35-4-156

The mere statement of this creed shows its absolute insanity. What can be done to bring this nation to its senses? Most people answer: Nothing; just sit still; bend to the storm; if necessary, lie and join the witch-hunt. Swear to God that never, never, did you sympathize with the Russian peasants fight to be free; that you never in your life belonged to a liberal organization or had a friend who did; and if so, you were deceived and deluded and a damned fool.

But there are others who say: We can do something; that America needs no more cowards and liars. It needs honest men and that honest citizens who are mistaken are infinitely more patriotic than scoundrels who follow the herd. We still have elections and we still have a secret ballot. If you do not want war. you have the right and opportunity to say so and no one need know how you voted. If you want the Bill of Rights restored to the Constitution you have the legal right to say so and say so secretly. In this democracy, you shall retain the right to help elect your lawmakers and executives. If you fail to exercise this right, you will suffer and ought to suffer Today the vast majority of the American people do not want war. Most Americans hate the current witchhunt. The only way to oppose war and the death of civil liberty is to elect officials who agree with you. The present Senate of the United States is a war-making body and a body hostile to civil liberties not only in the South but in this State. You have a right in November to help change the composition of the Senate The present senior Senator from New York is a respecgable banker. He has often as Governor and Senator voted for the right. I voted for him last yeaf. But this year the whole picture of the world has changed and Senator Lehman has supported our war program and the invasion of our civil liberties. As representative of finance and investing interests he could hardly do otherwise. Remember what modern investment is: it is not as it once was the loaning of your savings to help an enterprise which you knew about and followed; it is controll of goods and labor over vast areas and under conditions of which you neither know nor care; it may and often does involve slavery and disease, ignorance and cruelty; it may drive wages down to starvation, decimate and ruin family and group life; it may turn vast areas from happy primitive life to centers of crime and horror; but if it earns a profit; if it does not transgress the laws of the country where the investors live and largely make the law, then it is legal, legitimate and respectable. This has been the history of modern finance and investment all over the world. Its path is marked by blood, war, ignorance and the subjection of most of the peoples of the world to the comfort and convenience of the few

The fight to curb uncontrolled investment and exploitation has been long and difficult but has had much success. But today and in America it ~~has learned has failed and~~ is failing and resulting in a program of world war. The overwhelming influence and representation of finance capital in our legislatures, in the Executive and eapecially in the Senate of the U nited States must be curbed and immediately. It is time that Senator Lehman be replaced by a man who is oppoesd to war and willing to fight for civil liberties not simply for corporations but for the mass of working men and women

It has been intimated however, that my candidacy is designed not really to replace Senator Lehman by a man willing to fight for Peace and Civil Rights, but rather to ~~defeat the present~~ place as Senator Lehman by a man even less qualified and less willing to represent progressive thought. So far as I am concerned personally, I have but one object in this campaign and that is to win the election. In a long life I never have and never expect to act as stool pigeonfor any man or party. ~~But~~ I shall not begin now! I know that every third party movement meets such accusations, which if heeded would make progress impossible. Every time you suggest voting against a dominant party or a present official, you are met by the prediction that you are bound to fail. Upon this fear and risk, the old parties rely to hold their graft and power. Today in this state and in the nation the Democratic and Republican parties stand for one and the same thing: War and the Slave State. They cannot even phrase platforms that sound different. They can only promise to do what the other is doing better --or worse. The nation faced the same predicament and prophecy in the slavery controversy a century ago. You must vote Democratic or Whig, because the Free Soil party bhad now chance; because if you failed to vote for a Democrat you helped elct a whig. But that was not true as the eventual triunph of Abraham Lincoln proved. Ev ery defeat of a candidate for a free country did not mean defeat for for what he stands for.

~~Freedom nor triumph for Slavery.~~ Even if I be defeated for Senator, the vote for ~~he~~ me would still be a vote for Civil Rights and against War and eventually this program must win. It is the program and not the man for which you vote. The only assurance you have is that if I am elected to the Senate, no power in Hell, Earth nor Heaven will keep my mouth from speaking and voting what I conceive is the T ruth and Right

If it wins this November so much the better but if it wins 10 years from today that victory must begin now

As representative of finance and investing interests he could hardly do otherwise. Remember what modern investment is; it is not as it once was the loaning of your savings to help an enterprise which you knew about and watched. It is control of goods and labor over vast areas and under conditions of which you neither know nor care. It may and often does involve slavery and disease, ignorance and cruelty. It may drive wages down to starvation, decimate and ruin family and group life; it may turn vast areas from happy primitive life to centers of crime and horror. But if it earns a profit; if it does not transgress the laws of the country where the investors live and where they largely make the law, then it is legal, legitimate and respectable. This has been the history of modern finance and investment all over the world. Its path is marked by blood, war, ignorance and the subjection of most of the peoples of the world to the comfort and convenience and luxury of the few.

The fight to curb uncontrolled investment and exploitation has been long and difficult and has had much success. But today and in America it is failing and resulting in a program of World War. The overwhelming influence and representation of finance capital in our legislatures, in the executive and especially in the Senate of the United States must be curbed and curbed immediately. It is time that Senator Lehman be replaced by a man who is opposed to war and willing to fight for Civil Liberties and not simply for the liberty of Corporations but liberty for the mass of working men and women.

It has been intimated however, that my candidacy is designed not really to replace Senator Lehman by a man willing to fight for peace and civil rights, but rather to elect as Senator a man even less qualified and less willing to represent progressive thought than Mr. Lehman. So far as I am concerned personally, I have but one object in this campaign and that is to win th election.

In a long life I never have and never expect to act as stool pigeon for any man or party. I shall not begin now. I know that every third party movement meets such accusations, which if heeded would make progress impossible. Every time you suggest voting against a dominant party of a present Official, you are met by the prediction that you are bound to fail. Upon this fear and risk, the old parties rely to hold their graft and power.

Today in this state and in the nation the Democratic and Republican parties stand for one and the same thing: war and the slave state. They cannot even phrase platforms that sound different. They can only promise to do what the other is doing better ---- or worse. The nation faced the same predicament and prophecy in the slavery controversy a century ago. You must vote Democratic or Whig, because the Free Soil Party had no chance: because if you failed to vote for a Democrat you help elect a Whig. But that was not true as the eventual triumph of Abraham Lincoln proved. Every defeat of a candidate for a free country does not mean defeat for what he stands for.

Even if I be defeated for Senator, the vote for me would still be a vote for civil rights and against war and eventually this program must win. If it wins this November so much the better, but if it wins ten years from today that victory must begin now.

It is the program and not the man for which you vote. The only assurance you have is that if I am elected to the Senate, no power in Hell, Earth nor H eaven will keep my mouth from speaking and voting what I conceive is the truth and right.

Like most men born and bred in the 19th Century, I have always thought Politics as a career necessary but not the higher sort of work which a man would voluntarily ~~want to do~~. Largely then I avoided politics and this is the first time in my life that I have consented to stand for public office. This is because it becomes increasingly clear to me that this very recoil from ~~public advocacy of that which one feels and knows is right~~ is the reason for that surrender of our Government to men whose prime interest is not social but personal; and the disaster of seeing repeatedly a people, ~~whose~~ Government, does not represent its real interests.

My standing for office then, far from being any matter of personal ambition, is rather proof that I am willing to forego my preference in order to discuss with the public the serious objects of public life and action. For today curiously enough, it has become suddenly impossible to express publicly what one believes and knows unless one takes advantage of the few civil rights remaining to us and runs for office in order to talk freely without going to jail. What I ask and plead therefore in this campaign is that you vote not simply for me but for me as representing the principles which I am trying to emphasize; with the deep belief that however unimportant I may be, what I am seeking to make clear and stand for is of the utmost importance to the Negro race in the United States to the Whites and to the future of mankind.

My platform then, like the platform of every honest American who still dare believe in peace and freedom, takes its unalterable stand against war and slavery. It warns all thinking men that the cause of our present failure and disgrace is simple and sheer mass insanity. We have known individuals to go crazy. We have long viewed this as unfortunate disease, or illusion fostered by a man's own weakness or by the wicked plots of his enemies.

We are learning all too slowly how to cope with and cure the individually insane. But mass insanity is a newer thing. To be sure we have experienced it in the race hate of the South, which we increasingly recognize as distorted mentality rather than deliberate will to harm; and while this dawning comprehension of one of the nastiest blots on our culture has not yet cured it, it has at least let us see our way to begin to plan the long upbuilding future. But before we are well-started on this path to goodness and truth, there comes an insanity, a wild and cruel madness, which engulfs the world, hurls us into planned and horrible murder calls to its ends every ingenuity of science and even sets at its head followers of that prince of peace, who once out of degradation and poverty pled with a world far less guilty than ours; while we today give our world a distortion of his words and shriek:

"Come unto me all them that labor and are heavy-laden and I will give you war."

That the civilized world today, nearly 2000 years after the birth of Christianity not mentioning those older and younger faiths, with their high hopes of reason and love of humanity--that this world today with all its triumps which once we greeted with shouts of joy--that this world has gone crazy, no sane man can for a moment deny.

But he can pause and resting a minute from his Atom bombs, his Hydrogen horror, his propaganda of disease of body and mind, his mad destruction and wild waste of the wages of the poor--pause and ask in this election season Why? For God's sake, why? What are we yelling about? of what are we in such deathly fear?

The present Senate of the United States is a war-making body and a body hostile to Civil liberties not only in the South but in this State. You have a right in November to help change the composition of the Senate. The present Junior Senator from New York is a respectable man. He has often as Governor and Senator voted for the right. I voted for him last year. But this year the whole picture of the world has changed and Senator Lehman has supported our war program and openly condoned in some cases the invasion of our Civil Liberties.

As representative of finance and investing interests he could hardly do otherwise. Remember what modern investment is; it is not as it once was the loaning of your savings to help an enterprise which you knew about and watched. It is control of goods and labor over vast areas and under conditions of which you neither know nor care. It may and often does involve slavery and disease, ignorance and cruelty.
